Fiddlers Bring Out Large Crowd Friday

The largest crowd ever was on hand for the Old Fiddlers Contest held in Mulkey Theatre Friday afternoon following the Old Settlers Reunion. Thanks to the generosity of Gary Barnhill, owner of the theatre, people were able to relax in comfortable seats in an air-conditioned building and listen to some of the finest fiddling music anywhere.

Tom Waters, chairman of the event for the past two years, and MC for the program, had a larger number of fiddlers on hand for the contest. Several who had indicated that they would be here found it impossible to be present and that is where Tom gave himself away. We didn't know, Tom, that you were a "Gitar" player. We still haven't found out if Tom composed the songs himself, but let me tell you, if you weren't there you missed a good show. The theatre was almost filled.

To get back to the contest, $200 was given in prize money. There was lots of "toe tapping" as the fiddlers played many old time tunes. Sallie Goodin and Sallie Johnson remained the most popular.

Dick Barrett of Pottsboro, Texas took away honors being judged first place winner. Bartow Riley of Olton, Texas was second; Bill King of Shamrock, Texas was third; Ray David of Clarendon was fourth; Vernon Riddle of Wichita Falls, Texas was fifth; and R. C. Berkhalter of Perryton, Texas was sixth.

It is understood that Waters will M. C. the Fiddlers Contest to be held in Childress July 17. He has been M. C. for this program the past two years and this will be his third time back so he must be pretty good.

The contest here this year was the best and largest ever held in Clarendon and it is largely through Waters efforts and his association through the years with these people that increasing interest is being built in this event. If you missed the contest this year you certainly missed an entertaining program that moved along with few delays and brought lots of good music. Plan next year to be present! You will be glad you did.

Also in this 18-22 age group, Briggs said, are some other types of beneficiaries, illustrating the broad family protection that the social security program provides workers of all ages. A number are children of retired, disabled, or deceased workers who became disabled before they reached 18 and who will probably never be able to work and become self-supporting. The monthly benefits of these young people, severely handicapped by physical or mental disabilities, will continue indefinitely. Benefits are also payable to their mothers if the disabled son or daughter is in the mother's care.

Briggs said that another relatively small but significant group of youthful social security beneficiaries are those who are receiving benefits as disabled workers. Social security disability payments can be paid to a person who becomes disabled for work even if he has less than 5 years of work under social security. As little as 1 1/2 years of work is required in the case of a worker who becomes disabled before age 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Riley and Mrs. Hattie Palmer of Amarillo were among those attending festivities here Saturday.

Co. Social Security Benefit Statistics

Social security benefits were being paid to residents of Donley county at a rate of $77,000 a month at the close of 1970. Travis Briggs, social security district manager in Amarillo, said today.

A benefit increase signed into law by President Nixon on March 17 raises the monthly rate of payment by 10 percent for most of the 911 social security beneficiaries in Donley county, Briggs added. A small number of beneficiaries over age 72 who are not receiving regular social security cash benefits will get a 5 percent increase.

The increased benefit amounts were made effective back to January 1, 1971. First checks in the new monthly rate probably reached beneficiaries on about June 3, Briggs said. Separate checks representing the amount of the increase for the months of January through April will be mailed later in June.

Of the social security beneficiaries living in Donley county, 638 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 194 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 65 are getting benefits as disabled workers on their dependents.

Briggs pointed out that although most social security beneficiaries are older people, about one out of every four is under age 60. In Donley County, 117 people under age 60 are collecting social security payments each month. Nearly 50 are under age 18, receiving payments because a working father or mother has died or is getting social security disability or retirement benefits. Most of the 15 beneficiaries in Donley County between 18 and 22 years of age, are getting students' benefits under a provision in the social security law permitting the continuation of a child's benefits beyond his 18th birthday, and up to age 22, if the child is attending school full time.

Also in this 18-22 age group, Briggs said, are some other types of beneficiaries, illustrating the broad family protection that the social security program provides workers of all ages. A number are children of retired, disabled, or deceased workers who became disabled before they reached 18 and who will probably never be able to work and become self-supporting. The monthly benefits of these young people, severely handicapped by physical or mental disabilities, will continue indefinitely. Benefits are also payable to their mothers if the disabled son or daughter is in the mother's care.

Old Timers Meeting Held Friday, July 2

Old Timers met at the Mulkey Theatre Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. with Tunny Kent serving as chairman. Mr. Kent has served in this capacity for a number of years and always does a fine job. Thanks to Mr. Barnhill the group had a cool and comfortable meeting place.

Fewer than in the past gathered this year. Several were sick; others were bothered with the heat; some dependent on others for transportation; and many, many felt they were not able to be out both Friday and Saturday and so went to the barbecue where they were able to see and visit with more people who were not able to come from a distance for more than the day Saturday.

In all, the meeting was a pleasant one. A number who attended failed to register so an exact count was not available. Names of those recognized were not written down and we at the Leader Office have not been able to obtain them all. G. A. Anderson was the oldest Old Timer present and Homer Taylor had lived in Donley County the longest number of years. It is thought that Homer Bond supposedly of the Hedley area was recognized as having the largest family. So far as we can determine the person traveling the farthest distance to attend had traveled 350 miles but we do not have his name.

If there is anyone who can help us out on this we will be glad for you to send the information to us and we will carry it next week.

Weather Makes Own Miss Katrina Messer Fireworks This Week Named Rodeo Queen

The fireworks over the July 4th week end must have set the weather off to a hot session as pleasant weather was enjoyed during the 3-day celebration. In fact, it was outright chilly at the rodeo Friday night.

A nice rain that fell during the night last Wednesday night set the stage for the cooler spell with 1.10 inch being reported to the west and south, becoming less to the east.

Sunday the sun burst forth full blast raising the temperature over the century mark to 104. It cooled down some Monday with 102 and back to 104 Tuesday. More hot weather is predicted for this week. It appears that the usual hot June weather has waited until July this year.

Prevented Planting - Feed Grain

If you did not get your feed grain planted because of natural causes and wish to apply for acreage credit, you must make your application by July 1.

However, all the conditions pertaining to undue financial hardship remain the same. This determination will now be based on County Committee knowledge and judgement.

Clarendon College Offers Package Plan

With much attention focused on the increasing cost of attending college, Clarendon College offers to the students of the Parhandle Area a "Package Plan" or Budget Plan of attending college. This plan has a very unique arrangement of including the total cost of a semester, that is, Tuition, Fees, Books, Board and Room for only $600.00. With emphasis on the new laws dealing with the cost of attending college this is considered the best buy in Education today. This also permits the parents of students to budget their expenses for the year ahead.

President Kenneth D. Vaughan announced after the Board of Regents meeting, Tuesday night, July 6, 1971 that the following schedule was adopted: A minimum tuition charge of $25.00 or $4.00 per semester hour for residents of the State of Texas.

An additional fee of $15.00 will be charged resident students outside of Donley County. All other fees remain constant as printed in the Catalog for the year 1971-72.

It was recommended also that students that anticipate financial assistance should contact the Financial Aid Officer of Clarendon College immediately if they have not done so already. There is money available for needy students. Beryl Clinton, Dean of Clarendon College will assist any student in making the above arrangements, by writing or calling him at Clarendon College, Clarendon, Texas.

Forage Testing Important Anytime

Knowing the nutritive value of forage being fed is important anytime, but under the prevailing conditions it is doubly so, advises A. C. Novosad, Extension pasture specialist.

Feeding of livestock, because of the lack of moisture and grazing, is heavy over most of the state. The forage portion of a dairy or beef cattle feeding program is a significant part of the ration, and the wide differences in forage nutritive values makes the balancing of rations a very difficult task, explains Novosad. The feeding of unbalanced rations can result in lower milk and beef production, and lower profits, warns the specialist.

Last summer the Texas A&M University Forage Testing Service put into use new analytical techniques which give more reliable and accurate information. Novosad says the analysis now being made includes percentage values for crude protein, cell walls and moisture. Calculated values are given for digestible energy, net energy TDN (total digestible nutrients) and digestible protein.

Results of the analysis are sent to the producer and his county agent so they can consult with each other if problems arise. Extension beef and dairy specialists will also make recommendations when requested to do so.

Analysis can be made by the testing service on samples of four basic types of forage: baled hay, loose or chopped hay, pasture forage and pelleted forage and pelleted forage. Tests are also made on silage.

Under conditions which exist today, Novosad says livestock producers must do the best possible job of feeding and therefore, must know the nutritive value of the forage part of all rations. Forage testing will provide this information.

Social Security

How to beat the high cost of getting an education presents a real problem for most students. Yet without a high school diploma or college degree, few can successfully compete for employment.

As recently as five years ago, a student social security beneficiary could no longer receive monthly cash benefits after age 18, unless he was disabled. For many, this meant there was no hope for entering a college or vocational school to prepare for a career.

Today, however, well over a half million students in the United States are attending school with the help of social security checks. In the state of Texas alone there were 30,272 students, age 18 to 21, still getting cash benefits at the end of 1969.

This was made possible by legislation enabling children to remain on the benefit rolls until age 22 if they stay in school full time and are not married. Certain other requirements have to be met, however.

For example, the child must be in full-time attendance at an "educational institution." He meets the requirements for full-time attendance if the school considers him to be in full-time attendance according to its standards and practices. High school and vocational students must also be enrolled in a course of study lasting at least 13 weeks and must be enrolled for at least 20 hours a week.

The greater majority of schools in the United States meet the definition of "educational institution." Included are high schools and vocational or other type schools operated by state, local, or federal governments; state colleges; and colleges accredited by a state or nationally-recognized accrediting agency or approved by a state.

Under certain condition schools outside the U. S. may also be included. Any social security office can furnish information about a particular school.

Students who are paid by their employers for attending school and are requested or required by their employer to attend school, are not eligible for social security benefits.

The program has an incentive in the form of "vacation pay." Student benefits will be paid during a vacation period of no more than four months if the student was in full-time attendance before the period of non-attendance started and if he intends to resume schooling when the vacation period ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Graham and Mike visited Mr. and Mrs. Don Barker and children in Amarillo Thursday night.

Basic Rules Given For Safe Boating

Outlined are these basic rules for safer boating activities.

1. Always provide required life-saving equipment for boats. Under state law there must be an approved flotation device for every person aboard. A new law requires passengers under twelve years of age to wear approved life preservers while in motor-boats.

2. Be prepared to fight fires. State law also requires each powered boat to be equipped with a fire extinguisher.

3. Take no chances with rough weather. Respect wind and storm warnings. The best policy is to stay ashore if bad weather threatens. If caught out in rough weather, don life-saving devices, head for the nearest sheltered shore, and above all keep calm.

4. Always observe the capacity rating of the boat. Overloading creates a greater danger of capsizing.

5. When waterskiing, consideration for others is a must. Don't speed past anchored or docked boats. While towing a skier there must be at least two responsible people in the boat, a pilot and an observer who can watch the skier. Never ski at dusk or after dark.

6. If your boat capsizes or is swamped, stay with the craft. Help is usually not long in coming.

7. Keep boats clean at all times. Oil soaked rags and waste should not be kept on board, as they increase the dangers of fire.

8. Always stay seated in small boats. Persons standing in small boats change the center of gravity and reduce the stability of the craft.

9. Know the signals for distress. By day, in a small boat, signal distress by slowly raising and lowering outstretched arms. On larger craft, give four blasts on the horn, fly the National Ensign upside down, or use smoke. By night, flashlights, flares, rockets, or controlled fire should be used to signal problems.

10. If you are involved in a collision, or are nearby when a collision occurs, standby and render assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. McBrayer, Mr. and Mrs. Layvon McBrayer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McBrayer and family, Mr. and Mrs. David McBrayer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis and family, all of Fort Worth enjoyed the holiday week end in Clarendon.

Accent On Health

One of nature's deadliest phenomena is the tornado—a violent, destructive whirling wind that strikes almost without warning and seemingly at random sweeping everything out of path as its whiplash tail moves in a narrow path over the land.

The tornado that struck the city of Lubbock last year, the earlier disasters in previous years in Dallas, Waco, and Angelo, once again reminded Texas that disaster health plans is the difference between safety and catastrophe.

The Texas State Department of Health has joined with state and federal agencies and medical associations to see that all areas of the state are prepared in case of a disaster. Consequently, Texas is meeting the 1971 tornado season with one of the world's most complete state warning systems, and a well public health relief organization.

Texas' "local severe weather warning system", the first established anywhere in the world now has radar storm warning sets in almost all major cities in the state. These stations are connected by teletype and radio. Any station is able to instantly appraise all other stations of tornado traveling in their direction. All communities in the vicinity of the twister can be warned of the tornado's approach through normal channels of communications, or through speed warning devices.

If worse comes to worse, as a tornado does strike a community, the Texas Health Department stands ready to provide vaccine and public health engineering emergency nursing know-how to stem the threat of disease or further complications while disaster relief is underway.

The National Weather Service has developed a new system terminology to more accurately inform you of the severe weather conditions around you.

A "SEVERE WEATHER WATCH" indicates that weather could develop in the immediate area. A "SEVERE WEATHER WARNING" means that severe weather has actually developed and care should be taken.

A "SEVERE WEATHER ALERT" is a warning that severe weather is moving directly into the area. The same holds true for tornado warnings. A "TORNADO WATCH" indicates the possibility of conditions existing that could lead to the development of a tornado. A "TORNADO WARNING" means that a tornado has actually been sighted in the area, at extreme caution should be taken. A "TORNADO ALERT" means to act fast, a tornado is in the immediate area.

Week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates were his sister and two brothers and families: Mr. and Mrs. George Borsheim of Kennewich, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bates and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bates of Corpus Christie.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

(Editor's Note — Bill Boykin replaces Vern Sanford as columnist of this weekly Texas Press Association feature. Sanford retired July 1 after serving TPA for almost 24 years. This column solicits questions about state government news and information. Address your questions to this newspaper, and they will be forwarded to the Austin office).

AUSTIN, Tex. — July 1 turned out to be a costly date for Texans. Not only did the nearly $1 million-a-day ($604 million biennially) tax bill take effect, but property owners got notice of hikes of up to 25 per cent in their insurance rates. And just the day before (see below) the State Insurance Board staff recommended an average 2.8 per cent increase in private auto insurance coverage effective September 1.

Tax bill raises the general sales tax from 3.25 per cent to four per cent statewide (five per cent in many cities which also levy a local sales tax); adds three cents a pack to cigarette taxes; increases liquor tax about seven cents a fifth; raises beer tax a fraction of a cent a bottle; jumps sales tax on new cars to four per cent (bringing in car rentals) and jacks up corporate franchise levy $1.25 per $1,000 of capital.

A 10 per cent tax on mixed drink sales went into effect last month.

month. A new kind of "surtax" takes effect September 1. It will cost moving traffic law violators $2.50; other misdemeanor violators tried in county court, $5, and those convicted of felony, $10.

Raise in homeowners' and other kinds of property insurance came without formal announcement other than notices to local agents.

Homeowners' rates rose 25 per cent along the seacoast (hit by Hurricane Celia last August) and in tornado-struck north-northwest territory of the state. Central area homeowners' rate jumped 22.1 per cent, too.

Extended coverage of all classes went up 25 per cent on the coast, 24.5 per cent in north-northwest and 19.7 per cent in the central area. Extended coverage for dwelling is up 25 per cent on the coast and north-northwest, 19.3 per cent in central part of the state.

Fire insurance coverage increases 5.2 per cent — or 7.1 per cent for dwellings.

AUTO INSURANCE UP AGAIN? State Insurance Board staff recommended an average 2.8 per cent statewide passenger car insurance rate hike effective September 1.

Board heard recommendations at a public hearing here June 30 and indicated a decision will be made about mid-August.

Industry, which won a 14 per cent boost in rates January 1 after asking 27.7 per cent, is asking 9.8 per cent increase (average statewide) on passenger car coverage.

Seven state legislators and the state AFL-CIO president argued that a decline in accidents justifies lowering rather than raising rates. Since rates are fixed by territories, not statewide, some areas under Board staff recommendations would receive reductions in certain lines of coverage.

MORE WELFARE WOES LOOM — A top court decision declaring needy non-citizens eligible for assistance, threat of increasing finance burdens from federal legislation and rising medical costs put the State Board of Public Welfare on red alert again last week.

Board was told the federal bill would "save" the state $57.1 million in existing payments — but might double the number of Texans eligible for medical care benefits (which will cost $135.7 million next year).

Supreme Court decision on aliens would add 20,000 to state welfare rolls overnight at a cost of more than $10 million a year, Deputy Welfare Commissioner Herbert Wilson estimated.

New Welfare Commissioner Raymond Vowell said negotiations are under way to place limits on runaway medical care costs, while maintaining adequate services.

18-YEAR-OLDS CAN VOTE — Texas' 18-19 and 20-year-olds who are registered to vote can participate in any election starting this month, Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. points out.

Ratification by the 38th state of the teenage voter constitutional amendment placed it into effect immediately, Dies said.

Any election which is now in progress "must allow those 18, 19 and 20 years old to vote if they are presently registered," Dies, chief election officer for Texas advised.

Young voters not now registered must wait until registration period reopens October 1.

COURTS SPEAK — First case in which the Nixon administration sought to force busing in the desegregation of public schools, a federal judge at Austin gave Austin schools and U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare until July 16 to come up with a compromise plan "minimizing busing." Court found no official segregation against Austin Mexican-American pupils.

Third Court of Civil Appeals here ordered a new trial of the case involving authority of former Sharpstown State Bank president to check out bonds offered as security on a $470,000 loan.

Now-defunct bank brought suit to recover its $470,000.

Both State Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals did not meet last Wednesday, due to State Bar convention in Dallas.

AG OPINIONS — Texas Water Quality Board may contract with the federal government for increased percentage limitations on federal grants for waste treatment facilities with approval of the governor, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that: Regulations adopted by Texas Department of Public Safety Director consistent with safety standards of U. S. Department of Transportation for movement of hazardous materials can be enforced by criminal penalty provisions. Legislature validly delegated to DPS authority to prescribe duties and ascertain conditions under which law on hazardous substances may operate to impose criminal penalty.

County may deposit all tax money collected in one general fund without regard to purpose or source of each tax, but bonds proceeds may be deposited in general fund.

Sellers of "earmolds" to individuals for use with hearing aids is not exempt from the requirement of being licensed by Texas State Board of Examiners in Fitting and Dispensing of Hearing Aids.

State Comptroller is not authorized to issue a duplicate warrant for payment of unemployment compensation benefits to initial payee more than year after the original date of issuance.

Comptroller may issue warrant to contractor or seller of supplies to the State which are purchased through State Board of Control without seller's certification of correctness on invoice.

UNEMPLOYMENT UP — Texas unemployment increased 15,500 from mid-April to mid-May to a total of 196,500 Texas Employment Commission reported.

During last year, unemployment increased 28 per cent, and number of claimants for jobless benefits jumped 42 per cent.

Seventeen of the major areas reported unemployment growth during the past month. Four had a decrease, and one remained unchanged. Unemployment rate (as percentage of work force) was 4.1 per cent compared with 3.3 per cent in May 1970 and 3.8 per cent in April.

LAND SALE SET — Leases on 97,726 acres of state-owned land in West Texas will be offered at public auction September 22 here by Board for Lease of Universities.

Total of 316 tracts will be sold to the highest bidder in Andrews, Cooke, Crane, Crockett, El Paso, Gaines, Pecos, Reagan, Terrell, Upton, Ward and Winkler counties. Oil and gas leases are being offered for the first time in El Paso County (block of 12,000 acres). More than 44,000 acres in Deep Gas Trend in the Delaware and Val Verde Basins also will be up for bids.

SHORT SNOTS

State general revenue deficit dropped from a peak of $173.5 million April 29 to $11.9 million June 24 and will go into the black by August 31, State Treasurer Jesse James reports.

Bids on the second phase of construction of the $3 million water exchange pass across Mustang Island will be opened July 12 by Parks and Wildlife Department.

Parks and Wildlife Department won three major awards in international competition for best conservation information programs.

Ardell M. Young of Fort Worth was named by Gov. Preston Smith to succeed retired 153rd District Judge Harold Craik.

New state bank charters are sought in Sattler (Comal County) and Katy (Fort Bend County).

R. H. (Dick) Cory, former Victoria legislator, succeeds Homer Leonard as general counsel and executive vice-president of Texas Brewers' Institute.

Plans To Control Salt Flow Into Red River

Congressman Bob Price has been advised by the Army Corp of Engineers that they have begun plans to control salt flows into the Red River.

Donley, Hall, Childress, Cottle, and Foard counties in Texas will be the site of one or more of the Red River Basis projects which will cover five areas of brine concentration in Texas and Oklahoma.

A brine lake will be constructed on the Little Red River to impound salt brine in the upper reaches of the river. The proposed dam will be constructed in Hall County northeast of Turkey. The lake will form along the Little Red and Oxbow and Turkey Creeks.

Subsurface collection systems with a pipeline and brine lake will be built on Jonah Creek and Salt Creek arms of the Prairie Dog Town Fork of the Red River in Donley, Hall, and Childress counties. The brine dam will be constructed just north of Highway 256 on the Hall-Childress County line. Subsurface collection stations will be constructed in two areas of salt concentration where Jonah Creek and Salt Creek enter the Prairie Dog Town Fork. Salt water gathered at these two areas will be pumped to the brine lake which will extend into Hall, Childress, and Donley counties.

Subsurface collection systems with a pipeline and brine lake will be built on the North Pease River and Middle Pease River in Cottle and Foard counties.

Additional systems will be constructed in Beckham and Harmon counties in Oklahoma. Funds for initiation of detailed project planning have not been appropriated by Congress. After initial planning funds are made available and plans completed, about five years will be required to build the projects.

Approximately 23,000 acres of land will be needed for the four projects. Purchase of land will start upon receipt of construction funds from Congress.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

I desire to say THANKS to every one who contributed toward my winning the Rodeo Queen Contest and Miss Congeniality. I am so very grateful to the John Topper family for allowing me to use their horse and the work they did. The other girls in the contest were wonderful to work with and I appreciate my association with them very much.

There are many others I would like to say "thanks" to but there are too many to mention so I will just say "thanks" to every one who voted for me. I appreciate every one whether you voted for me or not.
