

INTEREST GROWS IN NEWS' CAM- PAIGN AS FRIENDS LEND A HAND TO THEIR FAVORITE CANDIDATE

THE END OF THE FIRST PERIOD SATURDAY EVENING SAW A BIG TURN IN OF SUBSCRIPTIONS SHOWING GOOD WORK ON THE PART OF MOST CANDIDATES. WORK WILL WIN IN THE REMAINING PERIODS AS IN FIRST.

The most determined efforts in the big race for the beautiful motor cars and the thousands of dollars in cash that are soon to be awarded in the News' campaign have been launched. Huge waves of determination are gripping the aspirants for the big prizes, and votes, in increasing volume are pouring into the election department.

Enthusiasm of the candidates is spread to their friends and acquaintances. In many sections of the city and surrounding territory a great amount of "neighborhood" pride is being shown and great efforts are being made to have one of the biggest of the prizes won by the favorite contestant of each community. Many candidates that call at the election department are expressing new determination to put forth their best efforts during this important period. Letters from suburban candidates and their friends, filled with the same sort of enthusiasm, make one believe that the remainder of the race will be more spirited and exceedingly close.

Campaign Notes

In just a few weeks this interesting election will come to a final close and the most stupendous list of prizes ever conceived by a Texas newspaper will be distributed.

The "second period" is now on and the present vote schedule will be in effect for nine days more—then the schedule is very sharply reduced for the following six days, and then after this comes the very lowest vote schedule of the campaign to remain in effect until the close of the election.

The longer you delay in getting in "full swing" the less valuable your subscriptions will be from a vote standpoint. And that's what you're after—VOTES—or you should be after them if you expect to be one of the big prize winners. The News gifts are to be distributed to those who deserve them—to those who make the best records in the vote column. "Wishers" won't get anywhere in this campaign—but the workers will be handsomely rewarded in accordance with the effort put forth. This is a campaign for "live ones."

The race in the first period was truly a neck-and-neck affair, and is attracting attention all over this community. It will be interesting indeed to see which of the several contenders prove themselves the most popular in the list—the owners of the big motor cars.

Second payments on subscriptions taken early in the campaign are proving an important factor in the race just now. Those contestants who are working on these are profiting mightily.

Think of having prizes worth $4,000 given to you for your efforts

C. O. P. C. COMMITTEES GIVEN APPOINTMENT

Various committees of the Chamber of Commerce directors have been appointed for the various phases of the work that come up from time to time. These committees have full authority to act regarding the matters within their jurisdiction, and it is thought that the work of the organization will in this way be accelerated.

Heretofore, in considering a matter, it was necessary to call all of the directors together, and consequently some matters were not acted on with the despatch usually necessary. But with the functioning of the new committees, the work of the organization should be even more successful.

ENTOMOLOGIST TO BE HERE APRIL 17TH.

R. R. Reppert, of the A. & M. College, an entomologist, which in common parlance means "bug specialist," will be here the 17th of this month in co-operation with the county agent working to prevent the ravages of the locust tree borers and other insects of like character. Anyone having any questions relative to this phase of the agricultural work is asked to see Mr. Reppert and let him discuss them. This is a work of great importance to this country, for the way in which some cities are losing their trees due to the ravages of boring insects calls for steps to be taken to prevent a like happening in Clarendon.

WATER MELON ASSOCIATION MEETING SATURDAY

All farmers who are interested in the entrance of Donley county into the Watermelon Association are asked to meet at the Court House at two o'clock Saturday afternoon for the formation of local plans. County Agent R. W. Hendrix will be in charge of the meeting.

in the campaign. That is just what these live-wire hustlers will receive during this month. As to who will be numbered among these, as close as the battle stands on the home stretch, it all depends upon who accomplishes the most these last few days, especially while the "second period" vote schedule and the "second payments" schedule are in effect.

YOUR PAPER IS SENT AS SUBSCRIPTION IS GIVEN

Since the inauguration of the subscription campaign the News has had many orders to change certain subscriptions after a week or two. But owing to the way in which the subscriptions were given in, we are unable to comply with the requests. When you stop and think, you will see why. Many of the contestants, in order to get the credit for sending in a new subscription, instead of adding a renewal as it should have been added to the name of the person subscribing, have induced that subscriber to take the paper in the name of some other member of the family, then phone to the News office a week or so later and ask that the subscription be used in extending said subscriber's time rather than as a new subscription to the other member of the family. Had you stopped to think of the fact that the man making up the subscription lists is having a mighty big job during this campaign, leaving aside the consideration of the fact that when your subscription is thus given, it is in reality, not a new one but is a juggling of facts in the attempt to make an old subscriber appear as a new one? The News is doing all in its power to be as fair to one contestant as another; and in the end this contest will be decided on the merits of the candidate and not on anything that we have had to do with the votes. Then as much in fairness to yourself and your candidate as to the other candidate, please do not ask that your paper be sent to you after it has been sent to another member of the family for a while; for we shall be unable to comply with your request under such circumstances.

COLLEGE REVIVAL HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

The revival conducted at Clarendon College last week under the leadership of Rev. H. B. Watts, was one of the greatest ever known here. The conversions and reclamations numbered approximately fifty, and the spirit so completely swept the student body that less than half dozen students failed to profess Christianity. The services were held morning and evening at the College auditorium, the Sunday services alone being held at the church. The meeting lasted for a week, having been closed with the morning service Monday.

Rev. Watts is a young preacher of marvelous power. Highly educated, and awake to the problems of the day; a thinker and deeply spiritual personality, his presentation of the gospel is in a manner that is refreshing. From the abundance of his reading and thinking he centers his whole power on the subject he is discussing, and the result in sermons of marvelous power and appeal; not to the mere emotions of a person, but to the intellect. Thus it was that he was enabled to present the gospel in a manner that won the students.

Sunday afternoon at three o'clock a jubilee service was held, and the testimonies of the value of the meeting were numerous. The congregation very nearly filled the auditorium of the College, and when the Christians were asked to stand, everyone present stood.

Everyone interested in the College is greatly pleased with the fine work of the revival, and the best wishes of everyone go with Rev. Watts as he returns to his pastorate at Lockney where he is serving his fourth year as pastor of the Methodist Church.

Relatives here received the sad word yesterday afternoon that Frank Whitlock, who underwent an operation in Ft. Worth Tuesday was thought to be unable to recover. Mrs. Whitlock and her father left for there last evening. No word has been received today.

Friends mourned when the death of Mrs. Pink Rodgers occurred last week at the family home west of this city. A full account will appear in the next issue of the paper.

Mrs. G. H. Ater, of Taylor, arrived here yesterday morning for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCaskey.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS HAVE JOLLY OUTING

I visited in Clarendon on the last Wednesday in March in quest of an adventure and while riding over the Southern part of town, I noticed that so many of the girls were rushing here, there and everywhere with apparently no aim in view. Yes, here were certainly the "mad March hares."

On my return, I was astonished at seeing that in the space of half an hour the "mad March hares" were transformed into real hobsos that were rushing here, there, and everywhere but with certainly an aim in view because about 22 of them met at the Martin home and lounged around as if they belonged there.

But in a little while it seemed that the old "rolling stone" spirit had returned and the hobsos were restless as they formed a line, two abreast, and filed noisily out of town.

As I gazed, I thought surely here was my adventure so I followed the merry procession on a twenty minute walk, mixed with laughter, screams and sand, to the sink hole where a fire was started.

Each hobo carried an object which immediately arrested my attention. It was a long, round stick sharpened at one end and peeled at the other. I knew at once that I must keep my eye on those sticks because they were controlled by brilliant creatures.

I kept watch over these weapons while the hobsos circled the fire and held a short business meeting. Then there was a rush to the sticks and I knew they must be ready to charge the foe.

But wonders—from bandanas, which were tied to the sticks, came miles and miles of wiennas, fruit and bread. After the hobsos had roasted and eaten the "hot dogs" and accessories, a thin layer of dough was wrapped around the round end of each stick and held over the hot coals until crisp and brown enough to slip off. Then they were buttered and filled with jelly.

After all this had happened, it was getting dark so the fire was put out and the hobsos really marched back to town, tired but contented. And I really felt that I had had my adventure. You would too if you had been there. Come on folks—a "wildcat" for the Camp Fire Girls.

CITY AND SCHOOL ELECT- IONS HELD THIS WEEK

The election of city commissioners took place Tuesday at the mayor's office, resulting in the re-election of H. W. Taylor and W. A. Massie, who ran without opposition. The election of three school trustees for the Clarendon Independent District took place Saturday at the central ward building, and M. M. Noble, J. T. Patman and S. W. Lowe are the new trustees.

In the city election 203 votes were cast, and a few of these were disqualified by the fact that the voters wrote on them, but the returns resulted in 195 votes for Massie and 196 votes for Taylor. These commissioners will serve two years. W. T. Clifford was in charge of the election.

The vote on the school trustees stood M. M. Noble 107; Od Caraway 47, Fred Story 54, John Clark 35, Dave Johnson 84, C. H. Wisdom 38, J. R. Bulls 16, J. T. Patman 95, S. W. Lowe 86 and R. A. Long 50.

MEETING BEHALF NEAR EAST HERE WED. APRIL 19TH.

GEN. AZGAPETIAN, AN ARMEN- IAN GENERAL OF FAME DURING LATE WAR, TO AD- DRESS GATHERING IN BE- HALF OF NEAR EAST.

Wednesday evening April 19th has been set as the date of the meeting of all churches of the city in behalf of the Near East relief. At that time Gen. M. M. Azgapetian, an Armenian soldier and diplomat will speak in behalf of the work, and a free will offering will be taken in its behalf. A committee composed of members of the various churches, has been appointed, and they will make further plans for the meeting. Rev. W. B. Wilson, the advance organizer of the work, was in this city Monday, and made the preliminary arrangements.

Most of the Christian world is aware of the fate that the Armenians have suffered at the hands of the Turks; and it is the story of this, the smallest of all Christian Nations, that Gen. Azgapetian will tell.

The following committee was secured by Rev. Wilson: W. P. Cagle, chairman; S. M. Braswell, treasurer; and T. M. Little, O. C. Watson, Homer Mulkey, Fred Story, J. B. McClelland, J. E. Nelson, W. T. Link, O. D. Caraway, E. A. Simpson, Rev. J. T. Griswold, Rev. J. A. Smith, Rev. G. S. Slover, Rev. W. H. Foster, Rev. T. E. Millholland, and Mmes. J. W. Watts, Dick Allen, James Trent and B. W. Moreman.

General Azgapetian, the speaker of the evening, is a unique character. Soldier, diplomat and linguist he took an active part in the recent great war, and had many opportunities to witness the heroic loyalty of the Armenians to the cause of the Allies, their terrible sufferings through hunger, exposure and sickness, and their tremendous sacrifices of life and property. He is now touring the country for the Near East Relief, appealing to all big-hearted Americans to aid the struggling Armenians and their quarter of a million orphans, all victims of Moslem brutality.

When the great war broke out, General and Lady Azgapetian closed their home in America and, with a section of the thousands of Armenian volunteers, went to Russia and there joined the czar's southern army, which was then fighting the Turks. For two years they participated in that struggle, in the Caucasus in Persia, and in Armenia, against the German-drilled armies of Turkey. They were even about to join the British in Bagdad, when Bolshevism got the upper hand in Russia, completely disorganized the army, and established a reign of murder and persecution, so that the general and his wife were obliged to escape to America.

Since their arrival here, they have been ardent workers in the various American Red Cross, Liberty Bond and other patriotic drives, and now they are devoting all their time to the service of the Near East Relief. They always appear in uniform, like the cruel and fanatical Turks? wearing their medals and stars, of

S. M. U. GLEE CLUB IN CONCERT HERE MONDAY EVENING

GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUB MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE HERE UNDER AUSPICES OF EPWORTH LEAGUE. GOOD ATTENDANCE.

The S. M. U. Glee and Mandolin Club made its first appearance in this city Monday evening under the auspices of the local chapter Epworth League. Despite the very rainy evening a large audience greeted the performers, and although no number was a pretentious one good applause was given. Judged from a standard of musical excellence, perhaps, the best number of the evening was the violin solo by Garland Smith. Another that was highly enjoyed was the clarinet solo by Kermit Rosser.

The best number attempted by the Glee Club was a setting to Meyerbeer's Coronation March from the Prophet. This was the opening number and was well received. The other numbers of the Glee Club were of light character. The Mandolin Club also appeared playing several popular and college airs.

Vernon Mills received hearty applause for his comic songs with guitar accompaniment, and his comic manner added materially to the performance of the Mandolin Club. The readers received good applause. There was some disappointment that the performers did not attain to the standard of excellence that they are capable; their failing to do so was due, no doubt, to the fact that they were completing a long tour and were tired out.

The total receipts realized were a little more than the guarantee which was a very large one, and the financial success was a surprise to everyone in the face of the inclement weather.

MISS MARTIN HONOREE AT SOCIAL FUNCTION

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Paul entertained Saturday night with a dance in honor of the latter's sister, Miss Olive Martin of Clarendon, who is visiting here.

At a late hour delicious refreshments of fruit salad, sandwiches, small cakes and grape juice were served to the following: Misses Averyt, Houk and Lelia Rorex, Messrs. John Holmes, Coe Cleck, Lonnie Harkey and John Irvin.—Panhandle Herald.

W. P. Cagle returned Monday from a week end visit with friends at Memphis.

Who are the Armenians? Are they educated and industrious? Does their past and present history promise anything good for the future? Or are they illiterate semibarbarians like the cruel and fanatical Turks? He will answer these questions.

Clarendon has the best organized and best managed Chamber of Commerce in Texas for a city of like grade. It doesn't do all it hopes to do—none of them do—but its achievements are remarkable.

There isn't a vacant business house in Clarendon and there is reason to believe that three or four new buildings will be completed on Kearney Street before fall. "Just getting ready for more business—that's all."

If you get sore on your town—take a trip, boy, take a trip. You'll come back to Clarendon happy that you are a citizen and telling just how much better your home city is than other places.

Do you buy everything in Clarendon when it is at all possible? If you don't, you have no right to howl when the other fellow goes outside for something you could sell him. Play the game "square."

The fine rains that have blessed the Panhandle country in the last few weeks have been wonderful and Donley County, has, as usual, received her full measure of them. 1922 will be a wonderful crop year in our county and as predicted earlier in the year Clarendon and our county will make remarkable progress before January first, 1923. Heaven always smiles upon Donley County.

The Hall County Herald, owned and edited by our good friend, Gov. Johnson, is now enjoying the services of a new Model 14 linotype. The News has been using this model for three years and find it the best investment possible for a country newspaper office, and we congratulate our contemporary on their progress. We expect to congratulate Gov. Johnson on his election to the office of lieutenant governor of Texas in the July and August primaries, but being a newspaper man we take more pleasure in congratulating him on progress in his plant equipment.

There has never been an invention that caught the fancy of the people like the radiophone. The factories are weeks behind with their orders for equipment in spite of the fact that some pessimists argue that times are no better and there is a general interest in every section of the country which may revolutionize all methods of communication in a very short while. When by the radiophone it is possible to sit in your parlor and listen to grand-opera, concerts, lectures, sermons, news-bulletins of all kinds, one is led to believe that there is dawning a new era of the American home. The News chooses to believe and hope that once again the American family will find an interest at home that will help to check the avalanche of pleasure-seeking and attendant crime that has threatened to engulf the nation. If the radiophone will do this for us, then God-speed the radiophone.

It has been suggested that the Chamber of Commerce ought to use its energies in trying to get a reduction in the light and power rates here in Clarendon, rather than to try to get the city to furnish street lights or to keep them burning themselves. The truth of the matter is that the Chamber of Commerce has been able neither to get the city commission to pay for the street lights nor to start proceedings looking to the reduction for the light and power rates. The Chamber of Commerce bends its energies to every task for the betterment of Clarendon—but it cannot do those things that devolve only upon the city commission. It is devoutly to be hoped that since the election of Tuesday shows such unanimity in the desire of the people to uphold the present administration that one of the first tasks of the re-elected commission will be the beginning of action that will result in the reduction of our light and power rates to a basis on a par with other neighboring cities. "Passing the buck" is a great game when you can get away with it, but makes a sorry spectacle when all the facts in the case show where the blame lies.

Advertising is a peculiar thing. There are merchants in almost every town who do not believe in advertising—that is the paid kind. They will say that advertising is worth nothing to them and will bring them no business, yet practically any of these are tickled to death to have something said in their local paper in favor of their business. Most of them like to have something nice printed about themselves. So at last analysis it seems that every body believes in advertising, but quite a lot do not want to pay for it. The fact, that big concerns of the country which operate on a strictly business basis spend millions of dollars annually in advertising ought to convince any one that advertising pays.—Denton Record Chronicle.

The editor of the Eagle is in receipt of an invitation to attend the "Womanless Wedding" at Floresville in which our 301 pound friend, Sam Fore, Jr., will be the bride. Sam was in Bryan and College to see the Aggie-Longhorn football game on Thanksgiving Day and when we introduced Sam to Hon. John E. Quaid, of El Paso, it reminded us of Mutt and Jeff, on account of the discrepancy in their avordupois. Now if Sam Harben, Sam Hill, Sam Braswell, Sam Miller, Sam Hoyle, Sam Williamson, Sam Fryar, Sam Holloway, and the other Sams of the Texas Press will go to Floresville to see Sam Fore representing Eve we are in. Of course we couldn't go without Will Edwards, Tom Perkins, Felton Lane, Frank Browder, Nick Houx and Joe Taylor because we always feel safe when the giants are on the firing line. On with the battle, Sams.—Bryan Eagle.

"FLAPPER WILL CAUSE A WAR," WARNS NORRIS

"The cause of the next war—the flapper—struts up Fifth avenue today and her sister out on Main street apes her."

This was the opinion expressed by Rev. Dr. J. Frank Norris. "Texas Tornado," who has come to New York to save the city by a series of revival meetings.

"The flapper will bring about this country's downfall just as surely as Delilah caused Samson's," said Dr. Norris. "Every great war has been traced to the depravity of women and they never were as bad as they are today."

"When a woman shows her knees, you can see the finish of her and that of the nation as well."

"Girls think more of their eye lashes and 'nude' hosiery than they do of decency; home life is broken up; respectful law goes with it, wholesale iniquity follows; then—war."

"We cursed the kaiser for starting the last war; but we 'pet' the cause of the next."

"Our statesmen are scrapping the battleships; they ought to be slapping the flappers."

"The modern girl is 100 times worse than the girl of the last century and the country girl is just as bad as her city cousin. Once upon a time, country girls were pure, but gasoline spoiled that. We have closed up our red light districts and put them on rubber tires."

"Women smoking are indecent. The spark from a woman's cigarette is going to touch off a conflagration that will destroy this country within 50 years."

"Jesebel was the worst woman in the world. She was the first queen of the shifters. The last thing she did before she died was to paint her face and then the dogs ate her."

AN INTERESTING CONFESSION

When at Wheaton College, the other day, I had a most interesting talk with one of the professors. He had taught in the University of Illinois for several years; was a rank Evolutionist, but became converted and is now strongly against this worst of all faith-destroying devices of Satan. He promised me to write up for the Searchlight the experience of his change.

This professor made the startling statement that Evolution had inoculated the whole of State Education from public schools to Universities, and had shot its deadly virus through most of the denominational schools, South as well as North. Evolutionists are like German spies, they won't admit it. Liberalism in doctrine in morals, in law, in society, in marriage—all go together. All from the same source. High time for people to wake up.—Rev. Frank Norris in "The Searchlight."

RED CROSS SALARIES

The following editorial paragraph is reprinted from the "Sturgeon (Mo.) Leader":

"Since the Red Cross is paying some men $25,000 salary, Columbia citizens are not quite as enthusiastic about contributing this year as in the past. Too much salary."

It is regrettable from the viewpoints of both journalistic accuracy and Red Cross interest that such misstatements occasionally appear in print. It is particularly regrettable because there is every reason to believe that these inaccuracies, except in isolated instances, are born of loose talk and not of enmity.

The American Red Cross pays no salary of $25,000 a year to any person. On the contrary it has had in its service at no salary at all or at nominal salaries scores of individuals the known yearly value of whose services in other markets were worth several times $25,000; and many more whose services were not translated into terms of salary.

The highest salary paid by the American Red Cross is $12,000 a year and this is paid to only one executive. The Chairman of the Red Cross, of whom President Harding said on December 7: "I look upon Judge Payne as one of the ablest, most far-seeing and whole-souled Americans in public or private life," devotes all his time to his Red Cross work, receives no salary and pays his own expenses on Red Cross business.

In the 3,463 active Red Cross Chapters are copies of the annual reports made to Congress by the organization. These reports contain complete tabulations of all salaries. The last report, as of June 30, 1921, shows that three officials were paid $12,000 each. Two of these officials are no longer connected with the organization. Chapter officers cannot serve better the organization of which they are proud than by studying its reports to Congress in order that they may correct promptly in their communities such inadvertent inaccuracies as that referred to above, virtually all of which are based on ignorance of facts which are available to everyone—Donley County Publicity.

FAMILY CARES

This Information May Be of Value To Many a Mother of Clarendon.

When there is added to the many cares inseparable from the rearing of children that affliction of weakness of the kidneys and auxiliary organs, the mother's lot is far from a happy one. This condition has often been corrected by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. When relief comes the mother's burden will be lighter and her home happier.

Mrs. Katie Clayton, E. 1st St., Clarendon, says: "Some time ago my little girl, seven years of age was troubled with weak kidneys. She complained of her back hurting all the time and she felt tired and worn out. Her kidneys acted too freely and bothered her a great deal at night. The weakness was getting worse all the time so I gave her Doan's Kidney Pills and they strengthened her kidneys and put her in fine shape."

DONLEY GETS MEMBER - SHIP IN THE TEXAS FARM BUREAU MELON ASSOCIATION

Last October during the Dallas Fair a meeting was held in Dallas for the purpose of organizing a state watermelon exchange. As this section is capable of producing late market melons of an unsurpassed quality, I attended this meeting, knowing that if we could get admission into some kind of exchange which would assure us of a market for our output, this would give us another valuable money crop which would fit in nicely with our system of farming, coming in at a time between the busy cultivating season and the harvest. At the October meeting, committees were appointed with different duties, bylaws for the proposed exchange were begun. A meeting date was set for March 14th.

Mr. W. T. McBride of Lelia Lake who was going to the Fat Stock Show, very kindly consented to represent Donley county at this March 14th meeting at Dallas. The following plan was decided upon. The state of Texas was divided into five zones, with a director in each zone. This county was placed in the 5th zone, with Mr. Jordon, a prominent farmer of McLean, Gray county, as director. The president of the State Exchange is a melon grower from zone 2. The head office will be at Dallas under the management of a marketing expert, who plans to have an expert assistant to come to each zone from time to time and help us solve such problems as pruning, fertilizing, grading, etc., all of which are of utmost importance, but more especially is the grading. There will be three grades of melons, numbering from 1 to 3. These melons will be graded by a local manager, employed by our county association who in turn will wire the Dallas office that a certain car of melons is ready for shipment. The Dallas office will advise us where to ship and send us confirmation of the purchaser's order. Such a system eliminates the old disadvantage of each individual, and even each county association of being in competition with each other, it eliminates waste in bad shipments caused by improper grading.

Last year 32 cars of melons were shipped from this county and even with poor markets which were always inevitable with our old system of individual competition many acres netted the grower $150.

McLean has 485 acres signed up in a total membership of 52 growers. They are urging that all the melon growers of Donley county come into a county organization, as Gray and Donley are the only west Texas counties which are in the State Exchange. In the McLean Association each man's annual $10.00 fee will be paid out of the first consignment of melons.

The following are directors of the recently organized Donley county Farm Bureau. Any of these men can give you information about the melon exchange. Some of the men accepted the office temporarily.

Leon Henderson, Clarendon; A. L. Bruce, Martin Community; C. C. Phelps, Chamberlain Community; J. B. Reynolds, Lelia Lake; J. A. Johnson, Ashtola; Roy W. Hendrix, County Agent. Several will be added to this list.

The following have signed up to grow watermelons:
W. A. Poovey, Ashtola, 3 acres; W. S. Sibley, Martin, 10 acres; J. E. Baker, Martin, 8 acres; Fielding Johnson, Clarendon 10 acres; J. B. Reynolds, Lelia Lake 5 acres; A. L. Bruce, Martin, 10 acres; Leon Henderson, 5 acres; J. L. Smith and tenants, Ashtola, 50 acres. Several others have sent in their names but have not stated the number of acres.

On Saturday, April 8th at 2:30 at the court house there will be a meeting for all the melon growers of Donley county. Mr. Jordon of McLean, grower and director of the state exchange, will be present. He will be fresh from a meeting being held at Dallas April 3rd, and can tell those details which I have left out. A county Association will be organized on that date, and our charter must be in Austin by April 15th to be recognized by the state exchange.

Mr. McBride says it would certainly pay you to stop your work if necessary, to attend this meeting of a bunch who believe in helping themselves.

Roy W. Hendrix, County Agent.

OLD CLOTHES FOR RED CROSS TIME EXTENDED TO MAY 1ST.

An estimate that there are at least 15,000,000 children in Russia alone in dire distress, is supported by definite information from the different sections of that Country. For instance, the following telegraphic communication from the American Relief Association is descriptive of the conditions in Moscow and Odessa, but two of the many communities in need of all of the help that the Red Cross, as an organization touching every home, is capable of giving.

"Out of 30,000 children of school age 40,000 absent because of no clothing, no food, no heat in school building. Even children attending school are insufficiently nourished. 3,000 typhus and recurrent fever cases have been treated in hospitals which are suffering a terrible shortage of fuel, blankets, medicines, 200 typhus cases from surrounding country arrive in Odessa daily by train while new cases in Odessa are about 50 daily. Conditions in country surrounding Odessa are reported to be still worse than in Odessa. 4,000 children from the Donetz basin Vilga are cared for in Odessa institutions." Donley County Publicity.

K. K. K.

The next meeting will be on Friday, April 7th with Mrs. Harry Brumley at the home of Mrs. Joe Goldston.

LINCOLN, THE MAN OF DESTINY

HENRY WATTERSON

From Caesar to Bismarck and Gladstone the world has had its statesmen and its soldiers—men who rose to eminence and power step by step, through a series of geometric progression, as it were, each advancement following in regular order one after the other, the whole obedient to well-established and well-understood laws of cause and effect. They were not what we call "men of destiny." They were "men of the time." They were men whose careers had a beginning, a middle, and an end, rounding off lives with histories, full it may be of interesting and exciting events, but comprehensive and comprehensible, simple, clear, complete.

The inspired ones are fewer. Whence their emanation, where and how they got their power, by what rule they lived, moved, and had their being, we know not. There is no explication of their lives. They rose from shadow and they went in mist. We see them, feel them, but we know them not. They came, God's word upon their lips; they did their office, God's mantle about them; and they vanished, God's memory, half mortal and half myth. From first to last they were the creations of some special Providence, baffling the wit of man to fathom, defeating the machinations of the world, the flesh and the devil, until their work was done, then passing from the scene as mysteriously as they had come upon it.

Tried by this standard, where shall we find an example so impressive as Abraham Lincoln? Born as lowly as the Son of God, in a hovel reared in penury, squalor, with no gleam of light or fair surrounding; without graces, actual or acquired; without name or fame or official training; it was reserved for this strange being, late in life, to be snatched from obscurity, raised to supreme command at a supreme moment, and intrusted with the destiny of a nation.

The great leaders of his party, the most experienced and accomplished public men of the day, were made to stand aside, were sent to the rear, whilst this fantastic figure was led by unseen hands to the front and given the reins of power. It is immaterial whether we were for him or against him; wholly immaterial. That during four years, carrying with them such a weight of responsibility as the world never witnessed before, he filled the vast space allotted him in the eyes and actions of mankind, is to say that he was inspired of God, for nowhere else could he have acquired the wisdom and the virtue.

Where did Shakespeare get his genius? Where did Mozart get his music? Whose hand smote the lyre of the Scottish plowman, and stayed the life of the German priest? God, and God alone; and as surely as these were raised up by God, inspired by God, was Abraham Lincoln; and a thousand years hence, no drama no tragedy, no epic poem, will be filled with greater wonder, or be followed by mankind with deeper feeling than that which tells the story of his life and death.

The Clarendon News' Americanization series

(Editor's Note—The articles appearing in the above space from week to week are taken from "Americanization" by Elewood Griscom, Jr. This excellent volume, which is a collection of articles upon the general theme of patriotism and good citizenship, is presented to the schools of Texas by the Bodies of Scottish Rite Masonry in Texas.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"This May Be Your Church" "A Man When He is Dead—." A MAN when he is dead will ask the pastor to hold a whole service just for him.

YET THE SAME MAN while he is still alive will ignore several thousand perfectly good services that others would be glad to share with him.

For instance: two or three next week; yea, more next week. But the usual run is about two or three, and all tolerable fair, anyhow.

The friends of this church are cordially invited to all its services. If they find it convenient, the meetings of the Presbytery of Dallas next week beginning Tuesday night will be open and we will be glad to have you come.

Bible school, Sunday 9:45 a. m. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Evening worship, 7:30 o'clock. W. H. Foster.

Miss, Mr. or Mrs. _____

Address _____

This coupon, neatly clipped out, name and address of candidate filled in, and mailed or delivered to the Election Department of the Clarendon News, Clarendon, Texas, will count as 100 Free Votes. It does not cost anything to cast these for your favorite candidate, and you are not restricted in any sense in voting them. Get all you can and send them in—they all count.

Do Not Roll or Fold. Deliver in Flat Packages. Note—This coupon must be in before April 15th.

HOW TO GAIN OVER A MILLION VOTES

Up until one week from Saturday night (just nine more days) every six years subscription to The News will count nearly 250,000 VOTES. Just five of these would count you 1,100,000 VOTES.

Subscriptions count fast these days—but the vote schedule will be reduced again one week from Saturday.

The attention of contestants is again called to the big vote of SECOND PAYMENTS on subscriptions—that is, extensions of subscriptions received earlier in the campaign. In securing these, contestants should be certain that the receipt stub is plainly marked "second subscription," and the amount of the first subscription shown.

NOW IS THE TIME TO WORK—DON'T STOP

When you have won your first victory. It's not the goal, it's only a step forward. So evenly have honors been divided up to the present time, in the News' big Automobile contest, that it depends almost entirely upon the individual efforts of each candidate during the remaining few weeks who will finish with "flying colors" and be acclaimed winner of first honors and the 2 big Automobiles. If you halt for a moment; if you weaken for a single day, or overlook one opportunity, you are taking chances of losing the big prizes which are now within your grasp and which really belong to you, if you hustle NOW.

VICTORY NOT YET WON—ONLY THE FIRST LAP

It was only natural with the close of the first period of the News Automobile campaign that the contestants should have swelled their vote totals to a high mark compared with last week. This fact is revealed from the vote published today.

The first period of the campaign which closed last Saturday night was a tremendous success. Hundreds of thousands of votes were issued and every "live" candidate profited.

It is a strange coincidence too, something unusual in affairs of this kind, but each of the leading candidates who are striving for first honors and grand prizes, benefited so equally that not without hairline figuring could today's leader be determined.

The competition, therefore, so far as the relative standing of the candidates is concerned, depends almost ENTIRELY upon the results obtained by the various contestants between now and the finish as to who the ultimate winners will be.

The above is not "mere talk" for the sake of telling, but real fact—theories or rumors notwithstanding. The real fight for supremacy will be fought out during the next twenty-three days for the entire campaign comes to a close Saturday night, April 29th.
