C. C. Exes Here Nov. 11-12 For First Home-Coming Since 1927 Closing

REGISTRATION IS SET FOR 9:30 A. M. FRIDAY MORNING

OUTDOOR BARBECUE FOR GUESTS SATURDAY NOON AT COLLEGE

The first reunion for Clarendon College ex-students will officially get under way Friday morning, November 11, when registrations open at the administration building at 9:30.

The program committee, according to Clyde I. Price, chairman, has endeavored to leave sufficient time for former classmates to visit and, working toward this end, no further entertainment is listed until the football game between Clarendon High School and Vega High School at 2:30 Friday afternoon.

However, Price said, if any individual or group wishes to entertain, the committee will aid in any way possible.

Friday night at 7:30, a buffet supper and open house will be held at the girls' old dormitory. All exes and their husbands and wives, and the present students of Clarendon Junior College are invited to attend.

Bright and early Saturday morning, the old campaigners of C. C. gridiron wars will gather at the Antro Hotel at 7:30 to talk over old times and to breakfast.

At 9:30 old Clarendon College will live anew when chapel exercises, depicting former C. C. days, are held at the college auditorium.

The Clarendon Junior College royal parade, with the college queen and attendants, will be held shortly before noon and at 12:30 an outdoor barbecue will be held for the exes.

Clarendon Junior College will crown their queen in an impressive ceremony at the football field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to mark the final entertainment of the program.

Band Will Present Stuttering Sam

Stuttering Sam and his party, radio stars over KGNC of Amarillo, will be at the College Auditorium, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

This program is sponsored by the High School Band and a percentage of the funds will go to their cause.

A small admission will be charged.

Breakfast For C. C. Lettermen Saturday

Former lettermen of Clarendon College will be feted with a breakfast at the Antro Hotel Saturday, Nov. 12th, at 7:45, Ira Merchant, chairman of the "Bulldog" committee announced.

Athletes winning their letter in any sport while in Clarendon College are eligible to attend, Merchant said.

"Although reservation may be made as late as Saturday morning," the chairman stated, "everybody expecting to attend is asked to write the committee as soon as possible."

Quarterly Conference Praises Ministers in Resolutions

The fourth and last quarterly conference of the current year was held Tuesday evening at the Methodist Church, presided over by Dr. Thos. S. Barcus, presiding elder, at which time the usual business of the session was transacted. Reports from the various departments of the church were heard, and stewards and Sunday school officials for the coming year were elected on nomination of the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth. Little change was noted in the lists, aside from the addition of Messrs. J. R. Bulls, G. G. Reeves and L. B. Penick to the board of stewards.

Financial reports of the local church indicated a total deficit in budget and benevolences of around $1,200, with fair prospects of covering in full by the end of next week, prior to the convening of the Annual Conference at Memphis on Nov. 16th.

Secretary Paul Shelton read a resolution from the board of stewards, asking the return of the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth for another year, which was ratified by the conference. Sam M. Braswell presented a resolution commending Dr. and Mrs. Barcus and expressing the esteem of the local officials and membership for them as they go to other fields of labor, under the law of the church which requires an elder to return to the pastorate after four years service as presiding elder. This resolution was also adopted.

Rev. Landreth, Dr. and Mrs. Barcus, all made appropriate responses to the sentiments of the resolutions.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tice of Mineral Wells are here at the bedside of her father, Mr. A. H. Baker, who is seriously ill.

BRONCS WIN OVER CANADIAN BY ONE TOUCHDOWN, 13-7

LOCALS SHOW MUCH SPIRIT AND MORE SCORING POWER

By WALTER KNORPP

Well, here we are folks about to witness a play-by-play description of the game between the Clarendon Broncos and the Canadian Wildcats. The Wildcats are on a tear tonight. It is their last home game and most of the boys are graduating so it will be their last chance to show the town that they can put out.

There goes the kick off. Clarendon kicks off to Canadian who takes it on their own 30 and returns it in the next eight plays for a touchdown and a conversion, the score now being Canadian 7, Clarendon 0.

The second quarter shows Clarendon coming out of their usual first quarter slump, and tying the score. This is done by several power plays through the Canadian line with Grady, Allison, and Longan packing the pigskin. Huffman drops back from tackle position and makes the conversion.

From then until the beginning of the fourth quarter, it is a nip and tuck battle, both teams making long runs and completing passes for nice gains, but neither is able to score again.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Grady skirts end for several long runs and Longan cut down the sidelines to put the ball on the 8-yard line. Allison then carries the ball over for the second touchdown. Huffman fails to convert.

Canadian then opens up with a passing attack that keeps the Clarendon backfield men busy trying to knock down. Clarendon intercepts one of the passes and threatens to score again but the Wildcats hold them on the 5-yard line for downs and then kicks out of danger. Clarendon knocks at the goal again but fumbles the ball and Canadian recovered and again kicks out.

The game finally ended with the Broncos victorious to the tune of 13-7. The Broncos showed great spirit and determination throughout the last half, showing that the thumping they took from Wellington the previous week did not buck down their morale.

Mrs. Eva Hill of Canyon spent the week-end here on business.

DEAN CONDRON TO DELIVER CHAPEL ADDRESS

S. H. Condron, Clarendon College president in 1927, will be the principal speaker at the "old-time" chapel exercises at the auditorium Saturday, Nov. 12th, according to the program committee of the CC Exes Reunion.

The chapel program is scheduled for 9:30 and will reflect the by-gone for Clarendon College students.

H. T. Burton, superintendent of Clarendon schools, will deliver the welcoming address and Jess Stanford, Hereford, will respond for the exes.

Other speakers will be called on for very short impromptu talks, the committee stated.

Germany Takes Party Reins; Booms Garner

With the energy and enthusiasm which has characterized his crowded career as a business man and civic leader, Eugene B. Germany of Dallas this week had plunged into active leadership of the Texas Democratic Party.

Germany is the new chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, elected at the recent State Democratic State Convention in Beaumont at the instance of Governor-Nominee W. Lee O'Daniel. He succeeds Myron G. Blalock.

Rallying Texas behind the growing Garner-for-president move is one of the most important plans in Germany's program. Garner was endorsed for the presidency by the State Democratic Convention.

Chairman Germany has called the State Democratic Committee to meet in Mineral Wells on November 7th, and organize the work of the party for the biennium. Germany's career has much of the bound-to-win favor. The 46 year old chairman was born in Nolan county; his boyhood was lived in Henderson and Van Zandt counties. His schooling in Grand Saline was aided by farm work and a job as janitor of the high school. Service as a janitor also helped finance his attendance at Southwestern University. Later, taught school at Grand Saline. To his day-time teaching job, he added a night job of trucking salt at the Grand Saline salt mine.

His oil career began in Mexico, where he was employed as a geologist and land man. After several years of this work he became an oil producer himself. Since 1928, he has operated his own companies.

Germany has managed to crowd in many civic activities. He is now serving his third term as mayor of the town of Highland Park. For several years he has been vice president of the Dallas Methodist Hospital and a director of the Scottish-Rite Hospital for Crippled Children. He is prominent in the affairs of the Lion's Club, Hella Temple Shrine, the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., and the Council of Church Men.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Walker and daughter of Amarillo visited Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sims Sunday.

LOCAL INTEREST INCREASES IN POULTRY SHOW

GOAL SET AT 500 BIRDS OVER TOTAL OF 447 IN LAST YEAR'S SHOW

Officials of the Greenbelt Poultry Show are making plans for what they believe will be the largest and best poultry show in the history of the event, as more interest than ever before has been manifested in poultry shows this year, with 375 birds being entered in the Tri-State Fair and 72 birds in the State Fair of Texas.

Last year the show reached a new level with 447 birds entered but this year the goal has been set at 500 birds.

An attempt is being made to secure R. B. Galloway, of Amarillo, to judge the event. Mr. Galloway has judged the event in former years and his judgment has been met with uniform approval.

Work on a premium list will begin at an early date and both cash and merchandise awards will feature the list. Ribbons for the awards have been ordered and other plans are progressing in order.

A larger number of varieties than ever before are expected to be exhibited this year. Blue Andalusians, Black and White Giants, Rose and Single Comb Rhode Island Reds, Black and White Minorcas, Black, Buff, Light and Dark Brown Leghorns, Lamoras, Partridge, Light and Dark Barred Rocks, Speckled Sussex, Buff and White Orpingtons, Columbian and White Wyandottes, Columbian Rocks, Rhode Island Whites, White and Black Langshans, White, Buff and Dark Cornish and various specimens of Bantams are expected to be entered in the show.

Hedley Oil Test Is Drilling Near 4,000 Foot Level

Reports are that the Nellie Kuteman, No. 1 Hedley's oil test well, is drilling between the 3,700 and 4,000 foot level today, with fair hopes of striking oil.

Geologists and interested local citizens are watching this test very carefully now, and there is general hopes of rapid development if a fair showing of oil or gas is reached in the Kuteman test.

Mesdames C. T. McMurtry and T. H. Ellis went to Amarillo Wednesday.

"Hutto Appreciation Night" To Be Celebrated Friday Evening When Bronchos Meet Groom Tigers

To pay tribute to a football coach who has turned in a fine coaching job in the face of varied difficulties, Friday night's football game at College Field, between the CHS Bronchos and the Groom Tigers, has been designated, "Hutto Appreciation Night," by the football fans of Clarendon.

Coach Hutto came to Clarendon last spring after a devastating football season for the Bronchos, and several changes in coaches, which did nothing but sink foot-of the town, in co-operation with the school board and faculty, with Dude Gentry as president, Coach Hutto set to work to build from the bottom with a green squad in the hopes of bringing Broncho prowess back to former creditable standards.

This season Coach Hutto has brought order from chaos, and with a steadily improving machine has regained much of the lost ground, at a cost and pains not understood by those in close touch with the local situation.

Plans have been working this week to bring out a large attendance of Clarendon people to Friday night's game to honor Coach Hutto for his splendid work with the Bronchos, and to show him his efforts are appreciated.

Incidentally, the Groom Tigers are one of the toughest Class B teams in this territory, and the Bronchos are going to have their hands full if they chalk up a win Friday night, as their part of the "Appreciation Night" ceremonies.

A special "pep squad" of one hundred CHS students will be on hand to vie with the CHS Band in cheering on the Broncho warriors.

Get a "Hutto Appreciation Night" ticket, and get there early for a seat—don't be later than 7:30. President Gentry may have a surprise feature of the evening to present either before the game or between halves.

Morris Norman, Negro, Confesses To Assault and Indignities On Two White Women Here Sunday Night

QUICK JUSTICE AIM OF LOCAL OFFICERS—ATTACKER GOES ON TRIAL FOR RAPE HERE TUESDAY, NOV. 8, AT 9 A. M.—SPECIAL VENIRE OF FIFTY SUMMONED

A horrible crime was committed near the dump grounds in North Clarendon Sunday night, when Morris Norman, young negro lately here from Chicago, is alleged to have accosted two highly respected white women on their way home from church, knocking the elder unconscious, and dragging the younger into the brush skirting the highway, where he is alleged to have committed criminal assault and punished her with indignities unprintable.

After the terrible experience and the regaining consciousness by the elder, the two sisters in a state of shock, managed to reach the Walter Green place, some four or five hundred feet away, where they were given aid as available, Mr. Green hurrying into the city to notify Sheriff Guy Pierce. The sheriff immediately summoned available Legionnaires and called Amarillo for officers and state highway patrolmen, who made a record run here to assist in the capture of the perpetrator.

Following footprints—a peculiar heel-marking—the posse came to a shack in negro town, where they found three negroes sleeping, one of whom, Morris Norman, was identified by his shoes, and who, very calmly disclaimed any knowledge of the crime, until after some close questioning by the officers. Finally, he admitted a part in the incidents of the evening, and made a confession before the officers and County Attorney R. Y. King, which closed the search for any further suspect.

Arthur and Pat Toliver of Amarillo and Sheriff Pierce conducted the prisoner to Amarillo where he has been held under special guard since early Monday morning.

District Judge R. S. Moss reconvened the grand jury here Wednesday, and it quickly found a true bill against Norman on a charge of rape, the extreme penalty of which may be death.

Trial was set for 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, Nov. 8th, and a special venire of fifty men was summoned for the case.

Sheriff Pierce announced today that all precautions are being taken for safeguarding the prisoner, with Texas Rangers and other special officers being present during the trial to keep down any disturbance.

Attendance at the trial will be limited to adults and a number comfortably filling the court room will be admitted, and locked doors will be the order of the day.

Sheriff Pierce says there has been every evidence of the citizenship being coolly determined to see quick justice done according to the law and evidence, and he desires to thank the Legionnaires for their instant and valuable assistance in handling the search, as well as thanks to the officers from Amarillo who hurried here to help. Especial thanks goes to Clyde Douglas for his painstaking tracing of the footprints from the scene of the crime with flashlight and much of it on hands and knees.

The older of the sisters, 67, has been a resident of Clarendon's vicinity for near forty years, while the younger, 46, came here more than a year ago to live with the former on the death of her husband on their truck-farm just north of the city limits.

Reports are that the older, struck in the face and head with a hard weapon or rock, is improving from her wounds and the shock, while the victim of the assault is slowly recovering, both under care of a physician.

Tuesday, Nov. 8 Is Election Day

Tuesday, Nov. 8, is the biennial general election date for the voters of Texas. On that day a large ballot containing names of candidates for state office for four parties, Democrat, Republican, Socialist, Communist, and a list to be written in if preferred will face the voter. County officials will be voted on also, but there are only Democrats on that list. However, space is provided under each party for write-ins if desired.

An amendment to the Constitution of the state of Texas, Article XVI, Section 1, which will delete the oath officials must take about dueling, will be decided upon at this time.

Even though there is generally little interest shown in the general election in non-presidential years, voters are urged to go down and mark their ballots.

E. G. Hayes and family went to Dallas Friday to visit their son, Jack. Miss Lorene Hayes returned home with them.

Clarendon FFA Boys Made Notable Record At State Fair

F. F. A. members of Clarendon who went to the State Fair at Dallas came back with everything but the grandstand. They exhibited 22 pigs and 72 chickens, winning 50 ribbons and more than $150 in prize money. The four boys sold their pigs at premium prices and averaged $8.50 each above the market price after expenses had been deducted. The Clarendon lads took more places and won more money than any F. F. A. organization or 4-H Club present. J. R. Gillham, their advisor, announced. Pictured here, left to right, are Carl Morris, J. R. Gillham, Russell Morris, Pete Morrow and Joe Williams.

IT BELONGS TO THE WHOLE CITIZENSHIP

Speaking before a civic club with more than a score of Panhandle newspaper men present, Hon. Deskins Wells, president of the Texas Press Association, and editor of the Wellington Leader made the statement that "The Freedom of the Press belongs not solely to the press of America, but to the whole citizenship."

To us this appears as one provision of the American bill of rights, generally unrecognized by the citizenship of this Nation. The ordinary citizen thinks of the Freedom of the Press, as something belonging to editors and writers, scarcely sensing that such freedom is a fundamental right of every citizen—a right upon which rests the whole structure of our Democracy.

It requires only a little examination for the average citizen to see that without the freedom guaranteed the press of America, that his freedom in every direction is jeopardized seriously, and might well be lost within a decade. The unrestricted publication of facts about governmental affairs, proposed laws, intentions of governmental executives, declarations by leaders in all groups, and by those groups—the open, frank discussion of merit and demerit of governmental laws, policies and officials—these, and more, are the benefits of the Freedom of the Press which belong to every citizen, high and low, alike.

The president of the Texas Press Association brought to light a truth little known, and in danger of being forgotten under present day pressure from groups in America, when he succinctly stated the implications of the Freedom of the Press to the American citizenship—a priceless heritage which we must not relinquish if we would remain free.

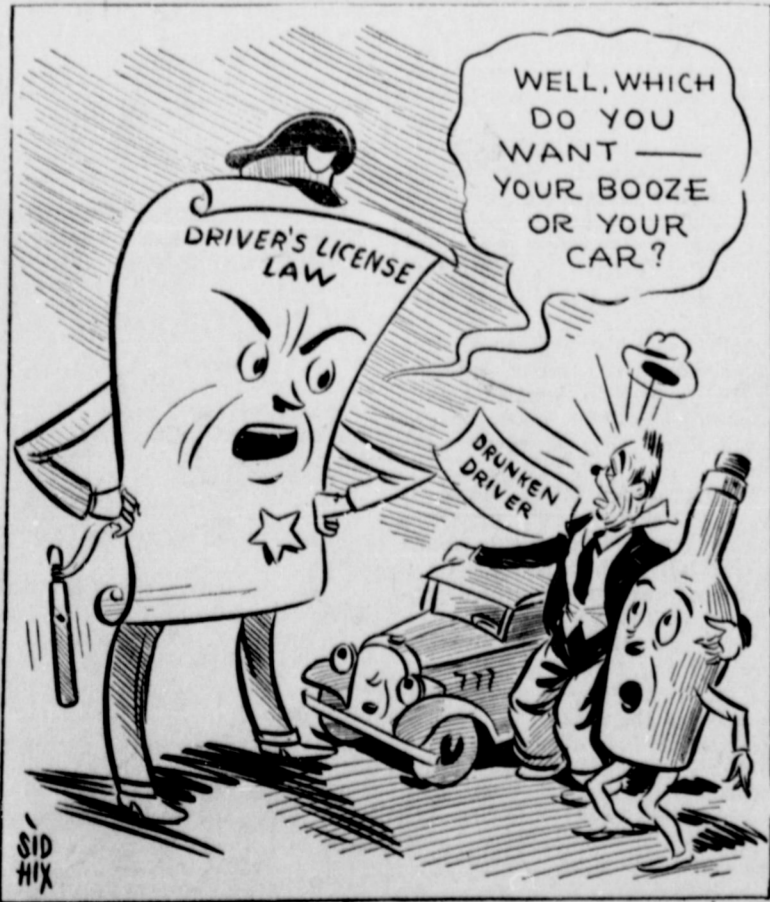

DONLEY COUNTY'S LAW ABIDING REPUTATION

For many years Donley County has held a reputation for a minimum of crime and misdemeanors of which its citizenship has been justly proud. This reputation has spread from one end of the state to the other, and the legal profession generally recognizes that hopes of securing acquittal or minimum verdicts here are indeed slim.

The News would like to call attention to the fact that this happy condition has not been a happen-so and without good and sufficient reason. The reason has been that Donley County has more nearly enforced the liquor laws than most any county in the entire Southwest—and liquor controlled and outlawed always means less crime.

Now, however, The News feels that the developments of the past year point to a loss of this fine reputation, and that it is high time the whole citizenship began to wake-up and take vigorous measure to avert the loss, retracing our steps again to the standards maintained here with such profit and satisfaction to our people. Today, according to the best informed men of our county, drinking among young people—both boys and girls—is fifty times worse than it has ever been before. Sadder, still, is the fact that it isn't all done by the so-called rough element. From some of the best homes in our county comes young people to lead others astray. Dances, football games, parties, night automobile driving are the unfortunate public opportunities for such exhibitions that will not longer be ignored—if we are to be good citizens and do our part by the young folk, who need desperately to be turned from such inevitable ruin.

The officers, the school authorities, the churches, cannot cope with such a situation without the sympathetic cooperation and firm leadership of the parents of the county. Every parent has an obligation, if not to his own child, then, certainly to the citizenship of the whole county.

Donley County's law abiding, sober, high-minded reputation is at stake—if we fail to face the facts and do our duty, that reputation is forever lost and we lose some fine young people in the bad bargain, too.

THE POWER OF A MIGHTY INFLUENCE

A train of thought impelled by preparations for a Homecoming of Grads and Exes of Clarendon College, leads inevitably to the evaluation of the influence of the institution that sought to serve the Panhandle of Texas for three decades in the most remarkable period of growth of this area.

Just how much has Clarendon College contributed to this section of the state? Just what influence does remain after the closing of her doors?

A full and complete answer to these correlative questions rests in the lap of Eternity, and yet it is possible to sense and recognize some potent forces developed here in the first institution of higher learning and culture for the Panhandle—influences that show themselves in almost every line of endeavor—influences that stand as a monument to the stalwart citizenship of the pioneer builders who conceived and builded Clarendon College.

Her sons and daughters who felt the call to devote their lives to teaching found themselves well along the way to master's degrees as they fitted for the growing demands upon the teaching profession. And more—they were generally imbued with a spirit of Christian unselfishness and devotion to ideals that have made them particularly valuable to the community, state and nation in which they labor. Such an influence is impossible to fully calculate.

Those of her sons and daughters who have returned to the soil to give their increased talents to the production of cattle and foodstuffs carried with them the indelible imprint of the school and its unending aspirations for better things for the sons of men. These are today the very bulwarks of the aggressive civilization of West Texas, serving in almost every township in an area larger than the state of Virginia.

Those who have felt the call of the professions have builded well on the foundations received in C. C. and today occupy places high in the ranks of their chosen work.

In the sacred ranks of the ministry, there are scores of preachers and missionaries, carrying the Gospel all over the nation and in many foreign fields. Some are presidents of colleges. In this high endeavor, perhaps, the school has made its largest contribution—just where its founders hoped it would. It is in this particular field that the influence of Clarendon College has entrenched itself against the corroding elements of time, and here its ministrations have been multiplied hundreds and thousands fold—even to the nth degree.

Yes, the fair thinker must admit that Clarendon College has left a legacy of good influences—of service to the race—which shall endure to the end of time.

We recognize and applaud the power of a mighty influence.—The Clarco, Home-Coming Edition, Nov. 1, 1938.

CAUSE FOR CONGRATULATIONS

Good citizens of Donley County and the Nation will applaud that self-control exhibited so markedly here Sunday night when under stress of revulsion at a shocking crime against a respected woman, there was every co-operation with the officers of the law in ferreting out, arresting and holding secure a negro, with no attempt at mob violence. Law is still supreme among our splendid citizenry.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

AUSTIN. — Legislators who made their campaigns this summer on a platform of "economy in the state government," will get an opportunity to make good on that campaign promise when the new Legislature starts in to make appropriations for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1, 1938. Senator John S. Redditt, of Lufkin, chairman of the special Senate economy committee, and his aides, have about completed their long task of looking into all the state departments, and writing an appropriation bill that will cut out unnecessary employees, do away with overlapping and duplicating functions of government, and save some money. But they will not recommend any pay cuts for state employees, because they have found Texas does not pay any higher average salaries to its workers than other Southern states. Redditt hopes and believes his committee can present a bill that will lop off about $3,500,000 from departmental appropriations each year of the biennium, and that additional reductions of about $1,500,000 can be made in the eleemosynary, educational and judiciary appropriations. This would result in a total saving of around $10,000,000 for the biennium, or a cut of $5,000,000 a year—the maximum figure which has been suggested by those who know anything at all about state government. Redditt and his committee feel this can be done—if the Legislature will do it—without any material reduction in the quality and scope of necessary governmental functions. It would be sufficient to take care of the state's share of the social security program not yet financed, and possibly the teachers' retirement obligation. Whether the affected departments can muster enough strength to keep the Legislature from making the reductions remains to be seen.

POWER AGREEMENT REPORTED NEAR

Negotiations between officials of the Colorado River Authority and the Texas Power & Light Co., for the sale of the latter's plant and facilities in 14 Central Texas counties to the CRA are reported progressing favorably, and informed sources expect to see the deal completed. John Carpenter, head of TP&L who has always believed in a policy of compromise and negotiation instead of fighting when interests conflict, offered to sell the properties of TP&L in the natural territory of CRA to the latter, and withdraw from the field, as a better plan than a costly war between CRA and TP&L in the area. The policy which Carpenter has found so successful in maintaining good relations between his concern and the public is also being adopted nationally by some of the larger utility concerns, notably Electric Bond & Share Co., which according to Washington dispatches, has worked out a plan under the Federal Holding Company Act voluntarily to break up its holdings of integrated companies, through the efforts of C. E. Grosbeck, chairman of Electric Bond & Share.

WASHINGTON INTERESTED

Rumors that some solution of the problem of "dumping" of Mexican expropriated oil into the Texas market, and seizure without payment of American and British oil properties by the Mexican government, may be nearing in Washington, were current here this week, following the visit of Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Railroad Commission and chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, with President Roosevelt at Hyde Park. Roosevelt, it is said, summoned Thompson, whom he regards as the best informed oil administrative official in the nation, and the red-headed Texan is said to have discussed both problems fully with the president. If a commission to arbitrate the oil property seizure is named by Roosevelt, best informed sources here regard Thompson as almost certain to represent this country. Meanwhile Mexican "dumping" was one of the chief topics of discussion among oil men who gathered at San Antonio for the Midcontinent Oil and Gas Association's convention, and officials of the North Texas Oil and Gas Association announced they would vigorously press their charge of violation of the Federal Anti-Dumping Act, in an effort to halt imports of confiscated Mexican oil.

AGED JUDGES PROBLEM

From several lawyer-legislators this week came a suggestion that may result in an effort by the next Legislature to provide a retirement act for Texas high court judges, similar to the federal judges' retirement act passed by the last Congress. They pointed out that the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals are both handicapped at present by the prolonged illness of one judge on each court, which has prevented either performing the duties of his office for many months. The same situation frequently arises in the Courts of Civil Appeals, but a state law permits the governor to appoint a special commissioner, when a judge on the latter courts is incapacitated. The judges apparently never feel like resigning until death calls them, and the work of the courts suffers as a consequence. A retirement provision, carrying a lifetime pay arrangement for judges after a certain age limit is reached would prove an economy in the long run, the legislators point out, through saving in operation of the courts.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT ROW

Gov. Nominee W. L. O'Daniel picked one of the most highly controversial issues in Texas, when he told San Antonio reporters he favored abolition of capital punishment in Texas, but didn't know whether he would recommend such action to the Legislature or not. Members of the Board of Pardons and Paroles immediately replied with a statement, declaring capital punishment is a real deterrent to criminals, and prevents lynching. They pointed out that so long as criminal assault cases occur in Texas, there will be capital punishment, whether by law or mob rule, and asserted abolition of capital punishment would be a big boost for a federal anti-lynching law, which Southern congressmen and senators have fought off successfully for years.

Beating the Frost King

By T. C. RICHARDSON, Secretary
Texas Breeder-Feeder Association

Late feed crops which need more time to mature their seed are in danger of frost at almost any time now. It is not necessary to lose a large part of their feed value either by premature cutting or from frost, if the crop is made into ensilage. If frost strikes unexpectedly and singes the foliage, cut the crop as quickly as possible and ensile it later. Often the daily weather report will forewarn of killing frost, and give time to cut the crop before it strikes. In either case the bundles can lie as they fall until cutting is completed, with slight damage to its feeding value.

Two years ago the writer saw many fields of grain sorghums hit by premature frost in the lower Panhandle. Growers started the row binders immediately, and the frost damage did not extend beyond the foliage. Those who had not already prepared for it, began digging trench silos, leaving the crop in the field until the silo was ready. Since it only takes a day or two to construct a trench of considerable capacity the crop dried out very little in the meantime.

It is preferable to permit the seed to mature, since the feeding value of the ensilage is greater than if it is cut in the "dough" stage, which was formerly recommended. On the other hand, the silo will preserve its full value in whatever stage it has to be ensiled, and immature silage is far better than no silage at all. The past summer saw many fields burned up by drouth and useless for feed which would have been well worth saving had the crop been cut and ensiled before it was entirely ruined.

It is strange but true that some people still question the practicality of the trench silo. The point is well illustrated by the reply recently given the writer about sheep on the farms in East Texas. "Well," answered the man asked, "those who have no farm flocks are still saying sheep do no good in East Texas, and those who have them want more." So with the silo—I've never found a man who gave it a fair trial who didn't like it.

It is neither hard nor expensive. While an ensilage cutter, a new binder or even an ensilage harvester which takes the place of both, is a great advantage, ensilage can be made without either. Cut it with a butcher knife or a broom handle, a machete, a sled cutter, if a better implement is not available. Cut it while succulent and the foliage is green if possible; add water according to the degree of dryness; you can even make ensilage from cured fodder by using enough water, but that isn't the way it ought to be done.

It is much easier to feed out

War Ravaged Mission Properties Up For Consideration At Baptist Meet

DALLAS, Oct. 29.—Texas Baptists meeting in their annual sessions here, Nov. 8-11, will hear reports from their war-ravaged mission fields throughout the world, particularly in the Orient. The important report on foreign missions, in which the state's 660,000 members of the denomination are keenly interested, will be brought to the convention at an afternoon session, Nov. 10. Baptist headquarters here recently received the news of the bombing of the Stout Memorial Hospital at Wuchow, Kwangai, South China.

The Wuchow Hospital is the largest maintained overseas by Southern Baptists, with whom the Baptist general convention of Texas is affiliated. Among Texans there were Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Beddoe of Dallas and Rev. and Mrs. Rex Ray of Whitewright. The institution has been doing double duty as a base hospital for wounded soldiers and as a haven for sick refugees. The convention—the largest gathering of its kind in the world—is expected to draw 12,000 delegates to the North Texas city. Sessions begin Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, and end at noon Friday, under the presidency of Dr. J. B. Tidwell of Waco, professor of Bible at Baylor University.

Challenging the general meeting in interest are two preliminary sessions. The Woman's Missionary Union will hold its forty-eighth annual convention, beginning Monday afternoon, Nov. 7, under the direction of Mrs. B. A. Copass of Fort Worth, president. The annual Pastors' and Laymen's Conference will also begin meetings Monday afternoon with George J. Mason of Dallas, presiding.

The important roles of church women and laymen in carrying on the manifold activities of the denomination in Texas—including the ministry of healing in hospitals, Christian education and home and foreign missions—will be thoroughly discussed and plans for if the ensilage is cut into short shreds and it also packs better in the silo. But good ensilage is made by laying the stalks shingle-fashion, closely packing them, and wetting them down to facilitate fermentation. The oryl real indispensable are to exclude the air and provide moisture enough to insure the fermentation which preserves the material. Keep these two points in mind and anyone can make good ensilage of corn, sweet or grain sorghums, or other highly carbonaceous forage.

Ensilage made of whole stalks, singly or in bundles, must be cut as fed, and a simple implement to do this will cost a dollar or less. A heavy iron bar for a handle with a transverse blade of tempered steel (when can be kept sharp will do the job of cutting.

Among those who were in Amarillo Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Drennan, Ethelyn Drennan, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton and Nelda Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dyer, Maxine Ellis, Edith Shelton, Mrs. E. E. Boles, Marian McCormack and Ruth Patman.

The Fords Tell Their Plans for 1939

Henry and Edsel Ford, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Ford Motor Company, June 16, 1938

IF WE KNEW anything better we could do for the country than make good motor cars, we would do it.

By every one doing his best in the job he thinks most useful, this country is going to regain its momentum. We have tried to do our best in our job.

When business was suddenly halted in its recovery more than a year ago, we determined that we should keep going anyway, if not at full-volume motor car production, then at getting ready for greater motor car values that would help future production.

EXPANDING FOR THE FUTURE

We began to build 34 million dollars' worth of new plants and equipment. We felt that if we could not employ all our men building motor cars, we would employ as many as we could building better production facilities.

We were told, of course, that this was no time for expansion, that a wiser business policy would be to "hold everything"—which means, stop everything. But no one ever got anywhere standing still.

Besides, we are not defeatists. We do not believe this country has seen its best days. We believe this country is yet in the infancy of its growth. We believe that every atom of faith invested in our country and our people will be amply justified by the future. We believe America is just beginning. Never yet have our people seen real Prosperity. Never yet have we seen adequate Production. But we shall see it! That is the assurance in which we have built.

Business is not just coming back. It will have to be brought back. That is now becoming well understood in this country; for that reason 1939 will be a co-operative year. Manufacturers, sellers and buyers will co-operate to bring back the business that is waiting to be brought back.

This construction program is almost completed. It has increased activity and payrolls in a number of related industries. It has given us better facilities for building better cars and trucks, and eventually our new tractor which is being perfected.

THIS MEANS MORE VALUE

The current program has provided a new tire plant, which will turn out a part of our tire requirements... a new tool and die plant that will help us cut the cost of dies... and a steel-press plant that will enable us to make more of our own automobile bodies. These are in addition to the plants we already had for producing glass, iron, steel, plastics, and many other things.

We don't supply all our own needs, of course, and never expect to. The Ford engine is one thing that no one's hand touches but ours. Of nearly everything else we use we build some quantity ourselves, to find, if possible, better and more economical ways of doing it. The experience and knowledge we gain are freely shared with our suppliers, and with other industries.

We take no profit on anything we make for ourselves and sell to ourselves. Every operation, from the Ford ships which first bring iron ore to the Rouge, is figured at accurate cost. The only profit is on the finished result—the car or truck as it comes off the line. Some years, there is no profit for us. But we see to it that our customers always profit. A basic article of our business creed is that no sale is economically constructive unless it profits the buyer as much as or more than the seller.

Our new plants have helped us build more value into all our cars for 1939. That means more profit on the purchase to the purchaser.

We have not cut quality to reduce costs. We simply will not build anything inferior.

NEW TESTING EQUIPMENT

While we were putting up new plants to produce cars, we constructed new equipment to test them. The first weather tunnel of its kind ever built for automobile research went into operation at our laboratories this year.

It makes any kind of weather to order. The weather it delivers every day would take months to find in Nature. Our cars are weather-tested to give you good service in any climate anywhere.

In other tests, every part of the car is punished unmercifully. Then our engineers tear it down to see if they can find abnormal wear or any sign of weakness.

The money we spend on tests saves you money on repairs. And your family car is safer and more dependable when we put it in your hands.

THE NEW CARS

We have two new Ford cars for 1939—better cars and better looking—but we also have an entirely new car.

It's called the Mercury 8. It fits into our line between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr. It is larger than the Ford, with 116-inch wheelbase, hydraulic brakes, and a new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine.

We know that our 1939 cars are cars of good quality. We think they're fine values in their price classes.

With new cars, new plants, new equipment, the whole Ford organization is geared to go forward.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY, Dearborn, Michigan

the next year's activities will be made.

Outstanding at the Laymen's Conference will be discussions of "Texas Baptists and the Liquor Question," by Jeff Davis of Dallas and a talk on "America and the Nation—a Picture of This Bewildered World," by C. B. Jackson.

TEXAS CATTLE SHIPMENT INCREASED IN SEPTEMBER

AUSTIN.—During September total shipments of livestock from Texas to Fort Worth stockyards and inter state points were only slightly below those of the corresponding month last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Shipments of cattle increased, while forwardings of calves, sheep, and hogs declined in comparison with a year ago.

Reports from about 1,500 Texas shipping points show total shipments of 7,678 cars, compared with 7,718 cars during September last year, a decline of less than 1 per cent. Cattle shipments, 4,328 cars, were up 8 per cent from last year; shipments of calves, 1,694 cars, declined 8 per cent; hog shipments, 589 cars, also were down 8 per cent, and shipments of sheep, 1,067 cars, were off 13 per cent.

F. F. A. BOYS PLAN PROJECT PROGRAM FOR 1938-1939

LIVESTOCK, POULTRY, CROP PRODUCTION INCLUDED IN PROJECTS

Increased interest and enthusiasm are evident in the project program of the local F. F. A. members for 1938-1939. Every member has at least three projects and they show a wider scope than ever before. Purebred sows and pigs for pork production are the most popular projects for the year, but this is easily accounted for by the fact that the local group is entered in the Texas Swine Breeders Swine Production Contest for F. F. A. chapters. Calf feeding and broiler production are other highlights of the feeding program encouraged by cheap feed.

Ten boys are feeding 20 calves for beef; 10 boys will feed 1,800 broilers; seven boys have 405 hens for egg production; 27 boys have 148 acres of grain sorghums for feed; eight boys have 10 cows for milk production; 36 boys have 49 registered sows and gilts for pig production; 37 boys have 325 pigs for pork for spring and a large number will also feed for fall shows; five boys have 18 acres of wheat for grain production; four boys and the F. F. A. chapter will have 35 lambs for mutton; six boys have 35 acres of cotton for lint; two boys have heifers for development, and one boy has a cow for calf production.

The local chapter has 50 paid up members for the largest active membership in its history. The group meets regularly twice monthly and has an average attendance for the year of 95 per cent.

DENVER MAN DIES ON HIGHWAY NEAR HERE

W. M. Howard, 45, of Denver, Colo., dropped dead on the highway, five miles west of here Tuesday afternoon. He was traveling to Liberty, Texas, with a party of friends when the group was forced to stop to fix a flat. He got out of the car with one of the women for a short walk while waiting for the tire to be fixed. Suddenly he slumped to the ground. He died before medical aid could be obtained. Howard had been in ill health for a number of years. He had no relatives.

The body is being held here until the group return to Colorado by Buntin Funeral Home. The party which he was traveling with were detained here overnight by highway patrolmen because of a defective trailer.

Men and women who are characterized by their loyalties to the higher and nobler things in life fill places in the world that are supreme. Christianity has been called by its founder, the light of the world and the salt of the earth. There is no fault to be found with Christ nor Christianity. EDITOR'S CORNER

We intended to mention it last week but it slipped our mind. Bronchos, we mean about the way the Wellington Skyrockets play football. They came to Clarendon with the determination to play you just as hard as they would play the Amarillo Sandies. They don't believe in letting up just a little just because the dope has it that they have a cinch to win. They know that the game is not over until the last gun and that anything can happen. We admire Wellington for their spirit. They have the right idea.

You lost the game to Mobeetic because you were just too cock sure of yourself and forgot to play football. While the hare slept the tortoise crawled to victory. You beat Canadian by a mere seven points. The dope had it that you were to win that game. You should have and you did, but you didn't beat them as badly as you could, you had your doubts about being able to beat Memphis, yet you played the best game of the season. You knew you couldn't beat Wellington, yet you played them better than any other team has this year.

Groom comes over Friday. You can beat them, but not as easily as you beat Canadian. If you play football the best you can though, the score will be bigger than the one with Canadian.

Fire Prevention Is Stressed In CHS

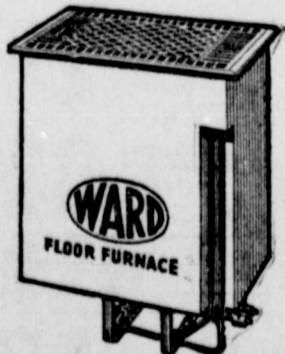

Fire prevention officers in the High School have been appointed by Superintendent Burton for the year. Neel Thompson is fire drill captain, and the drill officers are as follows: Eugene Putman and Joe Williams, first floor; Fred Chamberlain and Billy Patman, second floor; Billy Hendrick and Billy Latson, third floor. There will be on an average, two drills every month.

These drills are under the auspices of the Texas Fire Insurance Company at Austin. For teaching fire prevention in the schools, the city gets a 3 per cent reduction in the insurance rates. This saves the citizens quite a large sum of money and also meets a state requirements for our schools.

ON OUR BOOK SHELF

One of the most talked-of and most enjoyed books in the last year is A. J. Cronin's "The Citadel." It is the story of a doctor by a doctor; therefore it is authoritative and perhaps autobiographical. Much of it is an expose and indictment of the medical profession, especially certain ethics and practices.

"The Citadel" is a penetrating characterization of a young doctor who though he was rather rigorous, caught a flash of the genius in the medical practice. He understood and almost possessed the secret of true scientific medicine and its purpose. Because he was a little too human, he lost sight of the ideal in the longing for the wealth and social position he had been denied. Andrew Manson is not a typical doctor. It was the fact that he was not typical that caused his troubles. He wanted to be a good doctor; that is, he wished to sacrifice for his patients and search into their disorders. He did not believe in just giving a bottle of medicine and he did not want to encourage those who thought something was wrong with them. But he found that this practice did not pay and he was laughed at by most of his fellow physicians.

In part there is propaganda in the book for socialized medicine. Cronin pictures many of the doctors as either old-fashioned, narrow-minded, unsanitary, cynical general practitioners or equally narrow, cynical, ignorant specialists, most of whom were not temperamentally fit to be doctors in the first place.

The scene of "The Citadel" is laid in Wales and in England; however many of the scenes and practices are typical of the United States. We do not believe that modern American doctors are so ignorant and ill-trained as the English ones described and we are sure that not all English ones are of that type.

As said before, this book does not describe typical people or events.

The book is not a treatise on medical practice. It is an exciting adventure story. There is a romance which ends unhappily and the people are real. The Welsh people are better pictured than in any book we have ever read. High London society is shown. It is the story of a man who tried to live up to an ideal against tremendous odds, was forced to do the things he had despised and found he liked them although they came very near to ruining him, and then he went back to try to carry out his ideals.

BAND STARTS PRACTICE CONTEST

Raymond Johnson and Joe Williams were elected captains of a contest that the band has started this week. The captains chose sides and the side that puts in the most hours practice before mid-term will demand some sort of entertainment of the losers. Each member turns in the number of hours he practices each week to his captain and at the end of the contest the hours are counted. This is a scheme to make the band practice more. Mr. Robbins says that he expects much improvement in the type of music the band will turn out as a result of more practice.

Bronchos Nose Out Wildcats 13-7

The Clarendon Bronchos won a slow but thrilling game from the Canadian Wildcats by a score of 13-7 Friday evening.

The Wildcat team was composed of eleven smaller than average boys, who took the opening kickoff on their own 30-yard line and combined their speed with razzel, dazzel to score without losing the ball.

The Bronchos came back with a slashing power attack, paced by "Big Wild Horse Allison," and Fleet Johnny Grady, to tie the score 7-7 during the second quarter.

The last half of the ball game was decidedly Clarendon's. The Bronchos drove over the smaller ball club consistently and scored another touchdown in the last quarter to make the score 13-7. Clarendon's offense was better than average but the charging defensive game was poor. The Bronchos as a whole played a good game and made a good comeback, after being stormed by Wellington the previous week.

RAND WILL PRESENT STUTTERING SAM, NOV. 8

The Clarendon High School Band will present Stuttering Sam and his band Tuesday night, Nov. 8. Sam has been with Cal Farley's Flying Dutchman for the past few months after filling a contract in Hollywood, making pictures. He is well known for his wit and his ability (or maybe it's inability) to stutter. He broadcasts every week-day over KGNC at 12:30. You will recall, too, that Sam was in a beauty contest against the handsome Dutch Mantell. Dutch, by the way, will be with the show, too, as well as Gib and Ploy Howard, Sally (Widebottom) Rand, and Mary Cornelius. Cal has never failed to produce a good show, but the one this year is absolutely his best.

National Art Week Is Observed In CHS By Giving Pictures Prominent Places

This week is being dedicated to art everywhere in the United States for the purpose of art study among the students. All the pictures belonging to the High School and College are grouped in the outer office of the High School, together with a catalogue of the names of artists and titles of pictures.

The outstanding pictures on exhibit are by French artists: "Dance of the Nymphs," Corot; "The Gleaners" and "The Angelus" by Millet. The great American artist, Ennis, is represented by his ever famous "Home of the Heron." Many other widely known pictures are on exhibit in the office.

RAMLINGS WITH MISTER X

All the world loves a poet, and I, Mr. X, am a poet. This is supposed to be a secret, but I am letting everybody in on it. I am the writer of that wonderful popular song, "A Tisket, a Tisket, My Green and Yellow Basket." So you see besides my other wonderful accomplishments I am also a great song writer, but don't tell anybody.

I have been absent for the past two weeks and I know my public would like to know what became of their great Mr. X. Now let me assure you that it was not my fault that you could not read about the doings of CHS and CJC students through the medium of Mr. X. During my brief but tragic leave, I wrote about you and you everybody.

I wrote about "Pickle," whom everybody should know about by now. There were comments on Kitty Ruth Bailey, CHS's sojourn in social sideliights. A-hem.

The other day I was talking to Billie Horton and she told me that she had a very dear friend from Amarillo who was coming down just so he could be near Billie. Billie, forgive me, but I ran out of anything to write and I just had to fill up this vacant space.

I know a girl by the name of Dona Adams who played the role of chump last Monday. It was such a chumpy thing to do that I care not to even discuss it in my scintillating article. So much for the chump.

The typing room seems unusually quiet this year. Last year many gossip columns bordering around the typing room were seen at different intervals in the high school weekly. The best of these was Typing Room Chatter. I wish I had a prodigy to continue that column. So if some enterprising young typing student will see me, we together, can hatch out the return of Typing Room Chatter. Of course, you bootleggers know that you can't use that heading without my permission.

Good bye, good bye, for I must go, Its been swell seeing you all this week,
So until, some other time,
Good bye, good bye, good bye folks. MR. X.

WE WONDER

Why is Fred Chamberlain always saying, "I'm going mad," in typing class?

What is on the back of the mirror that Thelma Hardin keeps close to her heart?

Who does Allen Anderson wait for after school?

Why does Ava Marie Guffin run to her window every time a certain boy passes, whistling "I'm No Millionaire?"

Why does Dona Adams is always late for school?

Why Billy Goodman wants all the girls' addresses?

What Billy Goodman and Ivon Ellis have in common?

Why Billy Patman doesn't like any of the girls in this school?

Why the typing students are always mumbling under their breath?

We wonder if James Earl Hot is turning out to be another heart-breaker?

We wonder how Bailey Estes and Bulls enjoyed the F. F. A. initiation?

We wonder if Mary Frances Word has found her one and only after all this time?

We wonder who Jimmy Lumpkin's girl was after the game Friday night?

We wonder what would happen if Dona Adams had to do without her chewing gum?

We wonder if Nellie Endsley and Agnes Chapman have found the same boy friend?

ASSEMBLY

The assembly Friday, the second period, opened with the singing of several songs, "My Bonnie," "Love's Old Sweet Song," "The Spanish Cavalier," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," and "Row, Row, Row."

Two programs were planned, but neither was put on. The F. F. A. boys had asked to put on the program, but as a number of them were out of town, they were unable to do so. The college sophomores had planned to have a program, but had withdrawn in favor of the F. F. A. boys.

Mr. Drennan made some announcements and then called on Coach Hutto to say a few words concerning the game. He said that the Wellington defeat was the worst one his team had ever had, but that the boys had had a great deal more pep the last week, and he believed that they would beat Canadian. He said they had no alibis and that he wouldn't be satisfied unless they did win.

Assembly concluded with fifteen raps for the Bronchos, led by the pep leaders.

It seems to me that poets old Have every tale of love done told. There is nought left for me to say;

There's no new song to greet the day.

To evening's quiet they all have sung,

From happy heart and swelling lung. They've written elegies to the dead;

There's nothing they have left unsaid.

Spring has heard their age-old sonnets;

They've sung of maids in pretty bonnets.

Of meadows sweet with new-mown hay.

What is there left for me to say?

Songs to old age and odes to duty,

Laments to death and praise to beauty;

All these are twice-told tales by now.

What's left for my mind to endow?

So many sales in verse have told Of maidens fair and warriors bold;

Of bright leaves in the autumn wind

No more to tell can poets find.

Too much has done been said of love,

Of moonlight nights and stars above.

We poets today are out of luck; In finding subjects we get stuck!

O'BRIEN KICKS
O'BRIEN RUNS
O'BRIEN PASSES

The smallest man on the Texas Christian University squad, yet the "sparkplug" of the team—that's David O'Brien, 150-pound senior quarterback from Dallas. All Davey did during the 1937 campaign was carry the ball on 209 of 375 plays run from scrimmage; throw 236 of 244 passes; and make 70 of 103 punts. With an improved Frog backfield, O'Brien won't carry so much of the load this year, but he still is the outstanding triple-threat for the Christians, passing, running and kicking.

SIDE SWIPES

Another week-end means more gossip, and here I go with the latest. We heard that Dorothea Riley was out of territory Sunday night.

It was noticed that "Root" Reed doesn't speak to Jo Wells any more. He just winks at her instead.

Rex Shannon and Rachel Longan got along very well at the football game Friday night.

Darryl Bailey is seen around Scotties Station quite often. Yes, she is a blond.

Cleo Russel is satisfied now that Geraldine Clayton is on his list.

Beryl Longan must be doing well. Some girl was ready to commit suicide if anything happened to him while playing ball.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Conserved Water Aids Grass

Contour furrows and ridges catch and hold water where it falls so it can soak into the soil to become available for grass growth. In the upper picture a cross-section of a furrowed area is shown. The outlined dark area at the top shows the depth of moisture penetration. Observe that moisture has penetrated much deeper near the furrows. Bottom picture shows increased grass growth resulting from furrows in a Soil Conservation Service demonstration area.

CJC Pledges Full Cooperation To Reunion Committee
Clarendon Junior College today pledged full co-operation in the drive to make the first Clarendon College ex-student reunion successful through their student body president, George Seaton.

In a prepared statement, Seaton said that "Students of Clarendon Junior College wished to extend a cordial invitation to all ex-students to attend the reunion, November 11, 12. The students also hope to help the exes' visit a pleasant one.

"Being acquainted with the teachers, different departments and general schedule of the present college, the students will be more than glad to supply any information concerning the present school.

"Students will also gladly direct exes to the Donley County Museum, located in the girls old dormitory building. This museum has many things of interest which are connected with the old college.

"As president of the student body of Clarendon Junior College, I should like to extend a personal invitation to each ex-student to come to Clarendon and make this a great day for both you and our college."

Finest Dividends
Not Always Cash
WICHITA FALLS.—The finest dividends are not always direct cash returns, is the opinion of Mrs. W. C. Dennis, about three miles north of Kirkland, Texas.
The influx of birds to the farm,
Mrs. Dennis believes, makes this specially true of an investment in tree shelterbelts of which the Dennis place has one planted in 1936.

There are ten times as many birds on the farm now as before the trees were planted, says Mrs.
Dennis. She especially appreciates the presence of mocking birds and other song birds which stay near the home. Their continuous chatter and singing
"brighten things up."

The Dennis shelterbelt, planted by the U. S. Forest Service, has become a part of the Texas State Extension Service program which has designated the place as a "whole demonstration" farm—
that is, a place where approved methods are exhibited by the extension service.

The shelterbelt, only two years old, has grown to the extent that it furnishes nesting places for hundreds of birds, many of them insectivorous. Also, the extension service has found that the shel-terbelt provides ideal cover for game birds.

Shelterbelt planting by the Forest Service is a cooperative enterprise with the farmers. The belts' principal purposes are to prevent blowing of loose-textured farmlands which has created a national problem, protect growing crops from hot summer winds, furnish fuel and fence posts for the farm, and to provide cover for wildlife. The trees are furnished and planted by the Forest Service.
The farmer prepares the land, furnishes the fence material and cultivates the shelterbelt until the leaf canopy is closed.

gins was the week-end guest of Peggy Word.

for anything whose benefits are better proved than famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your shrieking nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again.

More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to go "smiling thru" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!
