Great Team Work In Film "Virginia"

Real teamwork is the key to the success of Madeleine Carroll and Fred MacMurray, together again, this time in Paramount's gay modern romance, "Virginia," which opens Saturday night Prevue at the Pastime Theatre.

This charming pair carry their cooperation beyond the mere speaking of lines to each other on the screen. In fact, this lively Technicolor comedy drama makes the third picture in which they have co-starred for Producer-director Edward H. Griffith.

There is no dispute about billing when Fred and Madeleine head the cast of a Paramount show; no squabbling about who gets the best lines, and no maneuvering to hog the camera. They really work together. For example:

Y. Frank Freeman, vice-president in charge of studio operations at Paramount, dropped in on the "Virginia" troupe for a business talk with Miss Carroll.

"Get in a plug for me, Madeleine," called Fred, as the executive and the star stepped to one side for their talk.

"She already has," said Freeman.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH

CHANGING WORLD.
The old-fashioned mother who stood before the stove, now stands before the mirror, and when the husband had to sell the family stove to pay a bet, she did not miss the stove for six weeks.

EXPLANATION.
When some one asked Bachelor

Bill to explain the status of a bachelor, he explained that a bachelor "was a man who could get a girl on his knees without having her on his hands."

BEAUTY SUGGESTIONS.
Life insurance is the only thing known to transform a sorry looker into a bright and attractive widow.

THAT HUMAN ANIMAL.
Human life is largely the result of the "trial and error" system. The community is bound together by its sorrows rather than by its joys. Life separates loved ones, but death unites them. Prosperity creates spites, jealousies and hate. Poverty, or even reverses, bridge these low grade human elements and brings the neighbors closer together again. There has never been a sermon yet that beats a good example. Immortality, after all, is the act of having made lives better for one's having lived.

ODE TO THE PLAINS.
Their lakes are full of water,
That finally settled the dust.
Palo Duro is filled with sunshine,
But the rocks have the rust.

The birds are making music;
The stalks are making wheat.
When it rains in the Panhandle,
It's a hard place to beat.

FOOZY-MINDED.
Then there are those who worry so much lest others have success, that they become total failures themselves. It is gratifying in the order of nature that no one lives long enough to do much harm.

MISINFORMATION.
The fellow who reported the Petrified Forest on fire in Arizona, was evidently suffering from painter's colic from having been through the painted desert.

MULKEY DAY.
There is more and more talk about having a Mulkey Day. Most of the folks prefer to have that day come on July 4th, and have some form of program in remembrance of Homer Mulkey. What do you say? Tell me what you think about it. There is an article in this issue of the Leader regarding Mulkey Day. After you have read it, let's have your opinion.

MILLENNIUM ARRIVES.
The average country editor has accomplished his highest ambition when the county legends crowd out the editorials. A law recently passed by the lawmakers down at Austin compels the publication of all legal notices, until recently tacked on the walls behind courthouse doors.

HOSPITALITY.
We're so averse to calling on one another these days, or accepting hospitality because it might obligate us to extend hospitality, a party was held in a vacant house Saturday night. The College Hill widow thinks they had beer.

THE LIMIT.
The man I think has touched zero in life is he who spends his life steeping his soul in reflected glory.

Here comes on that stepped-in-a-hole feeling so common in spring. See you next week.

WIFE OF ENGINEER IS INJURED
Mrs. A. S. Rhode of Amarillo was painfully injured when struck by an auto as she crossed a street there Monday afternoon. She suffered a broken pelvic bone, a wrist bone and body bruises, it was disclosed at a hospital to which she was taken immediately after the accident. Mrs. Rhode is the wife of "Dusty" Rhode, well known Denver engineer, and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Eva Rhode of Clarendon.

Betty John Goldston spent from Thursday to Saturday with Leona McCraw.

Master Albert Johnson is enduring the measles this week, but has the undivided attention of Grandmother Cooper with every assurance of rapid recovery.

MUSEUM SIDELIGHTS

The Donley County Museum will be open to the public each first and third Friday afternoons during the summer months, beginning the third Friday in June.

The latest loan to the Museum comes from Mrs. Lalar Wilkerson, consisting of two Clarendon College songs, composed by R. Deane Shure, and some programs of recitals given by Mr. Shure's pupils many years ago. These will be of great interest to those especially who had a part on these programs.

Mrs. L. S. Bagby is beginning a collection for the Museum of rare and unique buttons. If the readers of this article can add to this collection with one or two unusual specimens, please bring them to Mrs. Bagby. Also if anyone can give her any information as to where a show-case may be obtained for exhibiting displays, it will be much appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to the many friends who made the sorrows of the passing of our father so much lighter by your many deeds of kindness and expressions of sympathy. We shall long remember and love each of you for your real help, comfort, and love at this time when we needed you most.

RATTLERS CAN KILL QUICKLY

That rattlesnakes can be deadly and that their poison can act very quickly is reaffirmed by a report of a Texas Game Warden. While patrolling near Pearsall recently the warden saw a large calf reach down to take a bite of grass, jump and then run toward him. The calf dropped within ten feet of the warden after running seventy-two paces and was dead within five minutes. Two cowboys nearer the calf than the warden when it was struck found a six and a half foot black diamond rattler which had fourteen rattlers. The warden killed it.

The snake evidently had not struck at anything for some time and its poison sacks were filled with venom.

The warden's report concluded: "It is not because boots are pretty that the southwest Texas game warden wants to wear them while patrolling."

Chiropractic RADIOCLAST THE "HUMAN RADIO" CLINIC

DR. ALEX. F. GROSS (Tiffin, Ohio), Technician Complete Health Examinations for Men, Women and Children

Radionic vibrations have been harnessed and utilized at last in the Radioclast, in the fight against disease. Vibration is a universal force—in fact all matter vibrates. With the Radioclast the vibrations of the body are accurately measured, both in Sickness and in Health to show to what extent the body is either normal or abnormal.

This Radionic Vibration method of Diagnosis and Treatment is as far in advance in the Art of Healing as the Airplane is over the ox-cart. Every organ and tissue of the entire body is checked—and when found to be abnormally vibrating, a built-in Treating Unit is available to either step up or down the Vibrational-rate as the case may require and apply it to the diseased tissue, thereby restoring Harmony of Vibration—or HEALTH.

In making examinations it is not at all necessary to ask any questions, and you will be told your trouble, where located, its extent, and the necessary steps for correction.

It is possible also to make Food Analysis to determine those compatible with the normal chemistry of the individual patient.

This instrument locates conditions such as: Stomach Ulcers, Rheumatism, Arthritis, Lumbago, Gall Stones, Asthma, Tuberculosis, Diabetes, Goitre, Female Disorders, Tumors, Prostate, Nervous Disorders, Sinus Infections, Constipation and other ailments. This is such a sensitive and delicate instrument that only one who is well-trained and familiar with this type of modality can operate it successfully.

Our examinations also include taking of Blood Pressure, Stethoscopic, Spinal Analysis, Laboratory tests, etc.

During the Special Clinic the Examination Fee has been reduced to a reasonable limit to enable everyone to take advantage of this opportunity to discover what is preventing them from enjoying good health. You may be suffering with some serious condition and not know it. You owe it to yourself to have this Complete Examination NOW! Don't wait until it is TOO LATE!

You have your automobile checked over ever so often. Isn't your body more important than your car? You can buy a new car when the old one wears out. BUT CAN YOU BUY A NEW BODY?

Pressure Cooker Helps Defense

COLLEGE STATION—Whether farm women realize it or not, their pressure cookers are important tools for national defense.

Texas farm women this spring can put their pressure cookers to work in an "all-out" drive for better health. In addition, other pressure cookers are owned by schools, counties, community canning plants, and welfare agencies, says Grace I. Neely, specialist in food preservation for the A&M College Extension Service.

Usually pressure cookers cost from $9 to $15, but many farm women say they pay for themselves several times because they save fuel, spoilage, and time.

Families with large food budgets need not only efficient canning equipment but steadily producing gardens if they are to keep their pressure cookers at work full time. In some Texas counties, the specialist says, home demonstration club women are raising a surplus of foods which will be canned for school lunch projects.

Poultry, beef, pork, and fish, as well as fruits and vegetables, can be canned safely in a pressure cooker. If homemakers follow directions, they can have a safe food supply with a minimum amount of spoilage, for the temperature under steam pressure canning is higher than in open kettle baths, and it kills bacteria.

What most families like best about pressure cookers is that they add jars of peas, beans, carrots, corn and other things to their storage shelves—the kind of non-acid vegetables they couldn't safely can before, and the kind that changes tiresome and deficient diets to balanced diets.

J. W. Noel, the Hedley banker, was in town Monday on a matter of business.

Misses Ruth Richerson and Johnnie Rhodes spent the week end in Borger with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Richerson and babe.

SEED

I've always loved to plant things. I've always loved to sow. My dark seeds in the dark earth, which takes them, row on row.

Into her secret chambers, where, with her alchemy, She loses from the death that is, the life that is to be.

I've always loved to garden: to watch along the hems Of Earth's brown frilly garment for breaking forth of stems,

And aye a thought of wonder with every seed I press Into quiet darkness, of ways too wise to guess,

By which this resurrection, earth's miracle is done: How that which sleeps awakens, how shade brings forth the sun.

I've always loved to plant things. I know a certain place Where oft is lifted to me an eager, childish face,

A pure heart, young and asking, in which, as germ is caught, Within its soil for growing, I plant a seed of thought

That must not fail of harvest — — Kind Jesus, let it be The truth I sow in this young heart, may bear much fruit for Thee!

—Frances Holmstrom.

The Public Forum

Special to the Press:

Objectives of the Texas Voters League, shall be to unite the voters of the State of Texas in a movement to secure better administration of the Social Welfare under the now existing Federal and State legislation. Since it now being no question or doubt with old-age assistance requiring many times the amount now, given to properly care for all the Social Welfare objects combined, that is now having become apparent that to provide a solution of the States Social Welfare problem, and to secure proper and adequate administration of the needs of the various objects of the Social Welfare scheme, the question of revenue and methods of payment of the old-age aid must be removed as a political issue. Therefore it is the purpose of the Texas Voters League to organize to secure for the aged people of Texas certain objectives as follows:

1. An amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas for payment of the minimum of $20 which when supplemented by a like amount by the Federal Government, would provide a total of $40 per month to those qualified to receive old-age assistance.
2. To secure maximum aid for each recipient under existing State and Federal Government legislation.
3. To render aid to applicants in securing for them speedy investigation of their application and liberalizing of their present "needs" and requirements.
4. To secure for old-age assistance free medical services and treatment.
5. Provisions for funds to cover burial expense for beneficiaries of old-age assistance.

The Texas Voters League requests every voter that is interested in these objectives whether a recipient of assistance or not, to write to Geo. W. Keeling at 1600 Van Buren Street, Amarillo, Texas, for petitions to circulate in your community in the interest of humanity and better government in Texas.

LEGISLATURE OVERRIDES O'DANIEL VETO

The Texas Senate last week overrode the Governor's veto of a House bill appropriating $44,000 to the Liquor Board for extra men to work around army camps, putting the bill into immediate effect.

The motion to override the veto was opposed by Senator A. M. Aikin chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. "The Governor of Texas didn't think so well of it," said Aikin.

"That don't make no nevermind to me," retorted Senator Weaver Moore of Houston. Cries of "me, either" were heard over the Senate. The final vote was 24 to 5.

The Governor's veto on the bill already has been overridden by the House of Representatives and the Senate vote puts the bill into law without further action.

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners."

As you read this the sun may be shining or—it may be raining! The ultra abundance of rain has given us wild flowers on our road sides that vie with the pampered ones in our gardens. Poppies are giving a bright color note to the yards of the Anderson's, Chase's and Miss Howren's. The catalpa trees at the Land's and Hayter's rival the magnolias of mild climates. At the Brumley's fringe trees are covered with misty pinnacles of billowy smoke and daisies so crispy and white border a bed at the Prewitt's.

A climbing red rose is making a brilliant display on the Gilmer Ayer's lawn, while the Bert Smith's rose garden is a riot of color. Speaking of climbing roses, "you haven't seen anything" until you've driven by the Meredith Gentry's and seen their rose entwined fence—it's beautiful beyond words.

Equally lovely is the yard of Mrs. Benson's with its hedge of privet festooned with fragrant white tassels and clumps of gorgeous poppies.

A drive over town will convince you that our floral beauty rivals that of much more fortunate climatic areas.

SUCKER BAIT

Every fisherman knows that to catch suckers he must have special bait—easy for a sucker to take.

Unfortunately there are people who live on taking in human "suckers". Their promises of big returns are tempting; their air of confidence persuasive. While most of us at times have been taken in for a "sucker", these are times now when every one needs to be especially wary of gilded promises.

Texas Leads In Enlistments

The next national registration date has been set at July 1st. Texas is again expected to lead in enlistments during June since a large number prefer enlistment to draft entry into the army.

Texas leads the nation in number of men furnished the armed forces. Gen. J. Watt Page, state selective service director, has announced.

General Page said that 214 negroes were selected to meet the 16th call in June and 2,105 white men will be inducted from Texas during the month.

Texas will have 29,704 men in training under selective service when these two calls have been completed. The state is credited with 825,429 men registered last October, and the quota assigned by the war department for the first year of the program ending June 30 is approximately 33,213 trainees.

In addition to the 29,704 men called under selective service, Texas has more than 80,000 men—all volunteers—serving in the army navy, marine corps, national guard and coast guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Busby and children of Lockney were week end visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. N. Williams near Lelia.

WOLTERS SOLDIERS FAIL TO DODGE CUPID'S DARTS

MINERAL WELLS — Cupid's darts have been flying so thick around Camp Wolters that E. D. Hightower, manager of the Retail Merchants' Association here, isn't quite sure whether he is running a business office or a marriage bureau.

Hightower's troubles began when his secretary, Miss Dolores Groves, 18, announced she was resigning to marry Sergt. Robert L. Hudson of Clarendon, a member of the camp medical detachment.

Hightower hired Miss Doris Evans, 20, as his secretary.

Three days later she shyly announced that she had married Corp. Harry Wozner of Mineral Wells, also a member of the medical detachment.

As his third secretary Hightower has chosen Miss Nila Stephens, 20, and he is going to put her to work just as soon as he makes sure she has no "boy friend" in the medical detachment.

One hen normally will eat about 80 pounds of feed a year, of which approximately one half should be mash and one half grain, in order to obtain best results.

In a decade, the farm population of the United States has increased only one-tenth of one percent. The population of the country as a whole increased 7.2 percent.

Children Not Born Lazy

COLLEGE STATION, May 28.—Children aren't born lazy; they learn to be.

That's a tip to parents from Dosca Hale, Extension Service specialist in family relations, who explains that no healthy, normal individual is naturally lazy. Young children, she says, are energetic and eager to find out new things about the world around them.

Children may learn to be lazy if adults give them too much supervision. In fact, some adults watch children so closely they have no opportunity to experience new yet simple undertakings in their own way.

Then some children are lazy, because people around them are lazy, the specialist says, calling attention to the way children are great imitators. In addition, there are children who use laziness as a means of getting what they want.

"If a child is active, full of curiosity, and busy learning things, the adults around must devote more time to providing play equipment for the child or else spend much of their time keeping him 'out of things,'" Miss Hale comments.

Other children may learn to be lazy because they get the idea from others that there is something degrading about hard work.

Perhaps the most serious reason for many children having little energy is because they eat too little food or the wrong kinds of food. The specialist emphasizes that a well balanced diet helps to make a child energetic, playful, and happy, and his development depends to a great extent upon his getting and learning to eat the right food.

MULKEY DAY ADVOCATED BY FRIENDS OF THREE STATES

By a queer quirk in human nature, the Leader received a number of letters the past two weeks advocating Mulkey Day. A number of local people called to endorse the idea.

Now the women are taking it up. Here's a sample:

"Hi Apostle: Am writing to you hoping that one of the days celebrated the 4th of July will be celebrated as 'Homer Mulkey Day.' This would please all of Homer's friends of Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

"Regards to all the folks in Clarendon, and a bunch of us will be over from Tucumcari for the 4th. Good luck!

Mrs. Ed B. Antrobus, Tucumcari, N. M."

And here is another from a very close friend of Homer Mulkey, and from the same town:

"Will Clarendon have a celebration this year? If so, then have a 'Mulkey Day.' Homer has been the mainstay of the annual celebration for years. He deserves the honor to his memory. How about it?"

Gus B. Stephenson.
And from C. E. Burch of Tip-ton, Okla.:

"Mr. Estlack, Homer Mulkey always spoke well of you. He liked you a lot and I think you folks of Clarendon ought to have a Mulkey Day this summer some time. It would be my suggestion to have it the third of July as I understand there will be two days of the celebration.

"I used to live at McLean, and always went over there the 4th."

The Leader passes the information on to its readers with a ringing endorsement of the idea. If you favor the idea, call 336 or come to the Leader office and let us have your plans.

ONE IN SEVEN FLYING STUDENTS FLY

For each plane in the air, at least seven skilled men are required on the ground.

Thus, Major Jesse, U. S. Army Recruiting Officer, Lubbock, Texas, described one of the foremost problems that the Regular Army Air Corps has to overcome. Skilled men don't grow on trees and the Air Corps knows this. Major Jesse said, but it has the answer. "Give us good men, intelligent and ambitious, and we will give them the skills," is the answer to the problem, say Air Corps men. Young men need not be Mechanics, Welders or Electricians to start with, but if they are so much the better. If not, these trades will be taught to them through the Air Corps Technical Schools for these schools are maintained for the express purpose of teaching enlisted men of the Air Corps to become technicians and to create skilled workers out of raw material.

The ratio of "seven to one to keep 'em flying", is really conservative, asserted Major Jesse, for the number of skilled workers required would be nearer thirty. This would take in not only mechanics and similar workers, but also radio men, weather forecasters, teletype operators, traffic control men and many others who are engaged in the day to day operation of Uncle Sams' Air Fields.

When a young man completes one of the Air Corps Technical Courses he is eligible for the rapid promotion which expansion of the Air Corps makes possible. Thus in turn taking his place in the training of the raw material coming into the Air Corps after he does.

Applications can be made at the nearest Army Recruiting Station. Should the applicant not have the required High School Diploma, he will be given the opportunity to take the War Department Classification Test. If he passes this Test with a score of 100 out of a possible 150, he can be accepted for enlistment.

Mayme Smallwood of Brice is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Granville McAnear and Mrs. Bill Todd this week.

Ben A. Kiser and Glenn Kennedy were in town Tuesday on a matter of business. They report a big rain over the east side of the county Monday afternoon.

WELL PREPARED TO WED

Sheridan (Nebr.) Star They say that up at Chadron recently a young man asking a father for his daughter's hand in marriage was asked what his financial prospects were. He enthusiastically declared that the FSA would buy a farm for him, AAA would pay him to work only part of it, WPA would give his wife work in the sewing room and himself some winter work on the roads, the surplus commodities corporation would furnish food, the extension service would arrange for mattress and bedding and federal agencies would supply doctors and hospital needs if necessary. He said no young couple ever faced the future with brighter prospects.

"SEVENTEEN AND IN LOVE" AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH, JUNE 1

"Seventeen and in Love" is the sermon subject of Cecil E. Harvey pastor of the First Christian Church at 8 p. m. Sunday night, June 1st. This is to be first in a series of sermons on "Happy Homes and Successful Marriages."

In preparing for the first four sermons Rev. Harvey gave a questionnaire dealing with relationships and ideals to the boys and girls in the Clarendon College and High School. From information thus gained he will talk about the pitfalls surrounding young people and deal frankly with their problems. The question of child marriages and early marriages will be discussed and the parent angle revealed.

The questionnaires given to the boys and the girls were the same except for gender and headings. The boys and girls were asked what they most admired in a friend; if they approved of their boy or girl friend smoking, drinking, going to public dance halls, kissing, necking, and what age they should be when they marry. They were also asked to give their vows on a girl working after marriage, secret marriages and the three qualities essential to a permanent marriage.

This service will start at 8 p. m. and everyone is welcomed and invited.
