LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton
Pietro Di Donato, author of the best seller, "Christ in Concrete," is writing another book, "This Woman." It is reported that on a train trip on Long Island, he recently lost seventy five pages of his manuscript and he had no extra copy. The publishers of John Steinbeck's "Cannery Row" have acquired enough paper to assure 250,000 copies, which will not meet the demand. "Cannery Row" is just a few blocks long—the sardine fishery row. It is said "to be suffused with warmth and understanding and a grasp of human values."

John Gunther, whom we all know now, is said to be making a tour for his "Inside America" book.

Edna Ferber will bring out a new novel the latter part of the month, "Great Son"—a story of America in the building. All her books are on our shelves.

Lt. Roark Bradford, creator of "John Henry," will get a medical discharge from the Navy soon. At the end of his second war, Lt. Bradford's rank is less than it was when he mustered out after the last war from which he emerged

Three new plays which have been hits on Broadway are dramatized from novels: "A Bell For Adans" by John Hersey; "The Late George Apley" by Marquand, and "I Remember Mama" taken from the story "Mama's Bank Account."

(Series Five)

ESTIMATED REPORTS FOR 1945

Just as we recover from being thrown for a loss in 1944, we have to start all over again for Uncle says every body must pay as they go, so in one way or another, all must have their estimated tax for 1945 paid within the year, so here is how he does it:

Salaried workers whose taxes are withheld from wages and who have no other income are not required to file Estimated Reports.

Farmers, persons who receive two thirds or more of their income from farming are not required to file estimated reports until before Jan. 15, 1946 (unless the present law is changed). There is one exception to this rule and that is if a farm owner receives cash rent in advance, rather than a share of the crops, then he is required to file an estimated report before March 15, 1945, along with the balance of us.

Merchants, lawyers, doctors, garage owners, those who receive wages not subject to withholding, as farm and ranch workers, ministers, and in fact all who expect to receive a certain amount of income for 1945, even including Income Tax men, insurance agents, county officials, and all except the above exceptions must file their reports of expected income and taxes for 1945 now or before March 15th, and at that time pay at least one fourth of such taxes. The balance may be paid quarterly throughout the year without interest. So remember, although you who are on salaries and are paying your taxes as you go, if you expect to receive other income for $100.00 or more during the year from which amount taxes are not withheld, as rents, or other miscellaneous income, then you are required to file an estimate as above set out.

DON'T FORGET MARCH 15th. That is the FINAL date for filing. Don't depend on your income tax man with all his duties to gouge you in the side and make you file, remember and do it yourself.

RED CROSS VOLUNTEER SERVICE

HOME SERVICE

By Mrs. C. A. Burton
The last Prisoner of War Bulletin brought so many things of interest that I must try to pass on to you.

A young lieutenant who was repatriated from Germany on the latest exchange wrote from Walter Reed General Hospital, Washington, D. C. that so many of the boys had asked him to write their families that he was sending this general letter. "The prisoners live in wooden barracks—anywhere from 8 to 14 men in a room. Sanitary conditions are favorable. Inmates of the barracks see to the cleanliness of the barracks themselves, equipment being furnished by the Germans. Each prisoner receives one Red Cross food parcel per week. This is supplementary to the German issue of food and assures each man enough to eat. No one is suffering from lack of food. Clothing and shoes are issued to each man upon his arrival in camp. Laundry is done by the prisoners themselves. They are required to do no work by the Germans—anything they do is purely voluntary. The YMCA made it possible for us to obtain musical instruments, sports equipment and books. We had equipment for baseball, softball, basketball, tennis, soccer, football, and badminton. The library is fairly large and contains various types of literature. At the chapel in the camp, both Protestant and Catholic services are held. Mail and packages arrive in good condition. There is a stove in every room and coal is issued by the German authorities. There is also a hospital in charge of two English doctors, one an excellent surgeon. We were fortunate in having a dentist, too.

Stalag Luft I is without doubt one of the best camps in Germany. It is an Air Force camp, and they are acknowledged by all to be the best. There have been no atrocities committed in this camp. The treatment by the Germans is good and fair. Since the invasion, morale is very high, and you may be assured that they are thinking of home and you. The medical care has been quite adequate, and the health of all the men was quite good when I left."

Another boy, a 1st Lt., wrote his father in New York: "I should be very happy if you would express publicly the deep gratitude of all the officers at Oflag 64 for the skates and numerous other sports gear, including sportswear, musical instruments, books, theatrical material, etc. presented to them by the YMCA War Prisoners Aid, and which have brought the men so much happiness. I also hope the Red Cross will take a deep bow for the tremendous and wonderful job they are doing for our men in keeping them supplied with food, clothing, and comforts, and the 101 other tasks they perform for them. Without the Red Cross and the YMCA, life as a POW would be intolerable." This young man was a former ski coach at the University of Montana. Letters like these cheer us as we face the terror for our loved ones of capture and POW life.

MILEAGE RATIONING RECORDS ARE ESSENTIAL

All operators of passenger cars with basic "A" rations must have "Mileage Rationing Records" to be eligible to apply for any gasoline rations, R. C. Wooldridge, District Gasoline Rationing Officer for OPA, pointed out today.

In the recent re-registration of the nation's 23,000,000 basic "A" ration holders, each registrant was issued one of these mileage record forms. The form replaced the old tire rationing record, on which was kept a list of all gasoline rations issued to the vehicle. Without this important record form, no motorist may be issued a "B" or "C" supplemental ration, he emphasized.

Information has been received from local War Price and Rationing Boards that many motorists did not understand the use of the record form and lost or destroyed theirs.

In cases where a motorist was not issued a mileage rationing record, or it was lost or destroyed, he should immediately apply to his local Board for a duplicate.

Major Elery Watson and wife left Tuesday morning for Louisiana after a visit here with Mrs. C. G. Stricklin.

We will have our regular services Sunday morning, Sunday school at 9:45; preaching at 10:50. I will preach at Goldston at 12. The Intermediates meet at seven. At the evening hour, 7:30, we have a real treat for each of you. Rev. Allen Harvey-Brook, our pastor at Higgins, will speak for us. Rev. Harvey-Brook holds the rank of Major in our Armed forces. He served in world war I. He has served three years in the present war. He was morale officer in the forces of the Southwest Pacific. He holds the Purple Heart, and is off of the active service at the present because of a wound he received while in action. He is speaking in the interest of our Crusade for Christ. He has seen with his own eyes the results of our missionary activities in many parts of our world. We urge everyone of our members to avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this world citizen. We welcome everyone in the entire community to share with us this privilege. He is to speak at Quanah, Monday, at Memphis Tuesday morning, at Shamrock Tuesday afternoon and at Pampa Tuesday night. So again let me urge each of our members to hear him. He has a message that will be of interest to the old and the young.

At such times as these we should all strive to do our best as true Christians.

THE NEW IMPORTANCE OF ENGLISH

By Peggy Wiedman
Since the war began, education has assumed a new importance in American lives. People all over the country are studying day and night to learn new ways to outwit our common enemy. Society women are taking courses at night to learn welding; young men are practicing long hours to learn the use of new weapons. And all of these people are learning hundreds of strange words which they encounter in their new roles.

When young men enter the armed services, they are given many difficult examinations to test their aptitudes. One of the most important of these is the vocabulary test. Upon the results of these, the inductor's career may depend. If he is given extensive training in a chosen field, it is very probable that he will continue in this line of work after the war.

As soon as an applicant for the Cadet Nurse Corps receives her blanks, she must write a short history of her background and ambitions. If she uses good grammar, she will have a much better chance to be accepted.

When a civilian is interviewed for a position, his English may determine his success or failure. During the years when jobs are not scarce, this may seem trivial; however when the post-war depression strikes, it will become of utmost importance to every unemployed person.

While many young people are in school, they consider the study of our language just a necessary evil. The war will make increasing numbers of them realize that it is essential to their future happiness.

RECREATION HALL ESTABLISHED

As a result of a bit of stimulation of a brilliant idea originating with a group of CHS students, a recreation hall has been established in the Clarendon Hotel by the few who saw the advantages of such an establishment. Through a bit of wise planning and diligent labor by this group of students, it has suddenly been converted from a large empty room into an attractive place packed with a variety of entertainment suited to the taste of any boy or girl who seeks it. The spacious dance floor is probably the main attraction, but games of cards, bingo, dominoes, checkers, and many others will provide those who don't care to dance with ample entertainment.

The recreation hall made its debut last Saturday night, but evidently many did not know of the opening which probably accounted for the small crowd. The only possible way to make a success of the hall is to take advantage of it. The hotel management, which is so kind to grant CHS the privilege of utilizing the space, can't afford to sponsor and chaperone the hall for a very few who seek its pleasures. It is the duty of the student body as a whole to get behind the project and push it toward its success.

Definite plans as to when it will be open and a set of rules and regulations have not been made, but they will be drawn up and made known as soon as possible. In the meantime, more improvements are to be made and more forms of entertainment provided for. As a result of its organization, the Lions Club has agreed to cooperate in its making. All doubt removed; it can't fail.

Postal Receipts Up 16 Per Cent During 1944

Receipts of the Clarendon post office were up better than 16 per cent in 1944 as compared with the previous year, postmaster J. C. Estlack stated recently. The total receipts for 1944 are $21,458.41 as compared with $18,840.30 for 1943.

The postage stamp sales for the last quarter of 1944, that is October, November and December, totaled $5,961.44. This exceeds that of 1943 by over two thousand dollars. Perhaps war conditions, and the more prosperous conditions in general had something to do with the increase.

A sidelight that might be of interest to the general public is the fact that the air mail stamp sales for the same period exceeded that of the parcel post packages. With all the increase noted above, postmaster Estlack stated that there was no increase in the number of clerks as compared with previous years, or several years as for that matter.

TEXAS HYBRID CORN POPULAR
Hybrid corn No. 8 is recommended for Donley County. Hybrid corn planting seed must be bought each year from reliable breeder or dealer.

Texas hybrid corn is achieving something of a tidal wave of popularity. This is because it has proved that it will produce under unfavorable conditions, especially during dry summers, says E. A. Miller of the A&M College Extension Service.

Corn growing in Texas was severely tested in 1944 because of extreme hot weather at a critical time in the development of the crop. But Texas developed strains of hybrid bore up much better than native varieties. Quoting from reports gathered by county agricultural agents, Miller says that 34 Hamilton County demonstrators reported yields of 23 to 47 per cent from yellow hybrids numbers eight, twelve and eighteen over parallel plantings of native corn.

The best yield in this group was sixty-eight bushels an acre from number twelve planted on the Piggs farm. Comparatively, native yellow dent produced thirty-two bushels an acre. County Agricultural Agent T. D. Craddock estimates that about forty per cent of all corn to be planted in Hamilton county in 1945 will be hybrid.

Navarro County Agricultural Agent H. C. Robinson reports hybrids out yielding native types 25 to 50 per cent. In many instances, he adds, native corn was a complete failure because of excessive rain at planting time and a severe summer drought. Numerous farmers told him that without hybrids they would have had little corn. Many similar results have been reported.

Miller, who is Extension agronomist, says that Texas hybrid number twelve is the leading strain in the more humid sections, especially in the central and eastern parts of the state. Number eight is more popular in the drier areas of central west and west Texas. The new hybrid, number eighteen, gave satisfactory results at most of the Experiment sub-stations in 1944.

The 4,000 acres of certified hybrid seed corn grown in 1944 produced enough seed to plant about 10 per cent of the corn acreage of Texas, Miller estimates.

For further information and possible sources of seed, contact County Agent at Clarendon.

JONES ANNOUNCES FARM PRODUCTION GOAL FOR 1945

War Food Administrator Marvin Jones called anew on the nation's farmers for all-out food and feed production this year as he announced final agricultural production goals for 1945.

These goals represent the total of state goals recommended by farmers, farm leaders and state agricultural officials and are approximately the same as were recommended by the WFA last Nov. 15.

This year's crop acreage goal totaled 363,635,000 acres, nearly three per cent more than the 1944 planted acreage and a little more than the 363,616,000 acres which had been suggested by the WFA.
