Food Stamp Plan Authorized For Area Including Donley County

PLAN HERE WILL BE IN OPERATION BY MAY 15

COUNTY GROCERS AND UNDERPRIVILEGED WILL RECEIVE BENEFIT

The Surplus Commodities Corporation Food Stamp Plan for distribution of foodstuffs to underprivileged families will go into operation in Donley County within the near future, certainly before May 15th, a group of Donley citizens were assured last Friday, at a meeting in Childress with Dwayne Creager, representative of the regional S.C.C. office.

Assurance that the plan will operate in Donley County marks the end of a long period of endeavor by county civic groups and individuals to bring the stamps to county residents. The plan was approved a certainty Friday by the county Commissioners' Court of a proposition made the group by Mr. Creager.

Before the plan could be placed in operation, those at the Childress meeting were told, full approval and cooperation had to be assured from county officials, banks, and grocers. Bankers at the meeting endorsed the plan, and it was later endorsed by a food industries committee including Walter Clifford as chairman, U. J. Boston, and Roy Bartlett, Clarendon, Dick Vallance and O. E. Sanders, Hedley, and P. W. Cruse, Lella Lake.

The plan will affect those in the county who receive Surplus Commodities Corporation assistance, i. e., those on relief, WPA, and old age assistance rolls, benefiting at the same time local merchants, at whose stores the food stamps will be cashed.

In brief, the plan works out as follows: Instead of issuing surplus commodities to underprivileged families, the S.C.C. will sell them Food Stamps, good for the purchase of any foodstuff. With each dollar worth of these stamps will be issued, free, fifty cents in surplus food stamps, which can be used in buying certain designated surplus commodities which are now distributed through the Clarendon S.C.C. office. The purchasing power of each family's food dollar will thus be increased half again. Any Donley County merchants who wish may participate in the program.

In placing its approval on the plan, Donley County Commissioners agreed to take care of administrative expenses of the program. This item will not be any greater load on the county, it is said, than the present S.C.C. setup, which calls for payment of freight on surplus commodities, maintenance of a downtown office in Clarendon, and pay for an office force. Commissioners Marvin Hall, G. G. Reeves, J. A. Tollett and John Hermesmyer represented the county at the Childress meeting, and immediately voted to place the plan in operation in the county. County Judge R. Y. King, on a Washington trip, was unable to attend the session.

According to the statements made by Mr. Creager at Childress, the plan will be set up in Donley County soon, as it must be in operation in all of the five Panhandle Counties to which it was assured before May 15th. Any county may drop the plan after a ten day trial if it is unsatisfactory.

The Childress meeting, which followed on the heels of a message of confidence from Cong. Gene Worley that his efforts in behalf of the Panhandle counties to get the plan going were to be successful, was attended by a number of Donley citizens in addition to representatives of the county government. Walter Clifford, Alvin Landers, and Howard Stewart of Clarendon and O. E. Sanders of Hedley represented county grocers; Carroll Knorpp of Clarendon and J. W. Noel of Hedley represented county bankers; and Isadore Mellinger and J. R. Gillham represented the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

WPA Closes Sewing Room Projects In Panhandle Counties

WPA sewing room and other small projects in 14 Panhandle Counties suspended operations effective Tuesday, releasing 800 WPA workers and supervisors, including a number in Donley County. The announcement of suspension of the projects was made Tuesday by A. A. Meredith, manager of the Panhandle district.

In a letter to commissioners' courts of the counties affected, Mr. Meredith said that the move had been made necessary by the failure of the State of Texas to match federal funds now available for the care of dependent children. Since this provision of funds has not been made, the burden of caring for dependent children now falls on the individual counties, Mr. Meredith's letter said.

"In this reduction of our working quota as in other reductions in the past, it has been necessary that we release those in secondary need class. This has resulted in less workers of first priority remaining in many localities to meet the statutory requirements that our district sewing project not exceed 5 per cent non-certified personnel or result in excessive non-certified labor and other cost to the Federal government. Therefore, it has been necessary that we suspend operation of 14 sewing rooms and release the 16 supervisory, non-certified persons employed thereon."

News that the Clarendon sewing room project was to be closed came here last week, and reports at that time were to the effect that no hope of reopening the project could be held until after July 1, at the earliest.

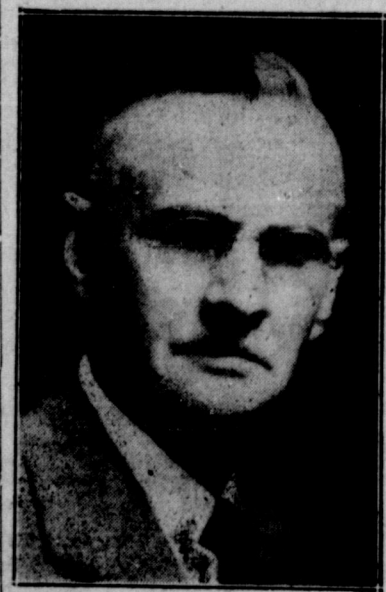

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mallow and son and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Mallow and children all of Pampa visited her in the O. C. Watson home Sunday.

Miss Ethelyn Drennan spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Drennan and had as her guest, Miss Sue Davis of W. T. S. C.

CONNALLY WINS RE-ELECTION IN MAYOR'S RACE

INCUMBENT WINS EASY VICTORY OVER SPLIT OPPOSITION

Coasting in well ahead of his nearest opponent in one of the liveliest mayoralty races seen in Clarendon in some years, Mayor Tom F. Connally won re-election Tuesday, polling 173 votes. Second man in the race was J. H. Headrick, who polled 107, while

TOM F. CONNALLY

W. B. (Buddy) Knorpp trailed the field with a total of 101 votes.

Total ballots cast during the election day numbered 394, but of this group 11 were thrown out for illegality. One or two expected write-in campaigns failed to materialize at the critical time, and only two write-in votes, both for Bert Smith, were recorded officially.

Election officials included Wm. Patman, Henry Williams, J. A. Warren, Lalor Wilkerson, and Miss Eula Naylor.

Injunction Torpedoes County's Operation Of Adair Hospital - Public Interest Mounts

Donley's "Balkan Front", the county-operated Adair Hospital, suffered a rapid relapse the past week, a district court injunction had the practical effects of closing the institution under its hitherto county management, eliminating the commissioners court and its operating board from the picture with one stroke.

The injunction filed by Dr. B. L. Jenkins, is a temporary writ granted by Judge Moss, and will be heard on its merits at some undisclosed future date.

The injunction petition, cited the Donley County Commissioners' Court and the hospital operating board, severally and individually, as defendants.

In brief, the petition alleges that the Adair Hospital has been in illegal operation since July 18, 1931, the date when the Commissioners' Court passed a motion to take over operation of the institution as a county hospital, under the Texas Statutes governing such institutions. The statutes provide, the petition alleged, that county institutions must be established through a vote of the people, in a duly called election. Such election was never called, nor held, the petition said. Also, the motion of the Court to assume operation of the hospital was merely an ex-parte action of that body, and was not a binding contract between the hospital operating board and the Court. On these grounds, the complainant, as a taxpayer and resident of Donley County, begged relief due a taxpayer and legal resident of said county, i. e., an order restraining the Commissioners' Court from paying any money, approving any account, or authorizing payment of any warrant, toward operation of Adair hospital as a county institution.

The remaining interested parties in the picture here are the holding board under the Adair will, and the county citizenship. In a conversation yesterday with a member of the holding board, it was disclosed that no meeting of that body had been held. It is rumored that when it does convene it will have one or more propositions before it to lease the institution for opening and operation.

There is intense interest on the part of the public generally, for the hospital as a county service has been most popular. While there is some difference of opinion about the merits of the controversy most all voters agree that the hospital should be in operation for the benefit and protection of the public health and welfare.

Meantime public interest mounts in the action to be taken by the holding board.

Methodist Revival Gains Interest In First Week

The Pre-Easter Revival services at the Methodist Church which began Sunday morning with the pastor, Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., doing the preaching has been gaining in interest from the first day. The singing is led by Rev. Noel Bryant of Spardenburg, who is also doing some splendid solo work.

The morning service for week-days is held at ten o'clock and, as at the evening hour, the pastor is doing some old-fashioned, soul-searching gospel preaching directed to the present to the membership. The sequence of the sermons proves the careful planning of the series of meetings.

The revival will continue until Easter Sunday morning, and the pastor, along with the official board, renews its invitation to the community at large to join in this for the strengthening of Christian experience in the church and the salvation of those outside the church.

Beginning today, the evening hour is changed to 7:45 o'clock.

Four Donley Men In First Draft Call For April

First selective service call for April on the Donley County local board, for two men, was filled today when W. K. Hardin and Marvin Henry Baker reported to the board's Clarendon office to be sent to Fort Bliss for induction. Also leaving today were Robert Garland Jones and Robert L. Jewett, replacements to bring a previous board quota up to par.

The local board is still drawing on a supply of volunteers, which includes about seven more men. No more call quotas have been set for the local board for April, according to board secretary George Ryan.

CLARENDON LIONS GO TO GROUP MEET AT TURKEY TUESDAY

President Ralph Andis, Dean Drennan, McHenry Lane and Charles Lowry represented the Clarendon Lions Club at a group meeting of Lions Clubs of this area at Turkey Tuesday evening. Dean Drennan was the speaker of the occasion and won the applause of the Lions by his logic and careful presentation of the subject.

Clubs represented were Mador, Paducah, Floydada, Silverton, Childress, Clarendon and Turkey. Childress won the next quarterly group meeting.

Some Remodeling And Construction Going On Locally

With Spring weather and good working days going hand in hand considerable remodeling and new building construction is in progress locally this week, with more to be expected soon.

Workmen are well along on the construction of a new home for Homer Bones' Garage, just east of Cameron Lumber Company's yard on East Second. The new building, while no larger than Mr. Bones' present location, will be arranged to allow more convenience and better service to his growing automobile repair trade.

Nearer to town on East Second, walls are up on an addition to Lee's Tourist Court, owned by Lee Muse. When finished, the new building will provide modern tourists apartments to meet the needs of Clarendon's transient visitors.

At the Donley County State Bank, a modernizing treatment has recently been completed on the partition separating the lobby from business compartments of the institution, with gleaming metal grill work installed in front of the service windows.

In Clarendon's residence section, work in progress includes a remodeling program for the exterior of the Methodist parsonage, and a new roofing job at the Selden Bagby apartments.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION DUE SATURDAY

The annual election of trustees of the Clarendon Independent School District is set for Saturday, April 5, and it appeared certain this week that voters would have just a mere formality to go through to place three members of the present board back in office for another term. Filing time for aspirants to a board position passed this week, with only one petition on file for a slate to be elected. That petition will place the names of incumbents Allen J. Bryan, J. R. Porter and Van Kennedy up for election. Interest in the election is practically non-existent, and the total vote is expected to be only a fraction of the possible turnout at the polls.

Earl Porter, Jr., left Sunday for Littlefield to start work for the Lamb County Leader.

Mrs. G. T. Palmer left last Friday for Shattuck to be with her mother who is ill.

DISTRICT COURT SPENDS WEEK ON CIVIL CASES

SPECIAL VENIRE CALLED FOR MURDER TRIAL TO OPEN MONDAY

In its second week of the March term, Judge A. S. Moss's District Court busied itself with civil cases this week.

Monday jurors were selected and testimony begun on a tax suit, designated as the City of Clarendon vs. O. C. Watson, et al. Consideration of this case ended Tuesday morning on a motion by the plaintiff for a continuance, which was granted and the jury dismissed. Jurors were J. S. Baker, W. C. Quisenberry, Gilbert Mann, Ellis Chertoff, M. Brock, Pete Land, Z. D. Davis, W. B. Proffitt, L. D. Aten, B. H. Kirkpatrick, R. W. Moore, and John Hoeninger.

Court was not in session Tuesday, but Wednesday another civil suit, Odos Caraway vs. W. T. Finchum, trespass vs. title and possession, was begun. Testimony on this case was completed that day, but the jury was still out Thursday morning. Criminal cases will come up for jury action Monday when a jury selected from a special venire will consider the case of Charley Smith, Negro, who is charged with murder.

Following disposition of the Smith case, another jury will consider two indictments of driving while intoxicated, returned by the grand jury last week. They will involve E. A. Hays and C. L. Risley. Jeff Messer, also indicted on the same charge, entered a guilty plea before Judge Moss Wednesday and was given a two-year suspended sentence.

A jury list has been announced to report Wednesday, April 9, to consider the two criminal cases mentioned above. Consideration of these cases will necessarily wait until the Smith case is disposed of, and a jury may not be selected Wednesday. Jurors on the list for that day are: Isadore Mellinger, W. C. Higdon, C. C. Oakley, Roy Clappett, Homer Bones, Wess Banister, Will Fowler, Walter Lowe, Otto Beach, Houston Bell, Lloyd Shelton, E. S. Ballew, C. E. Lindsey, J. C. Killough, A. J. Garland, Tom Tate, Will Chamberlain, George Bullman, Carl Say, Ed Dishman, M. E. Lane, Earl Alderson, W. J. Goldston, R. W. Stogner, C. A. Hott, Claude Bain, Donald Ballew, Sam Braswell, J. M. Accord, John Nash and J. R. Brandon.

Clarendon Fire Rate Lowest In State For Cities Its Size

Clarendon's fire insurance key rate stands lower for 1941 than any other city of comparable size in Texas, an examination of the State Fire Insurance Board's recently published list of key rates for all Texas cities shows. With a rate of 25 cents, Clarendon compares rather favorably with other cities its size, some of which have rates as high as 60 cents.

Fire insurance premiums on all property within the city limits are figured on the basis of the key rate, and a low rate effects annual savings to all fire insurance policy holders. Also entering into the fire insurance picture is a good fire record, for which Clarendon has held the maximum of 25 per cent credit for the past several years. The key rate stands from year to year regardless of the number of fires, as it is based upon fire-fighting equipment, while the fire record is affected by the amount of insured property lost by fire during a five-year period. Clarendon's insured fire losses during the five years ending with 1940 amounted to $12,055, while in 1940 itself, losses—from one insured fire—were $28.

CLARENDON AIRPORT TO SHARE IN CAA'S NEW IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

Civil Aeronautics Authority airports in a number of Panhandle cities will benefit from a CAA appropriation for improvement. It was learned this week, with Clarendon's field being one of the ports mentioned,

Clarendon Band Entered In Amarillo Meet

Clarendon High School musicians, under direction of Ray Robbins, will match their musical and drilling skill tomorrow against the pick of Panhandle school bands, in the annual Regional music meet at Amarillo.

The Amarillo High School Band is host for the meet which is expected to attract several hundred school musicians. Soloists from Clarendon's group are in Amarillo today for the solo contests, while complete band contests will be held tomorrow. The local group is scheduled to perform in the Municipal Auditorium at 5:30 p. m., and to take part in a drill contest at Butler Field tomorrow evening. The drill contest starts at 7:30 o'clock but it will be late in the evening before Clarendon's colors go into action, as the local group is 31st place in marching order, out of a field of 32.

LIONS ENJOY FFA JUDGING TEAM PROGRAM

"FAT HOGS" AND "FAT LAMBS" JUDGING BRINGS HEARTY LAUGHS

A heavy attendance at the regular weekly luncheon of the Clarendon Lions Club, Tuesday at the Clarendon Hotel, grew hilarious over a clever "demonstration" by the FFA judging team of CHS, who were guests of the day.

Fresh from their triumphs at Lubbock, where they added to their string of victories, the Boys drew laughing applause by demonstrating judging methods on certain Lions who were called up to serve as "fat hogs", and "fat lambs". The first group included Lions Guy Wright, Ernest Kent, Dr. Beck and Lee Bell, while the "lambs" were Lions Kelly Chamberlain, Walter Wilson, Patton, and Stallings. Lion Gillham, instructor of the FFA boys had charge of the program and introduced the members of the winning teams. Several short talks from the boys gave standards by which poultry, hogs and lambs are judged.

Tuesday was "April Fool", and somebody with a sizzling sense of humor doctored the inviting pumpkin pie with red pepper, and worse, somebody forgot to bring the News editor a glass of water, just when he needed it most.

Rev. Noel Bryant of Spardenburg, was introduced as a guest by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., he being in Clarendon as a song leader and assistant in the revival services at the Methodist Church.

FORMER CLARENDON MAN IS McLEAN'S MAYOR

Boyd Meador, former Clarendon resident, was elected Mayor of McLean in that city's election held Tuesday. Mr. Meador has been alderman of McLean for a number of years. Other McLean city officials elected were J. E. Bogan, city secretary; J. A. Sparks, marshal; and John W. Cooper and Clifford Allison aldermen. Allison is also a former Clarendonite.

Easter Cantata Singers Here Win Fight Against Spring Colds As Finishing Process Begins

Common to all Easter cantata singers, the round of Spring colds, hoarseness, strep throat, flu, and kindred ailments have taken their toll among the thirty who are presenting the Annual Easter Cantata, at the First Methodist Church, on Easter Sunday evening. But most have recovered and are in form for the finishing process which begins Friday evening at 8:30 when the rehearsal follows the evening service at the Methodist church.

Choral singers and soloists, alike, are devotedly in love with Nolte's "Christ Victorious" which is the work to be presented this year, and agree that it is probably the most tuneful and appealing of the long line of East-

12 INDICTMENTS RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

REPORT CAUTIONS PARENTS AGAINST CARELESSNESS IN YOUTH SUPERVISION

After four days in session, the grand jury for the March term of District Court reported out to District Judge A. S. Moss last Thursday afternoon, returning 12 indictments and including in its report a few words of caution to Donley County parents to be careful as to the associates and activities of their children when away from home.

In its message to parents, the report stated that "they cannot be too careful in knowing where their boys and girls are at night and with whom they are associating. Failure to do this leads in some instances coming to our attention, to deplorable results that can be avoided by better home supervision." The report was signed by W. T. Hayter, foreman of the grand jury.

Indictments returned by the body included the following: Jeff Messer, driving while intoxicated; Charley Smith, Negro, murder; E. A. Hays, driving while intoxicated; C. L. Risley, driving while intoxicated; and J. W. Adamson, embezzlement of public funds (county). A former tax assessor-collector, Adamson was indicted on six counts, charging alleged embezzlement of public funds amounting to about $1900. He had been located in Los Angeles early this week, and filing of extradition papers was being held up for the sheriff's department to find out whether Adamson would sign a waiver of extradition and return to Donley County to face trial. Each of the six indictments set bond at $1000.

W. T. LINK WILL SEEK JUDGESHIP NEXT YEAR

Well in advance of the 1942 Texas primaries, W. T. Link, Clarendon attorney, made known this week that he would be a candidate in 1942 for the office of Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals for the Seventh Supreme Judicial District of Texas.

In a card received by Clarendon voters early this week, Mr. Link reminded them that he began the practice of law in Clarendon during the summer of 1911, an dhis laved here since. It was in 1911 that the Court of Civil Appeals for the Seventh Supreme Judicial District was created, and it began to function, Mr. Link said, about the time he began his law practice. He will make an active campaign for office in 1942, he said.

MARILYN BARTLETT HOME FROM MEMPHIS HOSPITAL

Marilyn Bartlett who has been in a Memphis hospital for the past several weeks, was returned to her home Wednesday afternoon. She is reported to be showing remarkable improvement.

FEAR OUGHT TO BE BANISHED

Editor Harry Koch, veteran Quannah newspaper owner, and a long time observer of labor movements in Europe (he is a native of Holland) and America, writes pungently of the present troublesome strike situation in America. He argues that the workers, themselves, should be the last court of appeal—not the labor leaders. Fear of the leaders should be banished in America.

"We believe that the wave of strikes which is plaguing our country and threatening our armament program is conceived and fostered by our professional union leaders and not by our real wage-earners. It is suggested that we put the power to initiate and carry on strikes where it rightfully belongs—with the workers themselves. Let's put an end to this business of people losing their jobs because they refuse to carry out union orders. Let's make the right to work equal to the right to strike, the right not to join a union, to refuse to pay dues, or to quit a union, equal to the right to join one. We don't need antistrike legislation. What we do need is to get back to first principles, where workers can tell union leaders what they want to do, instead of being told, and can back up their wishes with their individual actions without fear of either employer or labor leader."

WE WIN THE OPENING SKIRMISH

Clarendon people are deeply interested in the fortunes of the junior college aid bill now before the Texas legislature. If it should be enacted it will be a great boon to Clarendon Junior College and be the means of enlarging our school.

Of like situation is the junior college at Wichita Falls, and in comment on the progress of the bill, the Wichita Falls Times, has the following to say:

"An important victory was gained for the junior college state aid bill when the senate finance committee approved the measure. This leaves it still with much ground to be gained, but it has won a skirmish that greatly improves its chances.

"The point which Senator Aikin, chairman of the senate finance committee, made in reporting it favorably, is one for both senate and house to keep in mind; namely, that it will lessen, not increase, the cost of higher education in Texas. If that argument for it is presented with sufficient force, it will win."

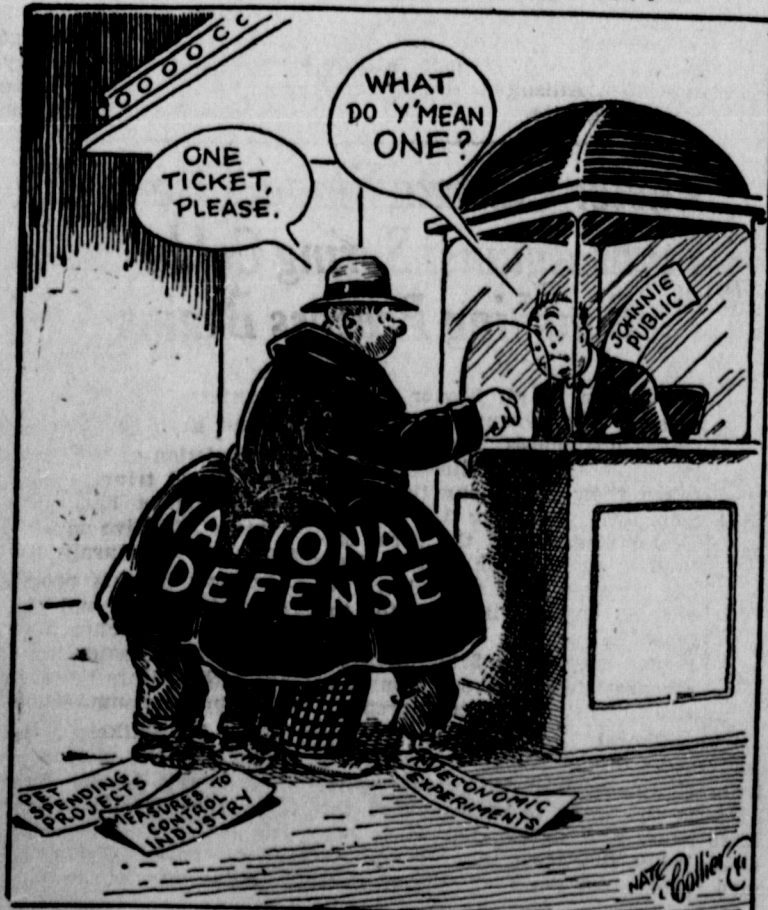

FINE CIVIC ATTITUDES

Clarendon voters re-elected Mayor Connolly Monday of this week over two most excellent citizens, either of whom would have served the city in a capable manner should either have been named by the electorate.

The News congratulates Mr. Connolly on his re-election, and bespeaks for him another term of faithful and efficient service, as it commends the losing candidates for their open acceptance of the results in the best of spirits.

The election revealed the presence of fine civic attitudes on the part of all concerned, and bodes well for Clarendon.

"Waiting Beside A Tomb"

Even as a Small Group Waited Two Thousand Years Ago, Even so Does All Humanity Wait Beside War's Tomb Today. A Plea For Loyalty To The Risen Lord

REV. E. W. HENSHAW, Rector St. John Baptist Episcopal Church

Two thousand years ago a small group of people stood weeping at a tomb. A few weary hours before they had seen their Master, and with him all their hopes, apparently, perish on a cross. Now he was buried in a tomb, guarded by Roman soldiers, and a great sealed stone blocking the entrance to that tomb. Surely for them this was the end of all things. Can you not almost hear them say "We trusted that this was he who should deliver Israel, and now he is dead and buried, there is nothing left, and we ourselves are in danger of death from the same ones who had him killed." What a black hopeless night! Then in a few short hours that same defeated, discouraged little group were in the midst of a joy that was almost beyond belief. Out of the tomb, bringing with him all of their lost hopes, had come their Master. Their confidence that "This indeed was He" was restored. With a bold confidence, which was never again to be shaken, they went out at His word, to tell the world that He lived, and that there was hope for all mankind. They found no easy task. There were no great multitudes waiting to receive them. They found that they had to meet the same old human sin and selfishness, the same old hatreds, the same old persecuting Pharisees, but what matter, their Master had shown that death was not the end, that man might rise, not only above death, above all that hindered the living of a full life. He had proven that the grave could not hold; life, and love, and human hopes. Today the world stands beside a tomb. Seemingly all our hopes of peace, and love and human brotherhood, all our ideals and aspirations for equity and justice among the nations, have been nailed to the cross of man's lust for power and conquest, and buried in the awful tomb of war. We had trusted that we had found the solution for the problems of mankind, and like those of old, we cry out in the blackness of our night of despair "All is Lost." We are fearful even of our own safety. But, if we will look up, and if we will listen we may hear the voice of Him who conquered death saying "I am the Resurrection and the Life." "The grave today cannot hold love and hope and human aspirations." "Go tell mankind that because I live they may live also." That is the message of the Christian Church to the world today. But, the Church can only preach that message as you help it to do so. God can only reach the world with your help. As you believe and live so will the world come to believe and live. There are the same old enemies to meet, but in His name and through faith in Him they can be conquered. Force of arms will never be as effective in bringing love out of the tomb as will our expressed belief in Him who conquered death that we might rise to newness of life. Are you ready to show your loyalty to Him? How may you do it? One way is to support by your presence at its services the Church which is His agency on earth. To support that Church by your allegiance to its teachings and by your presence. Easter Day is a new opportunity to do that. Here in America we may worship and none dare make us afraid. In other lands, thousands yes millions will gather to worship, but it will be in upper rooms, and with fear because of what that gathering to worship may mean. It is more than likely for many it will mean death, or at best persecution, but they will gather to worship. Dare we do less? Let us, every man woman and child in this City GO TO CHURCH AND WORSHIP ON EASTER DAY.

Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Checks and Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

The report that German warships—reputedly the super-fast, 26,000-ton new battleships Scharnhorst and Gneisenau—are operating within 1,500 miles of New York, should not come as a surprise. One of Hitler's great military virtues is thoroughness. He, like everyone else in the world in touch with affairs, knew long ago that the lend-lease bill would pass. It was only the part of wisdom for the German Admiralty to have its raiders ready and waiting for the merchantmen to start the long voyage across the Atlantic with the military supplies we are transferring now to Britain. Hitler has said that the great bulk of our shipments will be destroyed, and he is now unquestionably trying to make that boast good. And if the German claim that 224,000 tons of British shipping were sunk within a recent 48-hour period is true, Hitler is making ominous progress.

As Walter Lippman has said: "The problem of the axis power is how to defeat the United States now that the decision has been taken to support the peoples who resist aggression." The Nazis' plan, Mr. Lippman continued, probably has three phases. First and most obvious phase is to intensify the blockade of the British Isles, to sink the supply ships, to bomb the docks and shipyards and then to attempt invasion. Second phase is to immobilize the bulk of our navy by inducing Japan to keep on creating "incidents" in the Pacific. Third phase is to create "alarm and diversions" in this hemisphere in order to distract our attention from Europe and present us with some tough problems near home.

It is no secret that German agents, undercover as well as diplomatic, are working overtime in the principal Latin American republics, and that we are now going to work to combat their activities in various ways. Some experts firmly believe that as our aid-to-Britain reaches considerable proportions, German agents within this country will launch a great widespread sabotage campaign against our war material factories, primarily the airplane plants. The bulk of neutral military authorities are convinced that Germany cannot win this war unless she is able to keep us from adequately supplying Britain with the instruments of offense and defense she so sorely needs.

It is too early yet to tell what success Britain may expect in getting her ships through. At the moment it is probable that British shipping losses have been just about equalized by replacements and seizures. But the sources of replacements are growing fewer. This country is starting a big ship-building program, but it will be a long time before vessels in appreciable quantity are sliding down the ways.

This spring may supply the answer to the shipping question. It is known that Germany has been building dozens of small submarines of the 200-ton class for operation in British waters. The German naval men are placing much of their faith in these little underwater crafts Britain's shortage of destroyers—the only surface ships which have so far been really effective in fighting subs—makes the problem doubly difficult for her.

Hitler apparently believes that the U. S. Navy, if necessary, will be willing to convoy ships abroad, and many an observer here agrees. That is where Japan comes in. So long as she makes periodic threats in the Southwestern Pacific, our naval strength must be concentrated in those waters. It is believed that if Japan actually makes an attack on Singapore or Hongkong or French Indo China or the Dutch East Indies, we will resist with force. In that case England could expect little help from us in getting supplies across the 3,000 miles of water that lie between Ambrose Light and Folkestone Head.

Hitler has said again that the war will end this year—and end in an overwhelming German victory, complete with occupation of the Isles. Hitler is not an idle talker. Now that spring is here, some of the most important events in the history of the human race may shortly occur.

The war cannot be won in the Balkans. But the beginning of the end could very well be effected there. If the Battle of the Balkans actually takes place as now seems close to inevitable the war will reaily enter its decisive phase.

This battle represents immense dangers to both sides—and both for some time have been hesitant to run the risk. Now it looks as if the strategists may have decided that the possible gains are so great that it is worth the gigantic gamble.

As Time put it, "For Germany, a setback in the Balkans would be made than Germany's first outright military defeat in World War II. (or anywhere else in the Balkans) would be more than another Narvik or another Dunkirk. It would mean the destruction of Britain's only existing victorious army; the closing of Europe's back door; the focussing of the entire war upon the British Isles—where, in the last analysis, World War II must be decided."

Bob Lawrence kept apologizing as though somehow the secretary of a Chamber of Commerce could be held responsible for the weather but, as a matter of fact, the scene was rendered even more striking by the thin mist that rose like faint smoke from the Comal River in Landa Park, one of the most beautiful spots in Texas. The river is only three and one-half miles long and it is New Braunfels' boast that it is the only one in Texas (if not the entire nation) that starts in a city and runs its course entirely within the city limits.

Despite its bevy, the Comal is declared to have the greatest flow of any stream in the State. Fed by springs, it never falls in the driest season but pours forth an estimated 3,000,000,000 gallons of water daily, and always at a temperature of 70 degrees.

A walk through grass with drops of silver, stepping carefully to avoid breaking spiders' fragile webs spangled with dew, over ferns. Gaining volume and speed as it was swelled by other springs, the hivelut perhaps was singing Lanier's lines:

"The white quartz shone and the smooth brook-stone Did bar me of passage with friendly brawl, And many a luminous jewel lone — Crystals clear or a—cloud with mist, Ruby, garnet and amethyst— Made lures with the lights of streaming stone."

The water becomes blue and foams over rapids, then widens to a like-like sweep, and laps banks of overhanging trees draped with moss. But you must see New Braunfels' Landa Park for yourself.

Happened to run across a graceful tribute the other day that was paid a while back to Senator Morris Sheppard: "He is a true gentleman; and it is almost a definition of a gentleman to say that he is one who never inflicts pain. He makes light of favors when he does them and seems to be receiving a favor when actually he is conferring it. He is a great debater and a clear thinker but he is mean or little in his disputes and never takes unfair advantage, and has never mistaken personalities or sharp sayings for arguments. From long-sighted prudence he observes the maxim of the ancient sage 'that we should conduct ourselves toward our enemy as if he were one day to be our friend.' Morris Sheppard has the love and respect of every person with whom he comes in contact. He is today the most beloved man in Texas."

"The stenographer we require," ran the ad, "must be fast, absolutely accurate, and must have human intelligence. If you are not a cracker-jack, don't bother us."

One of the answers wrote that she noted their requirements, and went on:

"Your advertisement appeals to me strongly—stronger than prepared mustard—as I have searched in Europe, Alrope and Hoboken in quest of someone who could use my talents to advantage. When it comes to this chinmusic proposition, I have never found a man, woman or dictaphone who could get to first base with me, either fancy or catch-as-catch-can. I write shorthand so fast that I have a specially prepared pencil with a platinum point and a water-cooling attachment, note-pad made of asbestos ruled with sulphuric acid and stitched with catgut. I run with my cut-out open at all speeds, and am in fact guaranteed, double hydraulic welded, drop-forged lightning on a prefect 36 frame, ground to one thousandth of an inch.

"If you would avail yourself of the opportunity of a lifetime, wire me, but unless you are fully prepared to pay the tariff for such service, don't bother me as I am so nervous I can't stand still long enough to have my dresses fitted." (From Venus Express).

No one wants a destructive, death dealing driver on the highways. The habitually reckless ones would be removed under the provisions of a standard driver's license law if Texas had such a law.

RABBIT HASH—

A restaurant keeper bragged on his "rabbit hash". When asked how he made it, said: "One rabbit and one horse."

There are many borrowers who think they are paying only 6 percent on their installment loans for autos, refrigerators, vacuum cleaners, etc. etc. Others are consuming too much "horse meat" in exorbitant charges on small personal loans.

In a Bank like ours you are dealing with home folks and friends. Consult us about your present or prospective loan. We might be able to give you more "rabbit" and less "horse". It will cost you nothing to find out and we'll be glad to talk it over.

REAL DRIVING WEATHER WILL SOON BE HERE

Spring driving weather is just around the corner, and already you may be feeling the urge to "get out and go places." Before you start, better bring your car around and let us change it over from winter to warm weather driving conditions . . . get proper oil to replace tired winter lubricant, and let us put in correct greases from bumper to bumper. These things should be done now—before summer comes along.

Don't Forget Tires!

To make the "Springizing" job complete, let us replace those worn tires with a new set of GOODYEAR TIRES. Then you'll be all set for a pleasant spring and summer driving season, with fewer troubles ahead.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

"Mrs. Miniver" is coming to Amarillo in the person of the author, Jan Struther, who is Mrs. Anthony Maztone-Graham. She was Joyce Austrrether, hence her pseudonym, Jan Struther. For months "Mrs. Miniver" led the best sellers and our copy still has a waiting list. Jan Struther, as we like to call her, is an English war refugee, having come to this country with her young son months ago, while her husband is in the English army. Since coming to New York she has published a volume of poems. She is to speak to the Knife and Fork Club of Amarillo on April 16th. Her volume of poems she calls "The Glass Blower".

The daily press tells us that the real name of Jan Valten, author of the sensational best seller, "Out Of The Night", is Richard Julius Herman Kerbs, and that he has posted a $5,000 bond in New York to insure his appearance at his deportation hearing on the 14th. He has been detained on Ellis Island.

We realize that libraries are a vital part of the democratic way of life, that they are the "universities of the masses", yet it is true that much of Texas is without library service of any kind. Texas ranks 11th in wealth, yet it stands 37th among the 48 states in the Union in the matter of public libraries. Texas spends only 12c. 56 per cent of the residents of Texas do not have access to a public library. Over 3,000,000 Texans out of the 6,000,000 living in the state are without library service. In our 254 counties there are only 28 free county libraries. An effort is being made at this session of the legislature to get help for libraries.

Authors seems to have been drawing pretty heavily on the Gettysburg Address for their titles as for instance: "New Nation", "Long Remember", "For Us The Living", "Last Full Measure", "Conceived In Liberty", "Created Equal", and "Shall Not Perish From The Earth". What next, MacKinlay Kantor's "Arouse and Beware" turns to the American past to build a new saga of the nineteenth century. It is written with the same faultless accuracy which historians and critics alike have recognized in his "Long Remember" and "The Voice of Bugle Ann", both of which our readers have enjoyed. It is described as an experience of proud maturity, a valiant tale of sacrifice and high devotion.

"The Need We Have" by A. Hamilton Gibbs is an Irish story. Major Gibbs made his debut as a story writer in 1925 with "Soundings", an unusually good story which our readers have enjoyed, the story of a beautiful relationship between a sensitive young girl and an understanding father. He has written six other novels since then of which we have three: "Labels", "Chances", and "Undertow"; and now "The Need We Have". A critic has said that "The Need We Have" is the need to fine; through love or suffering, through compassion or gratefulness, some happiness on earth; and few readers will fail to be moved by the music and laughter, the heartaches and the tears of this warm, human story of a most lovable Irish girl.

A book for the more serious minded is "Green Laurels" by Donald Culross Peattie. Its subtitle is "The Lives and Achievements of the Great Naturalists." The author says, "Of all things under the sun that a man may love, the living works he loves most purely. In nature, nothing is insignificant, nothing is ignorable, nothing sinful, nothing reptitious. All the music is great music, all the lines have meaning. But my book is not about nature, it is about the evasions of great men, high adventure, failures, triumphs."

Other books by Mr. Peattie are "Flora of the Indiana Dunes", "An Almanac for Moderns", and "Singing in the Wilderness".

In striking contrast is "I'm Getting Married" by Joan Foldes, translated by George Halacz. The author is Hungarian and knows the European background of her story. She has written it with a deft lightness of touch which makes it irresistible. Her earlier story, "The Street of the Fishing Cat" was a prize winner, and has been on our shelves for some time. It won the International All-Nation Prize. It is a story of a group of exiles transplanted to an alien land.

Mrs. John P. Morguand, wife of the novelist who wrote the prize winning "The late George Apley" and "Wichford Point" is a writer herself, as well as a singer, musician and composer. She often helps her husband write, in a very modest way. She says she puts in some commas and semi-colons now and then. They were married four years ago and live in New York. Mrs. Morguand, a product of Vassar, is a descendant of Thomas Hoeker, the founder of Hartford, Conn. She studied music in Salzburg and Paris and composed "The Symphony in E Minor" and "Wichford Point" is on our shelves.

Mr. Morguand has written rather extensively since 1922, having fifteen books to his credit besides many magazine articles. He has traveled extensively since his service with the A. E. F. in France. He works regular hours, rewriting very carefully. His hobbies are travel and work.

The Bible continues to be the world's best seller. The Census Bureau says the out put of fiction declined sharply in 1939, but the publication of Bibles and

Dinner Friday Evening Celebrates 50th Anniversary Of Dr. Jenkins' Entering Medical Practice

Over fifty guests were present Friday evening at a dinner honoring the fiftieth anniversary of his entering the practice of medicine, when Dr. B. L. Jenkins with his wife, were bountiful hosts in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church.

Aside from a few local friends the group was made up of prominent physicians from over Texas, coming here, as one remarked, to pay tribute to the achievements of a "country doctor". In this group were some of the most prominent physicians of the Southwest, including Dr. Preston Hunt, Texarkana, president of the Texas State Medical Association; Dr. E. A. Rowley, Councilor, Amarillo; Dr. R. A. Duncan, president-elect, 7th District Association; Dr. Chas. H. Harris of the Harris Memorial Methodist Hospital, Ft. Worth; Dr. P. A. White, Childress, president District Association.

Mrs. J. H. Ellis and Guy Stricklin, assisted Mrs. Jenkins in receiving the guests, while Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Jr., of Amarillo, presided at the registration of guests in the Guest Book of the occasion.

At the sumptuous fried chicken dinner, prepared by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, the invocation was offered by Rev. J. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Clarendon. The interesting program that followed included principal addresses by Dr. Hunt, president of the State Medical Association; Dr. Chas. H. Harris of Fort Worth, a life-long friend of Dr. Jenkins, and Dr. Crume of Amarillo. Brief talks were made by local representatives of the press, the Ministerial Association, the Junior College, and a notable short sketch of the first physician of Donley County, Dr. J. D. Stocking by Jerome D. Stocking, his son.

Dr. Jenkins, acting as toastmaster, made a touching reference to his early-day experiences. Dr. Crume, representing the eight attending doctors from Amarillo, interrupted the program to present Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins with a beautiful electric floor-lamp, as he suggested, "an aid in enjoying well-earned leisure about the home in the evenings of many years to come". Dr. Jenkins indicated he was too full for utterance and motioned Mrs. Jenkins to respond for them, which she did in a most graceful and feeling manner.

Dr. Jenkins, long prominent in his profession here in the Panhandle, was born in Dallas on the present site of the Baker Hotel, Jan. 4, and moved to Mansfield, Texas, at an early age where he lived with his Testaments rose from 5,579,317 in 1937 to 7,927,848 in 1939. E. Phillips Oppenheim arrived in England recently with his wife and maid after an adventurous journey from southern France.

Richard Wright, author of "Native Son" has been awarded the Spingarn Medal for the "powerful depiction in his books of the effect of proscription, segregation, and denial of opportunity to the American Negro."

Peter Dawson, a Midwesterner, graduate of the University of Illinois, former salesman and a good shot with a gun; won the Dodd Mean-Western Story Magazine prize of "2,000 on his novel called the "Crimson Horseshoe."

Helen and Jeanie Porter brought us four teen-age books recently. Such contributions by our girl and boy readers have meant much to the library, they are much appreciated.

CITIZENS ASKED TO KEEP WANDERING CHICKS AT HOME

The problem of Clarendon's wandering chickens is becoming a serious one around the city hall, Mayor Tom F. Connally reported this week, as a preface to a plea for all local chicken owners to keep their flocks on home grounds.

A number of home chicken farmers have apparently grown careless, it seems, and indignant householders in several sections of the city have inquired of the city government to see if something could not be done to keep the footloose fowls out of flower beds and spring gardens. There is a law against livestock of any kind running at large in the city limits, but Mayor Connally hopes that chicken owners will voluntarily have mercy on their neighbors, and keep their chickens at home.

Museum Given Old-Time Pictures

CANYON.—Twenty-five pictures of oldtime cattlemen collected by the late W. J. Todd, Kansas stockman, have been given to the Panhandle-Plains museum.

The gift came through the interest of Col. Edward N. Wentworth, director of Armour's Livestock Bureau of Chicago, who obtained the pictures from James Todd of Phoenix, son of the man who collected them.

The old pictures, all framed, have been hung on the west wall of the museum on the first floor. Many of them could not be replaced, according to Dr. L. F. Sheffy, executive secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

Collecting of the likenesses of early cattlemen has been a project of the museum staff for several years.

grandfather, having lost his parents in his tender years. He got his free schooling at Mansfield and later attended old Mansfield College. In this little Tarrant county village he "read medicine" in the office of Dr. J. H. Stevens, and attended Vanderbilt University medical school, graduating in Feb. 1891. He located at Ovilla, Ellis County, where he had his first professional call, on March 28th, 1891, at "four o'clock in the morning" as he related. Practicing at Santo, Lyra, he came to Clarendon in 1910. At Santo he met Miss Maggie Buster of Weatherford, who taught there, and in June 1894 they were married at Weatherford. Mrs. Jenkins has been a great helper and mainstay all these years of his general practice, and still is.

Dr. Jenkins has been president of his county and district medical associations, and has appeared on many programs of the State Medical Association. He has always taken a lively and active interest in church, civic and political movements of the community, and owns a Donley County farm which engages much of his interest.

As one speaker suggested, "It is no small matter for one to have served his profession for fifty years", and his many friends here and elsewhere join in congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins on this happy celebration of so important an anniversary.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends of J. M. Cornell, I want to take this privilege of expressing my sincere gratitude to one and all who had any part in making my dear brother's last days as comfortable as they were for him.

Especially do I thank Rev. J. Perry King for the many kind and consoling words and for the prayers he offered at a "throne of grace" for us all. For Dr. Ellis who stood by in the ministry of healing to make his suffering easier to bear. Also for those who brought the lovely things to eat and for the beautiful floral offerings.

To one and all I shall pray for our Heavenly Father to reward you for your many kindnesses in every way, for you made our grief and sorrow easier to bear. Read Numbers 6:24-26, my sincere wish and prayer for you.

Mrs. W. B. BINGHAM, Vernon, Texas.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to thank my friends and supporters who assured my re-election as mayor of Clarendon for another term. I appreciate the rights of any citizen who did not vote for me, and I now invite the cooperation of all in giving the city the most service and development that tax funds will justify. My kindest regards to all, goes with my pledge to serve all as best I may.

Annual Nationwide - Easter Seal Sale Now On In Clarendon

Crippled children throughout Texas will derive benefit from the annual nationwide Easter Seal Campaign which commenced on March 24th and will last through Easter Sunday. The sale is being conducted by the Texas Society for Crippled Children, with offices at 416 Southland Life Building in Dallas.

Texas is joining with 38 other states in raising funds to carry out a program of giving every crippled child an opportunity to attain a full and better life. The Texas Society is a lay organization which cooperates with various governmental and social welfare agencies in developing a well rounded program for the crippled child, embracing proper medical treatment, hospitalization, education, vocational training and employment. The annual Easter Seal drive provides the necessary funds to carry on this work.

The Easter Seals—appropriately called "Seals of Friendship"—are being sold in Clarendon by mail. Letters containing one hundred little seals have been sent to Clarendon residents, and it is hoped that the response to the appeal of the crippled children will be enthusiastic. Contributions are to be mailed to the Dallas office of the Texas Society.

During the course of the afternoon, Maggie Hunt was given a birthday shower and two new members were voted into membership, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Beard.

The hostess assisted by Von Bates and Johnnymerie Pickett then served refreshments in the Easter motif having miniature chicks as plate favors to two guests, Jenny Burch and Mary K. Todd and to members Ona Tatum, Frances Hilliard, Glenn Kirby, Josie Peabody, Marie Patterson, Maggie Hunt, Nora Decker, and Ellen Bryan.

It was announced that the next meeting of the Club will be April 15th and will be a social party for the husbands. Maben Andis and Frances Hilliard will be hostesses.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The News has been requested to announce that Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, Republican House Leader, Chairman of Republican National Committee, will be heard over Columbia Network on Thursday evening, April 3, at 9:15 p. m.

Side Glances On Texas History

By CHARLES O. HUCKER

AN ENGLISHMAN RIDES A TEXAS RAILROAD

"The old order changeth," and it is lucky for railway travelers that it does.

Such was the observation of an Englishman, R. H. Williams, after his first and last experience with a Texas railroad in 1866. Read the story of that experience in his book of American adventures called "With the Border Ruffians"—a copy of which is in the University of Texas Collection—and you'll have to agree.

One Wednesday in February, '66, Williams landed in Port Lavaca en route from New Orleans to San Antonio. Thursday at 2 o'clock, he learned, a train was to leave for Victoria—at 2 on the dot. So, as the Texas railway system was thought to be pretty well developed by the mid-1860's, in due time he appeared at the station—or rather, at "the shed that did duty for a station."

There was no train. He waited. An hour passed, and still there was no train. What was even more annoying, there was no station-master—that is, not at the station. Williams "at last unearthed him in a saloon, taking his ease, and his drinks, in a rocking-chair," only to be rebuked soundly for presuming to inquire about the schedule. So he returned to his hotel.

DELAY FOR A CELEBRATION

Late Friday night the train pulled into town. Williams was then slightly encouraged to hear that it would leave the next morning, Saturday, at 9—at 8 on the dot. However, he soon learned that such promptness was possible only if the engineer could be kept sober, and in the morning the engineer, the conductor and the station-master in chorus were proudly proclaiming to the populace "Hooray! The Railroad's drunk!" Sunday morning at 10 the train finally rolled out of town, with the engineer still wobbling a bit. Victoria was thirty miles away.

So at last, though "an ox-wagon could have beaten us in a race," as Williams wrote later, it was something that they were on their way. For a while, at least. Two miles out of town the train stopped. There was a pause. Then suddenly it started, backing up and struggled laboriously back to Port Lavaca. No water, the conductor explained. The engineer hadn't thought to fill the boiler.

About noon they made a fresh start. Twelve miles this time, then another halt. The passengers sat and waited for another backing up, but nothing happened. At last they noticed the engine rocking a long in the distance without them.

WAITED IN THE WILDERNESS

Water trouble again, the conductor said. The engineer was going on ahead to a water hole. If he had no luck there, he's have to go all the way into Victoria.

This was too much, and after two hours the passengers, with terrifying threats, dispatched the conductor to "fetch that engine back, and quickly too." After all, it was mid-afternoon, and they'd had no lunch. And they had nothing to eat and drink; on top of that, it was blistering hot—so hot that they had to lay under the cars to keep even slightly cool. And thus the afternoon went by out in the wilderness. Still no engine appeared, and no conductor.

At last, Williams wrote, sometime after dusk "those who had energy enough left to keep a lookout saw the cause of all our woes come puffing and rocking along the wretched line." Afraid of another breakdown, the engineer hooked up only one car, and everyone crowded into it. Once more they started and this time managed to reach Victoria at 10 o'clock.

Williams' remark about an ox-cart is an obvious exaggeration, but a covered wagon could travel thirty miles a day—and might well have beaten his train into Victoria.

APRIL FOOL'S DAY

The word "April" is derived from the Latin word "Aperire" which means to open. The name was probably chosen for this Spring month because it is the time when trees, flowers, shrubs, and grass open wide after their long winter's closed period of rest. This is also the time when boys and girls have their so-called April fool fun.

BEWARE! is the thing that every person will be looking out for on the first day of April. Beware of those empty pocket-books lying around, even though we all know that it is only a joke, we are still human enough to pick up one when we see it. No doubt there will be people who will try to make you believe that you forgot your necktie or your shoes or sock. Pay them no mind and their little joke will not be quite so funny.

Where all this April fools stuff arrived, it would be hard to say. Probably it originated years and years ago during some great king's reign, and has been handed down from generation to generation until it has reached us here at good old C. H. S. There are several different types of April fools jokes. There is the type where a person will play a joke on someone just for the fun of it. Perhaps in a round-about way he will be getting revenge on him. Then there is the so-called joke that does harm. By this I mean doing things that do you no good, and usually will get you into trouble, and do considerable damage to the other person. This kind of joke is not funny and by no means is it appreciated by anyone. I will say that it is a very good means of losing friends and lose them in a hurry. If you are a victim of this type of joke, you may say, "I only did it in fun, and after all wasn't it April fools?" This is no excuse because you will not be judged according to what you say, but according to the damage you did, and your knowing that you shouldn't have done it. If you are an April Fool's player, please be careful about the joke you play and also on whom you play it. Remember that not every one sees the same joke as you see it. Happy April Fool's!

ASSEMBLY

Friday's assembly, as reported by the school students, was very interesting. The students of Clarendon College and High School were very glad to have a few of the students from Canyon Teachers College to entertain at the assembly hour. One of the most outstanding numbers on the program was "The Swing Four", an orchestra composed of four boys and a girl. The girl was the singer for the orchestra. There also was an imitator. This young fellow imitated several people. One of his best imitations was that of Bob Burns. It made everyone wish old times were here again when Joe Word, Jane Williams, and Joe Wells sang "Blue Berry Hill" and "Sierra Sue." After the assembly program was over, which was about 12:00, the Canyon students were served lunch at the Clarendon High School Home-Ec. Department.

THE SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors met Monday March the thirty-first. They decided that Rev. M. M. Miller should deliver the Baccalaureate address on May 18. They also discussed the graduation invitations. The Seniors will order them through the Clarendon News by Saturday of this week.

THE WOMANLESS WEDDING

Preceding the wedding ceremony held at the Junior High School last Thursday Gene Bryan sang "I Love You Truly." The minister, who was Junior Mauldin, then took his place. In the procession, the mother who was Tommy Saye, entered very sorrowfully and was seated on the stage. The wedding party entered to the strain of Lohengrin's wedding march which was played by Mrs. Allan Bryan.

BAND JOURNEYS TO AMARILLO WITH HOPES OF WINNING FIRST

Friday is a red-letter day for the Clarendon High School Band. Their playing and marching Friday will decide whether they will be a first division band again. The band plays at 5:30 p. m. at the Municipal Auditorium. First they play their warm-up march, "Victor", then their selected number "The Crusaders", and the required number "Horizon". From there they go to their sight-reading. There they play numbers they haven't seen before, and are judged. At 7:30 that night the bands start marching. There are thirty-three bands to march and the Clarendon band is the thirty-second one to march. They are hoping they will really pep the judges up when they come out on the field. And why shouldn't this band pep them up after thirty-one ordinary bands!

Most of the soloists will play Thursday. The brass sextet plays Friday morning and the twirlers twirl Saturday. Here's wishing good luck to all of them.

The band was sent an electric metronome, with congratulations from Shamrock Monday. They won this at the marching contest held there the 17th. The Clarendon band tied with the group from Elk City, Oklahoma.

F. F. A. NEWS

The F. F. A. chapter went to Lubbock Friday and Saturday to enter the judging contest there. They had the highest ranking men in the grain and livestock competition. This made them rank third in the sweepstakes contest. Spur took first and Lubbock was second.

HOME ECONOMICS

A luncheon was served at high noon Friday to ten members of the Donley County-Amstrong Club of Canyon who presented the chapel program. The tables set for two were decorated with an ecru Irish lace centerpiece and a pot plant.

The second year Home Making girls prepared and served the meal of:

- Tuna Fish la Creme
- Green Beans
- Shoe String Potatoes
- Hot Rolls
- Butter
- Spring Salad
- French Dressing
- Ambrosia
- Ice Box Cookies
- Coffee

Margaret Jean Leathers entertained the group on the piano during the last course.

The class studied the preparation of emergency meals the first semester, but they had never practiced this as they always knew about any event prepared for, two weeks at least before the event was to take place. In other words, this meal, being an emergency meal, was a new experience to the entire group. It was prepared, served, and everything back in order within two periods.

Those serving were Margaret Jean Leathers, Ida Mae Wiedman, Betty Goldston, Betty Lou Naylor, and Juanita Bingham. The luncheon turned out successfully and everyone seemed to enjoy it.

Tooter and Lovely are certainly lazy. Walking to school leaning on each other. Well, that's one way of doing it.

Mr. Warden didn't go to see the "Green Archer" a week ago Tuesday. What was the matter? No dime? Or is it two dimes? It must have been something really serious.

Why do Pat and Sara Beth have so much to talk about in the second period study hall? Does Pat tell Sara about her dates? Well, Sara that's one way of learning!

Anna Lynn was seen with a cute boy from Goodnight Saturday night. Where was Harley? We thought he was the one and only at the present. Maybe he is. Seen Saturday night: Gerry Ryan with J. B. Long. We've heard that Jean Taylor was with Willis Long, Victor Smith, and? We don't know which to believe, Jean.

Did Lewis ever find anyone with an English notebook Sunday night? He was certainly tearing the town apart for one.

What, Wilma Jean isn't still carrying the torch for Verna? At least Billy Von (a he) said she wasn't.

Why was Colie so anxious to get somebody home Saturday night? Could it be they might change their minds and decide not to go?

Well, well, well, Gerry Clayton is still trying the old gag reading the same letter twice, so people will think she got more than one. But ya can't fool Pip-squeak!

One of our "exes", Mrs. Demsey Robinson, the former Miss Mary Jo Shafer visited here over the week-end. They're not living on love anymore. At least the grocery bill said they weren't. $23.00 for one week!

Louise Butler, 'scuse please, Louise Russell, reports a week-end worth a million. Gee, Gene, ain't weekends wonderful?

Lou Alice and Dan seemed to be enjoying the sun, Monday morning. They were certainly parading around the campus with Lou Alice on the outside, Dan ain't you got no etty-kett?

Say, why did Willis Long quit school? Well, we can imagine? Can you?
 So it wasn't Curtis with Speedy Saturday night. It was some cute number from Borger. Oh my goodness!

Well, well, Pauline Mayes got hitched. They're to live in Indiana. Oh dear me. Next? Me—I hope!

Why did Dorothy Nell quit the second period study hall?
 Oh dear me! Junie Miller was with Homer Speed Saturday night. Rather stepping out aren't ya Junie?

Society

Elizabeth Ann Beverly, entertained last Saturday night, at Mrs. Bigger's, with a formal dance. There were approximately twenty people present. Punch and cookies were served. Harold and Victor were looking for girl friends all during the dance. Claude took two girls home. The dance was enjoyed by everyone.

JR. HIGH GOSSIP COLUMN

We wonder why Mickey Allan always acts cute in school. Is it for someone? (We know!)

We wonder who Lois McCrary winks at in the second period study hall?

Are Elizabeth Mauldin and J. R. Morgan really that way? We wonder why La Nelle is blue? Could it be because someone has moved away?

We wonder if Jack Semrad really likes Billie Faye Hardin, or is he still true to his girlfriend in Amarillo.

SHHH! ITS A SECRET

But Lou Alice Adams and Weldon Warren were certainly enjoying Jay's car Monday night.

Did you know Billy Jack Shelley had a crush on a certain little blond?

Why is Booie afraid to go out alone at night? Just between us, she's got a right to be scared.

Betty Ann Craft seemed to thoroughly enjoy the dance Friday night.

Why doesn't Billy Nell Warren want Allene Poss to walk to school with a certain cute boy?

Could it be possible that the four girls at Elizabeth Ann Beverly's dance got rushed?

Homer Hardin walked on air all day Saturday until he suddenly went "ker-plomp" when a certain little songster broke the date.

One thing that isn't a secret is that for some unknown (?) reason Johnny Leathers spends a lot of his time in Memphis.

Bob Word and June Melton attended the premiere of "Gulliver's Travels" at the Pastime Theatre Saturday night. We wonder how much o the show they saw?

J. A. Howard, La-Verne Phillips, Fred Lynn, and Geraldine Clayton were "shaggin'" on down at the shindig Friday night.

If you ever need advice on boy troubles just call 267-M. The Wise Old Owl lives there. Hoo? Hoo? Hoo?

Clyde Douglas' car certainly has an attractive and convenient way of stopping and positively refusing to run.

What happened to Frances Phelps and Billy Lowe? It didn't last long. Oh this puppy love!

Well, Dorothy Anne and Harold aren't speaking again.

WPA INDEXING PROJECT NOW OPERATING HERE

AMARILLO, TEXAS, March 27.—Aliens seeking citizenship and naturalized citizens wishing to obtain information regarding their citizenship status will have their task facilitated as a result of a WPA indexing project which is now operating in Donley County. It was announced this week by R. Lloyd Neelley, district supervisor of Public Records projects for the Work Projects Administration, Amarillo District. Certified as a national defense project by the War Department, the WPA naturalization indexing work is sponsored jointly by the Advisory Committee to the Council of National Defense and by the Immigration and Naturalization service of the Department of Justice. It will be operated in every Texas county where naturalization records are filed with district or county clerks and will provide employment for approximately 5000 WPA workers. Information being compiled by WPA cannot be made available in any county until the project is completed in that county, Mr. Neelley emphasized. Prior to the approval of the statewide project now going into operation a similar undertaking was completed by the Work Projects Administration in Bexar County, and has proved of great assistance to Federal agencies in handling cases of persons seeking to establish citizenship or to verify previous naturalizations. WPA officials expect that the project will be completed through out Texas in about four months. A statewide index of naturalization records will be prepared, arranged alphabetically by counties and will be made available to the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Carbon copies of index sheets will be available in the offices of county clerks for each county for future reference and use by

Another Hit From Clarence Brown

Presenting a new romantic team which is scheduled to be one of the most popular in screen history, "Come Live with Me", co-starring James Stewart and Hedy Lamarr, under the direction of Clarence Brown opens Saturday at a preview and runs Sunday and Monday at the Pastime Theatre. Based on a story tailor-made for the pair, the plot deals with a beautiful Austrian refugee who is given the alternative of marrying an American citizen and thus obtaining a quota number, or being deported to her native Austria. Preferring the former she proposes marriage to Stewart, a penniless young author. Through a purely business arrangement, the marriage is to give Miss Lamarr her number and, in return, Stewart is to have his living expenses paid until he can sell one of his novels. This complication of this strange deal, made more puzzling when the two actually fall in love, supplies the screen with one of its amusing stories. Stewart as Author Stewart, who stepped directly into the role from the lead opposite Katherine Hepburn in "The Philadelphia Story," is ideally suited for the characterization of the ambitious author who finally decides to write from experience rather than imagination. Miss Lamarr comes to the role fresh from her highly applauded appearance with Clark Gable in "Comrade X." The supporting cast is headed by Ian Hunter, as the publisher. As his wife is Veree Teasdale, remembered for her work in "I Take This Woman," featuring Spencer Tracy and Miss Lamarr. Others in the cast are Donald Meek, Barton MacLane, Edward Ashley, Ann Codee, King Bagot, and Mrs. Adeline de Walt Reynolds, eighty years old, who makes her screen debut in the role of Stewart's grandmother. Investigators and the general public.

MICKLE WILL BE LECTURER AT MEMPHIS

ORIENT MISSIONARY WILL DISCUSS WORLD SITUATION IN FAR EAST APRIL 7 Residents of Donley County will be given an opportunity to hear a first hand account of the world situation in the Far East next Monday night, when a former Panhandle resident speaks in Memphis. The speaker will be Joe J. Mickle, Jr., son of a Hall County pioneer merchant, who has been a missionary professor in a Japanese university for the past 20 years. Mickle will make his address from the Memphis High School auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock, Carroll Smyers, manager of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, has announced. The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the address. The former resident of Japan has only recently returned from the Orient. He is living at present in Amarillo, and this address will be his first since returning. Mickle is a former student of Clarendon College, and is well-known to many Clarendon residents. Tickets for the address are on sale at the Memphis C of C office, or may be obtained by writing Mr. Smyers. Adults tickets will sell for 50 cents and student tickets for 25 cents.

Spring Training Opens Monday For Clarendon Team

Looking toward the 1941 fall grid season, Clarendon high football hopefuls will turn out for a 30-day spring practice Monday, under direction of coach O. C. Warden.

The training season will be climaxed on May 6 with a football game between the 1941 Bronchos and the seniors who will not be eligible to play next fall. A heavy training schedule is in prospect for an expected group of around 30 boys, from which a starting squad will be formed next fall.

Losses to last year's highly successful Broncho squad through graduation will be heavy, taking not only four all-district men but every first-string player in the squad. Only three lettermen will be back, and a new team must be built around them. Lettermen are Basil Smith, half-back last year, who will likely quarterback the 1941 squad; C. G. Kirkland, right end last year, who will be shifted to a right tackle slot this year; and Dennis Rattan, a soph letter end, who will be turned into halfback material next fall.

The 1941 Broncho schedule has been completed, and Coach Warden lists the following dates: Sept. 19, Claude (here); Sept. 26, Lefors (here); Oct. 3, Wheeler (here); Oct. 10, Phillips (here); Oct. 17, Shamrock (here); Oct. 24, Wellington (here); Oct. 31, Lakeview (here); Nov. 7, Memphis (here); Nov. 14, McLean (there). Claude and Phillips are non-district opponents.

Wheat Crop Guarantee

COLLEGE STATION, April 3—Regardless of any disasters of nature, at least eleven thousand Texas wheat producers are assured of a crop this year. Agricultural Adjustment Administration records show that 11,040 Texas wheat farmers have insurance with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation on the production of 4,943,435 bushels of wheat.

F. F. A. JUDGING TEAMS WIN THIRD AT LUBBOCK

Clarendon F. F. A. boys hung up another victory Saturday at Lubbock, when they ranked third in the annual Texas Tech F. F. A. Judging contests, in competition with 200 boys from 68 other Panhandle schools. The team, an unexperienced group which had never been in competition before, ranked well up in every division, and came very close to winning first place in the sweepstakes division where they took third place.

Billy Jack Green and Ray Pittman were first and third high point men in judging poultry. The team ranked fourth in the contest, despite a bit of bad luck on the part of Gayle Pyeatt, third member of the team, who was unfortunate enough to make a mistake in recording his placings and received a severe penalty on his grading.

Donald Thigpen ranked third and H. A. Harrison fourth among the individual rankings in the crop contest. Calvin Naylor and Frank Mahaffey were other members of the team that placed second in the entire contest.

Jack Riley was high individual in judging draft horses, and fifth individual in the livestock judging contest. Ray Robertson and Billy Jack Graham were other members of the team that ranked fifth in the contest.

The Clarendon team ranked third in the sweepstakes contest, which took into consideration all the rankings of the teams entered in each contest. J. R. Gillham, team coach, was awarded a medal for coaching the third high team.

COUNTY AUTO TAGS SALES PASS 1500 MARK

With the statutory deadline several days behind clerks in the Donley County Tax-Assessor's office still were doing a rushing business in 1941 license plates this week, with sales for all types of cars already over the 1500 mark. State law provides that new plates must be installed by April 1, with the single exception of commercial vehicles, on which a 15-day extension has been granted.

Passenger car registrations went over 1200 Monday night, when license clerks worked until almost midnight to care for a last-minute rush. Commercial licenses had been issued on 89 commercial vehicles Tuesday, and on 137 farm trucks and cars. Registration time also turned up two trailers, but not a single motorcycle, office clerks reported. License plates are still obtainable this week, even though the deadline has past, without payment of penalty, but driver's of cars with last year's plates still on are subject to arrest and penalties if they are caught.

F. F. A. Mothers Are Guests Of Boys

Approximately thirty F. F. A. Mothers attended the regular F. F. A. meeting Tuesday night, where they were special guest of the boys in their first "Mothers' Night" program. Refreshments were served to the members and their guests at the end of the regular business and program.

Reports of the stock shows and judging contests were given by J. F. White and C. G. Kirkland. Frank Cannon received a big hand for his witty discussion of the summer tour made last summer to Yellowstone Park. The group voted to hold a special meeting to discuss the annual summer tour. The boys voted to hold an Easter Picnic at the City Park, April 11th.

REVIVAL AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO CLOSE FRIDAY

A very successful revival, which has been in progress at the Christian Church in Clarendon for the past two weeks, will come to a close Friday night, Rev. Cecil E. Harvey announces.

Rev. Roy J. King, of Portales, N. M., is the pastor in charge of revival services, and he is being assisted by Rev. Harvey. Rev. King's subject for tonight will be "God's Help in Time of Need," and on the closing night it will be "Playing Hide-and-Seek With God." Friday night also will be marked by the presentation of a beautiful white Bible to the person responsible for bringing the greatest number of people to services.

FAREWELL TO DONLEY COUNTY CITIZENS:

To my many friends I feel I have made since I have been in the County of Donley, Clarendon, Texas, I regret to say good-bye. But due to the present situation and uncertainty of the Adair Hospital, I feel it necessary to tender my resignation as head nurse of the Institution.

I would like to publicly say that I have never worked with a Board of Directors or Doctors that I have enjoyed any more than the ones I have been in contact with since I have been in Clarendon, Texas. I wish the very best of everything for the hospital and those governing the Institution and may the many problems now confronting them, soon be dissolved to the advantage of all persons concerned.

After April 15th I will locate at Camp Wallace of Galveston, Texas for army services.

BEATRICE DICKIE.

Remount Service Will Inspect Donley Horses For Purchase April 18
