SEVEN LIVES LOST.

Clondburst at Waco Inundates Portion of the Place.

THE LOSS IMMENSE.

Several Persons Are Missing and it is Suspected They Were Drowned. Cyclone Does Much Damage at Blum—Trains Stop.

Waco, Tex., April 28.—The flood here Friday night, caused by heavy rains that fell during the day, resulted in the loss of seven lives and as many more are missing.
The names of drowned persons as far as known are:
Mrs. Caudle and Miss Caudle, mother and daughter; and the following negroes: William Walker, Tom Capps, Rose Chapman, Emma Decker and Abe Prather.

The business streets were converted into rivers. Such a flood has never been here before. Most of the Third and Fourth wards were under water. The rain resembled a succession of clondbursts. Basements were flooded on Franklin and Washington streets and on Austin avenue. Waco creek on the south side of the city, and Barron's branch on the north side poured their surplus water toward the center of the city, and formed a sea in the business centers.
The property loss will reach at least $50,000.

THREE BODIES BURIED.

Four More Swept Away by the Flood Have Not Been Recovered.

Waco, Tex., April 28.—Of the seven persons known to have been drowned in this freshets arising from clondbursts in this city Friday afternoon three bodies have been interred and the other four are still missing. Mrs. Caudle and her daughter, Miss Emma, were buried in one grave at the Odd Fellows' cemetery, and the grave was heaped high with flowers.

Mayor Higgins says the damage to culverts and bridges and streets will not exceed $15,000. He estimates the loss to private property at somewhere near the same amount and says he is certain that the entire loss by the flood inside Waco will not amount to more than $30,000, or $35,000, at the outside.
Waco Creek and Barron's Branch have their heads on a plateau west of the city and passing through their separate valleys they form on the map the letter "V." Close to these two streams were many cottages and homes of poor people and about 100 of these humble residences were swept out of existence. Therefore, about 100 families were deprived of homes.

CYCLONE AT BLUM.

School Building Demolished, Seriously Injuring One of the Pupils.

Blum, Tex., April 28.—A tornado passed through the eastern part of this place at noon Friday, which destroyed several residences and the 2-story school building.
Fortunately, but two were hurt, one of whom—Eunice Hanks—will die. She was caught between two timbers and received internal injuries. About 15 others were slightly hurt. How so many escaped is a mystery.
Several residences were blown from foundations, a blacksmith shop wrecked and the Baptist church almost demolished.

L. L. Robertson's residence was demolished. He was badly hurt and at this hour is reported growing worse. Mrs. L. L. Robertson was hurt about the head.
The second story of the school building was owned and occupied by the Masons and is a total loss.
The storm was about 300 yards wide. The grain crop in the path of the storm is badly damaged and fruit trees are broken and stripped of fruit. Nothing has been heard from the country yet.

IN SOUTH TEXAS.

All Streams Are Rapidly Rising and the Worst is Feared.

Galveston, April 28.—Heavy rains fell all over south Texas yesterday, causing enormous losses.
In one hour 2.23 inches of rain fell, flooding the city and doing much damage. Hull did also considerable damage. All creeks and rivers are rapidly rising and coming upon the heels of the former flood, there is no telling where it will end.
Railroad traffic is impeded and in some instances entirely suspended.
As far as ascertained the wind did but little damage in any south Texas town.
In the vicinity of San Antonio the rain came from a clondburst.
The rain reaches from the Louisiana line to Mexico and at many places the record exceeds 3 inches of rain.

No trains out of Houston as a result of the flood. Railroad bridges near there are badly injured and dumps almost washed away.
IN NORTH TEXAS.
Rainfall the Heaviest Ever Known and Damage Enormous.
Dallas, April 28.—The rainfall in North Texas yesterday exceeds all records and every creek and river is rising at a rapid rate. Railroad traffic is in a Five Square Miles of Territory Burn in Ontario.

LOSS IS $17,000,000.

Two Towns Completely Destroyed and Fifteen Thousand People Are Homeless—Mills and Factories Burn by the Score.

Ottawa, Ont., April 28.—Five square miles of territory burned over, more than 2500 dwellings, factories, mills and other buildings destroyed, entalling a loss estimated to reach $15,000,000 and between 12,000 and 15,000 men, women and children homeless, is the summing up of the havoc wrought by the fire which began at Hull and in Ottawa at 11 o'clock Thursday morning.

SITUATION BRIGHTER.

Indications Are the Worst of the Flood Has Now Passed.

Galveston, April 28.—The flood situation in south Texas looks better. The indications are that the worst of the flood in the Brazos river basin is over if more rain does not follow.

Bryan, about 150 miles from the mouth of the river, reports the Brazos out of banks and considerable bottom land overflowed, and the river rising two inches an hour.

Navasota, a short distance further south, reports the river close to the tops of the banks. The Navasota river is out of its banks and is flooding lowlands.

Richmond, about 55 miles from the mouth of the river, reports the stream 13 feet and 10 inches below the big flood of last June.

Thompson, a few miles south of Richmond, reports the river running over the south bank and rising an inch an hour. It will have to rise four feet more to do much damage.

Velasco, near the mouth of the river, reports the water 3 1/2 feet below last June's high mark. The river is rising slowly and lowlands are inundated.

The Texas railroads have not suffered any great losses in the destruction of property and those which have washouts are operating by making detours over other lines.

The Southern Pacific bridge at Columbus, which was washed out about three weeks ago and which was replaced by a temporary structure, was again washed out. The Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe lost about 2000 feet of track and some small culverts on its San Angelo branch.

Another storm lasting two days is predicted by the government.
The water at Sealy is now up to the height reached by the flood of last July.
Most of the railroads are crippled by bridges being carried away and track washouts.

LOSSES BY THE FIRE.

Seven Lives Gone and $17,000,000 in Property Destroyed.

Ottawa, Ont., April 28.—Over five square miles of territory burned over; more than 2000 buildings destroyed; seven lives lost; 7000 men, women and children homeless and property loss of $17,000,000, according to the latest estimates, insured for about half its value, are the results of the destructive fire which swept this city and Hull on Thursday and Friday.
The dead are:
Miss Minnie Cook, aged 40 years, cremated in her own house.
John Puckle, car repairer, suffocated in the Canadian Pacific railroad yards.
George Peoley, shoemaker, suffocated.
John Duro, fireman.
Unknown man, found dead in Meyers' house.
Mrs. Carrington, died from fright, aged 80.
A. Dandin, eight years old.

The most serious problem that confronts Hull is that of work. The majority of householders who were burned out are poor and have large families. It is not expected there will be employment for a considerable period and the way in which many of the poor are doing to live in the meantime is very doubtful.

On the Ottawa side fully two-thirds of the Dalhousie ward is devastated and an estimate made by the inhabitants places the number who are without roofs of their own at 5000. The destroyed property in this district includes some of the finest residences in Ottawa as well as a great many of the humblest.

All of Hull's principal buildings, with the exception of the Catholic church, are things of the past. The buildings and land in the place were valued at $2,700,000 and of this amount over $1,000,000 may be put down as a loss. Then in stocks, fixtures, equipment, household effects and wearing apparel there is a loss of nearly $3,000,000. The vast piles of lumber which went up in smoke may be reckoned at $2,000,000.

The First Donations.

Montreal, April 28.—The Bank of Montreal has telephoned $10,000 to the Ottawa fire sufferers.

Government Helping Sufferers.

Ottawa, Ont., April 28.—The government at a cabinet meeting decided to give $100,000 to relieve the sufferers of the Ottawa and Hull fire.

Cotton Belt Building.

Tyler, Tex., April 27.—Work on the new Cotton Belt general offices was commenced Monday. The buildings will be pushed as fast as possible to completion.

General Over the State.

Galveston, April 28.—The government reports show that the whole state was visited by Friday's storm. The greatest precipitation was at Temple, which was six inches.
Three boys caught on the bay at Galveston when the storm arrived are missing. It is believed they were drowned.
Another storm lasting two days is predicted by the government.
The water at Sealy is now up to the height reached by the flood of last July.
Most of the railroads are crippled by bridges being carried away and track washouts.

Texas War Claims.

Austin, April 28.—Adjutant General Scoury is busy preparing a list of the war claims incurred as to the mobilization of the troops during the Spanish war. General Scoury is preparing in connection with the bill a statement as to the merit of each claim. These claims as has been explained before, have never been paid because of the act of the legislature not being in conformity with the act of congress. The governor will take the claims to Washington and press them for payment.

Johnson County Gold Mines.

Cleburne, Tex., April 28.—Mr. Holbrook, the wealthy mine owner and expert of Spokane, Wash., arrived in the city Saturday and was immediately driven to Keene, where he will remain for several weeks investigating the G. P. Vincent gold claim. Mr. Holbrook said he came prepared to give the matter a thorough test.

Spaniards to Join Boers.

London, April 28.—A Madrid dispatch to the Morning Post says that a number of Spanish soldiers who served in Cuba are anxious to join the Boers, but not having yet been paid for their services in Cuba, they are unable to start. Their prospects of payment are slight.

Coal Near Orlando.

Orlando, O. T., April 27.—Prospectors who have been at work in this vicinity for some time have found outcroppings of coal in a creek bank within five miles of the town, also a fine ledge of soapstone, which is a good sign of coal.

Killed by a Fall.

Plainview, Tex., April 27.—Robert Mitchell, only son of J. D. Mitchell, aged 23 years, who was thrown from a horse several days ago, is dead. He was never conscious from the time of the fall until he died.

Boothblack Sees a Millionaire.

New York, April 28.—Henry O. Havenor, the millionaire, retained a boothblack's business and the boothblack secured a $2500 verdict against the millionaire.

Trusts, Monopolies and Combinations.

T. W. Wood is the author of a pamphlet, "The Road to Prosperity," in which he has this to say: "Exceedingly injurious combinations have been formed in the United States, which have deprived thousands of persons of a livelihood, and these combines of capital have been the means of driving a large number of people out of trades and occupations in which they were employed, because they were unable to combat against united wealth, and the unequal and greedy methods of doing business. It may be asked, why did not the people who were ousted turn to some other occupation? To which is answered that many did and found that other trusts, monopolies and combines had been formed in other lines, which in like manner had deprived thousands of other persons of employment, through which they supported themselves and their families.

"It is argued in extenuation that by these large combinations of capital and destroyers of competition goods are produced cheaper. That is admitted, but the price paid for the concession is as naught compared with the starving families which they have caused. Capitalists seem determined to control both money and manufactures, and abstract therefrom still greater wealth, and the subservience of the people, whether families starve through the operation or not. It is a difficult problem to solve as to how many persons have been affected even by one large combine. In a recent trial in New York one witness was examined who admitted that two of the firms represented did, prior to the formation of the trust, expend about $750,000 per year in advertising, and that this amount was then avoided through the combination. Here is one item saved, which through the various ramifications of printers' ink affected thousands of persons who apparently were entirely outside of the business of the trust. These injured persons in turn, through being deprived of a living, affected those with whom they spent their earnings, and so it went down to injure persons far removed from those in immediate contact with the trust.

"Live and let live" is a motto which it would be well to adopt, and it seems to have been contemplated by the fundamental laws of this government that a man should be able to obtain a living occupation; yet, notwithstanding this and the bounteous provision of our Creator in supplying sufficient for the needs of all, we are told that all trades and occupations are full; that production has overtaken demand; that there is not now sufficient profitable occupations whereby men can honestly obtain a support for themselves and families. Have we outgrown God's Fatherly provision, or have we by our selfish avarice perverted the laws of God and man, and made living hard and unpleasant for millions by the greed of capitalists, instead of being content to let others enjoy life as well as themselves.

"As matters now stand, it is a difficult matter to know how to legislate justly to counteract the beneficial effect, except by the imposition of the graduated income and inheritance tax previously mentioned. These will have a good effect, and, likewise, when more money is in circulation, it will be easier for the small manufacturers to borrow money, and at a cheaper discount rate, giving them a better chance to compete with the larger manufacturers, who are at present able to obtain loans at a much less rate than their smaller competitors. A healthy sentiment in regard to these trusts will be beneficial, in teaching that low prices, at the expense of depriving thousands of persons of the opportunity of obtaining a living and support for their families, are not equal or desirable."

Legislative Lobbying.

Ex-Gov. Hogg has the following to say on the subject of lobbying: "It is an undeniable fact that at each session of our legislature the lobbyists sent there at the expense of the corporations in number exceed either the senate or house of representatives. Of course it is out of the question for these "Knights of Congress Avenue" to sway or influence all the representatives or senators against their public duties. As a rule it is their intention to do so, and if they fail it is because these public servants are too strong to yield to seductive influences.

While it is admitted that no man or set of men should be denied the right to be heard in the protection of their interests, yet the use of corporation funds to support a professional lobby, who come to Austin before the session opens and remain until it closes, should be forever prohibited in this state. Should any firm, corporation, town, city or county feel called upon to protect its interests from oppressive legislation, this can be done in a legitimate way by the discussion of the question before the committee in either or both houses who have the matter in hand. No one can complain at this. Public interest would not suffer by it, but when with each recurring session of the legislature the swarms of shrewd, men gather around the capitol, backed by limitless funds, to be used in thwarting the people's will, the crime is as unmistakable as is the people's duty to use every legitimate effort to correct it. While it is not contended that the remedy here proposed will wholly eradicate the evil it will nevertheless go far towards it by cutting off the supply of money which the corporations with such brazen facility now furnish to support it.

This section also intends to prohibit the use of corporate funds for political purposes. By its terms every order or voucher must faithfully and specifically state the purpose for which it is drawn or paid. The railway companies of this state, in their report for a certain year, before the commission was adopted, after giving the items of their expenses for maintenance of way, equipment and conducting transportation, added the item of $14,000,000 under the head of "miscellaneous expenses." This was about half their gross receipts for that year. We all know that under this head was hidden all the rebates and frauds known to their methods of business. Since the commission law was adopted, these companies have placed under the head of "general expenses" the average annual amount of over $2,000,000. As the items of these "general expenses" are not given, it may be concluded that in this way they hide the amount they paid for lobbying and political purposes. If they are compelled to make a specification for which these expenses are incurred, it may at least subject them to exposure and consequent penalties for the diversion of their corporate funds in this way. It is not the object and should never be the purpose for which corporations are created or permitted, that they may collect money through the use of public franchises for the purpose of proscribing political parties or corrupting legislative bodies to defeat the public will.

An Epidemic of Whooping Cough.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John E. Clarendon, Texas, May 4 1900. THERE is one thing that is decidedly to Dewey's credit: Both the old parties are making a fight on him.

Several British subjects at Johannesburg have been arrested in connection with the explosion of last week, which is now proved to have been due to a conspiracy.

Mrs. MARY WEBSTER killed herself in New York because her waist didn't fit. No doubt many other women have killed themselves trying to fit themselves into waists about half large enough.

At Halifax, N. S., 1000 men, 400 seal skimmers and 600 coopers are on a strike because of the introduction of machines. A skinning machine will do the work of 38 men and each barrel machine will displace 50 men. One of these machines will save its owner $1800 per week in wages and the barrel machine will save $850 per week, while the men they displace can go and beg for a living or cut the wages of other workers in order to get a job to keep from starving.

The Missouri fusionists met at Kansas City Monday—calling themselves a populist convention—and the Kansas City Star says they opened the meeting with just 16 members, who only required fifteen minutes to appoint thirteen delegates to the Sioux Falls meeting.

We know that the seed which has been planted will come forth from the blood and tear-moistened ground in the form of Co-operation. We know that, and that is all we know about it. We differ as to how the tree should look, but nature is not going to consult us in the matter. We may declare that unless certain measures are taken the seed will never break its shell and force a way up through the crust of conservatism—but we deceive ourselves.

HARRY TRACY was on the east-bound train Tuesday and we only had time for a very brief interview. He says he is thoroughly satisfied Bryan will accept the populist nomination on a straight populist platform, and that the democrats will readily see that their only possible show to win with Bryan as their candidate will be to accept him as their nominee also.

Wood county populists decide to remain in the party. Their delegates will go to the national convention at Sioux Falls. They instruct their delegates to support S. F. Norton, of Illinois, the choice of the middle-of-the-roads at St. Louis, in 1896, for president.

If both the Cincinnati and Sioux Falls conventions would nominate Col. Norton there could be no just criticism from anybody. The delegates could all go home feeling that the party would harmoniously poll its full strength.

The difference between the mission of a preacher and that of our own is. The preacher is trying to keep the people out of hell and we are trying to keep hell out of the people, and neither are succeeding at a very alarming degree.

The goldbug Democrats are about all reported as favoring Bryan's nomination. We can hardly believe they are sincere, but if they are how can the people desire Bryan? We cannot see how the people and the monopolists can both want Bryan—one or the other is certainly getting fooled.

Bryan Won't Accept It.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—W. J. Bryan is quoted as saying that he will not accept a Presidential nomination from the national convention of the populist party. Mr. Bryan argues that, being a democrat, he should first be nominated by his own convention; then, if any other political offshoot sees fit to tender him its support, the aid will be gladly welcomed.

Quit Quarrelling.

We have a word to say to a certain class of would-be reformers whose mission it is to fight and wrangle with all who do not subscribe in detail to some special plan of universal salvation. They belong to some "school of thought."

The destinies of the future do not rest on the wisdom or ignorance of any one man or of any set of men. No one is going to block the wheels of progress. No one is going to suddenly accelerate the speed of that evolutionary movement which is destined to place man on a higher and nobler plane.

There were 903 postoffices in 1800; to-day we have 75,000—that is, in America alone. It took a letter sixteen days to go from Philadelphia to Lexington, Ky., twenty-two days to Nashville, Tenn.

The liberal purchases of mules in this country for shipment to South Africa are reflected in the export movement. During the past eight months we have shipped abroad 25,445 mules at an average value of $89, compared with only 4075 same period a year and 5395 two years ago.

The Great Missionary Conference.

The object of the Ecumenical Conference which opened its sessions in Carnegie Hall on Saturday is to promote and extend the work of Protestant missions in all parts of the earth. Hence its "world-embracing" name.

The vastness of the field which, after all the missionary labors of the centuries past, still remains to be covered before Christianity acquires ascendancy over the whole human race, is shown by a glance at the world's religious statistics. The total population of the earth was estimated by Ravenstein, the geographer and statistician, in 1890 to be 1,487,950,000.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS.

What the Philippines Reached in Four Months Last Year. Washington, April 30.—The division of customs and insular affairs of the war department has made public an advance summary of its monthly bulletin relative to the imports and exports of the Philippine islands for the period of four months ended Oct. 31 last.

The total value of merchandise imported during this period was $8,912,521, comprising articles of food and animals to the value of $2,084,124, manufactured articles $4,539,424, luxuries $463,808, imported articles in crude condition $473,298, and articles not classified $1,389,967. Goods to the amount of $378,707 were admitted free of duty.

The total value of exports during these four months was $6,774,049, of which agricultural products amounted to $5,102,448, products of manufactures $471,891, products of mining $38,891 and exported articles not classified $161,899.

The local trade with all ports combined was, importation $9,978 and exportation $6,414,230. Although the imports during this period exceeded the exports by $3,424,918, only three ports were open for trade.

The report records the fact that the sanguinary war carried on in the most fertile portions of the islands very naturally paralyzed native industries, large quantities of hemp, rice, etc., being destroyed by retreating insurgents to prevent the same from falling into American hands.

SCOTT WILL REMAIN.

Only Three Votes Against His Keeping His Seat in the Senate. Washington, April 30.—The senate Friday voted upon the resolution declaring Nathan B. Scott to be entitled to his seat in the senate from West Virginia. The number of voters in the negative was only three, being cast by Messrs. Morgan, Pettus and Turner.

At the conclusion of the routine business Mr. Money of Mississippi called upon the bill to amend an act to provide for the collection of abandoned property and the prevention of frauds in insurrectionary districts within the United States.

Mr. Chandler said the civil war had cost the government $600,000,000 and 800,000 lives and this should offset any claim from the south. No action was taken.

Mr. Chandler gave notice that on next Wednesday he would ask the senate to take up the case of Senator Clark of Montana, adding that if no one should desire to speak in opposition to the report of the committee he would have nothing to say in support of it.

The senate then took up the Alaskan bill and Mr. Rawlins of Utah, spoke on the rights of aliens in mining locations. The house broke all records by passing 91 private pension bills. The conference report on the Hawaii government bill was adopted and now goes to the president.

The Labor Journals are pretty generally advocating the opening of the unions to discussing politics. This will be the beginning of the end with the tyranny of capital, for when labor, the great majority, once recognizes the fact that capital controls by controlling politics, labor will soon use its vote for its own interests.

Should our money standard be governed by the accidents of silver mining? Should it be governed by the accidents of gold mining? What are the facts concerning the misery in the world's history, caused by the periodic scarcity of money metals? World causative relation had this to the dark ages? What effect has the sudden discovery and inflow of gold or silver always had on civilization?

A casket was ordered from Fort Worth and the railroad officials obligingly held the train here until the casket could be taken to the house and the remains placed in it and returned to the train Saturday night, his wife departing on the same train to take her long, sad journey to San Francisco, where the interment will take place. Where Advertising Ends.
It is unreasonable to expect your advertising to work alone and unassisted. It is merely the mouth-piece of your business. It speaks for you to people you cannot reach in any other way. You can make it say the same things you would say were you talking to them in person. You can make your appeal so attractive, interesting and effective that you can draw the people to your store. But if you don't hold up your end there your advertising will be an expense—not the investment it ought to be.—Milwaukee Journal.

There never has been a better prospect for a good wheat crop than we now have. Another rain in May and a big yield is assured, provided hail does not destroy it. There is an abundance of fruit on the trees, and no frost in sight and there will be more melons raised in this country this year than all the niggers in Georgia could eat in twelve months. In fact old Wilbarger has lost sight of hard times.—Vernon Globe.

Coming to Texas.
Inquiry of the different passenger agents at Fort Worth elicits the fact that travel is much greater than at the same time last year, the increase being variously estimated. The increase is steady and constant. While there is no means of estimating the number of passengers coming in from other States, it is believed that a large per centage of the increase in travel is due to an influx of immigrants greater than has been noted at any time for a year.
Freight business also continues to show an increase from month to month and the present year promises to be one of the most prosperous in the history of the railroads of this section.

T. S. Bugbee of Clarendon was here Thursday on a short business trip. Back a half dozen years his face was a familiar one on our streets. While here he bought quite a number of small bunches of yearlings, paying $18 around for them. Among those bought were Fore and Milan, and White and Bumpass yearlings.—Hall Co. Herald.
Mr. Marshall of Fort Worth has been here the past week buying mules for South Africa. Altogether 23,000 mules have been ordered. The English had hard luck with the first batch, Mr. Marshall said, for the first 1500 Texas mules sent over were captured by the Boers. The mules stand the climate better than horses and the mortality among them is not great. The United States is not losing anything on account of the Transvaal war as England is buying 80 per cent of her war supplies in this country. According to Mr. Marshall the English leaders are expecting their difficulties only to begin when they enter the Transvaal, and look upon the war as one of long duration.—Quannah Tribune.

In New Zealand the telegraph toll is one cent per word with a minimum fee of 12 cents. It has proven to be too much and the fee will be reduced because it accumulates an unnecessary surplus in the public treasury. That is the way the people degenerate into barbarians under the baleful influence of public ownership!

A Woman's Awful Peril.
There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation' were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50 cts. Guaranteed. For sale by H. D. Free Trip to Democratic National Convention.
The Texas Stock and Faun Journal has adopted a novel enterprise. It proposes to send to the Democratic National Convention, Kansas City, July 4th, every person who raises a club of 20 per year. It is not likely another convention of similar character will be held as near as this within another generation. By special arrangements with the publishers we are enabled to make a clubbing offer of INDUSTRIAL WEST, with the Journal at $1.75 for both papers one year, and for twenty subscribers, under this clubbing offer, the Journal will send the person who gets up the club to the National Convention, over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway, to Kansas City and return, at its own transportation expense. Societies or organizations of any sort can take advantage of this offer and select by ballot, lot or otherwise, one member to go on the Journal's convention excursion for every twenty subscriptions sent in by them as above stated. Clubs may be organized for the purpose of selecting one member by lot, ballot or otherwise, to make this trip. The only condition attached by the Journal to its premium offer is that it shall receive twenty yearly new subscriptions. Two six months' subscriptions, at half the yearly rate, will be counted as one yearly subscription.
For further information concerning this subject, address the Associate Editor, West or Texas Stock and Faun Journal, Dallas, Fort Worth or San Antonio, Tex.
