Poppy Sales Aid Needy Children Of War Veterans

Poppies sold by the Legion Auxiliary bring aid to needy children of war veterans and this is one of the accomplishments which the Auxiliary will ask every one to wear a poppy in honor of the war dead on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 29th. The Auxiliary of Clarendon contributes regularly to the hospital treasure chest which is used to buy cigarettes, candy, chewing gum and toilet articles for the veterans. An amount of eighty dollars has been sent to this chest by the Auxiliary this year in addition to the contribution to the state child welfare program. TO ALL FELLOW AMERICANS

Owing to conditions existing throughout the world today our good government is trying to prepare for any eventuality. It is asking us to buy United States Security Bonds series E, F, and G. The "E" Bonds are the most convenient to buy as they can be had at any bank or post office and are quickly cashable at any bank or post office in case of urgent need.

At this time the government is asking EVERY FARMER to buy these bonds as a safeguard and nest egg against possible crop failure, caused by drought, insects, price fluctuations and all the various things that happen to farmers. Every citizen of Donley County should buy some of these bonds to the limit of his ability.

PLOWIN' Out the CORNERS by Uncle Zeb

Time was when we used to pray to the Lord for rain, and if deserved and received, that we were willing to work for the rest of the things that we wanted. Nowadays we usually appeal to Washington for the things we want or think we need. If we do not get them we start yelling and try to turn the wrath of cities and organizations on the Congressman to make them quake in their boots. If we are allergic to being turned down we should be careful what we ask for from anyone. If we really deserve a thing, in most cases we can get it. Anyway, I admire the man in public office that is not under the political thumb of any single group, city, or organization, but is free to try with all his heart to serve all of the people that he represents.

Sometimes I send extra copies of my column to editors in the Panhandle, other than those of Vega, Claude, Clarendon and Canadian. Afterwards I drop by their office and to my surprise they may never have heard of me or my column. It is the most humiliating experience of my newspaper life.

"Once the capital of ten counties of an inland cattle empire—Tascosa, Texas today lies somnolent, a ghost town of crumbling adobe enlivened only by the shouts of the youngsters from Boys Ranch"—from the cover of Maverick Town, by John L. McCarty.

This week a group of us visited this spot and saw with our own eyes what has happened to this town. Changed from a cattle ranch sending out beef to the rest of the world to one that is sending out young-men to take their place in the world from a boys ranch.

At first, we felt warm inside that so much was being done, but when we learned of the needs and pleas that are made for admission every day we could not help but feel that the job is just beginning. So much has been done, but so very very much needs to be done. In the next few weeks we will mention some of the things that were of interest to us, hoping that I can tell them in a way that you will enjoy reading them.

The first to greet us as we rounded the bend were five geese and an old turkey. Believe it or (See PLOWIN' OUT, Page 8)

MOISTURE STILL SHORT AND BADLY NEEDED

The blowing thunder cloud that moved in late Sunday night failed to leave the proper amount of moisture that everyone hoped we would receive. The weather station reported .24 inch and the precipitation varied from a light shower to around a half inch in some parts of the county.

Rain is needed badly and farmers are looking forward to some good moisture within the immediate future. All we can do is hope.

BUS BREAKDOWN SHORTENS SENIOR TRIP DOWN STATE

A group of 41 High School Seniors, accompanied by R. E. Drennan, Mrs. D. Lowry and Mrs. Bob Head, left here last Saturday night on a proposed trip to Austin and San Antonio and points between. Their excursion was rudely interrupted about 17 miles south of Abilene when a rod went through the motor of the bus. The group returned to Abilene where the remainder of their time was spent waiting on another motor to be put in the bus. They returned home Tuesday night but reported a very enjoyable trip even though they did not get to their points of destination. The McMurry College furnished a bus and driver for the Seniors to get around in and treated the group highly during their stay in Abilene.

COMMUNITY "E" IN THE AAA PROGRAM

This is the fifth in a series of reports of what the farmers in Donley County are doing to conserve the soil. In the last few years most of the farmers have recognized the need for practicing soil conservation. The AAA is for the purpose of helping the farmers to do what they know needs to be done. A good example of this can be found in community "E" of Donley County. Community "E" is small but the farmers have carried out a surprising number of practices this year.

To get a picture of community "E" think of an imaginary line four miles east of Clarendon which would be the west side of the community, the south side is the line of Donley and Hall counties. The north side of this community is located just north of Lelia Lake, and the east side is 2 miles west of Hedley.

Sixteen farmers in Community "E" have constructed large ridge type terraces under the 1948 program. They are: Oscar Anderson, Clyde Hoggard, Perry C. Seago, J. P. Holliman, Nelson Seago, Pat Hinton, W. T. Brown, Alfred Blowing, J. C. Shields, Quinn Aten, Davis Williams, Will Kennedy, A. G. Hook, John Richey, Wallace Raney and Milton Brown. Together they have more than thirty miles of new terraces. This means so much to the individual farmer and also means a lot to the community as a whole. Much top soil will be retained that might have washed away.

Nine farmers have diversion terraces constructed to protect their farms from washing or to protect a system of terraces on the fields. These diversions have been constructed on farms belonging to or being operated by: Perry Seago, J. P. Holliman, Geo. Johnson, John Gerner, Quinn Aten, Davis Williams, A. G. Hook, C. C. Ayers, and M. G. Cottingham. Go to see some of these diversions and you will know how much benefit these constructions are to the individual farms.

This year some of the farmers in Community "E" are doing their best to improve the soil on their farms by applying 20% superphosphate. AAA offers assistance on this practice, for it is a most important one. We have some of the very best land in the (See COMMUNITY, Page 8)

H. M. BREEDLOVE ATTENDS MEETING SEARS ROEBUCK SWINE PROGRAM, MAY 18

County agent H. M. Breedlove attended a meeting of the Sears Roebuck swine program held in Amarillo, May 18th. Donley County has been allotted eight gilts and one male hog to be given to 4-H Club boys of Donley County. These hogs are given to the boys with the understanding that when the gilts farrow that one gilt will be given back to the county agent to give another boy. One boy will keep the male hog for the breeding of all the gilts and will also have this male available for the use of farmers over the county in improving their swine herds.

Hampshire gilts and male will be bought from the E. S. Ballew Hampshire swine farm in Donley County. This program is expected to start in Donley County in the coming week. Breedlove says that this is one of the best methods to get a good breed of hogs started all over the county, and with each boy giving back a gilt for another boy each year, there is no end to the program in the county, and in the coming years should greatly improve the quality of hogs in the county.

SEVENTEEN TRACTORS PLOW DINGLER FIELD MONDAY MORNING

That good old neighborly spirit is still going strong in this small spot on the globe regardless of what is happening over the rest of the world. In fact the last act of this nature was displayed Monday morning when neighbors of Richard Dingler in the Sunnyview community moved in with 17 tractors and plowed his 200 acre farm in the one morning's time. Mr. Dingler had been delayed in his work due to illness in his family and the plowing of his fields at this time could easily mean the making or loss of a crop.

The men who furnished their tractors and their time are to be highly complimented on their fine neighborly spirit. We know Mr. Dingler will never forget what they have done for him.

May 29th will be the annual spring dairy show in Donley County. The show board met in the office of county agent H. M. Breedlove last Saturday and voted to pay one hundred and fifty dollars in premium money to the winners of the different classes of the show. John Gillham is superintendent of the Dairy Show, and the different classes of the show and the amount of premium money for each class will be in your next weeks issue of the Leader.

The show will start at ten o'clock in the morning and all dairy cattle must be on the show grounds by this time. Breedlove stated that the judging will start about ten thirty in the morning.

In the afternoon it is planned to have Dr. R. L. Brown, assistant state veterinarian to make a talk to the dairymen on diseases of dairy cattle and also to have short talks on dairy management.

The show will be held at the new location of the show barns on the Brice highway. For any additional information, be sure to read your Leader for all details of the show.

City To Dope Alleys Next Week

The City officials announced this week that a new program would be started within the next week whereby the City would spray all the alleys and city ditch in the main business district with an oil base D.D.T. solution to help prevent the spreading of disease and make our little city more healthful.

They are asking that all business firms clean up their alleys good this week and be ready for the first spraying which will take place next week. They plan to spray the same area at least once each month and are asking all firms that have any type of garbage to spray their trash barrels themselves several times in between the city spraying as flies will gather within a short time wherever food stuff is thrown out in the open. They are urging all in the residential section to spray their own trash barrels, cow lots, etc., as often as they can.

"If everyone will cooperate, we have a good chance to keep all types of diseases at a minimum within our city limits this summer," one official stated. "We know it means quite a bit of trouble and work to keep everything cleaned up and sprayed, and all we ask is that everybody keep trying."

SKYLINE TIDINGS

By DODO (the flightless bird) Mr. Clyde Cope of Claude is one happy pilot. He finally got his airplane all together again and has really been flying it since he got it out of the Clarendon A&E shop. Mr. Joe Jones returned it to Mr. Cope Monday afternoon. Mr. Jones and Gene Bryan made a business trip to Spearman, Monday night in the little silver Funk. Mr. Joe Jones and Mr. Woody Spencer made a business trip to Dallas Tuesday. Due to bad weather they had to remain over night. They say that it rains down there. How about it boys? Mr. Ray Noblitt flew in from

Austin Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Noblitt seemed to have enjoyed his trip very much. Those boys with the American Dusting Co. have really been spraying the whole country side this past week and a half. And have really covered the acreage even though the weather has not been too favorable. Mr. Gene Bryan had a couple of his friends out Wednesday afternoon for their first airplane ride. They were quite thrilled with the whole affair. Mr. Leonard Parker soloed the PT-19 Wednesday afternoon and was one happy boy even though his was in the dog house, but he wasn't by himself as far as the dog house. Congrats, Leonard. We are sorry to see the American Dusting boys move out. They finished up in this district and are moving over to McLean. We are going to miss you boys. L. L. Wallace has really been keeping that yeller Funk of his busy this week. Better watch it though, L. L., or you will be in the doghouse like the rest of us out here. Well stall me out and call me Dodo if old Bill Greene Jr. didn't finally decide to leave that new daughter of his and come out and exercise the landing gear on the club Aeronca Wednesday afternoon. Glad to see you out Bill. Say Homer Bones what were you showing the dust boys Tuesday afternoon. I was reading the Skyways magazine the other day and notice where we had a big record breaking event right here at home and didn't even know about it. It seems that Joe Jones has the record for taxing an airplane the longest distance. 55 miles that is. The Lelia Lake fly boys have really been giving the little club

Aeronca a busy time this week. Sunday morning, Mr. Willard Knox and wife, John Jay and Mrs. Edna Smith, Matthew J. Taylor and wife, Chester Gregory and wife, and Leonard Parker and his better half all took for the sunrise breakfast at Canyon. Due to a slight bit of engine trouble Leonard didn't quite make it. Doc Lowell was very busy at the field fixing his hangar and taking some of the local people up in his Beech. Ray Rappy and some of his friends were out Sunday flying around and having quite a time.

NEW TYPE PASSENGER TIRE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK BY CO-OP FARMERS

A new type of passenger car tire, designed for service and not for profit, has been announced this week by the farmers of the mid-west who own and control 5,810 cooperative organizations and their regional and national distribution and manufacturing agencies. More than 3,000,000 farmers own and control this vast and wide-spread Co-op procurement system. The new tire is the Co-op DeLuxe, which features a broad, flat tread that puts more rubber to work, adds miles of safe dependable driving and the multiple rib pattern assures a cushioned ride. The 6,340 saw tooth edges on the tread bite through road film to a dry surface giving the users of this great new tire safe stopping without side skidding. The specially built shoulder adds safety and strength on turns and emergency braking. Mr. F. O. Naylor, manager of Donley County Consumers, a local cooperative, states that this new tire minimizes danger from blowouts due to the extra construction that is built into the carcass. Mr. Naylor points out that the cord in this tire is insulated with a special bonding of liquid latex and then allowed to set for positive adhesion for uniform and perfectly balanced construction. The Donley County Consumers, the local organization of farmers, is a member and part owner in the regional and national cooperative organizations that make this tire and distribute it. The price is in line or lower than competitive brand tires, but the quality of this tire is far superior, since this tire is made for service, not for profit, by the people who own and control its manufacture through cooperatives.

Excessive toidness is said to indicate a mild form of insanity, for which most newspapermen are happily immune.

SERVEL Pays Off Because It Operates For Less On Cheap Panhandle Gas!

We're fortunate, here in the Panhandle, because we live close to the heart of the world's largest gas fields. Which means, of course, that we enjoy gas rates that are among the lowest in the nation. And that's why Servel gives us a double pay-off in low cost operation. Servel's tiny gas flame is famous for economical operating cost everywhere. Here, in the Panhandle, it's exceptionally low. But there's more to it than that. Servel's Gas Refrigerator pays again because maintenance cost is almost unheard of regardless of age or years of service. You see the Servel Gas Refrigerator has NO MOVING PARTS IN ITS FREEZING SYSTEM. There's no motor, no valves, no piston or pump, no machinery to grind, get noisy and wear out. Just a tiny natural (or liquid) gas flame does all the work. And, whoever heard of a noisy gas flame... or, a gas flame wearing out? Yet, with all its ruggedness, Servel has not sacrificed beauty or convenience. Its gleaming white beauty of styling makes it a welcome addition to any home. Its big frozen food compartment holds a bushel of frozen foods. It's dew-action vegetable fresheners keep vegetables garden-fresh in appearance and taste. Shelves are adjustable to eleven different positions and are plastic-coated to keep them rust-free, scratch-free and make them easy to keep clean.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH

A child prodigy is a youngster with highly imaginative parents.

A woman may be as old as she looks, but a man is if he doesn't.
Let others share your sunny days And you will find it true, That others will be glad to share The rainy days with you.

Then there was the Scotsman who filled his pajama pocket with handkerchiefs when he sent them to the laundry.

Paint must be a preserver as the manufacturers often claim. An insurance company states that women, as an average, live six years longer than do men.

Many men get all the exercise necessary by wrestling with their consciences.

Bachelor Bill says that a bigamist is a fellow who is a glutton for misery.

A tourist who had found the going rough in the gyp-ai-kai belt near Pecos entered town hungry. In looking for an eating joint he spied a sign reading: "Native Meat You Never Did Eat." That was an appeal to the tourist and he went in to see about it. Then the following conversation ensued:

"Whatcha got?" "Road Runner," replied the waiter.

"What else?" "Nothing but bread and Road Runner."

"What's a Road Runner?" "It's a kind of leggy bird that runs around here that the high-ups call a chaparel."

"Has it got wings?" "Of course it's got wings," replied the waiter.

"Then I don't want to eat the blamed thing. I won't eat anything with wings that would live in this desert!"

A local merchant told me, in discussing the local vegetable market, that the crookneck yellow squash was the best seller of all eatables grown here. He says they are in great demand at a good price any old time and fewer people grow them, and they are easy to grow, too. (That's an idea for the housewife who wants to make some extra money.)

Take Your Choice, Neighbor!

The missus—who writes our Woman's Column in the Clarion under the name of "Nancy Gale"—gets letters about recipes, advice on etiquette, home management, etc.

One letter she got last week was about a recipe she published for Welsh Rarebit—made with tart cheese, Worcestershire, and a cup of sparkling tangy beer. "Turned out great," says her correspondent. "But you didn't mention what beverage to serve with it. Should I serve beer? Cider? Iced tea?" The missus' answer was simply:

"Any beverage your guests prefer. You don't have to serve cider—any more than you have to serve beer... but it's often courteous to let guests have a choice."

From where I sit, that simple answer applies to more items than Welsh Rarebit. In a world where everyone has different tastes and ideas—we should recognize those differences—and never deny the right of choice to anyone!

HOW TEXAS INDUSTRIES PUT NATURE'S RESOURCES TO USE FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANKIND

Royalty IN THE PLAY ROOM

Princess Dolly reigns supreme in her cotton-white royal robes. Yes, and it's Texas cotton—that Queen of textiles—grown and ginned in Texas, spun and fashioned in humming Texas mills.

Texas is proud of its growing textile and garment industries—industries that are built on the use of natural resources. Texas is proud, too, of its natural gas industry—another example of the way natural resources can be given value by being put to use.

Cotton in the fields... and natural gas in the ground... would be of little value to anyone unless they could be gathered, processed and made available for use for the benefit of mankind. This is practical conservation, for it stimulates industrial development, creates jobs and benefits all the families of Texas.

TEXTILE AND GARMENT INDUSTRIES Thousands of employees share the benefits of the Free Enterprise system, as it operates in the textile and garment industries of the Gulf South. In one recent year, payrolls of these industries were more than 100 million dollars—money that found its way into every cash register in the area. This is a good example of private capital, American ingenuity and local workers combining to build a business that brings prosperity to everyone.

CHURCH IS SCENE FOR GILBERT-WHITMAN WEDDING

Church of Christ, 212 Keller St., Biloxi, Miss., was the scene at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, May 11, for the marriage of Lois Clynelle Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gilbert, Clarendon, Texas, to Lyle Whitman of Kessler Field Biloxi, Miss, son of A. W. Whitman, 612 N. Missouri St., Roswell, N. M.

Minister S. L. Edwards of Tulsa, Okla. read the double ring ceremony at the altar of fern and spring flowers.

The bride was attired in a white flannel suit with a white, off the face hat, and white accessories. Her corsage was of deep red carnations and Gypsophila. Attending the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert of Biloxi. Following the ceremony, the bridal party feted a luncheon at The Fairfield.

The couple will make their home at 660 Laurel Courts, Biloxi.

Miss Gilbert is a graduate of Clarendon High School, also Amarillo Business College. She was employed several years at the S. W. Telephone Co. in Clarendon; also was an instructor in the Amarillo Air Base until she was transferred to Kessler Field where she is now employed at the Officers Club.

Mr. Whitman was graduated from Abilene College and served 4½ years in the service, serving 3½ years of that time overseas. He is now employed at Kessler Air Force Field.

SWEET SIXTEENERS

The "Sweet Sixteeners" club met Saturday at the home of Betty Thompson. We discussed plans for a slumber party to initiate the new members. The hostesses, Betty Thompson and Doris Louise Smith served punch and sandwiches to the following members: Nell Bentley, June Star Allred, Jo Ann Sibley, Alice McCrary, Mary Edna Elmore, Mildred Allen, Mrs. Avis Lee Benson, and Mrs. Mavis Parker.

APPROACHING MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Miss Elizabeth Ann Hasely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hasely of Beverly Hills nearby Chicago is the fiancée of Hubert Neel Thompson, son of L. E. Thompson of this city. Their wedding will take place in June. At a recent engagement party the bride-to-be's parents also announced the betrothal of Elizabeth Ann's sister Barbara, whose marriage to Robert Stewart of Chicago is planned for December.

GARDEN CLUB

The Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. H.C. Brumley with Mrs. R. R. Dawkins as assistant hostess, Tuesday, May 11th. Mrs. Lee Holland, president, paid tribute to Mrs. U. J. Boston for her work and interest in the Club since its organization, and presented her with a gift from the club. Mrs. Boston stated that the concrete seat had been built in the Park; furs for which were given by Mrs. Boston and The Garden Club.

Roll call was answered by the different state birds. Mrs. Walter Taylor gave the program, "The Birds in Our Gardens." She stressed that we should protect our birds, not only for their value as friends, but for the many insects they consume. It is claimed that without birds, at the end of ten years, the insects if unchecked would have eaten every green thing on earth. Birds can be encouraged to come into the garden by placing water for drinking and bathing out in the open, away from trees or shrubs that might harbor their chief enemy, the cat. Estimates place the number of birds killed annually by a house cat at fifty, the toll by the alley cat many times as heavy.

Mrs. Rolle Brumley and Mrs. Holland presided at the lace covered tea table; a miniature rose-arbor with little rugosa roses was used as a centerpiece. Delicious refreshments of cakes and mints decorated in the club flower, the red rose, were served.

Beautiful roses from Mrs. Leck Goldston's garden were throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Draffin, Mrs. Noland, Mrs. Love, Clovis, N. M. and Mrs. Vand Fugatt, Lakewood, Calif. guests and twenty five members were present.

1926 BOOK CLUB

The 1926 Book Club held its President's dinner at the Donley Hotel on Tuesday evening. A Colonial motif was observed in the table decorations and favors. Interspersed among vases of mock orange and old fashioned pink roses were Colonial Dame dolls. At intervals on the table were quaint fans that served as a background for the nosegays at each guest's place.

After dinner, the club president, Mrs. Phelan, presented the incoming officers and reviewed the plans for the coming year. The members present were Mesdames Phelan, Bennett, Smith, Polk, White, Shelton, Morris, Bones, Porter, Brumley, Hoggatt, Ritter, Toland, Antrobus, Stewart, Ray, Clifford, Bairfield, Bromley, Cox, Buntin, Thornberry and Godner.

CUE AND CURTAIN CLUB ATTEND PLAY IN AMARILLO

On Thursday of last week, several members of the Cue and Curtain Club, with their sponsor, Mrs. Jolly Johnson, and other interested friends spent a very pleasant afternoon and evening in Amarillo. At 5:30 the group met at KGNC to attend, as studio guests, Johnny Linn's program, "Lines for Living." Following this the party went to Myers' Fried Chicken restaurant where tables had been reserved for them. The traditional fried chicken dinner was enjoyed. Highlighting the day's entertainment was the opportunity to attend the dramatization of the play, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" by Rudolph Besier, presented by The Amarillo Little Theatre in the Municipal Auditorium at 8:00.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" portrayed the love life of Elizabeth Barrett and the poet Robert Browning. The entire scene was in the bed-sitting room of Elizabeth Barrett at 50 Wimpole Street in London, 1845. The room was a correct representation of Elizabeth's room as special study and research had been given to this feature. Also the costumes worn by the members of the cast were gorgeous, colorful, and resplendent. Dr. A. J. Armstrong, Director of the Browning Room, Baylor University, gave invaluable assistance in furnishing historical advice and suggestions for the presentation of this historical drama.

Remarkable talent was shown by some of the members of the cast. Both Joan Hudson, who played the part of Elizabeth Barrett, and William Angus Moore, who played the part of Robert Browning, are Speech Majors and Mr. Moore has done graduate work in dramatics. It was, indeed, a rare treat to witness the performance of these artists as well as that of other members of the cast.

Those enjoying the day's events were Jane Johnson, Shirley Brumley, Mae Morris, Patsy Blair, Ladelle Cox, Sandra Shelton, Mary Ann Landers, Patsy Estlack, Inelle Cox, Joan Ritter, Ramona Rhea, Shirley Morris, Bob Clifford, Tommye Gattis, Sam Patterson, Darrell Proctor, B. Porter, Jackie Brooks, Miller Morris, Wilson Lane, Lynn Leathers, Mrs. Jolly Johnson, Mrs. Alvin Landers, Mrs. Rolle Brumley, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Cox.

 not, but the turkey was a little web-footed, and when he walked he wobbled from side to side just like the geese. Rev. Lester Parker remarked that "not having a mirror or the benefit of any other turkeys to observe, that he probably thought that he looked like the geese." We were taking pictures of everything of interest, and later when we asked one of the boys where we could find the geese and turkeys, so that we could shoot them he begged, "No, no, don't do that, we want them." And we never did get to shoot them, even with the camera.

One of the most interesting sights to me was the trick riding by the boys, under the direction of Leonard Stroud the star of many rodeos. You can see it with your own eyes but can't believe it. Most of the pictures that the boys draw are of horses, and undoubtedly are their favorite loves.

No owner of a cattle ranch ever took more pride in showing his cows or his property than did the folks who work at Boys Ranch take in showing us their pride and joys. And I thought: Beef from a cattle ranch, men from Boys Ranch—what a comparison, what an achievement, what an idea in the minds of those who started this work.

Anyway, our thanks to Mr. Farley, Mr. Decker the superintendent, Mr. Gray the coach, Mr. Stroud the rodeo director, Mrs. Thompson, who is in charge of clothes, and according to Mr. Farley, has been there longer than the Canadian River, and to the cook, and the farm boss, whose names have slipped my mind, for taking time out so willingly from their busy days to show us around. Most of all, our thanks to the boys for their eagerness to show us their home, and for the fine manners and behavior that is evident on all sides.

Drop us a card if you think some more articles about the trip would be interesting to you or helpful to this worthy cause.

Community—

 whole country right here in our county and we must keep it the best. Mrs. Laura Taylor, Quinn Aten, J. P. Holliman, H. K. Leathers, Olen Usrey, Frank Wolford, Billie Christal, John Gerner and Richard Finch have applied a total of 8 tons of this fertilizer to their alfalfa fields, and their grass land. Watch these places this year and next to see the results of this practice.

In Community "E" there are six producers who have constructed ditches for the purpose of draining cropland and pasture land. Oscar Anderson, Earl Fox, M. G. Cottingham, L. B. Noble, J. A. Brogdon and Gerald Noble are the farmers who have the new ditches. AAA assistance amounts to about two-thirds of the actual cost of the work that was done on these places.

Pasture improvement is a practice that the producers in Community "E" are being interested in this year. 1198 pounds of pasture grasses have already been seeded by: J. P. Holliman, Allen Bryan, W. B. Ayers, Albert Gerner and C. C. Ayers.

Jerrald Read, Richard Finch, Paul Thompson, and Earl Myers planted Austrian Winter Peas last fall. All authorities agree that the soil should be fed each year to keep it producing the good crops that a farmer is due to get from it. The winter legume practice will be carried out more this fall than last year, for farmers are aware of the need for this type of practice.

The kind of farming that removes the soil fertility without putting it back or that speeds up erosion, also takes away the security of the land. The major function of the AAA is to help farmers make their land more secure. The local county office and all those who work with it are aware of the importance of helping each and every farmer. Come to the office at any time—you are always welcome.

The community Committee-men who are working in connection with the county office for the producers in Community "E" are: Cap Anderson, Carroll Lewis and J. Holly Wood. These three men are well known in the community and are doing a good job on the AAA Committee. Go to them for advice or assistance—they will be glad to serve every producer in Community "E".
