COUNTY AGENT EXPLAINS COTTON SELLING PLAN

Cotton Loans This Season Same as Last Except In The Amount

Cotton producers may make application with the buyer of their cotton for the adjustment payment on the difference that exist between the average of the ten spot markets and twelve cent cotton. This does not mean that the government will pay the difference between what the buyer pays for the cotton and twelve cent cotton. For example, if the buyer pays ten and one half cents for cotton and the average of the ten spot markets is ten seventy-five then the producer can only make application for one twenty-five more. The government will pay that difference that exist between the average of the ten spot markets and twelve cent cotton, Mr. Breedlove stated Tuesday.

The ten cent loan is the same as the twelve cent loan of last year only difference is the amount of the loan. If a producer takes the loan then to obtain the adjustment payment that exist between the average of the ten spot markets and 12 cent cotton he must sell his cotton before he can get this additional payment. He must sell this cotton before August 1, 1936 in order to get the difference that exist between the average of the ten spot markets and twelve cent cotton, as explained by county agent, H. M. Breedlove.

Petty Burglaries Are Traced To Two Youths

Tuesday night of last week small articles were taken from the South Ward school building. Wednesday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan was burglarized. About the same time the home of Mrs. Bill Lott was burglarized on the Brice highway.

Two youths, Virgil Counts and Paul Mann, aged 14 and 15, of Amarillo landed at Brice about the same date as the Lott burglary. An uncle of one of the boys took charge of them and was on his way to Amarillo when the youths jumped from his car on a main street and hid in a picture show.

Officers captured both of them and took them in charge. Sheriff Pierce states that finger prints taken in the Duncan home are those of one of the lads. Articles taken off them connects them with all the petty burglaries here, he says.

Both boys were paroled recently from the Gatesville state juvenile school. They were sent back from Amarillo to remain there until each are 21 years of age. One of the youths confessed the burglaries here and implicated the other. Sheriff Pierce has the complete confession which he says is "something" for a boy of that age.

Panhandle Museum May Get Centennial Funds

Canyon, Oct. 18.—If the Texas Centennial Commission follows the advice of the Historical Advisory Board, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum at Canyon will receive $30,000 to be used in enlarging the building and in adequately furnishing it. The advisory Board recommendation was made in Austin October 7th.

W. H. Patrick of Clarendon is president of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and Professor L. F. Sheffy of Canyon is its secretary. The museum is on the campus of the West Texas State Teachers College.

Buy First Flour Over Five Year Period

"I bought my first flour over a five year period this week," was the statement of A. H. Baker Monday. Five years ago he laid in a supply keeping it free from weevils by using tobacco and "high life."

Five years ago he paid $2.10 a hundred, he said. The flour of the same grade cost him $4.65 now.

DISTRICT COURT HAS FEW CASES OVER THE WEEK

Mutual Insurance Suit Was Settled by Agreement When Case Called

The first of several benevolent and mutual insurance suits came to trial in a case docketed as Mrs. Eva E. Hill vs. Texas Mutual Life Insurance Association. When the case was called, settlement was made by agreement.

Other civil suits consisted of divorce cases. Divorces were granted in the following cases: Hattie Guthrie vs. Carroll Guthrie; Jaunita Tidwell vs. Austin Tidwell; Lillian Carpenter vs. E. H. Carpenter.

Pleas of guilt were entered on charges of chicken theft by Gene and Junius Rowe. Each were given suspended sentences of two years.

Chas. Skopik of Amarillo came to trial Monday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He entered a plea of guilt and asked for a suspended sentence. Evidence showed it to be his first offense, and that he was the sole support of his widowed mother. Judge Fires gave the young man a suspended sentence of one year, accompanied with a lecture that would be a great benefit to any one to have heard.

Producers to Vote on Hog And Corn Plan

College Station, Texas, Oct. 17.—Following public hearing held in Washington, Sept. 26, on corn and hog situation, Secretary Wallace has announced that a corn-hog referendum would be held Oct. 26 throughout the states.

"The referendum is intended to provide an opportunity for full and free expression, both for and against a voluntary adjustment program, on the part of all corn and hog producers," E. M. Regenbrecht, chairman of the State Corn Hog Review Board at College Station said upon hearing the Secretary's announcement.

He went on to say that plans are going forward at once throughout Texas to inform the county corn-hog control associations of the details of holding the referendum.

"If another corn and hog adjustment program is developed, it will be on the same general type as the 1935 program," Regenbrecht added.

He explained, however, that the procedure will be revised to permit the assignment of an equitable corn and hog base to each farm under contract whether or not the farm was covered by a 1935 contract or the signer has previously participated in a corn and hog adjustment program.

Regenbrecht stressed the fact that voting in the referendum would in no way bind producers to accept or sign a contract, as the contract itself, if the producers vote to have one, will be entirely voluntary as was the last one.

Jordan Ranch Being Stocked Up With Young Stuff

Like all the other cow men of the nation, W. D. Jordan has been doing little the past few years except to try to hold his own as best he could. Now that prices have risen to within the bounds of reason, the Jordan ranch is being restocked.

Mr. Jordan has one of the best ranch properties of this section south of Ashtola. At this time he is receiving recent purchases of calves made of parties near Channing, McLean and Pampa, there being approximately 800 in the total purchases.

Local Physician Appears On Program at Plainview

The Panhandle District Medical Society closed a two-day session at Plainview Wednesday of this week, with a hundred and twenty-five physicians in attendance.

This meeting was attended by Dr. O. L. Jenkins of Clarendon, who was one to appear on the speaking program during the afternoon.

ALL PRISONERS OF COUNTY TO BE FINGER PRINTED

Government Bureau Will File Records and Keep Check On Nation's Criminals

Regular reports of criminal records will have to be filed by county peace officers with the Federal Department of Criminal Investigation in Washington, beginning November 1st.

County officers, and peace officers of all kinds have long wanted just such a record kept at Washington. Under this new plan of action, when a party is arrested, a full record is possible to be had from Washington within a few hours at the most.

Many times a dangerous criminal has been turned loose just because of the lack of a well kept criminal record at some central point. Under this plan, all those arrested are to be finger-printed and a complete record made.

Discussing the matter Monday, Sheriff Pierce stated that "the centralized information will be a good thing, and afford a quick check-up and aid to other officers."

COZY THEATRE TO OPEN FRIDAY NIGHT IN A BLAZE OF RESPLENDENT GLORY

A monument to the faith of the owner and the expenditure of several thousand dollars, Homer Mulkey's second show house in Clarendon will open at 7:15 Friday evening, the 18th of October.

The first picture, "The Miracle Rider," will no doubt be in keeping with the awe and admiration of the patrons that night when they view with admiration the miracle of workmen skill in constructing a picture show house embodying the highest type of skill, all local talent.

In the beginning, Mr. Mulkey envisioned a model show house. With the aid and counsel of his veteran employee, Mr. Lee Casey, this vision has become a happy reality.

HOMER MULKEY Owner of Pastime and Cozy moving Picture Shows in Clarendon.

The first object and concern of the builder was one of safety for his patrons. Workmen ever kept this in mind in the rebuilding. Twenty-five feet of each wall to the rear was replaced with brick. The floor is resting upon 12-inch steel I-beams placed every five feet. The flooring is of 3-inch edgegrain type.

The same degree of safety was practiced in all the building, even

Tom E. Naylor is Taken To Dallas Hospital

Mr. Naylor was taken to Amarillo Monday in a serious condition where an examination is said to have disclosed a diseased condition of his spine due to an illness of some two years ago.

He was taken to a Dallas hospital for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Naylor and their two sons reside on their farm some three miles east of the Fairview school north-east of town.

FOUR COURTS IN SESSION AT THE SAME TIME

Courthouse Behive Industry As Many Matters Disposed Of Monday Forenoon

Possibly it never happened before in the history of the county when four courts were in session here at the same time, stated Judge Lowe Tuesday. But such was the case Monday.

Judge Fires was busily engaged in grinding out divorce cases in the District Court.

Judge Lowe was hearing a dry check charge against an Amarillo party in the County Court.

The Commissioners Court was in session passing upon bills.

Judge W. A. Davis was hearing a "fight" case in Justice Court.

As a result of all of the above court business, divorces were granted, a party charged with dry checking paid off, bills were allowed and the needy satisfied, parties to an 'affray' paid sums due the county for infraction of the law.

Yep, it was a great court day in Donley county's capitol building about 11 a. m. Monday.

MULKEY EMPLOYS LOCAL MECHANICS ON THEATRE JOB

Homer Mulkey expresses high appreciation of the skill and loyalty of the mechanics in working over time in a mad rush to complete the Cozy Theatre for the announced opening date of Friday evening of this week.

In the construction of the Cozy Theatre, Mr. Mulkey employed home labor and home skill, paying top prices in every instance. John Bass had charge of the carpenter work. Speed Bros. looked after the concrete work and plastering, assisted by Joe Hall, one of their most skilled employees. Lee Casey did the wiring and installed the sound equipment, a service that requires a high degree of skill. He was assisted by James Headrick, Jr.

The decorating was done by Homer Taylor and Carl Tyree, both men having reached the highest degree of proficiency in their profession.

Two Business Houses Broken Into Last Night

Burglars broke into the office of the Cameron Lumber Company some time during the night by breaking an east window sufficient to turn the night latch. They left the east side door open as they left. Nothing was disturbed. The combination to the safe is placed in plain sight and no money is kept in the safe.

The B. F. Kirtley saddlery was visited while Mr. Kirtley was out to supper early in the night. Four leather jackets and two pairs of boots are said to be missing from his stock. Entrance was made by breaking a window in the rear of the store.

Due to the sprinkle of rain, no footprints could be seen at either place, Sheriff Pierce states. Little if any clues were left in either instance.

Rabbit Disease Afflicts Two Local Men North Town

Two weeks after being bitten by rabbit ticks, Roy Roberson and Harold Simmons were afflicted with similar symptoms, later pronounced as being tularemia by the attending physician.

These men, residing on the Jericho highway, some five weeks ago chased a coyote into a hole. In digging out the varmint, they were each bitten by rabbit ticks with which the hole was infested.

Within two weeks each began to develop similar symptoms of fever and a languid feeling. Both men are able to be up, but continue to have that weak feeling that is said to follow tularemia.

Young Lady Establishes New Record as Gold Digger

Meet the champion gold digger of the Panhandle? She "lifted" the promise of an auto off Tony Chisum of Amarillo with an acquaintance of less than a week. Chisum always makes his promises good. He will pay off this time as if he had made a bet.

The name of the young lady is Miss "Tony" Salmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Salmon of Amarillo. She is a grandniece of Mr. Chisum. She is also a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Salmon, merchants of Clarendon.

An auto for a namesake, is the price Tony Chisum is to pay the little lady less than a week old. Her father is an architect of Amarillo.

Four County Medical Society Meets in Memphis Tonight

Physicians from the surrounding four counties will meet in Memphis tonight in their regular sessions. A number of physicians from here expect to be in attendance.

Prominent surgeons from Dallas and other points are to appear on the program.

GROOM TIGERS BATTLE BRONCHOS WINNING 26-0

Bronchos to Play Lefors Team On Their Home Ground Friday

Playing a hard but losing battle, the Clarendon Bronchos lost in a non-conference tilt to the Groom Tigers here last Friday night with a score of 26-0. The Tigers lived up to predictions that they would be strong contenders for the championship of their district. Although the Bronchos were outclassed both in weight and experience, they played heads-up football and fought stubbornly until the gun fired at the end.

Groom scored in every quarter, relying entirely upon brute force straight through the line. The lighter but determined Bronchos found themselves unable to cope with the heavier team, but a stubborn defense at times prevented the opponents from Groom from rolling up a much higher score.

Though defeated in two consecutive games, the Bronchos still look like championship material and will give their worthy conference rivals plenty of misery before the season ends.

It has been learned through reliable sources that Groom used two ineligible men in the game played here last Friday night.

Expressmen Swap Ideas At Childress Meeting

G. L. Green and son Robert attended a district meeting of expressmen at Childress the past week. Men from all points on the Denver from Electra to Clarendon were present, Mr. Green stated.

"Business back east is picking up a lot and the big bosses can't understand why we are not doing a whole lot better here," Mr. Green said as they studied how to hold old business, and to get more new business.

Judge Fires Appoints Jury Commission

A jury commission appointed by Judge Fires is to meet here October 22nd for the purpose of selecting the next grand jurors, and also the petit jury for the next term of district court.

Serving on the jury commission will be Ike Rains, Dave Johnson, Roy Clayton, E. L. Lamb, W. M. Pickering.

TRENCH SILOS PROVING POPULAR NOW FOLLOWING THE FIRST DEMONSTRATION

New emphasis is being placed on the use of trench silos by county agent H. M. Breedlove in Donley county this fall. Many farmers of this section have been forced to buy feed the past few years, and they apparently are taking advantage of the low cost of a method that will not only keep the feed, but make it better and have more nutritive value.

LIESBURG CASE WILL BE GRANTED HEARING MONDAY

A special venire of seventy-five prospective jurors have been called to report at the District Court room next Monday morning at 9 a. m. Judge Fires believes that a jury can be selected from this number to try the charge of murder against O. D. Liesburg.

Liesburg is held in five thousand dollar bond to answer to a charge of having caused the death of R. A. Cox by stabbing on Wednesday, October 2nd.

Singing Convention Draws Large Crowd

The Texas-Oklahoma Singing Convention in session at Mangum, Oklahoma Saturday and Sunday drew a large crowd from both states. It is estimated that some five thousand were present.

Those attending from Hedley were S. J. Ayers, R. W. Alewine and son Ralph, Bud Hefner and Ross Adamson. Newt Waldron from here and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crawford from Bray.

MONEY SAVING VALUES OFFERED BY MERCHANTS

Clarendon Merchants Offer Attractive Bargains To Buyers in All Lines

Whether you expect to buy groceries, shoes, clothing or other commodities, Clarendon merchants this week call your attention to a galaxy of real money saving bargains through the columns of the Leader.

You are accustomed to buying groceries from advertisements in the Donley County Leader lists each week. This week, many other bargains are being offered in dry-goods.

A careful study of the advertisements will convince the average reader that stocks are complete, styles the latest, and prices in line with those to be had in any town or city.

Merchants in making a bid for your business, have cut the small item of profit to a small part of the transaction in order to move the goods. Prices are as low as dependable merchandise can be sold. Furnishings for the home are listed. The very things the housewife has longed for perhaps for months, or even years.

The wise buyer studies the advertising offers of the merchants, the description and the prices quoted. Buyers today know merchandise values more than ever before. The Leader is glad to have this opportunity of acquainting the people of this trade territory with the values being offered at this time by Clarendon merchants. These merchants give Trades Day tickets

Floor space required of about sixteen to eighteen hundred square feet is desired, Mr. Page said.

General building requirements, equipment specifications and other information may be had of Postmaster C. H. Bugbee.

Leases may run for two, five or ten years. Or for two years with an option for three years additional.

CLARENDON'S SECOND PICTURE SHOW.

Neighbors and friends offer congratulations this week to Homer Mulkey on the occasion of the opening of the "Cozy Theatre", his second picture show here.

The new building is an ornament to north Kearney, the main street of the town. The nature of the business will bring new life to the block that has been handicapped by vacant buildings. At this time there are no buildings in that block unoccupied or under lease to be occupied soon.

Mr. Mulkey has builded well. Regardless of what others may do to hold business in the highway age, he has built two show houses that are the equal of any in West Texas.

The character of the plays selected have reflected credit upon the owner of the show house at the Pastime. The Cozy will have the same consideration. The best equipment that money can buy has been installed and the best pictures, though more expensive than the average country town show, have been selected.

The picture shows will continue to bring people to Clarendon for years to come regardless of what may be said or done in the matter of City attractions over ribbons of highways.

The picture show crowds are customers of every merchant in town. Because of the quality of the shows here, business is drawn from a large territory.

The Donley County Leader offers congratulations to Mr. Mulkey on the occasion of his second achievement. In doing so, it offers congratulations to a citizen who has otherwise been worth much to the town and county because of his humanitarian efforts. No citizen has contributed more to charity in actual cash, or given more of his time to the crippled, sick and distressed in this county than has Homer Mulkey.

munity get-together that everyone present enjoyed. Superintendent W. C. Payne was in charge. Choruses of school children entertained the visiting patrons. Southern Melodies, Texas songs, and pep songs were sung by the entire audience. A stringed orchestra—enlivened the occasion. Tap dancing, piano solos, vocal solos, readings, and speeches helped to make the evening a round of entertainment.

LES BEAUX ARTS CLUB

The regular session of the Beaux Arts Club was held Saturday, Oct. 12, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Evans. The meeting was opened at 9:00 a. m. with a breakfast honoring the president, served by the hostesses, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Allensworth, and Miss Mary Howren. Decorations of yellow dahlias, marigolds, nasturtiums, and roses, were artistically arranged in translucent blue vases about the reception rooms, and pyramids of orange and yellow flowers outlined in blue celophane formed centerpieces on the tables of the breakfast room.

On entering the breakfast room, each guest found in her chair a "baby-picture" of the neighbor to her right. To this picture was attached a rhyme which cleverly exploited some characteristic of the adult who was once the infant portrayed.

Mrs. U. J. Boston presided as toast-mistress, and during the breakfast toasts were given as follows: Miss Anna Moores to Mrs. Evans, whose home has been so generously at the disposal of the club; Mrs. W. G. Word to the outgoing president, Mrs. W. W. Taylor; and Mrs. Boston to the new president, Mrs. L. S. Bagby.

Following the breakfast the club went into business session, during which two new members were added, Mrs. T. S. Barcus, and Mrs. J. L. Kerby. Also a painting of blue-bonnets in a woodland scene by the well-known artist, Mrs. Grace Palmer, and purchased by the club, was dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Mantie Trent, who had been a faithful and most beloved member of the Beaux Arts Club. Enthusiastic reports were given on the recent flower-show, and thanks voted to the West Texas Utilities and to the Clarendon Furniture Co. for their kind assistance.

The proper treatment for a bilious child

ANY mother knows the reason when her child stops playing, eats little, is hard to manage. Constipation. But what a pity so few know the sensible way to set things right!

The ordinary laxatives, of even ordinary strength, destroy all hopes of restoring regularity.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult. Hospitals use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. The liquid laxative they generally use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Any druggist has it.

● The Gasoline Multi-Motor is built by Maytag — built for the woman to operate. It starts with a thrust of the foot pedal—operates smoothly and quietly. Electric models operate. It starts with a for homes with electricity.

An Object Lesson From Europe
By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

"They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety."

So spoke Benjamin Franklin, sage of the Revolution and of our early Republic. His words ring as true today as they did a century and a half ago.

Turn to the news from modern Europe if you would see the evidence. What do we read?

Reports of government threatening to plunge its people into a war of conquest which statesmen fear may embroil all Europe.

Reports of government elevating religious and educational intolerance to the status of a national policy.

Reports of government sacrificing the freedom of its populace on the altars of Communism and regimentation.

Under what types of governments are these things happening? The answer is clear.

Under those whose people, for the sake of a promised—and unfulfilled—economic safety, have delivered their essential liberties into the hands of highly centralized authority—whether a dictatorship or a communized bureaucracy.

These are the dangers which the Founders of our nation knew and foresaw when they wrote a Constitution that denied despotic power to politicians and vested all ultimate authority in the people.

These are the tragic possibilities which men and women who love America seek to avert today when they fight efforts to weaken those guarantees of personal liberty and opportunity that are written into our Fundamental Law.

They know—from the lessons now apparent in Europe—that Franklin's warning could be rewritten to read: "They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety lose both liberty and safety." Don't let that happen to America.

Mix it with gasoline in your tank. Pyroil introduced into the heat-ridden top of the motor lubricates where no oil can exist. No motor heat can burn it, nor wet gas wash it away. Used with success in the Panhandle more than a year.

INTERESTING FACTS REGARDING TEXAS HISTORY IN AN EARLY EXCITING EPOCH

Indian fighter and a Texas Ranger under the celebrated Captain "Jack" Hays at the age of 17, Andrew Nelson Erskine continued to pile up glory for himself thru-out his brief life, which ended in 1862, when he was but 37 years of age.

Erskine's papers have been compiled and annotated by his son, B.

H. Erskine of Crystal City, and the whole collection presented to the University of Texas library. The letters and other documents of the pioneer surveyor have been woven by his son into "The Life of Andrew Nelson Erskine, 1826-62," but the biography is unpublished and is deposited in the University archives in manuscript form. In his foreword, B. H. Erskine writes of his father, "Owner of Capote Plantation, member of Jack Hays' Rangers, surveyor, fought against Cortina, 1859, fought in the Civil War, member of the 4th Texas Regiment, Hood's Brigade, killed in the Battle of Shrapsburg."

Born in Sweet Springs, Monroe County, Virginia, March 12, 1826, Andrew removed to Texas with his family in 1839, entering thru Port Lavaca. The family moved inland ten miles and settled temporarily on the Arinosa in Jackson County.

"After Michael Erskine and family were attacked by Comanche Indians on the Arinosa, he decided to move with all his family and belongings further West, a distance of about 150 miles to a place on the South side of the Guadalupe River, in what was then Gonzales County, which later became the celebrated Capote Rancho of 25,000 acres in Texas," Erskine wrote in his biography of his father. "The 'Capote Knobs' from which the Rancho takes its name are three noted white elevated hills on the land near where the Rancho house was afterwards built. Andrew in his 15th year was a valuable assistant to his father, helping his brothers in all things they had to do. The land was unimproved so there was a great deal of work, to make ready the housing of a large family and force of negroes, and to fence a large farm on which to employ the negroes, ultimately a farm of six hundred acres. Andrew and William had to be the nimrods of the family and supply it with the much needed meat. Deer, turkeys, wild hogs, ducks and geese abounded on the place for it was in those early days a Paradise for game; like the boy after the 'Ground-Hog,' they had to have it, for they were about 150 miles from a Gulf port, from which they would have to get supplies shipped from New Orleans if they got any. We can well remember in our time the wagons, loaded with cotton, leaving the Rancho for Port Lavaca to bring back supplies taking five to six weeks for the round trip.

"Andrew and the other children no doubt had a happy time gathering pecans for Capote was noted for its large, valuable pecan groves in a lovely, level valley, not far from the location selected for a home. They reached the place about the time they would be falling, and hunting kept him busily engaged, with such work he had to do, no schools, nearer than 15 to 20 miles so schooling was out the question—his life at home went on in its usual way until some time in the year 1842.

"When taught by the great Comanche raid in 1840, previously recorded, the Republican Government saw the necessity of having organized companies of Rangers under good captains to protect the people, fast settling up a heretofore, ie previous to 1842, undeveloped, but a very fertile desirable section of Texas, valuable for farming, especially so as a horse and cattle country. The Government commissioned a man who had distinguished himself as an Indian fighter at the noted Battle of Plum Creek with the Comanche, in 1840, Captain "Jack" (J. C.) Hays, was made a captain of a company of Rangers; which we assume he organized early in 1842. Andrew H. Erskine and we have some evidence his brother P. joined Hays' company.

"We have historic evidence, that Andrew Erskine was a Ranger in 1842, engaged in seven fights with the Indians, under his renounced Captain "Jack" Hays, whose scouting territory stretched West and North West of San Antonio Texas, to the Rio Grande, border line between Texas and Mexico.

"In 1842 about 100 years after Bandero fought the Apaches, Captain Hays started with about 40 men, intending to go out through the pass and scout up the Guadalupe. They made their last camp, where the town of Bandero is now located, and arrived at the pass about 10 o'clock of the following morning. In the meantime about 100 Comanches were coming south on a raid, and discovered the approach of the Rangers while several miles away, as the country was not brushy then.

"The Indian chief laid an ambush secreting warriors on both sides of the pass, and a dense body of them being in a ravine which entered the pass on the West side. When the Rangers entered the pass they were considerably scattered. The Indians allowed them to penetrate about half way before the attack was made. They came in such numbers and so furiously yelling and shooting, some confusion prevailed, frightened and wounded horses wheeling and trying to run back. The presence and coolness of Hays' soon restored order. 'Dismount, boys; tie your horses and charge the Indians. We can whip them; no doubt about that.' The fight was fierce and bloody, often hand to hand with Bowie knives, when rifles and the small five shooting revolvers no longer loaded.

"Finally the Comanche Chief was killed by Kit Ackland in desperate knife battle. The gallant Ranger was also badly cut. The Indians soon withdrew to the North end of the pass and the Rangers to the South end where there was a big water hole and went into camp. They brought their dead and wounded with them. Five Rangers were killed and six wounded. "The dead were buried near the water hole, the graves being dug with hatchets and knives. Among those killed was George Jackson, son of Tom Jackson, who was killed with Travis in the Alamo, another one was 'Peter Fore, shot through the heart with an arrow."

"The wounded were Tom Galbreath, Ben Highsmith, Kit Ackland, Sam Lucky, Saul Walker and Andrew Erskine. Next morning the Indians were all gone—the Chief buried under a pile of rock, others killed secreted some where, the Rangers did not look for them, horses of the slain warriors were killed at North end of the pass—a custom among Indians, believing the dead warriors would need their horses to ride to the 'Happy Hunting Ground.' Captain Hays carried his wounded at once to San Antonio where they could get 'medical aid.'

"It is quite remarkable, so many of these young Rangers, who fought this battle became noted men afterwards. 'Jack' Hays became a colonel of a regiment of Volunteers—under General Taylor in the Mexican war of 1847. Sam Walker, badly lanced at Bandero Pass, Lieutenant Colonel in Hays' regiment, was killed at the battle of Humantla. Ben McCulloch commanded a company under Hays, was Major General in the Confederate Army, P. H. Bell commanded a regiment in the Mexican war, afterwards Governor of Texas. Ad Gillespie captain under Hays, killed at the storming of Monterey. Andrew Erskine, a prominent citizen of Guadalupe County—a soldier in the 4th Regiment in Virginia doing valient service in the War of Confederacy."

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN. He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

"The Power of Religion."

"For God hath power to help."
II. Chron. 25:8.

Power, whether it be of mind, will or brawn, is the idol of the age. What to do with it and how to control it are the accompanying problems.

I. Religion is power and may be put alongside the other great forces of nature. Electricity and gravitation are beyond our ability to make or mar them. We cannot explain their origin. They are silent in their operation and are known to us only by their effects. Religion has the same general characteristics, and must be tested by the resistance which they overcome.

Life is sometimes cruel, we cannot explain all the facts and problems. Religion is peace, and sometimes works in a mysterious way, yet it produces results. The human heart is often a wild orgy of passion and religion is discipline by which the individual is held in check. Men often do things because of their religious beliefs that they would not attempt for any other cause or reason. The way is dark before us. Whither are we going? The heart cries out in its loneliness. The cry is heard by a loving Heavenly Father. A plan and program is given, religion becomes an inspiration and man is given new hopes. Our God hath power to help his earthly children. As David said, "God is my strong fortress." Paul also voices the same thought in his statement, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheth me."

II. Religion is the power of God. Nay! Says the skeptic. It is energy, intelligence, environment, nothing more. Herbert Spencer

BING CROSBY AT HIS BEST IN DELIGHTFUL COMEDY, AT PASTIME THEATRE 23-24th

A delightful refreshing bit of romantic tomfoolery, "Two for Tonight," will be on display at the Pastime Theatre, Wed. and Thurs. with that grand crooner of love songs, the incomparable Bing Crosby in the top role, leading the fun, music and romance in his latest and most exhilarating comedy.

Provided with a set of top notch hit tunes, a gay piece of business for a plot and an admirable supporting cast, "Two for Tonight" rises high, wide and handsome above ordinary screen entertainment. Crosby is at his best medium as a singer and light comedian. Aiding him considerably in his monkeyshines is lovely Joan Bennett, the inevitably hilarious and uncomprehending Mary Boland, that dependable funny man, Lynne Overman, that grand character comedian, Ernest Cossart, and the beautiful Thelma Todd, not to mention James Blakely, Douglas Fowley, Maurice Cass, Charles Arndt, Charles Lane.

The story is all about an ambitious young crooner who is mistaken for a playright. Mary Boland and her three sons, each by a separate marriage, and all musically inclined, are dispossessed from their home. The three boys decide the only way they can sell their song is to hide themselves in the garden of a famous music publisher's home, and sing. Which they do, not knowing the publisher is stone deaf, who does not even hear the plane that crashes 20 feet away, injuring Bing.

While recuperating in the hospital Bing learns that his mother, Miss Boland, has written the pilot of the plane demanding $50,000 damages because her son has not been able to finish his play! The pilot turns out to be Miss Bennett, secretary to a noted theatrical producer, Lynne Overman. She arranges an interview for Bing, who, in his effort to explain what happened to him, convinces Overman he has a great idea for a play who orders him to write it for his star, and sweetheart, Thelma Todd. Overman then takes himself to Europe.

Many uproarious situations follow as Bing runs out of material after his first act. He is advised by Overman's butler, Ernest Cosspeaks about, "The infinite and eternal energies from whom all things proceed." We only differ from in the name. We say God is behind it all. God is the power. Power is the first characteristic of His being. Man misses this power by his alienation of heart, mind and will.

III. Religion is the power of God with a purpose. "Unto salvation." This power makes bad men good, makes weak men strong, and makes the fool wise. Its work abides. The gospel is a message of power, its gift is power, and its product is men of power.

start, a former stage impresario to go out and seek more ideas. Blind to the fact that Miss Bennett has fallen in love with him, Bing escorts Miss Todd to a night club in search of romance and adventure. He becomes involved in a seltzer water, siphon squirting battle royal in the restaurant that eventually lands him in jail where he continues dictating the second act to Miss Bennett behind bars.

More amusing complications develop when Overman, suddenly returning from Europe, finds Miss Todd in Bing's arms, rehearsing a love scene. A romantic, merry making climax closes the fun film. Crosby, Overman and Miss Boland garnish most of the laughs, of which there are many. Expertly, skilfully directed by Frank Tuttle, Mack Gordon and Harry Revel wrote the following hit tunes for Crosby, "From the Top of Your Head to the Tip of Your Toes," "Two for Tonight," "Takes Two to Make a Bargain" and "I Wish I Were Aladdin."

There is Always Worship Fellowship :: Service

Church going is the balance wheel of a well regulated christian life. God intended that his people assemble themselves for worship. "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together," is as essential to obedience on the part of the christian, as repentance and faith is essential to salvation on the part of the unsaved. Someone has well said, that the christian should be like a watch, pure gold, open faced, busy hands, well regulated, and full of good works. No christian ought ever absent himself willfully or carelessly from his church service. One vote in the ballot box is worth a thousand at home, as we well learned in the recent election. Every time a christian stays at home without cause, he votes for the discontinuance of his church. The empty pew is a weight, the occupied pew is a wing. Be in your place next Lord's day and help the influence of your church fly to the ends of the earth. Your welcome never wears out at the Baptist Church. Regular services Sunday morning and evening. Palmer Motor Company To Show New Ford Saturday

Announcement is made by Doss Palmer of the Palmer Motor Company that his firm will have the new 1936 model V-8 Ford on display Saturday.

"We want all our friends and any one interested to visit the show room Saturday and see a real automobile," Mr. Palmer said Wednesday.

Mr. Palmer was in Oklahoma City Tuesday and Wednesday attending a gathering of dealers and salesmen from the southwest district. Something like twelve hundred men were there to see the new Ford model, he said.

Mrs. Kutch visited Mr. Kutch at Lakeview Saturday and also visited her parents at Memphis.

Rev. E. S. Craig and daughters of Blair Oklahoma visited Mrs. C. A. Burton over the week end.

Miss Loyd who has been employed as nurse at Adair Hospital for the past 15 months left Tuesday for Marysville California where she has accepted a position.

Every Corn-Hog Producer To Get Vote In AAA Poll

Every eligible corn-hog producer in Donley county, as well as each of the 260 contract signers, is entitled to vote in the national corn-hog referendum Saturday, October 26, according to Bert Mayfield, president of the County Corn-Hog Control Association.

All farmers have a stake in the question: Do you favor a corn-hog adjustment program to follow the 1935 program which expires on November 30, 1935? Therefore it is important to get the judgment of every eligible producer on the matter, he pointed out.

All operators and owners, or their official representatives, of farms which produced corn or hogs in 1935 may vote whether they signed corn-hog contracts in past years or not. Community committeemen will determine the eligibility of voters. Each eligible person is entitled only to one vote regardless of the number of farms he may own or operate, no matter where located.

The corn and hog industry, on the one hand, has a choice of continuing a production adjustment program designed to hold corn acreage down to a safe, desirable level and preventing an excessive increase in hog numbers. The alternative is to release control both on corn acreage and hog production at the risk that during the next three years the increase in hog production from the 1935-36 level will be greater than for any previous period in the country's history with consequent disastrous hog prices.

In the years before the AAA, every corn-hog producer would have had to deal with this prospect in his own individual way, with no means of guessing what the industry as a whole intended to do, and with no means of bringing about concerted national action to meet the problem. Now with their production control associations and their voluntary contract system, farmers as a whole are in a position to know what other farmers are going to do and to cooperate to keep supplies and livestock numbers in balance and thereby prevent the periodic uncontrolled ups and downs in pork production and prices which have been one of the major hazards to the industry for many years, and which have been harmful to the consumers of pork as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan of Hedley attended services at the Methodist Church Sunday.

BRONCHOS MEET LEFORS PIRATES FRIDAY NIGHT

Local Team Enters Game To Retrieve Lost Prestige In Fight Against Odds

One of the best games of this District B grid season is predicted for tomorrow night when the Clarendon Bronchos meet the Lefors Pirates at Lefors. The Bronchos will enter their third conference game as the underdogs against the Pirates. Last year the Clarendon team entered the game against the Lefors' eleven with the odds against them, but came out with the big end of the score of 7-0. One can never tell what the Bronchos will do when given an even chance with the fight that they have shown this year.

Coaches Kerby and Stults, have put the local boys through some stiff practice this week and promise a mighty good game for tomorrow night. A large crowd is expected to follow the Bronchos to Lefors in spite of their two consecutive defeats. The Clarendon fans still think the Bronchos have the pep and power to win when given an even chance.

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

W. Wallace Layton, Minister

ARTICLE II

And you will agree, my friend, that a strong confirmation of this view (see last week's article) is seen in the conduct of those who regard the issue as only an affair of personal taste or feeling. They are not open to conviction. Argument is lost upon them, not because they are unable to appreciate it or feel its force; nor because they are dishonest and repudiate their own convictions of right and of duty; nor because they regard this whole question in all of its parts, as a matter of personal preference, in which each one may rightfully consult his own convenience or pleasure. They do not think of it as a question of Bible fact, or as a matter involving Christian principle and allegiance to the authority of Christ. They do not realize the fact that God has spoken the decisive word, and that when He seeks to regulate our faith and practise human discretion is forever set aside to the full extent of its utterances.

One who gratifies his own tastes will laugh at the protests of his neighbor (as per this article) or will resent it as an impertinence. I hear said so many times, "I have as much right to my opinion as you," or again, "my taste in religious matters is as good as yours." This I do not dispute for we, not any of us have authority to be guided by our own sufficiency. They then settle down in their own chosen ways perfectly satisfied and almost unchangeably fixed. It is with them a question of taste and their tastes are not likely to change. But such a chance they take! If they chance to be in the right it is well, but if in the wrong it is horribly bad, for there they will almost certainly remain to the end, a pious but incurable devotee of error. They look upon every appeal to the scriptures and upon every argument professedly drawn there from with suspicion, rejecting them without examination. (Continued next week)

Railroads Announce Holiday Excursion

In preparing to handle the largest volume of Christmas-New year holiday excursion traffic that has moved for several years the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway Company and The Wichita and Valley Railway Company comprising the Burlington Lines in Texas have announced the authorization of attractive excursion fares and arrangements to apply between all points served by railroads in Texas, Colorado, Louisiana (west of Mississippi River), Arkansas, Illinois, Oklahoma, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Montana, Wyoming, certain points in Michigan, Memphis, Tennessee and Natchez, Mississippi.

One and one-third of the current one-way first class fare plus Pullman Company charges will apply for accommodations in sleeping cars. For coach service one and one-half of the current one-way coach fare will apply. The coach fares are very low compared to the usual cost of highway travel, especially so when the risk of the latter is considered.

Tickets will be on sale December 12th to January 1st, inclusive, and will be good for return until midnight of January 31, 1936. Stopovers may be made at any point en route within limit of ticket, and usual baggage checking privileges will be allowed. It is expected that excursion fares will also be authorized to Eastern and Southeastern States and possibly to the Pacific Coast but definite announcement has not been made."

Mrs. Joe Fowler is visiting in Amarillo.

Mrs. Neal Borgard is recovering from a recent illness. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hurn were Mobeetie visitors Monday. Roy Jewell was up from Hedley Monday. Barcus Antrobus had business in Amarillo Monday. Hobart Moffett of Hedley was a Clarendon visitor Monday.
