WTU files for 12.4% rate hike

West Texas Utilities Company has filed for an increase in its electric rates for retail customers.

Local Manager Jerry Chambliss said the application was filed Friday, June 8, a full year since WTU's last rate application, and is a systemwide request for higher rates. Simultaneous filings were made in all incorporated towns and with the Public Utility Commission of Texas at Austin for an increase in rural areas, unincorporated towns and in 21 municipalities which have ceded jurisdiction over electric rates.

The proposal would produce an annual increase in total retail revenue of $30,846,198. This amounts to 12.4 percent.

Chambliss said the additional revenue is necessary to carry out WTU's current heavy construction program, which includes a new coal-fired power plant at Oklaunion near Vernon.

"By the time these rates become effective, we will have spent $167 million on the Oklaunion Power station and related projects," Chambliss said. "Our last rate increase was not enough to carry us through this construction program, which is essential to continued reliable electric service to our customers."

WTU had requested an increase of $26.6 million in its filing in June, 1983. A hearing in that case was held at Austin in September, and the final PUC order granting about half the requested amount became effective January 4, 1984.

The Oklaunion plant will be completed in late 1986, almost 10 years after WTU's newest existing generating unit was completed at Fort Phantom Power Station near Abilene.

Citing a "light at the end of the tunnel," Chambliss said WTU's spending should taper off as the construction program nears completion. Also, since coal is much cheaper for generating electricity than natural gas or oil, the fuel cost should be more stable after the new plant comes on line.

No major changes in rate structure are included in WTU's proposal. The requested rates would mean that a residential customer using 600 kilowatt-hours a month would pay $7.55 more each month for electricity. A commercial customer using 1,700 kwh would pay a $19.37 more. These amounts include fuel costs.

WTU serves customers in 161 separate communities, 82 of which operate as active incorporated towns. The rate case filings were made in 61 towns, while information on the rate case was made available to the 21 incorporated towns which have ceded jurisdiction, to two inactive municipalities and to two unincorporated towns.

Texas households may qualify for energy aid

Some low-income Texas households may be eligible for help in paying their utility bills this summer through the Home Energy assistance Program, according to Texas Department of Human Resources Commissioner Marlin Johnston.

Commissioner Johnston said the one-time payment is available to many low income households which this month received food stamps, Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Supplemental Security Income, or needs-tested Veterans Administration benefits.

Potentially eligible veterans are those who receive payments under Section 415, 521, 541 or 542 of Title 38 of the U.S. Code or under Section 306 of the Veterans and Survivors Pension Improvement Act of 1978.

Eligibility is limited by gross income. For instance, aid is available for a one-person household having less than a $355.49 gross income per month. The gross limit is $581.49 for a two-person household, $798.49 for a three-person household, $985.49 for four persons, $1,162.49 for five, and $1,359.49 for six.

Eligible households must be subject to energy cost increases because of higher bills or rent due to rising utility costs.

The Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department was called at 7:45 p.m. Sunday by someone at the Wil-Mart store and informed that smoke was coming out of the H&E Restaurant.

Kelly Hill was overcome by smoke, taken to Medical Center Clinic, then transported to Amarillo Emergency Receiving Center, Amarillo where he was treated and released.

The building was completely gutted. The exact cause and damage have not been determined at press time.

PUC to hold hearings across Texas

The staff of the Public Utility Commission of Texas sets out next Monday on the first of seven local hearings across Texas to hear what residential and business telephone customers think about local measured service (LMS).

Monday's hearing will be in Houston at the Houston Downtown Library at 500 McKinney. The meeting will be held in the lower Concourse Meeting Room from 3:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Hearings are scheduled for six other Texas cities during the next six weeks. Hearing nearest Clarendon will be July 12 in Amarillo, City Council Chambers, 509 East 7th Avenue, 3:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Local measured service is proposed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company as an alternative to standard flat rate local service. Monthly flat rate service allows an unlimited number of local calls for a set rate per month.

Local measured service, under the proposal, would have a monthly rate which is 75% of the current local flat rate service. No usage is included in the monthly rate. Each outgoing call would be billed by a method similar to long distance call billing and would be based on the 1) time of day; 2) number of minutes of the call; and 3) distance of the call. Discounts would apply to calls made during specified times in late evenings and on weekends and holidays. Distance of calls based on minutes of use would fall into one of three mileage categories from 0-31 or more miles. Initial minute charges and additional minute charges would be set for each of the mileage categories.

Bell also proposed converting their present measured rate, with a few changes, to a lifeline rate available only to individuals 65 years and over who have incomes at or below poverty levels. The lifeline rate would be $5.00 per month including 25 local calls. Each additional call would be eight cents. The time of day, distance of the call or number of minutes of the call would not be measured for lifeline service.

LMS and lifeline service would be available only in Bell areas served by the electronic central office equipment capable of measuring the elements of each service. The services could not be provided in areas served by older central office equipment.

PUC Hearings Examiner Shelia Bailey will conduct the hearings in each city. Consumers planning to present comments at the meetings do not need to register prior to the meeting. Sign-up sheets will be available at the meeting location at the start of the hearing.

Representatives from the PUC's General Counsel Division, Consumer Affairs Office and Public Information Office will be attending the local hearings also. In addition, Chairman Al Erwin will attend the San Antonio hearing. Commissioner Peggy Rosson will attend the El Paso hearing. Commissioner Phil Ricketts will attend the Amarillo hearing.

Examiner Bailey set the hearing on the merits of Bell's request for 9 a.m., September 24. Testimony and recommendations of participants in the case will be available mid-September before the hearing begins. Participants are Office of Public Counsel, U.S. Telephone, MCI, Consumers Union/Texas ACORN/LULAC, City of El Paso, Texas Municipal League and Texas Association of Cellular Communications.

Consumers unable to attend one of the local hearings may submit written comments to the PUC before September 24 at this address: Public Utility Commission of Texas, Shelia Bailey, Hearings Examiner, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 450N, Austin, Texas 78757.

Fire does $3 million damage to Gibson's in Childress

Early Thursday morning a fire was discovered about 6:30 a.m. by Lee Campbell, head of the produce department at the Gibson's Discount Store in Childress.

Mr. Campbell was preparing the market for the day when he saw smoke around the butcher area doorway. The fire started near the pharmacy, then quickly spread. Explosions of spray paint cans and ammunition shells in the sporting goods department sent flames 50 feet in the air and firemen dodged and fell to the ground as they continued to fight the blaze.

James Stubblefield, Clarendon Gibson's Store manager, and Alex Saied, President of Saied, Inc. have expressed their appreciation for the concern that people in Clarendon and Childress have expressed to them.

There will be no change in the way the Clarendon and Shamrock stores will be run. Mr. Stubblefield stated, "We will continue to bring the Clarendon trade area the best products at the lowest prices available."

Childress Fire Chief Lloyd Luck said there was no evidence of foul play.

The fire did an estimated $3 million of damage. Sammy Saied, Vice President, said. Plans at this time are to rebuild the Childress store.

PUC approved increase in charges for intrastate calls

The Public Utility Commission of Texas has approved a slight increase in charges for intrastate long-distance calls within the regional calling areas called local access and transports areas (LATA) established by the Federal Judge overseeing the divestiture of AT&T and the Bell operating companies.

The new charges, effective June 1, do not apply to intrastate calls made between the regional calling areas which are carried by the long-distance carriers rather than the local telephone companies.

The new rates apply to customers of all local telephone companies, including General Telephone, since the local companies are joint providers of long-distance service within each of the regional calling areas.

"The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." Proverbs 11:30

When Andrew was converted he found his brother Peter, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. And he brought him to Jesus" (John 1:41, 42). When Philip was converted he found Nathaniel, and said to him, "We have found Him, of Moses in the law, and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Nathaniel said to him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Phillip said unto him, Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?" (John 4:28, 29). When Saul the Pharisee was converted, "Strightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that He is the son of God" (Acts 9:20).

I long to see this kind of spirit among Christians in the present day. I long to see more zeal to commend the strait gate to all who are yet outside, and more desire to persuade them to enter in and be saved. J.C. Ryle once said, "Happy indeed is that Church whose members not only desire to reach heaven themselves, but desire also to take others with them!"

You and the Law

Q: Is a handwritten will legal in Texas? If so, does it have to be notarized?

A: A will written wholly in the handwriting of the testator is valid in the State of Texas. It is called a holographic will, and it does not have to be witnessed by two or more persons, as would be required for a more formal will.

This will does not have to be signed before a notary. However, if the will also contains a self-proving affidavit - which does not require a notary - your executor will not have to bring witnesses to the Court to testify to the validity of the will after your death.

Census shows gain in farm numbers

Texas farms gained in numbers and decreased in size between 1978 and 1982, according to the Commerce Department's Census Bureau.

Preliminary reports just released for the 1982 Census of Agriculture show 185,026 farms, compared with 175,395 in 1978. Land in farms totaled 130.8 million acres, an average per farm of 707 acres, compared with 773 in 1978. Total sales of agricultural products amounted to $8.9 billion in 1982.

The average value of land and buildings per farm was $388,198, with a per acre value of $549.

Land from which crops were harvested was reported at 20.8 million acres, and acres irrigated fell from 6.9 million to 5.6 million in 1982.

The Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were, or normally would have been sold in the census year.

The preliminary date indicate expenditures for livestock and poultry feed were $1.5 billion; total costs for farm energy, $730 million; for fertilizer, $368.1 million; and for hired labor, $447.9 million.

The sales of livestock, poultry, and their products were $5.9 billion, 66 percent of total agricultural sales. Dairy products amounting to $472.9 million were sold from 3,118 farms. The number of milk cows was up from 307,297 in the previous census to 322,198 in 1982.

The total cattle and calves inventory of 12.5 million head on 143,473 farms was down from 12.7 million in 1978. The 10.5 million sold were down from 12.1 million four years earlier.

Some 8,125 farms reported 2.3 million head of sheep and lambs, with 2.2 million shorn yielding 15.2 million pounds of wool; 1.8 million head were sold.

An inventory of 559,590 hogs and pigs including 76,195 for breeding purposes was reported on 9,484 farms of which 194 farms had inventories of 500 or more and accounted for 56 percent of the State's total inventory. A total of 925,303 hogs and pigs were reported sold, of which 118,076 were feeder pigs.

Sales of poultry and their products were $451.7 million. Some 16,873 farms

*Eight-seven percent of the farmers owned all or part of the farms they operated; 111,271 were fully owned; 50,536 partly owned; and 23,219 were operated by tenants.

Date in the report for 1978 and 1982 are directly comparable for acreages and inventories. Dollar values have not been adjusted for changes in price levels.

Single copies of preliminary state and county reports

Donley County had 365 Farms in 82

Preliminary reports of the 1982 Census of Agriculture show that the number of farms in the county decreased from 380 to 365 since the 1978 census. All land in farms totaled 590,369 acres in 1982, an average of 1,618 acres per farm. The Census Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agriculture products were sold or normally would have been sold.

Land from which crops were harvested decreased to 57,784 acres since 1978.

The county's farmers sold $40.2 million in agricultural products according to preliminary reports from the 1982 Census of Agriculture. The 1982 sales figure represents an average of $110,127 for each of the county's farms.

The census reports that $4.4 million or 11 percent of total sales were for crops, while $35.8 million or 89 percent of the total came from the sale of livestock, poultry, and their products.

Preliminary date indicate that total farm energy costs were $1.7 million; fertilizer costs were $753,000; and seed costs were $387,000.

Of the total farms in the county, 75 had gross sales of $40,000 or more; 177 reported sales of less than $10,000. Farms operated as sole proprietorships represented 87 percent of the total. In 1982, the average age of farm operators was 52.7 years. The proportion of operators reporting farming as their principal occupation remained essentially unchanged at 58 percent since 1978.

Data in the report for 1978 and 1982 are directly comparable for acreages and inventories. Dollar values have not been adjusted for changes in price levels.

Preliminary reports can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

*Forty-three percent of the operators reported farming as their principal occupation, but 2 percent of all operators worked 100 days or more off the farm.

*Eighty-nine percent of the farms were operated by individuals or families as sole proprietorships; 16,265 by partnerships; and 3,254 by corporations of which 84 percent were family held.

RESOLUTION

Resolution of the City Council of Clarendon, Texas, authorizing the filing of a Texas Community Development Program application to Texas Department of Commu-

Texas Department of Community Affairs and authorizing the Mayor to act as the City's chief executive officer and authorized representative in all matters pertaining to the Texas Community Development Program.

Whereas, the City has identified a need related to public facility improvements to benefit low and moderate income citizens; and

Whereas, the provision of water lines and fire protection and sanitary sewer service and sewer lines will assist in meeting such need; and land in Texas from November through May.

Billy C. Griffin, state conservationist for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service, said wind damaged more than three times as much land this year than during the 1982-83 blow season when 1.8 million acres were damaged.

"The 5.7 million acres damaged breaks the record for the 30 years we have been keeping wind and erosion records," Griffin said. "Previous highs were 2.77 million acres in 1970-71, 2.72 million in 1955-56, and 2 million in 1964-65 and 1973-74."

No records are available for land damaged during the Dust Bowl days of the 1930's. Some 4.5 million acres of cropland and one million acres of rangeland were damaged. About 7 million acres are in condition to blow and much of this land could be damaged if wind velocities increase during the next few weeks.

Counties reporting the most cropland damaged were Gaines, 595,000; Dawson, 415,000; and Terry, 300,000.

The major contributing factors to wind erosion were lack of moisture and high winds, Griffin said. Lack of protective cover from last year's crop residues was also a factor.

Griffin said, however, cropland protected with cover from conservation tillage farming systems or wind strips had little or no damage despite the drought and high winds.

Howardwick News

This is your reporter back on the job! Had some calls from some wondering if I had quit taking the news. No I haven't quit. I have been taking scans of all sorts in Northwest Texas Hospital to see what was causing my severe headaches which were so bad I just couldn't write. Received results Monday and it is sinus headaches. Thank all of you for your concern and patience. Now, I'll get on the ball.

Nora Hartwick went to Weatherford, Texas to pick up her granddaughter, Stacy, to visit with them a while. While she was gone, Blackie, her husband, had to be rushed to the hospital. He spent two days there but is back home doing fine now. His doctor gave him permission to go to visit their son, Larry in Durango, Colo. Stacy stayed in Durango to fly back to Weatherford.

Jim and Connie Milam are here for a week, the first part of June. They left on Wednesday, June 6th for their home on the range in Oklahoma. Good to see them again.

Charles and Lucille Boren had their son, Don and family for a visit. They spent some time enjoying the spring sunshine and doing some fishing. Visited with Angie and Ron McDaniel and back home to Perryton.

God has been good to us the last few weeks. The nice rain was badly needed since we had no moisture in May. Some areas had storms, damaging hail and high winds. Washburn seemed to be hit hard. Roofs were beaten, windows were beat out and sides of buildings were beat up. Cars along 287 had glasses knocked out and a camper smashed flat. Highway 287 had already been cleared of heaps of debris before 9:00 a.m. when Alice Hood and Alta Reynolds went through to Amarillo, on Monday. Tuesday when they went back to Amarillo people were repairing windows, roofs, etc.

Jettie Prickett and grandson, Neal Bellah attended her family reunion in Stamford, Texas the weekend of 8, 9, and 10 of June, 1984. There were about 120 relatives present. Some as far away as Porterville, Calif. Her son, Chief Warrant Officer Dennie Bellah, and his family have been visiting the Pricketts since the reunion. He is in the U.S. Army and will leave the 24th of June for St. Louis, Missouri, from there to Germany where he will be assigned to the 1st Armored Division. Jettie's sister, Martha Morton of Rule, Texas and a niece, Margie Gibson of Plainview, Texas visited with the Pricketts the past weekend. They went fishing, didn't catch any fish but sure had fun. Jettie and Charlie's great grandchildren, Brandon and Renee of Amarillo visited with them from Thursday until Saturday. Everyone had a great time.

Lorene Tipton has just returned home. She and sister-in-law Verdie Tipton went to Fort Worth to H.L. and Lorene's daughter, Shirley Joyce, and she accompanied Lorene and Verdie to Virginia to visit their son Richard.

James and Vallie Futch and grandsons, Shane and Dave have been to "Fan Fare Week" in Nashville, Tennessee. They went to the "Grand Ole Opry" twice and saw the country and western stars. Visited all over Nashville and attended thirty-two concerts. They went to Memphis, Tennessee and visited Elvis Presley's home at Graceland. They went to Fort Dycie, Arkansas (Jame's dad's birthplace) then on to Dallas and Fort Worth and to Breckenridge, Texas to visit daughter, Jana and to Seymour, Texas to visit son, Richard and home again.

Guests in the Futch home were Vallie's brother, George Harris and family. They spent the weekend.

Visitors in the Floyd Hood home for Fathers Day were Odie Hood of New Orleans, La. Donna Napier, Delphena Major and children, Melissa, Nichelle and Chris of Amarillo. Chris remained with his grandmother until Thursday. His parents will pick him up after some camping and fishing. Odie's wife, Sue, remained in Wellington to visit her mother, Leah Beall. They both returned to the Hoods Monday and spent the night and Tuesday.

Alice Hood was admitted to radiology in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo last Tuesday (out patient) for tests and several scans. Results received Monday were all clear except sinus problems.

Melville Mills invites everyone to come out to the Lions Club to watch some slides of the Holy Land Saturday, June 23rd at 7:30 p.m. at City Hall in Howardwick.

The late Rev. Paul Hancock and Rev. Bill Watson visited in Palestine last summer and took these pictures. Rev. Watson will show them. All interested are welcome.

Only had thirty-nine turn out for salad supper and games last Thursday, June 14th. We had a lot of good eating, visitation, games and fun.

The hands of Arts & Crafts were really busy Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. When these folks decide to get something out, they sure get to it.

We had a real nice trip to The Country Squire Dinner Theatre on Sunday afternoon, June 17th. Presenting "Wally's Cafe" starring Art Kassul, Thea Ruth and Jull Basesy. Della Ray, daughter of Goldie Barbee and General Manager of the theatre, treated us in royal fashion. Those attending were Verdie Tipton, Mabel Elmore, Jewel Carter, Pauline Jones, Alta Adkins, Fannie Wilson, Lessie Salmon, Verdie Herrington, Frank and Goldie Barbee and Jean Baten.

We appreciate the donations coming in for the Tray Slide. Some had a question as to what a Tray Slide was. It is a support to put your tray on as you go through the line to get your drink, plate, salad and dessert. There is just not enough room on top of the counter to safely hold the trays. I feel this will help a lot.

Tuesday, June 26th, is Birthday/Anniversary Salad Supper night - bring your salad and lets have a good time. Some of our musicians are sick, but I feel sure there will be plenty to play while the rest of us sing and clap our hands. See you at 6 p.m.

Dance practice on Monday, Games on Thursday, Arts & Crafts on Friday, exercise every day.

Get well wishes to: Veda Elliott, Charlie Hearn, Creed Smith, Della Allen, Everett Anglin and Alyene Bain.

DRUG LAB IN SPACE
 In recent years many drug scientists have turned their attention to various biologicals which promise to be helpful in certain disease states. These substances include enzymes, hormones, and proteins - often the exact same materials produced naturally in small quantities by the human body. An obstacle to testing these substances has been the inability to produce them in large quantities.

The process known as electrophoresis is used in production of biologicals that are currently under study. The force of the earth's gravity hinders this process. This is one reason why Sally Ride, the first American woman in space, conducted an electrophoresis experiment aboard the space shuttle Challenger during its June, 1983 flight.

According to the FDA Consumer, laboratories in space may offer advantages over earth-bound laboratories. A major advantage is the lack of gravity which speeds up and enhances the electrophoresis process. Larger amounts of drugs may thus be produced.

In a space mission scheduled for 1985, scientists working with at least one drug company hope to produce enough biological to begin clinical tests. Some day we may be able to use drugs that are literally "out of this world."

You and the Law

Q: What constitutes a lottery and is there a law that prohibits a lottery in Texas?
A: A lottery is defined under Texas law as any scheme in which prizes are distributed by chance among persons who have paid or promised something for a chance to win anything of value, whether the scheme is called a pool, a lottery, a raffle, or some other name. Lotteries are illegal under Section 47.03 of the Texas Penal Code which makes it a third degree felony to promote a lottery or raffle, or even sell or possess a lottery ticket if anyone or any organization stands to gain from the event. "Gambling promotion" carried a possible prison term up to 10 years. Therefore, it is illegal to participate in lotteries or raffles, even those conducted by a church or charity group to raise funds.

Rev. Frank and Christine Braugh of Oklahoma City came last week and got Lily Knox and took her home with them for a visit with all of their family in that area. They brought her home Thursday along with materials for some new flower beds. After a work day of installation they returned home to Oklahoma City Friday.

Horace Green visited with Joe and Billy Jack Green in Canyon Saturday morning.

Ranell, Brad, Micheal and Josie Shadle of Higgins came for the weekend with the Tom Shadles. They all took Che Shadle of Clarendon and went to the Ray Pitman home to enjoy a father's day meal prepared by LaRue. The children all went to Canyon for Cressa Hand's birthday party that afternoon. Joe Neal had business in Happy. He returned by way of Clarendon and the family went home together Monday. They reported that there has still not been much rain in the Higgins area.

Richard and Vici Naylor of Amarillo have a daughter, born June 16 at Northwest Texas Hospital. They named the seven pound 3 ounce girl Erin Leigh. Mother and daughter are already home and doing well.

Word has been received that a former Ashtola resident, Clovis Bible, is in the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo.

Electronic marketing aids local hay market

Local buyers and sellers of hay soon will have access to a new regional hay market via their own telephone.

A new electronic hay marketing system, National Hay Exchange, Inc., will be introduced in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Colorado beginning June 15.

Based in San Antonio, Texas, National Hay Exchange is the first marketing service to match buyers with sellers via a toll free telephone number (800-428-2002), trained operators and a central computer. With instant access to a broad, consistent hay market, callers to the Exchange may list hay to sell or place orders to buy hay.

"Our service provides hay producers and users with a system that is simple, fast, accurate and economical," says Bert Morris, president of the National Hay Exchange. "Our descriptive process is thorough, and our payment guarantee eliminates any worries a seller might have of receiving a bad check."

Before buyers or sellers can use the National Hay Exchange, an application for membership must be submitted. There is no charge or obligation for membership. Applications may be obtained by calling the National Hay Exchange toll free number 800-428-2002.

A typical National Hay Exchange transaction begins with a seller phoning the toll free number to list at least one truckload of hay.

A specially trained operator will ask the seller for an accurate description of the hay, ranging from hay type, to bale size, how the hay is stored, maturity at harvest, color, smell, any chemical treatments and laboratory analysis results, if taken.

The seller also sets a price for the hay lot. This information is put into the National Hay Exchange computer.

Potential buyers call the central toll free number, listing the type, amount and price of hay they wish to purchase. The Exchange's high-speed computer will search and confirm a match. If a near match is found, the Exchange will negotiate a trade between the two parties, if both wish to proceed with the transaction.

Once a sale is confirmed, the National Hay Exchange will arrange transportation of the hay to the buyer's designed drop site, via a system of independent truckers linked with the Exchange computer. The Exchange's position as a volume shipper enables it to negotiate more favorable trucking rates than might be available otherwise.

Upon delivery, the buyer pays the following: total cost of hay, the transportation charge, and half of the Exchange commission. The seller pays the other half since the Exchange serves both buyer and seller. The sales commission is the only fee paid for using the Exchange. There are no dues or initiation fees and there are no charges for listing or ordering hay. Listings and orders can be changed or cancelled at no cost.

The National Hay Exchange also provides an arbitrator for any dispute in which the buyer contests the quality of the hay delivered, saying it was not as described by the seller.

"We offer sellers a better chance of finding buyers wanting a particular quality of hay who are willing to pay the asking price," Morris says. "We also offer them a better chance of selling all of their hay, even that of lesser quality, as long as it is fairly described and priced accordingly. For the buyer, we offer more choices of quality and prices and a better chance of locating specific quantities."
