The Reunion of the Aged

By IRVIN S. COBB

THERE is a certain musical comedy star who is not quite so young as she once was. She still has beauty and voice and she is just as clever and talented as ever; but it is not to be denied that a good many years have passed since she made her professional debut.

During the past season she headed a road show. Business at times was not especially good and the tempers of the troupers suffered. Relations became somewhat strained between the prima donna and certain members of the chorus.

For the opening performance the house was no more than two-thirds filled and the audience, for some reason or other, seemed rather unresponsive. The leading lady was not in a particularly happy frame of mind as she sat in her so-called dressing-room after the final curtain, removing her make-up. Next door several members of the chorus were shifting to street dresses.

There came a knock at the star's door.

"Who is it and what do you want?" she demanded sharply.

"It's the house manager, Miss" came the answer. There's a lady out front who'd like very much to see you."

"I'm not receiving visitors tonight," said Miss — rather acidly.

"Who is this lady?"

"She tells me that she thinks you'll be glad to see her. She says that she was a chum of yours when you were at high school."

Over the dividing wall came floating the voice of a catty chorus-lady:

"Wheel her in!"

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunions, the best advice for home treatment that anyone in this world can give, is to get a prescription known as Moone's Emerald Oil.

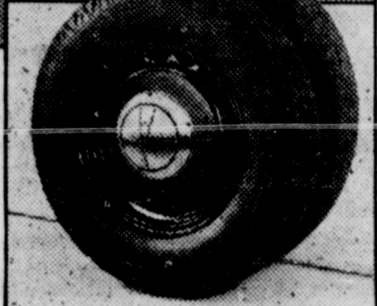

Simply ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you should notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are no longer troublesome. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that old chronic sores and ulcers are often entirely healed.

Ford Builds 'High Wheeler' for Difficult Roads

A FORD V-8 "HIGH WHEELER" for use in rural districts where exceptional road clearance is needed is now being produced by the Ford Motor Company. The car is equipped with 18-inch steel spoke wheels and 6.00 by 18 4-ply tires, instead of the 16-inch drawn steel wheels and 6.00 by 16 tires which are standard on the 1936 model. The additional road clearance enables the "high wheeler" to negotiate roads with deep ruts and trails with high spots such as stones and stumps. The view at right shows the standard wheel in front, with the new "high wheel" behind.

NEW TEXAS ALMANAC

The book of 100,000 facts—the 1936 edition of the Texas Almanac—is just off the press. It is the largest volume in the history of this publication—a total of 512 pages, on better grade of paper and more profusely illustrated. The 1936 book, although designated as the "Centennial Edition" and compiled in tribute to the grand celebration of Texas this year, misses only twenty-one years of reaching its own centennial year, having first been issued in 1857 by the Galveston News, the parent organization of The Dallas News, its present publisher.

While much new material of historical nature is included in the new issue, none of the chapters that has made The Texas Almanac the standard reference book of Texas in the past has been omitted. The names of several thousand individuals appear in its pages.

Features of the current issue include an extensive description of the Texas Centennial, including celebrations at Dallas and other points in the state, an outline of the history of Texas from its beginning to the present, an illustrated chapter on the wild flowers of Texas, extensive lists of historic old towns and origins of names of Texas towns, a text of the state constitution with all its amendments and brief account of submission of all adopted amendments since adoption of the constitution, and the new farm census figures of 1935. There is much of interest for the coming political campaign, including the current poll tax payments by counties. All figures on state, county and city bonded debt are brought up to date. There are several chapters devoted to points of interest for the Centennial tourist in Texas, and a new map made in four colors especially for this edition of the Texas Almanac, entitled "Texas for Tourists," is folded between the leaves of each volume.

There are more than 100,000 facts about the history, natural resources, crops, livestock, industries, commerce, transportation, finance, government, politics, educational system, cultural institutions and other phases of Texas economic, political and social development.

The Texas Almanac, always in demand by business and professional men and women and students in the Lone Star State, will be more in demand this year than ever before. Texas history is more glamorous and richly appealing on the state's 100th birthday. Thousands of out-of-state visitors

Decline Is Shown In Commercial Failures

Reports to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research for March show a decline in the average weekly number of commercial failures of 20 per cent from February and 33 per cent from March, 1935. Total liabilities declined 9 per cent, and 44 per cent respectively for the two comparable periods; and average liabilities per failure were down 21 per cent from the preceding month and same amount from the year before.

and newcomers will find this birthday edition particularly acceptable. No individual or organization is so thoroughly equipped to present in book form a compendium of Texas data. Facts and figures come from all parts of the state to find, in well edited form, their niche in this widely demanded handbook on Texas—its past, present and future.

PLANS FOR FARM PROGRAM SHOWING RAPID PROGRESS

IS INTENDED TO HELP PRODUCERS IN SOIL CONSERVATION WORK.

College Station, April 15.—"The whole purpose of the new farm program is to help farmers plan their farming operations so as to conserve their soil and enable them to reap greater returns from the land in the long run," Jack Shelton, vice director and state agent of the Texas Extension Service, announced in reviewing some of the major problems of the new program.

He also pointed out that diverting crops of soil depleting nature into soil building and soil conserving crops would pay the larger cash grants under the rulings of the new farm program.

"For the most part, the common, well-established soil building improvement crops and practices already in use by Texas farmers will receive recognition throughout in planning the program to fit Texas farms," Shelton said.

The temporary State Soil Conservation Domestic Allotment board plans to apply the national farm program to Texas so that it will best meet the needs of the Texas farm people in carrying out their cropping systems.

Shelton also said: "Farmers must keep in mind that a separate base acreage will be established for each of the following crops: Cotton, peanuts, rice and sugar cane for sugar."

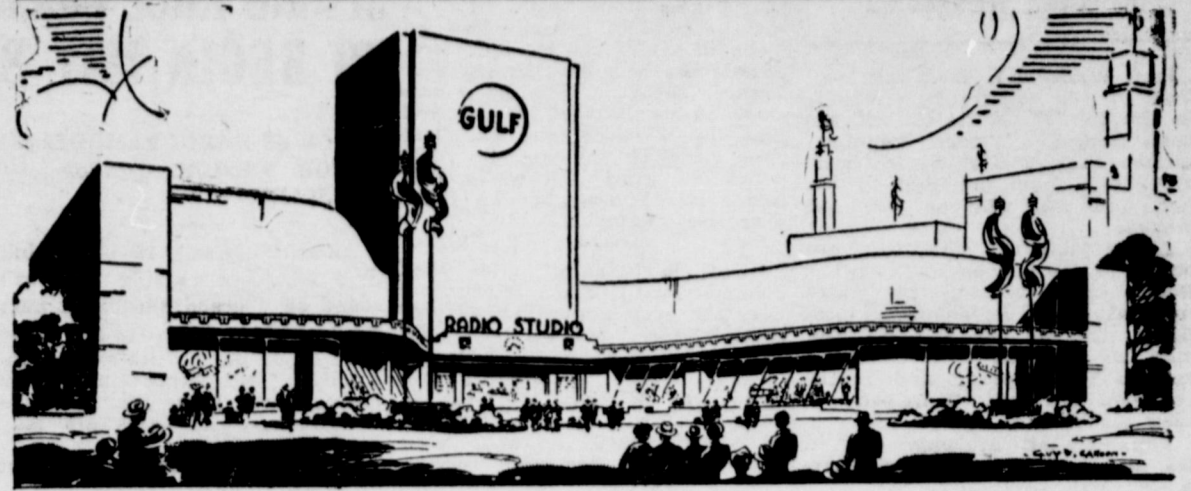

"The new farm program as applied to Texas is being pushed with all the resources of the Texas Extension Service to put it into the field as soon as possible," Shelton concluded.

TEXAN PAUL REVERE

Matthew Caldwell became known as the "Paul Revere of Texas" when he rode 48 miles summoning early colonists to the aid of the town of Gonzales just before the first battle of the Texas revolution against Mexico was fought there October 2, 1835. Gonzales opened the centennial year observance last November with a celebration in commemoration of the battle.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By MINNIE F. CUNNINGHAM Extension Service Editor

Soil erosion in Texas is serious, and soil conservation an urgent necessity, M. R. Bentley, extension agricultural engineer, insists.

"Several thousand acres of land were practically ruined for cropping purposes by erosion and many thousands more seriously depleted before soil conservation work was really started in Texas," Bentley says.

Conservation work by means of terracing started in Texas on the eastern side, but in a very limited way, some 50 years ago. It was about 1914 before any considerable acreage was terraced. During 1936 about 56,000 acres were terraced. And during the last 10 years, from a half to three-fourths of a million acres have been protected with terraces each year.

From this it will be seen that there is a considerable momentum in Texas for soil conservation work to be undertaken under the new agricultural program.

As soil conservation work spread into West Texas it was found that the running of the lister furrows and the subsequent crop rows on the contour gave good results as a soil conservation measure, at least temporarily. Now, in West Texas thousands of acres of row crops are planted on contour lines in order to conserve the rainfall and soil.

Some terracing has been done in 220 of the 254 counties of the state, according to Bentley. The total for the last 20 years runs to about nine million acres. Checking out possible duplications due to the need of re-terracing considerable acreage, Bentley esti-

All are cordially invited to attend, he said. The meetings will begin at 7:45 o'clock each evening.

Why Gulf is the Gas for April

"APRIL SHOWERS bring May flowers." And warmer weather, too. That means a brand-new gasoline is shipped to Gulf stations—a gas especially made for April driving. For unless gasoline is changed to meet Spring's higher temperatures it can't give the highest mileage. Get That Good Gulf—it's "Kept in Step with the Calendar" so that all of it goes to work, none of it goes to waste.

Kept in Step with the Calendar THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE

"The Ford V-8 uses less fuel and oil for the power it gives than any other car we have ever made AND ITS UP-KEEP COST IS THE LOWEST"

ENTHUSIASTIC sales talk often begins and ends with gasoline mileage. Some salesmen would like you to believe it is the whole story of automobile economy. But drivers ought to know better. For, the fact is, it's way down the list.

The big items of car economy are low first cost, low up-keep cost and low depreciation. Savings here can make a great deal of difference in cost per mile. Gasoline mileage is more of a talking point than an economy factor.

Check up and you will find that the difference between 17 and 19 miles a gallon is less than $10 for a whole year's average driving (8400 miles at 18 cents a gallon). Here are the big items that make the Ford the most economical car:

- More value for every dollar you pay.
- Lower cost for repairs and service.
- Long life. Slow depreciation.
- Quality means economy and the 1936 Ford V-8 gives you more real quality than any other low-price car. No other car under $1645 has a V-8 engine. No other low-price car has Center-Poise Riding, safe, sure mechanical brakes and Safety Glass all around at no extra cost.

TEXAS CENTENNIAL 1936

CAMPAIGN NOTES

By JACK HENSELER

The WAR-CRY from all sections of the country is, "Who is in the lead?" Well, to tell the truth things have been "popping" so fast that it is rather difficult to predict from one day to the next, just who will carry off the honors.

Every place one goes they are bound to see one or more of The News' hard working candidates "campaigning." So about the best thing that we can say is, "Get back of your favorite candidate and do YOUR part," then in the end you can say, "I helped put over the winner."

Miss Lillian Murphy, one of the popular workers from Clarendon, and ONE of the race leaders, since the beginning of the campaign, is doing some fine work and is now more determined than ever to WIN that COVETED FIRST place. That's the spirit it takes to win. Watch this young lady go.

Mrs. V. C. Merchant, also from Clarendon, is living up to her reputation of being an energetic go-getter. She is right up among the leaders and SHE BEARS WATCHING. She surely is making the dust fly and WHO KNOWS but before the close of the "second period" may find her "leading the bounds." We shall see what we shall see.

Miss Katherine Cole of Clarendon has pulled a fine bunch of credits since she entered the campaign and don't overlook the FACT that Katherine is a REAL CONTENDER FOR FIRST PLACE and the big new Terraplane automobile. "Watch her go from now on," was overheard by the campaign manager yesterday. First place is her goal and it's freely predicted that she will reach it, if half of what we hear in her favor is true.

Mrs. Wilton Grounds, Lelia Lake, is one that has made a fine showing since she started working in the campaign, and this lady is more determined than ever to do her DEAD LEVEL BEST and has made her mind up not to take NO for an answer when she goes after a subscription. The dust storms do not seem to be and handicap to Mrs. Grounds. In fact, they are "just another day in her CAMPAIGN LIFE." Her's is the old campaign slogan: "It can be done if you say 'it will!'"

Mrs. Porter Arnold from out on the Naylor Route says, "I'm in that race, too!" And, what we mean to say is she IS, too! Mrs. Arnold has been forging her way towards the top. She got a late start but we're here to tell you that she is making up for "lost time" and if any of you folks doubt our word, just watch that lady as she scurries here and there over the country.

"Hey, hey, there!" cries Mrs. Johnnie Beard, and when you hear that you might just as well start digging. No, we don't mean for oil, but for one of those old "green backs" more commonly known as MONEY, for she is sure to have her subscription book and pencil in hand, AND ready to hand you your receipt, for the "DOUGH" that you just dug into the "old jeans" for. Mrs. Johnnie says it's going to be FIRST PLACE for her if she has anything to say about it.

Another late starter, and from away up there at Hedley is Mrs. T. E. Naylor, even though she did get a late start that lady is "making hay" and showing exceptionally good results and is right in the running. It has been heard from many a Hedley booster that Mrs. Naylor has that kind of energy that it takes to WORK and WIN and from the subscriptions that she is reporting, we are inclined to believe what we hear regarding this energetic LADY from HEDLEY.

NOW, don't forget, we have another "GO-GETTER" in this race and she is none other than the congenial Mrs. C. L. Knight. Between the dairy business and the campaign Mrs. Knight has her hands full, and we believe that the campaign is taking most of her time, so we feel sorry for Mr. C. L., for we are inclined to believe that he is having to work a little over-time.

Last but not least, we have a young lady from out on the Pampa Route, Mrs. L. E. YanKie. This lady was late in starting and although not at the top of the list, she is doing her bit and she is in the race and will make her time count for something more than just "good wishes," for no matter where she ends up, there is an extra CASH BONUS awaiting at the end of the campaign.

At the start of the campaign the management stated it would

TRI-STATE FAIR SPRING RACE MEET TO BEGIN MAY 8

TRACK IS BEING REMODELED FOR ANNUAL CLASSIC AT AMARILLO.

Amarillo, April 15.—The dull thud of horses' flying feet will sound on a brand new track next month when the spring race meeting of the Tri-State Fair Association will bring once more thoroughbred horse racing to the Panhandle. The dates are May 8-16.

A gradual increase in interest make The News a bigger and better paper as time went on. Today you are enjoying one of the best edited and newsy weekly papers that you would expect to find any place in the country, for a town the size of Clarendon, and yes—towns with a much greater population.

Just watch The News GROW and PROSPER, AND why not hitch your "kite" to The News and grow and prosper with it?

among stable owners and trainers has made the Tri-State track one of the country's leading minor plants. To meet the demand for more stables and better equipment, officials this spring have started a re-modeling program at the historic plant.

The old course was too close to the grandstand and its curves not quite up to standard. Hence, the first step in the re-modeling plans was to move the track east 15 feet. Mason King said it is his belief the new course will be the best 5-8 mile track in the entire Southwest.

Although 50 new stalls have been added to the plant, the demand for stable space has been so great that Ted Taylor, fair manager, predicts an overflow of horses. During the spring meeting the overflow will be taken care of in the fair's stock barns.

Officials who were in charge of the races last fall when a new record for minor tracks in Texas was set will be in charge this spring. The feature of the meeting will be a distance derby race for three-year-olds. It will carry a purse of $500 and will be called the Chamber of Commerce Handicap.

"You'll have to see my wife. She attends to that sort of thing." "Come around and see me just before the close." "I'm taking more papers now than I can read." "I'd give a subscription if I knew you could win." "I'd like to see you win the automobile but I'm paid pretty far in advance," and many other excuses.

If you have given an EXCUSE—any of these listed or other instead of a subscription, are you treating your friends right? You are either for or against them. The time has come when your wishes, kind words, excuses and promises mean nothing more than that you have turned your back on a friend.

If you want to see your candidate win, you must say it with SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Oldsmobile Depends On Newspaper Ads

Newspapers of the nation have been selected as the principal medium to carry an extensive Oldsmobile advertising campaign, now under way, it was announced recently by V. C. Havens, Oldsmobile advertising manager.

"We are convinced that the message of Oldsmobile's high quality and outstanding value can best be told by the use of newspapers," said Mr. Havens. "Expanded production facilities in 1936 have made possible the manufacture of more Oldsmobiles this year than were ever before built in a twelve month period.

"The lower prices of the 1936 Oldsmobile six and eight, together with the increasing popularity of the cars, point to the existence of Oldsmobile again this year.

"So we have launched a newspaper campaign, not only in the large metropolitan dailies, but

ASTOUNDING "LIFT" IN SINCLAIR H-C, Local Motorists Tell Sinclair Dealers

When you buy gasoline you buy liquid power. And power is measured by engineers in terms of lifting. A single gallon of Sinclair H-C Gasoline has the potential energy to lift 99 million pounds one foot. Putting that into a power picture we say one gallon of H-C could lift a 40-ton Brontosaurus 1/4 mile. In automobile road tests Sinclair H-C Gasoline gave 15% to 20% more smooth power and from 1 to 3 more miles per gallon - compared to 12 other well-known gasolines! Your neighborhood Sinclair dealer will tell you what local motorists are saying about H-C's astounding "lift" - what it means in extra power for their cars. Ask him! 15% TO 20% MORE SMOOTH POWER

Wheat Growers Will Get 21 1/2 Cents A Bushel In AAA Benefit Payments

Washington, April 11. — The AAA announced Friday that it will pay 21 1/2 cents a bushel in benefit payments on allotments to be made to wheat farmers who signed crop control contracts and adjusted their wheat plantings before Jan. 6, 1936, date of the AAA's invalidation. The total payments are expected to be $40,500,000, less local administrative expenses. They will be full settlement of the AAA's obligation to farmers who complied with the 1936 wheat adjustment contracts before the old program was outlawed by the supreme court. Congress in February appropriated approximately $296,000,000 to meet the moral obligations incurred by the old AAA. The AAA estimated that for 1936, if the program had been continued in effect, would have been approximately 40c a bushel on farm allotments. The allotments would be based on the base acreages of each farm.

farm's base acreage; the basis of compliance will be the acreage actually in wheat on Jan. 5, 1936.

$50,000 Exposition Hall of Religion

It's a long way from the "gospel riders" of early Texas, who carried a pistol in their holster and a rifle in their lap as they rode around their "circuit," to the $50,000 Hall of Religion now being built on the grounds of the Texas Centennial Exposition, the $25,000,000 World's Fair which opens in Dallas June 6. Religious lore of Texas over a period of 400 years will be housed in the building, which is being sponsored and built by stockholders of the Lone Star Gas Company. From the top of the building's 75-foot tower "The Eternal Flame of Life" will burn from the Exposition's opening until its close, Nov. 29.

No Fishin'!

This department is in receipt of a communication from Austin O'Neil of Wellington, state game warden, in which he calls attention to the fact that the fishing season in this section is closed and warns violators of the law that they are liable to a heavy fine. The letter follows:

"Due to the many people wanting to know the law on fishing in your county, I am giving you a copy of the law on same. This law prohibits the catching of any kind of fish.

"Section 1. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch any fish in the waters of any stream, creek, lake, pool or reservoir in the counties of Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Hartley, Lipscomb, Moore, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, and Hall, during the months of April and May of each year.

"Section 2. That whoever shall violate the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five ($25) nor more than one hundred ($100). (H. B. No. 571, Reg. Ses., 44th Legis.)"

Clarendon Pioneer Visits Friends Here

Mr. John P. Nugent of Tucson, Arizona, left Wednesday at noon after having spent several days in Clarendon visiting with friends. Mr. Nugent is a former resident of this city and will be remembered by most of the old-timers here. He came to Clarendon in 1889 and was proprietor of the old Windsor Hotel for many years.

Mr. Nugent is on his way to his birthplace near Lexington, Kentucky, where he will collect data for a book which he intends to write in the near future.

Blankenship, who would be, if living, about 52 years old. E. J. is the grandson of former Judge Blankenship of Vernon, who was county judge there in 1891. I was told he moved from there to Clarendon. I thought you might happen to know something of him. It is very important that I get in communication with my nephew immediately, and to his interest.

"I shall appreciate very much any help you may be able to give me in this matter."

Judge Lowe stated that he does not know Mr. Blankenship, and requests that anyone who has information concerning his whereabouts either write Mrs. Tucker or get in touch with him.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gentry returned to Clarendon Wednesday night from Dallas where they had spent several days. They were accompanied by Miss Lillian Murphy who had been visiting friends in Jacksboro.

onstrator, and employs only methods approved by the extension service in her demonstrations.

"The term, 'home canning,' may suggest a lot of hard work to some people," Breedlove said, "but those who see Miss Kimbrough converting raw materials into delicious jars of tempting food realize that it is one of the fine domestic arts. Miss Kimbrough does not believe that canning is an inspired art. She holds that good material, plus proper equipment, simple recipes and sound instructions should always get good results."

Miss Kimbrough's lecture-demonstrations are given under conditions and in a way that can be repeated by women in their own homes, Breedlove said. Their equipment may vary widely. Very few women have model kitchens, and Miss Kimbrough demonstrates that good canning can be done in the average home.

Breedlove urges that all women of the county who are interested in canning arrange to be present at the Demonstration Tuesday.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

To the voters of Clarendon, Texas, we take this method of expressing our most hearty appreciation and thanks, for the splendid vote of confidence given us in the recent city election. To those who made up the majority and voted otherwise, we ask permission to co-operate with you and the new commission in a united effort to give Clarendon a more efficient and economical administration.

FIRST LOANS MADE FOR COOPERATIVE SERVICES IN TEXAS

RESETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATION OFFERS FARMERS LARGE LIST OF SERVICES.

First loans for cooperative services in Texas were made last week by the Resettlement Administration, one being for a pure-bred jack in Denton County, the other for orchard-cultivating equipment in Hidalgo County.

The jack was purchased by C. R. Waide of Sanger, with $500 for that purpose. Twenty-four other farmers have agreed to use the animal, and Waide expects to be able to repay the loan at the rate of $300 a year. C. R. Warren, county agent, and H. O. Harris, vocational agriculture teacher, strongly approved the project.

The orchard equipment loan, made to Gayle Frank Martin of Donna, for $1,910, was used to buy a tractor, a disc, duster, spray rig and truck. Eleven other farms have signed to use the equipment, having a total of 156 acres in orchard and 50 acres in farm land. They will pay Martin $3 an acre for flat-breaking and $1.50 for double discing or plowing. R. G. Burwell, county agent, says the project should be self-supporting.

The first loan has previously been announced for Oklahoma, a pure-bred Percheron sire for a group at Atoka, Oklahoma.

W. J. Green, Chief of the Cooperative Service Division of the regional office, says several counties are showing a very active interest in projects of this kind. Loans may be made wherever the service will be of use to Resettlement clients, but only 20 percent of those participating need to be clients. A large list of cooperative services may be provided through such loans, but they must not duplicate existing facilities.

J. S. Sanders, Assistant District Supervisor for the Rio Grande Valley, reports that during the last week in March initial plans were made for five cooperative projects in addition to that mentioned above. They included two other orchard service projects, two feed mills, and a cold storage plant.

Donley County farmers who are interested in similar projects are advised to get in touch with Cap Morris, county chairman for the Resettlement Administration.

Miss Mabel Mongole and Mr. J. E. Mongole visited the Mongole farm near Pampa last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Bogard and family and Mr. and Mrs. Heckel Stark spent Wednesday in Amarillo.

There have been straw hats and straw hats but it took the Texas Centennial Exposition, $25,000,000 World's Fair, opening in Dallas, June 6 to produce an authentic 10-gallon straw chapeau. Lucy Ann Snell demonstrates the hat, made at Laredo, Texas, of Texas straw.

Easter Cantata Here Is Well Attended

A gratifying crowd was in attendance at the cantata given at the First Methodist Church Sunday, April 12, at 8 p. m. This was a union service and the different choirs of most of the churches of Clarendon had combined to give the very beautiful and inspiring musical program.

The cantata given was "Life Eternal," by Fred B. Holton. It was directed by Miss Anna Moores and revealed a surprising amount of musical talent for a city the size of Clarendon.

introduces some adroit contrasts between England and America, and they are not exactly in America's favor.

Eighteen German authors and journalists, including Arnold Zweig, whose "Education Before Verdun" is the choice of the Book of the Month Club for May, were deprived of their citizenship by decree of the Nazi minister of the interior in March, and their property will be confiscated. The charge against Zweig was that he was "belittling the spiritual and ethical values of German culture."

Mrs. Nellie Devine left Clarendon this morning, April 16, for Jacksboro where she will make her home. Mrs. Devine is well known in this city.
