Clarendon F.F.A. Chapter Wins National Honor At Kansas City

Union Thanksgiving Service Set For Wednesday Night, Nov. 20

CLARENDON IS ONE OF FOUR TO WIN HIGH RATING

LOCAL DELEGATES ARE ATTENDING MEETING AT KANSAS CITY

The Clarendon FFA chapter was given national recognition this week at Kansas City by being named a Gold Medal Chapter of America for its excellent work.

The award was one of the four made to chapters recognized for outstanding farm practice and community improvement.

Four states selected as Gold Medal winners were Texas, Montana, Wyoming and Virginia. The four chapters receiving the gold medal were in high schools at Clarendon, Texas, Ponca City, Okla., Deer Lodge, Montana, and Stephens City, Va.

Carl Morris, Harice Green, Forrest Helton and John R. Gillham, coach, are attending the FFA convention, and representing the Clarendon Chapter.

The local chapter competed with representatives of 47 other states for the honor of being one of the outstanding chapters of America.

At the convention, Joe Williams, former president of the Clarendon chapter, received the American Farmer Degree, the highest honor offered an individual by the organization.

Carl Morris is a member of a 50-piece FFA band, which is one of the two official bands of the convention this year.

Texas boys are the guests this week of the American Royal Horse Show management at a matinee performance.

The boys will also participate in and attend judging contests in the arena of the American Royal Livestock building. They will also view car-load fat and feeder cattle and four Kansas City's huge stock yards.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO HAVE SERVICE ON NOV. 19

A young people's Thanksgiving service will be held at the First Christian church on Tuesday, November 19, at 7 p. m.

Young people of the city between the ages of 15 and 24 are invited to attend the service.

The program is to be planned and presented entirely by young people of the various churches of the city. The theme of the evening will be "Thanksgiving and the Youth of Today".

Two short addresses will be given, the first by Earl Eudy of the First Christian Church on the subject, "Thanksgiving and Youthful Americans," the second by Frank Drew of the First Methodist Church on the subject, "Thanksgiving and Youthful Christians."

The Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw will be the advisor for the evening.

The purpose of the service is to create a feeling of unity and friendship among the young people groups of Clarendon.

ARMISTICE IS HOLIDAY FOR DAN CUPID AND MR. STORK

Armistice Day, Nov. 11, was an official holiday as far as Dan Cupid and Mr. Stork were concerned.

Neither of them did any business in Clarendon. Miss Helen Wiedman, county clerk, said that last year she was called from her home several times to issue marriage licenses, but this year she said that she wasn't even disturbed once.

Nov. 11th is usually a good birthday for someone, but the Adair hospital reports that Mr. Stork failed to show up during the holiday.

Bronchos Set For Any Eventuality When They Clash With McLean's Untamed Tigers Here On Friday

FIRST COLD SNAP SENDS MERCURY TO 9 DEGREES

Clarendon got its first real taste of winter this week when the first cold snap of the season sent the mercury skidding downward to the nine degree mark.

Wednesday morning was the coldest, with the official temperature registered at nine degrees above zero, according to Joe Goldston, local weatherman.

The temperature this morning was 16 degrees, and Tuesday's lowest was 18.

The frigid blast moved into Clarendon late Sunday night and by Monday morning had tumbled the mercury to 24 degrees.

Most of Clarendon was caught off-guard and clothing stores, stove dealers, and filling stations did a land-office business.

Service station attendants were kept on the run as anti-freeze became a commodity of big demand. Snow fell in Amarillo, Panhandle, and other points north but Clarendon failed to receive moisture in any form.

WEATHER HINDERS RED CROSS ROLL CALL HERE

Extreme cold weather here this week has hindered the quick conclusion of the Red Cross Roll Call in Donley County, according to Mrs. Allen Jefferies, chairman.

Workers will be on the job as warmer days come, and all citizens are invited to enroll at the first opportunity. A dollar spent in the Roll Call will keep the Red Cross humanitarian work going in the unprecedented world crisis now facing us.

Help Donley County reach its quota in the next few days.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE TO CLOSE

The office of Ruth Richerson, county school superintendent, will be closed from Nov. 21 to Nov. 25 it was announced this week.

J. E. RYAN ARRESTED ON FELONY CHARGE
J. E. "Shug" Ryan was arrested here this past week for Carson County officers on a felony charge. He made bond of $1,500.

Thanksgiving Proclamation--1940

Since the establishment of our Government more than 150 years ago it has been the custom of our leaders to proclaim and set aside one day each year as National Thanksgiving to Almighty God for His care and protection during the year just passed.

Since He has so singularly provided for our wants and kept our country at peace, we want to return unto Him our sincere thanks for His wise guidance and protection.

I, as Mayor of Clarendon, do hereby Proclaim Thursday November 21st, 1940, as Thanksgiving Day, and ask that every citizen of our town join in giving thanks to that All-wise Father who is giver of everything worth while.

Given under my hand and seal this 12th day of November, A. D. 1940.

TOM F. CONNALLY, Mayor, City of Clarendon.

McLean's untamed Tigers will be turned loose into a corral of wild, victory-mad Bronchos here Friday night in a District 3-A grid tilt that spells "Do or Die" for the Clarendon eleven.

The old dope bucket sets upright, giving neither team the edge despite the fact Clarendon dropped a game to Shamrock early in the season and the Tigers have yet to be defeated in conference play.

Therefore, grid enthusiasts can expect to witness a contest packed with thrills, action and speed when the two teams clash Friday.

The Tigers are said to be smartly coached, having an experienced backfield with a quarterback who knows how to call 'em, combined with an aerial attack that will "blitzkrieg" any foe caught without "anti-aircraft" defense.

To offset all of this, the Bronchos will rely mainly upon a variety of power-house plays, executed by a hard-hitting backfield driving behind a strong forward wall.

Coaches Warden and James are preparing their charges for any eventuality. They held a skull practice on Monday, scrimmaged Tuesday and practiced Wednesday in preparation for the invasion.

Asked for a statement regarding the game, Coach Warden said, "You can tell them that we are working hard and will be out there fighting Friday night". Should McLean go down, the Tigers can still end the season in a 3-way tie for the title by defeating Shamrock in the final conference game of the season next week.

PROGRESS SHOWN IN LUNCH ROOM PROJECT HERE

After operating for seven days, the lunch room project for the schools in Clarendon appears to have met with considerable success.

Located in the Junior High School, the lunch room served 65 pupils Wednesday and, according to Principal McHenry Lane, this number has been increasing daily since the opening a week ago last Monday.

School officials are well satisfied with the progress made in the project, but are issuing an appeal to the public for more forks and plates.

The project was authorized by WPA, under the sponsorship of local authorities. Under-nourished children are to receive the meals free, while others may purchase the same meals at the price of 15 cents.

Donley County's agricultural exhibit took first place and Armstrong County's exhibit won second at the International Fair at Eagle Pass, Texas, H. M. Breedlove, county agent, reported this week.

The two Panhandle counties carried off the top honors in the exhibit division while competing with 12 other counties in the valley.

The winning exhibit depicted the various agricultural products of Donley, featuring in the background a large Hereford Bull's head made of solid grain.

The exhibit was made by Mr. Breedlove and received much praise while being on display at the State Fair at Dallas and the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo.

Groom Youth Second In Hereford Event At Kansas City

A fat Hereford steer owned by a Groom, Texas, youth and competing against the nation's finest, won second place honors in its class at the American Royal Livestock Exposition at Kansas City Monday.

The steer was shown by G. C. Whatley, Jr., who has been a leader in 4-H and FFA work in his home community, and who has exhibited a number of animals at the Tri-State Fair and Amarillo Fat Stock Show at Amarillo.

First place in the division was taken by Columbian Ranch of Blanco, Colo., while third place went to Oklahoma A. & M.

Approximately 350 Ex-Students Of Clarendon College Expected To Attend Reunion Sunday, Nov. 24

Approximately 350 ex-students of Clarendon College are expected here on Sunday Nov. 24th, for the third annual college reunion, Ralph Porter, president of the exes, said today.

"We have mailed out over 700 invitations and the response would indicate that as many as 350 will attend," he said.

Mr. Porter said that this year's affair would be very informal and simple.

An old time Chapel exercise will be held in the college auditorium at 10 a. m., during which time the former students of the college will introduce themselves and also state at what time they attended the school.

At the noon hour, a dinner will be served in the girl's dormitory.

The entire afternoon will be given over to visiting and getting re-acquainted.

Ex-students of the college from all parts of the United States will attend this annual event.

Donley County Fills 1st Draft Quota Within 24 Hours After Call When Two Volunteers Are Accepted By Board

Donley County filled its quota of two for the first draft within 24 hours after the call was made when two men volunteered were examined, and accepted for army service by the local draft board last Friday.

The two, Henry Earl Spark and Charlie Allen Hunt, are both 24 years old and single and among the first to return their questionnaires.

Donley was called on to contribute only two men for the first draft in Donley County, west Texas.

The first call was for 1,573 men throughout all Texas, for drafting between Nov. 19 and Nov. 26.

The first hundred questionnaires were sent out two days before the first call was made.

Other counties nearby were asked to furnish the following: Potter, 13 from 2 boards; Childress, three; Armstrong, one; Carson, two; Gray, seven; Hall four, and Lubbock 15.

250 Questionnaires Sent Registrants In Donley County

The local Draft Board reported Wednesday that 250 questionnaires had been sent out to Donley County men who have registered under the selective service law.

"We have stopped sending out questionnaires because we ran out of them," one member of the board reported.

Asked when they would get in some more, he said that there was a shortage at every draft board and they would have to wait until more are printed and sent out of Washington.

The questionnaires will develop information to draft boards for determining the eligibility of registrants for a year's service in the United States army.

Judge N. P. Willis of Pampa was in Clarendon Tuesday looking after legal matters.

Mrs. Hayward Warner will be the instructor in charge of the knitting for the refugees of Europe, and will have as co-instructors Mesdames Ruth Kenne-

QUIET ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVED IN CLARENDON

While German, Italian and English warplanes rained death and destruction over Europe, Clarendon, in a peaceful manner observed Armistice Day by a quiet day with no reports of accidents to mar the day.

The day was unusually quiet in the city. The American Legion and the Clarendon High School band staged a short service at 11 a. m. The paraders marched from the city hall to Main Street where a short program commemorating the Armistice was held.

Many Clarendon people braved the cold during the afternoon to travel to Amarillo where they witnessed the Plainview-Amarillo football game. Others remained home beside their radios and fire to hear the game via air.

All stores in the city remained closed for the day. The sheriff's department reported an unusually quiet day with no arrests and no reports of accidents to mar the day.

PREPAREDNESS IS DISCUSSED BY REV. KING

"A Redecorated Preparedness" was the topic of the Rev. J. Perry King, pastor of the Baptist Church, in the annual Armistice service at the First Methodist Church last Sunday evening.

Using the text of Luke, 12-40, "Be Ye Therefore Ready Also," Rev. King stressed in his talk, a preparedness that prepares, a preparedness that prevents, and a preparedness that prevails.

The Baptist minister told his audience that preparedness of the soul was likewise essential as any other preparedness.

The Armistice program opened with the song, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," followed by the advance of the Colors and the "Star Spangled Banner."

After the Colors were set, the Rev. H. C. Gordon, pastor of the Methodist Church, gave the invocation. The Preamble of the Constitution was given by Rayburn Smith, commander of the local Legion post.

Following the song, "America, The Beautiful," the Rev. Cecil E. Harvey, First Christian Church pastor, said the prayer.

"God Bless America," retiring of the Colors, and benediction by Elder Claude C. Smith concluded the program. The organist was Mrs. Rayburn Smith, and the song leader, the Rev. M. M. Miller, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

THE "RIGHT" RULE OF CONDUCT

There is but one rule of conduct for a man—to do the right thing. The cost may be dear in money, in friends, in influence, in labor or in prolonged and painful sacrifice. But the cost not to do right is far more dear to you to pay in integrity of your manhood, in character in honor and in truth. You forfeit your soul's content and for timely gain you barter the infinities.—Knights of St. George.

A TIMELY WARNING

Ten "you cannots" are featured in a timely warning sounded throughout the country by Dr. Hugh S. Magill, President of the American Federation of Investors. And the editor of the Cedar Rapids Gazette believes they "should be in every political platform." The list follows:

- "You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift.
- "You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.
- "You cannot help small men by tearing down big men.
- "You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich.
- "You cannot lift the wage earner up by pulling the wage payer down.
- "You cannot further the brotherhood of man by inciting class hatred.
- "You cannot establish sound security on borrowed money.
- "You cannot build character and courage by taking away men's initiative and independence.
- "You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

THE SMALL TOWN

The small town is a place where there is not much to see, but the things you hear make up for that.

The small town is where everybody isn't three months behind with installment payments and where the wild life that stays up all night belongs to the cat family.

The small town is where you get the social status of the new family from the wash on the line.

The small town is where the editor of the weekly paper gets results when he announces through his columns that he is out of potatoes.

I am not here to ridicule the small town. I live in one myself. Have spent 39 years in the retail business in them. I have never envied any of you fellows who live in steel and concrete.

I have wondered what you would do for your bank presidents, the chairman of your board of directors, and your corporation executives if we did not send them to you from the small towns.

Most of the factories in this country would have to close down if the small town and rural buyers went on a strike. They are the real quantity and quality buyers of the country.

The small town made America what it is today, the envy of every other nation on the face of the globe—and the small town retailer has played his part.—Veach C. Redd, Past President National Hardware Dealers' Association.

Economic Highlights

Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

Near the end of October, a noteworthy event occurred. The Business Week industrial activity index, which is one of the standard business barometers, touched 136. That was seventeenth of a point higher than the previous all-time record, which was reached during the week of July 27, back in fabled and fabulous 1929.

What this obviously means is that we are in the midst of a boom — and a boom that will undoubtedly reach giddy heights before it is done. Equally obvious, it is not a healthy boom. It is based upon one thing, and one thing only—war. It will stop when war and war preparations stop. And, like all war booms, it is inflationary in tendency.

Dismissing that for the moment, it seems clear that a period of considerable artificial prosperity lies ahead of us. Practically all business will be affected. Modern war and modern preparation programs call for an unprecedented degree of national effort. For every soldier in uniform, there must be half a dozen men or more behind him in factories and supply depots, producing, distributing and handling the hundred and one articles that today's soldier must have if he is to be an efficient destroyer. In modern war, in brief, the civilian population is as much involved as the actual armies in the field.

Some industries will probably expand at a tremendous rate during the next few years. We have signs of that already in aircraft manufacture — the principal makers are working 24 hours a day, are building new plants as fast as the necessary labor and materials can be obtained, and have gigantic quantities of unfilled orders on hand. It was lately reported that Britain will buy 12,000 additional military planes in this country, and that our government will place orders for an equal number.

Railroad carloadings will be going up. Electric power output will necessarily follow the surging industrial production indices. And such basic heavy industries as steel will find their principal problem in figuring how to keep output up to demand.

Normally, a great jump in production such as this would involve gigantic profits. That will not be true this time. This year, for instance, many industries expect that net earnings will be under the 1939 level, even though production is substantially greater. There are a number of reasons for that. One is that commodity costs are rising. Still another is that it will be necessary to put a larger proportion of gross income back into plant failities. And the most important reason of all is taxes. We are starting a twenty or thirty billion dollar arms program on top of a $45,000,000,000 national debt, and in the face of the fact that Federal income has been under Federal spending for eight years. The boosts put into effect by the current Congress are generally regarded as but a modest start. It seems inevitable that far larger increases will be necessary next year and during the years to follow. At the same time, government will probably do all it can to hold down prices of finished products, and to force industry to absorb as much of the higher costs as it can. Profits must be adequate, but they won't be great.

It isn't pleasant to think of the depression that, in the view of most economists, will follow the war boom. History shows us again and again that prosperity based on a war production is eventually disastrous. But force of circumstances is forcing us to follow the rest of the world in the race toward military supremacy. So, until peace comes again to a tired world, business is going to be booming in America.

The "Battle of Britain" is at least temporarily slowing in tempo. The Battle of the Empire" has begun. Starting point was Italy's invasion of Greece.

Whoever controls Greece, its islands, and its many undeveloped sea and naval and submarine bases, largely controls the Mediterranean — Mussolini's "Mare nostrum." The Italian attack on Greece is obviously designed as the first step in a carefully planned Axis effort to destroy Britain's influence in that area. If that attempt should succeed, the Axis would have taken a long step toward eventual victory in the war.

Whether it will succeed is the question now. Best answers seem to be that it will fail. For one thing, the Italians, as in the past, have shown themselves to be poor fighters — the pathetically small and ill-equipped Greek army has made the going plenty tough for Italy's warriors. For another thing, it looks now as if Russia is none too happy about present Axis moves, and may be preparing to resist them.

For a third thing, the British navy is still the best navy in Europe, by a tremendous margin. Italian naval forces have steadfastly avoided meeting their English enemy, even when they had the advantage in number and size of ships. Amusing commentary on this is found in a story which has been making the rounds in London. Every navy,

By BOYCE HOUSE

My friend, Mr. Cohen, makes this comment on the axis powers getting Japan to join up, "Ven a beezness is making money, it don't take in no new partner."

Towns are like people in that they have individuality. It would be difficult to imagine a town with a more complex personality than Huntsville has. It is the home of one of the State teachers' colleges and there are state-like buildings and a campus, green and smooth, overhung with grand, wide-spreading trees.

The town is rich with memories of Sam Houston. His home is there; his tomb is there. One of the banks has his picture printed on its checks. One of the main cafes is called "The Raven," the name that the Indians bestowed on Houston.

But when Huntsville is mentioned, almost every Texan thinks — not about the hero of San Jacinto or about Sam Houston State Teachers College—but about the penitentiary. The grim ramparts are only a stone's throw from the business district. And on the eve of an execution, the nearness of "the Walls" and the impending event seem to affect the conversation of the citizenry the story runs, has its own favorite drink! The English prefer gin, the Americans take whiskey and the Italians stick to port!

for they talk in lower voices than usual. I hunted all over town unsuccessfully for some picture post cards of the penitentiary. There were several friends that I wanted to send them to with the customary vacation greeting, "Wish you were here."

Did you know (probably you did) that buttermilk and cod liver oil are in "chick starter," the first food for chicks? And there are separate foods for growing, for broilers, for layers and as "fatners" — and a different but similar kind of diet for turkeys. Besides, the mills turn out (right here in Texas) rabbit feed, pigeon feed and dog food; likewise, feeds for dairy cattle, horses and mules, and even a protein supplement for swine. Why doesn't somebody tell me these things? And do you know what range cubes are?

There never was a more wonderful place than Grampapa-and-Grandma's farm. The berries that you buy today in nice little wooden boxes don't taste half so good as those that grew wild up there in the hills and that were all the more delicious because the briars pricked your fingers. The wild plums were just the right combination of sweetness and tartness. And there were the muscadines and persimmons (the latter fooling the unwary by being puckery when they looked ripe and not being actually ripe till they looked rotten).

Besides, there was a small orchard of pear, peach and apple trees. Those apples looked different and tasted different from any I've ever eaten anywhere else. They were a sort of dusky and dusty red with a firmness that reluctantly yielded its tart-like juice. Why some enterprising firm hasn't grown and marketed apples like those instead of these sawdust-tasting substitutes I have never been able to understand. Maybe they could not stand along with the apples the various appetites of a romping boy, however.

A Matador reader sends in two jokes for the contest: A white woman had just engaged a colored girl who had recently lost her husband. Going into the maid's room, she discovered her placing a suit of black underwear on the bed, with the explanation, "Missus, when Ah mourns, Ah mourns all over."

Another colored maid, about to be married, asked her mistress to keep her savings, $60, for her, giving as her reason, "Ah hates to keep all dat money in de house wid a strang niggah man."

There are more than 600 laws pertaining to wildlife on the Texas statutes.

"I've got a bone to pick with you," she said

I had an idea what was coming, but I never batted an eye.

"I understand, Mr. Electric Light man," she said, "that you've been saying electric rates have been cut."

"Right," I said, "in fact, electric rates have been cut about 50% in the last ten years."

"Ha," she cried, "then maybe you can tell me why my electric bill runs higher now than it used to."

"Yes, madam," I said, "I can. Mine runs higher, too, and so, no doubt, does most everybody's in town. You see, all of us are using a whole lot more electricity now than we used to. Take your own case—I'll bet you've got a vacuum cleaner, a radio, an iron, maybe you're using those bigger and better light bulbs, and maybe you've got an electric ice box. The point is, you're probably using three or four times the electricity you did ten years ago!"

"Hmmm," she said, "I hadn't thought of that."

"Few people do think of that," I said, "and here's another thing — our customers not only get twice as much electricity for their money —they get better service. We've got two and three plants on the line that brings electricity to your very house, so in case something happens in one point your service won't be crippled."

"Dear me," she said, "I never knew that either."

"And what does it cost?" I went on. "About a dime a day for most of our customers. Think of that—the convenience of electricity for less than most men spend on cigarettes."

I could see she was beginning to wilt, so I signed off with—"You not only get twice as much for your money, but you cut your own rate every time you use more. With our modern electric rates it's automatic—the more you use the lower the price."

She fished in her bag for her handkerchief and I thought maybe my oratory had moved her to tears! But she grinned and waved the handkerchief—

"Flag of truce," she cried, "I give up—electricity is a bargain all right."

Who says we're not patriotic? Within 24 hours after Donley County's first draft call was made, a number of young men flocked to the local draft board and volunteered for enlistment, and Donley's quota of two was quickly filled. Not only that, but of the first 25 or 30 questionnaires returned to the board, five or six of the draft eligibles placed themselves in the No. 1 classification, thus making themselves eligible for first call.

What would you do if somebody gave you this one to solve:

A man had 17 horses and in his will he left one-half of them to his oldest son, one-third to his second son, and one-ninth to his youngest son.

How many horses did each son get?

After one metropolitan paper said it was impossible to solve equitably, a Monahan man comes along and gives this solution. He says:

"The first thing to do is to borrow a horse from someone, add it to the 17, giving 18 horses. Give the oldest son 9, which

LIBRARY NOTES

By MRS. C. A. BURTON

Children's Book Week will again be celebrated from the 10th to the 16th of this month. The slogan this year is "Good Books — Good Friends." This is the twenty second year's celebration of Book Week, and twenty four national associations are this year urging its importance. It is difficult for us to realize the forward steps which have been taken in the production of Children's literature during these twenty-two years. We have been happy to be able to give our own readers among the children an unusually good selection of books this year.

While a clerk was going thru old ledgers in the general land office at Austin the other day, an old letter by O. Henry dropped out from its pages. It was dated July 31, 1886, and was written by O. Henry for the firm for which he was working.

Gifts of several books have been appreciated lately. Mrs. J. T. Sims and Mrs. T. H. Peebles each gave us quite an armful, and John Burton King brought us two books for boys which were most welcome.

The leading best seller just now is "Mrs. Miniver" by Jan Struther. Since that is true you may be interested in knowing a little about the author. She is Mrs. Maxtone Graham, and is spending this year in New York with her sister-in-law while her husband is with the Scots Guards. He was an insurance broker before the war. Their eldest son who is sixteen, is in school in England while the two younger children are in school in New York. Jan Struther was born Joyce Anstruther, her mother also being a writer. She was Director of the Camps Library in the last war which sent millions of books to the troops overseas. A service for which Mrs. Anstruther received government recognition. The mother-in-law was also a writer, so it was necessary that Joyce Anstruther choose a name of her own. She put her initial with the family name and became "Jan Struther." She was educated in London and just naturally began writing early in life, contributing to English magazines. She describes herself as "Lowland Scot" — is small dark haired and very attractive. She is much amused and often quite provoked that her readers everywhere feel that she herself is Mrs. Miniver.

We find ourselves quite interested in the fact that she is living in this country — which is so rapidly becoming the mecca for all of literary Europe. The daily press this week carries the account of the landing of Mrs. Monica Linya, daughter of Thomas Mann, the well known exiled anti-Nazi German author. Mrs. Linya stated that her husband was killed on the voyage over when their refugee ship was torpedoed. Dr. Alvin Johnson, director of the new school of Social Research, recently made the statement that more than 100 of Europe's leading schools would be brought to this country within the next year — that a $500,000 fund had been pledged for this purpose.

Steadily Texas writers and Texas literature is gaining recognition. Whitney Montgomery Dallas poet and publisher, has recently made available a new collection of Texas verse, entitled "The Road to Texas." It is an anthology devoted exclusively to poems about Texas — many of them by such distinguished writers as Walt Whitman, Joaquin Miller, Amy Lowell, Harriet Monroe, Clinton Scolland and Henry Van Dyke.

Almost all of you read Luara Kreys' "and Tell of Time" — a Texas story by a Texas woman.

And now comes the news that Mrs. Kreys has published her second story, "On the Long Tide" — and that this, too, is a story of Texas. The time of her first story was the time immediately following the Civil War — the early settlement of the Brazos Country. This story is of the years of revolt from Mexico and subsequent independence. Though Mrs. Kreys now lives in St. Paul, where her husband is professor of medicine at the University of Minnesota, yet one must know from her stories that she knows and loves Texas.

Not only Texas but our own Panhandle country gives evidence occasionally of literary ability. Not long ago we mentioned the book by Mrs. John Harvey of Shaurock, and later Mrs. W. T. Locke of Miami was notified that her short story had won first place in the district and would be entered in the state contest of the Federation of Women's clubs.

CLARENDON STILL IN CONFERENCE TITLE RACE

McLean, Shamrock and Clarendon continued driving at a hard pace toward the district 3-A championship with the first real showdown in the title battle scheduled for this Friday night when the Tigers and Bronchos clash on the Clarendon field.

Tied for first place in the conference, McLean and Shamrock kept their district records clean this past week by downing Wheeler and Wellington. The Tigers rolled over the Wheeler Mustangs, 24-6, while the Fighting Irish displayed a show of ground power to defeat the Wellington Skyrockets, 18-0.

Meanwhile, the Clarendon Bronchos, holding down second spot in the league with a chance of winning a tie for the district crown, nosed out the Memphis Cyclones, 6-0, in a hard fought grudge game at Memphis.

In the other 3-A contest, the Lefors Pirates barely outclassed a fighting Lakeview team, 6-0.

The Bronchos will have to be at their best Friday when they tackle the highly-touted Tigers, for a loss to the McLean team will definitely eliminate Clarendon from the title race. On the other hand, should the Tigers go down, they can still end the season in a 3-way tie by defeating Shamrock in the final conference game the following week.

Turkeys will not move very far for water during the heat of the day. Water should be placed where the turkeys rest and not across the pasture.

BISHOP HOLT WILL OPEN ANNUAL CONFERENCE FRIDAY AT 8:30

Led by District Superintendent G. T. Palmer, Clarendon Methodists will go to Pampa Friday to participate in the annual sessions of the Northwest Texas Conference, which will be conducted by Bishop Ivan L. Holt, Rev. H. C. Gordon, Rev. A. S. Forch, J. R. Porter, Sam M. Braswell and many other local Methodists will be in attendance.

Clarendon District shows improved reports this conference year according to Dr. Palmer, and the local church, under the pastorate of Rev. H. C. Gordon, is among the foremost congregations of the district.

For the first time since all branches of the Methodist church were united into one group, the Northwest Texas annual conference is being held in Pampa. The conference opens Friday, November 15, and lasts through Tuesday November 19.

It will be the first time the Northwest Texas conference has met in Pampa since 1929.

Heading the conference will be Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas; the Rev. Cal C. Wright, secretary, Vernon; and the superintendents of nine districts: The Reverends T. M. Johnston, Stamford; Will C. House, Amarillo; C. A. Bickley, Abilene; E. B. Bowen, Sweetwater; T. S. Barcus, Perryton; E. E. White, Plainview; G. T. Palmer, Clarendon; Dr. O. P. Clark, Lubbock; the Rev. Wright, conference secretary, who is also superintendent of the Vernon district.

A meeting of the executive board of education will be held Thursday night, preceding the conference opening. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the First Methodist church will formally open the conference. Directing the ceremony will be Bishop Holt, assisted by the district superintendents.

At 7:30 o'clock that night the conference will be organized. The bishop will address the convocation and conduct periods of devotion. After Friday, sessions will be held from 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. each day.

On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock a love feast will be held at the church, directed by the older ministers of the conference.

Special music will feature the conference. On Saturday afternoon and evening, the vested junior choir of the Shamrock church will sing, on Sunday the Pampa High school a capella choir.

From the Methodist Orphans home at Waco will come 25 children to present vocal and instrumental music on Monday. The

PRESIDENT URGES FULL SUPPORT FOR RED CROSS

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Declaring that the American Red Cross has "an essential place in the great program of national defense," President Roosevelt urged "all who can possibly do so" to support the annual Roll Call.

Red Cross chapters throughout the nation launched the annual appeal for membership Armistice Day. The Roll Call ends November 30.

"The annual membership Roll Call of the American Red Cross, which is about to begin," the chief executive stated, "is vitally important to all of our citizens. As an auxiliary to all of our armed forces, the Red Cross has an essential place in the great program of national defense in which we are now engaged.

"Our people have learned through the years to turn to the Red Cross for practical aid in any emergency and that high trust always has been fulfilled. Behind this great voluntary relief organization is a record of public service, both in time of war and peace, which makes it an inseparable part of our national life.

"Under its congressional charter one of the primary duties of the Red Cross is to render aid as a medium of communication between them and the people of the United States. The rapid expansion of our defense man-power calls, therefore, for a corresponding increase in Red Cross service to our soldiers, sailors, and their families at home. Modern warfare, in transferring the tragedy of the battlefield, with all its suffering and destruction, to the heart of civilian populations, has emphasized the importance to our civil defense of such Red Cross services as home nursing, first aid and emergency relief.

"We must not forget, however, even in times of special emergency that the continuation of the vast peace-time work of the Red Cross and educational services have peculiar value at this time. Likewise it must continue to be prepared to give instant help in the event of such great natural calamities as famine, fire, flood, and epidemics.

"The Red Cross membership button, which millions of Americans will wear during the coming weeks, is a splendid symbol of our national unity against the forces of destruction and misery. Soon the American Red Cross will invite each of us to share in this national preparedness. As Chief Executive of the nation and President of the Red Cross, I strongly urge all who possibly can do so, to join the Red Cross during this period of annual enrollment — Armistice Day to November 30th. It is a call to which I am sure the American people will proudly and cheerfully respond."

Emma Ayers, and Billie Lou and Clynelle Gilbert visited with Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Brents in Amarillo Tuesday night.

Waco institution is marking its 50th anniversary, having been organized at the Northwest Texas conference in Abilene in 1890.

Adjournment of the conference will occur Tuesday afternoon with the reading of the appointments.

SEVERAL OBJECTS ADDED TO DONLEY COUNTY MUSEUM

Since the last report from the Donley County Museum several highly appreciated objects have been added to the displays. Bagby has given an antique frame for holding tongs and shovel for the fireplace, formerly belonging to Mrs. Ella McCrory. ## CARD OF THANKS

Even in our darkest hour of grief in the loss of our dear husband and father, we cannot but do our best to express to our many friends and neighbors our sincerest thanks and appreciation for all the many acts of sympathy and kindness of the last few weeks. We shall never forget those who have sought to lessen our burdens, and our prayer is that double kindness will come to you should you be called to pass through this valley of sorrow. We especially appreciate the silent tribute of the floral offering.

Yours in thankfulness,
Mrs. Moreman and Children.

Mr. Homer Mulkey was in Dallas the first of the week.

J. A. MOREMAN-- HEDLEY PIONEER BURIED MONDAY

SUFFERED PARALYTIC STROKE IN AUGUST, DIED SUNDAY, NOV. 10

Funeral services were held Monday, Nov. 11th, at the Methodist Church in Hedley for J. A. Moreman, 71, a pioneer resident and business man of that city for the past thirty-five years.

Mr. Moreman suffered a paralytic stroke on August 9th, and had been in a serious condition since that date. Death came to relieve his sufferings on Sunday, Nov. 10.

John Anee Moreman was born in Kentucky, March 23, 1869, and moved to Bonham, Texas, when he was sixteen years of age. He was married to Miss Alice E. Suddath, Nov. 20, 1895, and to this union two children were born. The Moremans moved from Ector, Texas, to Hedley in 1906, and he engaged in the hardware and furniture business there for many years. He was regarded as one of the leading citizens of Donley County, was a man of sterling character, well-beloved by his hundreds of friends to whom he was known as "Uncle Johnnie." Mr. Moreman was converted and joined the Methodist Church when he was 25 years of age and was a staunch Christian and loyal churchman to the time when failing health forced inactivity. For many years he was a steward and a trustee of his local church.

The deceased was a home-loving man, kind and patient, and his passing is a sad blow to his surviving wife and two daughters, Mrs. Rolle Brumley of McCamey, Texas, and Mrs. Bill Ray of Clarendon. Two grandchildren, John Carroll and Shirley Brumley of McCamey, also survive. T. R. Moreman of Hedley and Frank Moreman of Lelia Lake are brothers of the deceased.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. I. E. Biggs, his pastor, assisted by Rev. H. C. Gordon of Clarendon. Interment was in the Clarendon Cemetery. The Womack Funeral Home had charge of the funeral.

Pall bearers were Ray Moreman, Ralph Moreman, Glen Schults, Leon Reeves, Hobert

Moffitt, Earl Tollett. Honorary pall bearers were J. B. Master-son, D. L. Hickey, W. I. Rains, O. R. Culwell, Lake Dishman and Joe Goldston.

Mrs. O. C. Watson, Jr., and baby daughter, Helen Hope, of Lubbock are here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson, Sr.

Neil Wright of Lubbock spent the week-end here visiting with friends.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS FOR HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE
Please turn in any question to Wilma Jean Warren that you would like to have answered in the Broncho Range.

1. Shall a boy open the door and help a girl in and out of the car?
Yes, that is the proper thing to do; however some boys think that it is a lot of unnecessary trouble.

2. When at a dance, if someone whom you do not care to dance with asks for a dance what should you do?
The polite thing to do would be to dance with this person. When that one dance is over you may excuse yourself, or you may say "No, thank you" or "I don't care to dance this one. Thank you."

3. At a dance when the set is turned to "ladies choice" is it rude for a girl to ask a boy that has not danced with her all evening to dance with her?
No, it is not. Various reasons could have prevented his dancing with her. Since the ladies do have their choice it is proper for them to ask anyone for the dance.

4. Is it necessary for a boy when in a crowded cafe, to let a girl near him order before he does if she is not with him?
This is not necessary.

THANKSGIVING DAY
Calle Mae Gunter
"Over the river, and through the woods to Grandmother's house is what we used to do. Nearly everyone who had a grandmother went to her house for a big family gathering on Thanksgiving Day and more important to the children, a big family dinner!

Let us go back to the first Thanksgiving day in America. It was the year of 1621 and the date was December 13th. We are told that this first Thanksgiving lasted for three days. That day had been set in the Plymouth Colony by Governor Bradford as a time for being thankful and showing gratitude to Almighty God for the bounties received in this land of hardship and struggle. Each country represented had been accustomed to celebrating sometime during the year for things that they were accustomed to celebrating sometime during the year for things that they were thankful for, and all heartily joined in the celebration. Thus the first Thanksgiving was faithfully observed. In fact, a law passed to the effect that a fine of five shillings be imposed on those who did any sort of labor or work on Thanksgiving Day!

But the American Thanksgiving as a holiday had no established permanence for more than two hundred years after its first celebration. During the Revolution there were eight different days of Thanksgiving appointed by Continental Congress as days of gratefulness for victorious battles in the war.

Finally President Washington designated November 26th as the National holiday, but transportation and communication being what they were, caused every few to know about the holiday. Lincoln made the last Thursday in November as a convenient Thanksgiving Day in 1862. This Proclamation lasted until 1939 when President Roosevelt proclaimed the third Thursday in November.

The change in dates really doesn't change the spirit of the day. We have such good cause to celebrate Thanksgiving Day, there are so many things that we are grateful for. And while being grateful, let us not forget to think of those patient, persistent and hardheaded colonists who braved the unbroken land of a new continent to establish a land of freedom for their children's children, and for you and me.

Seen! Who driving who's car where and when, sometime Saturday. Who was the other in the car.

What boys wanted to be wall flowers Friday night and the girls wouldn't let them?
If you have noticed anything wrong with Ella Gene, don't think anything about it for she only has those old "Memph' Blues".

Talk about scared chickens! There were a few from Clarendon standing around a certain Memphis store for a while Friday night.

Was it the cold weather that made a certain football player go "nutty" or was it the fog? It couldn't have been the girl friend!

We hear the Pep Leaders had the floor to themselves Friday night, when they ate supper.

Anna Lynn must like popcorn!
Howard Gibbs was being "watched" Friday night by two girls! He has a sister, you know and Geraldine Jordan makes a good spy.

Why did Marilyn Sawyer want to know who Pauline was with Sunday?

We would like to see that cowboy that causes so much trouble between Mary Frances and Rachel.

Jo Ann and Marjorie were seen with some tall, dark, and handsome ex-cowboys Saturday night. Someone told us a new romance was budding. Could it be between Jean Taylor and Clyde Peabody?

Did you notice the football boy's "sweet" smile and polite "No, thanks" when the Memphis players invited them to stay and celebrate?

"Ain't It Arful"
The way some people do go around!

into a gossip column and is always being accused of sneak-in and speak-in or in this case writing.

That Bailey Estes has found a new "gurr!" friend? Who is none other than Mary Jo Shaffer. Well — more "what-you-may-call-it" to 'em!

That Ella Gene and someone else are going back to their old haunts — the Peabody twins? You can imagine who the other "gurr!" is.

How did Louise Butler get home from the game Friday night? The certain somebody from Lakeview didn't show up.

The way Mr. James gives a True False test then tells the answers. Well, you can pass a test that way.

"That all the football games aren't at Memphis" — says Wilma Jean. Wonder why?

That Gerry isn't going to move? Waldron was already "sized up" the future.

That Mr. Walden has to phone every morning during second period study hall?

That Carl B. just studies when his English notebook is due. (I hope that Mrs. Goodner doesn't see this).

That some people want to "just walk" on Saturday nights? Everyone that's tried it so far seems to have enjoyed it so maybe more of us had better try it. Sounds interesting!

That Fred changes girl friends so often? Who is she this time, Fred?

That we're gonna have to turn in the coaches to the "Humane Society" for working the boys in this weather.

FASHION PARADE

Here we are back to clothes talk and we will begin with that dashing Ralph Morrow, Iva Ruth says she simply can't do anything except gaze at Ralph's new green sweaters.

Margaret Jean Leathers picked up a good looking rust sued-jacket somewhere between here and New York. (Also a red velvet jacket with a matching "beanie." There was a colorful parade of corduroy Friday. The parades? Jossie Davis, Wanda Lee Stapp, Mary Jo Sheaffer Pauline Mays, and Betty Ryan.

Very dazzling is Gerry Jo Caraway in her moss green silk corduroy dress. (Very nice Betty Jo.)

Says Mary Nell Keys: Doesn't G. G. look precious this morning? His trousers are darling! (Moss green tweeds).

That's all this week!
P. S. — Neta Jane announces that any good looking Romeo is welcome to autograph her brown leather jacket.

THE STUDENTS ATTITUDE

The attitude of the students toward assembly depends on what period it is. If they miss a test it's wonderful. Seriously — the students enjoy this time very much and rather look forward to it.

In class rooms of course there are some who are still rather young (so says Mr. James about the second period Civics Class). But there is almost an ideal group of students in every class. And of course the subject has a lot to do with it. If the student likes the subject then they are fairly good. But if they do not they try to bother the lesson as well as other students.

Naturally, the study halls are a place for studies. But are they used for that? No — they are used for talking about "the" girl friend, last night, or maybe as the case may be, "the" girl friend. Or a conversation about anything but school. But what would we do without study halls?

On the campus the attitude is a friendly one. Everyone knows everyone and it seems like one big happy family.

On the whole the attitude of the student body is good everywhere and to everyone.

CYNIC VIEWS OPPOSITE SEX

Girls! If you have been having trouble with the b. f. — and if you've begun to wonder about the mentality, etc., of the opposite sex — then your worries are over. The following article, taken from the Western Geographic, (who took it from the Idaho Pioneer) gives a complete explanation concerning those queer creatures the men.

"Men are what women marry. They have two feet, two hands, sometimes two wives, never more than one dollar, or one idea at one time. Men are all made of the same material, the only difference is that some are a little better disguised than others."

"Generally speaking they may be divided into three classes: husbands, bachelors, and widowers. An eligible bachelor is a man of substance, entirely surrounded by a suspicion. Making a husband of a man is one of the highest plastic arts known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope, and charity.

"It is a psychological marvel that a soft, fluffy, tender, violet-scented thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big awkward, stubby-chinned, tobacco and bay rum scented thing like a man! If you flatter a man, it frightens him to death. If you do not it bores him to death. If you permit him to make love to you in the beginning, he gets tired of you, in the end, and if you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning."

"If you agree with everything he tells you, he thinks you are a fool, if you don't, he thinks you are a cynic: If you wear any colors and a startling hat he hesitates to take you out; if you wear a little brown toque, and a tailor-made he takes you out and stares at a woman in gay colors and a startling hat."

"If you join with his gayeties and approve of his smoking and drinking he swears you are leading him to the devil; if you do not approve of his smoking and drinking he swears you are driving him to the devil. If you are a clinging-vine type, he again if you have a brain, and again if you are a modern, advanced and independent woman, he doubts if you have a heart. If you are a silly he longs for a bright mate and if you are intellectual he longs for a playmate."

"A man is but a worm in the dust, he comes along, wriggles for a while and finally a chick gets him."

HOME ECONOMICS REPORT

One of the most exciting entertainments for the Home Making girls was a dinner served Tuesday night by one class of the second year girls to the Bronchos, the members of the School Board, and their wives.

The girls planned and made all the favors as a part of their regular class work. It is a part of their training in foods to not only learn to balance diets and learn how to cook, but they must learn how and when, and where to write formal and informal invitations, how to be hostesses and how to plan and work up entertainments.

The event was a climax to the projects they had been studying. The room was attractively decorated in maroon and white. The tables represented the football field with the different yard lines, and the goal posts of candies in each end zone. Bowls of maroon and white chysanthemums and ferns completed the decorations.

The helmet nut cups were filled with salted almonds, mints, and stuffed dates. The place cards were players with the number of the player on each card. The pigskin (football) was used for the menu card, and contained the following menu: Kick-off Cocktail: seared ham, Broncho beans, substitutes sauce and punted potatoes. Srrimmage squash: booster rolls and blocked butter.

Side-line Salad: Touchdown pie, passed coffee, Memphis nuts, whipped cream, tackled tea and Clarendon mints.

Mr. Gillham, a football fan, was Master of Ceremonies, and added very spicy remarks between numbers.

The following program was given: A welcome to Bronchos from a Home Making girl — Betty John Goldston.

Football from the Business Man's viewpoint — Mr. Clyde Douglas.

Piano solo — Frankie Hommel.

Coaches reaction to the play and town — Mr. Warden. Football and the School — Ray Bulls.

Community singing, accompanied by Mrs. Allen Bryan and led by Mr. Drennan, completed the program.

Miss Berry gave me an interesting sideline to the dinner that I would like to pass on. She said when she asked the girls to select the Broncho each would like to be hostess to, no girl would commit herself, but after class many girls asked to have the captain or to be placed between the two captains. How is that for popularity? Who else wants to be captain?

JOKES
Mr. Larimer: Geraldine, who is the smartest one in your class? Geraldine Jordan: "Well, I don't like to brag".

Miss Hall: "Homer, write a short theme on the subject of baseball."

Homer's Theme: "Rain. No game!"

Mr. Stewart: (in Physics Class) — "Dorothy Nell, what is a vacuum?"

Dorothy Nell: Well, I don't exactly know, but I've got it in my head."

An epidemic of colds has struck the city. June Melton, Marilyn Sawyer, and two of Carl Morris' hogs have it.

Question in Physics Examination: "What is the advantage of studying Physics?"

Durwood Mears' Answer: "It decreases the number of Seniors."

Mr. Warden: Harold, what is the highest form of animal life? Harold D.: The giraffe.

Miss Wallis: Who was Christopher Columbus? Roy Bulls: "He was the original 'See America First' advocate."

Margaret Fay: "What did he mean by the horns of dilemma?" Nelda Sue B.: "Two autos, I suppose, honking at you at once."

Sara Beth was scanning "Annabell Lee" quite fast one day, and Mrs. Goodner exclaimed: "Wait! Wait! You are going so fast I can't count your feet."

Annie Ree: (passing drug store window) — "Doesn't that candy look good!"

James Earl: Uh huh! Let's stand here and look at it a little while."

Miss Hall: "What did Chau-er write?" June Miller: "Cranberry Tales."

BEAUTIFUL PLUMMAGE GIRLS!

One of the first "musts" for beautiful plumage is a well-balanced diet with emphasis on green vegetables, fruits, bread, preferably whole wheat, with plenty of milk and water. A shampoo at least once every two weeks and as a touch of neatness as well as cleanliness. Oily hair requires a strong shampoo, but for drier hair, a milder form should be used. After three or four rinses in luke warm water and a final rinse with lemon juice or vinegar gives your hair that luster that men admire. A hair dress to suit one's individual type should be chosen so as to bring out the best that is yours. New becoming styles lean towards the side. Up-sweep with a gentle drop at the ends. Page boy with a pompadour or soft top curls is still holding its own or the "best" list. A reverse roll with end curls is still being chosen by many. The fluffed hair seems to be a favorite because it is so easy to comb. Some individual hair styles on the campus are: Mariam Gordon, strikingly attractive in a pompadour and long fluff of pageboy.

Wilma Henson, an attractive brunette always looks nice in soft waves and pageboy.

Nelda Sue Burton with natural curls chooses a style of her own, combination wave and curls.

Annie Ree Porter, and attractive blonde wears a long, loose page boy which is very becoming.

Nina Sloan looks nice with oodles of neat curls on top and also in the back. Very becoming, I'd say!

JR. BEAUX ARTS NEWS

The Junior Beaux Arts Club held the regular meeting, Thursday, November 7, 1940. Four new names were placed before the club and were voted on.

Then, Mrs. Mary K. Todd gave a short talk on "Planning a Home" and Billie Lou Gilbert gave a talk on "Good Taste in the Home."

Each program for this year will be centered around the home. Our sponsors, Miss Howren and Mrs. J. W. Evans feel that the home would be the most interesting subjects we could study. Delicious refreshments were served by Mildred Phelps and Laverne Goodman, to approximately sixteen members, our sponsors and one guest, Mrs. Nita Shelton.

CHAPEL

This week's chapel program started off with the Boys Glee Club singing "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," and "The Little Brown Church in the Wildwood." As an encore they sang "Good Night Ladies." The next number was a song "Blueberry Hill" by Kitty Ruth Bailey. The whole assembly next sang several songs. Nelda Sue Burton played a piano solo. The program closed with talks from coaches Warden and James and some yells for the football squad.

SPANISH STUDENTS ORGANIZE

Students of the Spanish Class and many former Spanish students organized a Spanish club Tuesday, November 7th. The following officers were elected at this meeting: President, Claude Hearn; Vice President, Clyde B. Douglas; Secretary, Treasurer, La Rue Shadle; and Reporter, Maxine Robertson.

A second meeting was called Friday, a program committee was appointed, and Louise Butler was elected Publicity Agent. Various activities were discussed, and it was decided that the club would meet at noon each Thursday. A name for the club will be selected at the next meeting.

Red Cross Sees Action In 102 Disasters In Year

During the past year American Red Cross relief operations were conducted in 102 states listing a total of 102 floods, tornadoes, fires and other forms of natural disaster. Aid was given to more than 100,000 disaster victims needing temporary shelter, food, clothing, medical care and rehabilitation. Top—The wake of a tornado that swept through the deep south. ## BRONCS EKE OUT 6-0 WIN OVER CYCLONES

In one of the hardest fought contests of the season the Clarendon Bronchos eked out a bare 6-0 victory over the Memphis Cyclones by virtue of a fourth period touchdown at Memphis last Friday night to stay in the district 3-A title race.

Early in the fourth frame, the Bronchos worked the ball from the Memphis 34 down to the 12-yard stripe where they lost their first scoring chance when the ball went over on downs.

After an exchange of punts, Bud Hermesmeyer, right half sneaked through the center of the line and weaved his way through the entire Cyclone defense for 35 yards to score. Hartzog's try for the extra point was no good.

Throughout the first half play was even, with both sides featuring kicking. Neither Clarendon nor Memphis were willing to take any chances on the muddy field, and both teams resorted to punting.

Both the Clarendon and Memphis lines were at their best, displaying spectacular blocking and tackling throughout the game.

Besides Hermesmeyer, Capt. Hartzog and McCrary, who alternated at left end and half, thrilled the fans with their long runs.

Grimes, Memphis blocking back and Stillwell, stellar right end, turned in excellent performances for the Cyclones.

Clarendon chalked up ten first downs to Memphis's two, and led in yards gained from rushing, 207 to 51.

The starting lineups:

Memphis: le, Edwards; lt, Bruce; lg, Lowry; center, Smith; rg, Evans; rt, Melton; re, Stillwell; qb, Morris; lb, Butler; rh, Grimes; fb, George.

Clarendon: le, Kirkland; lt, Lumpkin; lg, Bulls; center, Goodman; rg, Smith; rt, Spencer; re, Summers; qb, Hartzog; lf, McCrary; rh, Hermesmeyer; fb, Gordon.

STILL THINKS OF CLARENDON AS HER HOME

Sending in her renewal for the News another year, Mrs. L. L. Swan of Wellington, Kansas, writes, "I can not get along without the News, for it is like a letter from home. You see I still think of Clarendon as home. Kindest regards to all."

Contrary to popular belief, the use of snuff is not dying out. Around 38 million pounds went to market in 1938.

A 2,000,000-BALE COTTON MARKET IS LOST

COLLEGE STATION — Twenty-two European countries, which formerly purchased from two to three million bales of American cotton, probably will not be buying any this year.

For all those nations are either within the German orbit and so are unable to buy, or they are blockaded and so cannot obtain shipments. Only three European markets are available, and there is little possibility that they will import much cotton.

That's what Cliff H. Day, senior field officer of the AAA, is pointing out to country agricultural agents, home demonstration agents, and AAA county committeemen and secretaries in a series of meetings being held this month in the various Extension Service districts of Texas. Those attending the meetings are studying the 1941 AAA program and the cotton situation prior to the cotton marketing quota referendum to be held December 7.

During recent months practically no cotton has gone to continental Europe, Day explains, while cotton exports to countries still buying have dropped, decreases ranging from 40 percent to 90 percent. Total exports this year may drop to 2,000,000 bales, or even lower, he predicted as compared with exports of more than 6,000,000 bales during the past season.

Portugal, Spain and the United Kingdom are the only European countries still open to cotton shipments, the AAA official declares. During the 1939-40 marketing season they imported 2,207,965 bales of American cotton, but no estimates can be made as to how much they will be able to buy during the current season.

"Sure" and "O. K."

Typical American answers, being given in plants and factories all over the United States today, are "sure" and "O. K." For American business, which must produce the "sinews of war," is on the march!

We have a genius for organization and production in this country born of our conquest of the continent. We know how to "get things done" and we're getting them!

Tungsten is needed for tank construction and a supply is located in far-away Turkey. Two American ships are in the neighborhood but one hasn't enough fuel to stop for the ore. American business men in the National Defense Commission who know the Near East get busy. Cables are sent. "Phone calls are made. "Sure, we can pick it up" . . . the tungsten is soon on its way to this country.

It takes from 400 to 600 sub-contracts to produce the parts and accessories for a single bombing plane. A job that would ordinarily take months must be put through in weeks.

"O. K. we'll step on it" . . . and in much less time than was anticipated the planes will come through.

American business men know how to work under pressure. Plant expansion and new tools are needed to produce other equipment. That means an investment of hundreds of thousands of dollars; perhaps millions. A manufacturer must be able to pay off this investment and make a reasonable return to his stockholders, but red tape often hinders the necessary governmental assurance from coming through as soon as is desirable.

"O. K. we'll take a chance . . ." In dozens of cases manufacturers are saying this — going ahead with the necessary expansion before contracts are signed. For American business men, who have the responsibility for building our defense, know how important it is to get going. Our national security may depend on speed.

It took initiative and a lot of hard work to build a nation like this in 150 years. There wasn't a city west of the Mississippi in 1800 and now look at it. The men and women who made this country weren't afraid of danger or toil. They said "Sure—" and as our slang developed they said, "O. K." — Typical American expressions — showing clearly the typical American spirit!

EVEN SWEET MILK CAUSED SUFFERING SAYS ROSA SCHRUM

MISERY CAUSED BY INDIGESTION, GAS, BLOATING AND CONSTIPATION ROUTED BY HOYT'S COMPOUND SAYS GRAND JUNCTION LADY

Mrs. Rosa Schrum, R. R. No. 4, Grand Junction, Colo., states:

"I suffered from a bad stomach, indigestion, gas and bloating after meals. Even sweet milk would cause terrible suffering. I would take soda trying to get relief. The gas pressure would crowd my heart. I had muscular aches and pains in the small of my back and legs. I was bed-fast for three and one-half months. I had a bad case of constipation.

"Since taking 2 1/2 bottles of Hoyt's Compound, I can truthfully say that every trace of indigestion, gas and bloating are gone. I eat most anything without the fear of suffering afterwards. I do not have to take soda at all, the pains have disappeared from the small of my back and legs. My bowels have become normal, and I am feeling better than I have for a long time."

Hoyt's Compound is sold and recommended by the Douglas & Goldston Drug Store and all druggists in this entire area.

The total loss caused by cattle grubs, more commonly called "woles," in the United States is estimated at more than $50,000,000 yearly.

INDIGESTION

may affect the Heart
The danger of indigestion is not only in the discomfort and suffering it causes, but in the fact that it may lead to serious heart trouble. Indigestion weakens the heart and makes it more liable to attack. The first dose doesn't prove it's a better, return bottle to us and receive DOUBLE MONEY BACK.

TURKEY DAY IS SET NOV. 21 BY GOV. O'DANIEL

Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel Wednesday issued a Thanksgiving Day proclamation designating Thursday Nov. 21 as the official date, in conformance with President Roosevelt's early Thanksgiving plan.

Last year, because the President's date was announced after many state meetings had been scheduled for the last Thursday in November, Governor O'Daniel proclaimed both days. He announced then, he would adopt the President's selection for 1940.

Despite the one day proclamation Austin will celebrate both days. Nov. 28 is the day for the annual Texas-Aggie football game.

This year it will have not only the morning parade of Aggie Cadets, for which everything in Austin closes, but preceding the Aggie's 10 o'clock march, there will be a farewell parade of the 11th quarter guard regiment of the National Guard just before it leaves for Camp Bowie, Brownwood.

The University of Texas will observe the President's Thanksgiving Day, omitting classes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of that week. One day will be observed as a holiday. The governor's proclamation noted as one of the great causes for Thanksgiving this year this country's freedom from the war engulfing much of the world. "I invite the citizens of Texas," he said, "to observe this holiday in such a manner as will show our appreciation for the bountiful blessings which are ours. I especially urge that the United States and Texas flags be displayed in public places and on public buildings to signify our gratefulness for the land of freedom and opportunity."

Individual awards will be given to first, second, and third place winners.

Clarendon Junior College Offered CAA Flying School

Above is flying cadets at Wichita Falls taught by Fulcher Armstrong, airport manager and instructor, who proposes to begin a flying school under CAA for Clarendon Junior College if conditions are met locally.

A Civil Aeronautics Authority Flying School for Clarendon Junior College loomed here this week, when Fulcher Armstrong, Wichita Falls airport manager, and flying instructor made his second trip here to go further into the matter with local authorities.

Mr. Armstrong is one of the Southwest's most experienced aviators and has had long experience in teaching fledgling pilots the rudiments and fine points of modern aviation.

A minimum of ten flying students must be secured to assure the school for Clarendon Junior College. One of the ten may be a girl.

Supt. Burton is working on the enrollment and hopes to reach the necessary number in a few days. The school here would likely mean a much improved landing field West of town, and would bring Clarendon probably the first regular mail and transport service of any point outside of Southwest cities.

"The Spark of Liberty"

There she stood on the platform before us — a woman, like the rest of us, — yet different. For she had taken part in one of the most terrifying dramas the world has ever known. That explained the look of lasting sadness on her face and the emotion behind her low voice, as she spoke of her experiences in Europe this past year.

She was in Warsaw when that ancient city was bombed and told us what it is like to exist under that kind of attack. She was in the Balkans during several weeks of the winter in a hotbed of international intrigue. She was in Holland when the holocaust descended upon the unprepared Dutch. And when the great German war machine swept through the low countries to Sedan — and victory — she was in Paris.

Those days, she told us, were the worst in her whole life, as she waited with the rest of that great city for — they knew not what — hearing wild rumors about what was happening to their armies in the north.

Then came her flight from Paris along with hundreds of thousands of other refugees — the slow progress on the crowded roads — the hunt for food — the weary weeks in Bordeaux where for nights she slept on the floor. Then the final agony when old Marshal Petain announced the surrender of France. Having told us all she could of this tragedy of Europe which she had seen with her own eyes and felt with her own heart, she began to speak of the future and of our responsibility as a nation.

No matter what happens now, she said, there is little chance for individual freedom in Europe for — no one knows how long. And if the idea of the value of the individual is to be kept alive it must be here in the United States. Armies, navies, airplanes are all very well and essential for protection in these frightful days. But the great thing that America can do for the world is to protect the spark of liberty and to continue to function on that "tripod of freedom" which is composed of representative democracy — civil and religious liberties and — free private enterprise.

Only by clinging to these can we continue to guarantee each of our citizens the right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" which is the very essence of the Freedom the whole stricken world will value again some day.
