President at Keokuk.
President Roosevelt arrived at Keokuk, Ia., Wednesday to start on his cruise down the Mississippi river, and a gain as on Monday, his theme was similar treatment for rich and poor, and again he found occasions to point his story with familiar colloquialisms.

"Isn't this good doctrine?" he asked, after stating his proposition, addressing the Grand Army group in front of him, and when he received a shout of consent he proceeded to say that he was always willing to help a man who stumbles and falls, but not to carry the man who 'lies down.'

"It does him no good and it is too much for me," he added.

He dwelt on the necessity for self mastery, and adding, "If he does not master himself, some one else will do so."

In another connection he laid down the general proposition that "A private soldier is worth a number of poor major generals," but added, "An Ar major general is invaluable, the point being that individual merit is the pearl of great price in every walk of life. He was willing to help the big railroad man if he was honest, and would protect him against the demagogue, but he would not desist in his condemnation of those who were not acting honestly.

"You will remember that a year ago I expressed my opinion of certain desirable citizens and I stand by what I said."

He added that he would always condemn the man who incites to murder, and would demand punishment for the crime of the corporation criminals. He would treat both alike, and just as he would treat other offenders. He also emphasized the importance of preparation for any work. That the American people can "whip the world," he conceded, but contended that they would have a hard time doing it if not prepared. He would have all, both men and women, do well some work that was worth doing, and he announced his contempt for a woman who would shirk her duty as a wife and mother.

There was considerable rainfall during the delivery of the speech, but the president did not allow it to interfere in any way. After he had concluded he was presented with a gold headed cane by the negroes of Keokuk. The presentation speech was made by a negro plasterer, who assured the president that the negro population of Keokuk has every confidence in his administration and in his determination to treat the black race with fairness. The incident seemed to touch the president. He grasped the speaker's hand and held it tightly while he made reply, saying that he accepted the present with great pleasure, and added that in dealing with the black man as in dealing with the white man, he followed what he believed to be the only sane principle that of treating every man according to his merits, as an individual, regardless of race.

Zack Mulhall, the famous ranchman and wild west show promoter of Indian Territory, has been freed from the charge of assault to kill, which had resulted from the accidental shooting of a young man in front of a wild west show on the lake at the St. Louis fair during the summer of 1904. Mulhall has at all times claimed that the shooting of the young man was accidental.

Scared Mourners by Climbing Out of Her Coffin.

A few days ago relatives of Mrs. Fred Hatzell, the young wife of a farmer living near Huntington, W. Va., were bemoaning her death a few minutes before the minister arrived to conduct the last rites when she suddenly sat up and climbed out the coffin. There was a rush of mourners for the open air, windows being used as exits. The minister swooned when a pale-faced woman over whose body he had been called to conduct services met him at the door. The family were too poor to have a physician and the woman fell into a swoon, in which state she remained four days. Her husband believed her to be dead and sent for the undertaker. He prepared her for the interment without discovering that life lingered in the body.

Dynamite an Ex-Sheriff.

At Baker City, Ore., Tuesday night an attempt was made to assassinate former Sheriff Harvey K. Brown, at his home, by blowing him up with a dynamite bomb. Mr. Brown is at the hospital in a critical condition. One of his legs was blown off, one of his arms badly shattered, besides internal injuries caused by the concussion. The outrage was similar in manner of execution to that which resulted in the death of former Governor Steunenberg at Caldwell, Idaho. Mr. Brown was returning home and as he opened his gate the bomb exploded, wounding Mr. Brown and blowing in the windows of his house. The explosion was heard in the center of the town half a mile away.

The chief of police and county authorities are wholly unable to fathom any cause for the deed.

Ardmore Methodist College Burns.

The Hargrove college, a Methodist institution, was totally destroyed by fire at Ardmore, I. T. The loss is estimated to be $25,000, with $9,000 insurance, and is supposed to have originated from either a defective flue in the kitchen or else from defective wiring. Miss Cameron Boone, a teacher of expression and voice, formerly of Polytechnic college of Ft. Worth, was seriously injured by falling down a flight of steps.

This is the way a country editor wrote up a recent wedding: "The bride was born of honest but well meaning parents, and could walk alone at 6 months; at 10 she could run real fast, and has never slackened her gait. She has many friends—most of them dead ones. The happy couple took a bridal trip to the Cross roads, and will be at home with the old man until they are kicked out."

Wireless telegraphy has made an advance step. A message was sent from Savannah, Ga., to San Francisco. The American citizen will not be content until he can put on wings and fly across the American continent and in the face of those beclouded mysteries at the north pole.—Sherman Democrat.

A good barn is a money saver. Many farmers lose enough in damaged hay in two or three seasons to build a good hay barn. Good farm buildings of any kind are one of the best paying investments of the farm. Never fear of building them too well.

STATE NEWS.

Fletcher Clay was sent up two years from McKinney for forge y.

Owen Gipson lost an arm in a gin at Pendleton, Bell county, Tuesday.

Mrs. Maude Wilson suicided in Ft. Worth Tuesday by taking carbolic acid.

Ben Callaway had his arm mangled up to the elbow in a gin at Grapevine Monday.

John Carter was killed in a gin Saturday afternoon at Arlington. He is survived by three sons and three daughters.

The 6-year-old daughter of J. N. McKee, living at Bairdstown, twelve miles south of Paris, died Monday from eating green peanuts.

J. T. Ridpath of Goodnight sold a car of hogs on the Fort Worth market the first of the week averaging 212 pounds at $6.45.

The cotton gin of A. J. Hickerson burned at McGregor Monday night, the fire originating in the engine room. Loss something over $10,000; insurance, $7,000.

Dan Kiber, a business man of Corsicana, fell under a southbound Houston & Texas Central train at the East Dallas station Tuesday night and had his right leg cut off.

At Childress Monday during a heavy wind and rain storm the second story of the east wall of the new ward school building was blown down. The storm lasted only a few minutes.

Oswald Rogers, a single man about 30 years of age, suicided in Corsicana Tuesday. The remains were shipped to Elysian Fields, Harrison county, where Rogers' parents reside.

A press dispatch from Henrietta says preceded by a rumble, quickly increasing to a roar, from a depth of 1,500 feet a gusher was brought in on the Lockridge farm in the Henrietta oil field shortly before 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, and at a late hour was still spouting oil and gas over an 80-foot derrick.

At Bowie Tuesday the sanitarium owned by Dr. G. A. Yates was burned with all of its contents. The building, a two-story frame, was located in the heart of the city. There was no one in the sanitarium at the time. The total loss, including building and contents, is estimated at $8,500. So far as is known the insurance on the building amounts to $1,750 with $4,000 insurance on the furniture and fixtures.

The Collinsville mill and elevator with their entire contents were entirely consumed by fire Monday night. The mill was a new addition to the elevator and had only been finished a short time. There was about 4,389 bushels of corn stored in the elevator together with considerable feed stuff. Loss on building and contents about $16,500, insurance carried about $4,500. Three box cars standing on switch by the elevator were also burned. One of them was filled with ear corn.

In Oklahoma, Murray county is the banner democratic county, and won the prize banner offered by the democratic central committee. Out of a population of 11,000 it gave Haskell a majority of 834, which is a greater majority, according to population, than any other county had.

A Habit That Sticks.

When as a boy he lived on a farm
He arose about 4 o'clock
And wended his way to the old red barn
For he had to water the stock.
Years later he moved to the city,
As a financier made a name,
But he still clings to his old habits
And waters the stock just the same.

The Clarendon Chronicle.
Published Twice-a-Week by
W. P. BLAKE, Editor and Proprietor.

Subscription.....$1.50 a year
Entered February 10, 1908, at Clarendon, Tex., as second class matter, under Act of Congress March 3, 1879.
CLARENDON, TEX., OCT. 5, 1907.

Gov. Campbell pleads a busy time as an excuse for not being at St. Louis with the other twenty-five governors during Carnival week.

Sixteen dollars per capita—the same as last quarter—was the pro rata fixed by the Confederate pension department at Austin this week. About 100 additional names were on the lists, but many that had been pensioners died during the quarter.

The Tennessee supreme court holds the Pendleton law to be constitutional. This statute abolishes saloons in all cities of 100,000 inhabitants or less "hereafter incorporated," it being an amendment to the so-called Adams law, which inhibited saloons in all towns of 5,000 or less population. It is a virtual extension of "four mile" law to all cities.

During our three months notice of the raise of subscription price of the Chronicle, just three men stopped their paper. One is a land agent, one said he could get a foreign paper cheaper, and both said they would not take either local paper, and the other said he had moved to town and could learn about all the local news himself. Still we hardly think his facilities for doing so are quite as good as a man's in a neighboring town who gave the following reasons for not taking his home paper: "I get all the news there is. My wife belongs to the woman's club, one of my daughters works in the millinery shop and the other is in the delivery window at the postoffice, and I am the village grocer." But we must compliment Clarendon and vicinity on having so few people of the above stripe.

Cotton Shortage.

Special reports to the Journal of Commerce numbering nearly 500 and bearing an average date of Sept. 24, shows condition of cotton to be 86.5 per cent. as against 73.9 per cent. last month and 71.9 per cent. a year ago at this time. The decline of 7.4 points during September is not an unusual one. The year 1905 showing a drop of 5.7 points, 1904 a drop of 7.5 points, 1903 a drop of 11.8 points, 1902 a drop of 6.3 points. Drouth in all states is the principal cause of deterioration, but in Texas it is further increased by the boll weevil, causing a decline of 11.6 points. Other important states show decline of 4 to 8 points, Georgia falling 6.7 points, Alabama 4.4 points, Mississippi 4.1 points, South Carolina 6.8 points, Louisiana 2.9 points and Arkansas 4.8 points.

How to Live Well.

Be courteous to all, but intimate to few; and let these few be well tried before you give them your confidence. True friendship is a plant of slow growth, and must undergo and withstand the shocks of adversity before it is entitled to the appellation. Let your heart feel for the afflictions and distresses of every one, and let your hand give in proportion to your purse; remembering always the estimation of the widow's mite, that it is not every one that asketh that deserveth charity; all, however, are worthy of the inquiry, or the deserving may suffer. Do not conceive that fine clothes make fine men, any more than fine feathers make fine birds. A plain, genteel dress is more admired, and obtains more credit than lace and embroidery, in the eyes of the judicious and sensible.—Washington's letter to his nephew, Bushrod Washington, 1783.

Some men ought to carry their consciences in their pocketbooks; it might make them more tender.—Ram's Aorm.

Up-to-date school shoes at Rathjen's store. Are selling cheap.

Electric Light Improvement.

General Manager Chase, of the electric light company, was here from Cleburne this week inspecting the plant with a view to making decided improvements and giving an all-night service, provided a satisfactory franchise can be obtained to cover the additional service.

Mr. Chase says it will require considerable expense and take a lot of work and time to do it, as he contemplates almost an entire new outfit from bottom to top, yet he thinks the cost to the consumer will not be materially increased.

With Mr. Kemp, local manager, they visited most of the business men, all of whom favored the plan.

Goes to Fort Worth.

Rev. Wilson C. Rogers has been called to the First Baptist church, North Ft. Worth. This is a strong church of 400 members and growing very fast. It is centrally located in the new city of North Fort Worth, which now has a population of nearly 20,000, and growing very fast. The call, we understand, is an indefinite one, and the salary to be $1,200, with parsonage, and the salary to be increased next year.

The call came to Bro. Rogers, he says, as a complete surprise, as he had bought an interest in the Tatum Mercantile Co., and as he thought, had settled in business for awhile. He has sold his interest back to Mr. Tatum, and has accepted the call, and will leave for his new field next week.

Rev. Rogers is an able preacher, and with a united church we look for him to accomplish a great work in Fort Worth. He has many friends here who will regret to see him leave the Panhandle, but who will heartily commend him to the membership of his new charge.

An Announcement.

Panhandle Missionary. We are sorry to state that this will be the last issue of the PANHANDLE MISSIONARY unless we can arrange with some of the brethren to continue its publication.

The reason for this is, we are leaving the Panhandle to take the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, North Fort Worth. This is a good, strong church, of 400 members, in an important field, and coming to us as a surprise, and almost in a day, we feel that we would be fighting against the Lord if we did not accept it.

Our relationship and labors among the Panhandle brethren and churches has been both pleasant and profitable, and we shall never forget them. The publication of the PANHANDLE MISSIONARY has been a success in every way from its first issue, and we shall never forget the many expressions of kindness and encouragement we have received from our readers.

Anticipating the leaving of this field at some time in the future, we made arrangements with the Baptist Standard some time ago to fill all unexpired subscriptions. With love and good will to all.

Your servant,
WILSON C. ROGERS.

Giles Gossip.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE
Olin Wood of Elk City, Ok., visited his sister, Mrs. F. P. Neeley, last week.

Messrs. O. L. and J. A. Watt, from Navarro county, are visiting their uncle, E. H. Watt, and family.

Rubel Neeley of Memphis spent several days in the city.

Among the visitors to the convention at Hedley the following Giles faces were seen: E. H. Watt and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Johnson, Mrs. Mevis, Mrs. John Thaxton and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCart, Messrs. Shelton and Akers; Misses Akers, Neeley, Alexander and Patterson. All report a pleasant day in spite of sand storm.

Messrs. John and Charley Bishop from Memphis were visitors in town Sunday.

Hard rains and wind on Sunday night did some damage to cotton and other property. Another rain Monday night and Wednesday night.

Quite a number are picking cotton but the last rain will stop the work for awhile.

Some fine work is being done by the school children.

Some cattle buyers were here several days. The result is a great number of cattle are being shipped.

EMERSON, being questioned by a skeptic as to his belief in miracles, smiled, pointed to a fly on the window pane, and made no comment. William Jennings Bryan says one may drop a brown seed into black soil, and it comes up a green shoot. You let it grow and by and by you pull up its roots and you find it red. You cut the red root and find it has a white heart. Can any one tell how this comes about—how brown cast into black results in green and then in red and white? Yet you eat your raddish without troubling your mind over miracles. Men are not distressed by miracles in the dining room; they reserve them all for religion.

Market Report.

The following is the Fort Worth stock market report for Thursday:
Steers $3.70 to $4.00.
Cows $2.25 to $3.50.
Calves $3.50 to $4.40.
Hogs $6.22 to $6.30.

The State of Texas. To the Sheriff or any Constable of Donley County—Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon the unknown owner of the hereinafter described real estate, by making publication of this citation once a week for four successive weeks, previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to be and appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Donley county, to be held at the Court House thereof in Clarendon, on the first Monday in January, the same being the 6th day of January 1908, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 30th day of September, 1907, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court, No. 450, wherein the State of Texas is plaintiff and the unknown owner of the hereinafter described real estate is defendant, said petition alleging that defendant is the owner of the following described real estate situated in Donley county, Texas, and that said real estate has been returned delinquent for taxes, penalties and costs due thereon, to the State of Texas, and Donley county, for the year 1904, amounting to the sum of $1.24; to wit: Lots 17 and 18 in Block 1 of Tuft's subdivision of Grant's Addition to Clarendon.

That though often demanded, defendant has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay the same or any part thereof.

Plaintiff prays for judgment for said sums of money, for interest, penalties and costs of suit and for a foreclosure of the tax lien on said land, hereinbefore described, and that the same be sold to satisfy said judgment, etc.

All of plaintiff's allegations are set forth in its petition to this court, which petition is on file in the District Clerk's office of Donley county, Texas, and is here referred to and made a part of this citation. Herein fail not, but have before said Court on the 1st day of the next term thereof, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness: C. A. BURTON, Clerk of the District Court of Donley county.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicat questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-seco, all ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

The cooking exhibit at Taylor & Sons' this week was quite an attraction for the ladies of the town, and the conductor of it, Mr. Duke, is well onto his job, making fine coffee and baking fine biscuits in three minutes on the Majestic range, Taylor's leading cooking range. It is claimed that this is the only absolute air-tight range made. The big cake advertised was made, 17x19 inches, 6 inches deep, was baked, then a long plank laid across it and some 15 ladies stood on it, mashing the cake flat, but on removing the plank the cake resumed its shape, after which it was divided among those present, who found it light and nice. The Majestic seems to be all claimed for it.

Robbery at Rowe.

Sheriff Patman was phoned about 5 o'clock Wednesday morning from Rowe to come down, that the agent at that place had been held up by two men after midnight and robbed of $250.85. He boarded the morning train and was soon on the ground. The agent stated that he worked on his reports Tuesday night until after 1 o'clock, and when he left the depot he was met by two men who poked pistols in his face and demanded that he throw up his hands. He was seized, his hands were tied behind him and he was relieved of the company's money, to the above amount. He stated that a freight train came in about that time and he jumped past the front of the engine as it passed, and thus being cut off by the train between himself and the robbers, he escaped to Hedley and gave the alarm. But when parties returned to the depot, no sign of the robbers could be seen, they, supposedly, having mounted the train and rode out of the place.

Sheriff Patman says so far as he could see, no clue was left, and it will be difficult to capture them, unless they in some way give themselves away.

Jas. Rogers, of Arkadelphia, Found Dead.

A dead man was found just this side of the Hall county line, below Giles, Wednesday. Sheriff Patman, who had already gone to Rowe, was phoned for and with Justice Cavness of Rowe went down and held an inquest. From papers and a railway ticket, it was found that his name was James Rogers from Arkadelphia, Ark. He had a ticket from that place to Memphis, but had passed there and came on to Giles, where he left the train and started to walk back to Memphis. He was suffering from some disease, as two bottles of medicine in his pockets put up by an Arkadelphia drug firm would indicate, and the conclusion was that he was overcome with weakness and disease, laid down to rest and expired.

There was no indication of foul play. It is supposed he had been dead 48 hours when found. Besides the medicine there was $1.80 in his pockets. The body was taken to Memphis and buried.

Death of W. T. Morgan.

W. T. Morgan died at his home in Jericho of cancer, September 27. Uncle Tom, as he was familiarly known, had been in feeble health for years, caused by the disease of which he died.

Formerly he had been a strong, robust man. Had he lived until Oct. 3 he would have been 77 years old.

He leaves a wife and seven children, three children in Tennessee and four in Texas, all married except his youngest son, Doss.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

CHRONICLE Correspondence.

OKLAHOMA STATEHOOD.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 30.—Almost the first act of the Executive on his return was to summon the Attorney General and review with him the Oklahoma constitution. Then he announced that when the proper time came he would formally announce his approval of that instrument which is the last act necessary to the creation of the new state. Personally, Mr. Roosevelt thoroughly disapproved of the constitution and he has made it plain to his friends that he entirely sympathizes with the view of Secretary Taft on the subject, but after looking into the enabling act he found that Congress conferred on him discretion to ascertain only (1) that the constitution submitted had been adopted by a majority of the people of the proposed state, (2) that it would insure to the people a government republican in form and (3) that the constitution conformed to the provisions of the enabling (or Statehood) act. A careful examination of the instrument has satisfied the President that these conditions are complied with and as a result Oklahoma will send five representatives and two senators to Washington in time for the convening of Congress. A new star will be added to every national flag used officially and on July 4, next, the national salute as fired at every military spot and on every naval vessel will consist of 46 instead of 45 guns, as heretofore.

BIG FREIGHT BILLS.

Having disposed of the Oklahoma problem, the President sent for the Secretary of the Navy and took up with him the question of employing American vessels to transport the coal which will be needed by the fleet on its cruise to the Pacific. A total of 133,000 are needed of which 93,000 will be transferred to the battleship and cruiser bunkers en route or in South American ports and 40,000 dumped on the docks at San Francisco. The latter sum the American vessel owners claim the right to carry under the coastwise laws which forbid the employment of foreign vessels for the transportation of passengers or freight from one American port to another. The President does not believe that the law applies to supplies for the army or the navy and maintains that unless the American shipowners make reasonable prices he is warranted in employing foreigners. He does not, however, regard an excess of, say, $200,000 on the 40,000 tons as excessive and the present indications are that if the Americans will get together and insure the government against an excess cost of more than $200,000, or a total of $480,000 for the 40,000 tons, they will get the business.

Incidentally, the President has made it clear to all his callers that the naval fleet is going to the Pacific, that there are no ifs and ands about it. To illustrate he told one group of callers of a friend of his, the sheriff of a western town, who was warned that a number of voters had been imported to help carry an election. The sheriff warned each one as he approached the polls that he was known and pointed significantly to the adjacent calaboose. One, however, insisted upon voting. "And did he fall?" "Did he fall? If he hadn't have fell I'd have went round back of him to see what propped him up," was the answer of the sheriff, and the president added, "If the navy don't go to the Pacific I'll go round back of it to see what's propping it back."

WANT MORE BIG SHIPS.

Speaking of naval affairs, the board of construction has just asked the Secretary of the Navy to obtain from Congress authorization of a new 25,000 ton battleship and another of 30,000 tons, the former to have six turrets with two 12-inch guns. The naval experts say there is no limit to the size to which battleships may go except the depth of ports and harbors. A 30,000 ton ship would draw 30 feet and this is regarded as the limit for American ships as the harbors cannot accommodate deeper vessels.

"Must Endure the Polishing."

In speaking of God's plan for us and His methods of dealing with us, His children, Rev. F. B. Meyer says:

"None of us can tell for what God is educating us. We fret and murmur at the narrow round and daily task of ordinary life, not realizing that it is only thus that we can be prepared for the high and holy office which awaits us. We must descend before we can ascend. We must take the via crucis (way of the cross) submissively and patiently if we would tread the via lucis (way of light). We must endure the polishing if we would be shafts in the quiver of Emmanuel. God's will comes to thee and me in the daily circumstances, in little things equally as in great; meet them bravely; be at your best always, though the occasion be one of the very least; dignify the smallest summons by the greatness of your response."

The Boy That Dewey Praised.

The following story of Admiral Dewey is told by one of the sailors who returned on the Raleigh: Just before the battle of Manila, when the order was given to strip for action, the smallest powder boy on the flagship accidentally dropped his coat overboard. He asked permission to jump after it, but was refused. He went to the side of the ship, dropped overboard, recovered his coat, and was promptly arrested for disobedience. Admiral Dewey spoke kindly to the youngster, who broke down and said that the coat contained his mother's picture, which he had just kissed, and he could not bear to see it lost. Dewey's eyes filled with tears, and he fairly embraced the boy, and ordered him released, saying: "A boy who loves his mother enough to risk his life for her picture cannot be left in irons on this fleet."

Transmuting to Higher Forms.

A gentleman on one occasion noticing the peculiarly unpleasant mud of the streets of London, exclaimed: "What dirty, dreadful, disgusting stuff!"

John Ruskin, overhearing this exclamation on the part of his friend, said: "Hold, my friend, not so dreadful after all. What are the elements of this mud? First, there is sand, but when its particles are crystallized according to the law of its nature, what is nicer than clean, white sand? And when that which enters into it is arranged according to a still higher law, we have the matchless opal. What else have we in this mud? Clay. And the materials of clay, when the particles are arranged according to their higher laws, make the brilliant sapphire. What other ingredients enter into London mud? Soot. And soot in its crystallized perfection forms the perfect diamond. There is but one other—water. And water, when distilled according to the higher law of its nature, forms the dew-drop resting in exquisite perfection in the heart of the rose.

"So, in the muddy, lost soul of man is hidden the image of his Creator; and God will do his best to find his opals, his sapphires, his diamonds and dew-drops."

In spite of all the other attractions this week, St. Louis will miss the Governor of Texas, who is, unfortunately, too busy to leave his state, even to visit its best friends. We will have to rely on the President to fill the vacancy thus created in our list of greatest chief executives. By expanding somewhat, he will succeed to everybody's satisfaction.—St. Louis Republic.
