

Meet Of Schools Starts Friday

Expected to attend from 1,000 to 2,000 for week-end.

Approximately 2,000 students from county schools will meet in the annual Brown County Inter-Scholastic League at Brownwood Friday and Saturday.

The league is held in Brownwood and Friday of this year, with exception of the playground base ball and one-act play which is to be held Thursday.

Registration for Friday morning contests in essay writing and plain writing and declamation. The volume of both the senior and junior division will compare with Daniel Baker.

Afternoon declamation by both the senior girls divisions will be held. Contests for all other events will be held at the Howard Payne school.

Howard Payne school boys and girls field meet will be held Friday afternoon at Howard Payne school.

Contests in extemporaneous speaking will be held at the Christian Church. Chorus will be held Friday night at the same auditorium.

March 16, from 8:30 to 10:00 p. m. Brownwood will witness contests, arithmetic, Court House, Music, and preliminary to 5 p. m.

Friday, March 22, from 8:30 to 10:00 p. m. A. Rochester and committees will be held Saturday at Bangs, Mikewawa, and Clear Creek.

Notes—Cotton prices which will not count toward sign-up-around championships. In these contests, however, some of these are junior boys and girls.

Ball, senior girls baseball, and field events are a great deal of interest.

Wood, Bangs and May are the schools competing in the division of the senior and field meet. Of these, Wood is favored because of the number of contestants.

However, a strong contender for the title may have never been so strong. Contestants may spring surprises on the other two divisions.

Division B and C divisions will be a real treat, and unless enough entries to justify a rural meet the entries of the schools will compete for boys of the Class B and C.

Division is composed of Brooksmith, Brownwood, Barry, Grosvenor, Inwood, Williams, Woodland and Zephyr. The Class C are Camp Hill, Clie, Conover, McDaniel, Mukewawa.

Events will open with the boys and girls field and baseball which will be held on the high athletic field Friday.

Events listed for Friday include the 100 yard dash and four forty dash running broad jump.

For distance and 100 yard dash. Contest to be held at thirty feet. Junior boys and girls.

Dance in Church Wins Approval

Interpreting Bible stories and hymns in dances, 15 barefoot co-eds won approval of a congregation double the usual size in the First Christian church, Columbia, Mo. Shown here as they illustrated the old hymn, "Now the Day is Over," are five of the girls, in long, gray silk dresses. The co-eds are from Christian College, alma mater of Sally Rand.

REHABILITATION OF FARM FAMILIES IN COUNTY UNDER WAY

Three families have been placed on farms in Brown county as a part of the government's rural rehabilitation program. Twelve or fifteen leases on land in this county are now in Austin awaiting approval. Relief officials expect to place 20 to 25 families on farms on a self-sustaining basis this year if present plans work out.

Under the rehabilitation program land is leased by the government and relief families are given all the goods and livestock necessary to establish them on the farms. They give the government a mortgage on the goods furnished them in lieu of payment.

TEST DISCLOSES THAT FLOOD GATES ARE OK

The operation of the flood gates at Brownwood dam, which were repaired last October, was found to be as simple as starting and stopping a car, according to officials of Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 who made a test of the gates Monday morning.

The gates were left open for ten minutes and then were closed. This was the first test made of the gates under water pressure since the completion of the repairs.

The lake, which was drained when the north flood gate jammed last July, has refilled to around the 1,393 level, which means that water in front of the gates is 63 feet deep.

For girls will compete in fifty and seventy-five yard dashes, 220 yard relay, high jump and broad jump and baseball throwing contest.

Preliminaries in the senior boys division will be held Saturday morning and will include high hurdles, pole vault, 100 yard dash, 220 low hurdles, pole vault, 880 yard run, 440 yard dash, high jump and 220 dash.

Finals in all events are slated for the afternoon, the events being: 120 high hurdles, 100 yard dash, 880 yard run, 220 low hurdles, 440 yard dash, mile run and mile relay, pole vault, broad jump, discus throw, high jump, 12 pound shot put and javelin throw.

C. F. Wesner, principal of Brownwood Junior High School, is director General of the meet.

BROWNWOOD MAN IS KILLED IN TRUCK CRASH AT MIDLAND

R. A. Bagley, 38, Brownwood truck driver, was killed at 5:00 o'clock Wednesday morning when his truck collided with an automobile near Midland. Mr. Bagley was returning here from a trip to Arizona when the accident occurred. He was dead when taken from the truck. E. Frank Ehrenheim, Jr., 20, of Chicago was also killed.

Bagley's body was taken to a Midland funeral home and later brought to Brownwood in a White & London funeral coach. Mrs. Bagley went to Midland to accompany the body here.

Bagley had been living in Brownwood for several years, operating a truck out of here into the Rio Grande valley and San Antonio as well as into Arizona, where he bought produce for sale here.

ROBERT MULLIN DIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT; D. E. OLIVER INJURED

Robert Mullin, 21, was killed, and D. E. Oliver was seriously injured when their car, driven by Oliver, was wrecked about three miles from Brownwood on Highway 19 about 1:30 o'clock Monday morning. Passing motorists discovered the victims and sent a White & London ambulance to the scene of the wreck. Mullin died a few minutes after reaching a Brownwood hospital.

Oliver said that he was blinded by the lights of an approaching truck and ran the car into the concrete rail of a bridge. The driver of the truck, east bound, did not stop.

Mullin, whose home was in Roswell, New Mexico, had been in Brownwood for some time. He was an employee of Stillwell service station No. 3. He was injured internally and his skull was fractured when he was thrown from the car down a grade and almost under the bridge.

Oliver, employee at Broad & Davis Storage Company, suffered a badly crushed chest and cuts and bruises about the head. Dr. H. L. Locker, attending physician, said his condition is serious.

Following notification of Mullin's parents arrangements were made to have his body taken overland in a White & London funeral coach to Slaton for burial. The funeral was held there at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Mullins and three brothers, Lenton, 17; Berlin, 14; and Billie, 11, all of Roswell, New Mexico.

Gardening is hot news these spring days even if the weather man is not offering all the cooperation possible. But come rain or shine or hail or blow, now is the accepted time if the home table is to be served with "garden sass," according to Extension Horticulturist J. F. Rorborough, who adds darkly "just any old fish can swim with the current, but it takes a live one to go upstream."

J. C. Holton, commissioner of agriculture in Mississippi, estimates the average cash income from this season's crops in that state to be $480 per farm.

CITIZEN'S PART IN GOOD GOVERNMENT IS STRESSED BY M'CRAW

The private citizen plays an important part in good government, Attorney General William McCraw told an audience of about 100 at the annual Public Relations banquet of the Brownwood Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday night. The banquet was held in the Gold Room of Hotel Brownwood, and in addition to the members of the local club, representatives from other civic clubs in Brownwood attended.

An uninterested citizenship is directly responsible for lax law enforcement, the attorney general said. If a law is unfair or unjust, rigid enforcement will bring out the evil, and will cause repeal of the law, the attorney general told his audience; if it is good, enforcement will make it popular. In either event, it is the duty of the individual citizen to cooperate with law enforcement officers and see that the law is enforced so long as it is on the statute books, Mr. McCraw pointed out.

Mr. McCraw also emphasized the fact that good citizenship includes participation in civic enterprises, and complimented the local club and the Brownwood citizenship in this respect.

The attorney general brought with him four women employees of his office, and introduced them to the club as business women. They were Miss Ruth Meyers, chief clerk; Mrs. Effie Waldron, bond attorney; Miss Lydia McCutcheon, secretary, and Miss Esther Lynn, secretary to the first assistant.

The Brownwood high school glee club sang two selections, directed by Miss Gail Arnett and accompanied by James Ming, and Mrs. Karl H. Moore gave two violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. Edna Savage Saunders.

Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, and district governor of Rotary International, made a short talk praising the local club and its work.

Dr. Mollie W. Armstrong acted as toastmaster; Mrs. Velma DeBenedetti, president of the club, welcomed the guests and visitors; Dr. G. C. Schurman, pastor of the First Christian Church, gave the invocation, and District Judge E. J. Miller introduced Mr. McCraw.

A meeting of community chairmen for the Federal Housing Administration and building supply men from the Brownwood trade territory is to be held in Brownwood Monday, March 25.

The meeting is to be for the purpose of discussing the FHA program, according to an announcement by Smith Bell, county FHA chairman. Ten such meetings are to be held in Texas this month.

The Brownwood meeting will be held in the gold room at Hotel Brownwood at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Bell attended a state meeting held in Fort Worth last week. He says a splendid meeting was held with a large attendance. Reports show the FHA has helped conditions in every part of the state where the plan has been carried out.

BURGLARS GET $15 IN TWO STORES HERE

Two Brownwood establishments were entered by burglars Saturday night. A total of $15 was taken from a safe at Weatherby Motor Company. Burglars broke into a side door of the building and knocked the knobs off two safes and a vault. They were unable to open a safe inside the vault, although they knocked the knob off the safe.

The safe at Brownwood Lumber Company office was opened but it had been left empty Saturday afternoon. Nothing was taken from the office.

Officers received reports that robberies similar to the ones here had been committed in Coleman and San Angelo over the week-end. One man was arrested in San Angelo in connection with the robbery there, but two companions stole an automobile and escaped. The man may be questioned in connection with local robberies. City and county officers are working on the cases.

MILWAUKEE FAVORS COLLINS FOR MAYOR AFTER BEER TRADE

Alderman Carl P. Dietz of Milwaukee thinks John A. Collins should be Mayor of Brownwood. He said so in a letter received this week by Collins, in which the Milwaukee alderman acknowledged receipts of the Bennett typewriter which Collins traded for two half-barrels of beer, to be used at a party to be given by the American Legion April 1.

"The Bennett Typewriter has arrived, the cameras have clicked, and all that remains now is the big celebration in Brownwood," Alderman Dietz wrote. "I know that you are going to have a big time, and would like to join you."

Mr. Dietz also wrote that he was to address the banquet of the Milwaukee Typewriter Dealers' Association Thursday night of this week, and that his subject would be "J. A. Collins of Brownwood, Texas, and his Bennett typewriter." On the same evening, he will attend the monthly dinner of the Schlitz Brewing Company, at which the Bennett, with the signs and pecans will adorn the speaker's table. Schlitz company cooperated with Dietz and Collins in the trade.

"You can tell the boys down there that I'm nominating you for Mayor of Brownwood, for a man of your ingenuity and wit should be able to do wonders and place Brownwood in the same position among the smaller cities of the country that Milwaukee holds among the larger ones," Dietz' letter says.

"We've had some good, wholesome fun out of the 'deal,' and I sincerely hope that all of those who attend the party will enjoy it and entertain a lasting memory of Collins, Schlitz and Dietz."

Test Of Cattle Is Being Made Here This Week

Work Will Require Five Weeks And Will Include Every Herd In County.

Approximately 25,000 head of cattle will be tested in Brown county in the program of the eradication of tuberculosis in live stock. Representatives of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission started their work here Monday morning. Cattle in Brownwood and the immediate vicinity were tested Monday and Tuesday. Those in charge of the work hope to complete all the testing in this county within five weeks.

Dairy herds and herds of pure bred cattle will be tested 100 per cent. On other herds of from 41 to 100 head, tests will be run on 10 old cows and all bulls. On herds of over 100 head the test will be run on 10 per cent of the old cows and all bulls.

Dr. J. A. Phillips is chief veterinarian in charge of the work.

Dr. Phillips has Osborne Apple as his office assistant, who will be in the main office in the tax assessor's office in the county court house. Veterinarians and their localities include: Dr. C. D. Hoover and Dr. O. G. Beck, Brownwood and immediate area; Dr. Sim D. Stovall at Cross Plains and for the northwest part of the county; Dr. J. A. Swartz in the May and northeast part of the county; Dr. G. A. Sutton in the Blanket section; Dr. R. H. Hodges in the Zephyr section; Dr. D. F. Kelly, Winchell; Dr. W. R. Hodges, Bangs section. All the doctors have moved their families here and have rented apartments for the six weeks period.

The county is mapped into sections and each district will be worked by the man designated for that section and he will work thru the main office in Brownwood.

Brown county is under quarantine at present and will remain so until the tests are completed. If the county is found to be free of tuberculosis the quarantine will be lifted.

Affected animals, if any, are to be destroyed. They will be partly paid for by the government, one-third of the expense to be borne by the state government, one-third by the federal government, and one-third by the owner. The payment will be $50 per head for pure bred animals and $20 per head on grade herds.

Inspections are to be made rapidly and Dr. Phillips said each owner would be notified 24 to 72 hours ahead of the inspection so the cattle can be penned for the veterinarian. He urges that all owners of cattle and pen kept cows in Brownwood have their stock ready for inspection on Tuesday so the work can be completed in the city.

GOLDTHWAITE ROAD OPENED TO TRAFFIC

Goldthwaite is only 33.5 miles from Brownwood this week with the opening of the new stretch of Highway 7 between Mullin and Goldthwaite, giving a new, direct route between Brownwood and Goldthwaite.

While the highway has not been topped, grading and drainage structures have been completed and the road bed is in excellent condition.

A New Constitution

Agitation has broken out again in Texas for the writing of a new state constitution. The movement has the organized support of the Young Democrats and other united groups, and many arguments have been advanced to show that the present constitution of the state is inadequate. A proposed amendment to the constitution now is before the Texas Legislature, with unanimous committee approval, to submit to the people the proposition of calling a constitutional convention in 1936. That is, the matter would be submitted to the voters at the 1936 general election.

Under the proposed plan, 150 delegates, chosen on the basis of present representation in the Legislature, would be authorized to draw up the new constitution, which, of course, would have to be submitted at some later date to a vote of the people for adoption or rejection.

The present constitution was adopted in 1876, and succeeded one which was adopted in 1869. It has been subject to many amendments during the nearly 50 years that it has served Texas, but retains the general form in which it originally was written.

To be sure, the present constitution does not fit exactly the needs of modern state government, and there are many arguments in favor of bringing it up to date by the comparatively simple procedure of scrapping the old and adopting one entirely new. New ideas could be incorporated, new provisions set up.

But what would be the gain, in the long run? There are ample provisions in the present constitution for amendments at two-year intervals by vote of the legislature and the people of the state. No contingency has arisen which makes such procedure impractical. And many dangers surround the writing of a new code.

For example, one of the most frequently attacked provisions is the small salaries allowed constitutional officers under the 1876 constitution. Yet there can be no question that the people of the state do not favor increasing these salaries, for every time such a proposition has been submitted to a vote, it has been soundly defeated.

Any measure that could be incorporated into the new constitution, could be easily written into the present document by a vote of the people, and if the people do not approve, these provisions should not be adopted, even through the exigencies of a new constitution. There is a danger that too many features not in accord with the wishes of the people would be included in any document written, even though such a representative committee as proposed should be selected.

The alert Texas Weekly points out another reason why the time is not ripe now for rewriting the constitution, due to the undeniable fact that "the equilibrium of sound public opinion is severely shaken today." "Too much radical thought permeates public opinion today," this journal points out. "Too much dependence on government, too much sublime faith in every panacea and crazy nostrum that comes along."

Truly, a new constitution opens too many avenues through which the taxpayer might suffer, rather than benefit, from a document written at the present time. Better, repair the present structure, if repairs be needed, and devote more time to those present and pressing problems of everyday living.

It long has been an unexplainable mystery to us by what process of reasoning the Federal government has been licensing dealers in intoxicating liquors in dry Texas. Under the plan of the government, Texas dealers who care to sell liquors in Texas can secure Federal permission, which amounts to Federal immunity, by paying a $1,000 annual license fee to the Federal government, in spite of the fact that the sale of such liquors would be in violation of Texas' stringent Dry Law.

To make it easier for the law violator, the Federal government has been selling the licenses on the installment plan, through which the dealer can pay by the month, presumably stopping payment any time his business proves unprofitable through State interference.

Whatever our personal opinions may be about the Texas dry law, the law is on the statute books, and probably will be there for a long time to come. Governor Allred, Attorney General McCraw, Adjutant General Nesbitt and other state officials have remarked pointedly during the past week that so long as the law exists, it should be enforced. Quite correct. But Federal licensing of liquor dealers has made enforcement of the law infinitely harder for state authorities.

Now comes the Fifth United States circuit court, sitting at New Orleans, with the ruling that the $1,000 tax imposed on liquor dealers in dry states is invalid. The court says such licensing in dry states must stop, and it will stop unless the Supreme Court decides otherwise.

Whether the ruling is within accordance with legal practice or not is not within our scope to decide. But certainly none can deny that the decision has the merit of logic on its side.

Next week Brownwood will entertain one of the most important conventions to be held in this section in many years - the meeting of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association. The convention will bring some 500 county judges and commissioners from all parts of West Texas - 147 counties are included in the territory embraced by the association - as well as nearly 100 members of the Texas Legislature and state officials.

Brownwood many times has invited the association to meet here, but only this year with success. In securing the convention, the city has contracted certain obligations of hospitality that should be realized - should be brought to the attention, perhaps, of those not familiar with the importance of the gathering.

West Texas cities are notably hospitable. The association, made up of outstanding citizens from every part of this vast empire of West Texas, is not a critical group. But because so many counties are represented - because word, either good or bad, of Brownwood will go into so many important localities after next week's meeting, it behooves everyone in Brownwood to be just a little anxious, during the convention period, to show the guests that they are welcome, and to assist them in any way possible in having a good time. For Brownwood will be in direct comparison, for the two days of the convention, with other splendid West Texas cities where the convention has been held, and she should acquit herself well.

"A couple of months before my son was born my mother died. Mother and I had been very dear to each other; we had lived together as great friends; I was terribly hurt by her death. I became resentful of life, doubtful of a God.

"One night my husband and I opened the French doors to our bedroom and retired early. I could not sleep for fleeting and tormenting thoughts of my mother's death - the reason for it, the loneliness of it.

"Suddenly I heard a strange rattling sound. My husband, after I awakened him, heard nothing. He was more than kind; he said I only imagined the sound; that I was nervous, due to my condition. I wanted to remonstrate, for I am a steady person, not given to weeping or to weakness.

"As soon as he fell asleep I heard the sound again. This time it was a rattling sound, as if some one were shaking the ceiling.

"When my husband responded this time to my alarm he arose and searched the room. He lighted the heavy marble lamp, which together with various boxes and books, stood upon the night table between our beds. No sign of anything or any-one strange could be found.

"I promised not to disturb him again. All became quiet once more. But only for a moment.

"The night table between our beds, heavy, laden, rose from its position and crashed to the floor, breaking the lamp and boxes. It was as if some one had lifted it and smashed it upon the floor. The crash was terrific.

"This time my husband did not refute me. He verified everything I heard and saw. He jumped to his feet and turned on the lights. Whatever had caused the crash had vanished.

"I have never been able to interpret the meaning of the mystery of this occurrence."

Early Cannons Smoothbores

All the early cannons, except a few only that were entirely experimental, were smoothbores, shooting round shot, the first of stone and the later of metal, says a writer in the Chicago Tribune. A round shot fired from a smoothbore cannon, was as lifeless as the knuckle ball or slow ball thrown by the present-day baseball pitcher. It journeyed through the air with little if any turn, piled up a cushion of air before it, and fell to earth much more quickly than the projectile of a rifled gun, that literally bores its way through the air.

COTTON RESEARCH

(Dallas News)

A belated attempt to aid waning Texas cotton exports by appropriating the paltry sum of $55,000, to set up fiber testing laboratories at Texas A. & M. College and Clemson College, South Carolina, is a confession that all is not right with American cotton. Whatever Congress does about it, the subject needed serious attention long ago. To permit foreign countries to take away our cotton markets and even go so far as to try to prove to buyers that their staple is superior to that of this country, betrays a disconcerting misconception of the entire problem on the part of so-called agricultural leaders. Foreign spinners have established new connections with cotton firms in Brazil, India, Egypt or Argentina, and see no reason for switching from as good or better staple bought at a lower price, so that it will take more than fiber laboratories and investigations to restore lost markets. The subject must be approached from such angles as tariff revision downward, reciprocal trade agreements or barter of goods.

A sum of $200,000 to be assigned to the Bureau of Plant Industry to carry on its work in seed and cultural tests related to soils and other environmental factors is right and proper, for this institution has never had sufficient funds to make the basic studies of cotton culture which Texas and the South long have needed. It is gratifying that some of the higher-ups in official Washington are beginning to do a little thinking about what has happened to Texas cotton exports, which at latest accounts show a decline of just 50 per cent below last season's figures (August to February). After the horse has been stolen, it is anybody's job to close the barn door.

Cotton is a billion-dollar enterprise and it long ago should have had a million-dollar research laboratory in which every problem of its ultimate use would have been in process of solution. It is not too late now.

ON TEXAS FARMS

Goldthwaite—Twelve farms in Mills county terraced prior to 1923 produced an average of 55 pounds more seed cotton in 1934 than the county average, netting the producers an average of $2.25 more per acre than the county average profit, according to W. P. Weaver, county agricultural agent. The estimated increased yield on the 4,500 acres terraced in the winter of 1933 and the spring of 1934 amounted to $1.50 per acre. Farmers estimate that the value to the land in preventing erosion is more than the value of this year's increased crop yield.

Bastrop—By trading a bushel of potatoes for a closed door, and using lumber obtained by removing a wall from the hall of the house, Mrs. Tallie Pate, wardrobe decorator for the Pleasant Grove Home Demonstration Club in Bastrop county, made a clothes closet that cost only 23 cents in cash, according to Miss Dessie Hoerster, home demonstration agent. In order to obtain the lumber Mrs. Pate remodeled part of the house. A storage room was made into a kitchen. One wall of the hall was removed, and the resulting room was converted into a bedroom. Mrs. Pate's closet reaches to the ceiling, is 23 inches deep and 48 inches wide. It is equipped with a space for quilts, a rod for hanging clothes, and shelves for storing folded garments.

Cleburne—At a cost of $825, a new mattress was made and an old one renovated for Mrs. Creed Ownby, member of the Antioch Home Demonstration Club in Johnson county, by members of the club at an all day meeting, according to Miss Agnes Roberts, home demonstration agent. Materials used for the mattress work included: ticking $6, mattress thread 29 cents and sewing thread five cents. The 50 pounds of cotton used in the new mattress was grown on the Ownby farm and so was the padding of new cotton put in the old mattress on the top and bottom of the original liners which was taken out and beaten by hand.

Mason—Sixty rose cuttings and 40 other shrub cuttings have been set out by Eugenia Gross, yard demonstrator in the Peters Prairie 4-H Club in Mason county according to Miss Leah Cox, home demonstration agent. The cuttings are from six to eight inches in length and are taken from well matured wood of the last year's growth. Eugenia has also put out six rooted shrubs around the house this year and has filled in the low places in the lawn with sandy loam soil mixed with fertilizer.

Archer City—Deep plowing more than paid for itself by increased yields during the dry years of 1933 and 1934 on the farm of W. A. Knight of Archer county, according to G. R. McNeil, county agricultural agent. In 1933 Mr. Knight and a neighbor both planted wheat on the same day on adjoining farms of the same type land. Knight used a disk plow while his neighbor used a one way plow and as a result Knight made 32 bushels to the acre while his neighbor made only 8 bushels to the acre. In 1934 Knight and a neighbor both planted oats on the same

Monument erected in Rome, Italy, in memory of King Victor Emanuel II.

GRANDEUR

Throughout the ages, those in the higher stations of life have been put away securely, and great monuments have been erected to their memory, while the bodies of those less fortunate have crumbled to dust in unknown and unmarked graves. All of the modern improvements in burial have gone only to the brink of the grave, as far as the masses are concerned, for heretofore the price of burial vaults has been prohibitive to the person of modest means.

But . . . today the family in this class may bury their departed one in a water-proof, and termite-proof Vault . . . because Austin-Morris has added this as a regular part of their service, having completely discarded the use of the pine grave box.

Investigate This Service.

NO MORE SPEECHES FROM COURT HOUSE STEPS, COURT RULES

All speeches and speech-making from the steps of the courthouse will be abolished during working hours, according to a ruling made by commissioners' court in called session this week.

In the future those who wish to discuss politics, governmental problems, religion, what's wrong with the country, old age pensions, crop prospects or any other subject for the benefit of their fellow men must go to the county court room or the district court room, which have been substituted by the commissioners court for such purposes.

The reason for the abolition was that the impromptu speakers of that nature caused a disturbance which interfered with the efficient continuation of work in many of the downstairs offices.

Several other matters were discussed by the court. These included allowing a bill for $11 to Greenleaf Cemetery Association for disintering the body of Glen Darnell; acceptance of the resignation of Mrs. Carrie B. West as matron of Community Welfare Home and to order an inventory of property as suggested by Mrs. West.

English Longbow Good Weapon

Old manuscripts say of the English longbow of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth centuries that its full cast was 300 yards. That was with an arrow with a sharpened steel broadhead point or with a bodkin point, a missile sufficiently strong and heavy to pierce armor at short range or fell a man at a distance almost as great as its maximum carry.

TAKEN TO WACO HOSPITAL

Leon Lipscomb of Brownwood was taken to the veterans hospital at Waco for treatment Wednesday. He probably will be transferred to a hospital in Colorado soon.

Cheerleader? No! Conductor of Symphonies

Without frills or fuss, clad in a sweater and with shirt collar open, Eugene Ormandy, conductor of the famed Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, here greeted members of the Philadelphia Symphony at his first rehearsal as guest conductor in the Quaker City. He's making every musician feel at his ease as he signals "soft and low."

Debaters Represent Brownwood Chosen

Miss Margaret Denman and Billy Ellis are to represent Brownwood High School in the senior declamation contests of the county Interscholastic League meet to be held here March 22 and 23. They won first places respectively in the senior girls and senior boys declamation contests held at the high school last week.

Billie Mae Harwell was the only contestant in junior girls declamation, and there were no contestants in the junior boys division.

Three timber companies consolidated their interests to log the burned over area of the Tillamook Ore. forest.

IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE AT GOVERNMENT EXPERIMENT STATION

The machine shed at the government, pecan station, located on the Comanche cut-off road, is being enlarged this week. The length of the building is to be 36 feet, and rolling doors are to be installed. The work is under the direction of Joe Hamilton, who is in charge of the station.

The work, which is being done by local labor, will cost about $400. Funds for this project are a part of a $750 appropriation made about a year ago for repainting and repairing the station. The repainting was done several months ago.

The present project has no connection with the recent proposal of the Department of Agriculture to ask for an appropriation of $26,000 for construction of a new building and for other work at the station if the land could be deeded to the federal government by the city. Nothing further has been heard from the Department of Agriculture.

TYPEWRITER OFFERED IN TRADE FOR GUITAR

Now it's a typewriter for a guitar! Such a trade was offered Alderman Carl P. Dietz of Milwaukee, who recently traded two half-barrels of beer to John A. Collins of Brownwood for an ancient typewriter. The offer was made by Miss Earlene Day, 14, of Indian Creek, according to a story in the Milwaukee Sentinel.

Following is the story of the proposed trade, as printed in the Milwaukee paper:

"Alderman Carl P. Dietz, who has arranged exchanges of beer and what have you for ancient typewriters, yesterday was offered a rare old type machine for a guitar.

"The new swap idea came from Earlene Day, 14, of Indian Creek, Texas. Earlene had read all about Dietz's work in swinging a gift of Milwaukee brew for parched Legionnaires of dry Brownwood, Texas, as a trade for a Bennett typewriter of old vintage held by a Brownwood typewriter dealer.

"Earlene explained that 'as a girl of 14 I have no use for beer, but would like to exchange my typewriter for a guitar.' Unlike the Brownwood Legionnaires whose inclinations tend toward the beer barrel spigot, Earlene described herself as 'talented musically.'"

"Meanwhile, the Legionnaires, unable to hold off their thirst until Dietz's hoped for arrival as an honor guest, decided to 'blow-out' on a supply of free Schlitz beer. Dietz explained yesterday he couldn't make the trip. 'Much as I'd like to.'"

Family Nights To Start At Queen

Family night will be observed at the Queen Theatre every Thursday night, it was announced this week. All members of one family, regardless of the number of children, will be admitted on one ticket each Thursday night.

The theatre will show two full-length features, and two or more selected comedies on family night.

THEFT OF ANVIL CHARGED

Glenn Brashear is at liberty on bond after being charged in county court with the theft of a blacksmith tongs and an anvil. The anvil was taken from Sullivan Machine Shop and the tongs from the Frisco shop. Both were recovered.

Cotton acreage in California was reduced 38 per cent for 1934-1935 according to the University of California farm advisers' service.

Life Sacrificed for Science

A martyr to science, Lucretia Wilder, above, 23-year-old Minneapolis laboratory technician, is dead because a rabbit scratched her while she was experimenting in hope of finding a cure for a mysterious disease that has affected thousands. A few drops of serum fell into the wound, infection resulted, and doctors were unable to save her.

NEXT WEEK DEADLINE FOR AUTO LICENSES

Next week will be the last opportunity to secure 1935 automobile licenses without payment of penalty. It was pointed out this week by Tax Assessor-Collector Winston Palmer. After Sunday, March 31, no automobile will be permitted to operate without 1935 license plates, and to secure a plate after that date will entail payment of penalty.

All license fees can be paid at the office of the tax collector. The grill work above the counters in this office has been removed, so that the last-minute crowds can be accommodated in this office. Up to Thursday, slightly more than 1,600 license plates had been purchased, whereas there are more than 5,000 automobiles in Brown county.

Mr. Palmer urges all automobile owners to pay their license fees the latter part of this week or the first of next week, in order to avoid the last minute rush. Payment must be in cash, no checks are accepted.

One-third of Egypt's motion picture theaters are open air establishments which come to life only in the summer and have a special appeal to the public after the heat of the day.

PIE FOR JUDGE

"Running a restaurant is as easy as pie," opines Joe Judge, former major league first baseman, who has entered the business in Washington. The old star of the Senators is shown handing out a piece of the pastry to a customer in his establishment across from the U. S. Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

J. B. HINES IS NEW KNOBLER'S SHOE MAN

J. B. Hines, expert shoe fitter, formerly of Abilene, has accepted a position with Knobler's Style Shop, Brownwood, and has assumed his duties here.

Mr. Hines is well pleased with Brownwood, and is glad of the opportunity to make his home here, he stated.

Births On Increase; Deaths Declined In 1934, Records Show

There were 42 more births and 46 less deaths last year than there were the preceding year, according to vital statistics for the city of Brownwood.

In 1933 there were 232 births recorded here, and in 1934 there were 274 births. In 1933 there were 216 deaths compared to the 170 deaths recorded in 1934.

He's all for Chinese cabbage for "greens" if you don't like spinach. Or even if you do. To grow it plant the seed in a hotbed right now and transplant to the garden about March 20. Manure the ground heavily and set the plants about a foot apart. "Best flavor in the world," he claims, recommending the doctor if you don't agree.

Too many folks are having "bad luck" about the carrots coming up. The answer is to cover the seed only with a half inch of rotted manure. This will not pack and the tiny carrot plants have a chance to come through.

BIDS TO BE ASKED ON ROAD TO PARK

Bids will be opened by the Commissioners Court Monday on grading and drainage structures on the cut-off road from the Cross Cut highway into the Lake Brownwood State Park, site of the CCC camp at the lake.

Work is expected to require about three months. The new route when completed, will bring the park to within 19 miles of Brownwood, and will open a first class all weather road over the shorter route. The present route to the park is about 33 miles.

An increase of more than 100 per cent in the number of automobile fatalities is explained by Coroner R. E. Williams of San Bernardino, Cal., as due in part to the increased carbon monoxide gas attributable to aging cars.

FIRE

*Mrs. John Jones, who resides on South Sixth Street, was awakened about 6 o'clock Tuesday morning by the crackle of flames. Looking out of her bedroom window, she saw the front of the roof of the residence of Mr. J. F. Smith was in flames. Mrs. John Jones hurried to her telephone and called Mr. Smith telling him of his danger. In the meantime, the telephone operator had notified the fire department who responded quickly and succeeded in extinguishing the flame without serious damage to Mr. Smith's residence. Once again, the telephone proved the valuable service it renders.
