CLARENDON STAYS IN FOOTBALL RACE

SUPERINTENDENT'S MEETING HELD HERE SATURDAY TO NAME SCHOOLS FOR RACE.

Clarendon High School will be one of the four schools in the race for football championship in Class B, District 1, according to the settlement made in the superintendents' meeting held here Saturday.

This method of settlement is the plan of Athletic Director Roy Henderson of the Interscholastic League. He recently appointed Superintendent S. C. Miles, H. A. Jackson, Coach R. W. Thompson of Memphis; G. B. Taylor of Canyon; Superintendent R. E. Burgess of Childress; Superintendent R. F. Williams of Panhandle; Superintendent Paul Morgan and E. L. Wickline of Clarendon.

The meeting was held last Friday evening in the home of Miss Annie Bourland, the president of the organization, with a splendid attendance with more than usual enthusiasm and interest in the matter of the practice. The business meeting was held after the house was called to order and the practice was entered into with a great deal of zest and interest.

FORTY MEMBERS HERE IN W. T. C. C.

FRANK BENNETT HERE FORE PART OF WEEK RENEWING MEMBERSHIPS.

The City of Clarendon has taken another step forward in the matter of memberships in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce this week. Frank Bennett of the extension department of that body was in the city Monday and Tuesday and increased the membership from thirty to forty, ten more than were members here last year.

The West Texas body has been a great asset to the Panhandle and western section of the state since its organization and is fast becoming one of the moving factors in this section of the state. The men and businesses listed below are listed among the most progressive in the city and are to be lauded for their foresight in assisting a movement that means so much to the people of the city and county as the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

MR. JESSIE MARTIN, FORMER CLARENDON CITIZEN, DIES IN CALIFORNIA NOV. 12

The readers of the News who were in Clarendon and vicinity from 1909 to 1910, will regret to learn of the death of Jessie Martin, at Long-Beach, California, Friday, November 12th, 1926. Jessie Martin was unmarried. He was one of the leading merchants of Clarendon from 1900 until about 1910. He was a brother of W. H. Martin of Clarendon. Of the ten children of the Martin family, W. H. Martin is the only survivor. As a business man and as a gentleman, none stood higher than Jessie Martin during his residence in Clarendon. He was a man who was never heard to speak ill of any; and of whom none who knew him ever heard ill spoken.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Latimer and Robert, Jr., of Borger visited in the home of Mr. Latimer's aunt, Mrs. J. D. Stocking, last Thursday. Mr. Latimer is a member of the Devore-Latimer Drilling Company.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Drew and little son of Clinton, Oklahoma, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Drew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Griggs.

MIXED CHORUS SEEKING ROOM

ATTENDANCE GROWING SO FAST THAT OFFICERS ARE AFTER QUARTERS.

The interest and attendance on the Clarendon Municipal Chorus, which is only three weeks old is growing to such an extent that the homes of the members are so small that they are now forced to look for larger quarters for the time at least. The membership at the present time is more than fifty and with the coming meetings, it is expected to reach more than sixty.

The meeting was held last Friday evening in the home of Miss Annie Bourland, the president of the organization, with a splendid attendance with more than usual enthusiasm and interest in the matter of the practice. The business meeting was held after the house was called to order and the practice was entered into with a great deal of zest and interest.

A number of new songs were tried out and the voices of the chorus were more thoroughly tested out and located. The arrangement of the songs of the various states was again mentioned and it was stated that the music was being compiled for the selections and that they would be molded into a unit in the very near future.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Wilder in the western side of the city and the full number is asked to attend. A few business matters will possibly be attended to that the entire organization will be interested in.

The committees authorized have been appointed and are as follows: Executive Committee; O. C. Watson, A. B. Crocker and Chas. H. Dean, Jr., Program Committee; E. M. Lindsey, Estelle Wood and Mrs. Lester Boykin. New members received Friday evening were; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nowlin and Miss Lena V. Griswold.

Bugbee, Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Reynolds, Lee Casey, John Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Bennett, Jr., John Sims and a number of others were among the representatives of Clarendon who took their due part in the celebration.

DITCH IN ALLEY WEST OF KEARNEY ATTRACTS NOTICE

Workmen have been busily engaged all this week with the digging of a deep ditch in the alley to the west of Kearney Street. The ditch is to be used as the sewerage line from the Hotel Antro and was dug as deeply as this to allow the proper drainage from the basement part of the Hotel. The work will be completed this week and already a part of the opening has been filled with the dirt that was thrown from it.

Mrs. J. F. Sewell of Goodnight shopped here Saturday.

BRIDGE ON KEARNEY STREET RECEIVING NEW FLOOR

The bridge at the head of Kearney Street has been closed for traffic all this week while some repairs were being made that had become necessary. The floor of the bridge had become worn and new strips were applied to relieve the situation to some extent. These had outlived their age of usefulness and the final measure was to apply an entire new floor to the structure. When this has been done, the city will have a complete set of bridges that will serve the needs of the traffic here for many years to come.

METHODIST CHOR PROGRAM SUCCESS

CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA GIVE SPLENDID PRE-THANKSGIVING PROGRAM SUNDAY EVENING.

The annual Pre-Thanksgiving program of the Methodist Church choir and orchestra which was given at the church service Sunday evening was a complete success. The house was well filled before time for the first number, and those who attended expressed the greatest appreciation of the music.

The program, itself, was one of the most perfectly arranged musical affairs ever given by local talent, and special credit is due Mr. Charles H. Dean, Jr., director of both choir and orchestra. The music was well selected and was beautifully executed to a number. The program follows:

- "Stars and Stripes Forever"—Sousa, Choir.
"Largo," from New York Symphony—Dvorak, Orchestra.
"When Thou Comest," from Deane Mater—Rossini, Miss Julia Dean and Choir.
"Serenade"—Drdla, Miss Alta Fox.
"God Cares"—Nicholas, Mrs. Loyd Stallings.
"Ave Maria"—Schubert, Mrs. Lester Boykin.
"Berceuse"—Schytte, Miss Fray Stallings.
"The Swan"—Saint-Saens, Orchestra.
"Donn Nobis," from 16th Mass—Haydn, Choir.
"Pizzicato Serenade"—Haydn, Mesdames Boykin and Stallings, Misses Fox and Hudgins.
"Hallelujah," from The Messiah—Handel, Choir.
"American Fantasia,"—Victor Herbert, Orchestra and Choir.

MR. T. M. LITTLE, SR., TALKS ON NEEDS OF DONLEY COUNTY

Mr. T. M. Little, Sr., a merchant of this city who has long been identified with progress of Donley County and who usually has a comprehensive view of both agricultural and business affairs, made some interesting remarks this week on the needs of the County. Mr. Little thinks greater prosperity for the County would come with more attention given to poultry farming. "Donley County should have at least 20,000 egg hatcheries," he says.

BRONCHOS LOSE SHAMROCK GAME

GAME IS WON BY DEFAULT AFTER TEAM REACHES SCENE OF ACTION.

The Clarendon High School Bronchos lost the game last Friday with the Irishmen from Shamrock to the tune of 6 to 3. This was the actual score after the game was concluded. In the beginning of the game, the Shamrock coach conceded a point and stated that he was playing ineligible men and that the game would be given to Clarendon by a score of one to nothing.

The game was featured by brilliant plays and it was not until late in the last part of the game that the score was made by the Shamrock team. Field goal was kicked by Clyde Naylor early in the battle and left the Shamrock boys in the back-ground for the greater part of the game.

An unfortunate incident was one of the features of the game in which the two officials played a major part. These two worthy gentlemen engaged in a series of fisticuffs at the close of the game and marred to some extent the pleasure of the afternoon.

TOWN TO BE SCENE OF TWO BIG GAMES

HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE TO STAGE GAMES HERE TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

One of the biggest events that has ever been staged in the City of Clarendon on a Thanksgiving Day will be held here tomorrow when the Clarendon College Bulldogs and the Wayland College Jackrabbits meet on the College Park. This game will be preceded by another game between the Clarendon High School Bronchos and the Wellington High School representatives.

The High School game is scheduled to begin at 1:30, which will give ample time for the two colleges to complete their game by the close of the afternoon. The Wellington-Clarendon battle is the game that will determine who will play the winner of the Hereford-Canyon game, played on the same day. The Clarendon Bronchos have made themselves an enviable record for the past year, winning the majority of the games played, losing one to Canyon and tying a game with Wellington.

The Clarendon High School boys were scheduled to play with Memphis on Thanksgiving Day at Memphis, but this game was defaulted to Clarendon by the score of 1 to 0 by the Memphis Coach and others in authority in that city. Reason for default has not been made public.

The Clarendon Bulldogs have been a little less fortunate in their games this year, having played other larger schools with the result that they have lost the greater number of the games played. They have played only one game at home this year, that being the game with McMurry College. This game Thanksgiving Day will be the second and last game to be played here by the team this year. The authorities state that the admission price for both the games will be $1.00 no extra charge being made for the double header that will be played.

GOLF TOURNAMENT PLAYED SUNDAY

HUNTIN AND PERRINE TIE FOR FIRST PRIZE; KERROW AND REEVES TAKE OTHERS.

The long anticipated golf tournament of the Hill Croft Club was played Sunday afternoon under ideal weather conditions. Some twenty-five or thirty members participated in the eighteen hole medal play and the keenest enthusiasm was evident in this, the first official contest of the season. Players were matched in foursomes of their own arrangement. Fred Buntin and Nat Perrine tied for first prize, with a score of 86. They will play off the tie for the prize of a choice of any golf club, offered by Wesley Knorrp. Winners of the second and third flights were Bennett Kerbow, whose score was 91, and Rex Reeves whose score was 100. Their prizes were given by the Club, and were half a dozen balls for second and three golf balls for third.

A very heavy season in business has kept most members of the Hillcroft Club too busy for much playing, but it is expected that with the end of the holiday season that there will be more playing than ever before. The noticeable improvement that has been made in the greens by the keeper, who is working full time, is also heightening the pleasure of the game.

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE PLANNED

ANNUAL UNION SERVICE WILL BE HELD AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Clarendon's annual union Thanksgiving service will be held this year in the First Christian Church, with the program arranged for the day beginning promptly at ten o'clock. It is expected that the town will turn out, as usual, and attend this service which so fittingly celebrates the day. The pastors of the several churches of the city have worked together to arrange a program at once appropriate and enjoyable, and the hour of the service will be one well spent by everyone who attends. The music of the union service, furnished by singers from the various church choirs, is usually one of the best musical programs of the year.

The program for the union service, as arranged by Reverend F. T. Charlton, senior pastor, and other ministers, is as follows: Song—"Come Thou Almighty King." Prayer. Scripture Reading. Song—"Great is the Lord." Proclamation. Sermon. Song—"America." Benediction.

MRS. J. M. MANN PRESENTS NEWS WITH FRUIT FROM HER CALIFORNIA HOME.

Mrs. J. M. Mann of Los Angeles, California, who is visiting in the home of her son, O. D. Leisburg, called at The News office Tuesday afternoon to show the editor and the force some fine fruit from trees in the yard of her home. She left an enormous Japanese persimmon that was scarlet and nearly ripe, an orange and a lemon.

Mrs. Ada Moore of Wichita Falls left Monday after a week's visit here with her uncle, Mr. C. A. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Buel Sanford, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Land.

Mrs. S. E. Atteberry and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bigger went to Amarillo Friday to visit Mrs. Atteberry's newly arrived twin grandsons.

COMMUNITY GROUP HAS FINE PROGRAM

SCHOOLS, ORGANIZATIONS AND OFFICIALS PARTICIPATE IN THANKSGIVING PROGRAM.

Much of the best talent of Clarendon was assembled for the excellent Thanksgiving program that was given Tuesday evening at the First Methodist Church. Teachers and students of the College and the public schools co-operated with the officials of the town and heads of several musical organizations to produce one of the best programs of the season. Grover C. Morris, Dean of the Fine Arts Department of Clarendon College had charge of arrangements and deserves great credit.

A crowded house enjoyed the several talks and the really beautiful music. Mayor H. W. Taylor, acting as presiding officer, was especially pleasing. Dr. R. E. L. Morgan's address was very fine and was greatly appreciated. The declamations given by the boys of the College and public schools were among the best numbers. The McDowell Club made its first public appearance Tuesday evening and was greeted with unusual interest. The several other choral clubs also equitted themselves with credit to their conductors and to themselves.

The program rendered was as follows:

- Invocation—Rev. J. T. Griswold.

PAVING SOON TO BE RESUMED ON WEST SECOND

The paving program that has been temporarily halted on West Second Street due to the limited supply of brick will be started again in the very near future. A supply of the needed material has been received and the workmen are to start at once toward the completion of this stretch of the street. A little more than two blocks of the paving has been completed and is open to the use of the public. The remainder of the paving program is progressing rapidly and the mountain of sand is again assuming alarming proportions near the depot. The curb and gutter folk are heading toward the college in their last end of the program and will have this portion of the work completed in a short time.

WAYLAND HERE NOVEMBER 25TH.

JACKRABBITS SEEK REVENGE FOR 12-0 DEFEAT WHEN THEY PLAY BULLDOGS THURSDAY.

An antagonized and aggressive rabbit offers itself as the piece de resistance of a doggie's Thanksgiving dinner—if the doggie can catch and conquer him. Otherwise, the bunny will turn the tables, as he hopes to do, and gobble up the doggie, when the fleet Jackrabbits of Wayland College come here Thursday to seek vengeance for the 12-0 defeat they suffered at the hands of the Bulldogs Armistice Day. Possessing speed which lives up to their name, possessing fight never before seen in a bunny, full of determination, the Jackrabbits are certain to force the Bulldogs to the limit. In Willbanks, Wayland has a star of no mean possibilities. Ably assisted by ten men, he is more than dangerous.

The Bulldogs, playing their last game of the season and their second at home, are sure to prove themselves worthy of the full support they will receive in the Thanksgiving Day game. Their battle cry of "Powder River" is being taken up by the fans, and the game is awaited with bated breath.

CLARENDON MAN TAKES TRIP TO PENITENTIARY ALONE

Lester Crow, sentenced last week on a charge of bootlegging, left last Friday evening for Huntsville, Texas, where he arrived Sunday morning, according to advices received by the office of the sheriff. This is the custom at the present time if the prisoner secures permission to make the trip alone. In this connection, it might be mentioned that Bud Russell, agent for the penitentiary was in the city Saturday and carried three men from here and one from Silverton to Huntsville. This leaves the Donley County jail with three occupants, one on a jail sentence and the other two awaiting trial.

FATHER AND SON FEED PROGRESSING

SALE OF TICKETS GOING FORWARD FOR FOURTH EVENT OF THIS SORT HERE.

The fourth annual Father and Son Barquet to be held in the city of Clarendon will be held Tuesday evening, November 30th, in the Dining Hall of the Young Ladies Home of Clarendon College. The opening guns for the affair were fired last week when the sale of tickets was announced. Tickets may be secured at the Ball Drug Store, at Stocking's Drug Store and at the Rexall Store. Plates will be 75 cents this year rather than the regular fifty cent plate that has been the custom for the past few years.

The meal will be served by the Home Economics Department of the College under the direction of Miss Garlock. Plans are being laid for at least two hundred to be in attendance and it is possible that there will be many more than this number since the ticket sale has been open for so long a time. The tickets will be taken off sale on Saturday of this week that the manager of the affair may know what to expect in the line of plates for the evening.

A menu has been submitted and was published in the last week's issue of the News. This will be substantial from first to last and will contain all that any boy would care to eat at any one time.

The program committee has been hard at work preparing a program that will be appealing in its nature to the younger as well as the older boys in the crowd. Fun will run high and the boy and his dad who misses the event will possibly regret that matter at some date later.

The custom has been in the past to take some less fortunate boy of the city whose father has passed over the great divide and those who wish to take advantage of this will make their arrangements and be on hand when the dining room is opened.

Remember that the ticket sale is closed Saturday evening November 27, and that the man who wants a place at the festive board will do well to make his reservations at once. Any man or boy in the county surrounding Clarendon is invited to the event.

Mrs. John Abernathy of Dallas was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Belle Smith, last week-end.

Another Thanksgiving is here. Another year has passed since last we gathered to lift our hearts in grateful recognition of the bounteous gifts of a benign God. In those twelve months there has been a continuation of health, happiness and prosperity in our land and today we are confronted with another opportunity of thanksgiving and gratitude. In the light of disasters, famine and general unrest that has visited other lands and where such unhappy conditions reign today, let us, therefore, lay aside our daily duties and for one day take cognizance of God's continued and plenteous blessings to usward. Let us assemble in His house returning thanks in songs of praise and grateful petition, humbly asking that His mercies may continue upon us for another year. Then let us not forget, but let us incline our hearts to Divine guidance in the months to come, that our thankfulness shall not prove to be idly expressed, but that our lives may show forth an open sincerity pleasing to our Creator. Virtue and Truth abide with a thankful heart.

West Texas lost a most valuable citizen when death claimed Hon. R. M. Chitwood, solon and educator, in Dallas Sunday. Mr. Chitwood has performed invaluable service for West Texas in the legislature in connection with the establishment of the Texas Technological College, which institution he has served as secretary since its opening. His place in West Texas will be hard to fill.

THE DENVER TO BE CONGRATULATED

News of the victory of the Fort Worth & Denver Saturday in the matter of new rail lines in West Texas was hailed with delight in Clarendon. The News believes that the Interstate Commerce Commission turned in a wise verdict when it gave the Denver permit to build its proposed lines into South Plains territory, and that the routing of the new lines will be for the greatest progress of that wonderful territory now served by rail.

Officials of the Fort Worth & Denver evidently know their victory could not have been achieved without the support and good-will of this territory, therefore they are under renewed obligations to the people whom they now serve and are to serve.

Permit to extend service always bring with it greater obligations of service, and if the Denver is to be a proper servant of West Texas then it must get in step with West Texas and be motivated by the spirit of West Texas.

Clarendon is suffering from the lack of depot facilities allowed to continue here by the up-to-the-present niggardly policy of the Fort Worth & Denver.

Clarendon is waiting to see if the Fort Worth & Denver is going to expand in spirit and character with its new opportunity to serve.

Clarendon's demands are just, and are therefore urgent.

WHAT WEST TEXAS IS SAYING ABOUT THE SCHEME TO MOVE CLARENDON COLLEGE

West Texans are noted for their fairness and have earned a reputation for "square shooting" that cannot be gainsaid. On any matter of public import the people of this section can be depended on to speak right out and voice a sentiment that will square with honor and fair play.

The proposed move of Clarendon College has evoked many expressions from over this section and The News this week presents a few that our readers may see the trend of sectional thinking and know that their just cause is being forwarded.

The Canyon News comes out pointedly in favor of Clarendon College being maintained in Clarendon in these words:

"The Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church has appointed a commission to investigate the possibilities of moving Clarendon College. The city of Clarendon has been backing the institution since its creation, and unless the town wishes to have the college moved, why the agitation to move it? The people of Clarendon have been putting up a lot of money to support the College, and now that it has been raised to the senior college standing, Clarendon should reap any benefit that is to be derived. The News votes to leave Clarendon College in Clarendon."

Down at Quanah, the veteran editor of the Quanah Tribune-Chief gets a little mixed in his views of the matter, but his sympathies are duly appreciated in Clarendon. The fact is that the move has never had any favor from the institution itself—it originated in the minds of certain conference politicians. Clarendon College has weathered the period through which Quanah's experience lasted, and when this last unfortunate gesture is still the school will go on to greater and more wide-spread achievement. The Tribune-Chief says:

"Clarendon is again placed in the pleasant predicament of having to choose between another big contribution to Clarendon College or seeing that institution leave town. Many small colleges thus make nuisances of themselves; asking more from the town they are located in than they are worth. We never shall forget Quanah's experience with a denominational college for which a big bonus had been raised in the early nineties. When the college building finally burned up everybody gave a sigh of relief."

Discussing the proposed move of the school, the Slaton Times, in its well-known vigorous manner and with no denominational color, voices the spirit of fair-play in the matter and says the Methodists generally can support the school just as well at Clarendon as any other point, and that the principle of justice is involved in the proposal:

"The question of moving Clarendon College came up at the annual Conference of the Northwest Texas District at Childress last week, and a Commission was appointed to decide the matter and report back to the next session at Big Springs, in 1927. The question of appointing the commission was opposed by some and advocated by others. Friends of Clarendon made the charge that the action of the Conference was tantamount to placing the College on the auction block, to be sold to the highest bidder. While the Slaton Times writer does not have any say in the matter, and does not belong to the Methodist people, yet he has his opinion as to the right and wrong of the movement. We believe to move the school from Clarendon would not only be an injustice to that town, but would weaken that institution. Clarendon has been built around this splendid school, and to move it now after so many years of location would result as an injury to that city. The distance is not so great between Amarillo and Clarendon that the change of location to the latter would add to the school's advantage, except what would accrue from its location in a large city from which to draw its local support. The Methodist people at large, or rather in the Conference, could support the school as well at Clarendon as Amarillo. The question of moving the West Texas Teachers College, located at Canyon, to Amarillo was under discussion for a number of years after the State located same at Canyon, and some efforts were made in a quiet way to move the school. Opposition to the plan of removal was developed throughout the Plains-Panhandle sections as a matter of fair play. The editor was among the newspaper men of the Plains who fought the plan, and stood out for justice to be done Canyon. So we would take the same attitude towards Clarendon, notwithstanding the fact that we are not in a similar position, as the Clarendon College removal is a denominational matter in which only Methodists are involved, yet the principles of justice are as apparent in this question as in the West Texas Teachers College removal. We trust that the school will remain at Clarendon, and instead of moving it to Amarillo, and the best efforts of the Methodist people be put forward toward its support in its present location."

Many expressions of good-will for Clarendon and Clarendon College has come out of Amarillo and so far there has been any individual in that city of any standing that has openly advocated the move of Clarendon College. Under the head "Amarillo Should Aid Clarendon," says Ordway," the Amarillo News of Sunday, last, carried an interview with G. G. Ordway, a prominent insurance man of that city which sheds light from another angle on the proposal:

"It would be a serious mistake for Amarillo to be a party to the move to change the location of Clarendon College, says G. G. Ordway, former student of the college.

"Should Amarillo bid for Clarendon College she would not only incur the ill will of Clarendon, but would also destroy the pleasant relations existing between Amarillo and Canyon," he said.

"West Texas College is a part of Amarillo's educational system and every advantage enjoyed by Canyon has been and is extended to Amarillo people. Let's continue the good work and boost for a greater Clarendon College."

With the rising tide of resentment against the move, Clarendon people are resting their case on the principles involved, believing that when the commission comes on the ground and reviews the loyalty of Clarendon citizens to the school for the past three decades their sense of justice in the light of future prospects for the institution will lead them to vote promptly and unanimously for the maintaining of Clarendon College in Clarendon—as a senior A-grade College and with the united support of the Methodism of this section.

Justice demands it.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

THOMAS ELMORE LUCY GIVES PROGRAM HERE

Thomas Elmore Lucy, character artist, cartoonist, and reader gave a program of readings, impersonations and platform sketches at the High School Auditorium Friday evening. The performance, while hardly more than mediocre, furnished amusement to those in the audience who had not heard too many of the sort. The crowd would undoubtedly been larger but for a number of other attractions in town and the absence of a large percent of the High School students from the city.

HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

(By FRANCIS CHAPMAN)

H. E. Teacher goes to El Paso.

Miss Helen Beck, our home economics teacher, left Friday night for El Paso, where she will attend an H. E. teachers meeting.

Class meetings have been suspended in her absence but her students find that she has left plenty of work outlined for them to do. Miss Beck will doubtless bring back a lot of new and interesting ideas and the girls are eagerly awaiting her return.

Miss Abbott Goes to El Paso.

One of those who are to attend the Texas Educational meet at El Paso is Miss Hillion Abbott, our history teacher. Several of the High School teachers decided to attend the National Educational Association meeting in Dallas in February and so are not planning to go to El Paso.

Miss Abbott is planning to go to El Paso Wednesday at noon and expects to return Sunday night.

Former Student Writes.

A letter has been received recently from Miss Florence Fink, who is now living in Frederick, Oklahoma.

Florence is attending a school of twelve grades and is classified as a Junior. She states that she is enjoying her school work very much and that her school year promises to be one of success.

Semi-Finals For District Here

Clarendon and Wellington football teams will play here Thanksgiving. The game is called for one-thirty at the College Park. The winner will play the winner of the Hereford-Canyon game, for the championship.

Back your team. Let them feel that the whole school and the whole town is with and for our plucky defenders of maroon and white.

Compulsory Attendance Starts.

A compulsory attendance law became effective Monday, November 22. Every person who is under fourteen will be expected to go to school. Many children have been out of school because of the fact that they were engaged in more or less remunerative work. From now on till the end of school, regular attendance will be required of all boys and girls of school age.

Faculty Meeting.

At the regular monthly meeting of the faculty of the Clarendon Schools some question of professional interest was discussed. Miss Flados presented a paper on the subject: "Play-ground Activities as Part of the Curriculum," in which she emphasized the importance of directed play versus the old time practice of allowing the children to employ their leisure as they saw fit; showed how children needed play for their proper mental, moral and physical development, and showed how by properly directing play one could build character and develop fitness for citizenship.

Following the reading of this paper, Mr. Morgan stated what was being done along this line in several cities, and a general discussion of the benefits to be derived from supervised play and the best means of supervision followed.

Miss Smallwood presented a paper showing the value of achievement tests. She showed how in some cities, approved tests of this nature were supplanting the old-fashioned examinations and showed how these new tests were measures of the school and of the teacher as well as of the pupil. As these tests are standardized they are particularly valuable.

Miss Smallwood emphasized the difference in aim and use between intelligence tests and achievement tests.

The Debating Clubs.

The debating club of Clarendon High School is more than just a mere club of students, organized to meet once a month and have a program.

The students that make this club have the responsibilities of winning the interscholastic league debate at Canyon this year. We are all at work in earnest. Watch us and listen.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y met Monday instead of Tuesday evening. W. T. Hayter made a very interesting talk on honesty, courage, reliability and business life.

This club is planning a trip to the annual Hi-Y conference and is getting up plays to pay expenses to Ft. Worth and back. We plan to send some ten or twelve members. The students who went as Clarendon delegates last year report the trip as being well worth while.

Choral Club.

The choral club (mixed voices) will give vocal numbers Monday and Tuesday, November twenty-ninth and thirtieth, at the Pastime Theatre, between the first and second shows.

H. E. Club Meets.

The Home Economics Club met Wednesday, November 17, for the first time since the club was organized. The purpose was to select the pins, which were decided to be a small teakettle with H. E. C. on the guard. It shall be the emblem of the club.

There was also a committee appointed to select a motto, and the club decided to have regular meetings every two weeks on Wednesdays.

Mr. Bartlett came and took pictures for the annual, after which we adjourned to meet December first, 1926.

Broncho Annual.

The annual staff sent out a number of pages to the engraver Tuesday evening. The staff has been working hard and everything that can go before Christmas will be gone before the first of December.

The staff asks the co-operation of all students in getting material ready as soon as possible. A substantial reduction is made on the production of pages sent to engravers early, and we need these discounts in order to keep down the cost of the year-book.

Shamrock-Clarendon.

Last Friday the Bronchos met the Shamrock team on the Shamrock field. In spite of cold weather a good game was played with a number of spectacular plays to the credit of the Bronchos. Arthur Arnold made a thirty yard run off tackle. Doc Naylor kicked a field goal from the thirty yard line. Our team at one point in the game plowed the line for half the distance of the field, the Shamrock team being slight resistance for the Bronchos. The score was 6-3 in favor of our opponents but the game was forfeited to us because of the intelligibility of some of Shamrock's men.

Girl's Basket Ball.

The girl's basket ball team has been at work the past week on lecture notes. A very interesting program is being made for them, this year, by Miss Wood.

TEN REASONS FOR BEING THANKFUL FOR NATIONAL PROHIBITION

The American people have to thank for National Prohibition:

1. Because it has taken from our prison 55 out of every 100 who had been going there drunk, according to federal census reports.

2. Because it has decreased alcoholic insanity by sixty per cent.

3. Because it has decreased deaths from drinking liquor by fifty per cent, and total death, according to federal and life insurance reports, at a rate of about 300,000 per year.

4. Because, according to federal reports, it has decreased juvenile crime from 172 per 100,000 to 161 per 100,000.

5. Because, according to federal census on admissions to prison, except murder, banditry and one or two other forms of crime, it has decreased

Why Your Light Bills Are Higher

In Winter Than in Summer

This Chart shows the average hours of artificial light used in the average home, averaging the days of each month, and each month of the year:

AVERAGE ELECTRIC LIGHTING HOURS EACH DAY.

January	6 hours, 32 minutes
February	5 hours, 38 minutes
March	4 hours, 10 minutes
April	3 hours, 48 minutes
May	2 hours, 57 minutes
June	2 hours, 33 minutes
July	2 hours, 36 minutes
August	3 hours, 9 minutes
September	4 hours, 00 minutes
October	4 hours, 54 minutes
November	6 hours, 11 minutes
December	6 hours, 51 minutes

This Chart shows why your electric bills are considerably higher in December than in June. The average use of electric lights in a residence in December is the heaviest of the year; in December the average use is nearly 7 hours a day, whereas in June, the average is only 2 hours, 35 minutes. From June to January the daylight hours decrease and the electric lighting hours grow. In January the daylight hours grow and the electric lighting hours decrease, and this condition continues from month to month until we again reach the balmy days of June.

ed crime on an average of 50 per cent.

6. Because under it church attendance is better, membership increasing at the rate of 1800 per day, contributions to all benevolent funds and to missions have greatly increased, and the pastors' salary increased from a general average of about $600 per year to a general average of about $1400 per year. They need it.

7. Because persons having savings accounts have increased from 11-, 295,931 to 43,850,127, and the amount on deposit from $8,192,000,000 to $23,134,052,000.

8. Because closing 200,000 saloons known as "the poor man's club"

prohibition has built about 2,000,000 homes, or "poor man's castles," or 10 "castles" to each saloon closed.

9. Because the wealth of America has increased from 220 billion dollars total value in 1917 to 375 billion in 1925, a net increase of 155 billion, 42 billion of which is directly due to prohibition, or a net value from prohibition to each man, woman and child in America of $52 per year, or $964 for the seven years.

10. Because the Anti-Saloon League, which performed the major function in bringing these conditions about, did its work on a total expense through a third of a century of about 33 cents for each man, woman and child in enforcing the law, and making the bootleggers pay 19 cents of that in fines, penalties et cetera.

TEXTILE DEPARTMENT OF TECH IS DRAWING CARD.

Lubbock, Nov. 24.—The College Cafeteria at the Texas Technological College has recently been equipped with curtains made by students in the department of textile engineering. Every step of manufacturing was done in the department, from the cotton bale to the loom. The sewing was done by the girls in the College of Home Economics, making the curtains strictly a product of the Tech.

The department of textile engineering is said to have the most complete and modern equipment of any similar school in the nation. During the summer the department of interest of the federal government received a letter from the Philippine Islands asking information concerning the most modern textile school in the United States, and the letter was referred to the Tech.

The Textile Department is rapidly drawing more students to that field of work, more than 100 being enrolled in the department now. According to annual statistics, the South is becoming industrial, and more revenue was derived from industries last year than from agricultural production. This fact is stimulating interest in the textile school.

The students of the department are given instruction in the manipulation of the machinery, its construction and installation. They are also given individual instruction in the manufacture of cloth, in all the various steps of the process.

BATTLING DOGGIES BOW TO OKLAHOMA AGGREGATION

Fighting with a tenaciousness and viciousness that would have aroused the pride and envy of their English Ancestors the Clarendon College Bulldogs met defeat at the hands of a similar pack from South Western Teachers College of Oklahoma, at Mangum Thursday, 26-0.

Entering the battle, handicapped by a six year eligibility rule in the Oklahoma Conference, outweighed 30 pounds to the man, the Bulldogs made no apologies nor do they need any. Fighting every moment of the game, seeing defeat, but never admitting it, they were a constant threat.

Captain Mulbach won the toss and elected to defend the south goal with a slight wind at his back. Spann kicked off over the goal line, Clarendon putting the ball into play on our 20 yard line. After two attempts at the line, Clarendon attempted a long pass which fell in the arms of an Oklahoman on Clarendon's thirty yard line. From here, Oklahoma carried the ball over for a touchdown on successive plays. Clarendon received again. After futile attempts by both teams, there was an exchange of punts, Oklahoma advancing the ball to Clarendon's 30 yard line, where they kicked goal. Clarendon elected to kick, Simmons, behind perfect interference, returned to his 35 yard line. By a series of well-executed plays, Weatherford carried the ball over for their second touchdown. Clarendon again elected to kick, and again the Oklahomans, fighting against stubborn opposition, but executing their plays with a precision that would not be denied, carried the ball over for a touchdown.

Fighting at all times with superhuman grit, the Texans rose to the pinnacle early in the second quarter, and remained there until late in the final quarter, when they were driven to a lesser station through exhaustion rather than lack of spirit. During these two periods they carried the fight to their heavier opponents all the way. Constantly carrying the ball deep into enemy territory but lacking the final punch; threatening seriously at the end of the second quarter to be denied by the timer's gun.

In the last quarter, the less taxed Oklahomans again assumed the offensive, and pushed over two more touchdowns. The game ended after another exchange of kicks, with Clarendon in possession of the ball at mid-field.

To mention the stars is to mention the Clarendon team. The stars that couldn't scintillate but could always shine, the team that enjoys and lives up to that enviable reputation, "Famous For Fight." The ability of the Oklahomans is not to be questioned; such men as Simmons, Spann, Jackson, Mulbach, are seasoned, proven players. The Bulldogs lost—the Bulldogs won.

MUSIC IN COLLEGES GAINS 100 PER CENT IN TEN YEARS

Builds Character, Preserves Morale and Helps Students Pay Way Through School, Conn Music Center Survey Shows.

By J. F. BOYER

Music has become an indispensable part of college life. It is of inestimable value to the college proper, and of great material and spiritual benefit to the student who takes an active part in it.

This is the composite sentiment of close to 200 presidents of American colleges and universities and heads of music departments in institutions of higher learning who contributed to a survey of college music just completed by the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Ind. The survey shows that musical training in colleges has doubled in popularity in ten years.

Music not only adds color to college athletic events, supplements and rounds out the varied activities of the campus and assembly hall, but is of distinct advantage to the member of the glee club, the sextette, the college orchestra, band or whatever other organizations may be functioning within the college. In the opinion of these college executives, music helps preserve a high morale in the institution. It aids in building the character of its young men and women, provides an opportunity for a good number of them to pay their own way through college, and in many instances, prepares them for a life of usefulness along lines they are naturally best fitted for.

Helps Character Building.

Great stress is laid by college heads on the benefits of musical training in character building, the survey revealed. Fully one-fifth of the college executives who contributed the results of their experience to the survey variously those having honors in academic subjects," and at Lombard college, Galesburg, Ill., "the students in our music school are all above average in their academic work."

Students as Leaders.

Forty-six per cent of the colleges reported band and orchestra work as part of their school curriculum. Five per cent of the total enrollment of the colleges are members of college bands and orchestras, of which 18 per cent are women students, with the girls playing almost exclusively in orchestras. Leaders for these college bands are drawn for the most part from the faculty ranks, though some colleges use students as leaders and another small group goes outside for leader talent.

Playing in the college orchestra is somewhat more popular than the band with the boys as well as girls. Approximately 10 per cent of college students who play an instrument in the college band or orchestra end up eventually in the ranks of professional musicians.

"Horn Their Way Through."

"Horning one's way through college" compares very favorably with other methods of self-support through the college years, according to the college executives contributing to the survey. Despite the comparatively limited opportunities offered in the average college town, fully one-fourth of all the students playing in the college bands and orchestras are paying for their education with their instruments. Students' earnings range all the way from board and room, two-dollar-an-hour tuition fee, and up to two thousand dollars a year. Twelve per cent of the college executives in the survey are of the opinion that playing one's way through school pays better than other means; another 12 per cent thought it offered an easier way to make one's way through, while a goodly number of others said that it interfered least with the students' school work.

Saxophone Rates High.

Among those playing their way through college, the violin comes first in the preference of instruments. The saxophone is second choice of college players, but seventh with girl musicians. Piano is the second favorite instrument with the girls, and third with the boys. Organ comes fourth in the preference of both the young men and women. Organ is the next favorite with the boys, and flute with the girls. Other instruments in the order of favor with the young men are the trumpet, the trombone, the horn, drum, banjo and mandolin. With the girls, it is the drum, clarinet, trombone, harp, banjo, trumpet, organ and mandolin.

A striking fact brought out in the survey was the close relation between music and student leadership. Fully 40 per cent of all the outstanding college students, class presidents, student leaders, etc., are reported to be playing some kind of an instrument.

Music Fights Crime.

That music is the greatest deterrent to crime, is the opinion voiced by the dean of the college of music of New York university, who wrote: "If we were to organize a band or orchestra in every public school, high school, college, university, boys' or girls' club, or place an instrument into the hands of every boy or girl at an age when understanding and appreciation become evident so that the child's mind is aroused sufficiently to make him want to excel in the instrument which he likes best, I believe that we would have, in from ten to fifteen years, from 50 to 75 per cent less dope fiends, criminals and gamblers in the United States."

J. F. BOYER

considered this the best argument for music in their college or university. Others mentioned the social and cultural advantages accruing to the music student, the effect of music in refining the student's taste for art, music as an aid toward developing clear thinking, improving the discipline and enhancing the student's power of concentration, as well as making for better team work and co-operation in college matters. Music on the campus as an outlet for surplus energy and as a help in getting many youths through school, was brought in by still others.

All but three of the colleges represented in the survey find their musically trained students more efficient in their studies than those not so trained. "They usually make grades above the average," is the experience at Bethel college, in Tennessee, and DePaul university at Chicago finds "musically-trained pupils at the top in their studies." At Wellesley college our best musical students are in-

The Horn's Triumvirate

These three men, known wherever horns are played, were among the musical folk who gathered in Elkhart, Ind., recently for the annual "music feast" of the Conn Music Center, to discuss the value of instrumental music in the training of boys and girls. At the right is Bohumir Kryl, world-famous cornet virtuoso and leader of the band bearing his name. In the center is C. D. Greenleaf, president of the National Association of Band Instrument Manufacturers, and at the left is Frederick Neil Innes, foremost trombone virtuoso of the eighties and nineties and leader of the famous Innes band. Mr. Innes is now head of the Conn National School of Music in Chicago.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. R. L. Bigger was hostess to the Ladies' Dinner Bridge Club Tuesday evening. Cut flowers and autumn leaves in vases and baskets decorated the rooms and the dinner table. Place favors were tiny bronze turkeys. A Thanksgiving dinner was served to the following: the hostess, Mrs. G. B. Bagby, Mrs. Kate B. Carroll, Mrs. R. A. Chamberlain, Mrs. W. H. Cooke, Mrs. Sella Gentry, Mrs. George Ryan, and Mrs. James Trent. Mrs. Bagby won the high score prize and Mrs. Cooke drew consolation in the game.

Mrs. O. B. Hundley Honored With Shower.

On Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Will Johnson, with Mrs. E. L. Wickline assistant hostess, a shower was given in honor of Mrs. O. B. Hundley of Chili, who is visiting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Griswold.

A reading was given by Mrs. Porter, after which a contest was enjoyed by the guests. The prize went to Mrs. Russell Clark who presented it to the guest of honor.

At the conclusion of the contest, delicious refreshments were served to the guests, who are close friends of Dr. and Mrs. Griswold.

Contributed.

Miss Mary Cooke Hostess.

Miss Mary Cooke entertained for her bridge club Friday afternoon. The rooms in which the guests were seated had lovely decorations of chrysanthemums and ferns. The game was played at three tables by the following: Mrs. Selden Bagby, Mrs. Sam Dyer, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. T. H. Ellis, Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Mrs. Oscar Jenkins, Mrs. Holman Kennedy, Mrs. J. H. Morris, Mrs. Forest Taylor, Mrs. Charles Trent, and Miss Mildred Martin. Mrs. Taylor won high score favor and Mrs. Jenkins was fortunate in the cut for consolation. At the end of the game, refreshments were served in two courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Entertain.

The Dinner-Bridge Club was entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Holman Kennedy. Chrysanthemums made pretty centerpieces for the little tables when dinner was served. The guest list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Selden Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Gentry, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Perrine, and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Taylor.

At the end of the game, a two course luncheon was served. Yellow nut cups, surmounted by gay little turkeys, colored candies, and the colors of the refreshments developed a decorative scheme in the Thanksgiving season note. Yellow chrysanthemums, lavishly used, made the house prettier for the party.

SESQUICENTENNIAL HISTORY SKETCHES INDEPENDENCE HALL

Many of the memorable events held in connection with the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia during the last five months have taken place within the political sanctuary of America—Independence Hall.

Distinguished men and women from all parts of the globe have entered its portals to view the halls where the early patriots affixed their signatures to the document which has given us one hundred and fifty years of freedom, and to see the ancient Liberty Bell which proclaimed it.

The State House is beautiful both in mass effects and minute details. Its facade is centered exactly and winged and arched alike to right and left. Simplicity and balance are outstanding features.

Seen from Independence Square it is a Colonial structure of time-mellowed brick with white window stones. The clock tower is square at the bottom and rises in eight-sided diminutions to a six-sided narrow pinnacle topped by a trident-like gilt weather-vane.

The rooms are serenely beautiful; they are dignified, large and light. There are panels and charming cornices; there are pillars and pilasters.

At the foot of the magnificent stairway now stands the Liberty Bell upon which may still be read the Bible verse which was cast upon it by its makers long before the Revolution:

"Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

The Hall of the Signers possesses a matchless nobility of effect. Here is not only the chair of Hancock, but here, too, is the desk which he used and the silver inkstand into which he dipped his pen, with quill pen holder and sand box.

 The Hall of Independence has seen many important scenes aside from those connected with the Declaration. It was here that thousands of excited citizens assembled to hear the news of Concord and Lexington. It was here that Washington was made Commander-in-Chief. The Constitution was debated, agreed to and signed in this building.

PATHFINDER MEETS FRIDAY

How to Keep "Kids" Off Street

When the Dadson family out in Vancouver, B. C., bought two cornets and a trombone for their three children—the eldest of whom was then but six—the neighbors viewed the musical project with decided skepticism.

"Father" Dadson, however, had ideas of his own, and the doubts of the neighbors worried him not one iota. He believed that children "run the streets" because there is nothing in the average home to hold their interest. He believed that with a definite something in the home it would be the home, and not the streets, that would see the most of his children. Further, he believed that music could supply that definite something. At least it was worth a trial.

The above picture, from the Conn Music Center files, goes far toward telling the rest of the story of this father's experiment.

His three children—Billy is now eight, Hector is six and Mona is four—are now real musicians. Recently they tried their instruments on a nationally known vaudeville circuit. "Just to see what it was like," critics pronounced their act the feature of the bill. "Father" Dadson, however, is more interested in the fact that the act is the feature of the home.

MUSIC AN AID TO ADOLESCENT BOY

Also Found Effective as Discipline in Corrective Institutions.

Rapid progress in the use of music as a means of discipline in corrective institutions, is reported by the Conn Music Center of Elkhart, Ind. Music is not only being used successfully as a tonic for diseased minds, but is also being found effective in safeguarding youth passing through adolescence. Wilhelm van de Wall, director of the Committee for the Study of Music in Institutions and a criminologist and sociologist who has spent a good portion of his life in experiments along this line, finds that musical work with the insane and mentally weak tends to make the inmates of such institutions forget their idiosyncrasies for a time at least. Musical exercises stimulate their mental activities, as well as their moral reflection. It makes them happier. Van de Wall tells of amazing transformations in patients brought about by music.

"Music does for the abnormal mind identically what it does for the normal," says van de Wall.
 "It dispels the gloom of morbid isolation and resultant delusions and hallucinations. It creates a direct, pleasurable, congenial and beautiful environment in tones. It stimulates some of the drowsy patients to vigorous action and many of the anti-social individuals to constructive activities. Even those unfortunates who are too handicapped mentally and physically to fit into the normal scheme of society, under the influence of music quickly drop their pathological moods and reflections, throw off their eccentric behavior and sing, dance, act and talk with full concentration of mind."

MUSIC PRACTICE AID TO SURGEON

Constant practice on a musical instrument as a means of acquiring that degree of skill which the surgeon must have for the successful pursuit of his profession, is advocated by a writer in an English medical journal, copies of which have been received by the Conn Music Center. The editor of the magazine carrying the amazing article is a famous Gloucester surgeon whose advanced opinions are widely quoted.
 The writer of the article maintains that constant and intensive practice on a musical instrument gives the surgeon a super-degree of dexterity. The difficult exercises required in bringing tuneful blasts from a horn are even superior to the skill required by the medical man in the midst of a major operation. Absolute muscular control of the fingers and their immediate response to mental suggestion are listed by the writer as paramount among the benefits derived from the musical sideline.

What's Doing in West Texas

Minera: Wells—The stand of President Arthur P. Duggan and Manager Homer D. Wade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce on the question of a tax survey for the state was fully endorsed by the Mineral Wells Chamber of Commerce at a recent meeting here. A special committee composed of three prominent West Texas men in this section was appointed to offer every assistance to the West Texas organization in their effort to secure passage of a legislative bill by the Fortieth Legislature for furtherance of the state tax levy cause.

Haskell—Work on the disposal plant of a new sewer system for the city has begun here. Seven miles of new sewerage line will be added and the system is expected to be complete and in operation within three months.

Claude—The County Home Demonstration Agent of this section has begun campaigning for a home meat canning program for Armstrong farmers. Through items in the Claude paper she is explaining the value of home canned pork, and other products, and confers with those interested in the subject at her office on Saturdays.

Colorado—"The Value of Poultry Raising to West Texas Farmers" was explained in an interesting and informative address by Manager Homer D. Wade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce during the Mitchell County Poultry School and Show held here November 20.

Eden—A turkey dressing and cooling plant has been opened here. Experienced operatives from Armour and Company of Fort Worth are working at the shop and much business is being done.

Kerrville—An insecticide factory has been established at this point by the Furman Company, manufacturers of and wholesale dealers in insecticides, disinfectants, rat poison, screw worm killer, and similar lines of merchandise. Headquarters office and factory were formerly maintained at San Antonio.

Moran—The Moran Luncheon Club will pay for a city tourists park and deed the same over to the town, it was decided at a recent meeting of the organization. Half the price of the park has already been raised and the other is to be paid out within 12 months.

Levelland—Contract for carrying the U. S. mails over the longest route in this section was awarded here recently. The route will serve

FIND YOUTH IS "HORNING" WAY AROUND WORLD

"Horning one's way around the world," is rapidly becoming a popular means by which Young America is gratifying its "going abroad" hunger, according to information reaching the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Ind. Music is not only the wherewithal which makes it possible for him to satisfy his desire for travel, but it is also keeping his pockets rather well lined.

The American band is found aboard the ships of every flag, and in the capitals of the nations of the Orient and Occident. Members of orchestras provide music aboard boat at comfortable salaries and further increase their earnings through concerts in foreign ports. The story of America's symphonic jazz has penetrated every nation, and the natives are waiting to know more of it. They are anxious to try their luck with America's dance steps, too.

Even the American girls are "horning in" on this free but de luxe travel scheme. When Jack Sutherland returned to the United States recently his saxophone sextette included four American girls. They had stopped in Honolulu for their first appearance, then jumped to Japan. From there they kept on going, and playing.

"We were treated like ambassadors," reported Jesse Wright and his fellow members of the S. S. Franconia orchestra, when they docked at San Francisco after circling the globe on one of their tours.

FAMILY BAND

Those who are laboring under the delusion that the present generation alone is responsible for the Jazz Age would do well to study this picture, says the Conn Music Center, Elkhart, Ind.

Here five generations are pictured in harmony. It shows Mrs. Sarah Jane Hewitt of Los Angeles, eighty-six years of age, drawing harmony from one saxophone, while two more and a clarinet are held in reserve.

Her "little boy" Frank, a mere lad of sixty-seven, is playing the cornet. Her granddaughter, Mrs. A. G. Wagner, forty-one, holds still another saxophone while her great-granddaughter, Mrs. J. Effinger, Jr., twenty, is playing second cornet. Great-great-grandson Jack Effinger, Jr., is doing his best with the drums.

Needless to say, there are no dull moments in the homes of the Hewitt-Effinger clan.

puts an EASY in your home

Take advantage of our special offer good for . . . weeks only

ANYONE can afford an Easy Washer on these terms. It goes into your home the day you make the first deposit. After that you pay the balance in small monthly amounts you'll never miss. And all the time the Easy is saving you the tired back, aching arms and roughened hands that are the price of doing your own washing.

The Easy Washer eliminates all this drudgery. You simply place the clothes in the big copper tub—which, by the way, easily holds ten single sheets—and press a button. In a few minutes everything is spotlessly clean. Then pull a lever, the wringer starts and you run them through. That's all there is to it!

Another great advantage is the swinging gas heater, a special Easy feature, which keeps the water at an even temperature.

It is a wonderful machine, the Easy—so simple a child can operate it, yet very thorough because it operates on the famous Vacuum Cup Principle. And it is such a perfect piece of mechanical workmanship that it will last for years.

But come in and see the Easy Washer for yourself. Once you have seen it, you will wonder how you ever got on without one. Or let us give you a demonstration in your own home by doing your week's washing free of charge. Just telephone for an appointment. But do it today. This special payment offer is limited.

DENVER ROAD TO GET BUSY ON EXTENSION

CLARITY SAYS BUILDING IN SOUTH PLAINS NOT TO BE DELAYED.

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 19.—The Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad will commence construction of their West Texas extensions, a permit for which was granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission Friday, just as soon as necessary details can be attended to and contracts for the work can be made, Frank G. Clarity, vice president and general manager of the line, declared Friday.

Denver officials are jubilant over the victory in their two-year-old fight to make extensions into the rich empire in which the cities of Lubbock, Plainview, Lockney, Silverton and Dimmitt are located.

"Although we have not yet seen the report of the commission, and all we know is what was carried in the papers Friday, it appears that we have won a clean victory and I can tell you we are all very happy over it," Mr. Clarity said.

"This will mean a great deal to Dallas and Fort Worth. It will give them practically a direct route to a new empire. When our lines have been completed it will be possible to leave Dallas or Fort Worth in the evening and arrive in Lubbock or Plainview the next morning. It will be especially important to the cotton and grain interests to these two cities."

The plans of the Denver include building an extension from Esteline on the eastern border of Hall County, and then running west through Turkey and Quitaque, through Plainview and to Dimmitt, while another division will run south from Silverton through Lockney to Lubbock, intersecting the Plainview division. The Denver extensions will be 292 miles long and will cost about $6,800,000, Mr. Clarity said. Considerable material is already stored at Childress for the new extension.

"It will take us from eighteen months to two years to complete this construction," the general manager of the road said. "We will run the same kind of high-class service to Lubbock and Plainview that we are now operating to Amarillo. The most difficult part of the construction will be that which will lift up on top of the caprock near Quitaque."

"Practically all of our right of way has been pledged and as soon as our attorneys have examined the examiner's report and determined just what it contains we will get busy with our building. We have been planning for this over four years, and it is nearly two years since we received our charter for this extension." The line as far as Quitaque may be completed in time to handle 1927 crops, it was indicated.

Texas Panhandle & Gulf officials here declined to make a definite statement until they had examined the report of the Examiner and determined just what it contains. The T. P. & G. planned to construct a road from Fort Worth to Tucumcari, N. M.

The plans of the Frisco, which met with the favor of the I. C. C., according to the Washington report, will add twenty-seven miles of rails to the Quanah, Acme & Pacific from McBain to Floydada.

Much of the territory to be served by the new Denver extensions has been forced, through lack of connections with Dallas and Fort Worth, to give much of their trade to Kansas City, St. Louis and Oklahoma City. Much of this commerce will be kept in Texas when the Denver has completed its construction, Mr. Clarity declared. Some of the territory to be served is entirely without rail service, although it ranks among the richest agricultural territory in the United States.

Jubilant was unanimous throughout the Plains territory Friday, according to telegrams received by Mr. Clarity.

The contest among various rail interests for the high prize of the Plains, started nearly three years ago when the T. P. & G. applied for a certificate of necessity and convenience to build a line from Seymour to Tucumcari and a hearing was held before the Texas Railroad Commission in Austin, which heard evidence for the I. C. C. on the application. Another hearing was held at Plainview more than a year ago when the Denver presented testimony to show why they should be granted a permit to make their extensions. In the meantime the Santa Fe made surveys to run two lines west from Fort Worth into the region, both lines to be south of the proposed Denver extensions. However, no permit was asked by the Santa Fe, although President Story announced that permission of the I. C. C. was to be asked later.

The Frisco asked to be allowed to extend its property, the Q. A. & P., from McBain to Floydado, and put testimony into the records during a hearing held in Fort Worth before the Texas Railroad Commission to substantiate their claims for this privilege.

Protests were entered by the Gulf, Texas & Western, running from Mineral Wells to Seymour, on the grounds that certain of the extensions planned by other lines were in conflict with its interests.

Examiner E. C. Boles of the I. C. C., who presided over the Plainview hearing issued a report some months following that meeting which decidedly favored the T. P. & G., following which briefs were handed in by both the T. P. & G. and the Denver at Washington and final arguments were heard on the matter by the commission.

The final decision announced Friday was based on all this voluminous testimony of these various interests.

According to F. W. Axtell, president of the T. P. & G. Finance Corporation, the decision of the I. C. C. may be appealed to the United States Supreme Court, he indicated Friday.

Plainview, Texas, Nov. 19.—Plainview was rejoicing Friday. Her dream of third of a century was about to be realized. The news of the granting of the Burlington permit to build its lines into Plainview and the Plains country was received with shouting, ringing of bells, blowing of horns and every other known means of giving vent to feelings long penned up.

Within less than ten minutes after the first meager report had been received in Plainview that the permit had been granted and the other permits of contesting lines denied, a large group of Plainview citizens had assembled and arranged the preliminaries for a gigantic celebration to be held in Plainview on Nov. 26, to which everybody will be invited, including every official of the Fort Worth & Denver and other railroads. R. A. Underwood, vice president of the First National Bank, and R. H. Knoobuizen, who engineered the raising of the money necessary to secure the right of way for the Burlington, head the arrangements committees for the celebration.

With the building of the proposed lines into this section of the Plains a new era of development is expected to be ushered in. People have been looking forward for an Eastern connection in Dallas & Fort Worth for the last half century.

T. P. & G. President Says Nothing.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 10.—C. H. Powell, president of the Texas, Panhandle & Gulf Railway Company, a new corporation, reserved comment Friday in connection with the Interstate Commerce Commission decision authorizing the Burlington and Frisco Railroad system to build extensions into West Texas, but denying petitions of the Santa Fe and of the Texas, Panhandle & Gulf to build into that territory.

"I shall have to await a perusal of the decision before I can say anything," said Mr. Powell.

The plans of the Texas, Panhandle & Gulf have been under way for about seven years. The company was incorporated in 1923 and a large amount of its authorized stock has been subscribed, Charles B. Young, an attorney for the company, said. He explained that, of course, no stock could be issued without a favorable decision of the commission.

Q. A. P. Ready to Start Work.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—The Quanah, Acme & Pacific Railway Company, a Frisco subsidiary, will be ready to start construction within two weeks of the twenty-seven-mile extension from Macbain to Floydada, Texas, authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission, Charles H. Sommer, president of the line, said Friday. He estimated the total cost between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000.

Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

THE kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function properly there is apt to be a retention of toxic poisons in the blood. A dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness are symptoms of this condition. Further evidence of improper kidney function is often found in burning or scanty passage of secretions. W. C. SMITH FOUND DEAD AT BORGER

Hedley relatives were shocked and grieved Tuesday when a message came with the news that W. C. Smith had been found dead in his tent at Borger, where he was living temporarily. His son-in-law, Homer Newton, Ray Moreman and Fred Buntin took the horse over there and brought his body back to Hedley, rather than that he had been gassed they could learn nothing concerning his death.

Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ at 10 a. m. Wednesday, conducted by R. R. Price of Clarendon. His body was laid to rest in Rowe cemetery, where two of his children are sleeping.

Surviving him are his widow, four daughters, Mrs. Homer Newton of Hedley, Mrs. George Threadgill of Oklahoma City, Velma and Pearl Smith of Burk Burnett, and two sons, Presley and Lonnie Smith of Burk Burnett. All these were present at the funeral, as were Mrs. Presley Smith and Mr. Threadgill.

Mr. Smith has lived in this section for 35 years, much of that time until recently, having been spent in Hedley and Clarendon. He will be remembered by many friends as a modest, kindly and clean minded gentleman. They will learn of his death with deep regret, and join us in sympathy to the bereaved family. —Hedley Journal.

LIONS HAVE A SMALL CROWD

ATTENDANCE ON LIONS TUESDAY LUNCHEON HAS LITTLE EFFECT ON SPIRITS.

The Clarendon Lions were at their best when they appeared for their regular luncheon Tuesday of this week in the basement of the First Christian Church. The attendance was small due to the number of lions that were in Amarillo for other festivities of the day.

The first matter that came to the attention of the club was the further announcement of the Father and Son Banquet that will be held Tuesday, November 30, in the Dining Hall of the Young Ladies Home of the college. A larger attendance is expected this year than has ever been seen at an affair of this sort and the men of the city are asked to talk the matter over and attend if at all possible.

The matter of the program for the Rotary Club at Memphis is still in the balance and the committee has promised a definite report next week.

Lion Morgan made three announcements that are of much concern to the folk of the city. The first had to do with the support of the Annual with the advertisements of the men of the city. The next had to do with the football games that are to be played here Thursday of this week and the last was the announcement of the Community Program that was held in the Methodist Church Tuesday evening of this week with all the schools of the town in attendance and taking part. Lion R. E. L. Morgan was the chief speaker for the occasion.

Lion Holcomb asked the sentiment of the members of the club on closing for Thanksgiving Day and received the answer that it was a matter of personal interest.

Lion Frank Bennett of the city of Amarillo was then asked to speak to the club on any subject that he might choose. In short, Lion Bennett stated that the Lions Club of the towns in Western Texas performed the unique service comparable to that of the pep squad of the High Schools and Colleges of this section of the state. The Clubs are leaders in the work of the community and take something of the same position as that taken by the leaders in the pep squad of the schools at any public occasion.

Lion Frank Houston of the city of Childress was called to the floor and addressed the club since it was his first visit to the city in some six weeks. He stated that there was one thing that the city of Clarendon was falling down on and that was the matter of civic pride, leaving the vacant lots of the city to grow to weeds and for them to accumulate rubbish of all sorts that was an eye sore to those who passed through the city. He suggested that this could be remedied at little cost and that it should be done at once to keep the name of Clarendon as being one of the cleanest cities of this section of the state. In this connection he also stated that he gave Clarendon as being the best located town on the Denver Road for a good town ten years from the present time when the Central Power & Light Company was looking for locations in this section of the state.

NEW NUMBERS FOR COUNTY ARE NOW HERE FOR USE

The office of the Sheriff and Tax Collector stated to the News the fore part of this week that the numbers for the cars of 1927 were in the basement of the Courthouse and that they would be ready for distribution after December 1. The numbers this year are a deep green with white figures and are different in numbers from any that have ever been issued in this county. In this connection, it has been stated that a certificate stating that the lights are examined must be on the car at the time the licenses are issued. The numbers must be in place by January 1, or else the driver of the car may be forced to take the consequences.

SOUTH WARD PUPILS GIVE BENEFIT PROGRAM

The program given in the High School Auditorium by the South Ward School, assisted by Miss Fray Stalling's kindergarten pupils and Mr. Smith's harmonica orchestra, was well attended and much enjoyed. Quite a nice little sum was realized to go into the treasury of the South Ward Parent Teachers' Association.

This organization, the P. T. A., is doing some very commendable work. It is buying a set of scales, refurnishing the First Aid Box, and preparing to make a health inspection of the pupils of the school. A recent addition, for which the school is indebted to Mrs. W. H. Patrick, is a bed and bed linens to be used in the First Aid Room. The seventh grade plans to complete the equipment for the room.

E. F. Bryan of Amarillo spent the week-end here with his father, C. A. Bryan.

PEOPLE OF AMERICA USE MODERN CONVENIENCES MOST

Telephone statistics show that during the first twenty years of existence, the rate of growth of the telephone in the United States and Europe was approximately the same, there being about twice as many telephones in the United States at the end of that period as there were in Europe.

During the past thirty years, however, the growth in the United States has been little short of astonishing as compared with Europe, and today there are practically 15 telephones per 100 inhabitants as compared with less than 2 in all of Europe.

Another way of visualizing this difference in development is to say that the United States with a population of 115,000,000 has 61 percent of all the telephones in the world, as compared with Europe with a total of 446,000,000 but only 28 percent of the telephones.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Olen Walker and little daughter of Amarillo are guests of Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sims.

Mr. and Mrs. George Butler of Teneha, who have been visiting in Pampa, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Buel Sanford.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Morgan will have as guests Thanksgiving Day, Dr. Morgan's cousin, Mrs. C. E. Givens, her daughter, Miss Ora Givens, and her sons, Morton and Frank Givens, all of Childress.

W. T. Hayes and wife of St. Joe were here the past week visiting their son-in-law, Bryan Dill of the Goldston community. Mr. Hayes is a newspaper man and has recently sold his paper at St. Joe. He expects to locate in South Texas in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spitzer had as guests for the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wise of Manson, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Wise stopped here on their way to California, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Spitzer and Mrs. Wise were school mates.
