Fish Pond Management at CC Sept 13

Almost everyone enjoys a good pond. It will supply fishing, recreation, and water for livestock. If properly planned and constructed, a pond can provide hours of recreation with a minimal amount of maintenance.

When constructing a pond, side slopes should be steep enough to eliminate weeds that grow in shallow water. Once a pond is constructed, chemical weed control and fertilization can be used to keep the pond clear of weeds.

In stocking a pond, care should be taken to remove any existing fish. Rotenone can be used to eliminate unwanted fish. Fish should be stocked on a per surface acre basis. Catfish alone can be stocked at 200 per acre with 2 lbs. of Fathead minnows. When Bass are to be stocked with Catfish and Sunfish, stocking should be done in the fall to prevent fingerlings from being eaten by the Bass.

In Donley County most ponds are small, making them ideal for stocking Catfish. Catfish can be stocked in larger quantities with supplemental feeding. A 1/2 acre pond stocked with 200 fingerlings can produce 200 lbs. of fish in a single growing season, with daily feeding.

Raising fish is like any other feedlot, it takes proper management to be successful. Gary Valentine a state biologist for the SCS will be at Clarendon College, Thursday, Sept. 13th at 8:00 p.m. Room 102, to talk about fish pond management.

Phil Hart has bought Johnston Cleaners

Johnston's Cleaners has been purchased by Billy Ray Johnston by Phil Hart, also of Clarendon. Hart began operation of the facility, Sept. 4, 1979.

Johnston purchased the business from George Schollenbarger in 1973 and operated it until he accepted the position of administrator for the Medical Center Nursing Home late last year. After he became administrator his employees carried on the details of the business and the cleaners was kept operating.

Hart is a native of Clarendon and returned recently with his wife to make this his home.

Johnston expressed his thanks to the patrons of his shop and added that they can expect the same capable service and individual attention from the new owner, Phil Hart.

"Clarendon is fortunate to have a dry cleaning establishment, today many of the smaller towns cannot support them. It is a real inconvenience to have to carry clothing out of town," Johnston said.

Clarendon Paramedic graduated

Graduation exercises for the first Paramedic class to ever be held in the Texas Panhandle were held on Thursday, September 6, 1979 at the Amarillo Room of Sutphen's Barbecue in Amarillo.

A social hour started at 7:00 p.m. and the meal and presentation followed at 8:30. There were 43 Paramedics graduating and 8 EMT's with special skills qualifications. Among the 43 Paramedics graduating, were two local men - Phillip Vargas and Patrick Robertson both received their diplomas and certificates from the Texas Department of Health and Panhandle Emergency Medical Services System. Both are members of the Clarendon EMS team. Also graduating were Ron Hefley of the Amarillo Fire Department, who is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Just of Lelia Lake and Dr. Tommy Hennard, D.V.M. who is the brother-in-law of Dr. Charles E. Deyhle. Dr. Hennard is from Wheeler.

Dr. David Boyd, head of the Emergency Medical Services, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare from Washington was the guest speaker and presented the diplomas to the graduates. He was assisted by Betty O'Rourke, Panhandle EMS coordinator and Dr. Louis Finney from Amarillo. Dr. Boyd has received many highly coveted awards from various contributions to the fields of emergency medicine.

In his speech, Dr. Boyd praised the Panhandle EMS system as one of the top systems in the United States and he said that this system has been used as a model for many other systems throughout the country. He said that the Panhandle was very strong and that a big part of the reason was the volunteers who drove 60-180 miles round trip, twice a week to receive the training that was necessary to complete the course (480 hours).

Most did so at their own expense. All of the people in the course, with the exception of those from Amarillo are volunteers and serve without pay. He praised them for devoting time away from family and jobs and the many sleepless nights they spend helping those in their communities. He further stated that for the communities without 24 hour medical care, this type of training could make the difference by the dramatic drop in deaths from major illnesses and accidents since the inception of EMS.

In a very short time, the Panhandle has gone from primarily a "swoop and scoop" system of transport to a very sophisticated system of advanced life support and treatment. Patients who before this time were very likely not to survive their illness or injury, now have a very good chance or not only surviving, but recovering more quickly and more completely.

Clarendon is very fortunate to have 2 of the 43 Paramedics in the Panhandle. 15 are from Amarillo and the remaining 28

Bronchos host Quanah

The Clarendon Bronchos make their first appearance at home hosting the Quanah Indians Friday night. Kick-off is 8:00 p.m. The Bronchos and Indians both will be looking for their first victory of the young season. Quanah dropped a 14-0 decision in Childress last Friday night. The Indians are trying to rebound from a 3-7 season in '78.

Coach Allen's Comments on Quanah: They played a very strong defensive game against Childress. They held Childress 5 times inside the 20 yd. line on downs. Quanah lost 13 starters from a year ago, but possess more speed and quickness this year. They are very aggressive tacklers and are much more mentally disciplined this year. They committed several personal foul penalties last year against us.

Offensively, they run from the split backfield pretty well. FB David McGary and HB Wayne Campbell will provide the speed in the backfield. QB Don Wood is a fine passer. They start 7 jr. and 4 srs. - 6 players going both ways.

The Bronchos came out of the Boys Ranch game with no injuries. Mickey McGuire out for a week will be back in action this week. Phil Moreman saw his first full work-out of the year Monday but is still questionable for a few weeks.

Assembly of God to have revival

Pastor Roger Gray of the Assembly of God Church invites you to revival services, tentatively scheduled Sept. 16-23. Rev. and Mrs. Gemme (Raymond J.) of Rialto, Calif. will be ministering in Song and Word nightly, 7:30 p.m.

Stray dogs will be picked up Rabies confirmed in Clarendon

Due to a confirmed case of rabies in a domestic animal (a pet dog), the City Aldermen of Clarendon under the direction of the State Health Department sees the immediate need of the enforcement of our current dog ordinance.

Beginning Tuesday, September 18, an all-out effort will begin to keep animals from roaming at-large. Dogs or cats found at-large that have tags (both rabies and city license) will be impounded for a period of five days. At the end of the five day period if the dog is not claimed, it will be disposed of. An owner who wishes to claim his pet may do so by having the dog vaccinated and licensed by the City, and by paying an impound fee of $2.00 and a board fee of $1.00 per day.

Any stray animals found at-large in the City of Clarendon that do not have tags will be picked up and impounded for three days. After this period, if the dog is not claimed it will be disposed of.

Violation of this ordinance will result in a fine of up to $200.00.

Any person who has a pet, either dog or cat, that has not been vaccinated should have this done immediately. To facilitate this, the City of Clarendon will sponsor a vaccination clinic on Monday, September 17, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Meeting on tax bill 621 to be held soon

Thursday evening at 8 p.m. members of the various taxing entities in Donley County, Hedley and Clarendon met for an informal discussion of the provisions of tax bill #621 and of the options open to the tax offices. The group met in the Clarendon College Cafeteria. Jeff Walker, superintendent of Clarendon Independent School District acted as moderator and briefly went over some of the steps needed to begin compliance with the new tax law.

Two years have been granted Texas taxing agencies for their full transfer from the familiar tax system to total compliance with tax bill #621. In January 1980 the new State Property Tax Board will replace the board which previously had jurisdiction over the school taxes, and will regulate all tax entities.

Under the new system a five man board of local persons working with an assessor, who will be the only salaried member, will serve the taxing entities of the county. These members will serve for two year terms.

Values for property will be calculated by an agriculture usage formula divided by the state. Dwellings will be valued according to guidelines also set forth in the new bill. City values will be valued on 100% of valuation when the transition of the new system is complete.

Values will be the same for all taxing offices - that is county, school and city - for the taxpayer. In the past the valuation for the county was probably lower than your valuation for the school. They will all value the same property for the same amount.

Homestead exemptions may need explaining. The School ONLY may exempt a homestead for $5,000 of its valuation IF the exemption is applied for. For those 65 or older and for those who are disabled (disabled must be accepted by social security) there is an additional exemption of $10,000 for a total of $15,000. It MUST be applied for EACH YEAR to be received. These exemptions are for the school only.

The other taxing entity which allows a homestead exemption is the county and the exemption is on $3,000 of the homestead value.

On January 1, 1981 the assessment will go to 100%.

Present from the various offices were from Hedley; Vernon Scott, Harold White, Earl Wheatley and Bill Waddell. From the city of Clarendon Tex Selvidge, mayor, aldermen Shirley Clifford, Lloyd McCord, Bob Kidd and city secretary Bill Weatherly.

Representing the college and public school were Clarendon College president, K.D. Vaughn, Jeff Walker, superintendent, Don Robinson, Henry Hasty, Don Thornberry, L.A. Watson, and Bobby Cole.

Hospital district representatives were Billy Ray Johnston, administrator, Opal James, tax clerk and board members; Ernest Barbee, Bud Hermes-meyer and Clarence Ayers.

Donley County clerk P.C. Messer, judge Billie Christal, tax assessor Kay McCowan and commissioners Claude Moore, Gene White and Buford Holland were also present.

Another meeting has been planned when the representatives of the tax entities will be taking definitive action.

YOUR Bible has ANSWERS!

Send Bible-related Questions To Gene Basden, Box 79226

Explain in II Timothy 2:15 the phrase "rightly dividing the word of truth".

The meaning, regardless whether the King James Version or another is used depends directly upon how the phrase is connected to its context.

Other discussions about the same passage have arisen as an observation that some part of Scripture is to be preferred over another, in other words, the New Testament over the Old Testament. Such opinions arise from just exactly what the passage was written to counter.

The meaning of this passage begins as Paul in verse 14 instructs Timothy to "put them in remembrance and charge them...that they strive not about words to no profit." Verse 16 brackets this with "shun profane and vain babblings..."

In the original context of Paul's language, there seems to be a suggestion arising out of his trade—that of tentmaker. Such language for those who knew him this is completely in character. Notice in II Timothy 1:13, "Hold fast the form of sound words..." and then the "rightly dividing" of 2:15. The clearer sentence of our language would say in 1:13, "hold to the pattern" as if we were using a master to trace from, connecting it with the language of 2:15 to "cut without deviation"

The overall admonitions which Paul sent to this young evangelist are founded upon a background fabric of men's doctrines as they tried to make inroads into the fellowship of the early church. They, as many passages suggest, were jealous of the growth of the church and of the freedoms from enslaving rituals from pagan and temple-centered traditionalism. Jesus had taught, "God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" (John 4:24 NASV). This type of radical teaching aroused the indignation of the "religious" leaders of His day and this increased their determination to kill Him.

When Scripture is handled accurately it will show his origin, history, and destiny. It can show him the loving, merciful Father God of the Nation of Israel in the Old Testament and the Promised Son—Savior of the New Testament. Man can, by "retaining the pattern" have confidence and boldness, unashamed before God and man. Man can know whether he is to be commended or condemned, as God has given this Book—the Bible we call it—that we may know His will for us and the blessing or cursing when accepting or rejecting it.

The Bible is not a mystery to those who want to know the messages of its pages, see II Corinthians 4:3-4. Every page has application to God's Eternal Purpose and to take away meaning is to incur wrath from the throne-room of heaven!

"All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness..." II Timothy 3:16 NASV

A Moment for Meditation

By INEZ G. LAWRENCE

"To have respect of persons is not good." Prov. 28:21
To have respect of persons is quite different from having respect by persons. It is odd what a little preposition can do to the meaning of a thought.

Another Bible verse which says, "For there is no respect of persons with God" clears up what is meant by respect of persons. God does not show favoritism in salvation. He does not love one race of people more than He does another.

I visited a church recently where the pastor baptized eleven people during the service. The unusual thing about it was that all the eleven were Mexican and Vietnamese, and they hardly knew any English at all. That Anglo church is no respecter of persons in its ministry to the city.

Hostility between races actually has its roots in prejudice. Often this is a matter of language and culture barriers. Also we have a tendency to lump people into groups. But once we are better acquainted and become friends we lose the prejudice toward them.

The Bible commands us to root out of our minds such an attitude. There is a good reason for the command since to continue this is crippling to the one harboring it and demeaning to the person receiving it.

Respect of persons also grows out of status symbols. A certain area of town has more status than another. One profession is white collar and another is blue collar. We judge people by these standards, but they are unfair. They have nothing to do with character. No wonder the Bible forbids such attitudes. None of us is too much at best. Job said, "Naked came I out of my mother's womb and naked shall I return thither." Some friends once inquired at a rich man's funeral, "How much did He leave?" Came the reply, "Everything." The answer is sobering, but true for each one of us.

Gary Campbell returned to his home in Old Bridge, N.J. after a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Campbell.

Pete and Becky Campbell, Jeff Campbell, of Lubbock and Terry and Shelia Ellerbrook, of Amarillo spent Labor Day with the T. J. Campbells.

Several other family members and friends visited with Gary Campbell while he was in Clarendon. "No man's credit is as good as his money." E. W. Howe

Chinese fight cancer with herbs

COLLEGE STATION — Cancer-fighting herbs used in Chinese folk medicine might lead to an international exchange of scientists, says Texas A&M University scientist, Dr. S. L. Lee.

Under the proposed terms, these herbs, which have been used for centuries in China, will be sent to Texas A&M where they will be broken down into their various elements, and analyzed to determine which elements are the best cancer-fighters.

Bronchos lose 30-6

First game sluggishness combined with a tough Boys Ranch running game spelling doom for the Clarendon Broncos Friday night in a 30-6 loss to the Boys Ranch Rough Riders at the Ranch. However, Head Coach Ted Allen was pleased with many phases of the Bronco's play. "Our defense played well at times and I think that they are molding into a good unit," Allen cited a lack of experience as a key factor in the Bronco's sluggish start. "After counting the number of people on the field, only three have really seen any extended amount of varsity action. They played pretty well once the game got going. Our mental errors are just from inexperience. It also hurts when a guy like Brian Murray misses 10 days of work and Mickey McGuire misses the game." With line stalwart McGuire out, the Broncos were hurt some by a lack of bulk in the interior. He should be back by the Quannah game tomorrow.

The Broncos started out extremely tough on defense after the opening kickoff. Key plays by Tim Brown, Brian Murray, and Jay Lindley netted but two yards for the blue and gold clad hosts, and the Ranchers punted. The Broncos, on the other hand were hurt by an early holding call wiping out a picture perfect sideline pass from quarterback Lynn Thompson to tailback Alvin Reese. Other than that play, the Bronco first offensive series was stymied by an aggressive Rough Rider defensive attack led by end Armando Lopez and linebacker Ty Lightfoot. Following a 45 yard Thompson punt, the Rough Riders came out passing with quarterback Eddie Taylor hitting tight end Darwin Hudson with ten yard slant-in strike with the awesome Boys Ranch tandem of running backs, (Shawn Lightfoot and Lopez) leading the way, the Rough Riders drove to the 20 of Clarendon where Taylor, the rangy signal caller sprinted around right end for a touchdown. After Kyle Humphrey's extra point, Boys Ranch led 7-0.

After the ensuing kickoff, the Ranchers struck again intercepting Thompson's pass to tight end Tim Brown at the Boys Ranch 40. Two plays later, Taylor again kept around right end for the touchdown. Before the Boys Ranch crowd had quieted, they led 14-0.

Just before the end of the 1st quarter, Thompson hit tight end Randy White with an eight yard pass. White fumbled but pounced on it himself. The next three plays yielded negative yardage and the Broncos threw the dice and gambled with a fake punt-pass from short man Brad Thompson to Brown. The big tight end was just short of making the grab, and Clarendon gave up the ball on downs at their own 20.

The Clarendon defense held the Rough Riders out of the endzone for three straight downs before fullback Shawn Lightfoot rambled in from the three. A Kyle Humphrey field goal from 21 yards out ended the first half scoring and Boys Ranch nursed a 24-0 lead at the intermission.

The Broncos took the opening kickoff and marched down the field moving the ball well thanks to two fine runs by Thompson and tail back Bobby Weatherton. A 35 yard jaunt by Thompson, a 12 yard gain by Weatherton, and a 10 yard gain by Mark Jack took the ball to the Boys Ranch 11. The drive bogged down, however, and Boys Ranch took over deep in their own territory.

The Rough Riders did with the ball what they are famous for and that is rush. They staged a long drive to the Clarendon 20. A holding penalty and a tough Bronco defense drove them back to the 40 where on 4th and 30, Taylor hit Myron Bennett down. Lightfoot went in for his second tally of the night. Humphrey's kick was wide and with a 30-0 lead, the Rough Riders had iced the cake.

The Broncos were no through, though. Thanks to a 60 yard run by Mark Jack to the 10. The Broncos had another chance to avoid a shutout. Hosea Hearn and Thompson moved the ball to the four, and Jack carried it in for the only Clarendon score of the night.

For many teams the night might have been a back breaking type game. According to Allen, the Broncos are taking it as more of a lesson learned. "These guys know what they have to do," he stated, "They have a full season ahead and they are not the type of people who are going to let this set the

ART LINKLETTER (l) and Alex Cooke Jr. (r)

Alex K. Cooke named "Executive of the year"

Civic and business leader Alex K. Cooke was named "Executive of the Year" at the sixth annual Sales Executive Association awards banquet Thursday at which Art Linkletter was guest speaker.

Cooke has battled kidney disease during most of his professional career. He began working in the bookkeeping department of Homer G. Maxey & Company (now called Fields and Company) in 1947. He was named secretary-treasurer of the company in 1948, at about the same time he was told he had terminal kidney disease and probably no more than five years at home.

Today, 31 years later, Cooke is chairman of the board and a co-owner of Fields and Company and maintains an active life by giving himself kidney dialysis treatments at home.

Nine years ago when Cooke began to require dialysis treatment to stay alive, he was refused treatment in Dallas (the nearest treatment center) because of his age. He did receive treatment at the Mayo Clinic and after his dismissal he fought for Medicare coverage for kidney patients. Cooke is credited with being the founder of the South Plains Kidney Foundation and Dialysis Center, which now serves some 60 patients from the West Texas area, many of whom would have died without treatment.

Being a leader was a trait Cooke demonstrated early in his life. He was a star on the 1933 Clarendon championship football team and was valedictorian of Clarendon Junior College class of 1938. He then attended an aircraft school in Wichita, Kan., where he was president of his class and troop graduate in his class of 30 students.

Cooke worked for Beechcraft until 1944 when he joined the U.S. Navy. After his discharge, he entered Texas Tech University and graduated magna cum laude in 1947 with a degree in business administration. While at Tech, he lettered on the golf team, pledged the Silver Key Club and was a charter member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Cooke is a strong believer in administrative education and has developed many programs and seminars to teach dealers how to better operate and administer their business.

Cooke is the son of the late Thomas Barr Cooke and nephew of Helen Carr and Mary Cooke.

SAVING ENERGY IS MORE THAN JUST TURNING DOWN THE THERMOSTAT

With hospital costs soaring, administrators are constantly looking for new ways to make their hospitals more efficient and less costly to operate.

One of the newer tools hospitals are using to cut unnecessary costs is a system for measuring x-ray equipment performance called a pre-exposure computer. Developed by Machlett Laboratories of Stamford, Conn., the computer measures the precise amount of x-ray exposure necessary for a given procedure and powers the x-ray tube for only that very brief amount of time.

With x-rays, speed is important since the tube is often operated at extremely high power. The resulting heat can burn out the tube in a very short time costing the hospital thousands of dollars for each replacement.

Scoring Summary

B.R.-Taylor 19 run (Humphrey kick)
 B.R.-Taylor 60 run (Humphrey kick)
 B.R.-Lightfoot 3 run (Humphrey kick) tone for our season. They are a class bunch of guys and they know how to bounce back. They're keeping their wits about them."

Allen was also complimentary toward the Rough Riders. "They should win their district. They have good talent and a favorable schedule." He also singled out Scott Lewis and David Lane as the most outstanding offensive linemen, Dean Hawkins and Drew Thornberry at ends, Bobby Weatherton, Mark Jack, and Lynn Thompson as the outstanding backs. On defense, Allen cited Tim Brown, Terry Cole, and Jay Lindley for a good ball game.

"I was really pleased with the fact that we didn't just kill ourselves with mistakes. We didn't fumble very much and penalties didn't hurt that bad." But while the first game was somewhat of a disappointment, the Broncos of '79 are very talented at all positions. With the running game coming around, the kicking game doing well, the defense looking better, and the passing game sharpening, the 1979 edition of the Clarendon Broncos is like a diamond in the rough and they're going to make some things happen before this year is over.

Book Worm

Dr. H. Stocking has presented the library with a gift of several books. These books were given as a tribute to Helen Berenice Smith Stocking.

For those of you who enjoy reading about famous people we have books about the following: "Special People" by Julie Nixon Eisenhower Maotse-tung, Golds Meir, Prince Charles of England, Mrs. Billy Graham, Mamie Eisenhower and Anne Morrow Lindbergh are among the very "special people" that J. Eisenhower admires and writes about with remarkable skill and a unique personal knowledge.

"Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis" by Stephen Birmingham.

One of the most celebrated women in history and surely the most photographed woman of our time, Jacqueline Onassis has never the less remained an enigma to millions of Jackie watchers. But now S. Birmingham skillfully and sensitively delves behind the public mask of this endlessly fascinating woman to give us a richly detailed and compelling portrait.

"Aristotle Onassis" by the London Sunday Times Team.

Loved and hated, feared and revered, Onassis emerges as a brilliant, beguiling rogue-a man who in the end perhaps became the hero of his own Greek tragedy.

"Onassis" by Frank Brady

Onassis wanted to possess an American goddess, Jacqueline Kennedy, and he gave her more than a country, he gave her the world.

"A Time To Heal" by Gerald R. Ford

This is at once the autobiography of a political career and the human story of a dedicated by unassuming man propelled by history into taking on the immense burdens of the Presidency. Jerry Ford simply tells it as it was.

"Martha" by Winzola McLendon

The startling, behind the scenes story of what motivated Martha Mitchell and what really happened to her after the Watergate scandal broke.

The Memoirs of Richard Nixon

Nixon candidly analyzes his strengths and his weaknesses, his good-and his bad-decisions. Why did he do what he did? These are the things he tells us.

"Jimmy Carter, The Man and the Myth" by Victor Lasky

Here, by the author of some of the most controversial books of our times, is a critical analysis of the extraordinary rise of James Earl Carter, Jr.-better known as "Jimmy" to the Presidency of the United States.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for the appointment of notaries public for the state and for a term of not less than two years nor more than four years as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 133)

The proposed amendment would allow the Legislature to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds called "Farm and Ranch Loan Security Bonds" of the State of Texas not to exceed 10 million dollars. All money received from the sale of such bonds would be deposited in a separate fund with the State Treasurer and administered by the commissioner of agriculture without further appropriations. These funds would be used to guarantee loans for the purchase of farm and ranch real estate. The commissioner of agriculture would use these funds, under provisions to be prescribed by the Legislature for the purpose of guaranteeing loans used for the purchase of farm and ranch real estate, to acquire real estate mortgages or deeds of trust on lands purchased with guaranteed loans. These funds would also be used to advance to the borrower a percentage of the principal and interest due. The Legislature may also authorize the commissioner of agriculture to sell at foreclosure any land acquired in the manner authorized by this amendment. The commissioner of agriculture would be required to charge at least 6 percent interest on such loans. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the guarantee of loans for purchase of farm and ranch real estate for qualified borrowers by the sale of general obligation bonds of the State of Texas."

Canyon women author book exploring sites for weekend jaunts

Nine months and 24,000 miles later, the dream and work of two Canyon women is on Panhandle bookshelves. "Presenting the Texas Panhandle", a where-to-go, what-to-see and who-to-know guide to the upper 26 Texas counties, was published recently by Lana Barnett and Elizabeth Buhrkuhl.

The book developed, said Barnett, because she wanted to know what was interesting to see on weekend trips in the Panhandle. "When we moved back out here from Ft. Worth, I was wanting something to take with me on weekend trips, something that listed what there is to see. I called the library, asking if there was a compilation and they checked and didn't have anything like that," she explained. "I just thought about it for a year. I didn't have the money then." During that time, Barnett came to work for The Canyon News, helping prepare the county progress edition. She saw advertising as a way to finance the guidebook.

Barnett enlisted the aid of Buhrkuhl, a school teacher for 18 years, who has instructed from third grade through college level.

With the encouragement of Troy Martin, News publisher, they began work, gathering both advertisement and information. The result is a 198-page book with cover by Canyon artist Jim Ward and filled with historical photographs from the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Each county has a chapter devoted to it that includes a feature story of a current topic; a historical feature; a calendar of annual events; things to see and do; a list of interesting facts, both past and present; current and historical photographs. "We didn't write the book," they add. "We published it but we had contributing authors and did some of the writing."

In traveling the Panhandle, the major feature has been change, said Buhrkuhl. "We have not been in one county that there hasn't been a lot of changes, growth, industry, population, mostly for the better," she said.

"We've seen wildlife. We saw a herd of antelope between Peryton and Pampa," said Barnett. "We've had a ball. We've met people in all walks of life, in all age groups. We've met people in all kinds of business situations."

Texas wildflowers book offered

A colorful, 12-page catalog on Texas wildflowers, which lists 100 species and varieties of native plants, is now available—free!

All you have to do is send a long, self-addressed and stamped envelope to Green Horizons, 500 Thompson Drive, Kerrville, Tx 78028.

The mail-order firm owned by Carroll Abbott is the only one in Texas which deals exclusively in native plants.

The free cataloge also lists 20 books concerning wildflowers.

One page is filled entirely with Texas Bluebonnets, including four steps for successfully growing our state flower.

The simple steps are: Pre-soak the seeds; cover them with soil; firm the seedbed by tamping or walking on it; water gently, but well.

But, you need to plant Bluebonnets in packages ranging from 1,000 seeds up to 50 pounds, all of which contain full growing instructions.

More than two dozen other wildflowers are offered in ounce and pounds, a boon for wildflower enthusiasts who want to naturalize large areas.

The catalog gives the sowing rate for each of these species, plus the number of seeds per ounce—an invaluable growing aid.

In addition to the popular old favorites, such as Firewheel, Golden Wave and Paintbrushes, the catalog introduces dozens of rare plants which have never been offered before.

Besides annual and perennial wildflowers, the catalog also lists seeds of trees, shrubs and vines.

And, maybe best of all, it's free—for just a stamped envelope.

Paramedics

are from throughout the region. Only 18 Panhandle communities have Advanced Life Support units and Clarendon is one of these.

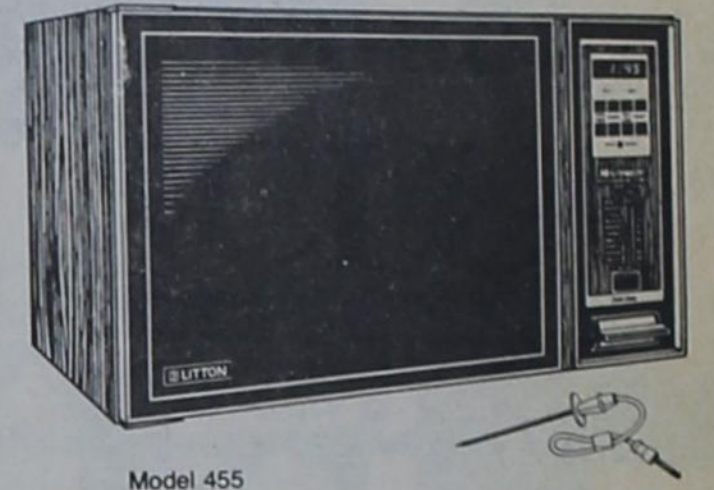

The volunteer EMT's, Paramedics, and other EMS personnel in Clarendon have handled approximately 110 responses since January 1, 1979.

The local EMS has recently purchased a cardiac monitor and defibrillator which is something that is very new to the people in this area. Until now, they were only seen in the hospitals. With the acquisition of this new equipment, the local ambulances are fully equipped for Advanced Life Support. The cardiac monitor will be the subject of a feature article in next week's Press.

Support your community EMS; the life they save could be YOURS!

Prevent Blindness month

The Texas Society to Prevent Blindness will put the state on a two-pronged "Lazy Eye Alert" during September, Prevent Blindness Month, in an effort to reach the more than 600,000 youngsters who have an eye problem that can be best treated in the preschool years. This major effort to "save the young eyes of Texas", as announced by Society president

Clymer Wright, Jr., of Houston, is in commemoration of TSPB's 25th birthday as well as being a Society contribution toward the International Year of the Child. "The first prong will consist of special vision screenings held from Houston to El Paso by volunteers trained by Prevent Blindness," he said.

"While the program is an ongoing one during which more than 36,000 children are screened each year, special emphasis will be given this year to expand general awareness of children's vision needs as well as to increase the total number screened."

Second prong of the "Lazy Eye Alert" will be the distribution of 200,000 of the Society's "Home Eye Test for Preschoolers". 100,000 of the tests have been printed as a public service project of Soroptomist International of Houston and will be sent to industrial and professional sites for distribution among employees. The second 100,000 have been printed by the Zale Corporation for distribution during September in the pharmacy departments of their 123 Skillern's Drug Stores.

"The Home Eye Test" is a simple-do-it yourself way for parents to check the vision of their preschoolers at home. It has proven a reliable indicator of vision problems," said Wright. "If the child fails the test, we advise the parents to then take the child for a professional eye examination." "Similarly, the trained screeners also notify parents whose children fail their vision tests that these children need a professional examination. The screeners, moreover, follow up for at least six months to make sure the child gets that examination."

The program has been named the "Lazy Eye Alert" because one of its primary purposes is the detection of an eye weakness known as amblyopia or "lazy eye". The Society warns that a lazy eye usually has no outward signs and that unless treatment for it is started by the age of six, a child can suffer permanent vision loss or even blindness in that eye.

The Texas Society to Prevent Blindness was established in 1954 as an affiliate of the National Society to Prevent Blindness.

COLLEGE STATION — In playing the market of hard money investments — rare stamps, coins, antiques, art and precious metals — a little homework goes a long way, says an investment expert at Texas A&M University.

"You've got to be careful," warns accounting professor Dr. Larry Crumbley. "There is a great deal of fraud edging up these days."

The number one investment buy last year came in the little-known oriental ceramics market, indicated a rating report from a New York investment firm. Other leaders on the list were diamonds, paintings by old masters and gold. Stocks and bonds were rated well down the list, behind farmland, housing and silver.

Marzell Russell services

Mrs. Marzell Cowan Russell, 55, died Monday, September 10, 1979.

Services were at Memorial Park Funeral Home.

Mrs. Russell, born in Esteline, moved to Amarillo 37 years ago from Clarendon. She graduated from Clarendon High School in 1942 and was a member of Sanborn Baptist Church in Amarillo.

Survivors include her husband, Fonston; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Doran of Amarillo

Are we the first?

At the beginning of man's recorded history, 5,000 years ago, a supposedly ignorant, savage, superstitious ancient race of people built a celestial computer modern man is just now able to understand.

Awesome, haunting, stangely beautiful, Stonehenge, in England, is an incredible feat of engineering; precise, incomprehensible to succeeding generations; observatory, computer, a permanent record of celestial knowledge in stone.

Presumably with no written mathematics, ancient man watched the skies and observed patiently.

In about 2600 B.C. the Great Pyramid of Cheops, still the world's largest stone structure, was built. It would cover four ordinary city blocks and stands 48 stories tall.

During the summer and fall, while the Nile was in flood and land couldn't be farmed, men carved 2 1/2 ton blocks of stone from quarry walls and floated 2,300,000 of them on rafts many miles down river to the site of the pyramid.

No carts with wheels were available for the task and no animals were available to carry or raise these loads. Yet the pyramid was built with the greatest precision. The sides face exactly north, south, east and west to an accuracy of better than 1/10 of one degree. The highest corner of the Great Pyramid is only 1/2 inch higher than the lowest corner.

Strangest of all, one shaft was left open which started near the Pharaoh's tomb and climbed upward at an angle of 31 degrees, pointing directly at the star Thuban, the north star at that time.

Long, very narrow temples were built enabling Egyptian priests to observe the star Sirius, which they call Isis. From the priests' observations they were able to predict to the day the annual flooding of the Nile valley.

The Maya of Central America, the Chinese and the Babylonians also observed the motions of the sun and moon so carefully they were able to predict eclipses thousands of years ago.

Who were these amazing people with such advanced astronomical knowledge. Surely not the savages of recorded history, with their complete lack of knowledge and tools.

Visitors to the Don Harrington Discovery Center can learn more of the amazing accomplishments of these early settlers when they view "Dawn of Astronomy" now showing at the Discovery Center on week-ends, Saturday's at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday's at 3:00 p.m. through November 17/18.

The Don Harrington Discovery Center is located on the Medical Center at the western edge of Amarillo across from High Plains Baptist Hospital.

VA regional News

The Veterans Administration is sifting through stacks of paper with the proverbial fine toothed comb these days.

What's at stake is millions of dollars in pension payments to more than half a million Americans.

It's all part of VA's careful effort to make sure that veterans and survivors applying to convert their pensions from the "old" plan to the new "improved" program don't lose money in the process.

That may sound like a contradiction in terms, but Congress decided last year that certain personal income that wasn't counted for pension purposes under the old plan would be counted under the newest one.

VA chief Max Cleland is reminding veterans and their survivors seeking to switch to the new pension plan that while the neediest among them will receive substantial pension increases, some others may not.

A veteran with a working wife, for example, and certain outside income of his own, might be better off with the "old" plan.

Because of this, VA has returned about 52 percent of the applications it's received to convert to the new plan.

"We take a careful look at each application and if the veteran or survivor stands to lose money, now or in the near future, by switching over, we send it back and ask him to reconsider the whole thing," Cleland said.

"The point is, we don't want anyone to make a change that's going to be costly to him."

For those pensioners who would benefit financially by converting to the improved plan, Cleland urged them to make their decision before October 1, if they want the new, higher pension rates to be retroactive to January 1, 1979.

"They can make the switch at any time," he said, "but the retroactivity feature ends on October 1."

VA pensions are based on income and go to eligible wartime veterans who are permanently and totally disabled from causes not traceable to their service, and who are in financial need.

Pensions are also paid to certain needy survivors of wartime veterans.

Cleland urged veterans or survivors who have questions about the differences between the new and old pension programs, and which would be best for them, to contact the nearest VA regional office.

Assistance in deciding whether to change to the new pension plan is also available from representatives of local veterans service organizations, and veterans county service officers.

MBA degree increases job potential

COLLEGE STATION — The MBA (master of business administration) degree is one of the hottest college credentials going today, probably second only to an engineering diploma in its ability to attract a job, said Dr. Carlton Stolle, assistant dean of the College of Business Administration at Texas A&M University.

Entering students in business at Texas A&M are up 28 percent over last year. The university's next largest increase is in engineering which expects a 14 percent increase.

"I don't see anything to slow the demand," said Stolle. "In some firms now it is a necessity to have an MBA just to get an entry level position."

Cattle raisers association news

Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association will extend membership to livestock and ranch-oriented businesses for the first time in its 102-year history beginning Sept. 1, says John B. Armstrong, president. "We feel that cattlemen and their agribusiness partners can deal more effectively with mutual problems and goals by pooling their resources and efforts," he said. "TSCRA is in its second century of service to cattlemen and with the enthusiasm, growth potential and clout 'allied industry' membership will provide, this Association can do an even better job."

The new membership will cost $250 a year and is tax deductible.

The mainstream of TSCRA allied industry membership is expected to come from animal health product suppliers, feed and grain dealers, commodity firms, automobile dealerships, equipment distributors, agricultural chemical companies and lending institutions at a local, state and national level, he said. "Allied industry members will be able to display their support of the cattle industry and their customers, in particular, with an attractive wall plaque, window decal and membership card," Armstrong

Jim Kelley, membership chairman, TSCRA, 410 E. Weatherford, Fort Worth, Texas 76102.
