HUMAN MISERY vs. LARGER DIVIDENDS.

"To Printing and Publishing Trade Employees:

Workers employed in the printing and publishing industry in Texas should carefully study the Constitutional amendments to be voted on next August 24th in order to cast an intelligent ballot on election day.

If approved at the polls, one proposal will permit the Legislature to levy a tax of approximately $42,000,000 each year to pay 232,459 citizens who are 65 years old and over an annual pension of $180.

Federal Census reports recently released in Washington show that there are 2,206,767 persons in Texas who are gainfully occupied.

They will have to be taxed an equivalent of $20. per capita, per annum to meet the cost of these pensions.

The Census Reports show that the printing and publishing industry of Texas furnishes employment to 13,769. Figures giving the ages of all these employees by groups are not available but a check of the 4,324 typesetters, linotypers and compositors revealed that there were only 85 among them who were 65 years old and over.

This same ratio applied to all employees of the printing industry would indicate that there are not more than 270 in the entire industry 65 years of age and over.

To tax 13,769 printing trade employees $20. a year in order that 270 of their number might draw a pension of $180. a year from the State is a pretty heavy financial burden for this particular group.

The old age pension amendment will be the first one on the ballot in the August 24th election.

Another undesirable amendment is the proposal which will appear in fourth place on the ballot. It would permit the Legislature, with the approval of the Governor, to submit amendments to the State Constitution in any special session of that body. As it is they can only be submitted in regular sessions and it should remain that way.

If the Legislature is permitted to submit Constitutional changes during special or called sessions then prohibition will be constantly agitated to the probable exclusion of needed constructive legislation.

To vote against these two proposals scratch the paragraph beginning with the word "FOR" in the first and fourth amendments as they appear on the official ballot.

Copies for Free Distribution—Texas Tax Relief Committee, Houston, Texas.

The above "yelp for help" comes from a band of large property owners who protest against the old age pension. The "Yelp" is printed in a mimeographed sheet that denied to the printer a job. They even overlooked the deserving typist. Yet the appeal is made directly to the prejudice and ignorance of the printing fraternity.

Since they have no better plan to offer, they mean "to hell with the aged, the sick and the crippled of over 65 years."

There was a time when government soldiers fought in the far-flung wilderness of the west against Indians. They were paid, fed, clothed and pensioned under certain conditions. But they "went back east" when the fighting was done.

The pioneers, which constitute most of those eligible under the proposed pension law, came and provided their own necessities such as they were. They fought Indians and "staid" to carve from the wilderness the empire which we know and love today.

Mothers sat at the door of a hovel called home, made sacred only by her presence, with song lulled to sleep great men and women and honored citizens of the future when fear was her only neighbor and the howl of wild beasts her only accompaniment.

Fathers denied themselves everything in the form of luxury and endured hardships in gathering together stock and improvements for the home that became the mile post in America's most hotly contested section against savages, outlaws and periodical drouth.

Now in the sunset of life, grown weary with age and the battle against seeming odds, it is not our "duty" but our "privilege" to permit them to get from the few remaining years a bit of pleasure. To relieve them from actual want in some instances, to provide medical attention in many instances. They ask nothing, these brave soldiers in the battle against adversity, but we may pay them $15 a month, a pitifully small sum for trail-blazing in the southwest. Other states back east pay more where the obligation is nothing compared to ours of Texas.

THE BABE AT A MOTHER'S BREAST

This world is full of the beautiful On which admiring eyes may rest—

To me, the sight most beautiful Is the babe at a mother's breast.

The grandeur of the twinkling stars

The moon-lit stream at peace and rest,

Are beautiful, but can't compare To the babe at a mother's breast.

There's beauty in the rising sun, And too, when it sinks in the west—

But still, of all things most beautiful

Is the babe at a mother's breast.

There's beauty in the song of birds And when, in faith, they leave their nest,

But sweeter yet, if I may judge, Is the babe at a mother breast.

When God made all the beautiful And then its loveliness He blest, I'm sure He thought "the best I have

Is the babe at a mother's breast."

Relief Measures Helping In Erosion Work

Austin, June 17.—With more than $286,000 already disbursed for materials used in the control of wind erosion in Northwest Texas, officials of the Texas Relief Commission expect the total expenditure to run well in excess of $400,000(they said this week.

Although the program will end June 30, it is expected that several weeks will elapse before all orders for feed and fuel used in the program will be paid.

Since 10 cents per acre was allowed participating farmers, expenditures of $400,000 in the program will mean that four million acres of Panhandle and Plains land have been listed to prevent its blowing away.

Plans for the program were formulated by Dr. O. B. Martin, director of the Extension Service, A&M College, and work actually was supervised by county agents in the affected area.

NAYLOR (Mrs. R. Bowlin)

Our school closed Friday. The program was presented Thursday night, and a most excellent one, enjoyed by all. Each pupil rendered their part well, showing that the teachers spared no pains or time in teaching them. Friday the ball game was enjoyed, the boys playing the married men, the boys winning the game. After the game the picnic supper was enjoyed to the fullest extent.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH

Bob McGowan, the popular Lella Lake barber says that he is the best barber and has the finest shop between Hedley and Clarendon.

A lack of reflectors on the marker posts at each end of the culvert about a mile west of Lella Thursday night caused the death of a young man of Texline. Instead of turning at the curve, he plunged his machine into a deep ditch. After a similar death west of town, reflectors were placed on the markers at the culverts. Is it possible that it will require a death each few miles before the highway department will spend a few cents to protect the motoring public at night?

C. F. Bogard says he knows Martin Dies who is to speak over the radio Friday, and that he is a good speaker. Congressman Dies will speak on the "Alien Menace," something we should all hear, and lawmakers heed. Tune in on any NBC station tomorrow night at 9:30 to 10 o'clock.

A man who expects to get by on his granddaddy's reputation, keeps his eyes on the past and backs into the future, as it were.

Fellows who never raised a protest against a bootlegger in their lives, or voted to convict one when serving on a jury, will run "wild" during a campaign in helping the "pros" during a likker campaign. He is a moral coward, nothing else. He drinks with one crowd and toots 'em up for another.

Here comes a howl from the Texas Tax Relief Committee which has its headquarters in the Kirby building in Houston. John H. Kirby may have something to do with it, likely he did as he has thousands of acres of taxable timber lands in the sawmill belt. The main theme of this circular letter is to ask the printers to fight the old age pension amendment proposal coming up for a vote this summer.

In the first place it is pointed out that not more than 270 printers will be benefitted by the pension plan if passed, the others being under 65 years of age. An appeal to the prejudice of the printing fraternity is a direct reflection upon the profession. They are supposed to be dumb and ignorant, by the Tax Relief Committee at least.

When did it become necessary for a man to become a printer to be entitled to any consideration when he reaches 65?

This howl from headquarters goes on to state that every worker in the state will be taxed $20 each to pay the pension which will be paid to approximately 232,459 worthy citizens, for others would not be eligible. Only good citizens may draw a pension under the proposed law.

Last and final, this appeal to our prejudice was printed on a mimeograph to beat the printer, yet we are asked to help that bunch of tax dodgers defeat the last ray of hope for thousands of worthy old men and women of our state.

Personally speaking, they may have robbed the state of a rich heritage in skinning the pine forests off the surface of east Texas, but they can't steal my vote under a subterfuge of prejudice to skin the old and helpless. Besides, it won't cost us $20 a head to take care of the aged.

Some day we may learn to distinguish between knowledge and opinion. There is a vast difference between a "fact" and a mere "notion" about anything.

Graham, Texas citizens are advertising that they will celebrate 85 years of law enforcement July 4th. Old timers will smile when they hear it. Cattle stealing was so rampant in that section that the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association was formed on February 17, 1877. The loss of range cattle was something, but it finally got to where a milk cow had to be kept under lock and key to insure her staying where she could be milked. That was not 85 years ago either. One of the organizers of the Association that held cattle theft in check was Uncle Joe Graham, and few better men ever lived than he despite his rough exterior. He moved his ranching interests to New Mexico in later years when the cattle stealing quieted down to permit his venture, and the old man passed his last days in Lea county, a section notorious for cattle theft as late as 1918. It was the custom back in those "good old days" for a man with a little money to hire thieves to steal for him. After he got a big herd started, he always had a "change of heart" and wanted stealing to stop. Men rode for $20 a month with an iron ring tied on the saddle. When he saw a "maverick" (unbranded calf or yearling), he built a fire, roped the brute and with the aid of a banded green limb of a mesquite bush, he handled the hot ring nicely in fashioning the brand of his master—the man who was too good to steal for himself, but hired it done. Not all old time cowmen were guilty, but a lot of them got their start that way. Often brands were "burned" by branding over an old brand.

Bachelor Bill in speaking of a new acquaintance summed her up by saying "that gal has mean eyes—breach of promise in one and alimony in the other."

Oklahoma takes the lead again. You can get a pretty accurate estimate of the value they place on their women when they give a doctor "four" years for killing "six" of them.

Chas. Lindbergh lives in a frost while Amelia Earhart bubbles over with a warmth of friendship for any one. Charley was made a colonel for being cold. Amelia never even got her head combed, though she has done far more dangerous ocean flying than Charley ever will do.

Fannye Failure is down in the dumps about our July 4th outfit. She expected to spread her stuff as a pioneer until she learned that she never lived in a half dugout or even a "soddy." Her grandmother gathered and sold enough buffalo bones to build a 2-room plank house long before Fannye was born.

One end of a man is just as valuable as the other. His head tells him where to go, and his feet take him there. I once knew a man who went out to see if he could find some one who would chop off his blamed feet.

President Wilson did not surround himself with college professors. He knew that bunch.

They are having some real floods in the south end, and especially around San Antonio. It will give the Federal Flood Control boys something tangible to experiment on. Then there was a classified ad in the S. A. paper that read: "To exchange, set of golf clubs for hip boots, size 11."

Pre-Centennial celebration in Clarendon July 4th. Until then, adios.

CHURCH CHAT

W. E. FERRELL
Minister First Christian Church

"The Principal Thing."
"But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." Matt. 6:33.

This familiar verse is an example of the divine rectifyings of human calculations. It is a distinct call upon us to put first things first. A good man over eighty years of age, speaking of the forces which had contributed to prolong his life and strength said, "I have made religion the principal thing in my life." He had been a consistent Christian for more than sixty years. He knew where to place religion. He knew its importance. With him, prayer, spiritual life, Christianity and Christian character were not used to accomplish some worldly end. He was not religious merely to get to heaven. With him religion was really important and he clung to it more tenaciously than to anything else. It was indeed the principal thing.

I. Some people do not give religion any place in their lives. They distinctly and sometimes deliberately, fail to find or to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. They don't want religion. They think they can do without it. They have other aims which they consider higher and more important. This class of people are greater in number than we think.

II. Some people give religion some place, but not much place, in their lives. They hold it to a certain extent in esteem, but they do not make it the principal thing. They think more of something else. They devote more time to something else. They give more money to something else. Their religion occupies a very obscure corner and is not the principal thing.

III. The only way in which we can obey God and act wisely is to do exactly what we are told, and to put first things first, make religion the principal thing, give it the chief place in our lives.

Put Christianity first, because this is the place the Bible gives it.

The Bible puts religion before pleasure, wealth, fame, education, friends or kindred. It is absolutely the first thing. A religion that is not above all else is not the religion taught in the Bible. We should put it first in regards to time. We are neither to put it off nor allow anything else to get ahead of it. Make it first as a matter of importance, the principal thing.

INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING TEXAS HISTORY IN AN EARLY EXCITING EPOCH

"Good order, good conduct and gentlemanly deportment" were expected at all times from Texas soldiers in the Confederate army, it is evident from the official orders of army officials found in the collection of James Barry Buckner papers in the University of Texas archives. Buckner, a colorful soldier, patriot, statesman in the early Republic days and the later days of statehood, on March 25, 1861, was appointed a captain to raise a Texas company for the service of the Confederate States. In this capacity, as well as in the numerous posts he held in the service of Texas, Buckner carefully preserved the official documents and other papers that came into his hands, so that his family archives in the University library present one of the most complete and detailed pictures extant of the Civil War period in Texas.

One of these early communications was a regimental order addressed to Captain Buckner by Col. H. E. McCulloch of the Volunteer Army of Texas, instructing him as to the personnel of his company:

"You are hereby authorized to proceed at once to enroll a company of Mounted Volunteers to consist of one captain, one first lieutenant, two second lieutenants, four sergeants, four corporals, two buglers, one farrier, one blacksmith, and four forty four to sixty four privates—The men will elect the commissioned officer, and the captains to appoint the non-commissioned officers. Bugler, farrier, and blacksmith. The men must be over 18 and under 45 years of age, sound and healthy and as far as possible good riders and good marksmen and of good moral character and steady sober habits! And in no instance will you enroll a professional gambler or habitual drunkard, as such men are unworthy of and unfit for place in our service. The horses must be of good size, not less than 5 nor more than 10 years old, and in good condition; saddles must be on the Texas style, good and strongly rigged with good blanket and a good strong, single reined Curt bridle. Each man will provide himself with a Colts six shooting pistol if possible, and, when it can be conveniently done, have a good double barreled shot gun or short rifle with him also. Each man should enter the service with a tin canteen, covered with cloth, a gallon of water, each man a good heavy blanket. The officers and men will be entitled to the same pay and allowances allowed Volunteers in the Army of the 'Confederate States' and subject to the same rules and government. You will rendezvous at such places as you desire and organize the Company in time to report at Camp Cooper on the 4th day of May next. Where your Company will be mustered into the service of the 'Confederate States' for twelve months unless sooner discharged. The Lt. Colonel and Major will be elected by the regiment after they are received into service. The utmost good order and good conduct is expected of your Company in passing through the Country, and no unnecessary interference with the persons or property of the Citizens of the Country or others will be justified or excused by me under any circumstances. The pay and subsistence of your men will commence on the day of your Company rendezvous and your rations and forage commuted (I presume) from that time until you are supplied by the Government. I confidently expect you to bring into the service a Company of which Texas will be proud, and that will nobly sustain her reputation in the service of the 'Confederate States.'"

Card playing on the part of the Texas volunteers was prohibited in Regimental orders No. 12, issued by Colonel McCulloch on July 13, 1861:

"No order having been issued heretofore prohibiting card playing for amusement and advantage being taken by some persons in the eRegiment to convert the privilege into the means of gambling, it is necessary to put a stop to the practice and it is hereby ordered that no card playing for amusement or otherwise be permitted at any Post Station or camp, or in any Company squad, or detachment in the Regiment by officers non commissioned officers or men.

"Should any of the troops so far forget themselves their homes and country as to commit any deceptions on the stock fields, fruits, gardens &c, of any of the citizens of the country, the offenders must be punished by their commanding officers at once in the most rigid manner which their offenses merit, and any officer failing to carry out this order strictly and reasonably will be held accountable for neglect of duty under it and treated accordingly."

These regulations not having proved sufficiently stringent to keep the Texans in the straight and narrow path, the colonel found it necessary to issue the still stronger Regimental Orders No. 20, on December 5, 1861:

"No Horse racing, cardplaying, or gambling of any character will be permitted in the Regiment by officers non-commissioned officers or men.

"No Sutler, or other person who has permission to sell goods or other supplies to the troops will be permitted to sell cards or liquor, to either officers, non-commissioned officers or soldiers, except for medical purposes on the certificate of a surgeon or physician of the Regiment.

"The paymaster will not pay, or respect the claims hereafter accruing of any person who sells cards or liquor to the troops contrary to this Order; and the officers of the Regiment are directed to use their best efforts to prevent the payment of claims to any such person;

"The Commanders of Companies will enter into contract with the physicians serving with their companies (where they have not been appointed by the President or previously contracted with by me) at the rate of $100 per month to date from the commencement of their service; these contracts will be made in quintuplicate, according to the forms laid down in the regulations, and forwarded to the Commanding Officers of the Regiment for his approval."

"My mother and I sold eggs to pay for my bedroom improvements which cost $7.30," reports a young bedroom demonstrator from Rusk county.

Examination of the improvement achieved with that expenditure indicates that this young person has learned early that ability, initiative and industry are effective supplements to cash.

The list includes a new mattress, home-made from home-grown cotton; mattress and spring covers made from washed and bleached sugar and fertilizer sacks; book shelves made from scrap lumber; the floor refinished with "crank case oil" and waxed; new shades; new curtains; and old furniture refinished.

Six hundred and eighty-two 4-H club girls in 80 counties are entered in an improved bedroom contest, and 11,365 4-H club girls are cooperating with them and improving their bedrooms in definite agreed-upon ways. In this work they learn not only to make the most of what they have, but the principles involved in making a comfortable and healthful bedroom. From a young bedroom demonstrator in Johnson county we get this—"It is important to have circulation of air in the bedroom", and to accomplish this she has put stops on the top sashes of the windows so that they may be lowered from the top as well as from the bottom.

Clothes closets also have the approval of these 4-H club girls. From Collingsworth county this comes—"Daddy says I am as proud of my closet as he was of his first pair of long trousers"—and that story describes how "Daddy" made the closet for his young daughter out of ship-lap covered with paste board boxes and papered with cream colored building paper. The top part was separated off as a storage place for quilts. Shelves for linens and hats, a soiled clothes bin and a rod for clothes hangers completed the job.

Chevrolet "Red Tag" Sales Mean Greater Value

One of the outstanding changes that has made itself felt in the automobile business in the past decade is the tremendous improvement in the status of the used car in the public mind. W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., called attention to this fact in an interview on the eve of the 10th anniversary of the adoption of Chevrolet's "Guaranteed OK Red Tag." The "Guaranteed OK Red Tag" is now nationally famous as one of the earliest steps taken by any manufacturer toward eliminating the element of chance from the purchase of a used car.

"No one who recalls the doubtful esteem in which used cars in general were held even as recently as 10 years ago will care to dispute the statement that a big advance has been made," said Mr. Holler. "This advance can be attributed to the dawn of a realization, on both the dealers' and the manufacturers' parts, that a successful future depended on eliminating unethical practices which had given the used car business a highly doubtful reputation.

"Leading motor car dealers were quick to see these points and set about to raise the standards of their used car operations. Thumbing through an old Saturday Evening Post—for April 18, 1925—I recently came across the confessions of an old-time used car dealer, who entitled his article 'Look and Run Like New.' This dealer admitted some shady tricks, but came eventually to a conclusion which he expressed like this: 'I still sell used cars, but I operate now on almost a golden rule basis. And so that no one will accuse me of being a hypocrite, I'm going to admit that I do this not because of any sentimental feeling for my fellow man, but through plain selfishness. I find it a more profitable, more pleasant, and less troublesome way to do business.'

New Securities Law Offers Protection in Oil Field

What is a security? Under the new Texas law regulating the sale of securities, the term includes any form of stocks, bonds, mortgage certificates, any form of commercial paper, any certificate in or under a profit sharing or participation agreement, lease or royalty interest in an oil, gas or mining property. In addition there are many lesser known forms of securities.

The Texas Securities law which replaced the old Blue Sky law, on May 23, 1935, is broad in its definitions of what constitutes a security, according to Secretary of State Gerald C. Mann.

Before purchasing any form of security, such as those named above, the buyer should determine if the person doing the selling has registered with the Secretary of State. Emphasis is placed on the fact that in no case does the State guarantee or endorse any security. But registration is not the extent of responsibility on the part of the seller. Under the law he may be held accountable for representations as to fact made in the sale of a security.

"Roberta", With Dunne, Astaire and Rogers, Hailed as Year's Most Glamorous Musical

Green Now Elaborates the Sensational Jerome Kern Stage Show With Added Dance and Song Novelties and a De Luxe Fashion Parade, All Aimed to Eclipse "The Gay Divorcee"

Starring Irene Dunne, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, KO-Radio brings to the screen a colorful picturization of "Roberta," the musical play which has been making theatrical history on the stage.

Lavishly produced, the picture retains all of the popular features of the stage play, but also presents a number of specially brilliant entertainment highlights, including a spectacular fashion show.

As a stage play, "Gowns by Robert," music by Jerome Kern, books and lyrics by Otta Harbach, "Robert" opened at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, on November 11, 1933, and closed on July 21, 1934, running more than 250 performances.

Kern, known as the king of musical comedy composers, wrote two new melodies for the picture, both of which have been acclaimed as popular hits.

In addition, the popular Kern compositions, "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Touch of Your Hand," "Let's Begin," "I'll Be Hard to Handle," and "Yesterday," from the original stage show are colorfully presented.

Irene Dunne's golden voice is heard singing "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Touch of Your Hand," "Yesterday," a Russian song, and a new melody, "Lovely to Look At."

Dances said to outshine those they did in "Flying Down to Rio" and "The Gay Divorcee" are introduced by the winged footed Astaire and Miss Rogers. They do steps for every mood. A novel number, in which they are heard talking with their feet is done to "I'll Be Hard to Handle" as a breath-taking, pulse-tingling taps routine.

There's also an amazing comedy dance which Astaire does with members of his band, to "Let's Begin." And when Astaire plays a torrid piano, screen fans are shown another accomplishment of this versatile star.

With the story presenting an intriguing theme of romance in a Paris gown shop, the fashion show fits logically into the action. Twelve of the most beautiful girls in America were selected, by a long and patient process of elimination, to model the gorgeous feminine finery created by Bernard Newman, noted stylist.

More Than Twenty Thousand Visit P-P. Museum

Canyon, June 12.—The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum, located here, is the only Museum Building on property owned by the State of Texas, and directors of the Historical Society are making plans to receive thousands of visitors at the museum during 1936.

Without the special interest which the Texas Centennial year will give, the museum has been visited by 20,000 people during the last year. Next year, with Texas crowded with tourists, it is expected that the register will show many times this number of visitors.

New display cases are being planned so that materials can be seen in the quickest possible time, for the directors realize that tourists are in a hurry.

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum is known for its displays of materials dealing with ranch life and for its exhibits showing life before the dawn of history. The art gallery which is a part of the museum changes its exhibits six or more times during the year. The museum is sponsored by the West Texas State Teachers College and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, of which W. H. Patrick of Clarendon is president.

TIRES MAY LOOK ALIKE ON THE OUTSIDE ON THE INSIDE THEY ARE DIFFERENT

HEAT on the inside created by friction is the main cause of blowouts. Firestone Tires are different on the inside—they are built with the patented extra process of Gum-Dipping that soaks every cord and insulates every strand with pure liquid rubber, preventing internal friction and heat. No other make of tire is Gum-Dipped.

When you realize that there were 882,000 automobile accidents in 1934, injuring 954,000 people and killing 36,000, and that 43,000 of these accidents were caused by blowouts, punctures and skidding, you will be more interested in the make of tires you use on your car.

Firestone performance records again emphasize the undisputed evidence that Firestone Tires are not only blowout-proof, but give greatest protection against skidding. There are three questions and answers that will solve the problem of what tires to buy:

QUESTION 1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"

ANSWER—Recent tests by a leading University show that Firestone High Speed Non-Skid Tires stop a car 15% quicker than any other of the leading makes. For eight consecutive years Firestone Tires have been on the winning car in the dangerous Pike's Peak Race where a skid means death.

QUESTION 2—"Are they blowout-proof?"

ANSWER—Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have the most amazing records for being blowout-proof of any tires ever built. In the gruelling 500-Mile Race at Indianapolis, May 30th, every one of the 33 cars was equipped with Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. Kelly Petillo won the race and broke the record over this 26-year-old rough brick track without tire trouble—in fact, not one of the 33 drivers had tire trouble of any kind.

Ab Jenkins drove his 5,000 pound car on Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires over the hot salt beds of Utah, 3,000 miles in 23 1/2 hours, at an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, with temperatures as high as 120°, without tire trouble of any kind.

QUESTION 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

ANSWER—Firestone High Speed Tires not only give you more than 50% longer wear, but also lowest cost per mile. This is made possible by the tough, wear-resisting tread built with higher shoulders and a wider, flatter contour. This thick, rugged, scientifically designed tread is held securely to the Gum-Dipped cord body by Firestone's patented construction of two extra layers of cords under the tread.

The wrecked car had been stolen from Van Shaw of 216 Ong street Amarillo the same night.

An inquest was held by the local Justice of the Peace and the body brought to Clarendon and prepared for burial by the Buntin mortuary. Relatives from Memphis accompanied the body there for burial Friday.

SECOND COTTON PAYMENT CHECKS ARE DUE SOON

Pooled Cotton Certificate Money Checks Exceed Expectations

Information was received this week that second payments on the surplus certificates pooled would be somewhat larger than previously estimated. There have been sold approximately 69 1/2 percent of the certificates which were surrendered to the pool.

The expense of the pool amounts to only a fraction more than 20 cents a bale on the entire number of certificates surrendered. There has been received from the pooled certificates $10 a bale, this will leave a balance payable on these certificates of approximately $3.70 per bale after taking out the 20 cents a bale expense.

Information has been received to the effect that the writing of these checks was begun on Friday June 7, it is expected that they will begin to arrive in the local office around June 20 or 25.

A new shingle roof is being laid on the Elmer Palmer home.

Congressman Martin Dies of Texas, will speak under the auspices of more than 100 patriotic societies on the night of June 21, from 9:30 to 10:00 p. m., over the National Broadcasting System. Congressman Dies will plead for immediate passage of his bill to permanently stop immigration from every country, deport the 3,500,000 aliens which he says are unlawfully in this country and give to Americans all jobs from which, Dies claims, 6,000,000 aliens are deriving their livelihood in this country. Some four or five million members of these patriotic orders will be listening in.

Tune in this evening and hear an able discussion of the alien problem.

THE SOFT BALL LEAGUE

Thursday afternoon the Highway and Transient Teams met in a very fast game. The Highway started the game off in fine shape by scoring two runs in the first inning and two in the fourth. The Transient were slow in getting started but in the fourth and sixth they scored, but it was not until the last inning that they put on the speed. In the last inning they brought in five runs. Summary, Highway 11 hits, 5 runs, Transient 14 hits, 7 runs. Umpires, Windell and Johnson.

Friday, the fans saw another fast practice game. The Oilers were to play Chamberlain but as the team did not appear they played the Highway. Both teams played fast ball, but the Oilers were victors. Summary, Highway, 8 hits 3 runs, Oilers, 19 hits and 8 runs. Umpires, Behrens and Petak.

Monday a large crowd of fans gathered early at the ball park and the Lions and Baptist went forth to battle. The Lions having lost two games decided that they must win and they showed they were ready to play ball. Captain Nichols of the Baptist had some trouble in keeping the Lions from running his players to death. Windell, the catcher for the Lions holds high honors for the day having made four trips to the bat and making one single, one double, one triple and a home run. Summary, Lions 24 hits, and 10 runs. Baptist, 5 hits and NO runs. Umpires, Jones and Kerbow.

Tuesday, The Future Farmers of America were defeated by the Highway team. The Farmer Boys worked hard but the husky Highway stars, were just too much for them, and were able to hit almost whenever they desired. Summary, Highway, 14 hits, and 7 runs, F. F. A. 8 hits and 2 runs. Umpires, Bradley and Johnson.

THE DONKEY BALL GAME

A large number of fans assembled at the College park Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and enjoyed a fast game of Donkey Base Ball. The donkeys were in fine shape and moved around when they desired in spite of the coaxing and begging of the players. The Transient boys persuaded the donkeys to bring in three runs for them in the first inning, but from then on the donkeys moved when it suited them. After much hard hitting, lots of persuading, much argument and several falls the game ended. Summary, Transients, 9 runs 47 spills and no broken bones. Lions all stars, 11 runs 69 spills, 5 kicks and one bruised ankle. But it was a good game.

Practically all the main planting has been done, and most of the land worked out for the first time.

Miss Ethel Hutto is visiting in the Isham home in the Chamberlain community.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Estlack and daughter, Patsy Ann, and Eugene Estlack are in Mineral Wells this week.

Annual City Golf Tournament Gets Under Way

The Eighth Annual City Golf Tournament got into full swing Sunday when 32 players started out in quest of the Championship vacated by Al Cooke who did not return to defend his title. Great interest is being displayed in the event as is evidenced by the 32 players entered, the largest entry list for the City Tournament in several seasons.

Dick Cooke, with a sizzling 36-34 was medalist. He was, however, closely pressed for the honor by A. N. Woods who carded a 38-34. Ira Merchant, after a shaky start, rallied brilliantly and scored 39-34. Other players making the championship flight were Pinky Kerbow with 75, George Carter 78, Bill Cooke 78, Otis Jackson 80 and M. P. Gentry 80.

In the first round of play Dick Cooke paired against George Carter and finally emerged victor 2 up in a heated and masterfully played contest. Ira Merchant disposed of M. P. Gentry 3-2 as Pinky Kerbow was eliminating Otis Jackson 2-1. Two veterans, A. N. Woods and Bill Cooke were the contestants in the other match and the veteran of veterans, Woods, was winner 2 up. The second round matches are expected to furnish the greatest thrills when Dick Cooke meets Merchant and Woods takes on Pinky Kerbow.

The second flight found eight players closely grouped in qualifying scores. Four players carded 81, three others 83, and the last player to make the flight had 84. In the first round of play Carl Parsons nosed out Alex Cooke 2 up and Wesley Knorpp defeated J. T. Patman 3-2. Tom F. Connally dethroned U. J. Boston 4-3 and Joe Jackson walloped Bennett Kerbow. Parsons will meet Knorpp and Connally and Joe Jackson will battle in the second round of play.

Third Flight, Glenn Allison defeated R. C. Weatherly and Fred Buntin won from Doss Palmer. Dr. Guy Stricklin defaulted to Ernest Harp and Byrum Haile swamped Paul Greene. Second round matches will put Allison against Buntin and Harp against Haile.

Fourth Flight, Billie Cooke won from Bob Boston. The match between Frank Whitlock and Louie Thompson has not been finished. Bert Smith defeated Jim Cornelius and C. Huffman eliminated O. C. Watson Jr. Winners of the above matches will play in the second round of match play.

The Hillcroft Course is in perfect condition. The greens have recently been resanded and the fresh mowed fairways reminds one of a monstrous velvet carpet. The weather has been ideal for perfect golf and the matches are attracting great interest. Those interested in the play are cordially invited to motor out to the course and witness the exciting matches.
