Pig Show To Feature Auction Sale Here Saturday, 10th

The annual exhibit of top market swine by the Donley County Club boys will be the chief attraction at the County Fair here October 10th. Some eighty boys will exhibit their prize animals in an effort to cop the coveted grand championship premium. Barrows of each of the leading breeds will be represented with strong entries in berkshires, hampshires, Poland Chinas, Durocs, and Chester whites.

Classes in the club boys show will be light and heavy singles in each of the breeds, and pens of three and litters of five or more with all breeds competing. Classes of breeding stock will be also exhibited, and breeders and farmers are eligible to compete in this class if they exhibit registered animals. A number of outstanding boars, gilts and sows are expected to be on display throughout the day.

The auction sale will be held Saturday afternoon, October 10th, and the top fifty barrows of the show will be sold at public auction. Local merchants have already guaranteed premium prices for the club youths winning animals, and with the prospect of meat rationing, a number of local citizens are expected to take advantage of this opportunity to secure some of the very best grade pork. Approximately twenty-five registered gilts and boars will also be offered in the auction sale.

Local youths are being asked to have their swine entries at the public scales before noon, Friday, October 9th, where they will be weighed, and for the classification of the barrows in the show and will be the selling weight of the animals.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO HEAR BROADCAST

Friday, October 2nd, at 1:15 p. m. all school children of Texas—over 1,250,000 strong—will be assembled in their respective schools to receive messages of vital importance from Governor Stevenson, Superintendent Woods and others.

The punch of this broadcast will come when Colonel Honor Garrison requests all children to rise and repeat after him the official oath of the Junior Texas Rangers. The oath of office will be simultaneously administered to 1,250,000 children.

This broadcast will go out over the regular time of the "School of the Air" sponsored by the State Department of Education—through the facilities of Texas Quality Network—WOAI in San Antonio, KPRC in Houston, WFAA in Dallas, WBAP in Fort Worth and KGNC in Amarillo.

The above is occasioned by the national scrap drive in which all school children have been organized into a Junior Army to help put the drive over in a big way. Here in our own state, all school children are to be commissioned Junior Texas Rangers for duration of the scrap drive.

All Eligibles For Recaps Warned

According to a warning issued this morning by the Donley County War Price & Rationing Board, drivers of trucks, pick-ups, trailers and tractors should check their tires carefully and make applications for retreads or recaps before the carcass of the tire is ruined. There will be a definite shortage each month of new tires for the above mentioned vehicles. The quotas on new tires are being reduced each month but the quotas for retreads and recaps has been slightly increased.

If all persons will cooperate and have their tires recapped or retreaded it will save them a great deal of trouble as the new tires are going to be very hard to get in view of the cut in the county quotas.

Meeting Called To Set Price For Boll Pulling

The Donley County Victory Council and farmers from all parts of the county have instructed county agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M College Extension service to call a meeting of all cotton farmers in the county, at the Court House in Clarendon on the second of October, this Friday night at 8:30 to set a price for boll pulling for Donley county.

The farmers in this county feel that this price should be set and have a uniform price for the county. This is being done in all parts of the state and is placing the boll pulling price on the same level for all parts of the country. All farmers are urged to attend and express their opinions on this matter. It is very important that you attend this meeting and voice your opinion.

One central meeting is being held for the county in view of the fact that all farmers should agree on the price in one meeting and in this way it will be settled at one time for all parts of the county and not be different in separate communities. It is the business of all cotton farmers to attend this meeting of the farmers' from all parts of the county.

Be sure to remember the date—this Friday night, October 2nd at 8:30 o'clock.

Used Tire, Tube Sales Frozen

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The Office of Price Administration today froze the sale of used tires and tubes and revealed that used tires would be rationed to provide for all essential uses in conformity with the War Relocation committee recommendation.

The order was issued to freeze the present supply of used tires pending completion of the new rationing program, which will govern the use of these tires just as present rationing regulations control the use of new and recapped tires, the OPA said. It added that when used tire rationing is initiated, the freeze order will be lifted to the extent necessary to permit sale to certificate holders.

OPA said it was "important to have available for rationing not only the mileage that is represented by used tires with good tread thickness still remaining, but also the supply of recyclable carcasses which are the starting point of any successful recapping program."

Local Junior Army Is Ready For Scrap Metal Drive

The boys and girls of Clarendon and of Donley County are part of a nation Junior Army which on October 5 will begin a great attack.

The attack is against the worst enemy within our borders today. The enemy could stop our factories from making guns and ships and tanks and planes. The enemy could prevent those weapons from being made by preventing manufacture of the steel out of which parts of those weapons are made.

That enemy is starvation of the steel mills. But the school pupils of our nation, organized in a great Junior Army, are going to feed the mills. They are going to find and bring together the things out of which tanks and ships are made—things like, rusty pipe, broken bed springs, air guns that won't shoot any more. Around Clarendon and Donley County there is junk and scrap. But after it has gone through the mills it is bombs for the Nazis and bullets for the Japs.

Commanding general of the Texas division of the Junior Army of school boys and girls is L. A. Woods, State Supt. of Schools. The regiment in Clarendon is headed by Colonel H. T. Burton, Supt. of Schools. County Superintendent, Miss Ruth Richerson is colonel of the "Donley County regiment."

Each school principal is a major in the Junior Army. Under each major come the captains, the teachers. School boys and girls of each school room will be the lieutenants, sergeants, corporals and privates of the Junior Army. Those who do well will be promoted, just like real soldiers in the fighting army.

A fighting army uses maps and scouts every foot of ground. Members of the Junior Army will scout the same way for the pieces of junk. From map plans, each will be given a place to scout. So the Junior Army will scout all of America, each street and road, each city block and country farm, finding junk.

For so long as the junk lies ungathered, it is part of the starvation enemy of our steel mills, our war factories, and our fighting men. The boys and girls of Clarendon and Donley County are going to find and take prisoner all of that enemy in this part of our nation.

Tire Sellers Must File Inventory

All tire sellers must file September 30 inventory reports of all serviceable tires and tubes before October 15 to comply with the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations, G. E. Kinslow, Chairman of the Donley Board, reminded the trade today.

The inventory report, which is mandatory quarterly, is to show the stocks of all new and used tires and tubes and retreads and recaps held by all persons who have any of the items for sale.

Filing of the reports is particularly important at this time, Mr. Kinslow emphasized, since they will provide a record of persons who are engaged in the business of selling tires, and hence, will be eligible to receive additional stocks of tires if larger inventories become necessary by reason of any change in the rationing program undertaken to meet the War Relocation Committee recommendations.

Reporting forms are being sent by mail to most of those required to file the returns, but those who do not get them and have tires to report must obtain the forms from the local War Price and Rationing Board in Clarendon.

The reporting requirements apply not only to recappers and dealers in new tires, but also to those who have only used tires for sale, and to automobile supply companies, motor vehicle dealers and finance companies. Tires mounted on vehicles, however, are not to be reported.

FOXWORTH-GALBRAITH LUMBER CO. IN NEW LOCATION OCT. 5

J. K. Morton, local manager of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber company announced this week that they would begin the big job of moving to their new location Monday, October 5th. They will occupy the buildings formerly used by Wm. Cameron & Co.

Their present location is one of the old landmarks of Clarendon, having been in operation for over 40 years and under the Foxworth-Galbraith name for the past 35 years. After all stock is removed from the old yard, the buildings will all be wrecked and sold as there is a lot of good material in the structure.

"After Saturday, we will transact all business from our new location," Mr. Morton stated.

All Breeds of Dairy Cattle Eligible To Show At County Fair, October 10th

All breeds of dairy cattle are eligible to show at the Donley County Fair on October 10th. The only requirement is that the cows be full blooded animals and not cross breeds. All exhibitors are being asked to have their dairy animals ready to exhibit by 10 a. m. on the morning of the 10th. A great deal of interest has been aroused in better dairy cattle in recent years, and a large number of excellent dairy animals are expected to be on exhibit.

Milking shorthorns are expected to furnish several entries in this division always dominated by Jerseys. Clarendon F.F.A. youths are expected to furnish a goodly portion of the dairy exhibit which will be under the direction of C. L. Knight, J. W. Sullivan, F. S. Clark, and D. M. Cook. This committee will meet at the county agent's office at 3 p. m. Saturday, October 3rd, to complete arrangements for the show.

Gillham, local supervisor of defense production courses offered by the State Department of Vocational Education through the War Production Training Program, stated today that the course being offered at Ashtola on Increasing Pork Production was being well attended with an average attendance of over twenty-five farmers. Problems in production of pork have been the topics of discussion at the first three meetings on September 22, 24 and 29th.

Other meetings will be held at the Ashtola Auditorium on October 1st and 6th, and three field meetings at the Geo. B. Bagby Duroc Farm, the E. S. Ballow Hampshire Farm, and the Swine judging of the Donley County Fair. All persons interested in problems of swine production are urged to attend the meetings.

VISITS HOMEFOLKS

Ruth Palmer of Amarillo was home for the week end. She has been transferred to McLean in defense work.

The Donley county show board met in the office of the county agent on Tuesday, the twenty-ninth of September and outlined the stock show and fair to be held in Clarendon on the tenth of October. In a statement issued by county agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M College Extension service, the board decided to have a one day fair instead of a two day show as originally planned.

In stead of having community booths of agricultural exhibits, all farmers will be allowed to bring anything that he wants to, and put on display in the fair building with his name on his display showing that the commodity was grown by him. It was decided by the committee not to have individual community booths because the farmers are now starting harvest and the people in the country do not have time to gather up a community booth in face of the shortage of labor. It was decided by the people in the communities to wait until next year to have the community booths.

The show will be held on one day and will be a good fair and stock show. The program is as follows and was worked out by the fair committee:

- (1) Swine show to begin at 9 a. m. All hogs to be in the pens on Friday the day preceding the show on Saturday. The hogs can be brought in any time this day. The eight gilts competing in the Sears Roebuck swine show will be judged on Friday evening about six o'clock.
 - (2) Horse show to start at 10:30 a. m. and all horses to be in show to be on grounds not later than nine o'clock in the morning on the day of the show which is the 10th.
 - (3) Poultry show to begin at nine o'clock on the tenth and all poultry to be in pens by eight o'clock on the morning of the show.
 - (4) Dairy show to start at 1 p. m. and all dairy cattle to be on the grounds not later than nine o'clock on the morning of the show.
 - (5) All farmers wanting to bring in any exhibits for the agriculture building will have them on display not later than nine o'clock on the morning of the show. All displays will be tagged and can be returned to the owner.

GET IN THE SCRAP!

The War Production Board, Washington, D. C., has asked the office of United States Education to evolve a plan for all the school children in America to put on a scrap drive for iron, steel, rubber, copper, brass, bronze, aluminum, zinc, lead and old rags.

Dr. L. A. Woods, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, for Texas has in turn designated from Oct. 5 to Oct. 19th as the dates for the school children of Texas to put on the drive.

All of the school children of Clarendon Public Schools will take part in a drive to begin at 3:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October 6th. They will make a house to house canvass of the town.

The children will also collect old keys. One barrel of keys will make a 16-inch gun for a battleship.

"We shall appreciate very much the cooperation of every citizen in Clarendon, Supt. H. T. Burton said. "If you will collect your scrap and old keys and have it ready, it will save time."

This drive will be made in conjunction with the local County War Board who will furnish trucks.

A PROUD RECORD

The job the natural resource industries are doing on behalf of the war effort deserves nation-wide recognition and admiration.

The power and light utilities are among those industries. For many years, the utilities have been subjected to the most bitter kind of political and legislative attack. They have been subjected, in addition, to tax-subsidized competition from the socialized power systems built by the government. Yet, in the face of these tremendous difficulties, they have successfully met any and all demands for power. They have expanded their plants to the limit of their abilities. They are serving war industry, consumer industry, agriculture and homes with complete efficiency and at an extremely low cost. Close to 90 per cent of all the commercially-generated power in this country is produced by the private utilities—and in some of our major industrial areas, where key war plants are situated, they produce all the power.

The oil industry is another case in point. Nature blessed this nation with gigantic pools of oil—but Nature didn't give us the facilities for turning it to productive use. Private enterprise did that. No resource is more important to modern war than oil—and this country produces something like 60 per cent of the total world supply. Since the war began, the oil industry has made a magnificent record in keeping production up to the unprecedented demand. It has done miracles in expanding the output of certain special oils, such as the high-test gasoline required by airplane engines. On top of that, the oil industry is the leader in developing synthetic rubbers to take the place of the natural rubber we have lost. Extraordinary progress has been made in this direction in a very short time.

Coal is another basic natural resource industry. This industry has had more than its share of tough tax and labor problems. For years, it operated at a loss. But the supply of coal—which is the basis of a thousand vital industrial operations—has never lagged. The industry has made a spectacular record in holding output to very high levels under constant difficulties.

All of these industries are giving the bulk of their energies to the enormous demands of war. But, when the war is over, their contribution to peacetime living will be greater than ever. New industrial miracles are in the making. New processes and new materials are coming out of the laboratories. Plastics alone—which are largely derived from coal and oil—will be a revolutionary influence in the direction of better living.

The natural resource industries represent the free enterprise system at its best. They are typical of free America's answer to the dictators who deliberately brought upon the world the most terrible war in history. And they are helping bring ever nearer the day of our final victory.

TAKE TAX MEDICINE NOW

Millions of people, for the first time, are beginning to worry about how they are going to pay their taxes. The hard truth is coming home to them. And taxes must go higher. This unpleasant fact can no longer be side-stepped.

The next question is how can the tax bill be paid with the least distress. There has been constant resistance to a sales tax in Washington, because it brings the tax question home in a realistic manner.

As to a sales tax, Thomas W. Phillips, Jr., of Butler, Pennsylvania, former member of Congress, says: "It would be difficult to suggest a better method to compel the non-property owner to bear directly a portion of the cost incident to living in a state of civilization.

"A sales tax is perhaps our only hope for avoiding disastrous inflation and repudiation. Like it or not, we have just about arrived at the point where a sales tax is absolutely necessary if we are to carry on."

Mr. Phillips pointed out that the growing tendency to confiscate earnings of industry as well as individuals through excessive taxes on minorities is a suicidal policy.

"Capital is the best friend the working man ever had or ever will have," he said. "Capital com-

POISONOUS SNAKES OF AMERICA

VERY SHORT LIVED BECAUSE HE BELIEVES IT IS UNPATRIOTIC TO DOUBT THE INVINCIBILITY OF HIS BREED.' 3. 'The PESSI-MOCCASIN': 'EASILY IDENTIFIED BECAUSE IT IS ALWAYS IN TEARS. petes with itself, thereby increasing work, raising wages and lowering rents. Any system of taxation which destroys capital or discourages its employment in productive enterprise, is a social curse. Those who object to a general sales tax are neither sincere nor consistent unless they oppose processing taxes and gasoline taxes.

"Such a tax, like most other taxes, might not be entirely equitable, but it would raise vast sums of money. It would perhaps be the least harmful way to get sufficient money to care for the urgent functions of government." We can either take our tax medicine now or face freedom-shattering inflation and bankruptcy after the war.

AIR OR LAND POWER

The argument goes merrily on between the air-power enthusiasts and those who think that the airplane, vital as it is, can't win a war alone.

Such persuasive friends of the plane as Major de Seversky are convinced that if the United Nations could build and keep in operation enough planes, Germany and Japan could be literally obliterated from the skies—and that major land operations would thus be unnecessary. The fact that the airplane has not yet proven a decisive weapon means nothing in their opinion—because no nation has yet been able to keep up air attacks on the scale necessary.

The majority of military experts don't go as far as this. They argue that relatively few of the bombs dropped by planes ever hit important objectives, and that the damage done can, as a rule, be swiftly remedied. They point out that constant progress is being made in air defense—such as camouflage, anti-aircraft guns and fighter planes. They think that the airplane can do an all-important job in "softening up" an enemy and in disrupting his supply lines—but that it will be up to navies and armies to finish the job.

No one can say with certainty which side is right. In the meantime, the United Nations' high command continues to prepare for a grand-scale invasion of Europe. If that invasion is to succeed, they figure, at least a million superbly-equipped fighting men must be landed—and there must be another million in reserve. This, when it happens, will be the greatest military operation in history.

FARM PRICES AND WAGES

It is to the credit of certain farm organizations, such as the leading marketing cooperatives, that they have not opposed stringent control of agricultural prices so long as stringent control of wages is imposed with it.

These organizations, in other words, have simply objected to farmers being turned into shock troops to fight inflation—while other national groups go merrily ahead getting all the money possible.

The cost of farm labor alone has offset much of the increase in

Buffaloes To Battle Arizona Bulldogs

CANYON, Sept. 30—A bruised and battered but far from humbled Buffalo football team is awaiting the arrival of the Arizona State Bulldogs with grim impatience this week.

West Texas State's 39-0 defeat by Texas Tech after a 7-0 first half has given the Buffs a thirst to sharpen their offense and break into the win column.

They are expecting no easy game with the Tempe eleven, however. In three games played previously by the two Border Conference members, the Bulldogs won two. The scores were 19-0, 19-12, and 13-7. Last year the locals won at Tempe on a tour which also gave them a 7-6 victory over Fresno State in California.

The Tempe club was carried to championships in the cactus circuit by the gridiron immortal Dixie Howell, assisted by Hilman Walker, in 1939 and 1940. Howell is gone, but Walker is carrying on this season.

Buffalo lettermen well remember the rugged players which Tempe has always possessed in abundance. Especially well recalled is a big back named Chofrio. He and several other Bulldog veterans were participants in the rout of the locals two years ago.

Texas Tech had "too much and too many" for the Buffs, but lack of an offensive, poor passing, and poor protection for the punter also contributed to their second-half collapse. But Coaches Gus Miller and W. W. Nicklaus saw much promise in the spirited battling of the Buffs. They expect to see the West Texans gaining power with every game.

That goes for motor oil, too. When you want quality oil... and who doesn't these days?... it is best to rely on facts and on the good name of the petroleum producer. That way you're sure of getting the genuine article.

You know that Phillips is one of the great independent organizations in the petroleum industry. You know that Phillips has a well earned reputation for giving greater value. So it means something when Phillips makes this simple, straightforward statement: If you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer to car-owners like yourself.

Because quality oil means so much to car life, remember these facts when a new 1,000-mile mark clicks up on your speedometer, and when you are making the seasonal change.

POPOVERS.
No sooner was this column being inhaled last week than the letters began to pour in on the old Apostle telling him how to make popovers. That request certainly got results. A very beautiful and accomplished young lady sent in the first recipe with a demand that her name be not mentioned. Sorry, folks, but it will be that way. Here's how: One cup flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, one teaspoon melted butter, cup of sweet milk, one teaspoon baking powder. Stir all the ingredients together, adding the flour last. Cook on a greased surface over a hot fire. In case you want to experiment, go right ahead. There are no patents, copyrights or box tops mixed up in this affair. Please report results.

SATISFACTION.
Blessed is the man who can enjoy small things, the common beauties. The little daily events of a friend passing, breakfast, dinner and supper. So many go far away from home to find enjoyment. Some seldom find it at all.

HEAP O' LIVIN'.
My idea of life in all its splendor could best be described by a word picture of a scene at my home Monday night. The Fairies were there—three of them. The Fairies are the old Apostle's granddaughters living here. Another one had spent the week end with her cousin at Electra. Well sir, we kids piled right into cooking supper. Those little girls know how to cook. There is nothing the old Apostle likes better than to cook. Just cook chuck, grub or trail off on Spanish dishes for a change. After we had eaten, the eldest of the Fairies washed the dishes, cleaned the kitchen and no grown woman could have done better. Here is what gets me: Any old codger who can't cook has missed a lot. If he has no curly heads round him, he has missed volumes. I'd rather sit in the midst of innocence and revel in their games than to attend any function on the globe. Take it from me, the man who likes neither children, flowers, music or dogs, is a bad egg. Shun him. If he likes all four of these named, he can't be a bad fellow. Sitting across the table from a bevy of curly heads when we are all enjoying the sausage, eggs, good yellow butter, jellies and other good things, is a little glimpse of heaven. No sweeter picture was ever painted. Besides, that is a picture that will live in memories for years and years. Give me the little folks. I've always liked 'em.

PATHFINDER CLUB

The first meeting of the club year was held in the spacious living room in the home of the president, Mrs. J. H. Howze at 4:30 Friday afternoon, Sept. 25th. The room was tastefully decorated with fall flowers and growing plants, and a large number of members attested their pleasure at the resumption of work by their attendance.

Mrs. C. B. Morris, retiring president, expressed deep appreciation of the loyal support given her by both officers and members during a year which had been difficult because of personal sickness and sickness in her home. Mrs. Lee Holland, retiring recording secretary, read the minutes of the last meetings.

Mrs. Howze, incoming president, expressed her appreciation of the honor of presiding over Clarendon's oldest Club, and told briefly her plans for the year. She introduced her corps of officers as follows: Vice-president, Mrs. John M. Bass Sr., Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ernest Hunt; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. C. A. Burton; Treasurer, Mrs. J. T. Patman; Parliamentarian, Mrs. C. E. Bairfield; Federation Counsellor, Mrs. Lee Holland; Historian, Mrs. Van Kennedy. Special chairmen: Music, Mrs. J. L. McMurry; Poetry, Mrs. C. T. McMurry; War, Mrs. H. T. Burton; Time Keeper, Mrs. C. D. McDowell.

Routine business was discussed, including the pooling of cars to save tires, the awarding of the Club scholarship money to a Clarendon girl who will attend school at Canyon and the reading of a letter from State President, Mrs. J. W. Walker, urging the cooperation of club women in buying bonds.

Mrs. Antrobus gave an interesting history of the past years work—the club's thirtieth year. The study for the year is to be Latin America, and Mrs. L. N. Cox introduced the study by an illuminating bird's eye view of Latin America which she presented geographically, racially, and linguistically, and Mrs. J. R. Porter gave a stirring poem, "Ballad for Americans." Then Mrs. Rolle Brumley, guest for the afternoon, favored the club with the Spanish song, "Frasquita," accompanied by Mrs. J. L. McMurry.

A desire oft expressed by the Club to carry out the Good Neighbor program by learning enough Spanish to "talk to our neighbors" resulted in a very interesting little lesson in Spanish by Mrs. Oscar Thomas. The class proved proficient enough to say "yo tenia buen tiempo" to the hostess on leaving.

From a lace-draped table on gorgeously colored Mexican dishes, the hostesses, Mesdames L. N. Cox, J. G. Stewart, J. T. Patman, and Carl Allmond served tea, Mesdames Stewart and Allmond pouring—the salad, candy and tea carrying out the Latin American motif.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A corsage made of War Savings Stamps from screen star Ann Rutherford and a big smile from Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. were in store for this young citizen when his mother took him to a War Bond rally held here. Father And Sons In Army Now

Andrew Jay, who has been doing auto mechanic work in Clarendon for a long number of years, is now in the Army Air Corps Specialists. He will be at Ft. Sill for a few weeks before receiving further instructions. At Amarillo recently he took his mental test pertaining to the technical details and whereabouts of the automobile engine and came out on top with a perfect score. It is said that he is the first to make a one hundred percent grade at the Amarillo enlistment station.

With the acceptance of Mr. Jay in the Army Air Corps Specialists, his entire family, with the exception of Mrs. Jay, is now in the armed forces. As far as is known, this family is the only one in Donley County which finds the father, like sons, taking a part in Uncle Sam's Army.

Led Jay, the eldest son is now a Cadet in the Candidate Officers Training Class at Camp Lee, Virginia. Led has been in the army for some time now and has reached the stage where he is line for officers training.

John Jay, the younger son, is a Navigator in the Army Air Corps stationed at Ellington Field, Texas. He has passed the first course and has now been assigned to Advanced Training.

Only the mother is left at home now, but she still has a proud smile and a hope in her heart. She looks forward to a letter or a card each week—the one consolation which she rightfully deserves.

TO THE PRODUCERS OF DONLEY COUNTY:

Walter J. Flynt, Secretary Donley County ACA

Due to the shortage of rubber as well as gasoline and time, there has been made provisions for the delivery of marketing cards without having to come to the County Office to get them personally. The way this is to be handled is for the Producer to make a written request for mail delivery of these marketing cards and the card will be mailed to Producers as soon as possible. Mail delivery is to be used only in extreme cases. In cases where it will be very difficult to get to the county office this method can be used to a great advantage. Where Producers gin their cotton at Clarendon, or trade in Clarendon, we would appreciate it if they would come in personally to get the cards, in the very near future.

Effective as of September 17, the rationing of farm machinery was in effect. This rationing does not effect all farm machinery, but only large pieces of equipment with lots of iron and steel in them, such as tractors and combines. This rationing is not intended to deprive any farmer of greatly needed equipment, but to encourage the repair of all equipment that may be made usable.

When you find that you will be unable to do without certain equipment you may make application to the County Rationing Committee, who, if they approve the application will issue a Purchase Certificate for this equipment. In making the application there is certain information which you as purchaser will have to furnish, such as (1) If and when can this machinery be purchased, (2) Name of dealer who can furnish this equipment, and when he can deliver it, (3) How equipment will be used after purchase, and (4) Model of machinery to be purchased.

You will make your application through the county AAA office, who are acting for the County Rationing Committee in all the clerical work.

Former Dry Goods Merchant Enjoys Reading The Leader While Serving In Uncle Sam's Armed Forces

The following letter was written by Isadore Mellinger, former Clarendon dry goods merchant, who is now in the armed forces, stationed at Camp Carson, Colo. Dear George Wayne,

Right now I am going to attend to something which I have really planned to do for several weeks, and that is write you a letter letting you know that there is another soldier from Clarendon who enjoys his home-town paper and looks forward to receiving it every week. There is nothing as good as news from home, and I enjoy reading about my friends back in Donley County.

Of all the soldiers located here, I have yet to meet anyone from Clarendon; although there are several from Texas, but mostly other sections than the Panhandle.

Everything has been very nice, and to date me and the army have gotten along the best in the world. I like my work, am in a very nice camp, and a beautiful country; so I guess that is about all that counts. I will have to admit that these Colorado winters must be something to look forward to. As for myself, well, I believe that I'd rather take a few of those Donley County sandstorms, instead of these blizzards.

No doubt everything is really buzzing along in Clarendon now; as I feel like the crops in that vicinity have turned out nicely. I hope I'm not wrong; as that County is deserving of a nice dividend by this time. I really miss being in business there, but I hope that these world affairs will soon be settled; and I'll be back real soon selling a few clothes once in a while.

Again, I want you and Alfred to know that I enjoy your papers and really look forward to them.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am,

Your friend,
Isadore Mellinger.

There has never been enough attention given to fire prevention in time of peace, and too much emphasis cannot be placed on this kind of protection during wartime.

Smouldering ruins of a factory; supplies for the armed forces burned to a crisp; or the home of an individual contain a very small amount of scrap material that will contribute to the war effort.

Natives of the Virgin Islands have been limited to 2 pounds of flour a week. War rationing books similar to those in use in the United States, have been issued to the 12,000 inhabitants of the two islands.

Johnny Doughboy In Hawaii

By RED JONES from BELLOWS

He's marching down the gang-plank, in a line that's never ending—with a thousand other lads in khaki—from the banks of the Hudson—from the Red Hills of Georgia—from the corn fields of Iowa—and from the golden shores of California—Johnny Doughboy lands in Hawaii—a few months ago, he was working in an office, going to school, running a filling station—now he lives in barracks, a tiny eight-man hut, or a little pup tent—"Somewhere in Hawaii"—he may be a kid of 18, just out of high school—or an "old-timer" of 35 who really knows his way around.

You see him on the streets, in the stores, or loafing in the parks—dressed in khaki, lugging his gas mask and helmet over his left shoulder—he's probably in town on pass—the one day when he can forget the K.P. list and the voice of his first sergeant—he strolls down Hotel street from the "Y," and his helmet accidentally bumps you as you pass him on the sidewalk—he and his pals cluster up the intersection of Hotel and Bishop, looking for a little something to do—he's asking questions of a policeman—or trying to catch the eye of a smart-looking blonde—and getting nowhere fast—he gripes with you about the black-out, the slow mail service, and the high cost of everything—he's puzzled by your hard-to-pronounce names of streets, such as Kapio-lani and Waiialae—and wonders how names like Fort and King managed to sneak in—you're apt to hear him say "Wack-akee" and "Hy-woyian."

He joins the parade of uniforms

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

on the beach at Waikiki—and sends postal cards to the folks back home, to show them what the place looked like in the days when the strains of "Aloha Oe" met every liner from the states—when the big hotels belonged to civilians—and when there were no bomb-shelters to pock-mark downtown Honolulu—he gives the novelty shops a big play—to let the folks at home know he's seeing more of the islands than just the inside of his barracks—or you find him plugging nickels into a juke box, listening to "Johnny Doughboy Found A Rose In Ireland"—but he'll tell you his Rose isn't in Ireland—she's a tuff-haired gal in South Carolina or a sweet young thing, up in Wisconsin.

He tells you how the palm trees along Beretania remind him of the poplars in their back yard in Omaha—how he'll miss the crisp, football weather of October in the Midwest—and how unreal it will seem not to have snowstorms in January—then he says his best pal is a Marine in the Solomons—and his brother is with the Infantry up in Iceland—and he's glad he's doing his part here on the Rock—helping hold the fort on Oahu—where Dec. 7 is still clear and vivid—where there's still some business that remains unfinished—where "Remember Pearl Harbor" is more than just a song.

MAIL SOLDIERS' XMAS GIFTS BEFORE NOVEMBER 1.

READ THE RULES—The following rules, issued by the Postoffice Department in cooperation with the Army Postal Service of the War Department, apply to the mailing of Christmas parcels for members of our Armed Forces serving outside the continental limits of the United States.

TIME OF MAILING—Christmas parcels and greeting cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942, the earlier the better. Each package should be endorsed "Christmas Parcel." Special effort will be made for delivery in time for Christmas.

SIZE AND WEIGHT—Christmas parcels shall not exceed 11 pounds in weight, or 18 inches in length or 42 inches in length and girth combined. However, the public has been urged to cooperate by voluntarily restricting parcels to the size of an ordinary shoe box and the weight to six pounds.

USE CARE IN PREPARATION—Remembering the great distance this mail will be transported and the necessary storage and frequent handling, it is absolutely necessary that articles be packed in substantial boxes or containers and be covered with wrappings of sufficient strength to resist pressure of other mail. Each parcel is subject to censorship and delay may be minimized by securing covering to permit ready inspection of contents.

PROHIBITED MATTER—Intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons or compositions likely to damage mails are unmailable. No perishable matter should be included in parcels.

HOW TO ADDRESS PARCELS—Addresses must be legible. Parcels addressed to overseas Army personnel should show in addition to the full name and address of the sender, the name rank, Army serial number, branch of service, organization, A.P.O. number of the addressee and the postoffice through which parcels are to be routed. Units located within the continental United States may be addressed direct, using name, rank, organization and location.

POSTAGE MUST BE FULLY PREPAID—The rate on parcels of fourth-class matter (exceeding eight ounces) being the zone rate applicable from the postoffice where mailed to the zone office in the care of which parcels are addressed.

GREETING MESSAGES PERMISSIBLE—Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Don't open until Christmas" and the like may be placed on the covering of the parcel if it does not interfere with the address. Cards may be enclosed and books may bear a simple dedicatory inscription.

INSURANCE AND REGISTRY—Gifts of value should be insured. Articles of small size and considerable value should be sealed and sent as first-class registered mail.

MONEY ORDERS—The Army Postal Service recommends use of postal money orders to transmit gifts of money to members of Armed Forces outside the United States. These are cashed at A.P.O. in local foreign currency at rate of exchange on date of presentation.

Workers Needed In Pearl Harbor

Patriotic American workmen are urgently needed in Pearl Harbor for important war work, Paul H. Figg, regional director, Tenth Civil Service region, stressed today.

Aircraft mechanics, aircraft instrument mechanics, blacksmiths (other fires), boiler-makers, box-makers, iron chippers and caulkers, coppersmiths, aviation electricians, ship and shop electricians, crawler diesel engine-men, blacksmith helpers, boiler-maker helpers, pipefitter helpers, woodworker helpers, holder-ons, instrument makers, joiners, classified laborers, loftsmen, machinists, bomb-sight mechanics, aviation metal-smiths, torpedo ordnancemen, painters, shipfitters, aviation tool-makers—all are critically needed as civilian workers with wages ranging from 70c to $1.14 an hour in different trades.

Transportation to Hawaii for those workers selected will be at government expense, and return transportation will be provided upon completion of the worker's contract.

Applications are not desired from persons engaged in war work, except in those cases where the positions open call for the use of higher skills than the worker is now using in his present employment.

Applications for the positions can be obtained from any first or second class post office in Louisiana or Texas, from the nearest U. S. Employment service office.

Dr. J. D. McKenzie of Memphis visited Dr. B. B. Harris Tuesday.

WAAC Needs Women

To all women, physically fit, between the ages of 21 and 45, the Army needs you. And each day the need grows greater. More women are needed to replace able bodied men for combat duty. Women are needed in offices, hospitals, as laboratory assistants, radio operators and technicians, and 0 other types of specialists.

Another opportunity for women in the WAAC is in the Aircraft Warning Service. Applicants are enrolled as auxiliaries with view of assignment to the Aircraft Warning Service.

These specialists are of two types—basic and administrative specialists. For basic aircraft warning service, a specialist must have the regular qualifications of auxiliaries for the WAAC. The Administrative Aircraft Warning Service specialist needs the requirements for basic aircraft warning service specialist plus experience as a typist and with a general office background.

Also, the War Department is encouraging qualified colored women to apply for enrollment. Any woman, white or colored, who can be spared from her office, or home, or work, is urged to go to the nearest Army Recruiting Station, and get application blanks and information folder.

REST FIRST

When one is tired following a difficult day's work, is it best to eat first or rest first?

The wiest plan is to lie down and rest for at least half an hour before eating the evening meal.

The tired person needs rest more than he needs food. If you will follow this rule, you will find that you will digest your meal far better than if you try to eat when over-fatigued.—Parade, National Chiropractic Journal.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE

The men in our armed forces are fighting and dying on foreign shores. Backing them is the tireless civilian army at home. Both fighters and production workers know that failure to put every ounce of strength and determination into the job on hand means that the war will last longer; that in all the allied lands more men will be killed, more children die of starvation, more women suffer heartbreak and despair.

Our work here at home is very small in comparison to what is being done for us. Let's all put our hearts into our work for the Red Cross.

Helmets were turned in by: Mrs. C. D. McDowell, Mrs. J. O. Martin, Mrs. Ernest Kent (2), Mrs.

L. K. Cantrell, and Mrs. Henry Williams.

Helmets were taken out by: Mrs. Hattie Palmer, Mrs. J. O. Martin, Mrs. Clyde Price, Mrs. Ernest Kent (2), and Mrs. Ralph Andis. Since July 14th, Mrs. Ernest Kent has knitted nine helmets.

Sweaters were turned in by: Mrs. W. A. Riney, Mrs. U. J. Boston, and Mrs. F. M. Barton. Ethel Wilson (colored) turned in a sweater and a muffler.

Afagan squares were turned in by Mrs. Homer Glascoe and Mrs. Lloyd Shelton.

Sewing

Last week Mrs. U. J. Boston, our tireless chairman of the cutting, had a call from Hedley for fifty (50) pajamas. The following ladies were very prompt in getting these cut: Mrs. Bryan Armstrong, Mrs. Jim Warren, Mrs. J. M. Acord, Mrs. Cal Merchant, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, Mrs. C. C. Powell, Mrs. Lon Rundell, Mrs. John Potts, Mrs. J. E. Ryan, Mrs. M. R. Allensworth, Mrs. Simmons Powell, Mrs. Jim Patman, and Mrs. A. A. Mayes.

Pajamas for samples were made by Mrs. Lloyd Shelton and Mrs. A. A. Mayes.

We wish to thank the Shamburger Lumber Company for donating a roll of building paper from which patterns for the garments are cut.

The following gave clothes for the Red Cross to distribute: Mrs. Allen Bryan, Mrs. Cap Morris, Mrs. Clyde Price, Mrs. C. W. Bennett, Mrs. Jack Molesworth, Mrs. G. F. Leathers, Mrs. A. T. Jefferies, Lula Budd and Miss Mary Howren.

We wish everyone could realize how gratefully these garments are received. Please look through your closets and see if you do not have something for this worthy cause.

Our communities who have been so faithful in their work for the Red Cross will, in the coming months be occupied with their crops, which will put more of the sewing upon people in town. We hope that all organizations will take as much as they can. We will announce through this column when garments are ready for distribution.

Twenty-five Red Cross Chapters are invited to participate in Tuesday's meeting as guests of the Potter County Chapter. All phases of Red Cross work will be discussed.

Defense Police Mobilization In Texas Complete

AUSTIN, Sept. 30 — "Defense Police Mobilization in Texas is complete," Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today. A plan whereby the regular organized police and sheriffs of non strategic areas may be drawn to danger zones to quell riots, sabotage, and other disorders has been developed.

The Department of Public Safety has catalogued all law enforcement personnel, guns, munitions, and other equipment and adequate protection can be instantly drawn to troubled areas. The mobilization of these regular police, and the duties of War Reserve Police drawn from civilian ranks, will be the subject of this week's dramatization of "Texans on the Alert." Originating in the studios of WFAA in Dallas and carried over WBAP, WOAI, and KPRC, the program will be presented for the eighth time at 2 p. m. Sunday, October 4. Sponsored by the National Defense Committee for Texas, "Texans on the Alert" is produced as a public service feature of the Texas Quality Network and the Texas School of the Air.

The War Reserve Police are appointed and trained by local sheriffs and police chiefs and will supplement regular policemen in time of emergency.

Workers Wanted By Civil Service Commission

The United States Civil Service Commission continues to seek Inspectors of Ship Construction and Rate Clerks, and announces new examinations for Senior Bookkeeping Machine Operator and Press Assistant.

To recruit urgently needed ship inspectors, the Commission has amended Announcement 82. Under liberalized requirements, men with 4 to 6 years of appropriate electrical, mechanical or shipbuilding experience, but without inspectional experience may qualify for assignment to the Navy Department as Senior Inspectors, $2,600 a year, Inspectors, $2,300 a year, and Associate Inspectors, $2,000 a year. No written test is given. There are no specific educational requirements, although engineering courses from recognized colleges and suitable war training courses may be substituted for part of the required experience.

Because of the continuing demand for Freight and Passenger Rate Clerks, at $2,300 and $2,600 a year, the Commission is permitting applicants to substitute resident courses in transportation from traffic schools for part of the 3-year experience requirement. Hitherto, only courses from recognized colleges were acceptable. There is no written test.

Prospects of a stepped-up Treasury tax program have caused the Civil Service Commission to re-announce an examination for Senior Bookkeeping Machine Operator, $1,620 a year. Operators of typewriter-style bookkeeping machines who have had 1 year of suitable experience and can pass the general test may be rated eligible for numerous positions in Washington, D. C., and elsewhere. Particularly needed are Elliott Fisher flat-bed and Burroughs bookkeeping - typewriter machine operators.

Press Assistants are needed in the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., and interested applicants should file with the Commission's Washington Office not later than October 12. Press Assistants get 84 cents an hour, and may be promoted to cylinder pressmen when vacancies occur. There is no written test; applicants with 1 year of appropriate experience may qualify.

There is no maximum age limit for any of these positions. Except in the case of Press Assistant, applications will be received until the needs of the service have been met, and must be filed with the Washington office of the Civil Service Commission.

Full information as to requirements, and application forms, may be obtained from Ernest Hunt or Elmer G. Hayes, Local Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at the Clarendon post office.

State Public Welfare Department Makes Announcement

AUSTIN, Sept. 29—The State Department of Public Welfare announced today that all employable persons now receiving federal surplus commodities or food stamps will be taken off the rolls if the request is made by the War Manpower Board and the County Commissioners' Courts. The department had previously announced that all idle employable persons would be removed from the rolls if so requested and this has now been broadened to include the employed persons who have been receiving supplementary aid from the surplus food programs.

Commissioners' Courts in a number of counties have reported labor shortages developing and have felt that the availability of surplus commodities discourages acceptance of farm employment. Mr. J. S. Murchison, Executive Director, said: "We are thoroughly familiar with the situation. Many of the families now receiving surplus commodities have no member physically able to work. They are composed of widows with small children, aged persons with unemployable dependents, physically or mentally incapacitated parents with children.

"There is a widespread demand in all counties to continue the Free School Lunch Program. The hungry school child is more noticeable to the public. In these families there is little or no property or income to be expanded by inflation. The only way the war has affected such families is to expand their living costs and to push them back into the category of the forgotten man. The department feels that since the government has bought this surplus food, in order to relieve market conditions for the farmers at peak pro-

CLARENDON STEAM LAUNDRY TO CONTINUE OPERATION

Tom Helton, owner of the Clarendon Steam Laundry and Dry Cleaners, announced this week that his establishment would remain open but that there would be some changes made because of a labor shortage. He had announced earlier that he would close his business but after considering the fact that there is no other steam laundry between Childress and Amarillo, and that a large amount of local people would be handicapped for laundry service, he decided to remain open and give what service he could with the amount of labor that could be obtained.

Read his advertisement in this issue of the Leader for full details.

A large amount of folks will be happy to hear this announcement, for many would have been thinking of the old rub-board otherwise.

Pilots Discover Little-Big World

A few days ago while spending some time with Ensign W. F. Cornett of San Diego, Calif., who is a patient in Worley hospital in Pampa, Paul Greene, Clarendon's Flying Tiger, had a novel experience.

Ensign Cornett was injured when he made a forced landing south of Pampa three weeks ago.

During their conversation, Ensign Cornett inquired of Paul Greene if "he ever happened to meet up with a certain Ed Overend while in China recently." It was then that the big world became a small one. "Meet him!" Greene chuckled, "why he was my room mate in Kunning, China for some time."

Greene was up there helping put over a scrap iron drive—and did.

Rationing of Men's Rubber Footwear Is Ordered

Because of the serious rubber shortage, certificate rationing of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes has been ordered by the Office of Price Administration to insure necessary supplies of this footwear for men working on jobs essential to the war effort or the public health and safety. G. E. Kinslow, chairman of the Donley County War Price and Rationing Board announced today.

Mr. Kinslow said this action was taken at the direction of the War Production Board.

Effective at midnight, September 29, Mr. Kinslow said the OPA ordered all sales and shipments of six types of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes frozen to prevent a buyers' "run" on the stocks now on hand and also to give dealers time to take inventory.

All retailers, wholesalers, and manufacturers of the rationed footwear are required to obtain OPA inventory forms from their local War Price and Rationing Board on either Thursday, Friday or Saturday of this week.

The "freeze" period will end on Monday, October 5, when rationing to customers begins. The Donley County War Price and Rationing Board will be open to workers and company purchasing agents who need certificates entitling them to buy the rationed footwear, Mr. Kinslow said.

"To get a certificate," Mr. Kinslow explained, "the applicant must fill out two copies of a form that will be available at the local War Price and Rationing Board. These can be obtained by coming to the board in person, writing for them, or sending a representative.

"In filling out this form, an applicant must establish the fact that the actual work he performs is essential and he must specify the type of rationed rubber footwear needed and the conditions that make it necessary for him to have them. He also must show proof of his identity, such as his selective service registration, social security number, drivers license or similar identification. He must further establish that he has no available rubber footwear suitable for use on his job, and he must agree to turn in for salvage any unserviceable rubber footwear he owns."

"On receiving this application," Mr. Kinslow said, "the board will decide whether the applicant is entitled to get a certificate to buy any type of rationed footwear, and if so the board will authorize him to acquire the lightest weight and shortest type that will adequately serve his purpose.

"If the certificate holder buys from a local retailer he is required to present his certificate, identify himself, surrender any worn out rubber footwear as agreed, and get a retailer's signature on a specified part of the certificate as evidence that he has made the required turn-in.

"Where purchases are made by mail order, the turn-in of old rubber footwear is made to a local scrap collection agency designated by the local board. For this reason the customer sends only two parts of his certificate to the mail order house. On the third part he gets a signature by a representative of the salvage agency to which he surrendered his worn out rubber footwear. Purchasers are required to keep this receipt part of the certificate for six months.

"All sellers of rationed rubber footwear—retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers—are required to take inventory on OPA forms as of midnight next Saturday, October 3rd.

To Hold Field Day At Bagby Duroc Farm Saturday

Farmers and club boys of Donley County will have a field day at the George B. Bagby Registered Duroc Jersey Hog Farm Saturday, October 3rd at 2 p. m. The field day is a part of a defense production course series now being held at Ashtola, but any farmer, businessman or club boy is invited to attend the meeting.

According to J. R. Gillham, local vocational agriculture instructor, whose club boys have the most outstanding record in the state in swine production, the Bagby Hog Farm is one of the very best equipped in the entire southwest. The breeding stock, equipment, pasture arrangements, and management of the farm will be studied and demonstrations on castrating, worming, and treating for mange and parasites will be given. Both capsule and powder types of worming medicines will be demonstrated.

The field day will present an opportunity for Donley County farmers and club boys to visit the farm that has produced a number of grand and reserve champion barrows, and a large number of top breeding stock throughout the entire southwest.

Immediately following the auction of the prize winning barrows on October 10th, approximately twenty-five registered gilts and sows will be sold at public auction. According to J. R. Gillham, this stock is of the best breeding owned by the local club boys and will be a real opportunity for local farmers to secure top blooded breeding stock of the right type.

Two registered duroc boars and one registered Chester White boar will also be offered for sale at the auction. An effort is being made at this time to organize two groups of farmers to buy two of the most outstanding males for community breeding service. Gillham stated that the boars were of top quality and the blood lines represented by the boars would be displayed by many of the top barrows of the show.
