Northwest Texas Conference Will Be Held At Pampa

Delegates To Quadrennial Conference At Dallas Are To Be Selected

One of the most important events in Methodism in the Panhandle will take place at the Methodist church at Pampa on the 13th of this month with the meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference to be presided over by Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas. Rev. W. M. Merrell, presiding elder of this district, will be one of the clerical hosts to the body which will bring over five hundred ministers, delegates and visitors together.

This session marks the close of the quadrennium and delegates to the Quadrennial General Conference which meets at Dallas next May will be selected. This conference is entitled to ten seats in general conference, five lay and five clerical delegates, who will have a voice in the enactment of legislation and election of bishops and officers of the church in the next sitting of Methodism's supreme body.

Assignment of ministers will be made for the ensuing year. Ministers may be returned annually for an indefinite period, but under the laws of the church, the tenure of a presiding elder's office is limited to four years. The presiding bishop is generally limited to a quadrennium, though there is no law or rule to prevent him serving longer.

Clarendon usually furnishes a large delegation to the conference and many are planning on being present as visitors at Pampa.

The local church under the pastorate of Rev. Sam E. Allison, has shown a continued growth. Not only that, Bro. Allison has been a valuable man to the city in many ways and his advice is frequently sought in connection with important matters affecting the educational and moral interests of our people.

Rev. W. M. Murrell, as presiding elder, has endeared himself to the people of this district by his kindly ministrations and, like Bro. Allison, our people love them for their many good qualities, brotherly affection and devotion to duty and trust to see them both returned here for another year.

Panhandle Artist Will Exhibit Her Pictures Here

Daughter of Prominent Family Is Nationally Known Landscape Painter

Miss Harriet Kritzer, a prominent artist of Amarillo and the Panhandle, is to present her paintings in Clarendon next Saturday at the club rooms in the Municipal building. At 3:00 o'clock she will appear before the Beaux Arts Club and invited guests with an address on the possibilities of art in the Plains country. At 6 p. m. the exhibit will be thrown open to the public for the evening, and every one is cordially invited to see her charming collection of oil paintings, etchings, and wood blocks.

Miss Kritzer's home for the past few years has been on the Kritzer ranch north of Amarillo, and much of her time there has been devoted to transferring to canvas the rugged beauty and vivid coloring of that section of country. She has spent much time in the east and middle west, working under skilled teachers of technique. Clarendon is fortunate in being able to view an exhibit of her artistic work.

Mrs. W. A. Walters, who was injured in a car wreck a week ago, continues to improve which will be good news to her many friends.

Mrs. Lois May Johnson and children are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Miller of Canadian this week.

Father-Son Annual Banquet Will Be Held Monday Nite

Custom of Years Observed Annually By Large Number of Local Citizens

Though a little late for observance of National Father and Son week extending from November 3rd to the 9th, nevertheless Clarendon will stage her annual Father and Son banquet next Monday night in the basement of the First Christian church, which has been the accustomed gathering place for a number of years.

The sons of the town are represented on the committee of arrangements by Henry Wilder, Benton Smith and O. C. Watson, Jr. The fathers of the town will be represented by G. G. Kemp and W. C. Stewart.

The following program will be rendered: Invocation which will be followed by the singing of America, first by the fathers, then by the sons. Three talks of five minutes each on the development of a boy from a physical, social and religious standpoint will be made. Gene Howe (Col. Tack.) editor of the Amarillo News, will be given twenty minutes to discuss the relation of father to son. Phifer Estlack will discuss the relation of son to father. Fifteen minutes will be devoted to spontaneous speaking which will be followed by the presentation of the largest family attendance.

A duet and quartette from the Lion's Club will sing during the luncheon period. An excellent menu has been arranged and there will be no limit to the amount.

The Lions club has selected a ticket selling committee composed of U. J. Boston, H. J. Edgington, H. T. Burton, J. T. Patman and A. A. Mayes. The custom of calling on men of the town who have no children, or cannot conveniently take their children, in an effort to induce them to select some fatherless boy, will be followed this year.

Those who are willing to take a boy, are requested to turn their name in to one of the committee members at once.

This observance of Father and Son week is not confined to Clarendon alone, and fathers living within a convenient radius, are requested to bring a boy and join in the festivities with every assurance that they will meet with a royal welcome and be furnished with plenty of enjoyment and an interesting program of entertainment of speaking, music, etc.

Hallowe'en Period Is Celebrated With Many Social Fests

Simple Request of Mayor Means Of Saving City Near Three Hundred Dollars

Many parents who weathered the Hallowe'en storm of the past week have cause to rejoice in that it comes but once a year. Parties in private homes and entertainments at some of the churches furnished a varied form of amusement for the younger set.

Circulars bearing a request and a reminder over the Mayor's name were distributed on the streets Thursday morning by City Marshall Flop Pyle. Last year the pranks of "spooks" deprecating upon private and public property cost the city more than three hundred dollars to clear up.

There was little excitement on the streets Thursday night and the damage was so small that it was hardly noticed. In a few instances in the outer districts, streets were cluttered up with rubbish and vehicles, boxes, barrels and cans which cost the city eighteen dollars to clear up. The request of the Mayor saved the city about three hundred dollars and no end of trouble and the Mayor and Marshall express their hearty appreciation for the kind co-operation of the youngsters and elders in keeping the city normal.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mosley were Hedley visitors Thursday.

Felony Cases Being Tried In District Court This Week

Oscar Brown, Implicated In Hedley Nightwatchman Case Set For November 8th

District Court convened at ten o'clock Monday morning with Judge A. J. Fires on the bench. The case of W. O. Filley of Hedley charged with bootlegging was tried and the defendant given a year and a day in the penitentiary.

Leon Oscar Wilkes, charged with passing a forged check on the Bryan-Miller firm last May, plead guilty and was given three years.

The case of John Henry Williams, colored, charged with car theft, is before the jury as the Leader goes to press. Williams was in the employ of the Clarendon Motor Company the past summer and is alleged to have appropriated a car of the firm and headed for Dallas. It is expected that he will plead guilty and ask for a suspended sentence.

Several other felony cases are due to come up during the week, among them being the case of Oscar Brown, who was wounded on the night the watchman at Hedley was murdered, and who is charged with being implicated in the crime. His trial is set for Friday of this week.

There is every appearance that the jury men doing duty this term are less inclined to be lenient with law violators, and are showing a much better disposition to back up the law enforcement officers.

George Washington Visits Clarendon; One Of The '89ers

First Saw Town As City Of Tents When Denver Road Building Was New

Old timers of Clarendon are enjoying a visit by one of her earliest settlers and builders this week in the person of Mr. George W. Washington who first settled in Donley county in 1889.

Mr. Washington informed a Leader representative that it became necessary for him to add the middle initial to his name to avoid negroes getting his mail as many bore the same name wherever he might live.

Our subject was the principal owner of the first electric light plant in Clarendon and laughingly remarked Monday that it cost him several thousand dollars in experience. He also owned a half interest in the telephone exchange years ago, bought it against the advice of W. H. Patrick, but sold out to him a year later at a profit after he had established the system on a paying basis.

Mr. Washington also ran a dray line here later selling to John Beverly who continued it's operation until a few years ago when he was displaced by motor trucks. Always a builder, Mr. Washington's hand seemed to hold the magic wand that turned his investments into cold cash with little misgivings on the part of the man who had utmost faith in his personal judgment.

Mr. Washington at eighty-one, is manager of a seven hundred acre estate of a semi-invalid brother. This large farm is located near Austin in the rich river bottom where cotton was a total failure this season due to the inroads of the cotton weevil.

Being a stickler for diversification, Mr. Washington had several varieties of crops on the farm this season and will have more next year. Even tho of advanced age, this man has a keen mind, has traveled much and says he has lived a great life full of interesting experiences.

He is a guest of Mr. P. A. Buntin at present and will visit all the old timers here before going elsewhere. During the short visit in Clarendon, Mr. Washington's health has greatly improved and he believes that we have the best climate in the world.

Legion Program At Presbyterian Church Here Sunday Night

Only Armistice Day Program Will Be Addressed By Prominent Amarillo Pastor

An Armistice Day program has been arranged by H. T. Burton, I. O. Noble and G. L. Boykin, members of the local Post, to be rendered at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening next at 7:30.

Other churches of the city will dismiss their services to join in doing honor to the veterans of the World War. The choir for this special service, will be made up of the best singers of the city and the program committee is especially well pleased with the co-operation and consideration shown them.

Rev. Sam E. Allison, pastor of the Methodist church will deliver the invocation, which will be followed by singing "America, the Beautiful." Mrs. Rita Foster Stocking, one of the Panhandle's most talented dramatic artists, will contribute of her talent with an appropriate reading, which will be followed by a quartette composed of Messrs. T. D. Nored, Earl Smith, R. S. Cope and G. L. Boykin singing "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Dr. Clark Buckner, pastor of the First Christian church of Amarillo, will be the speaker of the evening. Dr. Buckner is a very talented speaker and the Committee feels very fortunate in having secured the services of this able man for this occasion.

Local speakers will also supply on the program as in the past, and the entire public is cordially invited to attend this memorial service. Rev. W. H. Marler, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, will pronounce the benediction.

Mrs. J. C. Rawlings of Shamrock Visits Clarendon; One Of The '89ers

Mrs. J. C. Rawlings of Shamrock, who has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie SoRelle for several days, returned home today.

Mrs. Vel Tullios of Amarillo spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Peebles.

Fire Destroys Home Causing One Death At Lelia Thursday

Babe Of Ten Months Dies From Burns After Reaching Hospital Here

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the C. H. Ellis residence near the depot at Lelia Lake about ten o'clock Thursday morning. The house was occupied by the Kavanaughs, Mrs. Kavanaugh and babe being alone at the time. Mr. M. S. Kavanaugh is principal of the Lelia Lake schools.

When help reached the scene, they found Mrs. Kavanaugh near the burning building attempting to start the family car. She had wrapped the babe in a blanket which was found to be on fire next to the infant. When the babe was unwrapped, a portion of the skin stuck to the covering.

A record run was made by the Buntin ambulance from here and the little one brought to the hospital where it died late Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Kavanaugh was unable to explain the mystery of the fire, she herself being badly burned on the hands and arms. According to her version, she was feeling ill and had lain down on the bed by her babe and went to sleep. She was awakened by the cries of the babe and found the bedding on fire.

Her first impulse was to wrap the babe to extinguish the flames and rush it to medical aid being found trying to start the car as described above. The fire is supposed to have originated from an oil burning range near the bed.

Mrs. Kavanaugh was prostrated on grief and shock and Mr. Kavanaugh immediately took her to her relatives in Young county following burial of the infant.

SIMS P-T ASSOCIATION

All members of the Sims Parent-Teacher Association are requested to attend the first meeting of this Association at the South Ward school Tuesday afternoon of November the 12th. Patrons of the school are also requested to attend this meeting and will find it greatly to their advantage.

Hospital Opening Day Is Announced For November 11th

Opportunity Will Be Given Public To Inspect The County Institution

Announcement is made of the formal opening of the Adair Hospital, county owned institution, next Monday, the 11th. There will be no set program and the opening will partake more of the nature of an inspection that the public may visit the institution and learn at first hand just what the county has in the way of first-class equipped hospital.

This is the crowning achievement of the County Commissioners in behalf of humanity and it is the desire of the Governing Board that all those who can make it possible, will visit the hospital on the opening day.

In speaking of this matter Monday, Mr. Odos Caraway, member of the hospital board, was especially well pleased with the progress being made and especially so when he was informed by those in authority, that one life and perhaps two, had been saved recently by reason of our having this well-equipped hospital close at hand when the necessity arose.

The hospital is being well patronized by many who are glad to avail themselves of the excellent facilities at home where they may also be near their relatives and friends. Mrs. Ruth Teet, a registered nurse, who has charge of the hospital, has had many years experience and is being highly complimented for the manner in which she is conducting the institution.

Shamrock Irishmen To Battle Bronchos Here On Tomorrow

With Many Victories To Their Credit, Visitors Promise To Supply Live Game

With the appearance of the green sweaters on the stamping ground of the Bronchos, the result will be equivalent to waving a red flag before a mad bull. A committee has been selected to sweep up the eyeballs and cart off legs and arms. The carnage will be something awful.

The Bronchos know what it means to "tie", but defeat has been deleted from their vocabulary. Intensive training of the past week has served to strengthen the morale of the Bronchos and Coach Hutton feels sure that his boys will win over any comers in their class.

When the game is called at College Park at 3:30, hundreds of local fans will be there. The best looking pep squad composed of the handsomest leather-lunged young ladies of the Panhandle will be there. The band will be on hand with plenty of peppy music to back the Bronchos who are expected to win. There is only one thing that will defeat them—overconfidence.

The boys have been carefully drilled on this point and no minor details of the game have been overlooked. The visiting team has established a reputation for playing a clean game by their actions on other fields and every courtesy will be accorded the visitors while in our city.

Shamrock boasts of having the best man at the head of her schools in its history and rightly so judging from the reputation he is building this season from every standpoint. All Clarendon welcomes the team, Pep Squad and the visitors who will come along to back their local team.

Many Are Buying New Cars

That the country is in a prosperous condition is attested to by the sales of the Clarendon Motor Company for the month of October. Mr. Kemp sold 4, Ligon 11, Hall 6, Darden 3 and Zachary 1, making a grand total of exactly 25 new Fords for the month.

Motorcade To Reach Amarillo Tomorrow On Good Will Tour

State Superintendent Heads Delegation To Visit Palo Duro Canyon Thursday

The large motorcade that left San Antonio Monday of this week headed for Amarillo gathering momentum as it goes across West Texas, is scheduled to reach Amarillo Wednesday afternoon. A delegation of Amarillo citizens representing several organizations, will meet the motorcade at Canyon and escort them to the Amarillo hotel which is to be headquarters, and where a giant banquet has been arranged for Wednesday evening.

The auto caravan will leave the Amarillo hotel at 8 o'clock Thursday morning going to Canyon Canyon where it will be met by other delegations at the West Texas State Teacher's College and the journey continued into Palo Duro canyon where a barbecue will be held at noon at the Harding ranch.

A letter from Mr. D. E. Colp states that while this is a booster trip, he as state superintendent of state parks, wants other state officials to see the famous canyon that they may become acquainted with the value of the Canyon as an asset to the state if a state park should be created.

Mr. Colp is an ardent advocate of the creation of a state park embracing the Palo Duro canyon area believing that the tourist travel attracted to the Panhandle will add materially to the road building fund by increased gas sales. There is no doubt in his mind that the Canyon is one of the most scenic spots to be found in the entire southwest.

Since Carlshad Cavern's visitors totalled 2914 for the past month, with half of them from outside of New Mexico and Texas, it is believed that most of these tourists would have visited Palo Duro could they have had access to suitable roads.

A delegation of Clarendon men and others from surrounding territory is being made up to meet with visitors from down state. They plan to leave here early Thursday morning in time to join the motorcade leaving the Amarillo hotel at 8 a. m.

It is expected that the local Post of the American Legion will select a committee to meet the motorcade at Amarillo complimentary to Mr. Ernest C. Cox, state commander of the American Legion who is with the visiting delegation.

Rousing receptions have been accorded the members of the auto caravan at the towns visited on the way since leaving San Antonio and many towns of the Panhandle will be represented at the meeting place at Canyon to make the inspection trip into the Canyon Thursday.

Pastime Crowds Continue To Hear And See Talkies

All doubt as to what the attendance would be at an improved picture show with the installation of talkies has been put to rest as a result of the show crowds at the Pastime since the opening night over a week ago.

Mr. Mulkey made the announcement in the beginning that only the very best talkie pictures would be run and he has amply proven every statement. By referring to the advertisement of the Pastime Theatre in each issue of the Leader, one may know just what to expect in the matter of program for any particular night. There is not a disappointment on the list.

Car And Garage Destroyed By Fire Sunday Night

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a car belonging to Leonard Harris together with the garage in which it was stored, at the family home about 8:30 Sunday night. The fire department made a quick run and extinguished the blaze in short order saving a portion of the garage and surrounding buildings.

THE THREE R's.

The three R's of matrimony are romance, rice and rocks.

VARIETY.

It is alleged that officers of Wheeler county are cussed out; those of Hall pestered by hooch agents, while those of Donley won't stand for a blame bit of foolishness.

CATCHIN' UP!

Five years from now the biggest job of the secretary of a chamber of commerce will be to educate the city people to give them a chance to try to catch up with the people of the rural districts.

TERRACING.

Several farmers are planning on a lot of terrace work this winter. Results obtained in the past two years in many parts of Donley county attest the wisdom of saving land from washing by getting double the production of previous years.

AUCTION SALES.

What has become of the old-fashioned auction sales put on by the Chambers of Commerce once each month so that the folks can sell all their extra belongings? Pretty good idea as it gives every one a chance to buy or sell what they need or don't need. It also brings a crowd to town and helps to keep everybody acquainted.

If you want an auction sale, let us know. If there is enough interest shown, we'll have 'em sure as the world. If you don't say anything about it, we won't either, but we still think it is a good idea.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY.

Those Hedley folks who have given their means to better equip poor kids to get more out of their school time, have the right spirit. A dime spent helping the innocent helpless is the best form of missionary work and has a far more lasting effect than any other one thing.

The fellow who gets beyond the pale of humanity and cannot hear His "still, small voice" calling him to duty, is too case-hardened for this world. This would be a grand place in which to live if some or all of the elders were child-like to the extent of being clear of deceit, sham and hypocrisy, double-crossing and a lot of other cussedness that one learns after leaving childhood's innocent estate.

JONES LAW GETS RESULTS.

Cotton cloth covering has become a leader in the mural decorative art, the department of commerce announced today in making public its survey into new uses for cotton under authority of the law of which Representative Marvin

Jones, Texas, was the author. One factory reported an output of $1 miles a day of cloth fabrics for waterproof covering. Another manufacturer of cloth covering said he now has a distribution of upwards of 16,000,000 square yards annually. The department of commerce said it was in possession of many other facts of this nature of advantage to cotton growers.

The report today dealt entirely with the use of cotton in exterior decoration and was the seventh of the series dealing with new uses for cotton.

Department experts said that one of the most interesting phases of the decorative art is the recent extensive use of cotton cloth as a wall covering. The development has occurred in the last twelve months and already the walls of private homes and apartment houses are to a large extent being decorated throughout with cotton cloth, the statement said.

PRACTICAL FATHERS.

Some men have learned to make pals of their boys. Some have even learned to make pals of their girls. There was a Halloween party at the home of a neighbor Thursday night. Some of my boys came home telling me what a lot that fellow thought of his girls. And how the girls doted on their father.

Some fathers are too dense, or don't take time to get acquainted with their own children. That poor fellow loses the best there is in life. The father mentioned in this article makes plenty of money. Practically all of it is spent in making his family happier. They share in his earnings. His girls are highly respected—are not flippant neither are they prudish. They know much of the ways of the world and learned it from the proper source—their father.

Had you ever noticed that very few mean men love children? Most all of those who do are good men. Right here in town we have a childless man who is "father" to more children than half a dozen real fathers. You can't make that man mean. His association with the innocent has made him broad-minded, liberal and charitable. He has been repaid times over for his wonderful charity.

Cussin', Cryin' Throwin' Rocks!

Under date of October 27th of this year, there appears an article on the front page of the Shamrock Texan, a paper published in Shamrock alleged to be in the state of Texas, an article to the effect that a brother so far forgot himself as to "cuss a man, his wife and two kids" something scandalous.

The family could have lived over the shame of having such a

Sam Houston's Home in Danger

A plan for preserving the old homestead of General Sam Houston against ravages of time and fire is under consideration by the officials of the Texas Historical Society, Judge Tom L. McCullough, well known Texas jurist and member of the Board of directors of the Historical Society, said here this week.

Houston's home at Huntsville, one of the state's most cherished shrines and model of early Texas architecture, is now owned by the state. To protect this structure, which has played such an important part in Texas History, it must be guarded day and night, Judge McCullough said.

"Aand even then it is not safe", he pointed out. "A small spark fanned into a flame and one of our most invaluable contacts with the early life of the state would go up in smoke."

Judge McCullough said that a few, if any, of the old landmarks of Texas are safe from fire. Most of them are constructed of wood which has dried out with years of use. Fear has been expressed by historians in various parts of the state over and over that these shrines might be consumed by fire because they are tinder dry.

"It is my opinion", Judge McCullough said, "that steps should be taken to fire proof General Houston's homestead with an effective fire proofing material. The cost would be small and this historically valuable structure would be preserved for all time. "We owe it to our children to protect these glorious reminders of our history."

General Washington's home at Mount Vernon, also, is being eternally guarded against conflagration. The old mansion is heavily guarded and by night the watchmen make their rounds. No smoking is permitted near Washington's home nor Houston's.

volume of rot puked up in their presence, but the article goes on to say that sheriff McLemore, his deputy, Tom Johnson, and city marshal Bob Westbrook, were also present and heard this vile mess of static.

To have an officer insulted in such a manner is a disgrace to any town. While the wild brother was given to so much static, some good citizens who believe in some semblance of law and order, suggested that the matter should be stopped and were just as promptly enmeshed in the same static of vulgarity.

Finally, when the air became blue and the stench of sulphur could be smelled for a block, the deputy sheriff suggested to the wild man that he might be arrested if he continued to get worse and the party went his way.

Time was when they shot officers at Berger and insulted them later. At Shamrock they are insulted and the outlaw leaves in a disgusted manner befitting those who have no respect for a law enforcement officer who refuses to maintain his selfrespect.

Bulbs Should be Set Out Now to Brighten Gardens Next Year with Early Spring Bloom

Set out bulbs this fall if you would brighten up your premises early next year with colorful spring bloom. Cheerful flowering bulbs are the home gardener's annual inspiration, the first encouraging sign that Old Mother Nature is ready to help us make our grounds beautiful thru the growing season.

Winter leaves the average yard a somewhat dreary prospect. The tulip, hyacinth, narcissus and crocus, dispel the gloom. It is these bulbs particularly which should be planted before the end of October.

After September the bulbs will keep well in the ground. They will at once begin to root and at the outbreak of spring growth will recommence. Tulips may be planted a little later in the fall than either narcissi or hyacinths.

A way to keep ground suitable for planting, if your bulbs are delayed in arrival until after hard frosts, is to cover the space where they are to be set out with a thick layer of leaves or straw. Late planted bulbs should be immediately well mulched, except in the Southern states or like climates, but those set out early in the fall should not be covered with a mulch until after the ground has been frozen. Summer and fall flowering bulbs such as gladioli should not be set out until next spring, unless the gardener is quite experienced.

Appearance of bulbs is indicative of vigor. They should be plump, solid and of full size. They should be moist rather than dry.

Soil should be well drained and rich. Sand and leaf mold can be used to advantage around the bulbs if the soil is heavy.

Well rotted manure not touching the bulbs but available to the roots, likewise bone meal, are the fertilizers usually recommended.

Uniform depth of planting will insure blooming at the same time. The larger the bulb, as a rule, the deeper it should be planted. In sandy soil the depth may be greater than in heavy soils. Three times the diameter of the bulb is in accepted planting depth. A practical table of bulb planting depths is:

Anemone—3 inches; bulbous Iris, crocus and snowdrop—4 inches; grape hyacinth—5 inches; tulips—6 inches; hyacinth and narcissus—7 inches and lily—8 inches. Crocus, snowdrop and grape hyacinth should be planted 3 inches apart; bulbous iris, 4 inches apart; narcissus, tulip and anemone, 6 inches apart and lilies, 12 inches.

If the bulbs are planted in beds the surface of the beds should be slightly higher at the center so that the water will run off. Bulbs are apt to rot with water standing in the beds.

All gardeners wish to have the largest flowering varieties, but if bulbs are left in the ground year after years and are not removed after flowering, the size and quality of the blooms will be decreased.

Next spring, about a month after the bulbs have flowered, when the tops have turned yellow, they should be dug up and the tops cut off within an inch of the bulb. The roots should be left on. The bulbs should be spread out in a dry airy room for about 12 days, at the end of which time they will have become dry. Then they should be wrapped in paper or packed in

Whitey Walker Trial Begins Next Monday At Stinnett

The trial of William J. "Whitey" Walker, will begin next Monday, November 4th when he will answer to a charge of having slain deputy sheriffs Pat Kenyon and A. L. Terry at Berger. Judge E. J. Pickens will preside at the trial and Clem Calhoun will represent the state.

Walker is also under indictment for the slaying of Coke Buchanan in 1927. Hugh Walker, a brother and Ed Bailey are also under indictment in the same cases.

Whitey's wife was recently given a five year suspended sentence for robbery at Tahoka according to newspaper reports.

Don't fail to read the ads in the Leader and profit thereby.

dry sand and stored in a dry, cool place.

If the home owner's garden plan calls for a rapid succession of bloom, the early flowering bulbs can be dug up after flowering and "heeled in" elsewhere until the tops turn yellow.

For varieties of bulbs the amateur will find many valuable suggestions in the current magazines, the plantsmen's catalogues or at nearby nurseries. Last spring most Yard and Garden Contest entrants did not have the advantage of fall planted beds of bulbs. Next spring a much more widespread evidence of this type of yard beautification is expected as the result of interest aroused by the contest.

Turkey Crop Will Be Short In Donley County

After making a careful survey of the field, M. S. Parsons, one of the leading produce men of the Panhandle who makes his headquarters in Clarendon, is authority for the statement that the turkey crop this year will be very short.

This short crop is due to the dry, hot summer and hail and floods in the early fall. Prices are expected to be fair this season. Large crops are reported from down state in the Cuero section or "turkey trot" belt.

Several turkey raisers will keep breeding stock over for the next season which will also cut down the amount marketed. The local hatchery will do most of the hatching as experiments with incubator hatched eggs this year proved successful.

A. T. Cole is attending the Hamilton trial at Weatherford.

PRE-HISTORIC COTTON AND BOOMERANG ARE FOUND IN UTAH CAVES

Charles A. Bernheimer, head of the expedition of the American Museum, announced at Salt Lake City, this week discovery of a mummy, a boll of cotton and a boomerang in vases in the southeast corner of Utah. Mr. Bernheimer's discoveries were announced on his return from his seventh expedition to the homes of the Basketmakers, the oldest known inhabitants of United States territory.

"The boomerang, as far as I know is the first such weapon to be discovered in this country," Mr. Bernheimer said. "The boll of cotton is an outstanding phenomenon, since no one has yet proved that cotton was used by the Basketmakers in this region. It would indicate that possibly the climate of this region may have been different thousands of years ago. At present, with its high altitude, the territory is far too cold for growing such a crop. In view of the claim heretofore made by experts that the aborigines did not use cotton, we consider as significant our find of a cotton boll with seed and lint. In a Moki Canyon cave, we found a mummy of a very early Basketmaker type, covered with a thick cedar bark blanket tied with Yucca fiber and human hair."

Mr. Bernheimer said he concluded the Basketmakers were a cannibalistic people from a charred mass of human bones he found in Arch Canyon.—Dublin Progress.

J. R. Ayres is one of those thoughtful kind of fellows who believes that it is best to raise most of the living right at home on the farm. As a consequence, he has a fine bunch of hogs and aside from having the best at home, he will find a ready market for all that he has to spare at a good price, too.

HEDLEY

Mr. Frank Houston of Childress and Mr. T. D. Nored of Clarendon were here Monday looking after the interest of the West Texas Utilities Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sullivan who formerly lived here, but now make Dallas their home are glad to announce the dainty little daughter, Betty Gene, who was born one day last week.

The Big Carnival given by the school, parents, and teachers, Halloween night, was a big success. Those who missed this big show certainly missed one big evening full of fun. The proceeds were fair, and every one was very nice to come and help make the evening a big success. Lets have another one.

The 1919 Jr. Study Club, had a well meeting Monday afternoon at the home of the President, Mrs. Ralph Moreman. The house was open to plans for the Halloween party, also to help the Senior Club put over the Club Cook Book. All business was attended to and the hostess served a dainty salad course to the following members: Misses Melba Johnson, Elsie Mace, Clotel Moreman, Gladys Simpson, Gladys Ewen, Mmes. Chas Everett, Lake Dishman, John Aull, Olson Blankenship, Elvin Hickey, and the hostess. The afternoon was very much enjoyed by all and every one was pepped up for the party.

The Ford Motor Company gave away the free Radio Saturday afternoon. The numbers were mixed together and one taken out, and Mr. Ross Brown was the lucky person. He was very proud of his new radio, also was lucky on winning the Ford given away by M. & M. Co. last fall. If you expect to be lucky you had better get known out of town first.

The Halloween Party entertainment given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Dishman was fun every minute, when the front door was opened to find the Devil setting there with his red hot poker ready to touch those who came within reach of his rod. The games followed and every thing made you think really how Spooky Halloween was. The old witch was able to be there with her many tales of the future to every one. After the fun and amusement was over a long line was formed and each went in the dining room and each served to sandwiches, coffee, salad, potato chips, and olives. Every one was well entertained and hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Dishman would make an open house again next soon.

The new school building is now completed and will be occupied Monday. This building is modern in every way, and each pupil and parent are proud of it.

Mrs. Charley Dixon has been on the sick list, but at this writing she is reported improving.

Donley County Can Grow Choice Pecans

Some citizens of this county have been growing pecans for some years. That the low, subirrigated lands of which we have thousands of acres, is ideal for pecan growing has been known to pecan experts for years.

A pecan tree in the back yard of the Mitch E. Bell home in this city has borne bountifully for many years. The hard pan quality of clayey soil where the tree grows is a thorough test. Dr. Wilder has a tree set out three years ago that is bearing. Neither of the trees are located on what might be termed ideal pecan soil.

The time is coming when Donley county will have immense pecan orchards that will average up those of sections already developed. It's coming, but why not now?

Illinois Men Buy Texas Calves For Club Boys

Two carloads of calves were loaded from Crews Brothers ranch at Childress Saturday destined for Watska, Illinois where they will be distributed among the club boys of that section.

The calves will be fed through through the winter and prepared for the shows early in the fall. This is the third car of calves to be shipped from this ranch during the week, another car going to Charleston, Ill. earlier in the week for the same purpose. Stock from the Crews ranch have a national reputation for quality and are consequently in great demand at a good price.

Perryton Increases Size Of Fire Department

A new 500 gallon fire engine of the Seagraves type was added to the department at Perryton Saturday. The 90 horse power engine is said to be the last word in fire fighting equipment giving them a pressure of 450 pounds. An order has been placed for 1200 feet of new hose to use in connection with the new fire wagon.

Richest Town In World Has Neither Jail Nor Jailer

Garnavillo, Iowa, with a population of only 340, has two banks with deposits of $2,225,000. The town is located six miles from a railroad, was established in 1837. The town has had neither jail nor jailer for fifty years, and the oldest inhabitant cannot recall when an arrest was made of a local citizen. The town is located in the heart of a dairy belt which is its principal source of wealth.

Change Of Address

Please notify us promptly of change of address giving old address as well as new. If the paper is not taken from the postoffice promptly, it is returned to us and we are forced to pay four cents for it's return.

Some few ask that an address be changed and do not give any address. Others neglect their paper for some time and wonder why it has quit coming. The new postal laws are very strict and we must comply with them.

BULL CIRCLE HEIFERS OUT-DOING THEIR MOTHERS

College Station.—Heifers sired by circle bulls in Texas are beginning to come fresh and in most cases are giving from 25 per cent to 50 per cent more milk than their grade mothers, so reports from several county agents show. One of the heifers sired by a register-of-merit bull in Falls county gave an average of 42 pounds of milk daily for the first 35 days after calving. She belongs to Jess Herridge who states that at the current price of 53 cents per pound butterfat paid by the local condensory this young heifer is producing $34 worth of milk monthly. Her mother was just an average grade cow.

Several bull circle heifers just fresh in Scurry county are reported to be producing from 25 per cent to 33 per cent more milk than their dams, and in Jones county two such heifers are giving 3 1-2 and 4 gallons of milk daily, which is said by their owners to be a decided increase over their mother's production.

INFORMATION WANTED

The editor of this paper is compiling a list of successful fruits, nuts and berries being grown in Donley county. If the reader knows of any one who has successfully grown either, kindly call at the office or phone 336.

Own Home Planting Is Done by This Virginia Woman

It's so much fun to plant her own garden that Mrs. H. E. Glidwell of Norfolk, Virginia, attends to everything herself. She sets out trees and shrubs. Mrs. Glidwell even designed and constructed the lily pool you see in this picture. She's laying a cement walk, simulating flag stones, here. Mrs. Glidwell got the inspiration to beautify her home grounds thru the big Yard and Garden Contest conducted by the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch.

CAPITAL WEEKLY PRESS

Vann M. Kennedy

Already top-heavy with surplus machinery of government, many critics think, Texas may have another board added to her rather large total of independent boards and commissions. The Texas Farm Board would be the new piece of machinery.

Representative Lawrence Westbrook of McLennan County would have such a body created for the purpose of cooperation with the Federal Farm Board. He will try to have his plan submitted to a special session of the Legislature, scheduled to meet next January. Representative Westbrook, a member of a special agricultural committee appointed by Governor Moody, said in part:

"The action of the Federal Farm Board in announcing its policy in regard to cotton has come too late to help the great majority of Texas farmers. The Texas crop is largely ginned and sold, although a great deal of cotton is being held in Central Texas. The Texas committee urged upon the board the advisability of announcing its loan policy before the crop should be sold by its producers, and the failure of the board to make such an announcement has created in the minds of both producers and consumers a lack of confidence in cotton values which has had a depressing effect on prices, and which caused producers to sell their cotton at millions of dollars under its intrinsic worth."

Prison Fire

Fire destroyed three buildings of the Wynne State penitentiary farm last week. The loss was estimated at $15,000. The destroyed property was the main barracks of the farm.

The University Land Leasing Board last week ordered 8,194 acres of University of Texas oil lands in Pecos, Crane, Ector and Hudspheth Counties placed on the market for leasing purposes. Bids will be received until Nov. 7th, when the lands will be leased.

Scribes Junket

Of interest to the wheat farmer: A party of Capital correspondents recently visited Galveston on a tour of inspection, gleaning information about the port and shipping developments. A project of a 6,000,000 bushel capacity grain elevator, costing several millions and now under construction, was of particular interest. The elevator site is on the waterfront and is designed for elaborate switching terminals. The plant will be able to receive 500 cars of grain a day and lead out boats at the rate of 100,000 bushels an hour. The project will be completed in time to handle the 1930 crop, according to the owners, the Galveston Wharf Co. While in Galveston the scribes were the guests of Mr. F. W. Parker, Representative John Darrouzett, Mr. Ernest Cole, and Senator T. J. Holbrook.

Pension Funds Available

Pension funds are now available to pay all Confederate veterans and their widows who have attained the age of 75 years, according to an announcement made last week by State Comptroller Sam Houston Terrell. The pension allotment will be $75 for the quarters ending Nov. 30 and Feb. 28. The Confederate Pension Fund is created by a constitutional levy of seven cents on the $100 property valuation.

Widows under 75 years of age, and therefore not in the preferred class established in an amended Confederate pension law passed by the 41st Legislature, will receive $35 for each quarter, Terrell said. There were no available funds to pay the widows not in the preferred class during the last quarter.

The Attorney General's Department is preparing to oppose a motion filed by Oklahoma in the United States Supreme Court to cause indefinite delay in the approval of a special commissioner's report, which awards 28,500 acres on the Panhandle border line to Texas.

Prison Relocation

The Texas Prison Centralization Commission, meeting in Austin last week, voted 11 to 4 to recommend the relocation of the Texas prison system within 20 miles of Austin. A committee of six was appointed to rite the recommendations of the majority. Recommendations of the Commission must be ready by Dec. 1, the date set by the Legislature for the completion of the work.

At a previous session the Commission decided to recommend the construction of a centralized plant, with part unit cell blocks and part dormitories; the expenditure of $1,000,000 as an initial outlay for the new system; and combination of farming and manufacturing with convict labor.

There are many hurdles which the Commission must clear before its plan can be put into effect. The most brilliant display of fireworks is likely to be over the question of the site for the relocation. The minority faction of the Commission, Senator Nat Patton of Crockett, Representative Harry N. Graves of Georgetown, Representative A. H. King of Throckmorton, and Representative E. T. Murphy of Livingston, are strongly opposed to a relocation near the seat of government. They advocate the use of one of the State-owned prison farms, the Wynne farm being preferred. The minority will bring in a strong report, and there will be a large group in the Legislature to support their recommendations.

State Commissioner of Agriculture George B. Terrell, who served on the Penitentiary Committee several times while a member of the House of Representatives, issued a long statement in favor of a concentration on State-owned prison farms South of Houston. "My investigations for many years have convinced me, (against my will) that farming operations must always be the major operations of the prison system. Any attempt to go into manufacturing on a large scale with convict labor, using costly machinery will cost the State ten million dollars during the next few years with no assurance that the state will ever recoup the losses", declared Terrell.

CARD OF THANKS

In disposing of my interests in the Ballew & Noble Garage to Mr. Noble, I wish to thank my many customers and friends for their loyalty all these years. It is with a feeling of regret that I leave to begin anew in another town.

Your patronage has been greatly appreciated and I ask that the same consideration be shown my former partner, Mr. I. O. Noble who will take pleasure in giving you the very best service to be had. Thank you.

Fred Ballew.

With Our Exchanges

Albert E. Fall, after a good many years of dodging, at last stands convicted of receiving a bribe in connection with Elk Hills oil scandal.

Fall, beyond all doubt, was a pathetic figure when the verdict was returned. It seems to be established that he is in genuinely ill health. He is, also, old. The prospect that faces him is not a cheerful one.

Nevertheless, he cannot expect a great deal of sympathy from his fellow-countrymen. His conviction was a victory for honest government and a victory for democracy. It has shown that the nation is able to punish a faithless public official, even if the process does take a disgracefully long time.—Times.

It is true that "the mills of the gods grind slowly" and it is also true that "every man's chickens come home to roost." The writer visited the Fall ranch at Three Rivers, N. M. before and after the alleged bribing era. There was a noticeable difference in the general air of prosperity around the ranch after Fall "broke in" on the Interior department and got lined up. The gentleman rancher is but a battered physical wreck today with a sentence of a year in jail and a one hundred thousand dollar fine hanging over his head. Crime never pays.

GOOD OLD DAYS

The editor would like to hearken back about forty years and get a fryer or two on subscription. Those really were the days of the country newspaper man, as he was kept in fire wood, chickens potatoes and other eatables which were furnished by the farmer readers in return for the paper. How pleasant it was to have a real kindly man walk into the office, give a few words of praise for your efforts, and then announce he had brought a nice ham to pay up his back dues and a year ahead. Our farmer friends need not be the least bit backward in the regard, as a country ham, or a couple of fryers, or some other farm product will be duly accepted and the notice duly written.—Childress News.

Brother, you said a mouth full! Wife and I being farm raised, we naturally have our own butter, eggs and fryers at home all the time, but a juicy country ham or sausage hits the right spot any old time.

In the years of long ago when mother got the ham hot and we could smell it all over the house, and perchance a waft of the aroma at the cow lot, we naturally worked a little faster to get through and park at the breakfast table. And you remember those well-seasoned sausage put up in a shuck? Gosh! Most any editor is in the market for some of these choice viands produced only on the farm.

ADVERTISING!

An old lady told us the other day she set her cap for the boys several times when she was a girl, but it wasn't her knee cap.—Clarksville Times.

At any rate a fellow can tell better what he is getting today when he gives the "sixteen inch double column display" the once over. Sure it pays to advertise!

SPILLING THE BEANS!

If more farmers will get a few cows, sows and hens, stay at home more and look closely after the small details, instead of being constantly on the go in the family car, one of these days the buying of homes will pick up again. Also fewer people in town will mortgage little homes for a car too when they follow the above suggestion. The world is going "auto" mad, and most people are not contented unless they are traveling somewhere.—Miami Chief.

A lot of farmers don't need that advice, many will not accept it

ARTICLE MUST BE RIGHT.

It is a maximum of advertising that a poor product cannot be successfully advertised. It may flash upon the screen with brilliance, become the talk of the hour, and to all appearances be destined to set new records, but unless it is and does what is claimed for it, no amount of printers' ink can give it permanence.

Once in a while some article of merchandise will appear to defy this rule, but not for long. Public response, at first, perhaps, quick and active, becomes slower and slower. Sales fall off. The business gets sick and in a few months or a few years, even the name of the product is forgotten.

Advertising men know this so well that today the first question upon which they must be satisfied is—Is the product right?

And merchandise that is right—merchandise that will satisfy in but it is a well known fact that some folks chase around too much and cuss the government for their poverty stricken condition. There was a time when a fellow could get Jane and the kids loaded in and go see the mother-in-law, but now he would be more apt to meet her in the middle of the road. Catching her at home these days is the big problem.

service—merchandise bring customers back for a purchase is the first requirement of the retailer who expects to flourish.

There is no better assurance of this kind of merchandise than an advertising pledge to the people.

W. D. Martin was snowbound in Colorado at last accounts chasing around with a relative who markets beans by the truck load. It is his intention to accompany a truck load down this way, one load having been sold at Memphis two weeks ago.

ALPHA DELTA PSI ENTERTAINS PALO DURO SOCIETY AND FACULTY

Wednesday night the Alpha Delta Psi Literary Society was host to the Palo Duro Literary Society and the Faculty of the Clarendon Junior College. At 7:30 o'clock all the guests and society members began to assemble in the home of Miss Ruth Dunn, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Games were played after everyone had unmasked himself. Everyone declared that Bill Wilder was the best disguised person present.

The guests seemed to enjoy the games, but they were very enthusiastic when the old witch came in to tell their fortunes. All had their fortunes told, which were very thrilling, although painful at times. After the witch had finished telling fortunes, she told a ghost story, and of course it made everyone feel creepy. Refreshments of apples and stick candy were served. Every one went away declaring that he had had a good time.

THE JUNIORS ENTERTAIN THE SENIORS

A mysterious throng of weird goblins consisting of many races and colored costumes, met in the big dining room of the Girl's Dormitory last Friday evening. Swagging pirates with bloody knives, butcherous cut throats and Indians, fat clowns, lean clowns, tall clowns, short clowns, clowns with long black locks, clowns that were bald, Gypsies, Peter Pan, bell-boys, policemen, boys with short knee pants, Spanish troubadours—all joined together in the gala affair.

By common consent, the pirates cutthroats and other murderous characters, put away their dangerous weapons and forcefully (?) seizing a partner from the sea of belles, joined in the many games. Apples on strings and apples in tubs of water. One push on the head and souse!—up would come a sputtering, gasping goblin who, in spite of the danger of a ducking, had attempted to bite the tempting fruit.

Meanwhile, other games were in progress. The Virginia reel held its own until, tiring of the bowing and scraping, another game was begun. Jingle-Jingle-Ti - De - O! Swirling couples dressed in many colors mingled in the happy throng as it skipped around the ring, then twirled with breathless speed.

Groans of dismay, shrieks of horror, and giggles of merriment issued from the corner where the old witch presided over a black pot containing fortunes on cat's heads and pumpkins.

When the time came for refreshments, the ghosts and goblins lined up at the kitchen door and were given a bottle of pop and a huge doughnut. (Which, huge though it was, did not quite satisfy that "empty" feeling.)

The Goblins seemed to overlook the broad hint which accompanied the refreshments and began to frolic again. Only when the hosts began to sing "Good Night Ladies," and "Home Sweet Home" did the guests regretfully take their departure.

Judging by the actions and the late dismissal, it seemed as though the party was a decided success.

Many thanks, Juniors; we had a very, very enjoyable time with you—

—The Senior Class.

POSITIVELY

He was in college and needless to say, he was in financial straits. So he wrote home to his father, and told him of a wonderful new system by which they were now teaching dogs to talk. He suggested that for $1000 paid in monthly instalments he could have his dog Rover trained in the new art, and that eventually he could make many times the original investment by showing Rover around the county during summer vacation. So each month Dad sent the $100 and lived in a state of expectancy, meanwhile receiving glowing accounts of Rover's progress. But came a day of reckoning, the term was ended and sonny must journey homeward. Dad met him at the station with the buckboard and was so impressed with his new clothes and high hatted mannerisms that he forgot about Rover until they were well on their way homeward. Suddenly, however, he turned to his boy.

"Where is Rover, son?" he asked.

"Poor Dad," said Eric with tears in his voice, "after all the money and trouble I hate to tell you, but Rover is dead."

"Dead?"

"Yes, poor dog! He was killed this morning on the way. You see he had gained almost as much proficiency in speaking as many children and suddenly when we were on our way home today he turned to me and said, 'And so we're going back to the farm?'"

"Yes," I replied. "Tell me," said Rover, "is your old man still sweet on the hired girl and that neighbor lady next door?" And I was so incensed at his insult to you that I struck him. He immediately sprang out the window and as the train was going sixty miles an hour he was killed instantly."

"The old man didn't reply and for a time they rode along in silence. Finally he turned to the boy again.

"Son," he asked quaveringly, "do you reckon that dog is surely dead?"—The Office Cat.

Reformed

"And at her request you gave up drinking?"

"Yes."

"And you stopped smoking for the same reason?"

"I did."

"And it was for her that you gave up dancing, card parties, and billiards?"

"Absolutely."

"Then why didn't you marry her?"

"Well, after all this reforming I realized I could do better."

Possum Boys Delivering Goods To Editor

Does advertising pay? Yes, and how! Last week the editor advertised for some possums for a special feed to be given some loyal possum eaters. Ordinarily one would not think there were many rodents of this tribe in the country, but there is. No section grows 'em better.

The printed message had been out only a few hours when the first boy called up and informed the Apostle of the Temple of Truth that he had a possum. More have called and it looks like there will be plenty of possum for Thanksgiving.

The possums will be dressed to a Sunday finish, frozen over night and baked to a strawberry brown garnished with West Texas sweet spuds grown in grand old Donley county. Folks who don't like possum have never tasted a Donley county product properly cooked up with Donley county potatoes.

Of course there will be plenty of side dishes, but the house will be decorated with the aroma of well baked possum and I don't mean mabe. There won't be any "hifalutin" manners to embarrass the one making an attack on the leg and there will be but one request—don't get choked on a bone and disturb the meetin'.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Gillespie of Memphis visited Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duckett Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Harp of Ashtola were shopping in Clarendon Saturday.

Alfred Devers visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. P. Devers of Childress Sunday.

Miss May Bennett left Monday for Glendale, California where she will spend the winter with her brother Herman.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL FRIDAY NIGHT AT BRICE SCHOOL

The biggest event in school history from an entertainment standpoint took place at Brice Friday night. The event had been well advertised and was given further notoriety as a news item on the front page of the Leader of last issue.

The folks came out and helped the teachers and pupils put it over in great shape. The program was exceptionally good with the voting of a "carnival queen" as the one big attraction. Miss Asclea Odom was voted the loveliest of the many beautiful young ladies of the neighborhood, and was crowned "queen" with all the formalities befitting the dignity of such an occasion.

Negro minstrels, scenes from mother's old album and junior boy drills were accorded a big share of time on the program. Fortune telling and black cat mystery also came in for a goodly share of attention.

The carnival was given for the benefit of the athletic fund which was richer by about seventy dollars as a result of the ingenuity of the enterprising community. Many from nearby towns were in attendance and the Brice school is far better known over a wide section.

KEMPS ENTERTAIN WITH "42"

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Kemp entertained the "42" Club at their home Thursday evening with five tables. The interior of the home was decorated with Halloween decorations and a color scheme of burnt orange and black.

A dainty, beautiful refreshment course was served to Messrs. and Mmes. A. A. Mayes, M. M. Nobles, C. C. Powell, H. B. Kerbow, J. G. Sherman, U. J. Boston, J. T. Patman, J. H. Watts, Mrs. Eva Rhodes and Mrs. B. G. Smith and Sam Braswell.

FOOTBALL SQUAD ENTERTAINED AT SPEED HOME

Miss Kitty Speed entertained the Bronchos Tuesday night with a Halloween party. The home was gaily decorated with objects in keeping with the season using a color scheme of burnt orange and black, including the refreshments.

Plenty of "spooks" were present each young lady duly initiated into the mysteries of "spookdom." Those inquisitive minds bent on peering into the future found appearance around large black kettle in a dark room accompanied by plenty of black mystery. Some indulged in dancing until twelve o'clock when the party guests adjourned to go "spooking" down town. The black cat brought good luck as no one was locked up.

Those present were: Ada Mae Owen, John Blackburn, Sis Andis, Bill Wood, Esma Keener, Tony Watson, Ruth Nichols, Mike Baird, Viola Jones, Lucy Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Everette Barnes, Nell Butler, John Erwin Wilson, Josephine Murphey, Roy Heath, Josie Mae Davis, Clebert McCrary, Nora Lee O'Neal, Carroll Hudson, Billie Vineyard, Philip Couch, Lavera Ownby, Phifer Estlack, Bernice Andis, Claude Mock, Ruth Hartzog, Laverne Whit, Jeanette Parks, Sam Davis, Harry Hartzog, Roberta L. A. F. O. N., "Snooks" Andis and the Broncho captain, Joe Noble.

CHRISTIAN LADIES AID

The Christian Ladies Aid of the Christian church met with Mrs. J. N. Wood, nine members being present. Mrs. O. D. Liesberg presided over the meeting. Mrs. Eva Humphrey led in prayer which was followed by singing "The Old Rugged Cross."

Mrs. Owen Butler led in the devotional service, the lesson being taken from the 5th chapter of Luke, which was discussed by all the members present.

The lesson at the next meeting in which Mrs. J. N. Wood will be leader, will be taken from the 6th chapter of Luke. There will be no meeting held Wednesday of this week. The missionary meeting will meet with Mrs. M. G. Cottingham of Lelia Lake.

Miss Vera Blackman and Cleo Aduddell of Brice were married here the first of last week at the parsonage, Rev. Sam E. Allison, pastor of the Methodist church officiated.

FRED CHAMBERLAIN, JR. HAS HALLOWEEN PARTY

One of the most enjoyable parties of Halloween season was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Chamberlain honoring Fred, Jr. Wednesday evening. The guests arrived in costume and were escorted into rooms displaying all the witchery redolent of the age when cats rode broom handles ridden by witches. A ghost den was presided over by Robert Nichols as chief "ghoster" of the occasion. George Chamberlain tamed the untamed mysteries of the future in telling the fortunes of the unwary in a most realistic manner.

Those enjoying the party program and refreshments were: Mary Lee Taylor, Margaret Kelly, La Verne and June McMurtry, Bettie Jo Caraway, Lois Marie Taylor, Maxine Ellis, Jean and Ruth McDonald, Edward Ozier, Billie Patman, Houston Alexander, Philip Gentry, Jr., John Henry Jay, Robert Nichols, Billie Headrick, Lewis Chamberlain and George Chamberlain.

MISS BETTIE WEATHERLY ENTERTAINS

Miss Bettie Weatherly entertained a few of her friends at her home Friday night with two tables of bridge. Delicious refreshments were served following the games.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Darden, Mr. Jack E. Jones, Miss Lillian Murphey, Mr. Eddie Frantz and the hostess, Miss Bettie Weatherly.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL JUNIORS ENTERTAINED

About forty members of the Junior department of the Methodist Sunday school were entertained Tuesday evening at the Parks home on College Heights. Miss Aleen Parks was hostess and was assisted by Mmes. Clyde Hudson and U. J. Boston and Misses Fannie Perry and Ruth Donnell.

Halloween decorations were in vogue and the same color scheme prevailed in the refreshment decorations. Games and fortune telling furnished amusement.

YOUNG FOLKS ARE ENTERTAINED AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Tuesday evening was a great event in the young lives of the Junior and Intermediate pupils of the Sunday school classes of the Baptist church, the occasion being a Halloween party.

The church parlors were decorated with a wide variety of Halloween mementos including weird lighting effects, bats, witches, pumpkins, etc. Fortune telling and games furnished plenty of amusement. Refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream proved an innovation among the number of surprises given the pupils.

CIRCLE NUMBER FOUR ENTERTAINS OTHER CIRCLES

Circle No. 4 of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church entertained the other Circles and the ladies of the church at the District Parsonage Wednesday afternoon with a Halloween party.

Rev. and Mrs. Merrell had decorated the rooms with yellow chrysanthemums and Halloween decorations in a beautiful manner. Two forms of games were played: The charades acting out the fifteen Proverbs, and oratorical games. Rev. Merrell won first place and Mrs. Rich Holder second place.

Delicious refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream and mints and coffee was served to thirty ladies. Rev. and Mrs. Merrell and Rev. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston R. Miller and children of Canadian, spent the week end with their daughter, Mrs. Lola May Johnson and sister, Mrs. Cox of Clarendon.

YOUNG MATRON'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS IS ENTERTAINED

The Young Matron's Harmony Sunday school class of the Methodist church was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Ben Andis at her home, assisted by Mrs. Joe Ellison.

Halloween suggestions prevailed in both decorations and refreshments. Games of many kinds furnished amusement after which refreshments were served to Mmes. H. O. Rippey, O. C. Watson, Y. E. McAdams, Robt. Dillard, C. W. Bennett, Jr., E. P. Shelton, L. H. Johnson, B. F. Kirtley, B. C. Antrobus, Lillian Brady, Fred Buntin, Slaton Mahaffey, Walter Hutchins, Roy Ingram, Bascom, White, Cleo Norwood, Homer L. McElvaney, and to Mrs. O. T. Smith and Mrs. Harry Guyness, who were guests of the afternoon.

LEAGUE SENIORS HAVE PARTY AT METHODIST CHURCH

Mrs. O. T. Smith was hostess to a party given the Senior League in the parlors of the Methodist church Tuesday night. The guests arrived at the church in costume which was the signal for the beginning of the festivities.

Games, fortune telling and contests made up the principal parts of the program. Doughnuts and apples in plentiful supply appeased the appetites of the thirty guests who were present for the occasion.

Mrs. O. T. Smith's talent as an entertainer is well known and the class will attest her prowess on this particular occasion.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY

The Seniors were royally entertained by the Juniors Friday night with a Halloween party in the dining room of the dormitory. The room was decorated with shocks of feed, pumpkins and other appropriate decorations.

Each guest was in masquerade costume and a prize was given to the boy and girl each wearing the best costume. Mary Frances Caraway drew the prize for the girl when she appeared in a Spanish costume of extreme cunningness. Mr. Baiton, dressed as a clown and acting the part, won the boy's prize.

Biting an apple, ducking for apples, drawing fortunes and many other forms of amusement served to keep the guests in a thorough good humor.

The revelers were served delicious orange soda water and doughnuts as refreshments. Games were played up to the time for adjournment and another school party became history and a happy remembrance of school days.

HALLOWEEN PARTY GIVEN THE YOUNGER SET

Georgie Wayne Estlack, celebrated with his 8th Halloween party at the home of his parents Thursday night. Skeleton and witches and other Halloween habiliments made up the decorations, flowers helping out in the color scheme.

Mrs. Cousins and Miss Helen Smith had charge of the games. At nine o'clock a plate refreshment was served to Aileen Ballew, Joyce Smith, Dollie Watters, Vivian Reavis, Lee Christine Cousins, Hulda Joe and Ruth Cauthen, Reba Shoffitt, Beatrice Gorman, Neva Riley, Rose Lee and Neely Grady, Frank and Truett Holtzclaw, Robert Nichols, Willard Hudson, Bonner Trostle, Paul Greene, Jack Latson, George Chamberlain, Arthur Chase, Jr., David McCleskey, Homer and George Wayne Estlack, Mrs. Cauthen, Mrs. Major Hudson, Mrs. Cousins and Miss Helen Smith and Mrs. J. C. Estlack.

Mrs. Dick Allen was a business visitor in Amarillo Saturday.

JO ELLA STEWART ENTERTAINS MANY FRIENDS

Assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Jo Ella entertained a number of her friends with a costume Halloween party Tuesday evening. The guest rooms were sprightly suggestive of the Halloween spirit with gay decorations and beautiful cut flowers.

Donna Downey won the prize for having worn the most beautiful costume. Drew Wilkerson and Chas. Murphey drew the prizes for having "forked" the greatest number of apples from a water vessel.

BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED AT BAIN HOME

The celebration of the fifty-second birthday of Mr. J. T. Bain at his home near Hedley the past week was the occasion of the gathering of many relatives to do him honor.

When the feast was spread, there was a large turkey as a center piece with all the sauces and trimmings, pies and cakes, salads and fried chicken and many other things to make one long remember the occasion.

All of the immediate relatives were present with the exception of one daughter-in-law and three grand children. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hill parents of Mrs. J. T. Bain, Grandma Baley, mother of Mrs. Tommie Bain, the sons and families, Mr. Claud Bain and daughter Terressa. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bain and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. George Bain and five sons, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Garold Bain and son, also two unmarried sons, Clyde and Kenneth. Also daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carnes and son, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Naitor and son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bain have long resided in the Hedley country where they have taken an active interest in the development of the community and are numbered among the most highly respected citizens of the county.

Will T. Hill, a brother of Mrs. Bain, and his family of Lefors were also present to help celebrate with the birthday dinner.

MRS. C. M. LINDSEY ENTERTAINS WITH HALLOWEEN PARTY

Mrs. C. M. Lindsey entertained with a Halloween party at her home south of town Thursday night honoring Misses Wilma D. Smith and Wanda Mayfield. The guest room was decorated with flowers and ornaments suggestive of the occasion.

Exciting games and fortune telling furnished amusement until time for drawing fancy candy which was an interesting moment for the guests. Those present were: Misses Myrtle Mae Williams, Elizabeth Dunn, Gwendolyn Fielder, Laverne Lott, Wilma D. Smith, Wanda Mayfield, Mary Travis Dyer, Fannie Lee McGowan, and Howard Gilbert, Ralph Grady, Milton Mayo, Joe Hayes, Leona Hayes, Edna Thomas, Mary Joe Reeves.

MOTHER'S CLUB MEETS

The Mother's Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. W. C. McDonald at her beautiful home in the west end, Friday afternoon. The guest room was artistically decorated with cut flowers of many shades blending into a color scheme of yellow and white.

The subject of "Earning and Saving as Factors in Development of Character" was led by Mrs. Fred Buntin, assisted by Mmes. U. J. Boston and G. F. Keener. The membership present discussed the subject advancing many profitable ideas and practical suggestions.

The hostess served refreshments to the following guests: Mmes. T. D. Nored, U. J. Boston, W. W. Taylor, C. W. Bennett, Jr., Sam Darden, Fred Buntin, T. H. Ellis, H. T. Burton, E. P. Shelton, Jno. Bass, J. R. Porter, C. J. Douglas, Wm. Patman, Eva Draffin, G. F. Keener, and the hostess, Mrs. W. C. McDonald.

MRS. C. E. GRIGGS HOSTESS TO MRS. BURTON'S CLASS

Mrs. C. E. Griggs was hostess to Mrs. C. A. Burton's Sunday school class at her home Friday afternoon. During the business session, plans were perfected for the holding of a market and bazaar the 23rd of this month.

A pleasant afternoon was spent in this hospitable home, the ladies working on materials for their bazaar, after which the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Mr. E. A. Thompson returned Thursday from a stay of some weeks at Abell's sanitarium in Hobart, Okla. Mr. Thompson is much improved in health and enjoyed the trip.

YOUNGER SET HAVE PARTY AT KEENER HOME

Mrs. G. F. Keener entertained several of the smaller set with a Halloween party at her home Friday evening in honor of Catherine and T. C.

The guest room was beautifully decorated in regulation colors and games that appeal to the active minds of the youngsters afforded them plenty of merriment. Mrs. Keener served refreshments to the following guests: Dan and Bob Boston, Frances Sanford, Clyde Benton Douglas, Betty Joe Caraway, Billie and James Headrick, Billie Lowe, Joe Ann Smith, Basil Kirtley, Jr., Jennie Jean Thompson, Edith Shelton, Lawrence Hickman, Coleman Huffman, Jr., and Paula Joe Guiberson of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crane will leave this week to make their home in Amarillo. The girls will remain to complete the school term.

Mr. J. W. Reeves of Hedley, has been sick for the past several days being confined in a local hospital.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY IS GIVEN MRS. C. W. TAYLOR

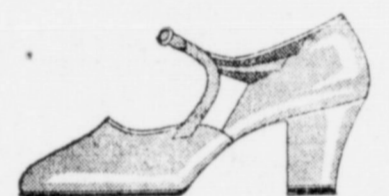

Mrs. C. W. Taylor was made happy Wednesday afternoon when a number of her dearest friends were so thoughtful of her on her natal day by gathering at her home. A large cake bearing 73 candles and beautiful decorations was presented the honoree.

Miss Agatha Taylor assisted her mother in preparing refreshments supplemental to the gift cake and served the following: Mmes. A. W. Simpson, H. C. Brumley, G. L. Boykin, Joe Goldston, W. A. Massie, W. Z. Borron, J. H. Harris, E. W. Adam, W. C. Stewart, J. T. Warren, G. A. Reed, H. T. Burton, G. H. McCleskey, L. L. Cornelius, E. A. Thompson, little Miss Nelda Sue Burton.

Mrs. L. Ballew, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Ft. Worth, Vernon and other points, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Dick Hughes and little son, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Maggie Bennett for some time, returned to their home at Pampa Saturday.

First Fireproof Construction in America

More Than 2,500 Years Old

In Arizona, the home of the cliff dwellers, an ancient civilization was discovered which built substantially against the elements of wind and fire.

Today, for proper protection and safety, we should likewise build substantially — but in addition insure adequately against losses from the same dangerous elements which beset man centuries ago.

Temple of Truth

By the Apostle

Mark Twain was right when he said, "there is more said and less done about the weather than any other one thing." We've been having it but not enough variety.

Some smart alec down in Arkansas sent some possum hair in an envelope and further tantalized by saying that a larger sample might be supplied if West Texas was too poor to support a possum.

Well now, we have 'em brother, of that large juicy type free from the contaminating influence of swamp fever, chills, malaria, ticks and what not. When you sink a tooth into a West Texas possum reared in the exhilarating influence of pure air and among the best people in the world, then you've made history.

I had much rather eat a possum chased up a tree by a blooded West Texas dog than a common cur pooch of Arkansas—they simply taste better. I've hunted with both in both places and know just exactly what I am talking about. An Arkansas possum looks like an over-grown wharf rat. A West Texas possum is a gentleman of culture, intelligence and decency or he never would have selected West Texas parents to start with.

Come on with the possum, the varmint never becomes an oh! possum until you get him on the table done to a strawberry brown garnished with West Texas sweet spuds. It's enough to make a fellow slap his grandfather. The West Texas possum is no more to be compared to that of Arkansas than just what is that Jeff Davis staff anyhow?

A mighty good friend hands us the following excellent recipe for joy and satisfaction:

- Friendly calls, 2 minutes.
- Friendly calls when busy, 1 minute.
- Agents or pedlers, 1-4 second.
- Friends willing to let us in on ground floor, 1-2 second.
- Friends who invite us to eat, 1 hour 30 minutes.
- Those wishing to pay old bills, 4 hours.
- Customers, 24 hours night and day.

Dry Ice, New to Houston, May Bring Great Change In Refrigeration Method

(The Houston Chronicle)

Perfecting of the "dry ice" process by the Saxet Carbonic Company, already large manufacturers of liquid carbonic dioxide for beverage and cooling purposes, has given Houston a new industry, and one which is surrounded with unusual interest.

This "dry ice" is really carbonic dioxide or CO₂ in a frozen form, attained through an expansion process followed by compression which releases the dry ice in cake form.

The Saxet concern headed by W. L. Pearson, is now equipped to manufacture about 1000 to 1500 pounds of this new ice daily, and the latest equipment has been ordered so that the present capacity can be increased by five times.

Here are some of the things the new ice is doing, according to J. M. George manager of the plant at 2100 Center Street, who explained the process:

Five pounds of the "dry ice" placed in the bottom of a light-weight cardboard carton will keep a five gallon can of ice cream in perfect condition for 24 hours or even longer. Ice cream, which is now being shipped by the Saxet Company to various points in the Houston territory under these conditions frequently reaches its destination so hard that it has to be set out in the warm air to soften enough for serving.

Ice cream similarly iced was sent to Chicago by air mail and by express, and although the express was more than 20 hours late, the ice cream was still in good condition.

May Revolutionize Cooling
J. A. Darby, of the company sees in the new ice a revolution in the matter of refrigerating shipments of perishable dairy products, vegetables, fruits, etc.

In the shipment of ice cream, a large saving in express charges is effected.

Mr. George said that the carton five gallons of ice cream and five pounds of the dry ice altogether weigh but forty-five pounds, and that this can be cut to 35 pounds by the use of lighter weight cans. The old fashioned ice cream container, a large wooden tub, packed with ice and salt, also containing five gallons of cream weighs from 175 to 200 pounds. Even though packed full of ice, the container must be repacked at the end of eight hours to keep the cream in perfect condition, Mr. George said:

How Dry Ice Is Made
The process by which the dry ice is manufactured is one of the most interesting and unusual.

Gases are caught from the smoke stacks of the battery of three 150-horse power boilers (which operate the ice cream plant, and are carried through a large enclosed tank, where the gases are thoroughly washed. From this tank the gases go to a second air tight tank where they pass slowly through a great filter of coke, down which constantly trickles a certain liquid which separates and captures the CO₂ gas or carbon dioxide. This liquid with the carbon dioxide gas still imprisoned, is conveyed into still

Officer Given Ten Year Term Will Not Quit

Tom C. Johnson, deputy sheriff of Wheeler county under sheriff W. K. McLemore, will continue to serve in his official capacity despite his conviction and ten year term on a criminal assault charge at Pampa last week.

The sheriff and leading citizens of Wheeler county and at Shamrock are firm in their belief that the deputy was "framed" and the case has been appealed to the higher courts. Johnson will continue to serve under a $7,500 appearance bond until the case is finally adjudicated.

another battery of units where the gas is separated from the liquid, and the liquid is returned after having been thoroughly cleaned, to the second tank.

Through a series of compressors and coolers, the gas is boosted up to a pressure of well over 1000 pounds to the square inch. Then, suddenly released from this pressure, into a massive cylinder, the gas which has in the meantime become a liquid, is converted into snow by the sudden expansion. A press turns the snow into cakes of dry ice about the size of a small cake. They weigh about two and a half pounds each.

Some Unusual Experiments
A characteristic of the dry ice is that it does not melt. It evaporates giving off a visible gas, which leaves no water behind.

The reporter experimented with this dry ice and found surprising results—surprising to the layman, but doubtless an old story to the chemist. Dry ice put in a tumbler of water, does not change the temperature of the water. The ice gradually disappears. It gives off a gas that bubbles up and then sinks to the floor, the gas being heavier than air.

Another experiment showed that water in the bottom of a tumbler placed on a piece of the dry ice began to freeze immediately. Almost at once the water was cold as one would care to drink.

Boy Scouts To Have Winter Camp

A winter camp will be held from Friday, December 20th to Monday December 23, the camp closing at noon in order that the boys may be home in time to make trips the day before Christmas. The cost of the camp will be $3.50, 50c for registrations and $3.00 on arrival at camp.

Camp literature is being prepared and will be sent out to all scouts within a short time. None but registered scouts, having a physical examination on a blank provided by the scout authorities, will be accepted. Mr. Jolly is urging patrols to go as a unit with their patrol leader, and troops with their scoutmaster.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

Last Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, the Alpha Delta Psi met in the society room to make plans for a masquerade party to be given next Wednesday night in the barn on Dr. Ellis's place to which all members of the Palo Duro and Alpha Delta Psi societies are cordially invited. An interesting program was also rendered. Mr. Archie Pool favored us with a vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Clark. Edna Gerlack's piano solo was enjoyed by all, and judging from public opinion, an encore would have been enjoyed, also Mr. Phifer Estlack told us of some recent inventions after which Mr. Joseph Brazil recounted some of the unusual experiences of Commander Byrd and his party while at the South Pole. Miss Frankye Ziegler gave a synopsis of O. Henry's short story, "Whistling Jim's Christmas Stocking". Adjournment until next Wednesday evening followed.

COOPERATION SPIRIT

The football boys and pep squad wish to express their kind appreciation to the business men of Clarendon, for their loyal cooperation and interest in supporting the good old team of Clarendon Senior High. The business men have been very faithful in backing the Bronchos and they appreciate it very much, but please keep the cooperative spirit going and help the Bronchos win the District Championship.

The Bronchos have played hard this season and have not lost a game. They have tied two, and will have one more conference game with Shamrock. Business men! do you realize that if the Bronchos beat Shamrock they have won this section of the District. No one can ride the Bronchos of Clarendon High with the loyal support of the town.

The business men have already shown that they are proud of the team by closing their stores for the Memphis game, and furnishing their cars to take boosters from here to Estelline. By this loyal cooperation, Clarendon is able to boast of a much larger representation than Estelline at her own home town.

The pep squad wish to thank the business men for their support in helping them secure adds for the paper. Everyone seemed ready to do his part in helping the girls raise money.

Business men! once more do we want to thank you for your loyal support, and may it continue until the Bronchos buck over the top for District Champions.

SACAJAWEA CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Due to preparation for a play to be given in the near future, Camp Fire activities have been at a partial standstill. Because we wish to give the public the best that we are capable of, we have suspended other activities, devoting our time to practice. We hope to secure the cooperation of the whole town in putting this play over in grand style, for the main purpose of it is to make money to buy honor beads and to help pay our dues for the next Camp Fire year. Come on, Home Folks! Back us as we do you and the project will be a success.

PALO DURO

The Palo Duro Literary Society met Wednesday with twenty members present. This was one of the best meetings the society has had this year. In the business meeting the society discussed a Halloween party but it was finally decided to postpone it, have a theatre party in two or three weeks.

After the reading of the minutes and roll call the program began. Lois Alexander gave a discussion of "Should a Woman Have a Business Career." The talk was divided into three parts: She should for her own benefit; does she have the right to be a business woman; would she be a success. Miss Maurine Vinson played on the piano "The Dance of the Winds". It was a very difficult piece and was wonderfully given. Everyone enjoyed it. Following this Miss Weta Haley gave a review of the most recent book she had read. After this the society sang several songs, accompanied at the piano by Miss Maurine Vinson. Refreshments were served much to the surprise of the entire society. Adjournment followed.

THE ACTIVITIES OF THE PEP SQUAD

Delphia Bones

The pep squad has done its part in helping the football team come through the preceding games this year successfully so far, and it intends to be present at the rest of the games this year to help the team win by yelling for them. The entire pep squad aggregation wants the Bronchos of Clarendon High School to be the champions this year, and the Bronchos will be champions this year because the pep squad knows that if it does its part on the side line, the team will do its part on the field.

Each Thursday night preceding the scheduled football games on Friday, the pep squad with other members of the student body meet at the college for a pep rally. Old and new songs and yells are practiced, then the students go to the business section of town and give yells to show that they are backing the home town team.

The pep squad members surely appreciate the backing of the business men and other citizens of the town, for backing and support is needed to produce a winning team.

A PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT

Pauline Shelton

Every town with a population as large as that of Clarendon should have a public park. This is not a luxury for a town but a necessity. A public park should not be merely a tract of land on which trees and shrubs are growing, but it should contain play ground equipment. The play ground equipment should be that that builds up character and not that that gives merely a thrill. There should be equipment for the older children as well as the younger children, such as tennis courts, croquet grounds, and swimming pools.

In the park, there should be an officer and a person to supervise playing. In the summer, if it is possible, there should be a story

Contemporary Thought

Prayer for the Press.

The Drifter in The Nation: A correspondent has sent the Drifter a prayer which a clergyman of Columbus (Miss.) is said to have delivered at the opening of a convention of the State Press Association:

"Eternal God, our Heavenly Father, we ask Thy blessings upon these newspaper people, who are wont to communicate with the end of the earth. They are people who can smell a revolution in China; people who have license to enter the gates of princes and potentates, but who will have a mighty hard time getting inside the gates of Paradise.

"Have mercy, O Lord, upon these people who have to carry all kinds of things in the cause of their newspapers. Have mercy, O Lord, on these people who are invited to so many luncheons and banquets that they must sacrifice their digestion on the altar of free advertising.

"Have mercy, Lord, on these people who are chased by the Colonial Dames, W. C. T. U., Kiwanis, Rotary and Chamber of Commerce. Have mercy on these people who have to hobnob alike with Jew and Gentile, white and black, Democrat and Republican, Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopalian.

"Have mercy, O Lord, on these people and help them in their dash from ballroom to church school and back to rum runners, and who have to associate with anybody from Andy Mellon to Andy Gump.

"Make this a good convention in Columbus. It is an easy matter to break into print, but how will some of them break into the pearl-gates? We pray thy blessings upon them, and when they have done with newspapers and stories and their careers are finished here, may they have a finer story from St. Peter than they ever had in newspapers here. And, though it is hard for newspaper men to get into the Kingdom, may they receive a warmer welcome in the New Jerusalem than they do in Columbus today."

teller to tell the smaller children stories. The play in the park should be so carefully supervised that mothers would not be afraid to let their children play in the park any time. If children are taught to play fairly with each other, that is a good habit for future life. For as Dryden says—

"Habits gather by unseen degrees
As brooks make rivers, rivers run to sea."

The town that has a public park and teach children to play together squarely and correctly, is training the future citizens to be good citizens. Tourist, who pass through a town and see a public park with supervised play, form a good opinion of the town. They know the town is public spirited and willing to be taxed for the benefit of the people.

Indian Baritone Heads List Of Cultural Specimens To Be Presented Here Next Month

November will bring to Dallas one of the most unique art events recorded in the annals.

On Nov. 20 there will open in the galleries of the Highland Park Town Hall for a period of three weeks, an exhibition of a large and authentic collection of the arts and crafts of the Southwestern Indians.

This display is being sent to Dallas under the auspices of the First American Association of Albuquerque, N. M., the Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce and with the especial commendation of Gov. R. C. Dillon of that State, who was a visitor last week to the Texas State Fair here.

According to Arthur Prager, president of the First American, this exhibition of Indian arts and crafts is sent as an expression of the good will New Mexico holds for its neighbor State. This courtesy was also inspired by the desire of its sponsors to awaken Texas to a fuller appreciation of the native art of these "First Americans" and a better understanding of the Albuquerque organizations endeavors to save from oblivion the fine arts and tribal ceremonials of the natives.

For Highland Park. This exhibition will be sponsored locally by the Highland Park Society of Arts. Its presentation here will be under the personal direction of Michael Kirk, impresario of "The First American." A stupendous Indian spectacle presented each summer in Albuquerque and gives promise of being to America what "The Passion Play" is to Europe, the Mardi Gras is to

New Orleans and "Rose Day" is to California.

Because of his more than twenty years' association and friendship with the Indians of New Mexico, Mr. Kirk was able to assemble this comprehensive collection of their creative arts—specimens such as have never before been seen without the confines of their reservations.

Climaxing the opening week of the exhibition will be the presentation of Haske Naswood, the famous Navajo baritone and star of "The First American." Fresh from a concert tour of the Pacific Coast which included appearances in the Hollywood Bowl, San Francisco, Santa Barbara and Oakland, his Dallas premiere is expected to prove one of the sensations of the season. He appears in his tribal costume and his program will include operatic excerpts as well as featuring the widely known songs of Indian tradition.

Indian Collection. Mr. Kirk has written that the collection will include the choicest specimens of the weaving, basketry, pottery and jewelry of the Navajo, Zuni, Hopi, Taos and other tribes of New Mexico and the West. In addition there will be many rare and valuable examples of Indian antiques loaned by museums and private collectors of that State.

One of the noted Navajo silversmiths from the Manuelito Indian trading post will also be in attendance during the exhibition to demonstrate his ancient art.

Mr. Prager, who is a widely known utility magnate of New Mexico, has been invited as guest of the Highland Park Society during this event. Many elaborate social courtesies are being planned

Auto Accident Near Turkey Results In One Death

It is further reported that the accident was unavoidable and the friends of Mr. Findley, who is a leading citizen of that section, expect him to be released in the near future.

The temptation is to say, "Well, I can put off painting the house until next season. But then, somehow or other, that time never comes and so an important work is neglected, year after year. Ballew Invests In Westmoreland Firm; Moves To Amarillo

Corporation Of Seven Years Has Six Supply Houses Covering Panhandle

Announcement is made of the sale of his interests in the Ballew & Noble garage business, and Mr. Fred Ballew has invested in the Westmoreland corporation with headquarters at Amarillo and will move his family there as soon as suitable arrangements can be made.

Mr. Ballew will have charge of the retail shipping department of the parent house at Amarillo of this well known firm with branches at Childress, Pampa, Plainview, Lubbock and McCarney. The firm has a capital stock of two hundred and ten thousand dollars and will continue to open up branch houses supplying auto parts and accessories to the trade over West Texas.

The Ballew and Noble garage was established here some four years ago by Messrs. Fred Ballew and I. O. Noble. Their efforts have met with success and the local firm soon became known as one of the leading firms of that nature in this section of the state. Mr. Noble will continue the business without radical changes of any kind and is planning improvements for the immediate future.

The Ballew home on the south side was purchased by Mrs. H. J. Edgington the past week and Mr. and Mrs. Edgington are so well pleased with the beautiful home purchase that they will move to the new home as soon as vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballew and the children will make their home in Amarillo after the coming week according to plans at the present time.

The Westmoreland company is very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Ballew because of his practical training, honesty and industrious habits, and good business judgment. The many friends of the family here wish them every success in their new home.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. C. R. Skinner Friday afternoon with 18 present. The subject of "Christmas Ideas" was led by Miss Harvey Thompson, Home Demonstration agent, after which a round table discussion was profitable to those who find this idea perplexing at this time.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns, begonias and chrysanthemums. A bountiful plate lunch was served by the hostess to Mrs. G. A. Anderson, Mrs. S. B. Arnold, Mrs. A. E. Benson, Mrs. S. A. CHRISTIAN LADIES AID

The ladies of the Aid entertained with a Halloween party and box supper in the basement of the church Thursday night. The basement was decorated with weird lights and Halloween colors and music added to the charm of the entertainment throughout the evening.

Several booths were in evidence each presided over by fat men or Gypsy fortune tellers. A fishing pond, chamber of horrors and many other amusing sights.

The guests came garbed in many forms of costume representing witches, ghosts, fairies, goblins and clowns. At a late hour, thirty beautifully decorated lunch boxes were auctioned by Mr. Frank Whitlock, each buyer being instructed to find a partner and eat.

After lunch hour, Mr. Homer Malkey invited the crowd to become his guests at a picture shown by him at the Pastime. This proved a real treat, and was greatly appreciated.

WIN ONE CLASS ENTER-TAINED

Mrs. J. G. Sherman and Mrs. F. H. Bourland were joint hostesses to the Win One Sunday School Class at the home of the former Monday afternoon.

During the business session at this meeting, it was decided to have the Annual Bazaar at the home of Mrs. John Blocker on the 14th. A delicious salad course was served to twenty-one members.

Clarendon Barber Has Hard Luck As Jitney Driver

That an obliging disposition will get one in bad is again proven by a recent experience of Mr. Frank Whitlock who accompanied a car salesman to Amarillo and kindly consented to drive the old flivver home while the salesman drove a new car.

All went well until Mr. Whitlock got out on the road and got lost. It was then discovered that the lights would not burn. In his efforts to remedy the lighting defect, he got the horn started to "tooting" and she tooted right on down the road and refused to stop despite anything the driver might do.

The driver did not recognize the fact that a jitney has safety appliances and often toots the horns to warn the public when the lights refuse to burn. At any rate, Frank tried all the remedies known to medical, tonsorial and mechanical science without avail, finally sticking his hat into the horn to muffle the racket and drove to Clarendon by the light of the stars—and it was cloudy night.

Ex-Service Men Must Hurry Compensation Papers

According to a statement published in a recent issue of the Red Cross Courier, ex-service men must have their claims for adjusted compensation on file not later than January 1st.

Both enlisted men and officers who served in excess of 60 days prior to November 11, 1918 are eligible for this compensation and it is believed that a number of ex-service men in Donley county are entitled to file such claims.

The Post Commander of the local camp of the American Legion can give the desired information, or such information may be had direct from the Veteran's bureau at Washington.

ZANDER-GUMP WEDDING PLAY TONIGHT

A play adopted from the comic strip of Sidney Smith entitled the "Zander-Gump Wedding", will be sponsored by the Bell Bennett Circle of the Methodist church at the Junior High School auditorium this (Tuesday) evening at 7:45.

This is a home talent play selection having been made for the casts from the most experienced local people who have proven their ability in times past. A small charge will be made of fifteen and twenty-five cents.

ATTEBERRY-NAYLOR

The marriage of Mr. Clyde Naylor and Miss Adeline Atteberry was solemnized at the Baptist church at Pampa at 9:40 Saturday night, Rev. Truett, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating.

The bride is well known in Clarendon where she resided until the family moved to Pampa a few years ago. She is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Atteberry.

The groom likewise grew to manhood in Clarendon, is a young man of industrious habits and has been employed in Pampa for several months.

The happy couple will make their home in Pampa where the groom had prepared a handsome bungalow home for the beginning of a life of matrimonial bliss in which the Leader joins with their many Clarendon friends in wishing them unbounded success and happiness.

Quitauque Has Organized Thirty Piece Band

A band to be composed of thirty pieces was organized at Quitauque the past week. A. L. Lundgren, bandmaster of Floydada will direct the band, practicing Tuesday and Thursday nights of each week.

The band is sponsored by the Lions and Chamber of Commerce. It is planned to enter the band in all first year contests after the first six months, as a goal set by the bandmaster.

"A peanut sat on a railroad track, It's heart was all a-flutter; The 3:45 came rambling past—Toot! Toot! Peanut butter!"

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bryan of Fairview, visited in the Joe Humphrey, Sr. home the middle of the week. Mr. Rummans, her father, is quite ill at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harwood Beville spent the week end with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lafon and other relatives here.

Farm Folks Diversify And Are Successful

We are always glad to have our farmer friends visit us and tell about their success and how they managed so that others may profit by their experience. We just naturally want to get acquainted and want the readers of the Leader to feel that they are our neighbors and friends.

Some of the folks drop in every day and talk about their problems so while Mr. A. L. Greer was answering jury summons Monday morning, Mrs. Greer paid the office a visit and it was a treat to hear Mrs. Greer tell about the team work she and Mr. Greer are doing on their beautiful farm south of Hedley.

Mrs. Greer is not of a type that is boastful, and in reply to questions in an ordinary conversation in a calm, dignified manner detailed the experiences of the progressive farmer folk. Mrs. Greer lived in the city for many years and just naturally delights in farm life.

She has raised over a thousand Rhode Island red chickens this season besides a flock of turkeys. By way of pastime possibly, she canned over 500 jars of fruits, meats and vegetables. When the writer complimented her for being so industrious, she promptly corrected that impression by saying that Mr. Greer helped her in every bit of the work. She denied that A. L. was in any sense "henpecked" but did want it to be known that there was a lot of team work on that farm. Do you wonder that they succeed?

Mrs. Greer also mentioned the fact that everbearing strawberries set out last March bore heavily in June thus demonstrating the possibility of a side issue on any farm of like soil where irrigation is possible. These folks irrigate from a well equipped with a windmill and have a good garden of a wide variety of vegetables from which a large quantity is sold and much of it is passed to storage by way of the pressure cooker.

Team work, a nice car, a pretty home on a good farm with plenty of friends and neighbors and time to visit. Could you want for anything better? Donley county has many just such homes and we want to hear of more of them.

Sports Writer Gives Views On Football History

In summing up the standings of the football squads over the Panhandle a sports writer gives his views on those of Section D, which includes our local team.

Here is the account as taken from the Amarillo News of Sunday.

"The football in section D is probably the most exciting, most evenly matched, and best attended. It is a fact that the best crowds are gathering in this section. Clarendon boasts an undefeated record but has a tie game with Memphis to mar its clean slate. Shamrock looks strong but the ghost of ineligibility hangs over five of her stars. If this is cleared they have a fine chance to cop the title but will be definitely up the running if the protests are upheld. Estelline starting with a loss, seems to have a real team and will be in the running when the thing is over. They appeared powerful when they swamped the Memphis Cyclone by three touchdowns and Friday they played Clarendon a scoreless tie. Childress and Wellington are strong enough to upset the dope bucket at any time and may throw the whole thing into a muddle by beating the best man. We pick Clarendon to win this section.

What a battle it will be if the whitefaces of Hereford win in section C and play Dalhart in the semi-finals meeting the winner of the eastern sections. We pick Pampa to defeat Clarendon in the finals of the east half and to defeat Hereford if they get to them.

There are lots of ifs in this column but they are true if we have guessed it right."

C. R. Skinner and son Harley left Sunday evening for Oklahoma City where Harley has business before the Veteran's Bureau.

Young Lady Qualifies As Possum Hunter

It never occurred to the Apostle that the girls were to mix up on the possum deal and the proposition was made to the boys only. That's where the Apostle got fooled for the first possum was delivered Monday morning by a handsome young lady.

The young lady is a Donley county product, good looking with just enough freckles on her face to make her look like a real human instead of a hand painted affair. And being ranch raised, she is naturally tomboyish enough to be healthy, rides horseback, swims and engages in other health-building sports that a real girl would likely find on a ranch.

She's just a school girl about twelve or fourteen I should guess, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Evans, and her name is Kedron. A pretty name, a pretty girl and possum hunter. Thousands of girls would like to be just where Kedron is—on a ranch where the possums live.

REBEKAH HALLOWEEN PARTY THURSDAY NIGHT

About fifty Rebekah's and their families enjoyed a Halloween party on Thursday night in the I. O. O. F. hall.

The hall was made gay with Halloween colors, and motifs. All members and their guests came in costumes.

The first on programme was all being conducted by Miss Aileen Parks and Miss Lela Lamons to the room adjoining thru a Ghost Parade. All being initiated into the mysteries of the Halloween season. Miss Aileen Parks made a fetching "witch", who predicted the future for all with great accuracy.

Music was furnished by Miss Masie Stewart, and different games were played by all. Mr. Roy Clappitt and Hugh Eldridge who were on the refreshment committee did themselves justice when they and the Bro. Rebekah's took the Sisters on surprise by serving them with a two course luncheon of fried oysters, (fried by the day and night cafe) and hot coffee and pumpkin pie.

Shamrock Officer Beats Up Negro Offender

When informed that a certain negro took pains to act in an insulting manner in the presence of white women on the streets of Shamrock, night officer C. F. Velvin took occasion to watch his actions.

Velvin did not have long to wait. Presently, the negro was seen to rudely brush against a lady crowding her against others, the officer administered a severe beating to the black and announced that he would be harder on the next offender. The battered negro instantly remembered some unfinished business on the "Flat", and has not been seen since.

Johnnie Russell Beville of Amarillo and J. R. Bartlett, Jr. of Childress, visited with George Wayne Estlack Sunday. A clinic was held to inspect Johnnie Russell's leg where it came in contact with the swift moving pedal extremity of an humble burro. If the monkey bloods holds out, the clinical force decided that he might recover.

Miss Carolyn Laney, who is teaching in the public schools of Quitauque, spent the week end with the family of Dr. J. G. Sherman.

W. L. Crane, long a resident of Clarendon, is now engaged in the grocery business at Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Redfearn spent the week end with their parents at Canyon.

CARD OF THANKS

The Home Economics girls wish to take this means of expressing their gratitude and appreciation to the Lions Club for the good work they have done. They sponsored the raising of funds for new light fixtures throughout the Home Economics Department and linoleum for the bathroom. We wish to express our thanks both to the Lions Club and others who so liberally contributed. The improvements give a more home like aspect to the department. The girls of this department would be glad for anyone who wishes to inspect the new furnishings.
