Tax credit on renewable energy source equipment

Homeowners who have "gone the extra mile" to install renewable-energy source equipment as a conservation measure may claim a tax credit when filing their 1978 income tax returns.

The Energy Tax Act of 1978 provides for such a credit for solar, geothermal or wind-powered equipment installed since Apr. 20, 1977 to heat or cool the residence or to provide hot water, points out Ashley Lovell, economist in management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

An individual may claim a credit of 30 percent of the first $2,000 invested and 20 percent of the next $8,000 of qualifying expenditures, giving a total maximum credit of $2,200. Use IRS Form 5695. The credit may be claimed for qualifying expenses between Apr. 20, 1977 and Jan. 1, 1986.

Equipment providing renewable energy that would qualify for tax credit includes the following:

- Solar energy equipment (collectors, rockbeds and heat exchangers) that transforms sunlight into heat or electricity.
- Geothermal energy equipment that distributes natural heat in rocks or water.
- Wind energy property that uses wind to produce energy in any form (generally electricity) for residential purposes.

To be eligible, renewable-energy equipment must be installed in or on an individual's principal residence, either owned or rented, points out Lovell. The individual must be the first person using the equipment, and it must have an expected use period of at least five years.

Additional information on tax credits for energy-conscious homeowners is available in IRS publication 903, "Energy Credits for Individuals."

Gymnastic class gets equipment

Vicky McLean's gymnastics class would like to say thank you to all those who helped contribute to the new gym equipment.

Foxworth-Galbraith lumber donated to construct a balance beam, High School Shop Dept. for building the balance beam, Mitch Martin for building the parallel bars, the Clarendon School for letting us use the gym and for installing the trampoline and lastly to the mothers and fathers who made donations for the purchase of the trampoline.

We are fortunate to have a person as qualified as Vicky is to drive from Amarillo for classes each week.

We sincerely appreciate every one's support.

Eagle Awards Banquet

In ceremonies Saturday night, February 3, at the Clarendon High School Cafeteria, members of Clarendon Boy Scout Troop No. 33 were presented for a variety of awards and honors.

Wilbert Bernabe, minister of the First Christian Church, gave the invocation followed by Emmett O. Simmons, president of the Farmers State Bank and Trust company, who presided as Master of Ceremonies.

This is the eighth time Simmons has acted in this capacity and it has become a tradition with the organization. The first time he served as M.C. JEM Simmons, his son, received his Eagle Award.

A brief very interesting history of Boy Scout Troop #33 by Simmons revealed the troop was 16 years old, had had 55 God and Country Awards earned by its members since it was organized in 1965 by Paul Hancock, Scout Master and Curley Monroe, assistant Scout Master.

Forrest Sawyer was recognized as a Boy Scout in 1912. His troop met in the kitchen of the First Methodist Church and their activities were pretty much limited to picnics and an occasional hike other than Scout meetings.

F. Leroy Bell was introduced by Emmett Simmons as speaker for the evening. Bell stressed the qualities that Scouting adheres to as qualities which are worth building an entire life around.

Presentation of awards was made by T.C. Saye, Scout Master, assisted by James Thomas, asst. Scout Master. Saye began his adult Scout work in 1960 with the Cub Scouts where he stayed four years with his two sons, Tommie Jr. and Tim. In 1964 he became the assistant Scoutmaster for Troop 33.

The first God and Country Awards given in Clarendon were awarded to Tommie and Tim Saye in 1966. The number is 55 today and during the time the Scout members worked on these awards 13 different church denominations have been involved.

Awards were 1979 Eagle Award to Spencer Hayes. This award had a special meaning as it was the 33rd Eagle for Troop 33, and Saye let it be known how privileged he felt to present it.

1979 Eagle Award to Spencer Hayes. 1979 Eagle Palm (Gold) to Jon Nichols. Recognition of 1979 God and Country Awards were Lynn Alderson, Tim Cole, Carl Cox and Shane Klinnert. These were presented on Scout Sunday, Feb. 4 at the First Baptist Church 11:00 a.m. service.

Receiving the Good Turn Award were Donald Garman, Irven Thomas, James Thomas, and Gene Alderson.

First Aid Skill Awards were presented to Kenneth Coker, Dan Nichols, Robert Youngblood, Shawn Hiel, Richard Richerson, Ernest Copeland, Todd Roberson, Stanley Gardner, and Andy Shields.

Jon Nichols received the Public Speaking Merit Badge, Tim Cole the Communication Merit Badge, Ronald Burlison the Communication Merit Badge, and Robert Asher the Communication and Bee Keeping Merit Badges.

Those receiving Merit Badges and Tenderfoot Rank were Dan Nichols, Kenneth Coker, Stanley Gardner, Bret White, Shawn Hiel, Robert Youngblood, and Richard Richerson who received a Merit Badge in Reading also.

First Class Rank and Merit Badges were given to Shane Klinnert and Carl Cox in Citizenship and Communication.

Lynn Alderson received Star Rank and Merit Badge in Communication and Pets.

Life Rank recipient Arlis Thomas also received Merit

Badges in Communication and Home Repairs.

A trophy was presented to 1978 Sr. Patrol Leader Richard Sanchez. A Patch was given Arlis Thomas, 1979 Sr. Patrol Leader.

Receiving the Scout Spirit Award for 1978 were Lynn Alderson, Tim Cole, Shane Klinnert, Carl Cox, Bobby Asher, Ronald Burlison and Arlis Thomas.

Eddie Bright and Spencer Hayes received awards as Assistant Sr. Patrol Leaders 1978.

Following the awards the benediction was given by Rev. Paul Hiel of the First Baptist Church.

One hundred and twenty-nine persons enjoyed the delicious banquet and interesting program.

Mrs. Nora M. Folley

Funeral services for Mrs. Nora Minta Folley, age 93, a resident of Donley County since 1917, were held at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 1, 1979, in Robertson Chapel of Memories, with Rev. Wilbert Bernabe, minister of the First Christian Church, officiating. Interment was in the Hillcrest Cemetery at Clarendon with the arrangements under the direction of Robertson Funeral Directors.

Mrs. Folley died at 10:30 p.m. on Tuesday, January 30, 1979 in Medical Center nursing home where she had been a patient since 1972. She was born on April 10, 1885 in Clay County, Texas and was married to the late George P. Folley on December 21, 1902 at Silverton. She moved to Donley County in 1917 and had lived one year in McLean before entering the Medical Center Nursing Home. She was a Methodist.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Nash Blessingame of Clarendon, Mrs. Austin Sneed and Mrs. Betty Giesler both of Pampa, Mrs. Opal Tidwell of Pico, Arizona, Mrs. Jewell Swinney of Amarillo; four sons, H.S. Folley of Pampa, V.W. Folley of Ulysses, Kansas, Nash Folley of Amarillo, Guy Folley of Canadian; twenty eight grandchildren, forty nine great grandchildren; and a host of great great grandchildren. Casket bearers were J.T. Tidwell, Johnny Kalka, Bud Long, Snooks Sparks, Johnny Rex McClellan, and Sid McFall.

Thus far 28 women have received the Texas Panhandle Distinguished Service Award.

Last year's distinguished woman from the immediate area was Virginia Browder of Memphis.

The counties included in the program are Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collingsworth, Cottle, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Gray Hale and Hall.

Also listed are Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lamb, Lipscomb, Moore, Motley, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

Clarendon takes two

The Bronchos avenged an earlier one point double overtime loss to Memphis by beating the Cyclones 48-42. This makes the Bronchos the only undefeated team in district this second round.

Keith Floyd and Billy Gardner combined for game highs with Keith hitting seven crucial free-throws down the stretch. The Bronchos never relinquished the lead throughout the exciting ball game.

The Bronchos played excellent defense and led in rebounds. Keith Floyd, Gary Thomas and Justin Lemons combined to control the offense and defensive boards while Gary McClellan, Billy Gardner, Kelly Choate and Lynn Thompson did a good job on the outside and help side defense.

With wins in the next three games they will get a play-off game with Memphis to determine the district winner.

Come watch the Wellington game Friday.

BRONCHETTES

The Bronchettes defeated the Memphis girls for the second time this year, 39-34. The Clarendon girls played a balanced game with freshman Vanessa Calloway scoring 14 pts. and senior Janette Myers scoring 12 pts. This upped the season mark to sixteen wins with a 5-2 district record.

The girls have shown improvement throughout the year and are still in the thick of the district race.

The game at White Deer is a must as are the remaining two home games with Wellington and Panhandle.

The Bronchettes are to be congratulated for their attitude, dedication and teamwork this season after having won four games last year and then making the switch from six players to five players.

Be sure and come watch the Bronchettes take on the strong

Wellington team this Friday night.

A spectator comments

In the basketball games with Memphis Friday night excitement and enthusiasm was running high and the teams were playing to a packed crowd of spectators.

During the boys game tension was building up for this important game. As a spectator one had to be impressed by the poise of the Clarendon team and their sportsman like conduct as they shook hands with the Memphis players before the teams left the court for the dressing room.

American Agriculture Movement Report

Max Johnson, who farms in the Lakeview community and his son Steve Johnson, both members of the American Agriculture Movement, took a T.W.A. flight from Amarillo to Washington D.C. Sunday, February 4, 1979.

The two men will participate in the protest the AAM is making in Washington D.C. Max has an appointment to meet with Jesse F. Moore, Director of Agriculture and Marketing Service, while in the city.

Johnson is working with other interested growers along with Doug Coleman, Director of the Memphis Greenbelt Cotton Producers clearing office for a return per 1,000 bales of cotton classed, of money to be invested by the cotton office for operation or research. This is to take the place of the current loose cotton allowed per 1,000 bales.

There have been 160,000 bales classed to date.

Johnson and his son will be with the group of AAM members from Wellington and asks supporters to write and call for AAM assistance on home farms. In a telephone call from Max Johnson in Washington D.C. to the Clarendon Press about 1:45 Tuesday afternoon, he reported the farmers were getting a bad reception there. "There is no sympathy here for the farmer from the administration," he said.

Johnson felt the AAM received unduly harsh treatment at the 2 p.m. rally on Monday and Monday night. He stressed the urgency of contacting your congressman if he will help and is in sympathy.

Voter apathy is partly responsible for the farmers plight, Johnson believes.

Beta Sigma Phi Charity Ball

Ambulance Authority increases rates

The Board of Directors of the Associated Ambulance Authority met in Medical Centers Administrative office, Friday, February 2, 1979, the topic of discussion being present ambulance rates. Costs of operation of the ambulance was discussed at length with future expenditures such as schooling and equipment replacement being brought out also.

The Associated Ambulance Authority currently has two individuals, Patrick Robertson and Phillip Vargas, enrolled in the Para Medic program in Amarillo. It is felt that the training of these individuals is a great asset to the residents of Clarendon and Donley County. We have one of the best trained, equipped and operated ambulance system in the panhandle.

After much discussion, it is felt by the Board of Directors of the Associated Ambulance Authority that the following increases would be put into effect immediately.

Base Charge of $25.00 for the first fifteen (15) Miles, thereafter a charge of $1.00 per mile will be made.

Oxygen Charge $8.00.
Emergency Charge $10.00.
Night Calls and Weekends $7.00.

Road Trips (Transfers) $25.00 for the first fifteen (15) miles, thereafter a charge of $1.00 per mile will be made. (These charges are still below the charges of surrounding counties)

The Board of Directors commended Delbert Robertson for the fine job he was doing with the ambulance. Members present were: Judge J.S. Hinds, Mayor Leonard Selvidge, Delbert Robertson and secretary of the board Billy Ray Johnston. Board Member Ernest Barbee was not able to attend the meeting.

Citizens of Donley County NOTICE:

INFORMATION ON HOW YOUR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS PLAN TO WASTE YOUR MONEY!

In the last few months Donley County has received from the Federal Government in the way of Revenue Sharing Funds approximately $109,000.

CLARENDON PRESS and the Donley County Leader. Published every Thursday at Clarendon, Texas, 79226, Box 1110, at Hwy 287 and Jefferson Street and entered as Second Class Mail at the post office at Clarendon, Texas. Helen Woody, Publisher and Jeanice Weatherly, Editor.

Subscription rates: $8.50 a year outside Donley County, $6.50 a year in Donley County. Any erroneous reflection on the character of any person or firm appearing in these columns will be gladly and promptly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the management.

Federal Revenue Sharing Funds are a rebate from the Federal Government to the citizens of a particular government entity; city, county or state, a portion of the revenue that the federal government has received by way of taxation. This money is then refunded to the above mentioned government entities to be used to relieve taxation at a lower level.

This revenue sharing money has very few strings attached to it other than it must be used by that particular government entity receiving it in a manner benefiting the citizens of the entity receiving it. It is also required that it be used within a specified period of time, or returned to the Federal Government, and that a called community meeting be held after being extensively advertised. This advertisement is to be in a communication media widely available to the local citizens, preferably newspaper.

In this meeting ideas for the use of this money are to be discussed and citizens are to be made aware of the options under consideration.

The County Commissioners are not obligated to oblige the preferences offered by the citizens at this meeting but are largely expected to do so since this is the people's money and not theirs in any way, other than as citizens also.

Our local Donley County Commissioners have decided to skirt those requirements that do not suit their own needs and desires. They have decided that Donley County should take this money and build an addition onto the West side of the present courthouse to provide space for other government agencies which the county has no business or obligation concerning itself with, specifically a new state welfare office at an estimated cost of $75,000. The balance is to be used to build a court room and other office space for no designated purpose. The state welfare agency is to receive this space rent free for a period of eight years with their only expense being to furnish the building as they desire and the payment of a pro-rata share of the utilities.

The commissioners have proceeded on the above project to the point of voting to let the architect draw up plans for the proposed building. They have not yet seen fit to let the people of Donley County even know what they propose to do. The required meeting of citizens prescribed by the federal government has as yet to be called and the only notice of their intentions to date has been in the minutes as reported in the Clarendon Press of January 18th where it states simply, "the commissioners voted to let the architects proceed with plans for the proposed building," no explanation as to what kind of building.

Donley County has a jail that is not only inadequate, but illegal, as judged by every agency which has ever conducted inspections. We have no choice but to build a new jail. Where will the money come from for this? The same place all government money comes from, your pocket.

Donley County has a library that is inadequately housed in an old courthouse building that these same commissioners do not feel is good enough for them.

Donley County has two citizens cemeteries that have to be supported by private donations and volunteer efforts because the county refuses to accept this responsibility.

The walkways and curbing around the present courthouse look like a disaster area and the new courthouse recently completed with your money has a leaking roof and walls with cracks you can put your finger in.

The exact amount of federal revenue sharing money available for any county expenditure is not known by any one of the commissioners nor is it known by these same men what will be available in the future. Present needs should be met by present funds. The welfare office we presently have is not only adequate but is superior to what would be available after the commissioners spend our $75,000.

The present building does not cost county citizens one cent of local tax money as the State of Texas pays the entire rent of $498.00 to its present owners Jack and Fred Clifford. Welfare recipients will no receive more help after a new building is built, but will have to search for a place to park anywhere they can as no off street parking is planned at this time.

The present welfare building located at the corner of Hwy 287 and Jefferson St. and is a one story building fully carpeted and divided into six (6) offices and a reception area. There is off street parking space south of the building to accommodate 25 vehicles. Concrete walkways go directly to the entrance and concrete ramps and hand aids are provided for handicapped individuals. Modern rest rooms in the building were constructed and equipped to be used by the handicapped.

What are we spending $75,000 for? Obviously a monument to the commissioners of Donley County. Replacement of private enterprise by government gifts to those who have no need for them. If they spend this $75,000 as proposed, we then have the same thing we have now but no $75,000 to spend on projects the county actually needs. It is also implied that I am biased in this as by owning the present welfare office I have a financial interest.

The obvious fallacy in this is that the county presently has $75,000 — but will have the $75,000 plus a welfare office if they will abandon this project. In response to the financial interest bias charge, I feel that all taxpaying citizens of Donley County have a financial interest when it involves wasting their money. Taxpayers' money was used to purchase the red brick building across the street east from the old courthouse, for the use of the Justice of the Peace, on September 9, 1977 at a cost of $12,000. It has never been used but it was voted by the commissioners court to carry liability insurance on the building at the Dec. 11, 1978 Donley County Commissioners meeting as reported in the Dec. 14 issue of the Clarendon Press. What do they plan for this building?

If you feel that these are irresponsible acts by your commissioners (as I do) let them know about it. They are Gene White, justice precinct 1; Claude Moore, justice precinct 2; Buford Holland, justice precinct 3 at Hedley and Will Chamberlain, justice precinct 4. Donley County Judge, ex-officio member of the commissioners court is J.S. Hinds, justice precinct 2. Mr. Chamberlain is in complete agreement with me on this and his rejection of irresponsibility has been reflected in his every vote as commissioner.

I do not feel that any of these commissioners are doing this in a mean or dishonest manner. They are all good and capable men but perhaps too familiar with government funds which look like easy money. I feel that their enthusiasm in getting rid of money is misdirected.

I encourage the present county commissioners or any other responsible citizen to reply or comment on the above statements pro or con, but please -- no anonymous comments.

North Carolinians got stuck with the nickname "Tar Heels" during the Civil War when General Robert E. Lee used the term to describe the sticking quality of troops from North Carolina. The term itself stems from the threat of the state's soldiers to tar the heels of other states' troops who wanted to abandon their battle positions.

Clarendon Dog Obedience Class

Clarendon Dog Obedience Training Class participated in their fourth session with three members of the Amarillo Dog Obedience Training Club instructing. President of the club, Dick Wilberforce demonstrating with Doberman Pinscher Ace and Don Wilberforce, leading top Junior Show Handler with German Shepherd Shad, assisted Leslie Mullis with her Poodle, Cally. Miss Mullis commended the class for their excellent progress and expressed her plans to return for the graduation exercises.

Patience, perseverance and pride in their dogs have sustained this class even in their adversity. Two dogs with broken bones have been replaced and the handlers kept pace with the class even with these obstacles. A sad note entered the ring on the news of a lost dog. Gary Harbert's Australian Cattle Dog Blue Jack Boo disappeared from their ranch at Leila Lake Friday evening, Gary, while exercising Boo had stepped into the house to answer the telephone and upon his return has not seen the dog since. The search for Boo has thus far not been successful. Another Australian Cattle Dog of the HIP-O RANCH, Sissy stood in for Boo with Gary as handler during class Monday night.

A new exercise was practiced by the group - a moving down. While heeling the dogs were guided into a moving down with pressure on the withers. Repeating former exercises and sharpening up on others the class was busy with one short break for refreshments.

Mrs. Max Johnson and Mrs. Earl Alderson were interested spectators in the bleachers with local students making quick observations.

Mrs. Brian Berry, one of the club's most promising trainers will be next week's instructor. Kathy has obedience trained her husband's Coonhounds. She owns an Irish Setter, Charger, who is training for his Companion Dog title after competing in the Super Dog Show; and a Collie, Sunny Lady Freedom C.D. and training for the Companion Dog Excellent title.

The fifth lesson will be held February 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the high school gym. Visitors welcome.

Mrs. Joe Spann of Hereford visited Monday morning with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mooring, before returning home.

The State of Texas Sunset Commission results

The Sunset Commission's mandate for its first year was to review 25 state agencies. The Commission has completed this initial period of work by recommending to the Legislature the abolition of eight of those agencies, the consolidation of five more and the modification of ten others. No agreement was reached on two other agencies.

This report comes at a time when many Texans are expressing concern about a growing and costly state government. The recommendations are not a "meat-axe" approach to reducing state government in which needed programs and personnel are thrown out along with unnecessary ones. Instead, these recommendations are based on an extensive and careful evaluation of the performance, budget management and public responsiveness of the 25 agencies. I have already introduced some of the recommendations to the Legislature in Senate Bills 276 through 283

(description follows). If implemented by the Legislature, they will make state government more effective, more efficient and more responsive to the public interest.

The listed material summarizes the work of the Sunset Commission with emphasis on the problems found and the solutions suggested.

Health hints for today

by R.L. Gilkey, M.D., A.B.F.P.

Influenza has not been a problem in Donley County so far this winter. There were many cases of a Type A influenza in the school two weeks ago, but very few cases in adults. Still we should be cautious. If we have an outbreak in Amarillo or surrounding communities, be sure to get your immunization.

The pneumonia vaccine is now available. It immunizes against the twenty most common types of pneumonia. It's not recommended for everyone. It is only for those with chronic lung disease, asthma, and the severely debilitated.

The common cold is prevalent now. We're seeing primarily head colds. Remember the symptoms start with runny nose, generalized aching, a 24 to 36 hr. raw throat, then the typical cold for twelve more days. You can treat this with your favorite cough and cold preparations. They will all help make you feel better. Antibiotics don't help colds unless there is secondary infection.

These secondary infections with bacteria are easy for you to diagnose. The most common of these is about the end of the first week of the cold. Frequently clear mucous nasal discharge then becomes slightly yellow or greenish. Penicillin and antibiotics will help. But wait, if you still are feeling well and aren't running any fever, your body will most likely overcome it. However, if your fever goes up, your aching and chills return, and your scratchy throat really becomes sore, then antibiotics are indicated.

Coughs that go with colds can be either dry coughs or productive (mucous) coughs. Most cough syrups are formulated to help either type of cough, so use your favorite. There is one type to watch out for. The cough that causes pain, or pain with deep breathing, that produces brown mucous, and frequently chills and fever, are symptoms of pneumonia. If you develop these symptoms, see your doctor.

BOY SCOUTS

69th ANNIVERSARY

The Claude Thomas family - a Scouting family

By Jeanlee Weatherly
Most aptly described as a Scouting family the Claude Thomas family members, four boys and their parents are all dedicated Scouters because they enjoy and believe in the Scouting principles.

By way of introduction the Thomas sons are James, 20 year old holder of the God and Country Award since February, 1972 and the Eagle Award since December 1974. Irven is 18, received his God and Country Feb. 1972 and his Eagle December, 1974.

Gary, age 18, was awarded his God and Country in Feb. 1974, and his Eagle, December 1976. Arlis, 13 years of age, has had his God and Country for less than a year having received it May 14, 1978. All of the Thomas boys received their God and Country awards at the present First Baptist Church in Clarendon.

This is quite an achievement for one family to have four God and Country Awards. Few persons outside of Scouting know how much time and hard work go into the earning of this award.

Groundwork for the boys' Scout work was laid by their parents and Claude Thomas, father of the boys, spent eight years as a Webelo Leader for 10-year old boys, and was Cub Master for three years.

Onita, mother of the Thomas quartet, found time to be a Den Mother for four years. Together the family has worked for 10 years in the concession stand at the rodeo grounds during the July 4th Rodeo to help raise money for the Scouts. They are unanimous in their belief that it was most worthwhile. As a result of the money making effort the Scouts now have six canoes; two sailboats and a rowboat to enjoy in suitable weather. Without the Scouts work on the 4th of July this would not have been possible.

Claude Thomas, over the years, has helped with campouts, cookouts, canoeing, taking boys to and from different Scouting events. It is the belief of family members that this has established a bond between Claude and his sons which all families are not privileged to have.

As parents, Claude and Onita Thomas have planned activities which revolve around their boys; all Boy Scout functions, baseball and football games, basketball games, band concerts and choir presentations.

Although the boys are four totally individual personalities, they support each other and offer encouragement to help realize their personal goals as a closely knit unit.

It is the collective belief of the Claude Thomas family that as they grow up working and playing together the bonds established in youth will continue into their mature lives.

When asked to make a statement about the effect Scouting has had on their lives, these were the comments: James commented, "Scouting is the backbone for any job experience. All Scouts should continue on and become lifetime Scouters or backers to help other young boys along the Scouting trail. Scouting has been good for me."

James is a licensed minister, a student at Clarendon College working toward a major in Music Education with emphasis on voice, and a major in Bible. His present goal is to become a church music director and voice teacher. He plans to continue his Scouting work.

Irven is a Freshman at Clarendon Junior College and plans to major in Physical Education and is thinking about a teacher's certificate in Special Education. He says simply, "Scouting has helped me to become a better individual".

Gary is a Clarendon High School senior and although he plans to go to college, no definite major has been chosen. He explains his view of Scouting, "Scouting is more than just fun. You learn to get along with all types of people in all types of situations".

Arlis, a 7th grade student in Clarendon Junior High School, is involved in all sports, says "Scouting is an adventure. You get to know nature better by camping and hiking."

Further proof of family dedication is the Order of Arrow award received by all four boys, the Award of Merit, Santa Fe District of Adobe Walls Council, April 1976 and Service Award plaque from Troop #33 for service for the years 1969 through 1978 received by their father.

Zap clutter, get organized

From Cynthia Manning County Extension Agent
Lost recipes, missing music scores, bulging closets, a sea of newspaper clippings, a jumble of warrant books, clutter everywhere. Sound familiar?

If so, you may be suffering from a common malady-disorganization.

Don't let it control your life. Be your own expert organizer and make clutter disappear.

Disorganization can strike anyone-advanced symptoms include absolute chaos and growing despair.

If you are spending more time searching for things than using them, it's time to put life in order-and cope more effectively with everyday living.

Anyone can become organized if they are willing to spend enough time to study and solve their problems.

Only four things need organizing: space, things, time and tasks.

Try a few ideas for starters:

SPACE
* Organize storage space. Kitchens and closets need periodic reviews. To make storage space usable, keep often-used items close to the area of use. Make items easy-to-see and reach.

THINGS
* Assess clutter realistically. Just how much of it is really needed?

INFLATION
Learn when to discard or recycle things-unless creating a national museum in your home is a goal.

Learn how to deal with paper-toss it, use it or file it.

Set up a home filing system for readily accessible papers. Use different color folders for stashing papers-and don't forget about the alphabet!

* Learn to make the most of time.

Use a central family calendar to keep track of everyone's activities and responsibilities.

Don't over-organize your time.

Instead, use odd moments and waiting time for mini-projects.

TASKS
* Organize routine tasks, such as housecleaning.

Make a list of housecleaning activities to be completed weekly, monthly and annually.

Schedule them on the calendar. Divide responsibilities among family members.

Try other ideas for routine tasks. For example, make the foodshopping list according to the location of items in the supermarket.

"OUTLOOK" bankers school

Texas bankers will get first-hand knowledge about the outlook for various agricultural commodities at the 27th Texas Farm and Ranch Credit School for Commercial Bankers Feb. 12-13 at Texas A&M University.

A special session will provide "outlook" information on livestock, grain, cotton and the money market, explains Clair Nixon of A&M's Department of Agricultural Economics, school publicity chairman. Speakers include Ernest Baughman, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, and Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialists Dr. Ernest Davis, Dr. Carl Anderson, Roland Smith and Dr. Ed Uvacek.

"We think this session will be of special interest to bankers since many of the decisions they will make during the year on agricultural loans will be based on this kind of information," notes Nixon.

The heat pump

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

A good bargain!

A heating system that's more than 200% efficient may seem like something out of the future. But it isn't. It's yours today, with the electric heat pump. Because when correctly installed in a properly insulated home, the heat pump produces two units of heat for each single unit of electricity it uses. The heat pump operates by using the future's most abundant energy source, solar energy. It transfers heat that's always present in sun-warmed outside air into your home during the winter. And reverses the process, pumping heat outdoors during the summer.

Bensten bill will eliminate State Revenue Sharing

Senator Lloyd Bentsen on Tuesday introduced a bill in Washington to prohibit state governments from receiving federal Revenue Sharing funds. The legislation would cut $2.28 billion from the federal budget for fiscal 1980.

Bentsen is a member of the Senate Finance Committee, which will consider his legislation.

"The American people have made it quite clear that they are fed up with the rapidly growing costs and enormous deficits of an ever-expanding federal government," the Senator said in remarks accompanying his bill.

"The people want the federal government to begin to operate in a rational fashion by eliminating programs that are no longer necessary and serve no useful purpose."

"At this point in time, state participation in the federal Revenue Sharing program simply makes no sense."

Bentsen noted that, according to the National Governor's Association, the 48 states for which figures are available had an aggregate surplus of $8.9 billion at the end of fiscal 1978, while the federal deficit was $48.8 billion. The same 48 states project surpluses of $4.3 billion for fiscal 1979 while the federal budget proposed by the President projects a deficit of $37 billion.

The Senator also pointed out that, while some state governments are in better financial shape than others, not a single state is expected to have a deficit in fiscal 1980.

"The bill I am introducing would reduce one of the great growth areas of the federal budget in recent years -- aid to state and local government," Bentsen said.

"In fiscal 1970 the federal government provided $21.9 billion of aid to state and local government. In fiscal 1980 that figure would reach $82.9 billion if the President's budget proposals are adopted."

"The federal government will be the source of 23.6 percent of funds spent by state and local governments in the coming fiscal year if the President's budget is adopted," Bentsen said.

"I do not propose to cut essential federal aid to state or local governments. But unnecessary Revenue Sharing funds provided to state governments merely add to an already too high federal deficit," Senator Bentsen said.

Hightower-agriculture

Mr. Speaker, I have been very much upset by the fact that in our major field of exports, agriculture, we are not getting the price for American products that we should. If we were getting a fair price, then it would have a substantial effect on our balance of payments and the entire economy.

Some of the countries that are importing United States wheat are raking off substantial profits because of low prices being paid to American producers. The Japanese government has recently decided that it will continue reselling U.S. wheat to flour millers at $9.11 a bushel. This gives the Japanese government treasury a profit of about $5.00 a bushel after paying freight and handling costs. I understand that the European Community is making a profit of $3.60 a bushel on wheat purchased in the United States.

The American farmer is subsidizing the taxpayers of Japan and Europe. These are direct benefits that are flowing out of the pockets of American farmers into the foreign national treasuries. This is one reason why farmers continue to be very much concerned about the treatment they are apparently receiving from their own government.

While it may be true, as the President stated, that the average farm income is up 25%, this really tells us only that farm income was already way too low and even this kind of increase has not been felt in many critical areas. The wheat and cotton farmers in Texas are still hurting.

In building a New Foundation I hope we will build it on fair play for our own producers who must provide the real foundation for a healthy American economy.

Clarendon College Electronics Dept.

by Jeanice Weatherly
This is the sixth year for the Electronics Program at Clarendon College and the department has been successful from the very beginning and today regularly receives calls and letters from one end of the nation to the other asking for technicians.

The department at Clarendon College has something extra to offer in the way of training, technicians to service electronic organs, in addition to the other more usual training. Clarendon College is one of only three such training facilities in the United States and started their electronic organ training of technicians in 1975. Lee Jackson, instructor of the electronics department estimated the salaries range from $600 to $1000 per month.

To be able to train for this excellent vocation there are few prerequisites. A mechanical aptitude is an asset and if math is easy or if the individual can master math that is a plus also. Of a good deal of importance is the ability of the trainee to have or acquire a certain amount of dexterity with his hands.

Each student is trained as a professional electronics technician primarily in the home entertainment field such as TVs, hi fis, stereos and electronic organs.

Twenty-one students have graduated from the Electronics Program during the five completed years of the department and of that number 16 are working in the electronics field and one is continuing education in the same area.

Each student is required to spend 30 hours per week in class, 10 of these hours are lectures the other 20 are spent with hands on receivers in the lab. Successful completion of the training program and graduation will earn the student an Associate degree in Applied Science.

Classes are designed to train both men and women and women are encouraged to enter the field. Only a limited number of students are enrolled to keep the class in a one to one situation.

During the course of a year hundreds of pieces of equipment are repaired and put into working order. Much of the equipment comes from local sources to give the class a broad field of experience.

Classes begin each September; however, since the class is kept small interested persons should contact the registrar's office or Lee Roy Jackson to be sure of enrollment. Veterans may enter this program and be eligible for V.A. benefits.

Much of the success of the electronics program may be attributed to the instructor, Lee Roy Jackson, who has 25 years of electronics service background in the panhandle area. His students graduate with the ability to begin immediately to use their training for personal income and with the option of continuing their education in this field or pursuing a career as electronics service technicians, servicing electronic home entertainment equipment, an area of great demand.

Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Hahn celebrated their 62nd Wedding Anniversary January 28, 1979.

They were married in 1917 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Totten.

Pink Hahn lived on the Bell Ranch and Gladys lived on the Lott Ranch. Their first home was on the Bell Ranch where they lived 4 years. Later they lived in Hall County two years before moving to the Goldston Community north of Clarendon where they made their home for 17 years. In 1944 they moved again, this time west of Clarendon. Five of their six children are still living.

The First Baptist Church had services at Medical Center Sunday afternoon.

Wednesday, Mrs. Moss, Frank Reid, Joan Kidd, Mrs. Corgill and Mr. Miller sang songs for us.

Thursday, Mary Myers brought the Bible study.

Wednesday at 10 a.m. the employees brought Mexican food and entertained Nancy Reynolds with a wedding shower. Nancy received many useful gifts. She is the bride-elect of Ken Wood. She has been the secretary at Medical Center for about two years.

Linda Naylor is Nancy's replacement. Everyone at Medical Center welcomes her.

Farm economic situation cloudy

Inflation and a mild recession are several of the roadblocks facing farmers and ranchers in 1979, says a marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Carl Anderson expects overall economic growth to slow to 2 percent or less in 1979, down from nearly 4 percent in 1978. "This will bring on a mild recession during mid-year. The economic slowdown will likely curtail buying of higher priced cuts of red meats and will encourage the use of ground beef, meat substitutes and poultry," he contends. "Mill use of cotton may also decline."

"Inflation and the high cost of energy will continue to hamper economic growth in the United States and will especially keep agricultural producers in an economic bind," believes Anderson. "The President's wage and price standards are not expected to be effective unless they are bolstered by considerable economic restraints by monetary authorities and in government spending."

"Effects of a high rate of inflation are particularly severe on agriculture," emphasizes the economist. "It aggravates the cost-price squeeze by increasing production costs but not necessarily farm prices. The result is lower incomes and a risky financial environment. At the same time, farmers and ranchers are faced with rising costs of living such as higher bills for utilities, pickup trucks, housing, clothing, fuel and medical costs just like other businessmen and wage earners."

Anderson expects sagging productivity, deficit federal government spending and cumbersome federal regulations to fuel inflation. A sizeable trade deficit will also contribute to economic instability. With limited petroleum resources and slow progress in developing alternate sources of energy, the U.S. is becoming increasingly dependent upon expensive oil imports.

New eyes for the needy

Ten-year-old Timmy S. of Waco, loved to play baseball, but his friends teased him and called him Casey because he always struck out. He could not see the ball. Every game ended in humiliation and near tears for him.

Because Timmy's father had long been out of work, glasses were simply out of the question until this year.

The boy's glasses were paid for by a volunteer organization, hundreds of miles away, called New Eyes for the Needy, Inc., in Short Hills, New Jersey.

Now Timmy is one of the top batters in his class and ends every baseball game with a grin. He wrote to New Eyes: "My Dad says there won't be any gifts under our tree this Christmas, but I have my present, the best ever, my new glasses. Thank you, New Eyes."

Timmy is just one of the more than 10,000 grateful people in this country who received eyeglasses from New Eyes in the past year.

New Eyes has earned the reputation of being one of the most effective sight-saving charities in the world. It has helped many thousands of needy people obtain glasses -- here and abroad -- and it has never asked for a penny in donations.

Since its inception 47 years ago, New Eyes has asked only for used eyeglasses and precious metal articles such as old watches, jewelry (real, costume and antique), good or damaged silver and dentures.

The eyeglasses and glittering clutter are sent to New Eyes for the Needy, Inc., Short Hills, New Jersey 07078. Thousands of packages from all over the United States arrive in the neat stucco headquarters every year. There, volunteers, mostly housewives, sort out the glasses, separating those in plastic frames from those in metal frames.

Many of the 250 workers have learned to operate complex optical grading and testing equipment. They help fill specific orders from missions and hospitals in foreign countries where plastic framed glasses and sunglasses are sent.

The metal framed glasses have their uses, too. Through refining, they yield precious metals that are sold, along with the jewelry, to finance New Eyes funds in over 100 hospitals and health agencies throughout the United States. The money in these funds buys glasses for people who have nowhere else to turn.

In addition to these funds, arrangements have also been made in 48 states through health and welfare agencies whereby New Eyes purchases glasses for carefully screened persons, to whom no other private or public funds are available.

But, as public response has grown throughout the years, so has the volume of requests. Therefore, New Eyes needs more discarded jewelry and eyeglasses to do its job.

These gifts can bring vision to a little boy, like Timmy.

Prune trees while dormant

Major pruning on shade trees should be done during the winter months while the trees are dormant. However, before you start whacking away at your favorite tree or shrub, make sure you have a justifiable reason for pruning, cautions Ronald Gooch, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Gooch points out that there are a number of reasons for pruning. First and foremost is to maintain a strong frame work for the future development of the tree. Other reasons are to reduce the size or to keep the tree within specific bounds and to remove dead, diseased or weak growth as well as broken limbs and rubbing branches.

Another reason for pruning is to improve the size and quality of flowers and fruit. A final reason is to balance the top growth with the root system at transplanting time.

Unless pruning can be justified for one of these reasons, it is better to place the shears and saw in the shed and obtain the desired exercise by spading the flowerbed, says Gooch.

Some of the general principles that will apply when pruning shade trees include the removal of all dead or diseased wood, broken limbs and weak growth. Also, long, unsightly branches should be shortened or removed as they offer too much resistance to the wind and are frequently subject to storm damage.

Never stub back limbs or branches, advises Gooch. Rather, cut back to a main branch or trunk so that there will be no stubs remaining. The so-called stubbing back or topping large branches will result in a proliferation of sucker growth and will leave a wound that is impossible to heal.

Recent research indicates that the use of tree wound paint on wounds is not essential, adds Gooch. Woody plants have the ability to wall off the wounded area and will heal over just as effectively without the dressing. However, there is no harm in using a wound paint.

Gooch suggests using a saw or chisel to smooth broken stubs and torn bark to promote healing.

While the homeowner can handle most pruning operations, it may be best to hire a professional arborist or tree surgeon if trees are large or need extensive work, adds Gooch.

If the tree or shrub being pruned is diseased, it is important to dip pruning equipment in a disinfectant after each cut to kill disease organisms so as to prevent their spread to other portions of the tree or even to other trees. A 10 percent household bleach solution makes a satisfactory disinfectant, says Gooch. This can be prepared by mixing one part of bleach to nine parts of water.

Black spots on cans mean sulfur-not harm

Black spots on the inside of cans mean sulfur is present, but the food is still safe, Mary K. Sweeten reports.

Certain foods do liberate sulfur, and that causes brown, black or blue spots on cans. Tomato sauce is one example.

However, this condition is not harmful to the contents of the can, she says.

Mrs. Sweeten is a foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Although the discoloration may occur in sealed cans during processing, a federal regulation prohibits the use of possibly dangerous food containers.

Use of any food container that would transfer a harmful substance to the food in the can would be a violation of the Food Additives Amendment of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, Mrs. Sweeten explains.

More than 50 percent of Texas is underlain by seven major aquifers and seventeen minor aquifers of local importance.

The Texas average annual natural recharge from precipitation is 5.1 million acre-feet.

In Texas in the mid-1930's ground water supplied 670,000 acre-feet annually.

Currently, ground water supplies 70 percent of the water used in Texas or 12.2 million acre-feet annually.

YES, SKIERS, TIEMPO REALLY IS A SNOW TIRE!

Beginning this winter, California chain control crews and enforcement personnel, in mountain areas, will accept the Tiempo radial as a "Snow Tread" tire. That's good news for Tiempo owners. And Tiempo is good news for anyone who's ever tried to put on tire chains!

Tiempo proved itself last winter during some of the worst weather in history. In the blizzards of New England, the ice storms of Tennessee, the heavy rains in Texas.

Best of all, Tiempo steel belted radials are so tough they keep on rolling season after season. Tiempo is rain tire, snow tire, sun tire... the one tire that does it all.

Tiempo. The tire you can drive with confidence!

WISE PARTY-PLAN BUYING
Wise party-plan buying starts with three guidelines, says a consumer information specialist.

Don't attend party-plan sales if you aren't interested. If interested, compare prices beforehand on similar merchandise elsewhere. Also, put off buying if unsure, says Claudia Kerbel.

Ms. Kerbel is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.
"Many people have experienced the high pressure situation at a party-plan sales program when friends and neighbors are signing up for new jewelry, clothing, china and crystal or pots and pans," the specialist explains.
"It is difficult to resist buying."

FOSTER WHALEY STATE REPRESENTATIVE

The legislative wheels are beginning to spin in Austin. There have been 688 bills introduced into the House thru January 29, 1979. It is anticipated that 4000 bills will be proposed before the session ends in late May. Here are just a few briefs on some of the new legislation.

H.B. 19 requires horses to be tattooed inside the lower lip. This would apply only to horses born or imported into Texas after December 31, 1980. Several bills have been introduced that would restrict or prohibit foreign investments in Texas agricultural land. H.B. 227 would create an Agriculture Relations Board. This bill provides for collective bargaining between employers and labor organizations.

H.B. 491 is bound to bring forth a lot of action. This one tinkers with our long established homestead laws that prohibit the remortgaging of equity one has built up in his homestead. I would take a hard look at this one. The old homestead law gives a lot of protection to home and land owners who encounter financial difficulty during the course of their lives. It leaves them a nest egg if things go wrong. This prohibits creditors from taking homes and nest eggs away from over extended borrowers.

I would not want to deny any legislator the right to introduce a bill. "I am thoroughly convinced, however that entirely too much legislation is passed during each session."

An emergency appropriations bill for the Railroad Commission has just been introduced in both the House and the Senate. The need for additional money was caused by the newly signed Federal Energy Act. It requires the State to appropriate almost six hundred thousand dollars to complete this fiscal year. Next year the additional is supposed to cost over one million. This is just to carry out the unpopular mandate of the federal government.

I would vote for a federal constitutional amendment mandating that each federal law have a Fiscal note attached showing the projected costs to state governments. Such a proposal would require these costs to be paid by the federal government. At the present it is real easy for the federal government and the federal courts to demand that certain things be done without any thought to how much the ticket will be—or who will pick it up. If we don't already have one we need initiative and referendums as a check on federal legislation. I would suggest the elimination of the Occupational Health and Safety Administration as the first project.
