CLARENDON COLLEGE OPENS SEPTEMBER 3

Scope of Work
Literary Department. This work begins with the primary department and takes the pupil through the sophomore year and gets him ready to enter the junior year of the best schools of the country. This is standard work and has been accepted at par for years in the best schools of the country. This school has been recognized as an "A" grade Junior College by all of the boards that act on such matters. The church board, the State Department of Education etc.

Teachers Certificates. The law permitting Junior Colleges to grant certificates to teach has been in effect a full year now and quite a number of certificates to teach have been granted during that time.

The School of Fine Arts
This department has been kept to the same standard of efficiency as the academic department. Piano, Pipe Organ, Voice, Violin, Expression, Art, Domestic Science and Domestic Art all have teachers of training and experience.

Military Training
The regional Director of Student's Army Training Corps for Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona has certified Clarendon College as eligible to government military training and application for such training has been made by the school authorities for such training.

So it seems certain that Clarendon College will have military training under governmental supervision, just the same as other schools of the nation that can qualify for same.

The leading men of the nation that have expressed themselves on the subject advise young men to enter school. Some think they will get deferred classification. Others say that the government needs trained men and that the college under this arrangement is a good place for them to get their training to make them eligible for commissions.

The detailed plan has not been worked out by the government yet. Whatever may be their plan, that will no doubt be announced soon, Clarendon College is in line for whatever comes.

The latest reports indicate that all schools that have been put on the eligible list will not only have Government Military training, but that they will have Government support, or that all young men in college over eighteen will receive Government pay.

Business Course
Arrangements have been made to have a business course taught next session. This course will consist of a book-keeping course and a stenographers course. These courses may be had for $50.00 each.

Equipment
The Administration Building is a large structure consisting of

DR. J. D. STOCKING DIED SUNDAY P. M. WAS BURIED TODAY

After having made an address at the memorial services for Joe Sawyer at the Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon, Dr. J. D. Stocking, prominent business and professional man and pioneer in this section, died suddenly in his seat from heart failure, superinduced by the emotional excitement of the occasion.

Dr. Stocking came to Donley County over thirty years ago and began practicing medicine at Old Clarendon. He has always been a prominent figure in the financial, social and religious life of the country and his passing is the more regretted by its lamentable suddenness. Dr. Stocking had the distinction of conducting the oldest business in Clarendon in point of consecutive years' operation. He was a member of the Methodist Church, a loyal Mason and a member of the board of trustees of Clarendon College. He leaves a wife and ten children to a great number of class rooms, studios, auditorium, gymnasium, laboratories, library etc.

There are two brick dormitories, one for girls and one for boys. These dormitories were constructed by experienced men who knew the needs of the student. They are electric-lighted, steam heated, with bath facilities all of which are connected with city sewer system.

mourn the loss of a kind and considerate husband and father.

As soon as possible telegrams were sent to the absent children and the funeral was postponed until three o'clock Thursday, today, so that they might be present. Rev. J. W. Story, pastor of the Methodist Church, conducted the funeral assisted by Rev. G. E. Burton, pastor of the Baptist Church, President Slover, Dr. Burkhead and Presiding Elder A. W. Hall. By special request the old hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," "Break Thou The Bread of Life" and "Nearer, My God to Thee," were sung by the choir and by the large funeral concourse in general.

After the impressive service the funeral cortege proceeded to the Citizens Cemetery, where amid the universal grief of the family and friends the body of this good man was laid to its last rest.

Nothing definite has been announced as to the disposition or conduct of Dr. Stocking's Drug Store, but it is supposed that it will be continued along the usual lines.

The passing of this good man sobers the thought of the entire community and The News is adding its condolence to that of hundreds of friends who sympathize with the family in his death.

CITY SCHOOLS WILL OPEN SEPTEMBER 9

In response to the many inquiries concerning the opening of the public schools, the following information is given:

The county institute will be in session from Sept. 2 to Sept. 6. As the teachers are required to attend the county institute, the public school will not open until Sept. 9th.

In the meantime repairing and new improvements are being carried forward by the board of trustees. At the old building new drinking fountains are being installed and other improvements are being made as needed. The High School building is also undergoing some needed repairs, and a thorough renovation. The assignments of teachers for the coming term is as follows: At the ward building Miss Elizabeth Stevens will be principal. The other teachers assigned to this building are Misses Pansy Lane, Francis Cooke, Wilma McLean, Irene Baird and Lela Clifford. With an able principal as this school has and competent teachers, like the ones selected, the work at this building will probably be more effective than ever before.

The principal at the High School building, Prof. H. M. Gilbert, is recommended as a young man of splendid scholarship, and well adapted to the training of boys and girls in athletic sports of all kinds. He has had several years of successful teaching experience. The new history teacher, Miss Lucy Marsh, is an A. B. from the University of Texas, and a successful teacher. The teachers of Latin and English, Miss Ola Beaty and Florence Douglas are already well-known and generally liked for their teaching ability.

The teachers in the intermediate grades at the High School building are Misses Clara Bates, Ruth Thompson, Frankie Friendly and Nell Johnson. Miss Bates was in this work here last year and very successful. The others Misses Thompson, Friendly and Johnson are all teachers of experience who have succeeded in other schools. The outlook for a successful school for the coming year is good.

—Pay the President—
INTEREST GROWING IN THE BAPTIST REVIVAL

In the meeting at the Baptist Church the crowds are increasing and interest growing. Dr. J. P. Harrington of Waco is doing the preaching and we have persuaded him to remain over Sunday and preach each day and night. Dr. Harrington is a man of great ability and we consider it a rare opportunity to have him with us.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Stomachache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Phillips, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days... I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go... I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle... I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

RED CROSS TO CARE FOR THE MAIMED

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—George W. Simmons, manager of the American Red Cross for the Southwestern Division, is completing plans for caring for wounded and crippled soldiers sent to this section of the country. The American Red Cross plans to operate re-education institutes in which sailors and soldiers will be taught new trades and maintained while learning.

A Red Cross Bureau has been established in St. Louis to obtain positions for civilian cripples. This bureau already has created a demand for such workers and when the sailors and soldiers crippled in France return the work of the bureau will have become so well known that the Red Cross will find little difficulty in finding them positions, it is believed.

It is planned to establish such Bureaus in all the large cities of the Southwest.

"I improved so much after taking this Tanlac that my own sister didn't know me at first, when I went to visit her," said Mrs. J. D. Morrison of 314 Twenty-fifth Street, Ensley, Alabama.

"I lost my health three years ago and had stomach trouble of the worst kind," she continued. "I also suffered dreadfully from biliousness and constipation. I was feverish and restless most of the time and never knew what it was to get a good night's rest. I was almost a nervous wreck. I tried dieting and living on liquid foods until I was almost starved, but nothing did me any good.

"I started taking Tanlac and by the time I had finished my second bottle, my appetite had increased until I was able to eat just anything I wanted, I had gained thirty-three pounds in weight,—had gone up from sixty-six to ninety-nine pounds in weight—and was feeling better than in a long time. I am now doing all my housework and even some of the washing. I feel that I owe my life to Tanlac."

Clarendon College Section

History

Clarendon College has had nineteen years of successive successful history. It is the property of the Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South and is the only educational institution of that church that will be in operation in this territory during the session of 1918-19. In addition to the territory of the Northwest Texas Conference it draws patronage from Southwestern Oklahoma and New Mexico.

While numerous institutions of similar character have gone out of business for various causes, Clarendon College has continued to grow stronger year by year. It has continued longer under its present management than any school under the auspices of the Methodist Church in Texas. This has assured the carrying out of definitely fixed policies, and given time to mature plans of far reaching consequences.

While it is regarded by those who should know, as one of the best Junior Colleges in the South, and has reached a splendid state of efficiency, those who are officially responsible for its management and know all the facts believe it has only fairly begun its fancy prices for things that are no better than those at your very door.

7. Other things being equal, the home school should be patronized because of making it possible to have such influence and such opportunities in the West. Home pride and home enterprise should have something to do with it.

8. In order to broaden the fields of usefulness of the existing institutions that are doing so much for this section of the country, your patronage and support are necessary. No school in the West is run by a private corporation for the purpose of making money, but for the general public's welfare.

Location and Climate

Clarendon is practically in the center of the most reliable section of country in West Texas. It is on the dividing line of the cotton and wheat industries. The condition of the country surrounding forces diversification of industries.

The climate is dry and healthful, free from malaria and from five to ten degrees warmer than on the Plains Country. At the same time cooler than in Central or South Texas, any periodical. It has been estimated from a reliable source that four fifths of the pupils are brought by former pupils and patrons.

Preachers and Laymen Co-operate

The preachers and great numbers of laymen outside of Clarendon and Donley County have been loyal and contributed to its building funds and directed pupils to it.

Efficient Management

The Board of Trustees, which is composed of twenty-five of the leading laymen and preachers of this section of the country have planned wisely. They have co-operated with the faculty and the president of the school in such a way that there has been team work. While a great deal of money has been expended in the property and some debts made, still those who had it in charge were men of business judgement and have been jealous of the financial credit of the institution. So all this work has been done, the school has made its expenses and has as good financial credit as any institution in the town of Clarendon.

child goes usually determines not only its character but the sphere in which the child is going to move all of its life. The matter of selecting a school for your child then should have the most serious consideration. It is fully as important to know the ideals and character of the men and women who teach your child as it is the subjects it is to be taught.

So this should not be left to the whims of an immature person or to some college agent that has nothing in it but his salary. But each parent should study this more seriously than he studies how to run a bank, store or a ranch. Because it is more important.

What a Parent should Investigate

A health climate that is conducive to student life. The ideals for which the school stands.

The character of the men and women who do the teaching and controlling.

The church and social life of the institution.

The spirit and ideals of the community in which the school is located.

The courses offered and the equip-career of usefulness. This success has been attributed to several things.

Moral Training

The Moral Atmosphere of Clarendon College and the town of Clarendon is unsurpassed. The Church facilities are the best. The opportunities for Christian growth are all that could be expected.

Why Patronize Panhandle Schools

1. There is no need to go elsewhere to get first class service in courses offered.

2. The health of the child in this section is assured here, whereas, a change in climate often causes serious consequences.

3. There is no better climate for active mental labor

4. It is better to be educated with the people you are to live among after school days are over. No friendships are more valuable or stronger than school friendships, but they can be of little value to you unless you are in reach of them.

5. It is well to be near home in case of sickness or accident. A child should keep in close touch with its home as long as it can. It will get away soon enough at best.

6. It costs less. There is no use going hundreds of miles away, paying railroad fare, hotel bills and making it a much better climate in which to do mental labor. During the present administration extending over eleven years there has been only one death among the boarding pupils of the college and that was the result of an operation for appendicitis. A good climate, an abundant supply of good water, good wholesome food with good sanitary conditions solve the health problem.

Loyalty of the Town of Clarendon

During the last eleven years the people of Clarendon and Donley County have put about $90,000.00 in the plant and furnished on an average of fifty per cent of the pupils. No school of any kind can thrive long and do its best work in a hostile atmosphere. Active co-operation and enthusiastic support is necessary. This Clarendon has done in an unstinted way is shown by its record.

Loyalty of its Pupils and Patrons

It can be as truthfully said of it as any school that its pupils and patrons are boosters for it. They have shown a loyalty to it that is unmistakable. Barring the uncertainty just now about young men, the prospects for next session are equal to the best in its history and not a single dollar has been paid to date for advertising in

A Good School has been Taught

Again a real school has been in operation during all of these years. A strong faculty has had it in charge and it has had splendid material with which to deal. The results are shown in the strong young men and women who have gone out from the school. They are filling successfully all the vocations of life. Teachers, ministers, lawyers, business men and soldiers are making good everywhere. A tree is known by its fruit. The officers of Clarendon College are willing for the school to be judged by its products. It is seldom you find a Clarendon College graduate that is not standing for something and doing something worth while.

There is no reason that they should not make good as they have come from good homes and have had good training.

Responsibility of Parent

The salvation of the soul of the child is the most important question that confronts a parent, hence imposes serious responsibility.

Perhaps the next most vital question is where the child goes to school and often the salvation of the child depends on where it is sent to school. The associations of the College life, the teachings of the college the faith and ideals of the college to which a ment to offer those courses.

Who attend the school and the opportunity of the pupil getting benefit from his college association after the school days are over.

The cost. Seeing that you pay for what you get and get what you pay for.

See if the school is managed so your child will get proper direction, encouragement, restraints and discipline.

Expenses

The cost of attending Clarendon College is moderate for the service rendered. Some work in the Fine Arts Department is given at half what some schools charge for it, while the service rendered is as good and some times better than that gotten at the high priced school.

A catalogue giving all prices will be furnished on request.

Clarendon College Is Run

For high class young men and young women who want an education in good home-like surroundings, among high class folks. Those who don't want an education and don't know how to behave themselves had better go somewhere else.

The war babies are beginning to arrive all over the nation and in the absence of their fathers, the mothers are trying to raise them in the path of rectitude in spite of dotting grandparents.

All we have to say is that if the rich man of Bible fame had lived during Hoover's administration, Lazarus would have known better than to have expected the "crumbs that fell from the table." That is if the rich man did his bit as a patriot.

Mayor Cowgill of Kansas City has closed the saloons of that great city on account of an ice famine. John Barleycorn is getting it from every side and his fate is in many respects like that of the kaiser of Germany. For years both have bulldozed the people, have stolen their rights and their happiness, have slain them by the thousands and now the entire world has risen in their wrath to blot them from the face of the earth, that there might not remain among the sons of men more than a recollection of their existance of devastation.

The people of Memphis gave Senator Johnson quite an ovation on his return home after Davidson's withdrawal assured his nomination and election as lieutenant governor of Texas. They met him at the train with banners, horns and bells, and after conducting him to his home refused to depart until the Senator responded to their welcome in a fitting speech of thanks to his neighbors and friends. Senator Johnson belongs not only to Memphis, but to the entire Panhandle as well and will go his full length in seeing that this section of Texas gets all that rightfully is due.

Sometimes you hear someone vigorously assailing "royalty gone to seed" and all such plebian slurs against the royalty of Europe, who have been brought into somewhat universal disrepute on account of the acts of Bill Kaiser and his bunch, but there is another side to the matter. Here in Texas some days ago we had the touching spectacle of a candidate for a high office, slurring education, exalting ignorance and vice and drinking out of a gourd to further prove his demagogery. Personally we'll take a portion of well regulated royalty than such a blatant show of boorishness.

Officials of Dallas have declared their purpose of printing the names of men and women caught in "vice raids" by the police. Nothing is so feared by wrong-doers as the light of publicity and we have always believed that when the clandestine acts of men and women were published to the world that there would be a sudden falling off of such sins. Many men have indulged in sins that go with the frequenting of questionable resorts because they felt secure in their secrecy, who would never dare to allow their names to be spread before the public as social sinners. The law is mighty and should use the aid of publicity in stamping out vice, and if the publication of names was made official, the newspapers would feel free to print the names of those who so far forget themselves.

This issue of The News goes into every section of the Panhandle and will be read by fifteen hundred more readers than the usual edition. One section of the paper is purchased by Clarendon College to present its claims to the people of the Panhandle and show why our great college here is the best within a radius of two hundred miles to educate boys and girls. Clarendon College is a religious institution and in all ages of the world the small religious colleges have furnished a large per cent of the leaders in every worthy vocation. Many of the graduates of Clarendon College have made names for themselves and reflected honor upon their alma mater, which gives eloquent proof of the thoroughness of preparation for life to be had here. Clarendon, Donley County, the Panhandle and all Texas is proud to do honor to such an institution and The News bids a hearty welcome to all who may enter her halls in the expected great opening on September 3rd.

Another reason why the News is strong for Terrell in his race for state comptroller is that on his first election to the office he found that the clerks in the department were not working eight hours and without much system. He called the department together and frankly told them that eight hours was a day's work and installed a clock giving each a key so that correct tab could be kept on the hours given the state by each clerk. Since that time the affairs of the department have been in perfect order and the law has been followed to the letter. Such efficiency needs to be rewarded and Mr. Terrell will no doubt go back into office with a majority such as one, Hobby, recently received over one, Ferguson.

After a careful survey of the situation that confronts Texas publishers in regard to costs of print paper, labor and other elements of expenses the Northwest Texas Press Association in session at Vernon on the 8th and 9th of this month passed a unanimous resolution declaring that $2.00 per year was a fair price for a weekly newspaper. To this The News is forced to give its unreserved assent and to any one skeptical on the subject we will undertake to prove in five minutes that the price of $2.00 is just and right considering cost of production. The News will probably be forced to raise its price to $2.00 per year on the first of January 1919 unless there is some relief in the next few months.

There has been some complaint that there is promiscuous shooting being done right in the residence district of Clarendon. It is said that boys shoot at random with 22 targets and some of these stray shots have narrowly missed persons going about their accustomed duties. This is a matter for parental consideration. Parents are responsible for their children's behavior and should take pains to see that no child of theirs is so early exhibiting such utter disregard of the rights of others. Better a session in the peach orchard with a wet rope than a slow march behind the hearse.

A vote cast for C. M. Cureton for attorney general of Texas is a vote for good government and the strict enforcement of our prohibition laws. The brewery interests learned to fear him in the suits at Greeville and will oppose him to a man. Since this is the case, we ought to give him a mighty majority endorsement next Saturday.

REDWINE-MARTIN

One of the most impressive weddings of the season took place at ten o'clock last Wednesday morning at the Methodist Church, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, where quite a number of friends and relatives gathered to witness the marriage of Miss Janette Martin of this city and Mr. Claude E. Redwine of Mountain View, California.

The wedding was beautiful in its simplicity. While her long time friend, Miss Nannie Sims played the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bride and groom, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Fred Story and Arthur Martin took their places at the altar. They were met there by the officiating clergymen, Rev. C. H. Booth, of Corsicana, and her pastor, Rev. J. W. Story. The beautiful marriage ritual of her church with the double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was charming in a handsome traveling suit. She is of one of the old and highly respected families of Clarendon, and is a beautiful and accomplished young woman. She has grown from infancy to womanhood here in Clarendon and is much beloved for her beautiful Christian character and attractive personality. She is a graduate of Clarendon College in the department of expression and has often delighted Clarendon audiences with her readings. She will be especially missed by the local chapter of the Eastern Star as she was one of its active members and will also be missed in the Red Cross rooms.

The groom is a native of Texas—a nephew of our townsman, Mr. N. W. Hatchett, but for some years has been a successful young business man of California.

The bridal party were accompanied to the station by a host of friends who bade them God's speed on their long journey to their Western home.

MISS MATTIE EVA LANE PRESENTED WITH WATCH

Seeking in some tangible manner to show their deep appreciation for her faithful work the past several years as pianist for the Methodist Sunday School and Choir, on behalf of the two organizations Supt. W. T. Hayter presented Miss Mattie Eva Lane with a handsome wrist watch at the eleven o'clock hour last Sunday.

Miss Mattie Eva holds the record for faithful Sunday School and church attendance and her work as pianist has been of the highest type. She goes to Hereford within the next few days where she will teach music for the coming term and the best wishes of the Clarendon people will attend to her work. She is a Christian young lady of the very highest type, a musician of the first rank and will grace any social circle where sympathy and cultured womanhood is appreciated. The News bespeaks for her a most successful year's work and with her many friends await her return to Clarendon where she is so much appreciated.

FEDERAL OFFICER WARNS PUBLIC

William C. Pope, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the U. S. Government was in Clarendon Tuesday and made a pleasant call at The News office. Mr. Pope has headquarters at Amarillo and most of his work here recently has been in the enforcement of the Reed Amendment of the federal law which makes it a felony for any one to bring liquor into a state where the manufacture and sale of liquor is prohibited. It is therefore unlawful for any person to go into New Mexico and bring any liquor in however small quantity back into Texas. The law provides for the confiscation of the liquor and the auto, buggy or wagon in which it is being transported. It don't pay to fool with liquor these days and the loss of a Ford on the account of a quart of "red eye" is going it entirely too strong.

C. C. BOY HASN'T FORGOTTEN CLARENDON

Dr. Burkhead has received a letter from Frank L. Raney, who was formerly a Clarendon College boy. The letter is as follows:

Cambridge, Mass. Aug. 8, 1918. Dr. S. E. Burkhead, Clarendon, Texas.

Dear Doctor:— You may be somewhat surprised to hear from me, or probably you are surprised that you have not heard from me before this. Any way, Doctor, even if I haven't written, I have often thought of you and of Clarendon. I have had many and varied experiences since I told you good-bye that Sunday evening some seven months ago.

We were first shipped to the Great Lakes Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill. There I suppose we underwent all the different trainings known to man, from sewing on buttons to drilling. The following are a few of the occupations I was engaged in while there: Dish-washer, washwoman, cook, snow and coal shoveler, painter, carpenter, store-keeper, landscape gardener, deck-swab, messenger, etc., etc. We drilled with and without arms, infantry, and Swedish drill under arms. Get up at four o'clock in the morning with the temperature all the way from zero to twenty below. If any one tells that the naval training stations do not give a thorough training, you tell him to go join it and learn something about it. Of course we receive all the vaccinations and inoculations for every disease until our arms looked like perforated pin-cushions, and as all of them do, we had a few weeks' quarantine. Taken all in all, I lived more in the three months I was there than I ever lived in a year before.

The Station is situated on Lake Michigan about thirty miles north of Chicago, and at the time I was here, had somewhere near 27,000 Jackies. It has now between 45,000 and 50,000. Clary and I enlisted in the Radio (wireless) and were supposed to be in school at Great Lakes, but we were only in school there about three days. We were lucky enough to get a draft for Dunwoody Industrial Institute, at Minneapolis, Minn. The government has taken over the school for training purposes.

We were there eight weeks doing nothing but drill and go to school. We lived in hotels and were treated as guests, only we were under military control. It was more like an eight weeks' furlough than the navy, after what we had experienced at the Lakes.

After we had finished the eight weeks' course, we were shipped here to Harvard. We are to be here for sixteen weeks and are then regular tars, and are sent to sea (and to see.) We have been here eight weeks so it will not be long until we can get into this big affair. It will be a glad day, for we are tired of marking time.

I am seeing a great number of new and wonderful sights here in the east. Of all the old historical places and landmarks there are in this vicinity. And Doctor, it is amazing how much perfectly good history I have gotten. Probably you were here during another great war in American History and have seen the old landmarks, have had the pleasure of several sightseeing tours in Boston, Lexington, Concord and Cambridge, have stood under the old elm where Washington took command of the American troops in 1775, and felt real patriotic. And at Lexington we were on the old battlefield where General Parker made his stand then went through the house of John Hancock where he and John Adams were asleep the night of Paul Revere's famous ride. I can't begin to tell you all of the places, but you can judge how interesting they are to me.

We attend school at Harvard and do nothing else but drill. There are at present near five thousand Radio men here, in fact it is nothing but a Radio school. It would be interesting to you, I know, to see the way we are fed. Our common mess hall is the Old Memorial Hall of Harvard. Like Napoleon, we eat with all the old sages and Heroes looking down upon us (I believe it was the Centuries he spoke of.) For everything in the navy we line up single file, show, pay and to drink. The only thing we do not line up for is death, and then they go in a bunch.

Doctor, I am not badly taken with the eastern people, while they treat us nice, still, they are not free and hospitable like the westerners. These "Auld Tyme" New Englanders think they live in the seat of culture, and all the outside world is uncivilized. And Jews! I never thought there were so many. If ever they go back to Palestine, this will be a quiet place indeed.

We have some times swimming in the Atlantic.

Well, Doctor, if you can spare the time, please write and tell me of yourself and of Clarendon. Give Mrs. Adams and Dr. and Mrs. Slover my best regards.

Lovingly, your old pupil,

FRANK L. RANEY, U. S. N.

THE TEARS OF MRS. HOHENZOLLERN

Richard Spillane, in Commerce and Finance, says:

Occasionally in editorial articles one of the gentlemen of the press handles a subject so well that it is unfortunate the thought expressed by the writer cannot be spread before all the people instead of being read by comparatively few and then forgotten as are most of the editorial outgivings of the daily newspapers.

Here is one from the Evening Sun worthy of being read and re-read:

The German Empress, in company with Prince Joachim, one of the Kaiser's six sons who have as yet escaped injury in the war, visited recently some new hospitals in the Rhine towns. These were crowded with wounded soldiers, mostly Prussians, from the zone of the German offensive along the Marne, which collapsed last week. At Strassburg the Kaiserin saw so many wounded that she broke down and wept.

The Kaiserin's tears have good reason to flow. Her royal husband applied the torch to Europe. Upon her family rests the responsibility for the present plight of all the German people. Her tears fall as symbols of the great flood of tears which German women are fated to shed for a hundred years because "Germany's military necessity" knew no law.

The Kaiserin wept for the German wounded. She may well weep for them and for the great armies of German dead whose lives have paid the price of Prussian ambition. So great a lady as the Kaiserin might even spare a tear for the unhappy women and children of Belgium, whose sex and helplessness could not defend them against her husband's soldiers, who were stronger than these unarmed non-combatants. Are there no tears for all the dead in France, the unnumbered thousands tortured and slain in Poland, in Serbia, in Armenia, at the bidding of the Kaiser? The Kaiserin's tears may flow in a stream as great as the Rhine, but the guilt cannot be washed away. Moreover, no Germans of any degree have learned as yet to shed tears of penitence; they weep in self-pity. Of the broken and the contrite heart they have no conception.

The awful retribution which is to fall upon Germany for the next cycle of years is already foreshadowed. Germany's men are slaughtered or crippled, her women are bereft. Upon them rests the curse of grinding toil performed under the un pitying scorn of a whole world for a people who delivered up their souls and minds at the bidding of rulers who saved them the trouble of thinking for themselves, reading justice, doing right.

The air of the world will be filled with the sobs and howlings of Germans degenerated so close to madness they have no conception of proper behavior. Their life will be regulated for them by the rest of the world, because they have shown their unfitness for any free hand of their own.

GERMAN VIEW OF CHRISTIANITY.

Frederich Wilhelm Nietzsche was one of the most noted of modern German philosophers. How much has his philosophy affected the views and character of the Germans of today? Is not the answer written in the blood of the women and children the old men of occupied France and Belgium? Are not the Lusitania victims witnesses to German adoption of Nietzsche's faith?

Here is his indictment of Christianity:

"With this I conclude, and pronounce my sentence: I condemn Christianity. To me it is the greatest of all irremediable corruptions. The church is the great parasite; with its anemic idea of holiness it drains life of all its strength, its love, and its hope. The other world is the motive for the denial of every reality. I call Christianity the one great curse, the one great intrinsic depravity, the one great instinct of revenge, for which no expedient is sufficiently poisonous, secret, underhand, to gain its ends. I call it the one immortal shame and blemish upon the human race."

STATEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

Complaints have reached me from time to time of overcrowded trains and unsatisfactory conditions prevailing in some sections of the country in passenger train service. I feel certain that there are grounds for some of these complaints, but I am sure the public will be interested to know that the reasons are twofold:

First, the great number of troops now being handled over the various railroads between the homes and the cantonments, between the different cantonments and then to the seaboard, is making extraordinary demands upon the passenger car and sleeping car equipment of the country. This caused a scarcity of day coaches and sleeping cars which it is impossible to remedy immediately.

Secondly, the increased demands upon track and terminal facilities for the transportation of the tremendous amounts of coal, food supplies, raw materials and other things required for military and naval operations, as well as for the support of the civil population of the country, force the largest possible curtailment of passenger train service. The movements of troops and war materials are, of course of paramount importance and must be given at all times the right of way.

It was hoped that the increase in passenger rates recently made would have the wholesome effect of reducing unnecessary passenger traffic throughout the country. The smaller the number of passengers who travel, the greater the number of locomotives and cars and the larger the amount of track and terminal facilities that will be freed for essential troop and war material movements. Engineers, firemen and other skilled laborers will also be released for service on troop and necessary freight trains.

Among the many patriotic duties of the American public at this time is the duty to refrain from traveling unnecessarily. Every man, woman and child who can avoid using passenger trains at this time should do so. I earnestly hope that they will do so. Not only will they liberate essential transportation facilities which are necessary for war purposes, but they will save money which they can invest in Liberty Bonds and thereby help themselves as well as their country; and the fewer who travel, the more ample the passenger train service will be.

I may add that consistently with the paramount demands of the war, every possible effort is being made by the Railroad Administration to supply the largest possible amount of comfortable and prompt passenger train service.

W. G. McADOO,
Director General of Railroads.

PATRIOTS ON FARMS

We were told by the Savior himself that "greater love hath no man than that he will lay down his life for others." That is as true today as it was when the Savior died for lost people. Today our boys are giving their lives for us and the country they love. Surely there is no greater evidence of love and patriotism than this.

There is a way for those who farm and others engaged in necessary industries to show their love for their country and those willing to make the supreme sacrifice. That is that men, women and children do their best where they are to win the war and restore peace for bleeding humanity.—Farm and Ranch.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the trustees of Clarendon College, desire to express our sincere bereavement and personal loss in the death of Dr. J. D. Stocking, who has so long been not only a valuable member of our body, but its presiding officer. His wise counsel and sustained interest in all the affairs of the College have meant much during all the years. While we submissively bow to the Divine will, his presence will be sorely missed.

We extend to his bereft family our sympathy and pray that the consolations of Divine Grace may be theirs in this sore trial. Trustees of Clarendon College,

MORE WHEAT FOR TEXAS

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 17.—"Texas requires thirty million bushels of wheat annually to supply the needs of its people for seed and flour," says E. W. Kirkpatrick, President of the Texas Industrial Congress. "The State has never produced this much wheat; its record crop of twenty-five million bushels was grown in 1915 on one million, seven hundred and thirty thousand acres. The Government has asked the farmers of the State to sow that number of acres this fall for next year's crop, an increase of seven per cent over the 1917 acreage. The State Food Administration especially urges every farmer to sow enough wheat to meet the needs of his own family, based on an estimate of six bushels per capita. The average yield of wheat in Texas, without the use of fertilizers, is about fifteen bushels, and at this rate two acres would supply enough wheat for a family of five."

"If our soldiers can risk their lives fighting in France, surely we who stay at home can make an effort to grow enough wheat to feed ourselves, and to relieve the railroads from the necessity of transporting wheat to Texas from other States."

"A farmer in Newton county, last year, in a community where wheat had not before been raised, broadcasted a small plot in wheat, cut it with an old fashioned cradle, threshed it with a flail, and had enough wheat to supply his family for a year, and enough seed for his neighbors who are now following his patriotic example."

"Farmers in neighborhoods where binders and threshers are not available can co-operate in purchasing community machinery for handling a home wheat crop."

"Our farmers can raise as much wheat as Texas will eat if every farmer grows some wheat this year and thus helps to win the war."

(Prepared by the Texas Industrial Congress for the Federal Food Administration for Texas)

MISS SULLIVAN PLEASURES IN VOICE RECITAL

The real enjoyable musical event of importance for the vacation months in Clarendon was the voice recital given by Miss Gypsy Ted Sullivan for the benefit of the Methodist Choir last Friday night at the Methodist Church. Although the recital had only a few days advertising there was a choice crowd of music devotees present and the consensus of opinion was that Miss Sullivan added to her already high reputation by the evening's offerings.

Special mention should be made of Miss Sullivan's second number, "Il Pescatore Canta" by Tosti, and no less charming was the rendition of a selection from Samson and Delilah, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice." Del Regio's "Slave Song" is also a number in which Miss Sullivan's voice proved its versatility of range and tone shading followed by the beautiful "Yesterday and Today" written by Spross. A pleasing variation from the serious numbers was the three-part "Smiles," calling vividly to mind the thirsty child, the nervous chap and the martyr of youthful days.

Miss Sullivan deserves much credit for her conscientious work and her voice is gaining her new laurels, than whom none are more ready to accord her credit than her home friends here in Clarendon. She has the thanks of the Choir for her services from which the sum of $40 was realized.

SAWYER MEMORIAL SERVICE LAST SUNDAY

One of the saddest services Clarendon has ever witnessed was held at the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. The service was in memory of Joe Z. Sawyer, a well known young man who was reared near this city and who was recently killed at the battle front. The services began promptly at five o'clock by singing America. After prayer by W. P. Blake, talks were made by Pastor G. E. Burton, of the Baptist Church and J. W. Story of the Methodist; Dr. Burkhead of Clarendon College and J. P. Harrington a Baptist preacher visiting from Waco. Two of the most beautiful talks were made by W. H. Cooke a close friend of the Sawyer family; and Dr. J. D. Stocking, who had known the family for many years and knew Joe all of his life. A full-hearted word of sympathy was spoken by Dr. Stocking, after which he sighed and was taken from the room dead. Who doubts that the souls of Dr. Stocking and Joe Sawyer are rejoicing together in the glory world today?

Joseph Z. Sawyer was born February 17, 1892, at Clarendon, Texas, and was educated in the Clarendon High School and the A. & M. College of Texas. Early in his life he professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist Church here. He entered the army May 21, 1917, being one of the first to enlist from Amarillo, Texas, and was one of the first 10,000 men who went with General Pershing to France. He was in the Rainbow Division, a member of Co. H, 16th Infantry, A. E. F. and had been in France for more than a year.

His father and mother have their home near Clarendon, but for nearly a year have been in California. He left two brothers, both soldiers in the U. S. Army, Lieut. Robert H. Sawyer and Corporal H. W. Sawyer, who were recently moved from Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Texas to France.

Many good words have been spoken concerning this young soldier. In addition to the things said of him here where he was reared, his father recently received a letter from the second lieutenant of Private Sawyer's Company, in which the young man was highly commended for his faithfulness and ability as a soldier.

Surely there should be little grief, since Joe was a Christian and died in the line of duty. We congratulate the parents upon their contribution to the nation and the cause of right, and in their loss they have our deepest sympathy.

LELIA LAKE LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Clark motored to Clarendon Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hardin of Amarillo visited Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ellis this week.

Mrs. L. L. Cantelou of Clarendon visited relatives in Lelia Lake two days last week.

Mr. W. M. Mace and two daughters left Wednesday for an extended trip to Mexico.

Mr. Matt Noble came in Tuesday morning on a few days' furlough with home folks.

Mrs. John Clark and daughters and mother spent last Wednesday in Lelia Lake, the guests of Mrs. A. V. Clark.

Mrs. J. A. Durham and daughter returned Monday morning to their home in Grapevine, Texas, after a two-week's stay with relatives here.

The people of Lelia Lake wished to offer their heart-felt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Copp Palmer and family in the death of their son, Roy, who was drowned near Lelia Lake Wednesday afternoon, August 18. Roy was 20 years old, having lived here since a small boy and his friends were everyone who knew him.

He had not been well for some time having had rheumatism and the exertion in the water was more than he could stand.

But he is now in the hands of a justice God where his pains and sorrows are no more.
