DEPUTY COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE TO BE HERE FEBRUARY 19

According to a notice received today from the Dallas office of Internal Revenue, Deputy Collector C. I. Powell will be in our city at the Clarendon Hotel on February 15th from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. to render assistance with income tax problems to any who desire it. This will be the only visit that can be made to our city before the end of the current filing period on March 15, 1943.

This visit is being made purely through the courtesy of the Dallas office and not by a requirement of the law. The fact that hundreds of citizens will be making income tax returns for the first time, the Dallas office feels obliged to assist wherever possible. The Deputy's advice and assistance is extended purely as a courtesy and without cost to the citizens.

Remember the date—Monday, February 15th.

COFFEE FOR FOURTEENERS

The Donley County War Price and Rationing Board announced today that there has been quite a bit of confusion over the coffee rationing concerning those who have attained their 15th birthday since the registration. Up until a few days past those in this group were not allowed coffee, but according to the board, this ruling has been changed and all those who were 14 years of age at the time of registration can get their pound of coffee.

Deadline Set For B and C Card Renewal

Holders of supplemental and preferred "B" and "C" gasoline ration books whose books expire this month are urged by the Office of Price Administration to make their applications for renewal at once as it is highly important that ration boards have these applications before Feb. 15. A majority of the "B" and "C" books expire Feb. 22. Ration boards will have opportunity between the 15th and the 22nd to process the applications for renewal and mail out the new books of coupons. This will clear the desk of the ration boards for the big task involved in point rationing of processed foods which will follow immediately, and assure prompt service to motorists.

Applicants for gasoline ration renewal are not required to appear in person before a ration board. They may get the renewal form wherever the local board has made forms available, or it will be mailed to an applicant, and when filled out, may be mailed to the board. It must be accompanied by the tire inspection record, even though the tires have not been inspected. The tire inspection form will be mailed back to the applicant together with the ration issued.

Small Dairy Herds In War Goal

Farmers having small dairy herds can do much toward meeting Texas' 1943 milk production goal, but Uncle Sam needs more milk for the armed forces for shipment to our fighting allies, and to feed the people at home.

H. M. Breedlove, County Agent for the A&M College Extension Service, estimates that about ninety per cent of Texas' farms carry one to four cows each. They produce between 25 and 30 per cent of our milk.

Breedlove suggests that these herds can be made to produce more efficiently by increasing the number of cows. Small herd owners have an excellent opportunity this spring to obtain more good cows. Some large herds are likely to be reduced owing to the somewhat unfavorable feed and labor situations. Many good milkers can be picked up from these sources. He suggests also that production of the existing herds may be increased by heavier feeding. It is his opinion that adoption of these recommendations would not involve employment of more farm hands.

ALDERSON'S STUDIO BURGLARIZED

Sheriff Guy Wright announced this week the burglary of the Alderson Studio sometime Saturday night. The building was entered through a window in the rear and $15 cash was taken from the cash register. One outstanding clue found by the sheriff was a perfect heel imprint on the ground near the window.

From all indications, the job was done by local, inexperienced youths.

Mrs. W. A. Riney is issuing the last of the olive drab wool, which will go with another small shipment to armed forces with sweaters and gloves that were too late for the first shipment.

Gloves were issued to Mrs. Hattie Palmer, Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Mrs. W. A. Riney, Mrs. C. W. Taylor, and Mrs. C. E. Griggs of Dumas, Texas.

RATION NEWS

By Mrs. Harold D. Bugbee
Dear Folks of Clarendon and Donley County:

When the Donley County Ration Board asked me to act as Community Service Member, I said "Alright, I will if it will help in the War Effort. What am I supposed to do?" The answer was "popularize rationing throughout the county by education." I replied that popularizing rationing was not necessary in Donley county because anything that the citizens believe will help win the war is very popular and all we are waiting for is to find out where the line forms and where and how to get in it. I shall with the aid of two very able assistants, Mrs. C. E. Gatlin and Rev. M. M. Miller, do my best through this column to keep you informed of the national and local ration programs.

I plan to have a mass meeting soon at which point rationing will be thoroughly explained, and I do hope every housewife will make an extra effort to be there. The date and place of this meeting will be announced in this column later. We have all been saying "What can I do to help win this war?" Well, rationing is the answer. I should like to contact every club in this community and plan to have one program on rationing. Donley county has made such a wonderful record in all the other programs in the war effort, I know we shall do the same with this ration program.

Shoe Rationing Began Tuesday

Shoe sales throughout the nation halted Sunday midnight when the government suddenly put shoes under a rationing program. Sales were prohibited Monday, but were resumed Tuesday under ration regulations.

The ration is three pairs a year for every man, woman and child, but members of a family may pool their coupons so that some may buy more if others buy less.

The rationing covers all shoes containing any leather and all rubber-soled shoes, but not slippers, soft-soled baby shoes or storm wear such as rubbers and arctics. Shoe repair work and second-hand shoes are not rationed.

To start with, shoes will be rationed with coupons from the same book used for sugar and coffee. The first shoe stamp is No. 17. Local ration boards, in addition, will have authority to issue special certificates to meet shoe needs of expectant mothers, victims of fire or theft, or other persons whose work requires unusual walking.

Persons who buy shoes by mail should enclose their ration stamp with the order.

A buyer who wants to return new shoes to the store can get his ration stamp back, if the store ordinarily permits such returns.

Grow More Grain For Hog Feed

Wartime food production requires planning ahead. Accordingly, says County Agent H. M. Breedlove of the A&M College Extension Service, farmers should plan this year to grow the feed for their 1944 pig crop.

Farrowings in Texas this spring are expected to be thirty per cent more than at the same time one year ago. Texas has been increasing its pig production at a swift pace.

"For instance," Breedlove says, "spring farrowings of 1942 were 50 per cent greater than at the same time in 1941. But to raise these pigs to marketing weight a plentiful supply of feed is necessary. Growing it at home will become more necessary as the pigs in the nation become more numerous. Increases in other states are no less than in Texas. This is especially true of states which ordinarily grow large grain crops and in past years have had a surplus to make up feed shortages in other states. But with more pigs to feed at home these states will have less grain to ship."

Two good crop growers has provided Texas pig growers with a large stock of feed. There is lots of it in storage, Breedlove says, but there is a big demand for grain now, which is likely to continue throughout this year. On that account he suggests that farmers should plant increased acreage to feed grain this year in order to produce the largest crop possible. He believes it will be helpful if they planted more grazing crops and legume hays to take the place of some of the grain ordinarily fed to cattle. Also turning under winter cover crops should put more corn in the crib.

"In every way possible hog growers will do well to lay plans now for feed for 1944 and afterward," Breedlove says.

Food Registrations At College Building February 24th

SCRAP PAPER BLOWING WILD OVER CITY

During the past few months scrap paper and paper boxes have been carelessly thrown into the alleys creating a dangerous fire hazard, as well as cluttering up the alley ways. The sandstorm Tuesday further aggravated the condition by scattering paper and boxes over many yards and into the streets.

Citizens are being asked to refrain from throwing their paper into the alleys or letting it blow loose. Rubbish and waste paper should be placed in a suitable container and burned. It takes little effort to do this and the neighbors will appreciate it a lot.

MISS THOMPSON IS AIRWAY HOSTESS

VISITS RELATIVES DOWN STATE

Mrs. Jack Molesworth and son Fred are home again since Tuesday after a delightful visit in the parental home at Junction City. Some time was spent with relatives and friends in San Antonio on the return trip.

Point Rationing Begins March 1

Rationing of canned, dried, and frozen fruits and vegetables will begin March 1, and retail sales of more than 200 items to be rationed will be "frozen" on February 20th.

Beginning Wednesday, February 24, housewives will register for War Ration Book No. 2, which will allow a total of 48 "points" for each member of the family for the month of March. Stamps will have values of 8, 5, 2, and 1. If a family has more than 5 cans per person on hand, stamps will be removed from the book in proportion to their excess holdings. Official point values will be made public as soon as stocks are "frozen." Registration will be held in the College Building and one member may register for the whole family.

Some foods need not be counted. They include canned olives, canned meat and fish, pickles, relish, jellies, jams, preserves, spaghetti, macaroni, noodles and all home-canned foods.

RED CROSS WAR FUND DRIVE IN PROCESS OF ORGANIZATION

The Red Cross War Fund Drive slated for March 1st is in the process of organization. Chairman Lee Bell has appointed the following as an Advisory Committee to help formulate the plans: R. E. Drennan, Miss Charlotte Molesworth, Mrs. Harold Bugbee, Odos Caraway, John Gillham, A. L. Chase, Bill Riney, Nolie Simmons, Maynard Miller, and L. E. Thompson. This Committee will meet within the next few days.

R. E. Drennan, John Gillham, and Fred Cook have been asked to go with Chairman Bell to all the communities and organize them for the drive. This committee will visit Hedley this week and other communities as soon as possible.

A very important meeting to discuss War Fund Drive plans will be held in Plainview Friday, Feb. 17, 8 o'clock.

Registration of more than 6,000,000 Texans for war ration book two will begin after the close of school Wednesday, Feb. 24, and will continue through Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"This third wartime registration should be the least difficult of all," State OPA Chief Mark McGee stated, "because the school teachers of Texas have handled the previous registrations so efficiently they know the procedure by this time, and it should facilitate their work that the public having experienced the previous registrations for sugar and gasoline, now understands better how to go about this one."

The registration schedule for Donley county has not been definitely arranged at this date but it is presumed that the local schools will close Thursday through Saturday, but in case they decide to do otherwise, ample space, equipment and help will be provided to take care of the registration, H. T. Burton, announced.

The Donley County Rationing Board has announced that Certification blanks will be available at all public places throughout the county. These blanks are to be filled out before the registrant appears at the registration place. It consists of the amount of coffee on hand Nov. 28 and the amount of canned goods on hand February 21. It will be necessary for the registrant to bring along Ration Book No. 1 when he comes to register.

A complete outline of the rationing registration will be carried in next week's issue as all obstacles will be worked out by that time.

INDIAN FIGHTER OF OLD DAYS

Harry and Clifton Boyd of Brownwood, Texas came Friday to bring A. Estlack, father of J. C. Estlack, who will spend the winter here in the home of his son. The father will soon be 99 years old according to army records, he having served several years in the 14th U. S. Cavalry during the Civil War and later period under Generals Custer and Crook, and Maj. Chivington in Indian battles in the Great Plains area. He formerly resided here several years.

ETHLYN DRENNAN TO TEACH AT PAMPA

Miss Ethlyn Drennan, daughter of Dean R. E. Drennan, has accepted a position in the Pampa public schools and has assumed her duties there teaching the seventh grade. Up to the present time Miss Drennan has been teaching at Darrouzett. She spent the past week end with her father here.

Chairman Bell stated that the plans for the drive would be completed by the first of March and that he was sure everyone that was given a job to do would cooperate wholeheartedly in this worthy cause. "I know everyone is busy with their own business and other activities," Mr. Bell stated, "but I feel like this is one job that must be done even if we have to neglect something else to do it and after all we haven't made any real sacrifice compared to the boys at the front battle lines. This will be doing something for the boys at the front, so let's all work together and show them that we are doing all we can on the home front." Donley County's quota is $700.00.

Series No. 6

Who Must File a Return

Every single person must file a Federal income tax return whose gross income for the year from all sources was $500 or more; that is as much as $9.62 per week. Widows, widowers, divorcees, and married persons separated by mutual consent, are classed as single persons.

Every married person, living with husband or wife throughout the year, must file a return if his or her gross income, together with any income of the spouse, was as much as $1200 for the year; that is, as much as $23.08 per week. If husband and wife both have income, they must both make a return. Such return may be made separately, or, if they are both citizens or residents, they may make a joint return. A joint return may be made by husband and wife even though one has no income, and a joint return is advisable in the case of persons, one of whom has no income, who marry during the year, since the personal exemption attributable to each spouse during the period of pre-marital status is allowable in a joint return.

A joint return must be signed by both husband and wife and verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury.

Where separate returns are filed by husband and wife on Form

1040, the joint personal exemption allowable ($1200 where the married status has existed throughout the year) may be taken by either, or divided between them in any proportion agreed upon. If separate returns are filed one may not report income which belongs to the other, but must report only the income which belongs to him (or her).

No person is exempt from filing a return if his gross income is equal to or greater than the amount specified above for his classification. Neither the President of the United States, nor the Vice President, nor Federal Judges, nor Members of Congress, are exempt from filing returns.

Moreover, all income from what ever source, unless specifically excluded by statute, must be reported in the return. The types of income specifically exempt are listed in the instructions accompanying the return form.

A person whose gross income does not exceed $300, and consists wholly of salary, wages, dividends, interest, or annuities, may make a Simplified Return on Form 1040A, in which the tax due may be readily ascertained by reference to a table contained in the form.

A husband and wife living together on July 1 of the taxable year may file separate Simplified Returns if the gross income of each is from the prescribed sources and does not exceed $3000, or they may file a single joint return on that form if their combined income is from the prescribed sources and does not exceed $3000. A taxpayer may not, however, file a Simplified Return if the other spouse files a return on Form 1040.

Hybrid Corn Gives Increased Yield

College Station, Feb. 8.—Hybrid corn, one of the magic developments of plant breeders, is proving its value to Texas farmers. According to E. A. Miller, agronomist for the A&M College Extension Service, the average increased yield of hybrid varieties developed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station is about 20 per cent on an actual weight basis. Miller points out that northern hybrid corn, so far, has not been satisfactory in this state as the new Texas strains, and some of the former have been very unsatisfactory. But it is noteworthy, he adds, "that the increased yield of Texas hybrid on a percentage basis is just as high in this state as are the adapted varieties grown in the Corn Belt states."

In terms of bushels and profits, good hybrid will average about four bushels more on land which produces 20 bushels of ordinary corn; on 30-bushel land six bushels more, and on 40-bushel land eight bushels more. "Even if the cost of hybrid seed is 75 cents to $1 an acre more than for home-grown seed of standard varieties, the extra profit on the increased yields will amount to about 100, 200 and 300 per cent respectively on the investment," Miller says. No extra work is involved except harvesting the additional bushels.

Passing Thru Tripoli

THREE MONTHS OF TOUGH FIGHTING across 1400 miles of unfriendly African desert brought the British to the main Axis base of Tripoli. This picture, received in America by radio from Cairo, shows cruiser tanks of the victorious Eighth Army passing through the city of Tripoli while natives look on. The British did not stop in Tripoli long. They are already reported inside Tunisia pursuing the retreating Axis armies.

Naval Aviation Accepts Seventeen Year Old Boys For Cadet Training

The Navy Department recently released the information that seventeen year old boys with certain qualifications may enlist for Naval Aviation Cadet Training. For the first time in the history of the Fleet's Air Arm is it possible for boys of this age to start training to become Naval Aviators. The Navy has begun the enlistment of these boys into its Aeronautical branch.

Three classes or types of seventeen year old boys may make application for Naval Aviation Cadet Training. Class One consists of those seventeen year old seniors in high school or secondary school. Class Two is made up of seventeen year old boys who graduated from high or secondary school and are not enrolled at the present time in college. Class Three includes those seventeen year olds who are in accredited colleges. Seniors must present evidence from the schools they are attending that they will graduate in the upper half of the class; and college boys must present evidence that they are in and will remain in the upper two-thirds of the class. Boys who meet the described educational requirements and can be vouched for by a committee of faculty members as to moral character and leadership qualities may begin their flight examination in Naval Aviation. Seventeen year old boys will be enrolled immediately as Apprentice Seaman and upon the completion of their year's schooling will be transferred to the status of Naval Aviation Cadet. Transfer to this cadet status will not immediately follow finishing school but will be as soon as room is provided for the boys in the Flight Preparatory School. A limited number of these Apprentice Seamen will be ordered to the New College Program as soon as the new program is put to work. Those boys meeting the above educational and character standards are urged to send their names to the U. S. Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board, Allen Building, Dallas, Texas, and give the name of the school being attended or attended. The Board will send certain papers to the respective schools. Upon the receipt of the completed papers, the Selection Board will forward the applicant government transportation to and from Dallas for the purpose of having the applicant take his flight examination.

Mrs. Bob Oswald and children of Vernon spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Buel Sanford.

Culling And Better Feeding Help Dairy Herds

College Station, Feb. 6.—Herd culling and a better job of feeding and milking are progressive steps in solving the dairyman's twin problem of labor and feed.

The Federal government does not expect dairymen to produce milk at a loss, says E. R. Eudaly, dairyman for the A&M College Extension Service. But it wants as much milk as each farm can produce. The only solution of one horn of the problem is to cull the cows to the number which can be handled with the labor available, Eudaly believes. To relieve the other half of the difficulty he suggests culling the herd and feeding the roughage available.

In some cases, the feed situation, especially roughage, is hampered by dairymen more than labor, he explains. In many cases a herd can be reduced in size and by doing a better job of feeding and milking as much or more milk can be obtained from the cows remaining as formerly.

The specialist does not recommend sending to market for slaughter culled cows still capable of profitable production. There is a market for such animals among farmers who want a cow or two for home milk production and those who want to buy a few to increase a herd. An unprofitable cow should be marketed for slaughter, but Eudaly says each dairyman will have to decide for himself when she reaches that stage.

A very intelligent Panhandle man has evolved a patent to do away with hosiery runners. He proposes to sew them up with bear grass. When I was a kid, a hole in a sock dignified the wearer as a working person. Some had as many as half a dozen holes in each sock. Then again, just as it is today, a few never knew what a hole in a sock meant. They didn't have any to wear.

U. S. Requests Patriotic Search for Gas Cylinders Gone A.W.O.L.

Below—Discarded cylinders being recovered from vacant lot

Above—Acetylene and oxygen cylinders at work in shipyard. They supply flame with which workers cut heavy metal as easily as housewife slices butter

Some of the "fightingest" metal in the United States—stuff so vital to the war that its continued absence will directly affect production of guns, planes, ships, and tanks—has gone A.W.O.L.

This much-wanted metal is hiding out in all sorts of places. Some of it isn't even hiding; it is standing boldly in folks' back yards. Wherever it is, its war value is so great that Washington is issuing a nationwide appeal for its round-up.

In line with the War Production Board policy that any object that can be used in war production should not be scrapped, all persons are urged to be on the lookout for metal cylinders such as those shown above. It is by means of these cylinders, loaded with oxygen or acetylene gases, that oxy-acetylene welding and cutting in war plants throughout the nation is being done. Without them high-speed fabrication of fighting equipment would be slowed up, and their manufacturers cannot get steel to replace the thousands of containers now missing.

Cylinders such as these have been used for years by industries and businesses — machine shops, auto service stations, and the like. Businesses change hands, and often the new owners have had no use for this type of equipment. The result is that the cylinders have been thrown aside, stacked up in cellars, left on construction jobs, hauled off to town dumps. Some of them are now in use as fences or gate posts. Some form borders for flower beds. Some are in the town scrap piles.

"Compressed gases are a vital part of the war production program," says Donald Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board. "This serious shortage of cylinders will become more acute as the war effort increases."

To get the cylinders back into circulation everyone is urged to be on the alert for them and, the moment one is spotted, to turn it over to the nearest welding shop or manufacturing plant. The man in the shop or plant will know what to do with it. In the event that no welding shop or plant is handy, finders are patriotically urged to write to the Compressed Gas Manufacturers' Association, 11 West 42nd Street, New York, N. Y., giving the number and location of the containers. The Association will do the rest.

EXPLANATION.
One reason the price of eggs is so high is that the hens are too busy making shells for the war program since Pan-Tex shut-down.

OUR WEAKLY POME.
A stamp's a bullet,
A bond's a shell.
Buy lots of 'em,
And give 'em hell.

Vitamins may be alright for you, but as for me, pass the cornbread, country sausage, spare ribs, turnip greens, buttermilk and other plain old grub. That's the kind of vitamins this old man likes best, and he ain't no invalid by a dang sight. Well that winds up this bit of foolishness for this week. I smell my vitamins a frying.

THE FREEDOM TO PRAY
Today, we hear much about Freedom, There's four that are vital to all, And freedom to pray is important For God hears when His people will call. His Word is full of great promises, He bids us to seek Him in prayers, He answers from His High Place in Glory, When His Children are burdened with cares. God sent His Son, Christ Jesus, To teach all men how to pray, To lead them to truth and real Freedom, To keep them all in the right way. He showed men how to pray by example, From the depths of the Garden He cried, To give men freedom to pray, Christ suffered, Was nailed on the cross and there died. From the tomb Christ arose a great Victor, The good Father had heard His Son's plea. Into the world Christ sent His true followers, With this message for you and for me. The freedom to pray is Man's Heritage, No tryant should take it away For this freedom, brave men are now fighting, All over the world, night and day. The Church was established to continue, The work that the Master began, The task of the Church is unfinished, With many battles yet to be won. As God wants all men to be happy And His house to be a house of prayer, So for the freedom to pray, we must labor, And it's burdens and toil we must share. The Church must keep her doors open, Her lessons of truth be made clear, Though many may heed not her warnings, There are some who find comfort here. The freedom to pray we must cherish, To commune with God, we hold dear. For with God on our side and God with us, We'll have nothing to dread or to fear. W. E. Ferrell, Minister Luray Church of Christ Luray, Va.

Feb. 10:25. Forsaking not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some are but exhorting one another so much the more as you see the day approaching.

HOME SERVICE

Mrs. C. A. Burton
A recent release says that in view of the fact that the U. S. Army and Navy are providing all necessary food packages for American prisoners of war, the Red Cross is no longer in a position to accept private contributions for them. But the Red Cross will be pleased to receive unrestricted private contributions through its chapters or direct for general relief to American prisoners of war. Such funds will be used to send medical supplies, cigarettes, tobacco and other comfort articles not provided.

The Red Cross will continue to accept private contributions for food packages for general distribution to prisoners of war of the United Nations other than American. Allotments and allowances will continue to be the chief concern of Home Service as long as men are being inducted into the service. When the soldier himself files the application checks are sent immediately, and the dependents are given six months in which to send in the proofs of relationship and dependency, if Class B dependents. But if these proofs are not sent then the checks will be stopped at the end of six months. If the dependents themselves make the application, the proofs must be sent with the application. In case of Class A dependents, proof of relationship only is necessary.

Applications have been going in to the Office of Dependency Benefits at the rate of 16,000 a day. Up to the first of the year 1,294,852 had been approved. This gives an idea of how many people are being cared for by the government while the men are in the Army. Twenty-five per cent of these are Class B dependents. This number will probably be increased with the induction of the eighteen and nineteen year old men.

CIVIL SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Calling to the front line of action shipyard inspectors of hulls, machinery, electrical equipment and joinery, the tenth civil service region has announced a region wide examination for men who can fill these jobs, which range in salaries from $2300 to $3500 a year, according to information received today by Elmer G. Hayes, local civil service secretary.

Applicants will be rated on the basis of their experience rather than upon any written examination.

There are no age limits for this examination, Mr. Hayes emphasized.

Appointees will serve with the U. S. Maritime Commission in the Gulf coast region comprising Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama and the west coast of Florida.

Qualified persons, who are not engaged in war work of equal skill, are urged to secure an application form from the local civil service secretary at any first or second class post office and file it with the director, Tenth Civil Service Region, Customhouse, New Orleans, La.

MAIL CARRIERS TO MAKE CHANGE

The Pampa-Clarendon mail contract has been awarded to Mrs. Inetha Collier Combest, it was learned here today. She was a sub contractor on the Jericho loop of this line for several months.

Mrs. Glenn Adkins, who has been carrying the mail on the Palo Duro line, will likely take over the Jericho loop as sub contractor of Mrs. Combest.

E. A. Tipton rebid his Brice run to extend contract to July 1st.

Harve Smith, mail man on the Naylor route for four years from 1934 to 1938, was successful bidder on the Palo Duro route.

The changes are expected to take place the 15th of this month, the Leader was informed, and present arrangements are covered by contract until July 1st.

The Democratic Way of Rationing

"Rationing is the best way to make sure that what we have is fairly passed around" — Elmer Davis.

By Mrs. Harold D. Bugbee All of us have been told many, many times that we at home are fighting the battle of the home front.

But too many have tried to make that battle of the home front what it is not.

Filling out a rationing form is not like sitting up in front in a bomber or looking through a periscope at an enemy ship.

No, the jobs that you and I have to do here at home are pretty dreary stuff, and yet, unless we do them, our men in Africa and in the Pacific will suffer, and the war will be longer than it need be.

One of the most important, and yet routine jobs you and I here on the home front must do, is see to it that the nation as a whole—every man, woman and child—is supplied with the necessities of life. This must be done. This humdrum, unexciting, yet terribly vital job of supplying all civilians with the necessities of life, involves the food that goes on your table, and things you buy every day at your corner store. That package you carry home from the store may not seem as much a part of the war as a P-38. Yet, without this package of food assured every war worker, we won't get tanks and guns and planes to our boys.

Rationing is the democratic way. I assure you that the highest officials in the country get no more than their pound of coffee every five weeks. Compare this to the Nazi system, where the average housewife boils some herbs into a foul brew because she cannot get coffee, while Mr. Hitler and Mr. Goering have their shelves stocked with cans of fine Brazilian coffee.

Now, cooperation in any rationing program is just one more of the routine humdrum jobs for us on the home front. There is nothing dramatic about tearing off a ration coupon. But unless all of us understand that many commodities are scarce because of this war, and that what is left must be shared fairly, we are laying down on the job and harming the war effort.

America cannot win the war if this country believes that all the citizens need not share alike under rationing programs. One hoarder in a block can disrupt the even flow of goods in that block.

It is the sum total of all the individual tasks, and I know that every American who values our chances for victory, will realize that rationing helps him, furthers the democratic system, and helps our war workers and our soldiers to get what is needed to spur them to greater effort.

Remember that rationing means taking the offensive against shortages. Remember that rationing will shorten the war!

Post War Planning Meeting Called In Amarillo, Feb. 19

Believing that there are certain Panhandle interests that can best be handled and protected through a Panhandle Planning Committee, the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring such a meeting in Amarillo on February 19, to discuss all phases of Post War Planning. The meeting will be held in the Amarillo Hotel, and will start at 11:00 a. m.

Small Grain Farmers To Get Sufficient Binder Twine

College Station, Feb. 8.—Small grain farmers of Texas will have sufficient binder twine to harvest this year's grain crops. Assurance came this week when an indemnity-payment program was announced on cotton binder twine, which promises supplies at reasonable prices and utilizes surplus low-grade cotton.

Value of Pantry Increases

College Station — Now that it has been definitely determined that supplies of home-preserved products will not cause families to forfeit stamps in War Ration Book No. 2 soon to be issued, the well stocked pantry becomes even more valuable.

Before spring gardens come into production many families will need to fall back on their home-preserved foods to assure their families adequate diets, says Winifred Jones, specialist in food preservation for the A&M College Extension Service. For that reason they should take the best possible care of home canned, dried and brined foods they have on hand.

Miss Jones suggests that food canned in glass should be kept in a cool, dark place. The darkness helps the food hold color and vitamins. Tinned goods should be kept dry to prevent them from rusting. Rust can eat through metals and cause the food inside the can to spoil.

There is a special treatment needed by home-dried fruits and vegetables. These should be stored in tight, moistureproof containers and kept in a cool, dark, dry place. Miss Jones advises that home-makers check their dried products frequently to make certain they are kept dry and that they are not damaged by weevils or other pests.

Home-processed quick-frozen foods need a place in the freezing compartment of a mechanical refrigerator, and they should be kept there until they are to be used. They must be kept frozen solidly, Miss Jones says, and unless refrigeration is constant they should not be kept too long. Once frozen foods have thawed, they spoil quickly, and they should not be refrozen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grady and daughters, Melba Ruth and Mrs. Hoggart, spent Saturday in Amarillo.

Miss Anna Mae Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. June Taylor, has accepted a position in Houston.

Mrs. E. M. Ozier is spending the week in Wichita Falls with the family of her daughter, Mrs. Stephens.

Keeping Up the Pressure

BOMBS ARE FALLING regularly on Nazi targets. One veteran British bomber—a Stirling like the one pictured above—has made more than 62 raids. It has delivered on the enemy more than half a million pounds of bombs. This weight is as much as 150 Nazi planes were able to drop in a whole week of so-called "reprisal raids" on Britain.

Many Employees of United Gas Now In Military Service of Uncle Sam

Seven hundred employees of United Gas Pipe Line Company and its associated companies are now in military service, according to the latest figures released this week by M. V. Cousins, personnel director.

Many of these men are now serving on the fighting fronts of the world and at sea. Five have already given their lives, three in airplane crashes.

Ranks of the men range from colonel in the Army to buck private and from lieutenant commander to ordinary seaman. A large number of former company engineers signed up with the Seabees in the Navy V-7 class and are now engaged in construction work in Allied countries.

At home their fellow employees are trying to fill the gaps caused by their leaving. Women do men's jobs in many instances, ably dispatching gas, handling the duties of firemen in the gasoline plants and of oilers in compressor stations and work in many other capacities formerly known as "men's jobs."

Employees of United and its associated companies are showing their faith in fellow employees with the armed forces by investing ten per cent of the company's gross payroll in War Bonds and the Treasury "T" flag now flies over all company properties.

Film On South's Wartime Farming Now Released

How U. S. battle lines reach from the South's dusty rows of peanut vines and peaceful cotton fields to the blazing turmoil of Tunisia and Guadalcanal, is shown in a new movie released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This first picture on the southern farmer's part in the war is called "Farm Battle Lines." It soon will appear in theatres throughout Texas through the cooperation of Republic Pictures, Inc., with the Department of Agriculture, the State USDA War Board said this week.

The film was directed by Roger Barlow. Its heroes are the men, women, and children who are plowing, planting, hoeing, and canning this country's way to victory. It shows particularly how two products of the south—cotton and peanuts—are actually used on fighting fronts all over the world. It also pays tribute to southern housewives who are victory gardeners and home canners, and so keep their families healthy and energetic despite shortages and an overload transportation system.

"Farm Battle Lines" is a show that will appeal to both farm and city people. Those not familiar with cotton or peanut growing will be interested in seeing how they are raised and harvested. Farmers will be particularly interested in the parts of the picture which tell how their products are used in modern warfare.

Getting Rationed Rubber Boots

College Station, Feb. 10.—Farmers or stockmen who need rubber boots can get applications for obtaining these rationed articles from their local War Price and Rationing Boards. These same local boards issue certificates authorizing the purchase of rubber boots, explains Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist for the A&M College Extension Service.

Under the OPA regulations governing the rationing of rubber footwear, farmers are eligible for certificates under the same conditions which apply to other workers—that is, if their work is considered "essential to the war effort." And, a farmer's work is essential if he produces dairy products, vegetables, grain, meats, wool, and other war crops for general consumption.

New Loan Program Is Announced On Cotton

College Station, Feb. 10.—Cotton farmers will receive loans at 90 percent of parity on this year's cotton crop.

Based on 15/16 middling, loans will be made on all growths of Upland cotton during the 1943-44 marketing season which begins August 1, 1943.

Purpose of announcing the program at this early date is to give cotton farmers an opportunity well ahead of planting time to secure sufficient seed of varieties that will produce the longer staples needed in wartime, and thus take advantage of the increased rates offered for the longer staples.

In addition to receiving increased rates for longer staples, grading middling or better, farmers also will be given special consideration on essential farming materials and labor and consideration from draft boards in proportion to their production of the type of food and fiber needed in the war program.

In urging Texas farmers to plant larger acreages (within their allotments) to intermediate and longer staple varieties, AAA officials pointed out that serious shortages of the longer staples may develop unless producers maintain or increase production of such cotton.

According to present estimates, the carryover, as of August 1, 1943 of cotton stapling one to 1 3/32 will be about 60 percent of the amount which was needed to supply domestic, lend-lease and export requirements for the 1942-43 marketing year while the carryover of 1 1/4 inch and over will be about 62 percent of the requirements.

The carryover of all grades and staples of Upland cotton will be about 85 percent of total needs, while the carryover of cotton

University to Ask For Less Funds

Austin, Feb. 2.—The State appropriation sought by the University of Texas will be approximately $200,000 smaller for each year of the next biennium than was appropriated for the past two years, President Homer P. Rainey has announced.

Dr. Rainey said that he would present to the Senate Finance and the House Appropriations Committee of the 48th Legislature an itemization of the needs of the University, totalling $1,993,000, as compared with the previous appropriation of $2,193,000 for the Main University.

The proposed reduction is possible, Dr. Rainey revealed, because the teaching staff has been reduced by the entry into war service of many faculty members, and because of an anticipated decrease in enrollment.

Some expenses will increase at the University, the President predicted, because of the great demand for science and engineering work. The University's budget cannot be reduced in direct proportion to the loss of students because of the higher cost of operation, Dr. Rainey said.

Former Pastor Writes Letter

W. E. Ferrell, former pastor at one time of the Clarendon First Christian Church writes the Leader that he is now minister of the Church of Christ at Luray, Va. We pass the letter on to you. Donley County Leader, Clarendon, Texas.

Just a word to let you all know that I am still alive and on the job. I am working a double campaign now and thought you might be interested. Am enclosing some copies of program and poem. We are using the slogan, "For Freedom to Pray, Buy a Stamp a Day." And we are asking our friends to buy a few Stamps for the Church and the Parsonage Fund.

Here is a brand new poem, you might want to use it. Tell our friends that can get autographed copy of poem, if they will contribute at least one war stamp to our parsonage fund.

Hope everything is going well with you and yours. The gas rationing has everything tied up in this part of the country but if the tying up will hasten the day of peace, then let it all be tied up.

With best wishes to you and yours, I beg to remain your old friend,

English Journalist Thanks Farm Women

College Station, Feb. 8.—Food preservation equipment which home demonstration club women of Texas and other states sent to the rural women of Great Britain helped keep the war effort of many families going at full speed, Mary Grigs, eminent British journalist said last week during a visit to Texas.

Miss Grigs, who is women's editor of a farm weekly published in London, expressed appreciation of her countrywomen to Mrs. W. G. Kennedy, Hamilton County, president of the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

"They want you to know what good use was made of your canning machines and pressure cookers, and how they helped us preserve the food we so badly needed," she said.

Rural women of the nation contributed $3500 for the purchase of 300 canning units loaned from village to village by the English Women's Institution. Texas led other states of the nation with a $300 gift contributed by home demonstration club women in 184 Texas counties.

Miss Grigs assured the Texas Association that "your equipment will be used as long as there are women to work it in the English countryside." She added that "we feel when the time comes to tackle the problems of peace, we shall—because of this direct and personal contact—be able to work with you and with a deeply satisfactory mutual understanding."

Her message to the farm women of Texas will be broadcast on the Texas Farm and Home Program on Feb. 18 at 6 a. m. Miss Grigs came to this country upon the invitation of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Her Texas itinerary was arranged by Miss Mildred Horton of the A&M College Extension Service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGee of Amarillo visited his sister, Mrs. Guy Taylor Sunday night.

Between Courses

From an English paper: "A friend of mine brings back one thrilling little memory of his war time holiday. At the hotel where he put up was billeted a Czech flying officer. One morning just as breakfast was starting there was a roar of aerial engines and the Czech airman, who had just finished his first course, recognized a German plane. He darted out of the hotel and within an incredibly few minutes was soaring up in his fighter plane after the enemy. The raider had dropped a bomb or two, without doing much damage, but was overtaken by the Czech ace, who shot him down in the sea and flew back. My friend says that the Czech was back at the breakfast table, finishing his meal, in not much more than half an hour."

Householders Given Information Needed For Ration Book 2

With registration for war ration book 2 scheduled to begin Feb. 22, the Office of Price Administration offers to householders information which the registrars must have before the books can be issued. Here are some of the salient points:

(a) Any adult member of the family may make the application and receive the books for the entire family. They will not be given books for any member of the family who is in an institution or a member of the armed forces receiving subsistence in kind or eating at separate messes under an officers' command.

Present Book No. 1

(b) War ration book 1 of each member of the family must be presented at the registration.

(c) Each applicant must file a declaration of goods on hand and one declaration form will serve for an entire family, but no one not a member of the family can apply on this form.

(d) Declaration forms will be printed in newspapers several times prior to the registration and may be used. A few will be available through the Office of Price Administration at registration sites. These must be filled out and presented to the registrar.

(e) Upon the declaration form, the declarer must give the number of cans, bottles or jars of commercially canned foods rationed weighing eight ounces or more on hand at midnight, Feb. 20. Each member of the family will be allowed a margin of five cans, which will not be deducted.

(f) Home packed, preserved or otherwise processed foods done by the family for consumption within the home and not for sale, need not be declared.

Remove 8-Point Stamp

(g) The registrar will remove an 8-point stamp from the family book for each can, bottle or jar of rationed food thus declared. The five cans each not included in the declaration are an acceptable stock on hand in the family. The removal of only 8-point stamps spreads the "tailoring" of the book beyond the current ration period, since there are only A, B and C 8-point stamps, the stamps current for March.

(h) Canned fruits and vegetable juices, canned soups, chili sauce and catsup are included in the rationing plan. Not included are: canned olives, canned meat and fish, pickles, relish, jellies, jams, preserves, spaghetti, macaroni, noodles and home-canned foods.

(i) In addition to declaring the canned foods allowed, the number of pounds of coffee possessed by the family on Nov. 28, 1942, (less one pound for each person who is 14 or older) must be stated on the declaration. In tailoring book 1, the registrar will remove a coffee stamp for each pound in excess so declared.

Registration will be held generally in school houses and places generally used for the mileage rationing of gasoline. When the declaration is filed and the books for the family are made ready by the registrar they will be handed to the applicant and may be used

March 1 and thereafter in buying the processed foods rationed.

TRAINING, EXPERIENCE, POWER... these will put him in Hitler's backyard!

Without training and experience, you'd hardly expect American paratroopers to drop in on Hitler. Without the proper weapons and equipment, you'd hardly expect them to survive such a visit.

So when the BIG day arrives, we'll all feel that we had a hand in their triumph—fighters, farmers, war bond buyers, industry... all who are helping them get the training and experience they need.

It is the training and experience of the men and women in this organization which has enabled us to help prepare our soldiers for the trip to Berlin. West Texas' ample supply of electric power didn't just happen.

No Aladdin simply pulled it out of a hat. No bureaucrat said "Let there be power!" Electric power is basic and essential in abundance in America's wartime plants because trained and experienced business men and women are back of it, making it their business to see that Uncle Sam has plenty of power wherever and whenever needed.

This they've succeeded in doing. Electric power is driving the machines that make planes, guns, ships, tanks, and bullets... lighting the plants that work around the clock.

They've succeeded without rationing your usage. Or increasing the cost.

You still merely flick a switch. And the average West Texas home today gets twice—or three times—as much electric service for about the same money as 10 or 15 years ago!

POINT RATIONING ON HOME FRONT

Thousands of volunteer civilian defense workers will have an opportunity within the next few weeks to help in a gigantic home front war program—point rationing. Plans are being laid to train many "explainers" who will assist in putting the program before the people. These "explainers," by making the rationing plan clear to store customers, can speed up the shopping service and relieve merchants and their clerks of the necessity for explaining, since they will have to give extra time to handling the food coupons and keeping records. Community service members of local war price and rationing boards will be responsible for determining where and how many "explainers" will be needed, and for the assignment of the volunteers to the various stores.

Since time is growing short, local civilian defense council chairmen are urged to get in touch with their local war price and rationing boards and work out plans for explaining the program. There are a few important things to remember about the point rationing system. They are:

1. All canned fruits, vegetables and soups; all frozen fruits and vegetables in containers under 10 pounds; all fruit juices in bottles or cans of one gallon or less; and all dried fruits will be rationed.
2. Retail sales of the foods to be rationed will be suspended as of midnight Saturday, Feb. 20.

3. Registration for War Ration Book Two will be conducted during the six days beginning Monday, February 22.
4. Any adult member of the family may make the application and receive the books for the entire family.
5. War Ration Book 1 of each member of the family must be presented at the registration.
6. Each applicant must file a declaration of goods on hand as of Feb. 21. The consumer declaration sheet simply asks for the amounts of coffee on hand as of Nov. 28—when coffee rationing started—and of canned goods on hand as of Feb. 21.

TO THE PRODUCERS OF DONLEY COUNTY:

Walter J. Flynt, Secretary Donley County ACA

Under the 1942 Conservation Payment Program, 782 farms have been paid a total of $135,128.44. This constitutes more than two thirds of the payment to the county. At any time anyone does not understand how the payment has been distributed, we would be glad to explain either by letter or in person if you will come to the office.

Many of the Operators did not understand that the crop insurance premiums would be deducted from the conservation payment if it were not paid before the application was submitted. The Crop Insurance premium will be deducted before any part of the payment will be paid on an assignment or to the individual.

It has been announced that there will be what is called an incentive payment to grain sorghum growers in 1943. The purpose of this payment is to encourage the planting of grain sorghum for the purpose of feeding livestock. I do not have full instructions as to farm goals, but the way I understand the matter is that each farm will have a grain-sorghum goal set up, and any person planting above 90% of this goal will be paid $8.00 per acre up to 110% of this goal. In other words if a farmer had a goal set up to 100 acres of grain sorghum for the farm, and he planted less than 90% of the goal he would not get this incentive payment, but for every acre planted above 90 acres he would get $8.00 up to 110% of the goal or 110 acres. 110% of the goal would earn a payment on 20 acres or $116.00.

In 1943 you will not be required to plant any government land, that no Sudan, Sweet sorghum, or peas in order to get your cotton payment, but this does not mean that there is any restriction against planting these crops. This restriction has been taken off in order that more feed may be grown for the production of livestock.

In 1943 you may plant any amount of cotton you like up to the allotment, that is you will not be required to plant any certain percent of your allotment. If through error you should over plant your cotton allotment you will not be allowed to plow up the excess cotton, and must take the penalty under the ACP payment program, and must pay ½ the loan rate in order to market the cotton harvested on the acres in excess of the allotment.

The Cotton crop Insurance program is progressing very nicely, with about twenty-five applications being signed without very much publicity nor an intensive campaign on this part of the program.
