Father-Son Banquet Monday Evening

Bronchos Crush Memphis Cyclones In Gridiron Classic

COLLEGE DEAN NAMED SPEAKER

DR. JARRETT, DEAN AT CANYON, WILL ADDRESS FATHERS AND SONS

One of the most interesting programs ever arranged for the annual Fathers and Sons Banquet is the offering for the event next Monday evening, in the basement of the First Christian Church.

Dean P. R. Jarrett, of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, has been secured as the speaker for the occasion and a treat is in store for those who attend. Dr. Jarrett is an outstanding educator, is a father of the type greatly interested in boy problems, and his address will bring new angles to that ever interesting question.

O. C. Watson, Jr., is the toastmaster for the banquet, and as chairman of the committee this year has proven himself equal to the task and determined to see that this year's program will be up to the high standard of former years. He also promises that the program will not be allowed to drag out, but will go through on schedule and with the "pep" so necessary to hold the interest of the lads and dads.

The menu for the banquet will offer what men and boys like to eat, and will be one of the best fifty cent plates ever provided in Clarendon.

The program is as follows:

- March—Orchestra.
- Sing Song.
- Invocation—Orchestra.
- Music—Orchestra.
- Introduction of Fathers by the Sons.
- Male Quartette—High School Singers.
- "To Our Dads"—Lloyd Benson.
- "To Our Sons"—Dr. B. L. Jenkins.
- Music—Orchestra.

Address of the Evening—Dr. R. P. Jarrett, Dean of West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, Texas.

Election of committee for 1932. "Goodnight".

The program will begin just as soon after seven o'clock as the crowd can assemble and be seated at the banquet table.

Tickets may be secured through committees from the Lions and Rotary Clubs, and from the Rexall Store, Bon Ton and Pastime Confectioneries, and all are urged to get their tickets this week-end so the committee can inform the Christian Ladies how many plates to prepare.

REV. MURRELL ENDS WORK HERE

PRESIDING ELDER CLOSES
SUCCESSFUL FOUR YEAR
PERIOD HERE THIS WEEK

When Rev. W. M. Murrell, presiding elder of the Clarendon District, left Clarendon yesterday for Vernon where he will attend the sessions of the Northwest Texas Conference, he was leaving a host of friends and a home in which he had completed four years of unselfish and valuable service. Rev. Murrell was one of the most popular presiding elders ever to be stationed in Clarendon and the district, not only in the Methodist church circles but the entire field of Christian endeavor.

Rev. Murrell was active in the civic progress of the city and county, being a member of the Clarendon Lions Club, where he served in the capacity of Lion Tamer. He was also an active participant in the activities of the local golf club.

He and his wife have endeared themselves to the many people of the Clarendon District territory. In this charge, as well as in all the charges, these faithful people are held in high esteem and their services have been greatly appreciated. It is with much regret that the time approaches when in all probability the Murrells will be transferred to other fields of service. It is the wish of all their many friends that they may have another field as appreciative as the one from which they are leaving. Results of the four years work are too numerous to mention but it will be of interest to note the follow-

STREET LIGHT SERVICE CUT

RESIDENCE DISTRICT OF CITY
WITHOUT STREET LIGHTS
TO SAVE MONEY

Mayor Cagle and the city commissioners have been operating the city with as much economy as possible, but the most drastic move taken thus far has been the cutting off of street lights in the residence section of Clarendon, effective last Saturday night.

For the convenience of the public an exception has been made to this rule by keeping one light burning at each of the church corners, and at the schools.

The "white way" in the business section is not effected by this order, and the economy move will likely be kept in effect until city finances are in better condition and tax delinquencies are reduced.

According to one of the city commissioners the tax delinquency has been mounting for the past two years, and the commission as a whole hopes that the tax payers realize that they have been forced to this reduction in street lighting service. Other reduction of the city expenses are contemplated and will be put into effect from time to time as the financial condition of the tax fund demands.

Reductions in street lighting under the new order saves about one hundred dollars per month.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Murrell motored to McLean on Sunday evening where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Boswell before going on to Vernon to attend Annual Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Longley and small daughter returned Sunday from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Foster of Seymour, parents of Mrs. Longley. They having motored down on Thursday.

Friends of Miss Maye Bennett will be pleased to learn that she has improved sufficiently to be removed to her home and is improving as rapidly as possible under the existing circumstances.

Census Gained In Donley This Year

According to the Bureau of the Census in a bulletin sent to The Clarendon News Donley county has gained considerable more cotton this year than for the corresponding time in the 1930 season. To be exact there has been a total of 2,924 bales ginned this year in excess of that ginned last year.

The gins here are running almost continually as are the gins at Hedley, Lelia Lake, McKnight, Goldston and Ashtola. Hedley reported a total of 3,779 bales up to last week, with Ashtola running some 1250 bales.

Hall county also reports many more bales this year than last season, ginning 14,932 bales against that of 8,876 bales last year. Collingsworth reports 15,356 bales against 12,254 for 1930, and Childress county shows the most remarkable increase with 11,620 against 3,707 bales last season.

Cotton Brought 112 Miles to Local Gin

Clarendon gins are evidently quite famous, at least something must be the cause for a cotton farmer living 50 miles on the other side of Amarillo to haul two bales of cotton all the way to Clarendon to have them ginned. Such was the case Monday when a farmer named Hutton pulled into the Clarendon Gin yard and asked to have his cotton ginned. When asked why he brought his cotton such a long way his answer was to reach a good gin and a better price.

Miss Mary Stocking, instructor in Panhandle Public Schools spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. D. Stocking.

Approximate figures for the District: Additions on profession of faith 1650; Additions otherwise, 2,300; raised for building, repairing and furnishing churches and parsonages, $186,997; raised for all purposes, $590,000; Sunday School pupils joining the church, 1300.

Sheriff's Department Has a Busy Week

Sheriff Pierce and members of his department Cleo Emerson, I. B. Pierce and Carl Peabody, are continuing their splendid record of raids against liquor law violators, with two more raids over the weekend. These raids netted the officers a great amount of beer and choc, bottle capper, crowns and bottles, no whiskey being taken in either place.

The first was made near Hedley Friday night when Sheriff Pierce, Carl Peabody and I. B. Pierce visited a house and found over a case of beer and capping utensils as well as empty bottles. The case was dismissed by authorities after consideration of the offense, in view of the fact that it was a first offense and that the offender had a dependent family.

The second raid by local officers was made at the farm of John Heathington, Saturday night where a big colored dance was in progress. Some 100 negroes form this city and from Amarillo were having the time of their collective lives when the officers interfered and put the "quietus" on the beer and choc consumption festivities of the evening. But even then the frolicers had participated in the liquid refreshments to such an extent that they were feeling their "oats" in no uncertain manner and the conventional razor method of argument was brought into use by an Amarillo negress upon another colored lady, with the result that several ugly wounds are being worn by the recipient. No charges were filed but warnings were given and the quantity of the happy happiness poured on the ground.

At the end of the parade the Clarendon Band under the direction of Guy B. Stephenson, staged a short concert featuring old war songs, which will live ever in the memory of the ex-service men and women.

The streets were jammed with spectators who came to the city to witness the celebration and to see the football game later in the afternoon. The Clarendon Clarendon High School Band in their pretty uniforms led the group with the Color guard of the Legion immediately following with seventy-five Legionnaires and ex-service men next in line. Following them came the Auxiliary and the Red Cross in their Red Cross uniforms, and following this came the school students.

The parade was a success and the citizens were highly pleased with the display.

HESS TYLER RE- CEIVES LIFE HERE

JURY REMAINS OUT 17
HOURS, REDUCES DEATH
SENTENCE TO LIFE

Hess Tyler of Hall county was given life imprisonment in District court here last Thursday morning when the jury arrived at a verdict and filed into the jury box at 10 o'clock. Tyler was convicted for the murder of Bryan Nall, Eli storekeeper, in January 1930 and was sentenced to death in the electric chair by a Hall county jury. The case was appealed and new trial granted on change of venue, hence the trial here in District court.

The case was given to the Jury at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, following the arguments by defense and state attorneys. On the first ballot an agreement was reached with the life sentence the result.

In the new verdict the defendant will be sent to the penitentiary for the remainder of his life without the possible parole privilege. Only a complete pardon can reduce the sentence.

Tyler and accomplices entered Nall's store with the intention of robbing the place, when Nall interferred the defendant mortally wounded the Eli storekeeper, who died a week later.

Defense attorneys have filed motion for an appeal.

PARADE DRAWS GREAT THROG

BAND, AMERICAN LEGION,
AUXILIARY, RED CROSS
AND STUDENTS PARADE

Starting at one o'clock Wednesday, the American Legion assisted by the Legion Auxiliary, Red Cross, Band and school students, staged the largest parade ever held in Clarendon, in commemoration of the day thirteen years ago which brought about the signing of the Armistice which in turn brought about world peace.

Extending over three blocks in length the parade started at the schedule place, the old grammar school building, marched down Sully street to Front street, then to Kearney where it turned and made its way back to the starting point at the old school building.

The streets were jammed with spectators who came to the city to witness the celebration and to see the football game later in the afternoon. The Clarendon Clarendon High School Band in their pretty uniforms led the group with the Color guard of the Legion immediately following with seventy-five Legionnaires and ex-service men next in line. Following them came the Auxiliary and the Red Cross in their Red Cross uniforms, and following this came the school students.

The parade was a success and the citizens were highly pleased with the display.

MRS. ETHEL HAYES DIES AT EL PASO

MANY FRIENDS FEEL LOSS OF FORMER CLARENDON
GIRL NOVEMBER 3RD

Friends and acquaintances were shocked and grieved last Wednesday morning when the news was spread that Mrs. Ethel Rutherford Hayes had passed away at her home at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday night. Her father, J. H. Rutherford, left several days before in response to a message concerning her grave condition.

Mrs. Hayes is the daughter of J. H. and Alice Rutherford. She was born at Graham, Texas, May 13th, 1895. In July 1899 she moved with her parents to Clarendon where the family home was established. Entering the Clarendon Public Schools she received her education and graduated with honors with the class of 1912. She was a student in Clarendon College and then entered the teaching profession. She held this position for one year and then entered the business world where she served as saleslady for D. P. Ross, Baldwin Bros. Dry Goods Co., Strickland & Story, and in 1923 engaged in business for herself.

It was while she was operating "Ethel Rutherford's Style Shoppe" that she especially endeared herself to the citizens of Clarendon and Donley County, with her pleasing personality and cheerful disposition.

In 1925 she was stricken with tuberculosis and the following year moved to El Paso where she entered the Homan Sanitarium. In November 1930 she was married to Mr. B. L. Hayes of El Paso, and their home was made in that city for the greater part of the time since their union. Last winter the couple spent some time in California and the west, but later returned to El Paso.

The funeral services were held in El Paso and interment was made in the beautiful Restlawn Cemetery as the sun was sinking behind the multicolored hills to the west on the evening of November 4th. A large concourse of friends and acquaintances were present to pay their last respects to the noble woman who passed from the troubles and sufferings of this earthly life to her rich reward with the heavenly Father.

Those surviving Mrs. Hayes are her husband, Mr. B. L. Hayes, her father, Mr. J. H. Rutherford of this city, four sisters, Mrs. Rena Williams and Mrs. Jewell Hays of El Paso, Mrs. Minnie Butler of San Angelo and Mrs. Ruth Van Trease, Amarillo, two and weekly publications. He is also a civic worker of first rank having held the presidency of both the Clarksville and Dimmitt Chambers of Commerce. Mr. Smith is also a member of the American Legion and Lions Club of Dimmitt.

He is well qualified to help local merchants with their advertising problems and will be available whenever the Clarendon business men are in need of assistance of this kind.

Mr. Smith has moved to the city with his wife and a sixteen year old boy, who has entered the local high school.

Little Theatre Plans Two More Plays

Two more plays before Christmas will be given by the Clarendon
Little Theatre according to a decision reached at a meeting of the board of directors Monday afternoon at the Womens Club
Room at the City Hall.

One standard play will be given the early part of December, and a Christmas play or pageant will be given during the Holidays.

The board hopes to make enough money to pay off the last payment on the curtain at the Clarendon auditorium on the early December play, and plans to give the Christmas program complimentary to the public for their kind support and assistance in the struggle to add the curtain to the facilities at the college.

The play selection committee will turn the standard play over to the casting committee in the next few days and work will be begun next week it is hoped. Mrs. Boston, president of the Little Theatre, is highly pleased with the response and patronage accorded on the last play, "A Full House" staged a few weeks ago.

Mrs. O. T. Smith, as a delegate from the Pathfinder Study club, attended the Federated Club Meeting in Lubbock from Tuesday to Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Frances Miller of Sudan, Texas, and a former resident of our city, spent a part of Friday renewing friendship with old acquaintances of our city.

Mr. and Mrs. McCleskey and children spent the past week and with relatives in Lubbock.

BUSINESS CON- DITIONS BRIGHT

LAST SATURDAY'S INCREASED
BUSINESS BRIGHTENS
BUSINESS FOLK

A spirit of returning confidence in the existing economic difficulties was experienced in Clarendon over the week end when Saturday proved to be the best business day in months. Whether it was a result of the upward trend of the wheat and cotton markets or a result of the "Business Confidence" drive throughout the country a week previous is unknown, but the fact remains that Saturday's business was very gratifying and brought cheer to the business firms of Clarendon.

Almost without a single exception the stores of the city reported a substantial increase in their sales on Saturday with the belief that people who heretofore have been window shoppers, were also actual buyers. It has been a long period since people who were on the streets Saturday actually visited the various stores and carried away numerous articles.

Groceries, cafes, Dry Goods stores, garages, cleaners, druggists and all other business men of the city were pleased and surprised at the increase in volume of business and interpret the difference to mean that the raise from the depression's lowest point in the business chart has been started and is only a question of time until complete restoration of the business conditions of the country to normal.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Boykin, Mrs. R. H. Carver left on Sunday for Buffalo, Oklahoma for a two weeks visit with her parents. Mr. Carver accompanied her to Pampa where she took the train for Buffalo.

Legion Passes Quota With 112 Members

That the Aubyn E. Clark post of the American Legion is one of the most active groups in the state has long been an established fact, but the manner in which they have worked this year has even surpassed their former records. The membership quota as set by the Legion headquarters for this year was 110, a number many of the members entertained slight hope of achieving; however, on Monday evening one hundred and twelve legionnaires filled the hall as the quota was reached and broken. Much enthusiasm was displayed by the group and it is believed that the Clarendon Post will again top the district and retain the excellence cup for the third straight year.

Billy Walker of Memphis was among those who attended the Cyclone-Broncho game on Wednesday.

Athlyn Taylor, instructor in the Groom Public Schools, spent Armistice Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor.

Sims Cotton Truck Damaged at Waco

One of the monster cotton trucks of the Sims fleet of trucks was slightly damaged at Waco Sunday a week ago when a Katy switch engine crashed into the loaded truck carrying 36 bales of cotton. Leroy O'Neal was the driver of the truck and escaped without a scratch. The extent of the damage done to the truck was a bent front axle and a blown out front tire. Reports were current here the fore part of last week that the truck was demolished by a fast Katy Flyer, but such was not the case. The truck was en route to Houston at the time of the smash-up and delayed the trip for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Womack were among the Memphis boosters that witnessed the ball game.

brothers, Jack Rutherford of Amarillo and Bill Rutherford who is attending the School of Mines in El Paso.

NICHOLS, MARTIN, MORRIS, ANDIS AND REID ARE OUTSTANDING IN VICTORY

After gaining nothing better than three tie games in a period lasting for eight years, the Clarendon High School Bronchos loosed their pent up wrath against the Mighty Cyclones from Memphis, crushing the invaders by a score of 12 to 0 before a mammoth Armistice Day crowd which shattered all previous attendance records. Three thousand rabid, but orderly, fans filled the stands and banked the playing field and cheered their respective eleven in the great Panhandle grid classic which sent the Bronchos into the semi-finals of the District race and champions of Section D.

With a perfect football day and a gentle breeze blowing across and slightly to the west goal, Captain Bourland won the toss and chose to defend the west goal, Clarendon receiving. A great cheer arose from both sides of the field as the kickoff plunged the twenty-two youths into terrific combat. Clarendon was held for downs and punted back to midfield. The Cyclones failed to gain and punted out on the four yard line. Captain Nichols ripped off left tackle for twenty yards and then added 15 more on the next play. The attack weakened and Andis punted beautifully to the Cyclone 29 yard line. Memphis showed some spark with two first downs and then kicked to Andis who brought the fans to their feet with one of the most beautiful returns of a punt ever seen on the local field, shaking off tackler after tackler and advancing the ball fifteen yards. Reid contributed a fifteen yard gain and a twenty-eight yard heave from Andis to Nichols placed the ball on the defenders four yard marker. After two line players had gained very little due to mixups in the Clarendon line Nichols plunged over for the first encounter of the game to send 2,000 Clarendon enthusiasts into a wild display of enthusiasm. The Memphis line swarmed through to block Reid's kick for extra point. Clarendon 6; Memphis 0.

The Cyclones came back fighting and held the Bronces on even terms throughout the remainder of the first period, using their effective snags with May and Leslie lugging to advantage. Clarendon

VISITORS, ANNOUNCEMENTS
AND REPORTS MAKE UP
TUESDAYS LUNCHEON

The Tuesday luncheon of the Clarendon Lions Club was one of variety, with numerous guests present adding considerable to the interesting reports and announcements which filled the period allotted the program committee.

Following the reading of the minutes the meeting was turned over to Lion Ira Merchant, chairman of the Program Committee, who made several introductory remarks bringing the attention of the club to the fact that on the following day there was to be various and sundry festivities in commemoration of Armistice Day. Introducing Commander Nathan Cox, of the Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion, Lion Merchant stated that he and the succeeding Legionnaires present were free to say what they wished and even tell of their experiences while in the services of our country.

Commander Cox expressed his appreciation at being allowed to meet with the Lions Club and stated that the Legion was anxious to co-operate with the group in any civic undertaking. Past Commander Clarence E. Miller, was next in line and clearly brought out the fact that he very seldom told of his experiences while in France and there were even some minor experiences

GRAND OPERA AND LIFE

As we enjoy the ever-living music of the grand operas, and sympathize momentarily with the tragedies of its characters, how little do we suspect that in our own circles and among our close friends, there is often a living story of soul suffering and sacrifice just as real and sometimes more poignant than those portrayed on the stage.

Life is full of defeats, bruises and suffering, along with victories, exultations and throbbing joys. That is why the human heart responds to the moods of grand opera and lives again in its soul lyrics.

Grand opera is a page from the volume of life, and life is a repetition of the themes of the opera, so let us not neglect to sympathize just as truly with the actors in everyday contacts, as sincerely as we react to the woes and joys of those who enthral us through the eternal songs of the masters.

ANOTHER CAUSE FOR THANKFULNESS

Thirteen years ago this Armistice Day, millions of hearts were bowed down in grief and fear—grief for those sons and brothers who had made the supreme sacrifice on the shell torn fields of Europe, and fear for the safety of other sons whose lives some special Providence had protected.

In 1931 millions of spirits are bowed with the weight of business cares and financial reverses, even now as the light of a better day is breaking on the Eastern horizon.

Many of us think this has been one of the worst years we have ever known, and yet, would we be willing to go back to the year preceeding the Armistice of 1918?

Would we be willing to enjoy flood-tide business and large profits at the expense of lives and limbs and human misery?

Yes, we have another cause of thankfulness today. How much better it is that we have had our luxuries cut off, our profits withdrawn, our spirits depressed for economic reasons, than to have grief and fear—and human misery.

Let us rise up and go into the new and better day with no regrets. It has been tragically worse. It could be again.

—OO—

OUR BROTHER'S KEEPER

This period through which the world is struggling is more than an economic crisis. It involves more than a study of strategic plans to ambuscade the dollars which fled.

Humanity itself is on trial. The civilization which we have evolved is undergoing the supreme test. If there is such a thing as brotherhood among men, now is the time to show it.

Drunk with wealth, we have strayed a long way from the fundamental and eternal truth. We have been living in a house stuck upon golden stilts. And it has crashed.

In our agony and suffering we have discovered that Jesus Christ meant what he said. The Golden Rule was not a pleasant homily intended for reward-of-merit cards with silk fringe on the edges and diamond dust shining on the snow scenes. It was a simple statement of the eternal law, the same law that keeps the stars in the skies and the world turning on its axis.

We speak of breaking the law and commandments. You can break them; but they break you. "Love one another" was more than an admonition to light the path of virtue. It was the statement of an eternal principle upon which law, philosophy, business, ethics, all civilization rests. Like all the doctrines left by the Christ, this was the sublimity of common sense—the finality of practicality—the only sure foundation upon which civilization can rest.

During these money-glutted years we have tried each to go our own way alone. Years of greed and money lust have ended with this terrible lesson: That wealth evaporates and leaves men stark and with naked hearts.

It is for us to see that this terrible rebuke has not been in vain. For us to see that we rebuild the fallen structure on the rock of brotherhood.

This winter will be a period that calls for all men to have fortitude, strength and sympathy. It is, for once, clear to the dullest mind that we can only help ourselves by helping others.

Out of this period of re-adjustment we can regain our souls. It can be a better world because of this period of hunger and sorrow; a stronger America and a sounder civilization if it brings to us a realization we are given the privilege of being our brother's keeper.

The remedy for our financial crisis lies not in laws, federal commissions, in panacea or financial errors.

The sound and practical answer was told two thousand years ago in a sermon spoken on a mountain in Palestine.

Industrial Possibilities of Texas

BY COL. WM. E. TALBOT

(Editor's Note:—Following is the 7th of a series of articles by Col. W. E. Talbot, agency manager for the Southland Life Insurance Company and the prime mover in the campaign for Texas Industries, in which he discusses the possibilities of Texas from an industrial standpoint, answering the question: "What manufacturers does Texas have and what can we profitably manufacture?" Other articles will follow.)

STORY NO. 7

Special To The Clarendon News.
At the end of our campaign for the governorship there was such a demand for the continuation of this Texas Industries work that it was continued under the name of the Southwest Industrial Development Bureau, with all expenses absorbed by myself, and at no cost to those desiring information. Over 220 speeches have been made since last August before luncheon clubs, chambers of commerce meetings, and mass meetings, showing our plan of Southwest Development.

On June 1, the Southland Life Insurance Company took over the expense incident to the management of the bureau, and are sponsoring its activities as a good will contribution to the citizens of this state. With this added help it has enabled us through our entire agency organization to materially bring about the consummation of our plans, and the success in building up our industries is far beyond anything that was anticipated in August, 1930.

We are supplying today to any merchant who desires it a complete grocery list of Texas manufactured food stuff, a complete list of men's wear, from hats to shoes, women's wear, and children's wear, products for hardware stores, and furniture. And contractor erecting a building can obtain from us a complete list of necessary materials produced right here in Texas, with the exception of elevators. We have a complete list of what each county wants in the way of new industries with surveys of power, raw material available, and natural resources that have not yet been developed. All this is obtainable at no cost to those interested.

Gloom Hangs Over Longhorn Ball Camp

Special To The Clarendon News
AUSTIN, Nov. 10.—Unconvinced by the 25-0 score which the Steers rolled up against the weak Baylor Bears, local experts are predicting another defeat for Clyde Littlefield's crew when they tackle the flying Frogs of Texas Christian here Saturday. They base their predictions on the crippled condition of the Texas team which is likely to leave them without the services of five regulars, and upon the fact that they will face a powerful eleven which has sailed through Arkansas, A. & M., and Rice to keep its conference record perfect and which is an overwhelming favorite to enter the championship game with S. M. U. November 28 without a loss being marked against them.
 Longhorn coaches are of the opinion that their charges will be badly outclassed by the experienced Christians unless they show more fire and determination than they have in any game this season. They consider their only chances for victory is to play "over their heads" against the big Purple machine. The coaches will give much attention this week to the Steer offensive, in an effort to fashion an attack which will penetrate the hitherto invincible Frog defense.

FORMER CLARENDON MAN KILLED IN AUTO MISHAP

Many old-timers will be saddened to read the following clipping from the columns of an Albuquerque newspaper, telling of the death of Amos V. Lipe as a result of being a victim of a hit-and-run driver. Mr. Lipe was at one time a resident of Clarendon and was the first citizen to own an automobile in the city, one of the old buggy types.
 The clipping:
 Amos V. Lipe, 79, 210 South Walter street, who was struck at Walter street and Central avenue on October 10 by a hit and run driver, died at a local hospital at 2:15 o'clock Wednesday morning.
 Lipe suffered a fractured left hip, a double fracture of the right leg, below the knee, and scalp wounds. He was never able to tell how the accident happened.

hospital attendants said.
 With his death police officers renewed efforts Wednesday to locate the driver of the auto. No report of the accident was ever made to the police. Officers investigated the accident, however, on October 13.
 Lipe had resided in Albuquerque for nine years. He is survived by his son, Rube Lipe of Albuquerque and two sisters and a brother in California.

lishing their claims. In a recent case a million-dollar estate of "Sir Mathew Wilkerson" awaited claimants, so the swindlers said. An investigation disclosed that there had never been any Sir Mathew Wilkerson.

HIP-hip Hooray! Hot dog, dad-dum, gee whiz! Eureka, Excelsior, and other jubilant expressions of exultation, triumph and joy—with a couple of goshes pitched in for good measure! I'm happy, folks, I'm just awful happy!—why?
 Because — CLARENDON BEAT MEMPHIS!!!

Boy what a game and how those Bronchos did do their work. When naming the outstanding stars for the Clarendon and White we can only start in at the first of the line-up and name the players. They are Tony Watson, Loyd Martin, John McManan, Pete Morris, Loyd Benson, Pete Easterling, F. L. Bearens, snooks Angus, Fred Reid, Biery Watson, Captain Raymond Nichols, Bill Greene and Waiters. Not since 1923 have the Bronchos been able to gain through the swirling devastations of the Memphis High School Cyclones to a victory, and glory and honor are theirs and the two splendid coaches, Frank A. Stocking and John G. Hutton, the men who built the machine which crushed the Cyclone so completely yesterday afternoon.

But a few words in regard to the Memphis eleven. Never has there stepped upon the College gridiron a mere plucky fighting band of lads or gamer bunch than those Cyclones which met an honorable defeat at the hands of the powerful Bronchos. They proved themselves worthy foes and gentlemen combined, an opponent any team is pleased to meet.

Possibly the largest crowd ever to witness a football game in Clarendon was present for the contest—which was truly the football classic of the Panhandle football schedule. It was especially pleasing that the crowd was so exceptionally well behaved, not one bit of trouble was experienced and the fans of the two cities displayed only the friendliest sort of rivalry—a good tonic for any two towns.

SPORT SLANTS and The Clarendon News wish to express our pleasure of having such dignitaries of the Fourth Estate for the game. The gentlemen referred to are Lyman Robbins and Sports Writer Adrian Odum of the Amarillo News, Editor W. Russell Clark, and Jerry Sifton and Ted Read of the Memphis Democrat staff. WELCOME back for the other championship games. Each of the above spoke highly of the Bronchos and predict a district championship for Clarendon.

Well, followers, I'm signing off for a couple of weeks and let you recover and rest while my column is being written by Ted Read of the Memphis Democrat, fellow columnist, who lost the bet to SPORT SLANTS and will pay off in this space next week. Thanks Ted—the column or several columns, as you wish, are yours.

How to train BABY'S BOWELS

Babies, bottle-fed or breast-fed, with any tendency to be constipated, would thrive if they received daily half a teaspoonful of this old family doctor's prescription for the bowels.

That is one sure way to train tiny bowels to healthy regularity. To avoid the fretfulness, vomiting, crying, failure to gain, and other ills of constipated babies.
 Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is good for any baby. For this, you have the word of a famous doctor. Forty-seven years of practice taught him just what babies need to keep their little bowels active, regular; keep little bodies plump and healthy. For Dr. Caldwell specialized in the treatment of women and little ones. He attended over 3500 births without loss of one mother or baby.

Morrison's Mustangs Believe In Mystic Help From Necromancy Rites

Special To The Clarendon News
DALLAS, TEXAS, Nov. 10.—Southern Methodist University's recipe for a championship football team includes one staff of exceptional coaches, countless hours of faithful practice, the same quantum of hard work, one large measure of self-denial, a dash of inspiration—and a pinch of superstition.

For all the other ingredients, no matter in what quantities are used, will be ineffective, certain Mustangs feel, if they don't pay their respects to a pet rabbit's foot or perform other solemn rites of necromancy before the kick-off. Captain Alfred Neely doesn't depend entirely on his "educated toe" for the accuracy that sends the ball spinning between the goal posts, but gives part of the credit to the magic efficacy of a rabbit's paw that he carries with him into every game.

Most reverent of all the Mustangs that make and mar football destiny is "Sneedy" Mason, ace quarterback for the Ponies. Not content to pay homage to the mistress of fortunes in football season only, Mason has certain daily rites that he performs whether it be November or July. Preceding each game "Speedy" may be seen wearing an old blue work shirt whose magical powers are said to give him the famous hip twist that enables him to whisk through his opponents like a phantom. Careful inspection will show that when Mason trots onto the playing field he wears a neat little piece of tape on his right shin. "Speedy" refuses to reveal the spiritual significance of this patch but says it is a rite that he has performed since he first began playing football at Waco, Texas high school.

Mason also insists upon sitting and eating in the same chair and at the same table throughout the football season. If he can't have his usual place or chair he thinks it better not to eat at all.

Many of the Ponies, including Mason, believe that the number they carry on their backs have a peculiar significance and, if they have had a successful season, insist that the same number be given them the following year.

 "Dutch" McIntosh is the only one of the coaches that believe in the efficiency of a charm piece. He slips a rabbit's foot into his pocket on the day of each game.

Another rite observed before each game is for C. S. Hamilton, one of the Pony's staunch admirers, to hand the headgear to four of the men just before they go onto the field. Bert Baxter, star punter, never fails to perform this ceremony.

Most of the players keep the same lockers from year to year. The lockers are constructed the same but the men feel since there is no particular reason to change it is foolhardy to run the risk of tempting the fates.
 While these Mustangs humor their net superstitions with strict regularity, others have a fatalistic attitude of believing that rites charms and ceremonies are pure "hokey" and that the only thing that counts is hard-work, ability and strict training.

SANTA CLAUS PLANS BIG PARADE IN AMARILLO

Special To The Clarendon News
AMARILLO, Nov. 10.—"I will be in Amarillo December 10, with my reindeer, the Three Wise Men and their camels, Merry Christmas, and representatives of every Nation," says Santa Claus in a telegram to the News-Globe and Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, who are sponsoring his visit to the Panhandle.
 "I want to see every boy and girl in the Panhandle," the genial old gentleman. "I will have samples of all my toys and goodies that my helpers are getting ready for me to distribute Christmas Eve and I sure want all of the children to see them and pick out what they want."
 Santa Claus and his forces, with representatives from almost every town in the Panhandle, lots of bands and floats, will stage a big parade in Amarillo at 11 o'clock on December 10.

December 10 will be a big day for the children of the Panhandle. New Mexico and Western Oklahoma.

BASEBALL'S OLD ROMAN

In the death of Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, a few days ago at the age of 73, organized baseball lost one of its few remaining pioneers.
 The "Old Roman," as he was affectionately called, was the only man in major league history to rise from player to sole owner of a team, franchise and park.
 Comiskey began his major league career 50 years ago as first baseman for the St. Louis Browns of the old American Association at $125 a month. He later became manager of the team and won four straight league championships; also one world's championship, and tied for another.

He was one of the founders of the American League in 1900 from which time until his death he led the White Sox as manager or owner, winning five league pennants and two world series.

Comiskey's greatest disappointment came in 1919, when seven members of his team were convicted of throwing the world's series to the inferior Cincinnati club of the National League, having been bribed by gamblers. This scandal for a time threatened to wreck professional baseball, but Comiskey's prompt action in firing players was the deciding factor in restoring public confidence in the game.
 Among the many tributes paid to Comiskey at his death was this from President Heydler of the American League: "No one ever did more to preserve the honesty and integrity of baseball than Comiskey. He took a courageous stand after the 1919 world series in prosecuting the dishonest players of the White Sox. He sacrificed

Ashtola Cagers Are Getting In Trim.

Every thing is coming on nicely for the Ashtola basket ball team. Many of the squad who have been out on account of cotton picking are back now. The light fixtures for the court have arrived. They will be installed this week.

Plans are to place ten 100 watt bulbs at intervals around the court. Power for the lights is going to be furnished by the Drennan light plant. This plant is located in the post office.

The attendance is increasing rapidly now. Cotton picking is near enough over that the majority of the students will soon be back.

CHAMBERLAIN CHEVROLET WRECKED NEAR CLAUDE.

As Joe Cluck was returning from Amarillo Tuesday night while driving the Chevrolet Coupe of Fred Chamberlain, he narrowly escaped serious injury and possibly fatal injuries when the lights on the car went out sending it crashing into a post at the side of the road. Mr. Cluck was driving about 50 miles per hour west of Claude when the lights burned out leaving him in darkness. The car plunged off the road into a post driving the four-by-four through the radiator, through the hood and into the interior of the car through the windshield. Had there been any one accompanying Mr. Cluck they would no doubt have been killed as the post entered on the passenger side of the automobile.

German Remedy Stops 30-Year Constipation

"For 30 years I had a bad stomach and constipation. Sourcing food from stomach choked me. Since taking Adlerika I am a new woman. Constipation is thing of the past." Alice Burns.

Most remedies reach only lower bowel. That is why you must take them often. But this simple German remedy Adlerika washes out BOTH upper and lower bowel. It brings out all gas and rids you of poison you would never believe was in your system. Even the FIRST dose will surprise you.—Douglas-Goldston Drug Co. R-5.

West Texas Exes Enjoy Friday Meet

EX-students of the West Texas State Teachers College met Friday night at last week at the Clarendon Hotel in a special meeting and banquet at which time many old school mates met again for the first time since their college days. Professor Stuart H. Condon, head of the history department of the school at Canyon was present and addressed his former students concerning present educational problems and the profession of teaching. The talk was very interesting and proved to be of great benefit as a number of those present were also members of the teaching fraternity.

Mrs. Condon and Mrs. Nora McMurtrey were present to add further to the pleasant occasion. Mrs. McMurtrey favored the twenty persons present with an interesting talk also along the teaching profession.

In the business meeting which followed plans were laid for future meetings and every one was urged to attend the sessions of the State Teachers' Association at Amarillo and other noteworthy events.

The program consisted of the following:
 Alma Mater—Group.
 Roll Call—Secretary.
 Opening Address—Professor C. W. Howard.
 Texas State Teachers Association and other noteworthy events—Mr. Kenzie Lane.
 Dance Number—Miss Oma Wilson.
 Reading—Mrs. Kenzie Lane.
 Address—Professor Stuart H. Condon.

which he had even withheld from his wife. He then called upon his comrade, Chas. Trent, Liasion Officer of the local Post who confessed to the Lions and visitors that his position was one of honor and the recipient of all the "dirty" jobs, hence he was selected as the speaker for the visiting Legionnaires. Mr. Trent, as official hand shaker and speaker for the Legion, pleaded with the Lions to join with the American Legion and enroll the support of the other civic organizations on the state and nation in a remedy of the sugar in the cornbread proposition. Boss Lion Boykin stated that the Lions Club has always arisen to the occasion and that Mr. Trent could count on full cooperation on this important matter.

Field representative Tenny of the State School for the Blind at Austin was introduced to the club and he responded with a very interesting report concerning M. J. Bonham and two of the Lions Club proteges, who are now doing splendidly in the state institution. Mr. Tenny stated that he had never seen a more splendid piece of work and teamwork than was exhibited by the Clarendon people and the other connections who helped in any way in the treatment and transportation of these children. He was also well pleased that the work is still being carried on by the club at the present time, and stated that next year he would return and take another child to the institution.

Past Boss Lion Gorrins of the Braeknridge Club and now of the Dallas club was introduced by Lion J. R. Porter. He stated that he was very pleased to be present and always looked for the Lions Club in every town he visited. Only one exception was made to this rule and that in a town in Oklahoma where the population was made up only of the colored citizens. At this point time was called to make inquiry of the Sooner members of the group as to their former homes.

Lion J. Rov Bartlett of Childress was present and suffered severe cross-examination concerning a so called contest challenge of the local club by the Childress group. His answer was featured with continued silence on the part of the victim.

Coneches Frank A. Stocking and John G. Hutton were introduced the club by Lion Sam Braswell, Jr., but they declined to comment on the coming football classic with the Memphis Cyclones, preferring to do their talking following the game.

Announcement of the Father and Son banquet for Monday evening was made and a committee appointed to help with the

Bronchos Down

Clarendon registered three first downs to two for the Cyclones in the first round.

An exchange of punts featured the second quarter with Andis having a distinct edge over the Memphis booter. Gaining the ball in Memphis territory and failing to gain with a power attack. Andis dropped back and shot a thirty-five yard pass into a group of Broncho and Memphis players. Loyd Martin made a pretty and difficult catch, pulled into the clear and trotted five yards for the second counter. Andis' attempted drop-kick was short for the extra point. Clarendon 12; Memphis 0. On the pass play Andis was given plenty of time by the effective blocking of his mates.

Memphis was still fighting hard and clearly outplayed the Bronchos registering 6 first downs to two for the Maroon during the second period, however, the Black and Gold gains were made in mid-field and they were losing heavily on punt exchanges.

Clarendon threw away a golden opportunity to score a third touchdown in this quarter with Fred Reid broke off tackle and sprinted 73 yards where he was finally brought down by Flannery on the seven yard stripe. A fumble by Nichols which Memphis recovered ended the threat.

During the intermission at the half the Memphis pep squad clad in very attractive black uniforms with gold "MHS" emblems paraded on the field and went through several intricate formations assisted by the tumbling class who also featured in the show. They retired giving the Clarendon team and the Cyclones a number of yells. Following this the Maroon Pepers paraded on the field attired in their white uniforms with Maroon trimmings and tams. After forming the "M" for Memphis and "C" for Clarendon and giving an exhibition in formations and yells for both teams they marched from the field just before the Cyclones and Bronchos returned to the gridiron.

Both defenses tightened up and the ball saw-sawed in the mid section of the field with Andis continuing the edge in the kicking department. Clarendon's running attack was stopped by the heavy forwards of the Black and Gold line, featuring Captain Bourland, Sanders and West.

The third period closed with the Bronchos registering three first downs with Memphis counting two.

Settling back into a defensive game the Maroon and White ran into a little trouble when Andis misjudged a Memphis punt and it was downed on the locals' two yard line, gaining 65 yards. Andis punted out to the 30 yard line where a Memphis pass netted 18 yards, but an intercepted pass by Andis cut off the threat and Clarendon punted out of danger. The game ended with Clarendon taking possession of the ball on their own 21 yard line after holding the Cyclones for downs. Clarendon 12; Memphis 0.

Clarendon punted 12 times for an average of 34 yards; Memphis punted 12 times for an average of 26 yards. First Downs Bronchos 11 Cyclones 11. Yards gained from scrimmage Clarendon 253, Memphis 134. Passes attempted Clarendon seven, three completed for 78 yards, one intercepted; Memphis nine, one completed for 18 yards, three incomplete, four intercepted.

Officials: referee, Vaughn, Simmons; Umpire, Sheid, Baylor; Head-linesman, Walker, T. C. U. Starting lineups:

Clarendon: T. Watson and Benson, ends; Martin and Esterling tackles; Morris and Behrens, guards; McMahon, center; E. Watson and Reid halfbacks; Capt. Nichols, fullback; Andis, quarter.

Memphis: West and Sanders, ends; Stewart and Melton, tackles; Sheppard and Bagwell, guards; Capt. Bourland, center; Leslie and Starvel, halfbacks; Mays, fullback; Flannery, quarterback.

Wizard Control Features New Line of Buick Cars

The new Buick Eight for 1932, introducing "Wizard Control," a feature that embodies principles never before employed in automobile engineering, is now being presented at every Buick dealer's showroom in the country. This new feature is declared to be the greatest automotive achievement since the self-starter.

Wizard Control results from a new method of car control through the use of an automatic clutch, power-operated and controlled by a floor-button, with free wheeling and a new synchro-mesh transmission with silent second gear.

Buick's 1932 presentation includes an extensive variety of twenty-six body models, on four different chassis, with wheelbase dimensions of 114, 118, 125 and 134 inches, respectively. This is the most complete line that Buick has ever offered at one time. The modish, smart Fisher bodies are extremely low-slung and graceful in appearance, with a host of interior and exterior refinements, including parking lamps on front fenders, pointer type speedometer, inside adjustable sunshade, new hardware and interior trim. New exterior improvements include new radiator, new hood with door type ventilators, two horns mounted on lamp brackets, two tail lamps mounted on rear fenders and new single bar bumpers.

There is a newly-developed ride regulator, easily and instantly operated by a handle on the steering column, which enables the driver to obtain riding comfort on any kind of road, at any speed and with any number of passengers. Setting a new trend is the new instrument board with all of the instruments grouped at the left, directly under the eyes of the driver. The cars are equipped with through the use of the new three-spoke steering wheel. The right of the instrument panel has been converted into a commodious compartment.

The new valve-in-head straight eight engines offer optional high compression. The cars are equipped with improved starting, carburetion and fuel supply system, improved oil temperature regulator and a new vacuum pump giving positive windshield wiper action at all speeds.

Vacuum from the intake manifold, always available when the engine is running, operates the automatic clutch. It is controlled by a touch of the foot upon the floor button, making possible smooth gear shifting without use of the clutch pedal, with instantaneous change back and forth from free wheeling to conventional control, as desired.

The conventional clutch pedal is retained, and yet it need not be used in shifting gears unless the driver so desires, save when making a cold start or perhaps when parking in close quarters. Free wheeling is obtained simply by depressing the button and releasing the accelerator. Release the button or depress the accelerator, and the clutch engages again, making positive connection with the engine.

ROOM BEAUTY

Restraint is an element of beauty in the arrangement of a room. The temptation is to put too many things into it, until it is overcrowded or furnished with a complex of ornaments and is not restful or harmonious.

To rearrange a room and make it charming, weed out everything which is not beautiful in itself or so useful that it is needed there. If each object can be both beautiful and useful, so much the better.

It takes real heroism to be an iconoclast with long-time possessions, gifts from friends, souvenirs of happy events, and articles invested with sentiment: but one will feel much more free and artistic if the furnishings of a room are appropriate and in proportion. Parting is such sweet sorrow and theft is so inbred in us that we are always hanging on to our outworn or outgrown possessions, thinking perhaps they may come in handy some day. If you have not the courage to escort yours to the junk pile give them to someone else who may find use for them or at least it will be up to them and not to you to destroy them, and thus you can pass the buck.

When you have eliminated all unsightly and unnecessary articles from your rooms, add something new and bright and choice once in awhile and you will be surprised how much zest it will add to family life, for a long time.

VALUE OF CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

"Do you think a man could get to heaven without joining the church?" asked three good men of a preacher.

"I think he could."

They laughed, patted him on the back, and called him broad-minded.

"Let me ask you a question, and I want you to answer me just as quickly as I answered you," said the preacher. "Why do you want to go to heaven that way?"

"They were speechless."

"Why don't you ask me another question?" suggested the preacher. "Why don't you ask me if a man could get to England without going on a boat?"

"Well," they said, "we will ask you that. Now what is the answer?"

"I see no reason why a man could not get to England without going on a ship, provided he was a good swimmer, tied some food between his shoulders to eat on the way, had strength to buffet all the waves—if a shark did not get him. And suppose you did get to England without a ship, do you think you would get there much ahead of the man who goes by ship?"

SENIOR RECEIVES FOUL PLAY

An innocent member of the Senior Class suffered injuries Tuesday morning when he was trapped by a group of conspirators, with George Bourland as their leader. The victim entered the fatal room at 8:15 o'clock, it was about five minutes later when he was attacked by the offenders. The president of the class went to the front of the room and announced that a new reporter should be elected because the former one had quit school. The conspirators worked so fast and tricky that they nominated, closed the opening for nominations, and elected George McCleskey before he had time to defend himself.

Future Farmers of America Meeting

The Future Farmer's Association met Wednesday night at 7:00 o'clock at the Agriculture room. The meeting was opened by President Andis. The program consisted of contributions from four of the members, Hollis Evans, Hugh Phelps, Loma Ayers and Ruth Cauthen who read some important facts and rules that all the members should observe. Alfred McMurtry read some jokes that caused a great deal of merriment. President Andis appointed three members for the program committee of the next meeting which will be on Wednesday night, November 28.

Students Receive Parade Instructions

For the last two consecutive days, Monday and Tuesday assembly has been called of all of the college and high school students for the purpose of giving instructions to them as to what they should do Wednesday. As that day is Armistice a feeling of patriotism seems to have swept the community and as a result there will be a big parade consisting of the students from all of the schools led by the members of several different organizations, such as the American Legion, and the Red Cross. It was to be sure that each student understood the part he was to play on this memorial day, that assembly was called.

Berkley Ryan, Ruth Cauthen, Evelyn Murphy, Miss Morgan and Mrs. Ryan went to Childress Saturday to attend the H. E. Club meet.

Bill Word went to Pampa Saturday.

Pauline Slaven spent the week end in Hedley.

Joe Noble from Amarillo visited in Clarendon over the week end.

Melba Del Warner returned from Houston Friday where she has been attending school.

Alpha Delta Psi Society Activities

By GLEN ALLISON.
The Palo Duro Literary Society met last Wednesday evening in one of the most thoroughly entertaining and enjoyable programs of the entire year. The motto of the club, pen, push, and personality, was reflected in the actions of every member who took part on the program, and the interest of the listening group indicated a high appreciation of each rendition.

After roll call and a reading of the minutes, plans were discussed for a dance to be held sometime during the following week, but definite arrangements were left to the social committee. Tuesday night preceding Armistice Day was tentatively agreed upon.

When the president's preliminary remarks were concluded, the following program was given:
Ukele Duet—Eunice Johnson and Roberta Lafon.
Cornet Solo—Sam Cauthen.
Short Story—Miss Headrick.

The three musicians gave the society some real entertainment. Eunice Johnson and Roberta Lafon are genuine "Ukele Ladies", and Sam Cauthen is a cornetist of no little ability. Miss Headrick should be complimented on her choice of a story as well as her impressive interpretation of each character.

Laverne Lott to Head Sophomores

A meeting was held at one-twenty on Tuesday to appoint someone to act as leader for the Sophomore class in the parade Wednesday. This was made necessary because both the president and vice president were unable to be there. Laverne Lott was appointed to fill this place. Miss Harris and Mrs. Cox are the sponsors of this class.

Mrs. Grace Lackey of Chicago pleaded in her divorce suit that her husband told her that kissing was barbarous and ancient and slapped her face when she asked him for a kiss.

A Weymouth, England, motorist could not remember for two days where he had parked his car, and when he remembered he was fined for leaving it without lights and for obstructing the street.

Harry Hartzog Is On Judging Team

Special To The Clarendon News
CANYON, Nov. 10.—Harry Hartzog of Clarendon is one of nine boys who are working for a place on the stock judging team which the West Texas State Teachers College Agriculture department will send to the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth next March. Only four boys will be sent. Most of the boys trying out for the team are defraying their college expenses by working on the college farm, better known as the T Anchor Ranch, one mile north of Canyon.

FOR THE BOYS TO SOLVE

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat? Some say Eve 8 and Adam two—a total of 10 only. Now we figure the thing out differently. Eve 8 and Adam 8 also—total 16, and yet the above figures are entirely wrong. If Eve 8 and Adam 82 certainly the total will be 90.

Scientific man, however, on the strength of the theory that the Antediluvians were a race of giants, reason something like this: Eve 81 and Adam 82—total 163, wrong again; what could be clearer than if Eve 81 and Adam 812 the total was 893. If Eve 811 and Adam 812 would not the total be 1623. I believe the following to be a fair solution: Eve 814 Adam 8124 Eve, total 8938. Still another circulation is as follows: If Adam 81242 oblige Eve—total 82056.

We think this, however, not a sufficient quantity. For though we admit that Eve 814 Adam, Adam if he 8181242 keep Eve company—total 8,082,856. All wrong. Eve when she 81812 many and probably she felt sorry for it, but her companion, in order to relieve her grief 812. Therefore, when Adam 81814240fy Eve's depressed spirits. Hence both ate 81,896,864 apples. No wonder God turned them out of Eden.

An interesting talk was delivered by Rotarian O. L. Jenkins on the subject of "Botulism". The disease, although very uncommon, has been brought to the attention of the people of the Panhandle by the deaths of two persons at Borger in the weeks just past. The physician stated that there was a serum for the disease but that it could be reached only at few points, and so unfamiliar with the doctors with the case that when it was found out just what the trouble really was it was generally too late to get the serum in time to save the patients' life. The disease is caused from foods poisoned in cans, and in canned meats. Precautions were related and stressed in the handling of all canned foods.

ARMISTICE DAY SIDELIGHTS

The day dawned with the sky overcast with soft, low hanging clouds threatening a downpour at every minute. It was cool with a slight south wind.

The Bronchos deserve new jerseys--let's get them for the next big games. They'd look swell in white jerseys with large black numerals. What do you say--they deserve it.

Flags were displayed and welcome banners added further to the day's festive spirit--thanks to the American Legion for the work in placing them across the street.

About 11 o'clock the Memphisians began swarming into the city with traffic becoming congested with visitors from all over the Panhandle and parts of Oklahoma arriving for the Legion Parade and the Championship ball game.

11:30 o'clock all childrens tickets had been sold for the game and the largest crowd for a football game here was practically assured.

12:30 o'clock the clouds began to lift and a weak sun shown through upon the huge crowd gathered on the streets for the parade.

1:00 o'clock parade started and finished at 1:30, followed by band concert until nearly two o'clock.

The crowd shifted quickly from the streets to the site of the Ball game, where the huge crowd taxed the capacity of the field.

Never has a game been so well policed as yesterday's game in which the American Legion did a masterpiece. School officials express their appreciation for the splendid co-operation given in making the large crowd.

The Bronchos entered the field led by Pete Morris, the star of the game, amid a deafening roar from the Clarendon rooting section. They were followed shortly by the Cyclones who received a like applause from the Memphis stands. Both teams limbered up as the punters sent long, high spirals floating with the wind.

Both teams and stands stood while the Band led the Color Guard and both pep squads around the field to in front of the Clarendon stand where they stood at attention and played the "Star Spangled Banner."

Every one left the field and the officials called Captain Nichols of the Bronchos and Capt. Bourland of the Cyclones to the center of the field for the toss. Capt. Bourland won and elected to defend the east goal.

Gate receipts totaled $958.40 of which Clarendon received $416. Memphis $456.
