Song of the Trusts.

WE'LL OWN THE EARTH. Let us gather up the sunbeams Lying all around our path, Get a trust on wheat and roses, Give the poor the thorns and chaff. Let us find our chiefest pleasure Hoarding bounties for today, So the poor shall have scant measure And two prices have to pay.

Yes, we'll reservoir the rivers, And we'll levy on the lakes, And we'll lay a triffing poll tax On each poor man who partakes, We will brand his number on him That he'll carry through his life; We'll apprentice all his children, Get a mortgage on his wife.

We'll capture e'en the wind god And confine him in a cave; And then, through our patent proc We the atmosphere will save; Thus we'll squeeze our little brother,

When he tries his lungs to fill, Put a meter on his wind-pipe And present our little bill.

We will syndicate the starlight, And monopolize the moon: Claim royalty on rest days, A proprietary noon;

For right-of-way through ocean's spray, We'll charge just what it's worth; We'll drive our stakes around the lakes-In fact, we'll own the earth.

Bryan's Platform.

The Nebraska democratic platform adopted last week, endorses the Chicago platform "in whole and in part, in letter and in spirit.' This includes the coin redemption clause and the state bank non legal tender money gap. The Chicago platform does not declare that all money shall be issued by the government and made a legal-tender, as was at first telegraphed out and as was printed and never corrected by most all the democratic papers. It reads that all money which is a legal tender shall be issued by the government. It was so made to read by the platform committee upon the request of a southern delegate in behalf of those favoring state bank money. In the Senate the other day a number of democrats supported an amendment which in effect would have authorized the issuance of money by state banks.

The Nebraska democrats last week also declared as follows:

"We favor the initiative and referendum wherever it can be ap-

But as no democratic state has given the people the initiative and has threatened to resign unless the referendum, the presumption is that democrats do not think it can be applied anywhere. The record of the democratic party on this question in states where they are in full power should be taken as their platform rather than their promises in a state where they are in a minority. Here in Missouri the democratic legislature would not even submit a constitutional amendment giving the people a chance to say whether they wanted the initiative and referendum or not. A resolution for such submission was defeated in our democratic legislature recently. In the democratic state of Utah, an amendment has been submitted applying the initiative and referendum when every voter petitions for it. To get every voter to sign a petition is, of course out of the question, for there is no objectionable law but what somebody benefits by it and such would not sign the petition, besides one or two voters might be temporarily absent in Europe, the Philippines or un- British in South Africa the British known parts and their signatures wouldn't acknowledge that they could not be obtained. "We pledge ourselves to wage an unceasing warfare against al the trusts," declare the Nebraska democrats, and then they go on to favor Bryan's plan of licensing trusts. Not a word in the whole document on the transportation question nor the question of public ownership of public utilities. Nebraska is not a democratic state. The party has no power there to do anything. They get some offices by fusion. CALLING HIM DOWN.

JOHN SWINTON HAS SOMETHING TO SAY ABOUT DR. MACARTHUR.

I would like to know something about the circumstances under which the Rev. Dr. MacArthur of this city has "frequently given money to keep the roofs over the heads and to put bread into the mouths of strikers' families when the strikers themselves were unwillingly engaged in the strikes." I would also like to know why the wretched "strikers yielded to the au-thority of walking delegates and other petty autocrats against their own inelination and judgment."

It would be interesting to know for sure how many of these striking beggars got bread from him, when they got it, what trade they belonged to and what union they were members of. How did they happen to go to him for bread? Were they very grateful for the bread?

It would be still more interesting to gineer Caswell is in charge of the know the names of those "walking delegates and other petty autograts" who forced these striking beggars to There has been considerable talk strike against their own inclination for months past about the Pecos and judgment.
