Proclamation

Employ the Older Worker Week

There are 45 million Americans 55 years of age or older. They have worked hard to get where they are today and to get us as a community and a nation where we are. During their years of work they have learned a great deal, have gained invaluable experience, and have come to appreciate a good job and to be proud of doing a good job.

Many of these people, though, are having difficulty finding work for no reason other than that there is a prejudice against older workers.

The Federal Government is working to eliminate this unfounded discrimination against older workers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, W.R. Christal, County Judge do hereby endorse the efforts of our Federal Government on behalf of the older workers and designate March 11-17, 1979 as OLDER WORKER WEEK here in Donley County. I am urging all employers of this area to give special consideration to the skills and qualifications of those men and women 55 years of age and older.

I am also asking those public officials who are responsible for job placement, counseling, training, and retraining services to intensify, throughout the entire year, their efforts to help older workers find suitable jobs and training opportunities.

This is a communitywide effort that should engage the active support of all our institutions.

DATE: March 1, 1979
SIGNED: W.R. Christal
County Judge, Donley County.

Senior Citizens in Clarendon

There are no available figures on the number of persons in Donley County who are older citizens but their numbers are relatively high and their contributions to the community are too many to list, because we live with their presence day in and day out and enjoy the benefit of their expertise.

Energy is one of the characteristics of this group of citizens and they have three organizations which are active for their interests and endeavors. The Green Thumb members are all salaried workers who help the community and themselves by filling their job positions.

There are two senior citizens organizations here in Clarendon, Fun After Fifty and the Senior Citizens Center members. A visit to the Senior Citizens Center in the 100 block of East 4th Street will find a most interesting and quality served five days a week, an expanded building and various projects for fun and profit.

Fun After Fifty meets once a month, the first Saturday of each month, with a social which features a covered dish luncheon, games, usually a program and fellowship. The Saturday date allows all members to attend for a number of them are employed, as they have been for many years at regular jobs during the week.

Hedley Senior Citizens opened their new facility last September 8, when they served the greatest number of meals to qualified persons ever and began their daily opening.

These older workers comprise the majority of the artisans in the community. Failure of modern recognition of these skilled persons in trades which require working with the hands has produced shortages in many areas of service and crafts. These persons who work with their hands cannot be replaced with a text book college degree, but must pass their knowledge on by demonstration and application.

In the State of Texas the Governor's Committee on Aging has awarded 20 grants totaling some $5.7 million in federal funds to support meal programs and other social services for older Texans.

Monies for this area amounted to $281,840 received by the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission in Amarillo for the Panhandle AAA.

Eddie Floyd A Good Samaritan

One of the nicest stories of the past Christmas Season has just come to light with the long distance telephone call from Houston to the Clarendon Press Tuesday March 6, 1979.

A group of Hustonians, Claude and Myrtle Speck; their daughter Becky Kidd; her friends Ann Coan and brother Dave Melton, came through Clarendon enroute to Copper Mountain, Colo. for a ski vacation Christmas trip.

They stopped in Clarendon and made some purchases at a convenience store with the Speck's daughter Becky at the wheel. As they prepared to go onto US 287 the travel bus became stuck against the pavement as they approached the highway from a side street. A bus driver looked at the situation and advised the group to call a wrecker.

Eddie Floyd's Shop was the wrecker service they contacted about 4:45 on the morning of December 25, 1978. They were told a delay would be the time it took for the operator to dress and drive to their location.

Within a few minutes "Eddie" arrived and with the wrecker got the travel bus freed and onto the highway again. When the travelers prepared to pay for their wrecker service they were told there was no charge and wished them a "Merry Christmas and good trip".

Mrs. Speck had lost the name of the "one fine person" who so graciously helped them and could only remember Eddie. She explained that she and the others in the Christmas group thought everyone should know what a nice person Clarendon had as a resident in the person of Eddie Floyd.

This discovery came about when the Specks and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Chance were all guests of Mary and Lewis Sears in Houston. Sears and Chance both work for Cabot Corp. and when the Specks learned the Chances were from Pampa, they asked if they knew where Clarendon was. When the answer was affirmative they asked if he by any chance knew any one at the Clarendon newspaper. They did indeed, Chance is a brother of Helen Woody, owner of the Clarendon Press.

Medical Association. Usually three doses are administered, at age 2, 4 and 6 months, with a fourth dose at 18 months. Booster doses are recommended for children at 4 to 6 years, with one DPT injection before entering school. Adults should have tetanus and diphtheria boosters every 10 years.

DPT vaccine has been used since the early 1950s, and is highly effective. Diphtheria is still a threat to the unvaccinated, and can result in paralysis, heart failure or death. Whooping cough continues to occur in the unvaccinated, especially infants less than a year old. Untreated, it can cause brain damage.

A person without tetanus immunization can become seriously ill if the spores get into a puncture wound. Physicians recommend booster shots every ten years throughout the life span.

The Sabin oral vaccine against polio is administered by mouth on a lump of sugar or in sweet liquid. It is given in two doses, at 2 and 4 months of age, with another dose at 18 months and a booster before entry to school. Adults subject to unusual risk of polio should receive two doses of Sabin oral vaccine 6 to 8 weeks apart, followed by a third dose in eight to 12 months. Routine immunization of adults in the United States is not recommended.

Shots Halt Child Ills

Vaccines are now available against a variety of infectious diseases. Most youngsters are started on their preventive medicine route at around two months of age with immunizations against four different childhood diseases.

Diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis (whooping cough), known as DPT, is given in one dose combining all three at age two months up to the seventh birthday, says an immunization pamphlet from the American

Letter to the People

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
28 February 1979
Mr. Fred Clifford
P.O. Box 669
Clarendon, Texas 79226

Dear Mr. Clifford:

The Texas Historical Commission nominated the Donley County Courthouse and Jail for inclusion on the National Register of Historic Places. On February 17, 1978, it was entered in the Register and is now afforded the privilege granted under the Historic Preservation Act of 1966.

Enclosed is information regarding the Historic Preservation Grants-In-Aid program and a grant application. The deadline for receipt of grant applications for fiscal year 1980 is 5:00 p.m., Friday, June 1, 1979.

If you have any questions, please contact our office.

Sincerely,

Barry A. Wagner
Architect
National Register Programs

Attention Citizens of Donley County

Followup on How The Commissioners are Wasting Your Money
There are more ways to waste money than to waste it by errors of omission. It can also be wasted by errors of commission. It is the responsibility of the commissioner's court to ascertain what funds are available to our county from any source and how they can be obtained and best used for our particular circumstance. There are many state and federal grants, available to the counties, being overlooked by our elected officials which are easy to obtain and would be of tremendous benefit to our cause.

One of these grants which would most certainly be indicative of this and apply to our present circumstance is the presently available National Register Historic Preservation Grant-In-Aid which is administered and co-ordinated by the Texas Historical Commission, Austin, Texas. The first item in qualification for this grant to be obtained is nomination and final selection of properties for financial assistance and inclusion into the National Register of Historic Places - This was done by the Texas Historical Commission on Feb. 17, 1978. (See verification letter attached)

Grant assistance is available for up to 50 percent of the total project cost, which means that, for every federal dollar received, the grant recipient, (Donley County) must be able to document a dollar's value of matching capability. A GRANT RECIPIENT'S MATCH MAY CONSIST OF: (1) cash, (2) FEDERAL FUNDS ONLY if these are Community Development block grant funds or Revenue Sharing Funds, and (3) in-kind contributions, such as donated property, equipment, materials and services.

Matching grants-in-aid can be used to acquire, protect, stabilize, preserve, rehabilitate, restore, or reconstruct registered properties. The continuing cost of routine property maintenance, following completion of grant-assisted work, must be assumed by the attending entity. (Donley County). Financial assistance for the acquisition and development of registered properties is provided for the benefit of the general public. Therefore, by a binding preservation agreement attached to the property deed, owners (Donley County) agrees to maintain the property without substantial structural alteration for a number of years, depending upon the amount of funds provided. Funds are available up to, but not limited to, $100,000.00 which would mean that we must match every dollar of this with a dollar of our revenue sharing money.

Every reasonable effort must be made to use the property for its originally intended purpose or to provide a compatible use that will require minimum alteration to the property and its environment. This grant is now available to Donley County and would be the ideal solution to several of our more current problems. - It would restore our old courthouse to its original beauty, provide us with a restored courtroom facility, provide additional office space, alleviate our jail problem and solve a controversy as to what to do with the currently available Federal Revenue Sharing Funds. In short, it would return our courthouse and jail a state of utility through repair and alteration which makes possible an efficient contemporary use of an existing property, while preserving those portions or features of the property that are significant to its historical, architectural, and cultural values. - All this at a price we can afford and yet the Donley County Judge and the Commissioners Court have not made application for this grant or even expressed an interest in it to the Texas Historical Commission.

Why?
Any time anyone criticizes it is fashionable and even appropriate that the criticized ask for a better solution. I believe that the foregoing offers a better solution but I would advise the commissioners that they have only until 5:00 p.m., Friday, June 1, 1979 to get their application into the offices of the Texas Historical Commission or again they are guilty of error by

Selvidge to head Gift of Life Campaign

Tex Selvidge today announced that the Gift of Life Campaign will be held March 18 through 31 to distribute educational material and organ donor information and receive contributions for the Kidney Foundation of the Texas Panhandle.

Selvidge stated that 14 million Americans suffer from kidney disease and 54,000 people die each year from kidney and kidney related diseases despite major advances in medical science. At present, over 200 persons have kidney failure and must sustain life by the use of a kidney machine in West Texas.

Much can be done to treat kidney patients through drugs, diet, therapy and the artificial kidney machine, but the hope of life for thousands is a chance for a transplant of a healthy kidney. Over 4,000 people in Texas need a transplant, but only one out of 10 dialysis patients have a related donor. With the many advances science has made in blood testing, tissue typing and organ preservation, kidneys can be successfully transplanted from non-related donors or a cadaver donor. The organ donor program is a top priority of the Kidney Foundation because it is estimated that if just 10 per cent of all Americans would make arrangements to donate their kidneys, there would be enough to meet the patient needs.

The Kidney Foundation of the Texas Panhandle is an Affiliate of the National Kidney Foundation. The Foundation is a voluntary health agency and services all cities from Lubbock to the top of the Panhandle of Texas.

Vaccines Stop Ills

All kids have to have measles and mumps, right?
Wrong. There are now excellent vaccines that will protect our children against both kinds of measles and against mumps. Rubella (measles), mumps, and Rubella (German measles) were commonplace among small children for centuries. Most children had relatively mild cases, recovered without problems, and thence were immune.

But not all of them. Rubella and mumps both can cause serious complications in the occasional child. Rubella often is so mild that it is overlooked, but if acquired by a woman in early pregnancy, the disease poses a direct threat of heart defects and omission.

At the present time I have an application form for the National Register Grant-In-Aid and the instruction manual for completing and filing it with the Texas Historical Commission. I will gladly yield both to any one of the Donley County Commissioners Court upon their request.

Mr. Barry A. Wagner, Architect for National Register Program, tells me this is not Pie-In-The-Sky but is readily available for this program and he will help in any way possible. He is extremely cooperative. It is emphasized that the grant must be applied for. It will not be tendered otherwise.

Fred Clifford

Another priority of the Kidney Foundation is patient services. Some of the services offered include information and referral services, help with insurance and Social Security claims, medical alert jewelry, Bloodplasma Insurance, emergency transportation, transportation to transplant center, patient packets, emergency financial assistance, patient visitation teams and a lending library.

Selvidge said he feels this campaign deserves the attention and support of every concerned citizen and asks that anyone interested in volunteering to help make this event successful to contact Selvidge or the Kidney Foundation at 372-5583, 305 Polk, Amarillo, Texas.

Live virus measles vaccine is safe and effective, says the American Medical Association. Age of vaccination should be 15 months, or later for children who miss out at this age. It also should be given to children who have received the killed virus measles vaccine. In the event of a neighborhood epidemic, your doctor might decide to begin immunizing children at as early an age as six months.

Widespread use of the rubella vaccine could eliminate the reservoir of disease among children, who are the major source of infection for pregnant women. Adolescent and adult women should be vaccinated well in advance of possible pregnancy. Once pregnancy is suspected, or confirmed, the woman should not be vaccinated.

Live rubella vaccine is recommended for children at 12 months or later. If a combination vaccine — the two measles and mumps — is used, it is given at 15 months.

Live mumps virus vaccine should be administered to children at 15 months of age. It also is indicated for children approaching puberty, for adolescents, and for adults (especially men) who have not had the disease.

That is the title of the one act play the Hedley High School drama class is rehearsing for the U.I.L. contest to be held March 20.

The Cast Is-

Jeff Harris - a farmer, Steve Scott; Judd Harris, his brother - Paul Dwight; Mattie - Sherri Hill; Rev. Andrews - Randy Woodard; Josie - Jeanie Lindsey; Jessica - Kim Woodard; Catherine, a stranger - La Moss Springer.

The play is a comedy by Howard Buermann and is produced on permission of Dramatist Play Service, Inc.

Understudies are Susan Johnson, Jeff Hill, Susan Couch, Kim Taylor, John Scott is technician, Becki Johnson is make-up chairman.

The other members of the class are busy as "right hand" women for Mrs. Messer. These are Tanya Ward, La Wan Ward, Brenda Hughes, Lisa Hughes, Kelley Woodard, Darla Slater, Cheryl Phipps, Tina Moore, and Melanie Hansard.

The Hedley school is working to raise money for new kitchen equipment. They served a turkey and dressing lunch on Sunday, March 4 to about 125 people. They raised $400.00. They had sold tickets on a $50.00 bill. This was won by Harold White, he then donated the $50.00 to the school. The Lioness Club also donated $200.00 to them. They now have raised $800.00 toward their goal of $1600.00.

Q -- When insurance premiums are made by a third party, may such person request that premium notices be sent to him or her?

A -- Premium notices will be sent to a third party only when authorized by the insured in writing.

Q -- I receive a widow's pension from the VA. If I receive a cost of living increase in my Social Security next year, will my VA pension be reduced?

A -- Public Law 95-588, effective January 1, 1979, prevents any decrease in pension solely due to a Social Security cost of living increase.

Q -- I receive Veterans Administration disability compensation at the 40% rate. I recently married. Can I get any additional money for my wife?

A -- Effective October 1, 1978, veterans rated 30% or more for service-connected causes can receive additional amounts for dependents. Contact your nearest VA regional office.

Q -- I want to buy a home that costs $30,000. How much would my monthly payments be?

A -- Generally, depending upon the amount of real estate taxes, the monthly payments equal about 1% of the amount financed. If you finance $30,000 your monthly payments should be approximately $300.

FACTS & FIGURES

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITIES

An old saying, "There's nothing as good as gold," is gaining new currency. Valued from time immemorial, gold is becoming more esteemed and more precious than ever. For a long time, even if you had been lucky enough to find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, it would have been illegal for you to keep it. That's because the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 made it illegal for private persons or firms in this country to own gold, other than as jewelry.

But that changed—and so did a lot of other things—when, on December 31, 1974, Americans regained the right to full gold ownership. The change in government policy has stimulated considerable investment in gold. In addition, the United States is now the world's largest market both for bullion-type gold coins and gold futures trading.

Interestingly, the increased price of gold has not tarnished its popularity. Industry statistics show that more women are wearing more—rather than less—real gold jewelry.

Another growing phenomenon is the number of "week-end 49ers": people out there poking around in the old diggings in hope of finding the occasional nugget which—considering the current price of gold—is no mean prospect!

by Foster Whaley
State Representative
 Governor Bill Clements gave his budget message to a joint session in the House of Representatives on Wednesday, February 21. Deep cuts were made into such programs as public education. Close to half a billion dollars was cut from the Recommended Public School Budget of the Legislative Budget Board.

In the area of aid to students attending Religious Colleges (and Universities) he made startling increases. The Governor requested that close to 45 million dollars be expended over the next biennium. This was a 228 percent increase over the preceding two years.

The State Constitution strongly prohibits appropriating funds for sectarian purposes. Article I, Section 7 reads: "No money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any sect, or religious society, Theological or religious seminary; nor shall property belonging to the State be appropriated for any such purposes."

The real intent of the Constitution has been circumvented by having the students' checks mailed to the business offices of the private colleges and universities. The student is then required to come in and sign a student affirmation form which authorizes the institution to deposit the Tuition Equalization Grant against that particular student's school account. Of the forty schools that are members of Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas (ICUT), only Rice and possibly one or two others, are considered truly independent of any religious affiliation.

Just one day before Governor Clements announced his recommendations to drastically increase aid to these religious colleges he spoke in Austin at the 10th Annual Assembly of Representatives of the Texas Conference of Churches. His separation of church and State topic irritated the audience. I quote Governor Clements: "I have strong feelings that the place of the Church is not in politics. So long as the Church maintains its relationship with our Texas State Government on an arms-length basis--so long as it maintains its separateness while continuing to exert a very strong ethical influence--that is the way for the Church to address that source of power," end of quote.

In my opinion, Governor Clements was right in the above statements but I can't see how he is being consistent when the day following this statement he recommends that we pour 45 million dollars of aid to religious colleges. The sad thing about it is the concession the Church Schools are having to make in religious principal to get these State funds. For instance, an Attorney General's opinion was issued by John Hill in 1974 that states: "Where an institution of higher education requires as an established fixed policy that all of its trustees, officers, faculty and staff members acknowledge belief in and adhere to a particular and detailed religious doctrine and refuses to hire a person as a staff member because of the person's religious beliefs, it would be an abuse of discretion for the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System to find the institution qualified to participate in the Tuition Equalization Grant Program as a non-sectarian institution". Tuition Equalization Grants are the grants awarded to students attending non-public colleges or universities.

The presidents of these religious colleges and universities are required to sign a certified statement that they will comply with the above policy.

In my opinion, these grants to religious colleges was a severe mistake in 1971 when it was first lobbied in by the religious colleges. In 1971 the State spent only one million dollars. But the foot in the door approach has worked well. The program has expanded at an alarming rate. In 1972 $3 million was spent; 1973 - $5 million; 1974 - $7.5 million; 1975 - $7.5 million; 1976 - $9 million; 1977 - $10.4 million and school year 1978-79 $10.6 million will have been spent.

Now Governor Clements has recommended we expand it to provide $22.0 million in 1980 and $22.3 million in 1981.

Originally, a student was eligible to receive a maximum of $600.00. Governor Clements recommends that this be raised to $900.00 per student. The religious college lobby is calling for authorization of an equalization grant that would be equal to 50 percent of the cost of the State Appropriation for a full-time student in a public senior college or university. That now would be $1200.00 per student, but would rise as educational costs rise. At this rate of increase it is projected this program will be costing well over $100 million within the next few years.

The argument advanced by the religious college lobby group is, "We are saving the State money by keeping students from attending public institutions." This argument doesn't hold water. Space is now going wanting in many of the state institutions of higher education. If the state were required to build new facilities for the 20,000 students now receiving grants on this program they would be right. However, my preliminary investigation reveals that should the grants be dropped and all of these students register at our public institutions, it would affect the enrollment less than three percent.

The main reason most students attend a religious institution is for the great influence of Christian Education. This is a fine reason and I admire the parents and students who make this decision. But I am strongly opposed to taking tax money from the public and awarding grants to individuals and private and religious institutions. The Legislature and the Governor have been well lobbied on this topic. This would never pass at the ballot box if it were properly explained.

And finally, if it is right and just to appropriate funds to religious and private institutions of higher learning -- then when will someone open the door for the support of parochial schools below college level.

Q -- How long may a "helpless child" receive VA pension benefits?

A -- Children who become permanently incapable of self-support because of a mental or physical defect before attaining age 18 are entitled to receive benefits as long as the condition exists or until they marry.

Q -- In 1948 I bought a National Service Life Insurance "V" policy with a $5,000 face value. Can I add an additional $5,000 worth of coverage?

A -- No. You may elect to use your annual dividends to buy paid-up additions. The amount of additional insurance you may buy depends upon your age and the amount of your dividend.

Q -- I am a veteran attending school under the GI Bill. I plan to marry a widow with two children. Will I be eligible for additional education benefits based on these stepchildren?

A -- Yes. Unmarried stepchildren living with the veteran are considered dependents of the veteran until their 18th birthday, or if enrolled in a VA approved course of study until their 23rd birthday.

Q -- I have just been awarded educational benefits for an on-the-job training program. With the first check I received a computer card. What do I do with this card?

A -- Your employer should certify the number of hours you work each month and sign the card. You must sign the card, and you should return it promptly in the envelope provided. Your payment for each succeeding month will not be made until the card is returned and processed by VA.

National Nutrition Week

"Set the Pace! Take the Food Way for Good Nutrition" is the theme being emphasized during the seventh annual National Nutrition Week, March 4-10. "Exercise and a sound diet are the cornerstones of good health," according to Miss Cynthia Manning, County Extension Agent. Miss Manning explained that good nutrition and regular exercise that you can enjoy can cut the cost of health care.

Your know-how about foods and their nutrients can multiply the benefits of physical activity in keeping fit. For starters, begin with minimum servings of the essentials, the "Big 4 Food Groups." When foods are compared for amounts of vitamins, minerals, protein, carbohydrate and fat, the foods fit into four large groups. Any food in a group can be substituted or exchanged for other foods in that group. By learning which foods are in a group and how much of a food to eat, a person can plan a diet without counting calories.

The "Big 4" food groups are: fruits and vegetables; bread, cereal and grain products; milk and milk products; and meat and protein foods.

The first thing to remember is the number of servings recommended from each food group. This is easy: 4-4-2-2 every day for adults. This means you need four servings of fruits and vegetables, four servings of breads and cereals, two servings of milk and milk products, and two servings of meats and protein foods - 4-4-2-2 every day.

Make a plan for each meal and snack to be eaten each day. Evenly divide the foods between the meals so that you do not become too hungry or too tired to stick with the plan.

Figure out how many servings of fruits and vegetables you will have at breakfast, lunch and dinner. The total should be four servings. If you are trying to watch calories, buy fruit and vegetables to which no sugar has been added in the processing. Pie fruits are cheaper and artificial sweeteners can be added at home.

Along with eating a well balanced diet, one should develop some kind of exercise program that you can enjoy. You should try to exercise at least three times a week.

Exercise and a sound diet are the most important things in good health. Try to improve your health by doing these two things.

For the first time in history, the nation's veteran population has climbed above the 30 million mark.

Some 7.2 million eligible veterans and active duty personnel have received more than $30 billion in education assistance payments through the Veterans Administration since July 1966, the effective date of the Vietnam Era GI Bill.

To provide benefits and services to armed forces veterans, their families and survivors, the Veterans Administration has requested a record $21 billion budget for Fiscal Year 1980.

Q - Are veterans with a non-compensable rating for hypertension automatically entitled to a 10 per cent rating if medication is continuously taken for control of the disease?

A - Veterans in this category are not automatically entitled; however, there are provisions for compensable rating to veterans who take medication for control of hypertension when other medical standards are met.

CAPE criticizes Texas tax system

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said that a national group of public employee labor unions is out of touch with its Texas members in saying that Texas has one of the worst tax systems in the nation.

The group, the Coalition of American Public Employees, in a report issued in Washington ranked Texas as the fifth "most inequitable" tax system in the nation because the state has a sales tax instead of personal and business income taxes.

Q - I receive education benefits under the War Orphan's Act. Will my marriage terminate these benefits?

A - Marriage does not affect entitlement to education benefits provided under the War Orphan's Act.

"If we are 'the worst' for not having an income tax, then I'm proud of it and I'll bet the union members of Texas are proud of it, too," Bullock said.

Bullock dared the Coalition "to come to Texas and survey their own members here about income taxes."

"They will find that neither the employees nor the employers of Texas want income taxes," Bullock said.

Bullock noted that sales taxes have been approved overwhelmingly by voters in more than 900 Texas cities in the past 12 years and said that "if the truth were known, there's a lot of folks in Texas who would like to have a sales tax for their schools."

In other rankings, the Coalition found that general tax administration in Texas was sixth best in the nation, basing that on cost/effectiveness of the Comptroller's tax enforcement, cooperation with other states, and regular legislative review of tax policy.

Library Notes from The Bookworm

War and Remembrance, a novel by Herman Wouk and published by Little, Brown is an excellent book dealing with W.W.II. For those that read Winds of War, by Wouk, which led up to and ended with the bombing of Pearl Harbor, this book could be called a sequel. It concerns the continuation of the same peoples lives throughout and to the ending of W.W.II, but the book is also totally self-sufficient in standing by itself and may be read alone or in conjunction with Winds of War.

Armin von Roon. The peoples lives are woven and intertwined around the main catalyst, Victor Henry, a Navy man and Rear Admiral of two war ships. This is a powerful book dealing with the many different problems and viewpoints of World War, II. Although it is a long book it is one that holds your attention and is hard to put down. I would highly recommend it from the standpoint of entertainment and education.

The Lions Tale

by Gene Alderson

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday with 29 members present. Following the regular opening ceremonies, there were a few announcements and Lion Allen Estlack read a newspaper article which he had noticed about how a Lion had rescued an American Flag during some of the recent trouble in Iran.

The meeting then closed with a very moving program in which all of the members participated. A special tribute to patients in all 172 Veterans Administration medical centers on February 14 involved top government officials and stars of the sports and entertainment worlds. This is the sixth annual national salute to hospitalized veterans.

Dog Obedience training class

The closing remark of "Good luck to you for next week's graduation" was made by instructor Mary Beard Monday night at the high school gym.

Reviewing all the previous lessons with exercises that will comprise the examinations to qualify for graduation the class was put to work with "Sit your dog, forward, left turn, right turn, about turn and halt." "Stand your dog for examination, leave your dog and return to your dog" brought good results. Recalls were practiced with two dogs and handlers working together.

The class was admonished to really sing out the call to their dogs as the hazard of the dog not hearing would cost a qualification in the ring or be the reason for not obeying at home. The long sits and long downs brought some real good quick corrections. These two exercises often disqualify the dog in the ring and get him into trouble at home.

Many dogs are worth their keep to the rancher with the long down, holding the cattle at bay while the horse and rider are busy with other tasks. The serpentine was competed with close work and quick heeling done around each handler and dog. Sniffing and snapping, lagging are discouraged in this exercise.

Mrs. Brian (Kathryn) Berry and her two children accompanied Mrs. Beard to Clarendon and commented on the potential of the class with their high attendance. Many are planning to enter the coming FUN MATCH in Amarillo April 8. All trophies to be awarded in sub-novice at the match are being by a few of the Clarendon Class members. Those who

On the highway, a basic problem is the excessive drinker, not the moderate social drinker. Of course, it's best not to drink at all before driving, but since many people do, the Distilled Spirits Council of the United States advises that you know your limits, as well as the speed limit, and stay well within both.

Pettigrew Hamilton attends Conference

Requesting that educational, health insurance, and financial and social service benefits be offered to all residents of the United States, the Texas Conference of Churches Assembly of Representatives stayed in the arena of social concerns, despite the Governor's message to the assembly's State Breakfast.

Governor William P. Clements had told the assembly Tuesday morning, "I am a strong supporter of the church within its intended mission, but not as a political force."

The TCC, meeting in Austin, adjourned its annual 3-day meeting at noon Wednesday, after voting in favor of sponsoring a Jewish Christian conference in Dallas in February of 1980, and hearing reports of its divisions.

The TCC made a five-year commitment to the rights of farmworkers by adopting a strategy beginning with identifying farmworkers needs, and sharing this information with church members, farmers, and the general public; and moving into working for specific legislation including The Agricultural Labor Relations Act, workers compensation, and minimum wage.

In addition, the assembly voted to send the Rev. Dr. Frank C. Mabee, Jr., of Dallas, chairman of the Task Force on Farm Workers Concerns of the TCC, to represent the organization at the United Farm Workers convocation at Pharr-San Juan next Sunday, February 25, to convey TCC support.

The TCC also voted to send its members' support, prayers, and concern for the farm workers' strike in California; and send greetings to the Texas Farm Workers marching from Lubbock when they reach Dallas February 25-26, and Austin March 10.

The TCC is asking that Governor Clements "support, or at least recognize as acceptable," legislation providing workers compensation and collective bargaining for farm workers.

A motion by the Rev. Dwight Judy, St. Stephens' United Methodist Church, Mesquite, asking that amendments to the bylaws be offered to the next Assembly, taking out sexist language, was adopted unenthusiastically. Amendments designed to make these changes were rejected at a previous assembly.

The TCC favored legislation which would give access to financial and social service benefits by all eligible persons residing in Texas, regardless of citizenship. Debate of the issue revolved around the term "eligible," as delegates sought to make it non-discriminatory. As explained by Bishop Henton, the resolution, which is being referred to state and national government leaders, refers particularly to illegal aliens. The statement gives "God's concern for the alien, the stranger..." as the basis of their stance, and adds that aliens pay sales, excise, income, social security, and property taxes, so they should be entitled to some benefits.

The TCC, by a vote of 87-35, refused to endorse a recommendation by its Division of Education that the state loan textbooks on secular subjects to students in nonpublic schools. However, they voted in favor of an open policy of public educational benefits to all persons, regardless of citizenship.

The TCC endorsed, by a vote of 61-23, passage of a national health insurance act, to give all persons equal access to good health care. Though generally in favor of improving health delivery systems, some of the delegates questioned whether such a national health care plan was the best solution. The endorsement will be communicated to President Carter and the appropriate members of Congress.

A resolution favoring hospices for the terminally ill was passed by the Assembly, without dissent. The vote also asked that the Texas legislature define, license, and regulate hospices as a component of health services in Texas.

The criminal justice system will be the subject of a study by the TCC Division of Church and Society, with a view to possible specific recommendations in the future.

The TCC resolved:
-to co-sponsor a Texas Consultation of Food and Hunger with Texas A&M University;
-to seek passage of a generic drug bill in the State of Texas;
-to organize a joint planning and development task force which will plan a conference on border issues; this conference will formulate a TCC border policy;

-tabled, after spirited debate and several amendments, a pro-life resolution that attempted to put the TCC on record as recognizing that life begins at conception. Recorded as voting in favor of the pro-life resolution were Bishop Vincent M. Harris of Austin, Suzy Crowley of San Antonio, and the Rev. Robert Kownacki of San Antonio.

In addition, the TCC opposed resumption of the bracero program in Texas requested that prison construction in South Texas be stopped.

The TCC addressed its theme "Our Corporate Stewardship of the Future," with enthusiasm. The Rt. Rev. Willis R. Henton, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Northwest Texas told the assembly, "It is the church-clergy and laity—who must speak out against the power brokers of the modern world."

The Rev. Dr. Anthony Campolo, a sociologist and American Baptist minister from Pennsylvania, sounded the keynote as he said Christians must be leaders in sharing the world's resources. "God will not be mocked," he said, "People who will fatten their dogs while they let children in Haiti starve will have a day of reckoning."

The Rev. Pettigrew Hamilton of St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church of Clarendon, attended the legislative council of the TCC as a voting member, representing the Diocese of Northwest Texas.

Report from Bob Bullock

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said rebates to Texas cities of the local option one percent sales tax are up a whopping 36 percent this month over the same period last year.

Bullock said Texas cities will receive a rebate of some $25.5 million this month, compared to a net payment of about $13.7 for February last year.

The 1979 year-to-date payments for city sales tax rebates have climbed to $43.7 million, compared to a two-month figure last year of $32.2 million, an increase of $11.5 million.

The sales tax is collected by merchants and other sales tax permit holders along with the state sales tax and is rebated monthly to cities in which it is collected by the Comptroller's Office.

Clarendon received $3,407.88 net payment this period up from $2,034.74 for the same period last year or an increase of 59.00%.

Claude received $1,893.06 an increase of 31%; Memphis had an increase of 51%; Tulia, in Swisher County, increased 32%; Wellington's increase was 113% for a very positive month's sales.

Gross sales in Texas during the third quarter of 1978 surged past second quarter sales by more than $1 billion, reaching $45.2 billion during the three month period.

Some farmers, ranchers seeking new lenders

Rising interest rates and a brisk demand for credit may cause some farmers and ranchers to seek service from lenders other than banks during 1979, reports a marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Although funds at some country banks are limited, no overall shortage is expected from agricultural lenders, says Dr. Carl Anderson. This is because production credit associations and federal land banks obtain funds through national money markets. Anderson predicts average interest rates for 1979 will be higher than a year ago.

Government lenders are playing an increasingly important role in lending to farmers and ranchers. Repayment of loans has been helped by increased lending from the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC), Farmers' Home Administration (FmHA) and Small Business Administration (SBA).

The FmHA received new lending authorities with the passage of the Agricultural Credit Act of 1978. The legislation increased lending limits on both farm ownership and operating loans. The FmHA will give more emphasis to economic emergency loans this year. These loans can be used to pay installments on existing debts and to pay expenses for farm operating purposes, says the Texas A&M University System specialist.

Agricultural lenders will encourage year-round marketing plans and forward pricing of commodities. It is much easier to get adequate financing if the lender has assurance that a reasonable price has been established for at least a part of the crop. Good records, appropriate financial statements and cash flow statements are necessary parts of financial planning from the standpoint of both lenders and borrowers, emphasizes Anderson.

With net agricultural income during 1979 expected to be near last year's level, a substantial number of producers will continue to be concerned with repaying old debts, financing new acquisitions and paying for operating expenses.

Greatest financial stress will likely be on middle-sized farming and ranching operations, contends Anderson. These operations are too small to make efficient use of labor and modern equipment. On the other hand, they are too big to depend on off-farm employment to supplement their income.

More and more producers are having difficulty obtaining farm and ranchland to expand their operations. Current incomes usually fall short of meeting payments on money borrowed to finance land purchases. As a result, such purchases are more easily handled by individuals or firms with a large financial reserve or with substantial income flow from off-farm sources.

Overall, financial conditions of agricultural borrowers are expected to hold stable in 1979, believes Anderson. Marked improvement is expected for cow-calf, dairy and poultry producers. Cotton, grain, soybean and hog producers will likely maintain their present financial position. Cattle feeders will be under considerable pressure to maintain their financial position as profit margins may be slim most of the year.

Cotton contracts 1979 crop

Growers had forward contracted about seven percent of the 1979 upland cotton crop by the end of January, according to informal surveys made by the Cotton Division, AMS. These estimates were based on the January planting intentions report. Growers in the south central states had forward contracted about one-tenth of their crop, with most activity in California where about one-eighth of the crop had been contracted. In the southwestern states, growers had contracted about one-twentieth of their crop. Most activity in the earlier producing sections of south Texas. Southeastern states growers had booked about one-twentieth of their crop. (COTTON PRICE STATISTICS, January 1979)
