City Entertains Methodists Next Week

P. T. A. BENEFIT PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT IS THE EVENT OF THE WEEK

CONFERENCE WILL OPEN HERE NOV. 8

BISHOP HIRAM ABIFF BOAZ WILL ORGANIZE BODY AT FIRST SESSION

Tentative plans are in hand for the opening session of the Northwest Texas Conference which meets in annual session here Wednesday evening, Nov. 8th at the Methodist Church. Rev. E. B. Bowen has informed The News that the opening program of the conference will follow generally this outline: Devotional Service conducted by Bishop Boaz. Special Music by the Choir. Calling of the Conference Roll, by former Secretary Cal. C. Wright. Election of Secretary and his Assistants. Announcement of standing committees of the Conference. Welcome Addresses by representatives of the local Church, the city, chamber of commerce and the Lions Club. Response by Bishop Boaz or his representative.

By having all the preliminary details of the opening out of the way on Wednesday evening the business sessions will begin in earnest Thursday morning, and the first sermon of the conference will be preached Thursday evening by Bishop A. Frank Smith of Houston, who will arrive shortly after noon. Bishop Smith will continue his series of inspirational messages each morning and evening of Friday and Saturday. Rev. E. B. Bowen has asked The News to say that the entire citizenship is invited to attend these sermons morning and evening. The pastor and presiding elder say this series of messages will prove a great spiritual feast for the community.

Over two hundred minister will be in attendance on the conference, with around a hundred lay members, aside from the connectional men of the various branches of the church. Hundreds of Methodists will drive to Clarendon for a visit to the conference, and Sunday, the closing day, will likely see a thousand guests in the city.

Bishop Boaz will preach Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the Methodist Church, while other pulpits of the city will be filled by visiting ministers, schedule of which will appear in next week's News. Sunday evening the climax of the meeting will come in the reading of the appointments for the coming conference year, which is followed by adjournment.

NEAR HALF MILLION IN COTTON CHECKS

RECEIPTS HERE THIS WEEK
BRING TOTALS CLOSE TO FINAL MARK

Donley County farmers have received near a half million dollars in government checks for plowed up cotton this season. County Agent Broun this week received 16 checks for a total of $6,284.00, which brings the total score of the season to 852 checks totalling the huge sum of $237,521.00.

Of the entire amount allotted to Donley County, there remains only 31 checks in the sum of $11,526.00 to come, and this amount will no doubt be received and distributed here in the next week or two.

Not many farmers are borrowing ten cents on their cotton, preferring to sell at the market around nine cents and keep out of any agreement at this time about next year's acreage reduction.

Fathers And Sons Feed Plans Ready

Wednesday evening the executive board of the Father and Sons Banquet met with the program and arrangements committees and perfected plans for the annual banquet on the evening of November 16th.

The program will be released next week, but is said to be one of the best that has been offered for many years, and the menu was arranged by the Sons, who know what a real feed is.

The banquet is to be held in the basement of the First Christian Church and the meeting will assemble at 7:00 o'clock, with 7:30 as the zero hour for seating at the festive board.

The committee is planning for the heaviest attendance yet recorded in the history of the organization.

IRISH DEFEAT BRONCS 13-12

BRONCHO MACHINE FALTERS
IN CONFERENCE GAME TO LOSE LEAD

In a hard fought battle at Shamrock Friday afternoon the Shamrock Irishmen defeated the Clarendon Bronchos by a score of 13 to 12. Shamrock surprised everybody, including the Bronchos, with some hard and strategic playing. The Bronchos were decidedly not at their best. They lacked spirit. It looks rather bad for the Bronchos at present, but they never give up, and after all the fans believe they do have the best team.

Shamrock has no losses; Clarendon still has a chance in the conference providing Shamrock loses a game to Memphis or Wellington, and providing Clarendon loses no more of her games. If Shamrock should lose and Clarendon not, it will be necessary for Clarendon to play Shamrock again.

In the first quarter McIntyre of Shamrock carried the ball across from the two yard line to a touchdown. Shumacher passed to Rainey who carried the ball across for the extra point. This unexpected success on the part of Shamrock brought out some of the Broncho fighting spirit. They made a touchdown in the second quarter with Whitlock carrying the ball. A pass from Whitlock to Watson for the extra point was incomplete. In the third quarter Evans picked up a punted ball that Shamrock thought was dead and ran about 45 yards to another touchdown. This made the score 12 to 7 in Clarendon's favor. Shamrock came back fighting, and in the fourth quarter made another touchdown with Shumacker carrying the ball. The kick for the extra point failed. The score was 13 to 12 when the game ended.

In the last of the fourth quarter Clarendon came forth with a terrific aerial attack that promised a score, but the time did not permit.

Substitutions made by Clarendon were O. C. Watson for V. Martin, Whitlock for McCrary, Noble for Mann, Evans for Word, Martin for Jackson, Word for Evans.

LEGION POST ADDS 16 TO MEMBERSHIP

TOTAL MEMBERSHIP NOW 118
AFTER STRENUOUS
LOCAL CAMPAIGN

Friday night was celebration night at the Legion Hall, when Aubyn E. Clark Post completed its membership campaign and awarded the prizes after some competition of the sharpest kind.

In the campaign which was announced in a special page in The Clarendon News three weeks ago, the Post set out to excel its already remarkable standing in this district when last year's membership totalled 99. After the smoke of battle had all cleared away and after the rapid fire calculators had checked their figures it was found that they had exceeded last year's totals by 19, and the membership now is 118. This will add greatly to the standing of the Post in this territory and will be a mark for their rival Posts to shoot at.

For the campaign the membership had been divided into battalions and companies. The 2nd Battalion won the battalion prize and, Capt. Marcus Antrobus and his Co. "D", the company prize. Under the leadership of G. L. Boykin, post commander, the local unit of the American Legion plans a year of vigorous activities and will no doubt win district honors in the next twelve months.

J. H. Hurn returned Saturday from a visit with relatives at Henrietta and Dallas. While in Henrietta he attended an Old Settlers meeting and met many old friends of former days.

Local Men Return From Deer Hunt

Phillips Gentry, M. E. Bell, Ira Merchant, and Meredith Gentry returned Monday from New Mexico, where they hunted deer the past week.

However, Ira was the only fortunate one and brought back a nine point buck, weighing 185 pounds.

J. P. Rhode, who has been in Nogal, New Mexico for the past three months, accompanied them home.

BRONCHOS GO TO BORGER FRIDAY

NON-CONFERENCE GAME
THIS WEEK BEFORE CYC-
LONE TITLT ON NOV. 11

On Friday, November 3, the Clarendon Bronchos will play a practice game with Borger. Although this will not be a conference game it will be a good chance for the Bronchos to make a come back. It will be some time before the Bronchos have another Conference game so that they will have time to rest up and get into condition again.

The next Conference game scheduled for the Bronchos will be with Memphis on Armistice day, Saturday, November 11, at Clarendon. This is the game that always creates the most interest because Clarendon and Memphis for many years have been bitter rivals. For the last two years Clarendon has beat Memphis. Year before last Clarendon won with a score of 12 to 0. Last year the Bronchos took the victory with a score of 28 to 2.

Cotton Loans Now Available

Donley County farmers may now avail themselves of the government Commodity Credit corporation loans on cotton of low middling or better grade at the rate of ten cents per pound. This loan may be made through any bank in the country on presentation of warehouse receipt and all loans will mature on or before July 31, 1934.

J. H. Morris is the agent for the corporation in Donley County and will be glad to meet and explain the basis of the loans with any producer interested. A reduction in 1934 acreage of a to-be determined percentage not to exceed forty percent of the last five year average prior to 1933 is a requisite of the loan agreement.

Judge and Mrs. Sam W. Lowe and son, Billy, returned here Sunday afternoon from a short business trip to Fort Worth and a visit with relatives at Stephenville and Lipan.

HALLOWE'EN IN CITY IS SNAPPY

YOUNG AND OLD ENJOY USUAL ACTIVITIES AND SPOOKS RULE CITY

Hallowe'en proved to be quite a gala affair this year. For the last two or three years the spirit of Hallowe'en has been somewhat lacking, but Tuesday night it obviously returned with a bang.

During the early part of the evening little tots donned the appearances of witches, ghosts, and clowns and brought their parents to town to parade. Little squeals of delight were mixed with the hoarse screech of Hallowe'en.

As the evening grew older the little witches, ghosts and clowns went home to their beds, and the more sinister prowlers began to roam. These fearing that people would not know of their presence, left quite a large trail of evidence behind them.

The rising sun found a trailer and several signs on the College campus, a wagon turned upside-down at the Clarendon Grain Company, a bench in the street in front of the court house, a wheat dirl on the courthouse lawn, an express wagon turned over on the depot yard, many footbridges turned over or gone entirely, chairs hanging on telephone posts, and many front and back gates hanging in trees.

Many of the pranksters found it very amusing to honk the horns of the cars parked around the Opera house during the dance. Others found it entertaining to go to dark houses and make terrific noises until a light appeared.

Court Recessed Until November 6

H. R. Lindsey who was charged with driving while intoxicated was tried before Judge Fines Thursday, October 27, and found guilty. He was sentenced to ten days in jail, and fined fifty dollars.

The court recessed until November 6, after the completion of this case.

Rains And Colder Over Panhandle

Wednesday night rains varying one to four inches fell over the Panhandle bringing needed moisture to the wheat growing sections, and relieving the dust nuisance over this section.

This morning a drizzling rain continued and will add to the 1.05 inches recorded here last night. In and around Claude heavy rains were reported. All cotton picking and feed gathering was halted after the longest stretch of pretty weather seen in the Panhandle in many years.

With a strong wind blowing out of the North Panhandle temperatures were much lowered this morning.

Miss Mary Wood was operated on Tuesday afternoon for appendicitis.

LIONS HEAR OF HIGHWAY PLANS

TEXAS GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION WORKER ADDRESSES THE CLUB TUESDAY

Two very important subjects were before the Clarendon Lions Club Tuesday when two speakers appeared on the regular weekly program. Lion Rev. B. N. Shepherd had been asked by Program Chairman Drennan to discuss the Boy Scout movement with special relation to Clarendon. Lion Shepherd, who has been active in scouting for some time, brought a most interesting discussion of the scout work here in this community and sought to lay on the minds of the membership the great need of this work for future citizenship, giving point to his remarks by examples of the effectiveness of scouting in giving boys the proper view point and a will to be physically fit, mentally clean and morally straight.

The speaker also brought to the attention of the club the fact that Clarendon has not contributed one penny to the regional supervision of scouting for a number of years, although the city was receiving the supervision without a murmur.

Following this address, J. C. Watson, West Texas executive of the Texas Good Roads Association, and John Salwaechter, membership director of the organization, were introduced and Mr. Watson discussed the origin, aims, and plans of the state-wide body.

The organization solicits personal membership under the approval of the Texas Highway Commission, and its program of asking the federal government for seventy-five million dollars for highway work in Texas, was adopted at a meeting in Sweetwater along in the summer with several state senators, including Senator Small, and approving the plans as laid down. Col. L. S. Ashburn is the executive manager of the organization and the plan now is to go to Washington along in the winter with more than fifty thousand members backing the request for the added road funds, and with full data concerning the need for more highways in Texas.

Announcements were made concerning the Parent-Teachers play at the College auditorium Friday evening of this week, and of the coming Lions Benefit Minstrel here on Dec. 8th.

Other visitors for the day were Mr. Ricks of Amarillo and Densil Davis of Clarendon.

Misses Ida and Etta Harned left Sunday for Chicago where they will attend the Century of Progress Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mulkey and Lee Casey made a trip to Amarillo Monday.

BENEFIT PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

SIMS PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION TO SPONSOR
CLEVER, UNIQUE PLAY

On Friday night, November 3rd, the Sims Parent-Teachers Association will present a one-act play "A Howling Success." It is a take-off on children's clinics, and is extremely humorous. While some of the characters in the play are women, all the parts will be played by men and boys.

W. P. Cagle is a master of ceremonies and introduces the characters. He first introduces three doctors and their assistants. These are Dr. Sillie and his assistant Miss O. So Cutie played by W. E. Ferrell and Bill Word; Dr. Saw Bones and his assistant, Miss Ima Nutt played by R. E. Drennan and Bill Wood; Dr. I. C. Tonsils and his assistant Miss Ady Noids played by Kenny Lane and Robert Green. The operating instruments consist of saws, ice tongs, and screw drivers.

The main body of the play is made up of patients coming to see these doctors and what the doctor has to say. A young lady, a black baby, brings in her Heavenly Twins thinking that she is bringing them to a baby show. After she gets them there she finds that they are sick and need operations. These parts are played by Marvin Smith, Dan Boston and Edward Blair Ozier. Dr. Galloway being the proud mother of two sets of twins brings them for medical attention. The twins are played by Wesley Powell, Aubrey Brady, John M. Bass Jr., and Jelly McGowan. There are several other occurrences similar to this.

All the players will be in costume.

LEISBURGS RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Leisburg and daughter, Jessie Lynch, returned Sunday night from a month's motor trip to California and several Western States.

They went out via Albuquerque, New Mexico, where they were joined by Mrs. S. B. Arnold, a former Clarendon citizen, who visited her son in Bell, California.

Mr. Leisburg said the only thing that marred the trip was the terrible condition of the roads in Arizona. He said they made him think of Donley County roads and that's somethin'.

METHODISTS WILL TRY TO WIPE SLATE

LOCAL CONGREGATION IS IN EFFORT TO PAY SALARIES IN FULL

With the sum of only $350 standing in the way, the congregation of the Clarendon Methodist Church is making an effort this week to pay all its salaries in full by Sunday or Monday night next, at the latest.

G. L. Boykin and Homer McElvany, chairman and secretary of the board of stewards, respectively, and a small committee of the board have been appealing the past week to those members who have paid nothing to date, and to those who are still due amounts of varying size.

With the opening of Annual Conference here next Wednesday evening, it is the purpose of the officials to have the salaries up in full and they are urging that every member, old and young, assist in making this report possible, so that the host church will have a clean record in this respect.

PAINT UP, PRIMP UP

One of the heartening signs of the day is the tidying up that is going the rounds in city, town and hamlet. On every hand one sees the influence of better times, of better spirits, and with it comes the spreading of paint, the repairing and remodeling of dwellings and business property; the neat tidying up of the premises. The country feels better.

How human it is to show our spirit level in our activities. When our prosperity boom was pricked by adversity, we lost our pleasant smile and kind words for awhile; when our finances dwindled toward the zero point we let our properties go unattended, and the premises lost their neatly trimmed appearance. But now things are different. There's a few dollars in most pockets, and the smile is broadening; we paint up, we primp up, we tidy up.

The old spirit level is up, because things are picking up; or maybe, things are picking up because the spirit level is up. Anyhow it is working and we are getting somewhere.

DON'T SELL NOW

We rarely venture a suggestion on markets. They are fickle. Too many conditions affect them. A man may know today and not know tomorrow, or he may think he knows today and find out tomorrow that he did not know.

But it is not a bad tip to suggest that feed sold now is being put on the market at the wrong time. There are too many potential customers for the Floyd County farmer with feed. Right now the customers are busy doing something else. Their animals are "making it fairly well on grass and a little roughness." In the winter time these potential customers will have more time to look about. They will also have more need for feed. Should it develop they do not want feed, or that they do not have the money with which to buy, feed is not a bad thing to have about anyhow. Don't sell your feed now, although they are many thousands of tons surplus in Floyd County.—Floydada Hesperian.

NEW DEAL'S DECALOGUE

One of the new Assistant Secretaries of State is Harry F. Payer, of Cleveland, who, in a recent speech, laid down the Ten Commandments of the New Deal, partly as follows:

"First—Thou shalt not live, my dear country, beyond thy means.

"Second—Thou shalt not lose confidence in thyself or thy great strength.

"Third—Thou shalt not make Mammon thy god but neither shalt thou be unmindful of thy monetary system, lest it destroy thee.

"Fifth—Thou shalt not make gold thy god but thy servant.

"Sixth—Thou shalt not permit the unemployment of thy people, well beloved; that is the first and greatest commandment.

"Seventh—Thou shalt not fail to manage well and rationalize thy industry.

"Eighth—Thou shalt not suffer the paradox of poverty amidst plenty else thou sinnest grievously."—Events, Enid, Okla.

"RECOVERY" IS HERE

Editor Olin Hinkle of the Pampa Daily News brings his readers a pretty pen picture of returning prosperity in a quotation from Gilmore Nunn, general manager of that publication. It's good reading:

"Back from lengthy journeys over the southwest and central states during which he coaxed the elusive ad contracts from national advertisers by painting vivid pictures of Pampa and this territory and the stable payrolls, Gilmore N. Nunn, general manager of THE NEWS, reflects optimism based on first-hand information.

"Main street is busy again!" he remarked in answer to questions. "In the smaller communities, 'court days' and Saturdays jam the thoroughfares as the country folks go to town to trade and sell their products. In the cities, suburban shoppers fight their way through traffic loaded with shopping bundles, and reception rooms are crowded with sales men and solicitors. Everywhere the 'Babbitts of Main Street' are milling with the throngs, pausing to hear the street hawker, lining up before the theatre box office, buying candy for the wife, purchasing clothing because the style has changed, and last but not least, riding to prosperity in new automobiles. Joiners are looking for new clubs to get in; hotels are selling more outside rooms with b's; promoters have an audience for their schemes; panhandlers are getting more dimes; men are going to work; labor disputes are arising; everybody's laughing. That's recovery!"

THE FACE OF JESUS

The face of man is an index of his character. Place a light within a marble vase and it becomes translucent. Let Holy principles dwell within a man and they will give an expression to the face. But on no human face are all the excellences ever expressed. One has patience, another generosity, another boldness, or love or peace, or contentment. But from the countenance of Jesus Christ, there beamed forth every ray from a full-orbed and complete character.

"For God, who commanded the light to shine out of the darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ." (11 Cor. 4:6.)

God, the Father, has made a photographic album composed of the face of Jesus His Son. This album is the Bible. As we turn the pages of this Divine Book, the face of Jesus looks up at us, and the different pictures which we behold of the one face taken together gives us the biography of the most wonderful personage the world has ever known.

The Bible reveals four thousand, one hundred and eighty-five things about Christ. There are twelve hundred and seventy-five prophecies, seven hundred and sixty-five shadows, types or pictures of Christ, revealing Him to us from many different angles as God's Son and our Saviour. In the New Testament, there are five hundred and fifty-five events of His life made known, and from the first chapter of the book of Acts, to the close of Revelations He is mentioned eleven hundred and forty times. Surely this must be a wonderful Christ. The face of Christ appears to us under many circumstances, and we should become acquainted with Him, while we have time. To know and to serve Him now means that we will be permitted to spend eternity in His presence after death.

Sunday morning our subject will be "The Face of Jesus". We hope to present Him to you in a way that you will not forget. Sunday night our subject will be, "A Free Salvation." You ought

THE HISTORY OF PAINTING

A Short Story by Lucille Nidever, English Pupil of Clarendon Jr. High.

Pictures were first made to assist in description of objects. Figures traced upon rocks in caves and those found on monuments that had been buried for centuries tell us that this crude sort of picture making began very early in history. With the rise of Christianity, painting gave its services to the churches. Before the invention of painting only the priests and monks could read. Copies of the Scriptures were to be found only in monasteries, and this condition continued for a long time. The walls of churches were covered with scenes from the Holy Bible, that the congregation might read in pictures the truths told from the pulpit.

Italian Artists began to take an interest in painting, and it began to grow popular. Then other nations began to take an interest too. The Van Eyck brothers founded a studio, and were the first to use oils successfully in mixing colors. Art critics regard the Seventeenth Century as the Golden Age of painting. The first American Artist was John Singleton Copeley, whose portraits of the leading characters in the Revolutionary War are highly prized.

TEXAS BAPTISTS TO MEET IN FT. WORTH LEGIONNAIRES GO TO SNYDER NOVEMBER 4-5

CENTURY OF PROGRESS IN TEXAS WILL BE CELEBRATED THIS FALL

The Baptist General Convention of Texas which will hold its eighty-fifth annual session at Ft. Worth beginning November 7th, will this year celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the beginning of Baptist work in Texas. The Convention program will give large space to "Our Century of Progress," and will present the story of the first Baptist organization in Texas. This church was organized in Illinois and moved to Texas as a unit, crossing the Sabine River in November 1833.

Dr. J. Howard Williams, General Secretary of the Convention, announces that Texas Baptists will celebrate their "Century of Progress" with a great Mission Offering amounting to $134,000. Some $50,000.00 of this fund has already been paid in, and Dr. Williams expressed himself as being very hopeful that Texas Baptists would raise the remaining $85,000.00 within the next two weeks.

During this fall Texas Baptists have held 107 Associational meetings all over Texas, with record attendance in almost every instance, demonstrating the progress of the past century. When the first organized group of Baptists came into Texas one hundred years ago, there were less than fifty Baptists in the State. At this time there are more than five hundred thousand white Baptists, and a total of more than a million of all races according to Dr. Williams.

At the Fort Worth meeting, representatives from various mission fields will speak of the work Baptists are doing there, and the Convention will receive reports from the work of Baptists all over the world. More than five thousand visitors are expected to attend the Convention.

The Clarendon Baptist Church will be represented by Rev. B. N. Shepherd, pastor, and several lay delegates.

Wednesday, Oct. 18th, the Owissa Troop of the Camp Fire Girls met in the Southward School Building to be "taped and sealed," also to learn to be instructed in General Health rules. The guardians had a time putting the scales back together after "E. D." and "D. K." had been weighed. Don't begin dieting girls!

This troop has recently taken in a number of new members and under the leadership of the new guardians, is very enthusiastic.

W. L. CLAMPITT BRINGS IN HEAVY KAFIR HEADS

W. L. Clampitt, who prefers to live in Clarendon to any other place and who has some fine farming land over near Farwell, was in Saturday with samples of some very fine kafir heads off his place, where he has two hundred acres in feed and a large tract in wheat. He brought in a heavy stool of wheat just to show how it was getting off over on the border. The samples are on display at The News office.

Hear Lieutenant Governor and Other Notables of State

A program that includes such notables as Lieutenant Governor Edgar E. Witt, and entertainment that includes football, boxing, horse racing, dancing and feeds, has already been arranged for the 18th District American Legion convention, which convenes in Snyder November 4 and 5.

Although Snyder is the smallest city that has ever entertained the veterans of this prodigious district, Commander Lee T. Stinson and other members of the local post declare that it will be one of the hottest sessions on the records. All Snyder is making plans to parade, to decorate, to entertain and to perform in order that her guests might go home pleased.

Among Legion notables who are making plans to be present for the two-day session are: L. Van Perkins of Cameron, department commander; George E. Hughes of Austin, department adjutant; A. Garland Adair of McCamey, department historian; George E. Broome of Amarillo, alternate national committeeman; M. J. Benefield of Brady, fifth division commander; G. O. Spear of Childress, 18th District executive committeeman.

Since Snyder is on the extreme southern tip of the district, many legionnaires are planning to attend from adjoining districts. The host city is not far from the center of West Texas, 80 miles from Lubbock and Abilene, 40 miles from Sweetwater, 65 miles from Big Spring, 120 miles from San Angelo. Three state highways and one national highway meet here, and the Santa Fe and R. S. & P. railroads traverse the city limits.

A number of reservations have already been made at local hotels. The housing committee reports that many homes have already been offered for use of delegates, and they are anticipating no trouble in handling the expected crowd of 700 to 1,000 visitors.

SANTA CLAUS AS USUAL

When that distinctly American Will Rogers told the nation's radio audience last Sunday evening that Santa Claus will come on Christmas as usual this year, and not to expect him in August because of the NRA, he put into the simplest language the meaning that many an orator has futilely attempted to explain in flowery verbiage.

Rogers, it would seem, has sounded a new keynote of the NRA campaign. The Washington headquarters of the NRA has been too busy engaged in carrying out the terms of the national recovery act to have time to explain to the country at large, that to expect direct benefits overnight is fallacious reasoning.

soning. But the fact remains. The greatest economic upheaval—of a constructive nature—this country has ever experienced is now in the throes of labor pains. There has been no pause to administer a sedative. President Roosevelt is leading the nation through a rebirth, and there is no time to halt and groan. It must be done, and after it had passed, and the time comes when we may point to its product, we will be proud of the result.

The yelps and howls of those who believe they are sinking must be drowned in the shouts of encouragement from those who have the intelligence to understand that the country will be here just the same afterwards as before—but a better country.

It is too much to expect that with an oral edict economic recovery can be warded in on the winds of eventide of a single day. It is too much to expect that our pockets will be miraculously lined with riches, or comfortably so, without doing something in return for the recovered benefits.

The era through which this nation is now going is an era of construction. It is foolish to believe that the economic structure now being erected can be completely reared in a brief passing of time, as it is to expect that a skyscraper can be started and completed in a single day.

There must be a foundation for everything. Neither concrete nor abstract things can endure if that on which they are founded is thereal.

from doing, and execution of any deed requires time. When the magnitude of the national recovery program is considered, there cannot be any other conclusion than that time is required. Yes, Santa Claus will come, but at the usual time. The old gentleman, you know is a seasonal adventurer, and he must have time to prepare for his visits.

BUYING CAMPAIGN GIVES NATION-WIDE STIMULUS

Weekly reports to the permanent statistical agencies of the Government afford definite data as to the success of the first week of the "Now is the time to buy" campaign inaugurated by the NRA in conjunction with newspapers and advertising firms. As an illustration, new Department of Commerce figures show that the Nation spent 7.5 percent more in 5 and 10-cent and dollar variety stores than during the corresponding period last month. Wholesale trade reports in all lines were reported as averaging 15 percent more activity. Manufacturers are said to be having difficulty in filling forward orders, especially in nearly all grades of wearing apparel, which are predicted as due for sharp upturns in price. The figures set for men's suits is 25 percent by spring. A nationally known manufacturer of overalls reported to General Johnson that sales for September trebled those for the corresponding month last year. National reporting agencies predict the final quarter will show "tremendous expansion" over the third quarter, which Dun and Bradstreet described as having shown "impressive proportions," attributed to "the success of the NRA program and the definite progress made in the solution of other major problems combined to restore confidence on a national scale."

Miss Eleanor Morris Complimented

Miss Eleanor Morris, who will become the bride of Tom Blasingame of Channing in the near future, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening, at the W. C. Stewart home, when Misses Jo Ella Stewart and Evelyn Murphy entertained.

To begin the festivities, Arthur Chase played a selection on the piano. Following this Marjorie White played "Here Comes the Bride" whereupon little Miss Laverne Darden and Master Dewey Tom Heath, dressed as a cowgirl and cowboy, entered the room pulling a covered wagon heaped with presents with the inscription, "Just Married," on the back. These were presented to the honoree and after their inspection a delectable refreshment course was served to:

Mesdames W. A. Clark, Jr., Dewey Heath, Sam Darden, George Ryan, E. H. Noland, and Misses Joyce Link, Elgin Patrick, Helen Lawler, Marjorie White, Geraldine Pratt, and the honoree, Miss Morris.

Among the lovely courtesies extended Miss Morris was a Kitchen Shower given by Miss Carroll Holder and Mrs. J. G. Sherman Saturday afternoon, at the W. R. Holder home.

When the guests had assembled, a little covered wagon was drawn in and presented to the honoree. This contained many lovely and useful gifts. These were opened and admired by all.

On the refreshment plate a unique card with a bit of larit rope tied on it, announced that "Toms roped Eleanor."

Besides the honoree, the guest list included Miss Jean Bourland, Miss Dorothy Jo Taylor, Miss Pauline Sanford, Miss Zell Rogers, Mrs. Charlie Johnson, Mrs. O. L. Fink, Mrs. Si Johnson, Mrs. Louie Holloway and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry.

Pathfinder Club

The Pathfinder Club held its second Browning program Friday afternoon at the Club Room, with Mrs. James Trent and Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Sr., hostesses.

Mrs. C. A. Burton was leader and discussed "The Realization of a Mystic Conception of God." Mrs. J. G. Sherman gave the dramatic monologue "Paracelus" by Browning, which was splendid. Two of the characters, "Michael" and "Sistus" were ably described by Mrs. R. Y. King.

At the conclusion of the very interesting and enjoyable program, dainty refreshments were served to twenty-seven members.

The Club will hold its next meeting, Nov. 10th, at the Woman's Club Room, with Mrs. W. P. Simms and Mrs. Eva Draffen, hostesses.

Young Matrons Class Social

Meeting with Mrs. E. P. Shelton as hostess and Mrs. Charles Bairfield assistant hostess, the Young Matrons Harmony Class held its monthly social at the Shelton home, Tuesday afternoon.

"Quarter" Birthday Celebrated

Little Miss "Puss" Patrick celebrated her "Quarter" birthday Monday when her big sister, Katherine, had a few of her little friends in for the evening. Several games of bridge were played with Estelle Alexander winning most of the scores, so she won the prize. The honor guest was presented with a lovely gift from the guests.

The Hallowe'en motif was carried out in the tallies, napkins, and favors. At a late hour refreshments were served.

The children were Mary Cooke, Katherine Cole, Nettie Sims, Estelle Alexander, Irene Gentry, Elizabeth Merchant, Anne Bagby, Mantie Trent, Gertrude Knorpp, Gwyn Hille, and Mrs. W. H. Cooke.

Autumn Tea Is Social Event

The crowning social event of the week was the beautiful Autumn Tea given Monday, from five to seven o'clock, by the Clarendon Business and Professional Woman's Club.

The club room was decorated with huge bouquets of gorgeous fall flowers, which added much to the attractiveness of the affair.

The tea table was laid with an imported lace cloth over gold, and centered with a lovely bouquet of dahlias of pastel shades. Ivory tapers in green holders cast a soft light over the pretty setting. Miss Julia Mae Caraway and Mrs. Katherine Stark presided over the silver coffee and tea service from five to six and Misses Layma Taylor and Ruth Harris, from six to seven.

During the evening the following program was enjoyed: Piano solo—Miss Zell Rogers. Tiny Tots dance—Cassandra Morris and Muffet Merrell. Vocal solo—Mrs. Rollie Brunley.

Piano solo—Mrs. Allan Bryan. Reading—Mrs. Frank Stocking. Tiny Tot reading—Manly Bryan.

Harp solo—Miss Lovie Beavers. Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Stephenson. Miss Carrie Davis, the club president, and Miss Lottie Lane were in the receiving line. Approximately seventy-five people called.

The club received twenty dollars donation from the tea to be added to their school girl fund. The success of the tea is largely due to the untiring efforts of the chairman, Miss Julia Mae Caraway and her assistant, Miss Mildred Martin.

Allgood—Chasteen

Miss Beulah Chasteen became the bride of Alvin Allgood Saturday, October 28th, at the Court-house, with Justice of the Peace Hubert P. Day officiating.

Both of these young people are residents of Donley County and The News joins their many friends in wishing them years of success and happiness.

Dinner Party

O. C. Watson, Jr., was honor guest at a lovely dinner party, Sunday evening, when Miss Helen Lawler entertained several of his friends at O. K. Cafe.

The jolly group gathered at Miss Lawler's home and proceeded to the cafe, where they enjoyed a sumptuous dinner.

The C. H. S. colors of maroon and white were attractively carried out in the table decorations and place cards.

To enjoy this were Misses Marjorie White, Vera Noland, Eleanor Morris, Evelyn Murphy, Jo Ella Stewart.

Messrs Wesley Carroll, Lloyd Martin, Lawrence Whitlock, Kenneth Brown, Roy Stargel, and O. C. Watson, Jr.

Let changes come. Without changes there is no progress.

Hallowe'en Party Is Gay Affair

One of the gayest, spookiest parties of the week was the lively one given Saturday evening at the F. E. Chamberlain home, when Freddie and Lewis Chamberlain entertained a large group with a Hallowe'en party.

Jack-o-lanterns peered from the corners of the room and in one section a weird witch told the excited children their past, present and future. Colorful costumes transformed about thirty-five kiddies into witches, ghosts and goblins of the Hallowe'en season.

Several bobbed for brightly shinning apples, while others played various games until popcorn, candy and ice cream was served the jolly crowd.

Tims—Paulk

A wedding performed at Memphis Saturday, October 29th, is of interest to Donley County people, for it united in marriage Miss Eva Paulk and Percy Lee Tims, both of the Windy Valley community. The ceremony was performed by County Judge Vallance of Hall County.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Paulk of Windy Valley, while Mr. Tims' parents live in Blue Mountain, Arkansas.

The young couple were accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Oma Paulk and Donnie Jacobs.

Mrs. John F. Blocker was charming hostess to the Bluebonnet Bridge Club and several invited guests, Thursday when she entertained with a one o'clock luncheon at her ranch home.

The Hallowe'en motif was carried out in the place cards, tallies and decorations. Gorgeous orange dahlias made a pretty bouquet for the table. Following the delicious luncheon, games of auction bridge were played, with high score going to Mrs. W. H. Patrick.

Club members attending included Mrs. C. G. Stricklin, Mrs. George Ryan, Mrs. C. T. McMurtry, Mrs. Odos Caraway, Mrs. A. R. Letts, Mrs. W. H. Patrick, Mrs. R. L. Bigger, Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, and Mrs. C. C. Powell.

Buffet Supper And Dance

Among the many attractive and delightful social affairs of the week was the Buffet Supper and Dance given by Miss Carroll Holder, Thursday evening.

The table was centered with a grinning jack-o-lantern, and autumn fruits blanketed about it. Following the sumptuous supper, the group of girls adjourned to the F. L. Bourland home where they were joined by the boys and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when they were served delicious refreshments at Miss Holders.

Attending were Misses Lucille Andis, Pauline Sanford, Dorothy Jo Taylor, Jean Bourland, Elizabeth Kemp, and Virginia Gardenhire.

Messrs Bill Word, J. R. Bartlett, Alfred McMurtry, Arthur Chase, Robert Green, Fred Bourland, Mike Stricklin, Bill Wicklin, and Sam Cauthen.

B. & P. W. Group To Pampa Sunday

The Clarendon Business and Professional Womans Club, along with other B. & P. W. groups of the Panhandle, were honored with a tea Sunday afternoon, given by the Pampa Business and Professional Woman's Club, at their club room.

A Hallowe'en setting was arranged with favors marking places at the quartet tables where guests were seated. The tea table covered with a lace cloth, had a center piece of nasturtiums and was lighted with green tapers in silver holders.

Mary Lou Downs, club president, and Grace Pool poured tea.

Clubs from Wheeler, Shamrock, Amarillo, and Clarendon, were represented. Among those from here attending were Misses Lottie Lane, Mildred Martin, Julia Mae Caraway, Opal Pyle, Zell Rogers, Fannie Perry, Norma Rhode, and Martha Grant.

Miss Carrie Davis Is Honored

The Sunday School Class that Miss Carrie Davis was formerly teacher of, honored her with a party and shower Saturday evening, at the T. D. Nored home.

The house was attractively decorated with spooks, witches, and jack-o-lanterns, and when all the children arrived they played games and held contests. In the story-telling contests, the children voted Carrie the "very best" and presented her with many lovely presents.

Those present included Misses Zeldia Ruth Nored, Fannie Perry, Zell Rogers, Carrie Davis, the honoree, and Mrs. T. D. Nored.

Masters Donald and T. D. Nored, Jr., Earl McKinney, Jack Rogers, Cleo Russell, Clarence Pipes, Jr., Bobby Jo Skelton, and David Oden.

Church Party

Again the members of the First Christian Church spent a delightful evening when they gathered in the basement of their church Wednesday.

Each had brought a well filled bowl and the fifty present really enjoyed themselves, with Rev. Ferrell giving many helpful and useful suggestions in his little talk.

These meetings the first Wednesday in each month are a result of the "Go To Church" movement and have proved entertaining and educational.

Missionary Society

Mrs. George Norwood was hostess to the Missionary Society of the First Christian Church, Wednesday afternoon, at her home.

Mrs. E. C. Herd, president, opened the meeting and presided over the business session. Mrs. G. A. Anderson was devotional leader and Mrs. W. T. Hayter, program leader.

The theme for the month is "Crowded Places of America" and those appearing on the program were Mrs. J. E. Teer and Mrs. George Norwood.

Chamberlain Home Demonstration Club

The members of the Chamberlain Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. O. B. Rumpy, Thursday afternoon, with twelve members and three visitors present.

JUST A BIT OF EVERYTHING

On Monday afternoon during the sixth period, the whistle was blown for a fire drill. The record time of fifty-eight seconds which was set at the first of the year still remains unbroken.

The college students are suffering from nine-weeks exams this week. I happened to be in one particular class Monday when a most unusual event occurred. After the students had filed into the room, the instructor presented them with their examination questions. Calmly the students returned the questions and announced that they were not prepared to take "le petit examen."

Before the end of the game Friday, I was forced to move to the Shamrock side as the sun hampered my vision. The sun rendered the Clarendon side hot, but surely the Shamrockians rendered their side hotter. When Evans scored, the Shamrockians in one accord voiced a complaint against the officials in the form of various "naughty words."

I then returned to the Clarendon side—to a side who was defeated but who was taking it as a Pep Squad, football fans, and a team should. I do not claim to know anything about football other than carrying the ball a few yards from the goal post means six points for the team, but I do know that our town never forgets to appreciate clean sports no matter if the players are defeated or not.

JR. HIGH REPORT

The students of the Junior High are just "itching" to do something, and they say you can't keep a good man down, so the chances are the Junior High will really do something this year. Students are already doing some hard practicing in volley ball and the opposing team is going to have a stiff fight if they plan on wiping out the Junior High Team.

Athletics isn't the only thing in which they plan to be victorious. The pupils all started in the beginning and bore right down on their school work, and they found out the giant was not half as tough as they thought he was. When the cards came out showing the results of the first six weeks of hard labor, the majority of the students were very well pleased. The grades were so encouraging that each is working harder than ever to be at the head of the class.

We were very well pleased to be honored with a visitor in our Spanish class. She was Athlynn Drennon. We enjoyed having her immensely and hope she will come again sometime.

The Bronchos suffered their first defeat at Shamrock Friday the 27th. The ability of our team could not be blamed for the defeat, however. It was merely overconfidence, caused mainly by the beating the Bronchos gave the Melton Tigers after the Melton team defeated Shamrock 32-6. This is the second year straight that the Shamrock Irishmen have knocked the Bronchos out of an almost sure district championship, so it seems that they "have the jinx" on Clarendon.

The Irishmen "got the jump" on the Bronchos, scoring in the first six minutes to play. The Clarendon men had not had any pep to begin with, but if they had this took what they had out of them. Drake of Shamrock seemed to find holes in the Clarendon line in any place he wanted to find them, making yards at will.

The Bronchos seemed to get a little of the old fighting spirit back during the rest period at the end of the first quarter. They launched an attack that netted them a touchdown, mainly through the passes caught by O. C. Watson and line plunging of Whitlock, Whitlock carrying the ball over. However the try for extra point was missed, leaving the Bronchos still behind 6-7.

In the third quarter the teams were rather evenly matched until Evans recovered one of Clarendon's punts that had been touched by a Shamrock man and not covered by him and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Again the extra point was missed, making score 12-7 with the Bronchos leading.

The high-lights of the fourth quarter were two runs by Blake of Shamrock; one 25 yd. and one 15 yd. However the Irishmen might have out played the Irishmen a little until the last few minutes when Shamrock made their second touchdown, mainly through the brilliant playing of Blake. Their try for extra point was a failure; however this touchdown left the Bronchos in the lead, Shamrock leading 13-12. Clarendon tried to launch an aerial attack but too many of their passes were intercepted, although there were some nice passes and catches. The game ended with the score still 13-12.

The punting for both teams was very poor. Part of our defeat may be blamed to this, as they could not get the ball out of their territory. But the blame can not all be placed entirely on our punters, as there was a very strong wind blowing directly down the field.

Clarendon's only chance for the district championship is for Wellington or Memphis to defeat Shamrock, and this is a very, very poor chance. All we hope to derive from this game is better playing by the Bronchos in the future.

Personal Flashes

Heigh ho, what a life! Fred had to stay home this week, so Jimmy went to Amarillo instead and spent Saturday and Sunday. Too bad, Fred, maybe you can go next week.

It's lookin' gpretty bad for us home town girls when four of the opposite sex have to go to Memphis for dates. Anyway, the four brutes that motored to Memphis Monday night were Alfred M. Murtry, Lightening Hudson, Carrol Hudson, and J. R. Bartlett. Good luck fellows!

Believe it or not, folks, I left town for the first time since school started. Murphy, Vera and I went to Amarillo this past week, and of course met other Clarendon people at the usual meeting place "Kresses," among whom were Eloise Hill and her mother.

"Stooley" Acord and brother, Randall, report a stupendous good time spent in Canyon the past week-end. Maybe Thayer will make us a special report on this trip, for I'm sure it would be "educational".

Loreece Webster, Betty Dale West and Audrey Lafland, all from Memphis, were guests of Dorothy Joe Ryan Monday.

I elbowed my way through the crowd at Shamrock Friday, and I was surprised to see the large number of students present for the game. Elizabeth Dunne swallowed her all-day sucker when "Pup" Evans made that touchdown, and believe me folks, it was the pree-dominating feature of that g-r-e-a-t ball game. The Pep Squad had a good attendance also, and so ends the Personal Flashes for this week.

Miss Helen Lawler Entertains

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was given last Sunday night by Miss Helen Lawler when she entertained with a dinner party honoring Mr. O. C. Watson, Jr.

When all the guests had assembled at the home of Miss Lawler, they went to the O. K. Cafe, where a delightful three-course dinner was served. The table was decorated in football colors, and favors were also given representing football ideas.

Those present were: Misses Evelyn Murphy, Jo Ella Stewart, Marjorie White, Eleanor Morris, Vera Noland, and the hostess, Helen Lawler.

Messrs. Kenneth Brown, Roy Stargel, Heavy Whitlock, Wesley Carroll, "Marty" Martin, and the honoree, O. C. Watson, Jr..

Kieuwa Camp Fire Troop

The Kieuwa Camp Fire Girls met Wednesday to turn in their dues for the year. Half was taken from the Camp Fire treasury. The troop had their party Saturday night at the Clarendon Country Club. The second troupe of the Camp Fire Girls were also invited. The main room of the club house was decorated very attractively. The only light was candle light, which added to the occasion. The party ended after the refreshments were served.

Miss Morris Is Honored

Miss Jo Ella Stewart and Miss Evelyn Murphy were delightful hostesses last Thursday night at the home of Miss Stewart when they entertained with a shower honoring Miss Eleanor Morris, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Tom Blasingame.

After several musical numbers by Arthur Chase, Laverne Darden and Dewey Tom Heath entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" played by Miss Marjorie White. They were pulling a small covered wagon loaded with lovely gifts for the honoree.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Messdames W. A. Clark, George A. Ryan, E. H. Noland, Sam Darden, Dewey Heath, and W. C. Stewart. Misses Joyce Link, Elgin Patrick, Geraldine Pratt, Marjorie White, Helen Lawler, Vera Noland, and the honoree, Eleanor Morris.

Abohahanta Camp Fire Girls

The Abohahanta Camp Fire Troop met at the Cauthen home Wednesday, October 25, for a business meeting. The president took charge, and it came before the girls that the troop must start making money. Plans were discussed for a market, Saturday, Nov. 4. After the delightful refreshments were served, the meeting was adjourned until the following Wednesday when the girls will meet at the home of Margaret Kelly. Saturday night at the Kieuwa troop, Mrs. Hill was selected as the guardian. After the dull weeks without a guardian, the girls are glad to settle down to work.

and Eleanor Morris were among the visitors at Shamrock Friday. Dorothy Jo Taylor, Sis Andis, Jennie Bourland, and Bill Word also attended the Shamrock game Friday.

Seniors Select Football Queen

Tuesday, October 30, the Senior class selected Laverne Lett as their representative in the Football Queen contest. This contest is being put on by the Kieuwa Camp Fire Troop. Each vote costs one cent, and the students may vote as many times as they wish.

The entrants for the Junior and Sophomore classes are, Sarah Virginia McGowan and Peggy Ward.

All loyal Seniors, we urge to help elect Laverne as the Queen. The contest closes November 11th so begin voting now.

REV. R. N. SHEPHERD SPEAKER ON TUESDAY

The High School students were favored last Tuesday afternoon with the opportunity of hearing the Reverend R. N. Shepherd, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Rev. Shepherd used as his text the verse, "as cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country," which was taken from Proverbs 25:25. First the speaker made the comparison between a person's physical thirst for water and his spiritual thirst for the word of God. Second, he told how a person rejoices upon receiving word from a friend in a far country and compared that experience to that of receiving the word of God. And third, God's love for everyone.

Rev. Shepherd stressed the fact that some day God, our King, will return and take possession of this world.

REV. W. E. FERRELL SPEAKS TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

In speaking to the High School Thursday afternoon, the Reverend W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian Church, took his text from Proverbs 16:32. "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."

Rev. Ferrell emphasized the fact that for one to become successful in life, he must make use of his time and control his temper. He stated that a person has more than anything else but if he fails to take advantage of it, he will miss the important things in life.

Everyone seems greatly thrilled over the forthcoming election for a "Football Queen", who is to be crowned on the day of the Memphis game. This election is based on popularity only. Each class has elected its candidate and is boosting for her. The Juniors have chosen Sarah Virginia McGowan as their candidate for Queen. Miss McGowan won by a large majority over the other Junior candidates and is likely to win over all the others.

Rosalyn Bass, Helen Louise Green, Avis Lee McElvany, and Vivian Taylor were appointed boosters. They are to solicit votes for Sarah Virginia. Each vote costs one cent. Come on, Juniors, and bring in your pennies. We have a mighty good chance to win.

PEP SQUAD TO HOLD RALLY THURSDAY NIGHT

The Pep Squad went to Shamrock Friday. Improvement was evident in the force of the squad, yet no improvement has been made upon the field display. Again, the squad did not have a stunt during the half. It has not been decided as yet whether the squad will go to Berger or not.

A pep rally will be held Thursday night at 7 o'clock at the old school building.

Notes From A Convenient Cuff

No more parties for awhile. Exams are here and the old cuff is nearly burdened down by its notes for exams and the Old Colyum.

I saw a girl in a confectionery the other day squeeze out her straws and drink their contents! And yet we speak of the tight Scotch.

Say, have any of youse lads and lassies been listening to Joe E. Brown on the Gulf program? He's good. "Say mister, you wanna buy a duck?" seems to be his password.

Plans are being made for the production of a new play, "Co-Ed Conspiracy," by the same producer who last year presented a show for the approval of the local first-nighters. The present

The Broncho Range

Things I never knew till now. Beauty specialists have devised a new electric manicuring machine which doesn't chew gum.

One chewing gum company reports $6,000,000 net profits in the last nine months, showing that the depression hasn't yet hit us in the jaw.

It's alright to follow Mae West's advice and hold your man, but don't do it while he's driving.

G. B. Shaw says better let people come into the world and see what a mess they made of it.

Of all the latest ditties, "Thanks," is in my humble opinion the better of a group of good numbers. The slow rhythm of "The Last Roundup" was copied from the walking gait of a horse, so I hear.

And the Gobleus 'll get'chuh ef'n yuh don't watch out—

Fire In Laboratory

Thursday afternoon the first accident of the term occurred in the Chemistry laboratory.

The freshmen Chemists were busily searching for mysterious mixtures when some were attracted by an offensive, odor-laden gas.

The flame of a Bunsen burner owned by Geraldine Pratt carelessly fell into close region of the rubber hose by which it was connected to the gas jet.

Kind neighbors offered expedient beakers of water to extinguish the fire, and the only damage incurred was slight burns on Miss Pratt's arm.

These were treated from the first-aid kit which is kept in the laboratory for emergencies of this type.

PALO DURO

The Palo Duro Literary Society met in regular session, Wednesday, October 25. Plans were made for a program of music given by guest artists, but unfortunately only one performer was able to appear.

Mrs. Elizabeth Powell gave two entertaining piano numbers.

Several matters of importance were discussed during the business session. First, the year books, attractively bound in the club colors, purple and gold, were distributed. In these are listed all the programs for the year with provisions being made for one social meeting each month.

Miss Roach gave brief summaries of three one-act plays so that the members might select the one which they are to give in assembly sometime before Thanksgiving. "A Case of Suspicion" was selected. The cast as selected by Miss Roach is as follows:

Three college girls: Jean Bourland, Pauline Sanford, and Dorothy Jo Taylor.

Three college boys: J. R. Bartlett, Jr., Mike Stricklin, and Alfred McMurtry.

The Dean of Men: Fred Bourland.

The Dean of Women: Geraldine Pratt.

The Irish Maid: Jo Ella Stewart.

The Night Watchman: Bill Word.

ALPHA DELTA PSI

The Alpha Delta Psi veterans presided over a surprise program Wednesday, October 25, during which all new members endured an official initiation.

Announcements of a big surprise were posted on the bulletin board, and as a result there was a very large number of curious persons present. This week there are conversations between new members and opposite sex, no dates, and no make-up. Violators of these rules are penalized one penny for each offense.

Some humorous demands were made of those who asked admission into the clan. Helen Rodgers underwent the embarrassment of invited the Palo Durans to "come up sometime." Louise Smith accompanied Delbert Linder around the building. Bill Wood sang a charming solo about someone's Irish eyes. Elizabeth Dunn humbly proposed to Bob Goodson.

Thayer Acord was transferred to the good old days when he went barefooted and displayed his dainty toes to his friends. Virgie Skinner told her most embarrassing moment, and many told of first dates, harrowing incidents, and various discomforts experienced. The climax was requesting Mr. Linder to eat a mammoth onion for Una Vay's benefit. The unabashed blond consented and soon windows went up and Alpha Delatans passed out . . . not the windows, however.

A few items of business were discussed before adjournment took place until the next meeting.

AGRICULTURE REPORT

The Agriculture classes are finishing a few of their ten jobs that are required. One can hardly hear himself think when everyone gets his tools together and starts sawing and hammering. Everybody is interested in his own individual job. Students are getting a lot of experience in constructing things on a big scale.

PEGGY WORD NOMINATED FOR FOOTBALL QUEEN

The Sophomores met Tuesday morning in their room to have a business meeting. The object was to elect a Football Queen. There were several nominations, but Peggy Word received the most votes and was duly made Sophomore candidate. The class is determined to have her elected. The office of vice president has moved away; we are very sorry to lose her. Johnny Lott was elected to fill the vacancy. Sophomores let us elect Peggy!

SEVENTH GRADE PUPILS IN DOWN TOWN CONTEST

(By Gene Teat and Jane Kerbow) The seventh grade pupils haven't had much time for social pleasures this week because they have really been studying to see if they can bring their grades up for the next six weeks. There was a contest down town in which some of the seventh graders entered and won. In the potato race, Homer Tucker won second place, Jimmie Watters won fourth. In the water race, Cecil Smith won second place. In the three legged race, Rayburn Smith and Harry Kerbow won first place, and Gail Adams won third place. Gene Teat won first place in the bicycle race; Phoebe Ann Buntin won second and Jane Kerbow third. Oleta Wood and Gene Teat won second in the three legged race. Phoebe Ann Buntin and Jane Kerbow won fourth.

Library Notes

By MRS. C. A. BURTON

The names of certain Authors instantly suggest to us certain sections of our country. We think of Bret Harte, and we see the little cabin on the mountain side in the midst of the Sierras, and the Hanging Tree from which still dangle rope-ends; Kathleen Norris brings to our minds beautiful California at her best—flowers, gentle breezes, softly murmuring ocean; Zane Grey suggests great wastes of purple sage and the red sandstone background of Arizona; Ralph Connor pictures to us the great Canadian Northwest with its vast resources and stirring struggles for conquest; James Oliver Curwood means the frozen wastes of the far north and man's fight with the forces of Nature there; Jack London brings to our minds the great snowy plains of Alaska, and the dog teams fighting their way across these because of their loyalty to the master who directs their course; Thomas Nelson Page means the Old South and Virginia—and so we might go on and on. Joseph Lincoln means the Cape Cod Country of New England. His name brings to us a picture of a fishing village with its sheltered bay filled with fishing boats, its lighthouse, and above all, its quaint "Old Salts" spinning their sea yarns.

The Denver Post says of him, "When it comes to lovable and laughable characters and those incidents that thoroughly amuse, commend us to Joseph C. Lincoln and his people." The Atlantic Monthly says, "Mr. Lincoln does not belong to the rose-pink sentimental school. His books have a clear sincerity. He knows his characters through and through. He commands a lucid style. His humor shines from every page." One of the pleasantest periods of the year is that time when the newest Lincoln novel is published" writes the Indianapolis News, while the Philadelphia Public Ledger says, "No discriminating person who reads a novel by Joseph C. Lincoln is surprised at his popularity. Mr. Lincoln is human and has faith in the goodness of his fellowmen, and he gets this into his books."

One of his books which our readers have enjoyed is "Queer Judson." Carey Judson returns to his home-town under the cloud of the failure of the bank with which he had been connected. He had not wanted to be a banker, all his heart and his talents were in the study of nature. He comes back penniless, dependent on the charity of his brother, and makes a stiff fight in which, by sheer force of character, he wins. The story has a deftly wrought plot, and the charm of a romance—and the human of Lincoln. "The Big Mogal" has been "another popular story. Captain Foster Townsend is the Big Mogul of his county and his home town. Headstrong, tyrannical, selfish, generous, lovable, contradictory, and self-made—he is a most interesting character. "Rugged Water" goes back

Clarendon Woman
Dies Here Monday

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Davidson Spitzer, wife of William Spitzer, died here at the family residence Monday, October 30th.

She was born June 18th, 1858 in Stark County, Illinois, being the eldest of a family of six children born to Wm. Henry and Rachel Jane Davidson. When she was nine years old her family moved to a homestead in Calhoun County, Iowa. They were among the early settlers in Western Iowa. Here she grew to womanhood and on August 30th, 1883, was united in marriage to Wm. Spitzer at Manson, Iowa. The three eldest children were born there.

Later the family moved to Colorado, settling first on a homestead in Douglas County and afterwards living at Fort Collins, Colorado. In 1909 they removed to a farm near Ashtola, Texas, where they resided until 1919, when they moved to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Spitzer celebrated their Fiftieth Wedding anniversary the 30th of August of this year.

Funeral services were conducted at the home, Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. R. S. McKee officiating and the Eastern Star Order in charge at the cemetery. Pallbearers were J. H. Hurn, W. H. Youngblood, Bill Bromley, Chas. Bairfield, John T. Sims, and Henry Tomb.

The deceased is survived by her husband, four brothers, four sons, R. C. of Amarillo, George and Dan of Denver, Colorado, and Floyd of Clarendon, also two grandsons.

Mrs. Spitzer was a member of the Eastern Star Order and was very active in Home Demonstration Club work. She was beloved by her friends and neighbors and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

A great mother and wife has passed to her reward and The News joins in sympathy to the sorrowing family.

Seek Meteorites In Donley County

H. H. Nininger, Curator of Meteorites in the Colorado Museum of Natural History and director of the Nininger Laboratory was in Clarendon Tuesday on the trail of fallen meteor stones. Mr. Nininger is one of the most noted astronomers in America and is probably the chief authority on meteorites in the country. His recent book, "Our Stone Pelted Planet" published this year by Houghton Mifflin Co., is a fascinating volume lavishly illustrated with photographs of interesting specimens which reflects a wide experience of the author in the field of scientific research.

Mr. Nininger is owner of the world's largest private collection of meteorites gathered from the four corners of the earth. Tuesday he exhibited several specimens to interested parties in Clarendon. He is particularly interested in locating meteorites in this section of the state and will return to Clarendon next week for further effort along his line. He plans to lecture to the college students at that time.

If anybody has a meteorite or a formation which resembles one, Mr. Nininger will be pleased to see it and identify it, as well as appraise its worth.

MAYOR CAGLE ASKS COMMUNITY-WIDE
ROLL CALL SUPPORT

Mayor W. P. Cagle, one of the first residents of Clarendon to enroll this year as a member of the American Red Cross, today issued a proclamation, in which he appealed to the local citizenship to support the national organization in the annual Roll Call which opens November 11.

"As Mayor of the city of Clarendon, I deem it my duty and privilege to call public attention to the annual membership campaign of the American Red Cross which is to be conducted here between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving, November 11 to 30.

"The Red Cross, universally recognized as 'the greatest mother', is solely dependent upon individual backing. Lacking this support the organization would be unable to carry on its noble work during disasters, among War Veterans, in the health field, first aid, life saving, and its numerous other tasks.

Every local citizen can answer the Roll Call appeal—a community's challenge—in full confidence that every dollar contributed to this cause will be multiplied in usefulness."

THE THREE WISHES

The Wise Man long observed the kind deeds and rectitude of conduct of Mr. Good Man, and said to him one day:

"What thou doest to the needy and the sorrowing, and to little children, thou does to thy God. The world hath need of more like thee. Name three things thou must desire, and thy three wishes shall be granted unto thee.

Mr. Good Man bowed humbly in grateful acknowledgement.

"O Wise Man," he said, "While I have little of riches, outward possessions do not make happiness, but only that which is within. First, I would be considered by my fellowmen worthy of their confidence and esteem; that I might be among them even as thou art, O Wise One, a respected leader in thought and deed. Secondly, I would know the sagas of the past, the wisdom of the present, that I might recognize the good in government and in the social order; that I might be a better citizen, patriot, and philosopher. And thirdly, I would be a Good Samaritan, so that confidence gained from my fellowmen, and the knowledge learned of the world, might be daily useful in improving the conditions of those less fortunate than I."

"Wise thou are already," replied the Wise Man. "The very nature of thy requests mark thee as worthy, and all shall be granted thee. Go thou to the temple of the Scottish Rite Masons. There thou shall find others of like mind to thee. There are found united in a sacred bond of brotherhood many good men who are leaders in their communities, intellectually, socially, industrially, and whose noble order rests upon morality, honor, and faith. There thou shall find in the rituals that have come out of the past all that is noble and good and true from the philosophies, religions, and governments of the past. There thou shall find institutions of service and relief, liberal contributions to orphans and aged, and to worthy youth seeking education, to helpless little crippled children that they may find lives of joy and service. Already thou art a good man, but there thy labors, joined with those of thousands like thee, will be increased a thousand fold."

Mrs. M. W. Mosley left Monday for Mont Vista, Colorado, where she will visit her son, Vestel and his family for a week or two.

Many Subscribers On The Honor Roll

In response to a very earnest and sincere appeal by letter to those readers of The News in arrears for subscription, the business office has been very busy for the past two weeks, meeting friends, crediting the list with cash payments and setting up the figures for 1934 and after.

During these hard times The News has chosen to carry many readers who were cramped, to the extent that we were all cramped together, and now since there is more money in the county, The News is most thankful for the many friends who pay up and show their genuine appreciation for the favors extended. As one put it, "Turn about is fair play and it is the editor's time now."

Of course, you've heard about the Scotchman who used free air at the filling station for the first time and blew out four of his tires.
