That New State.

More and more people in West Texas are favoring the new state. The only objection we find is that there is a suspicion that Amarillo might want to become the capitol of West Texas, should such a state be created. It is claimed that the hotel rates in Amarillo are the highest west of the Mississippi, and east of that river south of Mason and Dixon's line. Investigations in the Yankee states are being made at this time.

Newspaper Prestige.

During war time, no agency of the government did more to strengthen the morale of the people than the newspapers. During the depression (or oppression), there has been no greater agency to the same end of keeping alive the spirit of hope than the newspapers.

During the bank moratorium, the newspapers again came to the rescue and rendered a greater service to commercial institution than any other agency. Just what would happen should a moratorium be declared on newspapers?

What Would Happen?

If President Roosevelt had plenty of authority, and was placed in charge of our legislative branches a few days, just what would happen.

Albert Law of Dalhart and Mason King of Amarillo have each given us an insight as to what is being done by a large number of the members down there in the way of jig-saw puzzles and other foolishness, and it looks like nothing short of a Roosevelt can get a lot of the boys on the job working in the interests of the people who sent them to Austin.

Dignified Ails.

We are rapidly drawing to the season of baccalaureate sermons. There was a time when such was applied only to those who were receiving the bachelor's degree. Not so today. They have these baccalaureate spells from Dan to Beer-sheeba in towns so small that they have to stick up a red light to keep folks from ignoring it altogether.

Most of the pupils mixed up in a baccalaureate address cannot spell the word, but then that makes no difference. The credits were made on the athletic field and not baccalaureating around in a school room. We do little things in a big way, crash customs of old, smash symbols of learning not because we cannot learn in this age, but that we simply refuse to expend the energy.

Fight in Peace.

This week we are bombarded with a lot of new free space dope. A bundle that might look like a cargo of dynamite arrives Monday in which the reading matter carefully arranged by an expert proceeds to tell us that the Robertson insurance law is all wet and ought to be repealed.

The next day we get a bunch of free space thunder from the other side of the state claiming that the big companies on the outside will come into Texas and swamp the home companies if the Robertson law is repealed.

Personally, we prefer to let both sides fight it out in peace. No one will hear much about the scrap unless it is published. The weekly press is under no obligations to donate to either side, as we see it, and more especially since neither side could quarry as being an object of charity.

David And Goliath.

Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana, he who cuts swaths of varying widths from the very beginning of this his first term, may tell the big boys where to "head in" and then defy them to bring suit, but he can't handle the eating situation in good old Washington.

Huey boiled over the other day, I hear. He got hungry while working in his room at the Mayflower ("J. D.") Hotel, so he had a double order of grapefruit juice, a steak, tea and an apple. The juice was 80c, the steak, $1.85, the pot of tea, 60c and the apple, 25c. Shades of Henry Stahl and Dave Frey!—and all the other cattle feeders, applegrowers et cetera! So Huey Long boiled and boiled—but he paid.

Responsibility.

The country press in the United States has an important place in directing the thinking of a great number of people. Possibly many of those who read do not exactly agree with the writer, but there is a thought dropped that will cause the reader to make further investigation, and good ultimately results in the end. On an average, 90 percent of the public is reached by the weekly press. Ten percent of the reading public is reached by the daily press.

All weekly editorial writers do not agree on all questions, but it is pleasing to note that in upholding private views and ideals, a high moral tone and a conservative attitude is maintained in practically every instance.

In view of the fact that weekly papers are in a position to wield a wonderful influence for good, more time and attention should be given to fundamental progress and problems affecting the public that

AFTER 40 bowel trouble

Constipation may very easily become chronic after forty. And any continued constipation at that time of life may bring attacks of piles and a host of other unpleasant disorders.

Watch your bowels at any age. Guard them with particular care after forty. Whenever they need any help, remember a doctor should know what is best for them.

"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is a doctor's prescription for the bowels. Tested by 47 years' practice, it has been found thoroughly effective in relieving constipation and its ills for men, women and children of all ages. It has proven perfectly safe even for babies. Made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients, it cannot gripe, will not sicken you or weaken you; can be used without harm as often as your breath is bad, or when your tongue is coated; whenever a headachy, bilious, gassy condition warns of constipation.

Ten Cent Honeymoon.

Democratic voters are being asked to pay ten cents each to balance the national democratic treasury. Included in this request are a number of Hoovercrats who do not feel like they got a dime out of that last political escapade.

From all appearances, the honeymoon is about over. The honeymoon, you know, is the period at the beginning of the administration when the new President is given the courtesies of the leaders of Congress, etc. Roosevelt's emergency bills were railroaded through at a fast clip, but his party members are balking now.

Perhaps one of the biggest events to arouse the opposition was Roosevelt's statement that the farm bill is a big experiment, as is the reforestation and Muscle Shoals projects. The Farm Board was an experiment that served only to make a bunch of wealthy office holders wealthier while the farmer was getting poorer.

From all indications, the public would like to see the middle class get back on its feet, and see a lot of big financiers sent to the penitentiary where they belong.

Haven of Comfort. When Mrs. Walter F. George, wife of the senior senator from Georgia counted up the cost of transportation, and the expense of a new wardrobe for the inaugural ceremonies at Washington recently, she decided to spend the money on reconstruction of a tenant home on the farm owned down in Georgia.

"I wanted a real haven of rest where we could feel at home" she said. The home has been rebuilt and furnished with a view to utility and comfort. "Anything in here can be used, sat on or even scratched without offense to my housewifely principles because I want it to be a haven of comfort rather than a dominion of don't."

The home is furnished largely with draperies made by the hands of the mother. Old family relics are there. Mrs. George refers to her home as the "five-and-ten home" because of the low cost of the home completed.

The accomplishment of Mrs. George is a credit to any woman much less the wife of a senator who has lived in big houses, big hotels and fancy apartments. For years she is said to have yearned for a real home in the quiet of the country. A place where she could ply her skill and weave into the home nest sentiment that comes God-given to every mother's heart at some time in life.

No doubt in the years to come, the children in that modest home will recall more pleasure there than in any 'big house' in the city. The beauties of mother's handicraft will be indelibly stamped upon the minds of the inmates of the modest little farm home throughout a lifetime. Mrs. George has more than a utility home. It is a factory wherein character is being moulded of the right sort every day.

DO IT NOW!

If with pleasure you are viewing, any work a man is doing, If you like him, if you love him, tell him now.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish, no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores. (Adv)

"WHAT IS GOOD VISION WORTH?"

Suppose you were asked to appraise, in dollars and cents, the value of your eyesight? Would $100,000 be too much? $1,000,000?

Good vision is a priceless possession—yet how often we neglect our eyes! Working under artificial light, doing close work, reading fine print, driving into glaring headlights—in fact the whole scheme of modern civilization puts a tremendous strain on our eyes.

"Oh, my eyes are good. Why, I can see everything!" We boast, yet all the time serious eyestrain may be undermining our health.

There is one way to be sure. Have your eyes examined at least every eighteen months. If your eyes have not been examined recently, why not phone today for an appointment?

Don't withhold your approbation, till the parson makes oration And he lies with snowy lilies on his brow.

For no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it.

He won't know how many tears-drops you have shed,

If there's any praise that's due him now's the time, give it to him

For he cannot read his tomb-stone when he's dead.

More than fame, and more than money, is the comment kind and sunny.

And the hearty warm approval of a friend,

For it gives to life a savor, and it makes you stronger, braver,

And it gives you heart and spirit to the end.

If he earns your praise—bestow it, if you love him, let him know it.

Let the words of true encouragement be said,

Do not wait till life is over, and he's underneath the clover, For he cannot read his tomb-stone when he's dead.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Wait a minute, folks, wait a minute 'till the old Apostle gets down the family almanac. Every day some one is 'phoning in to know about the signs and when to plant garden. This is bound to be a good garden year because more people are taking an interest in the moon than ever before.

That ball of fire that got loose and chased around over the Panhandle skewed the moon around some, but looking at her through smoked glass at close range last night showed she was still doing business at the same old stand.

Plant 'taters, onions, radishes and all plants that produce under the ground in the dark of the moon. All that produce above the ground, plant 'em in the light of the moon. Look up the sign of the Zodiac and select Cancer or Pisces if you can. Never plant in Aquarius because the plants will blossom and grow big but won't have a thing on 'em. Get a medical almanac and read up. The government spends millions telling us what some long-whiskered scientist thinks, but the old Apostle is telling you what he knows and what he learned in Arkansas and Jack county, and it costs you nothing.

A lady wants to know about Texas Bluebonnets, the state flower. Good lady, they should be planted in late summer—no other time does as well, but some grow 'em planted in the spring.

There is nothing like flowers and we can all have plumb plenty of 'em if we try just a little bit. Stick to the old standbys. Pinks, phlox, zinnias, snapdragon, larkspur and such like. West Texas is no place for the tenderer fancy kind. The wind gets their goat and I don't mean maybe.

Don't forget the poppies—all kinds do well here, and we have the native white kind to start with. Mix 'em up together. The double red and yellow are my favorites.

Rig up an old tub or large wooden bucket and plant rose moss (paniculata) of both double and single blossom.

Flowers more nearly bring mankind into harmony with nature and increases faith in Him who rules the universe. Stick to both and be happier. Then as time passes, give flowers to the sick and those who do not have them. It makes a lot of difference and one might as well be happy as disgruntled and sour on the world.

Down state they have what they call a Stitch & Chatter club which is composed of women. Instead of a president, they have elected a "Chief Snooper." This is just a tip to any one who feels the need of a new club and one of this kind. If we had all of this tribe bunched, we could watch 'em better. Personally, I feel like we have several who could qualify as members, including about a dozen men.

A spinster just called to say she favored the state being divided.

She ought to know because she looked as old as a magazine in the outer office of a dentist, and said she had spent all her lifetime in West Texas.

If West Texas does secede, the Apostle wants the job of Director of Indian Bureaus or Affairs. There ain't no injuns, but there might be some time, and the job would not require a lot of energy. It ought to pay $6,000 a year. A lot of fellows working in the Indian Bureau for Uncle Sam right now never saw any 'Injuns' and yet knock down that price. I'm for West Texas for West Texans, jobs and all.

Homer Newton brought another fine batch of sausage Saturday just after Frank Elmore delivered one of those famous cream creeses for which Mrs. Elmore is famous. They go together fine and we need more of 'em all over Donley county.

Speaking of cheese, did you cut out that cheese recipe in the Leader last week and paste it in your scrap book?

A local woman referred to her husband as a "jitney" Tuesday when we got busy talking about husbands, and the old Apostle's curiosity got aroused and I asked her how come. "Well," she says, "my old man reminds me of a jitney because he is hard to start, easy to get hot and boil over, has plenty of rattle, ain't worth much and it cost more to get him reshod than he is worth." That stopped the husband conversation on the spot because the Apostle had been called the same thing many times himself and had always considered it a compliment.

Since they have invented a process of extracting both musk perfume and non-habit forming morphine from plain road coal tar, this beer business will have a strong competitor. Who would want to get pluted on beer when he could get worse on morphine without a hangover and smell like a beauty parlor at the same time? Great world, folks!

Who would ever take Bob Biggers for a flower crank? Nobody, because he ain't. It's his wife, and she has the most wonderful display in Bob's office of any place in town. What Mrs. R. L. Biggers doesn't know about pot plants has all been rubbed out.

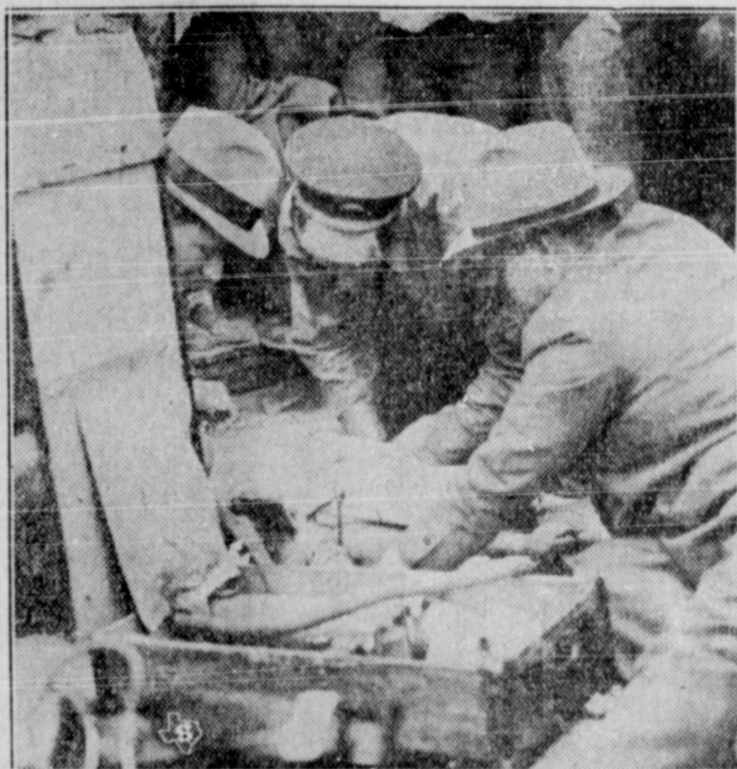

Mrs. J. T. L. Warner is again offering turkey eggs from her Mammoth Bronze strain for setting. Read her ad in this issue of the classified. You can't buy better ones anywhere, and besides, raise a few for you never know what your lucky market product will be until fall.

As a matter of information, and not that we want to start any argument, but we want to know how many bottles in a case of beer. It is being quoted at $2.60 and we don't know whether we are being given a present or simply high-jacked in the manner of a lot of other new fads. Also, which is the front end of a pretzel?

This is the season of the year when most folks do their borrowing, especially tools. When returning tools, (if you do at all), try to return them broken as has been the custom. A sudden shock to your neighbor may be complaint for damages. This is no attempt to try to be funny, it is history repeating itself.

This is also the time of the year when the cat family increases in town. The reason is that the cats have increased in the country, and every town man who ever lived in

Fail to Revive Victims of Old Cistern

Efforts of Dallas fire department and Emergency hospital attaches to revive two little girls who drowned in a cistern failed and a little mound of earth now marks the spot near the school grounds where the death trap once was. The victims were Gregoria Sanchez and Anita Sosa, both aged seven. The photo shows attempts to revive one of the little girls.

the country knows how we always sacked the cats and took them to town and turned them loose. Also the extra dogs. That is also a custom.

Lamb's quarter greens are on their way, folks, they are on the way. The first are peeping down near the track. Another week and we will talk a tow sack and start grazing in the pasture. Hog fowl and lamb's quarter makes the best dinner dish of all if there is a batch of fresh onions and butter-milk to go along with it. Talk about banquets, the best time I ever had was trying to surround a pot of greens while warehousing a bowl of clabber.

There might have been a time when a coward hid behind a woman's skirts, but if he does it now he is simply a magician.

If you never have understood that poem "sit by the side of the road and watch the world go by, just buy a second hand car.

A Dallas firm manufacturing corn syrup received a letter reading: "Dear Sirs: I have taken six cans of your corn syrup and my feet are no better."

"When a bit of kindness hits ye, After passing of a cloud, When a bit of laughter gits ye, An yer spine is feelin' proud, Don't forget to up and fling it,

At a soul that's feelin' blue, For the moment that you fling it, It's a boomerang to you."

Program for April 9, 1933

Subject—"Men and Brethren, What shall We Do?"

Leader—Mrs. Edd Speed.

The Fact of Sin—Joe Bownds.

The Need of a Saviour—Mrs. May.

The Act of Surrender—Mrs. Joe Goldston.

The Transforming Power—Mr. Hay.

The Consequences in Character and Conduct—Mrs. Ralph Keys.

A new contest between the four groups is starting this coming Sunday. The contest will be based on attendance and new members. Those in groups Nos. 1 and 4 will be pitted against Nos. 2 and 3. The losers of the contest will entertain the winners with a picnic, the place of picnicking to be decided at a later date. Everyone is cordially invited to come and get lined up at the start. Friendly contests blended with plenty of rivalry are always enjoyable. Seven o'clock is the hour to be there and your presence is the price of admission.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their help, kindness and sympathy during the long illness and death of our dear wife and mother.

John L. Smith and Children.

To the Voters of the City of Clarendon

I want to thank you for the confidence you expressed last Tuesday in my behalf. God bless you all. There is no malice in my heart.

Your Friend,
W. P. Cagle.

Bascom White of Amarillo was here Tuesday.

"Etex" Beauties

Not the least of the attractions at the East Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at Jacksonville this month will be East Texas vocal talent and the profusion of East Texas dogwood blossoms which blanket the hills at this time of the year. Shown holding an armful of the blossoms is Miss Beth Boles, Jacksonville singer and cousin of John Boles, the movie star. Miss Boles was also on the convention program at Lufkin last year. The convention dates this year are April 23, 24 and 25.

Weekly Poem

BETROTHAL

"The world has been a different place
Since one sweet year ago,
When I beheld your dainty grace,
With radiance aglow.
As I beheld you standing there,
So winsome, sweet, appealing, fair,
I knew that Fate at last had brought Unto my heart, the one I'd sought.

"Whatever life, perchance, may hold
For us, I promise now,
I shall not let my love grow cold,
Nor break one single vow.
And when your hair is streaked with gray,
And youthful charms have slipped away,
And Life's no longer one sweet thrill—
To me, you'll be my sweetheart still."

Miss Rose Marie Turner of Lubbock has been chosen by the first year students of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, as their class queen. She will preside over the annual "frosh ball."

INVICTUS

Out of the night that covers me
Black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the Shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find, me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate;
I am the captain of my soul.

—W. E. Henley.

COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS
By Sloan Baker
County Supt. Schools

The returns of the trustees elections will be canvassed by the County Commissioners Court next Monday.

G. G. Reeves, Oren Hott and Gilbert Mann inspected Bray school building Wednesday with the idea in mind of planning Chamberlain's new school after it. State plans and specifications will be used. Three thousand dollar bond issue carried unanimously at Saturdays election.

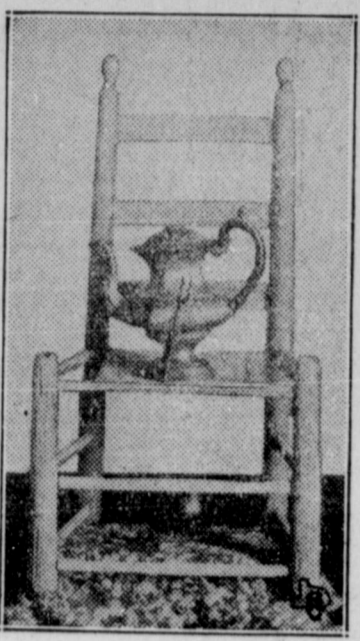

Whitefish, McKnight, Martin and Sunnyview report interesting school meetings for last Friday evening.

Mrs. Donald Ballew reports the Sunnyview meeting as follows: Sunnyview was hostess to Pleasant Valley, Hackberry, and Fairview Friday evening, March 31. County Superintendent Sloan Baker acted as temporary chairman and the following officers were elected:

Z. D. Davis, Sunnyview, president; Carl Naylor, vice-president; secretary-treasurer, Miss Pickering. Mr. Davis appointed a program committee. Mr. E. H. Estlack read a letter from Mr. John Furey stating that he would vote against Senate Bill 387, and would do all he could to prevent its passage. Mr. Ercell W. Brooks, the Rural Aid Inspector explained how aid was obtained by the school and the funds the aid was derived from. He described our State Superintendent as being a man who was fighting for laws which would benefit the schools. After the business session, the meeting was turned into a social hour. The Sunnyview school patrons served sandwiches and coffee, which was sure fine.

Mr. Ercell W. Brooks, State Rural Aid Supervisor, inspected the following schools allotting to each the aid stated: Sunnyview, $168; Giles, $281; Windy Valley, $344; Fairview, $184; Goldston, $79; Bray, $187; Chamberlain, $470; Hudgins, $199; Pleasant Valley, $132; Skillet, $184; Ashtola, $237; McKnight $281 and Hedley, $800, a total of $3546 Rural Aid to the county. Every school received the maximum aid it was en-

Hero's Chair

The articles in this picture were property of David Crockett, one of the greatest heroes of Texas independence. The chair is 125 years old, and was brought to Texas from Tennessee on the side of a covered wagon by Colonel Crockett's widow. It is now the property of his granddaughter, Mrs. T. H. Hiner, of Grandbury. The fork and teapot were acquired by Colonel Crockett while he represented West Tennessee in Congress in 1832. The missing prong of the fork was removed and used as an awl for making shoes during the Civil war.

visited with friends over Saturday Floyd Crofford spent last week at Amarillo on business. He bought five young mules.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Estlack, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hefner, Misses Hefner and Pickering and Edwin Eanes and Verna Lusk enjoyed an outing over on the lake in the R. O. pasture one afternoon of this week, eating supper before coming home.

The inspector visited our school Monday and found every thing in A-1 condition. We anticipated this, having teachers like Mr. E. H. Estlack and Miss Pickering.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH TEXAS?

S. W. Adams, Austin, Texas. I was so busy last week with the plans and details of the meeting in Austin, for the purpose of organizing a Texas Weekly Press Association that I did not send out my weekly letter. I hope to keep it up from here out, until the Legislature adjourns.

Legislation stumbles along with anomalies spattering its pages in profusion. Here's what a number of the boys are saying: "We are prolonging the consideration of the appropriations bill because in this way we can keep them from taking up time and probably passing bad bills." Then another says: "We are certain of a special session, for the Governor has said the defeat of the pari-mutual horse-racing bill and the small chance of passing his sales tax bill will make it imperative that she call a special session."

The dabbling in business by the State thru ill-advised legislation, and the creation of boards and bureaus and commissions, is the most serious trouble with Texas. Our constitution seeks to protect all classes, but our Legislatures are busy passing laws giving special privileges to special groups, which completely set at naught the constitution.

We create commissions and boards to "regulate" groups in the interest of the people; then turn right around and permit those boards and commissions to fall into the hands of the groups we sought to regulate, and they then function for the groups, always against the people.

Take our Insurance and Banking Boards, our railroad commission—all of them, and when you get underneath their functions, you find that they serve the groups they are supposed to regulate. I do not know a single board or commission down here that is not an impediment to right governmental functions, and is not in the hands and under the control of those they are created to control and regulate.

Take the greatest oil field in the world. The entire time of the rail commission and the army and the Legislature has been devoted to the protection of the oil men, in total disregard of the consuming public. All the machinery of the government for two years has been directed to the task of giving profits to a bare 150,000 people, at the expense of the 6,000,000 in Texas.

No government was ever rightly administered thru boards. Texas would be infinitely better off if every board, bureau and commission was destroyed, and then, by simple statute, guarantee that every man shall have equal rights before the law, and no one is granted special privileges.

WITH APOLOGIES TO ABE: We have a government of the Boards, for the Bureaus, and by the Commissions.

GRAHAM RAISIN GEMS

These are a pleasant change if you are tired of the regular types of rolls and biscuits. They are especially nice to serve for a "company" luncheon if made in the smaller gem pans.

- Ingredients:
- 1 cup graham flour
 - 1 cup white flour
 - 4 teaspoons baking powder
 - 2 tablespoons sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 egg beaten until light
 - 3 tablespoons melted butter
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1/2 cup sultana (white) raisins

Method: Sift together the white flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Mix in the graham flour. Add the milk, egg and butter. Beat until smooth. Add raisins. Bake in buttered gem pans in a hot oven for about twenty-five minutes.

Owen L. Langseth, advertising manager of the Pampa Advocate, and Jimmie Drake and C. W. Parker, mechanics employed on the staff of the same paper, were business visitors in Clarendon Tuesday and paid their respects at the Leader office.

MELLOWED A HUNDRED MILLION YEARS

While Tyrannosaurs stalked their prey in PENNSYLVANIA

UP from the sands of the Devonian Age, formed millions of years before even these strange monsters fought and devoured one another, comes the Bradford-Allegany crude oil of the Pennsylvania district—the crude which Sinclair refines into Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil.

Bradford-Allegany crude is Pennsylvania's costliest crude. The extra price which Sinclair must pay for every barrel of Bradford-Allegany crude results from its remarkable lubricating quality—a quality aided by the perfect oil-forming conditions in Devonian time, enhanced by a hundred million years of mellowing and filtering.

In process of manufacture, Sinclair Pennsylvania

Motor Oil is not only de-waxed; it is also freed from non-lubricating petroleum jelly—a process which requires chilling the oil down to as low as 60° F. below zero.

Try a crankcaseful of Sinclair Pennsylvania. Note how it stands up—how it comes out of your crankcase at draining time almost as good as it went in. Note especially, how little oil has been used up—positive, visible proof of protection for the last mile as well as the first!

Note: For those who prefer a Mid-continent oil we also sell Sinclair Opaline, blended from the oldest Mid-continent crudes, de-waxed and also freed from petroleum jelly.

Arthur Crites and W. A. Tomlinson went to Amarillo Monday for medical treatment for W. A. Tomlinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Crites spent the week end with relatives at Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cook and daughters spent Sunday with friends and relatives at Ashtola.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Leathers spent Saturday in Memphis with relatives and was accompanied home by her mother Mrs. Z. O. Batson who will visit this week with her children.

Rev. Allen pastor of First Baptist church filled his regular appointment at Ashtola Sunday. Mrs. Allen accompanied him.

Study club met in regular meeting in the home of Mrs. W. V. McCauley Tuesday afternoon. The subject, the Lure of the Southern Trail was discussed by Mrs. S. R. Tomlinson and Mrs. J. A. Thompson. Nine members answered their regular roll call.

On Friday evening last Lelia Lake was the scene of a double header entertainment in the form of their annual school exhibit and community old fashioned "Get-together." The various departments of school work was on display in five of the school rooms. Teachers and pupils deserve credit for the splendid exhibit. Of special interest to the parents were the numerous booklets and note books representing not merely display work but consistent up-to-the-minute school work. The art work in the grades, attractive sand tables, posters, high school botanical and mechanical display in the science department, geometric designing, illustrated book reports and theme in the English department and illustrated Spanish note books and themes all contributed to the success of the exhibit. At eight fifteen o'clock the real fun began with an old fashioned Friday afternoon Literary Society program. Mrs. Harry Stebbins began with "Auld Lang Syne" an instrumental number. The quartet composed of K. K. Boyce, J. O. Howard, Elmer Chenault and Olen Ursery entertained the crowd with "Brother Jonah", "Widow Brown" and "All Gone Now." Four year old Russell

Glorified!

Miss Sytha Watts, a diminutive Gonzales (Texas) girl, has been selected by Professor Raymond Gastor Terasmi, because of her perfect figure, to assist him in his "Hollywood Body-Beautiful Exposition," now appearing in theatres the nation over. One good look and we agree that the professor's judgment is excellent! Her stage name is Sytha Ahtys.

Lane Thomasson recited "Little Boy Blue."

In the following recitation contest little Johnny Cole (Rev. John Cole) and tiny Tommy Thomasson (alias Supt. Thomasson) contested for honors. In the girls division little Miss Cecil Cook (alias Mrs. D. M. Cook) was first place while Marissa Tomlinson (Mrs. S. R. Tomlinson) and Kate Thompson (Mrs. J. A. Thompson) tied for second place.

The old fiddlers music was supplied by messrs. W. C. Reeves, Will Walling and Freo Walling, accompanied by Mrs. Stebbins at the piano. The Spelling Bee from the old Blue Back Speller came as a climax. Sides were chosen by Mesrs. John Gerner and Joe E. Johnston. It soon became evident that not only modern young people can't spell but "the not so young" also can't spell long at a time. As pronouncer, Bob Weatherly turned from easy to more and more difficult words, the ranks thinned until finally even the pedagogues met their Waterloo. Many have expressed a desire for an other old fashioned party.

Mrs. B. J. Leathers who recently underwent an operation is in the home of her sister in Clarendon since Tuesday of this week.

In the school board election, John Gerner was added to the list and G. A. Davis was re-elected.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF DONLEY COUNTY—GREETING:

Whereas, on the 20th day of March, 1933, C. C. Powell filed in the county court of Donley County, Texas, his final report, and asked that the same be allowed and approved, and that said estate be closed, and that he, as administrator be discharged, and further asking that the balance of cash on hand in his possession be divided among the heirs according to their rights; and whereas, such cause will be heard on Monday, the 24th day of April, 1933, at the court-house in Donley County, Texas.

NOW THEREFORE these are to require you to notify all persons interested in said estate to be then and there present in said court in Clarendon, in Donley County, Texas, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. on Monday, the 24th day of April, 1933, to contest the closing of said estate and discharge of the administrator if they care so to do.

This writ you will execute by causing the same to be published in such newspaper as the law requires for the length of time and in the manner required by law.

WITNESS MY HAND and seal of office, at office, in Clarendon, Texas, this 20th day of March, 1933.

W. G. Word
Clerk of the County Court, Donley County, Texas.

SHELTERING TREE

I awoke this morning with love in my heart
For friends old and new,
My thoughts wandered o'er the way
To you—to you.
One who understands and believes in me.
Friendship like the immortality
Of the soul, takes life as a whole—
Treats friendship not daintily
But as a foundation of truth—
Not found in words, but in actions,
Three things necessary for everlasting friendship,
Truth—sincerity—tenderness.

So friend, why pretend?
Like rainbows have an end;
Friendship of itself is a holy tie—
If broken, takes the sunshine from the sky.
Tears bedim the eye, Friend, is a sheltering tree
Such my friend, is my friendship for thee.
—Jayne Kerr.

ASHTOLA SCHOOL NEWS

Last week a petition was circulated among residents of Ashtola and sent to Representative John Puryear concerning Senate Bill 387. This week we received a letter from Rep. Puryear in which he reaffirms his stand for the rural districts. We feel that Rep. Puryear is not only to be commended for his vote against Senate Bill 387, but for his vote against certain immoral issues. In said letter Rep. Puryear states that he is for cutting government expenses every place possible so long as it doesn't impair good government, but is for the school children, first, last and all times.

The "Pirates", an athletic organization of Ashtola High school boys, proved to be of some service to the community in putting out fires during the last two weeks.

They were instrumental in saving Mrs. Hill's garage and also proved valuable in helping prevent the spread of fire at the American refining ranch north of Ashtola.

For their service in the latter instance, they were rewarded with a twenty dollar check from Mr. Householder. The money was used for the purchasing of athletic equipment.

Civic Clubs Promote Lamb Raising

and Jericho met Friday night March 31, at Martin. The following officers were elected:

J. D. Wood, Martin—Pres.
M. S. Swinburn, Ashtola—Vice President.

Mrs. Baker, Martin—Sec.-Trea.
E. B. Bowen, Ashtola—Reporter.

Sid E. Thomas, Ashtola, was chosen by acclamation chairman of the program committee to be ably assisted by G. W. Kavanaugh, Martin and Gladys Noble of Goldston. G. W. Gatewood, Goldston was unanimously elected head of the Legislative committee and Myrtle Hall, Jericho, was chosen to head the Survey committee.

In a clear concise manner, M. S. Swinburn outlined the "duties of a trustee." "Opportunities in Rural Schools for Education" was the subject of an interesting talk by G. W. Kavanaugh. G. W. Gatewood gave an instructive talk on "What a Standard School is."

Various significant matters were discussed and several practical ideas advanced concerning rural school problems. Upon a motion of Sid B. Thomas the meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be at Ashtola on May 5th.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

"THE KINGLY CHRIST"

Dear to the Christian world is the story of Christ's one day of triumph, Palm Sunday. The church rejoices because even for one brief day He was hailed as King. It was the Sunday before the Passover. A great multitude were approaching Jerusalem on pilgrimage. Many were Galileans, and many of them believers in Christ. On their part the demonstration was unpremeditated. They suddenly realized that the Messiah was entering the Holy City, and they began to sing snatches of the Messianic Psalms. In a few moments the stream of Passover visitors was transformed into the heralding procession of a conquering King.

Thus into this Capital City rode Jesus. Willing captives press close upon him, bound with golden links of love to His side. Glad feet kept step with Him, and the trophies of His power are not wanting. Sinners forgiven, lepers cleansed, lame and sick made whole, all along the road from Bethany to Jerusalem they crowded and shouted, singing as a mighty choir. For we read, "And they that went before Him cried, Hosanna to the Son of David." and they that followed, "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord."

Palm Sunday also prefigures the entire history of the church and Christ's triumphant march here below. The history of the church is the story of the march of Christ across continents and centuries. He advances on the earth as on the road to Jerusalem, with the calm majesty of a sovereign; He takes possession of things and men, He makes them His instruments and servants, just as on the first Palm Sunday, He used the colt, which did not belong to Him, and drew forth a glorious homage from all those mouths which on that day had no voice for Him. Saluted by the songs of all the churches, in all the countries where His name is known, He advances from nation to nation, and marches toward the final domination of the whole world. Christ is King. Fellow Christians, let us urge all the people to crown Him King. Let's make Palm Sunday a Decision Day for Him. We will present two sermons Sunday with this idea in mind. Our two subjects will be: "Jesus and the City," and "Who is this Jesus?" Come study these lessons with us.

PROMINENT MAN GIVEN A YEAR ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Two Charged With Ashtola Depot Burglary Plead Guilty Wednesday

Consuming all of Monday and a part of Tuesday in hearing testimony of witnesses, a jury returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Bill Miller in which he was charged with transportation of liquor, and assessed the punishment at one year.

The defendant has been a resident of Donley county for more than thirty years and has a wide reputation as a windmill man and well driller, trades he has followed for years.

The jury trying this case was composed of C. E. Lindsey, R. L. Farris, Ed C. Dewey, R. L. Stegall, Clyde Hudson, J. C. Christal, C. C. Carter, Earl Alderson, Carl Naylor, P. H. Longan, W. B. Baker, F. O. Naylor.

Cole and Porter represented the defense and District Attorney John Dever prosecuted in the above case.

Charges of felony theft against Leslie Smith and Bennie Hunnicut were dismissed at request of the prosecuting attorney, and both men then plead guilty to a charge of burglary of the Ashtola depot.

Judge Fires gave Hunnicut a five year sentence with a suspension pending good behavior. Smith did not fare so well it being alleged that he had a criminal record, and the Judge gave him two years.

In the suit of Ruth M. Reeves against Paul Reeves in which a divorce was sought, the prayers of the plaintiff was granted.

The Grand Jury resumed its labors Wednesday. It is presumed that the work of this body will be completed today. No new indictments had been returned up to ten o'clock.

Tom F. Connally Thanks All His Neighbors

In speaking of the election of Tuesday in which he was a candidate for the office of Mayor of Clarendon, Mr. Connally requested the Leader man to convey his appreciation to all those who supported him in his race.

In speaking of those who did not support him, Mr. Connally said, "Yes, tell the folks who voted for my honorable opponent that I appreciate the fact that they saved me a lot of trouble, and that I think just as much of them as ever."

Rev. Beavers and Rev. Bowen returned home Saturday from Dallas where they went to hear Rev. Stanley Jones speak.

Here Are Central Figures in Texas Bank Situation

MELVIN ROUFF

These three men are playing an important part in alleviating the bank situation in Texas. Rouff of Houston is president of the Texas Bankers' association. McKinney of Dallas is governor of the 11th Federal reserve district. Shaw of Taylor is state banking commissioner. All have worked unceasingly since banking conditions became acute.

Chamberlain School News

The inspector has just made his visit and said we were doing well. He reports that the school is in fair condition according to the building we have to use. He also states that the pupils look as though they have been learning how to act in school this year, and maybe next year they will learn to study and read and write.

Our school must be doing well, for he gave us $470.00 state aid. He did one thing he shouldn't have done, and that was to show us how he figured state aid. He set us against him as he counted off 25c because it wasn't 51c.

We can say one thing about him, he wasn't grouchy like most inspectors, but very jolly and always pulling some funny joke on the pupils.

The 1st day of April brought bad luck to some of the pupils and they are staying in at noon for eight days memorizing poetry to make up the time they missed last Friday.

The school work is getting along fine. By the time school is out the pupils will be through their books. The English classes are writing themes and debating. The pupils are getting up their outside reading in English and Spanish. The Spanish classes have learned several songs including "La Paloma" and "La Goldenrina." The 9th history students have handed in their term themes that they have been losing sleep over.

The 5th history class is having a contest. They have chosen sides and the side that wins, is going to the show.

FIRST HONOR ROLL: Billie La Verne Rampey 7th grade—94; Wilfred Hott, 9th grade—92; Frances Hott, 5th grade—91; Carl Webb, 6th grade—91.
SECOND HONOR ROLL: James Heathington, 5th grade—88; Jack Reeves, 6th grade—88; Rose Donahay, 6th grade—88; Max Rampey, 6th grade—88; Eugene Putman, 5th grade—85; Leota Rampey, 9th grade—87.

SUNNYVIEW

The Teachers, pupils and some of the neighbor girls will put on a play, "Fools Holiday" this Friday night April 7 here at the school building. There will be no admission but the children will sell candy, pop corn and chewing gum. Every one is invited to be present and see a good laughable play. Also the teachers will entertain their pupils with a picnic next Monday the place not decided on for the picnic yet.

Mrs. Carol and daughter, Bernice of Lelia Lake called on Mrs. Brame Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Heckle Starks and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bogard and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Starks Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Parker and daughter, Marjorie visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roberts from Friday till Monday.

AFTER THE STORM

The happenings in banking and business circles during the last few weeks had both a serious side and a humorous side, but there's another angle that must not be overlooked. That is the bright side—the cheering prospect that the bottom of the valley has surely been passed and that from now in the course of business will be upward.

Abraham Lincoln, beset by war's travails, once said, "To many the present moment appears dark. To me the signs are glorious!"

We are thinking now, especially, about the young people just starting life. Some of them are discouraged by conditions. Others—and these will be the leaders of tomorrow—are inspired by the knowledge that the period of decline, with its privations and fears, has been survived and that opportunities now will be increasing as the world rolls on and business firms begin their inevitable come-backs.

Wise youngsters today are looking ahead to business futures. But they are doing more than merely looking if they are truly wise. They are getting ready. They are training for the opportunities that are to come, so that their golden moments will find them ready.

To such young people—and to their parents—we make this suggestion. If you have not already done so, write to Tyler Commercial College at Tyler, Texas, and get a free copy of a handsome booklet entitled "Achieving Success in Business." You'll find it full of both information and inspiration.

Arthur Ranson of Giles was a business visitor here Wednesday.

N. B. Chenault of Wichita Falls was in town Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Hendrix of Hereford spent the week end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Beavers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hahn left Wednesday for Crowell where they will be with his mother who is ill.

Mrs. Atta Mac Lane and son of Memphis spent the week end in the C. M. Lane home.

NEWS OF THE WEEK (J. E. B.)

Austin—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson signed the bill Monday providing for a 30 day moratorium on mortgage foreclosures.

Childress—J. A. Hilburn has been appointed acting postmaster here with a salary of $2,380 a year until a regular appointment can be made.

Dallas—Luther Nichols, noted criminal lawyer and law partner of Cong. Joe A. Biley, was buried in Mount Calm Monday following death from heart stroke Sat. He was a strong supporter of the Fergusons over many years and represented James E. Ferguson in many legal battles.

Sinton—Amon Copeland, recent witness in a cattle theft case, was shot from ambush and instantly killed Monday night. Rangers after an investigation arrested a man and his three sons.

Dallas—Shot through the bridge of the nose with a .22-calibre bullet, W. R. Reed, 80, of 3622 Spring, was taken to Parkland Hospital late Monday for treatment. He told police he had been shot accidentally by a negro who was shooting at birds on the Holmes street
