An Effort to Stop Gambling in Amarillo.

District Attorney Henry S. Bishop of this city, the 47 Judicial District has made petition before District Judge Ira Webster for a temporary injunction against gaming in which he makes G. A. Griffiths, J. A. Patton, Jake Bruner and Campbell Mountain defendants in this cause. In his petition for a temporary injunction which he asks for perpetuation at the May term he substantiates the acts of the Twenty-ninth legislature as follows: "That in Chapter 153 Acts of the Twenty-ninth legislature of said State of Texas it is provided that such uses of any part of a building as is alleged as hereinbefore shall be enjoined at the suit of said state, and that among other officers, the several district attorneys shall institute and prosecute such suits as is hereby instituted in this petition."

This particular clause refers to premises specified in the body of the petition in which it is alleged that gaming is carried on as prohibited by the laws of Texas.

Mr. Bishop also makes a petition for injunction and for perpetuation at the May term of court restraining H. E. Ortman and S. W. Guthrie, in which he alleges they control the premises where gaming is carried on, and also alleges that said defendants are maintaining a shooting gallery and rooms for lodging, and prays for a writ of injunction and restraining order restraining, prohibiting and enjoining each and all of said defendants from further using each or any of the above premises for the purposes hereinbefore stated.

Agitation of the gambling question in Amarillo seems to have at last brought about some action on the part of the authorities, and in view of the approaching elections it would seem the fight is on in earnest.—Herald.

Robbing the Farmer.

The variations in the prices of condimental compounds follow no known law except that, familiar to captains of industry, of exacting all the traffic will bear. Thus a horse and cattle powder containing wheat, oats, sulphur, saltpeter and Epsom salt retails at 36.3 cents a pound, which is precisely $816.75 a ton. The farmer knows the price of wheat, but he does not know the mysterious drugs in the wonder-working food, nor their cost. If he did, the horse medicine man's occupation would be gone. Mystery always has been the medicine man's strong card. The farmer knows that wheat feed retails at $1.20 per hundred pounds. He ought to be told that sulphur is quoted by drug trade papers at 2 cents and under a pound, saltpeter at 4 cents and less, and Epsom salt from 1 to 1.3 cents a pound. Less than 5 per cent, of this horse and cattle powder consisted of these inexpensive drugs, yet for this insignificant addition, at the most representing an outlay of two or three dollars a ton, the price is $816.75.—Tilden Sempers, in Magazine.

"The last word! Give me the word!" she shrieked.

"Dear," he sang "Go ahead and die the only way I'll like to get it."

Two Post-Office Systems.

The British postoffice makes a profit of $25,000,000 on a total business of $75,000,000. Ours loses $14,000,000 on a business twice as great.

The British service is far superior. The post man makes six rounds a day even in the smaller cities. A local letter mailed any where in London is delivered in a few hours. Rural free delivery is universal, not partial as with us. Delivery is daily anywhere in the kingdom except to "very distant farm houses." A four-ounce letter goes for two cents; our limit is one ounce. The registry fee is four cents; ours is eight cents. Parcels post costs from six cents up to 24 cents for eleven pounds. Our limit is four pounds at 32 cents for third-class matter and 64 cents for fourth-class matter.

"Special delivery" costs in Great Britain six cents a mile without other postage. Our rate is 10 cents flat with postage. British postal orders cost from one cent up to three cents for $2 11; money orders from four cents up to 20 cents for $200. Our money orders cost from three cents up to 30 cents for $100.

The shorter haul accounts only in part for the striking superiority of the British post. The main reason for the inferior character and greater cost of our own is that the money-order and parcels-post rates and limits are arranged to suit the express companies, and that the rates of payment to the railways for hauling the mails are fixed by a system so preposterous as actually to invite and reward the collusive defrauding of the government.—New York World.

No Football for Harvard.

Football has been abolished at Harvard pending a reform in the game that will be acceptable to the board of overseers, according to an official announcement from the university. The discontinuance of the game is the result of a vote taken last week at a secret meeting of the board of overseers, when it was decided that intercollegiate football at Harvard would not be permitted until the rules and regulations had been changed and amended as to remove what the overseers regard as the evils of the present game. The overseers accepted unanimously, opinions of a special committee that the game as at present played is essentially bad in every respect, that the method of formation encouraged trickery and foul play, and that the result is bad for the morals of the players as well as for the body.

Dr. Harper Left Little.

It was announced that the estate left by the late President Harper of Chicago University is small and consists almost entirely of life insurance policies. It is estimated that Dr. Harper during his life gave between $35,000 and $50,000 to the American Institute of Sacred Literature, a publishing concern in the work of which he was greatly interested. He also gave much money to needy students, but the amount of this will never be known. It is said that the entire estate is given to the widow without reserve.

Sid Williams has closed a meeting at Durant, I. T. in which over 100 persons were converted.

Carl Gingles, a young man about 26 years of age, died at Sherman Monday from an overdose of morphine. Tired of life.

Robt. Meade, a switchman, was knocked from the side of a car by a swith stand Wednesday at Greenville and was seriously injured.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robertson of north Fort Worth was run over and killed by an electric car Thursday. They recently moved there from Decatur.

J. D. Shuford, live stock agent of the Denver, reports good 4-year-old steers selling in the neighborhood of $30 and $35, with plenty of buyers on hand looking for stuff.

Wm. S. Ikard, a well-known cattleman of Henrietta, has gone into bankruptcy, with liabilities of $745,238.81 and assets $2,205.43. He failed some years ago and takes this method of clearing himself of all old debts.

The Orient railroad company now report 60 miles of track laid north of Sweetwater and fifty-three miles is now in operation to Sagerton, Haskell county, and will be open to Rule by Feb. 1 and to Knox City about March 1.

The business men of Henrietta have organized a Clay county Development League, who will begin active work looking to the further settlement of the country and city, as well as the further development of the various resources of the county.

Nannie Hudspeth, 12 years old, arose from her bed at Kyle, Texas, Sunday night and walked eight miles in her sleep to San Marcos, where she was found wandering on the streets next morning still asleep. Posses searched for the girl all night in the country. She remembers nothing of her experience.

President Roosevelt has declined to interfere with the findings of the court-martial in the case of Lieut. Sidney S. Burbanks, Sixth Infantry, recently sentenced in the Philippines to fifteen months' imprisonment and dismissal from the army. Burbanks was convicted of deserting his Filipino wife, who some time ago was granted a divorce and alimony. Sidney S. Burbanks is a native of Texas, entered the army Sept. 6, 1897, serving as private, corporal, sergeant and first sergeant, through the war with Spain. Oct. 1, 1899, he was commissioned second lieutenant and assigned to the Sixth Infantry, being promoted to first lieutenant April 9, 1901. The trial for divorce brought by his Filipino wife created a sensation at the time.

FRANCE is now talking of a little war with Venezuela. Diplomatic relations have been broken off, the French representative at Caracas recalled and two heavy protected cruisers are being sent to join the French Atlantic squadron as a result of the rupture with Castro.

It is said that Grover Cleveland is heartily sick of his job as referee of the Mutual and New York Life companies, and that he feels keenly the hostile criticism. When a $12,000 salary fails to soothe the feelings of Mr. Cleveland, the criticisms must be pretty bitter.

THERE were 83 suicides in Cleveland, O., during the last year, fifty of whom were over forty years of age. It is claimed that the Osier theory had some influence over them. The health officer there says: "Many of these, on reading the opinion of Dr. Osier concerning the age when men passed the period of usefulness and his theory regarding their being put out of the way when the period of usefulness was over, become despondent."

ACCORDING to reports from a Washington statistician, we are a nation of sugar eaters, consuming one-fourth of the world's product. During 1905 there were $150,000,000 worth of sugar brought here, an increase of $25,000,000 over 1894. This is in addition to the tremendous volume of sugar produced here. The average annual consumption for every person is 75 pounds.

EVERY time Congress meets a lot of time is wasted in treshing over the old question of reducing representation in the south. Warren Keifer of Springfield, Ohio, now makes the statement that he expects to introduce his bill proposing a reduction of representation of the southern states in the house soon. He has been occupied since he came to Washington in December collecting the on the subject, and will soon begin drafting the measure. Such measures are mostly for the purpose of harping on the disfranchisement of the negro.

Rip Pearce, who is wanted on a number of indictments, and more particularly for the theft of two car load of horses from R. S. Hutton deserves considerable praise for his energetic and successful pursuit and capture of Pearce.

Still Debating.

After six months of delay in the hearing of the beef trust cases, the question as to whether Commissioner Garfield violated the constitutional right of the packers in forcing them to produce records for the examination of his department, on which subsequently indictments were returned, was postponed Wednesday in Chicago because of the illness of one of the attorneys for packers.

Galveston News Man Dead.

GALVESTON, Jan. 15.—Singing the Scotch songs of his boyhood, conscious to the last, recognizing the members of his family, but with his mind wandering back to the days of his youth, such was the scene attending the death of Major Robert G. Lowe this morning, vice president of H. A. Belo & Co., proprietors of the Galveston-Dallas News.

Major Lowe was in his usual health until Saturday morning, when he was stricken with heart failure. He did not receive relief until Saturday afternoon, from which time he rested easily until Monday morning, when he was taken with a more serious attack than the first and it was apparent that the end was near at hand.

He was born June 13, 1837, at Brechin, Scotland. He sailed from Glasgow to New Orleans in 1856, when he was 19 years old.

In the early part of April, 1861, he entered the Confederate service at Shreveport, La., as a private in a company known as the Shreveport Grays, a part of Colonel Charles Dreux's battalion.

Subsequently Mr. Lowe was made a major and in that capacity served in the northern portion of Louisiana until the close of the war. After the war he became part owner of the Caddo Gazette, published at Shreveport, where he remained until he came to Galveston in 1874 and became connected with the Galveston News.

Resolutions on the death of Mrs. Burton.

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in His wise and mysterious providence has seen fit to remove our much loved sister, Nettie Burton; from her family, her duties and associations in this world to those Mansions which He has prepared for His faithful ones in heaven:

Therefore, be it resolved that she by her sweet christian character and faithfulness to duty has impressed on those who knew and loved her the beauty of true christianity, and while our hearts are saddened by her going away—for we shall miss her so much—we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father who doeth all things well. Moved secondly, that the Clarendon Methodist church and W. H. M. E. church, south, have lost a devoted and faithful member, and deeply mourn her death, we are grieved and feel that by her example have left us a legacy that will never die—the influence that her works will follow her to the end of time.

Resolved, thirdly, that we cherish her memory as a society we strive to emulate her example and strive to that all God's children can hope to be like her. Resolved, fourthly, that we extend our sympathy, love and prayers, commending them to the prayers, who will give grace for every sorrow and trouble.

Be it resolved, further, that a copy of these resolutions be given to our local Advocate for publication and that a copy be also sent to the bereaved family. Respectfully submitted, MRS. W. H. M. E. CHURCH, MRS. G. S. HAY, CHM., MRS. B. W. DODSON.

Texas For the Farmer.

More homeseekers will doubtless come to Texas during the year 1906 than during any previous year in the history of the State. All over the United States the people are looking for land upon which to establish their future homes. Almost everybody has come to the conclusion that the present is the time to buy land if it is to be had at a reasonable price. Texas is bound to prosper more by this move than any other State or section because there still can be had here more land suited for agriculture at a reasonable price than elsewhere. Then, too, Texas more strongly appeals to the homeseeker than any other State because of a superior climate and the fact that a greater diversity of crops is produced here at a profit than elsewhere. The attitude of Texas railroads in advertising the State and sending hundreds of immigration agents throughout the land is another great factor in the rapid development of this commonwealth. Keep your eye on Texas this year and for years to come. The Lone Star State is just beginning to grow.—Texas Stockman and Farmer.

Praises the Panhandle.

The Temple reporter of the Ft. Worth Telegram says that W. P. Morgan of Belton is a Bell county farmer who has great faith in the possibilities of West Texas, and is enthusiastic in his praise of the advantages possessed by that country. He owns a farm on the county line between Gray and Donley counties, in the Panhandle, that he planted last spring in seeded ribbon cane, securing the most astonishing results. Mr. Morgan is an enthusiast on seeded ribbon cane, and as an experiment sowed two acres in this land.

One-half of this he cut for syrup and realized 150 gallons of syrup therefrom, worth 50 cents per gallon. The other furnished him ample feed for stock lasting a long time. He is so well satisfied with his first trial that he will plant more freely in ribbon cane the coming season.

How the "System" Wants to Dispose of its Victims.

A lady lecturer in Philadelphia who is said to be "an authority on sociological subjects," is reported as having lately said from the lecture platform: "I had rather personally administer chloroform to the poor starving children of the cities than see them living as they do in squalor and misery." And she advocates that disposition of the painful subject. Another "authority" advocates the same measure toward the maimed and hopelessly diseased. These new ideas are cheerful and gratifying, and look forward to the near future when the city office of public killer shall be established, and when with bottle or club that functionary shall keep his ear strained for the cry of want, distress and pain. There is doubtless a class of minds to whom such disposition of vexing problems looks both simple and pleasant, and more feasible and merciful than ringing or wiring the noses of the trusts and financial hogs. And the period has arrived when the problem is to be solved. It is very apparent that just now "the survival of the fittest" means the continuance of the human hog.—Henrietta Review.

Folk and Hadley.

Our young Republican Attorney-General, Mr. Hadley, of this State, is rather overshadowing our reform Democratic Governor, Hon. Joe Folk. Mr. Hadley is proceeding against the Standard Oil trust with the view of enforcing the Missouri anti-trust law. He has gone to New York, put some of the oil trust magnates on the witness stand and is now appealing to the New York Appeal court to compel the witnesses to answer questions which they insolently refuse to answer. This move of Mr. Hadley's is entirely on his own hook and the Governor has nothing to do with it. It yet remains for Mr. Folk, as Governor, to prove his claim of being for the people in matters involving the monopolists. Gov. Folk made a fine record as Prosecuting Attorney of St. Louis and he has earned the praise of the people by enforcing the Sunday closing of saloons in St. Louis; but on the great anti-monopoly questions he has as yet taken no action. His message to the Legislature contained no recommendations along this line. Mr. Rockefeller, himself, is a Sunday observance man and had he been Governor of Missouri would likely have done about what Folk has done since he became Governor. Sunday closing of saloons is all right. It is the law and a good law, but there are mighty questions involving the welfare of the people that Gov. Folk is silent upon. We don't know how it happened that the Republican party, nominated Mr. Hadley for Attorney-General, but presume it was thought that Missouri was safely Democratic and that the Republican nomination was merely an empty honor.—Mo. World.

Mayor Dunne Scores Victory in Municipal-Ownership.

After a bitter struggle with a hostile City Council, prolonged for many months, Mayor Dunne gained a decisive victory for municipal ownership last week, when by a vote of 37 to 28 the City Council, after an all day session, passed an ordinance providing for municipal ownership of street railways, and another providing for their operation by the city.

Apparently it now only remains for the voters to give to the first ordinance a two-thirds vote and a three-fifths vote on the second proposition.

Mayor Dunne and his supporters claim that the referendum, which will be taken at the coming spring election, will be overwhelmingly in favor of the ordinance.

Then the only bar to realization of municipal ownership will be a possible adverse decision of the courts affecting the validity of the Mueller certificates by which the city expects to secure money to embark in the transportation business.

Clarence Darrow and other legal experts have assured the Mayor that the validity of the Mueller certificates will be upheld.

...it, is the whole story.

TRUNK The railroads from St. Louis to Texas are readjusting their mail train schedules to catch the new mail contracts. Some of the trains are to run 50 miles an hour and some disastrous wrecks are probable.

The supreme court of Tennessee has just reversed and remanded a case in which a lower court gave a judgment of $5,000 against the Nashville American for libel, in publishing the proceedings of a court trial. The higher court holds that a paper has a right to publish the court proceedings if given accurately and for the information of the public. The verbatim report need not be adhered to, so the actual facts be given.

Candidates and Newspapers.

The campaign for county offices is scheduled to open about Feb. 1. The Times has reached this conclusion from the fact that several of the candidates have authorized us to start them out at about that time. Our "starting" fees are the same as they were two years ago—$10 for county, $5 for precinct and city offices.—Wichita Times.

That does not look like a high price, and yet there comes to the ears of State Press indistinct rumblings as if somebody were making noises indicating dissatisfaction. In fact, if the truth must be told, as it should almost always be told, the candidates in many sections of the State are complaining loudly of the newspaper charges. They say that while such terms as are set forth above are not excessive in themselves, yet when a candidate has to pay them to all the newspapers he can not do it, unless he is rich. In substantiation of their claim that they are hard pressed, they call attention to the great number of papers published in nearly every county in the State. Not long ago one of the candidates explained to State Press that in Dallas county there were enough publications to swamp any candidate who might offer for office unless he had money enough not to want an office. The complaint may have good foundation, but the matter of running for office is purely voluntary. The office is not seeking the man these days, and is not forcing itself on any one. In fact, the office not is placing any one in a position where he has to pay out money to newspapers. The newspaper is a property, as much as a horse in a livery stable. The candidate uses the paper wholly for his benefit in the way of trying to secure something that will pay him a nice salary. The candidate would not go to the livery stable and ask the owner to give him the use of his stable free. He would not explain to him that the number of stables ought to appeal to the owner to the extent of making him turn his horses and vehicles over to him. Yet, he complains because he is charged a reasonable price for the use of newspaper columns, though he is sure to get more benefit from that source than from any other. The candidate who does not think he ought to pay his expenses in running for office ought not to run. His act, as has been stated, is voluntary. If he does not think the papers benefit him he ought not to patronize them. If he thinks they will benefit him he ought to patronize them. It is up to him all along the line.—Dallas News.

Cooke County Pros Win.
Feb. 9, a local option election held in Cooke county in which the face of the returns showed 40 votes anti majority. The pros contested the election on the grounds of bribery and the unlimited use of whisky and cigars, and by the payment of a number of poll taxes out of a fund raised by the antis. "The question to be decided," says the decision, "is, 'Has the court trying a contested election case the power to set aside a local option election for bribery where a sufficient number of bribed votes have been cast to affect the results?' This question, we think, should receive an affirmative answer. Article 3397 of our revised statutes empowers any court of competent jurisdiction (which is now the district court) to adjudge a local option to be void when it is made to 'appear from the evidence that the election was illegally or fraudulently conducted.' We cannot well conceive of a clearer case of illegality, and fraud in the holding of an election than one in which a fair expression of the will of the majority is defeated by conspiracy and bribery." In conclusion Justice Stephens says: "A pure and untrammelled ballot is of far more importance to the people of Texas than the success or failure of any proposed local measure, however good or bad it may be. Because the court erred in sustaining the general demurrer the judgment is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial."

Memphis.
S. B. Garrott of Estelline has bought an interest in his brother's mercantile business here and can now be found behind the counter at the Cash Store. J. W. Wallace Wednesday bought the W. F. White place he has been living on just west of the public school. He paid $1250 for the property and got it cheap. It is quite a desirable place. Captain B. F. Wright has been appointed by the state chairman as chairman of the democratic committee of Hall County in place of J. P. Drake, resigned. He is an old Confederate soldier and a life long democrat. by the persons who are insisted on the biggest navy and the biggest vessels that the strained resources of a government can buy, so that America may keep to the front in the ridiculous race with other maritime powers. Whereas a few years ago the most powerful ships known cost two or three millions, such battleships as are now planned will cost with their armament from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000—prodigious sums which might far better be devoted to permanent improvements than expended for warships that in a few years will be worthless for any purpose. And the strongest reason for checking the wild policy of naval expansion is that the country does not need any more ships for national defense.—American Farmer.

The boy or the girl who lives on a farm should not write a poor, cramped, scrawny hand, nor should he be unable to cope with the city boy anywhere and everywhere. Hence he should go to school. Circumstances may make it best for him to leave the farm and enter upon some other business. If it should be so, education makes him able to enter any sphere.—Ex.

The American hog has a virulent enemy in the editor of a paper at Big Springs, Tex., who proceeds to roast the great mortgage-lifter in the following caustic fashion: The hog is the dadblamedest, split-footed, long-snouted, busybody animal we ever saw. He can make a fellow madder than other animals that infest the premises. He will always squeal and muddy your pants when he knows you are trying to feed him. He will get in your garden through a knothole and destroy enough produce in three minutes to feed your wife and children for three months. He will pay no attention to a wide-open gate where you want him to go through, but will shovel out several cubic yards of dirt to make a hole into a place you don't want him to go. He is the biggest nuisance and most profitable on the farm. You will never know the trouble and pleasure of life until you raise hogs. They are a bother and a vexation to the spirit of man while they live, but bring joy and contentment to the soul of man when they die at hog-killing time.

People of Beaver county can take care of themselves. They are the most resourceful people on earth. They are light-hearted and hospitable. They can live for months on Kaffir corn or sit down to an elephant dinner and will not founder themselves. We know a party who lives near the railroad track and has a large family. He has only bought 45 cents worth of coal this winter. He hung a soda water bottle on the wire fence filled with red water. The firemen threw nearly a ton of coal at the bottle before they broke it. The gentleman came to town Monday after another soda water bottle.—Guy-mon Herald.

THE BEST PAPERS

The papers you want are the papers that will suit your entire family best. A combination that will answer this requirement is this paper and the Fort Worth Semi-Weekly Record. The Record is a general newspaper of the best type; ably edited, splendidly illustrated, it carries a news service which is the best that knowledge and experience can suggest. Special features of the Record appeal to the housewife, the farmer, the stockraiser and the artisan.

The colored comic pictures printed in the Friday edition are a rare treat to the young folks. Its market news alone is worth the money. You will surely be a constant reader of the Record once you try it, and the favorable clubbing offer made below is an opportunity not to be missed:

SPECIAL CLUBBING OFFER.

Every man should subscribe to his local paper, because from it he secures a class of news and useful information that he can get nowhere else. He should, however, also subscribe to a first-class general newspaper. Such a newspaper is The Dallas Semi-Weekly News. Thousands of its readers predicate it the best general newspaper in the world. Its secret of success is that it gives the farmer and his family just what they want in the way of a family newspaper. It furnishes all the news of the world twice a week. It has a splendid page where the farmers write their practical experiences on the farm. It is like attending an immense farmers' institute. It has pages especially gotten up for the wife, for the boys and for the girls. It gives the latest market reports. In short, it gives a combination of news and instructive reading matter that can be secured in no other way.

For $1.75 cash in advance, we will send the Semi-Weekly News and THE CLARENDON CHRONICLE. Each for one year. This means you will get a total of 208 copies. It's a combination which can't be beat, and you will secure your moneys worth many times over.
