War Board Asks For Salvage Material

County agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M College Extension Service is again urging that all of the housewives save all waste fats from the kitchen and as soon as they get one pound or more that it be taken to the local butcher and sold. The price is approximately 5c per pound for this fat the county agent stated. However, he adds that the final price on the fat has not been set.

"The War Department needs this waste fat very badly," the county agent stated, "and it is up to the housewives to save all of this waste and turn it in to your butcher who will see that it gets to the proper authorities. Fats are used for the making of ammunition, chemicals and many articles vital to the defense program. This is a good program for all women clubs in the county to take part in and urge their members to follow this program."

"We are again urging that all of the husbands bring all of the scrap iron around the place to town and sell it at once," Breedlove said. "This material is needed very badly and all of the old iron that you bring to town plays a vital part in the winning of the war. The husband should see that the wife saves all of the salvage fat from the kitchen and the wife should make the husband gather all old scrap iron around the place and sell it to your local junk dealer who in turn will ship to the factories. These programs are very necessary that we give them our immediate attention as there is only enough old iron on hand to run our factories five days if the entire supply were shut off, so we must keep it coming in to the dealers so that they in turn can ship it to the factories for the making of war materials."

J. R. PORTER RECEIVES TOO MUCH PLASTER

While peacefully sleeping early Sunday morning, Judge J. R. Porter was on the receiving end of about 200 pounds of Plaster which fell loose from the ceiling. He received several painful cuts and bruises about his face in the fracas but received no serious injury.

GOOD RAIN FALLS IN SPOTS

The rain falling Monday varied in amount over the County with some sections receiving as much as three inches while some spots received only a sprinkle. Where the rain fell in ample amount, it was most welcome, for rain was needed most every where.

Texas Farmers And Ranchers Are Nearing Food For Victory Goals

The Texas outlook for reaching its food for victory goals are very bright at this time according to county agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M College Extension Service in Donley county. This is exceptionally bright even in the face of the labor shortage that is facing us at this time. Milk production will exceed the 10 per cent asked for the state, the 12 per cent asked by the War Department for the increase in eggs will be exceeded. It is also stated that 50 percent of the eggs produced in the state of Texas are good for drying and this figure is ahead of other states.

Recently vegetable growers have moved 70,000 carloads to eastern markets. This will give the boys in the armed forces a great deal of vegetables for a while.

The pig crop in Texas is 18 percent greater than the 1939 bumper crop and 52 percent greater than in 1941. These pigs will go to the packers and from there on to the different branches of the armed forces and to our allies. Texas is very much over the pig quota but

ELECTRANS VISIT KIN HERE

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Slaton of Electra, Texas were here the fore part of the week. Mr. Slaton is a brother of Mrs. W. J. Greene. They had visited relatives and friends at San Angelo while on Mr. Slaton's annual vacation trip. He is postmaster at Electra, and has been since 1934.

Army Deserter Nabbed Here

Sheriff Guy Wright arrested Willis Edgar Jourangan, alias Earl Jones, here early Tuesday morning after investigating a truck car sideswiping at the west edge of town.

Jourangan was fined $50 and court costs for drunk driving with suspension of drivers license for six months, and is being held on $1,500 bond on a charge of failure to stop and render aid which will be held over until the fall grand jury meets.

After further investigation, Sheriff Wright found that the man had stolen the truck he was driving at Dumas Monday. Jourangan also testified that he was a deserter from the army camp at Temple. He gave his home as Gainsville.

In all probability, he will have the privilege of answering to Uncle Sam before the local courts get a chance at him.

W. T. Link, local lawyer and candidate for Chief Justice Seventh Court of Civil Appeals who has conducted a forceful campaign, and who bids fair to be one of the top men when the ballots are counted. Mr. Link is a profound thinker, a conscientious believer in equal justice, and is said to be one of the best versed lawyers on civil law in the Panhandle.

Free News Service And Classification Offered Farmers

According to county agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M College Extension Service, the Agriculture Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture offers free classification and news service to farmers organized in groups according to the kind of cotton that they grow. All cotton will be classified free of charge for farmers requesting that this service be given them.

County agent H. M. Breedlove stated that he was mailing out cards to all cotton farmers in Donley asking the varieties of cotton grown and the acres that they expected to have this year. These cards should be filled out at once the county agent said, so that they can be sent in to the state office.

All farmers growing certain varieties will be grouped and the different groups sent in to the state office asking that their cotton be classified free of charge. This service will not be available unless it is requested by the farmer.

"These cards being mailed to farmers at this time must be in my office in five days or they will not be considered," the county agent said. "I am organizing the county on a county-wide basis and will group the different varieties and this will speed up the formation of the groups. We are handling this by mail to save you time and rubber for your car. But be sure to mail in this card that will be enclosed with a letter of explanation of the entire set up. Fill this card out and have it in my office in five days for this service."

Navy Recruiter Makes Talk To Lions Club

C. M. Norman C.T.M., Recruiter in charge for the Navy at Amarillo was the speaker on the Lions club program Tuesday.

He made an appeal to the club and all other civic organizations of Clarendon to help in the recruiting drive which will start the first of August to fill the quota set up for Navy volunteers.

"If the quota is not filled during the month of August and September," Mr. Norman stated, "the Navy will be forced to ask the Selective Service for their men. In the history of the United States Navy up to the present time, there has never been a man drafted into naval service."

1,509 men have enlisted from the 25 Panhandle counties in this district since December 7, and in the near future Mr. Norman plans to total up the number of men in the navy from Donley county.

BROTHER OF L. B. PENICK KILLED IN ACTION

Word was received here today that Lt. L. G. Penick, brother of L. B. Penick, was killed in action in Australia July 16th. He had been in the service for quite some time and fought in the battle for Java.

He leaves his wife and a baby boy who was born July 14th, two days before he was killed. Their home is at Berger where Mr. Penick was employed by an oil company before entering the Air Corps.

JOE A. HOLLAND IS NEW DRAFT BOARD MEMBER

Joe A. Holland, veteran of World War I, took the oath of office as a member of the local draft board Monday morning. His appointment came from State headquarters Saturday.

SISTER MRS. LENA DILLI DIES ENROUTE HERE

Word was received Wednesday morning from Mrs. Lena Dilli at Amarillo, that her sister, Mrs. J. G. Miller of La Grange, Ill. died of a heart attack at Tulsa, Okla., last Wednesday July 15th while enroute here for a visit with the Dilli family. She was accompanied by her husband and Mr. Joe Stepech, who returned to La Grange with her body for burial, July 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller have visited here several times in the past few years.

VISITS GRANDPARENTS

Little Miss Iva Jean McAnear is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Smallwood at Brice this week.

Housing Information Needed By Chamber of Commerce

A list of all vacant houses and apartments, and those houses and apartments that will be vacant in the near future, is needed by the Chamber of Commerce. An effort has been made in the past to keep this information for the purpose of aiding newcomers to our town in finding desirable places to live, but the information is needed now to aid in securing defense projects and other similar activities.

Every hotel, rooming house, apartment house, or tenant house is urgently requested to file a list of such facilities with J. R. Gillham, chamber of commerce secretary. These facilities will have a decided part to play in the securing of any defense project or industry.

Radio Rally For Worley Tonight

Tonight at 9 p. m., a rally for Congressman Eugene Worley will be broadcast over KGNC. Several prominent speakers are scheduled to appear on the program and pay tribute to Mr. Worley who is now a Lieutenant in the Navy, and has been aboard an airplane carrier somewhere in the Southwest Pacific.

Among those scheduled to speak is D. E. Leathers of Lelia Lake, husband and father of the "Typical American Family." Mr. Leathers is an ardent supporter of Gene Worley, and has been selected as one of the outstanding speakers of the evening.

Friends and supporters of Cong. Worley will not want to miss hearing this important rally. Mr. Worley's friends are anxious that the program reach as many people as possible.

Remember the time—tonight at 9 p. m. over KGNC at Amarillo.

MORE MEN INDUCTED FROM DONLEY CO.

The following Donley County men were accepted at the induction center at Lubbock for military service Tuesday, July 21st.

Edward Orvel Dishman, Alan Reed Casey, Wayne Leon Naylor, William James Adams, Paul Vocco Stewart, Cecil George Heckman, Frank Ruyle Hermesmyer, Carroll Raymond Molder, Arthur Shannon Evans, Dudley Harold Wilson, Joe Karol Thompson.

In the future, the only names of selectees to be published will be those who have been accepted at the induction center. This ruling was made in order to save embarrassment for those rejected.

VISIT IN PETE LAND HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McDaniel of Seagraves, Texas and Mrs. Dale McLaugh of San Francisco, Calif. are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Land. The McDaniels have just returned from several weeks stay at Las Vegas, Calif. visiting their son Harold, who has employment at North American Aviation. Mmes. McLaugh and McDaniel are sisters of Mrs. Land.

MAYO JOINS NAVY IN ARIZONA

Chester Mayo, late of Panama where he spent some two years, and who has been contracting in and around Phoenix, Arizona, has cast his lot with his Uncle Sam and will join the naval forces soon at some training center. He is subject to call and will likely return here before beginning his service.

Records For Our Fighting Men

The following is an appeal by one of the local Legion members: "The Record for our fighting men, drive is not going over as it should. This drive is endorsed by every one from the President down, and is one of the best drives we have ever had. We are supposed to collect some 35,000,000 of these old phonograph records and sell as scrap and in return we will receive a large number of players and about 3,500,000 new records, all of these to go to the army camps for the enjoyment of our men in the service.

"If you find that you cannot bring these records to the Antro Hotel where we are gathering them, please give us a ring and tell us who you are and we will send after them. Call any member of the American Legion or Call 68. We will pick them up. "WE MUST NOT FAIL ON THIS—WE WILL NOT FAIL."

CLARENDON YOUTH IS HONOR STUDENT

Honor students in the University of Texas School of Law for the spring semester have been designated by Dean C. T. McCormick. Jimmy Gene Thompson of Clarendon, was listed among the list of 36 that received this honor.

Jimmy Gene is a son of Mrs. Margaret V. Thompson.

BERT SMITH, JR. TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Bert Smith Jr. was taken to an Amarillo hospital Wednesday for special medical attention. Some weeks ago he was seriously burned when his clothing caught on fire from an oil heater in a bath house at his home. He and some boy friends had been painting the swimming pool and had gone to the bath house to wash their hands in gasoline. Stepping too near the heater young Smith's clothes suddenly ignited. His mother extinguished the flames but not before severe burns had been sustained.

FALL RESULTS IN BROKEN BONE

While performing her usual household duties in her home Sunday, Mrs. W. D. Martin tripped and fell on her left shoulder. The shoulder socket was broken, her physician stated. She is able to be up, and the injured member is in a cast and splint.

TO SPEAK OVER RADIO

Dr. L. A. Woods, State School Superintendent, will speak over the Texas Quality Network Friday July 24th at 6:45. The Texas Educational Program will be the subject of his talk.

Revival Meeting To Begin Friday Evening, July 24

Thomas L. Campbell of Fort Worth will begin a revival meeting at the local Church of Christ, Friday evening, July 24th.

Mr. Campbell is a graduate of Abilene Christian College, having finished there in 1937. He has had a number of years experience preaching the gospel.

"A warm welcome is extended to the public to attend every service of this meeting," stated M. F. Manchester, local minister.

Evening services will begin at 9:15, and the morning services will start at 10:30.

Texas Law Makers Meet In Pacific War Zone Wearing Uniforms

Most every one is familiar with the fact that our own Congressman Gene Worley entered the service soon after war was declared. Congressman Lyndon Johnson of the Austin district did the same thing. Both men donned the naval uniforms and became navy lieutenants.

Both men saw active service in the Pacific. Lt. Worley saw service on a sub and later on a plane carrier.

Cong. Johnson, back home just a few days ago after the President called all the lawmakers back to Washington, related an interesting experience just to show how small the Globe has gotten to be. Months after he and Worley joined the naval forces and had

The war situation has placed politics in the secondary this year with very little enthusiasm over his or her favorite candidate, although there is more concern over state politics than county. The political hot spot seems to center around the United States Senatorial race between Dan Moody, James V. Allred and W. Lee O'Daniel.

The ballot, shortest in the recent history of the county, has nineteen candidates for county offices. The candidates for District, State and U. S. offices number 61.

While no accurate estimate of the total votes to be polled is possible, the 1691 tax receipts (issued for the 17 voting boxes) and the exemptions are expected to run the figure to at least 1750.

Heading the list of candidates of interest to Donley County voters is Eugene Worley who is opposed by Lynn Miller of Pampa. Gene is expected to go back to Washington with near 100 percent of the votes cast in this Congressional District.

W. T. Link of Clarendon, candidate for Chief Justice of Civil Appeal Court of Seventh Supreme Judicial District, is pretty well assured a place on the run-off ticket, with E. L. Pitts, J. Ross Bell and E. C. Nelson forming the opposition.

Ennis Favors, State Representative is unopposed along with John Deaver candidate for District Attorney.

In the county race, only five offices have competition. In the Judges race R. Y. King, incumbent is opposed by Walker Lane and H. C. Brumley.

Mrs. Margaret V. Thompson, present County Treasurer is opposed by David Johnson.

Commissioners races are No. 1: J. H. Hermesmyer and Slaton Mahaffey; No. 2: G. G. Reeves and Forrest Sawyer; No. 4: Marvin Hall and Ben Chamberlain.

For Constable Precinct No. 2, finds Lee Muse opposed by Tom Roberts, a write-in candidate for that office.

All other county officers are unopposed.

In most boxes, the polls will open at 8 o'clock and close at 7 p. m. Returns from over the county are expected to start drifting in shortly after 8 o'clock.

County Democratic Chairman Ed Dishman today urged all Donley County voters to go to the polls early Saturday.

In this way returns may be posted earlier, Dishman said, and allow election judges and clerks to participate in the election party Saturday night.

Dishman also reminded the voters that the ballot is lengthy and will require time for the tally to be made by clerks.

CALLED BACK

John Jay who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jay was called back to Ellington Field at Houston, Monday to begin his training as an Army Air Cadet.

last seen each other, Johnson landed at a small island in the Southwest Pacific Ocean.

As he reached the shore, he saw three naval officers standing idly by watching for the landing party. One of those three officers was Worley.

"Neither one of us had heard from home in a long time, but we sat up almost all night just talking," Johnson said.

Congressman Worley is expected back most any day now, and will be in Donley county as well as other parts of his congressional district, thanking the folks for all past favors just as he has always done when serving his people in any capacity.

ALL-AMERICAN GOVERNOR

It has been a long time since Texas has had an opportunity to do itself so much good as by the re-election of Governor Coke Stevenson. His sincerity and profound good sense are especially valuable to the State at this time when there is need for disciplining ourselves for the one big job—winning the war.

The value of such a man in the Governor's office is exemplified by the important fact that since he has been at the helm of state government good feeling, mutual confidence and trust have pervaded the state capital, and this salutary condition has radiated throughout the State. This is the sort of administration which Texas needs, which every State needs, in order that it may do its full part in the Nation's battle. Distractions arising from animosities, rivalries and perverse ambitions within the Government are not conducive to public confidence, nor to putting maximum strength behind the war effort. Governor Stevenson has enabled Texas to be one of the States in which petty "politics" does not handicap war participation.

Governor Stevenson enjoys the inestimable advantage both of a talent for "getting along with people" and long experience in exercising that talent. He himself is a farmer and stockman, as well as a "small town" lawyer. It is doubtful whether a more fortunate combination of predilections and skills could be assembled for the job of heading this State in wartime. In him we have a Governor who regards his job as important enough to be a career in itself, not merely as a stepping stone to some other post or greater political power. Without indulging in personalities, it can safely be said that Texas would be in much better shape today if all its Governors in the past had had Coke Stevenson's viewpoint.

If we are to achieve the balance required for winning this war, state governments and state affairs must of necessity take a position subordinate to national concerns "for the duration." Firebrands, even if only of the oratorical type, are not needed in state administrative posts, and if by popular error any such are placed in such posts, the business of winning the war will be hindered and not helped. Governor Stevenson has stood firmly for Texas' interests in all his official dealings with the Federal Government, and, because his sincerity and good will is recognized at Washington as well as at home, Texas has come out far better than most States in these dealings. On the other hand, Texas' Governor has not failed in his American duty to further by every means his State's contribution to the All-American cause of victory over the Nation's enemies.

Governor Stevenson has been one of the most Texan of all Texas Governors. Born a Texan, he has lived in Texas all his life; he looks Texan, talks Texan, thinks Texan. He has served his fellow Texans ably and well. He has earned re-nomination and re-election.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

AUGUST FIRST IS DEADLINE FOR TRANSFERS

According to Miss Ruth Richerson, Superintendent of Donley County schools, August 1st is the last day to make transfers from rural schools to town. Parents, whose children intend to attend school in town, should make the proper transfer before the deadline, August 1st.

Failure to send in transfers to State headquarters will deprive the town school of the quota allotted for each pupil being transferred. A pupil who has not been transferred in the proper manner will have to pay tuition at the town school.

Miss Richerson also stresses the fact that pupils must be transferred individually and not as a group. She asks that all transfers be made immediately, as it is very important to the town school as well as to the parents in a financial way.

Even though an entire school has been transferred to town, each child is required to be transferred singularly or pay the tuition price. If not properly transferred, the money will remain in the community where the child is registered.

Panhandle Man Asks Re-election

ERNEST O. THOMPSON

AMARILLO, July 23—"Voters Saturday, July 25, should remember that our Texas Railroad Commission regulates both the oil and the transportation industries; and that these industries, so vital to the winning of the war, are exceedingly important in Texas today." Thus does Ernest O. Thompson, Railroad Commissioner of Texas for a number of years, and candidate for re-election to the same office, characterize the importance of this work.

Railroad Commissioner Thompson bases his candidacy strictly on his national and state record. He submits that no man in Texas has had wider experience or possesses greater knowledge in the handling of oil and transportation matters. He calls attention, also, to the fact that he is familiar particularly with Panhandle oil and transportation problems due to his long years of residence in Northwest Texas.

From where I sit ...

by Joe Marsh

You ought to meet my friend, Will Dudley. I suppose Will must be seventy-eight or nine... but you'd never know it. He's tall and lean and hard as a hickory. And although the only formal education he ever had was a few winters in the old red schoolhouse, I think that he's the wisest man I know in many ways.

For one thing, Will taught me the value of what he calls "Just a-settin'!"

Come upon Will in the evening, when his hard day's work is done, and you'll find him "just a-settin'," in a rocker on his porch. In one hand he'll have his old briar pipe and in the other, a tall cool glass of beer.

"Wholesome, appetizin' beer," says Will, "is standard equipment for proper settin'! Puts a feller in an easy-goin' peaceful mood."

You see, Will holds the theory that in our present mixed-up world, a man needs a quiet hour every day. An hour in which to sit down quietly and restore his strength and courage.

Will thinks, and I agree with him, that a man ought to forget all his own and the world's worries during that hour-of-peace. And Will feels that a glass of fragrant melow beer helps most to bring you quiet relaxation.

Show me the man who sits down quietly of an evening with his glass of beer and I'll show you a man who is wise in the ways of living. Such men, like Will Dudley, live to a ripe old age, unembittered by the troubles of the world. They seem to remain, all their lives, sweet-natured and kindly.

Time has a way of rendering accurate judgments on the value of the things men use and enjoy in the world. And Time... thousands of years of it... has handed down the verdict that beer is a pleasant and worthy companion for all men of good will.

EUGENE WORLEY Goes Back to Congress

AT THE REQUEST OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Congressman Eugene Worley sent word last week from a far-away port in Australia that he would return to Washington in compliance with a directive issued by the President, calling all members of the House and Senate who are on war duty, back to Congress.

It will require a few weeks for Gene to reach American shores but as soon as he does he will head straight for his district to talk over the war situation with you before resuming his duties in Washington.

Gene has been aboard a U. S. Aircraft Carrier at Pearl Harbor and off the Coast of Australia for the past six months. He volunteered his services to his country when he voted for war—just like he told you he would. He did what his predecessor, Marvin Jones, did in World War I, and what Senator Tom Connally did in 1917.

When he enlisted in the Navy in January, Gene said he would return to Congress when the President called him, and he is keeping that promise, too. He will return with a vast amount of first-hand knowledge of this war that will be helpful in shaping our future course.

Gene will not be back in time to ask you for your vote, but his friends ask you for him.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

OBSERVATION.
What do some of our big-shot authorities know about crowded living conditions if they have never seen our growing girls in last year's slacks?

BOTANICAL.
Remember that when we propose a new idea just because we don't understand it, we cut off a bud of possibility from our tree of fruitful experience in life's garden.

POOR MAN.
When he's born, mother gets the compliments and flowers. When he marries, the bride gets the presents at a shower. Who ever heard of a man getting a shower? When he dies, his widow gets his insurance. Verily, man's days are short and full of trouble after he adds the vices.

NEIGHBORLY.
West Texans are noted for their generosity and ability to oblige. A certain man met up with an old acquaintance whom he had met back east some years ago. Their first thought was to eat. Going into a restaurant, two sandwiches were ordered. The waiter noticed that the more elderly man was not eating, while the visitor was taking great hunks out of his sandwich. The obliging West Texan waiter inquired of the elderly man, "what's the matter? Don't you like our sandwiches?" The old man looked up with a pert grin and said, "yep, but I can't eat just now, my friend is using my teeth!"

The boss says to cut it short this week right when the Old Apostle was loaded with a lot to say. A lot that would never be read, very likely. See the date in this issue of your Donley County Leader and be sure to hear our neighbor, D. E. Leathers speak over the Amarillo radio. He's a good speaker, and when he talks, he always has something to say.

War Research

In war the advantage is on the side with the best weapons. The work of scientists in America's research laboratories, developing new materials and new equipment, means a lot to our fighting men.

1. It takes years to build up and equip a large, organized, and able staff for research. Fortunately, industry did this long ago.

2. Long before Pearl Harbor, laboratories like General Electric's were serving their country—solving technical problems of war.

3. History repeats! In the last war "wireless" was developed for military needs—to become, with peace, a giant broadcasting industry.

4. So it will be this time. Research will help to win the war, and its many wartime discoveries will help to build a better future.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

Swimming With Clothes On
When one goes swimming he strips for swimming. Let's look ahead a little. The time is not far away when all of us must struggle against the tide of increased living costs. It's time now to strip for swimming.
We are talking about debts. They will be like wet clothes then. The man who is not taking advantage of increased income now to clear up his debts is going in swimming with his clothes on.
Why? Because his spendable money is competing for goods that are scarce. He helps boost the price for all. If he strips himself of debts now and buys War Bonds for a swim suit he is getting ready to swim when the time comes.
Sure, we want to make loans! Let us show you how and why we are consistent.

WOMAN

She's an angel in truth, a demon in fiction—

A woman's the greatest of all contradiction;

She's afraid of a cockroach, she'll scream at a mouse,

But she'll tackle a husband as big as a house.

She'll take him for better, she'll take him for worse;

She'll split his head open and then be his nurse;

And when he is well and can get out of bed,

She'll pick up a teapot and throw at his head.

She's faithful, deceitful, keen-sighted and blind;

She's crafty, she's simple, she's cruel, she's kind.

She'll lift a man up, she'll cast a man down.

She'll make him her hero, her ruler, her clown.

You fancy she's this but you find that she's that.

For she'll play like a kitten and fight like a cat.

In the morning she will—in the evening she won't.

And you're always expecting she will but she won't.

Closes Campaign For Land Office Friday Night

Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Friday night brings to a close his short campaign for re-election stressing training and experience as necessary qualifications for careful and capable administration of the 25,000,000-acre land endowment of the Permanent School Fund.

In the three and a half years he has served, Commissioner Giles has inaugurated many business-like methods of administration which have increased the Public School Fund by more than $15,000,000.

"Due to the restrictive travel and our concerted efforts to win the war," Commissioner Giles said, "I have gotten around the State very little and have left my candidacy in the hands of my friends."

Commissioner Giles commended the editors and publishers of Texas for their news stories which have enabled candidates to convey their messages through the newspapers thereby conserving gasoline and tires for war efforts.

O. J. Ratcliff, who is employed in the Pantex plant in Amarillo, visited homefolks here over the week end.

Veterans Hospital And Homestead Colony Planned

A hospital for the returned Veterans from this war and Veterans of all wars is now being planned for Uvalde, Texas where the wounded or disabled veteran can take his family with him and keep them in Convalescent Cottages until he is entirely well. Convalescent cottages will be erected for the families 4 cottages to the acre, where the Veterans family can live, and with the assistance of a garden, eggs, chickens, table expenses can be kept at a low cost and at the same time keep the Veterans family in a healthy environment for him to return while recuperating. On this same 5000 acre plot now under option will be built 300 five room houses on 10 irrigated acres, where with 200 chickens, 2 jersey cows, and 5 acres of irrigated produce, the disabled veteran and his family can become self supporting thru their own efforts in this way restoring the Veterans self reliance as a husband and father and greatly improve his health by freeing him from economic worry. Many disabled veterans now live in sub-standard communities in large cities with families suffering from malnutrition and unhealthful surroundings and these are a part of the surplus populations of large cities. Over one-third of the farmers of America have left the farms since World War No. 1, and many now are on relief rolls.

Veterans who are interested in this movement are asked to write Veterans Hospital & Homestead Assn. 415 Southwestern Life Building, Dallas, Texas.

Lloyd Hunt who has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Land in Tucumcari, N. M. is at home now.

HOW the sources of Texas' income have shifted during the past decade is illustrated by the above chart, made public by James C. Tucker, partner of Barcus, Kindred & Company, of Austin, specialists in Texas municipal bonds.

Texas' income in 1941 exceeded the 1931 revenue by $93,892,132, while the state's 1941 expenditures were $94,908,569 above the 1931 total.

Analysis of the sources of state revenue and the purposes for which funds were spent, reveals that: Fifteen per cent of the 1941 income was derived from sources nonexistent a decade before—mainly liquor, wine and beer tax and employers' contributions for unemployment compensation.

Public welfare expenditures, consisting of $3,600,829 for pensions in 1931, were $34,406,200 in 1941.

State expenditures for education and for highways totaled $107,008,655 in 1941, compared with $82,431,758 ten years before. These outlays, which included state aid for school districts and local road districts, helped lower the tax burden in the communities receiving them and thus strengthened their bonds.

Income from motor fuel taxes increased 80 per cent.

Million Texans' Living Depends On Oil Industry

DALLAS, July 21—Nearly one million Texans get their entire living from the Texas petroleum industry.

This is shown by a study of Texas petroleum employment and payrolls just completed by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, research and service organization of Texas operators.

Employees of the Texas petroleum industry numbered 240,223 last year, the association found. Multiplying this by four, the average to a family, gives a Texas petroleum army of 960,892 men, women and children directly supported by oil and gas operations. This is almost one-sixth of the state's population.

The wage-earners of this group in 1941 earned $329,538,455, or nearly one-third of a billion dollars, the survey shows. Most of this was in turn spent with Texas merchants, business and professional men, landlords, etc., for food, clothing, shelter, professional services and many other things.

The Texas petroleum industry's payroll was only one of its expenditures which amounted to around $750,000,000 a year by latest reports. Other expenditures included lease and royalty payments to Texas farmers and ranchers, expansion of facilities including new wartime plants, and state, local and Federal taxes.

Last year Texas petroleum workers paid $39,732,884 in direct state and local taxes. With this added to the $88,706,747 paid by the industry itself, the Texas petroleum industry and its employees paid a total of $128,439,631 for State and local governmental purposes. This represents 55 per cent of the $234,057,889 collected for such purposes, exclusive of sales, poll and inheritance levies.

The locals are well fortified with a Border Conference schedule which starts at Lubbock September 26 with a game against Texas Technological College. This will be a resumption of football

Retail Prices of Food Continue To Advance

AUSTIN, July 18—Labor Commissioner John D. Reed reports that "retail prices of food continued its spiral upward," according to the June survey by the Bureau of Labor Statistics in Texas, reaching a new high of 123.6 compared with the April 1941 norm of 100 for the 85 items checked in 19 cities. Rationed sugar and sweets at 104.9 is the only classification showing no increase, but making a sensational drop of 4 percent below the March 1942 level, and 1.6 percent lower than May.

Items covered by the OPA price ceilings show a gain over March of 3-1 percent, while items not so covered jumped 4.8 percent. Groups in which some items were covered and some not, averaged 4 percent above March. For example, cereals are up 1.7 over March; flour is not covered by OPA restrictions, but the other items of this group—macaroni, wheat cereal, corn flakes, corn meal, hominy grits, rice and rolled oats—are restricted. This group was up 2.2 percent over May, going to 103.7.

Dairy products showed the least advance, .5% over May and only .6% over March. In this group butter, cheese and evaporated milk are unrestricted by OPA while cream, raw milk and pasteurized milk are under the ceiling prices when sold at retail. The group rating is 116.1.

The dried fruits and vegetables are up 1.3 over May and 5 percent over March. In this group prunes, black-eyed peas, lima beans and navy beans are not under OPA ceiling, while peaches and raisins are limited.

Oklahoma Marine Is Awarded Navy Cross

Though the dusty plains of Oklahoma don't as a rule produce first-rate swimmers, an incident that occurred in the bullet-ripped waters of Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941 proved that one 23-year old Oklahoma Leatherneck was the exception.

Corporal Willard D. Darling, United States Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Eula Darling of 418 North Fifth Street, Wilson, Oklahoma saved the life of the same officer twice and has been awarded the coveted Navy Cross for his "heroic action, extraordinary courage, and disregard of his own safety while under heavy enemy fire."

Corporal Darling was a member of the Marine detachment aboard the USS Oklahoma, which was bombed and capsized during the first minutes of the Japs' sneak raid. When the crew was evacuated, he crowded into a motor launch. As the tiny boat sped through the oily waters of Pearl Harbor, Darling spotted a drowning officer.

Leaving the comparative safety of the boat, the Marine Corporal dived over the side, swam to the officer, and kept him afloat until another launch answered his call and picked them up. The second boat arrived at a spot in the harbor near a dredge pipe line and the crew abandoned it. Jap planes were bombing and strafing the area as Darling jumped into the water and told the officer to follow him. But once in the water the officer was too exhausted to swim. So Corporal Darling, heedless of the rain of Jap bullets, again went back to the officer's aid and towed him to shore.

Lieutenant General Thomas Holcomb, Commandant of the U. S. Marine Corps, in bestowing the Navy Cross upon Darling, said: "I wish to express my deep appreciation of your devotion to duty which led you to face danger without hesitation. Your conduct merits and receives the highest praise."

The Wilson, Oklahoma hero enlisted in the Marine Corps in May, 1940, in Oklahoma City. After recruit training in San Diego, California, he was assigned to the USS Oklahoma and served on that ship until she met her end.

Cal Holland, merchant prince at Brice, was a visitor in the Leader plant Saturday afternoon.

San Antonio Girl Is State Winner In Poster Contest

Here is Miss Leora Belsung of San Antonio who has just been named state champion for Texas in a national poster contest in which 12,820 high school students from 41 states competed. The theme of this event was Meat and Victory, according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board, contest sponsor. Miss Belsung won this high honor on the basis of originality, grasp of the subject and method of presentation, in the opinion of the judges.

GORDON SMITH

FOR STATE TREASURER

His Election Insures Honesty of Purpose, Devotion to Duty. Consecration to Service. Justice to All.

Gordon Smith is making race on qualifications for the office of State Treasurer—qualified by nature, training, education and experience for the position sought. Your State Treasurer should be thoroughly familiar with the banking business in all its details. Gordon's long years of service in the American National Bank, Austin, in all its departments, has given him this knowledge. The funds of Texas will be safe in his hands. The interests of the people will be carefully guarded at all times.

Honesty of purpose, devotion to duty, consecration to service, justice to everyone, will control his every effort in the discharge of his duties as State Treasurer. The administration of the affairs of this important State Department will be intelligently directed in a business manner by Gordon Smith.

Gordon Smith has made as an aggressive campaign, under the retarding and other government restrictions and inhibitions, as war times have permitted.

Gordon has visited practically every section of the State, meeting personally as many voters as possible during the four months of the campaign.

Positively, he has employed no fan-fare and bally-hoo methods of campaigning, believing there are more intelligent approaches to the hearts of the people of Texas.

Federal Employees May Transfer To Agencies Active In War Effort

Because of the critical shortage in some kinds of workers in War agencies, the importance of transferring Federal employees not actively engaged in war work to agencies active in the War effort was stressed today by Elmer G. Hayes, secretary, local board of U. S. Civil Service examiners.

In order to give those Federal agencies actively engaged in war work priority in securing employees over other agencies not so engaged, President Roosevelt issued an executive order authorizing the establishment of a priority system on employees among the various Federal agencies. Transfers of this priority classification are now being made from government agencies with low priority ratings to war agencies with higher priority ratings. Such transfers are made without the consent of the agency with the lower priority rating. However, Federal agencies should not accept applications from employees of other government agencies, but should make requests for the transfer of such persons through the Civil Service Commission.

Federal employees in agencies not now actively engaged in war work who desire transfer to War agencies should not seek releases from their present agencies, but should apply for transfer to the Transfer Unit, 10th District Office, U. S. Civil Service Commission, Customhouse, New Orleans, La. No transfer will be made without the consent of the employee.

An employee transferred to another agency with a higher priority rating through the Civil Service Commission is entitled to reemployment benefits as follows, providing he is still qualified to perform the job, and makes application within 40 days after termination of his services or 40 days after the present emergency ceases to exist.

1. He shall be reinstated within 30 days of his application in the same agency or department, and in approximately the same location, in his former position or in a position of like seniority, status, and pay, providing that such a position then exists.
2. If such a position does not exist, and such a person is therefore not reinstated within thirty days of his application, his name will be entered on the reemployment list and be considered for certification to positions for which he is qualified elsewhere in government service.
3. No employee reinstated under this order shall be discharged without cause within one year after his reinstatement.

3. No employee reinstated under this order shall be discharged without cause within one year after his reinstatement.

Persons with a classified Civil Service status will retain their Classified status when transferred to an agency with a higher priority rating.

All positions in the Executive department of the Federal government are subject to War Service Transfer regulations with the following exceptions:

1. Transfer to positions requiring confirmation by the Senate.
2. Transfers to and within the field service of the Post Office department.
3. Transfers to positions under the jurisdiction of the Board of Legal examiners.

Persons appointed to the Federal service temporarily or for the duration of the emergency under emergency regulations issued as the result of an executive order of the President are eligible for transfer, but they do not acquire a classified Civil Service status from the transfer.

Beauford Jester Appeals to Voters

Pledging efficient operations of the Texas Railroad Commission in gearing Texas oil and transportation systems to the war effort, Beauford H. Jester of Corsicana is entering the final phase of his first primary campaign for the unexpired term on the commission.

"We are rolling along at a fine pace," Jester says in surveying the work which has been done in his less-than-a-month of political life.

It is the first campaign for public office for the Corsicana lawyer who was an infantry captain in the first world war and who has announced he seeks the railroad commission post to render a war time service to his State and nation.

"In these days when petroleum means so much to our fighting machine and when transportation is the real key to keeping our men at the front supplied with their necessary materials, the railroad commission's job is one of the greatest war services available," Jester declares.

Denied readmission to the armed forces with which he served overseas in 1917-18, due to physical disqualifications, Jester has pledged that Texas oil and transportation shall not prove bottlenecks for men in the armed forces.

In addition to his war program for the commission, Jester has said that he favors the return of oil production control to the railroad commission after the war. For the duration, the State's oil and transportation must be tied with the production and transportation of the other 47 members of the Union, he says, but afterward, State's rights must be revived.

An inmate of the asylum approached the painter hard at work on the ceiling. "Hey, mister, have you got a good hold on that brush?"

"I think so—why?"

"Well, hang on tight—I'm gonna move this ladder."

Two babies were in adjacent beds in the hospital. Said one to the other, "I'm a girl—what are you?"

"I'm a boy."

"But you look like a girl," she countered.

"I'm a boy—I'll show you when the nurse leaves."

Finally they were alone. He shyly lifted the covers. "See," he said—"Blue booties."

For GOVERNOR ON HIS RECORD OF SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE

As freighter, day laborer, clerk and ranch hand, Coke Stevenson learned the lessons of business and life from the people. His training and experience have given him a knowledge of the problems of the people in the every-day walks of life. His record as a public official is one of constant progress and achievement in their behalf.

Coke Stevenson has served as county attorney, county judge, as member of the House of Representatives, of which he twice was Speaker, as Lieutenant Governor and as Governor. This understanding of government and its problems qualifies him to continue to render effective service as the chief executive of this State during the trying times of the next two years when many new and additional problems must be met and solved as a result of the war.

A VOTE FOR COKE STEVENSON IS A VOTE FOR THE CONTINUATION OF A SOUND, SANE AND SENSIBLE GOVERNMENT.

RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICE

KNITTING

Knitted garments were turned in this week by Mrs. C. E. Bairfield (wp), Betty Jo Rhodes (sq), Miss Law (muffler), Mrs. Joe Kendall (muffler), Mrs. C. W. Bennett (sq and donated own yarn), Mrs. W. T. Clifford (wp), Mrs. Wesley Knorpp (wp), Grace Law (sq), and Ila Pool (muffler). Helmets were issued to Mrs. W. T. Clifford, Mrs. Henry Williams, Mrs. Ernest Kent (2), Mrs. Frank McClure, Mrs. Ed Dishman, Mrs. W. W. Noblet (2), Mrs. U. Z. Patterson, and four to Ashtola.

In response to our call for knitters last week, we had many new comers in the production room. Again we are urging anyone that cares to learn to knit to come to the room any afternoon and the instructors will be glad to help you.

We are still asking for more scrap yarn for the afagan squares or other knitted garments. Old sweaters that could be ripped up and used would be appreciated.

SEWING

Mrs. Wilson Gray from the Goldston community has turned in twelve bed jackets. The ladies who did the work have put in extra time on the garments by doing bits of handwork on them and thereby making them more attractive. This community also sent in a nice collection of buttons in answer to our call for them. Last week we sent 80 blouses to be made to the women in the Ashtola community and 40 blouses to edley. Working through the Hedley unit are several women from the Giles community.

We wish to congratulate the various women in the outlying communities who have given so much of their time to Red Cross work. These community women are our best workers and probably have much less spare time than the women in town. They are doing a wonderful job of knitting and sewing and quilting for this Chapter and they are to be highly commended. They have never refused to take work of any kind and are continually asking for more and they are very prompt in turning their work in.

Ladies who did cutting in the production room last week include Mrs. Jim Warren, Mrs. Fred Cook, Mrs. J. M. Acord, Mrs. Cal Merchant, Mrs. U. J. Boston, Mrs.

L. H. Skelton, Mrs. John Potts, Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. Johnnie Johnson, and Mrs. Victor Smith.

M. H. W. Richie of the J. A. Ranch, now in service, gave a very nice donation of suits and other wearing apparel to the Red Cross last week.

Production Room News

Although the Red Cross Room is undergoing a little painting this week, it will still be open every afternoon. Through the courtesy of Mrs. C. A. Burton, who is in charge of the City Library, the Library entrance will be used and work will be carried on in the kitchen.

Red Cross News Briefs

Acceptance by the Japanese government of R. Zindel, a Swiss citizen, as the International Red Cross committee delegate in Hong Kong, has been reported to the American Red Cross headquarters in Washington.

The new delegate's first task will be to observe the distribution of American Red Cross food and medical supplies to Allied war prisoners and interned civilians in Hong Kong.

Large quantities of Red Cross food packages and other relief supplies for American prisoners of war held by Japan were in the cargo of the S. S. Gripsholm which sailed from New York on June 18 with Japanese diplomats being returned to their homeland.

It is estimated that a large section, probably more than half of the entire section of the United States, have brothers, fathers, sweethearts, husbands, and sons—and every man in service is our friend—in America's armed forces. Each man is served, both at home and in task forces abroad, by the American Red Cross.

Frank Jones of Hedley was a Clarendon visitor Tuesday.

School Milk Program

COLLEGE STATION — Creation of necessary new outlets for expanded dairy production of Texas farmers is the primary purpose of the new school milk program the Agricultural Marketing Administration plans to operate throughout the fiscal year 1942-43, B. F. Vance, Chairman, Texas USA War Board, said today.

School authorities and parent-teacher associations or other civic minded groups eligible to sponsor a school milk program were urged to take advantage of this excellent opportunity to make more milk available to more children in their communities.

"New outlets created by the program will be a big boon, especially to farmers in areas where the facilities for dairy manufacturing are not sufficient to handle the increased production of milk," Vance said. "Making the overabundance of milk in such areas available to growing school children, will be a wise investment in the future of America. No nation is stronger than its citizens and undernourished children do not grow up to be strong citizens."

Farmers supplying milk for the program will receive the price paid producers F.O.B. plant in the program area for unprocessed milk to be sold for consumption as milk. Program sponsors will be responsible for processing and handling costs and for the limited facilities required to serve the milk. Milk may be served free, or sponsors may charge the children up to a penny a half pint to help pay processing and handling costs. All children in participating schools will be eligible for as much milk as they need each day.

Peaches Victory Food Special

COLLEGE STATION, July 22—Peaches will be featured as a Victory Food Special by retailers throughout the country during the period from July 16 to August 6, B. F. Vance, chairman of the Texas USDA War Board, has announced.

Quantities of peaches on the markets during this period will be heavy, according to Agricultural Marketing Administration reports, especially since this year's crop is about a fourth larger than average.

Designation of peaches as a Victory Food Special is intended to help move the heavy supplies which will be going to market, Vance said, thus calling the attention of consumers to what promises to be a good buy and at the same time helping the farmer by increasing sales.

Stevenson declared in his judgment that Texas is reaching a high degree of success in the campaign, and is well ahead of the nation's average response. One or two states, he believed, probably rank along with Texas, and one or another may possibly exceed Texas so far in the per capita collection. However, Texans are still hauling in old rubber, the governor said.

Pvt. Woody Richerson of Ft. Bliss is visiting friends and relatives here and at Hedley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butler spent Sunday and Monday with their relatives in Berger.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Whitlock and son L. T. Jr. visited Mrs. Faye Scoggins in Amarillo Sunday.

Texas Scrap Rubber Salvage Is Success

If the rest of the nation equals Texas in the scrap rubber salvage drive, a national collection exceeding half a million tons is in sight, Gov. Coke Stevenson reported.

Gov. Stevenson had a number of partial reports on collection of waste rubber from a number of Texas communities, and praised the response of Texas people to the appeal for this scrap rubber for war uses.

Federal regulations required the issuance of detailed reports on the success of the campaign only from Washington; but Gov.

Your Main Street . . . Is Our Main Street

On the Main street of every town and hamlet, every community large and small throughout the Gulf South, can be seen the men and women who have placed normal living in the background.

Their first job now, like that of citizens throughout the United Nations, is to help win the war. They have rolled up their sleeves and are doing their utmost to help utilize fully the rich, diversified resources of this area . . . are helping Gulf South industry produce more and faster until we've won through to Victory.

Just as helping win the war is your first job, it is also the No. 1 job of the more than 3,000 employes of our organization. In towns and cities throughout the Gulf South, they have always been a part of the community in which they live. Now, during this war crisis, they feel the responsibility to their community and to their country more keenly than ever before.

After the war is won—and we WILL win—your Main street and our Main street will have a greater significance than ever before. It will be symbolic of a free and greater America.

Walter J. Flynt, Secretary
Donley County ACA

You Producers have noticed that when a reporter comes to your place to measure your farm, he asks you for your correct address including the route and box number, if you are on a route, or your box number if you are in town. The Reporter should also ask you for your first name and middle initial. Since the checks will be mailed directly to the producers from the Disbursing Office at Dallas, Texas it is very necessary that Producers give their full name and complete address, to prevent any delay in the delivery of the check. It is impossible for us to obtain this information without your help, so we are asking your cooperation in the matter. No application will be submitted until all information is inserted correctly.

If all the soil building allowance is earned for a farm, it will be eligible to have an application for payment of the conservation check to be submitted at an early date, that is, sometime in September or October. If the soil-building allowance is not earned the papers will have to be held in the county office until the close of the program year which is November 30th.

Many wheat producers will be interested in the wheat crop Insurance Program due to the disastrous invasion of greenbugs, hail, heavy rains and extended drouths in the last several years. We are now in a position to offer a full coverage Insurance at a very cheap rate for this type of insurance, but only on a three year policy. A letter will be mailed to each wheat producer in the near future explaining the 1943 program more fully.

Hens Must Have Plenty of Water Agent Says

When laying hens do not drink enough water, egg production will drop very fast, even faster than when they fall off in eating, says county agent H. M. Breedlove of the Texas A&M College Extension Service in Donley county. The reason for hens not drinking enough water in the summer time is due to a great extent of hot water in the middle of the day. Watering places for the hens are in the open where the sun hits them at all times of the day and in the afternoon the water becomes hot and the hens will not drink it until late evening. This cuts down on the amount of water consumed by the hen and therefore she falls down on the egg production. Watering places for chickens should be in the shade and they will drink more water and do better, the county agent continues. Place the watering place under the chicken house or under a shade tree. A decline in water consumption also causes the eggs to be smaller.

Advanced summer also has another reaction on eggs the county agent stated, when green feed begins to dry up thin shells on eggs begin to appear. When this begins it is suggested that as a corrective you add at least three percent of dehydrated alfalfa leaf meal to the ration. In addition, a handful of fresh oyster shells should be sprinkled over the mash at least every other day until the shells of the eggs become normal.
