Jim Pharr of Brice reports the loss of seven children, a hog pen and a Jersey bull "swope up" by the highway as it headed up Mulberry canyon Thursday.

COUPLE RESCUED BY HUMAN GORILLA IN NOTED CANYON

Well Known Wrestler Resorts To Grappling Tactics In Heroic Rescue of Two

Dutch Mantell, human gorilla of world-wide renown in the wrestling world, and one of the Panhandle's most lovable characters, staged a heroic rescue of a couple in Palo Duro canyon Monday.

Becoming lost in the canyon Sunday while sight-seeing, this couple wandered until next day suffering from exposure through the long night. Upon sighting Mantell Monday, the lady is said to have fainted on the spot. Mantell promptly carried her into headquarters. It was an easy job for a man of his giant strength.

DUTCH MANTELL of Amarillo who rescued a couple in Palo Duro Canyon Monday.

Upon returning for her husband, the race began. Back and forth across the canyon the marathon continued until Dutch delivered one of his famous well-directed flying tackles. A man may stampede at the sight of Dutch, but when he lands amidstships with that head of his, the game is all off. His victim was carried to safety and his wife, both of whom show little effects of their horrifying experience.

When seen Tuesday, Dutch was too busy arranging his Thursday night wrestling card between whiskered Ligosky and the brawny Irishman O'Brien to reach out and accept a proffered leather medal temporarily given him by the local branch of the Carnegie Foundation Society as a token of esteem and honors for having rescued the perishing.

Dutch Mantell has a large number of fight fans in Clarendon who will rejoice to learn that the efforts of their idol have been signally honored outside the ring as well as in it. No one but Mantell could cover so much territory in the Panhandle.

VAWTER PARTY DELIGHTS CROWD WITH PROGRAM

Pastime Theatre is Filled Monday Night to Enjoy Trip Round World

What the Vawter party lacked of capturing the affections of citizens of the town and nearby sections during the revival, was completed in the presentation of their "Round-the-World" program at the Pastime Theatre Monday evening. This program was educational, entertaining, and humorous at times, shown to a crowd that taxed the capacity of the show building.

Rev. C. R. L. Vawter had charge of the picture exhibit on the screen showing scenes on seas as the revival party traveled round the world. Scenes in New Zealand, Australia, China, Japan, India, Ceylon, Egypt and the Holy Land were shown. The ancient homes of the Pharaohs, Sphinx and Pyramids were shown.

Scenes in the Holy Land included much of the Biblical history during the life of Christ and other historical events of that period. European countries were also in-

D. P. ROSS OF AMARILLO BURIED HERE MONDAY

Came to Clarendon in 1902 Engaging in Dry Goods Business 16 Years

Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist church here Monday afternoon for Daniel Perry Ross by his pastor, Rev. Ira C. Key, pastor of the Folk Street Methodist church in Amarillo. Mr. Ross died at his home in Amarillo September 3rd following a lengthy illness which had confined him to his bed for several months.

Those attending the casket were Tom Goldston, W. M. Patman, Walter Clifford, C. E. Killough, H. B. Kerbow and Lee Holland.

Honorary pallbearers were E. P. Shelton, G. C. Davis, E. F. Bryan, E. H. Willis, Joe Holland Sr., Rev. L. A. Reavis, W. B. Sims, C. J. Teel, J. H. Hurn, W. P. Cagle, W. W. Taylor, C. H. Wisdom, Jerome D. Stocking, D. O. Stallings and J. R. Lafoon.

Surviving are his widow and two daughters, Mrs. R. H. Beville and Mrs. Birdie Willis, both of whom reside in Amarillo. Several grandchildren also survive him.

Mr. Ross was born in Grayson county, Texas March 30, 1856. A wide open country at that time, the few stock men of which he and two brothers were a part, were constantly harassed by cattle "rustlers", the three Ross brothers aiding the officers in tracking down and capturing a number of the worst cattle and horse thieves, the trail often leading into what was then the notorious Indian Territory.

The Ross brothers later established a general mercantile store in Cooke county which took the name of Rosstown, the name never having been changed to this day. The family came to Clarendon in 1902, Mr. Ross becoming identified with the drygoods business which he continued for some 16 years, ill health compelling him to retire from active pursuits in 1918.

The family home was moved to Amarillo more than two years ago that the aged parents might spend their remaining years near their daughters. He continued to own property interests here on the main street until his death.

Mr. Ross was of a quiet unassuming disposition, readily made friends and held them. Hundreds of friends of the kindly old pioneer merchant will be sad at his passing. A large number of these friends paid him their last tribute Monday afternoon, many of them coming from a distance.

Armstrong County Prepares For Highway Work

Surveying crews have been at work routing a right-of-way on the south side of the Denver road across Armstrong county the past week. A part of the route has been purchased by the Commissioners Court.

It is said that the county has sufficient funds in the road and bridge fund with which to purchase the necessary right-of-way. Due to the black waxy nature of most of the soil on the present highway roadbed, the road becomes impassable when heavy rains or much snow falls, making improved highway work necessary cluded in the picture voyage through Italy, and other nations up through Europe to England and Ireland.

Howard House, artist of the party, delighted with caricatures and quick wit cartoons and magic. He is one of the very few possessed of both natural talents for art and music.

Mrs. Vawter and her brother, Billy Reaves, each sang a number of familiar and classic songs. Mrs. Vawter also appeared in a Gypsy number with garb complete.

One of the very most beautiful numbers as judged by the response from the audience, was that of the chimes, this being a musical instrument uncommon to this section. Each of the four of the revival party are trained musicians, and operate the chimes with equal facility.

SCHOOL OPENS WITH INCREASED NUMBER MONDAY

Municipal Junior College Has Improved Facilities This Term

The program as announced in the Leader last week was carried out in the opening of the Clarendon schools Monday.

61 High School Seniors registered Monday morning compared with last year's class of 26 along with 76 Sophomores and 60 Juniors.

The junior high school shows a slight decrease in enrollment as compared with the opening date last year. One hundred and ninety-five enrolled Monday whereas two hundred and one enrolled on opening day last year. Quite a number are to enter next week bringing the number above that of last season.

The enrollment in the lower grades totaled three hundred and eighteen this year. No figures are available for a comparison with last year in the lower grades.

The Junior College enrollment exceeds that of last year with several more to enter with the next few days. Several changes and improvements have been made in this department in the matter of equipment since the close of the spring term, a full report of which was given in the Leader two weeks ago.

The Sims Parent-Teacher Association will be active again maintaining that record of helpfulness over a long period of years. A breakfast food sale at each of the grocery store next Saturday is the first project to be sponsored by the Association. Ten ladies will have the sales in charge, two at each store serving in half day relays.

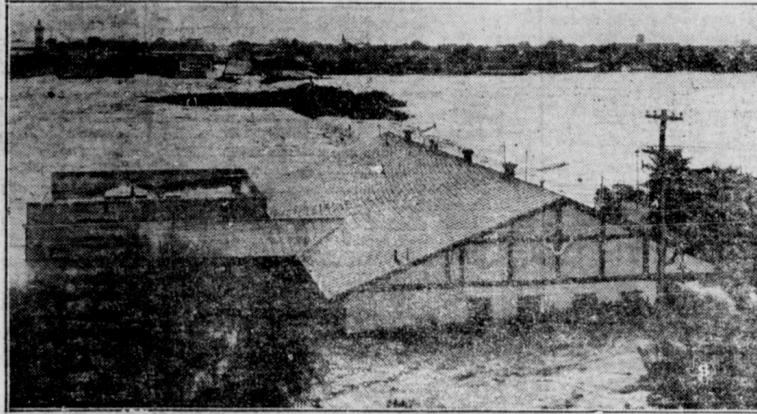

Coaches Stocking and Hutton have the Broncho team working hard for the battles confronting them with the first game scheduled for September 30th at Quitaque.

Precinct Chairmen Find No Big Change in Vote

In canvassing the returns here Saturday, very little change was noted in the election returns as compared with the tabulated list in the Leader. Mrs. Ferguson gained fourteen and Sterling lost nine votes in the county.

Precinct chairmen assisting in the count were J. T. Patman, J. P. Pool, H. C. Brumley, A. O. Hefner, John Goldston, J. A. Johnston, and the county chairman, W. F. Cagle.

Bridge Between Two Laredos at Height of Flood

Here is the international bridge between Laredo, Texas, and Nueva Laredo, Mexico, when the raging Rio Grande swept part of it away. The island of debris in mid stream is where three men were marooned 15 hours after an undetected number were drowned when the bridge gave way. In the foreground is the United States Customs house, with the angry waters lapping at the windows.

Leland Knox Died Wednesday At Hot Springs

A message received here late Wednesday bore the information that Leland Knox had died at Hot Springs, New Mexico at 2 p. m.

According to present plans, the funeral service will be held at Lelia Lake at 3 p. m. Friday. Revs. F. M. Allen of Lelia and B. N. Shepherd of Clarendon will conduct the services. Interment will be made in the Citizens cemetery at Clarendon.

He was taken to the Springs by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Knox, leaving here Sunday. His brother, Willard Knox, also was in the party making the trip to the New Mexico health resort.

The family has resided at Lelia Lake for a long number of years. Leland was a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Harvey of Clarendon.

Brothers Meet Here This Week on Business

A matter of business brought together three brothers here this week, S. T. Nichols being host in entertaining.

W. R. Nichols of San Bernadino, California was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gass from his home town. W. R. is a railroad man.

W. A. Nichols came from Etowah, Tennessee where he is employed in the roundhouse of a railroad company. He says conditions here are much better than there, though they have good crops and may recover if prices go higher.

Former Hedley Teacher Goes To Legislature

A nomination in the primary being tantamount to election in Texas, it is an assured fact that J. Manly Head will represent Hood and Erath counties in the next Legislature, his home being at Granbury.

Head is scant 23 years of age, taught school at Hedley last year according to a citizen of that town, and is a live wire in the school room. He is now teaching at Dawson. He married seven months ago.

When asked how he beat five opponents whose ages were from 41 to 61, he said "I specialized on administrative government telling my people that Texas has 32 major and 82 minor boards, commissions and departments operating in the Texas government, some of the duties overlapping as much as three times."

Mahan to Open Law Offices In Childress Jan. 1st

Following his unsuccessful race for re-election for the fourth term as district attorney, James C. Mahan has moved his place of residence to Childress according to information given the Leader Monday.

After the expiration of his term of office January 1st, he will enter the general practice of law there. His friends here predict a wonderful success if he is just half as good on the side of the defense as he is for the prosecution of a case.

JUDGE GEO. W. ARMSTRONG

Judge Geo. W. Armstrong of Fort Worth, Independent candidate for Governor, will speak at Court-house in Clarendon at 8:00 p. m., Thursday, Sept. 15th.

Judge Armstrong is a logical and forceful speaker. He has written several books upon the operations of the Federal Reserve System and the money question. He was invited to Washington to make an argument as a monetary expert in support of the Patman bill. He will point out a way by which the State can establish its own currency and credit system, and thereby restore values and prosperity.

Judge Armstrong has spoken over WBAP and other radio stations during the past few months, and many local people are no doubt familiar with his trend of thought.

Donley County Teacher On Pampa School Faculty

His many friends in Donley county will be pleased to learn that J. B. (Jimmie) Millsap has been elected superintendent of one of the ward schools in Pampa this week.

Mr. Millsap made an enviable record as head of the Chamberlain school for three terms as well as other schools during his teaching experience. He began his duties in the Pampa school Monday of this week.

Mayor to Attend Pow Wow At Lubbock

Mayor W. P. Cagle, elected a delegate some time ago, will attend the state democratic convention at Lubbock next Monday and Tuesday where the state returns are to be passed upon.

Totals from each county concerning each state candidate will be inspected at this meeting. The governor's race is expected to furnish some fire works according to some local democrats who are taking quite a bit of interest in the matter.

J. R. Porter was the other delegate elected to represent Donley county. Alternates are J. T. Patman and Judge Link. Judge Link expects to attend if other business does not prevent.

Mrs. U. J. Boston is visiting friends in Amarillo today.

CLUB EXHIBITS TO BE SELECTED HERE SATURDAY

Exhibits to be Made in Lions Luncheon Hall On Kearney Street

The Leader is asked to announce that all home demonstration clubs of the county are requested to bring in their score cards filled out, and specimens for Tri-State fair exhibit Friday.

The county exhibit will be made in the Lions luncheon hall next door to the Caraway cafe.

The articles requested for exhibit will consist of household linens, rugs and mats, clothing, and canned products of all kinds.

The 4-H club girls are also requested to bring in their products for fair exhibit Friday. The building will be open all day, with a committee in charge of arrangements for the county exhibit that will be open to the public all day Saturday.

Two prizes will be awarded the clubs making the best exhibit, a cooker and a sealer. The club winning first prize may take choice of either. Exchanges may be made between the clubs after the exhibit if they choose, according to Miss Buttrill, county H. D. agent. There will be no prizes awarded in 4-H club girl exhibits.

Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs, district agent of H. D. clubs, and Miss Sikes, county H. D. agent of Miami, will judge the exhibits.

The ladies are urgently requested to bring in exhibits early Friday to permit of a proper arrangement that the exhibit may be opened to the general public early Saturday morning.

A careful selection from this exhibit will be shown at the Tri-State fair at Amarillo as in former years. The fair dates are from September 19th to 24th.

VAWTER CLOSSES REVIVAL SERIES SUNDAY NIGHT

Thousands Enjoy Sermons And Special Musical Programs

The Vawter Evangelistic Party brought to a close, last Sunday night, one of the greatest revivals ever conducted in this city. In a few short weeks the team won the hearts of the church people of the city, with their matchless music, singing and gospel preaching. Aside from the numerical strength gained by the members of the First Christian Church, there was an awakening to a new sense of duty as co-workers in soul winning and the joy that comes to those who do personal work.

There were thirty nine men, women and children to come forward and line up with the church and its program during the campaign, and many more are planning on stepping out for the Church in the near future.

The plain gospel as presented by Dr. Vawter has caused the people to do some deep thinking and studying. The "Holy Scriptures" was his text book during the meeting and his loving appeal for people to turn to this great Book will have a wonderful effect upon every one, who heard him, after he has departed.

The program put on in the Pastime Theatre was one of the best ever held in Donley county, and every one enjoyed the travelog and concert. Every member of the party was an artist, and the songs, pictures, and music rendered by them will be long remembered. Arrangements are being made already to secure the same team for a six weeks campaign next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. James and children, Mary Lucile and Bernard Van Eaton who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jan Eaton left Monday for their home in Richmond Va.

EDUCATIONAL DIGEST

Why does the comparatively small bill which the public pays for the education of children attract so much attention, while much larger bills paid for privately purchased items attract so little attention?

The return for money expended for education is delayed. Its effect may not be fully evident for a generation or more. The return from money expended for an automobile is immediate. It secures a shiny new machine at once—often before it is paid for.

The school bill is collected under the most unfavorable circumstances. It comes in one lump sum. Even though quarterly payments are permitted the total is impressive. Tax-payment time is played up to by certain newspapers as a time of awful anguish. How different are the conditions surrounding one's private expenditures. Billions are spent annually to extol the merits of everything from toothpaste to automobiles and from safety razors to tobacco. Whoever heard of a newspaper crying out about the proving sums paid for such articles? Many a man pays more for tobacco than for the education of his children. But he pays his tobacco bill in dribsels. He seldom knows the total. His automobile bill may be several times his school taxes, but he buys the machine on the "Easy Payment" plan, and purchases gasoline in ten gallon lots.

THIS WOMAN LOST 45 POUNDS OF FAT

"Dear Sirs: For 3 months I've been using your salts and am very much pleased with results. I've lost 45 lbs., 6 inches in hips and bust measure. I've taken 3 bottles—one lasting 5 weeks. I had often tried to reduce by dieting but never could keep it up, but by cutting down and taking Kruschen I've had splendid results. I highly recommend it to my friends."—Mrs. Carl Wilson, Mantion, Mich.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

The taxpayer's contact with the school is not close. He thinks in terms of the obsolete institution he attended a generation ago. His understanding of the school is too often based on the reports of the children or the misrepresentation of a self-seeking politician. He suffers no such misunderstanding of his private purchases. When he thinks of a car he thinks of a 1932, not a 1910, model. He drives it himself. He does not have his child to drive it and accept an immature verdict as to how it runs.

These are some of the handicaps under which the schools, as opposed to most privately supported agencies, work. But they are not insuperable. They can be and have been surmounted. The school can rise above them by making known its purposes and accomplishments.

How much of our income and wealth is invested in education? The answer is clear. For every $100 of yearly income we expend $2.74 for public education. One dollar and seventy-nine cents, out of every $100 of wealth, exists in form of public school property. From what ever angle the question is studied it is clear that a minor fraction of our economic power and capital is invested in public education.

In the fiscal year ending August 31st, 1931, we spent in Texas $41,980,256.74 for highways and in the same year we spent only $30,750,391.90 for the support of free schools.

The question should not be: Can we afford good schools? Rather it should be: Can we afford not to have good schools.

For every $1.00 spent for schools $2.61 is spent for candy, chewing gum, theatres, and similar items. Do these facts indicate that we overvalue education—that we invest more in the education of our children than we can afford?

Selection.

There was probably a time when women refused to marry until a home was provided, if we are to believe past history. In this age, a woman gets plenty of proposals just as soon as she demonstrates the fact that she can "care for two" by first securing a job or position.

All of which merely goes to prove that man is improving in intelligence.

Winter Relief.

It may be a little early to speak of winter relief plans, but this matter should be given some attention about the time cotton begins to open. Many times have our good citizens been turned down when asking "people" to pick their cotton, and later find that they are contributing to that same bunch of "people" in a charitable way, after the cotton picking season has closed.

It would not be a bad idea, as some of our farmer friends suggested last fall, to make a list of those who "can and won't," and let them take nature in the raw this winter. There is plenty of demand for worthy charity without wasting anything on the unworthy.

Cutting Expenses.

In feeling that present conditions demanded a curtailment of county expenses, the reductions made by the County Commissioners may not meet the approval of every one, but they are entitled to the credit of having the best interests of the taxpayers at heart.

The "budget" as proposed by County Judge Alexander is printed in this issue for the purpose of giving the public an insight into the many avenues demanding tax money. It will be noted that only one change was made in the budget outline by the Commissioners, that was the salary of the county judge for the next term. This deemed imperative because of the small amount of tax money on hand, or in sight, and was based on a one hundred percent of tax collections before February 1st next year. Since little more than half the taxes were paid last season, it may be possible that further reductions in county official salaries will have to be made.

The County Weekly.

It has ever been the policy of the management of the Leader to call attention to the fact that the best men and women in American life today, or any other day as for that matter, are the country-bred boys and girls who went to the cities.

It is a part of our mission to reflect the courage and solid worth of such young people who, because of circumstances, are many times forced to work their way from "the ground up" so to speak. We have never lost faith or sold out this loyalty to the boys and girls who are to soon assume their responsibility as the "backbone of the Nation."

Thousands of boys and girls from the humbler homes, and some through sheer grit, are today trekking to the better schools of the land to work their way through school, there to take advantage of every opportunity that is afforded them to become useful men and women in national life. The writer always feels like doffing his hat and standing in bowed reverence in the presence of these young folks. They are truly of the nobility—that nobility that means something.

Looking Upward.

The depression may be dealing a lot of folks misery in some places but its backbone is broken in West Texas.

The present crop reaching maturity, was made on a depression schedule on far less expense than any other in the history of this section of the state.

Everything that is offered for sale this season, cost less to produce than ever before. Farmers could not borrow. They bravely "carried on" making a crop and living at home and boarding at the same place.

By shaving expenses, everything will be sold at a profit. The increase in prices the past few weeks means more profit. Increased profits means increased buying power. All lines of business will feel the effects. Every family will enjoy more home comforts.

While all the above statements are true, the live-at-home idea has not been forgotten by any means. A number of grand ideas born of the depression will stay with us for years. It is one time when the old adage of "necessity is the mother of invention," was emphasized to the fullest extent. These ideas will continue to pay big dividends even in the era of good prices.

Some amusing incidents—if not accidents—are reported from east Texas in the recent primary vote.

Quite a number brought their tools to the polls. Scythes, hoes, rakes and spades were seen in the arms of a large number. This aroused some curiosity until it was explained that the crew was the special election bunch employed to work on the highways just preceding the election. There was no doubt about all of 'em: being voters because each had to show a poll tax receipt and take the pledge before he knew how to mow Johnson grass on the highway.

As these boys edged up to the polling place, a voice cried out: "Hello there old 5467." Others called each other by numbers instead of names because they did not stay in long enough to learn names. pap is down there now and uncle John is on his way. Well they just milled around the polls having a good time, each enthusiastic about their benefactors. Another man came in all swelled up like a poison pup. He told of getting up that morning only to find that the raw recruits of Sterling had laid a six inch slab of concrete across his garden, forty feet wide. And was he hot!! He liked the fact that his neighbors got a highway job even for a few days, but he thought they ought to use ordinary horse sense in routing a highway. The concrete did not make him so mad as he could move that, but a highway cop had taken a stand watching a bunch put markers in the garden where his peas used to be. When a man armed with an ax talked of going to Lubbock to run that Ferguson bunch out of town, No. 2654 stepped up to tell him that "fat head" was beaten fair and square, and that exconvicts would be there by the thousand to see that Ma's rights were respected, and that the ax man might as well go back on the highway job because he just had the remainder of the day before the job would expire. We started out hearing about "two governors for the price of one", and durned if it don't look like we're stuck for thrée. Any way, it will be raining blood

MRS. FANNY C. NAYLOR
This consecrated woman was born Miss Fanny C. Ferebee on September 13th, 1850 at Farmington, Davis county, North Carolina, and passed away at Clarendon on August 27, 1932.

On February 8, 1877, she became the wife of Thomas Nelson Naylor, who died in April, 1925. To this union were born eight children—four sons and four daughters, all of whom survive her.

As a citizen and neighbor, Mrs. Naylor stood for the highest standards of moral and civic righteousness; all good causes found in her a loyal friend and champion; on phases of wrong, an uncompromising foe. Her ideals were high and noble and she trod the path of duty as her God enabled her to see it.

But it was in the home where her virtues shone with greatest luster. Here she reigned supreme in the confidence and affection of her family. Her children can always say, "She built a happy earthly home for her loved ones, and by her life, set an example which if followed, will make sure our heavenly home."

Three things stand out prominently in estimating the character of this noble woman—her native ability, her high integrity, her whole-souled devotions which were four fold—her country, her family, her neighbors, and her God. When the end came with her, she had no preparation to make—it had been made. She had nothing to do but to fall asleep and awake in His Glory.

Her life was more than the "Three score and ten years," but filled to the utmost with honest endeavor, a victorious faith and a gentleness of love that won all hearts. To us who had loved her, to her loved ones, to her friends, to us all, words fail to tell of the rare mind and beautiful spirit of this chosen instrument of God's grace. She just slipped away in the sweet summer time finding a land still fairer beyond the tide. We know where to find her, and be it our purpose so to live that we shall see her again.

—A Friend.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

Theme:—"THE TEMPLE BUILT BY GOD, THE HOUSE IN WHICH I LIVE."
IN THE POWER HOUSE OF THE BODY—THE HEART.

Text: Prov. 4:23.
If you go into a factory you will hear the rumble and noise of machinery. There is scarcely any noise with the machinery of the body, and what little noise there is, is with the heart, and you seldom hear it. If you put your fingers in your ears, you will hear a slight rumble. That is your heart at work.

Your heart is small, made largely of muscle, it is about the size of your closed fist, and in a full grown person it weighs about one pound. All of the blood in the body passes through the heart because this muscle acts as a pump. When your heart goes wrong, you will become sick, when the heart stops pumping or beating you die. The heart is the very center of your life.

When the Bible speaks of the heart, morally, it means more than this little throbbing muscle, located in the left bosom, which beats away the seconds of time. The Bible speaks of something that is as important to the spiritual being as the heart of flesh is to the physical body.

First of all the heart, morally and religiously speaking, means the "affections of the mind." Jesus brings this point out clearly in Matthew 6:20, 21, Solomon also gave a great lesson along this line in Eccl. 7:4. In Second Samuel, the fifteenth chapter and sixth verse we read "Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel."

The word "heart" in the Scriptures is also used in a more comprehensive sense than simply the affections. It is used in the broad sense to mean, "the mind, the understanding, the whole inner man." "Why do thoughts arise in your hearts?" Luke 24:38. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness" Rom. 10:10.

With these simple definitions in mind we can now appreciate the meaning of the text found in Proverbs 4:23. We are to keep our hearts, that is our affections, our mind, or understanding, pure and clean by obedience to God and His word. If we let things of the world take first place in our hearts, sin enters in and produces spiritual death. Keep thy heart with all diligence.

Mrs. Will Martin returned to her home in Amarillo Wednesday after a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clampitt.

Mobilgas With Climatic Control is Available Now

"Climatic Control" is being made available for the first time to local motorists with the introduction of "Mobilgas" by the Magnolia Petroleum Company, according to Lee Holland, Magnolia agent (dealer) at Holland Bros.

This new motor fuel, Mr. Holland said, provides an entirely new quality in gasoline which has been designated as "Climatic Control", descriptive of the fact that Mobilgas manufacturing specifications have been preadjusted to meet variations in climatic and driving conditions.

Every car owner has observed how sensitive the engine in his automobile is to changes in the weather conditions. We have all experienced difficulty in starting on cold mornings, or loss of power from a "starved" motor in hot weather, Mr. Holland said. These symptoms indicate that the gasoline used is not adapted to the climatic conditions in which the car is being operated.

Climatic conditions cannot be controlled, but Magnolia has succeeded through the preadjustment of manufacturing specifications to produce a gasoline which will assure the highest usable level of performance under all driving conditions and changes in the weather. This is being done at Magnolia refineries in the manufacture of Mobilgas.

Matagorda Wildcat Blows 8,000 Barrels

Here is the Stoddard No. 1 at Buckeye, Texas, nine miles west of Bay City, which blew in for 8,000 barrels to virtually assure a new Texas oil field. The well cost $100,000, being one of the deepest Texas wells, more than 8,000 feet deep, assuring long and steady production. In the picture the oil gushes out of control.

Stopping a Newspaper Not A Hard Job

Frequently one hears a remark that "I have been trying to stop my paper for several years, but I just can't."

The postal laws provide an easy method. Merely tell your postmaster, one of the clerks at the post-office, or your rural carrier, that you don't want the paper, and the postoffice receiving the paper will in turn notify the publisher not to send the paper any more. That puts a stop to it by an easy method.

WHEN THE PAPER DOESN'T COME

My father says the paper he reads ain't put up right. He finds a lot of fault, he does, perusin' it all night.

He says there ain't a single thing in it worth while to read. And that it doesn't print the kind of stuff the people need.

He tosses it aside and says it's strictly on the bum— But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He reads about the weddin's and he snorts like all get out. He reads the social doin's with a most derisive shout. He says they make the paper for the women folks alone. He'll read about the parties and he'll fume and fret and groan; He says of information it doesn't have a crumb— But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

He's always first to grab it and he reads it plumb clean through. He doesn't miss an item or a want ad—this is true. He says they don't know what we want, the darn newspaper guys. I'm going to take a day sometime an' go an' put 'em wise; Sometimes it seems as though they must be blind and deaf and dumb; But you ought to hear him holler when the paper doesn't come.

—Author Unknown.

Slaughter!

"Cruelty!" cry humane societies because the city of Odessa, Texas, has little regard for jack rabbits, and continues to allow them to be roped at local festivals. This photo, taken to publicize Odessa's 40th anniversary celebration, which included a big rabbit roping contest Friday, has drawn new protest. It shows a roper butchering his catch. We want to know where they got that rabbit.

Talley Returns to Operate Service Station

Chester Talley, for many years with the Moss electric and battery station here, recently returned from Silverton and has taken a lease on the Bennett station opposite the fire station.

He will continue to render an auto laundry service of washing and greasing. He will make a specialty of battery and electric work and invites his old friends in to see him, and as many others as might be interested in his line, promising them every courtesy and service to be had at any first-class station.

The weather is much cooler, but it seems to be warm at Austin that is politically hot. With one faction in the Governors race claiming their defeat was brought about by illegal voting. Some politicians remind us of some school boys that we have known, who usually get their ears beat down in a ball game, and not being good enough sports to take their medicine, they holla loud and long, the umpire did it.

VAWTER PARTY AGAIN ENTERTAINS ROTARY MEMBERS

Voice And Instrumental Music Charms Luncheon Crowd Friday

Appearing before the Club for the second time, the Vawter revivalists brought a most pleasing program to the members of the Rotary Club at their luncheon hour Friday.

Taking turns at the chimes, Rev. and Mrs. Vawter, and Messrs. House and Reeves appeared at their best in two numbers.

Mrs. Vawter sang a solo in her most charming manner that brought forth applause.

Rev. Vawter spoke on "taxes" as it is paid in Australia, there being a strong contrast as compared with our own tax system. Australian citizens being taxed on practically everything that they eat, wear and use. Four cents is the price of a check whereas we have two cents. A tax is paid on the wages or salary paid an employee in that nation.

Howard House presented the Club a picture "The House by the Side of the Road" which was bargained for at the preceding meeting. The artist drew the picture in the presence of the membership.

The Vawters are easily the most delightful entertainers ever to appear before the Clarendon Rotary club.

All Vehicles Must Carry Lights on Highway

Sheriff Guy Pierce requests the Leader to announce that the state highway laws require that all vehicles traveling highways at night must display a light at front and rear.

Lanterns or other light will comply with the law. One serious accident has occurred the past week, and several have been narrowly averted, and a display of two lights on each vehicle will greatly lessen the danger according to statements of the Sheriff.

LEADER OFFERS SPECIAL BARGAIN

Due to the fact that heavy financial obligations must be met soon by the publisher of the Leader, a special bargain subscription rate is being made as an extra inducement to the readers to pay up as soon as possible.

When times were hardest, the management made it possible for readers to continue receiving the paper. This plan has been in operation for more than two years. It is now necessary that some actual cash be raised and a special reduction in price is offered even yet to meet present conditions, though financial improvement is noted.

Call at the office, or send in your subscription at once. The $1 price applies only for a limited time. There will be no further exchange offers for products, for the reasons stated above. We helped you in time of need and believe that you will continue to maintain that faith by paying up.

Elaborate preparations have been made by the Tri-State Fair to defy the depression.

With more features than ever, the Amarillo attraction, September 19-24 inclusive, will meet the usual fair requirements—"bigger and better"—officials claim.

Because of its popularity the Tri-State Fair rodeo has been put into the world's championship class with thousands and thousands of dollars in prizes. This year, officials predict, it will equal Calgary and Cheyenne rodeos.

Railroad fares to Amarillo during the six days will be the lowest in the history of the Panhandle.
