NANCY SELVIDGE

Nancy Selvidge announces for office

Nancy Selvidge, who is announcing her candidacy for Donley County tax assessor-collector lists her qualifications and asks for the support of the voters of Donley County.

Mrs. Selvidge has been a resident of the county for five years. She grew up in Stinnett and after finishing school there graduated from Amarillo Dental Hygiene School, completing the four year course in three years.

She worked in her professional field and in various offices where, along with other duties, she did bookkeeping. When she and her husband, Leonard Selvidge, owned and operated John's clothing store Nancy was a part of the staff. One of the most enjoyable things about a retail business, she confides, is the chance to see and communicate with people.

Nancy works in her community's interests and served for two years as chairman of the Girl Scouts and one year as the chairman for Cystic Fibrosis in their fund drives. Nancy Selvidge, is a mother, and home maker to two children full time and given the opportunity to four children.

Donley County help for energy

Clarendon and Hedley Volunteer Fire Departments were in need of Rural fire fighting trucks. After becoming aware of the situation the Commissioners Court voted to help both departments out. Both Departments are buying new trucks with the County paying $200.00 per out of city limits fire plus $4.00 per man responding to the fire. After the trucks are paid for the county will pay $200.00 for each out of city limits fire.

Along with Hedley and Clarendon city officials, the County officials feel that for all citizens of Donley County to be provided fire protection the people volunteering their time toward this objective should be provided trucks they can rely on along with needed equipment and protective clothing to help prevent injury to the fireman.

Both the Hedley and Clarendon Volunteer Fire Departments, feel very fortunate to have County and City officials that support their cause.

Unfortunately inflation has hurt volunteer organizations as well as County and City governmental bodies. The cost of specialized equipment needed for fire fighting along with the cost of fuel and maintenance is extremely expensive.

The volunteers of these fire departments are dedicated toward helping the citizens of Donley County and surrounding areas in time of need and will respond with all available personnel and equipment 24 hours a day.

All donations to help pay for these trucks will be greatly appreciated. Leave donations toward the Clarendon truck at either the Clarendon City Hall or the County Judges office. For donations toward the Hedley truck leave them at the Hedley City Hall or the County Judges office. Donations can be given to any Volunteer Fireman.

Broncos complete first half play

The Clarendon Broncos split District 2A games during the past week, defeating the Wellington Skyrockets 75-59 on January 22 and later losing to the Panhandle Panthers by thirteen points, 54-67. The Panhandle game completed first half play in District 2A, with Broncos finishing at 3-2.

In what was perhaps their best performance of the season, the Broncos downed Wellington in a game that was fast-paced throughout. After battling to a 16-16 stalemate after a quarter, the home team Broncos edged out in front by five at half, 33-28. Utilizing a pressing defense throughout second half play, the Broncos pulled away to a 52-40 lead at the three quarters mark before finishing up at 75-59. Balanced scoring was the order of the night, as five Clarendon players scored in double figures. Ken Jones hit 10 of 15 shots from the field and 2 of 2 free throws to lead scoring with 22 points. Alvin Reese hit 7 of 8 from the field for 14 points and had 9 rebounds. Lynn Thompson added 12 points, while Lance Thornberry and Brad Thompson each had 10 markers. Brian Murray and Tim Brown rounded out scoring with 4 and 3 points.

Last Friday night the Panhandle Panthers used superior size and experience, together with ice-cold Bronco shooting, to down Clarendon. Although the Broncos led by a basket at the Quarter (17-15), the Panthers slipped into the lead, 29-24, at halftime. Panhandle pulled away to 50-36 lead going into the last period, but the Broncos refused to quit and cut that margin in half before being forced to foul in order to kill the clock and attempt to regain possession of the ball. The Broncos were led by Ken Jones and Lynn Thompson with 17 and 16 points, Jones also had 11 rebounds, as did Alvin Reese. Brad Thompson added 7 points and 5 rebounds, while Tim Brown had 6 points. Scoring was completed by Reese and Drew Thornberry with 4 apiece. Lance Thornberry added 6 rebounds to the Bronco totals before fouling out.

Next action for the Broncos came on the past Tuesday with Shamrock and on Friday, February 1, with Memphis.

Cotton harvest grinds to end

Cotton is still a number one crop in the area and prospects for the continued expansion of the cotton growers planting acreage is almost a sure thing.

Earl Shields, of Paymaster Gin in Lelia Lake relates the incident of the cotton grower in Pampa who called his gin for harvest information. Artie Sailor, planted in the neighborhood of 400-500 acres of cotton this year and Shields sent module trucks to bring it down and have it ginned at the Memphis and Brice facilities. The last cotton brought in was ginned at Lelia Lake and the grade was superior. This cotton was planted between 16-19 of June, 1979, and was a short season variety. Next year it is estimated there will be about 4,000 acres of cotton planted in the Pampa-White Deer area. Shields also reports an improvement of the mike in the late cotton.

At the Lelia Lake Paymaster Gin 9,000 bales were ginned with an additional 2,000 bales being sent to Memphis and Brice to the Paymaster Gins there. They lack only 200-250 bales to complete this past years harvest.

A telephone interview with W.B. Wiggins, manager of West Texas Gin in Hedley, several days ago brought the information that they had ginned 5,660 bales to date and at the time had 30-50 more bales to gin. Wiggins reported production better than last year but agrees with other ginners that

1979 Pecan crop largest ever

While the Texas pecan crop is expected to set production records, the situation is not as bright in most of the other top pecan producing states. Crops in Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, and Louisiana were damaged severely by Hurricane Frederick. And Georgia, which historically has been the top pecan-growing state in the country, may lose this distinction to Texas this year.

Pecans are nutritious
The pecan is very nutritious - an excellent source of protein and carbohydrates and the oil of the pecan is one of the most highly saturated known. Like other nuts, pecans contain protein, iron, vitamins A and B, thiamine, riboflavin and niacin. And since the amount of sodium in pecans is too low to measure, they can be used to add flavor and texture to foods in low sodium diets.

Pecan storage and usage
While pecans are harvested during the fall months, they are easily stored for year-round enjoyment. Pecans maintain freshness longer when unshelled, storing up to one year in the refrigerator, shelled, up to nine months. Pecans may be frozen as long as two years, either shelled or unshelled. For freezing, put pecans in tightly covered freezer containers or plastic bags. After thawing, pecans should be allowed to dry before using. At room temperature, unshelled pecans will stay fresh for four months. Shelled for two months.

Unless you have lots of time, buying shelled pecans may be more practical because the valuable time required for shelling makes them worth the higher price. If you choose to shell your own, you can usually expect about 1 pound (4 1/2 cups) of shelled pecans from 2 pounds of unshelled. If you plan to use pecans for cooking, remember that pecans pieces usually cost less than halves. Since it's not always easy to remove perfect halves when shelling pecans you may want to try this method: Soak the unshelled pecans 6 to 8 hours in a salt solution (1/2 cup salt to 3 quarts cold water). Then drain and crack the nuts.

County Pecan Shows
County pecan shows, staged by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service of the Texas A & M University System, have played a major part in focusing attention on the pecan. These shows, which this year were held in 51 Texas counties from December 2-14, included pecan grading demonstrations, exhibits of pecan crafts, food exhibits and table arrangements.

Texas pecan week
In recognition of the state's largest pecan crop ever, the week of December 2 was declared "Texas Pecan Week" by Texas Department of Agriculture Commissioner, Reagan Brown. During this week attention was focused on pecans in schools, by home economics organizations, newspaper and grocery stores where consumers found abundant supplies of pecans costing less than last year.

Anticipating the abundant pecan crop, Imperial Sugar Company and TAP (Texas Agriculture Products), the marketing wing of the Texas Department of Agriculture, joined forces and developed a special Texas Pecan Pie recipe. The recipe, with a taste and aroma as exhilarating as the brisk days of a November pecan harvest, was featured by home economists appearing on television shows, in demonstrations at county pecan shows as well as on specially marked cartons of Imperial Dark Brown Sugar.

Following is the special Texas Pecan Pie recipe created especially for this year's traditional holiday baking season:

Texas pecan pie
Crust
1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup shortening
3 tablespoons water
Mix flour and salt together; add shortening and cut into flour with fork or pastry blender. Add water and mix gently with fork in stirring motion. Gather pastry into a ball and place in pie tin. With tips of fingers, spread pastry along bottom and sides of pie tin, shaping a high, fluted edge. Makes one 9" pie shell.

Filling
1 1/2 cups Imperial Brown Sugar (firmly packed)
1/2 cup Imperial Granulated Sugar
1/4 cup water
2 tbs. all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1/2 cup pecan halves
3/4 teaspoon vanilla
Combine first five ingredients in small bowl and mix well. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Add evaporated milk and mix well. Stir in pecan halves and vanilla. Mix well and turn into unbaked 9" pie shell. Cook in preheated 400 degrees F. oven for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and cook an additional 35 to 40 minutes, or until filling is puffed in center and is well browned. Let pie cool before cutting.

Texas Pecan Pie is one of Imperial Sugar's newest recipes. Copies of other pecan recipes and information about other free recipes and free cookbooks are available from Imperial Sugar Company, P. O. Box 500, Sugar Land, Texas 77478.

Employers should file Copy A of form W-2

Employers should file Copy A of Form W-2, "Wage and Tax Statement," furnished to their employees with the Social Security Administration (SSA) and not with the Internal Revenue Service. Texas employers should send these copies of the wage statements by first class mail to Social Security Administration, Albuquerque, NM 87180.

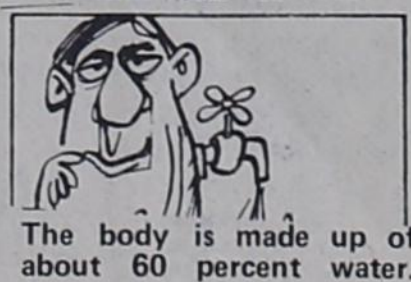

Form W-3 should accompany all mailings of Form W-2 to the SSA. Both Forms W-2 and W-3 are available from local IRS offices and should be filed by February 29, 1980 for wages paid in 1979.

If an employer's payroll includes several individual business establishments, the copies of Form W-2 should be grouped separately for each establishment. Each group should then be sent to the SSA with its own Form W-3.

An employer may use several packages if the number of forms to be mailed is unwieldy. The number of packages being sent should be written below the title on Form W-3 and placed in the first package. The employer's name should be put on each package which should also be numbered in order.

Employers who wish to learn more about Federal employment tax responsibilities can attend Small Business Tax Workshops co-sponsored by IRS and area colleges. Call IRS toll-free for further information about the Small Business Tax Workshops.

Cattlemen registering self-help program

"Cattle producers can do something to help themselves and assure a better future for their industry," says O.J. Barron, Spur, Texas rancher and co-chairman of the Texas Beef referendum. "They can vote on a self-help program of beef research, information and market development."

To vote, Feb. 19-22, cattlemen must register at their ASCS office before Feb. 6. They may register and vote absentee, however, by requesting both forms from the ASCS office. Any person who owned cattle during 1979 is entitled to vote. "Beef referendum is a national movement by cattlemen, seeking to help themselves," says Barron. "It's a cattlemen's program all the way--initiated by cattlemen, to be financed by cattlemen and run by cattlemen--all aimed at helping cattlemen."

"If approved by a majority of those voting, 20c out of each $100 value added to an animal will be deducted at sale time," explains Barron, "but those not wishing to participate may request a refund and get it immediately."

The funds raised, estimated at $40 million per year, says Barron, will be used to fight anti-beef propaganda...promote the nutritional value of beef... combat beef substitutes...counter extremes in the cattle cycle...expand foreign markets...and increase demand for beef. "We are disappointed," he said, "that some self-serving leaders are opposing the self-help program by cattlemen. They either are misinformed about the program or are intentionally and maliciously attempting to mislead cattlemen."

"Contrary to their misleading claims," he continued, "this program will be run by cattlemen and cattlemen only--through a Beef Board of 60 cattlemen nominated by existing cattlemen's organizations."

The Secretary of Agriculture will have only an oversight role, he added, to assure that producer funds are used to improve beef markets in accordance with the law. Refunds will be made promptly--within 60 days after a valid request is made, Barron said, no extra records will be required, no fines will be levied unless there is fraud or other violation of the law.

"Cattlemen need this program," concludes Barron, "our current efforts, through the National Live Stock & Meat Board, are not adequate to fight the anti-beef propaganda--that beef causes cancer or heart disease. These false claims, by activists and government, are eroding our markets. If cattlemen don't respond, if we cattlemen aren't willing to help ourselves, nobody else is going to."

Mrs. Deahl gave the feature number of the program, "A Woman's Prophecy 500 Years Ago." It was written in verse by an Englishwoman, Mother Ship-ton. She was born in England forty-three years before Columbus made his trip to the New World. The things she prophesied were amazing. She foretold horseless carriages, disasters, trips around the world, ships going beneath the ocean, flight through the air, wars, women wearing pants, and working along-side men. She foretold storms in 1926. It was unbelievable that this could have been written at that time by a woman. It was published in the Memphis paper a number of years ago and preserved by Mrs. Taylor.

The hostesses, Mrs. Dannie Bernardin and Mrs. Ethel Kinslow served cake, coffee and nuts to their guests after the program.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Ethel Kinslow, Mrs. John Hinds, Mrs. Royce Williams, Mrs. Tom Wilson, Mrs. Cullen Taylor, Mrs. Nell Land, Mrs. Donnie Bernardin, Mrs. Myrtella Deahl, Mrs. Omie Simmons and Mrs. Vera Mae Petty.

The next meeting will be at the Lions' Den on February 27th at 3 p.m.

What's burning in Maurine's Kitchen

By MAURINE BUTTS

Well, if you have made it this far, it means that you have survived all the turkey and dressing from November and December. Now your family is expecting something different and you have run out of ideas. Here are some new and exciting recipes that are definitely different, but not so different that the family will not enjoy them.

Sukiyaki
1 lb boneless beef sirloin
1/2 cup soy sauce or Teriyaki sauce
1 can (1 lb) bean sprouts, drained
1 can (8 oz) bamboo shoots, drained and sliced
1 can (4 oz) sliced mushrooms, drained

- 1/2 cup sliced green onions
- 1/2 cup beef broth
- 1 tbs. sugar
- Cut cooked rice.
- Cut meat across the grain into thin strips. Place meat and soy sauce in a 12x8x2 inch glass baking dish. Cover with plastic wrap and marinate in the refrigerator several hours or overnight. Do not drain before cooking.
- Cover and microwave meat 4 to 5 minutes or until partially cooked. Stir once during cooking. Push meat to one side of dish and arrange vegetables in separate sections in the dish. Combine broth and sugar. Pour over meat and vegetables. Recover with plastic wrap. Microwave 4 to 6 minutes or until hot. Baste meat and vegetables, several times with liquid in bottom of dish cooking. Let stand 3 to 5 minutes before serving. Serve over hot rice. Makes four servings.
- Rice Pilaf
2 tbs butter
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1 can chicken broth
- 1 can (4 oz) mushroom stems
- 1 3/4 cups pre-cooked rice
- 1 tbs parsley flakes
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp black pepper
- Place butter onion and celery in a 2 quart glass casserole dish. Cover and microwave 3 to 5 minutes, or until tender. Stir in chicken broth and mushrooms. Cover and microwave 5 to 6 minutes or until it boils. Stir in remaining ingredients. Cover and let stand 5 minutes or until the liquid is absorbed by the rice.
- Egg Drop Soup
2 eggs
1 tsp soy sauce
1/2 cup all purpose flour
1/2 tsp salt
2 cans chicken broth
2 soup cans water
1/2 cup chopped green onions tops
- In a small bowl, beat together eggs and sauce. Stir in flour and salt until smooth. Set aside.

Four broth and 2 soup cans of hot tap water into a 3 quart glass casserole dish. Cover and microwave 16 to 18 minutes or until broth comes to a boil. Press egg mixture through a colander into hot broth. Stir until egg drops are set. Garnish with the chopped green onion tops.

The above recipes are from the Hardwick Microwave Cookbook.

I would like to finish up the candy recipes. The Divinity is from West Texas Utilities Cookbook.

Divinity
3 cups granulated sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup water
1/4 tsp salt
2 egg whites
1/4 tsp vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts

In a 3 quart bowl cook sugar, syrup and water on high for 12 to 13 minutes until it spins a fine thread. Add salt to the egg whites and beat them on high until stiff. Slowly pour syrup mixture in a thin stream into the egg whites, beating constantly until mixture loses its shine and thickens. Stir in vanilla and nuts, drop by teaspoons at once on waxed paper. Makes about 30 pieces.

I would like to thank Kathie Rushing for her recipe on Dill Bread, which is below, and her tip in using the microwave oven to warm her damp towels in giving oneself a hot oil treatment. Please note that the following is not a microwave recipe.

Dill Bread
2 1/2 cup flour
2tbs sugar
1 tbs instant minced onion
2 tsp dill weed
1 tsp salt
1/4 tsp baking soda 1 pkg. active 1 pkg active dry yeast
1 cup cream style cottage cheese
1/4 cup water
1 tbs butter
1 large egg

In a large bowl stir together 1 cup of the flour, the sugar, onion, dill, salt, soda and yeast. In small sauce pan, heat water, butter and cottage cheese until very warm (115 degrees to 120 degrees, F); add to flour mixture along with egg. Beat at low speed until dry ingredients are moistened; Beat at medium speed 3 minutes. With wooden spoon, stir in enough flour to make a stiff dough. Cover with plastic and let rise 1 hour. Stir down. Turn into greased 1 1/2 quart round casserole and let rise 30 to 45 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes.

Report from Comptroller Bob Bullock office

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said the Federal Communications Commission has granted a license for a statewide radio communications system designed to save time and money for the Comptroller's office.

He said the system will bring the Comptroller's office in line with 11 other state agencies who are users of radio communications systems.

"We'll be able to instantly dispatch enforcement officers to meet taxpayer needs and at the same time increase tax collections. These two-way radios will be as important to our collection folks as the computers are to our auditors," Bullock said.

Bullock stepping up effort to collect student loans

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said he is stepping up efforts to collect more than $1.2 million in delinquent joint state-federal student loans for seven Texas colleges and universities.

Bullock said 1,802 persons have been identified as being overdue in the repayment of loans from the National Direct Student Loan program.

The defaulters will join some 400 other former students who owe money to the state's Hinson-Hazelwood program who won't receive state salary checks or other payments until they have settled up their education debts.

He said 235 persons who owe the NDSL program money also owe the Hinson-Hazelwood program for student loans.

"A computer cross-check showed that we've got a few double-dippers who have now become double-defaulters," Bullock said.

State law prohibits anyone owing the state a debt from receiving state payments.

Bullock said he will continue to hold checks to anyone due state money until the college debts are resolved.

The University of Texas at Austin had the largest number of defaults--1,201, totaling $748,239. Other schools and loan defaults include, East Texas State University, 203, $190,116; UT Health Science Center at San Antonio, 16, $4,781; Lamar University, 96, $65,851; Midwestern State University, 14, $10,851; University of Texas at Arlington, 201, $169,882; and Southwest Texas State University, 71, $39,818.

Bullock has cleared up more than two million dollars in debts in the state's Hinson-Hazelwood program since last September by holding up checks to over 1,000 defaulters.

In August last year, the Texas College and Coordinating Board held loan defaults worth more than $39.9 million under the Hinson-Hazelwood program from loans to 24,685 former students.

Bullock decided to help colleges and universities collect delinquent National Direct Student Loans after federal efforts to recoup the loans were sidetracked by the U.S. Senate's defeat of a proposal to allow the Internal Revenue to deduct loans from tax refunds.

The system is expected to decrease mileage and travel costs by as much as $125,000 in the first year of operation and could bring in as much as $2.5 million in additional revenue annually.

Bullock said the operating costs for the radio system during 1980 will run about $155,000.

"This is a day-to-day management tool that we estimate can save as much as two hours a day in unproductive time for each enforcement officer," he said.

The system will keep some 500 enforcement officers and auditors from shuffling back and forth from offices because it allows them to send and receive information by radio either from field offices or the department's headquarters in Austin, Bullock said.

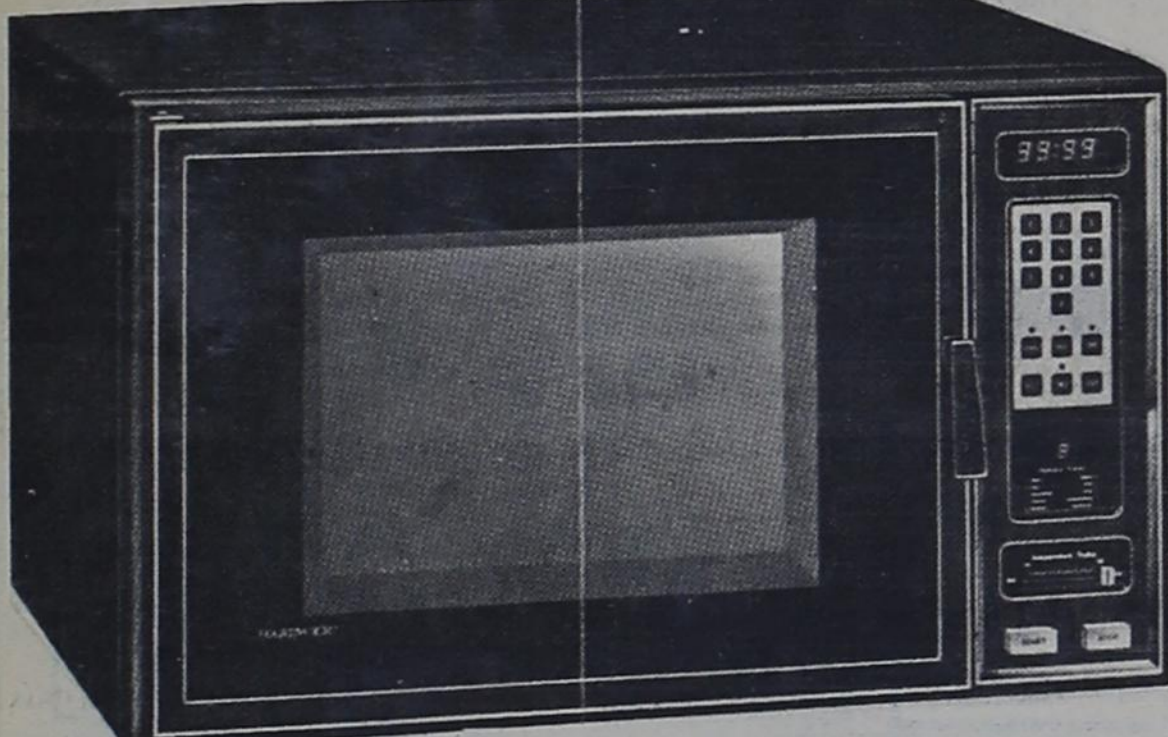

"We can better keep track of our employees between assignments and reschedule their work when needed whether they are in a car, on a job or drinking coffee somewhere," he said.

Because state law requires much tax information to be kept confidential, the radio system will include a "scrambler".

It will be impossible for anyone to monitor or eavesdrop on somebody else's tax business, Bullock said.

The system is expected to be substantially operational by early spring.

Vernon Watkins mother is in the hospital at Pampa. Speck and Juanita Cole, were here a few days, getting the insurance straightened out, on their home that burned last Sunday.

Hear we are going to have some old neighbor, for new neighbors again. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Castner are moving back to Howardwick.

Phil Moreman wins a second Stock Show

A strong set of junior Hereford females were paraded at the 1980 Amarillo Stock Show before Judge Dr. Bob Kropp of Oklahoma State University.

Chad Breeding, Miami, Texas, claimed the top honor in the 35 head show. His entry came from the senior heifer calf class on B & C Ms L1 Domino 425, calved September 5, 1978.

The reserve champion Hereford heifer was shown by Brett Barber, Channing, Texas. His entry, BR L1 Adv Ann 8064, calved May 27, 1978, was the first place summer yearling heifer.

Shanna Dummerour, Dalhart, Texas, was the winner of the light weight class with a 940-pound entry.

One of the second-place winners in the female and steer divisions was Phil Moreman, Clarendon, Texas, on Ms Golden Axtell 142, junior heifer calf.

Wanda Holman Skinners employee of the week

Wanda Holman, shop foreman at Texas Saddlery, is one of the first employees of the company in Clarendon. She is a working wife and mother of four children, gardens, cans and freezes the gardening fruits, rises at 5 a.m. each morning and pursues her hobbies of sketching and leather tooling and is adding art to the list with the addition of night classes at Clarendon College.

Wanda is a source of never ending energy it seems and after putting in a full day at Texas Saddlery she makes cinches at home. For her the activity in its endless variety is a way of life. She was one of 17 children her father raised in his two marriages and in a family of that size everyone works.

When Wanda was ready to begin the first grade she lived across and south of Mulberry Creek in Briscoe County. That is the school district attached to Donley County and when the school bus did not run Wanda did not go to school that year. She was asked what she did at that age when she was unable to go to school. "I guess I worked," she said, "I don't remember anything else."

Perhaps her capacity to work, and enjoy it, is one of the reasons she is the shop foreman at Texas Saddlery. Mrs. Holman began her employment with the company before their move to Clarendon from Amarillo was complete. She drove back and forth from late May 1977 until the move was completed in June of the same year. During all the time with Texas Saddlery Wanda has had an excellent attendance record.

Wanda shares her work with her husband who is also employed at the company and is the general foreman. Her work is physically demanding and once she cracked a bone in her left wrist. There was no slowdown on the job though and she wore a leather wrist brace until the bone healed. The only injury she has sustained was when she was scuffling with her husband and the fun got a little rough and she wound up with a broken right wrist, even with the broken wrist in a cast six weeks she worked. There is understandably little of that kind activity at Skinner's Texas Saddlery. There is a lot of comradliness as is evidenced by covered dish lunches during bad weather when everyone brings a dish of favorite food from home and stays in at noon and for birthdays when mouthwatering cakes appear (with some regularity because of the number of employees) and disappear as if by magic.

Wanda Holman likes her job and supervises an average of 10 persons. She runs her home with the good help (she declares) of her four children; Barbara 17, Mark 16, Billy 14 and Vicky 12.

Texas Saddlery is a wholesale establishment and Clarendon residents are not able to meet their employees across the counter. Area and city residents know most of them for all the employees are local persons and Wanda Holman, Mrs. Homer Holman, is the first Employee of the Week.

Letter to Editor

To concerned citizens of Donley County, especially members of the community churches

Is the pre-kindergarten class program too much to ask of a church? It is important to over 20 families who have expressed delighted interest in it! Most small Panhandle towns have such classes, why not Clarendon? All the interested parents are prepared to pay monthly fees for the classes if the price is fair and justified. It looks as if one of community's largest churches could approve such an excellent program, but failing this, perhaps one of our smaller churches cares enough to at least explore the possibility. Nearly all Clarendon churches have space or some facilities - there is enough community interest and cooperation to make the project feasible!

We need these classes NOW, say the mothers of 20 pre-kindergarten youngsters, but we want to set a precedent for the up and coming children of our community. We are looking to the future of our Clarendon children, are you?

Signed,
Mrs. Lanny Moffett

Fine pearls are obtained from an inedible oyster of the genus Meleagrina that lives in warm parts of the Pacific. Edible oysters never produce valuable pearls.

Joining Hightower and Clayton on the program will be State Rep. Bob Simpson of Amarillo; Harvey Davis, executive director of the Texas Department of Water Resources; and John Specht, president-elect of the National Water Resources Association.

The program will examine recent developments in water policy on the state and national levels and the implications of water importation.

Since the organization was founded in 1967, Water, Inc., has supported water importation as the solution to offset declining groundwater supplies on the High Plains of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. Unless groundwater supplies in the region are eventually augmented, the area's agricultural productivity, which relies extensively on irrigation, will be significantly diminished.

Water, Inc., is supported entirely by the voluntary membership contributions of 1,500 individuals and businesses from throughout the region. Membership in the non-profit corporation is open to all persons interested in assuring a solid future for the High Plains.

Energy Saving tips on Electric Heating.

Check your thermostat setting. Recommended temperature setting for winter heating is 68°. Remember, the lower you set the thermostat in the winter the lower your energy cost.

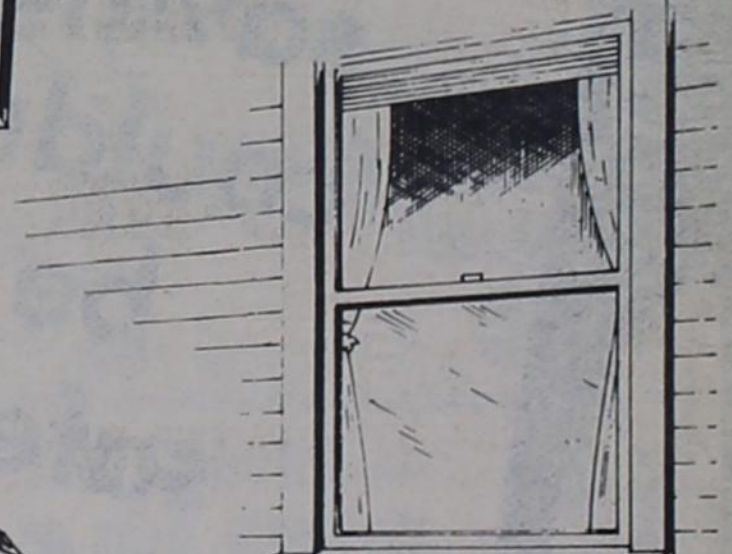

Have your heating system checked regularly! Proper servicing is good preventive maintenance.

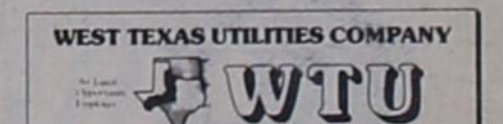

Keep filters clean. Check the filter every 30 days on forced-air systems. If filter is permanent, clean it by manufacturer's directions, if it's disposable, replace when dirty.

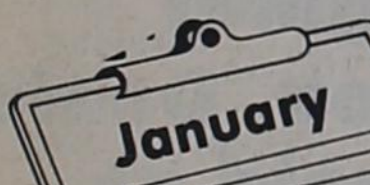

Have your home properly insulated! Adequate home insulation keeps the warmth in, cuts energy use... can pay for itself by lowering heating (and cooling) costs.

Use the warmth of the sunshine! On sunny days open the drapes. The sun shining through the glass will supply additional heat at no cost.

Remember, Reddy Supplies the Energy, only you can use it wisely!

Senator Bentsen reports from Washington

Senator Lloyd Bentsen on Tuesday said a compromise reached by conferees on the so-called windfall profits tax will save $35 billion for smaller, independent oil producers.

what the compromise on the Bentsen amendment is a big victory not only for independent producers but for increased domestic production -- and for reduced dependence on uncertain, expensive foreign oil imports," Bentsen said after agreement was reached. "Independent producers drill over 90 percent of the exploratory wells in this country. Over the years they have reinvested $105 for every $100 they have generated in revenues. That means the $35 billion we have saved them in this tax bill will translate into $37 billion worth of drilling activity."

The House version of the windfall profits tax gave no special exemption to independent producers. In addition, it curtailed the depletion allowance, limiting it to only the present controlled price of oil. The Senate bill included the Bentsen amendment, which exempted from the tax the first 1,000 barrels per day of oil produced in the United States by an independent producer. In addition the Senate, with Bentsen leading the fight, defeated a proposal to curtail the depletion allowance.

The compromise reached Tuesday allows the full percentage depletion allowance. It also establishes a 50 percent tax on oil from tiers one and two on the first 1,000 barrels a day produced by an independent, compared to a 70 percent tax rate for all other production of tier one and two oil; and a 30 percent tax on the first 1,000 barrels an independent produces from stripper wells, compared to a 60 percent tax for other stripper well production.

A 30 percent tax rate applies across the board for newly discovered oil, tertiary production and heavy oil production. "The fact is that the House bill would have assessed a $57 billion tax on independent producers, to the detriment of increased oil production in this country," Bentsen said.

"We cut that back to $22 billion in conference and, while it's not as good as the original Bentsen amendment, it is a savings of $35 billion that will prove very helpful in efforts to reduce our dependence on foreign oil," Senator Bentsen said.

Deductions for auto change in 1979

Taxpayers can no longer deduct state and local taxes imposed on gasoline, diesel, or other motor fuels. However, persons who itemize their deductions may still claim other expenses incurred when using their automobile for business, charitable, medical and in some instances, moving purposes. Those who keep records of actual costs may claim operating expenses and fixed expenses, such as depreciation and insurance, for business use of their automobile.

Instead of claiming actual expenses, taxpayers may use an optional mileage allowance method. Taxpayers can deduct 18.5 cents for each mile driven for business purposes, and eight cents per mile for charitable, medical, or moving expenses. In all instances, parking and toll fees may be claimed in addition to the mileage rate.

Information concerning automobile deductions appears in the instructions accompanying the tax forms.

Windbreaks reduce wind currents: Part of the air current is diverted over the top of the trees and part of it filters through the trees. Farmstead, livestock, and wildlife windbreaks should be relatively dense and wide to give maximum protection close to the trees. Field, orchard, and garden-type windbreaks need not be so wide and dense.

Texas Farm Bureau joins legal action against loneshorem

The Texas Farm Bureau has joined in a legal action against loneshorem because Texas grain farmers have so much at stake in moving grain, according to Carrol Chaloupka, Dalhart Cattle and grain producer and president of the TFB.

Charges have been filed in efforts to force East Coast and Gulf Port loneshorem to load grain shipments bound for the Soviet Union under unfulfilled agreements that are not part of president Carter's embargo.

The American Farm Bureau Federation and the Texas and Kansas Farm Bureaus on Jan. 23 filed secondary charges against the International Loneshorem's Association.

Charges were filed with the Houston office of the National Labor Relations Board. A secondary boycott is an illegal union action against parties not directly involved in a labor dispute.

Voting delegates to the AFBF annual meeting earlier this month in Phoenix backed President Carter's embargo of 17 million metric tons of grain to the Soviet Union.

However, the grain loneshorem are refusing to load is not part of the embargoed 17 million tons, Chaloupka said. It is part of an 8-million-ton commitment made in a 1975 agreement between the United States and Russia, he explained. Approximately 2.8 million tons of the 8-million-ton commitment remain to be shipped, Chaloupka said.

Under NLRB procedures, an investigation will be launched. If the general counsel of the NLRB finds "reasonable cause" to believe that the law has been violated, the federal court will be petitioned for an injunction to force the loneshorem to load the grain bound for the Soviet Union.

The charges filed are similar to those filed by Farm Bureau in 1975. Those charged resulted in a court order restraining the ILA from interfering with grain shipments to the USSR at that time.

The AFBF national convention was held two days after President Carter announced the partial embargo of 17 million tons of grain. Convention delegates adopted a seven-point emergency policy to deal with the problems caused by the embargo.

Those recommendations asked the Federal government to offer wheat and feed grains loan and target price programs to all producers, place the 17 million tons in isolation with staggered release through the 1980-81 season, establish acreage diversion programs to reduce cropland by 17 million tons, step up agricultural alcohol production, and provide low interest loans to holders of commodities not sold because of the embargo.

Farmstead windbreaks selection

Evergreens are a necessity when selecting trees for a windbreak. They are long-lived, provide maximum protection during the winter and are dense foliage year-round. They also make the windbreak more attractive.

Wildlife should be considered and in-turn the planting of trees and shrubs beneficial to them. These include hackberry, honeylocust, Russian olive, caragana, lilac, honeysuckle, plum, sumac, cherries and Hansen rose. Most windbreak species do well on bottomland and irrigated sites, while relatively few survive on dry uplands where no supplemental water is available. A shrub row needs to be included in the windbreak. It will provide a low, dense barrier and cause blowing snow to pile up instead of sweeping through. This will add a supplemental water source which adds to tree growth vigor and lifespan. Keep in mind that tree height determines the extent of the area protected. Wind velocities are reduced approximately 50% to a distance of 10 times the height of the windbreak. The Soil Conservation Service personnel are willing to assist you in selecting the correct species for your windbreak.

The Lion's Tale

By GENE ALDERSON

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular meeting at noon on Tuesday at the Lions Hall with 24 members and 4 guests present. John Sarich of Howardwick who is manager of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce was the guest of Lion Daniel. James Richardson of Wellington who is the District Court Reporter was the guest of Boss Lion Courtney. Following the regular opening ceremonies, Lion Homer Estlack introduced Robert Wilson, administrator of Girls Town at Borger. Mr. Wilson gave a short talk and showed us a slide film presentation. He then introduced Tracy Leach who is Miss Girls Town for 1980. Tracy told us what Girls Town is like and what it has meant to her.

Helped by many individual and service clubs, individual Lions Clubs, Girls Town has grown from a moderate beginning at Buffalo Gap in 1949 to its present organization which includes facilities at Whiteface, Borger, Austin, and Lubbock.

Xi Lambda Xi has meeting

On Monday, January 28, 1980 (an icy night not fit for beast or man to be out), Xi Lambda Xi of Beta Sigma Phi met at Susan Henson's home. Seven brave souls faced the icy, snowy weather.

The opening ritual was repeated by members in unison. President Susan Henson called the business meeting to order. Roll was called and the minutes were read and approved.

The Scholarship Fund was discussed. Information from International on the Texas State Service Project was presented. The club has received a letter from WTSU concerning the "Woman of the Year" Award; the matter will be discussed later. A letter was also received from Shamrock concerning the "Miss Irish" Contest.

The Beta Sigma Phi Charity Ball was discussed. Another workday, Sunday, February 3, has been set to work on decorations.

Next meeting will be at Peggy Andersons on February 11. Business meeting was adjourned.

The program was presented by Sherilyn Walker. She told of her tour with the 100-member Collegiate Wind Band-the "Patriots" in Northwestern Europe which included concerts given in Brussels, Belgium, Paris, France; Strasbourg, Germany; Lucerne, Switzerland; Lugano, Switzerland; Innsbruck, Austria; Fussen Neuschwanstein Castle in Germany; Munich, Germany; Rudesheim, Germany; Oldeberkoop, Holland; Amsterdam, Holland; London, England. She told of her experiences abroad and the wonderful places she got to see, the boat ride down the Rhine River in Germany, the places she stayed, the new friends she made. She showed many interesting things she brought back with her. She presented an excellent program.

Following the program, refreshments were served-delicious coconut cake, coffee, and tea. Sherilyn Walker won the raffle.

Teacher shortage

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Teachers are in short supply in Texas, says the director of placement in The University of Texas College of Education.

Dr. William Bennie attributes the shortage to a number of factors: the "job scare" in education several years ago when an oversupply of teachers caused students to go into other fields; the declining enrollment in education because of continuing low pay for teachers, and the movement into Texas of more families.

He says the calls his office is receiving now is not for next year's staff but for more teaching personnel immediately.
