State Economy Up

AUSTIN— "A special analysis by our office shows that local sales tax collections in cities across the state in 1994 averaged 7.7 percent higher than 1993 - proof that the Texas economy continues to strengthen," Comptroller John Sharp said today.

"The adjusted local sales tax revenue among the more than 1,000 cities that charge a local sales tax was $1.5 billion for 1994, while the adjusted revenue for 1993 was $1.4 billion, once the non-economic factors were deleted," Sharp said.

"Sales tax revenue is one of the best barometers we have to measure local retail sales activity. To more accurately gauge the true level of this local economic activity, we've adjusted local tax revenues to delete such non-economic factors were deleted," Sharp said. "These adjustments allow us to better compare apples with apples, or more importantly, sales tax revenue for 1994 with that of 1993."

That adjusted sales tax revenue varies by regions of the state. According to Sharp's analysis, local sales tax revenue increased in each of the 10 economic regions of the state, as follows: Central Texas, up 11.5 percent; Gulf Coast, up 6.1 percent; High Plains, up 7.8 percent; Metroplex, up 9.3 percent; Northwest Texas, up 4.3 percent; South Texas, up 7.2 percent; Southeast Texas, up 2.5 percent; Upper East Texas, up 6.9 percent; Upper Rio Grande, up 6.9 percent; and West Texas, up 3.6 percent.

Approximately 500,000 Texas businesses collect the state and local sales tax from their customers and remit the money to the Comptroller's Office on a monthly, quarterly or annual basis, depending upon the size of their operation. The state sales tax rate is 6.25 percent, while the local rate can be as much as 2 percent. The Comptroller deposits the state's share of the tax revenue into the State Treasury and returns the local share to the communities to help fund a wide variety of programs and services.

Memorial Planned

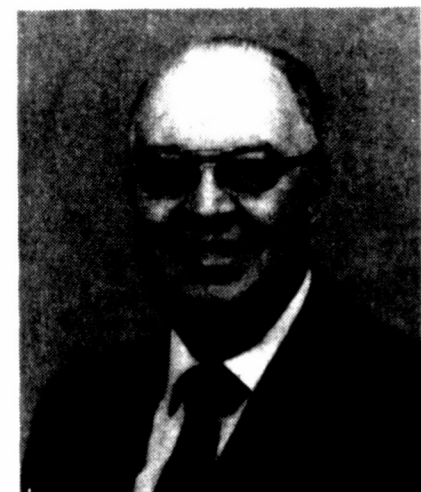

The Donley County Veterans' Memorial Committee is working toward the erection of a monument on the north side of the Courthouse. Any interested citizens are welcome to participate.

The project is estimated to cost about $14,000. It will feature vertical columns inscribed with the names of servicemen from Donley County who were killed in action or missing in action from World War I up through the Gulf War.

Jack Moreman of Clarendon is the chairman of the committee. M.O. Weatherly is the contact person for Hedley.

Other members of the committee are Douglas Lowe, James Owens, B.L. Graham, B.B. Osburn, Charles Penix and Weldon Sears. Ex Officio members include W.R. Christal, C.W. Cornell, Ronnite Hill and Zell SoRelle. Gene White is a consultant on the project.

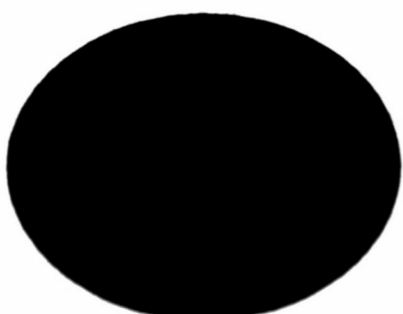

The memorial will probably also contain a Walk of Honor. The committee hopes to have construction complete by Veterans' Day, 1996.

Abe Lincoln To Speak At Church Of Christ

The public is invited to hear speaker, Mr. C.W. "Abe" Lincoln, at Clarendon Church of Christ on Sunday, March 26, 1995, which the Church has designated as one of its Mission Sundays.

Besides his current ministerial position at West Side Church of Christ in Seminole, Texas, he also serves as instructor at Sunset School of Preaching in Lubbock, Texas. He has served in foreign mission fields, and has conducted lectures, meetings, and workshops in 40 different states.

Paper Returns to Old Deadline

As of March 20, 1995, The Clarendon News will return to the old deadline of 12:00 noon Monday. That time was the deadline for many years, both for the old Clarendon Press and for The Clarendon News. In the past couple of years, the paper experimented with a deadline of 5:00 p.m. Monday, but that has proven less and less satisfactory. There would be a very small trickle of material coming in on Friday and Monday morning, then a flood at 4:59 p.m.

The new schedule will allow the newspaper staff more time to work on incoming material. This should reduce the number of typos and other mistakes.

The deadline for pictures remains Friday at noon. Pictures have to be sent off to the printer in advance.

Your cooperation with the published deadline is greatly appreciated.

DONLEY COUNTY VETERANS' MEMORIAL COMMITTEE will be erecting a memorial, much like the one above, on the north side of the Courthouse.

BRONCO BAND members concentrate on giving their audience an evening of "Pop's" entertainment.

"Pops" Concert Presented

Clarendon's High School band played its first annual "Pop's" Concert on March 2 in the Harned Sisters Fine Arts Center of Clarendon College. The night was dedicated to the memory of Betsy Ellerbrook, long-time band supporter and mother of band drum major Louis Ellerbrook.

Todd Baker, director, let the 60-piece band in "Riders March", "The Fugitive", "Tears in Heaven", sung by Dan Hall, and other contemporary selections.

Playing to a crowd that braved icy weather, the students gave an encore performance of "Raiders March" at the end of the regular program. Director Baker announced that this piece was the group's favorite and the encore voluntary.

WTU Files Rate Review

West Texas Utilities Company (WTU) will file a rate review with the Public Utility Commission of Texas in Austin, as previously announced by the company last August. A similar filing will also be made with several of the cities WTU serves.

After performing a study on the cost of providing service, WTU determined that a $14.6 million increase was fully justified. If approved, such an increase would be spread over WTU's 52,000 square-mile customer service territory. The average bill for a typical residential customer could increase by $7, based on the average usage of 1,000 kwh per month.

In a separate action, WTU announced a settlement offer to parties in the proceeding that could continue a base rate revenue reduction of $5.9 million. Under the settlement proposal, the bill for a typical residential customer could be $1 to $2 less per month than their bill under the current permanent rates. The company established a period until April 17, 1995, to consider this settlement.

"As part of the proposal that would position WTU for the future, we are introducing new pricing structures to help us attract and retain business in West Texas," said Charles Moore, area manager.

Under WTU's proposal, new pricing structures would result in some customers experiencing an overall rate decrease greater than the current interim reduction of 3.25 percent. At the same time, some customers would experience and overall rate decrease of less than 3.25 percent. But, with the exception of standby customers, no customer would see their overall rates increase above rates in effect prior to Oct. 1.

And the Good News Is ...

Clarendon escaped the worst economic blows that hit the region in the past two decades. Compare the Census of 1970 to the Census of 1980 and the Census of 1980 to that of 1990, and look especially at towns in this region. Memphis, Wellington and Childress suffered a devastating loss of population and of economic base. In fact, their situation was among the most unfortunate in the nation. Clarendon fared much better. Clarendon College and Lake Greenbelt brought in new dollars, even as agricultural receipts for the area declined. Some old businesses failed, but new ones came in or old ones expanded to counteract much of the loss. Clarendon residents felt fortunate—and were fortunate—to hold their own during that era.

Now there are some really promising signs that a new era may be beginning. Donley County may well be turning the corner, not just holding its own, but actually growing.

Last week leaders from all segments of the community met in the Lions Club Hall for a "Leaders Conference". The reports at that meeting would cheer up even the most die-hard pessimist. And those reports were not "puff". They represented real accomplishments. The results of that meeting are reported elsewhere in this issue, but exciting things are happening, from a grass-roots clean up of the north side of town to the prospects of a new water park. But there are other encouraging events, as well.

The old Dairy Queen building was an eyesore for several years, but no longer. After considerable delay, the State has let contracts and a contractor is rapidly remodeling the building into new offices for the Department of Public Safety.

A block east, the old Chevron station has been demolished, and the lot is being cleaned off in preparation for a new building. That new store should attract thousands of dollars from traffic on 287—traffic that previously sailed on through town.

Across the highway and a few blocks east, an old eyesore is being dismantled and removed, an old building that has been vacant and dilapidated for several years.

A block or so farther east, a new antique store has opened on Sully Street. The proprietor of another antique store in town was happy as a lark. She recognized that her new "competitor" was not only another business in town, but that it also builds up Clarendon's growing reputation as the antique market for the region. Everyone in Clarendon benefits.

Several blocks east of Sully on Highway 287 there is a new car wash in operation. It is surprising how many out-of-state cars stop there for a shower before they continue on their trek.

Clarendon Schools just got a $43,000 grant to go on the Internet computer network. That will allow communication with academic institutions around the globe. They are adding French to the curriculum. Today's Clarendon students are living in a world economy. These new additions significantly increase our kids competitiveness in that global economy.

Is all this just a momentary boom, a temporary prosperity that will gradually fade? It could be. But there are indications that it may well be the beginning of a period of solid growth.

Last week the old editor visited on the phone with a consultant in Tulsa. Her business is helping little towns thrive. She is very optimistic.

From the days of The Grapes of Wrath until recently, California was the goal of many of the nation's restless people. Now, the consultant reports, corporations are abandoning the urban jungle in The Land of Flakes and Fruits and Nuts, and migrating back to America's heartland. People want to raise their children in places like Clarendon and Memphis and Wellington and Childress, places where the kids can safely walk home from school, places where the neighbors will feed the dog when vacation time rolls around.

The growing attractiveness of small towns should encourage folks in this region to work harder, not less, but pleasant things are happening in all the regional towns named above. There is a very real sense of satisfaction in helping to rebuild a community.

Some of the reports on the progress being made in Clarendon were:

(1) A $43,000 grant has been granted to Clarendon Schools for Internet Computer System.

(2) Classes to be added at the High School will be French, vocational word processing, upper-level computer and music history.

(3) The West Texas Utilities Community Survey netted about 250 responses that are being tabulated. The results are soon coming. (There was an excellent response from the community).

(4) Five granite columns war memorial is underway to be placed on Court House north yard.

(5) Highway 287 through town to be completely redone in concrete beginning 1996.

(6) $186,000 recycling grant to City of Clarendon and $250,000 water and sewer grant.

(7) The Fire Department reports 124 fires last year. 24 of our 35 firefighters are state certified.

(8) A scaled down Thunder Junction seems eminent. It will include a water slide, putt-putt golf course and river ride.

(9) 85 applications have been received for the presidency of Clarendon College.

(10) Bivens Pharmacy's new 10,000 sq. ft. steel building is under construction at Highway 287 and Koogle Street.

The next Leaders Conference will be hosted by the Clarendon Fire Department three months from now in the City Hall Assembly Room. (Watch for announcement).

High Plains Health Notes

By Robert E. Powell PA-C

Donley Rural Health Clinic

Irritable Bowel Syndrome (IBS) is a common chronic functional disorder of the gastrointestinal tract characterized by abdominal complaints and altered bowel habits. Symptoms stem from abnormal gastrointestinal motility, abnormal visceral perception, psychosocial stresses, and intraluminal irritants. The cause is unknown, but may be related to smooth muscle dysfunction.

Associated factors may be related to anxiety or depression. Aggravating factors may be related to excessive caffeine, alcohol, stress, malabsorbed sugars (sorbitol), and cholinergic drugs. Hormonal factors in women may have some effect.

Clinically, the symptoms are waxing and waning over time. Common symptoms are cramping mid to lower abdominal pain and bloating after eating. Symptoms also vary in intensity and tend to be diarrhea-predominant (gastrointestinal hypoactivity) or constipation-predominant (gastrointestinal hyperactivity). A minority of patients complain of alternating diarrhea and constipation.

Treatment, although no a cure, may include patient education for mild symptoms, dietary modification and bulk agents for moderate symptoms, and medication, psychotherapy, or referral for pain management for severe symptoms.

County Club Chatter

In February those at the Club had a Valentine candle light dinner that was thoroughly enjoyed by all. A gift was presented to the couple being married the longest. Francis and Willard Skelton received this honor hands down. If we could all be married this long and still remain as enjoyable as this couple we would all be blessed. Su-Fran and Byron Bass entertained with their music--what a treat!

The Club is having a garage sale every Friday and Saturday from 10-5. Many items have been donated by members. This will be at Hi-Way 287 & Sully behind Channel 11 T.V. Station.

March 13 is the Annual Stockholder's Meeting at 7:00 p.m. Members be sure & attend.

March 26 is the Men's Skin Golf Tournament. Tee-off time is 1:00.

Soup to Nuts

One summer when it was especially hot in my kitchen, I began to explore alternatives to the hot stove (eating out is nice!) West Texas Utilities offered me another wonderful choice. All I have to do is plug in my electric grill sitting on the back porch for tasty steaks or hamburgers--nearly anything. It has some permanent type charcoal beneath the element, so food tastes like it was cooked over wood coals.

The grill is so handy that I use it year round. We didn't eat many porkchops at my house until the grill came to live with us. Now they are one of our favorite meats.

Garlic Chops

- 6 Center Cut Porkchops 1/2 inch thick
 - Season to taste on both sides
 - with:
 - Garlic Salt
 - Ground Black Pepper
- Grill over medium coals for about 20 minutes, or until done through. Turning chops every five minutes will help retain the moisture in the meat.

Serve with a pasta side dish or potatoes, a tossed salad and some brown and serve rolls. Dinner is served in 30 minutes!

My mother used to cook pinto beans on her gasgrill in the backyard. She put them in a coffee can with water and cooked them on the lowest setting--all day. They had the best flavor ever.

If you are looking for a special recipe or would like to see one of yours in print, come by the Clarendon News or write to Lynne Williams, Box 807, Clarendon, TX 79226.

Eighteen members of the audience took part in the program by reading short verses. Mitchi Fuston and Ricci Tunnell from our local Dairy Queen, donated four gift certificates for chicken baskets. The Center received information about the Texas State Spelling Bee. It is designed to promote mental challenges to seniors and present a positive outlook on aging. The Donley County Senior Citizens Center is now encouraging all Donley County seniors age 60 and over to register for our local spelling bee to be held here at the Senior Citizens Center in May. Registration cost is $1.00 which includes the cost of the spelling booklet. The two top winners from our local contest will go to Amarillo for the regional contest. The state contest will be in Austin in August. Last year a lady from Amarillo advanced to the national spelling bee in Little Rock, Arkansas. They want to really encourage all interested persons to call the Center at #2665 for more information. They have a big crowd for our first local spelling bee! The Amarillo local spelling bee will be this Saturday, at 2:00 p.m. at the Amarillo Senior Citizens Conference Center at 1311 Tyler St. The public is invited to attend.

Any senior 60 years or older interested in taking the 55 AARP driver's training offered through AARP needs to call the Center at #2665. The training cost will be $8.00 and is good for 3 years to reduce the cost of liability insurance. The course will be offered at the Center in late April or early May.

The staff and board of the Donley County Senior Citizens wants to thank the Clarendon News for publishing our news and news articles every week. This is a great service to our senior citizens of Donley County and it is greatly appreciated.

Discover Nutrition, Anytime, Anywhere

The Donley County Extension Agent Jeanene Sinclair wants to remind all residents that the month of March has been designated by the American and Texas Dietetic Associations as one component of the 1995 EAT RIGHT AMERICA "Discover Nutrition Anytime, Anywhere" campaign. During the month she will be conducting educational programs and activities to learn more about how to eat healthfully and change your own recipes to reduce fat, saturated fatty acids, cholesterol, sugar and sodium. Also reducing alcohol in the diet can save your extra calories that are stored as fat.

You can see how easy it is to incorporate the foods you like within a healthful eating style by choosing a diet that follows the dietary recommendations of the USDA Food Guide Pyramid and also is varied, moderate and balanced. The Pyramid is simply an outline of what to eat daily. It is no rigid prescription, but gives a general guide that permits you to select healthful choices within each group so you obtain necessary nutrients while enough calories to maintain a healthy weight.

The Pyramid also focuses on fat because most Americans eat too much fat in their diet. Following the Pyramid will help you to keep your intake of total fat and saturated low. By lowering the fat in your diet, you can reduce the chances of getting certain diseases while also help you maintain a healthy diet.

Contact the local County Extension Office at 874-2141 for more information about receiving a copy of the USDA Food Guide Pyramid or other nutrition resources as well as nutrition month activities.

Broncos End Season

The Clarendon Broncos ended its season in the area round February 28 with a heart-breaking 82-70 loss to the Springlake-Earth Wolverines who advanced to the state tournament this weekend in Austin.

Despite Corey Fields' 27-point performance, including eight 3-pointers the Broncos fell to the fifth-ranked Wolverines at Amarillo High School. The Broncos rallied back from a 10-2 deficit early in the first period and were ahead 31-20 with two minutes to go in the half.

Springlake-Earth went on a 10-0 run and Clarendon headed into the locker room with a 31-30 advantage. The Wolverines never lost their confidence, and the Broncos could not stop 6'4" post player

Brian Hulett who scored 24 of his 32 points in the second half.

"We got beat by a good program," Coach Jimmy Avery said. "The coach had been there six years, their players had played together for five years and they knew what they needed to do. They made their free throws and took care of the ball. They did everything they needed to do to win a big ballgame."

"These are things that we will get better at in the years to come."

In addition to his 27 points, Fields also had five rebounds, three steals and five assists. "I think Corey had one of his best games of the year and really reacted well to the pressure," Avery said. "He is a very talented ball player."

Danny McCampbell scored 16 points, blocked one shot, took a charge and dished out three assists. Freshman Clemmie Smith scored 14 points, grabbed nine rebounds, had one steal and one assist.

Lorenzo Moore scored nine points, and Roy Williams scored four points. The Broncos finished their season 25-11.

"I'm excited about next year," Avery said. "We have some good solid players coming back. But I'm especially appreciative of the seniors who led this team during my first year here. They made the transition easier and worked extremely hard. I will remember their dedication for years to come."

"I appreciate the town being so supportive of me. This has been a very enjoyable year, and everyone has made me feel so welcome."

In post-season honors, McCampbell was named the District 2AA Most Valuable Player. Fields and Moore also were named to the elite All-District team. Broncos Justin Griffin, Williams and Smith were given Honorable Mentions.

Other players named to the All-District team were Snapper Hunnicutt, Wellington; Chad Bertrand and Alan Gorham of Panhandle; Sam McLeod, Justin Proffitt and Guy Jones of Highland Park; and Kevin Flowers and Blaine Bivins of Canadian.

Lady Bronco Korey Knorpp was the lone Clarendon player named to the District 2AA All-District team. Mandy Floyd and Kelly Laxson were awarded Honorable Mentions.

Rounding out the girls All-District team were: Jennifer Humphrey of Panhandle, who was named the Most Valuable Player; Carla Neusch, Callie Brinkley and Alexia Gray of Panhandle; Maine Spillmand and Tracey Davis of Wellington; Tisha Carr and Adrienne Vanhoosen of Canadian; and Hallee Somerville and Jennifer Lamm of Highland Park.
