SHOFFIT BASES DEFENSE ON PLEA, OFFICER FIRED THE FIRST SHOT

INSANITY PLEA DROPPED; JURY TO GET CASE TODAY

LARGEST CROWDS IN FIVE YEARS ATTEND TRIAL LASTING THREE DAYS

The greatest crowds in five years attended the trial here this week of G. W. Shoffit, veterinarian, tried on charges of assault to murder Sheriff Guy Pierce and Deputy Guy Wright in a gun battle in the front yard of the Shoffit residence last December 31.

The jury was selected Tuesday by 1 o'clock. It is composed of the following: G. Z. Sherman, S. G. Adamson, M. L. Monroe, C. E. Griggs, Tom McDougal, Oran Hoti, Ed Duncan, Jim Baker, Wilson H. Gray, Walter Morrow, Phin McMahan and W. W. Jones.

At press time, Thursday noon, the arguments were being completed and the jury expected to start deliberations in the afternoon.

W. T. Link represented the defense, while District Attorney John Deaver lead the prosecution, assisted by County Attorney R. Y. King.

The State asked conviction on the charge, conviction in which case calls for a term in the penitentiary of from two to 15 years. The defense asked acquittal, based on defendant's testimony that Deputy Wright fired the first shot on that night of last December.

State's testimony brought out that Shoffit fired at Wright first, without previous warning, after a search of the defendant's premises had been made by the two officers. The shooting took place outside the residence, in the yard. The testimony of the officers was substantiated by testimony given by Allen Jefferies who declared he heard the shots and that a shotgun was fired first. Defendant used a shotgun while the officers used their pistols. On the other hand, L. L. Cornelius said he heard the shots and that he believed a pistol shot was fired first, supporting the contention of the defendant that the officer fired first.

Shoffit, who has grown a straggly beard since being placed in jail following the shooting, was on the stand most of the

Relief Set-Up Here Detailed By Unit Head

The complete termination of CWA activities on April 1st, will place the burden of supplying relief to indigent families of Texas on the shoulders of the following programs to be conducted by the Texas Relief Commission; Work Division (Work Relief), Direct Relief, the Substance Homesteads and the Rural Rehabilitation Projects.

The successful carrying out of these programs in Donley County has entailed the creation and installation, by the Auditing Department of the Texas Relief Commission, of a materially changed accounting system. The new system, known as the Donnell Installed System of Relief Accounting, was made under the supervision of George R. Donnell, Auditor of the Commission.

Of particular interest in the new set-up is the new "Work Relief" card which will enable the administration to properly supervise the "Work Division" activities. Those unemployed, who are actually destitute and are Interest was keen Tuesday morning in the city election held that day. Many citizens were heard expressing themselves on the possible outcome. In one local grocery store a group gathered and some of them grew eloquent in their defense of stands they were taking in the race. In the afternoon others gathered around fountains in drug stores to discuss the election. In fact the interest was about as keen as that interest shown in the Shoffit trial which started the same day.

Interest among the ex-service men this week is centered in the visit here Friday of this week of State Commander L. Van Perkins. Mr. Perkins will be the honored guest at a luncheon Friday at the Antro Hotel, to which all ex-service men of the county are invited so they can meet their present commander, a very able speaker, it is said. Commander Perkins is in this section for the district convention at Panhandle.

Carl Parsons reports making a trip to Waco early in the week. He had Mrs. Parsons and their little son with him. "When we came back Monday afternoon through Fort Worth we saw all the screaming headlines about Barrow and Hamilton and the wide search for the two bandits," he says. "I told my wife if anyone tried to stop us we would stop immediately. I thought we would run into a lot of officers on the highway, especially around

Local Drive For West Texas C-C To Get Started

The drive for members for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is expected to get under way this week in Clarendon.

Odos Caraway, local business man, is a director of the regional body and will likely direct the local campaign. He will be assisted by T. D. Nored and Sam Braswell in solicitation of memberships.

"The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is worth several times what it costs us," declared Mr. Caraway. "Any time we call on them, they come to our aid. It is an organization very much worth while as, for instance, if its officials ask for something in Washington, Washington sits up and acts right now."

"Let's join the organization which has done so much for West Texas."

Local utilities, including gas, power and telephone company, have always taken a lead in buying memberships in the regional group, points out Mr. Caraway. Last year, the City of Clarendon bought a membership. Local lumber yards also have been very ready to do their part. Business men of the town, as a whole, have always co-operated to put over the membership drive each year.

Dallas C. Of C. Goodwill Train Coming May 12

Information has been received from the Dallas Chamber of Commerce that the 33rd annual Goodwill train of that group will visit Clarendon on Saturday, May 12th.

Secretary G. L. Boykin of the local C. of C. received a letter this week from Henry W. Stanley, director of the trade extension division of the Dallas organization, in which the announcement of the trip was made.

WANTS LIONS TO ELEVATE HIM TO GOVERNOR'S POST

Marion F. Peters

Lions of Clarendon are being asked to support Marion F. Peters of Midland, candidate for governor of District 2-T of Lions International. The election of district governor will be held at Colorado, Texas during the convention April 23 and 24.

Harry L. Haight, Peter's campaign manager, says if there ever has been a district governor elected from the central part of District 2-T, or within a 100-mile radius of Midland, he doesn't know about it, and he argues that it is, to the best of interest of Lionism in arousing new zeal and loyalty to get the officers from the various areas of District 2-T when men of ability like Lion Peters can be secured.

Marion F. Peters is classed as one of the outstanding Lions and civic leaders of West Texas. During his administration as president of the Midland Lions Club, attendance more than doubled. What he did for Lionism in Midland he will do for Lionism in the district, friends say. Peters knows Lionism and works at the job.

How high Marion Peters is valued by people who know him best is shown by honors shown him in Midland. He is a past president of the Lions club; re-elected a director of the Chamber

Black Shirts, But Not What You Think! Group Out At Ashtola School Form Semi-Military Organization To Put Over Practical Work-Shop And Keep 'Em In School

On last Friday morning, a representative of the NEWS, in company with County Supt. Sloan Baker visited the work-shop at the Ashtola school, housed in a building erected with CWA labor, the community furnishing the materials.

Sid Thomas is the principal of the school and originator of the work-shop project that has gained wide attention throughout this section recently.

While a brisk north wind was blowing Friday morning, the interior of the work-shop was comfortably warm.

From 9 til 10 o'clock is the work hour for students in this shop. Friday morning, one student, a lad about 17, was busy cutting hair of a small girl, using an old barber shop chair. It was learned that practically every child in the school gets haircuts at the shop, the cost to each being the whole amount of five cents. This sum is charged to help pay for materials used in the work-shop.

"We have an organization, called 'The Pirates,' which runs our shop," explained Mr. Thomas. "This group of boys manages the place. Each member takes his turn, for instance, at the barber chair, thus enabling all to be

R. J. Osenbaugh

The Spring group meeting of the Lions clubs in District No. 10 being held in this city this afternoon and night will be enlivened by the appearance of Second International Vice-President R. J. Osenbaugh of Denver, Colo.

Mr. Osenbaugh will deliver the principal address of the evening. He will be introduced by Sam M. Braswell, International Director.

In the business world in Denver, Mr. Osenbaugh is one of the outstanding leaders. His business is the manufacturing of clay products, including sewer pipe, etc. He is the sole authority for his line of manufacturers for the Rocky Mountain region.

When the International convention of Lions clubs was held in Denver in 1930, Mr. Osenbaugh was the arrangements program chairman for the affair.

He is said to be a fluent orator and will bring a real message tonight.

of Commerce for the past six years; Red Cross Roll Call leader three years; Boy Scout official; church officer for several years; Welfare association treasurer and now a director of the Relief board, and member of many committees. As manager of the West Texas Gas Co. at Midland, Peters will have time to work among the Lions Clubs of District 2-T. Vote for him it is urged.

The density of population in Texas is 22.5 persons a square mile.

STATE HEAD OF LEGION WILL BE HERE TOMORROW

L. Van Perkins

Announcement was made Tuesday night at the regular meeting of Aubyn E. Clark post American Legion that State Commander L. Van Perkins will be in Clarendon Friday for a luncheon at the noon hour at the Hotel Antro.

Post Commander G. L. Boykin asks all ex-service men to be present and to meet their commander who is on his way to the district convention to be held at Canadian on Saturday and Sunday. A large delegation from Clarendon will attend the district meet and will go prepared to ask the convention for this city next year.

The luncheon is at 12 o'clock. Buddies are asked to be on time.

PREACHER FAILS TO TURN OTHER CHEEK; SHOOTS

Just at press time, word was received from Hedley that a man, said to be a preacher, had fired two wild shots at Former Night-Watchman Reed of that community.

The affair started in a quarrel, says Sheriff Guy Pierce who investigated. It appears Reed slapped the preacher and the latter backed off, reaching for his gun and allegedly firing it a couple of times.

NORTH-SOUTH HIGHWAY GROUP PLAN NEW ROAD

SOUTH END TOWNS STRONG TO GET ACTION TOWARD ROAD THROUGH HERE

"The Extension of Highway 18 and 88 Association" is the name of a new organization for better highways formed at a meeting held yesterday morning at Turkey.

Upon invitation from County Commissioner Roy Russell, Mayor J. B. McCarley and J. W. Watson of Turkey, a committee of Clarendon citizens, including T. D. Nored, P. B. Gentry, Homer Mulkey and Frank Whitlock, journeyed to Turkey for the meeting.

Enthusiasm and much interest was shown by the folks living at Turkey, Matador, Roaring Springs and Spur in the proposal to work for a better highway leading from Pampa south through Clarendon, Lakeview, Turkey, Matador and Spur, the delegates report on their return. They also report definite plans were discussed at the meeting.

The delegates from here report a sumptuous feed was served them at the noon hour. Officers of the new association are: Clifford Jones of Spur, president; J. B. McCarley of Turkey, vice-president, and D. L. Granberry, secretary.

CITY VOTERS FOR NEW EFFORTS TO LOWER BURDENS

TOM F. CONNALLY AND HARRY BRUMLEY GIVEN BIG VOTE

Culminating a campaign void of personalities, yet intensive with the idea of getting lower taxes, lower gas rates and a general cutting of all city expenses, Harry C. Brumley and Tom F. Connally were given heavy majorities for the offices of city commissioner Tuesday.

The total vote was 577, or practically the entire voting population of the city of Clarendon.

Tom F. Connally led the ticket with 350, with Harry C. Brumley coming in second place with 346. These two comprised the new ticket. The two old commissioners, Joe Holland and A. L. Chase, received, respectively, 269 and 188 votes.

The vote was so great it took the judges an hour and nearly a half to check the small ballot. The two new city fathers expect to qualify at a meeting of the city commission on next Monday afternoon. Both declared the people know the platform on which they made the race and they are determined to carry out their campaign promises.

Their joint statement, issued on March 15, when they announced, follows: "We are making this race for the following reasons: We want to give the people of Clarendon some relief from the present excessive tax rate, an exorbitant water rate, high gas, utilities and phone rates, also a rather expensive city administration. If elected, we promise our best efforts to secure a reduction in all of the above charges.

"If elected, we promise, without reservation, that we will reduce the tax rate, we will reduce the water rate, and most positively we will reduce the expense of the city administration."

It was on the strength of this promise the people voted so over-

OSENBAUGH TO BE PRESENTED HERE TONIGHT

OVER 100 OUTSIDE DELE- GATES EXPECTED THIS AFTERNOON

Everything is in readiness for the big Spring group meeting of the Lions clubs of District No. 10 at the Antro Hotel in this city this (Thursday) afternoon and night.

With at least 100 out-of-town delegates and guests and their wives expected, the local Lions club, under President T. D. Nored has the "pot boiling" and the ladies out for dishing out plenty of entertainment as well as substance for the material welfare of the inner man.

The highlight of the session will be the appearance here of International Second Vice-President R. J. Osenbaugh of Denver, Colorado, scheduled to arrive at the noon hour. He will be met by a reception committee from the local club immediately on his arrival.

Delegates and delegations from Pampa, Miami, Claude, McLean, Amarillo, Childress and other points will begin arriving shortly after noon and continue until the hour of convening the session, 6 o'clock. The business session to be held in the Legion Hall will be presided over by Group Chairman T. A. Landers of McLean. Visiting ladies will be provided special entertainment during the hour of the business session.

The banquet will be held at 7:30 in the private dining hall of the Antro Hotel. The program there will include a welcome address by Tom F. Connally, the response by Past District Governor Hubert Walker of Pampa, introduction of visiting delegations, including District Secretary Olin Hinkle of Pampa, Deputy District Governor Arch Blanton of Childress and Group Chairman T. A. Landers. A juvenile song-dance will be given by Master Manley Bryan, followed by a male quartet from McLean and possibly one from Pampa; the address of the evening by Mr. Osenbaugh and a one-act play by a group from the Clarendon Business & Professional Women's club, entitled "Be a Little Cuckoo". President Nored will be toastmaster.

New Gain Made In Deposits By County's Banks

Once again, Donley county banks show a gain in deposits over the last previous call.

However, they also show a gain in loans this time over the condition as of January 1.

The four banks of the county, the First National, Donley County and Farmers' State of this city and the Security State Bank of Hedley, have a total of $911,224.01 deposits as of the last call, March 5th, just made public last week.

While loans climbed, the total is at a low ebb, considering the time of the year. The present total for the four banks is $473,388.59, as compared to $440,780.06 on last December 31st.

The excellent conditions of the banks can be gleaned when you recall that their total loans mounted to $511,371.54 on Dec. 31, 1932 and total deposits at that time of only $636,281.13.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Boomer were Sunday visitors in the W. W. Taylor home.

THE GOOD CITIZEN WILL CO-OPERATE

Regardless of how he voted in Tuesday's city election the good citizen will cheerfully lend his co-operation to the new commissioners elected, who with the mayor will direct the affairs of Clarendon after next Monday. It is a trite saying that every man has full right and control of his own vote and how he voted is his personal business, but after the election is over, then the public welfare demands his co-operation in every project for the betterment of our municipality.

Happily, there were little or no personalities in Tuesday's election, and probably the best pleased men in town over the results are the two retiring commissioners who have given lavishly of their own time and effort for the public, sometimes at a personal loss.

The newly elected commissioners should have the sympathy and support of all good citizens, who ought to remember that they cannot perform miracles, and even at best cannot do all they have hoped to do. Holding public office is like that—and most of us have learned that our favorite chosen candidates rarely come up to what we had hoped, and those we have opposed usually make better records than we had predicted.

Our main objective should be the welfare of Clarendon, and to that end we all ought to give of our effort and staunch support.

"Good luck," gentlemen.

CENTENNIAL COMMISSION GETS DOWN TO BUSINESS

After many long months of marking time with many disappointments, a Commission to set up and direct the Texas Centennial has set to work on the authority and meagre funds provided by the last special session of the legislature.

Anyway, the Commission is getting under way to do the best they can with the funds available, and it is high time, for if Texas is to have a Centennial to reflect the true history and development of the state, with a clear disclosure of its resources, there is no time to lose with 1936 so close at hand.

Fore one The News does not believe that the Centennial should be one of those parambulating kangaroo affairs, being set up in various sections of Texas a few weeks at a time. We believe the purpose of the Centennial can only be served by setting it up in some historic Texas city with an advertised schedule of from six to twelve months duration.

Let's have an adequate Centennial. Let's have a Centennial of proportions and duration worthy of the name, fame and greatness of Texas.

STOCK EXCHANGE CONTROL

Counsel for the New York stock exchange contends that congress has not the constitutional power to regulate or control the stock market regardless of "abuses and conduct" of that institution which practically wrecked the country in 1929 and 1931, brought on bank failures, caused the loss of savings of hundreds of thousands "ordinary folks," brought poverty, suffering and suicide to other thousands, threw insurance companies, railroads and huge industrial concerns into bankruptcy and failure, stagnated business and commerce, threw millions out of work and wrought a chaotic condition from which it will take years to recover. If congress has not the right to pass the laws to regulate and control an institution that wields such influence, we might just as well throw up the sponge and hand the country over to the Wall street gamblers.—Eagle, Red Wing, Minn.

Intelligence is what you get from home. Common sense you must develop yourself. Learning is what you obtain in school. Knowledge is what the world hands you. Judgement comes only with the years. Experience is a bitter medicine administered by life itself, and must be taken with a bit of conscience. Wisdom is a phantom often chased but seldom overtaken. Success or failure are a matter of opinion. Reputation is the golden scale. Contentment the final objective.

Business Report, American Federation of Labor: "If deflation had run its course, half our population might be starving today."

Probably murderers who take their own lives are tired of waiting for the law to do it.—Kingsville Record.

ABUSE OF THE LAW

At a recent annual meeting of the American Bar Association it was openly admitted by prominent members that public confidence in the courts and their administration of the law is being steadily weakened.

A report was adopted denouncing "the growing prevalence of the use of expert witnesses with their conflicting testimony." This referred particularly to the use of alienists in criminal cases, where experts may always be secured to testify that the accused is insane, provided he has the money to employ them.

As a matter of fact, lawyers in convention very frequently criticize the prevailing method of criminal procedure, but so far they have done very little to correct it.

Legislators are also to blame for the present state of affairs, but as most legislators are lawyers the responsibility still rests almost wholly upon the legal profession.

By the passage of innumerable laws regulating everything under the sun, and imposing upon peace officers the task of enforcing trivial and often foolish statutes, the perpetrator of major crimes such as murder and robbery have all the better chance to escape punishment. If more attention were given to the prevention and punishment of these serious offenses, it might be possible to reduce their number.—Leader, Wellington, Texas.

U. S. MILEPOSTS:

DECISIONS of the United States supreme court in the New York milk control law case and the Minnesota mortgage moratorium case are mileposts pointing the way to a more liberal trend in government.

Anyone who has read about the life backgrounds and the previous decisions of members of the supreme court knows that there has been a strong tendency toward conservatism on the supreme bench. There seemed to be a trend against an extension of government control in business, as was evidenced in the decision several years ago against an Oklahoma law regulating operation of ice plants.

In the two recent decisions, the majority of the court recognized that there can be no government which does not act primarily in the public interest. In each case, the decision recognizes that the state had the right to use forceful legislation to meet emergencies. In one case the execution of valid contracts was stayed. In the other prices were fixed for milk.

Since the police power of the state has been held equal to cope with these emergencies, it is believed likely that similar powers for the federal government would be sustained.—Daily Transcript, Norman, Okla.

Bring taxes down, adapt them to the ability of the business and the individual to pay—and watch recovery go into high.

People who count nothing but money as a thing worth while will some day wake up and realize that there are other things.

What a world! If a politician finds jobs for relatives, that's wicked, if he finds jobs for friends that's gratitude.—Corpus Christi Sun.

OIL BOOTLEGGERS on the RUN!

Sinclair dealers here drive out oil bootleggers with New TAMPER-PROOF can

Do you want some other motorist's crankcase drainings poured into your engine when you've ordered a reputable brand of motor oil? Are you satisfied with an inferior oil when you've paid good money for a high quality product?

Some authorities estimate that as much as 25% of all motor oil sold today is "bootleg" — cheap, shoddy stuff masquerading as some famous brand. Many devices have been invented to defeat it—but none so bootleg-proof as that now adopted by Sinclair dealers here—the new Sinclair Tamper-Proof Motor Oil can. These cans are refinery-sealed either with Sinclair Opaline Motor Oil, "mellowed 80 million years", or Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil, "mellowed a hundred million years". In serving you, the Sinclair dealer opens them before your eyes—smashing the empty can beyond all repair. You can't help getting the Sinclair Motor Oil you asked for—as pure and free from contamination as when it was refined.

Ask for Sinclair Opaline and Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oils in the Tamper-Proof cans. This service costs you nothing extra.

Legion Pushes Centennial Seal Campaign Here

C. E. Sloan of Childress, member of the Texas Department of the American Legion set-up in the sale of Texas Centennial stamps, is spending several days in Donley County this week in the interest of the work.

The stamps, or seals, are sold through school children. Some 50,000 were sold in Childress County last week. The seals sell for half a cent each. Mr. Sloan works through the school officials. He has 53 counties in his allotted territory to cover, which will take him until June.

Meeting with the Aubyn E. Clark Post of the American Legion Tuesday night, Mr. Sloan secured their authority to promise the school in Donley county which sells the greatest number of the Centennial seals a big fine $8 Texas flag, made of Texas wool by Texas war veterans. Also the Post will give to the individual boy or girl who sells the greatest number of the seals a special cash award.

"Money derived from the sale of the seals goes to Austin, not a penny of it being used for the expenses involved by myself," said Mr. Sloan.

A showing of the flags of the world will be made at the Fink building on Main Street all this week, as part of the seal campaign.

TWENTY ARTISTS ENACT ALCOTT'S "LITTLE WOMEN"

One of the greatest casts of this or any other season has been chosen by RKO-Radio Pictures to enact in the tempo and spirit of the times the Louisa M. Alcott epic of girlhood, "Little Women."

Katherine Hepburn, RKO-Radio's zooming star, was selected to carry on the fire and fame of Jo, the tomboy of the story.

Joan Bennett is Amy, the "snow maiden, with the blue eyes and hair curling over her shoulders."

Frances Dee is Meg, flirtatious and charming.

Jean Parker is Beth, the sister with a shy manner, a timid voice and a peaceful expression. For the masculine half of the cast are players of a similar stellar magnitude—Paul Lukas is Fritz Baher, the quaint professor who finally wins Jo; Douglas Montgomery is Laurie, the rich boy next door; Henry Stephenson is Mr. Laurence, the grumpy neighbor whose bark is worse than his bite. John Davis Lodge is Brooks, who marries Meg. Samuel Hinds is Mr. March.

Of course you have been waiting to hear who won the role of Aunt March. And that selection by RKO-Radio is a gem, too, for it's Edna May Oliver. Spring Byington is Marmee, Mabel Cord is Hannah and Nydia Westman is Mammie.

The favorite story of the laughs and tears of an ideal American home has been kept true to the pages millions have

C., that Federal land bank loans and land bank commissioner's loans will be made in the future through the Federal land bank bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, which bonds are guaranteed by the United States Government both as to principal and interest, which will be at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum for the bonds to be issued at this time. These bonds will take the place of the cash distribution in the disbursement of the unclosed loans previously approved by the Federal land banks.

The bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, according to the statement by Governor Myers, will have behind them not only the unconditional guarantee of the Federal Government as to both principal and interest, and the capital of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation amounting to about $200,000,000, but also the consolidated bonds of the Federal land banks issued in exchange for bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation and the mortgages accepted by the land bank commissioner as security for loans.

Governor Myers assured Secretary Killough that the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds will be an attractive investment. "They will be as readily marketable as bonds of the United States Government and they will be quoted in all of the principal markets," he continued. "Holders who have to dispose of these bonds should not sell them without first ascertaining their real market value."

"These bonds will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, and $1,000. However, amounts less than $100 will be disbursed in cash. For example, a loan of $965 would be made in a $500 bond, four $100 bonds and the rest in cash. In addition, to provide for certain debts, such as taxes which cannot be paid in bonds, cash covering the required amounts will be provided."

"Loans which have been applied for and approved, but on which the cash has not been paid out, as well as those approved by the bank in the future, will be financed on the above basis. This arrangement in no way disturbs or alters the other provisions of the loans. The interest rate on new loans will continue to be 4 1/2 per cent. for the emergency period when made through a national farm loan association and 5 per cent. when made directly by the bank."

Recently in a Sunday News statistics on crime were released by the Federal government. Of the seven major crimes, including homicide rape, arson, automobile theft, high jacking, Texas ranked sixth among the states. Per one million population, 35,000 crimes were committed. Assuming 6,000,000 as the population of Texas, 210,000 major crimes were committed within our state.

In a recent survey of the young people of fifteen through twenty years of age, the Sociology class gathered some information concerning the way students spend their leisure time. This survey covers the criminal ages, the ages of seventeen, eighteen nineteen and twenty.

At least ninety-five percent of those interviewed said that they felt that Clarendon did not offer profitable places for spending leisure time. Seventy-five percent said that their parents and their elders were not interested, half-hearted or vitally, in what manner of amusement was offered the children. The statistics revealed that ninety percent of the students spend their time loafing.

When we ask ourselves the question "What sort of amusement does Clarendon offer her youth," we reply that Clarendon has a movie and a public library. Yet is it sufficient that Clarendon has only one center of amusement, and will the average youth spend all his leisure time in the public library?

Scouting

(By the Scribe)
At the last regular court of honor we had some trouble in finding enough committeemen, but court was held and a large number of merit badges were recommended. The passing president of court announced that he would try to have the district executive present at our next court of honor.

The scribe would like to say for the troop that they do appreciate Brother Shepherd. Starting a Scout may not impress some of the first generation, but the Scouts in tropp 37 consider the chartering of their troop as a legal holiday and in time tropp 38 will feel the same way.

It is about time to do some of the much talked of, and needed, hiking. According to Dr. Jones E. West, our M. B. C., all troops should have a minimum of at least one our-door meeting or hike each month. The Dr. suggested that do the matter properly we should have a hike every two weeks. The point is this: Scouts of Clarendon plan to hike to Canyon this summer, and besides meeting the requirements of the equipment clause they must be physically able to hike. Through numerous short hikes they will learn to care for themselves on long hikes.

Alpha Delta Psi's Have Picnic

Wednesday, March 28, the Alpha Deltans enjoyed another of their famous picnics at Troublesome. After many sputters, the borrowed truck stopped, "never to go again". No, that is wrong, for after extracting several vital organs, cleaning them, and replacing them, the truck moved on with renewed energy. After repeated so-called stops and starts, the vehicle, with its thirty occupants, arrived at the scene of action. Hurried scrambles up the "falls" gave vent to some of the heretofore confined energy of the Alpha Deltans. A roaring fire was made, over which the picnickers roasted weiners. Everyone consumed numerous hot-dogs of their own making that fairly melted in their mouths. Enormous pickles gave just the right tang to the already delicious food. As soon as the stickiness was removed from the hands of some of the party in the falls, they departed on a game of follow-the-leader. Honks from the almost ever ready truck brought the playful ones back, and the journey back to town was made in peaceful solitude, because everyone was too full to be otherwise.

Palo Duro Society

A large number of the Palo Durans assembled in the club room last Wednesday night for one of the most interesting and unique programs of the year. Mike Stricklin, prominent Palo Duran, entertained the audience with one of his original short stories. This was very much enjoyed, and the presentation of such splendid local talent was greatly appreciated.

Frances Sanford Entertained Friends

A small group of young people met at the home of Frances Sanford, Friday evening for one of the most enjoyable events of the week. Everyone enjoyed himself immensely.

Dancing and candy making furnished the amusement for the evening. Those attending this enjoyable affair were:

new States entered the Union. Among the new equipment I notice esome new, all metal, Bridgeport oves. Now that it is time for hiking it might be well to re-read the information in your hand book about snakes and remember that a rattle-snake can only strike the distance that his head is reared from the ground.

A big hand for the new tropp 38! These Scouts meet at the Methodist Church at 7:30 on each Thursday evening.

Now that there are two troops, I imagine there will be a great deal of interest in Scouting. Already I have seen several Scouts and Leaders that looked a little bothered.

LA SALAMANCA

If any of you folks hear your friends talking about how they enjoyed the choral singing Friday night, I'll bet they said they enjoyed the Spanish songs best of all.

Although I suppose most of the audience failed to undertan Spanish, their actions proved that they really enjoyed the songs which were "La Escuela" and "Tres Perritos."

The third year class of La Salamanca wishes to thank the public for the many compliments they have given us, and we would be more than glad to sing at any time we are called upon.

Methodist Leaguers Entertained Sunday

The members of the Methodist worth League assembled in the basement of the Methodist church Sunday morning, April 1, at 6:45 for a short Easter program. The subject for the service was taken from Dickens' "Life of Our Lord." Leading parts were given by Louise Smith and Ardis Patman, after which Mrs. Gattis, the League sponsor, gave a fitting conclusion.

Following the service the young people went to the home of Mrs. Gattis for a delicious sunrise breakfast which several girls of the League had prepared. Those attending were: Misses Dorothy Powell, Nellie Grady, Sarah McGowan, Mary Frances Powell, Rosa Lee Grady, Dorothy Kerbow, Vivian Taylor, Dorothy Fay Scoggins, Jane Kerbow, Louise Smith, Frances Sanford, Laverne McMurtry, Pauline Betts, Ruby Dell Scoggins, and Mary Beth McClung of Amarillo. Messers Sam Barrow, Walter Brady, Harold Gattis, Ardis Patman, Aubrey Brady, Houston Grady, Wesley Powell, Herman Gattis, Thomas Clayton, Ralph Gattis, and the genial hostess, Mrs. Gattis.

Kieuawa Camp Fire

The Kieuawa Camp Fire Troop entertained their camp fire little sisters with a picnic Saturday morning. It was enjoyed very much, and although the weather was quite chilly we had lots of fun roaming the hills looking for easter eggs. This spring weather is taking us back to child-hood, it seems. After hiking to the hills and hunting for eggs, we were very glad to get something to eat. We enjoyed sandwiches and ice cream cones before starting the hike homeward.

The troop will meet again on Wednesday afternoon and all the members are requested to come.

Juniors And Sophs Have Picnic Friday

The Junior and Sophomore classes left Friday afternoon immediately after school for the Word Ranch on their annual celebration. There were so many enthusiastic picnickers among the members of the two classes that three trucks were required to transport them to the picnic site.

Upon arrival, a modern version of Show Boat was given by three young ladies; although it lacked the color of the "Ziegfeld" production of the same name, it unquestionably expressed as many exciting moments. More enterprising book makers were willing to call bets either that the boat and its attractive crew would or would not be able to disembark without pre-week-end abolution.

The next event was a game called "Capture the Flag." "Heavy" set this off by running through a board fence; however, it did not hurt him much—just a few skins. Then the boys just would not be satisfied without some football—the ball used was an old tin can and the girls pep-squad was on the barn which made a swell bleacher. But if I were you I would not ask who won, because no one knows.

Later, to everyone's delight, each was given a sack containing food. Then each went his way to eat. After this everyone was compelled to walk to the first gate. With the exception of a few whistling contests carried on by the boys, all were glad to ride peacefully home.

Junior High News

Let's go to work! I think we can all stand a little bit of it. Some of us, in fact, all of us, started in at the beginning of school with a lot of vim and vitality, ready to set the world on fire. But some of us failed work and try to pass all our to do it. Let us all get down to subjects. Just think how much nicer it will be to sit on the stage and receive a diploma than to sit in the audience, unable to take part because we did not

Centennial Work Goes Forward

A special assembly was called last Tuesday at which time Mr. Sloan, traveling speaker for the Texas Centennial movement, made an appeal to the students of the high school to help in the Centennial movement.

The speaker explained that the building of a large museum at Austin had been decided upon as the method of celebrating the Centennial, and that it was to be financed by the selling of stamps, similar to tuberculosis seals, and the selling of Centennial fifty-cent pieces for a dollar each. Mr. Sloan urged the different classes of the high school to help sell the stamps for two reasons: the money that they may make, which is one-third of the total amount sold, and more important to help make this patriotic movement a success.

The speaker also told the students that everyone over ten in the school, as well as all other schools over the state, is to sign his or her name on the sheet of paper which will be placed in the new museum for future generations.

Friday night the Interscholastic Meet was ended with the presentation of the one-act plays and choruses. The Junior High Choral Club won second place in the choruses. Every member of the club did very well, and we are proud of all of them.

Junior High students won merit at the county track meet held Wednesday afternoon. We are proud to boast of some very good athletes such as Doyle Adams, who won four honors in running and jumping, and Ralph Grady, who came out winner in three events. The relay team from Junior High won first in its class. The boys composing the team were Truett Holtzclaw, Ralph Grady, Eugene Butler, and Eugene Walls. All of these participants are hoping to win again in the district track meet.

Among visitors to Memphis Sunday were: Willard Skelton, Kennedy Davis, Eugenia Noland, Dorothy Jo Ryan, JoElla Stewart.

Notes From A Convenient Cuff

(By the Inquiring Reporter)

Seeing the sun shining through rain always reminds me of the sharp brilliant but scathing sarcasm which perfades this book, "Rain", which I have just finished. I had seen the screen version but there were so many changes from the original copy it was hard to connect the two. The movie version was glassed over and some of the edges taken from the sarcasm but the original copy left nothing to the imagination.

There has been a complete mixup in our movie schedule; running features on Thursday and Friday and a Wednesday night show at reduced rates. Sounds good eh, what? Features come thick and fast, first Louisa Mae Alcott's immortal "Little Women", "Flying Down To Rio", which by the way I have already seen and I urgently advise all of you to see it.

Did I ever steer you wrong on a dance? I did not. I told you that Jimmie Redmond was good and I didn't fool anybody, did I? I prophesied a good orchestra and, by golly, we got it. Coming back a week from Friday with a brand new idea which I'll tell you about in my next week's column.

Watchful Waiting

At six-five a girl—this is just any girl—extracted her best sport dress from the closet and slowly started dressing for the date made last Sunday night after church. At two minutes past seven the same girl sat, perfectly groomed, in the living room with her finger nail file and a domestic magazine to wait nonchalantly until the new boy friend should call. He said he would be there at seven-fifteen, and the girl was listening expectantly for his knock. At seven-twenty a coat and hat lay primly on a chair, and the girl was calling Central for the correct time; she refused to believe the two-dollar clock rather than the boy friend's punctuality. Central assured the anxious girl that her clock was not more than two minutes slow. Could anything have happened to him? Maybe he was only joking about the date. She hadn't seen him since Sunday, and the boys usually came around to verify their dates at least during the interim. But the dominant impression on her mind was that someone had given him the pineapple and taken his money—and their show tickets. With every new thought of a catastrophe she filed on her nails more vigorously. At seven-forty-five she arose to put more powder on her face, and looking at the image in the mirror, consoled herself that she looked none the worse for all the harrassing worry of the last half hour. Eight o'clock found the girl twirling the leaves of a maga-

There was a small attendance at Sunday School Sunday because of sick folks. Let us try to have a big attendance next Sunday, as Bro. Williams will fill his regular appointment. If we don't more of us attend our Sunday School is going to be a failure. We have a big sick list at present. Mrs. J. A. Pool and Mrs. J. D. Wood have been real sick, but are some better at this writing. The N. B. Watson family have all zine. She found a short verse that looked interesting and paused nervously to read it.

"Of course after loving you I must have pain, For after the sunshine we must have rain, All things can't be right, Somethings must be wrong, Even the bird after his song. Perhaps I, too, shall soon forget And be just as happy as Before we met."

That was just what she was thinking; she would say those lines to him when she saw him again, she thought half angrily. Well, why shouldn't she be angry? The sound of brakes sent her flying to the window; from the corner of the shade she saw a truck pull up next door. In dismay the girl returned to the magazine and hated herself for being made a ninny by a silly boy. She certainly would never assent to another date a week ahead of time. Her rage increased during the next few minutes. She flung the innocent magazine from her and, jerking up her unnecessary wraps, started upstairs, slamming doors behind her. Her mother called out to find what the noise was all about. The furious girl cried, "I'm going to bed." This is the first time in my life I . . . " A sound of hurried steps, then a frantic knocking at the front door caused her to leave the sentence unfinished. She dolefully walked downstairs, planted her coat on a chair, and turned on the porch light. Opening the door, she smiled sweetly, "Come in."

CONOCO INTRODUCES A Remarkable new MOTOR OIL

Its lower consumption and greater protection to motors proved by the most convincing test ever made!

THIS new oil has a tremendously increased "film strength"—and a penetrative oiliness to always protect your motor. The "Hidden Quart" never leaves a dry spot or a bearing without lubrication—it resists dilution—and eliminates much trouble caused by carbon and sludge.

The process which gives these exclusive new features is protected by recent U. S. patents. Conoco refines a high quality paraffin base oil and then adds the extra oiliness that is absolutely necessary to obtain the protection and low consumption every motorist should demand.

New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil excels in the most convincing test ever made, under the supervision of the AAA Contest Board.

IN presenting New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil you are furnished facts of performance. You will at once be convinced of the direct value of this new oil. A test so dramatic, so honest, that it will go down in history!

This test was held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association supervised all details, thus assuring an unbiased opinion. Six new regular stock cars were delivered direct to them. They tested and measured each to obtain an equal condition in all.

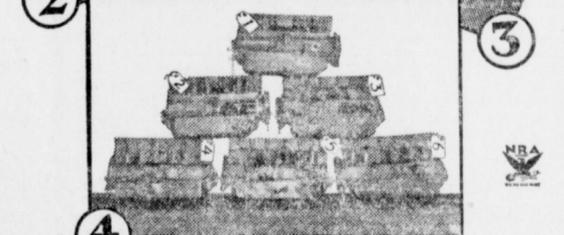

Six brands of motor oil, of the same S. A. E. grade, were used. Five of them, all purchased by the AAA on the open market, were nationally known, widely recognized leaders. The other one was New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. All cars were then carefully broken in for 2500 miles. Five quarts, a new and complete fill, were put in each car and the crankcases sealed. Then the real battle for supremacy began. The cars were driven for as long as the motors continued to operate.

Here are the results: Oil No. 4 quit at 1713.2 miles; Oil No. 6 quit at 1764.4 miles; Oil No. 5 wrecked the motor at 1815.9; Oil No. 1 ceased its lubricative protection at 2266.8 miles; and Oil No. 3 at 3318.8 miles.

New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil carried on to a total 4729 miles! Over three thousand miles farther than the first oil to go out, and over fourteen hundred miles farther than the final oil of the five!

It is the Germ Processing principle, only used by Conoco, that won the test. This "Hidden Quart" lubricates all parts at all times—that stays up in your motor and never drains away. Drive into a Conoco Station or Dealer for a fill. You are getting the most in lubrication value that money can buy.

AAA Sanction No. 3001

- 1 The Representatives of the Contest Board of the AAA who supervised every detail of the test.
- 2 Five quarts of each brand of oil were carefully put in the cars by AAA officials.
- 3 The official sealing of crankcases after final fill of five quarts was put in.
- 4 These were new motors before the test. They were wrecked to prove to you how to protect yours.

Warning TO NEW CAR OWNERS . . .
Some car manufacturers are using new types of bearings which will stand greater pressures and temperatures, resulting from increased power and speed. New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has been exhaustively tested on these new bearings. The results show that it gives them greater protection against damage than many straight mineral oils now on the market.
Protect your new car by using the motor oil you can be sure of.

The only low-priced car with fully-enclosed Knee-Action Wheels and what a difference that makes in performance and dependability

Simple as a Shock Absorber!
Chevrolet's "fully enclosed" Knee-Action is, in reality, a gigantic shock absorber, built solidly on to Chevrolet's big, heavy frame, with the front wheel solidly anchored to the "shock absorber" arm. The result: When the front wheel comes in contact with a bump or hole, it rises or falls to absorb the shock.

A smooth, restful, gliding ride . . . a bounceless back seat . . . a new feeling of safety and relaxation in high-speed or rough-road travel. All these pleasures are yours with Knee-Action wheels. And if your car has enclosed Knee-Action, like Chevrolet's, you not only get this gliding ride at its best, you also get two other extra advantages. One of these is shock-proof steering. And the other is dependable operation. The patent rights on this special kind of Knee-Action are held exclusively by General Motors. That's why no other low-priced car has it. Also, no other has a Fisher body, cable-controlled brakes, or a Blue-Flame engine of unsurpassed economy.

Shoffit—

day Wednesday. His answers to questions by both defense and prosecution attorneys were, at times, so involved and lengthy that Judge A. J. Fires would interrupt to make him cut them short.

Shoffit, however, persisted in giving all the extenuating details, thus prolonging the time he was on the stand.

Witnesses for the State were frequently questioned Tuesday afternoon on what they knew of Shoffit's alleged communing with spirits, particularly the spirit of Sam Bass. Dr. Oscar Jenkins, on cross-examination by the defense, refused to qualify as an expert and pass on the sanity of the defendant. However, the defense dropped this line of questioning Wednesday and probed to the fullest for all details in connection with the visit to the Shoffit home by the two officers which resulted in the shooting. It was brought out that defendant also was wounded in the exchange of shots. Deputy Wright was critically wounded, being carried to an Amarillo hospital for treatment.

Defendant Shoffit admitted, in both direct and cross-examination testimony, that he and a friend had a "little drink" that night before the officers arrived. Testimony tended to prove the officers searched the "visitor" before the latter got away and took a bottle and a gun off his person. Much discussion was had on both sides as to remark by defendant to his visitor, when the latter started to leave, that he (Shoffit) "would have plenty tomorrow morning and come back." Shoffit declares he meant medicine and the state contends he meant whisky. It also was brought out, several times, that defendant was given a four-year suspended sentence in a whisky case last year. Defendant, on the other hand, testified he "had been molested and harassed by the officers from time to time without cause." State introduced one witness who testified Shoffit had made threats on the lives of the officers.

Many women and some children were in the courtroom all during the trial. Standing room was at a premium throughout. Judge Fires at various times warned the younger element of the crowd to remain quiet so the testimony could be heard.

on new member applications. One black ball will keep a member out.

"We have strict military discipline," added Mr. Thomas. "We have one boy who was elected as captain of the crew. We meet regularly each Wednesday night for the secret work of the order. We usually attend school events in uniform, so we decided at our Wednesday night meetings just what we want to wear if we expect to go anywhere during the week."

Mr. Thomas declares his little organization and his work-shop has caused all of his older boys to remain in school whereas, he believes, some of them would have been dropping out of school if they had not found an interest in this feature of school life.

"We have hopes of carrying several of the boys, in a body, to Canyon another year where they can continue their school work, some attending high school and others entering regular college work," said this natural-born leader of boys.

The NEWS believes Mr. Thomas knows boys, particularly the boy of high school age. His work and the result speak for themselves.

physically able to work, after a thorough investigation has been made definitely establishing their relief needs, will be given the opportunity to work and earn up to their estimated relief need requirements. This work card is so designed to limit the payrolls to the actual relief requirements for each particular individual employed. Pay to persons not eligible for relief, or to relief clients in excess of the requirements of the individual family will not be approved in Austin. The new work card, though simple in form, will permit the definite placing of responsibility and indictate who is at fault if a client is allowed to earn from relief funds more than his relief budget requirements.

Staff Auditors, J. M. Ralston and W. C. Orr, Jr., of the Texas Relief Commission announced Monday, that a thorough study had been made of the Donley County Relief problems and the new system installed. G. L. Boykin will take charge of the new set-up here effective April 1st, as certifying officer under R. A. Baker, Administrator.

The new relief set-up to be used in this county has the specific approval of Washington officials, and it is believed that Kansas and Oklahoma, who recently sent officials to Austin to confer with State Relief officials and to study the Texas relief accounting set-up, may install this system in their own respective states.

Chief Auditor Donnell emphasizes that this is a relief program, not a project program. Under the CWA, group employment was provided which approximated current business wages, whereas the present relief program can only apply relief to the destitute. When the building of roads, schoolhouse construction or other projects takes the place of the first objective, that of giving relief, the relief program has gone astray, and such expenditures constitute an erroneous expenditure of funds according to the terms of the Relief Act under which relief funds are made available.

Jim Mahan, former district attorney, and now a practicing attorney of Childress, was in Clarendon Tuesday afternoon on an unofficial visit to the court here.

Praise for Donley County citizenship is given by District Judge A. J. Fires, who told the NEWS man the other day he knows of no finer citizenship than this county has as a whole.

This week we received a copy of the catalogue of the coming seventh annual Texas-Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show to be held in Plainview on April 16-19. In the catalogue we found listed among the directors the name of G. L. Boykin, secretary of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce. The show will feature a boys' 4-H club contest, dairy calf club show and Jersey, Guernsey and Holstein-Friesian departments. It ought to be a real show.

In perusing the exchanges this week, we find Shamrock weekly Texan changes to "Shamrock Daily Texan." The change was made on Monday of this week. Those boys are taking on a real job over there. It'll take long hours and lots of perspiration, boys. And it may take a few worries. But we're betting on you. Shamrock has a small oil boom on just now. Several new wells have been brought in 5 miles east of the city.

C. F. Sloan of Childress is here this week in Texas Department of the American Legion centennial campaign. Mr. Sloan admits he kept one of the most complete diaries of the late World War. In spite of orders, he carried a small vest-pocket camera with him throughout two years spent in France and has over 100 actual photographs, unsensored, today for his trouble. His diary ought to be worth thousands. He admits he wouldn't take $10,000 for it and part with the original. Incidentally, Mr. Sloan was wounded twice, once with a bayonet thrust through his left hand and the other time with a machine gun bullet thru his heel. "But the worst injury I received was is playing football after the War was over," he added. He busted his right foot one day in punting, his toe striking a small stub in the ground. That foot hurts him today, he adds.

STAMFORD FOLKS PRAISE WORK OF EVANGELIST NEAL

A communication was received this week from Stamford commending the work of Rev. Frank M. Neal of Amarillo as an evangelist and the results accomplished in a revival he held recently at Stamford.

Rev. Neal begins a week's revival at the Methodist church here next Sunday.

The communication follows, in full:

March 30, 1934
Board of Stewards
Methodist Church
Clarendon, Texas

Dear Brethren:
We understand Bro. Frank M. Neal is coming to you to hold a revival meeting soon, and out of hearts of gratitude for what he has done for and in St. John's Church in Stamford, we wish to precede him with this word of commendation and counsel.

Our Church has never had such a revival of spiritual life as he has brought us in this meeting. Frank will do the same for your church if your officials and departments will go along with him, for he is divinely led. No doubt of it.

We say this because of his uncompromising methods. He practically scared us all to death by his strong condemnation of sin and of indifferent, half-baked church members. We got the jitters for fear he would run off half the church and offend the other denominations. He didn't and is closing out with an old-time sweeping Methodist revival. And best of all, it is such that it will continue to be for months to come.

Frank is not the kind of evangelist who will bring you a revival ready-made, but if you will have faith in him and his methods and in his God he serves so zealously, and will work and pray, we have no doubts of the results you will have in your revival campaign. We commend him to you most heartily with our prayers and that you may accomplish great things under his leadership.

R. C. Thomas, Lay Leader.
C. T. Dodson, Adult Sup't.
R. A. Bible, Chairman Board of Stewards.
R. B. Bryant, Sunday School Superintendent.
Margaret Crockett, Chairman Board Christian Education.
Mrs. Burl McClellan, Counselor Young People's Division.

NEW FORD CARS BEING SOLD BY NEW DEALER

While formal announcement by the Ford Motor Company for the new local Ford dealer, Palmer Motor company, has been delayed, Manager Doss Palmer himself is carrying an add in this issue of the NEWS regarding the new cars.

"We have delivered several of the new Fords already," he said today. "Also, we have received our new Ford parts stock from which the Ford owner can get what he needs. Our formal announcement from the company is expected next week."

CHAMBERLAIN WINS ONE-ACT PLAY HONORS

The final events of the Donley County Interscholastic league were held on last Friday night at the Junior College auditorium. In the choral singing event, Ashola took first-place honors, with Clarendon Junior High second-place and Windy Valley third place.

In the one-act play contest, Chamberlain won first place honors, with Goldston second and Windy Valley third.

While it did not win, the Ashola pirates crew put over a one-act play that was said to be highly entertaining. It included much originality.

THE DANGER OF DRIFTING

Text: "Lest haply we drift away from them." Heb. 2:1.

We all see the failures of the past. Our text points to a danger of the future. People are being carried away, like driftwood, from the things of primal importance. We drift from the things of religion, we do not deny them.

I. "What Is The Cause of Drifting?" The want of a secure anchorage. A boat does not drift if it is securely anchored. Many have no settled religious convictions. We believe in religion and Christ in a general way. But what is the value of this faith when it does not restrain us from evil or inspire us to good? Too many people have no settled church. We drift into this church or that according to the attractiveness of the music or the sensationalism of the preacher. We are anchored nowhere to nothing.

Drifting is caused not only by want of anchorage, but by winds and currents—companionship, circumstances and the many influences of modern life. It is not drifting from the church alone, we are also losing our hold on Christ at the same time. Many are losing interest in him and all he stands for.

II. "Why This Drifting Should Be Arrested." Because drifting is a source of danger to others. Wreckage is dangerous. Rocks and sand-bars can be marked on charts and maps, we know where they are, but it is not so with a boat that has broken loose from its moorings. Drifting means ruin. We recognize this truth in almost every other sphere except religion. If a man lets his business drift, where does it drift to? If a gardener or farmer does the same with his garden or field, what happens? It is also true in our religious life, drifting means losses and ruin.

The Apostle Paul, knew what the results of drifting would lead to or be, so in his letter to the Hebrew Christians he sounded the warning that should arouse us today to a close walk with Christ and more faithfulness in our religious activities. Very few of us consider the danger of drifting as we should, we just neglect, and put off doing our duty until it is too late. Now is a good time to check up and wake up and get

Seventh Annual Dairy Show At Plainview Soon

PLAINVIEW, April 4.—When the Panhandle Plains Dairy Show opens in Plainview April 16 for the annual four-day show, most of the old exhibitors and many new ones will be present with their best dairy animals, according to Grady Shipp, secretary-manager.

The dairy show itself will not be overshadowed by outside attractions, but there will be more to entertain the visitors than ever before. Officers and directors are putting forth every possible effort to make this year's exhibition one of educational interest, according to Dr. Geo. P. Grout, Panhandle, president of the dairy association. A splendid educational program has been arranged under the direction of back on the job.—W. E. Ferrell, Minister, First Christian Church of Clarendon, Texas.

Frank P. Phillips, head of the agricultural department of West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon.

A horse show will be held, to which many of the breeders and exhibitors of the Southwest will be attracted. Father A. E. Robinson of Plainview will superintend the horse show.

A carnival will be here throughout the week.

A dairy show pageant will be held, with changes that have been suggested to improve over prior pageants. Each town is invited to send a princess and maid of honor to participate in this pageant.

Unique locally will be polo games between Lubbock and La-mesa polo teams and a mounted basketball game between Plainview and Lubbock Lions Clubs.

Miss Betty Walker, Mrs. Katherine Stark, and R. A. Baker attended an institute held by staff auditors of the Texas Relief Commission in Amarillo Monday.

Tommie McMillan of Memphis was a Clarendon visitor Sunday.
