Methodist Conference In Organization Session Here Last Night

BISHOP H. A. BOAZ
WIELDER OF GAVEL

OVER 300 MINISTERS AND LAY DELEGATES HERE
FOR SESSIONS

The Northwest Texas Methodist Annual Conference has come home.

Twenty-three years ago the present organization was formed in Clarendon, when the churches in Central Texas were separated from this section of Texas into what is known as the Central Texas Conference, and the Panhandle and West Texas retained the old name. And last night when Bishop Boaz called the Conference to order at the Methodist Church, the Northwest Texas Conference had come home, although in the intervening years since 1910 the organization has met in Clarendon twice, in 1915 and 1920.

Welcome to Clarendon was expressed by Judge J. R. Porter, and Rev. R. S. McKee, the former representing the local Methodist church and the latter, the sister churches of the city; while the Chamber of Commerce and the city's welcome was made by G. Lester Boykin, secretary-manager of the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the local board of Stewards. Welcome on behalf of the Lions Club of Clarendon was extended by Sam M. Braswell, International Director of Lions Clubs. Bishop Boaz responded for the cabinet and conference.

In the election of secretaries and assistants, Rev. Cal C. Wright of Abilene was re-elected for the sixth term and his assistants were also re-named, Rev. Bracey Hicks and Rev. John Price. Rev. John E. Eldridge is conference treasurer. Other officials include, Rev. J. W. Watson, Lubbock, educational secretary; and Hugh Black of Childress, conference lay leader.

Business of the conference will be taken up at this morning's session beginning at 9:30, and among the most important items of the entire sessions will be the election of seven clerical and seven lay delegates to represent the Northwest Texas Conference at the General Conference of the church which meets at Jackson, Miss., next April or May. The General Conference meets every four years and is the highest jurisdiction in the church.

Great disappointment came to the conference and the town when Bishop Boaz read a telegram from Bishop A. Frank Smith of Houston conveying his regrets at not being able to fill his preaching engagements here during the conference as announced, on account of the very serious illness of his small son, remaining at home until the crisis had passed on advice of his physician.

STORES TO CLOSE
FRIDAY AT 2 P. M.

ARMISTICE DAY CLOSING WILL BE OBSERVED FRIDAY
AFTER 2 O'CLOCK

Through agreement of the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants Association the business houses of Clarendon will close Friday afternoon instead of Armistice Day which falls on Saturday. The closing hour will be two o'clock and the stores will remain closed for the remainder of the day.

This movement is also sponsored by the American Legion who joins with the two organizations mentioned above in asking that the hours be strictly observed by all our business houses.

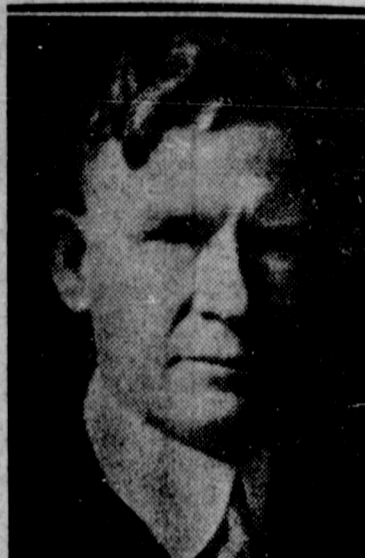

The football game between Clarendon and Memphis at the College Park begins at 2:30 and will be among the chief activities of the afternoon. Many will take advantage of the half-holiday to go hunting, while others will go visiting and attend the Conference sessions at the Methodist Church in the afternoon and night.

The Legion asks that the flags be displayed Armistice Day, Saturday, from sunrise to sunset, as usual.

COUNTY FINANCIAL CONDITION BETTER

BANK STATEMENTS SHOW FEWER LOANS, MORE
CASH, MORE DEPOSITS

State and National Banks of Donley County reflect a much improved financial condition among the citizenship in their detailed statements as made to the comptrollers state and national, on October 25th.

In recent months and for a long period the loans of the banks have been too high, their cash reserve none too large and their deposits rather lean. The composite statements of the three Clarendon banks and the Hedley bank on Oct. 25th, show this condition much improved from all angles. The total loans of the county only aggregate $456,153.73 while the cash of the four banks runs up to $290,538.32. The most satisfactory showing, however, from the general standpoint, is the deposits which total $697,362.28 for the four institutions. This shows that the citizenship have been able, not only to pay off part of their indebtedness, but that there is over and above a satisfactory increase in personal deposits in the bank.

Profits accounts also show a better situation, so all in all, there is generally a better financial level in the county, which is expected to be further increased during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Knorpp and Mrs. Carroll Knorpp were Amarillo visitors Tuesday.

Judge Fires Okehs Records Inspection

Near the beginning of the present session of District Court the grand jury submitted the following to Judge Fires for his approval:

To Hon. Judge A. J. Fires: We, your grand jury desire your confirmation of appointment of Miss Lottie E. Lane and Tom F. Connally to inspect the various accounts of District and County officers to see whether or not they are being kept in regular order and according to the statutes. This inspection is not authorized for regular audit.

Respectfully submitted,
ROY JEWELL, Foreman.
Judge Fires approved and entered in the record as follows: "I recommend this committee be appointed."

A. J. Fires, Judge.

After his marriage to Mrs. Nettie Knapp of Philadelphia Rolin Goodel entertained the wedding guests with a solo, "The Prisoner's Song."

After having been mute for several years Walter Schuetz of Berlin regained his speech while laughing at a "movie."

BRONCHO-CYCLONE TITLE HERE FRIDAY

ARMISTICE DAY GAME IS CHANGED TO FRIDAY ON PROTEST OF LOCAL FANS

Due to the popular demand of the fans the date of the Clarendon-Memphis football game has been changed from Armistice Day Saturday, Nov. 11th, to Friday, Nov. 10th. Saturday being a very busy day it would be impossible for many of the fans to see the game; so the date was changed much to the advantage of both Bronchos and Cyclone fans.

A large crowd is expected because this game with Memphis is always the most important game of the year to both Clarendon and Memphis. Since the time football became a popular school game these rivals have fought every game as if their very lives depended on the outcome.

For several years Memphis beat Clarendon consistently. In 1929 the score was a tie of 6 to 6, but this necessitated another game in which Memphis was victor with a score of 13 to 7. In 1930 it was again necessary to play Memphis twice. In the first game the score was 31 to 25 in favor of Memphis. The same year Clarendon beat Turkey and Turkey beat Memphis. Clarendon played Memphis again and was beaten this time with a score of 12 to 0. And again in 1932 Clarendon was victor with a score of 26 to 2.

The 1933 game will be played in Clarendon Friday, November 10th. Clarendon fans are eagerly looking forward to the third consecutive victory over the Memphis Cyclones.

MAYOR CAGLE ASKS WELCOME

CO-OPERATION OF CITIZENSHIP
ASKED IN CORDIAL
GREET TO DELEGATES

Mayor W. P. Cagle called at The News office the first of the week and requested this newspaper to ask the people of this community to go a little out of their way this week in extending cordial greetings and welcome to the ministers, laymen and lay women who are guests here as members of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference.

Clarendon has long been noted in the Panhandle for its hospitality and Mayor Cagle is anxious that the city put its best foot forward in keeping that tradition alive and maintaining the local reputation. Speak out to the delegates, smile and pass a kind word with them. The atmosphere of the community depends upon the attitude of its people.

G. LESTER BOYKIN
Chairman Board of Stewards

Among those from Clarendon attending the Baptist State Convention meeting in Fort Worth, this week, were Rev. and Mrs. B. N. Shepherd, Mrs. Mollie E. Gray, and Mrs. L. L. Cornelius.

67,000 Methodists of Northwest Texas turn their eyes toward Clarendon as this week the 24th annual Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, convenes. It was at Clarendon, on almost the identical dates, 23 years ago, that the first conference was held, with Bishop Atkins presiding and A. L. Moore as secretary.

Bishop Boaz of Houston is presiding over the sessions daily. Rev. Cal C. Wright, pastor of First Church, Abilene, is secretary. The bishop and his cabinet meet from day to day during the session to arrange the selection and location of ministers for the ensuing 12 months. Other members of the cabinet are presiding elders: Rev. W. M. Murrell, Abilene; Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, Amarillo; Rev. M. M. Beavers, Clarendon; Rev. C. A. Bickley, Lubbock; Rev. W. L. Tittle, Plainview; Rev. George S. Slover, Stamford; Rev. O. P. Clark, Sweetwater, and Rev. R. A. Stewart, Vernon.

Indications are many shifts will be made of ministers for another year. Presiding elder, Rev. C. A. Bickley of Lubbock district, will be moved in accordance with Methodist usage, since he has served a quadrennium in that post. Most of the ministers who have served four years in stations and on circuits will also be moved to other points.

Large Collections Seen
Advance reports from the nine districts indicate that the collection of salaries of ministers and of benevolences will show a marked improvement over that of last year, indicative that the depression is gradually being lifted in ecclesiastical circles as well as in the commercial world. Many ministers last year received less than $400 each for their support for a 12-month. Improvement in raising the benevolences is reported by several districts.

Interest at this session centers largely in the election of clerical and lay delegates to the general conference meeting next year, the lawmaking body of the denomination; in the action taken in the matter of consolidating denominational schools, and in the matter of holding all the state conferences in a central point next year. If the several conferences adopt the last proposal it will mean the gathering together in some large Texas city of many thousands of Methodist preachers and laymen.

Many Young Ministers
A large class of young ministers will come before the committee for admission on trial into the traveling ministry. Due to the crowded condition of the conference it is problematical as to what disposition the conference and Bishop Boaz will make.

The committee on admission on trial consists of A. O. Graydon and W. H. Hanks.

Dr. Ernest E. Robinson of Hereford, one of the most eloquent and efficient ministers in the conference, will probably superannuate at this session. He purposes to make his residence at Plainview and give some time to the writing of ecclesiastical books. Dr. Robinson came to this conference years ago, served as presiding elder several terms, and occupied many of the principal city pulpits of the region.

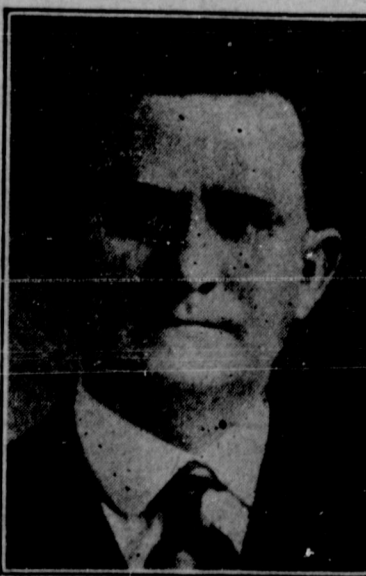

Transfers Expected
Rev. J. W. Watson, executive secretary of the conference board of Christian education, Lubbock, will give up this post and return to the pastorate, it was announced. Unofficially it is announced that Rev. W. E. Hamilton of Chillicothe will succeed him. This is a traveling post.

WELCOME TO OUR CITY

Clarendon is honored this week by the presence of the members of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference, preachers and lay delegates, alike. This conference was organized in Clarendon in 1910 and has come back home twice since. In their home-coming this week Clarendon bespeaks for them a great session, a happy convocation and a not-too-distant return. We, of Clarendon, expect to receive great social and spiritual profit from the presence and associations of the conference.

Clarendon is, after all, the cradle of Panhandle Methodism, and our people have nothing but love and high regard for this fine body of men and women.

Welcome to Clarendon, Methodists of Northwest Texas.

IF GOLD FAILS, TRY SILVER

So few people know anything for certain about the monetary system of the nation, that all talk of devaluing the dollar, reducing the gold content, and such terms are rather confusing.

President Roosevelt's plan of raising the price of gold on the open markets of America and Europe, so far has been disappointing, as sincere as the effort to raise commodity prices through this device has been. So far it just hasn't done the job.

There are many who still remain firm in their convictions that Bryan's plan of "sixteen to one" silver is the only sure way and certain solution to the ills of low farm commodity prices. Since this is an administration of experimenting with various expedients, we should like to recommend to the President that he try the silver route and let us see the results. Wall street and high finance to the contrary, notwithstanding.

As another expedient not yet attempted, there might be some possibilities in adjusting certain tariffs which directly effect farm products. Still a better suggestion is a speedy, frank and generous adjustment of the war debts, so that international commerce may escape from its dark shadow.

The South and West demand action along these lines. No permanent relief can come until they are effected.

THANKSGIVING APPROACHES

Thanksgiving is only a few days away, now, and it is time that all men give thought to its import and observance.

In recent years there has been too mechanical observance over the nation and even that too scantily adhered to. Let us be reminded that we shall hardly gain much recovery until we have humbled ourselves and brought our natures into a deep and reverent spirit of thanksgiving for the blessings we have received and do enjoy.

WORTHY OF FULL SUPPORT

The Wichita Daily Times says that the gamblers are becoming vexed with high school and college football because the teams do not run true to form. According to the Times, the gamblers site numerous recent games where the expected didn't happen, as upsets have been costing them money every week-end. Times goes further and says that football will be a much better and a cleaner sport if the gamblers do leave it alone.

Yes, brother, we sincerely hope that the gamblers do leave football alone. Most of the trouble that has arisen in and between towns, schools and colleges have been directly chargeable to the gamblers. Here in the Panhandle we have had, several instances where this has been true, and this newspaper has always contended that the best way to enjoy any sport is to leave the betting off and enjoy sport for sport's sake.

By all means, let us be rid of the gamblers in football. And while we are about it, we might call attention to the fact that many daily papers who deplore gambling on football were militant in the effort to bring back legalized betting on horse races.

One great philosopher said "O Consistency, thou art a jewel."

WORSE THAN USELESS

Some of the people of Levelland have been stung by a carnival company that carried some gambling devices. Some of their citizens were hit for $100 or more; many for a smaller sum, and the carnival manager was brought back and fined, and returned some of the money to the citizenry. And some of the citizens were in turn fined for their participation in the gambling. Our people may think the Brownfield city dads are hard on them by not letting such amusement (?) outfits come here, but the Herald thinks they are acting the part of the wise. A carnival takes out many dollars that are needful to the community, and leaves only a bad taste in the mouths of the people. In other words, a carnival is worse than useless to a community.—Brownfield Herald.

THE THING THAT KILLS

Houston Post: What kills a church? Exclusiveness. What kills a town? Exclusiveness. Every church in its beginning is inclusive; rich and poor, learned and unlearned, find in it sanctuary, the result of perfect equality.

Every town in its beginnings is inclusive; there are no upety-up, and the place grows and flourishes like the proverbial green bay tree.

Every nation in its beginnings is inclusive; the people are welded together by persecution as are pieces of iron under the blacksmith's hammer.

But by degrees distinctions arise; my lady in purple disdains the society of her sister in gingham, and the church begins to fail.

By degrees class consciousness gets into the town; it loses its democratic spirit, and the "for rent" signs multiply.

By degrees tariff walls are builded higher and higher; the other fellow's goods are excluded, and the nation is plagued by depression and doesn't know what ails it.

Let him who runs read aright.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION IS DEAD—NOW WHAT?

On the face of the returns from elections Tuesday, National Prohibition under the 18th amendment is dead. Some might even say that it was done to death in the house of its friends—betrayed by those who joined the forces of morality and sobriety over a dozen years ago to give us its uncontrovertible blessings in spite of certain defects brought on by poor enforcement, graft and greed.

Those things, however, will be food for thought for the American people for the next few years while they cast about in what we believe to be a futile effort to find a better way of handling the liquor traffic than by national prohibition.

Meantime, what are we to do with the hitherto unsolved problems of legal liquor. The nation has been promised protection for dry territory by the ruling political party, but at this very moment a movement is under way to vote every dry state wet in the name of the administration and for the sake of so-called reform. If we are to judge by the attitude of the government in restraining legal beer from overflowing into dry territory, we must be convinced that there is no dependence to be put in promises made by any leader or any party where security of dry territory is concerned. Liquor representatives have never kept promises before, so their performances now seem to be running true to form.

There seems to be only one thing left for that substantial, moral element of citizenship—to redouble their efforts to fight liquor in all its forms, to resist every effort to defeat state prohibition, to give support to courts and officers in the rigid enforcement of liquor laws such as we have, to vote only for officials that are sober and untrammelled and who owe no allegiance to the brewers and liquor machines, to personally stress and support all forms of temperance education, and to practice rigidly absolute abstinence.

Strong in economic, political and moral integrity, we may confidently await the gradual awakening of a poor, duped nation, until it shrinks in horror from its terrible mistake, rising in its might to banish again and forever, the curse of legalized liquor and the train of shame and tragedy that rides with it.

Many people know through bitter experience how easy it is to get into debt and how difficult it is to get out of it again. Pay as you go is a good habit to get into; that is, if you can.

The greatest miracle that I know of is my conscience. And if God has been able to work that one, there are none of which He is not capable.—Vinet.

An adequate description was given of the meteor so that one should be recognized if it were found. The two types of meteors are iron and stone, and a third type which is a mixture of stone and nickel.

GRAND JURY IN FINAL REPORT
SIX INDICTMENTS FOR FELONY RETURNED BY GRAND JURY AT THIS TERM

The grandjury for this term of district court completed its work Tuesday of this week and turned in its final report. Very few indictments were returned, there being only six for the term, this being a gratifying condition for Donley County. The jury was discharged by the court. Following is the report as returned: District Court, Donley County, Texas, October Term, A. D. 1933, STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF DONLEY To Hon. A. J. Fires, Judge of said Court: Comes now the Grand Jury, duly empanelled for the October Term, A. D. 1933 of the District Court of Donley County, Texas, and presents this its final report. We have been in session 5 days; have examined many witnesses, and have voted bills on indictment in all cases in which we deemed the evidence sufficient to sustain a conviction. We have heretofore returned into open court 4 indictments, all felonies and we herewith return into open court two felony indictments. Through a committee composed of Miss Lottie Lane and Tom F. Conally, both appointed by our body we have examined the books of the County and find same in good condition as shown by the report of said committee which report is adopted by this Grand Jury. We find that the examination by said committee consumed two days and we recommend that each member of said committee be paid the sum of $10.00 for this work. We herewith return into open court the report of said committee. We have visited the county jail and find same in excellent condition and wish to commend those in charge of the jail for the excellent manner in which it is cared for and the splendid treatment accorded the prisoners. We wish to thank the Court, our examining committee, the

EDUCATION IS LIONS PROGRAM
McKEE DELIVERS ADDRESS OF THE DAY WARNING AGAINST FALSE ECONOMY

Snappy weather Tuesday brought out a splendid attendance of the Clarendon Lions Club, with several visitors, and a fine program, presented by program chairman Drennan. Visitors were Sid E. Harris, county commissioner; James E. Parker of Wichita Falls, Clyde Benton Douglas, enterprising son of Lion C. J. Douglas, and R. V. W. E. Ferrell, pastor of the First Christian Church. Lion R. S. McKee was introduced to the club and delivered the address of the day on "Education," this being Education Week over the nation. The speaker launched into the subject by declaring that education was the biggest business in the nation, showing that one-fourth of the entire population was either engaged in giving or getting an education. The annual education bill of the nation, $1,900,000,000, was contrasted with approximately the same sum each year for gasoline in the operation of automobiles, without any other item of car upkeep. The speaker declared that economies had been effected as they should in upkeep of schools, but that further reductions, would impair the system for the next twenty years is the conclusion arrived at after a study of the matter. Teachers' salaries had been reduced to the point that they were now receiving less on an average than the minimum wage for common labor under the NRA code. Lion McKee closed his address District Clerk, Sheriff's department, County and District attorney, and the Grand Jury Bailiffs for the assistance rendered us during our deliberations. We finished our labors and ask that we be discharged. Done at Clarendon, Texas, this the 7th day of November, A. D. 1933. ROY JEWELL, Foreman.

Street Lights On For The Conference

Through the very kind co-operation of the West Texas Utilities Company and its manager T. D. Norad, with the Mayor and city commission of Clarendon, the street lights that have been dark for many months will be bright with welcome during the duration of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference from Wednesday through Sunday night. The city has also employed a special night watchman to give added protection to the automobiles and vehicles of the visitors and is just another touch of welcome that is accorded the delegates from over West Texas. We are sending a quarter of a million men into the woods to get them out of the woods. With all its drawbacks life is still a splendid adventure. by referring to the Lions motto "Liberty, Intelligence Our Nation's Safety," and urged that all Lion members give their hearty support to the maintenance of education at no lower level until the nation is able to advance in that field. Lion G. L. Boykin, director of the Lions Benefit Ministrel, told of the first rehearsal of the troupe Monday evening and said there would be two practices each week on Monday and Thursday evening at the Lions Hall until date of the presentation on Dec. 8th. Lion Patman said the major activities committee would have all arrangements for the staging, advertising and ticket selling worked out in due time, with an admission scale of 10c for children to 12 years of age, and 50c for adults. Mayor W. P. Cagle called the membership's attention to the convening of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference here this week and asked that each and every citizen make it a point to welcome the delegates and show every courtesy to the visitors in the city. The first issue of "The Clarendon Leo-Graph," edited and produced by Rev. W. E. Ferrell was distributed to the club and gladly received by the membership.

ANNUAL REPORT OF CHURCH IS HEARD
BOWEN MAKES FINE RECORD IN SPITE OF CONDITIONS -NEW OFFICIALS NAMED

The work of the local Methodist Church for the year 1932-33 was brought to a close Monday night. Rev. M. M. Beavers, the Presiding Elder held the fourth quarterly conference. There was a fine attendance on the part of the officials and other members of the church. Reports from the various departments were given. They were all very encouraging and showed the church to be well organized in every department. Officers for the next year were elected. The pastor reported a most successful year, the best of his three. There has been fifty-five additions to the membership of the church. Thirty of these on profession of faith and twenty-five by letter. The board of stewards had reported the salaries out in full at the close of the Sunday morning service. In addition to the salaries Treasurer Homer McElvany reported $1400.00 paid on the incidentals of the church. Something like $615.00 was raised by the W. M. S. Judge Porter reported $1532.00 raised by the Sunday school. The pastor, Rev. E. B. Bowen, G. L. Boykin, Chairman of the board of Stewards and all other officers of the church are very grateful for the splendid co-operation given them by the membership of the Church during the year. Patman was elected recording steward; C. E. Griggs, lay leader; J. R. Porter, Sunday School Superintendent; and M. M. Noble, district steward.

WITHOUT A PRESIDENT

It may not be generally known that every four years the United States is without a President for several hours, but such is the fact. The term of the outgoing President expires at midnight on March 3 and the new President is usually sworn in about noon on the following day. During the intervening hours the country is without a chief executive. The question of whether a vacancy existed during this interval was discussed early in the history of the country. In response to an inquiry, Chief Justice John Marshall wrote on February 21, 1821: "There has been uniformly and voluntarily an interval of 12 hours during which the executive power could not be exercised. If an emergency demanded, the new President could be sworn in immediately after his predecessor's term expired at midnight on March 3, but no situation has ever existed to make this necessary." were elected stewards for the coming year: J. H. Hurn, M. M. Noble, Sam M. Braswell, E. V. Quattlebaum, Paul Shelton, G. L. Boykin, J. R. Porter, D. O. Stallings, Lee Holland, Nathan Cox, Cal Merchant, W. A. Armstrong, Tom F. Connally, T. R. Brown, D. R. Davis, H. L. Brady, Homer McElvany, E. M. Ozler, Wm. Patman, Simmons Powell, M. R. Allensworth, and J. E. Bartlett. The trustees are: J. H. Hurn, J. R. Porter, Tom F. Connally, S. M. Braswell, Cal Merchant, O. W. Latson, and Lee Holland. W. M. Patman was elected recording steward; C. E. Griggs, lay leader; J. R. Porter, Sunday School Superintendent; and M. M. Noble, district steward.

Methodist Conference (Continued From Page One)

The conference secretary was ordered to wire a message of regret and condolence to Bishop Smith. The committee on public worship will announce today who is to do the preaching in place of Bishop Smith. Bishop Boaz will preach at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday at the Methodist Church after the ordination services for the young ministers coming into the conference, and those who are admitted into full connection. This service will follow the Love Feast, which will occur at 9:30 in place of the usual Sunday School exercises. The Love Feast is one of the remarkable services of the Conference, for here is heard the testimonials of those who love and serve God, ministers and laymen alike. Sunday evening will come the close of the Conference and appointments for the ensuing conference year will be read by Bishop Boaz after the sermon. This service will probably be held early in the evening, so that those who live within driving distance may return home that night. The music for the evening services will be furnished by the Choir of the Clarendon Methodist Church, the McMurry College singers, and the Junior Choir of the local church.
