Fine 1.50 Inch Rain Visits Donley County

Community Night Opens Music Week Programs Here

DRENCHING RAIN ENDS LONG DROUGHT

INCH AND HALF PRECIPITATION INSURES FARMERS EARLY SEASON

Rain which last week yielded to the power of the terrific sand and dust storm staged a comeback Tuesday and Wednesday to win a decisive victory over the sandy blasts of a belated winter encore and when a bright Thursday morning sun cleared the clouded skies a fine 1.50 inches precipitation had soaked into the drought parched earth. Tuesday's rainfall of .47 inch layed the sand and served as an incentive for the weatherman to really become in earnest in breaking the long dry spell, for Wednesday and Wednesday night enjoyed a slow, soaking rain reaching the proportions of 1.12 inches of precipitation.

This is the first downfall of such measurements enjoyed by this section in a number of months and the manner in which it came amounted to far more than it would have had it been received in a driving windstorm. Farmers are optimistic and just as soon as the fields will permit cultivation will begin in renewed enthusiasm. Coming as it did the late rainfall saves the wheat crop in this section which had suffered considerably from the high winds and long drought.

MARTIN SCHOOL HOUSE BURNED SUNDAY NIGHT

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Martin school house five miles northwest of the city late Sunday night. At the time it was discovered the flames had already made such headway it was impossible to save the building or its contents. The trustees of the Martin School District have made arrangements to complete the school term and have placed the teacherage in use as classrooms with the co-operation of the faculty.

Emanuel Dubbs, Indian Fighter and First Judge Is Buried Here

PANHANDLE'S FIRST JUDGE BURIED HERE

EMANUEL DUBBS DIES IN INDIANA. WAS OLD INDIAN HUNTER

Another son of the old frontier days finished his life's span Sunday when Emanuel Dubbs, veteran buffalo hunter, Indian fighter and the first County Judge in the Panhandle passed beyond the distant horizon at his home in Milford, Indiana. With the death of the hardy old pioneer, closes one of the most colorful and remarkable chapters in early history.

Imbued with the adventurous spirit of youth Mr. Dubbs first came to the Panhandle when it was still virgin prairie land, roamed only by huge herds of shaggy buffalo and roving bands of hostile savages. In 1871 the young man stepped upon the plains and took up the profession of buffalo hunter. It was shortly after the Indians, resenting the white hunters' encroachment upon their hunting grounds, went upon the war path and besieged a small band of white settlers at the historical Adobe Walls. The deceased and his young wife were among the stout-hearted group of persons who fought off attack after attack by the war-painted warriors, and finally beat them off in one of the most notable Indian fights in frontier history in the year, 1874.

Several years later he became judge of Wheeler County, the first organized county in the Panhandle. Mr. Dubbs served in this capacity during the period from 1882 to 1900. After his retirement from the bench he entered the ministry and was pastor of the First Christian Church in this city until 1922. His wife died and was buried here in 1911.

Funeral services were held at the First Christian Church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Emanuel Dubbs, pastor of Drumwright, Oklahoma, grandson and namesake of the deceased, conducting the last rites. A huge crowd braved the cold showers and paid their respects to the departed comrade who had a large part in laying the foundation of our splendid section. The business houses of the city closed their doors during the services as a final tribute to the splendid character.

Pall bearers were J. R. Tucker, O. D. Leisburg, Roy Clampett, G. A. Adderson, F. A. White and Homer Mulkey.

Honorary pall bearers were W. L. Butler, Lee Casey, Jip Casey, S. B. Arnold, F. C. Johnson, Hugh Eldridge, Ed Teer, J. D. McAdams, Nat Wood, C. L. Knight, R. H. Carver, John Beverly, Frank White, Jr., W. D. Clampett, B. L. Jenkins, J. C. Killough, Wesley Knorpp, Holman Kennedy, Fred Mathen, Frank Whitlock, J. C. Estlack, Carl Saye, Tom Naylor, R. L. McGowan, L. L. Taylor, Hugh Brown, J. A. McGee of Amarillo, Henry Taylor, P. A. Buntin, Jim Patman, T. M. Little, M. W. Mosley, John Alexander, Fred Chamberlain, A. T. Cole, J. W. Martin, James Trent, W. C. Stewart and J. C. Talley.

Those surviving are Mr. and Mrs. Charley Dubbs, Elkhart, Ind.; Mrs. Emanuel Dubbs, W. B. Dubbs, and Mrs. J. B. Neff, Milford, Ind.; Mrs. W. F. Lantz, Lake Wawasee, Ind.; C. E. Dubbs, Newkirk, N. M.; C. W. Dubbs, W. F. Dubbs and S. S. Dubbs, Amarillo; F. A. Dubbs, Bristow, Oklahoma; and Emanuel Dubbs, Drumwright, Okla.

LIONS HEAR PREPAREDNESS SPEECH

J. R. PORTER BRINGS INTERESTING ADDRESS ON ARMAMENTS TO GROUP

J. R. Porter, reserve officer and prominent in American Legion affairs, appeared before the Lions Club as guest speaker Tuesday noon and delivered a very interesting and constructive address on "Preparedness". Judge Porter's address was one filled with interesting comparison and figures showing the United States' position as compared to the other recognized world powers. An interesting history of the progress of our nation was related with reference to the American people's capability to meet most any emergency.

Lion J. T. Patman gave a summary of the happenings of the Lions Group Meeting last Thursday at Claude, stating the reports of the clubs were unusually good and the attendance of all clubs was holding up exceptionally well. His announcement that the local club would be host to the group meeting on its next session was received with enthusiasm by the membership.

Program Committee chairman, Ira Merchant, stated that plans for the Ladies' Night were pending the final arrangements with the Pampa Club who are to furnish the major portion of the entertainment. However, an announcement will be forthcoming in the immediate future. Visitors for the day were Frank Houston of Childress and Lion

PANHANDLE PRESS ASSOCIATION

PUTTING OUR DOLLARS TO WORK

A few years ago the secretary of a commercial organization in Columbus, Mississippi, began to wonder how many times a dollar changed hands in his community in a single year; so he took a number of dollars, pasted a slip of paper on the back of each, and started them out through the regular channels of trade. On these slips appeared instructions to pass the dollar along in the usual way, and check it when it went on to the next party.

At the end of the year each of these dollars was returned to the secretary by the local bank, and it was found that on an average each dollar had passed through 220 different hands during the course of twelve months.

If one could have interviewed one of these dollars he would have received about such a travelogue as this:

"After I left you I went directly to the grocer's till. My visit there was brief, however, for a farmer entered the store with a crate of eggs, and the grocer turned me over in exchange. I thought I was going to get a little trip into the country, but I never left the town, for my farmer friend took me down the street a short distance and turned me over to the shoe dealer.

"Well I couldn't take the time to tell you about all of the fine people I visited during the year, but I remember that one was the minister, another a workman helping to build a new pavement through the city, another a school teacher, who received me in exchange for instruction given to your children. I also visited a doctor, a lawyer, and a man working on the new community house, I spent some time in the bank and earned a little money while there for some of my friends.

"I feel that I have brought a considerable amount of happiness to the people of this community during the year, and I am ready to go out now and put in another strenuous year helping to build up worth while things here."

That is what happens to a dollar that is kept in circulation. And it seems to us that the big problem confronting this nation is not so much the shortage of money but keeping what money we have circulating in a normal manner. How can that be done? Well we would naturally suggest that advertising is one of the most essential elements.—Fairbury, (Neb.) News, —oOo—

AN EDITORIAL BY A LEADING LEGIONNAIRE

The News is happy to reproduce below an editorial by A. Garland Adair, editor of the McCamey News, and an official of the American Legion in Texas. Mr. Adair brings out some new angles to the present discussion worth reading:

Why Hesitate When Distressed Comrades Are Calling for You? Despairing Buddies Need Their Money. Would you refuse to go to the aid of a suffering ex-soldier? A voice from within the American Legion today means more than ever before. Let's show our esteemed and earnest National Commander that Silence is Golden. Soft pedal the last year's action of the Detroit Convention in the interest of justice and mercy in 1932, which action never was the honest convictions of the men along Main Street who make up the masses of our patriotic American Legion membership. Why tell ragged men, they do not need clothes? Why tell perplexed fathers that their little children can wait for bread and milk until 1944? Our unemployed army needs equipment and supplies for the great battle of life. Join the Legion, lend your voice to the call for the full payment of the adjusted certificates at once and help the poor fellow whose only hope is in such action by our lawgivers at Washington. Maybe you don't need yours cashed now, but I do, and nearly all the boys I associate with do. So if you are fortunate as not to have a wolf howling around your gate, give God the praise and show a little of the common sense and mercy exhibited by the Master Who fed the 5,000 before He began to teach them the great lessons of life. Its hard to hear anything, when there's gnawing need within and dependent babies are looking to helpless Dad.

TODAY

With the setting sun your hopes of yesterday died out. All right. That was yesterday.

Things didn't materialize the way you dreamed they would. All right again. Now—the present hour—is Today. Yesterday bears no relation to it, except perhaps, the relation that a nightmare bears to the morning after.

Forget all about yesterday . . . it is dead and buried in the cemetery of time.

Today is alive. Are you? Well then, get busy! Fling from your shoulders the depressing weight of those hopes that haven't come true. Stand erect. Man, the world is yours! You have just as much claim on its good things—on the things you've longed for and prayed for and worked for—as the other fellow has.

This hour has been handed to you as a gift, from the overflowing store-house of Eternity.

What are you doing with it? Answer that. Moping? Growing? Despairing? For shame!

God has favored you with another chance to make good. He has given you Today. Prove your appreciation by making it a stepping-stone to happier, worthier tomorrow! —The Ompint, St. Paul Minnesota.

AGE AND YOUTH

By John Kendrick Bangs

Youth takes its joys from hopeful dreams

Of future prizes to be won; Of voyages on unknown streams, In realms beyond the rising sun.

But Age, reflective Age, delights 'E'en in the twilight's dying rays In turning to the joyous sights Of unremembered Yesterdays.

I know not which more joy imparts, Which hath the sweeter taste, the page That tells of hope in youthful hearts, Or tender memories of age.

BOWELS need watching

Let Dr. Caldwell help whenever your child is feverish or upset; or has caught cold.

His simple prescription will make that bilious, headachy, cross boy or girl comfortable, happy, well in just a few hours. It soon restores the bowels to healthy regularity. It helps "break-up" a cold by keeping the bowels free from all that sickening mucus waste.

You have a famous doctor's word for this laxative. Dr. Caldwell's record of having attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby is believed unique in American medical history.

Get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your drugstore and have it ready. Then you won't have to worry when any member of your family is headachy, bilious, gassy or constipated. Syrup Pepsin is good for all ages. It sweetens the bowels; increases appetite—makes digestion more complete.

TEXAS
UNDER THE LONE STAR

One hundred years ago Texas was passing through that period which her historians designated as "The Era of Revolution."

The term of President Victoria, a noble and patriotic ruler, expired in 1829; Pedrazo was chosen to succeed him, but before the time came for him to assume the duties of the office, Santa Anna and Lorenzo de Zavala raised a revolution, and made Guerrero president. In 1830, Bustamante a narrow-minded military officer, overthrew Guerrero by means of another revolution and became president himself.

THE OLDEST NEWSPAPERS

That newspapers compare favorably with other enterprises in stability is indicated by the fact that there are now 108 weeklies and 84 dailies in the United States which have been published for more than 100 years.

The oldest of all is the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis, established in 1727, and the only American paper to have passed its 200th birthday. Next in age is the New Hampshire Gazette at Portsmouth, also a weekly, established in 1756. The oldest daily is the Hartford Courant, published since 1764.

HOW ONE MAN LOST 22 POUNDS

Mr. Herman Runkis of Detroit writes: "A few lines of thanks from a rheumatism sufferer—my first bottle of Kruschen Salts took all the aches and swellings out of my joints—with my first bottle I went on a diet and lost 22 pounds and now I feel like a new man."

To lose fat SAFELY and quickly take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle at any drugstore in the world and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back. All good druggists will be glad to supply you. (3) papers which are more than a century old are in the East, but three are published west of Mississippi river. These are the Arkansas Gazette at Little Rock, a daily dating from 1819; the weekly Herald-Statesman at Columbia, Mo., 1821; and the daily Hawkeye at Burlington, Ia., 1830.

New York State leads in the number of century-old newspapers, 16 dailies and 26 weeklies, although only one of these, The Evening Post, is published in New York city. Pennsylvania stands second and Ohio third on the list.

It is unfortunate that few files of our oldest newspapers have been preserved. They contain a wealth of historical material much of which is now forever lost.

WORLD'S HIGHEST LAKE IS HIGH ABOVE CLOUDS

"Sailing through the clouds" is not merely a poetic metaphor in describing a cruise on the waters of Lake Titicaca, the world's highest steam-navigated lake, situated between Peru and Bolivia.

In fact, frequently the clouds are far below the sailors traveling in the quaint native "balsas" made of bundles of reeds and so constructed that they are practically unsinkable.

Lake Titicaca is approximately 13,000 feet above sea level. It is from 30 to 60 miles wide and 130 miles long, while some authorities state it covers an area of 3600 square miles.

Americans from La Paz, the Bolivian capital, go to Lake Titicaca to hunt. Literally millions of water fowl, including teal ducks, snipe, and other interesting varieties, may be seen used both in Bolivia and Peru. At Gauqui, the tourist frequently sees piles of Odegon pine, American-made flour, mining machinery and rolls of paper for the La Paz dailies, awaiting transportation to the Bolivian capital, or to Puno at the other end of the Lake, where they are later distributed throughout the cities of Peru.

from the decks of the little lake steamers.

There are four of these vessels, which make tours of the lake twice a week between the Peruvian port of Puno to the Bolivian settlement at Gauqui. The boats were made in Europe and sent to South America, knocked down, to be assembled later at Puno where they were transported by rail from Mollendo. The first lake steamer was launched, however, before the construction of the railroad, and it had to be carried up the mountains in pieces on the backs of men and mules.

Lake Titicaca is the scene of many Inca ruins. One of its many islands, once known as the Island of Sun, has long been revered as the place where the Sun God of the Incas and his sister-wife were set down upon earth. A few miles from the Island of the Sun is Coati, or the Island of the Moon, where at one time it is believed the Incas built a great convent for the vestal virgins.

Since the opening of the railroad from Arica on the Chilean coast, one of the ports to La Paz, the Bolivian capital, Lake Titicaca has become a transportation center for American commodities

B. P. R. Club Entertained on Thursday

With Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter as hosts and hostesses members of the B. P. R. club spent one of April's delightful evenings in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton.

Huge bouquets of spirea and a bowl of Texas blue-bonnets made the rooms of this home more attractive than usual and lent a note of spring gaiety to the occasion.

Games of '42' furnished the principal diversion with Mr. G. L. Boykin playing high and Mrs. Braswell low.

A two course dinner was served preceding the games to the following club members:

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Braswell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathjen.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Shelton and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stocking.

Mrs. Fink to Head County Federation

A very enthusiastic crowd met in the ladies club room on Saturday for the purpose of electing a president to fill the unexpired term of the retired president to fill the Donley County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. O. L. Fink, Vice-President, called the meeting to order and in due time was unanimously elected to the place of president amid cheers and voices of approval from the assembly composed mostly of women from the rural district. Mrs. Tom Goldston was then elected to the vice presidency Mrs. James Trent was elected as a delegate to the district federated club meeting to be held in Canadian this week with Mrs. H. T. Burton as alternate.

The Smith Demonstration Club was elected to membership in the federation and those present decided to have a short program at each monthly meeting, each club appearing as on the roll.

The president wishes to make it clear to all members of the federated clubs in the county that they are welcome to these meetings and are urged to attend.

Laffalott Club Entertained

With Drew Wilkerson and Jack Latson as hosts the Laffalott Club laughed a lot in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Latson, Friday evening.

Vari-colored tulips decorated the entertaining rooms where bridge was enjoyed for a time before an ice course was served, then games of other nature were indulged in before the following guests departed for their homes: Jo Ellen Kennedy, Dorothy Powell, Virginia Cluck, Peggy Taylor, Sarah Virginia McGowan, Laverne McMurtry, Willie Maude Pratt, Eloise Hill, Frances Sanford and Rosalyn Bass.

Nickey Stewart, Charlie Murphy, Wesley Powell, A. J. Smith, Lowell Lafon, Billy Baker.

Sunday School Class Enjoys Picnic

As interesting event of Friday night was the picnic enjoyed by members of the Sunday School class of the Methodist Church taught by Mrs. Elba Ballew and a number of invited guests of the members.

A dark and threatening sky did not dampen the spirits of this happy group as they dared the sky to bring rain to spoil their evening. The weather man was game and waited until they had returned to their homes before sending the rain.

A picnic lunch added to the enjoyment of the affair.

A Lovely Party

A lovely tribute was paid Mrs. B. F. Kirtley on Saturday when her thoughtful friends, Mrs. Ed Teer and Mrs. Earl Alexander, remembered her birthday with a lovely bridge party at the home of Mrs. Teer.

Though not elaborate this party was lovely in the joy it brought to Mrs. Kirtley and her friends who were asked to make this a happy occasion.

In the games of bridge Mrs. Charles Trent played high, receiving a dainty gift and in turn presented it to Mrs. Kirtley who was given a guest of honor gift as well.

Attending were Mrs. Charles Trent, Mrs. John Sims, Jr., Mrs. C. E. Miller, Mrs. Dick Bell, Mrs. Kirtley, guest of honor, and the hostesses.

Mrs. J. A. Meadow Is Hostess

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Meadow, seven miles northeast of Clarendon, was enhanced with pot plants and early spring flowers in welcome to members of the Friendship Club who gathered in this home on Tuesday for an all day session with Mrs. Meadow and daughter, Miss Katie as hostesses.

During the day the guests completely quilted and bound a quilt for Mrs. Meadows. At noon nothing was lacking from this a lovely lunch was served. Each guest having taken a dish and complete meal.

Club members enjoying this were Mesdames J. L. Allison, J. D. Stocking, L. Ballew, C. R. Skinner, Eva Womack, J. E. Mongole, J. A. Tombs, G. J. Teel, and M. E. Thornton.

Mrs. Glen Williams and Mrs. Lee Singleton were invited guests.

Mrs. M. P. Gentry Entertains With Contract

Beautiful iris and peonies decorated the home of Mrs. M. P. Gentry when she entertained members of her contract club on Tuesday.

The afternoon was spent in the games interspersed with conversation with a refreshment course being served at the close of the games.

Attending were Mrs. Selden Bagby, Mrs. P. B. Gentry, Mrs. Ira Merchant, Miss Mary Cooke, Mrs. Sam Dyer, club members.

Mrs. C. E. Miller and Mrs. James H. Morris completed the guest list.

1912 Needle Club

Needle work and pleasant conversation were the high points of entertainment when members of the 1912 Needle Club spent the afternoon of Thursday in the home of Mrs. Sella Gentry.

A delectable refreshment course was served by Mrs. Geo. Ryan in the afternoon to Mrs. L. L. Swann, invited guests, and the following club members: Mrs. W. Taylor, Mrs. L. S. Bagby, Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mrs. J. T. Patman, Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Mrs. A. R. Letts, Mrs. H. Glascoe, Mrs. A. L. Chase, and Mrs. A. A. Mayes.

Nowepompattin Girls Have Slumber Party

A slumberless though delightful evening was spent by members of the Nowepompattin troop of the Camp Fire Girls at the home of Miss Mary Lois Hayter Friday evening.

Roll call at midnight showed every member of the troop to be present when a lunch was served.

The night hours were spent in conversation, games and playing tricks on each other. A call for breakfast was made at 7:00 o'clock the next morning with all departing for their homes in a happy frame of mind after expressing their appreciation to Mary Lois and Mrs. Hayter for such a delightful time.

1930 Good Will Club

Members of the 1930 Good Will Club left by motor car for Sandy Camp where they were the guests of Mrs. Joe Ritter on Tuesday afternoon.

The entertainment was so different from the usual offered this club that the members found the trip exceedingly interesting especially so at this time of the year when there is beauty at every turn. Some found it difficult to stay in doors and work after having arrived at the Camp but others did take a few stitches on their quilts. However, all were in their place when Mrs. Ritter served a tempting ice course to: Mrs. Lucian Bones, Mrs. Nash Blasingame, Mrs. T. D. Nored, Mrs. Fred Russell, Mrs. Melvin Cooke, Mrs. Don Martin, Mrs. S. I. Johnson, Mrs. Will Johnson, Mrs. Blanche Oden, Mrs. A. O. Yates and Mrs. L. B. Carlisle, club members and Mrs. Lem Taylor, invited guests.

Mrs. Yates will be the next hostess to members of the club.

"Transportation" Is B & P W Meet Theme

"Transportation" was the subject discussed by the B. & P. W. Club Tuesday evening at the Clarendon Hotel. Each member answered roll call by giving a mode of transportation. Mrs. Paul Shelton gave an unusually interesting talk on "Travel and what a transportation committee could mean to an organization. There being very little business to transact the club hour was enlivened by group singing. Fifteen members were present with Misses Etta and Ida Harned as hostesses. Mrs. Paul Shelton was a guest of the evening.

A Tribute to Texas

Bruce Barton, author of "The Man Nobody Knows," has written this tribute to Texas for the "Parade of the States" Monday night program of the General Motors Corporation, part of an educational plan to make the country as a whole better acquainted with the individual states—their history, scenic beauty, industries and people.

REMEMBER the Alamo! For twelve days, twelve nights, Travis, Bonham, Bowie, Davy Crockett, and their little group of loyal soldiers held Santa Anna's forces at bay. They went down fighting, one by one, but their valor roused a people to action, won for Texas her independence.

Texas, free Texas, the only state that was once a nation! Kings sent their courtiers to knock at her gates. And well may all the states be proud that she chose to cast her lot with the Union.

For Texas is the giant of America's children. She could tuck New England away in a corner, engulf all the land between New York and Chicago. Her busy, rich, and vast domain measures a quarter million square miles.

How can words paint its picture? Here cotton blankets more acres than many another state holds. Here turkeys march to market in droves ten thousand strong. Here a single peccan orchard yields a half million dollar crop, a single cattle ranch boasts a million acres, a single farmer plants onions by the billion. And even the State University strikes oil.

"I am listening to the footsteps of the coming millions," said Robert E. Lee, on the Texas prairies eighty years ago. Today, the millions have arrived. The plains are fenced and the trails are fading, and peaceful dairy cattle fatten where the restless Longhorn-roared. Texas is our richest farm, our biggest oil well. Her helium gas keeps our dirigibles aloft. Her petroleum and sulphur and lignite, her potash and silver and carbon-black enrich the markets of the world.

Past Texas rolls the Rio Grande, dividing the Americas. Where once the Indian pitched his tepee, Dallas and Fort Worth, El Paso and San Antonio, Amarillo and Waco, and other cities rear their skyscrapers. Austin boasts America's most impressive capitol, that building for which the Texans paid a casual three million acres. Houston dug a canal for fifty miles to bring sea-going vessels to her inland port. Galveston and Port Arthur and other cities on the Gulf attract the commerce of the world.

And the rich state of Texas is doubly rich in sons and daughters. From the days of Sam Houston, with his vision of freedom, of Mirabeau Lamar, with his vision of education, the men of Texas have been quick to make today's dream tomorrow's truth.

O. Henry turned his days in Texas into colorful short stories. Dorothy Scarborough and Chester Crowell give us fiction of the Southwest today. Texas was one of the two first states to name a woman governor.

You will never completely know America until you taste the wonders of the Lone Star State. See the cowboys ride in Fort Worth's rodeo. Visit Fort Sam Houston, our largest military encampment; Fort Bliss, our biggest cavalry post; Brooks and Kelly Fields, where American aces won their wings. Travel by air, as the Texan does, to sense the breadth and the might of his state. Linger by sunny fields of Texas bluebonnets, hear the mocking birds whistle in the pecan groves, enjoy the color and charm of gay southern playgrounds. The state's very name implies hospitality, and a warm-hearted welcome awaits you.

Six flags has Texas known and served. To these emblems of her past, to Texas today, to the glorious promise of her future, the flag of General Motors dips in salute. Hail, Texas!

More Ways Than One To Make The Farm Pay

The farmer of a few years ago had just one idea—to plant a crop and get his profit on the harvest from that one crop.

Modern methods have shown that there are more ways than one to make a farm profitable. Diversified farming has come to stay. Cows and chickens add their share to the farmer's income.

Boys' Club Baseball League To Organize Saturday Eve

EIGHT TEAMS WILL BE ORGANIZED HERE

SCHEDULE WILL BE WORKED OUT FOR TWO GAMES A WEEK THRU SUMMER

The out-of-doors program for the Boy's Club of Clarendon will get under way next week with baseball and tennis as the major attractions according to plans laid out Tuesday afternoon by the Committee in charge of the movement composed of C. J. Douglas, T. D. Nored, D. R. Davis, G. L. Boykin, R. S. Cope and Sam Braswell, Jr.

Everything is ready now, except the boys, and they are expected to be on hand this Saturday evening at the American Legion Hall beginning at 7 o'clock. It is imperative that all the lads in the city from the ages of eight to fourteen years be present, for at this meeting captains will be selected and these eight captains will choose their respective teams from the boys present. Each of the eight teams will select a name for their club and will report to the playing field Tuesday afternoon for the first games of the ball league. Two sponsors for each team will be designated and these men will see that fair play and good sportsmanship is prevalent in all the games.

The boys over fourteen years of age who are interested in tennis are also urged to be present and learn of the plans for the tennis tournament to be held in the near future. This is not an open tournament but for those youngsters who are interested in the game and who have not had the benefit of a maximum of practice. The new tennis courts will very probably be completed the fore part of next week if the weather permits and play will start the latter part of the week. Those lads under fourteen who are tennis enthusiasts are invited to participate in the tourney if they wish.

Those who are expected to help in sponsoring the eight teams are Tom Tucker, L. M. Smith, R. S. Cope, D. R. Davis, G. L. Boykin, Frank Stocking, A. J. Dyer, N. Cox, T. D. Nored, Phifer Estlack, Gus Stephenson, C. J. Douglas and Sam Braswell, Jr. Tuesday's and Friday's are the days selected to play the games. Four diamonds will be marked off at the junior high school grounds and four games will be played at the same time. The games will begin at 4 o'clock and will end at 6 o'clock. It is the plan of the local committee to use the two teams with the highest average in the Fourth of July celebration here this year.

Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the American Legion Hall, don't forget. Bring a friend.

Bim: "Do you think it right to buy an automobile on the installment plan?"

No harmful after-effects follow its use. It does not depress the heart.

VARIOUS CLUBS ASKED TO HELP BUILD COURTS

Perhaps there are some clubs and organizations in the city who have not been approached in the matter of contributing to the construction of the new tennis courts of the city, and this means is taken in extending that privilege to all organizations, social, civic, or service. This was made known last week when a representative of one of the ladies clubs of the city phoned Mr. Gentry and asked if her organization might make a donation to the movement. Considerable expense is attached to the proper building of the courts and every one is asked to do his or her part in making the project a success and finishing the courts for the youngsters in the city in the immediate future. Phone or bring your donations to P. B. Gentry or The Clarendon News.

THE TOWN BAND

It is safe to say that no institution of a civic nature gives greater returns for the money and effort expended upon it than does a good town band. The benefits derived through the maintenance of a band touch the entire cultural, social and commercial life of the community.

Members of the organization are enabled to develop their musical talents in pleasant association with their fellows, while the discipline necessary to their successful advancement is most desirable for boys and young men.

After the band is capable of playing in public its presence adds immeasurably to parades, ceremonies and celebrations of every kind, while its regular concerts are a source of enjoyment for the entire citizenship. As a business proposition, a good band is of the greatest value in advertising its town. The better the band the better the advertisement, of course. In some localities it is the custom for merchants' association to take the band occasionally on good-will trips to various rural communities in their trade territory. Such trips invariably result in clear relations and consequently increased trade.

It does not take a large town to maintain a good band; in fact, some of the best amateur bands are found in towns of less than 1,000 population. With earnest and willing members, a capable support from the leading citizens a good band may be developed anywhere.

A town that does not possess a band is overlooking one of the most valuable agencies for its social and commercial advancement.

Bits Of WASHINGTON'S Current Comment

Special to The Clarendon News

The serious business transacted by the Senate relates largely to the Tax Bill. Appropriations are reviewed and there is debate pro and con about making a ten per cent reduction in some of them. The usual grist of appointments is duly ground. Whether public construction work should be contracted or expanded calls forth a variety of suggestions and comments. The auto sales tax is meeting with considerable opposition at committee hearing.

Committee recommendation of an eleven per cent reduction in government salaries is promised if the President will suggest a plan for such a move.

A poet writing about the faithfulness of women, said: "She when disciples fled could danger brave; Last at the Cross and earliest at the grave."

Women have not changed much in a couple of thousand years. A discarded wife of forty years ago has mortgaged her property and turned up to help out her aforesaid husband at his trial for murder.

Spinach is reported to be good for the eyesight. Looking at spinach is not so bad. It is the eating of it that makes trouble.

The Washington Star has relieved more than one paragraph writer who is trying to think of something to say about the Honolulu murder. "A homicide may have provocation so atrocious as to need no psycho-analyst to suggest temporary insanity as the cause."

Norway never has liked the insinuation that the account of the Viking discovery of America is a mere fable, and has a practical way of proving that her sailors can deliver the goods. A 60 foot replica of an ancient Viking ship has entered an American port after a voyage of more than twenty thousand miles.

Folks who are wondering what ought to be done to suppress Soviet and communistic propaganda in the United States, can ponder over the answer printed in an eastern paper in response to the inquiry of a man who wanted to know what he should do about some mice that were in the parlor organ. He was advised to drive out the mice, and then stop up the holes.

The doctors may learn much from it, but the dull gray matter will tell no story of the soul torture that led the unfortunate teacher to end his days. The father of Ch.ley Ross refused to ransom his son, on the ground that to do so would encourage kidnaping. A North Carolina judge has received a twelve month jail sentence for mutilating the public records in an attempt to save his daughter from consequences of alleged embezzlement. One hardly knows which dad to applaud.

As an example of the curious ways which exist for making a living, notice might be taken of the circumstance that the telephone books of large cities direct inquirers to agencies that furnish human blood on short notice, for transfusions and other hospital activities. Those who believe that good will come from out of harping on the depression, can point out that the price of blood has dropped from $50 to $35 a pint.

About a thousand persons were rescued recently from a wrecked Japanese ship. In order to emphasize the value of the service rendered, it may be recalled that something like one fourth that number of Pilgrim Fathers were enough to open an unknown land and establish a stable government in New England.

POLITICS AND PERSONALITIES

Special to The Clarendon News

Commissioner Camillo Oasis of the Philippine Islands has been making a determined fight for his country's independence for the past thirteen years. During the forty-minute debate in the Lower House on the Hare Bill, he eloquently voiced his sentiments on the actual as opposed to the theoretical method by which America's governmental bark is guided.

"In youth," he said "I learned that a government in a democracy has three branches—legislative, executive, and judicial. I further had the impression that a bill to become a law only needs to be presented and it would then be approved by both houses and the Chief Executive. In theory all these seemed to be simplicity itself. My legislative experience in the Philippine Senate and in this Congress has taught me that a government has numerous branches. The legislative department alone seems to have different branches. Just now I am wondering if there are not in reality more than 435 branches of Congress—that is to say, as many branches as there are members plus the committees and other elements. The reality of politics has taught me," the Commissioner added, "that, in practice, the enactment of a law is complexity many times complicated."

The Hare Bill providing for independence after an eight year transition period passed the House by a landslide vote. But we have no cause to rejoice in

ABOUT OUR PRESIDENTS

Some interesting personal facts about our presidents:

Washington was born on a Friday, and died in the last hour of the last day of the week, in the last month of the last year of the century.
Adams and Jefferson died on the same day, July 4, 1826.
Van Buren was the first president not born a British subject.

Taylor, being a regular army officer, never voted prior to his election as president.

Adams lived longer than any other president, more than 90 years.

Tyler was a member of the provisional Congress of the Confederate states, and was a member-elect of the permanent Confederate Congress at the time of his death.

Lincoln was the first President to wear a beard. Grant was the first to wear a moustache, and also wore a beard.

Palo Duro Literary Society

Here it is the last of April and College is out on May 13th. That means there can be only one more meeting of the Palo Duro Literary Society. Only one more Wednesday night of fun and wholesome Palo Duro programs. Of course the school year of '32 and '33 will witness the revival of Palo Duro spirit, but there will be so many vacant offices to be filled. Our president is leaving us for a higher institution, but he will not, I'm sure, forget his lowly society. Our soloist, our short story expert, even our reporter: All will report to the meeting of Wednesday, April 27 for the last regular time. Of course some may visit the society in months to come, but so far as the actual participation in Palo Duro programs, parties, and picnics is concerned, they are finished.

But we go not sadly but gladly, for now we have our memories to look back upon and our future to look forward to, so, we, the members of the Palo Duro Literary Society of 1931-32, meet each Wednesday evening at 7:30 to hear such programs as this:

Speech by President concerning Palo Duro Affairs—Clyde Slavin.
 Cornet Solo—Sam Cauthen.
 Short Story—Virginia Wisdom.
 Announcements.

FIRE DRILL

The fourth period Monday pupils of the College and Senior High had a most surprising interruption. The odor of smoke filled the building and every one became slightly nervous. The signal to march having been quickly obeyed, the building was emptied in a short time. Smoke was pouring out the doors and windows on the north side in a very realistic manner. Afterwards it was learned that a lot of paper and refuse had been purposely set afire in the basement. The training received in the fire drills this year has been of the best and it is almost a certainty that should such a misfortune as a fire occur, everyone would get out safely.

LOCAL CONTESTANTS IN TWO DAY MEET AT CANYON

On Friday, 22nd, the annual District Interscholastic League Meet was held in Canyon. Clarendon was well represented although the school did not particularly distinguish itself. The literary contestants who went were Robert Green, Geo. Bourland, Edna Blair and Lola Barnes, were the debaters. Eugenia Noland, Mary Travis Dyer, Aubrey Brady, and Bobby Boston who were the declaimers. These last four are representatives of the Junior High. The boy's debating team was defeated by Pampa and the girl's by Amarillo. The declaimers were all defeated except Aubrey Brady who won first place in the district.

The Athletic team put up a good fight although the boys did not win any first places. Loyd Martin ran the high hurdles, threw the discus, broad jumped and high jumped, Snooks Andis high jumped and pole vaulted. F. L. Behrens ran high and low hurdles and the relay. He also high jumped. Hubert Reavis ran high and low hurdles, the twenty and the relay. He also broad jumped. Fred Reid ran the hundred yard dash, the two twenty and the relay. He broad jumped. Red McCrary ran the relay and pole vaulted.

HOME ECONOMICS

Friday afternoon a group of Home Economics students and their sponsor, Miss Morgan, met at the old school building and motored to the river to enjoy the afternoon.

Some played games, others climbed hills, and some talked. The evening sped quickly away and at dusk one of the most delicious picnic lunches that could be imagined was served. All then went to the river and waded for a few minutes. About nine o'clock the students started for home. All reported it as being one of the best picnics they had ever attended.

HAS A BIG MEANING

I am a little thing with a big meaning. I help everybody. I unlock doors, open hearts, dispel prejudice. I create friendship and good will. I inspire respect and admiration. I violate no law. I cost nothing. Many have praised me, none have condemned me. I am pleasing to those of high and low degree. I am useful every moment of the day—I AM COURTESY.

MRS. MULKEY'S SISTER DIES THIS MORNING

Citizens of Clarendon will be sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. W. B. Ponder of Amarillo early this morning. Mrs. Ponder's death comes as a shock to every one as she has apparently been in good health up until a few days ago when her physician recommended an immediate operation. She underwent the operation Tuesday morning and never recovered from the shock. Mrs. Ponder is the sister of Mrs. Homer Mulkey of this city and the daughter of Mrs. Mattie E. Williams who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey.

The deceased was born Dolly Duke in Marshall, Missouri, in 1881. She moved to Texas several years later and married Mr. W. B. Ponder in this city in 1911. Since that time she has visited Clarendon often and has many friends here who will miss her very much.

Besides her mother and sister, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Mulkey, she is survived by her husband, Mr. Ponder of Amarillo, two sisters, Mesdames J. E. Richey of Amarillo and John Bailey of Marshall, Mo., and one brother, C. M. Duke of Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey with Mesdames Williams and Killough left this afternoon for Amarillo where the last rites will be conducted from the Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2:30 with Dr. Ira S. Key, the pastor, in charge. Burial will be made in that city.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Slover of Stamford arrived Tuesday for a visit with friends in our city. They are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Burton.

Mrs. T. F. Hannon and Mrs. F. C. Johnson spent the past week end with their uncle, Mr. J. G. Dewees who lives six miles west of Delwin, Texas.

IRISH DROP 16-7 GOLF MATCH HERE

HILLCROFTERS ARE RIGHT AND BAG BIG MAJORITY FROM INVADERS SUNDAY

Clarendon's fight for top position in the Cap Rock Golf League was continued Sunday when the local players successfully repelled sixteen fighting Irish mashie flingers from Shamrock while the Hillcrofters causally list registered seven matches. The local record was paced by the high riding, loop leading Memphis players who routed the invading Pampa players with a perfect tally sheet scoring fourteen matches out of fourteen played. However local enthusiasts are confident the Hillcroft percentage will climb into first place when the Memphis club hits first class competition as figures show the locals have won more matches than the neighboring leaders.

Pendleton turned in a nice game against Ira Merchant and had it not been for the unflinching accuracy of the city champion's putter which turned in 20 putts on the 18 holes the fine playing of the visitor would have taken the local ace into camp. Mitcham trimmed Al Cooke, another of Clarendon's best, when the local left-hander failed to play his usual smooth game.

Other matches and their results are as follows:

- Al Cooke lost to F. Mitcham 3-2.
- A. N. Wood beat B. F. Holmes 1 up.
- Dude Gentry lost to Jim Smith 2 up.
- John Hutton beat Tindall 3-1.
- Dick Cooke lost to Staggs 6-5.
- C. Parson lost to Clements 1 up.
- G. L. Boykin beat Wallace 1 up.
- Fred Buntin beat Rodgers 2-1.

..Service..

Business today is based upon service. The "grab and run" manufacturer is almost extinct. Advertising has played its part in his passing. By contrast with the open methods of others, it has thrown his operations into such sharp relief that it has left him no resource. His failure was inevitable.

People have come to depend upon consistently advertised merchandise. They have confidence in the manufacturer who places himself on record month after month as to the merits of his product. They know he will maintain that product at the standard he has set, not only for their protection but for his own. Should he drop below, the buying public would soon discover it, and his business would be faced by ruin. No manufacturer who is spending large sums to produce, advertise and sell an article is going to take that risk.

Quality, utility and value are the things uppermost in the mind of the advertiser today. Improving his product, making it more useful to you, giving you greater value for your money, these are his aims. When he succeeds, he tells you about it—in the advertisements.
