LEGISLATURE TIGHTENS PENSION LAW AND BOARD OF CONTROL TAKES CHARGE

Three Million Dollars in Interest Bearing Warrants Authorized to Pay Pensions Now. Tax Measures Are Provided Payments in Future to Meet Requirements Federal Law

After making provision for pension payments, the Legislature adjourned at 11:50 Tuesday night. The vote to liberalize the pension law and raise revenue for old age assistance was unanimous after days of wrangling. The Senate, under the leadership of Senator Clint C. Small of Amarillo, had voted to liberalize the pension law several days before action was finally taken in the House Tuesday night.

The Small deliberation amendment included in the omnibus bill as finally passed, provides that old age assistance be placed under the State Board of Control. With the passing of the bill Tuesday night, the State Old Age Commission became a matter of history.

Tax provisions to meet the payroll of old age assistance payments are many and varied.

The omnibus tax bill included the following new or increased levies:

Whiskey tax increased from 80 to 96 cents a gallon and wine tax raised to ten and twenty cents per gallon, depending on whether its alcoholic content is below or above 14 per cent.

Annual tax of $30 on five-cent marble machines, with the provision the tax would not legalize machines now illegal.

Increasing track's "take" of horse race bets from 10 to 11 per cent, with state's share boosted from 2 1/2 to 4 and track's reduced from 7 1/2 to 7.

Ten per cent levy on admissions to picture and stage shows costing more than 50 cents and to admissions to horse, dog, motorcycle and automobile races and dance halls, night clubs, skating rinks and like places of amusement.

Thirty-seven and one-half per cent increase on taxes on utilities, oil and sulphur.

Production tax on natural gas increased from two to three per cent of value.

Additional taxes on insurance companies. These included gross premiums levy of one-half of one per cent on all domestic life insurance concerns, including fraternal societies.

Carbon black tax of one-twelfth cent a pound, except that it would be three per cent of value when carbon black is selling for more than four cents per pound.

A tax on notes of 10 cents on each $100 above $200.

Twenty per cent tax on the prizes at theater "bank nights" with provision that tax would not legalize acts now illegal.

Levy of ten cents a ton on cinnabar ore, five cents a ton on other ores and ten cents a ton on marble.

Senator Small stated that he believed under the liberalization, that not more than 65,000 aged could qualify as eligibles for old age assistance, and that revenue from the above sources would be ample to take care of the payments promptly.

Grocer Partnership 17 Years Dissolved

E. P. Shelton Becomes Sole Owner of Business By Purchase Monday

Back about 1920, E. M. Ozier retired from the grocery business selling his interests to a partnership in which E. Paul Shelton and Buel Sanford were the principals.

The business was conducted at the same location second door north of the First National bank until the building was sold to Clifford & Ray a few months ago.

Since that time, the Shelton & Sanford firm has been doing business in the brick building first door south of the Watson & Antrobus hardware store.

Monday, Mr. Shelton purchased the interest of Mr. Sanford. Mr. Sanford was forced to retire from active work for the present due to a head injury in an auto accident a few weeks ago, it is said. He expects to take a rest and regain his normal health before doing anything else.

Parent-Teachers To Sponsor Variety Dog Show This Friday Afternoon at 4

Every dog has his or her day. Friday is Dog Day in Clarendon. It will be in the form of an exhibit that every youngster may "show-off" his or her favorite canine.

Last year, or on September 28th to be exact, six classes, or varieties of dogs were entered. They were police dogs, bull dogs, terriers, bird dogs, spitz and then the miscellaneous. The last named are the great "middle class" in the dog world.

There will likely be as many classes or varieties this Friday as that of more than a year ago. Perhaps more because of the greater interest being taken.

Prizes will be given in each class. The contest is open to any child in the county—boys and girls. Contestants are directed to register at the South Ward school, or at the insurance office of Patman & Son, next door to the office of the county agent. A dime must be paid to register the dog.

Entrants must bring the dog on a "leash." The leash may be a

Defendant in Hospital At Amarillo When Case Is Called Monday

When the case of Texas vs. O. D. Liesburg was called Monday, the court was informed by defense counsel, James A. Mahan, that the defendant was ill in an Amarillo hospital. Liesburg is said to have entered the hospital Friday.

Judge Fires instructed Sheriff Pierce to ascertain the condition of the defendant by having a physician examine him. This was done and when the case was called Tuesday, Judge Fires was informed that it was the opinion of the examining physicians that Liesburg could not be brought here before next week because of his physical condition.

Defense counsel then renewed a motion for a continuance of the case to the spring term of the district court. District attorney John Deaver stated that as one of the main state's witnesses had come from Tucson, Arizona, it would be unjust to hold him here pending the matter of a trial some time during this term.

Judge Fires set the Liesburg case for the third Monday in March of 1937, this being the next or spring term.

Bronchos Win Over Mobeetie Hornets 6-0

The local squad defeated the Mobeetie Hornets 6-0 last Friday afternoon at Mobeetie. Due to a wet field the Bronchos were unable to score but once, but showed up as a better squad than the Hornets throughout the game.

The Bronchos winning score was made in the first two minutes of the game when they took the ball on their own 30-yard line and marched straight down the field by line drives with Cornell putting the finishing touches on and taking the ball over for the touchdown. Clarendon again threatened with another score in the last minutes of the game when they took the ball on their 18 and marched down the field to the 5-yard line, only to be stopped by the end of the game. The Bronchos held the Hornets in check all through the game not giving them one chance to come within scoring position.

Both teams played good defensive and offensive football. Cornell Grady, and Holtzclaw were the outstanding players for the Bronchos.

Butler, the Broncho Captain, who was injured two weeks ago was unable to play and the line was much weaker with him out of the game.

DISTRICT COURT SHORT ON CASES

Noted Highjacker Brought Down From Amarillo For Trial Wednesday

Clarendon has not been what might be termed a "court town" for a long number of years. Donley county citizens just simply won't break the law in order to furnish the curious a place to appease curiosity.

Mrs. Lois Talley was granted a divorce from R. P. Talley at the beginning of the term.

A civil suit styled Robt. H. Mitchell vs Employers Liability Corporation was settled out of court Monday. Mitchell alleged personal injury while in the employ of Coker & Braden on the highway job west of town. He received two hundred dollars in the compromise.

The case of J. E. Ryan called for trial Wednesday was continued to the spring term due to absence of defense witness.

J. B. Anderson, charged with driving a car while intoxicated, entered a plea of guilt Monday and the Court gave him a prison term of one year, the sentence being suspended.

ACCUSED HIGHJACKER TAKES STAND IN DENYING SHARE IN TOURIST ROBBERY

Has Been Identified by Tourist Couples As One Who Helped Rob Them on Highway 66 In An Orgy of Highjacking Last Winter. Thugs Evaded Officers in Uncanny Manner Leaving No Trace Behind

During December of 1935, and January and February of this year, motorists, and specially tourists from other states, were repeatedly held up and robbed of valuables on Highway 66 between Groom and Alanreed. In each instance the robbers apparently "went up in thin air," as one officer explained the enigma.

The break finally came, as come it will in time. Wichita Falls officers raided an apartment during April. One man escaped after firing a few shots at the lone officer in a critical position. The officer escaped injury to testify in a trial here Wednesday.

Of the two men escaping from the apartment, one was arrested on a street at Iowa Park a few hours afterward, and later identified as Arthur Spencer. Two women were arrested in the apartment and an assortment of merchandise recovered that was later identified by couples highjacked on Highway 66.

Spencer was returned here and held for identification. Two couples identified him as one of two highjackers robbing them on 66. He was taken to Amarillo for safe keeping.

Since April, he has been given a 5 year term in Tulsa, Oklahoma on a car theft charge, and a seven year sentence in the federal court at Amarillo on another car theft charge.

Indicted in this county on two charges of highway robbery, he went to trial Wednesday on a charge of robbing Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jackman of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, as they toured across Donley county on Highway 66 on the night of February 29, 1936.

This couple recovered a part of the stolen goods as theirs taken in the apartment at Wichita Falls. Money, diamond jewelry and clothing yet is missing.

Each of the victims described the robbery in detail Wednesday afternoon from the witness stand. Each positively identified Arthur Spencer as one of the two robbers.

Corroborative evidence was given by L. E. Hanaway, the officer who was fired upon when the apartment was raided, deputy sheriff Ruel Smith of Groom, Sheriff Guy Pierce and Paul Reeves of Jericho.

The defendant took the stand as the only defense witness. He denied being in Texas at any time during the month the crime was committed. The evidence was completed as court closed Wednesday.

The jury ended deliberation at 11:30 today giving Arthur Spencer a prison sentence of 25 years.

Grandpa Hefner is Slowly Returning to Normalcy

Grandpa A. O. Hefner of the Midway community is slowly recovering from becoming "grandpa" for the first time. He is said to make frequent trips to town last Robert Gene, better known as "Bobby" to his grandfather, forged him to the extent of falling to recognize his proud grand sire.

Robert Gene came Tuesday of last week to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Verna Lusk. The Leader joins with the numerous friends of the happy young couple in extending congratulations.

Figures Show 1,350,000 Girls At Bars In U. S.

Approximately 1,350,000 girls and women are now engaged in the sale of beer and hard liquor in the United States, according to press association and newspaper surveys in various parts of the country. The figures include not only barmaids in beer and cocktail parlors in large metropolitan centers where hundreds of thousands of feminine bartenders are employed, but mothers and daughters who serve drinks at the village crossroads, oftentimes in taverns operated by the family.

YOUR FRIEND AND NEIGHBOR THROUGH THICK AND THIN

Looking back over the years since the Donley County Leader has been your county weekly, it will be recalled that you paid $1.50 a year when crops were what they should be, and were expected to be. At the same time, it will be noted that when crops were not up to the standard as we have this year, the management of the Leader continued to be your friend and neighbor by making a special rate. Many of our readers renew in the fall of the year. They depend on the crop income to pay their bills. They have no other resource from which to get the money, though a small sum. Due to the fact that hundreds of names are on our subscription list, a large number are constantly paying up each month. A large number the past week have asked that a special rate be made to enable them to pay the Leader, and at the same time be enabled to purchase winter necessities. We are glad to be in a position to help out. We've been your friend and neighbor through good times and bad. We sympathize with you when times are hard, and let that sympathy speak in terms that mean something. $1.00 GETS THE LEADER A FULL YEAR In making the special rate of $1 for the full year, we lose several hundred dollars that we would get if the rate of $1.50 was maintained. The monetary loss will be made up in good will. We feel sure of this because such has been the case in past years when conditions were trying. Our only request is that you pay up now. The offer can be for only a limited time. The rate applies to both new and renewal subscriptions alike. You can easily afford to pay a dollar for the Leader. That means practically 2 cents a week for your favorite weekly. But do it now.

Governor Proclaims A Will Rogers Day

Governor James V. Allred has proclaimed November 4th as Will Rogers Day, in memory of the 57th anniversary of his birth.

The Governor has suggested that schools and civic clubs hold programs in memory of Will Rogers, and urged Texans to observe the day by reflecting upon the fine, noble character of Will Rogers, the life of service that he lived, the outstanding good he accomplished in his many charitable deeds in which he gave freely of his time and money in relieving needy humanity.

A nation-wide broadcast with Eddie Cantor as speaker, and a special observance at the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas are among the many ways that the Day will be observed.

Mrs. Neal Bogard Improving Nicely in Hospital

Late reports are to the effect that Mrs. Bogard is improving as rapidly as expected following an operation in a Dallas hospital. Mr. Bogard and her mother, Mrs. Millard Starks, who accompanied her to Dallas, returned home Sunday.

MEMBER OF PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

FIVE MILLION FOR STATE ADVERTISING.

That is the sum being suggested in advertising Texas to the nation, a million to be spent each year. This idea is prompted from the returns on a half million spent on the Centennial.

The idea is being sponsored by Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul, who is chairman of the Commission of Control for the Centennial.

Only a small part of the half million was spent in Texas. Only a small part of the five million will be spent with Texas newspapers, if any. No statement indicating such procedure has been advanced so far that Texas newspapers would be given an opportunity to "sell Texas to Texans."

Texas people need to know more about their own state. Texas is ahead several millions of dollars in gasoline tax this year because of the inducement in state advertising. Texas people were told where to find places of interest and how to get there. They went by the hundreds and thousands and are much better for it.

How shall Texas people ever learn of their big state except being told about it through newspaper advertising? The job is too big for gratuitous publicity. "See Texas First," should be the slogan of every patriotic citizen of the state. Then live up to it.

PAY ROLL TAXES BEGIN IN JANUARY.

Worker-employers giving employment to eight or more, will begin paying a direct tax after next January first. The tax will begin on a graduated scale, and will be paid into the U. S. Treasury to insure payments on unemployment and old age insurance. This is known as the Social Security law.

One percent of the pay rolls for 1936 will be paid in January of 1937. At that time another one percent will be added making two percent for the unemployment insurance reserve fund. At the same time, in January of 1937, two percent will be collected on payrolls for the national system of old age insurance. One percent of this two will be deducted from the wages of every employee of the nation, except agricultural labor, casual labor and domestic help.

During 1937, a payroll tax of 4 percent will be collected, half to go to the old age insurance fund, and the other half to unemployment insurance fund. A yield of $1,120,000,000 is estimated in 1937.

The rates step up each year. In 1938 the unemployment tax will be three percent, and will remain at that rate. Old age insurance tax rates will climb until 1949, at which time the tax will be six cents on every dollar.

In 1949 the 3 percent payroll tax is supposed to support the state systems of unemployment insurance.

A 6 percent payroll tax is expected to take care of the demands of national old age insurance.

At its peak, this plan will be expected to produce three billions of dollars yearly.

Mary had a little cold, but wouldn't stay at home, And everywhere that Mary went, that cold was sure to roam; It wandered into Molly's eyes and filled them full of tears.

Money Talked in Old Days.

There are more misrepresentations, deception and diabolical LIES being put out by the Republican party in this campaign than we have ever seen before. It reminds us of the first race Williams J. Bryan made for President, when the Republican party spent FOURTEEN MILLION AND FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS IN CASH to defeat an honest man for President. If Landon is elected it will be because Special Interests spend 50 to 100 million dollars to defeat Roosevelt.

Pulled Out of Bed, Maybe.

While the spell-binders rant about the dangerous encroachment of communism and socialism, the despotic trend of our government as they see it, the down-trodden poor and what not, the rank and file of the people of the United States are doing a lot of thinking. We have heard many politicians say that they entered the field of politics "at the solicitation of their many friends," or that they were "drafted" for the position. If some of them don't use a little more of the sense with which the Almighty endowed them and exercise their best judgment as men and as citizens and quit chasing political will-o'-the-wisps because of flurries of popular sentiment—if these

Farm And Ranch Taxation In Texas

Systematic Studies Reveal Various Phases Of Farm Real Estate Problems

Systematic studies of taxation in Texas as related to farm and ranch property have recently been made by the Texas Experiment Station, under the direction of L. P. Gabbard, chief division of farm and ranch economics. One phase of this study is reported in bulletin No. 505, entitled "Relative Importance of Intangible Property in Texas." In this study, Mr. Gabbard reports gross inequalities found in the taxation of tangible compared with intangible property and says, "according to specific references in the constitution of Texas and subsequent legislation, all property in the state, except that expressly exempted, is subject to taxation. Nevertheless, almost all intangible property, such as stocks, bonds, mortgages, notes, cash in hand, cash on deposit, etc. escapes the payment of a direct tax. The escape of intangible property under our system of taxation is significant in two important respects: first, the extent to which intangible property constitutes a substantial proportion of all property, and, second, the distribution of intangibles relative to the size of property holdings and to different types of communities, such as rural, town, and city."

"County probate records were analyzed to indicate the relative importance of intangible property, and its distribution relative to size of property holdings and to different types of communities. The study involved a complete compilation and classification of property values of 25,187 estates probated in 47 selected counties during the period 1922-1931."

"An analysis of the probate records shows: (1) tangible property constituted 51.1 per cent, and intangible property 45.9 per cent of all property probated; (2) tangible property constituted 97.1 per cent of the property assessed for taxation for state and county purposes in the 47 counties studied, and intangible property 2.8 per cent; (3) of all real estate probated 17.8 per cent was in estates of $500,000 and over, while of all intangibles probated 33.9 per cent was in estates of $500,000 and over thus indicating a rather high degree of concentration of intangible property in large estates; (4) intangible property constituted 31.6 per cent of the property probated in rural communities, 38.4 per cent in town communities, and 50 per cent in city communities; (5) in recently developed agricultural areas intangibles made up only 12.6 per cent of the total, while in older urban areas intangibles constituted 52.6 per cent of all property probated."

Another phase of the tax study is reported in bulletin No. 507, entitled "Tax Delinquency on Farm Real Estate in Texas." In this report, Mr. Gabbard says, "Delinquent taxes accruing in Texas since 1885 have reached the enormous sum of $141,783,000. The most alarming aspect of the problem is that more than half of this sum has accumulated during the past two years."

"Classified according to 'solvent' and 'insolvent,' about 75 per cent of delinquent taxes are of the solvent class and 25 per cent the insolvent. During the past half century we have collected about 45 per cent of the solvent class and only eight percent of the insolvent class—the first instance a very poor record and the latter a deplorable failure."

"From a complete survey of tax delinquency on farms, in 120 selected counties, for the period 1928 to 1932, inclusive, it was found that the number of farms permitted to become delinquent annually increased from 33,267 in 1928 to 124,192 in 1932. In all there were 364,238 cases of delinquencies represented in the five year period. Out of this number of cases subject to sale for taxes only 932 tax sales were recorded. The risk of losing the farm from failure to pay the taxes being no greater than this is undoubtedly the cause of the failure to pay."

"Ninety counties out of 119 showed 'unknown' delinquent acreages ranging from one to 40 per cent of the total delinquent acreage in the county. In 12 counties 'unknown' delinquent farm properties comprised more than 40 per cent of all farm delinquencies. This reveals an extremely haphazard method of assessment."

"The following are given as the more important causes of the tax delinquent situation in Texas: declining agricultural as well as other commodity prices and rising taxes; faulty assessment and collection practices; periodic remission of penalties and interest; the uncertainty of tax titles; the indifference, procrastination, or misfortune of the taxpayer; and, finally, the failure of our tax system to include and properly harmonize the two fundamental bases of taxation—benefit and ability."

"The situation as revealed in this study suggests the need for certain changes not only in the administrative and legal aspects of taxation, but in the fundamental bases of taxation with a view of a greater equalization of taxes. Among the more important changes recommended are: an active and responsible participation by the state in the assessment and collection of taxes; the keeping of a complete and continuous inventory of taxable property by counties; that collection procedure be made simple, certain, and convenient; that court procedure relative to tax sales be simplified and harmonized with the enforcement of tax laws; that penalties be reasonable and certain and their remission be avoided; and, finally, that collectors be appointed on a competitive basis."

Still another phase of these tax studies is reported in bulletin No. 512, entitled "Trend of Taxes on Farm and Ranch Real Estate in Texas." In this study, Mr. Gabbard found that "The average tax per acre on farm and ranch real estate rose gradually from 8.4 cents in 1913 to 26 cents in 1931, and fell to 19.6 cents in 1933. Concurrently, the prices of farm products in Texas rose from the base level (100 per cent) in 1913 to 222 per cent in 1919, the highest point reached by prices during the period of 21 years. From this high level reached in 1919, prices declined to 51 per cent in 1932, the lowest point of the period, and recovered to 64 per cent in real estate in 1933 relatively 3.6 times that of 1913."

TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

You see a great deal of hullaboo in the papers about communists being heard of in Texas. This is a line being handed out to get out the voters to the polls. You are supposed to get 'scairt' about the matter, and rally to the old standard. As a matter of fact the communists have a list of candidates on the ballot this voting time. They have had 'em in past years. What is a communist? Frankly we don't know, and doubt if they know themselves. Most of these new-fangled ideas are headed by leaders who want a fat job. Cut the salaries of the leaders of our organizations, and very few of them would survive.

The deer appear to be fareing very well in Utah this season, only seven being killed to date. At the same time, 37 deer hunters and one mule have been killed. Some years ago when the writer was in the mountains, we outran the game when we heard the first shot of the high-powered Savage rifle. We knew that a big shot from St. Louis or some other big town had broken into the game country. They usually shot at everything that moved. As long as the big city hunters shoot each other, the game is safe.

There is much sadness in the official families of Tennessee and Kentucky. It came about Friday when Gov. White of Mississippi and his 57 colonels visited the Centennial. The other states failed to bring all their colonels when visiting the Centennial recently. Texas is short on colonels, but look at her admiral of her navy! One of the swellest moving picture screen stars of the list, and a native Texan, too. We may not lead in colonels, but what we can do with admirals is something pitiful. Is there a colonel in Arkansas?

Newspaper reports state that members of the legislature roam about the room reading newspapers aloud while the legislature is in session. We deny the insult regarding that august body. It must have been a bunch of escaped inmates from the imbecile asylum in Austin.

"Have you got your pension yet?" You hear that question often. It means a lot to those who are practically helpless. At the same time that the liquor board collected $406,126.40 during September, it took $138,681.95 to pay salaries and expenses of those doing the collecting. 25% of what was left went to the schools. 15% for the old age assistance permanent fund. Do you know what was left to pay old age pensions? Well it was just $170,495.84.

No wonder that Gov. Allred wants the Board of Control to operate the pension business. No wonder that he joined with others in asking that the law be changed to apply to the needy only. A lot of folks have just begun to realize that this pension affair is a big political racket.

And another word, folks. If we Texans don't defeat the first amendment that we will have on the ballot November 3rd, Texas will get into the liquor business. We may think the pension game a big racket, but we ain't seen nothing yet if the state gets into the likker business. It always costs the state or government more to get anything done than it does an individual or privately owned company. Government in business has always been a failure because of political pets that have to be taken care of in some manner.

695 people are drawing salaries on the likker board and in the old age pension department. We certainly need some law-makers down at Austin, and we need real heman who have the guts to speak right out taking a bold stand for a square deal for all the folks. We have a very few, but they can't get anywhere.

The poorest of the old folks, as a rule, are getting nothing. When letters are written to the Old Age Commission, a regular form of alibi that has been printed for several months, is sent back. It bears no information, makes no promise, and gives nothing to the hungry and ragged who need food and clothing worse than a political pet needs a job.

They refer to them now as the home economic laboratory. A lab. is where they take things apart and make an inspection. One of these days they will take a fellow apart and try to find out why his brains are in his stomach instead of in his head. Nothing will be accomplished, of course, because women will go right on appealing to a man's affections through his stomach by feeding him.

In order to further induce people to take baths during the winter, a new-fangled bath tablet has been put on the market that foams a bit when put into the tub. It is said to soften the water, comes in a variety of colors shaped like flowers, and you can get any flavor or odor you like most. It gives the water a wonderful "flavor," if you happen to wait too long between baths.

Do you mumble, hiss or gurgle? It is supposed to be your false teeth at fault. Some folks are not annoyed when they do their own mumbling, hissing and gurgling, but this leniency is not extended to others. Denture static, as a rule, is limited to a chomping sound something like the slamming effect of a mule kicking a barn.

A skeleton in the family closet is not so much, but when the "skeleton" persists in stalking in full view of the public, dignity and pride are apt to seek cover.

Often it is better to have loved and lost, rather than start in paying for furniture, a car and radio on the installment plan.

When a fellow wants a favor, he dogs your footsteps until you have to give him the dodge to get time for your own affairs. Just as soon as you grant the favor, that same fellow will dodge you. Bachelor Bill says that kind of a fellow is what he would term a friendly enemy.

Despite the fact that dozens of tooth pastes are advertised, your

It has been said that there is more jealousy existing between newspaper folks than between doctors or preachers.

One hears much prating about the Boulder dam being the greatest water power. And it is—except women's tears.

WOMAN WHO BROUGHT SIGHT, SPEECH TO HELEN KELLER IS DEAD AT AGE OF 70

New York, Oct. 26.—The woman who gave half a century of her life to Helen Keller and brought speech and comparative sight to America's noted deaf-mute author and lecturer, died today as she had lived—still holding her famous pupil's hand.

The end of the devotion of Mrs. Anne Sullivan Macy for the girl who conquered eternal darkness came early today in the home they shared with Miss Polly Thompson, Miss Keller's secretary, at Forest Hills on Long Island. Mrs. Macy was 70 years old.

Years and years ago, Mrs. Macy taught Miss Keller to "read" by "writing" words on the blind girl's palm with her fingertips. A miracle of education and patience later gave Miss Keller the power to speak, even to read, as she became one of the most famous women of the past decades.

But this morning time rolled back again. Miss Keller sat at the bedside of her benefactress. Mrs. Macy was in a coma, as she had been for four days following a sudden heart attack. This time it was Miss Keller's turn to try desperately to awaken recognition through her fingertips, as Mrs. Macy had taught her. But the aged woman died without rallying.

Heartbroken, Miss Keller, now 56 years old, said as she left the bedside:

"My teacher is set free at last from pain and blindness. I pray for strength to endure the silent dark until she smiles on me again. "My teacher has gone from me a little while but I shall feel her presence anew when my eyes are blessed with light, my ears saved unto harmony, and my imprisoned light set free."

Certified dwarf milo seed produced 2,000 pounds per acre for Willie Smith, a crop demonstrator working with the county agricultural agent in the Peacock community in Stonewall county, while common seed produced only 1,000 pounds per acre. Both kinds of seed were planted on the same type of land and at the same time of the year.

Forty-three cents per acre is the actual cost of terracing his 80 acres of land with a tractor, according to H. G. Karenbrook of Wichita Falls. The terracing was done under the supervision of C. W. Wilhoit, assistant county agricultural agent.

The hens produced 1,143 dozen eggs during the period. The feed cost was $63. Gross sales were $209.39, or an average net profit of $1.09 per bird during the seven months. "The Great Ziegfeld" Glittering With Star Talent, Greatest Show on Earth!

Luise Rainer, Virginia Bruce, William Powell and Myrna Loy with Harriet Hoctor leading the Circus Ballet in "The Great Ziegfeld"

Genius of Man Who Was America's Greatest Showman Carried On in Great Spectacularly Conceived Drama Suggested by His Colorful Career

The spirit of Florenz Ziegfeld occupied the front row of a huge theater set on the largest sound stage in the world, at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios for the past six months.

The genius of America's greatest showman lived again under the glare of a million candlepower incandescents while familiar scenes and friendly faces formed a kaleidoscopic review of his romantic, yet crazy-quiet career.

Now "The Great Ziegfeld," a picture suggested by the career of the noted glorifier of the American girl, is being brought to the screen November 4-5-6, at the Pastime Theatre, with William Powell in the title role; Myrna Loy as his wife, Billie Burke; and Luise Rainer as the starry-eyed, alluring Anna Held.

Many of the personalities that Ziegfeld made famous joined this cast of stars, carrying on the traditions of the producer whose showmanship has injected itself into every scene. Fanny Brice, Ray (Rubber-Legs) Bolger, Harriet Hoctor, and others who triumphed in the Ziegfeld shows repeat their inspired performances for the motion picture that glorifies the man who brought them fame.

In addition to the star roles and the entertainers who appear as themselves, many other famous names in the theatrical world are glorified in the picture. A tribute is paid to Will Rogers. Dr. Ziegfeld is played by Joseph Cawthorne, Erlanger by Paul Irving, and Sandow by Nat Pendleton.

Virginia Bruce, herself a Follies girl, is seen as the most glorified of all the glorified beauties, in the role of Audrey Dane. Others in the featured cast include Frank Morgan, Reginald Owen, Ernest Cossart, Robert Greig, Raymond Walburn, Jean Chatburn, Charles Trowbridge, Charles Judels, Marcella Corday, Esther Muir, and Herman Bing.

Robert Z. Leonard directed "The Great Ziegfeld" and Hunt Stromberg is the producer. Seymour Felix, dance director for Ziegfeld, staged the routines for the picture, which feature the glorified beauties brought to Hollywood from all parts of the country.

Incidents suggested by Ziegfeld's colorful career are paraded before the eyes of the theater audiences in "The Great Ziegfeld," from the time he started in the show business, ballyhooing Sandow, the strong man, at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1893 until his untimely end.

It is probable that the life of no other individual character of the past few decades has offered such a wealth of color, of glamour, of possibilities for visual interpretation as the eccentric Ziggy.

His glorification of the world's most beautiful women; his reckless mode of living; his unprecedented expenditures in the staging of his shows; the great names that emerged from his stage productions; his understanding of the value of publicity and his unique methods of getting it; his faultless judgement in picking his girls; his music and his acts, all combine to offer motion picture possibilities that few other famous characters of the twentieth century present.

There are 550 species of grass in Texas or one half of the 1100 species found in the entire United States yet Texas produced only 775,000 tons of tame hay last year, the Texas Planning Board discovered during a recent survey.

Norwegians Honor Kinsmen They Say Discovered America

Boston, Oct. 19.—On Sunday, the day before the nation celebrates Columbus Day, Greater Boston's united Norwegian organizations honored the memory of Norsemen believed to have sailed to America nearly 400 years before the Great Admiral. Celebrations are planned at Norumbega Tower in Weston, Mass., near the location described as the site of a considerable Norse colony 900 years ago.

At a preliminary meeting in Cambridge last Friday, Alfred N. Miner addressed the Norumbega Society on the voyages made by the Norsemen around 1000 A.D. and thereafter. He based his talk on knowledge gained from translations of old Norse sagas and the historical research of numerous American and European scholars.

Briefly, the background sketched by Mr. Miner included the 986 A. D. voyage of the Norseman Bjarni son of Herhulf who was driven far to the west while sailing from Iceland to Greenland.

Saw Bold, Rocky Coast
"He saw several times in the distance a bold, rugged coast line," interpreted Mr. Miner, "but made no landing. He was probably off the coast of Newfoundland or Labrador." The account of this voyage was related when he returned to Iceland.

"In the year 1000 A. D. Leif Erikson, the son of Erik the Red, set out to test the truth of the tale told by his predecessor. He sailed with 35 men. His first visit was the island seen by Bjarni, which he named Hulfaland, or flat stone land, supposed to be Newfoundland; next, Markland or woodland, supposed to be Nova Scotia; and last, Vinland or vineland, because they found vines and grapes in great abundance.

"This last stopping place is thought to have been the coast of New England. Leif built houses and wintered in Vinland and in the spring loaded his vessel with timber and returned to Greenland."

Wintered in Vinland
About 1002 A. D., Leif's brother Thorwald went to Vinland, according to Mr. Miner, "and 30 men wintered at the place previously established by Leif. In the succeeding year Thorwald sent a party to explore the coast. It was gone all summer. In 1004 he explored the coast eastward and was killed in a skirmish with natives. The following year his companions returned to Greenland.

In the spring of 1007 A. D., Thorfinn Karlsefne, a rich Icelandic, set sail for Vinland with three ships and 160 men and women. They took with them their cattle and sheep. Three summers were passed on the Vinland coast. While here, Thorfinn's wife, Gudrid, bore a son, Snorre. Finding the natives hostile, they at last returned to Greenland."

Many old Icelandic manuscripts make mention of other Norse visits to America, accomplished, according to Mr. Miner, in 1011, 1121, 1281 and 1347 A. D.

Long Before Columbus
"All these voyages took place before Columbus made his discoveries in 1492," the speaker asserted. By way of illustration Mr. Miner showed assembled guests one of four axes found after the Norsemen. It is the property of Morgan Stafford of Newtonville. The discovery of this implement was made in Republic County, Michigan by a prospector who picked it up from the bed of a stream in 1878. It still had a considerable wooden handle, which crumbled, however, as he grasped it. An ax similar to this one is preserved in the Museum of Skara, Sweden. It is of the helmet-smashing type.

Not far from the site of this discovery, a farmer clearing his land in 1898 uncovered what has since become known as the Kensington Rune Stone. It was found, face down, under a stump whose roots had grown around it.

A Record of Discovery
The stone is now at Alexandria, Minn., where tourists view it with curiosity. Some scientists still shrug their shoulders, others take the trouble to check the translation, in old Norse characters, which reads:

"Eight Gothe and 22 Norwegians upon a voyage of discovery from Vinland westward. We had a camp by two skerries one day's voyage north from this stone.

"We were out fishing one day. When we returned home we found 10 men dead. A V.M. save us from evil.

"(We) have 10 men by the sea to look after our vessel 14 days' voyage from this island. Year 1362."

New England and the Maritime Provinces have had their Runic stones too. One found in Nova Scotia not long ago is very short. It reads, "Leif to Erik raised—" (this monument, perhaps).

Miss Joyce Link of Clarendon, student of Abilene Christian College, was among the number of students honored as guests at the Ellen H. Richards Club recently.

A deposit of sepiolite, a mineral from which meerchaum pipes are fashioned, has been found near Uvalde and tests now are being made to determine whether the Texas mineral is of the same quality as that found in Turkey, the only other place where sepiolite is found in commercial quantities, according to the Texas Planning Board's mineral resources committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Engle and children visited his daughter in Oklahoma the last of the week.

Beware The Cough

From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Ralph Stewart

I thought that I would change the custom of this column to some extent this week, by not mentioning the weather, but something unusual happened during the past week that I can't let it pass without commenting on it. I have talked to several of the old-timers, and they said that they couldn't remember when we had ever had a snow in October like we experienced last Thursday. No one ever gets too old to experience something new, so I am told.

Mr. and Mrs. Neely Hudson and son Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Veasey visited relatives at Lakeview and Brice Sunday. Mrs. Mattie Hudson returned with them to visit for awhile.

Mrs. Fontayne Elmore and daughter, Mary Edna, took dinner in the Dick Eichelberger home Sunday.

Miss Elgin Risley and Johnnie Lucile Stewart visited in the home of Vivian and Ellen Veasey, after Sunday school, until singing Sunday night.

Mrs. Peden left Wednesday for the Centennial and a visit with re-

THE MILLING SANATORIUM

MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS

An Institution with a National Reputation for the Treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM

This is to let you know that I, Ed Hammond, of Granfield, Oklahoma, was down and could not walk on account of sciatic rheumatism. I was an invalid for three years. I went to Rochester, Minn., and they did not do me any good. I tried doctors everywhere I could hear of, but did not get any relief. I finally heard of the Milling Sanatorium. I went there, staying three weeks and went home sound and well. It has been over six years since Milling treated me and I am still well, and working every day.

Telescope In Davis Mountains Costing Two Million To Be Completed Soon

Austin, Texas, Oct. 26.—The scientific staff at the W. J. McDonald Observatory of The University of Texas, situated on Mt. Locke, in the Davis Mountains of West Texas is now practically complete, and the technical staff is also ready to start work as soon as the 82-inch instrument is in operation, it was stated by Dr. Otto Struve of Williams Bay, Wis. Dr. Struve occupies the dual position of director of the new observatory and director of the Yankees observatory of the University of Chicago. He said that in the meantime important observations are being made at the McDonald Observatory by means of smaller instruments.

"I recently inspected the optical parts of the W. J. McDonald Observatory and found that the 82-inch mirror was in the process of being parabolized," Dr. Struve continued. "This is the last stage in the figuring of an astronomical telescope mirror, but it is also the most difficult.

"It is not possible at this time to predict accurately how soon the large mirror will be ready. It may be a matter of a couple of months or it may last a year. Incidents are known, when the mirror was in approximately the same stage in which is now our 82-inch, when unexpected difficulties arose which made it necessary to postpone the work for a period of years. While no one feels that such an occurrence is likely to take place for the 82-inch mirror, it would be quite unwise to predict the time of completion."

Jericho Citizenship Club To Give Pie Supper

This club is not a political club as the reader might guess. It is a club whose membership comes from the student body of the Jericho school.

Pauline Hermesmeier is president of the club, and Sue Lill is secretary and treasurer. Both apt students and winsome young ladies, but they need money to further the interests of this youngest of the school clubs.

The Club is sponsoring a "pie supper" this Thursday night. They expect to sell sandwiches and coffee. Music and a program that is designed as first-class school entertainment will be the big feature to be enjoyed by the crowd along with the eats served them by these enterprising youngsters.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Beach and daughter have returned to make their home in Clarendon.

BRONCS TO PLAY LAKEVIEW EAGLES FRIDAY NIGHT

The Clarendon Bronchos will meet the Lakeview Eagles at the College Park tomorrow night at 7:30. The Bronchos will be outweighed many pounds to the man for the big Lakeview team has several 180 pound men that will be hard to run over.

The Bronchos have been drilling on new plays, blocking and tackling all week stated coach C. C. Jones Wednesday morning. All the boys are in good shape for the game except Butler, the Broncho Captain, who received injuries two weeks ago in the game with Lefors, and he will be the only one missing from the regular starting line-up for the game.

Those huskies from Lakeview have scored on every team they have played this year. With such scores as this, the Bronchos will have to hustle to gain another victory; Lakeview 6, Shamrock 9; Lakeview 6, Wellington 12; Lakeview 6, McLean 18; Lakeview 6, Wheeler 7. These are a few scores that are favoring the opposite side, but this shows there will be a tough football game between the Bronchos and the Eagles.

This is expected to be one of the best games of the season and will be the last game that the Bronchos will play on the local gridiron, so come out and see this game if you want to see one worth the money. Don't forget the change in the starting time of the game which is 7:30.

Hinkle's Cotton Production Exceeds Expectations

"While I expected to make seven bales on my seventy-one acres this year, we have already gathered six bales, and it looks like we will get six or seven more," D. W. Hinkle stated Saturday.

"How's your feed crop?" Mr. Hinkle was asked. "Every good day we have adds a few more grains to the kaffir heads, but we need a lot of hot, sunny weather."

He keeps good cows, grows most all the feed that goes into the cream production. He is a strong believer in poultry and the cream check comes in handy. Mr. Hinkle owns one of the best farms in the Chamberlain community where he has lived for some twenty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Zachry and babe of Borger visited in the J. E. Mongole home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mick Clark and Mrs. John Clark visited Bill Clark and family in Lubbock over the week end.

Mrs. J. A. Tomb left Wednesday for Quanah where she will visit her grand daughter, Mrs. Lee Pope. She expects to spend the winter in Wichita Falls.

Monument Erected At Doans Crossing

Vernon, Oct. 25.—Erection of a 2,400-pound monument to mark the old Western Cattle Trail at Doans Crossing, on Red River, 17 miles north of Vernon, has been completed, it was announced today by Mrs. Bertha Doan Ross, Vernon leader in securing the marker through the Centennial Historical Commission.

The marker is constructed of gray Texas granite. The stone faces east and carries the inscription, "Doans Crossing on Red River of the Western Texas-Kansas Trail, 1876-1890. Six Million Cattle Crossed Here. It don't take much monument if the cause is good. It is only the monument that means nothing at all that has to be big. Good luck to you all, anyhow. Yours truly, Will Rogers."

On the reverse side is the inscription: "Dedicated to George W. Saunders, president of the Old Trail Drivers, who kept the trail records straight."

Snow and Icele Daunt Not Doughty Tomato Vines

This is getting to be a great climate. Great in that it puts on thrills for old timers as well as new. Within the memory of the eldest of our citizens, no one recalls a time when snow fell and icicles hung from the house eaves and vegetation was not frozen.

Plant life was not even 'nipped' in this section. Tomatoes, beans, peppers and peas go right on producing as if nothing had happened more than a rain. Plant life seemed to enjoy the thrill too.

Snow fell here Thursday of last week, the 22nd, but a much heavier fall was received between Paducah and Crowell the day before. Old-timers claim the climate is changing. They have another reason for that belief now.

Boyd Dickson Burned And House Destroyed

Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Dickson of near Brice was painfully burned early Wednesday of last week when a stove he was lighting exploded. The home and practically all of the contents were destroyed without insurance.

Mr. Dickson had been removed to Memphis the day before for medical treatment. The home had just recently been rebuilt, and is said to have been one of the nicest country homes in that section.
