Former Pearl Harbor Resident Explains Need For USO Recreational Centers

By Mrs. D. E. Caraway

One notes with regret, the apathetic attitude the people as a whole, have taken to the current USO drive. The popular opinion seems to consider it 'just another fund,' perhaps of less importance than others since it deals with a lighter phase of living, that we accept for granted, because of its ready accessibility to the demands of civilian life.

Because we can go to the corner drug store and buy a magazine, or sit in the quiet solitude of our own homes and write our letters, or attend the neighborhood movie at will, not to speak of having access to many other forms of recreation, we fail to consider that these same diversions assume a two fold importance to the boys who are in the armed services.

Many of them are away from home for the first time—all of them are facing the prospect of active battle from day to day or week to week. Hard work and much fatigue are the order of their days in most instances. The few precious hours they spend at liberty leaves them free to seek whatever amusement might be available. So wherever these boys may be, we should surely be glad enough to put forth any small effort that can be made to provide them with a few hours in pleasant surroundings, with some interesting recreation to relax tension, and fortify upon return to duty.

So, just how vast this organization must be to cope with these demands adequately, may be readily judged by considering the number of army camps and naval training stations in this country, not to mention the many fronts on which our men are living under combat conditions and where the need is most felt.

So do let us all consider what this USO drive really means—that it is a definite importance on the lives and attitude of our men. Providing them with decent and progressive recreation, we are building their morale to a winning pitch, and giving them the satisfaction of feeling that the folks at home are doing their utmost to make life as tenable for them as possible, against the day when Victory is ours, and home life becomes a dream come true.

Compliance is almost here again and along with it the problems that always accompany it.

This year Reporters and Producers must be more careful than in previous years with regard to total farm measurements and permanent fields so that they might get them on the map right this year since we have new aerial maps.

In order that compliance may be done as cheaply as possible this year, the County Committee will not furnish a chairman for the Reporters, therefore producers must be there to help the reporters or have some one there who will work in his place.

Rechecking farms will be done as usual on farms where producers are overplanted on cotton, and plow the cotton up to get in compliance. Also when a Producer is dissatisfied with the first measurement and wishes a total farm recheck. Producers will be charged a minimum fee of $1.00 or 50¢ per plot which even is the larger; that is, if a producer has one plot rechecked the fee would be $1.00 two plots $1.00, three plots $1.50, etc. Acreage remeasurements at the request of producers according to regulations, must make a deposit of $1.00 plus 2¢ per acre on the acreage he wishes rechecked. This deposit will be refunded if the measurements prove to have been incorrect in such an amount to put the producer in compliance on any special crop or a reasonable amount of error in other crops.

Compliance will be carried on as efficiently and as fast as possible. Producers are again asked to cooperate with the reporters in any way possible, as there will necessarily be less reporters and more work for each one of these.

Producers are to be sure to have 20% of their cropland in Government crops which include sudan for grazing or leaving on the land, cane or sweet sorghum (except Sargo) which may be harvested in 5 rod strips with 1 rod cut at least 12 inches high, or may be left on the land, peas, forest trees, or summer fallowed acreage. Idle land (not tilled in any way) will not qualify for government land. Turn rows will not count as government land unless planted to some of the crops named above.

Producers are urged to earn all the soil-building payment possible either by a farm or range building practice, since the payments will be reduced considerably unless all the soil-building allowance is earned.

If the producer will keep these points in mind and help the reporters to measure their land with the least possible retracking compliance can be carried out in a very efficient manner.

Get Sugar For Canning

The Donley County Rationing Board announced this week that all those wishing to come in and sign up for Sugar for canning purposes should come in and apply either on Wednesday or Thursday as these will be the only days that the office will be open for that purpose.

The Board will be in Hedley all day Friday to take applications and the office here will be closed on that day. Each person is allowed one pound of sugar for jams and jellies and 9 pounds for canned fruits of which one pound of sugar is to be used for every four quarts of fruit.

You can come in on the days specified above and apply to get half of the ten pounds and then come back and report on how much was canned and get the other half.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The 75-millimeter gun is a divisional weapon used by the Artillery as an anti-tank gun. It has been replaced to some extent by the more modern "105", known as the heaviest of divisional weapons. The 75-mm gun costs $12,000 and has been converted by our Ordnance into a "blaster" twice as efficient as in the first World War.

This gun gets maximum power for minimum weight and cost, and the American people are providing the finance through the purchase of War Bonds. If you do your share and invest 10 per cent of your income in War Bonds, adequate supply of this efficient gun can be assured our fighting forces. Buy War Bonds every pay day.

Donley County's quota of $24,000 for the month of June would buy two of the above guns. A total of $3,221.80 in bonds have been purchased so far. This leaves better than $20,000 to be purchased the remaining 20 days of this month.

No Cyclone—Just Rain!

Rain falling late Tuesday afternoon brought the total amount of moisture for the week to 1.73 inches. The rain in general was welcomed by most everyone as the ground was drying out fast.

Those who watched the cloud Tuesday afternoon had a queer feeling, for this day was the anniversary of the Cyclone that struck Clarendon last year, tearing a strip through the west side of town. For a little while it looked like a cyclone might be coming back to destroy what was left last year. It is hoped that an occurrence of that memorable occasion will not happen again.

As the day draws near when we pay annual tribute to Old Glory, let us each pause and thoughtfully consider the part these young men are playing to preserve her, our symbol of Loyalty, Justice, Courage, and Freedom for all, and let us resolve that their supreme efforts shall be held in trust by us; that our duty toward them and toward our Flag shall be our first interest, bear our greatest enthusiasm, and our highest ideals, as we aid them in every possible way to gain the Victory.

Bert Smith Jr. Is Painfully Burned

Several boys were gathered at the home of Bert Smith Tuesday afternoon painting the swimming pool, wearing their swimming trunks while doing the job. About 1:30 they proceeded to the wash house to wash the paint off their legs with gasoline. A pilot light under a hot water tank is said to have ignited the gasoline, catching Bert Smith Jr. on fire from his trunks on down. He ran into the yard where his mother called him to stop and sit down, at which time she grabbed a quilt and threw over him and smothered the flame.

Mr. Smith arrived home shortly afterward and rushed the suffering boy to Adair hospital. His hips and heels were burned deeper than the rest of his legs. J. J. Lawson Jr. and Arlis Allison received lesser burns.

The fire was extinguished by the fire force before much damage could be done.

SPOTLIGHT TURNED ON REA

The House of Representatives Military Affairs Special Committee recently made a report which should be required reading for the American people. That report, in which the majority of the Committee concurred, accuses the Rural Electrification Administration of wasting tremendous amounts of copper by building unnecessary electric lines which simply duplicate existing lines.

The report deals with specific cases where the REA has built or is planning to build transmission facilities for war industries. And here, in part, is the conclusion reached: "Unless the REA is checked in its effort to thus dissipate and waste copper and other critical materials, the progress of our national defense will be hindered and retarded seriously. The REA does not add a single kilowatt of energy to that which is now in existence, and now available to the furtherance of the war program for the manufacture of aluminum.

"The REA is misleading the public by propaganda, claiming their duplication of existing power systems is necessary to the war program."

Thus does the official finger point to flagrant waste which must be stopped at once. The plain truth is that backers of REA extensions, in many instances, seem more interested in destroying the private utility industry, by depriving it of business, than in furthering the war effort at minimum cost in time, money and materials.

The House Committee recommends "that a nation-wide survey and investigation of all proposed construction of power projects, private and public, generating and transmission, should be conducted immediately; that every such project not necessary to the winning of this war should be stopped immediately."

Only the swift adoption of that common-sense policy can prevent ever-growing waste of scarce, critical materials which are absolutely vital to the prosecution of our war for survival.

THE FARMER AND HIS CAR

"A passenger car is not a necessity for a family living within a few blocks of a bus line or the shopping district," says the Dairy-men's League News of New York, "but it is vital to the farmer living many miles from a community.

"These facts should be considered by the government and special consideration should be given to farmers' need for gasoline."

In many small farming operations, a passenger car provides the entire transportation, and is the only means the producer has of reaching his market. Even in larger operations, use of trucks is often wasteful and uneconomic and absorbs unnecessary quantities of gasoline and rubber. The passenger car, in short, provides a farm service that nothing else can sufficiently replace.

Gas priorities for trucks alone will not solve the farmer's transportation problem. His passenger car is often essential to his operation—and essential to the delivery of food the nation must have.

Donley County Leader, $2 a year.

MERCHANDISING TODAY AND YESTERDAY

The part played by retail merchandising in our national life has changed tremendously.

The merchant's job used to be relatively simple. He worked to reduce his overhead expense, to lower his prices, to improve his service and to otherwise contribute to a steadily rising standard of living for all the people. Merchandising was a competitive enterprise, and each store, whether chain or independent, bid for business on the basis of merit.

Today merchandising still works to better service and cut costs. But, on top of that, it must grapple with a long list of problems which were unknown a year or two ago. Prices have been frozen. Priorities have denuded the civilian market of goods which once were almost as common as air. And the list of shortages and scarcities grows ever longer.

Luckily, for the public, merchandising hasn't simply thrown its hands in the air and given up. Instead, it has regarded each new problem as a new opportunity for public service and acted accordingly. Merchandising groups are working with manufacturers in developing suitable substitutes for metals and other scarce commodities, and very great progress is being made.

In the food field, merchants are effectively backing the National Nutrition Program, which is designed to show housewives how to purchase and prepare meals which will give the family needed vitamins at reasonable cost. In all fields, merchants are taking every practical step to help the people adjust themselves to total-war conditions. This is true of both the chain and independent stores—each do their full part.

BATTLE FOR SURVIVAL AT HOME

American retailing, small and large, today faces an extremely difficult battle for survival. That battle is the inevitable result of the general price-freezing order.

"Time" covered the situation accurately when it wrote: "The retailer—bears the brunt of the whole price-control program. With few exceptions, U. S. retailers were having the horrors—Worst blow was that OPA had denied their plea for a 'roll-back' of ceiling dates that would recognize the lag between rising wholesale and retail prices. Retailers maintained that their price level was still some 10 per cent behind their suppliers."

"The National Association of Retail Grocers called this squeeze 'disastrous,' predicted wholesale bankruptcies unless OPA could iron out their problems in a hurry. Other retailers put a finger on the saddest inequity of all: the failure to provide a wholesale roll-back is hardest on the patriotic merchant who tried to keep the lid on his prices (by averaging his costs), while the one who jumped his prices as fast as his costs rose is rewarded."

It is obvious that this "squeeze" will be hardest on small merchants who lack capital reserves which would permit them to operate at a loss for some time. There are literally tens of thousands of stores in this country which are in imminent danger of ruin.

Retailing, in general, long ago cut its cost of operation to rock-bottom, and it will be unable to further reduce overhead. The typical retailer doesn't go in for expensive "frills" which can be abandoned now. Unless some provision is made for the "roll-back," he will have no way to meet the problem.

This is a desperately urgent situation. The whole future of retail business is involved. Unless the OPA, Congress or some other responsible agency acts swiftly, widespread retail failures and store closures are certain.

Gordon Smith Will Cooperate With War Program

"No placards will adorn the highways of Texas and other public places advertising my candidacy for the office of State Treasurer," Gordon Smith states. "The government is urging the conservation of paper. I am willing to forego whatever advantages this class of advertising might give me in order to cooperate with my government."

"Two trucks with sound speakers have been tendered to me by loyal friends to be used in my campaign. Not a wheel on these trucks will be turned as I further endeavor to cooperate with the program of tire rationing and conservation of gasoline and oil.

"I believe this is the high hour, when every loyal American, should make any sacrifice possible, in carrying out our war program."

"I shall use the mails freely, and the press generously, and the radio occasionally in getting my appeal for the votes before the people of my native State."

GARDEN GLANCES

"America beautiful lies in the hands of the gardeners."

Roses are still blossoming in marvelous beauty in many gardens. The lovely white rose in the foreground at the home of Mrs. Eula Cox is indeed beautiful. Two bright pink roses adorn the lovely spanish type home of Willard Skelton.

The H. T. Burton home is surrounded with attractive colors. The pink rose over the side of the porch, tall spires of hollyhocks, and a cactus with brilliant pink blossoms altogether present a very pleasing view.

The Will Lewis home has several attractive spots, the huge golden elder, the nasturtiums in the window boxes, the beautiful evergreens and the spacious lawn. Day lilies are to be found in profusion in the yards of Mrs. C. L. Benson, Billy Weatherly and Allen Bryan.

Kelly Chamberlain's house and grounds are unusually neat and seem to be more green because of the recent rains.

Victory gardens are greatly helped by the rains. Lee Muse has one of the prettiest gardens in the city.

R. R. Dawkins home is more noticeable since the new outside produces a greater contrast with the lawn and trees.

There is a most beautiful display of white lilies in the yard of H. C. Brunley. They are very striking and noticeable.

Mrs. A. L. Chase spent the week end with her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stegall at Kingsmill.

RANCHERO.
A word from Jack Frye, president of TWA and a Clarendon boy who went west some years ago, says he has bought a ranch on Oak creek near Flagstaff,

Arizona and wants us to spend a vacation there. He announces that his home will be constructed from petrified woods and that it will be really ornamental when completed. Jack has gone a long way since he was a youth in old Clarendon, but he still recalls friends of his boyhood days and means it.

DOMESTIC.
Ima Fizzle says "giving up cuffs is a matter of small concern, but if we have to give up our pants, that will really be something." We presume she has reference to "men only."

MORE BOYS.
Sunday saw all our boys at home at the same time for the first time in six years. We really had a big day of it. Their mother was unable to cook them the customary fried chicken dinner, but they got it just the same. The home coming was on account of the continued illness of their mother. Homer is in the mercantile business in the oil field near Electra at Kadane Corner. Phifer and Gene are with the Firestone company store at Austin. Phifer having been manager of the store since the spring of 1939. Being here for only one day, they did not have time to see any one, much as they expressed a desire to do so.

THE BOUQUET.
And here comes this from Mrs. G. A. Palmer, Route 2, Hale Center: "Your hot cake recipe is good for the whole family, so don't advise just the old bachelors to try it." Glad you like the recipe, Mrs. Palmer, and was I surprised to get so many compliments on that recipe from—could you believe it?—just women and girls. The bachelors are so selfish they won't even thank any one for anything.

SUGGESTION.
If you are too small to do great things, you might try doing small things in a great way.

CONCLUSION.
The man who says he never had a chance, never took one.

HISTORICAL.
A toastmaster is a guy who thinks you are so blamed dumb that you would not know he was "good," without he told you about it in his talk.

WEAKLY POME.
She ate onions
In a swell cafe
Because the price
Took her breath away.

SLEUTHING.
Saw a man swipe a paper clip in the postoffice Monday. He was in the act of swiping a rubber when caught in the act. Rubber and metal is going to make thieves of a lot of us during the duration.

DEFENSE.
There are a lot of couples that don't get in cars. In fact the woods are full of them.

COMPENSATION.
The war conditions are already doing our folks a lot of good. Take for instance, clabber cheese. We have found out a way to sugar it without using sugar. Most all of us are getting a diabetical rest from sweets. Corn pone is back again. Then there is that old standby, karo syrup. But burn karo since the other World war. It is a horrible mess. Can't say what the best syrup is right here as it would be advertising, and the law says all advertising must be paid for these days.

INDUSTRY.
I know two women who are "Selling all the can, and canning what they can't." Snap beans and English peas are going into a lot of cans in old Donley at this time. With all of our good gardens in northwest Texas, no one should be without plenty of wholesome food this coming winter. And another thing! Canned tomatoes will not be on the grocer shelves this fall. The federal government is buying all the factories will produce to feed the folks in the service. If you want tomatoes this next season, grow them now. It is not too late to plant up to July 1st. The yellow pear and cherry tomatoes produce in my garden in seventy days. The large types should be planted by June 15th at most.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

A FEW weeks ago, I had occasion to visit some friends of mine in Nebraska.

Nebraska certainly is a great State. I like Nebraska. I like those immense cornfields that seem to stretch from horizon to horizon. (Plenty of wheatfields in Nebraska, too.)

But the thing that interests me most about Nebraska right now is the very important social experiment the beer people started there several years ago.

Beer itself is naturally a beverage of moderation. Yet, all too often, people are inclined to blame beer wrongly for any misconduct of the customer or the proprietor in a place licensed to sell beer.

So, the brewers got together to see what they could do about this. They weren't really responsible for their retailers... in fact, they're not allowed to control retailers. But the brewing industry worked out a plan by which it cooperates with the public authorities to eliminate bad conditions in the minority of places whose conduct would reflect on the law-abiding majority.

The beer people urge proprietors of retail places to conduct them properly and to obey the law. They urge consumers to cooperate, and ask the public generally to report law violations to the authorities. They send warnings to careless retailers and if conditions are not corrected they take the case up with the authorities. Naturally the authorities and the public have welcomed this as an added force in building respect for law and order.

That program is now operating in many states—and with the Nation at war, brewing industry organizations cooperate with civil and military authorities to assure good conditions in beer outlets around the army camps and naval stations.

Somehow, to me, that's a mighty important, public-spirited effort. I don't know of anything like it ever having been tried before. If people really help the brewers with that program they'll be doing a great thing for the country.

A MONKEY-WRENCH
IN THE MACHINE

The monetary and credit structure of our country is like a well balanced mechanism. Careless and thoughtless handling can throw it out of balance like throwing a monkey-wrench in a machine.

The Bankers of the more than 14,000 Banks are the operators of this credit machinery. Each one has a responsibility to the whole National set-up as well as to his community.

They see dangers of throwing the machine out of balance by the wrong use of credit. Its free use for speculative ends now would produce disasters our country could not overcome in years.

Our Bank wants to make loans for increasing production, and for any helpful use, divorced from speculative ends.

Nancy Davidson, who arrived by plane from Bremerton, Wash. last week to visit her aunt, Mrs. Simmons Powell, left today with her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Davidson for a visit with relatives in Dallas, Fort Worth and White-wright, Texas before returning home in August.

The above map of the country shows the War Bond Quota by states for the month of June totalling $800,000,000. Everybody every pay day is expected to invest at least ten per cent of his income in War Bonds to aid in financing America's offensive against the Axis powers.

The ultimate quota for the nation will be on a basis of one billion dollars per month effective in July. This sum is necessary to provide for all-out production of planes, guns, ships and munitions adequate to arm our fighting men with the tools necessary to win the war.

ECONOMIC HIGHLIGHTS

Last January, an official announcement said that the United States Army would reach a total of 3,600,000 men by the end of 1942. Since then, the actual size of the Army and precise plans for its expansion have not been announced, inasmuch as they are military secrets of the first order. Some commentators have forecast that in time the Army might total nine or ten million. The best available information seems to indicate that a total of at least 6,000,000 will be attained.

That is obviously going to have a revolutionary effect on the manpower of this country. However, there is no factual evidence to support the scare rumors which say that every physically fit man under 36 is certain to be placed in uniform. Selective Service heads are making a genuine effort to create an Army of the size needed with minimum dislocation of American family life.

Here is how matters shape up at this time, according to published statements:

First, practically all available single men in the 20-35 year bracket have been called. Many who were given temporary deferment for occupational reasons are now being summoned. In time, women and older men will replace thousands of young men in defense industries.

Second, the Selective Service Boards are placing in the 1-A classification all men who have no genuine claim for dependency. That includes men with working wives, men who contribute little to the support of their households, and men with means. Almost all of these men will be in uniform by the end of the year, unless they are unable to pass the physical examinations or perform vital work in war industry.

Third, it is universally believed that Congress will soon approve a bill providing government grants to dependents of service men. These grants, as now projected, are small—around $50 a month for a wife and child. But they will make it possible for the Selective Service Boards to call thousands of men who are now deferred for economic reasons.

Fourth, a new draft classification, 3-B, has been adopted. And that is a matter of very great importance. At the present time, men with genuine dependencies are classified as 3-A. The 3-B classification is for men with genuine dependencies who, in addition, are employed in war work. The hope is that thousands of men who now have non-war jobs will shift to war jobs, in order to obtain the 3-B deferment. Some observers say that eventually the Selective Service Boards will operate on the "work or fight" policy which existed in World War I. In other words, a man will be given the choice of going into the Army, or leaving a non-war occupation for a war occupation.

The industries which are classified as essential to the war effort are definitely limited in number. Lawyers, store clerks, newspapermen, wholesalers, advertising men, etc., have no claim for deferment. Deferment is given only to men who hold a job which is directly and absolutely necessary to the production and transportation of the raw and finished materials which are involved in war.

What this all adds up to is plain. If you are a single man, under 36, in reasonable health, you will go into the Army unless you are virtually irreplaceable in some war industry. If you have dependents who look to you entirely for support, you will be deferred for the time being—but there is a strong likelihood that in time the continuance of your deferment will depend upon your obtaining a job in war industry. If you have minor physical defects, you are not exempt from military service. The original physical standards have been relaxed, and men with defective eyesight, hearing, feet, etc., are being called to the colors and assigned to non-combatant duty.

Many a problem remains to be worked out. An army of 6,000,000 men would mean that four to six times that number would be needed in industries manufacturing and transporting supplies. On top of that, agriculture must be kept going, and on an expanding scale, inasmuch as we are sending tremendous quantities of foodstuffs to our Allies. Selective Service heads, such as General Hershey, have advised the Boards to exempt enough farm labor to keep food production up to the necessary level. But, reports say, in some areas the draft is virtually denuding the farms of labor. Furthermore, farmers cannot pay the high wages paid by war industry, and workers are naturally taking jobs in war factories instead of on farms. This seems to be one of the most serious of the unsolved problems.

ON THE HOME FRONT

The Office of Price Administration wants to know how price control is coming along in the Southwest. So it has decided to find out.

As a part of a nation-wide program, the OPA region headquarters at Dallas has started a thorough survey in each of the States in the region—Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas.

Principal purpose of the survey will be to observe how retailers of all kinds are complying with the requirements for marking of ceiling prices on or near all cost-of-living commodities as listed in the General Maximum Price Regulations.

Trained inspectors are making the survey. Starting from Dallas they are formed into teams and assigned to work in and near representative cities and communities throughout the six-state region. No itinerary has been announced for the survey, but each retail seller should not be surprised to receive visits by an inspector.

Visits by the inspectors will be friendly. OPA officials have emphasized. Dual purposes will be filled: instruction on proper marking of cost-of-living ceiling prices and inspection of how the seller is complying. Each inspector will carry instructional material to leave with the visited seller.

Mrs. Faye Scoggins and Mrs. Geo. Wayne Estlack and Mrs. Lawrence Whitlock were Amarillo visitors Wednesday.

Judge R. Y. King was confined to his home the fore part of the week with a "creek" in his neck.

Veterans' State Service Office Extends Services To World War Veterans No. 2 And Dependents

George C. Betts, Director, Veterans' State Service Office, Austin, Texas, announces that his department is daily extending services to include veterans of World War No. 2 and their dependents.

Mr. Betts states that dependents are entitled to death benefits on a war rate base. Widows and minor children are eligible for pension, with six month's death gratuity pay, and pensions are also payable to the veteran's mother and father, in the event they are classed as being dependent within the meaning of the law. If the veteran was not survived by a widow or minor child, in some cases, the parents are entitled to six month's death gratuity pay.

War Risk Insurance, National Service Life Insurance or Automatic Insurance, whichever is applicable, is payable to the beneficiary, and/or dependents, of the insured.

Mr. Betts stated that upon being notified he will have a representative to personally contact those desiring to file claim for death benefits.

Director Betts has six trained service officers under his supervision in the field in connection with his staff in the Veterans' Administration office in Waco, and his Austin office.

Mrs. Hattie Palmer and son James Wesley spent the weekend in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Donnell and family went to Ft. Sill, Okla. to visit their son Landon.

PROTECT YOUR HERITAGE

These are not ordinary days. Business is not being carried on in the ordinary manner. There is little hope for past and present standards of value as we have known them.

But if the people can determine that above all else, after the war is won, they must maintain the right of a man to make his living free of domination of labor, business or government, we will have nothing to fear.

The best hope of this country lies in men and women who are aware of what we must save—not profits, not position, not social security—but the right to work for oneself in the light of freedom. Net earnings may disappear entirely under the stress of war, or under the stress of destructive political agitation. But that loss is minor compared with the loss of the rights of individuals to carry on individual enterprises. There can be no freedom in this country without free enterprise. Outside of winning the war, the biggest thing we have to fight to save is our right to do business as free agents.

Most of us will have less net earnings from now on, but that is of infinitely less importance than perpetuating our right to make earnings, no matter how small, as the result of our individual work and ingenuity.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gerald and family have moved to Okla. City.

LESTER BOONE

Pledging himself to "an all-out war effort," Lester Boone, Fort Worth Representative, has formally announced his candidacy for the Texas Railroad Commission, and called attention to the fact that it was one of Texas' most vital factors in the war effort. He further pledged in his announcement to attend all commission meetings.

Boone, who is now serving in the Texas Legislature from Fort Worth, sponsored the Omnibus Tax Bill which made possible the payment of old age pensions, teachers retirement pay, aid to the blind, and aid to crippled and dependent children. As a member of the House Military Affairs Committee, he aided in the passage of the Texas Defense Guard Bill, which became a law, thereby giving Texas greater security in the present crisis.

"I pledge an administration of harmony and will cooperate with other members of the commission," Boone said in his announcement. "I pledge myself to an all-out war effort in this vital department of State Government and will attend all commission meetings."

2 Texas Boys Win In 4-H Farm Accounting

Two 16-year-old Texas boys have won high honors in the 1941-42 national accounting contest supervised by the Extension Service. They are Jack Wiley, of Graham, (Young county), named a southern sectional winner in farm accounting, and Ismael Rangel, of Moore, (Frio county), winner of sectional honors in the crops phase. State Boys' Club Agent L. L. Johnson previously had designated the two clubbers highest scoring in the State.

Both boys receive an all-expense trip to the 21st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November, provided with all other awards in the contest by the International Harvester Co.

Young Wiley has been a 4-H'er six years, and kept accounts on his father's 100-acre farm last year.

Ismael kept accounts on 54 acres of field and broomcorn on his father's 170-acre farm. Both have fine records in other 4-H work.

Vaporized Steam Health Bath

Nature, that creative force within, cannot make a mistake; it is perfect in its work to create, build and maintain a well body and healthy, happy mind. Hence it matters little what the malady may be. Supply the body with proper elements, and Nature quickly brings about a normal functioning of all organs; aches and pains disappear; and normal conditions are harmoniously adjusted. Experience has proven that when these baths are combined with a moderate regulation of diet, that even in long-standing chronic cases, that patient usually seen takes an apparent new lease on life, burdens seem to lighten and work becomes a pleasure.

These treatments are not disagreeable or unpleasant. They are decidedly unlike the Turkish or other forms of hot baths. The patient does not take on a feeling of languor but rather of vigor. Contracting of cold following these health baths is virtually unknown. The patient usually has an exhilarated feeling; that they feel as though they were walking on air to have those tired depressed feelings gone.

The application of moist heat to the body as supplied in our cabinet and as practiced in the best sanitariums, with which many are familiar, has alone produced unlimited good in relieving ailing humanity. We not only promote all the relaxing vitalizing stimulation of any other bath, but have no unpleasant effects following. They are also vastly different from any other bath in that the action of the vapor and fumes have a very pronounced effect on the body. The patient realizes he has a real health treatment.

Football Outlook Not So Good At WTSC

CANYON, June 10—Loss of 63 per cent of last year's starters and prospective enlistment of other gridlers have dimmed the chances of West Texas State's football team in its second year in the Border Conference. The club finished third last season.

Returning starts include Co-Captains Johnny Thomas, end, and Joed Forbus, tackle, in addition to Buford Emler, end.

It will be hard to find replacements for Ben Collins, Larry Sanders, and Fairy Hill of last year's backfield. Collins was the second highest scoring back in the nation last season, while Sanders led in some conference statistics.

Freshmen, who will be allowed to play next fall, may fill most of the backfield gaps and the center position. Some of these first year men have not yet reached the campus.

An entirely new coaching staff will direct the Buffaloes in 1942. Athletic Director and Head Coach is William Augustus (Gus) Miller, late of Texas Wesleyan College of Fort Worth, whose assistant has not been announced. Miller is directing the summer recreation program. He replaced Al Baggett, who is in the Army Air Corps recreation program. Coach Leslie Van Meter was to join Baggett in the same program this week.

Basketball memories were revived this week when Price Brookfield and Charles Halbert were named on Chuck Taylor's All-American team. Brookfield is pitching for the Amarillo team of the West Texas-New Mexico league this summer, while Halbert is working in a defense plant in Wichita, Kans.

RECORD OF THE UTILITIES

If an uninformed person listened to the arguments and demands of the public ownership groups, he would conclude that the future of the war effort depends on spending more billions of tax dollars for socialized electric power projects—and that the private utility industry is of small importance, and should be destroyed.

The truth of the matter is just opposite. Private utilities generate and distribute about 90 per Myers, of West Haven, Conn., tried to mend a hole in his sock but gave it up and bowed to the tutorage of members of the Camp Blanding (Florida) Button Hole Club. Mrs. Ivan C. cent of all the commercially produced electricity in this country. In some of the most important industrial areas, private utilities generate and distribute 100 per cent of the power. They have met war needs and normal needs with perfect efficiency.

The 1941 increase in power demand alone equaled the total output of the entire industry 25 years ago. The private utilities absorbed that increase without undue strain on their facilities. The tremendous new defense loads which came in 1941 were met with the industry's total generating capacity working only 50 per cent of the time. And, while this was going on, the utility industry was carrying on ambitious expansion and improvement programs to meet the greater demands of the future.

This is a remarkable achievement because constant political attack, spreading over many years, kept the utilities from expanding normally.

There will be no serious power shortage in this country unless further political persecution makes it impossible for the industry to carry its plans through to fruition. If government will give the power industry the same degree of cooperation it gives to other enterprises on which the war effort depends, the needed electricity will continue to be produced and transmitted, no matter what the demands, without added cost to the taxpayers resulting from uncalled for waste of public funds.

Uncle Sam Needs More Physicists

AUSTIN, June 8—A science-packed War-Emergency Program to turn out physicists for Uncle Sam in 20 months will be opened this summer by the University of Texas physics department, Dr. M. Y. Colby, department chairman, has announced.

Urgent need for trained radio technicians and other physicists in military service, civil service jobs, and in war industries has caused the department to set up a new schedule of courses eliminating all "frills" and getting down to hard technical bed-rock in the shortest time possible.

The 75 semester hours of work embraced in the program—about 25 courses—are all in the field of physics, mathematics and chemistry. No other academic work is included, so no degree will be awarded on completion of the program, but the work is all of college level and carries full University credit, Dr. Colby explained.

It offers a wide open field for all students—both men and women, freshmen straight from high school, college transfers and students now enrolled in the University who want to take a rapid-fire war-service training program for immediate vital use, he said.

A year ago, he pointed out, estimates showed only 6,000 qualified physicists were available in this country, while today there is a need for perhaps as many as 100,000.

Students may start the program at the beginning of the summer session, June 4; the second summer term, July 14; or the first or second term of the long session.

Milk Is in the Army Now

At the Presidio in San Francisco, as in all other army camps and naval stations, the fighting forces of our nation have the opportunity to enjoy milk and other health-giving dairy products. In this historical army post which outdates the revolutionary war and which serves as headquarters for the Ninth Army Air Corps area, 6,000 milk shakes and 7,500 ice cream sodas and a la carte servings of ice cream are consumed daily in addition to milk and dairy products in other forms.

"The food the soldiers receive today is, to a large degree, responsible for the greatly improved health conditions among our fighting forces," states Milton Hult, President of the National Dairy Council. For the first time, since the revolutionary war, fresh milk is a part of the regular army diet. Butter and cheese, neither of which were available in revolutionary war times, are also prescribed as a part of the regular diet for our soldiers. Ice cream is made available at least once or twice a week whenever possible.

The Home Front Must Battle Inflation

COLLEGE STATION, June 10—The battle against inflation is one that can be won on the home front, according to H. H. Williamson, director of the Texas A&M College Extension Service, who has just concluded a series of meetings in various Texas cities with key representatives of all governmental agencies contacting the rural people of Texas.

"The average man and woman in Texas," Williamson says, "is ready and anxious to do everything possible to win the war; but they want to know what they can do now."

"The A&M Extension Victory Councils form a human chain that can disseminate information to every farm home in Texas in a very short time, and the message we want to get across to them at the present time is a simple one.

"Economists estimate that there will be 17 billion dollars more available this year than there will be consumer goods on the market. In other words, if you take a dollar to town, there'll only be 75 cents worth of goods to buy. You can spend that dollar for 75 cents worth of goods if you want to bid up the prices of goods, but that is foolish economy. The thing to do is spend your 75 cents and take your quarter in change.

"Now that quarter needn't burn a hole in your pocket, because you can do a lot of good with it if you want to. You can pay your debts, you can buy War Bonds, you can lay it aside to be used after the war to buy consumer goods that you cannot buy today.

"If you want to go the whole route, just spend half of every dollar you have instead of spending three-fourths of it. That will leave a lot of consumer goods available for the other fellow, and prices will not rise unless one person is willing to pay more for an article than his neighbor."

Texas Chickens Still Producing More Eggs

AUSTIN—Texas chicken farms are still boosting production to meet the increasing demand for eggs, as 1,301 carloads were shipped to market in April, almost three times the shipments of a year ago, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports:

Of the total April shipments, 447 cars were intrastate movements, while 854 cars went to other states.

The out-of-state shipments went in greatest numbers to the Eastern states of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut, which received 395 carloads—almost half of the total inter-state shipment.

Contrasted with the increasing shipment of eggs was the sharp decline in poultry shipments. The number of carloads of dressed chickens fell from 43 a year ago to 11.5, and of dressed turkeys from 10 in April, 1941, to 3.5.

FUTURE SAFETY IN LITTLE BUSINESS

There have been so many tax proposals that the people are bewildered. But they are becoming aware of the truth of the statement that "the power to tax is the power to destroy." This can be illustrated by proposals to tax excess profits up to 100 per cent, or to allow only a 6 per cent return.

Big business can stand this. But what about the tens of thousands of small businesses? Even if they could operate on that basis, would their future not be practically frozen and their ability to expand destroyed?

If little business is too badly handicapped, big business gets bigger, and the next thing we know the country is dependent almost entirely on big business for its existence. When that day comes, the stage is set for state socialism, for the cry would go up that private enterprise should not exist for the few at the expense of the many.

Here is an insidious danger in taxation to the point of confiscation, which few people probably realize—it can not only destroy individual business, but it can destroy the foundation of our whole free economy which we are fighting a war to protect. A tremendous responsibility rests on Congress to balance its tax program so as not to kill private enterprise that has made the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Barnes of Amarillo spent the week end with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitlock.

More Women Turn to Farming

The "Food for Victory" program being carried out on America's farms is bringing farm women to the active limelight more and more every day. They are replacing the nation's young farmers who are employed either in war industries or serving in the armed forces. Maxine Owens of Welnert, Tex., is one of the 16,000 young Americans who are receiving special training in farming methods under the sponsorship of the National Farm Youth Foundation.

USO Funds Still Short One-Third

HOUSTON, June 11—With 24 days left, the Texas USO campaign is still almost one-third short of its $1,110,000 goal, Harry C. Wiess, state chairman, reported today.

Only one of the 18 regions into which Texas is divided has reached its goal, while the others range from 8 to 95 percent, the chairman declared.

"This situation calls for action—the kind of action for which Texas men in the armed services are justly famous," Mr. Wiess asserted. "We at home must come through as our sons and brothers are on the world's fighting fronts."

"The announcement by General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, that the army will reach 4,500,000 by the end of the year, instead of 3,600,000, means that the USO must go far above its quotas," Mr. Wiess continued.

"USO is the American civilian's pledge to provide recreation and extras for its fighting men. It must not fall down because we at home are sluggish and disinterested."

Fifty counties have completed their campaigns with over-the-top reports.

Railroads Will Discontinue Luxury Cars

CHICAGO, June 9—To help meet the emergency arising from restrictions on the use of rubber and gasoline, the railroads will discontinue for the duration the operation of special feature or "luxury" cars where to do so will add to actual passenger-carrying capacity of trains, and will discontinue special train service to sports events and conventions, John J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, announced after a special meeting of that Association here today. Changes in passenger service will begin to go into effect on June 15.

To increase carrying capacity of the trains still further, the railroads will include day coaches in the consist of all trains where practicable, will not operate special trains for travel classified as non-essential to the war effort and will not solicit convention travel.

"The railroads," Mr. Pelley said, "will continue, in so far as possible, to handle travelers on vacation or recreational trips, as well as those traveling on business or on war work, in keeping with the expressed desire of government leaders to maintain a proper balance between work on the one hand and vacation and recreation on the other. Nothing will be done, however, which will interfere with meeting the need for the transportation of our fighting forces and the things they must have to win the fight."

Mrs. Lola Thurman and sister, Anna Lynn Barns spent the week end visiting their mother, Mrs. Lola Barns.

The sweaters for the War Relief have not been coming in as they should. September seems a while off but let's not wait until the last minute. The sooner your sweater is turned in the sooner it will be off your mind.

A Plain Statement about WESTERN VACATION TRAVEL

NATIONAL PARKS ARE OPEN. The national parks of the West—including Yellowstone, Glacier, and Rocky Mountain—are open to vacationists this summer. Park hotels and resorts will be open, and regular motor bus service will be in operation during the season between rail gateways and hotels, and between hotels within the parks. Sightseeing sidetrips have been suspended.

COLORADO ROCKIES. Hotels and resorts in the Colorado Rockies are opening. While sightseeing bus operations have been suspended, it is possible for vacationists to reach nearly all the principal scenic regions by train or regularly scheduled buses. Resort operators, upon notice, will meet guests at nearby rail or bus stops.

DUDE RANCHES. More than 100 dude ranches in Wyoming, Colorado and Montana reached via the Burlington are accepting guests this season. Upon advance notice, ranchers will meet guests at nearby rail station. Limitless sightseeing trips are available from ranches by horseback or wagon.

WARTIME TRAVEL INFORMATION. For information on train schedules, equipment and resort accommodations, consult your local Burlington ticket agent. Now, more than ever, it is important to obtain travel counsel so as to avoid conflict with war traffic.

War Traffic is the No. 1 Job

The most important job of the Burlington for the duration is to provide fast, dependable transportation for troops and war materials. This has been done and will continue to be the primary purpose of the entire Burlington organization.

In addition to the expeditious handling of war traffic, the Burlington has the capacity to care for the civilian freight and passenger movements, many of which are inseparable from the war effort.

Best use can be made of this travel capacity by planning trips so as to depart and return during the middle of the week. Reservations, when required, should be made several days in advance, if possible.
