CLARENDON, DONLEY COUNTY TEXAS. SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1907

No 34

Violation of Local Option to Be Made a Felony.

Governor Campbell has sent the following message to the legislature:

"To the Legislature: Pursuant to section 40, article 3, of the constitution of the state of Texas, I present for your consideration the subject of enacting a law to prohibit the keeping or operating or maintaining of any house, place or premises in any county, justice precinct, town, city or other political subdivision of a county in which local option is in force in this state, for the purpose of selling intoxicating liquors and to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in such local option territory from such house, place or premises so kept, or otherwise, in such local option territory and prohibiting the equipment or furnishing of any house, place or premises situated in such local option territory to be used for the sale of intoxicating liquors in such local option territory and providing for the search of such places or premises so kept and for the seizure of property found in use in such place or on such premises and the liquors found therein and providing for the disposition of same and providing for the termination of the rights and interests of tenants violating the provisions of such law and to prescribe suitable penalties for the violation of such law covered by the subject here presented and I recommend that a penalty of confinement in the penitentiary for a suitable term of years be provided for the violation of such law."

In response to the above, a bill was introduced in the house by Moore of Grayson, making it a felony for any person or firm to conduct an establishment where intoxicating liquors are kept for sale in local option territories, and was given a unanimous favorable report by the house committee on liquor traffic.

New Scalp Bounty Law.

Section 1. That hereafter when any person shall kill in this state any wolf, either coyote or lobo, panther, Mexican lion, tiger, leopard, or wild cat, he shall be paid the sum of 50 cents for each coyote, wolf or wildcat, and $2.50 for each panther, Mexican lion, tiger, leopard or lobo wolf so killed.

Sec. 2. The scalps of such animals so killed shall be presented by the persons having killed such animals to the commissioners' court of the county in which animal or animals were killed, and upon filing a written affidavit before the county judge of said county stating when and where they killed said animals and kind of each.

Sec. 3. Such scalps shall consist of sufficient portion of said animal's hide, including the ears and both forefeet thereof, to determine whether the scalp has been taken from one of the above named animals, and the commissioners' court may in all cases, when it is not satisfied as to the sufficiency of the evidence before it under this act, may reject any and all claims. The commissioners' court shall destroy all such scalps as soon as practicable.

Sec. 4. And the sum of $100,000 is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the payment of the above named bounties.

Hamill Scott, who was shot down by Thomason in Fort Worth March 22, died Wednesday morning after a hard struggle for life. His death is the third victim of the tragedy, which shocked the city during the recent cattlemen's convention. With his spinal cord cut there was no chance for his recovery and it was only the wonderful vitality of the man that kept him alive so long.

LEGISLATIVE.

The governor has signed the following bills:

Appropriating $10,000 for the erection of a granite monument over the grave of Gen. Sam Houston at Huntsville.

To provide for revising, digesting and publishing the civil and criminal laws of the state of Texas, effective July 11.

Prohibiting insolvent corporations, domestic and foreign, from doing business in the state of Texas, and providing for quo warranto proceedings to have the charter or permit of such corporation forfeited.

Amending the Terrell election law of the Twenty-ninth legislature, providing for a blanket primary for the nomination of state and district officers, also providing that before a platform demand is adopted by a state convention it shall have been petitioned and voted on by the people.

Creating a state mining board, providing for a state mine inspector and fixing his salary at $1,500 a year and expenses not exceeding $500 a year. The new act regulates mines so as to require safety appliances for all mines. Effective in 90 days.

Wednesday after working on it two days the senate passed the textbook bill. Uniform system is limited to certain studies and the board is forbidden to consider the bid of any publisher related to a trust. As a further precaution against such a thing every corporation bidding for a contract of supply books must submit a sworn statement, signed by all its members of said firm; whether any firm or corporation has any financial interest in said firm; also whether any individual member or members of said firm have any financial interest in any other publisher, publishing firm or corporation of publishers. By providing in this bill that the members of the board should be named not later than Jan. 1, 1908, the senate complied with the governor's objection to that provision of the other bill which required him to appoint them as soon as practicable.

Lumber Dealers in Federal Court.
The cases of seven Oklahoma lumber dealers, under indictments for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, were called in the United States district court at Guthrie, Ok., Tuesday. Four of the cases are of Oklahoma lumbermen alleged to have maintained a pool and to have arbitrarily fixed the retail price of lumber. Indictments have been found repeatedly in territorial courts, but the territorial laws were found inadequate, and it never has been possible to secure a conviction. The cases were called and the first of this character in Oklahoma to come to trial in the federal court.

The legislature has consumed over two-thirds of the time of the extra session and the platform demands have not been met yet. It is not believed the legislature will be able to meet them in the time they have left.—Wichita Falls Herald.

It is not believed the legislature really desires to incorporate all the state democratic platform demands into law. The legislature is composed of some good men, some not so good and a few that fall yet lower. And all of these are vastly inflated with what may appropriately be designated as legislative influence. They are feeling their oats.—Telegram.

STATE NEWS.

The railroad commission has issued an order granting an extension of time to the railroads in which to furnish plans and specifications for the construction of a causeway across Galveston bay, from May 1 to July 1.

During a heavy electrical storm Tuesday at Comanche the home of E. J. Youngblood was struck by lightning and destroyed. The family was across the street nursing a sick neighbor, and so escaped harm. Two stoves in the building were melted by the bolt.

Silas Cock was shot in the temple and right hand while in a quarrel at the home of his brother-in-law, Bill Henderson, in Wichita Falls Thursday night. It is charged that Cock carried a shotgun. The authorities say that Henderson had a .38-caliber pistol. Both were arrested.

A movement has been started at Brownsville toward raising by popular subscription $10,000 to be paid as a reward to any soldier or officer of the Twenty fifth infantry who will confess to having participated in the raid on Brownsville last August or will give the names and produce the necessary evidence to convict those who are guilty.

There are a few crops of wheat in Wilbarger county that will be harvested. The green bugs and the dry spring weather has damaged it at least 75 per cent. But we will have a good crop of peaches and other fruit. Cotton will be the principal crop this year in this county, the Pease river cantaloupe thrown in as a side issue.—Vernon Call.

A sale is reported of 13,181 acres of land in Cottle county, formerly a part of the Moon ranch. Alfred Ogden, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the purchaser, paying $7.50 an acre, or about $100,000 for the tract. It will be cut up into small tracts for sale to farmers. A profit of $2.50 an acre on 13,181 acres of land, about $30,000, was made in six months.

Dr. Gambrell, superintendent of Baptist missions in Texas, stated in Dallas Tuesday that he had just mailed to the home mission board of the Southern Baptist convention a check for $28,000, and to the foreign board a check for $35,000. These amounts, together with the amounts already sent forward during the year, will make the total collection from Texas $90,000.

Arthur Powell, a negro, and a brother to Felix Powell, who was hanged in Victoria about 30 days ago for the murder of the Condit family at Edna, Tex., was killed Wednesday at Edna. Sheriff A. C. Egg is held to the grand jury. Sheriff Egg was informed that Arthur Powell had said he was going to kill him for hanging Felix Powell, if he had to waylay him to do it; that Arthur Powell had come to town and brought his gun and ammunition along with him, and that he was then in town.

The sale of over 250,000 acres by the land office of the Texas & Pacific during the year 1906, says the Wall Street Journal, shows how rapidly the lands of the southwestern railroads are being disposed of. It is safe to say that nothing, aside from the building of the railroads themselves and the introduction of population, has contributed so much to the growth of wealth in the southwest as the sale of railway lands to settlers. Last year's average price was $4.38 per acre, of which 23.2 per cent. was paid in cash and 76.8 per cent. on notes bearing 6 per cent. interest. At such prices the terms are by no means burdensome.—Ex.

Grand jury adjourned Thursday after returning ten indictments, six felonies and four misdemeanors.

Frank Myers, horse theft, found guilty and sentenced to two years in state prison.

W. E. Gillen, swindling, found guilty and sentenced to two years in state prison.

Calvin Cleyton, burglary, found guilty and sentenced to two years in reformatory.

State vs. Tom Goodwin, forgery; plea of guilty and sentenced to two years in the reformatory.

C. M. Mickle vs. F. W. & D. road, suit for $25,000 for personal injury in wreck; dismissed by plaintiff after going to trial.

The suit of Mrs. Frankie Housells for divorce against R. S. Housells, alleging desertion and other allegations, a decree was given in favor of the plaintiff whereby she obtains an absolute divorce but retains the name of Housells.

Frank James, ex bandit and ex-showman, put in a bid at the opening of the big pasture and was awarded a quarter of land in a splendid agricultural region near Fletcher, and came to Oklahoma several weeks ago prepared to make this land his home. When it came time to check up his purchase in land office, however, it was found that there was a lease on the land which would not expire for four years, and he will have to wait that much longer before he becomes an Oklahoma ranchman. He returned to his home in Kansas.—Hobart Democrat.

The governor has signed the bill allowing district attorneys $15 per day, where their districts cover four counties.

The "early easter-early spring" prophet is as much of an Ananias as other prognosticators.

The slick lawyers in the senate got in their work and defeated the bill permitting nine jurors to return a verdict in civil cases.

The Missouri legislature has passed a bill fixing the telegraph rate in the state at 25 cents for ten words and 1 cent for each additional word.

The statement comes from Washington that President Roosevelt has determined that Representative Nicholas Longworth, his son-in-law, shall succeed Senator Foraker in the senate from Ohio. The recent slur upon Nicholas by Senator Foraker is said to be deeply resented by the president, who proposes to show the senator the real power of the administration, even in the Buckeye state.

It is stated that a majority of the democratic senators have declared they will vote for Senator Culbertson of Texas for the place of minority leader of the senate, to succeed Senator Joseph C. S. Blackburn of Kentucky, who retires from the senate on the 4th of March. Senator Daniels' name has been frequently mentioned in connection with the position of floor leader, but he has not encouraged the talk.

The American Society of Equity has issued a call for a national convention to be held at Omaha June 5, 6 and 7, to determine the marketing and pricing of grain. It is proposed to have all the delegates agree on a plan to fix the price of wheat in the farmers' hands at $1 a bushel, and also to have farmers make their obligations fall due Jan. 1 instead of Oct. 1, so that wheat will not have to be dumped on the market to pay bills.

Editor Koch, of the Quana Tribune, hasn't a very high idea of the average legislator. He says: "The legislature is still industriously engaged in raising Cain. The people are really to blame for not sending better material to Austin. The average legislator is usually a man of no more than very mediocre sense—poorly posted about affairs that do not directly concern him, and such being the case, a sharp politician or shrewd lobbyist have little trouble in making him see things their way. In such hands he is like wax."

The fact that good heavy draft horses are selling at from $175 to $225 each is proof of the growing demand. No business in America will give more pleasure or more profit for the next 10 or 12 years than raising high class, large, beautiful, sound and fast trotting horses; but good sense, good judgment, constant care and watchfulness to produce, raise, educate and bring to market just what the world wants, is a condition precedent to success. Why is it that our western farmers cannot fit their horses for the market, instead of selling to men who make it their business? Farmers have every means that the professional feeder has to put horses in condition.

On the Trail of the American Missionary.

We will begin next Saturday a series of very interesting, illustrated articles by Wm. T. Ellis, the distinguished American journalist, who is traveling abroad for the purpose of investigating the American foreign missionary, from a disinterested, secular and non-sectarian standpoint, dealing with conditions in all heathen lands. This will be high quality magazine matter, and you should not miss it. We will give about three columns each Saturday.

Official May Weather Record.

The following data for the month of May, covering a period of 15 years, have been compiled from the weather bureau records at Amarillo. They are issued to show the conditions that have prevailed during the month in question, for the above period of years, but must not be construed as a forecast of the weather conditions for the coming month.

Mean or normal temperature, 64 degrees. The warmest month was that of 1896, with an average of 69; the coldest month was that of 1900, with an average of 62; the highest temperature was 98, on May 27, 1896; the lowest temperature was 30, on May 1, 1903; the earliest date on which killing frost occurred in autumn, October 16, 1903; average date on which killing frost occurred in autumn, November 1; average date on which killing frost occurred in spring, April 16; the latest date on which last killing frost occurred in spring, May 28, 1893.

Average precipitation for the month, 2.49 inches; average number of days with .01 of an inch or more, 8; the greatest monthly precipitation was 9.14 inches in 1902; the least monthly precipitation was 1.30 inches in 1894; the greatest amount of precipitation recorded in any 24 consecutive hours was 3.86 inches on May 24, 1905.

Average humidity at 7 a. m. was 77; average at 7 p. m., 44; average number of clear days, 17; partly cloudy days, 8; cloudy days, 6.

The prevailing winds are from the south. Average hourly velocity of the wind is 14.6. Highest velocity of the wind was 64 miles from the west on May 8, 1898.—Amarillo Daily Panhandle.

Outrage by Cattlemen.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 29.—An explosion of dynamite at John Linn's sheep camp in Trapper Creek, Big Horn county, last night killed 700 sheep and completely destroyed camp wagons and other possessions of the camp.

The story of the outrage was told today by a herder, who said that a band of masked men raided the camp and, after binding him securely, arranged for the work of destruction.

A similar attack was made upon a sheep camp in the Trapper Creek section two years ago.

Bowie joint-keepers continue to violate the local option law, and Tuesday the citizens there held a mass meeting and decided to take things into their own hands. As a result four resorts were raided and liquor valued, it is estimated, at $2,000, seized, loaded into a boxcar and shipped back to Fort Worth. The raid was extremely quiet, proprietors of the places put out of business contenting themselves in threatening suits for damages. The mistake the citizens made was in not piling the stuff out in the street and making a bonfire of it. The wholesale dealers in Fort Worth knew they were aiding in the violation of law in shipping it to Bowie, and it should have been their loss. It is to be hoped the felony clause will become a law and all such violators will be put in jail or the pen.

LATER.—The next day it was learned that the Fort Worth liquor dealers instructed the railway agent not to ship the stuff back, when a large number of the citizens formed and went in a body to the boxcar where the liquor was taken out, carried some distance away and publicly burned. Such determination adhered to will prevent the disreputable business in the future.

Amarillo free school closed yesterday.

Part of the drilling apparatus at Denton broke the neck of Bart Harris. Death was instantaneous.

The residence on the farm of Houston Hale, one-half mile west of Chillicothe, occupied by S. R. Stewart, burned to the ground Tuesday. Caused by a defective flue.

The governor signed the general appropriation bill Thursday striking out $40,000 for a laboratory for the medical school at Galveston and $15,000 for printing and binding and court reports. The governor vetoed the scalp bounty, feeble minded home and addition to the land office bills, carrying large appropriations. The governor has ordered the special election to decide the constitutional amendments for the first Tuesday in August.

What is said to be the largest egg farm in the world is owned and managed by C. E. L. Haywood, at Hancock, N. H. It has at this time over 8,400 hens, kept in 600 small houses, 14 in each. The hens are never allowed outside their little 8-foot square coops, and are never fed green grain, contrary to the teaching of about all poultry feeders. Each hen gets a quarter of a pound per day of beef scraps, gluten, hominy feed, wheat, etc., with a little salt, ground shell, grit and charcoal, and plenty of clean water. An annual profit of $1 per hen is reported as proof of the practicability of his system.

August 6, 1907, is the date on which the voters of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory will express by ballot their opinion of the Constitution drafted for the new state at a recent convention. If the Constitution, as proposed, is ratified, it remains only for the President to issue his proclamation to complete statehood, and this he should do within 21 days. The document has many commendable features, and puts the forty-sixth state upon a solid rock by surrounding its citizens with ample safeguards.

P. L. Person left yesterday for Kansas City and Chicago to interest more corn belt farmers in the Panhandle. He took with him over $15,000 worth of deeds to land which he will deliver to purchasers who have returned from their trips out here.—Amarillo Daily Panhandle.

Salt Production.
 The reported production of salt in the United States during 1904 was 22,030,002 barrels (of 280 pounds), valued at $6,021,222, as compared with 18,968,089 barrels, valued at $5,286,988 in 1903. This is the largest production ever reported except in 1902, but the average net price per barrel (27.332 cents) is lower than that reported in 1903 (27.873 cents) or in any previous year, with the exception of 1902, when the average net price realized was only 23.769 cents a barrel.

Dr. Jas. W. Hicks, the eye specialist of Amarillo who filled his appointment here Thursday and Friday, reports a fair run of business.
There will be services conducted at the Christian church Sunday, morning and night, by Rev. C. C. Bearden. Everybody cordially invited.
Rev. Wilson C. Rogers and wife left last night on a business trip to Crowell, Dallas, Ennis and Vinyard. They will be gone about 10 days.

Read Hayter Bros.' ad. in this issue calling attention to their high-grade and tailor-made clothing. They have a large stock and can please you.
Rev. W. L. Whitley, an old acquaintance of J. H. King, who lives at Temple, stopped off here Thursday for a visit while enroute home from the Plains.

Mrs. Wilson C. Rogers received and delivered two beautiful monuments Wednesday. One to T. M. Tinkle and one to J. J. Woodward. If you need any kind of monumental work it will pay you to see her.
Dr. Stocking places a professional card again in the CHRONICLE, through which he tells you he is still as active in the practice of medicine as ever. He has had a longer practice in the Panhandle than any other in this part of the state.

Stocking always has wall paper. The best variety of optical goods ever brought to Clarendon on sale at Clower's.
Another big frost last night and thin ice this morning. It is hoped that this will be the winding up of the cold weather.

John Caldwell, a 17-year-old college student who has been sick for some time with a complication of diseases, died last night about 8 o'clock. He had the best of attention and all was done for him that was in the power of the faculty and fellow students, but without avail. His parents, who live in Lubbock county, will arrive today. We do not yet know what arrangements will be made for burial.

There are about 20 cases of smallpox in Amarillo. The disease is in mild form, but in some instances owing to other complications, it has proven more serious. The authorities have placed a ban on public gatherings for a time.

Burial of Victims of Tragedy.
Several Masons went from Clarendon over to the Owens burial at Alanreed Saturday. We have been asked to reproduce the Alanreed report to the daily press, as follows: "S. B. Owens, the prominent land and cattle owner and vice-president of the bank of this place, who lost his life in Thursday's tragedy at Rockledge Switch, was laid to rest in the city cemetery Saturday evening by the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member.

"Mr. Owens had lately moved from near Roswell, N. M., where he had much interest in lands and cattle. He had many friends in New Mexico who were grieved to learn of the sad occurrence.
"The body of B. S. Turbyfill, of Vernal, Utah, who also lost his life, and the slayer of S. B. Owens, was carried across the country to Clarendon for burial. Mr. Turbyfill was buried beside his children. A wife and children mourn his loss. He had many acquaintances and friends in and around Clarendon who deeply deplore his passing away."

GREATEST MAGAZINE AND PAPER CLUB EVER OFFERED
By Any Paper—What One Dollar and Ninety Cents Will Do.
This paper, at quite an expense and a great deal of work, has arranged a Club offer of fourteen well-known Papers and Magazines, including the Clarendon Chronicle for only One Dollar and Ninety Cents. Realizing that we could largely increase our circulation, we entered into a contract to use the Papers and Magazines that compose this Club. The Chronicle does not make a cent out of this offer. In fact, we lose money, but by increasing our circulation we can secure more advertising and also get a better rate for same. No paper ever before made an offer that equals ours. Every paper goes to you for one full year. Their combined values, including the Chronicle, is over $9.00. We are only able to make this offer for a very short time, and it will positively be withdrawn soon. If you want the best bargain ever offered you, order the Club now.
The Planter's Journal, Memphis, Tenn., in its 17th year, published monthly, Col. Hugh L. Bedford, editor, one of the best known agricultural writers in the United States. It is very readable and full of bright, snappy news and contains 32 pages.
The American Farmer, Indianapolis, been published 22 years, ably edited by Hon. Solon L. Goode, monthly, and 24 pages; no better paper for the home and farm.
Successful Farmer, Des Moines, Ia., 50 to 60 pages, a handsome monthly.
Modern Stories, New York, a handsome and well known monthly.
Southwest Magazine, St. Louis, 60 to 70 pages, in its fifth year, handsomely gotten up and of valuable information.
Maxwell's Talisman, a handsome 32-page monthly, published at Chicago for seven years.
The Farm and Money Maker, contains various departments in regard to the farm, home and family.
Southern Poultry Fancier, devoted to poultry, 40 to 50 pages, printed in magazine form. Anyone that has chickens, pigeons, pet stock, turkeys, geese, ducks, etc., will not only save but make money by having this.
The Woman's Home Journal, published in Boston, in the interest of women and children.
Columbia Magazine, New York, one of the most readable magazines of its kind.
The Home Queen Magazine, New York, 30 to 60 pages each issue. This well known publication contains many interesting stories, and some of the most valuable articles, which are prepared by well known writers. Every department is fully covered by experts in this publication.
All of the above magazines and papers contain stories and reading matter for every and all members of the family, from the smallest baby to the oldest member. Every department of the home, farm and business are fully covered by the best writers. You will see thousands of new pictures and illustrations in these publications during the year that you will be unable to find in any other papers. This paper feels proud to be able to offer to its patrons a Club of this kind.
We call your attention to the advertisement of the Club on page 4 of this edition. You will find there detailed information in regard to the Club.

IMPURE FOODS.

Tricks of the Trades Recorded by a Diarist of 1783.

"The pure food question is as old," said an antiquary, "as the hills."

He took down a volume bound in gray calf.

"This is the diary," he said, "of Heinrich Cruger, born in Amsterdam in 1724; died in New York in 1870. Listen to the pure food kick that Henry put up in 1783."

The antiquary read: "Monday, 18th October—If I would drink water I must quaff the mawkish contents of a cursed open aqueduct, exposed to all manner of defilement and impregnated with all the filth of the town."

"As for the intoxicating potion sold as wine, it is a vile, unpalatable and pernicious sophistication, baldersdash with elder, corn-spirit and the juice of aloes."

"The bread is a deleterious paste, mixed up with chalk, alum and bone ashes, insipid to the taste and destructive to the constitution."

"The table beer, guiltless of hops or malt, is rapid and nauseous. The tallow, rancid mass called butter is manufactured of candle grease and kitchen stuff. The fresh eggs were fresh once."

"The greens are boiled with brass halfpence in order to improve their color, while the pickles, though very inviting to the eye, are often insupportably rank to the taste, the reason being that in their case also the housewife has boiled a shilling's worth or two of halfpence or a pound brass weight in the vinegar."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

THE MORNING WAKING.

Getting Up Exercises That Will Put the Brain in Order.

The difficulty most people experience in getting up in the morning can be easily overcome by a simple operation, according to a medical authority. After the night's long rest the brain is laden with somewhat impure blood, and the lymph vessels which remove waste matter are overfull and sluggish. This is why we all crave another ten minutes in bed and why most people are so morose at breakfast. Very slowly the brain gets rid of the matters which interfere with its vigorous action, but the process can be expedited.

If the finger tips are placed against the neck just under the ear and moved swiftly down to the front of the shoulder along the course of the jugular vein, the used up blood is drawn away and room left for a fresh supply. This should be done twice at each side of the neck. Then the hands should be placed on the back of the neck just under the skull and moved downward as far as possible. This clears out the lymph vessels and effectually prevents swollen glands, from which so many people suffer.

After two brisk rubs of the lymph vessels return to the jugular veins and then back to the glands, half a dozen or eight times, until the operation will be found far better than a cup of coffee, and whenever the brain is dull through congestion this massage will be equally effective.—Pearson's.

Miss, Mrs. and Mistress.

"Miss" is an abbreviation of "mistress," which, as an English law dictionary explains, is the proper style of the wife of an esquire or a gentleman. By Dr. Johnson's time it had become "the term of honor to a young girl." In the earliest part of the eighteenth century, however, it was used respectfully of girls below the age of ten alone. After that age "miss" was rude, implying giddiness of behavior. In Smollett's writings an unmarried woman of mature years and her maid are both "Mrs." It is certain that "miss" has grown older, so to speak, while "master" has become confined to boys.

Danger in Linoleum Making.

In the manufacture of linoleum no unprotected lights are allowed in the mixing department. This is on account of the great danger of exploding the cork dust floating in the air. An additional danger in linoleum making is that the mixture of cement and cork dust has the unpleasant property of spontaneously igniting if left in a warm place. It is therefore customary to mix the material a sackful at a time in order to reduce the risks of an explosion.

A Figure of Speech.

"Dad," inquired Freddy, "what is a 'figure of speech'?" "Where's your mother?" asked dad cautiously. "She's downstairs," answered the boy. "Well, then," began dad, "a figure of speech, my son, is a woman."—Harper's Weekly.

A Paradox of Poets.

"Poets have always had scanty encouragement." "Yes," answered the sad eyed youth with lanky fingers. "The idea seems to be that poetry is something everybody ought to read and nobody ought to write."—Washington Star.

FIRED ONLY JOKES.

The Way Judge Thacher Dodged a Challenge to a Duel.

Documents in the Congressional library at Washington show that when the establishment of the mint was under discussion in Washington's time there were some amusing debates in congress concerning the devices the coins should bear. There is one account of a squabble over the design for the silver dollar.

It appears that a member of the house from a southern state bitterly opposed the choice of the eagle on account of its being the "king of birds," and hence neither suitable nor proper to represent a nation whose institutions and interests were wholly inimical to monarchical forms of government.

Judge Thacher in reply had playfully suggested that perhaps a goose might suit the gentleman, as it was rather a humble and republican bird and would also be serviceable in other respects, as the goslings would answer to place upon the dimes.

This reply created considerable merriment, and the irate southerner, considering the humorous rejoinder an insult, sent a challenge to Judge Thacher, who proudly declined it. The bearer, rather astonished, asked, "Will you be branded as a coward?"

"Certainly, if he pleases," replied Thacher. "I always was one, and he knew it, or he would never have risked a challenge."

The affair caused much mirth, but was finally adjusted, cordial relations being restored, the irritable southerner concluding that there was nothing to be gained in fighting one who fired nothing but jokes.—Chicago Chronicle.

THE BRITISH BREAKFAST.

Trying in its Monotony, Though the Food is Substantial.

A distinguished author once described an unripe persimmon as a fine incentive to generosity, since we eat rather give it to another than eat it ourselves. And perhaps the English breakfast may be likened to the early persimmon.

Monotony is the keynote of the early meal in a British household—not but that the food is good and substantial, but there is a sameness year in and year out about the dishes that is trying indeed to an American. Here is a list of entables and drinkables made up from the breakfast menu of ten middle class English households and ten purely English hotels:

Porridge, served with sugar and milk; ham and eggs, eggs and bacon, grilled ham, boiled and poached eggs, fried sausages, dried fish (herrings or haddocks), dry toast, white or brown bread and butter, marmalade or jam, tea or coffee.

The man or woman who has been accustomed to break the fast with wheat cakes and maple sirup, followed by grilled bluefish and a juicy porthouse or pork tenderloin, helped out by freshly ground coffee, cranberry jelly, Virginian honey and a choice of a hundred or more delights in the way of bread and freshly baked cakes, sits down to breakfast in England with a sigh.—From Derrick's British Report.

Knew His Place.

The village carpenter had given so generously of his services and sound advice toward rebuilding the little memorial chapel that when it was completed all the summer people agreed that he should be asked to speak after the luncheon which was to follow the dedication exercises. The day and the carpenter's turn came duly.

"Ladies and gentlemen, dear friends," he began, his good brown face very red indeed, "I am a good deal better fitted for the scaffold than for public speaking."

Then he realized what he had said and sat down amid roars of laughter.—Youth's Companion.

A Curiosity About Eclipses.

The average number of total and partial eclipses in any one year is four, the maximum seven and the minimum two. There is nothing really peculiar in this except the fact that where only two occur they are always both of the sun. There are more solar than lunar eclipses, but the sun being so much larger than the earth or moon the shadow terminates in a point and is visible only along a narrow track, while the lunar obscuration is frequently visible over half a continent.

Where Beggars Ride.

"If wishes were horses beggars would ride," says the old saw. But in Persia beggars actually do ride, although they patronize the humble donkey instead of his more aristocratic brother. How they manage to obtain these useful animals or even to exist themselves passes European comprehension, but the fact remains that they do both.—Wide World Magazine.

Enforcing the Law.

"What are they moving the church for?" "Well, stranger, I'm mayor of these diggins, an' I'm fer law enforcement. We've got an ordinance what says no saloon shall be nearer than 300 feet to a church. I gave 'em three days to move the church."—Judge.

Confirmation Strong.

Mrs. McSosh—You brute! Is it possible that you are drunk again? Mr. McSosh—I think I must be, m' dear. If I wasn't, I wouldn't have th' nerve to come home t' you in this beastly condition o' 'toshication.—Cleveland Leader.

People in this world are so much alike that if you find fault with one you will hit a hundred.—Montreal Star.

There is a good deal that passes for piety in this world that is nothing but the result of a torpid liver. There is many a long-faced, sallow-complexioned brother who thinks his jaundice is religion. The truth about it is that true religion and true piety are always cheerful, bright and hopeful. The Christian is an optimist by grace, whether he is by nature or not, and the liver-spots that can be seen on the faces of some who roll their eyes heavenward and look duly solemn, are no indication whatever that they are living in the celestial light of the gospel.—Baptist Tribune.

Turf bogs were dug in 1113 for fires. Turf or peat bogs are used to this day for fuel, especially in Ireland, where they abound.

SPECIAL CLUBBING OFFER.

Every man should subscribe to his local paper, because from it he secures a class of news and useful information that he can get nowhere else. He should, however, also subscribe to a first-class general newspaper. Such a newspaper is The Dallas Semi-Weekly News. Thousands of its readers proclaim it the best general newspaper in the world. Its secret of success is that it gives the farmer and his family just what they want in the way of a family newspaper. It furnishes all the news of the world twice a week. It has a splendid page where the farmers write their practical experiences on the farm. It is like attending an immense farmers' institute. It has pages especially gotten up for the wife, for the boys and for the girls. It gives the latest market reports. In short, it gives a combination of news and instructive reading matter that can be secured in no other way.

For a cash in advance, we will send The Semi-Weekly News and The Clarendon Chronicle. Each for one year. This means you will get a total of 208 copies. It's a combination which can't be beat, and you will secure your moneys worth many times over. Subscribe at once at the office of this paper.

THE BEST PAPERS

The papers you want are the papers that will suit your entire family best. A combination of news and useful information is the best type; ably edited, splendidly illustrated. It carries a news service which is the best that knowledge and experience can suggest. Special features of the Record appeal to the housewife, the farmer, the stock raiser and the artisan.

The colored comic pictures printed in the Friday edition are a rare treat for the young folks. Its market news alone is worth the money. You will surely be a constant reader of the Record once you try it, and the favorable clubbing offer made below is an opportunity not to be missed:

Splendid Reproduction, in Sixteen Tints, of a Celebrated Painting.

Every person who sends One Dollar to pay for a year's subscription to the TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC of St. Louis, Mo., and FARM PROGRESS, will receive ABSOLUTELY FREE, a beautiful colored picture, 34 by 32 inches entitled "The Departure of the Bride from the Home Washington." This picture is a direct reproduction from the celebrated painting from Perrie. Sixteen colors were employed in the process. It is on fine, heavy paper, and will make a magnificent ornament for the home. Aside from its genuine artistic merits, it possesses an uncommon interest to every American, as the central figure in it is George Washington, standing at the portal of his Virginia home, bidding adieu to the bride and bridegroom. The color work is highly ornate and correct in every detail.

The TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLIC is the oldest and best semi-weekly family paper in the country and FARM PROGRESS, which is also published by The Republic, is the fastest-growing farm monthly in America. Remember that you get both of these splendid journals an entire year, and the beautiful colored picture, all for ONE DOLLAR.

Present subscribers may take advantage of this offer, by sending a dollar and having their time marked up a year. The Republic hereby gives notice that this offer may be withdrawn at any time, and those wishing the picture should send in subscriptions at ONCE.
