ALL CITY SCHOOLS IN JOINT PROGRAM

FALL TERM OPENING OF COLLEGE, HIGH AND JUNIOR HI NEXT WEEK.

Next week marks the opening of all city schools, and Wednesday, Sept. 4th, will be given over to registration in the Junior College, High School and grades, according to announcement by Supt. H. T. Burton.

A joint program will celebrate the beginning of the fall work on Thursday morning, Sept. 5th, at the College Auditorium and the public in general is cordially invited to be present and participate in the ceremonies.

Dean W. A. Clark, Jr., of the Junior College has furnished The Clarendon News with the program which will begin promptly at nine o'clock Thursday morning and the public and pupils will have opportunity to meet a number of new members of the teaching staff of the several schools at that hour when they will be introduced by Supt. H. T. Burton.

Following is the program of the morning as well as the registration schedules for the several departments on Wednesday, Sept. 4th:

Program Thursday

Grades 6, 7, and 8 report to Junior High School building at 9:00 a. m. Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hulse and daughter, Hazel, of Denton visited in the O. L. Fink home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Foster of Cleburne, Texas, arrived here Wednesday evening for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Stocking. Mrs. Stocking is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster.

City Headquarters For Retail Chain

The initial car lot shipment of automobile tires will be received here in the next few days for the stocking of a retail tire business to be established in five towns of the Panhandle with Clarendon as the hub.

Branch retail stores will be opened in Wellington, Memphis, Shamrock and McLean, and a large and comprehensive stock of one of the best known brands of tires will be handled. These tires will be bought on such a close margin that they can be retailed at a price level calculated to match the so-called mail order competition.

The new venture will be under the management of Homer McElvanev, who moved here some months ago as head bookkeeper for Smith Bros., and local capital will finance the chain.

The Cantelou building opposite the municipal building has been leased for the new store and headquarters for the chain will be maintained in connection with the supervision of Mr. McElvanev. In this day of chain stores the establishment of the hub of the business here is another testimonial to the stability and progress of Clarendon and this community.

Rev. Heard Is Strong Preacher

Splendid congregations are greeting every message of Rev. D. H. Heard of Big Spring who is conducting the revival at the First Baptist Church, and he is doing some very strong preaching at the morning and evening services each day.

Seven additions to the church have been net visible results up to Wednesday noon and the religious life of the church has been much deepened according to Rev. S. R. McClung, the pastor.

This week junior and intermediate choirs have been added to the regular adult choir and the music under the director of John C. Marshall of Houston is an inspiring adjunct of the services. Mr. Marshall is an accomplished soloist and his messages in song at the evening hour have proven a treat to the congregations.

The services are held at 10 a. m. and at 8:15 p. m. each day in the church auditorium and will probably come to a close next Sunday evening.

DONLEY INSTITUTE PROGRAM IS GIVEN

DONLEY COUNTY TEACHERS WILL ASSEMBLE HERE MONDAY FOR 2-DAY MEET

One hundred and twenty-five teachers of Donley County and probably a few from adjoining counties will assemble here Monday, Sept. 2nd, for the opening program of the Donley County Teachers Institute which will hold for two days.

Supt. H. T. Burton will deliver the address of welcome at the first session Monday morning and Supt. W. C. Maxwell of Hedley will make the response.

Dean W. A. Clark, Jr., of the Clarendon Junior College informs The News that the principal addresses of the two-day institute will be made by Mr. Warren Perry Clement of the department of education of the Texas Technological College at Lubbock. Mr. Clement is regarded as one of the leading educators of the West and local school men are happy to have him here for the institute.

All assembly sessions will be held in the auditorium of Clarendon Junior College and the various sections will occupy the classrooms in the same building. The program follows:

FIRST TALKIES BOUGHT FOR CITY

MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT TO BE IN OPERATION NOVEMBER 1.

Messrs. Homer Mulkey and Lee Casey returned last Thursday evening from Dallas, where they had been all the fore part of last week for the purpose of purchasing sound equipment for installation in the Pastime Theater. They report that they found a number of different sets that are being sold, but that they finally settled on the R. C. A. set and signed the first contract for the purchase.

In line with the policy of the company selling the machine, they are sending an engineer to test the acoustics of the building to see what changes will be needed for the complete installation of the machine. The booth for the operating machines may be changed and if it is necessary, they will have it done by the time the other machinery has arrived. A new sound curtain will also be installed, especially designed to care for the production of the sound pictures brought here.

The machine purchased will care for both film and disc recording, bringing the public in Clarendon the best there is in pictures of both classes. The contract states that delivery will be made in approximately sixty days, which will put the machine in operation here about November first.

LEGION DELEGATES GO TO STATE MEET

Ralph Andis and Loyd Stallings left yesterday evening for last week for Port Arthur where they represented the Aubyn E. Clark Post of this city at the state convention of the Legion held in that city.

Mr. Andis drove his family down to Childress in the afternoon and joined Mr. Stallings on the train that night. They go with splendid reports of the local organization for the past year. They will return here tomorrow. Mr. Stallings received appointment to the constitution and by-laws committee for the convention, representing this district here in the Panhandle.

PLANS MATURE FOR GOLF TOURNAMENT

HILLCROFT INVITATION MEET IS RECEIVED WITH INTEREST IN TERRITORY.

Clarendon's first invitation golf tournament sponsored by the Hillcroft Golf Club of this city for Sept. 6-7-8, is attracting much interest among the golfing fraternity over the Panhandle and several clubs have already signified their intentions of coming over after the attendance cup and team play trophy, as well as many individual prizes offered for those who enter.

What is believed to be the finest array of cups, trophies and merchandise prizes ever offered outside of the big cities, has been donated by the loyal business men of Clarendon, and over five hundred dollars is represented in a display of the prizes and trophies which are attracting continued public interest this week in the show window of The Clarendon News.

"We intend to conduct a tournament based on democracy," said President Tom F. Connell, "as he outlined the plans for offering valuable prizes for the mediocre golfers as well as for the par-shooters. "If we have a hundred entries," he continued, "every player in four will have opportunity to win a prize since we have more than twenty-five prizes scheduled."

Panhandle golfers will be interested to know that the tournament committee has secured the services of "Boney Bonebrake," well-known and popular professional from Borger, to manage the three days' play, and incidentally the Borger Club assert that they intend to win the attendance cup and various and sundry other prizes, although this is

W. H. STRAWN GETS FIRST DONLEY BALE

COTTON RAISED ALMOST WITHIN CITY LIMITS IS FIRST OF SEASON.

A farmer living almost within the city limits of Clarendon is the man who gets the first bale of Donley cotton to be ginned at Clarendon. The bale was ginned on Friday of last week and weighed 474 pounds. The Smith Brothers gin did the work of getting the bale in condition for sale, using their square bale machine since a part of the equipment for the round bale machine had not then been received.

Mr. Strawn sold the bale Saturday morning for 19 cents per pound which brought the receipts from the bale to $94.33. Mr. Strawn also gets sixty per cent of the fund raised here last week for the first Donley bale and the first bale from out of the county. This sum will amount to $90.00 in addition to the regular sale price of the bale.

STATE TAX RATE SET AT 68 CENTS

MAKES AN INCREASE OF FOUR CENTS OVER LAST YEAR'S RATE.

Announcement was made in the daily papers of last Friday of the final settling of the tax rate for the State after more than two weeks of delay. The rate of 68 cents was set following the reduction of the school rate from 35 cents to 31 cents. The State ad valorem tax was formerly set at 30 cents, an increase of 8 cents over the last year's rate. The Confederate pension tax was set at 7 cents, bringing the total to 68 cents.

The total valuation of property assessed is $4,144,446,188. The 68 cent rate will produce $28,182,234. From this will be deducted 20 per cent for assessing and collecting.

THE GRAF ZEPPELIN SOARS OVER MEMPHIS, WELLINGTON

For a few minutes in the wee small hours of Wednesday morning people of the Panhandle from Lockney to Memphis to Wellington received their first glimpse of the world famous airship, the Graf Zeppelin. Tuesday night the report was given over Texas radio stations that the Graf would proceed along the Texas & Pacific route Fort to Worth, however storms became apparent along this line and Dr. Eckner proceeded to change his route and follow the high elevation afforded by the Panhandle.

About 2:30 o'clock the drone of the powerful motors of the ship awakened many of the folks around Memphis. As the Graf made its way across the heavens the witnesses of the spectacle were spellbound over the majestic swiftness of its flight. The ship passed directly over the courthouse at Wellington and turned towards Kansas City at the north edge of the city. The flight of the Graf Zeppelin was ended this morning when it reached its destination at Lakehurst, N. J., after circling the globe without the slightest mishap.

disputed by representatives of Indian Hills and Hillcrest clubs at Amarillo, as well as some intention from the Irishmen from Shamrock and the sharpshooters from Memphis.

Another feature for the entertainment of the visiting golfers and their ladies has been arranged in the way of a swim and chicken barbecue on the afternoon of the first day, Sept. 6th, at the Clarendon Country Club. Frank Whitlock, noted barbecue king of this section will see that the Donley County fryers are served piping hot and browned to a turn, and a committee will be in charge of arranging for all the "trimmings" that go with such a repast. All visiting golfers are urged to bring their ladies and their bathing suits and some entertainment especially for the visiting ladies is also being arranged.

PLANS MATURE FOR BIG SHOW

DONLEY COUNTY CLUB AND POULTRY SHOW DETAILS BEING WORKED OUT.

Various committees of the Donley County Club and Poultry Show which holds in Clarendon September 17-18, are busy on a multitude of details for the big annual event and according to H. J. Edington, who is pinch hitting for Secretary G. L. Boykin for a few days, everything is working smoothly and prospects for the greatest show of recent years are flattering.

The band committee has laid out a plan for community program contests offering suitable prizes to the various communities of the county, and it is likely that some programs of very high merit will be staged here during the Show on a specially prepared out-door stage on the Grammar Schol grounds where the Show is to be held.

During the past week several hundred catalogs of the Show have been sent out, and Miss Harvey Thompson, home demonstrator, is co-operating in a very effective way in the proper distribution of the books. Secretary Boykin of the Chamber of Commerce will be back at his post the first of next week and will push to a rapid conclusion all plans not now matured.

EAST TEXANS VISIT RELATIVES IN DONLEY

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDaniel, Mr. Jack Akins and Miss Beulah Strain all of DeKalb, Texas, arrived in Clarendon at a late hour Monday night for a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. John McDaniel of this city. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel are parents of Mr. McDaniel and Miss Strain is a sister of Mrs. McDaniel.

The party is enjoying their visit in the Panhandle, this being the first time they have been here since Mr. McDaniel, senior, is a prominent grower of East Texas and he expresses much interest in the relatively good crops of this immediate section. Since Mr. and Mrs. John McDaniel moved here in June as newlyweds, this is the first visit from the old home town and they are enjoying the visitors immensely.

CHURCH OF CHRIST REVIVAL AUG. 30TH

ELDER G. K. WALLACE WILL LEAD LOCAL CONGREGATION IN MEETING.

The revival meeting of the Clarendon Church of Christ will begin their schedule of services Friday, August 30th. This meeting will run throughout the remainder of this week and continue through next week and will end Sunday evening, September 8th. The local congregation is fortunate indeed in securing Elder G. K. Wallace to conduct the series of services for the duration of the meeting. Elder Wallace comes to Clarendon direct from a meeting being concluded at Bowie, Texas, and reports have been received here that he is a most forceful speaker and the local church is assured of a man who will put forward his best efforts for the success of the coming meeting.

H. P. Cooper, well known to the folks of the city will have charge of the music during the series of revival services. Mr. Cooper is one of the best qualified men in the state to handle this part of the meeting and with his coming the folks of the city and county will be given a musical treat that will take long to forget.

The services will be held in the auditorium of the Church of Christ building throughout the meeting. Morning services have not been announced to date, but will probably be held each morning at 10:00 o'clock with the evening services starting at 8:15 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of the services during the meeting.

Jimmy Adams, former resident of Clarendon and now of Amarillo, spent the week here.

Memphians Here Wednesday Noon

Advertising the Hall County District Fair, a party of fifty Memphis Boosters were here Wednesday accompanied by Paul James and his Harrell's Chapel Band. The dates for the Hall County Fair are Sept. 10-13, and every Memphian on the trip let it be known that a hearty welcome is extended Clarendon and Donley County to attend and participate in the various events of the big annual show.

For a number of years Donley County has availed itself of the warm welcome of the Memphis neighbors and it is very probable that some of the communities of the lower side of the county will have exhibits there as well as a number of individual exhibits in the agricultural and club events. The Memphis party showed up in advance and ordered dinner for the entire crowd and after having completed the feature of the day's business Prof. Paul Jones gave a short band concert and detail of their Fair.

LESS PARKING IS ASKED BY LEGION

VOLUNTARY TRAFFIC COURTESY IS PLAN OF LOCAL LEGIONAIRES.

In an effort to perform a worthwhile service for the community even as it did for the nation back in the days of '18, the Aubyn E. Clark Post, American Legion has worked out a plan for the betterment of traffic conditions in Clarendon which they hope will have the favor and whole-hearted co-operation of Clarendon people and of the entire county.

Under the plan devised it is the purpose of the Legion to invoke no present or new traffic law or ordinance, but to get a free-will concerted action of all the people that there be less congestion of traffic on Clarendon streets, better parking facilities, more parking space for visitors and customers of the city, and more safety for the pedestrian as well as those who ride.

A pledge is being asked for all car owners, a copy of which will be found on this page, the terms of which are calculated to bring about the desired ends listed above, and a sticker on the windshield of signifying to those who are co-operating in this better traffic movement.

Officials of the Legion here state they have secured the endorsement of the city commission and that it is their earnest hope that citizens of Donley County and Clarendon will enter into the movement without pressure or coercion, and solely in the interest of safety for life and limb, and better traffic conditions on the whole.

One of the desired ends is that business men do not park their own personal cars on Kearney Street, thereby leaving more parking room for those who visit Clarendon to make purchases at the various stores. This is a matter that needs attention and one, no doubt, that will commend itself at once to the business people of the city.

Read the pledge as carried on this page and be ready to sign up when the committee from the Legion approaches you.

LIGHT SHOWERS REPORTED OVER COUNTY WEDNESDAY

Showers only to the extent of coline the atmosphere were reported in sections of Donley County Wednesday evening and night. In the city the precipitation only amounted to a little more than one tenth of an inch. A heavier amount was reported west of Clarendon which amounted to nearly a quarter of an inch. There was little more than a light shower to the east of the coline the atmosphere were reported in the Chamberlain community. A light but cooling rain fell around Jericho, which will give temporary relief to that section.

Road conditions are all fair except to Amarillo, where the rain of last night have made them slow and muddy. Cars from the west have been covered with mud and persons from that section report heavy showers.

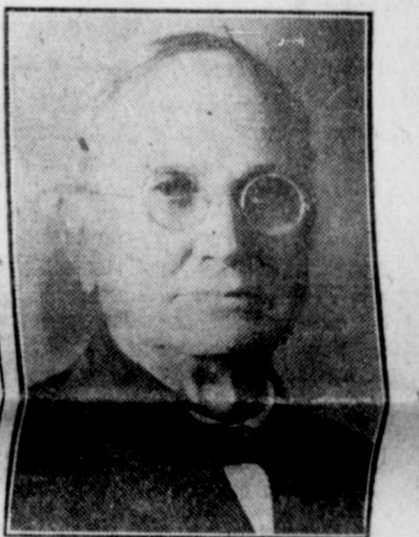

VETERAN MAYOR IS NAMED BY LEGION

FIRST CITIZENSHIP AWARD GOES TO H. W. TAYLOR IN CLOSE CONTEST.

Mayor Henry W. Taylor is the most distinguished citizen for Clarendon in 1929 based on a record of service, according to the decision of the Aubyn E. Clark Post American Legion, made a few days ago.

The Legion award is the first of an annual event which will be made by the various Legion organizations in Texas, and is designed to single out records of community service, in the hope of promoting a better average of citizenship in the state, according to Post Commander Clyde Douglas in explaining the purpose of the project.

It is significant that the first award here goes to the mayor of the town, and since Mayor Taylor is one of the pioneers of this section and of Clarendon it belies the common belief that the pioneer is lost in keeping pace with modern progress and conditions. Mayor Taylor's service to Clarendon extends over a period of three decades but his work in the past twelve months in civic betterment and in personal charities to the unfortunate is such as necessary to win the honor for 1929, and though other unselfish citizens received a handsome vote, the Mayor carried the day. Mr. Taylor is the recipient of a handsome certificate of award from the state Legion headquarters and is receiving congratulations of his friends on this unsolicited mark of esteem by the local Legion.

MAYOR H. W. TAYLOR

Donley Woman Is Prize Winner

First prize winner in a national contest is the distinction which Mrs. S. Dilli, operator of a very widely known poultry farm near Jericho, has brought to Donley County.

Mrs. Dilli received a letter last week from the Mothers Home Life, a magazine of national circulation, published in Chicago, appraising her of her good fortune and enclosing a check for $10.00 which was the first prize in a contest for "Best Letters on Poultry Raising" conducted by that magazine. There were two other prizes in the contest of $5.00 each. The winning letter will be printed in the current issue of the magazine and will be reproduced in The Clarendon News as soon as it is released. Mrs. Dilli recently reached the high peak of 138 eggs in one day on her poultry farm, where she raises pure strain White Leghorn chickens in a very profitable way. She is classed as one of the outstanding poultry raisers in Donley County and her friends join The News in congratulations over her victory in the contest just closed.

Gwin Silvev, former resident of Clarendon and now a faculty member of S. M. U. at Dallas visited friends here Tuesday and Wednesday. He left here today for Amarillo and will return Friday for a short stay before returning to Michigan, where he is in school.

NOTICE:—Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the publisher.

Donley's watermelons and canteloupes are in full market tide and everybody is in better humor. Their flavor makes a gloomy man smile and a happy man happier.

Even trouble has its compensations. When the dark shadow of sickness, death or a dozen other earthly sorrows fall upon us, then it is that the true kindly unselfishness of our friends and neighbors are borne in on us. We sometimes feel that evil is in the hearts of everyone, but when sorrows come then we find that even casual friends delight to extend a helping hand, a kindly word and a smile of sympathy. People on this old earth are much better than they are given credit for being.

Next week our streets will be filled morning and afternoons with hundreds of children trudging to and from school. They are our capital stock of the future and our prized possessions for today and tomorrow, and to them we owe a vast responsibility. One way we can accept duty is in careful driving of motor vehicles on streets contiguous to the schools. A moment or two lost in careful, sane driving is a loss to humanity and to the future. We should never forgive ourselves should our recklessness cost suffering or death to one of our school children. Let us not forget.

The News feels that proper thanks should be returned to the county judge and commissioners court of Donley County for the very splendid results they have achieved in beautifying the court house square. For the first time the square is set in bermuda grass and a beautiful coat has been attained in spite of the drouth. The flowers are pretty and the shade trees are doing well. Compliments are due and The News believes that it has the hearty concurrence of every prideful citizen of the county in thus returning thanks to the court for its investment in beauty and appearance, as evidenced in the court house yard. Gentlemen, our thanks are yours.

As the teaching staff of our city schools assemble for their year's work the community has an opportunity to extend a welcome and a warm handclasp indicative of a neighborly attitude which will find ready response from those who are to instruct in our schools for the coming nine months. It has been said that the teachers are often disloyal to the community interests where they are employed—and some may be—but it is very likely that if teachers are welcomed into the community and made to feel their part in community life, their loyalty to the local interests will be just as great as the interest manifest in them. Let's give our teachers, new and old, a warm, friendly welcome to Clarendon.

A TWENTY YEAR RECORD

During the past twenty years the public schools have practically eliminated illiteracy and materially raised the general level of intelligence.

They have supervised the health and safety of the nation's children to a much greater extent than ever before and to their great good.

They have absorbed the great flood of immigration which inundated the country, and kept it American.

Through courses in vocational education, they have prepared young people for specific trades and have increased the earning power of those thus educated.

Our great advance in material prosperity can be ascribed in part to the higher education levels and thinking to which the work of the public schools have raised the masses.—Roger Babson.

EXAMPLE OR EXHORTATION?

Showing a man how to do a thing doesn't make him willing to do it. Yet exhorting him to do better has no effect until you show him how. You must show him the beautiful valley till he wants to be in it, and then gingerly take his hand and lead him thereunto.

Men are sensitive about being helped. If you show a hundred men who cannot help themselves how to begin helping themselves, most of them will tell you to mind your own business. The story is related of a corporation president who hired a $15,000 counsellor to tell him what was wrong. The counsellor told him; whereupon the president not only discharged him but sued him for libel.

Barring calamity, the seat of a man's success or failure is in his brain. If he is a success, he will be flattered to hear this; if he is a failure he will be offended to hear it; because the average man won't stand for a reflection on his intelligence any more than he will for a reflection on his wife. But—

We are not average men, are we? Sh' say not! We've got the courage and sportsmanship to step up to bat no matter what kind of curves the pitcher's throwing! If a straight fast one hits us in the midriff, we'll curl up in the grass for a moment and then as breath comes back get up and laugh it off! That's the kind of boys we live for in this sanctum.—"Spinal Colyums."

"THE LOWER ROAD"

The "Lower Road" over life's journey is down grade all the way. It affords easy means of transportation—there are tufted seats in all conveyances—there are gay and hysterical crowds to cheer you as you pass—there are bands and orchestras to make music—there are many mirages and optical illusions to lead you on and there is much "leisure" among the happy-go-lucky wayfarers.

Yes, this lower road offers enchantments of a varied nature until you get by the last connecting path to the great Highway of Progress—then you become thirsty—you experience hunger for more practical and permanent things—you feel the pang of wasted opportunities and suddenly you are jolted by the husky voice of Failure crying out, "All off!—far as we go."—Selected.

The Town Doctor

(The Doctor of Towns)

WHERE IS YOUR TOWN GOING?

Two speaking engagements in one day were 150 miles apart by way of paved roads, so it was decided to take an unmarked shortcut.

As we drove, we kept inquiring, "Is this the way to Blankville?" Those to whom the question was put in each case replied, "Where you going?" I decided to ask the next fellow where he was going.

We overtook a man in an open buggy—I say "buggy"—it was once, no doubt, but could hardly be called that "as was." One wheel dished in, another dished out, a front wheel dished both ways. There was no dash-board, the buggy seat had been replaced by a soap box, and if there ever had been paint applied to any part of it, all traces had been obliterated. Seated, or had I better say, perched on the box that served for a seat, all hunched over, was a be-whiskered individual, adorned with raiment much patched and seldom, if ever, washed. As we signaled for half the one-lane road, he clucked and pushed on the lines that hung over the rump of the most ungainly, spavined specimen of horse flesh I ever had the displeasure of beholding. Slowing to the pace of his steed, I made salutation with, "Where you going, brother?" He turned slowly toward us, evacuated sufficient volume of deep brown liquid to make speech possible, and replied, "Oh, I'm just ridin' in to ride out."

To say I was nonplused would not describe it—I was flabbergasted and stumped. Here in the season of the year a man whose occupation could be none other than one demanding all of his time, was "just ridin' in to ride out." "Why?" I asked, and he replied, "Waal there ain't no chores about the place, so might as well kill time one way as t'other."

There are many towns just like that—"just ridin' in to ride out," saying there isn't anything to do.

If the vehicle your town uses to get somewhere is a worn-out, old-fashioned, ram-shackle dilapidated, patched-up affair, with a spavined, buck-kneed, string-haltered means of locomotion, the thing to do is wake up to modern ways of doing things. Give your ideas and ways of doing things a shave, shampoo and hair cut. Throw away your home spun jeans and get yourself into a pair of 1929 pants. By so doing, others will do likewise and then, and only then will you get some place.

Where is Clarendon going? It must be going some place—ahead or backward. If it is "just ridin' in to ride out," it's standing still, which is going back, and soon stagnation will set in, which is even worse than complete annihilation.

E. V. QUATTLEBAUM BRINGS IN FINE PEACH SAMPLES

E. V. Quattlebaum, prosperous farmer of the county, whose farm is 2 miles west of the city raises some of the finest peaches in the Panhandle. This was attested to when he brought in nine peaches and presented them to the News Tuesday morning of this week. The specimens were of the J. H. Hail variety, a peach practically the same as the Elberta species, but a much improved and higher quality fruit. The trees bearing the fruit are young trees in their first yield. A comparatively heavy growth marks this stage of development.

Out of curiosity a member of the News force had the nine peaches weighed and the total weight was exactly three and one-half pounds. There were three of the peaches which weighed one-half pound apiece. The fruit brought to the News were practically perfect in shape and in color and also in texture.

Mr. Quattlebaum states that he will have an entry in the chicken exhibits at the fair this fall that will make some one get up and hustle to beat. He has a fine stock of poultry and will offer plenty of competition to the other growers of fine poultry.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Murrell returned to their home here the early part of this week after a vacation trip that included many points of interest in Colorado and New Mexico. They also visited their new granddaughter in Vernon, the latter part of last week, stating that they had to visit the new Miss Murrell before they could call their vacation complete.

Car Insurance

Several car owners have come in and had us to write them a full coverage Policy since reading our Ad in last week's Paper. We know of others that should have this coverage. Texas Voters Urged To Forget Raskob And National Disputes

"CONSIDERATION OF THINGS VITALLY EFFECTING WELFARE OF TEXAS" IS BURDEN OF PLEA MADE BY RAILROAD COMMISSIONER C. V. TERRELL.

By Gordon K. Shearer
United Press Staff Correspondent.
Austin, Texas, Aug. 21.—(UP)—A suggestion that Texas voters forget Raskob and national disputes and consider practical needs of Texas and its state Government in the coming state campaign is made by State Railroad Commissioner C. V. Terrell.

"What Texas needs now is a consideration of the things vitally affecting the welfare of the state," said Terrell. "The national campaign can settle national matters."

As imperative matters facing Texas candidates and voters, the Commissioner cited:

(1) A constitutional convention to lift some of the tax burden from the home-owner and the man trying to buy a home.

(2) A program for elimination of deadly grade crossings.

On the first proposition it is his suggestion that the tax exemption on household property be enlarged. He would also provide that the homestead shall be exempt from taxation up to a value of about $500.

Decrease in the number of homeowners in some sections of the state was cited by Commissioner Terrell as a startling demonstration of the need of lifting burdens from the home owner. Rural routes were cited that at one time had a scattered tenant or two, where now few of the farms are owned by the occupant. In the cities, the difficulties of salaried man paying out a home and carrying the tax burden at the same time was cited.

For grade crossing elimination, Terrell suggests that certain main arterial roads be first designated for elimination of the crossings. Adequate marking of other high-ways would be urged for the protection of their users until the elimination program may be extended.

Recent grade crossing accidents near Nesquitto and Georgetown were pointed out as an illustration of the toll being taken of lives in Texas under the present conditions.

The famous bill of the first called session of the state legislature knocking "L" out of Zavalla County's name goes in effect today.

The change was ordered on the ground that the county was named for Lorenzo de Zavala, signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence and had been corrupted into the spelling with a double L.

In English this appears trivial. But when the Spanish pronunciation is considered it makes a great difference, as the double L has a sound entirely unlike the single L.

Other laws of the first called session which were passed without an emergency provision making them effective at once, also will go into effect today. These include the provision by which a poll tax receipt may be mailed to the persons who paid it; the new livestock sanitary regulations; a group of banking laws increasing liability of stockholders; a bill for transfer of school pupils to districts with high schools on payment of certain fees to the district into which the pupil transfers; a new Lloyd's plan insurance code; a fraternal benefit code; increased pay for court reporters and a bill creating a state board of education.

Governor Moody has not named the members of the state barber board, as no provision was made for their expenses. The barber bill is effective Sept. 1. He also still has a member of the state board of education to name, Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham of New Waverly having declined to serve.

In court procedure an important change will be made today. It is provided by a bill permitting parties in a civil suit to require the testimony of adverse parties without being bound by such testimony, but having the right to impeach or contradict it by their testimony.

Our annual "wash bill" from soil erosion amounts to many millions of dollars, remedies for this enormous waste can be applied better now than later, say soil scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who recommend the following control measures. Soil-saving and water-saving terraces should be built in thousands of fields. Much steep and highly erosive soil used for clean-cultivated crops should be devoted to permanent pasture or timber. Over-grazed ranges should be regulated according to their carrying capacity. Fire prevention on watersheds should be practiced.

YIELD AND LENGTH OF COTTON DECLINE IN TEXAS
Austin, Texas, Aug. 27.—Average yield of cotton in Texas has declined about 27 per cent, or 49 pounds per acre during the last 30 years, and the average staple length of Texas cotton has declined about 1 1/16 inches to 7.8 inch, according to Dr. A. E. Cox, director of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas and chairman of the Texas Cotton Committee. The Texas Cotton Committee has for one of its purposes the arousing of public interest in cotton raising and marketing and it hopes to accomplish this more effectively through the analysis and presentation of the significant facts bearing on the problems of cotton production, marketing, consumption and their inter-relationship.

It is with this purpose in view that the Committee has compiled its second report on the yield and quality of Texas cotton. This report contains papers prepared by the best authorities in the State. LOCAL TRI-STATE FAIR DIRECTOR GIVES INTERVIEW

Tom F. Connally of this city who is one of the Tri-State Fair Directors has given out the following interview relative to the fair.

"Headlined by the mammoth Hagenbeck-Wallace wild animal circus, the J. T. Wortham Carnival Company, the largest in the world, and a score of other attractions being shown at the exposition for the first time this year, the Tri-State Fair to be held at Amarillo September 23 to 29 is going to be one of the leading events of its kind in the entire Southwest.

Fair officials are offering $15,000 in cash premiums in the various divisions of exhibition. Of this amount, $5,000 is for the Hereford show alone, $2,500 for the Jersey and Holstein departments. This year the Hereford show is sponsored by the American Hereford Breeders Association and will draw entries from breeders all over the country.

Headed by 100 of the leading business and professional men and women of its territory, the Tri-State Fair is one of the leading business institutions of the Tri-State region which embraces the Panhandles of Texas and Oklahoma, as well as most of the Eastern part of New Mexico. Unlike most yearly expositions, it is an all-year-round affair, in that people over the entire region prepare during the intervals between fairs to show at the next one.

P. C. Bennett, Superintendent of the Agriculture Department, reports that 17 counties already have made reservations to show during the big fair.

This year, for the second time, there will be a free gate. Minimum estimates put the out-of-town crowds coming here at more than 200,000. Cities from as far as 200 miles away already are making preparations to send representative delegations to Amarillo for at least one of the seven days of the fair.

RARE OLD BIBLE IN T. C. U. LIBRARY

Fort Worth, Aug. 20.—An old Latin Bible printed in 1607, antedating by four years the King James version, has just been received at the Mary Couets Burnett Library of Texas Christian University, the gift of C. P. Shannon of Fort Worth, according to Arthur D. Curry, librarian.

Though printed 322 years ago, the old volume is still in good condition despite its more than three centuries of use, and is enclosed in a parchment cover which reveals the ridges made by the binder's cords on the shank of the book. It is autographed with the name of "Edward Ellisons, Longport, Burdon Staffordshire, March 10, 1865," followed by the autograph of Mr. Shannon, written 63 years later in 1928. Not only are the Old and New Testament included but the apocryphal books as well.

Mr. Shannon is a collector, having in his possession a page valued at around $1,000 from the first Bible ever printed, the Gutenberg Bible. At the same time, Mr. Shannon made a gift to T. C. U. a six-volume set by Victor Duruy, "The History of Rome."

CAR WRECK THURSDAY IS NOT INJURIOUS TO ANY

Two Hall County automobiles came to blows at the intersection of the two streets just west of the Courthouse at the jail corner last Thursday afternoon late. No damage was done to any of the occupants of the cars with the exception of a few bruises that were of no immediate avail to the occupants of the cars. One of the cars, a Chevrolet coupe, suffered a badly damaged roof and one side, this being done when the car turned on its side. The other was a Ford roadster and suffered a blown out tire in the crash.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hemminger returned last Friday evening from Montalva, where they were called early in the week by the sudden illness of Mrs. Hemminger's grandfather, Mr. Tucker died and was buried last Thursday.

HAROLD BUGBEE TO SHOW IN DALHART

LOCAL ARTIST TO PRESENT PAINTINGS AUGUST 31 TO SEPTEMBER 3.

Dalhart, Texas, Aug. 20.—Harold Bugbee, Clarendon Cowboy Artist, will show his pictures in the heart of a real cattle country here August 31 to September 3. Bugbee's exhibit of Southwestern paintings will be under the auspices of The Dalhart Texan.

Dalhart art lovers are looking forward with genuine pleasure to Bugbee's exhibit inasmuch as he held a small exhibit here several years before he achieved the fame and reputation he now has. Bugbee has had an exceptionally successful summer season and it is believed his work will be well received in Dalhart.

The editor of The Dalhart Texan, John L. McCarty, is an art student and has arranged for a series of exhibits under the sponsorship of his paper. The first exhibit he sponsored recently was for Lloyd Albright, Dalhart artist who achieved much publicity and recognition as a result. Dalhart has a permanent display of oil paintings and a large group of artists and art students.

WILL H. PRICE VISITS WIFE—TAKES AIR ROUTE

When W. H. Price of Pleasanton, Kansas, decided last week to visit his wife here in the J. T. Patman home last week all methods of transportation were too slow for him, so he took an airplane into Amarillo. The plane was forced down a short distance from the port by failure of the oiling system but no one was injured in the descent. A passing motorist, seeing the plight of the plane, stopped and carried Mr. Price and another man to the airport in Amarillo, where he was met by Mr. and Mrs. James Patman and brought to the city via automobile.

BEAUTY in the HOME

How To Achieve A Colorful Modern Kitchen

By Agnes Foster Wright

There is no room in the house which has a more direct effect upon a woman's happiness and good spirits than the kitchen. And certainly no room which offers more interesting possibilities to the woman who knows what can be done with duco and who has a little ingenuity to create charming interiors.

For this kitchen I chose three of the many lovely duco colors available and used them with, I think, a quite unusual and interesting result. For the kitchen cabinet, the wainscoting and the corner cupboard I chose Nile Green and Navy Blue, using blue for the trimming and the shelves of the corner cupboard. The table I painted solid Nile Green. In the sunny breakfast nook I painted the benches and the table with the same navy blue.

Then I was ready for the touches of contrasting color. The wall was finished with Ivory flat wall paint, spotted with green tint flat, harmonizing beautifully with my green and blue. So I painted the chairs and stool with Mandarin red, and repeated this gay note in the checked gingham that made the window curtains and tie-on pads for the chairs.

After I have completed a planned-out color scheme, I always discover several extra small objects that can be effectively colored. In the kitchen it was especially easy—Mandarin red for the bird cage, the flower vase, the handle of the broom

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

By Edson R. Waite, Shawnee, Okla.

R. W. Woodruff, President of The Coca-Cola Company, Says:

That this is an age of efficiency and higher productivity. Organizations are working not longer, but swifter, and with more certainty of result. The mind of the workman, whether laborer or executive, must be highly trained, and as a result he is able to produce a better product, quicker. Production has become a science, and progress moves on wheels of applied wisdom.

A chemist, mixing substances in his laboratory, knows the necessity of proportion. Scientists, studying the physical effects of a life of constant application, tell us that there is a period of low vitality and impaired efficiency during each day.

It takes fuel to feed the fire. The executive must stop to think how these proportions can be maintained, and how the period of low vitality can be met so as to keep the work going at full tilt.

Today, the business executive is not only advocating shorter hours, but he is providing for periods of relaxation and refreshment during working hours. As a result, he is putting a better product on the market, and is adding to the efficiency of his organization.

As Oil Is Essential To The Life Of A Motor, Relaxation And Refreshment Are Essential To The Worker.

The visitor to Toledo, Ohio, is perhaps most impressed with the business like, growing spirit of Toledo. That's the natural reaction I had in looking over this great industrial city with John D. Dun, editor of The Toledo Times, and I was impressed with the fact everywhere that men who have built up great manufacturing and business concerns in Toledo winning national recognition give back to their community time and resources in its development. They are investing in community development for community benefits.

Toledo is historically rich for in the valley of the Maumee river La Salle came in 1679 and a fur trading post was established in this vicinity by the French. In 1793 General "Mad Anthony" Wayne battled the Indians a few miles south of Toledo and clinched the whole northwest territory for white civilization. Later in 1812 at Fort Meigs above Toledo General Wm. Harrison withstood British onslaughts and Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry settled the conflict with his clean-cut victory at Putin Bay on Lake Erie.

Toledo has always been important in the realm of transportation. It was on the canoe routes of Indians and French from Detroit to New Orleans. Today it is "the gateway to the Great Lakes" for a big producing area in the middle west; it is the third largest railroad center in the country; it has one of the few natural harbors on the lakes—meeting place for coal and iron, and has just been made a stop on transcontinental air mail, express and passenger service.

There is a homely atmosphere about Toledo. It has more than 310,000 inhabitants, more than half its homes are owned by those who live in them, it has a nationally recognized school system, its own municipal university and a museum of art endowed with more than $10,000,000. There's charm in its magnificent trees.

Toledo Has Exerted Its Leadership in Production of Automobiles, In Development of a Great Power System To Serve Northwestern Ohio, In Manufacture of Many Lines of Automotive Equipment, In Development of Glass-Making Machinery, Scales, Spark Plugs, Atomizers, Oil Well Equipment,

And Childrens Vehicles. Toledoans Believe Their City Is Destined to Occupy a Much Higher Place Among Industrial Leaders And Are Planning For a Great City.

Edwin S. Friendly, Business Manager Of The New York Sun, Says:

That undoubtedly the most notable character in the annals of all literature is Hamlet, whose strongly marked personality sets him apart like some rare object of Grecian Art beside a machine manufactured product of this modern age. This remarkable personage said many wise and sagacious things and men in all lands have appropriated them for their own benefits. Polonius, the lord chamberlain in the famous tragedy asked Hamlet what he read and received this apt reply: "Words, words, words."

Of course we read words and the thoughts they express and perhaps it will be interesting to read some words which are in this instance important facts about newspapers. Everybody from Maine to California is interested in newspapers and this is proved by the fact that over 50,000,000 copies are sold every day in this country.

American newspapers received the lion's share of the total amount of money spent for all classifications of advertising during 1928. American business in 1928 gave magazines, billboards and radio broadcasting 275 million dollars in advertising. It spent a billion dollars in advertising in newspapers.

This preference for newspapers by American business conclusively demonstrates the selling power newspapers over all other mediums. The best advertising sells a product quickly and comparatively inexpensively. Newspaper advertising does this better than any other form because newspapers are closest to the people and reach the greatest number of them.

Advertisers are interested because they want to know the best way to sell a product. And readers are interested because if newspapers could not depend on advertising for their principle source of revenue, readers would have to pay more than a few cents each for their papers.

American Newspapers, Because Of Their Distinctive Advantages Over All Other Forms of Advertising, Will Become More and More The Backbone of Advertising Campaigns As They Are Able to Concentrate Sales, Reach A Prescribed Territory and Cover It Quickly and Reliably.

AMARILLO AIRPORT TO BE DEDICATED WITH BIG DERBY

Amarillo, Aug. 26—Amarillo's 480-acre Municipal Airport, one of the finest flying fields in the nation, will be dedicated Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 7 and 8, with the greatest air derby of the southwest this year.

Beginning Saturday morning and closing Sunday night, visitors to the event will see a series of races, exhibition flying, dead stick landings, parachute jumping and scores of other features. Famous pilots from all over the Middle-West, Southwest and West will be on hand, and scores of planes of all kinds will be on display.

The aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, under the direction of which the aerial fete will be staged, is preparing for a tremendous crowd from neighboring cities and communities.

Sub-committees are hard at work on final plans for the events entertainment of visiting aviators, handling of traffic, and other phases of the event.

Among the attractions of the derby are expected to be several army fliers, the most daring and skilled in the game, who will give exhibition formation flying. Several air racers from the big Cleveland meet, which will be held the week previous to Amarillo's air derby, have been invited to participate in the races here. Cash prizes totalling $5,000 are expected to be collected for distribution among the winners of the various events.

The Municipal Airport has a level, well-drained surface, with asphalt and oil-turf runways. It is one of the largest and most conveniently located fields in the country. Only ten minutes from the downtown section, on a paved highway, it is, nevertheless, unobstructed in all directions, a feature commented on by many fliers. It is completely equipped for day and night flying, having a radio approach, obstruction, flood and beacon lights.

The port is under lease to Southern Air Transport, and is

NEW YORK-PARIS FASHIONS

The new models from the last Paris openings are arriving in this country and being copied and adapted for early fall wear. Or, rather, they have arrived but many of them have not been displayed, as it is from them that our American designers get the inspiration of their own August collections. Here is one of the models, however, that has so many interesting details applicable to summer fashions, it seemed pertinent to show it now.

It is a copy of an ensemble from Marcel Rochas, one of the smaller but very smart houses, whose models have been much admired by the American trade. The fabric is flange, that heavy rayon crepe which Bianchini brought out several seasons ago as a novelty and which has been so successful that it is almost a staple to-day. The frock and jacket are in black, the lining of the latter and the trimming of the former, in white. Among important advance fashion notes given emphasis, are the higher waist-line, the fitted hip yoke outlined with stitching, the low flaring skirt and the very striking modernistic pattern of the contrasting applique.

being operated by Texas Air Transport. In addition to the activities of this concern, it is a part of call for Western Air Express and Braniff Airlines.

During the past year the East Texas Chamber of Commerce held 404 farm meetings, put on a fruit tree planting campaign that increased the number of trees by 278,000, started 236 bull clubs to aid the growing dairy industry of that section and created an interest in diversified farming that East Texas has never had before. Written in a chain of Texas papers, Will H. Mayes adds another feather to the organization, saying: "It has so thoroughly sold East Texas to its own people that they have quit moving to other sections and have become East Texas boosters," which, by and large, probably is the biggest achievement of all.

REGIONAL EXHIBIT GETS OVER STRONG

REPORTS INDICATE THAT FAIR ATTENDANTS INTERESTED IN SECTION.

The part Clarendon is playing in making the tour of the Panhandle-Plains exhibits a success this year should not be overlooked by the folk of this city. Reports received from Secretary Boykin indicate that there is a growing interest in this section of the state and it is thought that a part of the interested ones will look to Donley County for their future locations. The following is a portion of the story as carried in the last Thursday morning issue of the Amarillo Daily News and is an example of what the exhibit is doing at Missouri State Fair at Sedalia, Missouri. The story:

The local Chamber of Commerce is well pleased with the results experienced from the first exhibit truck now showing at Sedalia, Missouri. Following is a letter received this morning from G. L. Boykin, in charge of the truck: Mr. P. C. Bennett, Amarillo, Texas, Dear P. C.:

We have a fine display! The judges of the county exhibit us have the best display here. A man named Robinson, head of the grain department University of Missouri, came by today and said he hated to see us show Missouri up so badly, but he had to admit it.

Everyone seems to be interested in the Panhandle territory.

More than 300 names were received by the Chamber of Commerce from the first day's showing. Mr. Vernon said these names would be sent to various boards of city development over the Panhandle, and in this manner they could get in touch with persons in Missouri interested in this section of the country.

Post has taken the first forward step towards the securing of a modern airport. The name of the town has been painted in a prominent place in box-car letters, and a committee of investigation of West Texas Airports.

The Tulsa Chamber of Commerce sponsored a movie to help finance the building of a band stand recently. The bands played for the audience, and a large number of prizes were given at the "Country Store." All ladies present received free of charge a piece of silver ware at the entertainment.

GOREE EDITOR TO SEEK STATE OFFICE

COVEY WOULD SUCCEED TO AGRICULTURE POST OF GEO. B. TERRELL.

Goree, Aug. 12—In answer to solicitations from all parts of Texas, E. L. Covey of Goree, has announced that he will be a candidate for State Commissioner of Agriculture in 1930. He made this announcement after the present incumbent, George B. Terrell, announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Mr. Covey is at present owner and editor of The Goree Advocate published at Goree. He served from 1922 to 1926 in the State Legislature, representing Knox, King, Foard and Hardeman counties. Prior to his service in the legislature he was for a number of years superintendent of the Goree public schools.

He was born and reared on a farm in Collins county, educated in Texas schools. He has been very closely connected with the farming interests of the state all his life and is regarded as well informed on all questions relating to farm life.

Mr. Covey states that at the proper time he will make a formal announcement and let the people of Texas know his views on all questions relating to the duties of State Commissioner of Agriculture.

Cotton Clothes For School

WITH summer vacations nearly over, Mothers are beginning to think of school clothes for little Bill and Marie. The accompanying sketches show three practical points as well as three fashion features of school clothes for Autumn. Gingham, in fact all the heavier cottons, are recommended by child specialists because they are not too warm for wear in over-heated homes and classrooms. They can be kept clean easily and they are not expensive.

The fashion points of school clothes are important, too. This fall, little girls are going to wear gingham suits with a grown-up air. More and more brothers and sisters choose matching costumes. Little pull-overs, favored by English children, are just as smart for sister as they are for brother. Mothers approve them, because they are as sensible as they are good-looking. Simple skirts or shorts of cotton tweed are ideal for wear with them. Plain or matching hula socks complete the outfit.

Mrs. James Anderson
Honor Guest

Mrs. James Anderson of Los Angeles, California, was the guest of honor at a lovely afternoon affair Thursday given by her sisters, Mrs. W. G. Word and Miss Howren, at the home of Mrs. R. F. Morris.

The rooms were fragrant with garden flowers in shades of pink and rose, where games of bridge made the hours slip rapidly away.

In the games Mrs. W. H. Martin was awarded high score prize and Mrs. J. H. Morris drew consolation.

A dainty ice course was served to the following: Mmes. R. F. Morris, W. H. Martin, J. T. Sims, Louis Murrell, L. S. Bagby, H. Glascoe, J. H. Morris, A. L. Chase, J. W. Evans, Roberta Ryan, R. A. Chamberlain, J. D. Browder of Fort Worth, and the honoree.

Steargall-Garrett

Miss Mary Garrett of Claude, Texas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Garrett and Mr. Raeburn Steargall, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Steargall of this city were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Skyles in Clovis, N. M. Monday, August 19th. Rev. Rogers of the Clovis Christian Church officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in beautiful blue transparent velvet and georgette with accessories to match.

Besides those already mentioned the groom's sister, Miss Lorena Steargall was present.

Mrs. Steargall graduated from Clarendon College about 1922 and is well known in Clarendon.

Mr. Steargall moved to Clarendon several years ago with his parents and has spent some time here and has many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Steargall will be at home in Colorado, where the bride is head matron of the Indian School and where the groom is doing construction work for the government.

Messrs Bugbee and Holloway Entertain

Messrs John S. Bugbee and Louie Holloway entertained with an informal dance last Thursday evening honoring Misses Ann Toomev and Bobbie Staten of Dallas.

At a late hour light refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. W.

F. Morris, Miss Elizabeth Morris, Howard, Pete, Richard, Elenor and Frances Morris, Mrs. T. W. Carroll, Miss Mae Lumpkin, Mrs. Staten of Dallas.

Ladies Aid Entertained

Ladies Aid of First Christian Church were entertained in the home of Mrs. Lonnie Hahn, with eight members present. Meeting opened with prayer and song, "Stand up, Stand up for Jesus." President, Mrs. O. D. Leisberg, presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Humphreys was leader of Devotional-15th chapter Mark which proved a very interesting lesson. The ladies are making quilts to sell. The Hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Ruby, served delicious refreshments. Meeting dismissed with Lord's Prayer.

Missionary Society meets next Wednesday at the Church.

Mrs. Harwood Beville Honored

The McDowell Choral Club entertained with a theatre party and miscellaneous shower, honoring Mrs. Harwood Beville, a charter member of the club and one of its most faithful workers, Friday, August 23rd.

The guests assembled in the lobby of the Pastime Theater at 8:00 o'clock, then entered enmasse to enjoy the picture of the evening, after which they journeyed to the home of Mrs. H. Ralph Kerbow where iced watermelon was partaken of and thoroughly enjoyed on the back lawn.

A happy hour of conversation followed with Mrs. Beville being presented with a "pic-melon" by the club president, Mrs. Kerbow, which when opened revealed many beautiful gifts.

Those present to enjoy this delightful affair were: Mesdames Manley Oizer, Roberta Ryan, O. T. Smith, Frank Heath, M. M. Noble, Richard Wilkerson, H. Ralph Kerbow and the honoree, Mrs. Beville.

Misses Mantic Graves, Harvey Thompson Etta and Ida Harwood.

Many expressions of regret are being heard over the loss of Mrs. Beville, who is a pioneer resident of Clarendon and has always co-operated in every possible way in all civic enterprises which worked for the good of the City and community at large.

Mrs. Beville has been the recipient of several delightful affairs, among them being a lovely handkerchief shower by the pupils of the primary department, Methodist Sunday School, where she has been a most diligent worker for several years and where she will be greatly missed by the primary students who have grown to love her during their close association with her.

MISS STRODER TO FILL VACANCY IN MUSIC DEPT.

The School Board of Clarendon Independent District are very fortunate to secure Miss Christine Stroder as piano instructor to fill the position created by the resignation of Miss Helen Martin. Miss Stroder has been a student of music in the various music centers of the U. S. since early childhood. She has at one time been a student of Miss Maggie Overstreet of Fort Worth. The last year she studied under Miss Overstreet she won a scholarship offered by the Enterprise Club of Ft. Worth given by the Chicago Musical College.

Miss Stroder studied two years at the Baylor University Conservatory of Music under Mr. Buhler of the Tobias Matthag Piano-forte School of Music of London, England, who was induced to teach for two seasons in Waco. Mr. Buhler stated that Miss Stroder was the most gifted pupil he had ever taught.

For the past two years Miss Stroder has been studying in Chicago Musical College, receiving her Senior Diploma the first year and a teacher's certificate the next. While a pupil in the College, Miss Stroder now a number of prizes and honors and untold praise from the music critics of the country.

Miss Stroder may be reached at 67 after Saturday, August 31st, and will be very glad to consult any who are interested in music.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
In order to bring to the flower buying public a more clear understanding of the disposal of wire work used in making wreaths and all other set pieces we wish to state—
When we make a design we use the amount of flowers, retail value asked for in the design allowing for ribbon, pins, fern, labor, etc. We make no charge for wire work, ensels, etc., as we take these up after all flowers are dead. This is done by florist all over the country in all well regulated cemeteries; in order to make flowers less expensive.
It was our impression that every one who bought flowers understood this practice.
We make this statement to clear up rumors we understand are at large.
Respectively, Clarendon Plant and Floral Co.

County Home Demonstration Clubs Plan Market and Arrange For Coming Show

The Donley County Home Demonstration Council met at the Woman's Club room here Saturday, August 24, 1929, at 2:30 p. m. Five clubs were represented by the 26 women present. The Investigating Committee on marketing reported that the West Texas Utilities Company would devote one whole window and all the refrigeration necessary to the use of the Women's Home Demonstration Club for this market, free of charge. A Standardizations Committee and a sales committee were named and August 31st designated as the first Market Day. The market will open at 8:30 a. m. and stay open until 8 p. m. Any Home Demonstration Club member, having Standard packs of vegetables and fruits canned, is invited to display it for sale next Saturday. Fresh peaches, corn, green peas, tomatoes and other garden products and dressed chickens weighing 1 1/2 lbs. and up, will be offered for sale and each article will be labeled with the name of the producer and thus guaranteed. The Council invites all of Donley County to come in and trade with them next Saturday.

The food to be sold may be brought in from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m. Friday and up to 10 a. m. Saturday.

The Council named September 18th, as Home Demonstration Club day at the Fair and invites the Home Demonstration agents from Hall, Collinsworth, Carson and Armstrong Counties to be with us for the afternoon and night program.

The Council voted that since it is difficult to judge cotton rugs against wool, or either of these against the gunny sack (hempen) rugs that all clubs would exhibit hempen (gunny sack) rugs in Club Booths at Donley County Poultry and Club Show. Cotton and wool rugs, if they have them, will be exhibited in the open class division for women.

A committee consisting of the president of each Home Demonstration Club was appointed to draw plans for size and arrangement of Club Booths.

The plan for entertainment for both nights of the Fair was placed before the Council and heartily approved. Each representative is eager to tell her Club and get the voice of her community to ask for entrance in the entertainment contests. The Council also voted to raise money to sponsor County winners in contests to A. & M. College next year instead of expecting the Club, whose member wins to send the winner as they did this year.

Red or Green Watermelon Rind Garnishes

Watermelon rind (cut in inch cubes) oil of cloves, red coloring, oil of peppermint, green coloring, 3 cups of sugar, 1 cup water for each, the red and the green cubes.

Use a thick rind melon. Remove all pink and green from the watermelon rind. Use a sharp knife and cut rind into 1-2 inch cubes.

Discard irregular shapes. Add sugar to water and heat slowly until sugar melts. Cover the cubes with this and boil until syrup forms a good thread. Add enough extra water for syrup to cover cubes again and continue cooking until a medium syrup is formed and the cubes are glossy in appearance.

Red Cubes: Add color after they are tender, and cook until coloring has penetrated the cubes. Add oil of cloves for flavoring, last minute.

Green Cubes: Add color after they are tender until cubes are clear green. Cook until clear and evenly colored. Add only a drop of peppermint at a time until properly flavored.

Pack red or green cubes in square pint jars. Fill to overflowing. Seal and process immediately for 15 minutes at 10 pounds pressure or process 45 minutes in boiling water. Rind may be cut with center of doughnut cutter to vary shape.

Owing to the fact that the president of the Jericho, Boydston Club was ill that H. D. Club did not meet Monday, August 27th, but will meet September 2nd. The Hedley girl's club which was scheduled to meet at this time are asked to meet at 10 a. m. September 2nd, in order to allow the Jericho, Boydston women the afternoon.

Chili Sauce (Powell)

1 gallon of chopped ripe tomatoes, 1-2 cupful of chopped white onions, 1-2 cupful chopped sweet green peppers, 1-2 cup chopped sweet red peppers, 1-2 cupful brown sugar, 2 tbs. ginger, 1 tbs. cinnamon, 1 tbs. mustard, 1 nutmeg (grated), 1 qt. vinegar, 5 tbs. salt, 1-2 tbs. cayenne pepper.

Peel the tomatoes and onions. Chop the onions and peppers fine. Boil all the ingredients except the vinegar together for two hours or until soft and broken. Add vinegar and simmer for one hour. Stir frequently. Bottle and seal while hot.

SCOUT CAMP CLOSED WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21

Eighty visitors from Estelline, Memphis, Hedley, Alanreed, McLean, Shamrock and Wellington ate Indian Barbecued Chicken prepared by Scout Executive Jolley with their Scouts on the closing day of Camp Warner, Wednesday of last week. Many other visitors brought their own lunches.

One hundred and twenty-nine Merit Badges awarded to 19 First Class Scouts, 15 Second Class Scouts and One Scouter. Five boys were granted Second Class Badges and Three boys First Class Badges. Life Badge was awarded to Clark Chapman of Lillie community near Wellington. Raymond Jarrell received 11 Merit Badges. Elmer Knox Jones 9.

Wellington led with 18 boys present, Memphis 17, Shamrock 12, Clarendon 8, Estelline 6, McLean 3, Alanreed 3, Hedley 2, Wichita Falls 1. Total 70.

Junior Officers were: Garland Hampton, Tent No. 1. Edwin Parker, tent 2, both of Wellington. Tent No. 4 James Smith, Clarendon, Tent No. 5, Leon Harvey of Shamrock, Tent No. 6, Everett Ross, Memphis, Tent 7, Orville Sawyer of Memphis, Tent 8, Ted Martin, Shamrock, Tent nine, O. Clark Chapman of Lillie, Tent 10 Wendell Harrison, Memphis. J. P. Bolles and Raymond Jarrell, Memphis, Cooks asst.

Senior leaders were I. E. Jolly, Scout Executive Camp Director, W. V. Swinburn and Don Fisher, Asst. Directors, Ward Hicks, banker, W. B. Kendall, Grounds and construction, H. A. McFarland, Cook, First aid, Jolly.

In addition to the other duties, Orville Sawyer was nurse to the Model "T" truck. Wendell Harrison athletics. Don Fisher, signaling. Jolly gave instruction in archery, woodwork, beadwork, painting, shellac and varnish work. Wendell Harrison in marksmanship. Merit Badge counselling as divided as follows.

Jolly, First aid, camping, Fisher, electric signalling, Bolles, woodcarving, woodwork, McFarland cooking, Harrison, marksmanship, athletics and physical development. Chapman, poultry keeping and farm work badges. Hicks, civics and conservation. Ross, first aid to animals. Smith, firemanship. Hampton, music and bagpipe. Jarrell, personal health. Parker, public health. Martin, pathfinding. Harvey leathercraft and leatherwork.

Mr. Hardy of Wellington treated the boys to a fireworks display that gave them a genuine thrill and a candy bar each from Dr. Jones and Mr. Castleberry of Wellington.

Joe Hatcher and Mr. Jackson of Shamrock, brought the boys a load of 25 watermelons. Dr. Wilson of Memphis, sent a box of apples.

A hike was made to the Harrel ranch and several second class Scouts passed their First Class fourteen mile hike tests. A good time was indulged in at the ranch and the return trip made by trucks.

The high lights of the camp were the evening camp fires where varied programs were given by boys and leaders. Especially when the bi-dipper spilled the Milky Way on a couple of fellows, the Stamese Club and the class in Hypnotism are recalled. The discovery of the Indian grave and the Pirates Treasure. Chapel was held every morning and out of doors subjects were had for inspiration. A school for Scribes and Patrol Leaders was also conducted. Football games between Wellington, Memphis and Clarendon Shamrock were thrilling. Clarendon was reinforced by Hedley and Estelline. Shamrock by McLean and Alanreed. Playground ball leaders against the camp in which the leaders won 35-18. Jolly, Hicks and Martin made home runs for the leaders.

An Honor Campers Club was organized with the Patrol leaders as charter members and other campers elected, beginning with the Asst. Patrol Leaders in each tent and then other campers are elected by the Club according to their entering into the spirit of the camp life. These meetings were held after "Taps" in the Council Ring. Sweaters and camp letters were voted as the emblem. The initiation ceremony was of a serious nature.

Dr. and Mrs. Warner were special guests at the closing program since the day was also William Warners birthday, in whose honor they have given the 160 acres of land to the Scouts of the Panhandle. Sentiment at present is for the building of a real dam at the camp to insure swimming, boating and fishing facilities. That is the one thing the site lacks to make it a wonderful camping place for the Scouts as well as others in the Panhandle.

MR. AND MRS. EARL LYNN ENJOY 8 DAY VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynn and little son, Billy, returned to their home here Sunday, August 25, after a week spent in Colorado on their vacation. Leaving here Sunday, August 18, they drove to Denver where they visited a sister of Mrs. Lynn for a time. While they were in Denver Mr. and Mrs. Lynn enjoyed a visit to the museum in that city. This proved to be one of the most interesting features of the entire trip. After the visit in Denver and surrounding points they resumed their trip and drove to Fort Collins, Colorado, where a brother of Mrs. Lynn, I. B. Pierce, was visited. After a most pleasant stay in this place the vacationists journeyed to a fine fishing spot in the mountains, some 40 miles from Fort Collins. All the fish that could be eaten was the result of this trip, and it was with a feeling of reluctance that they were forced to start for home.

This was the first time Mr. Lynn has enjoyed a trip of this kind to the mountains and needless to say the whole trip was enjoyed to the greatest extent. The scenery was wonderful and the trip was made even more pleasant by the absence of only one puncture.

CARAWAY FAMILY RETURNS AFTER EXTENDED VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Odos Caraway and family returned Sunday from a vacation which consisted of several months in Colorado Springs. Mrs. Caraway and daughters, Misses Agnes, Julia Mae, Mary Frances and Betty Jo, have spent the entire summer in Colorado Springs where Misses Agnes and Julia Mae have been attending summer school. A most pleasant time has been spent there, but they are all well pleased to be at their home here again.

Mr. Caraway left the fore part of the month to join his family at their cottage in Colorado and remained there until the summer session of school ended. While he was there he visited Dr. and Mrs. Stricklin in their mountain home. He stated that the tourist population was the largest this summer that it ever has been in the state and that the vacationists were staying in the mountains longer than ever has been the case heretofore. Mr. Caraway said one of the most interesting features of the time spent in Colorado was the meeting at his cottage of seven Clarendon families and several Memphis friends at one time. They all enjoyed this meeting to the greatest extent and added much to the pleasantness of the trip.

The Caraway family left for Clarendon the afternoon of Friday of August 23, after the girls had finished their course in summer school Friday morning. A short time was spent in visiting other interesting places enroute home and after this the trip home was made without mishap arriving home late Sunday evening.

IF BOOZE COMES BACK FORD TO CLOSE PLANTS

New York, August 21—Henry Ford threatens to close down his automobile plants if prohibition ends.

"If booze ever comes back to the United States, I am through with manufacturing," he says in the September Pictorial Review, appearing Friday.

"I would not be bothered with the problem of handling over 200,000 men and trying to pay them wages which the saloons would take away from them. I wouldn't be interested in putting automobiles into the hands of a generation soggy with drink. Gasoline and booze don't mix; that's all."

Ford, always a friend of prohibition, believes it is 99 per cent effective in the United States, with the remainder one per cent made up largely of "the wealthy class the criminal class, and the abandoned class."

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin E. Trostle, of near Waco, spent a few hours with his parents of this city Saturday night. Nevin is returning to Waco to be with Mr. Joe Rady in some engineering work there, until September, when he will return to Lubbock where he will be with the Highway Construction Company until after the first of the year, then finish the school year in Texas Tech.

BIG TRI-STATE FAIR FEATURE

"Mary," the 80-year-old debutante with the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, has been tramping up and down the country for so many years that she knows it is far wiser to obey than resist, so one word from Miss Rae Bailey and "Mary" does her stuff. In fact, all of the elephants with Hagenbeck-Wallace are exceptionally talented and are said to be the best trained "bulls" with any circus.

Cheerful Gardner, master elephant trainer, spent much time during the past winter instilling additional knowledge into his charges and the new routines are a bit unusual for elephants. Everything from an elephant barber shop to a Charleston contest is offered by these ponderous pachyderms.

Many changes have been made in the Hagenbeck-Wallace performance since its last appearance here and this year's program is said to be the best in history. Hagenbeck-Wallace comes here and gives two performances daily during the Tri-State fair, September 23 to 28, Amarillo, Texas.

Coolidge Vacation Routine Is Same As Regular Daily Schedule

By Mary Alice Parent
Written for the United Press.
Northampton, Mass., Aug. 26—(UP)—When the Coolidges left the White House in Washington for the less pretentious White House on Massachusetts street here, the neighbors naturally expected to find them changed after so long an absence. But, to their surprise and pleasure, the Coolidges lived, talked and acted almost exactly as they did before they left.

True they have a big car and a chauffeur now, but they almost got a little one recently when the big car was in the shop and a local agent took them for a ride. Mrs. Coolidge, particularly, liked the little one.

Apart from riding sometimes now, whereas they formerly walked, the Coolidge family routine is little changed. They arise before 8 o'clock and Mr. Coolidge always is at his office before 9 a. m. Then Mrs. Coolidge starts her round of household duties which she still supervises closely despite the fact she has two servants.

Mrs. R. B. Hills, a close friend of Mrs. Coolidge, accompanies the former First Lady to the stores. They travel in the big Coolidge car, driven by the chauffeur. The grocery store usually is the first stop.

There Mrs. Coolidge calls the clerks by their first names. Then she and Mrs. Hills go to a small bakery shop where Mrs. Coolidge usually purchases nut bread of which she is quite fond.

Bones for the four dogs the Coolidge keep are always included in the purchases. Once a month Mrs. Coolidge visits the village stationery store where of late she has been buying a copy of the magazine which is publishing her husband's articles.

The books she buys usually are light fiction and sometimes poetry. "The Listening Post" by Grace S. Richmond and "John Brown's Body" by Stephen Vincent are two she bought recently.

Mrs. Coolidge acquires little jewelry. At the jewelry store it was said her purchases consisted chiefly of plain, necessary articles instead of elaborate things.

Every Thursday morning Mrs. Coolidge goes to the hairdresser. The woman who gives her marcel every week and a shampoo on alternate weeks says Mrs. Coolidge's hair is of as fine a quality as has ever been seen in the shop.

At the drug store it was learned that Mrs. Coolidge had a liking for a chocolate sundae.

Among her diversions Mrs.

Coolidge lists the mink and framing of samplers which she presents to her friends. Flowered designs are her latest preference. The former First Lady is exceedingly fond of her four dogs, and one of them usually accompanies her on the shopping tours. Beans, a Boston Bulldog, has been with the Coolidges longest of the four. In addition there are Tiny Tim, a Chow; a white Collie and another Chow.

GINNERS ARE WAKED 'IF MANY FIRE HAZARDS

H. W. Dewese, Fire Insurance Commissioner for the State of Texas is beginning the campaign on the prevention of fires in cotton gins early this year. Many sections of the state are already running their gins full blast and the items sent out are timely enough to be carried in the News at this time. The thirteen rules for preventing fires in gins are given herewith:

1. Thoroughly ground all metal and moving parts of the gin, thus eliminating the static electricity.
2. Educate the neighboring farmers and cotton pickers to keep the cotton as free as possible from matches and other foreign material.
3. Clean the plant thoroughly at least three times a week, thus freeing the premises from lint, through which fires spread.
4. Refuse to gin wet or even damp cotton, which tends to hang in the ribs and to produce friction.
5. Keep the huller ribs and the gin ribs as clean as possible, and the saws sharp.
6. Clean out the condenser every night and after all fires.
7. Inspect all parts of the plant after closing, lest some hot box or smoldering cotton give rise to a fire.
8. Use automatic oilers on all bearings, thus preventing hot boxes and the dripping of oil from the boxes on accumulated lint or seed cotton.

1. Store no baled cotton on the platform or less than 100 feet from any building.
2. Prohibit smoking and carrying matches about the plant.
3. Keep all machinery in proper alignment.
4. Mark and segregate fire-packed gin bales.
5. Keep ample and efficient fire-fighting apparatus easily available at all times.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS FROM NOW AS SEEN BY EARL BIRKENHEAD

The Earl of Birkenhead, one of England's foremost statesmen, in a recent article entitled "One Hundred Years From Now," attempted to prophesy some of the forces which civilization in 1029 will have at its command. Among other striking statements he made are the following:

1. Babies will be produced by chemists in laboratories.
2. The entire institution of marriage will be changed.
3. We will all live to be 150.
4. No one will need to work more than two hours a day.
5. Agriculture will be obsolete—except as a hobby—all food-stuffs will be produced synthetically.
6. Man will be able to alter the geography or climate of the earth.
7. Coal mining will be an extinct industry.
8. A 48-hour day will come into being by retarding the rotation of the earth.
9. Sitting in our homes we will see and hear events, the world over.

5 reasons why STEEL ECLIPSE WINDMILLS run in lightest breeze

Why does the Steel Eclipse run when other mills are motionless? The answer is, scientific design and fine workmanship. Note these five reasons—

- (1) Wheel is tilted to take advantage of lightest breeze.
- (2) All working parts run in oil.
- (3) All wearing parts are made of the right materials and surfaces are machined.

MUST PAVE MOST USED ROADS FIRST

IOWA AIMS TO CONNECT ALL COUNTY SEATS AND TOWNS WITH PAVEMENTS

By E. E. Duffy
Iowa plans to place a paved road between every county seat and town.

This calls to mind the early highway problem of deciding where the road building program should start. Practically all states saw the wisdom of first paving the main routes which carried the most traffic, with improvements to be extended to secondary roads later as finances would permit.

Being possessed of three million miles of roads, the United

NEW YORK-PARIS FASHIONS

MOST of our late summer and early fashions first see the light of day at the mid-season openings in Paris, held late in the spring and it was here that this charming sports frock burst upon a waiting world. It is the creation of that most creative of all sports designers, Schiaparelli, and it is especially noteworthy for two reasons: Its choice of material and the unusual suspender effect which serves as decoration. The material is flammanga which, while not new this season or even last, is gradually growing in smart favor for both frocks and wraps. Hitherto, one has associated it more particularly with models of a more formal type for being a combination of wool and rayon, it has a highly lustrous surface. Now we are to have it in our de luxe sports clothes, it seems, for it has both warmth and grace to a high degree. This model was made in an apricot shade patterned with the tiniest of dark brown lines and was shown with a coat of the same apricot color in wool.

States was indeed faced with a trying highway problem when the automobile began its domination. Although good progress is being made it is only natural that some impatience has been expressed because of the still great mileage of unimproved roads.

Several traffic surveys conducted by states in collaboration with the Bureau of Public Roads have revealed that a quite small percentage of highways carries most of the traffic—in Ohio about 60 per cent of the traffic travels over one-eighth of the roads. The township highway system containing about three-fifths of the states roads accommodates but an eighth of the vehicles.

From this it may be seen that it is more a matter of improving selected main arteries and chief secondary routes than it is the wholesale scattering of funds over great mileages, with attendant low-quality, non-permanent surfacings.

First of all a back-bone system of highways must be established. The states, with the continued and perhaps expanded assistance of the Federal Government, must lengthen considerably the scant 100,000 miles of high grade roads now in service. With the main routes well paved, then attention can be directed to surfacing lesser thoroughfares.

In considering the placement of highway building funds, it must be borne in mind that only slightly more than one-fifth of the total population is on farms. Along with this, it must be remembered that the highways connecting cities and towns usually pass through the most populous rural regions. Undeniably, more can be accomplished through continued concentration on state highways, which have been so designated because they carry the most cars.

Clearly, when Iowa's county seats and towns are all connected every rural resident will have easy access to a hard surfaced road.

SARGON PROVED A BLESSING TO HER

"Sargon has done more for me in a few weeks than all the other medicines I took put together during the ten years I suffered."

"I had awful attacks of nervous indigestion and my stomach was in such a disordered condition I could not eat a good meal. I couldn't even drink a glass of buttermilk without suffering. In fact for then ten days before I started Sargon I had not swallowed one mouthful of solid food. I had lived on orange juice. I had sharp pains in my stomach and was so weak I had to give up and go to bed. My nerves just went all to pieces."

The Medicine For Pellagra

Dr. J. L. Leverett, prominent Paris, Texas, Specialist, is attracting National attention with his NEW method of treating Pellagra and certain forms of stomach trouble closely resembling Pellagra. Under a rigid test of more than 3000 patients the treatment proved to be all that was claimed. A 28 day trial treatment for $5 and this money back if the patient is not benefited and the patient alone is the judge. The medicine doesn't make you sick to take it. For particulars, testimonials and blank for FREE diagnosis write J. L. LEVERETT, M. D., Paris, Texas.

and I never got a good night's rest. "Sargon has surely proved a blessing to me. I can now eat most anything I want without bad after effects. My nerves are normal. I sleep fine and never have to use a laxative any more like I did before I started taking the Sargon Soft Mass Pills. "This remarkable treatment has given me back my health and I feel like telling everybody about it."—Mrs. Lonie Nelms, 3227 Pine Street, Dallas. Douglas & Goldston, Agents.
