ENROLLMENT IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS NEXT THURSDAY

Early Enrollment Arranged For Convenience of Both Teachers and Pupils

School authorities have requested the cooperation of the Leader in announcing enrollment periods in the local schools next week. This arrangement has been made to avoid possible confusion during the opening week of September 2nd.

Enrollment in the Senior High school will begin on Thursday, August 29th.

High School Seniors will enroll Thursday from 9 to 12 o'clock.

High School Juniors will enroll Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock.

High School Sophomores will enroll Friday morning, August 30th, from 9 to 12 o'clock.

All pupils who come in on buses, and any other rural pupils, will enroll on Monday, September 2nd.

All pupils of the Junior College will matriculate Monday, September 2nd.

Local pupils are instructed to bear this announcement in mind and to be on hand promptly at the hour named above. It is believed that this method will avoid a great deal of confusion opening week, and will save time for both pupils and teachers.

Richardson Markets First Watermelons Here

Bert Richardson, farming on the W. B. Sims place northeast of Lelia, scooped his neighbors by bringing to Clarendon his first load of water melons Saturday.

He found a ready market for the luscious beauties of the Tom Watson variety. Another load was brought up Monday.

Large Numbers Are Attending Baptist Revival Being Conducted By Rev Dossey

Increasing attendance and interest is noted in the Baptist revival now in progress. Rev. C. Y. Dossey is doing the preaching.

The following announcements are made of sermon subjects:

Thursday Night—"If I were the Devil what I would do in Clarendon."

Friday Night—"Hell's angels."

Saturday Night—"The new Birth."

Sunday Morning—"Drifting."

Sunday Night—"The last round-up."

Monday Night—Family night, the evangelist will speak on "The Home."

Tuesday Night—"The horse Race."

KERBY TO BEGIN SELECTING BOYS OF BRONCHO TEAM

Workouts Will Begin Twice Daily After Next Monday Morning

In a personal letter to the Leader Tuesday, J. L. Kerby, football coach of the Clarendon schools, sums up the situation as follows:

"The 1935 Broncho football workouts will start on Monday, August 26th. All boys who desire to come out for the 1935 squad are hereby invited to report at the dressing room at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Even though you may not be able to come out all week, make every effort to be present on Monday, as we desire to schedule your medical examination, which is required for every candidate, and also give you definite instructions for the coming season.

There will be two workouts daily during the week before school starts, to be held at 8 a. m. and at 4 p. m. The first week will be spent in work to get into condition, work on the formations and systems of play, and in studying the rules.

Visitors are welcomed to our workouts but are requested to remain off of the playing field and watch from the stands.

Candidates, bring old clothes and tennis shoes for first workout."

J. L. Kerby, Coach.

Beach Service Station Still In Process Construction

Messrs Cecil Beach and Bill Gaither announce the completion of their new station of Spanish design on Highway 5, and that they are already servicing autos.

Minor improvements are yet to be made, but these additions in no way effect the service. They invite their friends and customers to pay them a visit.

Shoe Shop and Cafe Become Alleged Nuisances

The wagon cafe being operated by I. B. Pierce just south of the Piggly Wiggly grocery has been declared a nuisance by city authorities because it is alleged that the cafe wagon is not fireproof and thus raises the insurance key rate of other property within the City.

Pierce alleges that other and similar risks have been permitted within the fire limits, and that he has as much right as any one.

Judge Firs will grant a hearing here Friday at 10 a. m. following the injunction filed by the City.

It is alleged that since S. A. Pierce moved his shoe shop wagon, he too has violated the ordinance governing the fire limit, and this matter has become involved in the controversy. Mr. Pierce had been operating his shoe repair shop on the vacant lot south of the Piggly Wiggly for the past few years. Moving the wagon a few feet is the technicality on which the dispute is based.

Young Man of Lelia Gets Highjacked Down State

Returning from Waco Sunday, Milford Allen of Lelia Lake related how easily he became a victim of those who choose to "lift" it off others rather than earn it.

Allen had been to Waco to make preparations to enter the Baylor University soon, and had made his way back as far as Ft. Worth. Standing on the highway at the north edge of the town, soon two well dressed men came along and willingly gave him a ride.

After traveling some distance, he said they stopped and relieved him of his cash, about two dollars, and left him standing on the highway. Being without funds, he stated that he spent Saturday night on the courthouse lawn at Childress as his first lesson in a "crool" world being knocked against ragged edges of experience.

DONLEY COUNTY OLD SETTLERS IN FIFTH REUNION

About Two Hundred Register As Qualified Residents Of Twenty Years

The crowd estimated at over a thousand at Tate Grove Friday was the largest old settler gathering in the county. Some two hundred qualified for registering by having resided in the county 20 years.

Mrs. Maggie Bailey of Hedley was the oldest person to register. Her age is 88 years.

The program opened at 10 a. m. with prayer by Rev. L. A. Reavis. Judge S. W. Lowe delivered the address of welcome.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins made the principal address reminiscing of early days in the Panhandle, and more particularly Donley county. His talk was interspersed with witty remarks and jokes that kept the crowd "on their toes" as it were.

The Clarendon band under the direction of Gus B. Stephenson made the welkin ring with patriotic airs and received a number of encores.

Singing of special numbers with "America" as the opening number, was a pleasing feature. Col. W. C. Reeves of Lelia Lake had out his "fiddle band" and delighted old-timers with music they delighted in back yonder and here now.

E. H. Watt of Giles heads the program committee again. Other officers were re-elected. W. I. Rains is president; M. W. Mosley, vice president; Mrs. O. R. Culwell continues as secretary. The official family resides in or near Hedley.

The "feed" at the noon hour was above the average, according to a number who shared in the good luck to be present. A large quantity of food was gathered up after the feast was over, an unusual occurrence for a picnic.

The fifth annual reunion was a huge success, to which may be attested the statements of hundreds present.

Rieger Buys Larger Stock For Fall Trade

Being a natural optometrist, Glenn A. Rieger of the Rieger drygoods company is laying in a much larger stock than ever before for the fall trade, a fact he makes known through the Leader's advertising columns this week.

A wide range is being offered in first-grade Buckskin hats. Shoes for men and women in all styles and sizes. Fall line of trousers in assorted colors and sizes. "In fact we have a complete stock to supply the whole family," Mr. Rieger stated Wednesday, "and prices are being in accordance with present conditions."

President to Radio Address Saturday at 8:30 p. m.

Speaking more directly to the Young Democratic clubs, President Roosevelt will speak on the results of the last congress, and its effect on the nation.

This talk will be closely watched by millions to note what the President has to say about American neutrality in the impending European-African conflict.

The President is expected to outline plans he has under contemplation for the coming winter months. The announcement is fraught with many interesting details and radios over the nation, and perhaps other nations, will be tuned in on NBC to hear the declarations from the nation's Chief Executive.

San Carlos Indian Agent Visits Sister Here

As Indian agent on the San Carlos, Arizona reservation, Burt Ladd finds plenty of interesting things to be doing every day as one will vouch who has visited that section. He is a brother of Mrs. G. E. Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladd and their son Tommie arrived the last of the week for a visit in the Norwood home.

GLEE CLUB OF ODD FELLOW HOME HERE TONIGHT

Members of Order Expect Large Attendance At Special Program

The Glee Club of the W & O Home of Corsicana, composed of eighteen girls and eight boys will arrive here about 5 this afternoon accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Couch, superintendent and matron of the Home.

The visitors will be entertained with a banquet at the Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock with Deputy Degree Grand Master George E. Ragland as toastmaster.

Due to a possible conflict with the Baptist revival now in progress, the hour and place of the main program has been changed from 8 p. m. on the courthouse lawn to 9:15 at the Baptist tabernacle on the old grammar school grounds at the south end of Kearney street.

Since leaving the Home several days ago, stops have been made by the Glee Club and their sponsors at every town of any size on the Denver on the way to the Convention at Memphis.

After the concert here, the visitors will remain over night as the guests of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Wellington will be visited Friday and a program presented there that night.

Supt. C. B. Couch will make a talk at the time of the presentation of the program and explain in some detail the scope and quality of the work being done at the Home.

Members of the Order are expected from all surrounding towns for the event, according to Mr. Ragland, who has a close contact with the lodges of his district.

Predicted Youngsters Will Steal Show In Presentation "Fingers" Both Nights

Next Thursday and Friday, August 29-30th, at the College Auditorium, the curtain will rise at 8:15 p. m. on the four-act play "Fingers" that is being sponsored by the Sons of Legionnaires Drum and Bugle Corps of this city.

Clarendon play-goers have a real treat in store, for this is the first entertainment of its type ever offered here. The cast is composed entirely of men and boys and the plot is concerned with a boys club and helping a boy crook go "straight." It has pathos, comedy and real acting along with songs and several novelty dances between acts by the pupils of Miss Mary Cooke.

One of the best dance numbers on the program will be a typical minstrel tap dance, "Turkey in the Straw." Six girls will be smartly dressed for the dance and will be introduced by Misses Jane and Dorothy Kerbow. Taking part in this dance will be Misses Jean Teat, June McMurtry, Vera Noland, Eugenia Noland, Maxine Ellis, and Phoebe Ann Buntin.

Wearing the proverbial feather in their caps, the baby chorus will probably steal the show as they dance to "Yankee Doodle." Carl Marcelles Bennett, Corky Parsons, Calvin Merchant, Manley Bryan, Marilyn Merchant, and Marilyn Maher will dance in this chorus.

Little Manley Bryan, popular tiny tot crooner and dancer will be asking "What's the Reason?" as he shows the audience that he has rhythm in his soles and Miss

Mrs. Bailey Prefers Home In California

Returning to Donley county following the death of her husband in Bakersfield June 13th, Mrs. D. B. Bailey has spent the greater part of the time with her son Jack Bailey and family near Martin.

She began the return journey to Bakersfield, California Saturday where she will make her home with another son, Jesse Bailey and family in the bustling oil section. Mrs. Bailey resided in Donley and Hall county for many years as the family home, and where her children grew to maturity.

CONG. MARVIN JONES

SENATOR TOM CONNALLY

Senator Connally and Congressman Jones were the two men most instrumental in having included in the AAA amendment and export provision having for its object the expansion of foreign and domestic markets for farm products. The article appears in this issue on page two under the heading "Texas Lawmakers Get Tariff."

Trial of Bynum Declares Him Not Guilty Obstructing

The trial of A. B. Bynum of Lelia was held in the county court here Tuesday in which he was charged by the state with obstructing the highway. A number of witnesses were heard in the case, after which the judge took the matter in charge and rendered a verdict of not guilty.

The matter had reference to a building owned by Bynum at Lelia in which the front end projects out and the pumps are said to be located on land desired for highway purposes. It developed that the property in question had not been rendered for taxation for 26 years, and was claimed by no one.

Judge Lowe disqualified, and Judge J. S. Stallings of Claude heard the case here.

CARAWAY MAKES PRINCIPAL TALK LIONS TUESDAY

Concludes Description Trip To Mexico City Including Incidents

The program period of the Lions club Tuesday was again given to Odos Caraway at the insistence of the entire membership that he might give more of the details and impressions of his trip to the International Lions convention at Mexico, D. F.

His talk at this luncheon hour is said to have been more interesting than that of last week, if such were possible, because he leisurely went into detail.

Mr. Caraway's narration of highway building would indicate that the southern republic is a beehive of industry in making contact with the United States possible. Trips from the border may be made soon over a modern highway all the way to the capital city.

Habits and customs of the people were interesting since it was there that ancient and modern idea were intermingled. "They make what they use in the home at their homes," he said. He noted crude utensils and tools though they answered the purpose.

"Time means nothing to the slow, easy mode of life of those people," he said. "They take their good time about doing anything." His description of a district fair came as a surprise because their school exhibits were quite similar to ours here this spring. Their handwork included every method of weaving and showed expert skill.

The program committee for next Tuesday includes E. R. Andis, Joe Goldston and W. T. Link.

Boy Scouts Return From Big Outing Trip in N. Mex.

Tanned to a nut brown, twenty-nine boys returned Monday from a tour of southeast of New Mexico on their annual Boy Scout jamboree.

Stops were made at Roswell and most of the time spent in the White Mountains.

Carlsbad Caverns was naturally the biggest thrill, all of the boys and their sponsors taking their good time in making explorations.

The boys were in charge of Cap B. Morris, Bill Patman and Frank Whitlock, the latter being "cuisine" artist to the boys as he has done for several years. In fact without him, the trip would be a failure if the boys are to have their wishes in the matter.

Giles Lad Dies Here Sunday And Buried at Memphis

W. H. Rousey, Jr. aged 9, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rousey residing three miles northeast of Giles, died here Sunday night about 9:30.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Anderson at the First Christian church at Memphis Monday.

NEXT SATURDAY IS ELECTION DAY OVER ALL TEXAS

Old Age Pensions and "Pro" Question Appears to Lead in Interest

Polls in Donley county will be open next Saturday from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. Only amendments to the Constitution, seven in number, are to be voted on Saturday.

These proposed amendments have been printed in the Leader in full. They have been discussed and explained by Secretary of State Mann. Every effort has been made by the Leader to acquaint the voters with the facts at issue, honestly and fairly without bias or prejudice.

Indications are that a light vote will be polled over the state. Neither wets nor dries have had much to say. From the manner in which the proposed amendment is garbled, it is said to be difficult to decide which is the wet or dry side.

The seven proposed amendments are: Repeal of state prohibition laws; old age pension provisions; change in the method of committing insane persons; change in the method of submitting constitutional amendments; abolishing the fee system for county officials in counties of more than 20,000 population, and making it optional with commissioners courts in other counties; free text books for private schools.

There is apparently a lot of objection to the last named because as many claim, it is a step to unite "church and state" as in centuries past. Public school officials and teacher associations are objecting to the text book proposition.

Voting places in Donley county will be the same as last year, it is announced.

Chief of Police and Bears Chum Together

Returning home Saturday after a delightful visit of several days in Yellowstone National park, Salt Lake City, Denver and other big towns, Chief Leck Goldston waxes enthusiastic.

What is more important, he brought back a batch of kodak pictures of pet bears taken in the Park. Snow scenes back up his story of having been forced to start a fire at 5 p. m. Sunday a week ago in the cabin where he and Mrs. Goldston and Miss Margaret were stopping.

He shows pictures of fish, reptiles caught by him in fact, and proof of the statement brought along in pictures to prove it. His mountain scenes are refreshing and his tales of wonderful scenery is most refreshing.

Pictures were made in variety of the famous Mormon Temple along with a number of other buildings

UTILITIES CO. TO CONDUCT FREE COOKING SCHOOL

Demonstrations to be Given Over Two Days Basement Christian Church

A free cooking school, to be sponsored by the West Texas Utilities company, will be in charge of Miss Patricia Johnson, an experienced technician in cooking on stoves and ranges of the type used today.

The demonstrations are to be given on Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week from 2 to 4 o'clock in the basement of the Christian church.

Kind of cooking are classified as surface cookery, thrift cooker cookery, oven meals, etc. The varieties are meats, vegetables, cakes, pies and such other interesting things as will delight the modern housewife.

An urgent invitation is given any woman interested to be present. The basement is clean, light and airy and one of the coolest places in town. Every convenience will be arranged for to insure the comfort of the visitors.

BURT KING

Evangelist singer of state-wide reputation. He is a brother of J. Perry King, pastor of the First Baptist church here.

An effort is being made to have 30 in S. S. Sunday morning. If you are not now in S. S. you are urged and invited to be present.

Services are held twice daily at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. The evening services are held in the open air. Do not fail to hear the good singing under the direction of Burt King of Abilene.

CENTENNIAL CRIME WAVE IN DALLAS.

Perhaps that heading is a bit previous. The Centennial crime wave cannot begin until next year because the Centennial is not scheduled until then.

Dallas excuses her crime for the month of July by saying "perhaps it was caused by the irritability and shortness of temper from hot weather." If this be true, Dallas would do well to "air condition" the whole town before the Centennial begins.

During July only ten murders were committed outright making a total of thirty-six for the year to August 1st. Eighty-four was the total for the same period last year. Perhaps the weather is siding with the public.

Twenty-seven holdups were recorded during July. Eight of them are said to have been faked. Synthetic holdups will be a big feature of the Centennial, no doubt, giving the visitors a thrill from Hashtown at the forks of the creek and similar places.

Only one hundred and forty burglaries were recorded during July which would indicate that the heat held the prowlers in check. Totin' a sack of silverware down a back alley on a hot night is no boy's job even in Dallas where one is expected to do his patriotic duty toward giving visitors a thrill. Five hundred and fifty-three miscellaneous thefts were tallied up as a poor excuse for a real thriller.

One hundred and fourteen cars were stolen during July. An even hundred were recovered.

Next year do not be surprised when your neighbor asks, "when are you going down to be shot?" Evidently he means Dallas, with all sincere intentions of inquiring into the opinion of one about to depart for the Centennial.

Then again, a lady may be boasting in the little home town by saying: "You should see the Dallas exhibit by all means. We were held up only twice during the day, and poor old dad failed to outrun a bullet, but the funniest thing of all, was when we found out that the car had been stolen and the rest of the family had to hitch-hike all the way home."

The number killed by autos was not given in the report, apparently for the reason that the board of vital statistics could not keep up with the count.

Mrs. Sam Rorex of Panhandle visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Smith here Monday.

Mrs. Myrtle Houck of Panhandle visited relatives and friends here Monday.

Miss Dolletta Jesse of Amarillo was a week end guest of Miss Athlyn Drennan of Ashtola.

Mr. and Mrs. Theil Drennan of Vernon visited relatives in this section Sunday.

Duplicate Taxing Units Are Working Extra Hardships

Austin, Aug. 22—"Texas has nearly nine thousand local taxing authorities bearing heavily on the taxpayer," said State Auditor Orville S. Carpenter today about the recent "Report on Taxes and Indebtedness of Local Units of Government in Texas for 1934."

"In spite of the present trend toward efficiency in government and elimination of duplication between departments, we find in this State cities, counties schools, water districts, drainage districts, road districts, irrigation districts and many others, all assessing and collecting taxes on the same property. As a result most property owners must render the same property to several assessors and pay to several collectors," Carpenter explained.

"The number of local taxing authorities seem increasing. A similar survey made by Moore Lynn, former state auditor, for the year 1932 showed at that time 8,742 tax districts. He called attention to the 'present chaotic conditions' then existing in local taxation matters," Carpenter said.

"The survey just completed for the year 1934 shows 8,936 local taxing units, an increase of 194 in two years," he stated.

In the 8,936 districts an enormous taxpayers' debt of three-fifths of a billion dollars has been built up. The actual figure in 1934 was $670,442,179, with sinking funds deducted, he said.

Miss Ruby Dell Scoggins of Canyon visited here over Sunday.

Joe Cluck Combs Country In Collecting Better Breed

Possibly no other man in the Panhandle knows the whiteface breed of cattle better than Joe Cluck, who has spent the past forty years in dealing with that well known beef producing cattle.

On his ranch near Estelline, he is adding to his herd choice breeding stock in his usual manner. A truck load of heifers passed thru here Wednesday bound for the Cluck ranch. They were being hauled by a Mack Bourland ranch truck, and came from the Donald & Burton herd near Goodnight.

Judge A. T. Cole of Pampa was down over the week end visiting Mrs. Cole and other relatives. He reports conditions quiet up on the plains.

Texas Lawmakers Get Tariff In AAA Deal for Farmer

The inclusion in the AAA amendment of the export provision, having for its purpose the expansion of foreign and domestic markets for farm products, is a personal tribute to Senator Tom Connally and Congressman Marvin Jones, of Texas. Both of these gentlemen have been working for years to bring to the farmer this measure of equality in the operation of the tariff laws.

This particular part of the measure provides for allocating a sum equal to 30% of the collections under the general tariff laws. This sum is to be used for the purpose of expanding domestic and foreign markets of farm commodities and the products thereof, in the payment of additional benefits and for the removal of surpluses. It is estimated that 30% of the American people are engaged in farming. This is the reason for utilizing these funds for this purpose.

Senator Connally and Congressman Jones issued the following joint statement:-

"The adoption of this provision marks the longest step forward that has ever been taken in securing the rights of agriculture. For more than a half century, the farmer has been pleading for equal rights. He has borne the burdens of the tariff without the corresponding advantages. Selling his surplus commodities in a free market, he has bought his supplies in a protected market.

"The regular farm program is important and has accomplished much. It will be continued. However, in its administration, the processing fee is paid by the product itself.

"To make the circle complete it must be supplemented. This is done by allocating 30% of the customs receipts. For many years this has been advocated, but this is the first decided step which makes the accomplishments possible.

"The entire country will be benefited. While an adjustment program is necessary and will be carried on, the entire country is interested in the building of foreign markets. Looking down the long road to the future, our country cannot afford to surrender these markets. The prosperity, the happiness, the success of all of the people of America depend upon the maintenance of these markets.

"The use of this fund will do much to iron out the sore spots, to remove temporary gluts and to enable the products of the farm to flow into the markets of the world. It is an ideal supplement to the farm program. It will do much to strengthen that program and make it effective. There is no doubt of its legality. It will be national in scope and effective in operation."

Both Senator Connally and Congressman Jones are very much pleased at the success of their long fight.

Ben and Olin Kayser were over from Bray Saturday. They report crops in very good condition, and that they will make a fair crop without any more rain, though a shower would be welcome.

Electric Cooking School
—of the—
West Texas Utilities Company
AUGUST 22-23

The housewives and husbands of Clarendon and all surrounding towns are cordially invited to attend a FREE cooking school sponsored by the West Texas Utilities on the dates of August 22-23.

The cooking school will bring suggestions and methods to relieve long hours of work. This is not a matter of learning how to cook or how to do housework; but the use of short cuts with appliances and tested methods to reduce time and labor. Many women feel that "Mother's house-keeping and cookery, the best in the world, are good enough today," but mothers in those old days yearned, too, for new ideas and simpler methods.

Plan now to attend every session. You are sure to enjoy and profit by the valuable experience as exhibited in the demonstrations conducted by Miss Johnson.

TEMPLE OF TRUTH By the Apostle

Speaking of hot weather, better be glad that you don't live on the Atlantic coast. Scientists say that coast line is buckling up in the middle and that New York City will be a mile under the ocean 200 million years from now.

These home laundry affairs are now becoming better known as "washaterias."

Think as you may, but my idea of real art is to see a picture of a lady combing her granddaughter's hair. Home spun pictures stick in the mind like home cooked grub sticks to the ribs—if you know what I mean.

The latest thing out for the housewives is an air conditioning machine little larger than a suitcase that sells for about half what an electric refrigerator would cost. Thousands of homes will have them next year.

Any man who can name a chap-eron-in-chief of a Confederate reunion without disappointing any one, is entitled to a medal of honor as large as the moon.

Then there is the story of the old darky who was having trouble with his head. His doctor advised that his skull be taken open and his brains be given a thorough scouring. After removing the brains, the darky got tired of waiting for them to be put back and left out with the doctor's instructions to return for them within three days. The doctor did not see the darky any more for a month. Here is the conversation: "Sambo, your brains soured before you got back and I fed them to the cat."

"Dat's alright boss, ah duzent need 'em know caze I see got a guvment job."

This column is independent but not neutral—Newsy but not nosy.

The first corn on the cob was ricked up on our table the last of the week. It came from the field of J. M. Cornell out Sunnyview way. The first dozen ears tasted fine. Bring on another batch, J. M.

After the movies reform, and the literature of the nation is cleaned up, it might be well to begin cleaning up the people.

The following item appeared in an Alabama exchange last week: "I want to thank the preacher and all the neighbors who helped get my girl married off as well as they did. Her man loaded her up in his Texas flivver Monday and I wish them good luck but hope they never come back till I go see 'em."

Maw used to call Paw "Old Faithful" which pleased the old man mighty well until he learned what it meant. She had reference to his "spouting off."

"Dere goes dat Mandy slattunly 'long wid her 10 pikaninnies. She do look repugnant."

"Lan' sakes, and dat's de lebenthi!"

A lot of folks have a habit of giving three cheers for something they would not give anything else for.

"I don't know why people grumble in these public eating places. Why, this soup is excellent." "That wouldn't be so bad if the cook would admit that it was soup, but he insists that it is coffee." (P. S. Told by a native on a Memphis cafe.)

Wife—When I went away, I hired a chaperon for my husband because the neighbors have such evil minds.

Be a live wire and you won't be stepped on.

Do something to make others happy, if it is nothing more than to leave them alone.

Politics will be so messed up next year that a fellow will have to carry a blue print to prove that he is a republican or a democrat.

A man may get ever so low in the scale of humanity, but he never loses respect for his dog. Kick him, knock his interests personal and private, but don't kick his dog. He will defend his dog at all costs even to mortal combat.

That electric fan-loe story in this column last week first appeared in an Ohio weekly several years ago. It has been rehearsed and modernized to suit the taste of a number of weekly publishers, and the story as it appeared in this column was rehearsed to suit Pan-handle conditions.

An editor up in Kansas who has "gone modern" heads his matrimonial column as "The Battle Cry," and the vital statistic or birth column as "What Women Are Doing."

Jack Bailey brought in a basket of fine cantaloupes Wednesday morning which he donated to the Apostolic poor farm. Thanks a lot, Jack.

And here walks in a timid little girl who asks me to "direct an envelope" to the President. Always glad to please the ladies, the job is done and Josie Leila Hall walks proudly out of the office leaving me to wonder what will become of that letter, what was in it, and a lot of things that arise in the mind of a little girl. I hope she tells me when she gets a reply.

Down in the Matador country 40 years ago, or thereabouts, Judge McGill used to have the witness in a cow stealing scrape to stack their guns on the rostrum at the beginning of the trial. Some times the stack would fill a barrel, if the 30-30's could have been crammed in with the six-guns.

The four saddest sights are summed up thusly: Horseyly on a Ford car. Blind man in a nudist colony. Relief worker who has no car to get to the job. Louse trying to work on the Blue Eagle.

A Louisiana tourist here Monday said he understood that more real estate changed hands and eyes here last spring than in all our past history. To this we readily assented. He said the sand was getting into the air now just as much as it was last spring, but the intense heat caused it to burn up just like a comet headed for the earth. That's one in favor of the heat. As between heat and dust storms, we choose to take the heat. But imagine a Louisiana fellow yelping about heat in the Panhandle where we have to use blankets on the beds every night!

Ima Fizzle says her last boy friend is so fat that he has to back up to the counter to pick up his change. Anyway, she has him at the counter.

Speaking of old or long time subscribers, an Arkansaw exchange in writing up the death account of one of these long range boys says: "He was a man who had suffered much with intense patience; he had been a reader of this paper for more than 40 years."

"Railroad talk" and "moving the county seat" were two favorite topics of conversation out this way 30 years or more ago. Often either one would beget action of the kind that bounced some fellow upon the front page. It helped to while away the time during the dry spell, or if the country was too wet, it served the same purpose. In those times, we often got "towel" as well as too dry as we have been the past five years. Often the disputes changed up a whole neighborhood since the small towns were little more than a community center at that time. Grudges were often carried to the grave.

Voting in a county seat was pretty much like "filling day" on school land selections. It was a big day either way. Saddle ponies were filed on school land and dead men voted in county seat wars. The ingenuity of leaders was amazing. Some times the leaders of one side got to headquarters and held the others off with guns of every description from an Enfield rifle or Durringer pistol down to modern weapons. The side able to hire the most men, won out. Some had to leave the country in a manner that would indicate that they were not going anywhere, but merely "coming away from some place in particular."

Adios Amigos until after the big rain.

GLUTTON FOR COVERAGE

Many papers brag of their "coverage." We cover the county like a blanket and tha's not all! The Record also covers numerous pantry shelves hither and thither and you. It covers bans of bread dough and milk. It covers cracks in the window panes and the brooder house floor. It covers bed springs to keep the cold from creeping thru thin mattresses. It covers the hen house walls and broken places in the plaster. And sometimes it covers a multitude of sins by not mentioning them.

—Rooks Co. Record.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carter and son George Clark, are visiting relatives in Memphis this week before returning to Clarendon.

When the sun is blazing hot, your motor heat goes up, too!

To protect your motor, use Germ Processed Oil, which has 2 to 4 times greater film strength and is less affected by extreme motor heat!

YOUR MOTOR runs lots hotter in Summer. That's why you must have oil that maintains high film strength under extreme temperatures to get safe lubrication. Otherwise, the lubricating film ruptures and the bearings and cylinders suffer damaging wear.

Plain mineral oils have little film strength and oils over-refined by new cleansing methods have even less. As motor heat goes up, these oils rapidly lose film strength.

You'll get better motor protection with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. Timken machine tests prove that it has 2 to 4 times greater film strength than any plain mineral oil and that heat above 225° does not lessen this advantage.

More proof—supervised road tests were made in identical cars fitted with the new alloy metal bearings used in many 1935 cars. The bearings lubricated with a high-quality plain mineral oil showed 45% more wear than those lubricated with Conoco Germ Processed, the first alloyed oil.

You'll be certain your motor is safely lubricated even at high temperatures if you say "O. K.—Drain" and fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil—the oil with the "Hidden Quart" that stays up in your motor and never drains away.

Say "OK-Drain" - FILL WITH CONOCO GERM PROCESSED MOTOR OIL

HEPBURN "BREAK OF HEARTS" ULTRA MODERN LOVE AFFAIR HERE WED.-THUR.

Romance With Charles Boyer as Co-Star Involves Struggles to Keep Him at the Fireside

Katherine Hepburn steps from period pictures and definite type characterizations to modern romance in "Break of Hearts," her recently completed RKO Radio feature, which will be shown at the Bestime Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday the 28-29th. The new production presents the star as a girl of today who wears fashionable gowns that are as new as tomorrow. It also presents her with a co-star as leading man, Charles Boyer, who scored so decisively with critics and audiences in "Private Worlds." John Beal, Miss Hepburn's leading man in "The Little Minister," again appears with her. This time, however, he is the third figure in a romantic triangle.

she achieved a poignance in her romantic scenes which she is said to surpass in the modern "Break of Hearts."

The nature of the central characterizations in the new picture permits the logical introduction of symphonic music in the story. Boyer, as the conductor, is shown leading an 85-piece orchestra in excerpts from Tschaiakowsky's Fifth Symphony, Bach's Toccata and Fugue, and the Prelude to Wagner's "The Meistersinger." All of the music is said to be so woven into the action that it plays an definite part in plot advancement.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Campbell of Wellington were guests of the C. D. McDowell family over the week end.

Burl Huffman, freshman track coach from Lubbock Tech visited in the C. D. McDowell home last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bourland and daughter Jean and Miss Lotta Bourland spent Wednesday in Amarillo.

Randall Hall Popular Asset Of Canyon College

Canyon, Texas, August 20.—Nine young women of Donley county have lived in Randall Co-operative Home for girls on the campus of the West Texas State Teachers College.

They are: Pauline Shelton Dunlap, and Agnes Oakley of Clarendon, and Ruth Farris, Kate Hawkins, Annie Burna Wright, Opal Cooper, Zona Adamson, Mrs. Mabel E. Jones and Mary Lou Hawkins, all of Hedley.

Begun in the fall of 1933, Randall Hall was designed to give the daughters of West Texas a chance to attend college in spite of drought and depression. It has done that as far as its capacity allows. 106 girls have worked, studied and lived together in Randall Hall each term during the two long sessions and two summer sessions of its existence.

Miss Miltia Hill, organizer of the co-operative home, allotted the 37 different household tasks among the girls, giving each girl one hour of work to do a day. This work, plus fourteen dollars in money from each girl per month solves the financial problem of carrying on the home.

The social life at Randall consists of regular affairs both formal and informal conducted so as to give the young women a maximum of social contacts.

Miss Hill will be in New York doing graduate study this coming year. Her place will be taken by Mrs. W. L. Acker. Randall Hall will receive its new family on September 17, at which time the fall semester will begin at the College.

A CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank each one who contributed to the Boy Scout camp fund, and especially do we want to thank Mr. Ben Hill, who made it possible for the boys to have this wonderful trip by furnishing his truck without cost. Mr. Frank Whitlock who in his efficient and pleasing manner did the cooking, Speed Bros. who furnished the lumber for fixing up the truck, Thompson Hardware for the use of an ice box, and all the Boys for their good conduct, you were real Boy Scouts. One of the guides told us that they were the best behaved bunch of Scouts that had ever gone through the Cavern.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs, feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users of the country over. Get them from any druggist.

Bigger and Better Fair Is Assured This Year

Bill Beechler, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Tri-State Fair and good will ambassador from Amarillo, and Mason King of The Amarillo News-Globe, another Tri-State Fair "evangelist" were here recently.

They brought a special invitation to Donley County to attend the Tri-State Fair, September 14-21, which this year will be the largest exposition in Texas.

"Cash prizes for the largest delegations visiting the exposition with bands have been increased this year," said Mr. Beechler. "On one day last year there were 12 delegations and nine bands at the fair."

BILL BEECHLER

Beechler, Manager of the Cunningham Floral Company, who for many years has served as Chairman of the fair's reception committee, believes there will be more entries and larger crowds this year. "There will be no fair at Dallas this year and the Tri-State Exposition will be about the only attraction of its kind this fall."

Mason King, who is director of racing, called attention to the opening date of the fall meet.

"With more, better entries and larger purses, the Tri-State Fair racing meet will open one day earlier—Friday, September 13," he said. "Daily races with legalized wagering have become the major attraction at the fair. Thousands of turf fans from all over the state stand daily to see the sport of kings."

MASON KING

"Of course, there will be a wide variety of other entertainment," he continued. "The largest midway attraction in the United States will be there, direct from an engagement in Detroit."

Both visitors declared there will be full entries in every department.

Wilbur C. Hawk again this year heads the fair association, which is guaranteeing payment in full of more than $15,000 in cash premiums.

O. L. "Ted" Taylor, secretary-manager, has reported heavy demand for catalogs and concession space.

Mrs. G. H. Givens and family of Tipton, Oklahoma visited Mrs. Ray Heffner here Wednesday.

Mrs. Letitia Swearingen of Childress visited in the homes of Mrs. C. W. Taylor and Mrs. B. L. Jenkins the past two weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Stevenson and children Jean and Ruth Taylor of Huston, are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taylor.

Geo. H. McCleskey is employed in the First State Bank at Memphis as RFC loan man, along with his other duties.

A. W. Simpson and Ed Hutchins made a business trip to Ft. Worth Monday. Mr. Simpson says he saw plenty of corn on the stalk but none in a bottle.

Funeral Tomorrow for Infant Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove

The infant son born to Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove last night about 9:30 will be buried here some time tomorrow. Funeral arrangements have not been completed pending the arrival of his parents.

The many friends of this popular young couple will regret exceedingly their great misfortune in the loss of their first born.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hillyer of Memphis, parents of Mrs. J. A. Kutch, and Mrs. J. F. Forehand of Las Cruces, N. Mex., sister of Mrs. Hillyer, have been guests in the home of J. A. Kutch and family for several days.

J. R. Moore of the Bray country was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irl Smith of Pampa are visiting his father, Marvin Smith, and other relatives and friends here this week.

Mrs. G. J. Teel returned recently improved in health after a stay in Kansas City where she was a patient of the Thornton & Minor clinic.

CHAIN-LETTER PROFITS

The late lamented chain letter craze wasn't entirely a dead loss. Postal authorities at Denver where the thing started, supply the figures.

A checkup the other day revealed that the extra mail produced by the chain letter scheme netted Denver postoffice workers extra pay to the extent of about $20,000. Uncle Sam also profited, postal receipts at Denver for the two months of the fad running about $50,000 above normal.

In fact, it looks as if everybody—instead of nobody—profited from the delirium. That is, everybody except the suckers who mailed the dimes and dollars.

But a sucker is a sucker, and that is all you can make out of him.

Charles Walker and Harold Phelps spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in Amarillo.

Miss Lorena Stegall, instructor in the El Paso public schools, is here visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. C. Estlack, who has been visiting in Bowie, is with relatives at Bridgeport at present.

Arizona Couple Visits Old Friends Here

To have old schoolmates of more than thirty years ago drop in on you suddenly is a thrilling experience, as vouched for by both Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Lindsey, who reside south of town.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Jinks McNatt of Casa Grande, Arizona stopped over on their way back to Bowie for a visit with relatives. The Lindseys and McNatts were formerly from the same Montague neighborhood.

Mr. McNatt approached the Lindsey home in the guise of "book agent." Mrs. Lindsey, not knowing him, was quite positive that she had no need of books just at this time. While the "agent" was busily engaged in vending his wares, his wife got out of the car.

This broke up the deception since Mrs. Lindsey remembered exactly how "Pearl Hester" looked back in the old days when girls wore "pig tails." The visit was a very enjoyable affair, but had to end with the over night stop as other relatives down the road in number had to be seen.

IS IT ANYBODY'S BUSINESS

Is it anybody's business
If a gentleman should choose
To call upon a lady—
If the lady don't refuse?
Or, to speak a little plainer,
That the meaning all may know,
Is it anybody's business
If a lady has a beau?

Is it anybody's business
When that gentleman does call;
Or when he leaves the lady?
Or if he leaves at all?
Or is it necessary
That the curtain should be drawn,
To save from further trouble
From outside lookers-on?

Is it anybody's business
But the lady's, if her beau
Rides out with other ladies,
And doesn't let her know?
Is it anybody's business
But the gentleman's, if she Should accept another's escort,
Where he doesn't chance to be?

If a person's on the sidewalk,
Whether great or whether small,
Is it anybody's business
Where that person means to call?

And if you see a person,
As he's calling anywhere,
Is it anybody's business
What his business may be there?

The substance of our query,
Simply stated, would be this
Is it anybody's business
What another's business is?
If it is, or if it isn't
We would really like to know;
For we're certain, if it isn't,
There are some who make it so.

If it is, we'll join the rabble,
And act the noble part
Of the tattlers and defamers
Who throng the public mart,
If it's not, we'll act the teacher,
Until each meddler learns
'Twould be better in the future
If he'd mind his own concerns.

INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING TEXAS HISTORY IN AN EARLY EXCITING EPOCH

That the feared Mexican bandit, Cortina, who darted across the Rio Grande to prey on the Texas communities long after the War for Independence was over, was not entirely lacking in the softer emotions of civilized humanity is the theme of an episode related by John Salmon Ford, pioneer writer, soldier and statesman. Ford wrote voluminously as a newspaper correspondent of his era, a period that extended from the birth of the Republic until the close of the nineteenth century. His Memoirs, still unpublished, now repose in manuscript form in the family archives collection of the University of Texas library.

Ford tells a story of Cortina and an incident that happened in 1859, with its subsequent results of many years' influence. With his characteristic reticence and modesty, he relates the anecdote in the third person. He was then a major in the Texas Volunteers, and afterwards, at the time the later events in the story took place, a colonel. He was on his way to camp near Brownsville, with a small body of men. With him was Don Sabas Cabazas, a half brother of General Cortina, by a previous marriage of Cortina's mother. Cabazas was evidently a prisoner. Ford continues the narrative as follows:

"When they arrived at Mrs. Cortina's ranch, about seven miles above Brownsville, Cabazas invited the officers of the party to go into the house. After doing so they were introduced to Mrs. Cortina. She was a small woman, not weighing more than one hundred pounds. Evidently advanced in years, being at the time over seventy years of age. She had bright, black eyes; a small, but rather pretty face. She was a lady of culture, and indicated as much in her actions, and had all the politeness of a well bred Mexican. She had taken refuge in Matamoros when Gen. Cortina commenced to make war upon the people of the United States, and had recently returned to her home. When introduced to Ford she took his hand, and looked appealingly into his face for several minutes. By and by tears were visible in her eyes, finally they wet her cheeks. All this was an appeal for her wayward son. It was as much as to say: -- "I know my son has violated the laws of war. He has trampled upon right, and in some instances, I am afraid, he has forgotten the rights of humanity. He has attacked and killed Americans and their friends without provocation. You have defeated him, you are sent again to make war upon him. Should he fall into your power remember to be merciful to him, as you expect to obtain mercy from Our Great Creator." This meeting is still vividly remembered by the writer. He has never attempted to describe his feelings during the interview. He gave the lady an assurance of protection, as far as lay in his power. His men obeyed his orders, and did not molest the lady. As long as she lived when danger of any kind seemed to threaten her she would go to Brownsville and appeal to Col. Ford to aid her. If it were possible he extended assistance to her. She was never troubled by American troops. They respected her and her property. They knew the mother of her son. "While all this was going forward her daughter went into a small Catholic Church on the premises. There she discovered something which to her appeared asacrilige. She began crying, and finally went into a spasm. The Surgeon of the Command, Dr. John T. Eldridge, was present, and relieved the lady. "To those who knew Gen. Cortina as an enemy of the Americans it was not presumed this occurrence would make any difference in his estimation and treatment of Americans, but the sequel shows he had regard for his mother, and esteemed those who treated her well. "In the latter part of 1863 Col. Ford began to organize an expedition to the Rio Grande to protect Confederate interests. Early in 1864 he induced his wife to go to Matamoros where she could see her mother occasionally. When Mrs. Ford arrived at that point she was notified by her sister, Miss Lou Smith, not to cross over to Brownsville, because she had understood there was an order from the Yankee Commander to make her a prisoner if she crossed the Rio Grande at that point. This of course prevented her going to Brownsville. "The City of Matamoros was at the time occupied by Mexican troops, under the command of Gen. Cortina, as Governor of the State of Tamaulipas. Much to the surprise of Mrs. Ford, directly after her arrival in Matamoros, she was called upon by Gen. Cortina and Don Sabas Cabazas. She received them with courtesy, and talked to them in the Spanish language. To her astonishment Gen. Cortina offered any amount of money she needed. He sent officers to her frequently to renew the offer. She thanked him, and told him she had all the money she required. "In the fall of 1864 Gen. Cortina sent troops to the mouth of the Rio Grande, under an arrangement with a Yankee officer that he was to be made a brigadier-general in the United States service. They cannonaded the Confederate camp at Palmitos and crossed men over near the mouth of the Rio Grande, and joined the Union troops at Brazos Santiago, but not until after they had an affair with the Confederates. Of this more hereafter. "Gen Cortina was sharp to hold on to his position in Matamoros until he got definitive news from Washington. It came, and as we understood the United States authorities declined to make Cortina a Brigadier General. A short while afterwards Gen. Cortina came to the Garita, just across the Rio Grande from Brownsville, and sent a request to Col. Ford to meet him to have a friendly talk. By some means this became known to the rank and file of the Confederates. For a time there was danger of a mutiny. The men swore the Colonel should not pass the river, as they knew Cortina would have him killed. The Colonel reasoned with the men, and tried to remove their opposition to his crossing the Rio Grande. He told them Cortina was disposed to be at peace with the Confederacy. That he had failed to effect his object with the Yankees. That he would not dare to treat him amiss. He ordered men to occupy the buildings in front of the Garita--below and upstairs. He told them he would watch every motion of Cortina, and should he discover any disposition to do him injury, he would fire his six-shooter. In that event they were instructed to fire on every thing in Mexican shape on the other side of the river. They took their posts. "Col. Ford went over, and was met at the landing by Gen. Cortina and treated in a very friendly manner. They spoke of the late troubles. Gen. Cortina deprecated any further trouble. Ford told him if he wanted to fight that he, Cortina, knew he would whip him, for he had done it. That it was the time to wipe out all old scores, and begin anew. To which Cortina assented. Ford replied you remember how I treated your mother, and the promises I made her, which I have not broken. I remember how kindly you treated my wife. These things are sufficient to make us personal friends, though we may be enemies in war. To which Cortina assented. When Gen. Cortina thought things were going wrong on this side, after the war, he sent Ford word, that, if he needed 150 or 200 men he could have them. To this proposition Ford made a prompt denial."

DRY INK
(No. 5)
By E. D. Landreth

Next Saturday is election day. There will be seven proposed Amendments to the State Constitution on which we shall vote. On your ballot the proposed Amendment having to do with prohibition repeal will be No. 3. The exact words that will appear on your ballot are as follows:

FOR the amendment to the State Constitution repealing state-wide prohibition, prohibiting the open saloon and providing for local option.

AGAINST the amendment to the State Constitution repealing state-wide prohibition, prohibiting the open saloon and providing for local option.

The wording may easily be confusing. Just remember that if you are a dry and desire to vote against whiskey, scratch the first part out and leave the last part where it says "Against the amendment."

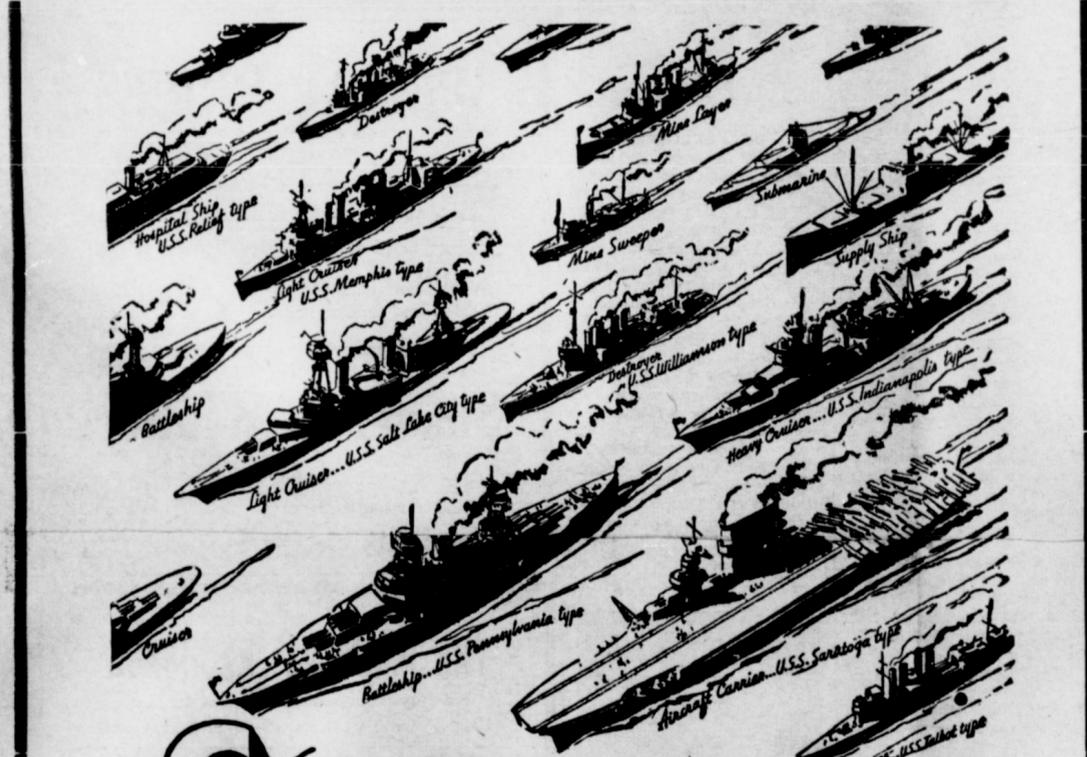

Don't let the clause about prohibiting the open saloon deceive you. It seems to have been slipped in here for that purpose, but every thinking voter knows that if we repeal our prohibition laws next Saturday, there will be nothing to prohibit any drug store, grocery store, hot-dog stand, restaurant, or any individual person becoming a seller of hard liquor for there will be no law with penalty on our statutes restraining the seller of liquor. The sale of liquor is what made the old time saloon, and that's what will make the new saloon whether it is called that or not. So let us get out and vote next Saturday. Remember that this election may be won by a small majority either by wets or dries. If you should fail to vote, and the wets should win by a small majority, you would indeed have something to regret. So let us vote, and vote dry, so that we shall never have occasion to be ashamed when our children or our neighbor's children ask us what we did for their safety and welfare. Remember, Scratch the part, "For the amendment," and leave the last part "Against the amendment."

May I thank the Clarendon papers for having so kindly carried these articles, and if per chance they have helped anyone, I shall be happy.

Mrs. Jennis Allbright of Ft. Worth spent from Friday to Tuesday in Clarendon as a guest of her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Anderson.

SINCLAIR

WINS NAVY OIL CONTRACT

The U. S. Navy has awarded Sinclair for the 5th year in succession the annual contract for supplying lubricants to the Navy on the Atlantic seaboard and to other government departments in 42 states. Included in this contract are lubricants for battleships, submarines, destroyers, airplane carriers and airplanes, motor cars, trucks, tanks, tractors, etc.

Due to the vast Public Works program and improved types of automotive and aircraft equipment used, the Navy this year called for a wider range of lubricants and made more stringent many specifications. As before, the contract was awarded Sinclair on the basis of lowest service cost as determined by Navy Work-Factor tests and competitive bids.

Precinct Now Owns Tractor For Highway Work

The county commissioners of the several precincts of the county came to an agreement Monday whereby one 30-hp tractor owned in common, shall be turned over to Precinct 4 exclusively.

The proposed highway from McLean to Hedley is said to have received favorable approval at the Amarillo WPA office, with the exception of a bridge across Salt Fork. If such highway should be constructed, its maintenance would be furthered by the use of the tractor.

"INFLUENCE"

It is impossible to rid one's self of the power of influence. "For none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself, (Rom. 14:7) The most insignificant and the most isolated are of influence, affecting others in one way or another. Influence is ineradicable. None can dispossess themselves of this power. All that can be done is to direct it for good or evil. Punshon speaking of influence said: "Oh it is a terrible power that I have—this power of influence! And it clings to me: I cannot shake it off. It was born with me: it has grown with my growth, and strengthened with my strength. It speaks, it walks, it moves: it is powerful in every look of my eye, in every word of my lips, in every act of my life. I cannot live to myself. I must either be a light to illumine, or a tempest to destroy."

In seeking to influence others for good, care must be taken lest attention be drawn to one's self, and the effort made to perpetuate one's own name or views, rather than to lead men to a knowledge of and obedience to the truth. Christians should be willing, like John the Baptist, to decrease, even to nothingness, that Christ may increase. "Not what has happened to myself today, but what has happened to others through me" would be a good motto for many of us to adopt.

DEBATING DAYS IN CLARENDON COLLEGE WERE BOTH EXCITING AND INTERESTING

(by Wanda Mayfield)

Do you know what "rush" means? That is what club members do to new college students to persuade them to join their fraternities and sororities. Clarendon Methodist College had its "rushing" seasons at the opening of each term, and Mr. Jerome D. Stocking, who entered college here in 1908, recalls many incidents connected with the two fraternities, the Adkissonian Society and the Panhandle Society.

The chief activity of these lively organizations was debating, and twice annually formal debates were held. At these two dates the whole town would become as uproarious with excitement as it does now over a good football game. Finally the riots became so serious that President Slover ordered that only one major debate be held each year, at commencement time.

Decatur College was considered an important institution in that day, and it was quite thrilling to have the representatives of that college come to Clarendon for a debate. The question for argument concerned the benefits of municipal ownership of street railways to the cities. The entire school body and all of Clarendon willingly sat through two and one-half hours of memorized speeches and defensive rebuttals, just to see the battle between home town boys and the dignified young men from Decatur.

As a souvenir of this particular debate, Mr. Stocking has the original affirmative speeches used by himself and his brother, George Stocking, his colleague. The manuscript is typewritten in purple ink and punctuated with faint pencilled notes. Bound in protective leather, this treasure is kept as a reminder of pleasant days in the Adkissonian club.

All audiences were as enthusiastic as the debaters, and the listeners were not hesitant about cheering when a speaker scored a point exceptionally well. One time a visiting team challenged the Clarendon debaters to produce some evidence they had cited. The reference was found, and the young Adkissonian was so excited he jumped off the platform and presented his authority to the five austere judges personally. This unusual demonstration made a hit with the audience, and the small auditorium resounded with hearty applause.

Some of the popular and efficient debaters who composed teams in these early years Joe Powell, now an attorney in Houston, Clyde Wright, also a lawyer, Kenneth Bain of Silverton, and Hugh and Landon Doak.

Mrs. C. A. Burton is visiting her brother Mr. W. E. Betts at Clovis, N. M. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell had as their guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shoffitt of Lefors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Swift and children, and Miss Anna Moores, are visiting relatives in Cass county. They expect to tour east Texas before returning home the last of the week.

NOTICE

The Board of Trustees of the Clarendon Independent School District will meet in the office of the First National Bank at 8 p. m. Thursday, August 29, 1935 for the purpose of adopting a budget for the school year 1935-1936. Any and all tax payers within said district are invited to be present at the meeting and register their approval or disapproval of the figures to be submitted by the budget officer of said school.

W. W. Taylor, Secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hutton of Washington arrived the last of the week on a vacation visit.

CENTENNIAL TO BE IGNORED BY WESTERN PAPERS

Claim West Texas Has Been Ignored in Making All Appropriations

The West Texas Press Association voted down a resolution pledging support to the Centennial next year at the conclusion of their convention business at Big Springs Saturday.

"The vote on the resolution is expressive not only of the attitude of the newspapermen but of the citizenship of West Texas generally who feel that our section has been grossly neglected," Max Bentley, Abilene editor, declared.

This view was echoed by Garnet Reeves, Lubbock, who said that only 6 per cent of the $3,000,000 state appropriation had not been allocated and that the western part of the State had received no recognition.

While the motion offered by Will Cooper of Colorado from the floor was pending, W. H. Kittrell, Dallas, member of the central Centennial staff, spoke briefly. J. Ben Critz, manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was present but did not take part in the discussion.

"This is the only motion ever offered in the history of the association as far as I can recall that was defeated," Henderson Shuffler of Odessa, secretary of the organization, commented.

OLD ARMY DAYS RECALLED AS CCC BOYS PASS HERE

Nineteen Men From Donley County Included in Next Allotment

Several World War veterans were seen hanging around the Holland Service station this week as large government trucks stopped for supplies of oil and gas. Visions of old army days were pictured and incidents discussed, some pleasant and some otherwise.

The trucks were owned by the Department of the Interior and allotted to the parks service. They were of many different kinds, some carrying men and others bedding, while some of unique design were evidently loaded with office equipment and the personal effects of officers.

The camps are in charge of army officers. Most of the men in the Memphis camp are veterans of the big war, being given a preference when in need of employment, and having dependents.

One hundred and sixty-two men are now at the CC Camp at Memphis. The capacity of two hundred and ten is expected to be filled within the next two weeks.

Enrollment of juniors for the Columbus, N. M. camp may be made at Memphis on August 26-27. Donley county boys may enroll on the second day to the allotment strength of nineteen.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beverly of Pampa spent the week end here visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Virginia Wisdom visited Miss Wilma Hukel at Lubbock over the week end.

Mrs. Heckle Stark left Saturday for Long Beach, California to visit her mother, Mrs. Patten. She will also visit the Exposition at San Diego. She was accompanied to Amarillo by Mr. Heckle Stark, Mrs. Neal Bogard, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Butler.

LOCAL GROCER DIES SUDDENLY TUESDAY NIGHT

On Way Home From Revival Services is Stricken On Street

As the hour grew near for services at the Baptist revival Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tims debated whether to walk or ride. They chose to take the exercise of walking.

After the services as the couple walked down the street past the postoffice, about 9:20, bystanders noticed Mr. Tims acting in a peculiar manner as if gasping. Walking a few steps further, he collapsed in front of the City Grocery. Mrs. Tims, holding his arm, let him down gently and leaned him against the show case wall.

David McCleskey and Jack Lattson standing in front of the Norwood pharmacy and who had noticed the peculiar actions of Mr. Tims, were first to offer help. Others came within a moment and the stricken man was carried into the Norwood Pharmacy where first aid measures were promptly applied.

Those first to examine the man declare that life was extinct almost by the time the restoratives were applied. Miss Miller, a nurse of Adair hospital who was near, also attempted to render aid.

The body was taken in charge by the Buntin mortuary and relatives notified.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church at 3 p. m. Wednesday by his former pastor, M. E. Wells of Hedley, who was assisted by the local pastor, Rev. J. Perry King.

Interment was made in the Rowe cemetery at Hedley. Pallbearers were C. E. Johnson, and Robert E. Miller of Hedley; G. M. James of Goodnight; Melvin W. Cook of Clarendon and H. P. Clemmons of Dimmitt.

Mr. Tims had been in failing health for several months, though he continued to conduct his grocery and allied interests with the aid of Mrs. Tims who has always taken an active interest in their business ventures.

Mr. Tims was a native of Mississippi coming to Texas quite young. He married Miss Corma Lively in Houston county in 1897, she passing away in 1901. Henry C. Tims of Amarillo is the only child of this union.

His second marriage was to Miss Cora Buckalew in Anderson county, Texas in 1903. Leonard L. of Goodnight is the only living child of this union, J. L. Jr. having passed away in infancy.

Donley county and Hedley became the family home in 1913 where he engaged in a general mercantile business until 1919. That year he moved his business to Goodnight, back to Hedley the next year and ten years later he moved to Ashtola where he continued in business until moving to Clarendon in 1934.

Publisher of McLean's Only Daily Visits Here

Reporting business as good and constantly growing better, Miss Floy Wynn, publisher of the "Daily Shopper" of McLean was jubilant over her prospects on visiting Clarendon Tuesday.

Although modestly admitting that she was not yet in the old maid classification, Miss Wynn has had a varied experience in newspaper circles in the Texas Panhandle.

At different times she has been on the staff of the Borger Daily Herald, McLean News, Wellington Leader and Collingsworth Standard as well as other positions that gave her a keen insight into how to get out a sheet that would attract attention of both advertisers and prospective purchasers.

Bowlins Grow Monster Fruit Of Fine Flavor

A sample of a summer Greening apple submitted to the editor of the Leader by Mr. and Mrs. Richmond P. Bowlins was of an Ozark flavor, Oregon size and Rocky Mountain color.

A contribution of crab apples, a rare article in this section, went into preserves. If there is a better combination than crab apple preserves, hot biscuits and Jersey golden yellow butter on a cold day in winter, the editor has never yet heard of it.

These good neighbors have our sincere thanks for the many favors through the years, and this year has been a bit better than any other because of the variety and quality.

MOTHER OF LOCAL MAN DIES SUNDAY WHILE ON VISIT

Former Resident Well Known In Donley County Where She Resided 11 Years

Through her son, James H. Morris, news of the death of Mrs. R. F. Morris became known here the first of the week. The end came peacefully at 10 p. m. Sunday night in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hunter B. Blakeley at Staunton, Virginia.

She became ill on Friday of last week. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 11 a. m. in the Morris homestead, and interment made in the family burying ground at Wellington Presbyterian Cemetery beside her husband.

Mrs. R. F. Morris (nee Mary Elizabeth Cowan) was born Jan. 20, 1860 in McCormick county, S. C. In May of 1920, Mr. and Mrs. Morris came to Clarendon where they resided until 1931 when they returned to the family home in Wellington, S. C. While there Mr. Morris was stricken and departed this life April 21, 1932.

After spending the winter of 1932 with her daughter, Mrs. Blakeley, Mrs. Morris returned to make her home with another daughter, Mrs. Roberta Morris Ryan at Wichita Falls.

Surviving are eight children. Mrs. T. F. Abercrombie of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. R. L. Ariail, Sylva, N. C.; Mrs. H. B. Blakeley, Staunton, Va.; Miss Janie Morris, Atlanta; Mrs. H. S. Lee, Detroit, Mich.; J. H. Morris and Mrs. Brice Kennedy of Clarendon, and Mrs. Roberta Ryan of Wichita Falls.

In speaking of Mrs. Morris Tuesday, her pastor, the Rev. Robt. S. McKee, said: "Mrs. Morris will live long in the hearts of her relatives and the many friends who survive her because of the unusual degree to which the charm and dignity of the true South Carolinian is combined with the character whom we mourn."

Hog Case Tried in City Hall Results in Fine

Following the complaint of several of the neighbors, including the hospital manager, E. A. Woods was arrested on a charge of maintaining a hog nuisance at the Youngblood place near the Hospital.

It is alleged that he had some forty head of hogs, to which the city would not object until complaint was made. When complaint was made, Mr. Woods was asked to move the hogs but is said to have stated that he was unable to find a place to move to.

A charge was filed and the case was tried in City court Tuesday in which the defendant was fined five dollars. The hogs were moved and the controversy ended.

Hudson Family Reunion At Craterville Park

The annual Hudson family reunion was held this year at Craterville Park, Oklahoma, and proved to be a very pleasant affair, and a success in every way. All of the older members of the Hudson family were present except Mrs. W. C. Wyatt of Lakeview Texas, who with her husband was unable to attend.

Those present, nearly all of whom were members of this family or related, included:

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hudson, of Wellington, with their children, Newell and Kate, Lester and Mary, and grandchildren Gertrude and Victor.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hudson of Dike, Texas and son Coleman, and two daughters, Gertrude Hudson and Mrs. Miles Hargrave, and grandson Joe Dan.

Mrs. N. D. Hudson of Clarendon and her children Mr. and Mrs. Neely Hudson and son, Dwayne, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hudson, Mrs. Bertha Benson and Mrs. Alma Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Veazey and granddaughters Ellen and Vivian Veazey of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. France of Dike, Texas, and Miss Mavis Hudson of Childress.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Alverson of Childress with their children, Morris, David and Mary Ruth Alverson and Mrs. J. O. Mayfield with her husband J. O. Mayfield and son Harold.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sneed of Amarillo, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alverson of Childress with their children Willie Marie and Doris Laverne and grandson Leland Kiker.

Dr. and Mrs. F. A. White of Childress and niece Frankie Marie

WORK PLANNED ON HIGHWAY FIVE IS ANNOUNCED

Closing of Unpaved Gaps Is Included on Program To Begin in 1936

At a meeting of the State Highway Commission in Austin Wednesday, the completion of Highway 5 across the Panhandle was recommended to begin with the first federal-state matching of road funds in 1936.

Estimates and locations are as follows: Donley county, 11 miles from Hall county line through Hedley, $147,000; Hedley to Clarendon, 13.1 miles, $191,000; Clarendon to Armstrong county line, 12.5 miles, $156,000.

Highway 66 in Gray and Donley counties, 16.1 miles, $190,000.

Armstrong county, Highway 5 Donley county line to Goodnight, 6 miles, $75,000; Goodnight to Claude, 10.5 miles, $140,000; Claude to Potter county line, 15.7 miles, $250,000.

Bids are to be let and contracts made during the next 90 days, it is said, and work may begin before the advent of the New Year should funds become available.

Harry Warren Again Visits Clarendon Friday

Kilgore is his headquarters town and has been for almost two years, but a business call to Amarillo gave Harry Warren an opportunity to stop over in Clarendon and see a number of friends of former days when the family resided here.

Harry is in the oil game and appears to be doing well. He looks healthy and has a generous supply of the pep that goes with the Warren stock.

As a member of the 36th Co. from here, Harry saw service in France during the World War. He came back a "living corpse" so badly was he shot to pieces, but he does not look it today.

Alverson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kiker of Childress and son Wesley Kiker.

Katherine Stephens, Era Harris, L. M. Manning, Jr. and Oather Raynes of Commerce, Texas.

Mrs. Rena Hargraves of Childress, Texas.

Another Clarendon Boy Has Fine School Record

Larger boys of this day have a secret ambition, and a way all their own of gratifying that ambition. Some weeks ago George McCleskey caught a ride to Ft. Worth. He was at Denton by noon next day, had secured a job by which he could work his way through the big state school and was well on his way to satisfy a boy's craving ambition to make a lawyer of himself.

George graduated through the grade schools here and completed the requirements of the Junior College with the class of 1934. He missed school last winter and his recent record in the Denton school would indicate that he did some private studying never-the-less.

School reports this week indicate that George, the youngest member of the class, made the highest grades in government and economics out of 170 pupils. Not a bad record for a lad of 19, and his friends in the old home town will be glad to know that George is "getting somewhere" with his pre-law course. He expects to be in Denton school again this next term. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. McCleskey.

Mrs. Glen Rieger and children returned home Sunday after a delightful visit with relatives in Montague and Wise county.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie George of Hereford visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Smith Sunday.

Monster Concrete Block Made For Engine Foundation

In order to get some idea of the magnitude of the engine "bed" for the power unit now being installed at the West Texas Utilities plant, one can make calculations from the dimensions.

Speed Brothers, local contractors, and a force of twelve men began last night at 10 o'clock pouring cement for this giant base. The block when completed will be 31 feet and 8 inches in length, 10 feet wide and 8 feet deep, and will weigh approximately 213 tons. Pouring will require about 13 hours.

At least seven days must be allowed for the cement to "set" before the engine is bolted down with bolts one and half inches in diameter set three feet in the cement base.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith of Altus, Okla. spent the fore part of the week with his father and family, Marvin Smith.

Robert Green has been down at Memphis the past week in charge of the express office while the regular man took his vacation.

Ansel Barton is again teaching at Antelope Flat after returning from the State University where he pursued his law studies the past summer.

Mrs. Claude McGowen and children returned from Mangum, Okla. Sunday where they have been visiting the past week.
