Clarendon will hold a big Fourth of July celebration and is already booking the editors who will be in attendance to see how many beeves it will be necessary to barbecue. Lee Satterwhite of the Panhandle Herald has already registered and they have booked one extra beef on receipt of his notice.—Canadian Record.

The newly organized Hall County Chamber of Commerce is getting down to steady and effective work under the direction of Secretary R. B. Morgan. They are directly responsible for a number of important improvements in the county now being made or planned. Every citizen of the county should be a member of the organization and co-operate with the secretary and directors in every move for the betterment of the county. Push, brother, don't hold back.—Hall County Herald.

The ability to see things just as they are is, indeed, a wonderful gift. The capacity to see everything in its normal size is the only characteristic that distinguishes men from the lower animals. The power to meditate a second before saying is the psychological distinction that marks a man from the beast of the field. Then, in the name of common sense, let's not be swept off our feet by the fear that the Hobgoblins will eat us alive tomorrow. One paper in the Panhandle has announced that the sheriff will put all the idlers that are standing on the streets, howling for more work and better wages, to work on the county roads. That is a good decision. That is what any wise citizen would do. Then comes the next paper, because his brother had acted with remarkable decision, and squalls that the Bolsheviks are on his streets in such seeds that the harvest is in the gravest danger in that community. And what reason does he give? He says that these men actually ask fifty cents per hour and a ten hour day. He surely must snooze in blissful ignorance of the fact that the convention of Panhandle farmers that recently met, agreed that these very hours and prices should be the terms on which they would hire their hands who did the cheapest work, and that the hands who ran the binder or who did the stacking would receive about seventy cents per hour. Brother if you can't do business on such terms down that way, then come up here and breathe some of the sure enough Panhandle air for a while. As well as its making you gain in height, it will make you feel better.

CROP PROSPECTS AND GENERAL PANHANDLE NEWS

West Texas is no reproach this season. She had a hard time last year and the year before that, but if rain will redeem her good name, then it now stands forth without a blot or a stain for all such have been washed away and the record is clean as a whistle.—Higgins News.

The Methodist church has decided to raise the balance of the money needed for a new building, to cost a total of $30,000. The church is out of debt, has a splendid new building site paid for, and over $7000.00 in U. S. Bonds and other gilt edge interest bearing securities.—Hereford Brand.

Passengers coming in Thursday morning from the south reported heavy rains below Lubbock. Between Ralls and Cone the down pour very nearly resembled a waterspout.—The Plainview News.

Showers have visited Swisher County for almost every night this week. Hail storms have visited a number of sections, but we have not heard as to what extent the damages were.—Tulia Herald.

It is persistently reported that several itinerants have arrived in Plainview who are showing evidences of Bolshevism. They refuse to work at prevailing wages, saying they intend to wait until the wheat harvest begins, when they will work if they can get $7.50 to $8.00 a day. They are sowing seeds of discord, arguing that harvest hands should organize and refuse to work for less wages, and if their demands are not granted to tie up the harvest at a critical time. Their coming here is seemingly to stir up trouble. It is liable to react on their heads in a very serious way, if they persist in their propaganda.—Plainview News.

Another reason that we need a Commercial Club is that bridges across the North Fork of the Red river and McClelland creek north of town would open up some rich farming lands for settlement and extend McLean's territory. We could get these bridges easily enough if we had a Commercial Club to push the matter. Let's organize.—McLean News.

Scott Laycock, postman on route A, says wheat is not being injured by rust as some seem to think. He says that we are going to make a bumper wheat crop in Armstrong county and that the rust is of very small consequence.—Claude News.

It is estimated that 350,000 bushels of wheat will be marketed here this year. And if Jupiter Pluvius will be kind enough to let a few weeks pass without sending us showers, the record-breaking wheat crop of the Shamrock country will be harvested, regardless of the labor situation, a number of the business men of Shamrock having announced their intention of working in the harvest fields should the necessity arise.—Wheeler County Texas.

The dates for Hedley's Chautauqua this year are August 5, 6 and 7th. And, as has been stated before, it seems to be the unanimous verdict of our citizens that we have a two days picnic and "Soldier Boy Welcome" during the time the chautauqua is with us.—Hedley Informer.

Sheriff W. A. Ish has announced that men who have drifted to Vernon to work in harvest fields but refuse to work unless given exorbitant prices will be arrested for vagrancy and put to work with the road gang. For several days last week the streets were full of men who had come for work but would not hire out for less than 50 cents an hour and many of them demanding a 10-hour day. The situation is somewhat relieved at present.—Tribune-Chief, Quanah.

The wheat crop in Floyd county continues to look good. With dry weather for ten days the crop is getting back its good color and the rust on the late wheat is doing much less damage. About one fourth of the crop is late. This looked doubtful for a time as to probable production. Late weather conditions have added materially to its prospects and grain men are counting on it to add considerably to the heavy production. "The wheat is just fine in this territory," W. H. Edwards of the Edwards Grain and Elevator Company said Tuesday after spending almost a day in the fields. His estimate on various early crops runs from 22 to 35 bushels per acre.—Lockney Beacon.

Rain, amounting to two and three-fourths inches fell over the greater part of Lynn county Sunday and Monday of this week. The rain was accompanied by a hailstorm, which was worse in some parts than others. Most of the county at this time is blooming like a flower garden, and stockmen are happy with bright prospects or an Al feed and cotton crop. Wheat in some parts is now ready for the binder and a good yield is anticipated.—Lynn County News.

WOULD "SHOCK" THE WHEAT

Some of the bunch on the corner have promised to go into the fields and help harvest the wheat. All we have to say is that it would surely "shock" the wheat to have some of them actually come into the fields and go to work. In fact, it would be a shock to the people of the county, for some of them haven't done any work since Heck was a pup.—Plainview News.

NEW RAIL PLANS ON SOUND BASIS

Congress Determined to Make Certain Future Growth of Transportation Facilities.

PLANS AGREE ON PRINCIPLES.

Return of Roads to Owners With Assurance of Adequate Revenues.

Washington.—One of the big problems before the new Congress is getting the railroads back on a peace basis. These 200,000 miles of steel highways were taken over by the Government as an indispensable arm of the national defense; but now that their war service is over, there is a country-wide demand that the Government restore them to their owners to be operated on normal American business standards of efficiency. But, as has been pointed out by President Wilson as well as by many men in public life who have given this subject years of careful study, it is not enough simply to say to the railroad companies, "Take these railroads and give the country the best transportation service that money and brains can provide."

Old Laws Obstruct Growth.
The President recently said that it would be a serious mistake to return to the old conditions of railroad regulation without reforming the antiquated laws that were obstructing the free development of transportation facilities. The Director General of Railroads has recently made an inspection trip from coast to coast, and he has been telling the people that the time has now come to put the railroads on a sound foundation.

The plans for a better system of national control of railroads are as varied as were the plans for banking and currency reform when Congress received a mandate from the people to provide insurance against financial panics. The public now demands insurance against a breakdown of railroad transportation, and the new Congress is undertaking this work as secondary only to insurance against international warfare. Congress solved the banking problem seven years ago as a non-partisan issue, in which all the people had a common interest, and Congress evidently is tackling the railroad problem with the same spirit. While the many plans that have been proposed differ in the methods to be adopted in reaching the desired goal, it has been pointed out by Senator Cummins of Iowa that all these plans have really very much in common—so much so that he is confident that Congress will have little difficulty in framing a bill that will meet with popular approval, and that will take the railroad question out of politics for many years to come.

Many Plans With One Aim.
The Iowa Senator has a commanding position in this Congress because he is the ranking member of the Interstate Commerce Committee of the United States Senate, and it is in this committee that the new railroad bill will find final form. In an address before a national meeting of business men at St. Louis Senator Cummins stated that since the close of the war fully thirty complete plans for new railroad legislation had been submitted to him by business men, economists, bankers, railroad officials and owners, Government officials, railroad workers and just plain citizens.

The basic principles upon which all of these plans, with one exception, agree are as follows:
1. Private operation is more efficient and more economical than Government operation, and the public interest will therefore be served by a return of the roads to private management.
2. To make certain that new capital will be attracted to the expansion of railroad facilities, there ought to be greater certainty that a fair return will be earned on the investment.
3. The merging of weak and strong roads into large competing systems should be encouraged.

The making of a formula to provide a fair return on railroad capital seems likely to be the phase of the problem most thoroughly debated in Congress. The Director General has been urging that the Government ought to guarantee a certain return and share in any excess earnings. Leading bankers, especially some of the international bankers in Wall street, who have in the past marketed many hundreds of millions of railroad securities, also look favorably on the suggestion of a Government guarantee, which will make it easier to sell new securities, and will also stabilize the market for the old bonds and stocks.

Government Guarantee Opposed.
But the proposal that the Government shall guarantee the interest and dividends on private capital invested in railroads will undoubtedly meet with very vigorous opposition in many quarters. Even railroad executives, who might be supposed to take kindly to the idea of a Government guarantee against failure, have frankly stated that they do not want it, because they believe it is un-American in principle, would tend to lessen efficiency, and would involve the roads in a Government partnership that would inevitably lead to Government ownership.

CROP PROSPECTS AND GENERAL PANHANDLE NEWS

The estimate of the yield of wheat is variously guessed from 15 to 40 bushels per acre. The general opinion is that the crop will average 20 bushels.

John R. Scott, local grain dealer and owner of the flour mill, says that there is 40,000 acres that will be harvested. He estimates the remainder of the small grain crops at about 10,000 acres. Oats bid fair to yield on an average of 40 bushels, while rye will make around 20 bushels.—Childress Index.

Evidently several score of voters in Pampa are disappointed over the result of the county site election, but really, McLean people did not fall for the visionary scheme to make a new county with our town as the capital. Besides, the news reached McLean that Pampa men were telling the voters at Laktown that the new county move would have strong opposition in Pampa, which was quite different from the way the Pampa delegation talked to McLean people. Sure, we could have been misinformed; perhaps we were. But quite naturally, the voters of McLean did not think themselves obligated to give Pampa something and then be left with the bag to hold. Pampa and two nearby voting precincts are strong enough to poll a good majority on anything they go solid for, but not a two-thirds majority. If they stick together long enough and want to, they can control Gray county politics, but will they?—McLean News.

Saturday evening about 7 o'clock, a heavy hailstorm struck the Gopher Flat community, doing great damage to several wheat crops. Lewis Brothers and R. E. Mann were the heaviest losers. Several hundred acres was affected and the loss has been estimated at something like forty percent. While the storm was not great in extent it was frightful where it went. Earl Lewis stated that hail fell ranging in size from a partridge egg to that of a goose egg. Practically all of the damaged wheat was protected by insurance but even with that the loss must be great.—Childress Post.

MRS. SIMS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. T. Sims and her daughters, Misses Cassandra and Muffet, were the charming hosts to a five hundred party Friday afternoon. Soon after arrival, the many guests were gathered about ten tables engaged in interesting games of five hundred. The ladies prize was secured by Mrs. Rufus Chamberlain, and the girl's prize by Miss Francis Cooke, while Miss Ethel Gentry received the consolation. At the close of the games dainty salad and ice courses were served the guests.

TRAINING OFFERED YOUNG MEN

In the hope of lightening the burden of the farmer as well as helping him to solve the problem of the shortage of labor, the Agricultural and Mechanical College is giving an eight weeks course in automobiles and tractors that is proving to be very popular with young men of the state who expect to give themselves to work on the farm. The structure, operation and repair of every character of motor-driven machinery are being carefully studied under competent instructors with the result that when a student completes this course he is qualified to operate any character of tractor or automobile, or serve as "trouble man" in diagnosing and remedying the trouble encountered in the operation of such machinery. Automobile and tractor dealers all over the state have given their hearty endorsement to this course. The use of labor saving machinery is naturally encouraged and the more men there are who are qualified to handle tractor implements of all kinds, the larger the demand for machinery of this character there will be. The introduction of tractors and automobiles on the farm is doing more than any other single factor, perhaps, to make farm life attractive to the boys reared on the farm. Use of improved machinery will contribute to increased production, and with the present high proceeds of practically all farm products, will mean increased prosperity. This work is given at a very small cost and the next course will open June 23rd. Persons interested should write to the Department of Agricultural Engineering, College Station, Texas, for full particulars. Let McMilan & Johnson do your hat work. They are experienced hat-makers. "That's just what I've always wished a cigarette would do — satisfy"

The feature of Chesterfields is that they begin where other cigarettes leave off.

In other words, besides pleasing the taste, Chesterfields go 'em all one better—they satisfy! Just like a long drink of cold water satisfies when you're downright thirsty.

No other cigarette can give you this new thing in cigarette enjoyment because none can copy Chesterfield's blend.

It's a blend of the finest TURKISH tobaccos from Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun and several varieties of the choicest DOMESTIC. And the blend itself—the skill with which these tobaccos have been proportioned — is a real discovery in cigarette making.

TO RETURNED SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES -GREETINGS:

The Salvation Army needs the help of the boys from over there and of those who, unwillingly, remained over here, in the campaign for funds at home. It is hoped to raise at least thirteen cents per capita of population in your county for the Home Service Fund.

The money raised in this campaign will make it possible for the Salvation Army to extend the service it rendered the soldiers in France to the hundreds of people in this country who are in similar need. Salvation Army workers were successful in their war work in France because they had been trained in the service of humanity for the past fifty-four years at home.

Its institutions include Rescue Homes, Maternity Hospitals, Industrial Homes, Workingmen's Hotels, Children's Homes and Young Women's Boarding Homes. It maintains fresh air camps, work in prisons and in the families of prisoners, free employment bureaus and neighborhood centers in city slums.

The work of the Salvation Army is not so far developed in the Southwest as it is in the East, but as rapidly as possible institutions will be established like all of those maintained in the East. Buildings for the use of all members of the community, with special provision for discharged soldiers, sailors and ma-lines will also be erected in all cities where a Salvation Army Corps is at work.

Volunteers are wanted from among the officers and men who served abroad and at home to form county and local committees for the collecting of funds. Those willing to help should address Lieut.-Col. Geo. Wood, 1504 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas.

A deal was consummated this week whereby G. B. Bagby and his sons, Seldon and George became the proprietors of the Pastime Confectionery. This confectionery was built and furnished by H. Mulkey, the owner and manager of the Pastime Theater. Mr. Mulkey will continue to center his interests in a good show, and bequeathes to the new owners his good will in the business which they purchase from him. The new owners solicit the public trade, and announce that the confectionery will be run on the same schedule of high-class service as heretofore.

The Ladies Aid and Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met in regular session, Wednesday, June 18th at the home of Mrs. Vannie Hill. The afternoon was spent sewing on refugee garments. A short business session was held after which the hostess served delicious cake and cream. The Aid will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Robt. Turner.

"NO ACCIDENT WEEK" JUNE 22-28, INCLUSIVE

By the afternoon of June 21st approximately three hundred and five thousand (305,000) railroad men in the Central Western Region will have signed a pledge to go seven days, if possible, without sustaining a personal injury.

The week beginning June 22nd has been designated by the Regional Director of Railroads as "NO-ACCIDENT WEEK" and according to a statement issued today by Mr. H. A. Adams, Regional Supervisor of Safety of the Central Western Region, the lines under his jurisdiction approximately total fifty-two thousand miles, with three hundred and five thousand men and women on the payrolls.

Back of this army of industrial workers who have decided to eliminate personal injuries are four hundred Safety Committees, composed of both Officers and Employees, working under regulations prescribed by the United States Railroad Administration.

According to the employees themselves, who are taking a keen interest in it, says Mr. Adams, "NO ACCIDENT WEEK" is bound to give a big impetus to their Safety Work. The test is something concrete-something which they may attain definitely as a result of their efforts. This is causing considerable rivalry among the roads and the men say that the psychological effect on the rank and file of employees of being thus placed upon their mettle, together with the knowledge that even for a week they must and may prevent actual suffering or grief to any number of employees or their families, makes "NO ACCIDENT WEEK" well worth while.

Daily reports will be compiled by telegraph of progress made on every railroad in the Central Western Region so that every employee will be advised as to what is being accomplished.

BUILD NOW!

"To increase the Efficiency of Labor, to increase Production so that prices May be Lowered."

U. S. Dept. of Labor, W. B. Wilson Secretary.

Business from ditch digging to banking, needs building as a stimulus at this time. Building investments, if made with reasonable prudence, are enhanced in value with the increase of population.

A universal building program means more to the United States now than at any time in its history. It means individual efficiency for labor; it means increased material demands until production reaches the quantity production level necessary for reducing unit costs; eventually it means lower prices. This country is the soundest, healthiest, wealthiest in the world. If you need a home or a building do not hesitate a day longer in going to work on it.

Prices will not be lower until production is increased; costs will not go down until quantity production permits us to avail ourselves of the economy of the maximum efficiency of labor and machinery.
