Jimmy Mattern of San Angelo and Plane on Globe Solo Flight

Jimmy Mattern, trap drummer and former leader of San Angelo, Texas a few years ago, and today known internationally as one of the most skillful and daring of birdmen broke all flying records in spanning the Atlantic.

His non-stop flight from New York to Oslo, Norway cut down a former record more than five hours made by Post and Gatty in their round the globe stunt. His next hop was to Moscow, then on to Omsk, Siberia Tuesday (our time) with only seven hours of sleep.

Upon reaching Moscow, friends of Jimmy. The message stumped Russian translators for some time and no one understood except Jimmy up to the time of his leaving. "Attoboy" is not a Russian word—strictly American.

It is Jimmy Mattern's ambition to be the first to make a solo flight around the globe. His next ambition is to beat the record of Post and Gatty when they circled the globe in 1931.

Last year Mattern and Bennet Griffin broke a record in flying as far as Berlin, but next day were at San Angelo cabled Jimmy a greeting in the words of, "Attoboy, forced down in Russia and cracked up their plane in a swamp. The wreck was shipped home with the intrepid birdmen who felt that the big show was over. Recently Mattern patched two planes together and secured backing to permit him to attempt a world record solo flight.

Today (Thursday), Jimmy is "somewhere in Siberia" 14 hours over due according to the latest to be had from the daily paper press association.

Federal Government Accepts Gift Of 21-Section Ranch For Palo Duro Park

Three Forestry Camps to be Established This Month With $72,000 Appropriated For Park Work And Development to Serve Three States

Years ago an old Panhandle pioneer had visions of a great national highway extending across the nation from east to west. That highway was pictured as coming through Medicine Park, Oklahoma thence through Palo Duro canyon and on by Carlsbad Cavern and the Grand Canyon to the Pacific coast. That dream or vision is rapidly coming at this time.

Palo Duro (hard stick) Canyon long known as the "Baby Grand" because of its similarity to the Grand Canyon, is the most outstanding scenic wonder in the great Lone Star state because of its many advantages, and because of the striking contrasts of flora and artistic coloring given it by nature as contrasted with the level surrounding plains.

Little more than a week ago the owners of the B. S. Arnold ranch comprising 14,466 acres, agreed to convey title to this land to the federal government if it would be made into a national park at once with the establishment of three forestry camps. The offer was accepted.

In addition to that body of land, encompassing capitalists owning a half section of land at the Palisades agreed to contribute that land under the same terms. This offer too, was accepted.

Work on this project is to begin in earnest any day in building roads, bridle paths, water dams, establishing boating, fishing and swimming facilities, tree planting, etc. Not the least of it will be the construction of administration buildings that will be required. The government is planning on a further expansion of park area, and these conditions must be taken into consideration.

It is estimated that more than one thousand men between the ages of 18 and 25 will be given employment in addition to a certain number of ex-service men. Herbert M. Miller, reforestation officer of this district with offices at Denver, will have direct charge. Each camp will have an army captain, a first lieutenant and four sergeants.

The State Board of Engineers has already mapped the water supply sources, and locations for dams and lakes has been determined. The National Parks Service will do the landscaping.

The park area as now accented is eight miles in length and has a width of three miles. It is 11 miles east of Canyon. It is north of the Carlsbad ranch and south of the Carlsbad ranch.

T. E. Johnson of Amarillo, chosen as chairman of the general committee selected at a meeting held here May 2 in discussing the matter this week said: "It simply was a case of enlisting the aid of every one willing and in a position to help and not taking 'no' for an answer. We realized that if the Palo Duro canyon or any part of it was to be made into a public park, it must be done while the government is recruiting men for forestry camps and supplying funds for improvements."

Jimmy Guleke, Wilbur Hawk, "Old Tack", Cong. Marvin Jones and T. E. Johnson were the outstanding maneuvering figures of the Panhandle in securing the park designation, Jimmy Guleke being in Washington working with Jones most of the time. Citizens committees of nearby towns also did yeoman service.

Additional camp superintendents for the Palo Duro and Palisades state parks have been announced by D. E. Colp, Austin, chairman of the Texas State Parks Board.

Col. Oscar Seward, Amarillo, has been named an engineer for the board with Berle Elleston of Canyon as one of Mr. Colp's assistants.

New appointments announced by Mr. Colp include Howard Trigg, Amarillo; W. J. Williams of Plainview and Ed. M. Owens of Galveston as camp superintendents for Palo Duro park and C. W. Byram of Rosenberg as superintendent for the Palisades Park.

The probate court room on the third floor of the Potter County courthouse has been turned over to the Texas State Parks Board for temporary use while the Palo Duro canyon projects are underway with Oscar A. Seward, Jr., engineer in charge.

PROHIBITION TO BE DISCUSSED SUNDAY EVENING

Other Churches to Dispense With Services to Hear Baptist Minister

An overflow congregation is expected to be present to hear Dr. J. D. Sandifer discuss the prohibition issue at the Methodist church Sunday evening. He will fill the pulpit at the Baptist church at the morning hour. His subject will be "Christian Education." Services will be dispensed with at most of the other churches to permit a larger attendance at the Baptist church.

Dr. Sandifer, president of Simmons University of Abilene, is a

Aged Man Painfully Injured By Falling Down Stairs

In making the mistake of opening the wrong door in the darkness at his home Monday night caused Mr. Joe Holland Sr. to receive painful injuries when he fell down the stairs into the basement.

He was in the act of passing from one room to another and opened the basement door. In falling he received a severe laceration on the scalp and injury to his fingers of one hand. He has since recovered somewhat from the shock and is rapidly recuperating from his near fatal mistake which will be good news to the many friends of the kindly old gentleman who has spent many years at the filling station of his sons Joe and Lee where he has made a wide acquaintance.

Officers Warn Motorists To Comply With Law

In view of the fact that enforcement of motor laws devolves upon all officers of the county, local officers have asked the Leader to call special attention to carelessness of drivers with reference to the smaller infractions that occur in every community.

One officer speaking about the matter Wednesday stated that "we have been lenient about the lack of tail light equipment and one-eyed cars, but we are forced to arrest all offenders after this week." Those who drive cars lacking tail light or bum headlights will do well to have them fixed now and save trouble and expense," he said.

Small Home is Destroyed By Fire Tuesday

A small residence south of the J. W. Rowland home in the southeast part of town, and occupied the past week by the family of Carl Foust, was almost destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

The fire started from an oil stove, it is said. The front door of the kitchen was open and a high gust of wind blew the flame from the burner against the wall causing the wall covering to ignite. The family lost practically all their household goods. The building was in charge of W. T. Hayter and owned by his nephew who is said to reside at Amarillo.

very able speaker and well versed in the subjects he may choose to discuss.

The Baptist young peoples' revival being conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. N. Shepherd, will close Sunday, it is said. Rev. Shepherd has been preaching some excellent sermons and has been honored with a goodly attendance through the several days.

R. E. Key of Tahoka has been leading the singing during the revival in which he has had the hearty co-operation of a host of church members of all ages.

HOW DELINQUENT TAX LAW AFFECTS THE TAXPAYER

Attorney General's Ruling Affecting 1932 Payments Sets Deadline July 1st

The bill which releases penalties and interest on delinquent taxes is a fusion of the O'Neal bill in the Senate and the Leonard bill in the House.

The bill provides that all taxes delinquent to the State, any county and other political subdivisions of the State on February 1, 1933, may be paid at any time prior to July 1, 1934, with interest and penalties which have already accrued deducted. If these taxes are paid prior to October 1, 1933, there will be added a penalty of one per cent; if they are paid between October 1, 1933 and December 31, 1933, there will be added a penalty of two per cent; if they are paid between January 1, 1934, and March 31, 1934, there will be added a penalty of four per cent; if they are paid between April 1, 1934 and June 30, 1934, there will be added a penalty of six per cent.

The above provisions shall not apply to cities, independent school districts or special school districts unless and until the governing boards thereof pass an ordinance or order adopting the plan.

A recent ruling given the Comptroller's department by the Attorney General with regard to the payment of 1932 taxes is of vital importance to taxpayers.

If no payment has been made on 1932 taxes, Senate Bill No. 262, which provides for remissions of penalty and interest, will be in effect. However, if first payment is made before July 1, the full penalty and interest will be charged.

Governor Ferguson Appoints Highway Chief

The courts having decided against the confirmation of a senatorial approval of less than two-thirds majority in the Governor's selection of Frank L. Denison as chairman of the state Highway Commission, the Governor Tuesday made a recess appointment of her secretary, John Wood.

The appointment of Mr. Wood will stand until confirmed by the Senate at the next session. He is from Timpon in Shelby county.

A meeting of the Highway Commission has been called for June 19-20 to award contracts of approximately $500,000 on maintenance contracts. The wants of officials over the state will also receive attention on those dates, it is announced.

EVANGELIST E. E. MANNEY

A series of sermon-lectures on "The Signs of the Times" will be given by Rev. E. E. Manney, evangelist, beginning Monday night, June 12, in the building just south of the Antro hotel. Good music and singing will feature the meeting. Manney's ministerial affiliations are with the General Council of the Assemblies of God, but his lectures along prophetic lines are strictly non-sectarian, and all Christian people are asked to attend and cooperate. The meeting is conducted by the E. E. Manney Evangelistic Party of Amarillo, Texas. Services will be at 8:15 each evening.

FEDERAL FUNDS ARE AVAILABLE FOR HIGHWAYS

Governor Ferguson Chairman Of Relief Commission To Handle $23,000,000

The present Highway Commission of Texas loses control of highway work in this state through the succession of the State Rehabilitation and Relief Commission to that authority granted it under the new law.

The new Commission is composed of seven members, three of whom are appointed by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson. She is chairman of the Commission. The relief commission act delegates the expenditure of all federal funds to this Board. The state will not be required to match funds with the federal government because of the fact that the greater portion of the gasoline tax must be placed to the school fund, and to the payment of highway bonds and interest of the various counties.

The only part to be shared by the old Highway Commission is specified as follows: "The State Highway Commission shall furnish information, data and such technical reports as is or may be required."

More than two hundred miles of contemplated highway construction is under consideration in the state at this time. Just how this will be affected is not known at this time. It is believed by some that should the Federal government supply the funds, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads would have the last word in the designation of the routing of new highways.

Others high in the councils of the state are of the opinion that the federal funds will be turned over to the new state commission to be expended according to the best judgment of a majority of the members of the Commission. The sum to be allotted Texas is variously estimated at from $18,000,000 to $23,000,000 and will not have to be repaid, the sum to be deducted from prorata highway allotments in the future.

Buntins Visit Relatives In Old Kentucky Recently

Back again after a visit to the land of big red strawberries and that section famous for tobacco, Fred A. Buntin speaks mightily highly of Kentucky. He tells of the wonderful development going forward, very few vacant business buildings in any of the towns, and a general optimistic mood of the people.

P. A. Buntin accompanied Fred in making his second visit back to his birthplace in 52 years, the other visit being six years back.

Visits were made in and near Lawrenceburg, Shelbyville and Louisville where the elder Mr. Buntin is best known. Fred spoke of relatives of his father and mother "by the thousands" in those sections. They had a wonderful time and came home feeling much better for the vacation.

They were accompanied home by Misses Mary Katherine Moffett and Belva Moffett of Lawrenceburg and nieces of P. A. Buntin and cousins of Fred. "The wind does not blow back there", Fred said Tuesday, "and when these girls met the first daily breeze of Texas they thought they had encountered a cyclone."

Ashtola School Closed On Friday Night

The preliminaries incident to school closing was performed at Ashtola Friday night when an excellent program was rendered in keeping with this, one of Donley's leading rural schools.

R. E. Drennan, principal of Clarendon Junior High, delivered the principal address. Those who heard him compliment the ideas expressed very highly as coming from one of the leading educators of the Panhandle. Mr. Drennan and Mrs. Drennan are now working on their degrees at Norman, Oklahoma's big school.

TERRIFIC HEAT WAVE COVERS ALL PLATEAU STATES

Forecasts For Remainder Of Week Promises Change To Cooler Weather

A cool wave swept down over the states west of the Mississippi Tuesday night bringing relief to crops and a multitude of people who had suffered from one of the most widespread heat waves in years for more than a week. Fourteen deaths were due to heat prostration in Nebraska alone.

The heat wave in Donley reached its intensity Sunday and Monday with the thermometer standing at 106 both days according to Joe Goldston, local government weather recorder.

Crops in this section suffered heavy damage from hot winds and the terrific heat that literally burned up plantings just coming up. Cotton is said to stand more punishment from heat than most anything grown in this section. The late plantings of cotton was literally cooked Sunday and Monday.

High, hot winds has caused a rapid evaporation of moisture extending as far east as the cross timbers, and in most instances causing small grain to ripen immaturely.

Pay Admission With "Hens" See "Womanless Wedding"

Unique plans have been worked out by the Ashtola folks who are sponsoring a play, "The Womanless Wedding" there Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

While money will be most acceptable in exchange for admission, they do more on hens as being more in vogue right now as legal tender. At that the charge is most reasonable.

Reading the announcement is found the fact that three children may see the show solely on the character of one good hen. Meaning poultry of course. Then again, two adults will be admitted for the price of another hen. Hence the family, unless of the Rooseveltian variety, may all see the show for the loss of only two hens as is understood from the announcement.

The show is a comical one and absolutely guaranteed to make one forget the price of admission, hens and otherwise. The folks need song books and ought to have them. The plans are made along a line that is calculated to draw a big crowd. Don't forget the date—Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Open Air Band Concerts To Continue Indefinitely

KILLOUGH WILL MANAGE LOANS IN DONLEY COUNTY

Congressional Appropriation Designed to Save Farms From Foreclosure

It is reported that the first loan from the $200,000,000.00 fund appropriated by Congress to re-finance farm mortgage indebtedness and to aid the farmers to redeem their foreclosed farms, was made in Texas this week. The loan was for the amount of $3,000.00, and was made to a farmer and stockman of Brazoria county, who has resided in that section for a number of years.

A. P. Graves, Agent of the Farm Loan Commissioner, Houston, Texas, reports that although they have been somewhat hampered by a large volume of correspondence addressed to his office, the Texas division is now organized and in position to handle incoming business with dispatch. Mr. C. E. Killough, has been requested to act as his local correspondent for Donley county and all eligible farmers entitled to assistance through this division may call on him, and he will gladly render such assistance as he can.

Bigamy Charge is Lodged Against Groom Man

Bond to the amount of $1,000 was made here this week by Carl Weller of Groom pending Grand Jury action on a charge of bigamy placed against him by Sheriff Pierce. The hearing was had before Judge Hubert Day.

It is alleged that Mr. Weller was married to Miss Edna Stokes of Stinnett in 1927 and who is said to be suing for divorce at this time. It is further alleged that the defendant was married to a young lady of the Goldston community at Sayer, Oklahoma on May 6th of this year.

Infant Daughter of Young Couple Buried Friday

The infant daughter, Annie Fay, of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brown and one of twins born Tuesday of last week, passed away Thursday night. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. N. Shepherd, pastor of the First Baptist church at the W. T. Lowe home Friday.

The mother, formerly Miss Mary Lowe, and her surviving babe are doing nicely at this time.

Rev. C. B. Ingram's May Report is Made

Brother Ingram forgot to tell his friends how far he traveled during the month of May in making his rounds ministering to the spiritual needs of the people.

Four hundred and seventy attended Sunday school where he preached during the month. He preached to a total of 1420 people. He visited in 37 homes, and had 28 professions of faith. The total cash contributions amounted to $3.30 for the month.

Kidnapper and Pals Nabbed at Amarillo

These three men and two women were caught at Amarillo following the sensational kidnaping of Mary McElroy, in a Kansas City, and the payment of her father of $30,000 ransom. The case attracted nationwide attention. From left to right they are: Walter H. McGee, ring leader, who says he is "a cross between a barbed wire fence and a snake"; Lenore and Lawrence Gilbert; Wendell and Hazel Johnson. McGee said he was taking the two couples on a pleasure trip, but that in reality, he needed them to pass the large bills he carried—the ransom. Buying a new car in Amarillo led to the gang's capture. McGee was denied bond and the two couples were exonerated at Kansas City Monday.

Financial Disaster.

It is said that when a party appeared in Amarillo Friday displaying $600 as a purchase price on a car, he was arrested on suspicion. It was felt sure that he was either a pro agent or a bootlegger. Sure enough, he turned out to be a confessed kidnapper. No ordinary citizen is luging around $600 these days.

Republican Amusement.

The following order is being passed out from the office of the Texas Democratic National Committee at Austin this week:

"In accepting for Texas the decision of the Congress and our great President which reflects the judgment of the Democratic party in national convention assembled, we feel that the Democrats of Texas, regardless of their views with respect to prohibition in Texas, with the utmost consistency and without violence to their convictions, can support both repeal and modification."

Ancient Rararium.

Editor Smith of the San Saba News in telling the world about their natural resources, calls attention to a story of a frog recently liberated from a solid block of good old San Saba marble. Just how long the frog had been robbed of his or her liberties by one of Texas' most valuable natural resources, editor Smith does not say.

It is an easy matter to see through the trickery and chicanery of Editor Smith whose interest in frogs is likely overshadowed by his interest in the development of the marble industry of his county.

That Legislature.

Our law-making bodies have finally adjourned and upon the heels of their adjournment comes the intimation that a special session may be necessary to provide funds for rural schools the next term. This matter could have been disposed of during the session of 143 days. At least some will take that view of the matter.

The Fergusons, ever mindful of the interests of the rural schools, and sensing the financial danger arising, suggested a sales tax to provide means for continuing the education of the youth of the rural districts.

Falling in this, they suggested an income tax. This suggestion fell upon deaf ears. Next they suggested a corporation tax on intangible values. This idea was disregarded as were the others. The graduated oil tax met a like fate.

The innocent bystander saw nothing more in the behavior of the lawmakers than petty politics in which the Ferguson administration was made the goat at the expense of the rural schools. At least that is the present status of our rural school affairs, and certainly taxpayers are in no mood to entertain a special session of the lawmakers at this late day.

Uncle Sam Stopped War.

A brainy man is your uncle Samuel, especially when he tires of war made more tiresome because of a lack of a market for his chosen children. Last week the Japs and Chinks signed a truce. That means a halt in their guerilla warfare for mercenary reasons.

Now on the heels of all that encouraging news we learn that good old trusting Uncle Sam, through his RFC board, is to lend China $50,000,000. No, not exactly that either. Jesse H. Jones, who happens to be at the head of the lending committee, says it is a "mere bookkeeping transaction." China is to borrow the money here and leave it with Uncle Sam just as the allied nations did during the world war, and accept goods instead as was done during war times. The goods to be taken by China is said to be 900,000 bales of cotton and 12,000,000 bushels of wheat.

China offers the wheat and cotton as security so long as it is in the storage bins. After that, no one knows what will be offered as security, if anything, except the Almighty, and he's guessing at it. Some months ago this nation donated fifty million bushels of wheat to China with instructions to save the lives of their starving hoards. Did China do it? Not much! China sold the wheat to Russia and pocketed the dough.

The Chinese are a cunning race. So are the Japs. Whether this wheat and cotton will be held by China after the first month is a matter for the Japs to decide. That does not worry Uncle Sams committee. The committee is more interested in finding a market for speculators in American commodities—wheat and cotton. That also is a method originating during the World War.

After all is said and done, the main thing that should interest us is that American taxpayers will foot the bill if China won't. If the Chinks pay like they fight, we might as well remake our budgets and skimp a little more now as farther along.

TAX-COLLECTING MACHINERY GETS IN THE RUNNING

One Million Dollars Loss To School Fund Alone Is Claim State Dept.

Houston, Texas, May 29th—On the last leg of organizing new state-wide special tax-collecting machinery under the emergency laws passed during the current legislative session, State Comptroller George H. Sheppard is in Houston setting up his sixth district office.

Heartened after years of ineffectual efforts by the rigid gasoline tax and cigaret laws put into effect last month, the comptroller is making record progress in the pursuit of tax evaders who, he estimates, have been robbing the state of more than $4,000,000 in gasoline taxes and $1,500,000 in cigaret taxes each year.

As soon as the governor signed the new gas tax law, which for the first time appropriated funds with which he might hire an enforcement force, Comptroller Sheppard hastened to the East Texas oil area, recruited a "flying wedge" and began the check-up of refineries.

The new law requires the keeping of complete interlocking records which permit state agents to follow gasoline from refiner to retailer and check it for tax payment. It also forbids adulteration with kerosene, naphtha and other tax-free fuels unless the filling station posts a sign, "Inferior Motor Fuel", because many dealers have been collecting tax on such blends and turning in tax on only the gasoline portion of them. Violation is now a felony under the new law.

From East Texas, where the comptroller's men preferred many charges which are now being heard by grand jurors and established permanent offices in Longview and Tyler, the "flying wedge" visited Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio before coming to Houston. In each they augmented their force and established an office.

"This is every good citizen's fight," Comptroller Sheppard said. "These men are really tax thieves, for they collect taxes from motorists at their pumps even when they do not turn it into the state. Each year gasoline bootleggers have been robbing us of over $1,000,000 in public school money, $1,000,000 in money to pay off county bonds, and $2,000,000 in road money, for that is the way the gas tax is apportioned. In the same way, cigaret bootleggers have been stealing $1,500,000 yearly in school money.

"When these funds are lost, they have to be made up through some other form of taxation. That's why I say it's every good citizen's fight."

Because the law is new, the comptroller's men are not arresting on their first visit. They are instructing violators on the law and cleaning their premises. The second offense, however, means charges. Every filling station in each district will be visited, the comptroller said, and samples of fuel taken for analysis.

Carnes Finishes Prison Term; Sent to Hospital

Atlanta, June 2.—Having completed his minimum term, Clinton S. Carnes who was charged with embezzling nearly $1,000,000 while treasurer of the home mission board of the Southern Baptist convention, is now at the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Alto for treatment.

Carnes was sentenced on Feb. 5, 1929, to serve from 5 to 7 years in prison after pleading guilty to the embezzlement of $80,000 in bonds, the property of the Baptist Home Mission board. Other charges of embezzlement brought the total amount of his alleged defalcation to $935,000 from the funds of the home board. Nineteen of the other charges were held over against him.

Carnes got time off for good behavior and was released from the Milledgeville penitentiary on March 12 and went to the state tuberculosis sanatorium, it was confirmed Thursday by E. L. Rainey, chairman of the state prison commission, which has supervision of the state penal system.

The charges against Carnes caused a sensation throughout the South. The sensation broke in 1928 and a nation-wide search was made for him after he disappeared. He was arrested in Winnipeg, Canada, and brought back to Atlanta in the fall of 1928.

Carnes had turned over all of his property to the home board and agreed to aid in untangling the affairs of the denomination agency which had occupied the attention of auditors for several months. The board agreed to sentencing of Carnes, stating at the time it would avoid the expense of a trial involving the bringing of witnesses from distant points to Atlanta.

Rev. L. R. Christie, then president of the home mission board, in a statement at the time, referring to Carnes' career said: "The most of the stealing was so far back that the trial was virtually wiped out and the investigators could only discover evidence here and there of such irregularity as to make us know that the stealing had been going on for practically the whole time Carnes was connected with the board."

Carnes was treasurer of the board for approximately 10 years.

The reason the Legislature passed the boxing bill and the racing bill is that when 3-point-2 is voted in August 26th, those who do not want to stand up and fight, can run.—ther'll be no law agin it.

A lady wants to know of us if she can get a divorce from her husband for lying down in the shade of a tree at the end of the cotton rows and sleeping half the day. We told her no! "Yes, but he let the birds pick his eyes out", she said. In that case we agreed to her idea of squaring off with the old boy.

Most all of the first year University students manage to get home with the aid of their parents or somebody bringing them in. Our lop-eared son wanted to beat the average and come all the way himself. He got up to Ft. Worth alright but his Ma had to meet him there. She will bring him on in next Sunday. The second year students never make any attempt to get home. The folks go get 'em. The third year it is worse and the fourth year they generally let the state take 'em over—which means that the poor kids rustle for themselves down there. All higher schools of learning are like that.

The doctor didn't know what was the matter with the GW for two months but he kept right on doctoring her for it. Finally he told her she should have a vacation or a relapse. She took the vacation and the family took a relapse.

Inventor Jim Heckman, president of the Anti-Thumb Jerkers Union has patented an auto accessory that has great promises of a large sale in practically every nation. It is in the nature of a slot door attachment. The driver merely sits still and looks dumb when somebody wants to hook a ride and the "hooker" finally sees the sign on the door, drops a dime into the slot and the door opens. Several have tried this around town as a joke on their friends and have made enough to pay the gas bill. The joke is that the door can't be opened until a dime goes down the slot. It can be changed from the inside to require a quarter, but Jim thinks it best to wait until the "forgotten man" is found and fed up before the price should be raised above a dime.

Knockers are like halitosis. Most of them don't realize it, and it is such a personal affair that their friends don't like to tell 'em about it.

C. J. Talley says an advertisement without prices quoted is like a shirt without a tail. He's tried both and neither gave satisfaction.

Tom Mabry out west of town gave us permission last week to tell the folks that he was formerly from Jack county. In fact he kinda boasted of the affair. Tom was one of the bunch that dug up a snake down there that had a knot in it. It was a chicken snake and Ed Bulls had tied a knot in it just like he would a string, to keep it from sucking eggs. It worked so well that all the folks got to knotting snakes. That is the reason that all Jack county snakes have a knot in them about six inches back of the head.

An old farmer friend said a mouthful Saturday when he suggested that every business man's car parked on the main streets on Saturday ought to have his name on it. Of course this is an oversight. Very few business men would want to crowd their customers out of town on the busiest day, but several have been doing it. The folks driving in should have all the convenient passenger car parking space on Saturday. Let's try to make this change and be a little more thoughtful of the comfort and convenience of the women and children who want to sit in their cars and watch the crowds while they rest. Besides they can load a lot handier when they don't have to carry their stuff several blocks.

Who has the oldest windmill in the county that is in active service? We want to send the Leader free to the prize winner in this event. You older boys remember the old United States mills we used to have to erect. Had a casting that weighed a ton—nearly. Hanging a 24-foot Sampson back gear on an 80-foot tower up on the ballies was no boy's job either.

We want a list of old relics in the county. Please make out a list of what you have, giving the age and a bit of history of each and let us have it. We will explain our purpose when you call at the office. We don't ask you to bring the relics unless you just want to please us by allowing us to see them. A lady here in town has some cloth relics over 400 years old. Anyone, let us know what you have.

"King Solomon and King David lived merry, merry lives, With their many, many concubines, and many, many wives; But when old age o'er took them with its many, many qualms, King Solomon wrote the Proverbs, and King David wrote the Psalms."

Asking a number of pupils to write a sentence using the word "beans", the teacher collected the following:

"My father grows beans."

"My mother cooks beans."

"We are all human beans."

"With all my worldly goods I thee endow" said the bridegroom in his rented suit.

In the great game of life it sometimes happens that the winner is loser. In contests where this is the result, the loser is the winner.

Individual habits and mode of living cannot be changed through threats of another. Neither can supposed wrongs be righted thru criticism. The reason is that those worthy of that much interest, would have the strength of soul and stamina of character that would rebel at being driven. There is that bit of divine independence in most every individual that must be managed through persuasion and aroused affection.

Sacrifice of honor and stultification of conscience are too great a price to pay for anything they will buy.

Listening to a great mind coining words of a minister's message Sunday, he said: "He who would render most service to society at the present time must be industrious enough to make thorough investigations before pronouncing a decision. The lack of sufficient facts on which to base conclusions is the greatest danger that confronts those who would think justly."

"Many a victim of the gossip of the character assassin has bathed her pillow in tears—life's common surcease—because of "man's inhumanity to man" that could have easily been avoided had the tale-bearer taken pains to ascertain the true facts before publishing them to her community."

"The Bible is called the book of Divine guidance, but it also contains about all that is necessary to know of ethics, equity, justice and morality. It has a way of illustrating by example and methods and the penalty paid for their folly"

Dentists in the larger cities provide a moving picture on the ceiling for the victims while occupying the "seat of torture." A necking scene was being played on the ceiling of a St. Louis dentist, and the man in the chair bit the forceps in two.

OUT OF CHAOS

What though the spring be whimsical and dear, And summer wear red roses on her hair; The fires of autumn dance in every wood, And scented fruit and flowers must break apart.

The seasons filter down the screen of years, Within the slow circumference of time, And man may sip his bowl of lonely tears, Or shape his senseless laughter into rime.

The human heart must break, and live again; And weary feet must stumble as they plod; The world is only recreated when The soul of nature struggles up to God. —Hazel Frye Schwentker, in Kaleidograph.

Palo Duro canyon could easily draw 200,000 tourists or more per year, according to the committee in charge of the project.

Facts Call For Correction In School Board List

The Leader failed to get a correct list of the members of the school board last week in naming those who were serving at the time of the erection of the old Grammar school building that is to be dismantled soon.

According to Mr. John T. Sims, who was a member of that Board, the building was erected in 1898. T. S. Bugbee was president of the Board and Rufus Chamberlain was secretary. The other members of the Board were B. T. Ware, Morris Rosenfield and Dave Barnhart.

This information was had through the kindness of Mrs. John T. Sims who has a record of the names of the Board at that time, together with a photograph of the Board, the principal teachers and the contractor in one group.

YOU'RE NOT THE TYPE

I looked for work in early fall, And could not find a part at all. I looked and looked and looked and then

I looked and looked and looked again. And looked and looked and now its spring. And still I haven't anything.

Too fat, too thin, too short, too tall Too blond, too dark, too large, too small.

An office boy my dreams would thwart, "You're not the type," I'd hear him snort.

So then I asked a big producer: "Oh, let me play a part for you sir!"

And as my eye he saw me wive, He yawned and said, "You're not the type."

A playwright next I interviewed, My heart with brightest hopes imbued. He turned away and lit his pipe. And shortly said, "You're not the type."

To an agent then I went My shoes worn out, my money spent. The agent smiled and said, "My dear, "You're not the type," come in next year.

For doubtless then we'll be engaging." And I departed madly raging. And here within my furnished room,

I face at last my awful doom. I'll starve and go (I hope) above, And this is what I'm thinking of— Perhaps if I am very good.

And play my harp as angels should St. Peter will be kind to me, And lend me once his golden key.

I hope to see upon the stair, Imploring for admittance there, Producers, playwrights, agents too, And all the deadly office crew.

And when my familiar face they see, They'll say, "Don't you remember me?" Then from the pearly gates I'll pipe, "Oh, go to hell! You're not the type."

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF TEXAS S. J. R. NO. 3

Be It Resolved By The Legislature Of The State Of Texas:

Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding thereto a section to be Section 3, which shall provide:

"Section 3. (1) Holding the belief that the highest degree of local self government which is consistent with the efficient conduct of those affairs by necessity lodged in the Nation and the State will prove most responsive to the will of the people, and result to reward their diligence and intelligence by greater economy and efficiency in their local governmental affairs, it hereby is ordained:

"(2) Any county having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more according to the then last Federal Census may adopt a County Home Rule Charter, to embrace those powers appropriate hereto, within the specific limitations hereinafter provided. It further is provided that the Legislature, by a favoring vote of two-thirds of the total membership of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, may authorize any county, having a population less than that above specified, to proceed hereunder for the adoption of a Charter; however, as a condition for such authorization, it is required that notice of the intent to seek Legislative authority hereunder must be published in one or more newspapers, to give general circulation in the county affected, not less than once per week for four (4) consecutive weeks, and the first of such publications shall appear not less than thirty (30) days next prior to the time an Act making proposal hereunder may be introduced in the Legislature. No County Home Rule Charter may be adopted by any county save upon a favoring vote of the resident qualified electors of the affected county. In elections submitting to the voters a proposal to adopt a Charter (unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature) the votes cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county shall be separately kept but collectively counted and the votes of the qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town likewise shall be separately kept and separately counted, and unless there be a favoring majority of the votes cast within and favoring majority of the votes cast without such collective cities and towns, the Charter shall not be adopted. It is expressly forbidden that any such Charter may in any way affect the operation of the General Laws of the State relating to the judicial, tax, fiscal, educational, police, highway and health systems or any other department of the State's superior government. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the adoption of a Charter provision inimical to or inconsistent with the sovereignty and established public policies of this State, and no provision having such vice shall have validity as against the State. No Charter provision may operate to impair the exemption of homesteads as established by this Constitution and the Statutes relating thereto."

"(3) a. A Charter hereunder may provide: the continuance of a County Commissioners' Court, as now constituted, to serve as the governing body of a county to operate hereunder; or may provide for a governing body otherwise constituted, which shall be elective, and service therein shall be upon such qualifications, for such terms, under such plan of representation, and upon such conditions of tenure and compensation as may be fixed by any such Charter. The terms for service in such governing body may exceed two (2) years, but shall not exceed six (6) years. In any event, in addition to the powers and duties provided by any such Charter, such governing body shall exercise all powers, and discharge all duties which, in the absence of the provisions hereof, would devolve by law on County Commissioners and County Commissioners' Courts. Further, any such Charter may provide for the organization, reorganization, establishment and administration of the government of the county, including the control and regulation of the performance of and the compensation for all duties required in the conduct of the county affairs, subject to the limitations herein provided.

"b. A Charter hereunder may provide that Judges of County Courts (including that County Court designated in this Constitution), and Justices of the Peace be compensated upon a salary basis in lieu of fees. The jurisdiction of the County Court designated in this Constitution, and the duties of the Judges thereof, may be confined to that general jurisdiction of a probate Court which elsewhere is defined in this Constitution. The office of Justice of the Peace may be made either elective or appointive. Other than as herein provided, no such Charter shall provide for altering the jurisdiction or procedure of any Court. The duties of District Attorney and or County Attorney may be confined to representing the State in civil cases to which the State is a party and to enforcement of the State's Penal Code, and the compensation of said attorneys may be fixed on a salary basis in lieu of fees.

"c. Save as hereinabove and hereinafter otherwise provided, such Charters, within the limits expressed therein, may invest the governing body to be established for any county electing to operate hereunder with the power to create, consolidate or abolish any office or department, whether created by other provisions of the Constitution or by statute, define the duties thereof, fix the compensation for service therein, make the same elective or appointive and prescribe the time, qualifications and conditions for tenure in any such office; save, that no such Charter other than as hereinbefore authorized, shall provide to regulate the status, service, duties or compensation of members of the Legislature, Judges of the Courts, District Attorneys, County Attorneys, or any office whatever by the law of the State required to be filled by an election embracing more than one county. Excepting herefrom nominations, elections or appointments to offices, the terms whereof may not have expired prior to the adoption of this Amendment to the Constitution, at such time as a Charter provision adopted hereunder may be in effect (save as to those offices which must continue to be elective, as herein elsewhere specified), all terms of county officers and all contracts for the giving of service by deputies under such officers, may be subject to termination by the administrative body of the county, under an adopted Charter so providing, and there shall be no liability by reason thereof.

"d. Any county electing to operate hereunder shall have the power, by Charter provision, to levy, assess and collect taxes, and to fix the maximum rate for ad valorem taxes to be levied for specific purposes, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State, provided, however, that the limit of the aggregate taxes which may be levied, assessed and collected hereunder shall not exceed the limit or total fixed, or hereafter to be fixed, by this Constitution to control counties, and the annual assessment upon property, both real, personal and mixed, shall be a first superior and prior lien thereon.

"e. In addition to the powers herein provided, and in addition to powers included in County Home Rule Charters, any county may, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said county, amend its Charter to include other powers, functions, duties and rights which now or hereafter may be provided by this Constitution and the statutes of the State for counties.

"(4) Any county operating hereunder shall have the power to borrow money for all purposes lawful under its Charter, to include the refunding of a lawful debt, in a manner conforming to the General Laws of the State, and may issue therefor its obligations. Such obligations, other than those to refund a lawful debt, shall not be valid unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by those residents qualified voters of the area affected by the taxes required to retire such obligations, who may vote thereon. In case of county obligations, maturing after a period of five (5) years, the same shall be issued to mature serially, fixing the first maturity of principal at a time not to exceed two (2) years next after the date of the issuance of such obligations. Such obligations may pledge the full faith and credit of the county; but in no event shall the aggregate obligations so issued, in principal amount outstanding at any one time, exceed the then existing Constitutional limits for such obligations and such indebtedness and its supporting tax shall constitute a first and superior lien upon the property taxable in such county. No obligation issued hereunder shall be valid unless prior to the time of the issuance thereof there be levied a tax sufficient to retire the same as it matures, which tax shall not exceed the then existing Constitutional limits.

"(5) Such Charter may authorize the governing body of a county operating hereunder to prescribe the schedule of fees to be charged by the officers of the county for specified service, to be in lieu of the schedule for such fees prescribed by the General Laws of the State; and, to appropriate such fees to such funds as the Charter may prescribe; provided, however, no fee for a specified service shall exceed in amount the fee fixed by General Law for that same service. Such Charters as to all judicial officers, other than District Judges, may prescribe the qualifications for service, provided the standards therefor be not lower than those fixed by the General Laws of the State.

"(6) a. Subject to the express limitations upon the exercise of the powers by this subdivision to be authorized, such Charters may provide (or omit to provide) that the governmental and or proprietary functions of any city, town, district or other defined political subdivision (which is a governmental agency and embraced within the boundaries of the county) be transferred, either as to some or all of the functions thereof, and yielded to the control of the administrative body of the county. No such transfer or yielding of functions may be effected, unless the proposal is submitted to a vote of the people, and, unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature, such a proposal shall be submitted as a separate issue, and the vote within and without any such city, town, district, or other defined governmental entity, shall be separately cast and counted, and unless two-thirds of the qualified votes cast within the yielding defined governmental entity, and a majority of the qualified votes cast in the remainder of the county, favor the proposed merger, it shall not be effected. In case of the mergers hereby authorized, without express Charter provision therefor, in so far as may be required to make effective the object of the proposed merger, the county shall succeed to all the appropriate lawful powers, duties, rights, procedures, restrictions and limitations which prior to the merger were reposed in, or imposed upon, the yielding governmental agency. Particularly, it is provided that the power to create funded indebtedness and to levy taxes in support thereof may be exercised only by such procedures, and within such limits, as now are, or hereafter may be, provided by law to control such appropriate other governmental agencies were they to be independently administered. Such mergers may be effected under proposed contracts between the county and any such yielding governmental agency, to be approved at an election as hereinbefore provided for. In order to increase governmental efficiency and effect economy the county may contract with the principal city of the county to perform one or more of its functions, provided such contracts shall not be valid for more than two (2) years.

"b. In cases of the partial or complete merger of the government of a city operating under a Home Rule Charter, with the government of a county operating hereunder, those city Charter provisions affected thereby shall cease to control, and the county Charter provisions shall control.

"c. When any embraced incorporated city or town elects to merge its governmental functions with those of the county under the provisions hereof, such Charter may provide for defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, provided, however, that in defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, such boundaries may be extended only to include those areas contiguous to such cities as are urban in character; and as to such cities or towns and for the benefit thereof the county, in addition to the primary city and county tax herein authorized and any other lawful district tax, may levy and collect taxes upon the property taxable within such city or town as defined or redefined, within the limits authorized by Sections 4 and 5 of Article XI of this Constitution, (or any Amendment thereof) for incorporated cities according to the population, provided that no tax greater than that existing at the time of such merger or for any added purpose shall be imposed upon any such city or town unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by the resident qualified voters of such city or town.

"d. Areas urban in character though not incorporated, under appropriate Charter provision may be defined as such by the governing body of the county, provided, however, that no portion of the county shall be defined as an urban area unless it has sufficient population to entitle it to incorporate under the then existing laws of the State; and no such urban area, when created, shall be vested with any taxing or bonding power which it would not possess if it were operating as a separate incorporated unit under the then existing Constitutional and Statutory provisions of this State; and provided further that the governing body of the county for the government of such areas shall have and exercise all powers and authority granted by law to the governing bodies of similar areas when separately incorporated as a city or town, and such areas shall be subject to additional taxation within the same Constitutional limits as control taxation for a city or town of like population. Likewise such Charter may provide for the governing board of the county subject to existing Constitutional and statutory provisions to define, create and administer districts, and have and exercise the powers and authority granted by the Constitution and laws relative to the same.

"(7) No provision of this Constitution inconsistent with the provisions of this Section 3, of Article IX, shall be held to control the provisions of a Charter adopted hereunder, and conforming herewith. Charters adopted hereunder shall make appropriate provision for the abandonment, revocation, and amendment thereof, subject only to the requirements that there must be a favoring majority of the vote cast upon such a proposal, by the qualified resident electors of the county; and, no Charter may forbid amendments thereof for a time greater than two (2) years. The provisions hereof shall be self-executing, subject only to the duty of the Legislature to pass all laws (consistent herewith) which may be necessary to carry out the intent and purpose hereof. Further, the Legislature shall prescribe a procedure for submitting to election, by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon, proposed alternate and elective Charter provisions."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"For the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more sufficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

"Against the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more efficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

Each voter shall scratch out one of the above listed clauses on such ballot, leaving unscratched that particular clause which expresses his vote on the proposed Amendment to which it relates.

Section 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election in conformity herewith to determine whether or not the proposed Constitutional Amendment set forth herein shall be adopted, and the Governor shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Our Weekly CHURCH CHAT

Minister First Christian Church

"The Atonement"
The central doctrine of Christianity is the atonement. Take that away, and you obliterate Christianity. If Christianity is merely the imitation of Christ, why, then, the imitation of any other good man, the apostle Paul or John, might become a kind of religion or Christianity. If Christianity were merely martyrdom for truth, then, with the exception of a certain amount of degree, I see no difference between the death of Socrates and the death of Jesus Christ. But Christianity is more than this. It is the at-one-ment of the soul. It is a reconciliation which the life and death of Jesus Christ have wrought out for this world—the reconciliation of man to God, the reconciliation of man to man, the reconciliation of man to self, and the reconciliation of man to his duties.

If you have not found Christ crucified is the foundation of the whole volume, you have read your Bible to very little profit. Your religion is a heaven without a sun, an arch without a keystone, a compass without a needle, a clock without springs, a lamp without oil; it will not comfort you, nor deliver your soul from destruction.

God would have all men everywhere know the story of the atonement and sent Jesus into the world to complete the plans and program that the good news might be carried to all peoples of every kindred tribe and tongue. God wants the good news of how reconciliation can be secured made known to every one, and the church was organized and its members sent forth to make this message known. The souls of men are the most precious things in the universe and they should know God's will and desire, regarding their value and how they might be saved. The atonement of Christ makes it possible for all men to obtain salvation for their souls. Christ died for sin. Believers die to sin. Unbelievers die in sin.

Our Sunday sermons will contain some interesting lessons on the souls of men. Sunday morning our subject will be, "Watching for Souls." Sunday night it will be "The Keeper of Souls."

HIGHWAY PUNCTURES

By The Flat Tire

(This column is being edited by Lynn Ray, filling station attendant who picks up his interesting bit of highway gossip from the folks as they pass through.)

Jake Sherman, Miles City, Mon., cattleman, stopped on his way to Ft. Worth and complimented the local advantages for cattle raising. "With the supply of native grass and the climate you all have down here, would think it would be an ideal country for cattle. Up in our country we have plenty of grass but it gets so cold and the winters are so long that it costs entirely too much to make very good on your stock. And the feed you could raise here would certainly help a lot, too."

Reed C. Manning, Norfolk, Va., reports an increase in business in the last sixty days. "We should see a marked change by September if prices continue to rise and the unemployed go back to steady uplifting work."

A. L. McArthur, Wilmington, Delaware was very well pleased with the Panhandle and Donley Co. "I think the future of our greatest farming and dairying developments will be made in this section of the country within the next few years. West Texas has never started to develop her natural resources."

And now we get a slap right in the face from Elmer H. Johnson of Salt Lake City, Utah, who came busting in and asked: "Why in the world don't you people build some roads that's fit to travel? I have come all the way from Salt Lake City to here and the last ten miles has been the worst roads I have come over. This is a good looking country and you have a nice looking little town here, but your roads ruin it all. If you would build them up so the traveling public could use them, everything would be fine, but as they are, they ruin it all."

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just clogs in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes three good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and enable you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, soothing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't sell for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Repeat a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931, C. M. Co.

SOME TYPES SHOULD WEAR ONLY CURVES

Of far more importance than the mere selection of a hat, a collar or the proper neckline, is the selection of the model frame and shape of lenses to be worn when eye-glasses are necessary to good vision - - - We have long specified in the fitting of eye-glasses to different type faces - - - The curved line face should wear only curved line frame and lenses - - - the angular line face may well adopt the angle line frame of lenses.

EX-SERVICE MEN ARE INCLUDED IN FORESTRY ARMY

Comamnder Kerbow of Local Post Supplies Needed Information

By request of the local Post commander, the Leader is publishing this information for the benefit of the ex-service men who may come within the scope allotted them by their government.

The statement of information is as follows:

Texas has been given a quota of 1175 Veterans. Of this number seven percent will be Veterans of wars prior to the World War and the remaining ninety-three percent will be selected from applications received from World War Veterans Veterans of wars prior to the World War will be selected from the State at large and the selection of World War Veterans will be determined by county quotas. The quota of the county will be set by the aMnager of the Regional Office having jurisdiction and will be approximately one Veteran for each five thousand population as shown by the 1930 census, so you can easily figure how many will be accepted from your county.

Veterans in order to be eligible to be considered by the Manager in making selections must meet the following requirements:

Served in the armed forces of the United States during time of war and honorably discharged from such service.

Be a citizen of the United States unemployed and physically able to perform ordinary manual labor in work camps and be free from active or communicable diseases including venereal disease.

Good character and general fitness are required and preferential consideration will be given to the unemployed Veterans who have dependents to support.

The procedure is as follows:

Veterans must secure from the Regional Office having jurisdiction application blanks which must be filled out in duplicate and returned to the Regional Office. An application must have the endorsement of four people, one of whom must be a representative of an organization engaged in relief work such as the American Red Cross. Other signatures may be obtained from officers of Veterans organizations.

At this camp the hours of work will be eight hours a day, including travel two and from work, and lunch hour, for five days a week or total of forty hours a week. Many activities for recreation will be provided at the camp. There will be religious services on Sunday. Permission to leave Camp for a limited time outside of working hours may be granted and visitors may be permitted to visit the camp. Medical care and hospital care, when needed, will be provided. At the end of six months period of enrollment the Veteran will turn in the equipment issued to him and will be sent back to his home (place of selection) at Government expense.

The basic allowance will be thirty dollars ($30.00) per month and will begin the date the Veteran takes the oath and finally accepted and enrolled.

Since there is no provision for expenses of Veterans from their homes to the Army Recruiting Stations some sort of co-operation by the Legion Posts in this matter might be advisable.

For any information write the Regional aMnager of the Veterans Administration in whose territory you reside.

Find Woman in Box Car; Son is Born

Attracted by screams, C. H. Long and Ham Scott found in a box car on their eastbound freight about noon Friday, a woman giving her name as Mrs. Ed Watts and her age as 22, in labour pains. The train had just pulled into the Dalhart yards. County Health officer Dr. Chas. Todd was summoned, and at 2 p. m. an eight-pound boy was born in Loretto hospital.

According to the story Mrs. Watts and her husband, 23 years of age, were enroute from Alabama to her sister's home in Tucumcari. The only thing that might be called bedding was an old piece of canvas on which Mrs. Watts lay.

Local Druggist is Wanting Rattlesnake Rattles

Prof. L. F. Sheffy of the Panhandle-Plains Museum of Canyon has designated Jerome Stocking as collector of rattlesnake rattles of this district. Nothing is to be paid for the rattles as they are to be a free will offering to the museum. Quite a number have already been brought to the Stocking drug store and given Mr. Stocking. Those contributing will be given honorable mention by the proper officials.

Mr. Stocking stated Wednesday that the famous Ballowe collection of rattles of the Shoe-Bar ranch had been given the museum as a part of the collection from here. This collection comprises over 400 select specimens.

The rattles will be nicely arranged within a glass-covered frame 6x6 feet and hung on the wall of the museum after being treated with arsenic to insure their protection against insect destruction. Bring in your rattles now.

Panhandle Refining Company Opens Office Down Town

Mr. Gamblin announces that pumps will be installed for retail service within a few days. In the meantime, he reports a good business in the wholesale line of gasoline, kerosene, greases and other products of his company.

City Marshall is Between Rock And Hard Place

City Marshall Flop Pyle, generally genial and patient with the public and capable of warding off vexation to the 'nth degree, is now caught between the proverbial rock and a hard place.

Quite a number of the citizens of the town vow that a hog pen does not give off the aroma of peaches during these hot days. Some have gone so far as to declare that a mudhole in a hog pen is of a volatile character most objectionable.

Then there are those who just naturally object to a cow grazing around town simply because the average cow is not trained to eat only goldenrod or dandelion or some other objectionable yard nuisance.

Summing it all up, those pestered with both hogs and cows are demanding action. Not only that, but they cite the City Marshall to the fact that an ordinance of the city makes such offenses as enumerated above, punishable by a fine.

Taking an inventory of the financial situation in conjunction with a mind that is peaceful if anything, the City aMrshall would much prefer that the hog and cow owners take action without any assistance from him. On the other hand, he declares that he must act if the owners of the stock do not act first. He wants to issue this warning that hog pens must be kept clean, and bossies must stay in their own back yard under penalty of the law.

29-Foot Auto Cylinder Wins Special Attention At Chicago World Fair

One of the world's largest automobile cylinders is displayed at the Century of Progress in Chicago, Illinois. Measuring 29 feet in height this huge moving exhibit represents one of the many features of the Gulf Refining Company's display. In the cylinder a large piston operates, showing, with the aid of lights, intake and exhaust and emphasizing the fact that "fresh gas packs power."

Made of aluminum alloy, the Gulf cylinder is an exact copy of the modern cylinder. At the base of this display three shelves rotate. The shelves hold interesting miniature models of an airplane, a racing car, and a motor boat. Other eye-catchers of this particular section of the Gulf Exhibit include a cut-away Chrysler marine engine, an Evinruid outboard motor which established a world's record, a Westinghouse Farm Lighting Engine, and a Cummings Diesel engine.

Miss Martha Buttrill has accepted a position for a months demonstration work in Dallam, Hartley and Sherman Counties. This will keep her in the north west counties of the state during June, according to word received by Mrs. O. L. Fink this week.

Labor is Need For Highway Construction in Texas

HOUSTON, Texas, June 2nd.—Hope that Texas may share in the government's public works program through allotment of some of these federal funds for road-building is contained in late advices from Washington, W. O. Huggins, president of the Texas Good Roads Association, said today.

"That President Roosevelt and his administration would soon come to recognize the continuation, even the increase of highway construction, as the most important part of a general public works program, was really to be expected," the road leader said.

"Very recently it has been pressed upon the national administration that diminished highway construction would create a new unemployment situation for which we are wholly unprepared. It was urged that on the other hand it is the soundest of all expenditures for public works, and the only one of them which is self-liquidating in principle. Self-liquidating because the highways of the United States are the only government enterprise which is paying its own way. They are doing that and helping other things besides.

"It was but natural that Texas should feel disappointment that it could not be included in the program for national parks and reforestation of government lands. It could not be because of the lack of national parks in Texas, and because in entering the Union, Texas retained title to its own public lands.

"With determination and persistence, the Texas Good Roads Association and others interested in the highways and the unemployment situation in Texas have urged these facts upon our representatives in Washington, and others in authority there. Our efforts are beginning to bear fruit.

"It is too soon to know what form the new federal highway appropriation will take. Heretofore, none has been made except to match dollars with the states in construction of federal highways traversing those states. The law now limits the federally-designed highways to 15% of the state-designated highways. Texas has, at this time, the limit of her federal quota. So whatever form the new highway legislation takes in congress, we may be sure that those states which do not divert their own highway revenues away from highway building will be best prepared and first in line to receive the benefits."

As proof, Judge Huggins pointed to recent statements by the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture that states which divert their own road-money will be regarded in Washington as having the least need of federal help.
