30 Bronchos—Most of 'Em Green—Turn Out For First Week Of 1941 Season Practice

THE WEATHER

Comparatively mild weather for this season has been the rule this week, with occasional thunderheads bringing cool breezes over the Donley area.

Table with columns: DATE, High, Low. Rows for August 29, 30, 31 and Sept 1, 2, 3.

BILL GREENE, JR. LANDS AT CLARENDON AIRPORT ON CROSS-COUNTRY TRIP

On the first leg of a cross-country solo flight, Bill Greene, Jr. landed at the Clarendon airport Friday, flying in from Childress.

One of a number of civilian pilots being trained at Childress under the Civil Aeronautic Authority's Civilian Pilot Training Program, Greene was the first student in the class to make the cross-country solo flight.

LELIA LAKE FARMER IS SERIOUSLY INJURED IN HARVEST ACCIDENT

Reports from Amarillo late this week were that R. L. Hall, Lelia Lake farmer who was critically injured last Friday morning, was showing signs of recovery.

Mr. Hall, who farms one and one-half miles south of Lelia Lake, was said to have been working on a combine when the header spring assembly came loose and struck him in the neck.

Memories of ranch days in the Panhandle were revived, and friendships made over a period of half a century were renewed last Thursday at Wragge's Park near Canyon, at the 20th annual round-up of cowmen who rode the Panhandle ranges prior to 1896.

Faced with the none too encouraging prospect of whipping up a winning football team from a bare handful of experienced material, Coach O. C. Warden and assistant coach L. B. Penick opened the 1941 season's practice sessions for the Clarendon Bronchos Monday afternoon.

Thirty prospective gridiron heroes suited out for the first day or so of limbering-up and routine practice drills, and out of that group the coaching staff had a nucleus of four lettermen around which to build a team.

Up in the front ranks of the first string prospects are several boys whom coaches Warden and Penick are grooming for key team positions. On this list is Arlis Allison, a southpaw passer, on whom the coaches are pinning a lot of hopes that the Bronchos this year, for the first time in a good while, will be able to take to the air when the ground going gets rough.

Resigns

Rev. J. Perry King, whose resignation was submitted to the membership of the Clarendon Baptist Church on Sunday, will leave Clarendon October 1. Rev. King's statement of resignation will be found on page 8 of this week's News.

BASKET DINNER TO HONOR FERRELLS NEXT SUNDAY

Members of the First Christian Church, under the leadership of the Pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Cecil E. Harvey, will honor a former pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ferrell, with a basket dinner in the basement of the church next Sunday, Sept. 7, noon, following the morning worship.

The plans worked out will make it possible for many former friends of the Ferrells to renew their acquaintance and enjoy the fellowship of the occasion. In the invitation issued by the church, all friends of the honorees, not members of the congregation, are invited to bring a basket and join in the dinner and the fellowship.

SUSPECTED SLAYER OF LEFORS OFFICER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

A. E. Cade, Pampa railroad man who is charged with the slaying of Constable Bill Cumberland at Lefors Monday, clung to life in a Clovis hospital today, after an attempt at suicide Tuesday.

Cumberland was called from his home at Lefors early Monday and shot twice, reportedly by a man whom he had arrested on a drunkenness charge Saturday night. Cumberland died instantly, and his slayer became the object of a Panhandle-wide manhunt which continued until Cade was found lying in a pool of blood in the railroad station at Bovina.

Dorothy Dell Teer of Vernon is visiting here this week with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirtley.

AMARILLO FIRM IS LOW BIDDER ON OVERPASS JOB

BELL & BRADEN'S BID OF $71,577 EXPECTED TO BRING WORK ORDER SOON

Clarendon's overpass project headed toward reality late last week, with the announcement of the state highway department that an apparent low bid of $71,577 had been received on the job. Bell & Braden of Amarillo were announced as apparent low bidders on the job, and prospects were that that firm would receive a work order within the next few weeks.

The new contract calls for considerably more highway construction than the project originally included, but the new low bid was somewhat under a low of $76,625, submitted in May by C. K. Howard & Company of Dallas. More work will be done for less money on the project, it is thought, because original plans calling for extensive use of structural steel in the overpass have been changed to use reinforced concrete.

Work to be done under the new contract will include grading, drainage structures, flexible base and asphalt surfacing of 2.755 miles of state 18, from the junction of that road with U. S. 287 north to the present pavement's end; construction of the overpass across the F. W. & D. tracks; and relocation and construction of a portion of U. S. 287 to connect with the overpass.

DONLEY SELECTEE GIVEN AIR CORPS REPLACEMENT TRAINING ASSIGNMENT

News was received this week from Harry W. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Evan of Clarendon, that he has been temporarily assigned to the Air Corp Replacement center, after arrival at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. Private Evans, who volunteered for army service, has been tentatively assigned to Squadron 255, flight 13, pending assignment later to one of the Air Corps Technical School courses. He reports an encouraging first impression of army life, which he expects to find interesting and enjoyable.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Stricklin and daughter, Beverly returned Friday from Drake, Colorado, where they have been vacationing for the past several weeks.

Clarendon's Schools Enroll 752 As Fall Session Is Opened

LIONS PROGRAM IS CLARENDON 1941 VIEWS BY BAGBY

Ushering in the Fall season with a full attendance, the Clarendon Lions Club, program Tuesday noon at the Hotel Clarendon, was in charge of Lion Dr. Beck, who presented George Bagby in a select movie version of Clarendon happenings in 1941, partly in technicolor, to the delight of the big audience.

The pictures offered by Mr. Bagby covered winter snow scenes, gorgeous Spring flower garden shots in and around Clarendon, mass send-off of the Leathers family to win All-American honors, the induction of Mayor Connolly into office at the City Park, the tree dedication to the late Homer Mulkey at the City Park, and the trail of the cyclone on June 9th.

Visitors of the day were Rev. W. E. Ferrell, former club member, and now of Mathews, Va., and D. O. Lowery, newcomer in the teaching staff of Junior Hi.

President Lane announced monthly directors meeting next Monday evening at Caraway's Cafe, and Lion Stallings emphasized the beginning of the Fall attendance contest on Tuesday, Sept. 16, when an International effort is being made to have 100 percent attendance in every one of the more than four thousand clubs in the organization.

MR. AND MRS. R. C. WEATHERLY RETURN FROM VISIT TO BLUE GRASS COUNTRY

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Weatherly returned late last week from a month's visit with their son, Robert in Lexington, Kentucky, where Robert holds a responsible position with the General Tire company.

The Weatherlys made the trip by bus, via St. Louis and Louisville, and report one of the most enjoyable trips they have ever had. They visited many historic sites in and about Lexington, which included the old fort built by Daniel Boone, the Henry Clay homestead, Fort Knox, etc. By coincidence the home of their son is located on the old Clay plantation, now a part of the city.

Mr. Weatherly visited the breeding farms where Man 'o War, and War Admiral are kept, and enjoyed the beautiful scenes of the blue grass region. He says crops are good in that territory and business is booming.

Olon Plunk of Camp Wojters spent the weekend here with his parents.

PARTICIPATION IN FOOD STAMP PLAN GROWS STEADILY

Disbursement of blue and orange Food Stamps to Donley County residents showed a lively increase this week, according to A. C. Donnell, local issuing officer, who said that all records for daily business done by the local office had been broken on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Since the Food Stamp Plan was started in Donley County on May 15, $19,125.50 in blue and orange stamps has been placed in circulation, Mr. Donnell said. Over 300 cases are now on the eligible list to receive the stamps, and at present about 85 percent of those cases are participating in the plan. The percentage of participation has grown steadily since the plan was started, rising from less than 30 percent to its present high level.

BRONCHO COACHES ATTEND DISTRICT MEET AT SHAMROCK

Coaches O. C. Warden and L. B. Penick of the Clarendon Bronchos attended the annual fall football meeting of the district 3-A coaches and superintendents, held in Shamrock Saturday.

Main topics for discussion at the session were eligibility of players on various teams over the district, with some schedule changes affecting several teams being worked out. Scott McCall, head coach at Wellington, presided over the session.

FORMER PASTOR PREACHES AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. W. E. Ferrell, former pastor of the First Christian Church of Clarendon, but now of Mathews, Va., preached Sunday morning at the Christian Church on invitation of the present pastor, Rev. Cecil E. Harvey. At the evening hour Bro. Ferrell also made a talk before the young people of the church.

Rev. and Mrs. Ferrell are visiting among their many friends here, and according to announcement of the pastor, he will preach next Sunday at the evening hour.

The Ferrells will probably return to their Virginia pastorate early next week, accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, who accompanied them here on the trip, and who have been visiting with his parents at Plainview.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Polk and children of Dallas visited here from Friday until Tuesday with his father, C. L. Polk.

NO ENLARGED AUDITORIUM SAYS SCHOOL BOARD

At a meeting of the school board last week, the tentative plans for enlarging the auditorium at the College, had to be abandoned, for lack of funds to do the improving that had been in mind.

According to President O. C. Watson, the board very regretfully voted to finish the auditorium to the old size, although by changing the stage facilities somewhat, and seating the first floor with opera chairs of modern design, the loss of the old balcony will be overcome in the matter of accommodations and seating capacity.

Frank A. Stocking, Jr. of Washington, D. C. is visiting here with his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah M. Stocking.

RAY ROBBINS TO BE DIRECTOR OF PAMPA BAND

Ray Robbins, who has directed the Clarendon school band through a successful six-year period, will leave Clarendon next week to accept a Pampa position, he announced Wednesday.

Mr. Robbins, who opened his seventh annual fall rehearsal schedule this week, will be director of the Pampa Junior High band, an organization with a membership of around 90 musicians. His acceptance of the new job, promotion though it was, came as a distinct surprise to local school officials and patrons, who were counting on his able leadership to bring more recognition to the city through its band in the coming school year.

School officials took up the problem of choosing a successor to Mr. Robbins as soon as his resignation was received, and at least one applicant for the position was being considered late Wednesday. The need for an immediate choice of a new director is especially pressing, in view of the fact that a very short time remains before the first public appearance of the group, on the opening of the football season September 19. Mr. Robbins will remain in Clarendon the remainder of this week, he said, and will continue rehearsals of the band which were begun Monday.

Accepts Pampa Position

Ray Robbins, who announced this week that he had accepted a position as director of the Pampa Junior High School Band. Mr. Robbins leaves Clarendon with a record six successful years as director of the Clarendon school band. His successor has not been named.

A NOTABLE HATE

Even shallow thinking people know that hate is so costly a luxury that no individual can afford to indulge in it. The cost is consuming to the person that hates, and matters little, after all, to the one hated.

In public affairs there comes occasionally to the surface evidences of hate, but the most notable instance of such a hate is being more clearly revealed every day in the attitude of Charles Lindbergh toward England and all things British.

In his Oklahoma City speech a few nights ago, Lindbergh displayed the terrible growth of his controlling hate for England by dropping into a fallacy that a ten year-old would hardly be guilty of, as he wildly charged that England had "turned on" Finland and France, using this sort of groundless argument to support his wishful thinking that England would likely turn on America. Anybody mature enough to think as he has read the turn of affairs in Europe, knows that England was forced to look on Finland and France as enemies, because the governments of those two powers ranged themselves with Hitler, the arch-foe of Britain, and all things Democratic. Lindbergh has a right to be heard but his madness has reduced his reasoning to a level unworthy of the notice of loyal Americans.

Lindbergh's one dominant purpose is to belittle and misrepresent England and the British Empire. He may love America in a naive sort of way, but when hate dominates the life, love grows fitfully weak. His ail-consuming hate of England is burning his mentality, his efficiency, his reason, his loyalty to embers. Nobody in America can help him in his sad plight. That is only for God—if He is given the chance.

Last Sunday's International Sunday school lesson was on the Christian law of love. Timely is the repetition of this great law. The world must have love if it is to be saved. The individual must have love if he is to be preserved.

There is no greater necessity for a peaceful, abundant life, than Love. It's God's law, and woe to the man who flies in its face.

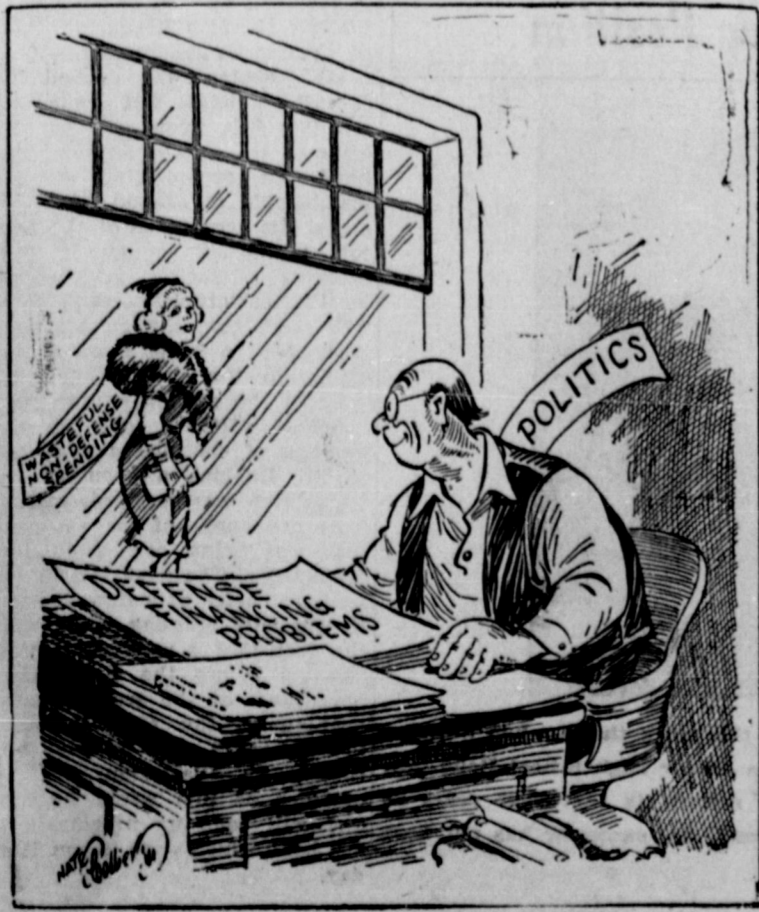

A BUSY FALL LOOMS AHEAD

To most of us the coming of September 1, the breath of Fall in the morning and evening air, heralds the opening of Fall before we are hardly ready for it. Somehow the summer skipped away quicker than we thought. It may be that the Summer rains, the cyclone, the unusual mild temperatures had something to do with it—with the world war interest taking its toll of attention to make the days pass swiftly.

Anyway, with rapidly maturing crops after a late start, with better prices for farm products, it appears that the Fall of 1941 will mark a turning point in an era of poor business for the Panhandle country. A busy Fall looms sharply ahead, and profits are almost within reach of us all—a comforting prospect.

America is in a state of emergency. Every citizen is urged to do his part by buying Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps.

THE WILL TO CONQUER DIFFICULTIES

America's growth and development was predicated first upon a towering will to over-ride and conquer all difficulties. Her future is bound up in her genius for continuing and extending that ability.

Here in Clarendon this summer we have seen a concrete example of such a continuing will and purpose in the rehabilitation of Clarendon school buildings so seriously damaged by the cyclone which struck our city on June 9th.

Faced with the narrowing element of time before opening date the board of trustees of the school devoted themselves wholeheartedly to the task of careful estimate and settlement of the damages with the insurance companies, the making of a suitable and binding contract with competent builders, and the bending of every effort to put the buildings into condition for the opening of school, Monday, Sept. 1st, as scheduled and announced.

The job has been done insofar as needed repairs for the actual opening of class-work in the high school and Junior College effected, and it seems to The News that a special expression of thanks from every citizen should go to the members of the school board who by their diligence made the opening of school without loss of time, possible.

Gentlemen of the Board, in some small way we believe we understand all you sacrificed of your personal time and energies to overcome the difficulties you faced early in the morning of June 9th. It was a grand job you have expeditiously conducted and we thank you.

It was the old American will to conquer difficulties magnificently exemplified. We are proud of you.

Economic Highlights

Happenings That Affected the Dinner Pails, Dividend Chec's and Tax Bills of Every Individual. National and International Problems Inseparable From Local Welfare.

According to a number of responsible authorities, there is a definite morale problem in the American Army. Such magazines as Life have sent qualified reporters into Army camps and they have returned to write that a substantial percentage of the conscripts now under arms don't like the Army and are eager to get out of it.

It is inevitable that when hundreds of thousands of men are drafted, a portion of them will remain permanently dissatisfied. However, the reporters state that at the present time there is a comparatively low state of morale among many men who entered the service in the expectation of benefiting from it and enjoying it. The principal cause of unrest are these:

1. There is a lack of martial spirit, due to the fact that we are not at war, and our emotions have not been stirred to the boiling point. As Ernest Lindley puts it, "It is like trying to infuse morale into a football team that has no games scheduled." Unless we actually go to war, this phase of the morale problem will probably remain unsolved.
2. Many conscript soldiers lack confidence in their officers. The Army has on its rolls many officers who have no concept of modern warfare, and who have little capacity for leadership or for instilling respect and admiration in the men they command. The General Staff, headed by energetic General Marshall, is said to recognize this, and is gradually weeding out incompetents in the commissioned personnel.
3. Lack of adequate weapons and other materials has been a sore point. Conscripts couldn't make sense out of maneuvers in which broomsticks were used for cannons, cans for shells, and in which ancient trucks were painted, "Tank." Now, however this deficiency is being corrected as arms output increases. Troops are getting more and better equipment and by next year many divisions should possess everything that is needed for modern battle.

4. Most general cause of complaint, say many, is the pay given the soldiers. Conscripts get $21 a month for the first three months, and $30 thereafter. Under a new congressional bill, pay at the end of a year's service will advance to $40. That amounts to next to nothing. The soldiers must pay for haircuts, razor blades, clothes pressing, etc. By the time necessary expenses are met, there is little left for recreation or even the simplest luxuries of life. As a result, soldiers have an extremely difficult time finding amusement. The cost of giving the privates a fair wage—$50 to $75 a month—would amount to relatively little, in the light of the gigantic costs the defense program involves. It is probable that laws to substantially raise the Army's wages will be introduced in Congress.

5. Tied in with inadequate pay is the lack of organized recreational facilities. Many major Army camps are located in areas where there are few communities. The United Service Organizations (USO) has raised considerable money through public subscription, but the total produced is far from being sufficient to provide amusement on anything near the desired scale. All the reporters who have investigated Army conditions, tell of finding groups of soldiers loitering on street corners on their evenings off, broke, and with nothing to do.

It should be emphasized, in the interest of fairness, that a high proportion of the Army's enlisted personnel has excellent morale. Further, in the Navy, air corps and marine corps there is no morale problem whatsoever, as these branches of the fighting forces have no conscripts. Most of the conscripts have gone into the infantry, and it is there that the morale problem exists. Progress is being made in bettering the lot of the men, but it looks as if a good deal more must be done if the largest peace-

The changes that El Paso has undergone—and the picture is true in general of Texas cities and towns—is graphically set forth by William Moran, able editor of the El Paso Labor Advocate, who wrote this during prohibition days:

When I first came to El Paso it had ten banks and sixty-four saloons. Eggs were twenty cents a dozen. Texas street was an unpaved country road. Home buyers insisted on close-in locations. The valley struggled with Johnson grass, and dust storms made miserable the lives of the people. Road-houses were infamous.

The bungalow craze was just beginning. Beauty parlors, tourist camps, chain stores, auto laundries, bungalow courts, closed cars, home brew and bare-legged women were all unknown. Golf was at a minimum and bridge and bridge only understood in limited circles. Petting was done in the parlor and drinking was left to the men. Ash trays had achieved no gift popularity. The luncheon clubs were yet unborn. Self-expression was found in the kitchen and workshop. Daylight hours were filled with labor and night-time was undisturbed by the moan of the saxophone.

Horses were still to be seen on downtown streets, and people carried packages unashamed. Installment buying was but faintly developed. Homes were furnished in tearful taupes and mournful mauves; Jazz decoration, rich colorings and rococo style were evidences of crudeness and barbarity. The bathroom was unholily unless in white.

Gin had not yet become a household word. The cocktail shaker never appeared except at stag suppers, and people quit dancing after forty. Divorces were spoken of in whispers. The speed limit was fifteen miles an hour.

Today, where the horse-wrangler lately piled his trade, we have city-planning and zoning, stop streets, through streets, one-way streets and loading zones, with electric traffic control. Movies, talkies, co-operative apartments, tabulated public endeavors and card indexed charities are the rule of the day. Rayon has displaced cotton, and ice cones by wire. Few are too poor to ride and all too proud to walk. Potatoes are peeled by electricity and furnaces fired by a robot. Business men are whisked fifteen floors upward for a four-hour day in a five-day week. Surely civilization, on the border, has delighted, if not enriched the lives of the people.

"Cattle" will be the central theme of the 1941 State Fair of Texas, which isn't very far away—October 4 to 19. Two national beef cattle shows will be the feature of the $150,000 livestock division. In the National Hereford Show (the third consecutive year it has been held at the State Fair), $30,000 in prizes are offered and awards in the National Aberdeen-Angus time American Army in our history is to have the morale that is essential to an A-1 fighting force.

A short time ago, in the beautiful, historic French town of Fountainbleau, squads of workmen went to work on a wrecking job. That job involved the tearing down of two huge statues. One statue was of a great American who led a victorious democratic army—General John J. Pershing.

There is a tragic symbolism in this. For it indicates how completely France has deserted the democratic way of life, and embraced the doctrines of the total state as laid down and enforced by Hitler.

It is generally felt that the great bulk of the French people hate Hitler, and pray for allied victory. But, so long as the present Vichy government exists, there seems no other course than to regard modern France as an ally of Germany.

The hope that General Weygand would eventually refuse to use his great African army to help the Germans is, in the view of most experts, futile. The recent appointment of Admiral Darlan as head of French defense shows the way the wind blows. Darlan is anti-democratic, and pro-Nazi. It will not come as any great surprise if the French fleet is in time placed at Hitler's disposal.

Show total $10,000. The Hereford prizes represent the biggest amount ever offered by any fair in a single classification of livestock, it is declared by this columnist's old friend, E. Paul Jones, publicity director.

At least 400 head of Aberdeen-Angus are expected in Dallas for what will be the first national show ever held for the breed of black cattle.

But of course cattle are by no means all. When closely questioned, the officials will admit that the 1941 State Fair will be the biggest and best yet—and they point to $1,500 in prize money for "the largest farm show ever housed under a single roof"; $7,500 for poultry, besides the hobby show, culinary, textiles, flowers, pigeons and others—the grand total of prizes reaching the breath-taking figure of $150,000.

An Independent Midway, made up of the cream of the attractions of many exhibitors and not of just one, including the popular Harley Sadler with two shows; Press Day when the editors of the State will be guests of honor; the Queen's Pageant; University of Oklahoma against University of Texas on the gridiron, so President Harry Seay and Secretary Roy Rupard have good grounds for hoping to see a new attendance record set for the third straight year, the 1940 mark being 1,116,487, with 215,000 children on hand for Children's Day.

Sign in a cross-roads store: "If you spit on the floor at home, spit on the floor here. We want you to feel at home."

It'll soon be that time o' year when the following lines will be true:

"The naked hills lie wanton to the breeze;
The fields are nude, the groves unfrikked;

Bars are the shivering limbs of shameless trees—
What wonder is it that the corn is shocked?"

Mr. and Mrs. Don Matheson and son left this week to make their home in Borger where Mr. Matheson will be connected with the Phillips Petroleum Company.

PASTURE IS CHEAP ROUGHAGE FOR DAIRY COWS

College Station, Sept. 2.—Pasture is the cheapest and best roughage for a dairy cow, and according to E. R. Eudaly, A. and M. College Extension Service dairyman, September is the time to plant oats, barley or wheat for fall and winter pasture.

Prompted by the request of the secretary of agriculture for increase in milk production, Eudaly suggests that the coming fall and winter offer an opportunity to farmers "to make a little money producing milk, provided they can keep the cost down." Pasture is the best means of holding down the cost and, currently, "milk is selling for a fair price," he says. Texas cowmen have pasture about as often as they are without it, "and if we don't plant we sure won't have any."

Cows grazing on oats, barley, or wheat during the fall and winter will need some hay since the grain pasture will be high in water and low in dry matter. An average Jersey cow needs from 18 to 20 pounds of dry matter daily in the form of roughage. She will eat about 80 pounds of the grain pasture daily, which furnishes the equivalent of 12 to 14 pounds of dry matter. Therefore, the cow will need from two to six pounds of hay daily. If some hay isn't furnished she will develop scours. When this happens she fails to get the full benefit of the grain mixture which is fed at milking time. This lowers milk production, increases the cost and reduces profits.

Eudaly advises that the protein content of the grain mixture should be 12 to 14 percent when the cows are getting their fill of oats, barley and wheat pasture. If they are not getting their fill of the pasturage they want, as a consequence are eating more hay or silage, the protein content should be raised. If the cows are eating as much as 10 pounds of carbonaceous hay such as can, and Johnson grass, daily, or 25 pound of silage, the protein content of the grain mixture should be raised to 16 or 18 percent, dependent

16,437 TEXANS IN CCC THIS YEAR

In June there were 16,437 Texas boys in Civilian Conservation Corps Camps, 8,592 in Texas and the remainder in Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Wyoming. In that month these boys returned to their families over $230,000.00 and the Government estimated they earned real wages in the amount of $986,197.

Pennsylvania ranks next to Texas, having 13,006 boys in camps; Arkansas third with 10,403 and Oklahoma fourth with 9,941.

With recent changes made in Rules and Regulations, boys are sent to camps every month, and in many instances, when camps are near, every week. Training in National Defense Work has been increased and all enrollees have greater opportunities to prepare themselves for employment in private industry than ever before. CCC men are given first consideration by employers for they are already trained in good work habits, are healthy and make willing employees.

* Interested young men of good character, between the ages of 17 and 23 1-2 years, should apply at their County Welfare Office and make application for the Corps.

OLD WAGON YARD BARN MOVED TO ASHTOLA

The old frame and tin covered barn which was built nearly forty years ago when the old wagon yard across the street from the steam laundry was owned and operated by L. W. Drew, was moved this week by Harry Blair, owner, to a farm he owns in the Ashtola community. The structure was two-storied and at one time housed the wagon yard office. It has been used as a feed barn for many years since the wagon yard faded from the picture.

September hatched chicks will start to lay about the same time in the spring as those hatched in June and July. Also they will grow more rapidly and are more uniform.

BURGLARS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OWNER'S ABSENCE TO LOOT FARM NEAR ASHTOLA

Burglars who took advantage of the owner and family being away looted the farm home of Watt Hardin, in Donley County northwest of Ashtola, Saturday morning, Sheriff Guy Wright reports.

The Hardin family had gone to Amarillo for the day, and neighbors reported that they saw a light tan or gray car drive up to the place in the middle of the morning and stop. Later the car drove away, with a man and a woman inside, according to witnesses. It was thought the automobile bore Oklahoma license plates, but the license number was not noted by any of the neighbors who saw the car.

When the Hardins returned, they found the house door open, and a valuable lot of personal property missing. A checkup of the house brought out the following list of missing goods: Three men's dress suits; one Remington typewriter, model 12; two rifles, one 5-shot Remington model 69, and one single shot Remington; one Winchester pump

CARL NAYLORS RETURN FROM VIRGINIA TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naylor of the Naylor community, returned at an early hour Saturday morning from a two week's vacation trip back to Fries, Virginia, where their son, J. R., was married, Saturday, August 23 to Miss Eileen Rhudy of that city.

The young couple returned here with Mr. and Mrs. Naylor, and will enter college at Brownwood in a few days.

Enroute back to Texas the party stopped in Missouri to visit relatives of Mrs. Naylor, whom they had not seen for many years.

Mr. Naylor told a News representative that crops were short in the Eastern states on account of a wide-spread shortage in moisture this year. They traveled some 3,600 miles on the round-trip.

ECONOMY OF BUILDING FARM TRENCH SILOS STRESSED BY COUNTY AGENT

Still pushing on a farm improvement idea which he hopes to get going in Donley County, County Agent H. M. Breedlove this week pointed out the real economy to farm feed growers of storing their feed in a home-made trench silo.

A trench silo big enough to hold 150 to 300 ton of silage can be dug with a tractor or a team, Breedlove said, at a cost of around $20. Feed stored in a trench silo does not dry out, is all usable, and will keep indefinitely, for years if need be, he said.

Since there is likely to be a good feed crop in Donley County this year, Mr. Breedlove is hoping to interest a large number of farmers in the trench silo idea, which will be demonstrated to them in a trench silo demonstration meeting. This meeting will be held soon, on some farm in Donley County, where farmers can see a silo actually being built and filled.

COMFORT MAKING PROGRAM TO CLOSE SEPTEMBER 16

Donley County families who haven't yet made their cotton comforts, and who are entitled to make them, have until September 16 to get them made, County Agent H. M. Breedlove said.

Over six hundred comforts have already been made in plants at Clarendon and Hedley, Breedlove said, while 400 more are due to be made before the program is closed. Those persons who are due to make comforts and have not yet done so have been notified by mail, Breedlove said, that they must come in to Clarendon or Hedley and finish the job before September 16, if they wish to have comforts to go with the mattresses made earlier this year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Stephens and daughter, Carolyn Jane, who have been visiting here with Mrs. Stephens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ozier, returned to their home in Wichita Falls Wednesday.

CANNED GOODS STILL COMING FROM DONLEY HOMES FOR USE AT BOYS RANCH

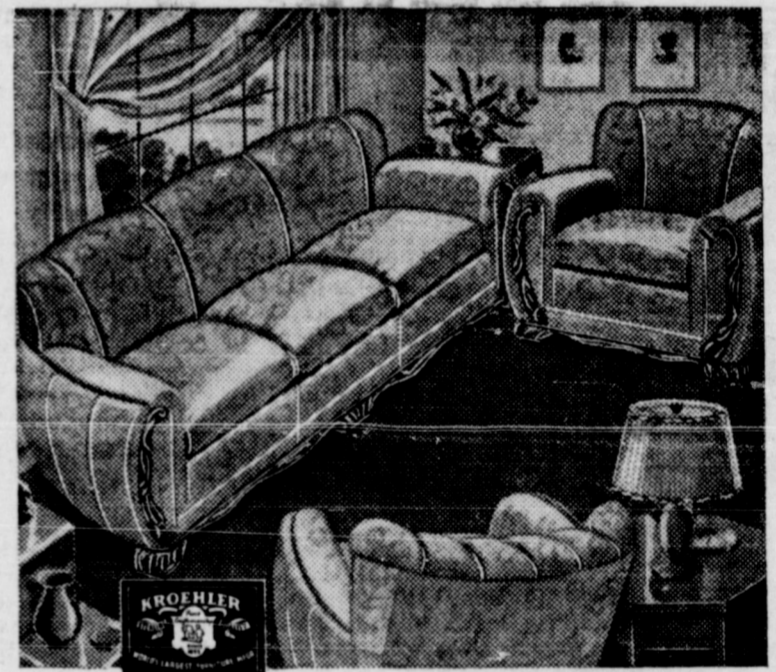

Donley people still are contributing to the canned goods drive for the benefit of Boys Ranch, County Agent H. M. Breedlove said this week, pointing out that 35 cans of food were on hand at present for delivery to the Ranch. County clubs and individuals are cooperating in the movement, and any contributions will be appreciated, Mr. Breedlove said. Canned goods can be turned in to him or to Doss Palmer for delivery to the ranch.

Jack Draffin of the University of Texas at Austin is spending a two weeks vacation here with his mother, Mrs. Eva Draffin and with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sims.

WEDDINGS - CLUBS - PARTIES

MRS. ROSCOE BATES IS GUEST REVIEWER OF 1926 BOOK CLUB

Mrs. Roscoe Bates, prominent speaker and book reviewer of Dallas was guest of the 1926 Book Club Tuesday afternoon at the first meeting of the regular session of the year 1941-1942. In the absence of the president, Mrs. John Knorpp, Mrs. Bates was introduced by the vice-president, Mrs. Frank White, Jr.

Mrs. Bates selected as her review "The Happy Highway" by Frances Bret Young, the popular English author who has written extensively of English life and customs. This book, "The Happy Highway" is a refreshing English story that deals not with a war torn and war worn Europe but is the story of a wealthy London business man who realizes quite suddenly that he is tired of all the hurly-burly of the city life and seeks escape in the hills of Wales.

Preceding the review Mrs. Allen Bryan a piano selection "Chopin Waltz in C Minor."

The social committee, Mesdames M. R. Allensworth, Allen Bryan, W. E. Ray, George Bagby, and Don Grady served iced melon to approximately seventy members and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harwood Beville and children of Washington, D. C. visited here with friends Thursday. Mr. Beville is chief engineer of station W. I. N. X at Washington.

MR. AND MRS. BURCH ARE HOSTS TO 1930 BRIDGE CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Burch were hosts to the 1930 Bridge Club Tuesday evening at their home. After the guests had enjoyed a picnic supper served in the yard, the remainder of the evening was spent in bridge. Mrs. Alfred Estlack cut high for the women and George Wayne Estlack high for the men. Harry Hart drew consolation.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Todd, Mr. and Mrs. U. Z. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. George Wayne Estlack, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Estlack, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Penick.

1930 NEEDLE CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WRIGHT

The 1930 Needle Club met with Mrs. Guy Wright Tuesday afternoon, September 2.

After a short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Bill Hilliard, the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to needle work design and conversation.

An ice course was served to Mesdames Nina Armstrong, Ellen Bryan, Nora Decker, Marie Patterson, Frances Hilliard, and the hostess, Mrs. Wright.

Nell Farmer of Childress spent Sunday here with Helen Hudson.

LEA - FINK

Mrs. Florence Fink and Mr. Earl Lea exchanged marriage vows in a quiet ceremony at the Baptist parsonage performed Tuesday evening, September 2, at nine o'clock by the Reverend J. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Lea, a prominent civic, social, and religious worker of this city, chose as her wedding attire a simple green woolen crepe street dress with a full length cape. She wore a large brimmed black hat with matching accessories.

Mr. Lea, a retired business man, is of Will Point, Texas. Wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurn and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fink of Childress.

Following the ceremony was a reception for a few close friends. Attending were Messrs and Mesdames Cal Merchant, C. C. Powell, Joe Holland, Frank Bourland, Walter Taylor, Nathan Cox, J. H. Hurn, Mesdames W. D. Van Eaton, J. C. Estlack, and Miss Eula Naylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lea will be at home here temporarily.

DONLON - RAY

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray of this city are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Georgella, to Mr. John V. Donlon of Lompoc, California. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's brother in Lubbock Tuesday.

Mrs. Donlon, a graduate of Clarendon High School, was wearing a navy street frock with pink trim. Her accessories were of black.

Mr. Donlon owns and operates the Lompoc Nursery in Lompoc, California, where the young couple will make their home.

ROBERTS - STRICKLAND

Mattie Irene Strickland of Hedley and J. T. Roberts of this city were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage Saturday evening with the Reverend J. Perry King officiating.

Mrs. Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershey Mobley of Hedley, was graduated from Hedley High School last year. She was attended by Mrs. Jack Harris of Dalhart.

Mr. Roberts, employed by Ernest Kent of the Texas Company, was attended by Mr. Harris. The couple plan to make their home in Hedley.

MARY CHARLOTTE WORD HAS WEEKEND HOUSE PARTY AT RANCH HOME

Miss Mary Charlotte Word entertained a number of her college friends at a houseparty at her home on the SJ Ranch over the weekend.

Activities began Saturday with guests arriving in the afternoon for a short taste of typical ranch life. Activities during the weekend included hiking to various spots of local interest, riding, swimming, bridge, and musical entertainment by the hostesses mother, Charlotte Ingham Word, well known composer.

The Womens Society of Christian Services of the Methodist Church met in their regular monthly business meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Nathan Cox, in charge.

Circle II gave the program for the afternoon with a reading by Mrs. Carl Bennet and the devotional by Mrs. J. R. Bulls.

During the course of the business meeting, the circles voted to have a food sale the last of September.

The Society will meet in their regular circle meetings next Wednesday.

KILL KARE KLUB PICNICS AT PARK THURSDAY

Taking place of the usual afternoon meeting, members of the Kill Kare Kneedle Klub enjoyed a picnic and outing at the city park Thursday evening.

A basket lunch was served in regular picnic fashion to Mesdames Buel Sanford, J. H. Harris, E. H. Noland, Eva Draffin, J. R. Bartlett, W. A. Land, Homer Mulkey, W. A. Massey, R. R. Dawkins, and H. C. Brumley.

Mrs. W. R. Silvey of Oklahoma City was guest for the occasion.

Garden Glances Presented weekly by the Garden Club

"America the beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners"

A visit to the C. C. Gilberts yard recalls the verse:

"In Grandmother's garden grew old fashioned flowers"

There were pinks, and sweet williams, and hollyhocks tall.

Four o'clocks drowsily counting the hours

And bluebells and daffies up close to the wall."

Clematis is flowering on these dew drenched mornings. The ones at Fred Cook's, Tom Connally's, and Mrs. Mulkey's are a delightful sight.

Zinnias in many gay colors make a bright spot at the Dr. Evans and pink crepe myrtles are unusually lovely in the Cap Morris yard.

Never have I seen such a riot of blossoms on the silver lace vines as they display this year.

The ones at the A. L. Chase's and Tom Goldston's are a veritable obweueabhorf yt table bower of beauty.

The yards of O. C. Watson, Lee Holland, and Leck Goldston are carefully worked and very attractive.

There is a gay assortment of flowers in the Rundell's and Dr. Jenkins' yards.

And have you seen the lovely asters in the U. J. Boston garden?

NAYLOR - RHODY

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Eileen Louise Rhody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Rhody of Fries, Virginia, to Mr. J. R. Naylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naylor of this city. The marriage was performed at the bride's home in Fries on Saturday, August 23, at eight o'clock with the Reverend M. F. Combs officiating.

The home was tastefully decorated with fern, late summer flowers, and candles, which were lighted just before the ceremony by Edwin Combs.

The bride wore a navy blue ensemble with touches of white and navy accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was given for the few friends and relatives who attended.

Mrs. Naylor is a graduate of Fries High School, Fries, Virginia, and plans to continue her study of music at Howard Payne College.

Mr. Naylor was graduated from Lelia Lake High School and the local Junior College. He will complete his training at Howard Payne College this year after which he plans to enter the Ministerial field.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a visit with the groom's parents here and afterwards went to Brownwood where they will make their immediate home.

Wedding guests attending from here included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naylor.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB HONORS MRS. FINK WITH MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

The Clarendon Home Demonstration Club honored Mrs. Florence Fink with a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. D. McDowell.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

Austin, Texas, September 2—The ten day open season on white wing doves proclaimed by Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes came as a distinct surprise to officials of the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission who had been led to believe that there would be no open season on white wing doves this year.

course, the state law takes precedence in this instance. The season on white wing doves is from Sept. 16 to Sept. 25. PROPER CARE OF MINNOWS: Many minnows are lost each season by improper methods of taking, handling and holding. When minnows are taken in seines or traps, the ones to be kept should be placed in water of the same temperature from which they are taken, and the ones to be returned should be handled with great care and placed in water of sufficient depth and not in the shallow waters or in dense vegetation.

used in treating drinking water, and also well aerated. The water can be aerated by running it over a rough surface or fine screen, and also by spraying through the air. If icy water that is treated is used, it should be filtered through a container or a regulation filter for this particular purpose. A good filter can be made by using a container about the size of a thirty gallon barrel, filled with one-third gravel in the bottom, and one-third sand and one-third fine charcoal on the top. A screen should be placed over the inside of the outlet at the bottom. It is better if the water is sprayed into the top of the barrel.

ber of rattles on its tail. The age can be determined from the rattled only when the snake still possesses the first rattle, or true button, according to game department experts. The true button often is knocked off when the snake strikes its tail against some hard object.

The Low Down FROM HICKORY GROVE

This Mr. Carr who has been going around the country talking about State's Rights, you know, he is quite a duck. He is the Governor of Colorado. Also he is a Republican. Most people kinda figure he is a democrat, on account the Old Democratic Party slogan was "states' rights." But I checked up—he is a Republican.

Side Glances On Texas History

By CHARLES O. HUCKER University of Texas Library Of Galveston Before Lafitte Except for San Antonio and Nacogdoches, which had long been Spanish outposts, Galveston Island is probably the only place in Texas which can trace back a more or less continuous and active settlement to a time before the coming of Stephen F. Austin. Its early fame it owes chiefly to Jean Lafitte, of course; but even for a year before his establishment there the island was a hot spot in Gulf of Mexico politics.

SOCIAL SECURITY CARDS NECESSARY TO WAGE EARNERS

In this part of the State there are men and women who spend most of their time working on farms or ranches, and then at odd periods during the year find jobs in the city which require each worker to obtain a social security account number, it was stated by Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Board. "Many a worker already has his social security account number, and there is no reason why he should obtain another one. Each wage earner should have one—and only one—account number and that number is for his use during his entire lifetime. The Amarillo office of the Social Security Board will furnish a social security account number card to anyone who requests it. If a worker has had an account number card and lost it, he may obtain a duplicate card with the same number on it. There is no charge for this service, which may be obtained by calling at or writing to the Amarillo office located in the New Post Office Building."

NEW COTTON LOAN RULES CHANGE METHOD OF EXECUTING LOAN FORMS

A change in the operation of the 1941 cotton loan program has been made to protect Donley cotton farmers and make their loans more convenient to handle. Walter J. Flynt, county ACA secretary, said this week. According to Mr. Flynt, Donley cotton producers who wish to sell their equities in loan cotton must obtain signatures of certain designated witnesses on the transfer of equity forms before they are legal, under the new rules. Designated witnesses include the following: regular clerks in the county AAA office in Clarendon, Donley AAA committee members, and officials of the banks through which the cotton loans were made. No other witness signatures will be binding on the equity transfer, Mr. Flynt said. Also, clerks who fill out loan forms will be limited to duly recognized officials of the lending agency which makes the loans, it was said. Maximum charges for executing loan papers have been set at 15 cents for one to two bales of cotton, 20 cents for three to four bales, 25 cents for five to six bales, 30 cents for seven to eight bales, and 35 cents for nine to ten bales.

ARMY LIFE COMEDY WITH HOPE, LAMOUR

The coast-to-coast parade of Bob Hope radio and screen fans who look for the best in comedy gags will find their hero in top form when his latest movie, "caught in the Draft," comes to the Pastime Theatre next week. Fashioned in Hope style, Paramount's merry-making version of life among the recruits is said to be an all-out blitzkrieg of laughter. With Bob is the one and only Dorothy Lamour—the gal who hit the gong with a sarong. Lynne Overman, who plays the part of a Hollywood theatrical agent, follows Bob and his ten percent in the Army. The Hope fans will delight in Bob's new stooge Eddie Bracken, the rookie who'll do anything for a laugh—even switching the Army's road signs during some war games and almost causing a major disaster, all for the sake of his goosely boss who can't stand the sounds of guns. In addition to the merriment there are some tricky new tunes that everybody will soon be humming. Add to this the choice morsel of a gag in the mouth of Hope and you get a laugh menu that will do things to the sides of your ribs when you see "Caught in the Draft."

Cotton House A Reality

Heralded by the National Cotton Council as one of the most promising potential outlets for cotton in quantity, houses made of cotton are becoming realities. Shown above is a demonstration cotton house displayed at the Department of Agriculture in Washington. Easily and quickly erected, the house has both interior and exterior walls made of fire resistant, waterproof canvas covered plywood. The roof is made of the same material. Cotton blanket insulation, serving both to keep the house cool and to deaden outside sounds, is used in the ceiling and side walls. Cotton materials were used throughout in furnishing the house. Approximately 650 pounds of cotton were required for walls and insulation alone.

(Below) Secretary of Agriculture Claude A. Wickard and daughter, Betty, anticipate what breakfast would be like at this cotton-set table. Even the cups and dishes are made of cotton lintners plastic.

FARMERS URGED TO PLANT WINTER COVER CROPS

College Station, Sept.—Texas farmers are being urged in the name of national defense to plant more winter cover crops as a means of increasing production of needed foods for America and the embattled democracies.

Meeting in College Station on the request of Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard, the Texas USDA Defense Board studied a threatened shortage of winter legume seed and recommended increased plantings of both winter legumes and non-leguminous cover crops.

"Protection of our soil is more important than ever during the defense emergency," B. F. Vance, chairman of the board, told board members representing all USDA agencies in the state. "Food is vital to our national defense, and increased production of the necessary foods to a great extent depends on increased productivity of the soil."

Winter cover crops, it was pointed out, prevent leaching and erosion of the soil and add to its fertility. Most widely-used legume cover crops in Texas are vetch, Austrian winterpeas, and various clovers. Non-leguminous cover crops in the state include oats, barley, rye, and sudan grass.

Texas farmers this year ordered nearly a million pounds of winter legume seed through the AAA's conservation materials program, Vance told the board, and already have received 60 percent of their order. A delay in shipment of the rest of the order will seriously curtail the planting of winter legumes in the state and will result in serious damage to the state's soil, he declared.

It was explained to the board that most of the vetch and Austrian winterpea seed supply was

"ENRICHED" FLOUR RAISES HEALTH STANDARDS

Recognizing the serious problem of mal-nutrition in the U. S., the Federal Government in cooperation with the medical profession and the millers and bakers of the country, have embarked on a scientific course to improve the nation's diet.

An important forward step in the improvement of America's diet has been the development of "enriched" white flour. Up to this time most of the flour on the market was the plain white kind, made from the inner part of the wheat grain with the germ and most of the bran removed.

With the introduction of the new "enriched" white flour home-makers can purchase a higher vitamin and mineral content flour than in the past. A definition and standard for "enriched" flour will become effective under the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, January 1, 1942. This "enriched" flour will have to contain a certain amount of Thiamin chloride (vitamin B1), riboflavin (vitamin G), nicotinic acid (the pellagra-preventive factor), and iron. It may also have calcium and vitamin D added, but these will be optional ingredients. Enriched flour on the market before the definition and standard were announced did not have to contain riboflavin.

The Surplus Marketing Administration has listed "enriched" flour as a "blue stamp food." It can be purchased by clients of the Food Stamp Plan with their free blue food stamps.

produced in the northwest, but that an anticipated bumper crop of seed had failed to materialize with the result that growers were holding the seed off the market to await better prices.

Q. In parking on any street or highway which side should you park on?

A. Always park on the right

KITCHEN SAFETY HINTS GIVEN

College Station, Sept. 2.—Life insurance companies have figures showing that many thousands of deaths and disabling accidents each year result from accidents in home kitchens. To cut down on kitchen casualties, Louise Bryant, Extension Service specialist in home management, suggests a check-up to make this important room in the house safe.

A third of the deaths of children under five from home accidents come from scalds and burns. To avoid such tragedies, cook with the handles of all pots and pans turned to the back of the stove so they'll be out of reach of children.

Safety catches can be put on petcocks to prevent children from side.

Q. What should you know and do to be a safe driver?

A. You should know and obey all traffic laws.

Q. What is meant by the broken lines that have been painted near the center stripe on the highways and when does it apply to you?

A. It means not to pass other vehicles when it is in your lane.

Q. Are you required to have your operator's or chauffeur's license with you at all times?

A. Yes.

Q. When making a left turn at a street intersection, should you go to the center of the intersection before you start turning?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it necessary to stop when entering a state highway from a side road if there is no stop sign?

A. Yes. What does a stop sign mean?

A. It means to cease moving, and not merely slow down.

Q. Is it a violation to leave obstructions on a highway?

A. Yes. Never leave old tires or rocks or any obstruction on any highway.

Q. Is driving a motor vehicle a part time or full time job?

A. It is a full time job.

Q. Is driving a car or truck on the highways a right or privilege?

A. It is a privilege.

Q. Where do the most serious accidents occur, on the highways or in cities?

A. On the highways.

Q. For whose safety is the driver of an automobile responsible?

A. Every one on the highways.

Q. When parking parallel how close should the wheels be to the curb?

A. Not more than 12 inches from the curb.

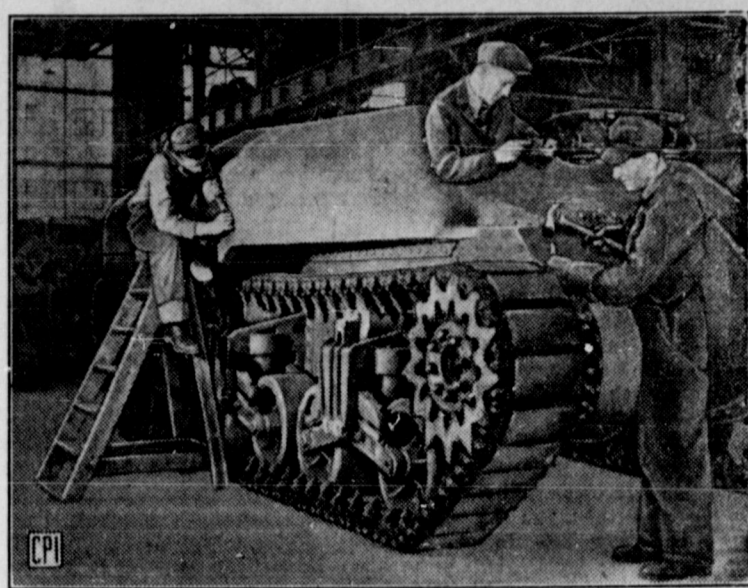

Q. How far may the load legally extend beyond the line of the fenders on a passenger car?

A. Three inches on the left side and six inches on the right side.

Q. Who is required to have an operator's license?

A. Every person who operates a motor vehicle upon a public highway must have a license in his possession at all times. Never allow anyone else to use your license.

CANADA IS BUILDING TANKS

—Passed by Censor.
CANADIAN industry performed a miracle when it fashioned its first heavy infantry tank. At the outbreak of war, the Dominion had no facilities for the manufacture of such military monsters as tanks and no means of making armor plate such as tank specifications call for. But brains, perseverance and expediency combined to make possible the overcoming of these serious obstacles and today, not only is Canada producing tanks at the rate of three per day but turning knobs on the gas stove; matches should be kept in non-inflammable containers out of their reach. Canning in a pressure cooker and deep-fat frying are two of the more dangerous cooking jobs, so children should be kept out of the kitchen during these processes.

"Be sure to cover your hand with a cloth before you lift the cover from a steaming kettle or roaster," Miss Bryant advises, "and lift the far side of the lid first." Here are other warnings:

Fat accumulating under a broiler is a fire hazard. Long, loose, flowing sleeves are dangerous. Cook in short sleeves and plain smooth aprons and dresses.

Keep your curtains safe by fastening them so they can't blow in a fire or by fireproofing them.

Don't touch anything electrical with a wet cloth or wet hands or when you're standing on a wet floor.

A fire extinguisher for the kitchen is a good safety investment, especially for homemakers who live in the country.

AAA SECRETARY ANNOUNCES COSTS FOR FARM RECHECKS

Donley county farmers who want their cropland rechecked for compliance with AAA quota allotments will be required to pay a small fee for the rechecking. Walter J. Flynt, county ACA secretary, said this week.

Farmers who have been overplanted and have later disposed of part of their crop to bring it within the acreage allotment, can have the acreage rechecked for $1 for the first plot, and 50 cents for each additional plot, Mr. Flynt said.

On the other hand, if any farmer disagrees with the first check of his acreage which might have showed him to be overplanted, he can ask for a recheck and get it, provided he will put up a deposit of $2. This deposit is returned to the farmer if the recheck shows that a mistake was made and his acreage is within the quota allotment. In cases where rechecks have been made and the farmer is due to get back his deposit of $2, he is asked to come by the Clarendon AAA office and sign an application for the refund, which will be made by government check.

BASIC COTTON LOAN RATE SET AT 14.55 FOR DONLEY

The basic loan rate for 1941 cotton grown in Donley County will be 15.55 for fifteen-sixteenths middling white or extra white cotton, it was announced this week by Walter J. Flynt, county ACA secretary.

The loan rate was fixed for Hedley, where a cotton compress is located, and presumably it will apply to all county cotton, Mr. Flynt said.

REV. KING OFFERS RESIGNATION AS BAPTIST PASTOR

Rev. J. Perry King, pastor of the Clarendon Baptist Church, tendered his resignation to the church at the morning service Sunday. Rev. King's statement concerning his resignation, which was accepted by the church membership, was as follows: To the members of the First Baptist Church:

"I greatly appreciate the privilege of being pastor of your church these years. They have been happy years for me. I have tried to do the will of the Lord. How well I have succeeded He alone knows. I feel that I am ready to meet my record. I hope it has been satisfactory. The years have perhaps been the hardest years in the history of the church, but I am happy to leave her affairs in as good shape as at the beginning of my pastorate here. I have enjoyed having fellowship with you, but the parting of the ways come in the lap of relationships in life. "It is the feeling of some now, and has been for some time, that my work as your pastor should terminate. I respect such feeling on the part of any and all, from the least to the greatest. It may be right. If so, then certainly I ought not impose myself longer on you as pastor. I have nothing in view. I hope I am doing right. I am not in the ministry for a meal ticket. It is true that has been the method of my sustenance for a good many years, but somehow, to me it seems higher and holier than that. I love the ministry. I love this church. I want to do the thing that is best for you and me and everybody concerned. I therefore, offer my resignation to take effect October 1, 1941.

"I am asking for these extra thirty days in order to complete this Associational year, attend the Association, and help to perfect your organization. I also want to find another place of service and not have to resort to some other method of livelihood. Then too, I want to get my business in shape, and right any wrong that I may have done, and gain back any friends that I may have lost. I apologize most sincerely if I have done or said anything to hurt or hinder in upright Christian living. I did not intend it that way. My stay with you has been too delightful to be spoiled now. I want to be a Christian and act like a Christian.

"For the sake of the church and the glory of God, I am expressing the hope that someone who feels that it would be alright for me to remain as pastor move the acceptance of my resignation. God bless you and lead you to His man as your undershepherd.

Respectfully submitted, J. Perry King

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK IN DISTRICT 3-A IS DISCUSSED

How do the football teams of District 3-A stack up this week, as the first practice gets under way? A lot of Clarendon football fans have been asking that question, and the News presents herewith one answer, in the form of a summary of the present outlook by one district observer:

The eight high school football teams composing District 3-A opened their training campaigns Monday, September 1st, with Shamrock and McLean top heavy favorites and Lefors, Wellington, and Memphis with enough returning veterans to give the favorites a tough season. Clarendon, Lakeview, and Wheeler with only a few returning lettermen will have the most inexperienced squads in the district.

The Shamrock Irishmen will be seeking their third consecutive district championship under the tutelage of Forrest Kline, former TCU Star. The Irish opened training with fifteen returning lettermen and ten squadmen in addition to a promising group of sophomores.

The McLean Tigers opened their training under Sewell Cox, former ACC athlete, who replaces "Cricket" Christian. Cox coached at Claude last year where his class B team won bi-district honors. The Tigers will be led by all-district back John Kelly Lee and a lot of other experienced veterans.

Frances Smith and John Rankin, the district's oldest coaches from the point of service in the district, are expecting the heaviest team in their history with twelve returning lettermen and 15 returning squadmen in addition to their freshmen and sophomore replacements.

Wellington will open their season under Scott McCall, former Masonic Home and T. C. U. Star who has been assistant coach at Shamrock for the past year. Wellington lost only a few of their lettermen and are expected to make a heavy bid for top honors in the district.

Coaches C. E. Headstream and Bill Pletcher, former Hardin Simmons Stars, are in their second season with the Memphis Cyclones. They have seven lettermen returning with four linemen and three backs, but a large squad up from the 1940 "B" promises to make them a top contender.

Gone from the Clarendon squad are their four all-district men of the 1940 squad, and all of the lettermen except four first year "C" men. Coaches Warden and Penick are faced with a tough schedule and the Broncho stock was given a big boost this week when 32 boys reported for the initial practice.

McKnight, former Texas Tech Star, will coach the Lakeview Eagles. Lakeview, for the first time, will play a number of its conference games at home on a new sodded field under newly constructed lights. McKnight's charges are an unknown quantity with only six returning lettermen from the 1940 squad.

Graduation cut heavily into the strong 1940 Wheeler squad and only four wheelers are expected to return. Coach Bill Horchem resigned at the end of the school term, and has not been replaced at this time. The squad opened the season under the direction of the school officials who expected to have a coach on the job by the end of the week.
