Dairy Queen and Coca-Cola hitch their wagons

Texas Dairy Queen and Coca-Cola have teamed together, hitching their respective corporate wagons to the "star" of the Texas sesquicentennial celebration -- the "Circle Texas" wagon train.

As co-sponsors of the Texas Wagon Train Association, and joint sponsors of one of the lead wagons in the train, Dairy Queen and Coca-Cola are re-emphasizing their collective and long-standing commitment to the people of Texas.

"These two companies have been part of the Texas lifestyle for more years than most of us can remember," says Richard Thayer, president of the Texas Dairy Queen Operators Council. "Long before there were fast food establishments on every corner in Texas, there was Dairy Queen. We've grown up with this State, and we're proud to be part of its heritage. And look at Coke," Thayer continues. "Coke is such an inbred part of the Texas culture, people use the trade name as a generic description of all soft drinks."

"Because of our 'Texas Connection' we felt it was incumbent upon both of our companies to support this historic event in a show of appreciation to all the citizens of Texas," Thayer adds.

There's no question that the citizens of Texas who live along the 3,000 mile wagon train route will appreciate the Dairy Queen/Coca Cola Sesquicentennial wagon. Supplied by White Diamond Enterprises of Glen Rose, Texas, the wagon is an all-weather, steel-rim wheel Prairie Schooner which will be drawn by a four-up team of black draught mules. The wagon will be decorated with the co-sponsor's identification marks in compliance with the regulations of the Texas Sesquicentennial Association, and colorful harness pom-poms will adorn the team during all Sesquicentennial festivities.

In addition to the Sesquicentennial wagon, Dairy Queen and Coke have contracted with White Diamond for all of the services necessary to support the wagon throughout its six month journey. A camp manager, a cook, a wrangler and several teamsters will provide food and lodging for Dairy Queen/Coca-Cola personnel as well as bedding and feed for all of the animals.

"White Diamond was chosen as our supplier because of their previous experience in civic events and their outstanding performance in parade participation," Thayer noted.

"It's a big job, but we're proud to be a part of this exciting event," says Peggy White, president of White Diamond. "We'll be supplying a motor home that sleeps six, a horse trailer and six outrider horses, a shuttle van to transport our client's personnel, a camper and trailer for the crew, a pick-up truck and a back-up team of mules for the wagon."

"When you consider the logistics of providing food, shelter and feed for six months, and all the details that must be ironed out, it makes you wonder how the pioneers ever made it across the country. It's truly amazing," White declares.

Because many Dairy Queen and Coca-Cola personnel are expected to participate intermittently in the wagon train, as it passes through more than 120 different cities and towns, White Diamond is also providing two surreys and outrider accommodations for local promotion of the event.

"The Sesquicentennial Wagon Train creates a number of opportunities for Dairy Queen and Coca-Cola," Thayer points out. "We're just now putting the finishing touches on a promotional program that will benefit many Texas citizens. Since the details have not yet been formally announced, I can't be specific except to say that 100% of the proceeds will be donated to the Children's Miracle Network Telethon, and will be distributed among children's hospitals throughout the State of Texas."

"We're also planning to videotape many of the wagon train activities to air on the Telethon between May 31 and June 1, on Texas television stations."

When asked about the philanthropic motivation behind trying the Texas Sesquicentennial to the Children's Miracle Network Telethon, Thayer said, "We may not all be cowboys, but we are all Texans, and the Texas spirit of unselfish cooperation is what made this State great. We're just trying to insure that the Texas spirit will continue for another 150 years."

Russell Alexander was the defensive player of the game, scored 16 points and led all rebounders with six. Wes Hatley and Randy Crump scored 14 and 13 respectively. Brent Hayworth played well and had seven assists. "We shot 50 percent but they controlled the rebounding," said Coach Loveless.

Against Panhandle the Broncos shot poorly but played excellent defense, led by Randy Crump, that kept the Broncos in the game until the end of the fourth quarter. Randy Crump was the only Bronco in double figures with 10 points. Randy Crump had 13 rebounds and James Ariola had 10.

Over the Christmas holidays, the Broncos defeated Gruver 49-42 in a game that was controlled by the Broncos. Donley County quilters - where are you?

An ancient art form which was an important part of pioneer life in West Texas will play a key role in the Panhandle's salute to the Texas Sesquicentennial in 1986.

Quilters in three Extension districts will match their craftsmanship and sewing skills as they design blocks for a commemorative quilt honoring the state's 150th anniversary. Contests will be held in 26 counties in the three districts, with the winning blocks being assembled into a quilt which will join the displays at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum on the West Texas State University campus in Canyon.

Each hand-appliqued block will feature a motif indicative of the county's historical agricultural, geographical or other feature, and the county name.

A trophy and certificates will be presented to county winners. The blocks will be judged on appearance and workmanship.

When the winning blocks are assembled, a public quilting party will be held at the museum February 22-23 to fashion the commemorative quilt. Each quilting participant will be registered and this list will become part of the historical record kept with the quilt.

Those submitting the winning quilt blocks will be guests April 27 at a reception to open the "Lone Stars: A Texas Legacy Quilt Exhibit," featuring 30 of the state's finest quilts made prior to 1936.

For early settlers of the Panhandle, quilting was both an art form, providing color and beauty to often primitive homes or dugouts, and a utilitarian skill furnishing protection from the elements, said Jo Ann Arasim, curator of textiles at the museum. Many of these early quilts are treasured heirlooms today, she noted.

The sesquicentennial contest is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Participating counties are: Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher, and Wheeler.

The Donley County Sesquicentennial Quilt Block Contest judging will be held Friday, January 21. Blocks must be turned in at the Extension office in the old courthouse by 12:00 noon on that day. Rules of the contest, an example of the judges' scoresheet, and an entry blank may be picked up at The Nook, Greene Dry Goods, Gibson's Pharmacy, and Hedley Canway and Howardwick City Hall. The information sheets answer any questions you might have about the contest. Donley County has an abundance of talented quilters and seamstresses. This is an excellent opportunity for you to be recognized in a very special way for those talents. Let's all get busy and make sure the winning Donley County Sesquicentennial Quilt Block will be something we can all be proud of.

MEDICINE COSTS

Medicines are getting to be more expensive - right? Well, yes and no. Although inflation drives up the cost of most goods and services, the cost of medicines in relation to the cost of health care in general is actually decreasing.

According to the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association, the amount of money Americans spent for drugs in 1965, as a percentage of our total national health expenditures, was about 14 cents of every dollar. By 1970 this figure decreased to 11 cents; and by 1980 to about 8 cents. In 1982 less than 7 cents of every dollar spent for health care was for medicines!

And merely looking at the cost of modern medicines does not tell the whole story. For many illnesses, medicines provide the only form of therapy. New medicines have contributed to the 25 percent decrease in rate of deaths due to heart disease and the 45 percent decrease in the rate for strokes since the late 1960s. It is difficult, however, to measure the overall benefits of such dramatic improvements in our health in terms of dollars and cents.

Rubbing Out Static Electricity

Static electricity in clothing is an annoying problem that occurs when the weather turns cool. You take off your coat and your clothing seems to snap right to you.

Here is some advice from home economists from Whirlpool Corporation that can help you eliminate troublesome static electricity.

• Do not overdry the load. Overdrying creates static electricity, wrinkling of permanent press and shrinkage of many cottons and knitted fabrics.

• Remove the load from the dryer while there is a trace of moisture in the fabrics. If you have a dryer with an automatic sensor, select a less dry setting in the automatic cycle.

• Static electricity is generated in synthetic fabrics. Adding diluted fabric softener to the deep rinse cycle of your washer, or using a dryer fabric softener labeled "safe for dryer" can help eliminate static electricity build-up.

WOULD-BE BANKERS HAVE BEEN MULTIPLYING LIKE RABBITS.

Don't allow yourself to be misled by apparent similarities. Just because so many others are hopping to include the word "bank" in their names doesn't mean that they are actually bankers. spotlight on health

Ilya Prigogine is a project director of the National Foundation for Cancer Research (NFCR). He is also a Nobel Prize winner in Chemistry, a theoretical physicist of distinction, and one of the most interesting philosophers in the world today.

He was born in Russia in 1917, the year of the revolution, and emigrated with his family to Belgium. A prodigy, he read music before he read words. "It's very difficult to be creative in science and not be creative in more general terms," he says. His writings are filled with references to Chinese philosophy, the history of science, and Indian art.

But increasingly his interest is in cancer. He has been studying the interactions between tumors and the immune system for the NFCR. In doing so he uses the properties of motion he has discovered in his other work.

The National Foundation for Cancer Research of Bethesda, MD. funds such basic research in cancer because it thinks this is the surest and quickest way eventually to find a cure.

YOU MAY BE LOSING ENERGY DOLLARS OUT YOUR CHIMNEY!

Close Your Fireplace Damper When You're Not Using It.

Many people leave their fireplace damper open all year long, so it's always ready when they want to build a fire. An open damper lets winter heat and summer air conditioning escape through your chimney. As conditioned air rises out of your home, your electric bill rises, too. So, be sure to close the damper in your fireplace when you're not using it.

A glass fireplace cover can also help you save energy and money this winter. With your damper closed and with an air-tight glass screen in front of your fireplace when it's not in use, you can help prevent ENERGY DOLLARS from escaping through your chimney.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy—but only YOU can use it wisely!

$11 Million Surplus Available In Crime Victims Fund

By Governor Mark White

AUSTIN—Today, in Texas, crime victims do not have to shoulder the financial burden alone.

Texas lawmakers passed the Crime Victims Compensation Act to provide crime victims with financial assistance to defray lost earnings, medical bills, and other costs. The Texas Industrial Accident Board may award up to $150 per week for loss of wages or support to crime victims and dependents of deceased victims with a maximum award of $25,000 per claim.

Eleven million dollars is currently available under the Crime Victims Compensation Act, and my office has applied for $2.5 million in federal crime victim assistance grants. Priority consideration for that grant money will be given to those eligible programs assisting victims of sexual assault, spousal abuse, or child abuse.

In fiscal year 1985, the Texas Industrial Accident Board paid more than $7 million in benefits to approximately 1,250 victims and their families. Appropriately, it is not the Texas taxpayers who contribute to this fund. Those convicted of criminal acts are paying for the program in additional court costs.

Two individuals who have benefited from the Crime Victims Compensation Fund are Michael Haynes, a junior accounting major at the University of Texas, and Donna Burns, a nurse at an Austin elementary school.

Haynes was shot in the back in front of a convenience store in November, 1982. He spent 11 months in the hospital and is now confined to a wheelchair. Haynes has received more than $20,000 in benefits from the fund. Burns was seriously injured in an automobile accident earlier this year. She said the $2,200 in benefits she received from the Crime Victims Compensation Fund enabled her family to pay back mortgage payments and to remain in their home.

Certainly, no amount of money can erase the pain and suffering that they and other crime victims have had to endure. Their lives, disrupted by violent crime, will never be the same. But the Crime Victims Compensation Fund does help ease the increased financial obligations that so many crime victims experience.

In order to qualify for benefits, victims are required to report the crime within 72 hours, cooperate with law enforcement officials, and file an application with the Industrial Accident Board within one year. The time for filing can be extended if there is good cause. Benefits may be denied or reduced if the victim's conduct contributed to the criminal incident. The Crime Victims Compensation Fund cannot reimburse for pain, suffering or loss of personal property.

To obtain additional information or applications, call a toll-free number, 1-800-252-7063, or contact the Texas Industrial Accident Board, Crime Victims Compensation Division, 105 W. Riverside Drive, Suite 220, Austin 78704.

A directory of services for crime victims, compiled by the Texas Crime Victim Clearinghouse operating out of the Governor's Office, is being distributed to criminal justice and law enforcement agencies throughout the state.

Texas will remain tough on criminals and responsive to the needs of crime victims.

In May, 1983, a random selection of 7,428 students from 177 schools in 40 states were tested. Children above the fourth level had four years or more on A.C.E. The students were not selected on a basis of academic ability; slow learners were averaged into the totals. Students were not given any academic preparation before testing—the only preparation was student use of standard A.C.E. curriculum under normal A.C.E. Learning Center procedures.

Note: Statistics for grades below the fourth level were estimated from reports submitted by A.C.E. Coordinators and Consultants. Levels 4-12 were scored by CTB/McGraw-Hill Publishers. Local school staff administered the 1977 normed California Achievement Test and worked directly with CTB/McGraw-Hill Publishers in May, 1983.

Facts on Texas' highway trash problem

The cost to taxpayers to clean Texas' highway trash is increasing annually by 15 to 17 percent.

In 1984, it cost Texans $20 million in state tax dollars to clean up trash on our highways and byways. Since 1980, the cost to taxpayers has increased by $7.8 million, and in just 10 years, since 1975, the cost has increased by $16.3 million.

Because these clean-up funds must be drawn from the same budget that repairs and maintains our highways, the quality of the Texas highway system is compromised with every dollar spent on trash removal.

Not only does increased trash on our highways mean decreased funds for the building and repairing of our roads, but it creates a serious hazard for motorists.

In 1984, 825 people were injured in accidents caused by trash on the highways.

There were 591 injury accidents and 770 non-injury accidents, for a total of 1,368 accidents involving trash on the highways in 1984.

Nationwide, over 100,000 people can expect to be injured in accidents caused by cars swerving to avoid trash, in one year. Of those people, 1,000 will die.

Based on 269 acts of littering observed in 32 litter count surveys conducted throughout Texas in late August 1985, by the Institute for Applied Research in Sacramento, Calif., the findings are as follows:

For definition, convenience product packaging like snack packaging is considered to be deliberate trash, and items such as wood, plastic sheets and miscellaneous paper fall under the category of accidental trash.

53 percent of Texas State Highway trash is caused by the deliberate acts of motorists and pedestrians, while 47 percent involves the loss of unsecured or uncovered truck loads and miscellaneous items blowing out of trucks.

39 percent of Texas' roadside trash can be found on rural roads and freeways.

61 percent of Texas' urban trash lies on urban freeways and 41 percent of it on urban city streets.

Most acts of deliberate trashing are done by persons under 30 years of age. Persons 10 to 19 years account for 37 percent of deliberate trash, persons 20 to 29 years account for 31 percent and persons 30 to 44 account for 12 percent.

71.4 percent of this deliberate littering is done by males, while 28.7 is done by women.

The means by which this trash finds its way on our highways are the following:

Cars are involved in deliberate acts of littering 29 percent of the time and in accidental acts of littering 1 percent of the time.

Pickup truck drivers cause a disproportionate amount of litter, with 10 percent being deliberate and 17 percent being accidental. Only 11 percent of all the vehicles surveyed were pickups, yet they are involved in 27 percent of all acts of littering witnessed. Figures also show that almost two-thirds of all pickup trucks inspected had potential items of trash in them, and pickups account for 24 percent of all vehicles registered in Texas.

Stake, flat bed, dump trucks and trailers cause less than 1 percent of all deliberate littering and 20 percent of all accidental littering.

The remaining percentages fall into an "other" vehicle category type.

Using mileage figures, it was estimated that there are 147,612,000 items of trash visible along roadsides of the Texas State Highway system. Since only 20 to 30 percent of all trash at the site is usually visible, it is likely that a half billion pieces of trash could actually be found.

The State Department of Highways began its first all out battle against trash in mid-November. The strategy is three-pronged:

1. A targeted media campaign aimed at habitual litterers.
2. A statewide community beautification and clean-up program.
3. Incentives for increased law enforcement.

GSD&M Advertising will design and implement the media campaign. The message is: "Don't Mess With Texas".

Texas celebrities who have already agreed to spread this message around Texas include country western singers Johnny Rodriguez and George Strait.

"Dieting is a system of starving yourself to death so that you can live a little longer." Jan Murray

The longest fight in the history of boxing took place in New Orleans on April 6-7, 1893. Andy Bowen and Jack Burke fought for 110 rounds—seven hours and 19 minutes—only to have the referee break up the fight and declare it "no contest."

BUDGET Stretching IDEAS

You can save some cold cash on your heating, even in cold weather. There are simple, low-cost procedures you can follow to realize significant savings on your monthly bills. A good place to start is to look for air cracks around doors and windows and seal them with weather-stripping or caulking.

Don't overlook energy saving procedures dealing with your heating system. By setting your thermostat between 65 and 70 degrees during the day and at least five degrees lower when sleeping or away from home you can save money. Other suggestions include: Replace filters as needed, close vents in unused rooms, insulate ducts and pipes in unheated areas. Open your drapes and use natural sunlight to supplement your heat.

Water heaters also use a lot of energy. To offset the cost, set the temperature lower, insulate the heater, and install water flow restrictors in showers and faucets. When replacing a water heater, choose an energy efficient model. You may also want to consider storm windows, doors, or double-paneled glass to keep in heat. These tips from the experts at the American Gas Association may help you get the most for your heating dollar.

SPOTLIGHT On Teen's

SUFFERING IN HELL

The question came up during "Teen Time" at camp "Does God judge madmen as any other such as a masochist, who would love the pain of hell?"

Most teens don't even know what masochist is. He is the opposite of sadist. Both have something to do with a perverted concept of sex. The sadist gets enjoyment by inflicting pain on the object of his love. The masochist gets enjoyment through being hurt or tortured by the object of his love. The mental abnormality gets its name from the Austrian novelist, Leopold von Sacher-Masoch, who first described it.

First let me say there are only two classes of people in the world. It matters not what nationality or what race or what color a man may be. He is either saved or unsaved. If a man is saved he will go to Heaven. If a man is unsaved he will go to Hell. And you can just put this down where you will always remember it: No one is going to enjoy Hell! God will see to that.

God is not an ogre. He does not delight in the punishment of the wicked. He would far rather that men would accept His mercy by receiving His Son, Jesus, as Saviour. But those who reject God's mercy will come to experience His wrath (see further: II Pet. 3:9, John 3:36, Rev. 20:11-15, 21:8.).

The Bible gives us reason to believe that God makes special provision for the tiny babies that die before they reach that place in life they recognize the difference between right and wrong. The story of David and his child that died bears this out as a case in point.

That would lead us to the further step that those who are born with mental disorders, those whose minds never develop, those who never come to the place mentally that they could make a rational decision, God would deal with in mercy. They would not be held accountable for sin who never had the capacity to know what sin is.

On the other side would be those who through injury or illness or sin have lost their reason after once having been rational. If a person reaches that point in life (sometimes called the age of accountability, though there is no such expression in the Bible) where he can recognize the difference between right and wrong and does not seek forgiveness of sin through Jesus Christ, he will answer to God for his sin when he dies, whether he dies in his right mind or out of it. It seems to be a harsh saying, but this is why the Bible tells us, "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon while he is near" (Isa. 55:6), and "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth" (Eccles. 2:1). This is why even little children should be taught the way of salvation. As soon as they are old enough to know there is a Haven and a Hell, they are old enough to be saved. The sooner they settle this matter, the better.

But, what about a masochist? That may be just a high-sounding name for a low-down sinner. If the masochist is not saved, he'll go to Hell. Will he enjoy the torment of that place? Not one bit! No one who goes to that awful place will get one single instant of pleasure from it. If the Bible teaches anything it teaches that Hell is a place with no comfort, no joy, no pleasure, no relief, no fellowship, no light, no laughter, no song, no love and no escape. It is a place where a holy God will pour out His righteous wrath against sin.

In order to endure forever the burning torment of Hell, physical bodies, as we know them, will have to be changed. If God can change the masochist's body so that it will exist forever in the lake of fire, then God is able to fix the twisted mind of the masochist so that the sufferings of Hell will have real meaning to him as well.

CONTRA FUNDING: A NECESSARY SIGN OF SUPPORT

The question of providing U.S. assistance to Nicaraguan freedom fighters has been a divisive, and often bitter issue in the House of Representatives. Recently, however, the very real threat posed by the Soviet and Cuban influence in Nicaragua has been realized, and the House this week voted to provide $27 million in humanitarian aid to the forces fighting for democracy in the region.

The situation in Nicaragua is complicated. In 1979 the Sandinista regime promised to replace the Somoza regime with a democratic government that would respect the human rights of all Nicaraguans. That promise has not been fulfilled. Instead, within two weeks of coming into power, the Sandinistas were sending large shipments of arms to the communist guerrillas in El Salvador. By January 1981, more than 200 tons of military aid had been sent.

Furthermore, the Sandinistas have confiscated and collectivized the public's land, conscripted their children into the military, and pursued a policy of religious persecution.

The role of the United States, to date, has primarily involved stopping the flow of arms from Nicaragua to guerrilla movements throughout the region, and to restore a regional military balance.

Without our help, there is a direct threat to the democratic processes being developed in El Salvador, Honduras, and Guatemala. The alternative, which up until recently many of my colleagues in the House have failed to see, is to accept the export of Cuban, PLO and Soviet-inspired terror throughout the region. And I don't think I have to point out to the people of Texas how close this region is to ours.

The money approved by the House, $27 million, has been specifically targeted for non-military assistance. It provides three $9 million allocations to be used for food, clothing, and medical supplies. This funding will coincide with progress reports to Congress by the President and will not be made through the Central Intelligence Agency or the Department of Defense. (Funding passed by the Senate has different provisions, and will be worked out by a House/Senate conference committee.)

This amendment, sponsored by the House Minority Leadership, approves the exchange of information between the U.S. and the Nicaraguan freedom fighters.

House Minority Leader, Bob Michel, on the floor, made a very impassioned statement in which he raised a very important question: "If our amendment is defeated today, a scenario will begin that will be as inevitable as it will be tragic. A green curtain of jungle and silence will descend on Nicaragua. The Communists will complete their consolidation of power at their leisure, unhindered."

"Inevitably, maybe in 2 years, 3 years, the dynamism that characterizes successful Communist revolutions will exert itself and Communist Nicaragua will attack neighboring states in force, and I ask...What will you do then? What will you do 4 years from now when a new President...is faced with an impregnable Communist fortress in Nicaragua? Cuba plus Nicaragua, plus whatever?"

Our show of support for the Nicaraguan freedom fighters is essential to their continuing battle against communism. Less than two months ago, the House failed to approve of such funding, saying instead that we should talk, and try to work things out. But since then, the Sandinista leader, Daniel Ortega openly went to Moscow to meet with Soviet leaders, and obtain funding. And since then, those who advocated talk have realized — Communists do not listen to talk, unless it is backed up by force.

NEWSWORTHY EVENTS

The Prince and Princess of Wales were honored at a reception hosted by the National Gallery of Art. The gala was given to celebrate the opening night of the exhibit "Treasure Houses of Britain: 500 Years of Private Patronage and Art Collecting," and the royal couple as its patrons. Guests dined on a treasure house of food and beverages from the British Isles. Quail and apricot mousse in pomegranate shells were served along with a very rare single malt scotch, Glenmorangie.

The exhibit is a display of some 700 artworks from more than 200 homes in England, Scotland and Ireland. It will run from November 3, 1985 to March 16, 1986.

Watt's Happening in Hedley

by Peggy Watt

The Texas Sesquicentennial Wagon Train left Sulphur Springs on January 2nd. During the next six months, it will 'Circle Texas for the past and future'. It is scheduled to reach Clarendon May 22. There it will turn south toward Brice, thus missing Hedley. I'd like to be able to travel with it for a day. Maybe I can. Thunder might let me borrow his horse. I'd probably have to be tied onto a horse. It's been a long time since I've ridden.

Laqueta and Pick Cox had all their children home for the holidays. Gary and Janette Burns and Billy Ray Cates, Joe and Lucy Poole, and Carl of Amarillo and Elgie and Linda McCleskey, Elwyn, Wyman, Willie, and James of Spur joined Sondra Layton and Joel and Amelia Holly for Christmas with Pick and Laqueta.

Tode and Mattie Laura Hill returned home Thursday after spending the holidays in Amarillo with their daughter, Don and Jane Ruth Owens.

J.S. and Verda Hinds spent Christmas in Anson with his brother, Buford and Virginia Hinds. Enroute home they visited their daughter, Marvin and Nancy Hall and granddaughter Shelly Parker in Jayton.

Elmore and Margie Bailey joined Terry and JoAnn Bailey, Todd and Christi at Stanley and Jeanne Bailey's home for Christmas.

Su-San rushed mother to Wellington to the hospital late Sunday night. The doctor said she had pneumonia. We teased her that she wasn't in her regular room. Dr. Kumar said he would get a brass plate and put her name on it and hang it on the door of her suite. Hopefully she won't have to stay too long. She thought she might get to come home during the weekend but didn't. We try to divide our visits between Su-San, T. and Nancy, Leon and Linda and Fred and me. When Fred and I were there Saturday, she said she was feeling good but was still taking antibiotics.

Ed and Ethel Favor took their daughter, Barbara Owens home to Tulsa Friday. She spent last week visiting but had to get home to her family. She's been seriously ill and in the hospital and came home to recuperate.

Stuart Messer of Wichita, Kansas spent several days here helping his parents, Doyle and Evelyn Messer and brother, Lyndon, pull cotton. I saw him hauling a trailer to the gin. He had to get home early because he had jury duty this week.

Jim Owens and Gary, Berle Owens, and Frenchie and Virginia Gafford of Amarillo visited their mother, Mrs. Cassie Owens during the weekend. Frenchie and Virginia had their grandson Brent with them.

Jerry and Linda Frye, Tara and Jamie spent several days with her parents T.E. and Faye Naylor. Jerry helped strip cotton. T.E. and Faye returned home with them Tuesday afternoon and attended the New Years Eve service at the First Baptist Church in Amarillo. Geneva McAfee and Seth of Canyon joined them. Tim Hall of Amarillo visited with the Naylor's later and helped with the stripping. Faye told me she had done her share of stripping and would let the boys take over now.

Harold and Helen Simmons of Portland, Oregon spent the weekend with T.E. and Faye Naylor. Harold and T.E. are cousins.

J.T. and Helen Lamberson attended a birthday celebration for Mrs. Ruth Knight of Groom Sunday afternoon. She's the mother of Mrs. Ernest Lamberson.

Fred and Guy were in Clarendon a few days ago. They visited with Pete and Eunice Land while there.

Debbie Sursa and Nancy Stephens shopped in Clarendon Monday morning.

Bobby and Pat Roland of Amarillo spent the weekend with his parents, Bob and Jessie Roland.

Radell and Elizabeth Sanders of Tulia, Bill and Rosalee Sanders of Borger, and Gene Sanders of Amarillo and Lisa and Renee of Childress visited their parents, D.K. and Beulah Hall last Saturday.

I saw Josh and Matthew Talley riding brand new bicycles a few days ago. They must have been good boys last year for Santa to be so good to them.

Connie Lee Wilson Bran and Cory of Amarillo spent New Years Eve with her parents, Connie and Mahdeene. Troy had to work and was unable to come with them.

Drucilla Mcbrayer of Fort Worth came last week and helped Jerry Holland get their parents settled in the nursing home at Memphis.

I talked to Jerry Sunday and she told me they were getting ready to bring them home Tuesday. Marie Adams will be staying with them.

Royce and Thelma Hall of Clarendon spent the day with his brother, D.K. and Beulah Hall Saturday.

Richard and Jo Hinton, Renee and Tony of Rosebud, New Mexico were recent visitors in the home of her parents, James and Edith White.

Earl and Sharon Wheatly have returned home after spending the holidays in Lewisville with her mother Mrs. Ruth Harrison. Russell and Laura Ann Foss and Rebekah of Aurora, Colorado and Mrs. Navasa Wheatly of Darrouzett joined them there. Andy stayed at home to run the ranch.

Clyde and Mildred Hoggard attended the Senior Citizens party at Clarendon Friday evening. Mildred told me they really had a good time.

Roy and Blanche Davidson have been enjoying the company of Blanche's sister, June Sutherland of Wichita, Kansas, for the last few days. She accompanied them to Plainview to visit their son, Harold Harbour last weekend.

Murrell and Dorothy Whitaker have been busy the last week. They enjoyed visiting with their granddaughter Michelle Dean in Amarillo New Years Day and Sunday they went to Lefors to visit with his aunt, Mrs. Leona Dorsey. They made it home by Monday. He had some chores to attend to at the Senior Citizens. The ladies really appreciate him too.

Terry and Barbara Collins and Josh traveled all during the holidays. They went to Blair, Oklahoma and spent Christmas with her parents, Wayne and Ann Butcher. Then they went to Bovina to visit his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. J.J. Terry. The Terrys accompanied them to Roswell, N.M. to visit with Terry's parents, Jerry and Ludine Davis. When they got home, Terry had to get on the road with the basketball team.

The Lioness Club held its first meeting of 1986 on January 2. President Louise Stewart presided at the meeting. Dorothy Whitaker led the prayer. Secretary Nora Hopper read the minutes of the last meeting and Treasurer Dorothy Whitaker gave a financial report. Some old and new business was taken care of. A delicious meal was enjoyed by 14 members and 1 guest. Those attending were Louise Stewart, Nora Hopper, Dorothy Whitaker, Mahdeene Debord, Helen Lamberson, Dorothe Crawford, Ruby Bardwell, Mildred Lett, Betty Williams, Pauline Kaufman, Juanel Carson, Tiny Harmon, Betty Gulchrest, Patty Springer, and Miss Robin Springer.

I talked to Nookie Wiggins, manager of the gin at Hedley, and he told me that he's ginned 2800 bales so far and expected to gin approximately 500 more. That's not bad for Hedley. Now if the farmers could just get paid for their cotton, they might be alright. My kids made more off their watermelon patch than they will off their cotton.

The Hedley Easter Star Chapter held its first meeting of the year on January 6. Mrs. Pauline Sarich, Deputy Grand Matron, District 2, Section 5, made her official visit. She brought instructions from the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Elsie Paladino. She brought ten members from Clarendon Chapter #6, including Mrs. Frankie Henson, District Deputy Grand Matron, District 2. Mrs. Bettye Kiker, Treasured Friendship Committee from Wellington, explained her committee. She had two of her members with her. Following the meeting, a delicious meal of spaghetti-chicken, salad, garlic bread, and dessert was enjoyed by all. Brother Charles Bairfield, Past Grand Patron, was asked once what O.E.S. stood for and he said 'Over Eating Sisters'. After last night, I know exactly what he meant! It was a very friendly, happy meeting. Hedley Chapter always enjoys having visitors and we especially enjoyed our sisters from Clarendon and Wellington. Su-San Couch is Worthy Matron and Tige Hill is Worthy Patron of Hedley Chapter #413.

Rev. James Carter has had a hoarse throat recently. He mentioned at church Sunday that someone gave him their secret recipe for cough syrup. I wondered if it was the same one Nookie Wiggins offered me. You know, when the burr truck was stolen from the gin, Blackie Johnson found it parked behind one of the liquor stores in Estelline.

Juanita Carter wondered how I found out so much of what's happening in Hedley. There's no telling what I might find out if I had a telephone.

The classes at Hedley school resumed Monday. When I stopped by Monday morning, Mr. Hill told me that three new students had enrolled. To most schools, 3 students wouldn't make much difference, but at Hedley, even one counts.

The students will be taking their six weeks tests next week.

The basketball teams have been busy. They traveled to Higgins on December 30. I didn't get any information about the girls from Mr. Hill but did find out from Mr. Collins that Higgins boys beat the Hedley Owls 71-48. Keith Watt was high scorer with 18 points followed by Steve Mullins with 10. On January 2 and 3 they played in the Briscoe Tourney. In the first game, Groom beat us 60-42. Kelly Harmon was high scorer with 24 points followed by Keith Watt with 12. In the second game, Kelton beat us 73-50. Keith Watt had 27 points and Tony Monroe had 9.

The Jr. High schedule has been changed for Thursday, January 9. Lela will play at Hedley and we'll go to Lela on February 3. On Saturday, January 10, the Jr. High teams will travel to Silverton for a tournament.

Among those from out of town attending the services were Charlie and Eunice Johnson and Ollie Malone of White Deer, Clyde and Lucille Johnson of Saginaw, Texas, Lewis Johnson of Amarillo and Lloyd and Theola Leeper of Clarendon.

On Saturday, memorial services were held in the Methodist Church for Mrs. Tillie Spalding. She was the mother of Alfred Spalding and Mrs. Jim Anna Holland of Clarendon.

Saturday afternoon, graveside services were held for Lee Anderson. Among those attending were Woodrow and Ora Pearl Farris, Hobart Moffitt, Jim and Jean Taylor and Connie Taylor. Ernest and Ann Taylor and Mrs. Bonnie Davis of Clarendon also attended. Mr. Anderson was a cousin of Taylor's.

Thousands of years ago, people had to live near a safe water source if they wanted to have water for drinking, cooking, bathing and washing, or carry water by hand over long distances. The ancient Romans had 13 aqueducts totalling about 220 miles. Wooden reservoirs and pipe systems used in the 17th and 18th centuries were surprisingly good and long-lasting, but chances for contamination were great and water pressure was low.

Today, a safe inexpensive supply of drinking water is something we take for granted. New technology and research are making our water supply better all the time. Water industry professionals strive to provide the best water possible to the public. About 70 percent of our drinking water is supplied by the 3,000 utility members belonging to the American Water Works Association (AWWA). AWWA has petitioned Congress for swift passage of the amendments to the 1985 Safe Drinking Water Act, calling for a speedy setting of additional drinking water standards.

If you have any questions about the quality of your water contact your local water utility. They will be happy to answer your questions.

How very exciting to anticipate. We stand on the threshold of a new year. It is fresh, untouched, unspoiled -- ours to use as our God wills it. The Bible reminds us that time is fleeting. "...What is your life?" The inspired penman inquired. "It is even a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." (James 4:14). We are admonished to (redeem) the time, because the days are evil" (Ephesians 5:16). Time is a sacred trust. It is given to us by our Heavenly Father. Every moment of every day of every year is a gracious gift. We have no inherent right to it -- He sovereignly bestows it.

time," or, "I would take on more responsibility if I had more time." OK, "I just don't have time to teach that class or write that letter or visit that sick person or work with the youth or witness to that friend." Well, the fact of the matter is, we do have time. Time is a fixed commodity. We all have the same number of seconds, minutes and hours in each day. We can't save time, we can't get more time, we can't manage time - these concepts are fallacious. What we can do, by God's grace, is manage ourselves with respect to time. We can't change time - we can change ourselves. When we change ourselves, we get more accomplished for God. We can eliminate non-productive, low priority or outright wrong activities, and replace them with appropriate, valuable activities. I'm reminded of the truth in the familiar cliché "Only one life, 'Twill soon be past. Only what's done for Christ will last."
God bless you and have a "Blessed" New Year.

JANUARY

1840 - The flagship of the Republic of Texas Navy, the Austin, was commissioned. It was in active service until July 1843 and was under the command of Edwin Ward Moore.

1540 - Francisco Vázquez de Coronado was appointed by Viceroy Mendoza of New Spain (Mexico) to lead an expedition to find the Seven Cities of Cibola. The expedition failed, but it did explore much of the Southwest including parts of Texas.

1906 - The first large oil strike was made in the Humble Oil Field in Harris County. By the end of the year it produced two million barrels and eventually produced more than Spindletop.

1974 - The Texas Legislature, in an effort to revise the one hundred year old constitution, convened as a constitutional convention amid controversy about whether the legislature should also serve as a constitutional revision body.

1842 - General Mariano Arista of the Mexican Army warned Texans from his base at Monterrey that their plans for independence were futile and that a Mexican invasion was on its way.

1901 - The Spindletop Oil Field near Beaumont began with the Lucas Gusher. The discovery of oil proved to be one of the most significant events in Texas history because of the way it transformed the Texas economy.

1949 - The Fifty-First Texas Legislature began its session. Before it ended it would prove to be the longest regular session in history, and it passed the landmark Gilmer-Aikin school financing law.
