Clarendon Christmas Tree Ceremony Will Be Held On Dec. 18th

METHODIST CHURCH TO BE SCENE OF YULE EVENT

In response to many inquiries over the county regarding the Clarendon Christmas Tree and the opportunity it affords each year for all of the people to bring gifts for those less fortunate, the answer is that the tree with its customary ceremonies will be held.

The time will be the evening of December 18 and will be in front of the Methodist Church.

Boxes will be placed for the receiving of gifts and members of the High School Band will play the Christmas Carols. Children will sing, and the light of Christmas candles will mark the path of those who come with gifts.

Immediately following the Christmas Tree the entire community is expected to enter the Methodist Church to watch the pageant depicting the Christmas Story, which is being presented by the Ministerial Alliance and the united Womens Clubs of the city.

The story of the Birth of the Christ Child is told in picture and music from the meeting between Joseph and Mary.

The Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw who is acting as director said following a rehearsal that he has never in many years had as capable a cast of characters to work with, nor has he found more real interest in the pageant on the part of the community as a whole.

The News will in its next issue publish a full list of characters and those who are in charge of the various activities in connection with the presentation. Sufficient at this time is the mention that the casting is in the hands of Mrs. U. J. Boston and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry. Music is in charge of Mrs. H. R. Beck, and Mrs. Ira Merchant is responsible for costuming. The outdoor Christmas Tree is being arranged for and directed by Mrs. J. H. Howze, whose work in this is well known through past years.

BAPTISTS HONOR CHURCH'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND; OBSERVANCE IS TERMED HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

Baptists from all parts of the Panhandle and various other parts of the state gathered here Sunday in observance of the 50th anniversary of the Clarendon Baptist Church.

The Rev. J. Perry King, host pastor, reported the celebration as highly successful with good crowds and many old timers of the church attending.

The occasion was a homecoming affair as well as a rally day for many of the old timers who came many miles to join in the festivities. One woman, Mrs. Rhodrick of Amarillo, was one of the original charter members present.

Two sermons, one by Dr. F. M. McConnell, editor of the Baptist Standard, state Baptist church paper, and the other by Dr. W. R. White, president of Hardin-Simmons University, highlighted the services. Dr. McConnell spoke at the morning services on "The Things That The Church Stands For," while Dr. White preached in the evening on the topic, "The Things That Endure." Overflowing crowds attended both morning and evening sessions.

Open house for old timers and former pastors of the church was held Monday evening with an informal program featuring, followed by a reception.

An unusually large number of out-of-town persons attended the celebration.

PICK-UP SEEN IN ADVERTISING FOR NEXT YEAR

ATLANTA — Newspaper advertising in 1941 will surpass all previous records, Clarence L. Jordan, executive vice president of N. W. Ayer & Son, Inc., advertising agency of Philadelphia, declared in an interview here.

Jordan said that in depression years national advertisers sought a thinly spread coverage, but that now it was imperative that they intensify campaigns in local markets. Only newspapers, he added, could accomplish that job.

He said an intelligent advertising campaign was responsible for bringing more volunteers into the United States army than in any previous peace-time or war-time era of the country.

Mrs. Ervin Hergert had as her guests, Thursday, her mother, Mrs. G. L. Kengel and Dr. Kengel of Perryton.

Ruth Cornell, Clarendon Girl, Goes Over Big In Hollywood And Is Slated For Screen Test At Paramount Studio

Ruth Cornell, Clarendon's glamor girl, will be given a screen test this week by Paramount Studios, according to a news release from Hollywood.

Miss Cornell, cashier at an Amarillo Theatre, won a trip to Hollywood recently at Port Worth when she was awarded the title of "All American Queen of the Southwest."

Just what will be the outcome of the test, no one knows, but at least it is far more than other girls have received in Hollywood.

This is the way it all happened:

After spending a day at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios watching Mickey Rooney, Spencer Tracy, Jimmy Stewart, Hedy Lamarr, Lana Turner and others make pictures, Ruth and her companion, Mrs. A. H. Truitt, were guests of Mary Martin at her broadcast in Radio City.

Having tickets to the Bing Crosby show, Ruth and Mrs. Truitt went in early and sat on the front row. From the glassed-in sponsor's booth, Larry Crosby, Bing's brother, a Hollywood agent, spotted Miss Cornell and came over and introduced himself at the end of the show.

"You ought to be in pictures," said Larry. "Be in my office on the Sunset Strip tomorrow afternoon and we'll talk it over."

To make a long story shorter, Larry said that Ruth should photograph well, but added, "of course nobody can tell that by looking. It takes a camera to do that. You can't fool those lens. So we'll run off a silent screen test at Paramount and see."

And should Ruth photograph well, she'll probably be given a player-contract. If she decides to accept the contract and stay in Hollywood, the studios will spend much time and money trying to develop her into an actress. These things aren't done overnight and very few ever make the grade. But at least she has a chance—and far more of a chance than thousands of other girls.

A film test and a three week's engagement at one of Hollywood's most glamorous night clubs are two of the offers received thus far by Miss Cornell.

Plans Ordered Prepared For Paving Highway 18 South of Pampa; Paving Donley Strip Is Also Foreseen

News that the Texas Highway Commission has ordered preparation for plans for the paving of Highway 18 from five miles south of Pampa to the Donley line brought cheer to good road boosters who this week are celebrating "Texas Highway Week."

The plans call for the grading, drainage structures, and surfacing of the strip at an estimated cost of $282,000.

Concomitant with the paving of the highway south of Pampa is expected to be the closing of the 12 mile unpaved extension of the road in this county.

County Judge Sherman White of Pampa said that he expected surveying on the proposed project to be started within a few weeks.

Then will follow the preparation of plans and specifications by the Highway Department's district office at Amarillo, to be approved by the Highway Department.

The cost of the road is to come from funds derived from a Gray County road bond issue of $600,000 which must be placed in escrow for the highway department at least 30 days prior to receipt of bids.

REV. KING THANKS ALL FOR PART IN CELEBRATION

"Just a word from a happy-hearted pastor to a whole-hearted church for the manner in which you entered into the celebration of a helpful event in the history of our church. Everything was so delightfully pleasing. There is just no way of describing it, but we are happy about the whole affair and do thank you with all the sincerity of our souls. The golden days were emblematic of our Anniversary and portrayed the golden characters of those who have labored to give us our church as it is today. Those who worked for the success of this celebration seemed to have in mind the expression, 'Blessed be those who in the other days invested their time and money and efforts in a divine institution for the benefit of the oncoming generations. God bless every one of you.'

"We want to thank especially the Deacons, Sunday School Superintendent, BTU Director, W. M. S. President, Brotherhood President, the Program Committee, the Decoration Committee, the Social Committee, and all those who helped these organizations and committees with every member of our church who delighted themselves with the happy privilege that we enjoyed in this celebration. You were mutually excellent beyond compare. "Then we would thank the pastors of the other churches who sent messages of christian greeting together with the Mayor of the City and others in and out of town who helped to make the occasion one of genuine Christian fellowship. God bless you too, with every interest near and dear to your hearts. "What shall we say more? Well, it is unspeakable. We had not dreamed that the church would want to honor the pastor and his family, but to our amazement we were presented with twenty-four pieces of lovely crystal banded with pure gold. How characteristic of the church in her fifty years of service. "Bless Be The Tie That Binds." May this gift remain a fit emblem of the brighter link uniting our hearts and as these rings are without end may your happiness and our happiness endure forever. We love you and we surely do thank you."

The highway department seeks the best roads possible for the tax payer's money." Riney told his listeners and then added, "that the maintenance budget was cut back ten per cent for improvement work in connection with the building of better highways."

Of the 5 1-2 per cent gasoline tax, he said, one cent goes to the general school fund, one cent to bond retirement fund, two cents to the highway department for maintenance and construction; and a cent and one-half to the federal government, of which a certain per cent comes back to the state.

He said that Highway 287 which runs north and south through Clarendon was a modern road and that we are fortunate in having such a fine highway.

Riney pointed out that the highway department consist of three divisions, namely, engineering, education and enforcement, the emphasis on the former two.

In concluding his talk, he said that due to the educational feature, the younger generation would become better drivers than the present ones.

GAY LIGHTS AND PROJECTED HAPPINESS

About this time of the year Clarendon folk join with millions in the nation in lighting up their homes and business houses in gay, holiday colors. It is a pretty custom, and one worth continuing on an increased scale.

There is something powerful and effective in the influence of Christmas lighting upon the public attitude, and the influence is for a better and happier citizenship, magnifying the spirit of the Christmas-tide as Dec. 25th approaches.

Clarendon has been most attractive to visitors and homefolks in the Yuletide season for many years, and there is every evidence that 1940 will hang up a new record for the custom here.

Gay Christmas lights mean projected happiness to all mankind. Let us not neglect this avenue of proclaiming our good will to all who may pass this way in the Christmas season this year

THIS WEEK IS "TEXAS HIGHWAY WEEK"

Clarendon and Donley County joins all Texas this week in the celebration and observance of "Texas Highway Week", Dec. 2 to 6 inclusive, according to a proclamation of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, text of which invites Texans to take inventory of the "manifold benefits brought to them by the highways of this state, to consider the progress that has been made toward a completed highway system and to give serious thought to the future highway needs of the state so that Texas will continue to grow and prosper as its system of highway transportation is extended and improved."

Of Texas' highway system totalling 23,000 miles, 8,860 miles are partially improved, 5,600 miles are in need of reconstruction because they are worn out and obsolete, 4,836 miles of important farm-to-market roads are in need of construction while the Highway Commission has pending before it requests for additional highway designations totalling 3,116 miles.

Highway Week is being sponsored by The Texas Good Roads Association. During the week an intensive effort will be made to impress on the public the value of a connected system of safe and improved highways and the need for long range planning of highway financing, construction and maintenance. The need for a constitutional amendment to prohibit the diversion of motorist taxes from highway construction and maintenance so highway construction and maintenance can proceed on a sound basis will be emphasized.

Motor vehicle transportation in Texas has experienced phenomenal growth during the past two decades, the number of vehicles increasing from 434,626 in 1920 to 1,758,761 in the last fiscal year. The number of miles traveled by these vehicles reaches astronomical figures, it being estimated that this year in Texas vehicles will travel approximately 18 billion miles. The importance of the business activity generated by the thousands of vehicles shuttling back and forth over the highways was emphasized by Governor O'Daniel, who pointed out that highways and motor transportation vitally affect the economy of every community in the state and every person living in these communities, thousands being employed directly in highway construction and maintenance.

UP TO HIS OLD TRICKS

nance, in motor transport operation and in sale and servicing of motor vehicles.

"Highways as base of motor transportation have revolutionized trade, commerce and industry and have contributed immeasurably to Texas' growth and prosperity by providing means for transporting raw materials to manufacturing centers and for the distribution of manufactured goods to consumers," the proclamation stated. "It has taken the farmers out of the mud and enabled him to market his livestock and produce in all kinds of weather, timed to take advantage of the best prices offered. It has transformed the system of public education from the small, ill-equipped, inadequately staffed 'little red school house' into modern, well equipped rural elementary and high schools and has made available to thousands of rural children educational facilities they otherwise would have been denied."

The growing importance of highways in the plans for national defense is a result of the rapid mechanization of the armed forces of the nation was stressed by Governor O'Daniel.

"The mechanization and motorization of the rapidly expanding Army of the United States will make heavy demands on the Texas highway system, it being evident that our modern forces will depend heavily on motor transportation and highways to adequately defend these United States," the governor stated.

Safety on the highways has become of paramount social and economic importance and construction of modern, safe highways is necessary if Texas is to make progress toward a permanent solution of the safety problem.

The refusal of Congress to adjourn, despite the prodding of some Administration officials, was not a surprise. The world is changing fast these days. And the nation's lawmakers feel that they should be on hand to deal with problems as they appear.

Big problem now is how to give more aid to Britain and at the same time keep a semblance of neutrality. This country has been shooting the works on behalf of the British for a long time. She has our 50 obsolete destroyers, and production of American factories is practically at her command. The US Army and Navy have announced that they will give her precedence in aircraft. But there is one catch — Britain must pay cash for whatever she buys. The Johnson Act does not permit this government or its citizens to give credit to any nation which is behind on war debt payments.

The way the wind blows now was recently indicated by the statement Lord Lothian, the British Ambassador to this country, made on his return from his homeland. England, he said, does not want men. She wants only material. But, he added, England's cash is running out. He foresaw a difficult year ahead for England, in which she will need all kinds of war supplies and "perhaps finance."

When queried as to whether he believed the U. S. Congress should repeal the Johnson Act, Lord Lothian offered no comment. But it is obvious that was what he had in mind. The various American groups which are in favor of doing everything and anything to help defeat the Axis — such as William Allen White's committee for aiding England — are beginning to train their sights on the Johnson Act. It seems a certainty that a resolution to repeal the act will be introduced in Congress.

That resolution will be bitterly contested, especially in the Senate where the isolationist group, headed by Senators Johnson, Nye and Clark, are strong. But the probability is that the Johnson Act will be thrown overboard. The Roosevelt policy has been to steadily increase our help to Britain, and the Republican minority, which largely follows the foreign policy laid down by Wendell Willkie in the campaign, generally agrees.

If the Johnson Act is repealed, will we become embroiled in the war? No one can accurately answer that question. The controlled German, Italian and Japanese press continues to criticize this country, but their governments still formally regard us as a friendly power. Germany does not want us to enter the conflict — the American Navy would be a potent force on Britain's side, and might be the decisive factor. So the best guess is that, even if we do go to new limits to aid Britain, the Axis powers will not take any retaliatory action.

Another thing Britain is going to want from us is merchant ships. Her losses due to German submarine and raider attack are alarmingly high. The present Germany policy is to sink enough British owned and controlled shipping to starve the Isles. American shipyards may soon be busy with orders for Britain. British shipyards are working 24 hours a day now, but reports say that production of finished vessels is low.

Hitler has formally inducted some more little countries into his Axis. But that doesn't mean a great deal. Rumania, Bulgaria and the other Balkan countries are in peril of their lives. They

"Every man over 60 is a liar — at least potentially and, I may add, harmlessly," said Cynical Sam.

"The chief advantage of living to be old is that you can remember things that happened before other folks was born. So if some fellow asks an old-timer about some imaginary galoot who used to live on Possum Creek 40 year ago — well, sir, that early settler at first will vaguely 'remember' him and finally, under proper encouragement, will add a lot of details, such as the way he walked and the good hand he was at swearing."

"Because the old-timer ain't gonna admit that he didn't know the non-existent geezer; otherwise, he'd be givin' up the chief luxury of old age: 'I remember when —'."

Clamoring to be set down in words is this world of changing wonders with its countless human beings, each fascinatingly different. But the man who writes is conscious of the steady trickling of the sand in the hourglass and so he echoes the cry of Keats in a sublime sonnet: "When I have fears that I may cease to be Before my pen has gleaned my teeming brain; Before high-piled books in charactery Hold, like rich garners, the full-must do what Hitler demands, or submit to military conquest. It is one thing to force foreign ministers to sign pacts — it is another thing to get the people to those countries to avow the Hitlerian philosophy. And, according to all the experts, the Balkan people hate Hitler even as they fear him.

Worst blow to the Axis has been Italy's fiasco in Greece. This has reduced Italian prestige to the vanishing point. The Italians didn't want war. They are suffering seriously from the British blockade. And a considerable proportion of the Italians heartily dislike Germany. It is noteworthy that the German press has lately begun to denounce Greece — Hitler may be coming to the conclusion that he will have to pull his friend Mussolini's frons out of the Athenian fire. And, in the past, press attacks in the German press against other European countries have been the prelude to military action.

In the long run, the Greek situation may prove a great boon to England. Reports say that the English are doing for more to help the Greeks than they admit. They have been swiftly developing important air and naval bases on Greek land, where their planes and battleships can strike against Italy.

Britain's big trouble at home now is said to be lack of sufficient anti-aircraft equipment. Most of it has been concentrated about London, which explains why Germany has been able to carry on tremendously severe raids over the Midlands and elsewhere with few plane losses. It is believed the lack will be made up by spring.

ripened grain; When I behold, upon the night's starred face, Huge, cloudy symbols of a high romance, And think that I may never live to trace Their shadows with the magic hand of chance. And when I fear, fair creature of an hour That I may never look upon thee more; Ne'er have relish in the fiery power Of unreflecting love — then on the shore Of this wide world, I stand and think Till Love and Fame to nothingness do shrink."

Here and there: In Liano the other day, I met the man who — in registering for the draft — answered the question, "Who will always know your address?" by saying: "The Commercial Credit Corporation." Dudley Doble makes a living with books as does his winsman, J. Frank — but Dudley sells 'em instead of writing 'em. He has two large rooms in San Marcos filled with volumes, mostly about Texas and mostly out-of-print, including the last remaining copies of "Texas Rhythm" by one B. House.

Rumor has it that the gas industry is going to have plenty of problems — such as proposals for a much higher tax and more stringent regulations — when the legislature meets.

Many famous people have been guests at Hotel Texas in Fort Worth: General Pershing, Grace Moore, Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Will Rogers, Alfred Hunt and Lynn Fontanne; besides Fanny Brice, Wayne King, Eddie Cantor, Pasha Toptomni of Albania, Charlie McCarthy and, of course, Edgar Bergen.

DeWitt Morgan of Ft. Worth is the most thorough and incurable practical joker that I know. It all started when he was a student in a college where, at 9:45, the lights in the dormitory flickered as a signal that, in 15 minutes, the building would be in darkness. Morgan pictured the terrors of fire to a newly-arrived freshman and told him if the lights flickered, that was a fire alarm. When the signal was given, the freshman dashed down three flights of stairs and out into the icy air in pajamas and barefooted, to be greeted by the laughter of students who had been tipped off.

One of Morgan's favorite stunts is to spot a noted man, say a State official who happens to be in Fort Worth, rush up, call him by name, grab him by the hand, tell him that Joe was asking about him just the other day and wasn't that funny what happened to Rury, then he bids the dignitary good-bye without ever having given him a chance to say anything, ducks around a corner and watches the perplexity of the great man as he tries to figure out who in perdition that fellow was.

EDITORIAL
 In the past years at Lella the newspaper staff has found it necessary to start the paper with an editorial on sportsmanship. They have also tried to find a means of getting the people out to see the basket ball games. Their efforts were not in vain. Most of the parents and friends have been to all the games which have been played at Lella. They have not only been there but they have shown interest. They like to see these teams play. Why? Because they are probably two of the best teams that have ever been at Lella, not only as to handling the ball but also as good sports.

 On November the 26 came the first defeat for the boys. In this game the boys showed what good sports can do until the finish. They worked hard for victory; but in the score, it was not theirs. To us that team lost only in points. A sportsman's

WHIRL
 In order that you may know what we have in mind when writing this column, we wish to tell you that you will find here the comments made by the students on the more serious things which happen around our school.
 If you ever visit the Lella Lake High school, you will notice that you hear more talk on basket ball than any other subject. Could you blame us? We have not lost but one game this year.

 From all the gossip I can pick up, the basket ball game November 26 with the Hedley boys came up to Mr. Wilson's standards of a good ball game.

The Goodnight basket ball players and their backers are good sports, yet someone wanted to play a prank so they damaged the Goodnight bus. This was a prank. We are very ashamed of it. I hope his girl stands the guy up that did this.

The basket ball players have been awarded well for their victories. Mr. Sargent and the teachers have set them up, or promised to, after each victory.
 The Lella Lake high school should be proud of their pep squad. They definitely put the determination to win in our basket ball players because they know someone is on the side line yelling for them. They have tried many times to organize a pep squad at Lella Lake, but never before have they had that much success. The idea of dressing them all alike is very good. You do not have to hunt to find them.

We like to see the boys get the ball and then we like to see them make two points. The way the boys have been missing about half of their shots is rather disappointing. However, it does keep us in suspense — unrewarded suspense.

DID YOU NOTICE
 How J. R. Williams pronounced "that" word in English the other day? Could it be because he is stepping out to much with a cute little brunette who goes to school at Clarendon. She used to say "that" too.

How J. R. hit the goal almost every shot Friday night? Well, Margaret Jean was at the game. Who was rather late starting home after the game Friday night? Virginia Gee just didn't want to go but we noticed she did. P. S. didn't want to make cousin dear mad.

WIND
 This and That

Not that we care for a senior boy and a sophomore girl coming to school with swollen eyes and sleepy senses, but we would like to see them become interested in classes instead of being startled when called upon for recitation.

One more obstacle had been overcome. A half dozen people or more were involved. I believe she was made happy. Kathryn Grimsley and J. Marvin Clark are now desk mates.

Our basket ball is in danger. We should get a new pep squad leader in the place of Helen Sargent. They may mistake her mouth for the goal.
 Yes, he's with her again tonight; I wonder if that horn came on that '37 ford.

On a biology test Miss Rumpy got first hand information from an actual observer. That observer said that an earthworm moves about by humping it up and letting it out.
 It's downright selfish, ill-mannered, and unthoughtful. He walks two girls around almost every evening after school. He's the kind that contributes to church on Sunday, but during week days he'll do it. He'll do it almost every time. That's F. G.

Does Helen Sargent stay at home on Sunday evenings for religion or does she want to sleep?
 Miss Davis and Miss Rumpy should read up on how to become prosperous gamblers.

We are beginning to wonder why Mamie is late to all ball games. It might be because of a certain boy. His initials are James Marvin Clark. I won't mention his name.
 victory was certainly theirs.

J. R. Williams, temporary captain of the boys team, said, "I think in the games that we have played not one of our boys has showed poor sportsmanship." To this he added, "Being bumped and battered in our first defeat makes us more determined and harder to beat."

The homemaking classes are the busiest of the classes in school. They believe in the old saying "All play and no work makes Jack a dull boy" and vice versa.

The second-year homemaking girls are taking sewing the first semester. They have nearly completed two garments, a child's dress and a wool dress, since school started. The first-year girls are taking cooking; and if you could only smell those delicious aromas as you pass the home-making room, you would know beyond a doubt that they were going to be real homemakers some day.

The second year Homemaking Club had a club meeting last Thursday evening. A few weeks ago they nominated for their officers the following: Mildred Floyd, president; Virginia Carroll, vice president; Pearl Jenkins, secretary; and Freida Putman, reporter. The club girls are going to initiate the first-year girls into their club next week during their class period and later on give a party in their honor.

The seniors held a discussion on the interest of a newspaper in school a short time ago in assembly. The discussion brought about the electing of reporters and a staff.

Some members of the faculty chose the staff, and the classes at mid-term it is probable that an entire new staff will be chosen. Staff members are: Claude Bain, who will have charge of the editorial columns; Josephine Espey, writer of editorials; Bobby Cruse and Lola Marie Ayers, sport editors; Imogene Wisdom, home economics reporter; J. R. Williams, typist; L. D. Aten, Jimmy Lee Butler, Geraldine Foster as senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman class reporters.

These staff members are to meet each Friday noon to discuss press problems.
 The Donley County teachers and board members will be entertained with a Christmas party at the Lella Lake High School.

SPORTS
 The boys' team of Lella Lake High School will go to Quail to the tournament to be held there December 13 and 14. The boys have hopes of bringing home one of the trophies and some of the individual awards to be given to the outstanding players.

Coach Leroy McDaniels said, "Even if the boys do not win, they will give a good showing; however, they have a fair chance to win."

Quail will hold a girls' tournament later, to which the Lella Lake girls will go.

With much confidence based upon the preceding victories over Alanreed and Goodnight, the Lella Lake Bluebirds Tuesday night allowed a much stronger Hedley team only a six-point margin over them. Then final score was Hedley 24, Lella Lake 18.

Hedley, at the end of the first quarter, had secured a 4 to 2 lead over our boys, and by the half had brought that lead to a much more comfortable one. However the Bluebirds came back with a much more determined spirit after the half period, and at one thrilling moment had brought their score to within 2 points of the Hedley score. In the last quarter, Hedley, fighting with all their power against all the Bluebird's power, gained a six-point margin which held until the final whistle.

"The Lella boys are not giving up, for they have another game with Hedley after Christmas," says coach McDaniels.

The Lella Lake Bluebirds, both boys and girls, added two more victories to their credit last Friday night by defeating both Goodnight teams. The score in the girls game was 19-5, and the boys won 40-20.

The girls' game was fast and peppy, with the Bluebirds taking the lead from the beginning. At the half, Lella Lake led Goodnight 7-3. The determined spirit of the Bluebirds brought a steady gain, making the final score Lella Lake 19, Goodnight 5.

The first quarter of the boys' game showed very fast and smooth playing on the part of both teams with the Bluebirds leading 13-8. The second quarter swept past with the score being 17-10 with Lella in the lead. As the game progressed, the Bluebirds gained; and as the Buffaloes seemed to concede defeat, the local boys had an easy fourth quarter in which they brought the score to a twenty-point lead.

Clifford & Ray's Locker Plant For Frozen Foods To Open Next Week

Clarendon citizens will welcome the announcement that Clifford and Ray grocery store's modern Locker Storage Plant for frozen foods will begin operation next week.

The huge storage plant has just been completed and added to the Clifford and Ray store and is the first of its kind ever to be constructed in Clarendon.

Not only does this food storage plant mean considerable savings for the people of this trade territory, but it also serves as a means of health protection. Another outstanding feature is the convenience of having this service constantly at your disposal.

The plant operates in this manner: When the customer brings in his meat, whether a whole carcass, a quarter beef, or a hog it is placed in the Chill Room where it is kept for three or four days and thoroughly chilled at a temperature of about 34 degrees.

After chilling, the meat is removed and cut up into individual packages, (any size wanted by customer), and wrapped in special moisture-proof paper. These packages are then placed in a large freezing cabinet where they are frozen hard in a temperature of ten degrees below zero, or 42 degrees below the freezing point.

From the freezing cabinet the packages are placed in the all-steel individual lockers which are factory made and of the most efficient and attractive design. Each customer retains an individual key to his locker. The locker room is kept at a temperature of approximately 8 degrees above zero.

These plants are in operation in a number of communities and

MUSICAL PROGRAM ENDS BAPTIST CELEBRATION

The fiftieth Anniversary Celebration of the First Baptist Church was concluded Monday evening with a gathering of members of the church and visitors from other denominations present.

The Pastor, Rev. J. Perry King, presided and led in making it a delightfully informal occasion in honor of former pastors and featuring talks made by those who have been faithful members for a great many years.

The song service was conducted by Dexter Todd with Mrs. Allen Bryan at the piano. Lewis Chamberlain played a trombone solo and Nelda Sue Burton rendered a piano solo. The History of the Women's Missionary Society work was given by the President of that Society, Mrs. Fred Cooke. In charming manner and verse, Mrs. Joe Goldston then presented to "The Kings" a gift from members of the Church. This being a perfect surprise "The Kings" were not prepared with speeches but expressed their thanks in a very gracious manner.

Mrs. E. W. Henshaw, in response to a request made by Rev. King, then gave a beautiful vocal solo after which Mayor Tom F. Connally introduced the pastors and their families of the other local churches.

At the conclusion of the auditorium meeting, a delightful social hour was spent in the church parlors.

DEPENDABILITY

In the Age of Chivalry, a Knight's word was truly as good as his bond. No lure or reward or fear could be great enough to cause him to forget a promise, break a vow, or forsake a friend.

We are honored by the reputation for dependability we have won in this community. Each ceremony we conduct is a memorial tribute of distinction and dignity.

BRONCHOS DOWN MATADOR 13-0 HERE FRIDAY

Clarendon's hard riding Bronchos threw the Matador Bullfighters for a 13-0 loss here on the College gridiron last Friday night in a post-season game.

It was not until late in the third quarter that the Clarendon team took the ball over on their own 41 yard line and started a touchdown drive.

Sparked by the driving of Capt Hartzog, Tooter Johnson and Bud Hermesmeier, the Bronchos marched down the field in the fourth quarter to the five-yard stripe where Hermesmeier faked a reverse around the left end and crossed the pay line standing up for the first score of the game. Hartzog's try for the extra point failed.

The Clarendon eleven started its second touchdown drive midway in the fourth period when Matador lost the ball on downs on the Broncho 49. Hartzog, Hermesmeier and McCrary, aided by spectacular line blocking, took the pigskin down the field on a non-stop push to the 12 yard line where Hartzog went off-tackle to score. Hartzog then dropped back and kicked the extra point, making the score, 13-0.

Late in the fourth, the Bronchos started another goal-yard drive which ended near the ten-yard line when the final whistle blew. Goodman intercepted a Matador long pass on his own 30 and ran it up to the 42. From here the Bronchos marched down the field, and only the ending of the game prevented the third Clarendon touchdown.

The first half of the contest was strictly a defensive game, with both teams displaying a good brand of football. A few nice runs were made by both the Bullfighters and Bronchos.

A fair sized crowd turned out for the game.

FOOTBALL STUNTS DURING THE YEAR

The band's first football stunt was at the Lefors game. The flag swingers swung to "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

At the Claude and Wheeler games they did a military drill; which consisted of dividing up into four long lines then swinging back into regular marching formation.

They made a U. S. A. at the Shamrock game. The U. and S. were made up of band and the A. of the pep squad.

The letters were formed by flashlights which had red, white, or blue paper on them. The band played "God Bless America."

At the Wellington game the band made a horseshoe which brought good luck.

The band made an anchor and played "Anchors Aweigh" at the Wellington game.

The Memphis and Clarendon band's went together and made the letters USA at the Memphis game.

At the McLean game they formed an M for McLean, and the flag swingers swung to "The Merry Widow Waltz."

At the Matador game they made a spiral, which consisted of going around continuously in a circle then reversing to come out of it. Coming back up the field an airplane was formed and moved in that position down the field.

This organization has completed a highly successful series of formations. During all the games this season they have stood faithfully by the Bronchos and performed a stunt at every game. Congratulations to the "Bronchos" from the Clarendon High School Band.

PEP SQUAD NEWS

The Pep Squad girls made approximately thirty dollars during the summer. This money was used to buy some of the new suits. Money made at the football games was used to entertain the football boys and for their page in the annual.

The Pep Squad is composed of the following thirty one members: Beatrice Adams, LaVoye Armstrong, Louise Blanks, Agatha Cobb, Wilma Cole, Doris Cooper, Rowena Crutchfield, Frances Esterling, Mariam Gordon, Betty John Goldston, Roy Guy, Geraldine Jordan, Jo Alice Lane, Billie Rae Marshall, Katherine May, La Verne Phillips, Aline Poss, Charlie Ruth Risley, Louise Russell, La Rue Shadle, Mary Jo Shafer, Nina Sloan, Arlena Small, Ella Jean Speed, Wilma Jean Warren and Juanita Wilkinson. The sponsors are: Miss Wallis, Mrs. White, and Mrs. Gerlach.

The Pep Squad takes this opportunity to thank those who have helped support their organization. The Pep Squad is especially grateful to Mr. Robbins for the time he has taken in training the girls for the stunts.

ASSEMBLY

The assembly program Friday was given by the Press Club. "And the Lamp Went Out" was a humorous skit with Wanda Craft, Millard Miller, Harold Donnell, and Rebecca Eanes. The next skit was entitled "Napoleon's Farewell to His Grandmother." This skit was very sad with the part of the Grandmother taken by Clyde Benton Douglas and Napoleon played by Billy Lowe.

The next thing was a Dr. I. Q. program with Bill Andis as the Doctor. His assistants were Clyde Douglas, Carl Morris, Jack Riley and Harold Donnell. One of the highlights of this program was the word Mrs. Goodner spelled. The pay-off for correct answers were pennies and additional prizes donated by local business firms.

A "Who Am I" number featured outstanding personalities in school.

This program was one of the best assembly programs of the year, and was enjoyed thoroughly by everyone.

FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

American Football is surrounded by traditions. Handed down from generation to generation, some of these customs are almost as old as the game itself.

Bonfires following a victory over rivals of long standing or pre-games bonfires are traditional. In some colleges the head cheer leader of the losing team presents himself in the center of the field immediately following the game. Tradition permits the winning cheerleaders to shave his head clean of hair.

An old tradition in Illinois is that of "pants burning." On the last day of practice the entire varsity squad, at the conclusion of practice, gather in a group and silently watch in the burning of a pair of football pants that have been well-soaked in oil. During the ceremony the achievements and disappointments of the season are uppermost in the player's minds, with probably, many a vow to make up for disappointments on the morrow.

A tradition of long standing at West Point calls for the cadets to meet their returning team at the station and, whether they won or lost, haul them up the steep hill in the old "carry-all" that has been used for years for this purpose.

In many of the Eastern universities, following a victory over their rival, the players corral the coaching staff and duck them, uniforms and all, in the swimming pool at the gymnasium.

In many institutions, the supporters of the winning visiting team sometimes attempt to tear down the goal posts. This has resulted in many a battle and often in serious injury to participants. Less dangerous than tearing down the goal posts is the traditional snake dance. Students perform this dance down the length of the field, tossing their hats over the goal posts at the finish.

In the East, where football was first played, we find few traditions peculiar to individual colleges than in other sections of the country.

WHAT IT TAKES TO PLAY FOOTBALL

Football teaches self-reliance, courage, fair play, co-operation, and control of temper. You learn not to mind the little bumps and bruises. You learn to fall without hurting yourself. It isn't individual effort that counts so much in winning as the ability to cooperate with other players. That is what brings results, not only in football, but in the game of life, as well.

On a football squad it takes boys who have courage, who don't object to hard work, who are willing to pass up some of their everyday pleasures during the playing season, who are willing to take care of themselves, making any sacrifices necessary for the good of the team.

It takes plenty of equipment to play football. Ball suits, tackling dummy, cleated shoes, are some of the essential equipment. It takes a lot of training to play football. While in training you have to be careful of the food you eat. Plenty of sleep and no stimulants go along with the training.

Tackling looks difficult in the beginning but it is much like learning to swim. Small players on the team are usually the best tacklers. They know they must get their man and they get him by the knees. They also are faster than a larger boy. The larger player relies too much on beef to stop the opposing ball carrier.

There are many other things which football takes in, such as: blocking, punting, passing, how to carry the ball, how to fall on the ball, and other things which are very interesting. Football is work as well as fun.

Dean Hill of New York said: "Football symbolizes team play, discipline and self-sacrifices. If our country is to continue to be the America we love, I say let every American be a football player at heart, if not on the gridiron."

THE HISTORY OF FOOTBALL

American football has a very interesting history. It dates from 1876, when the first Intercollegiate Football Association was formed and the first rules were codified. American Football was born about a hundred years after the Declaration of Independ-

Coach James

Assistant Coach I. T. James has been a great help to Coach Warden. He attended North Texas State Teachers College at Denton from 1936-1940. He played football four years, and made southwestern conference fullback in his last year of football, and second high score in conference. He had two years in track in which he ranked high.

Football was being played in American Colleges as early as the year 1800, a simple campus sport, without rules or organization.

On an afternoon in November 1823, Rugby football originated. William Webb Ellis disregarded the rules or custom and took the ball in his arms and ran for the goal thus originating the distinctive feature of the Rugby game.

The Wall Game originated in 1845 at Eton, one of England's secondary schools. This game was played with eleven men. As the American football game had fifteen players, we owe the decrease in the number of players in the game to Eton. The rule of eleven men on a team has never been altered.

November the sixth, 1869, was a memorable day in the history of football. On that date Princeton and Rutgers played the first inter-collegiate game of football. Little is known about this game. The first to score six goals was to win. Rutgers beat Princeton six goals to four.

Hands were used very freely in the early days of the game, and were used in ways that would be definitely illegal today. In those days the players wore bright colored jerseys with knitted caps to match.

Formerly, play was started by putting the ball on the ground. All players closed around it and then kicked it until it rolled out into the open.

In 1886 the Harvard faculty refused to let Harvard play because there was too much slugging in the game. Finally, the other colleges gave in so the rule was established that if a player was seen slugging he was to be put out of the game immediately.

There are many other interesting things about football traditions. If you will look in the library for that book "Football Through the Years," you will find the full history of the American favorite game — Football.

TRIBUTE TO THE BRONCHOS REBECCA EANES

All hail the mighty Bronchos
The best team that I know,
Note how in fame and favor
They've never ceased to grow.

Review the season's battles
And see how oft they've won,
Consider all their playing
And note how well 'twas done.

Good coaching and good team work
Are things we have to thank
For building up the Bronchos
From low to higher rank.

Now you can see the reason
The Broncs deserve our praise
For all the clean and honest games
They've played these autumn days.

Big Ollie's girl friend is Louise Blanks. So now, that football season is over they will have more time to "visit".

L. B. and Mariam and their little romance are doing fine! Who was Betty Jo Bartlett with Saturday night? It wasn't J. W.!

Clyde Peabody was seen with a certain little somebody not long ago! We thought he had other ideas.

Did you know that Ray Bulls and Billie Cooke are doin' fine? "barefooted"! Ask Coach James and Naomi's honeymoon? They went to the game at Shamrock.

Frank Mahaffey must like pretty girls! Anyway he writes notes wanting dates for Friday night.

Was it funny when Coach James was playing with an alarm clock in Civics Class! He could not make it stop ringing!

Who was playing football and Naomi's honeymoon? They for details!

Tucker is really sore — Could Saturday afternoon be the cause? Jimmy Lumpkin isn't seen so much lately? Wonder why?

A certain young boy, Ray Bulls, has started taking in the cowboy and Indian shows now! Why?

WHAT THE FACULTY THINKS ABOUT THE FOOTBALL SQUAD

They are mighty fine boys, they have done a lot of wonderful work, and I am proud of them. — Miss Howren.

Swell boys and a wonderful football team. — Mr. Payne.

Swell boys and if they do that well all the time they will go to the top. — Miss Bery.

The finest bunch of boys that I have ever had the opportunity to work with, and I think they deserve all the credit that has been given to them. — Mr. James.

One of the best we've ever had, and we're proud of them. — Mr. Drennan.

A hard-working group that proves it's loyalty by showing good sportsmanship on the field and in the classroom. — Miss Wallis.

An ideal high school football squad. — Mrs. White.

We think it is a better-balanced ball club than we had last year. We didn't have as many outstanding boys as we had last year, but they had a better team spirit and the desire to win which went a long way in every game we played. — Coach Warden.

Over The Coffee

By BILL SHERWOOD

A municipal club room has been proposed for Clarendon. Under the NYA setup, Clarendon could have such a project started in the near future and the building would cost very little. One just completed at Childress cost that city but $800, and we understand that ours would cost far less than that. The building is built by NYA boys and made of native rock, furnished by the sponsors. Dick Cooke, former Clarendon newspaperman, who is now with the National Youth Administration, was a visitor in Clarendon last Saturday and he shed some interesting light on the NYA, which we must admit elevated the program in our minds from merely letters of a Government agency into something tangible which offers a wonderful opportunity for the youth of America. In the first place we learned that the NYA is definitely not a relief agency but an organization whereby any youngster between the ages of 17 and 24 may secure a practical education in preparation for a vocation. Youths are taught aviation mechanics, auto mechanics, radio, welding, woodwork, etc. in regular classroom manner in addition to actual work experience units which feature building construction, masonry and plumbing. In Youth Resident Centers, such as in Canyon, and sponsored by the college there, the boys live in large roomy barracks which are regularly inspected. The boys are paid $30 a month with $18 deducted for subsistence such as room, board, laundry, shoes, and hospitalization. Clarendon citizens should see what the NYA offers.

the JA Ranch really is? Ask two members of the Texas Company seismograph crew who got lost while working on the ranch and it was hours before they found the ranch house—or it found them. We understand one of them was lost 15 hours and the other wandered around in circles for some 20 hours before rescued. Perhaps those seismograph crew members would do better if they worked along side of the bone diggers. If we remember correctly, we read somewhere in our textbook that oil deposits are usually formed by decaying bones of animals and man and various other substances.

No Extras In The Charges When Served By Womack Homes

Have you ever built a house? or rather had a house built for you? Did you find out that after you were sure that you had provided for everything, that you could not live in it because there were many extras that had to be provided and paid for before it was complete? Little items such as porch steps, not included on the original estimates? There are no extras to be provided for when you possess a Womack Burial Policy. Every detail of merchandise and service is provided for before you enter into any obligation. Their funerals are complete and there are no additional charges after your original decisions are made with a Womack Burial Policy. It has been proven repeatedly in Donley County that the prevailing prices of finer caskets at Womack Funeral Homes are by far more nominal in price and this is easily explained by the greater volume of business produced by this firm. Naturally the cost of overhead is not as great at the Womack Funeral Homes, yet they furnish a 1940 LaSalle Funeral Coach, New 1940 Cemetery Equipment, latest in sound equipment; and for the departed, Burial suits and dresses, acknowledgment cards, have the funeral notices printed notifying friends and acquaintances and all the extras as charged in addition to the family by other funeral homes, just as the porch steps and other little items to the home. Be protected from all this and secure a Womack Burial Policy.—Adc.

Boy, these hills around here must be chock full of bones of pre-historic animals. Just the other day we heard that some bone diggers had unearthed the bones of an ancient animal which roamed these wide open spaces a long, long time ago. Most any day now, we're looking for them to dig up Alley Oop and some of his long-tailed pals.
