Red Cross Quota Set At $4,800 For County

Lee Bell, who has been appointed Chairman for Donley County in the Red Cross Drive, announced this week the quota which Donley County is to raise in this year's drive which begins March 1st and goes through March 31st. The needs of the National American Red Cross has been placed at Two Hundred Million Dollars for 1944. Of this amount $4,800 has been set as a quota for Donley County.

A planning Committee has been formed and held a meeting last week to make plans for the coming drive. The Committee is composed of the following: Lee Bell, R. E. Drennan, Odos Caraway, J. D. Swift, Clyde Douglas, Bill Riney, Miss Charlotte Molesworth, Mrs. Katherine Bugbee, Nollie Simmons, Charles Reed, G. W. Estlack and Quinn Aten of Lella Lake and Charles Rains of Hedley.

The Planning Committee decided that the County Quota would not be broken down into quotas for each school district and community, for if everyone does his or her part, the quota will be exceeded.

Mr. Bell, who was chairman last year and who did a first class job of raising the quota at that time, believes that everyone knows the value of the Red Cross work and feels confident that, with full hearted cooperation of everyone, the quota for this year can be reached at an early date.

The following committees have been appointed and will begin work at once; others will be appointed and announced soon:

Special Gifts Committee: Miss Charlotte Molesworth, Mrs. H. D. Bugbee, Buddy Knorrp and Bert Smith.

Speakers Committee: Mrs. E. S. Ballew and Miss Charlotte Molesworth.

Rural Solicitation, Donley Co. War Board: Nollie Simmons, pres. and Chas. Reed, secretary.

Lella Lake Solicitation: Quinn Aten.

College Solicitation: R. E. Drennan and H. T. Burton.

It is kept every year in 50 countries on the globe. The first service is held as the sun reaches the Fiji Islands, the last on St. Lawrence Island 30 miles from the Arctic circle. Those with service men "somewhere in the Pacific" (See WORLD PRAYER, Page 8)

County Bond Drive Goes Over Top

The people of Donley County really did a job this time. They put the Fourth War Loan Drive over before the deadline and with a nice balance to spare. The quota was $399,000 and the total sales amounted to $397,250.50. $91,000 of that amount was allotted to E Bonds and this was exceeded with a total sale of $102,406.50.

This is a feat that we can all be proud of, for it is no easy matter to raise an approximate $300,000; and we did a better job on the E

Four Nazis Flee McLean Prison Camp Wednesday

Four German prisoners of war escaped from the McLean prison camp, the FBI said Wednesday.

The FBI said the men were missed at a 7:30 a. m. checkup at the camp Wednesday and the escape was fixed as between that time and 6 p. m. Tuesday.

The four were Luck Heinz Werner, 23, only one of the group listed as speaking English with any facility; Karl Mueller, 27; Jacob Schulmeyer, 21, and Kasche Gert, 22.

Werner was described as 6 feet tall, weight 174 pounds and blond; Mueller, 5 feet, 7 1/2 inches, 135 pounds, olive complexion, brown hair; Schulmeyer, 5 feet, 7 inches, 138 pounds, olive complexion, and Gert, 5 feet, 4 1/2 inches, 138 pounds, ruddy complexion, brown hair.

The men were wearing blue denim with the letters PW on the back, or parts of uniforms of the German Africa Corps of tan color. The FBI urged persons who gain any knowledge of them to communicate immediately with the nearest local law enforcement agency or the FBI.

Why More And Better Gardens?

Charles Reed, Donley County Agent, believes that each family will be interested in the following information: Texans did a good job with Victory gardens last year, but there are plenty of reasons why there should be more and better gardens in the state in 1944.

Workers of the Texas A&M College Extension Service, who just returned from a Victory garden conference in New Orleans, point out that civilians will find on their grocers' shelves this year only about four-fifths of the canned fruits and vegetables they found last year. In addition, the army's requirements for vegetables will be greater, and there will be more soldiers to feed in distant places.

The need for food by the United Nations will be increased in 1944, and there will be more liberated peoples to feed. Jennie Camp, Extension specialist in home production planning, suggests that civilians will need more home produced fruits and vegetables in 1944 to make up for decreased civilian supplies of some other foods.

For these reasons, Texas has a goal of one million Victory gardens "kept busy" during 1944. The objective is to produce 25 per cent more vegetables in home gardens during 1944 than last year. This does not include truck growers who have a goal of their own, Extension workers say.

They suggest as ways of meeting the goal: Increasing the number of gardens by 10 per cent, especially backyard, community, school, and company gardens; increasing the size of both town and country gardens; increasing the yield per garden by sound garden practices; and using and saving all the vegetables produced.

F.F.A. Judging Contest Scheduled For February 26th at Clarendon

District which is composed of Childress, Wellington, Quail, Samnorwood, Memphis, Lakeview, Estelline, Quitaque, Turkey and Clarendon.

The contests will be under the direction of local F.F.A. members and will be the first judging contests held in the district in three years. A majority of the schools in the district are expected to enter teams in each of the contests in preparation for the Area Contests which will be held at Lubbock, April 22nd.

Franz of Turkey.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

By PEPPI BLOCKER

Gasoline and Oil is Ammunition
If the European war continues until fall of this year, there will be a marked decrease in the quantity of gasoline available for motorists, says Colonel Bryan Houston, Deputy Administrator of OPA in charge of rationing. Warren C. Platt, Editor of National Petroleum News says that the country is headed for "a terrific oil shortage". Both these pronouncements of an urgent fact should be heeded by everyone on the home front.

The time, it appears, is at hand for car owners to stop kidding themselves—to refrain from an ostrich-like pretense that they are safe from the inconvenience of going without automobiles. The time is here when it is imperative for every motorist to do every- (See RATION, page 8)

MUST HAVE CERTIFICATE FOR POINT-FREE MEAT TRANSFERS

A custom slaughtering certificate covering point-free transfer of meat to livestock producers must be filled out in duplicate and signed by both the custom slaughterer and the livestock producer at the time meat is transferred point-free to the producer it was announced today by J. Doyle Settle, District OPA Rationing Executive.

Producers planning to slaughter livestock should get certificates from the local War Price and Rationing Board, Settle said. Before meat can be transferred from the slaughterer to the producer the certificate must be completed and signed by both parties. The slaughterer is then required to send one copy to the War Price and Rationing Board and the other copy to the District OPA office along with his primary distribution report.

J. R. Gillham, local F.F.A. adviser and H. C. Shaw left with the truck load of hogs, Wednesday, February 3rd. The stock arrived at Houston on the 4th, and the judging was held February 6th and 7th. C. O. Reed, Donley County Farm Agent, made the trip to Houston Friday with a carload of the club boys that included Jim Lovell, Junior Bulman, F. G. Crofford, Jack Ballew, and J. B. Knight.

New buildings, fixtures, storage space and wholesale buying power within the organization was interestingly explained by Mr. Meacham. He visualized the possibilities in new fields of production, and stressed the urgent need for a post-war program whereby the Consumers Cooperative Ass'n. should start plans now to meet the supply and demand of the organization after the war. He also explained at length the plans of the Association owning its own refinery in the near future.

LIBRARY NOTES
By Mrs. C. A. Burton

"The barbarian would destroy knowledge, except what is on his side. Nazis burned the books in Berlin streets. The barbarian would destroy libraries, except those on his side. At Manila, the Japanese bombed first, of all the campus, the University library. The barbarians would destroy minds except those on his side, as Hitler tried to with the scholars of invaded lands.

Today men and women of good intent call to each other, over all the globe. Whatever the barbarians would destroy, we will be fighting for. The barbarians fight against our education, against our learning, against books. Libraries belong in that clear-visioned company defending the fortress of intelligence. Hold them secure, and the other freedoms will be secure, too." This statement from a Massachusetts librarian strikes a responsive chord in all our hearts.

Few people realize what a force for good our own small library has been through the 20 years of its existence. So often I watch with such interest as older people who are barred from life's more strenuous activities find relaxation and pleasure in our books—and the tiny people who cannot read for themselves who choose their books with such interest—not to mention the ages between the men and women and boys and girls who are constantly enjoying our books.

Gifts of books are always welcome. During the last few days Bob Clifford brought us another boys' book and Mrs. Rayburn Smith gave us 20 small volumes of The World's Greatest Short Stories and the Book Club gave us $10.00 for new books.

And how interesting the new books are! Do you like dog stories? The "Silver Chief" series of three by Jack O'Brien are thrilling. The author is described as "a soldier of fortune, love of adventure, romance and danger," and as having been one of Admiral Byrd's men. A boy and I have read "Silver Chief," "Dog of the North," and "Silver Chief to the Rescue," and we are now on "The Return of Silver Chief," and I have enjoyed them quite as much as he. Besides these we have those splendid stories of Albert Payson Terhune's—"Lad, a Dog," "Lad of Sunnybank," and "Further Adventures of Lad," besides a number of other thrilling dog stories.

The longest talking book for the blind ever made has just been prepared under the supervision of the Division of Books for the Adult Blind in the Library of Congress. The book is Tolstoy's famous novel "War and Peace," which despite general acclaim as one of the great novels of the world, has not heretofore been available in an edition for the blind. The talking book edition was made for the Library by the American Foundation for the Blind, New York City.

"Talking book" is the name given to slow-playing phonograph recordings of books prepared for the blind. The first were made in 1934. Congress made an annual appropriation for its continuance. When a talking book is made, duplicate copies are placed in 27 distributing libraries throughout the U. S. These are lent to blind readers through 55 agencies. About 20,000 are now in use. The average talking book is estimated to contain between 15 and 20 records. "War and Peace" totals 119 records in eight containers.

Richard Tregaskis INS correspondent in Italy and author of "Guadalcanal Diary," was hit by a shell fragment, and may, it has later been reported, suffer a partial paralysis. The fragment is said to have penetrated his brain almost two inches.

In honor of the late George Washington Carver—whose biography was written recently by Rackham Holt—and which we have—the publishers, Doubleday, Doran, are offering a cash award of $2,500 for any book dealing with American Negroes which they judge worthy of this recognition. The offer remains open till something worthy has been produced.

We regret to announce the resignation of Mrs. W. A. Riney as Chairman of the Knitting. We want to thank Mrs. Riney for the splendid work she has done for the past three years. Mrs. George Norwood, one of our most faithful workers, has taken Mrs. Riney's place as chairman.

At the present time, there is no yarn available, but we hope to have some before long. Mrs. Norwood will announce through this column, when our next shipment arrives.

Mrs. U. J. Boston, our Cutting Chairman, is still waiting for the arrival of our materials. We are still hoping to announce when garments for sewing will be ready to issue.

Anyone having pocket editions of magazines that are in good condition, would please bring them to the Production Room, as we will need over 400 for our Soldier's Kits. The room is open every Monday and Friday afternoons from 3 until 5 o'clock.

A shipment was made this week of 58 outing robes for hospital use.

HOME SERVICE

Mrs. C. A. Burton
The passage of the bill for mustering-out pay has eclipsed everything else in interest during the last few days. Plans for putting it into execution were made in connection with its passage, and it is expected to be in full operation in a very short time. Soldiers are being urged to have their discharge papers recorded with County Clerks that none of the necessary data may be lost.

Of equal interest are the provisions of the free Maternal and Infant care for wives of servicemen in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard.

The wife is entitled to this no matter how short a time she has lived in the state, nor what her financial circumstances are, nor race or color. Application may be made for Maternity and Hospital care or for Infant and Hospital care. Complete maternity care will be given during the prenatal period, at childbirth, and six weeks thereafter. Ten days of hospital care is provided. If more is needed, it may be secured upon request. In all cases except emergencies, authorizations are issued before the patient enters the hospital. The application is made by the patient and the physician and must be approved by the State Health Department. Ambulance service is not provided for, nor are transfusions. Ward car only is provided for, not private rooms.

Complete payment is made by the state. Any payment made by the patient nullifies the plan. Physicians are not forced to take patients under this plan, but the state will not furnish money without complete cooperation between physician and patient. I have application blanks. These two plans by the government are but another proof of the fact that no country in the world has ever provided as well as ours for the care of its soldiers and their families.

It seems that every state in the Union has qualified for this Maternity and Child Welfare care now except North Dakota.

Home Service stands ready to give any assistance in securing information for families or giving information for the serviceman.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

An optimist is the fellow who can always see the silver lining to the other man's dark cloud.

Setting a good example for your children is a fine thing, except it takes a lot of fun out of your middle life.

When the old boy got to fussing at his wife about spending money at a beauty parlor just for fun and show, his old girl explained the ordeal. She says "if every husband wore girdles, brassieres, lipstick and sat in a permanent wave chair for awhile, he'd know what hard work it is spending all that money."

A fishing catalog leaves out three important baits. They are rouge, lipstick and bathing suits. And there is little that can be done about it.

There is only one depression easily overcome. Just turn the mattress over. That recalls the story of the bridegroom who placed a slab of the wedding cake under his pillow, and dreamed of working in a rock quarry.

The kid of three years cannot think that you really are playing with him unless you sit on the floor. A lesson in humility.

The ants you met at the picnic last summer, are now on vacation.

A successful office girl is one who oozes sweetness in the presence of those to whom she would much prefer to feed rough of rats.

A Texas man who listed his bankruptcy assets as a $10 auto in 1941, lived to see the same machine sell this week for $850.

If you can't carry on a conversation without talking about other folks, please be quiet and do the community at least one favor in your lifetime.

Looking Ahead To Canning

Donley County Agent, Charles Reed, has received the following information:

Prospects for more and better home canning equipment are brighter for 1944 than they were last year, and if the home food preservation movement is successful this year the chief responsibility will rest with homemakers to take care of cookers and sealers and to follow sound practices.

A recent War Production Board announcement that 400,000 new pressure canners will be manufactured in 1944 should be welcome, but prospective buyers should take the long view and not invest too heavily unless they regard canning as a permanent part of their program. While pressure cookers are not rationed this year, equitable distribution will be necessary if all needs for equipment are met. This advice comes from Mrs. Winifred J. Leverenz, specialist in food preservation for the Texas A&M College Extension Service, who just has returned from food preservation conferences in Chicago and Peoria.

Mrs. Leverenz also brings the news that some cooker manufacturers will be able soon to provide dial gauges for valve-type wartime models produced last year, and most manufacturers now can supply necessary parts. She suggests that homemakers have their pressure cookers thoroughly checked before putting them into use during the coming months. This should be done immediately, Mrs. Leverenz says, for delay until the canning season opens may prove unfortunate.

In Texas, Mrs. Leverenz says, every effort will be made to reduce spoilage of home-canned food. A recent survey in one mid-western state showed that 40 per cent of the homemakers who conserved home-canned food had some spoilage of products. Of 150 million containers reported canned in that state in 1943, two million were believed to be spoiled.

Avoiding this is possible by following proper methods of canning, and Mrs. Leverenz suggests that homemakers obtain authoritative information from their county home demonstration agents.

Mrs. M. L. Northcutt and son have returned to Dallas after visiting her mother and family, Mrs. Eva Atteberry.

Lt. and Mrs. James W. Hembree visited this week with her mother, Mrs. Eva Atteberry.

Paul Taylor of Quanah visited his cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. McCrary Sunday.

Phone Girls Resent Radio Distortions

Misrepresentation of telephone operators in press, radio and pictures are stirring a storm of criticism.

Writing in the November issue of the PACT News, publication of the Northwestern Union of Telephone Workers, one operator speaks her mind. She sharply criticizes writers who portray "the average telephone operator as a fluffy, simple, irresponsible, gum-chewing blonde, who devotes all of her time to listening to private telephone conversations or gabbing with some Maizie about her boy friend while the subscribers try vainly to place calls."

The writer continues:

"A constant repetition of this portrayal grossly misrepresents to the public the true tradition of the service rendered by conscientious telephone operators. It has caused subscribers, who do not understand our business, to treat the operators with contempt at the slightest provocation.

"An operator is not just a cog or dumb animal who is completely without feeling. She has a keen sense of duty, and like every other human being, has emotions, common sense and pride. If some irate customer reprimands her unjustly while she is doing her utmost to serve him, she naturally becomes discouraged, hurt and emotionally upset. The public would treat the telephone operator with common courtesies if they had some understanding of the duties performed by her."

The writer urged that the public try to understand and show a more appreciative cooperation to correct the situation, concluding: "All we ask is fair representation which does not make the telephone personnel appear as cheap, irresponsible parasites."

When they make up new history books, do you suppose that the work, dogs are doing in helping to win the war, will be listed?

An American soldier in Africa picked up a mongrel dog. The soldier's job was to locate and remove mines left by retreating enemy. When the soldier was transferred to Italy, the dog went along. Beyond the beaches of Salerno, it would stray here and there to bark at invisible objects.

In checking with mine-detecting instruments, the men found the dog had invariably been barking at a concealed mine. It might have been the dog's keen sense of smell which detected the peculiar odor. One day this gift of sense saved the lives of many American soldiers.

They were walking along a side road when the dog ran ahead and began to bark. The dog's master warned the others not to advance. When they checked, they found the dog, as usual, had been barking at a concealed mine, and had it not been for its warning, many of the men would have been killed.—Grit.

Letters FROM UNITED'S MEN OF WAR

From Rabaul to Rome, from the shores of Burma to the air above Berlin, United's men of war are fighting shoulder to shoulder with other freedom-loving people.

Their letters home to fellow workers are read and reread, passed from friend to friend. We treasure these letters. They often reveal the hardships and sacrifices of war but they reveal, too, courage and determination and the confidence of America's fighting men in final and complete Victory.

And just as we welcome their letters now, we will welcome these men home when Victory is won. We look forward to working shoulder to shoulder with them in extending the American system of free enterprise and opportunity which they are now fighting so well to preserve.

We wonder if Beverly, Johnnie and Elise had a good time in Amarillo last Saturday night?? Johnnie said "We did, but definitely."

Why was Calvin chasing Johnnie up the steps Thursday afternoon? All that was said was that someone said, "Johnnie is a two-timer," and Calvin was standing on the steps. When he heard that, he took off after her!! What could the matter be—do you suppose Johnnie is a "two-timer"? We wonder!!

BAND CLINIC

On February fourth, the Clarendon band went to Pampa to attend a band clinic. When the bands arrived, they were given their program for the day. They practiced the pieces for two hours in the afternoon. A fifteen minute broadcast was played over the Pampa station. The Pampa Air Field band gave a forty-five minute concert for the many band members there. At eight o'clock Friday night the combined bands played their concert. The directors from the different towns conducted the pieces on the program. A band clinic takes a lot of good managing to be successful. The Pampa Band Clinic was very successful, and all of the one who attended it enjoyed it and were benefitted by it.

DER FUEHRER

By Konrad Heiden

"Der Fuehrer," by Konrad Heiden, is a biography of a man who beyond all others in our age has made history—horrible history. This book is also, to some extent, a history of modern Germany. It even includes a brief interpretation of the German experience during past centuries.

Konrad Heiden, son of a German trade-union official, fought Hitlerism from 1920, when it was only a bad smell in republican Germany, until he had to escape from the country. He has studied Hitler for 23 and is probably the best informed historian of Germany.

"Der Fuehrer" is the Book-of-the-Month Club's choice for February.

...or welcoming home a sailor son

These days there can be more real welcome in a snack shared in the kitchen than in many an old-time banquet. And with ice-cold Coca-Cola to add refreshment, you have all the makings at hand for a good time. As our men in camp and overseas so often tell, in all the world there's no more cordial invitation than those three familiar American words, Have a "Coke". At your icebox, the same as in P. More Eggs From Fewer Hens
Owners of poultry in Texas have been given a stiffer job for 1944 than they had last year. American poultrymen have been asked to produce two per cent more eggs than they did in 1943. This would be the greatest number in the history of this country.

Texas producers will have to do their full part if this high goal is reached. They did a successful job in 1943. But there will be greater difficulties in putting it over this year. For one thing, feed will not be plentiful. So they probably will have to get more eggs from fewer hens than they had last year, and go at the job at once.

Poultry husbandmen of the Texas A&M College Extension Service say that good management is the key to success - - And good management is nothing more than getting maximum production from each hen. They suggest that the most important things to do just now are to cull present flocks sharply and to prepare to buy replacement chicks early. A low producing hen eats as much feed as one which earns her way, and there is no profit in a loafer. The advantage in getting early hatched chicks is that they mature better.

Be sure, too, to get chicks from proved laying strains and pull-orum-tested parent stock. Meanwhile, keep the existing flock in top laying form by good sanitary and feeding practices. To do this, the specialists recommend, among other things, keeping plenty of good laying mash before the hens at all times; furnishing plenty of fresh water each morning - - warming the water in cold weather; confining the hens to the laying house during cold, stormy weather; and looking the birds over at least once monthly for lice and treating them if any are found.

They caution not to overcrowd the laying house, and where possible, to allow the hens to run out on green feed or supply bright green leaf alfalfa hay.

World Prayer—

The cycle of prayer unites hearts around the world. It is sponsored by the United Council of Church Women. Last year there were prayer meetings in Chungking, suffering almost daily air raids; in Canton, standing in such need of prayer; in Honolulu; Kuwait in Arabia; Belfast; Wales; England; Wellington; Oaxaca, Mexico; in Baltimore, in Kentucky, Corpus Christi - - and in Clarendon.

The service this year will be an afternoon of prayer and program service at the Presbyterian church at 3 p. m., and participated in by women of all churches who care to take part.

Ration—

Black markets need to be stamped out and everyone should push the intensified OPA program for complete endorsement of gasoline ration coupons to stop the use of stolen, counterfeit and other illegal coupons. OPA is taking new steps to prevent thefts.

The Armed Forces will need approximately 40 percent of our national gasoline production this year. And despite the fact that our crude oil production is at an all time high, because of other petroleum products that must come from crude oil for war use—fuel oil for our Navy and Merchant Marine, toluene for TNT, butadiene for synthetic rubber—the production of gasoline has necessarily been reduced by about 4,000,000,000 gallons since 1941. Gasoline is scarce and is rapidly becoming more so! In this connection, did you know that:

Gasoline ration coupons worth 143,000,000 gallons have been stolen since Pearl Harbor—enough for 95,300 Flying Fortresses on six-hour bombing missions.

A thousand Flying Fortresses use 2,500,000 or more gallons of gasoline in a typical six-hour mission.

One 1000-plane bombardment consumes as much gasoline as would normally be used in the automobile vehicles during the course of a single day in a city as large as St. Louis.

Jimmy Doolittle's 12th Air Force operating over the Mediterranean needs 1,100,000 gallons a day.

A round-trip flight of 300 Liberator bombers from a British base to Berlin requires 525,000 gallons of gasoline. It takes 12,500 gallons to train a single pilot.

Tanks of one armored division use more than 25,000 gallons every 100 miles.

"To win this war as quickly as possible, the Army and Navy must have the right amount of gasoline and oil—at the right places—and at the right time, both here and overseas," says Lt. Gen. Brehon Somervell, Commanding U. S. Army Service Forces. "Proper use of our gasoline and oil supplies at home can shorten the war."

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Ford and children of Skellytown came Wed. to see her father, A. G. Lane who is very ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Ford remained.

Consumers—

all alike, is sound democracy," Rev. Michael stated.

G. W. Haggard, editor of the Producer-Consumer of Amarillo, stated that consumer groups of the Panhandle are progressing more rapidly than the remainder of the state, and that interest manifested by Texas as a whole is higher than other states. "I like to think of our methods of share and share alike as an application of Christian philosophy," Mr. Haggard said. "It is a sale of an idea, assuring prosperity and security in a post-war period. For nearly 100 years the idea has grown and flourished - - it is bound to succeed," he concluded.

Mr. Howell, one of the directors from the Claude Consumers, gave a brief talk, stressing the fact that "membership in Co-op pays off as the best and surest investment a farmer can make."

W. T. McLaren, manager of the Claude Co-op, was present but declined to make a talk, remarking that those doing the talking were doing a good job.

According to figures read from the financial audit by V. V. Johnston, secretary of the local Consumers, the local Co-op is showing a nice profit in their run of business. A dividend was declared, but the stockholders voted to put a certain amount of it back into expanding the facilities of the local plant. The remainder is said to likely be invested in the new refinery now under consideration of purchase by the District Co-ops.

Major Hudson, manager of the Donley Co. Consumers, acted as master of ceremonies and carried the program to completion in a smooth and appreciated manner. Mr. Hudson is doing a fine job as manager and is to be commended by his fellow consumers.

New directors elected at this time were W. M. Pickering, Roy Blackman, and C. L. Knight. Old directors remaining are Forrest Sawyer, president; V. V. Johnston, secretary and Elba Ballew.

The delicious food for the banquet was prepared by the ladies of the First Christian Church, who always more than meet the expectations for such an occasion.

CONSIDER USE OF WAR PRISONERS

Possibility of using prisoners of war in farming and industry in U. S. areas where free labor is not available have been studied by representatives of WMC and the War Department. Limited use of prisoners on farms was begun last summer. The employer is required to pay the wage prevailing in his community, and the prisoner gets credit for 80 cents a day for personal expenditures, the remainder going to the government for camp maintenance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Powell enjoyed having all their children home for the week end. Lieut. Wesley Powell who is home on a furlough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linder and sons Bob and Michael of Amarillo and Mrs. Haskell Toland and son Bill of Quanah.

A guest over the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Shelley was a sister of Mr. Shelley, Mrs. Harry Brinson of Beaumont, Texas.

Ardis Patman of Canyon was home for the weekend.
