School Book Question.

News comes from Austin that the text-book situation is becoming more and more interesting as the days come and go, not only to the publishers, but to the members of the text-book board.

One thousand books of different kinds have been received, and it is quite likely that many more will be received before the time appointed for hearing the publishers on the merits of their books, and the opening of bids, July 1.

If the members of the board should read all the books offered for adoption it would require just one year to do so. The statements of the publishers must, therefore, be taken, or else some other means resorted to of determining the merits of the books offered for adoption by the board. Of readers alone there are 27 different kinds.

The present series of text-books for the public schools is not entirely satisfactory to the teachers of the state, and a strong effort is being made to adopt a new series altogether.

The town is swarming with publishers, agents and attorneys of publishing companies, both Northern and Southern, principally from the North, and some stirring times are expected. The board expects that at least forty days will be necessary to give proper consideration to the books, and it will be some time after the first of August before the books are selected.

Gov. Bailey of Kansas has called a special session of the legislature to relieve the flood sufferers.

Franklin county went pro by 85 majority Saturday.

Cloudburst Blots Out 400 Lives.

From 350 to 400 lives were sacrificed by the cloudburst which destroyed the greater part of Heppner, Ore., Sunday night. According to the most reliable estimates obtainable more than 100 bodies have been identified and buried. Scores of others have been found which it is impossible to identify because of their blackened and distorted condition.

The number of missing is between 150 and 200 and it is very certain that all these are dead. In some places just below Heppner, wreckage and debris are still piled mountain high, and it will be weeks before all the bodies are recovered. In fact, it is probable that some will never be found.

The property loss is estimated at upwards of $1,000,000. More than 150 houses were destroyed.

There was some plundering of the ruins Sunday night and next day, but a large force of deputy sheriffs has been sworn in and the ghoul has decreased depredations. Homeless people crowd every available house, and tents have been provided for many.

In the fifty-foot wall of water which swept down through the town Sunday evening dozens of bodies were carried down Willow creek canyon for miles. In the rush of subsiding waters during Sunday night, cries of distress were heard in the monumental piles of debris and the first rescuer worked like demons to hunt out and find the perishing injured, but in many cases it was too late by the time the sufferers were located in the dense darkness.

Best Yearling Sale.

An exchange says E. L. Wicker, of Borden county, has sold 50 head of yearling steers to John Martin at $19 around, and the steers have been shipped to Sioux City, Ia. This is the best sale of yearlings made in that immediate section this season, and the buyer would have been glad to get more at the same price if he could have found them. The yearlings were well bred. They also had the benefit of some feed, clearly proving that it not only pays to put the best blood we can get into our range herds, but there is money in the proposition of feeding and finishing them for market on the range where they are produced. The purchaser pronounced them fully as good as Iowa natives, and that is certainly a concession to Texas range raised cattle, when one of the oldest feeding states will acknowledge our range stuff is as good as they can produce in the state.

St. Louis Boodlers Still Active.

Former Lieut. Gov. John E. Lee testified before the St. Louis grand jury Tuesday that he had been offered $1,000 a month to place himself beyond the reach of the Grand Jury until after the boodle investigation is over. The proposition was made just after he went to Kansas City from Jefferson City. Mr. Lee said he was approached by some man he did not know who offered him $1,000 a month to stay clear of the Grand Jury.

Oran Haskins, of Fort Worth, was refused a change of venue in his railroad damage suit, but was finally granted a continuance to September.

Railway Casualties.

Railway reports show that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, the total number of casualties to persons on account of railway accidents, was 73,250, including 8,588 killed and 64,662 injured.

The number of passengers was 345, and the number injured was 6,683.

Of railway employes 2,969 were killed, and 50,524 were injured.

One out of every 401 employes was killed and one of every 24 employes was injured.

One passenger was killed for every 1,883,706 carried, and one injured for every 99,244 carried.

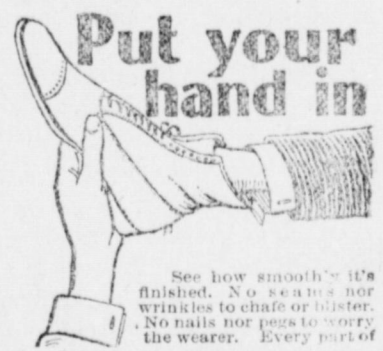

Ratios based upon the number of miles traveled, however, show that 57,072,283 passenger miles were accomplished for each passenger killed, and 29,245,272 passenger miles accomplished for each passenger injured.

Negotiations continue favorably for Baylor university to establish a medical school at Dallas.

English buyers are in the Texas market for 10,000 head of cattle for the English government, to be shipped to South Africa.

The flood conditions have greatly interfered with the West Texas cattle movement for the past two weeks, but now that there is assurance of general improvement there will be a general resumption of the former brisk movement.

The Weather Bureau's crop bulletin states that the second week of June was the coolest on record for that period and that growth of vegetation was deterred thereby in practically all districts east of the Rocky Mountains.

THE people of Servia had about the same feeling for Draga that the democrats have for Mark Hanna.

WONDER if the "humble example" of the Servian King marrying a designing woman older than himself will have any effect on many other thoughtless youths?

ONE cent per gallon extra for every gallon of oil sold in South Dakota is the decree proclaimed by the standard oil trust because that state requires a certain test.

LAST Tuesday, while heavy clothes were needed here, Thomas Nading, a farmer 60 years old was sunstruck at Richmond, Mo., while driving a hay wagon in a field.

WHO would have thought it! They say Hetty Green now owns a big, red automobile in which she delights to ride. We supposed from the stories of her parsimony she always hoofed it.

Is the feudists around Jackson, Ky., could be gathered up and sent to Servia, where their methods are more in common with the people, most of our own citizens would breathe a sigh of relief.

REALLY, we don't see why El Paso should have a flood. They may need water to wash off the alkali dust, but from what we saw of the place when there a few years ago, we don't think the people drink water.

SAM D. HOUSTON, who claimed to be a descendant of Gen. Sam Houston, was sentenced to 4½ years in the pen by a New York court last week for the theft of $5000 from his employer, a broker. He charged his downfall to high living and drink.

THEY say Servia is now at peace. If the Kentucky feudists would follow the Servian example and kill out the whole opposition at one swoop, then if the lawful authorities would hang the other faction that dark and bloody ground might soon have peace.

We are in receipt of J. E. Wimberly's Hale Center Messenger, a neat 20 column weekly, all home print. It is located in a fine county, among a fine class of people and we hope to see it thrive and its town become the Plains metropolis. The editor of THE CHRONICLE established the first paper in Hale Center, and within a few weeks of the first in the county, and we have a personal interest in that place.

We noticed in the program for the Fourth of July celebration at Memphis that the affair is to be opened by prayer and closed with a dance. This may not seem very consistent, but it demonstrates Memphis' ability to go all the gaits of the more pretentious towns.

King Peter I of Servia will be more of a prisoner of state than a monarch, for the new Government of the country will be a military dictatorship, with the leaders of the revolution at its head. They are profoundly indifferent to the change of rulers.

Since recording the death of G. C. Ferguson's baby in last issue, their little daughter, Callie May, nearly five years old died Wednesday night and was buried Thursday. This family has been sorely afflicted with sickness and death and a host of friends tender their deepest sympathy.

New Mexico Cattle Tax.

A correspondent of the Dallas News says that Texas cattlemen who have been induced to leave West Texas and settle in New Mexico on account of the free grass, have found after their arrival in the land of promise that the difference in taxes is a very important item. The News representative was talking with the representative of a big outfit that ranches both in Texas and New Mexico, and the question of State and Territorial taxes came up for consideration. The ranchman remarked that his outfit rendered $100,000 worth of cattle in New Mexico for taxes, and the Territorial tax on that amount annually aggregated $3,500. On this side of the line the taxes would be but about $1,000, and the difference in taxes alone for this particular outfit would pay the annual lease price of 3c per acre on about 130 sections of land, aggregating 83,333 acres in Texas. It would seem from this array of figures that there is not much money to be saved in moving from West Texas to New Mexico, in order to obtain free grass and avoid the payment of 3c per acre annual lease. Of course, all Texas ranching outfits that have moved over into New Mexico with the idea of getting the benefit of free grass have not been each worth $100,000. But let the value be what it may the relative position is the same in due proportion, and the small man who pays taxes on his outfit in that Territory will find that the difference in the tax rate would have been sufficient to annually have purchased him the privilege of grazing a considerable amount of grass in West Texas.

The truth of the business is, while there are a number of objections to the Texas land policy from the standpoint of the average ranchman, yet West Texas is a pretty good country after all, and the cowman who adapts himself to existing conditions in West Texas instead of trying to adapt those conditions to his own peculiar view, is the man who is going to make money and continue in the cattle business.

Reports come from Portales, N. M., of a considerable congestion of cattle at that point on account of the recent flood conditions. It is reported that 20,000 head are being shipped, but now that conditions are improved, it is expected they will go out rapidly.

Several carloads of Oklahoma Elberta peaches will be made to London, England, the matter having been decided between Secretary Thoburn of the Oklahoma Board of Agriculture and W. A. Taylor, pomologist in the Bureau of Plant Industry at Washington.

A. J. Barnett obtained judgment against H. Braley Thursday in a suit in county court for $778 commission in a land sale. T. H. B. Julian obtained a judgment yesterday against the Denver road for $100 damage to stock being shipped and another case of same kind is on trial today.

A Mr. Hughes living near the Hall county line brought in 60 gallons of dewberries Thursday and sold them out at 50 cents per gallon.

Dr. S. H. Stout has gone to housekeeping in one of Antrobus' houses, but since renting it he has bought W. B. Ware's property and will move to it next month.

Two dozen of the largest towns in Kansas have suffered losses by floods amounting to $12,300,000. The losses in the State outside of these towns are estimated at $15,000,000. Nebraska's losses are placed at $10,000,000. The total losses in these States and in Missouri and Illinois are estimated at $50,000,000. This is an enormous sum. The losses by flood in the Ohio Valley are also estimated at $50,000,000. In South Carolina the damage is placed at $3,500,000, and in Pennsylvania at $1,000,000. The death of Mrs. Smith Stephens and her two little children, all to take place last week at Amarillo, is sad news. Mrs. Stephens was a good, noble hearted woman. Criticism of Newspapers A Good Thing.

"I never knew a man who was hurt by newspaper publications except men who should have been hurt," was the just comment made by Chief Justice Fitzsimmons of the New York city court, in an interview with reference to the absurd libel law recently put upon the statute books of Pennsylvania. "I believe," added Judge Fitzsimmons, "that one reason why our nation has risen is that our public men have been subject to criticism. Such watchful criticism tends to make public servants careful, and where they do their duty thoroughly they should acquit themselves satisfactorily." In the judge's opinion, all questions of libel and slander may be safely left to the ordinary juries and courts of justice under the general law applying to such offenses, no special and extraordinary statute, such as that enacted in Pennsylvania, being needed. This is undoubtedly the common sense view of the situation. It is altogether too late in the day for attempts to muzzle the freedom of the press, and laws framed for that purpose are dead as soon as born. In Russia and Turkey they can do such things, but not in America.—Leslie's Weekly.

A Special Concession to Christian Endeavorers.

Through the co-operation of other Colorado Lines and for the benefit of those who will visit Denver upon the occasion of the 21st Annual Convention of The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, to be held July 9th to 15th, for which a rate of about one fare plus $2 for the round trip has been announced. "The Denver Road" has arranged that the final limits of tickets sold from Texas points shall be August 31st—instead of July 23rd as previously announced. Under this arrangement visitors will have ample time for a really beneficial vacation as well as unusual opportunities for sight seeing, which should, and doubtless will be much appreciated.

Texas World's Fair Fund.

As the Legislature could not make an appropriation for the purpose, if Texas is to be represented at the World's Fair the fund necessary for the erection of a building must be subscribed by her citizens, and in order to achieve satisfactory results, the funds must be subscribed and paid in at an early date.

The Texas World's Fair Commission at a recent meeting adopted a resolution declaring that unless $100,000 shall be subscribed by July 1, the project will be dropped and all subscriptions which have been paid in will be returned. The Commission also asked the newspapers of the State to take up the matter and receive subscriptions, and feeling that Texas will miss a great opportunity if not represented at the great Fair, we willingly open our columns for this purpose, and will in this column acknowledge all receipts for this laudable purpose and see that it reaches the Commission's treasurer.
