Les Hawkins, Precinct III Commissioner, for six years, did not run this term.

Food Baskets Are Distributed Here

Special effort was expended in Clarendon this year to care for needy families at Christmas time. On Christmas eve, Homer Mulkey, local theatre owner, sponsored a benefit show, charging food for admission.

After the show, representatives from all local churches combined the nice offering received at the theatre with the offerings made by churches and presented baskets of food to the needy. The Lions Club donated $25.00 which was used to buy food commodities for the Christmas baskets. Local Camp Fire troops furnished underprivileged children with Christmas trees and showered several families.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart for the Christmas holidays were their daughters, Mrs. F. E. Simmons of Dallas, and Mrs. R. E. Kolner of Pampa. Mr. Kolner spent Christmas day here.

Donley Gins More Cotton During '36

Government statistics released this week show that 8,755 bales of cotton have been ginned in Donley County prior to December 13. In 1935, 6,780 bales were ginned prior to December 13. Round bales are counted as half bales.

Totals for each county in Texas have been compiled and the chart shows 2,000 less bales ginned in Hall County than ginned last year and five thousand less bales ginned in Collinsworth County than ginned from the 1935 crop. Donley County is one of the few counties listed as having showed a gain in ginnings this year over last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Wright of Amarillo, visited Christmas day in the Wright home.

Mrs. Georgia Ferlet of Amarillo, visited from Friday until Sunday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dewey Heath.

The affair is sponsored by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Boomer of Groom, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor.

FRED WILLIAMS BUYS TAFT PAPER

FORMER EDITOR OF NEWS TAKES CHARGE OF PAPER HE FORMERLY OWNED

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Williams are here this week moving their household goods to Taft, Texas, where Mr. Williams has purchased the Taft Tribune, which he will take charge of on January 1st.

Mr. Williams formerly owned the Tribune and it was at the solicitation of Taft business men that he re-purchased the newspaper and plant. During the year and a half absence from Taft, Mr. Williams says the town has grown around five hundred people, one firm alone having built forty houses. This growth is based on an adjacent oil field developed in the past year. This popular young couple have many friends here who regret their going and who wish for them much success in their move.

Officers Recover Stolen Automobile

Guy Pierce recovered an automobile, a 1934 Ford V-8 Tuesday after Pampa officials asked members of the local peace department to search the county for the car, stolen in Pampa Monday. Sheriff Pierce recovered the car on the river hill, five miles from Clarendon on Highway 88.

The car, belonging to the Texas Pipe Line Company and used by M. E. Hollern of Pampa, was abandoned after it had run out of gasoline. It was undamaged. Members of the Pampa police department came to Clarendon for the car yesterday.

Mrs. Zevilla Lynn of Amarillo, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDonald of Brownfield, spent Christmas with Clarendon friends.

Mrs. O. T. Smith and son, A. J. of Tyler, spent Christmas with Clarendon friends and relatives.

BABY BEEVES IN GOOD SHAPE NOW

4-H BOYS FATTEN BEEVES FOR ANNUAL DONLEY COUNTY FAT STOCK SHOW.

Baby beef calves are in good shape and promise to be the best that Donley County has exhibited for some time. There are twenty-five calves on feed in Donley County this year.

These calves will be shown in Clarendon on the Saturday before the Amarillo Fat Stock Show in March. The second Donley County Fat Stock Show will be held this year and prospects indicate it will be much larger and better than the 1936 show.

There will be several litter of pigs at the show and also shown at Amarillo. The pigs are in fine condition and the boys have good chances to win at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show in March.

George Bagby spent Tuesday in Seymour.

KIDDIES ENJOY YULETIDE PARTY

PASTIME THEATRE PACKED AS CHILDREN GATHER IN CITY FOR PARTY

Every seat in the Pastime Theatre was occupied as children from all over the county gathered there Christmas Eve at 10 o'clock a. m. for the Christmas party sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Santa Claus was present and presented each with candies and a favor.

The balcony of the theatre was occupied by colored children. It is thought that every child in the county under ten years of age was present unless unavoidable circumstances kept them at home.

A special feature was shown the kiddies and a carol service was held immediately prior to the time Santa Claus made his appearance.

Mrs. Bert Smith left yesterday for Shawnee, Oklahoma, where she will visit her mother.

MANY NEW FOSSIL FINDS AT ROWE

AMERICAN MUSEUM CREW UNEARTHS PERFECT THREE TOED HORSE; ROWE RANCH

Since the American Museum of New York City leased a portion of the Rowe pasture where pliocene formations are found, interesting excavations have been made. This old pit has been worked on at intervals for the past forty years and during the past year new interest has been manifested in the pit by crews from California, New Jersey and S. M. U.

The latest finds of consequence are a prehistoric turtle, numerous other turtles and prehistoric fish. The most recent find is a three-toed prehistoric horse. The expedition, composed of six members, pronounced it a perfect petrification of a complete skeleton of Calipus, found in the lower pliocene beds and the little pony was reposing in situ. The skeleton indicates that the pony was about three feet high at the shoulders.

The pony seems to have been in the position it died in and the crew noted with interest that turtles and prehistoric fish were found in the same bed.

Brother of Mrs. Skinner Expires

James H. Rowe, who was to arrive in Clarendon Saturday afternoon for a visit with his sister, Mrs. C. R. Skinner, died Friday evening at 8 o'clock while visiting his daughter in Albuquerque, Mr. Rowe, 73, was a native of Greeley, Colorado.

He died of a heart attack. Mrs. Skinner was expecting her brother to arrive here Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS ARRIVE HERE WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stocking and little son, Soxy, of Washington, D. C., arrived in Clarendon Wednesday evening to visit here a week with his mother, Mrs. J. D. Stocking and brother, Jerome Stocking.

Christmas Quietest In Past Eight Years

Since Guy Pierce became sheriff of Donley County eight years ago, there has never been such a tranquil and utterly peaceable Christmas, he reported this week. There was not one arrest made in the city or in the entire county during the holidays.

Although Sheriff Pierce asked several to go to their homes who showed signs of inebriation, there were no noisy drunks seen about town.

Miss Eunice Griggs of Oklahoma City, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Griggs.

PALMER CAR IS BURNED SUNDAY

ELMER PALMER'S AUTOMOBILE BURNS NEAR CLARENDON SUNDAY NIGHT.

Elmer Palmer encountered double trouble Sunday night. While he was hauling in a wrecked car at 10 o'clock p. m. from Lelia Lake, his own machine was completely ablaze in a spot not five miles from the place where he was called to salvage the wreckage of another auto.

Palmer loaned his car, a 1934 V-8, to a friend, Hal Riley, to attend a gathering at the Sunnyview School. Riley was returning to town when he noticed the blaze which by that time had encircled the rear of the car. As the car burned one and one-half miles east of Clarendon on the Sunnyview road, many from town were attracted by the blaze.

Although there is no conclusive proof of the cause, it is thought a short connection started the blaze. The youth was unable to extinguish the fire and Palmer arrived after it had burned beyond repair. It was a total loss.

I. Mellinger spent Christmas day in Amarillo and Memphis.

Harold McDaniels, Texas Technological student at Lubock, spent the holidays with Clarendon friends. He left with Drew Wilkerson Friday afternoon to visit in Pampa.

LOCAL GROUP GO TO INDIAN FETE

LOUIS HOLLOWAY HONORED AT INDIAN FIESTA SUNDAY; IS TRANSFERRED.

Louis Holloway, formerly associated with John Bugbee in the Bugbee cattle interests in this city, was honor guest at a Comanche Indian Ceremony held Sunday in Indianoma, Oklahoma, where Mr. Holloway has been Federal Indian Agent for the past three years. The ceremony and fiesta was a farewell party for Mr. Holloway, as Mr. and Mrs. Holloway leave this week for Sells, Arizona, near Tucson, where he has been promoted as Federal Agent to the Tatagos.

Several Clarendon people, Miss Frances Morris, Mrs. Wylie Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome D. Stocking, attended the fiesta Sunday and were delighted with the affair.

A bounteous feast of wild turkey and venison was served in the Post Oak Indian Mission. A church service, delivered in emphatic intonations by the missionary, interested the visitors greatly. Approximately every ten seconds, the missionary would pause and a Mexican translator repeated his words to the group of Mexicans gathered on one side of the room, while an Indian translator repeated his words to Indians gathered on the other.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway are in Clarendon for a few days in the Wylie Morris home before leaving for Arizona. Mrs. Holloway is the former Miss Elizabeth Morris.

INTERNATIONAL HONORS TO CITY

ALFRED MCMURTRY IS CHAMPION OFF OLD BLOCK; WINS IN LIVESTOCK JUDGING.

Alfred McMurtry, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMurtry, won the distinction of being one of the six youths from Kansas State at Manhattan, Kansas, to win the International Livestock Judging contest held November 28 in Chicago. McMurtry was the only Texas youth on the team of six.

This huge International Livestock Exposition, equal to any held around the globe, had entrants from 30 states and four provinces of Canada.

Twenty-seven teams competed in this judging contest for college students. This number was three more than had ever competed. The Kansas team included Alfred McMurtry of this city; and five Kansas youths, Roy Freeland, Effingham; Tom Porter, Peabody; Claire Porter, Effingham; Clarence L. Bell, McDonald; and Wilton Thomas, Clay Center.

The Kansas team ranked first on hogs, fourth on sheep, fifth on horses and sixth on beef. Missouri won the contest in 1935, but Kansas was 28 points higher this year than Missouri was last year and this was the highest score made in many years.

McMurtry spent much of his time while in Clarendon on his father's ranch. Aside from this distinction, and his high scholastic standing at Kansas State, he is president of his fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mike Stricklin In Car Accident Here

The 1934 Ford V-8 coupe, belonging to Mike Stricklin, was completely wrecked Sunday night when Stricklin, in an effort to avoid a head-on collision with John McMahon, also of this city, swerved the car and turned it over in a ditch. The occupants received no injuries. Verlin Martin was in the car with Stricklin.

The accident occurred on Highway 5, 200 yards west of Lelia Lake. Stricklin hit the rear fender of the McMahon car as he pulled from the road to avoid a more serious crash.

7,000 Acres of Donley Is Terraced

To date there has been over seven thousand acres of terrace lines run by the County Agent's office. It is estimated that terrace lines will be run on approximately 25,000 acres of land in Donley County this year.

The County Agent's office is using youths signed by the National Youth Administration to help with the terracing. Two crews are being run in the field constantly and the work is turning out fast.

Breedlove reports a long list of farmers wanting terrace lines run on their land. All farmers who wish to have lines run on the farms are asked to contact the County Agent. It might be impossible to get to everyone but the lines will be run every day that the crews can be in the field.

SHALL DONLEY GO FORWARD ON A PROVEN PATH?

In conversation with Banker J. D. Swift of Clarendon a few days ago he made this pointed comment—"Every farmer who has kept a few cows during the last few hard years has come through in better shape than those who didn't, and always had a little money for his needs."

Just on the threshold of 1937, it brought home to the News editor that if farmers of Donley County had found a proven path of sound farm economy, it was high time that there should be more general adherence to the plan which had brought competence to our worthy people during the hard years recently gone through.

If the keeping of a few good milk cows, with the accompanying chickens and hogs, has made life easier on the farm; if the family has had more and better clothes; if the place has been better kept; if there has been more rosy cheeks and cheerfulness around the fireside; if there has been less of embarrassment from debt; if there has been more confidence—then indeed such a course, such a path is worthy of the study and adoption of scores of those who have not fared so well.

1937 holds every promise of being a better year for Donley County, Texas, and the country, generally—and yet there are some things we must do for ourselves if we hope to reap the most from its store of better things.

We have before us this proven path of sound farm economy, and the News is hoping that scores of Donley farms will enroll in this better, happier, more profitable method during the coming twelvemonth.

IT CAN'T ALL BE HYPOCRACY

During the Christmas Season just closing this writer was struck by the countless radio programs of all characters, which paid homage to the Christ-Child and the whole idea of the Christmas holiday. These programs included almost every radio personality in the nation, which set us to wondering if all the religious ideas so well expressed, came really from the hearts of the performers, or if they were professionally "cashing-in" on the sacred theme of the Season.

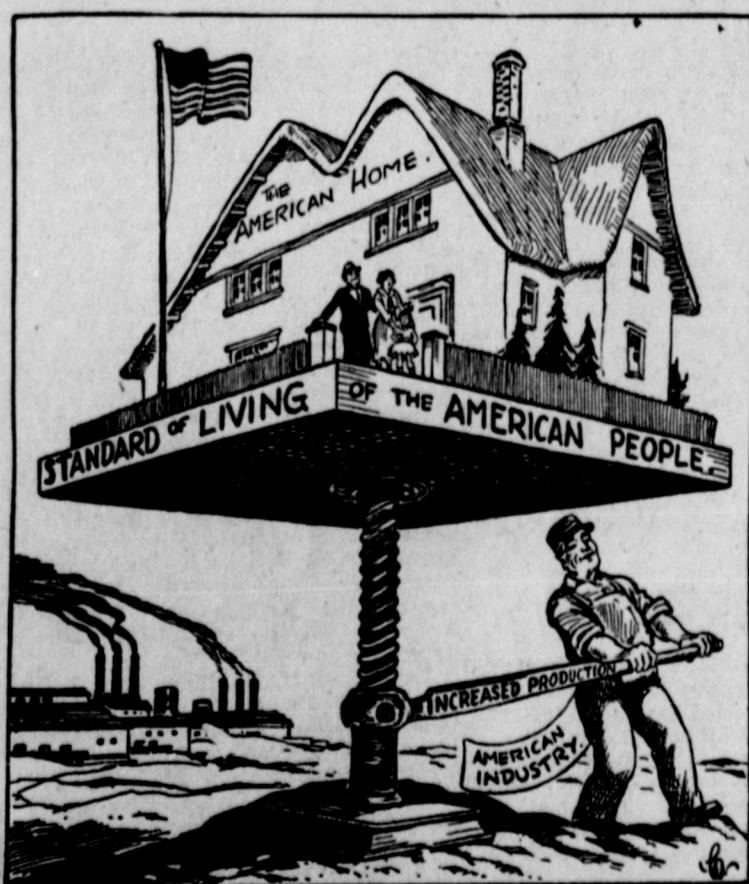

If all that was said and sung was sincere, then the radio world is almost unanimously Christian. If not, then the percentages run about the same over the microphone as it does in the street.

And then, following up the thought, came this idea—Maybe there is that spark of good in every man and woman, which shows at its best at Christmastide. Maybe the spirit of the Christ is slowly—all too slowly—permeating the lives of men and women, everywhere. Maybe, it isn't all hypocrisy. Maybe for the time, at least, there is a note of sincerity which cannot be questioned.

Then comes this thought—if men and women would only permit the holy and righteous impulses of Christmas to hold sway in their lives the other fifty-one weeks of the year, what a different country this would be; what a lovely place this old world would become; what happiness would be in store for the human family.

It is a lesson that we may all apply to our own lives with huge profit. Let us be as the best in us dictates; let us be kind; let us be merciful; let us be happy all year long—even as we are at the Christmas season.

"GOING UP"

The WEEKLY CONSTITUTIONAL

by MAX BERNIS
Self-Preservation

What power has Congress over national elections? Our Constitution provides that state legislatures may prescribe the times, places and manner of holding elections for Senators or Representatives "but the Congress may... alter such regulations."

Without giving this power to Congress, the states could annihilate the Union by failure to provide for the election of persons to administer its affairs. It was not until 1842, however, that Congress passed a law providing that members of the House of Representatives should be elected by districts. Previously, in some cases, they were elected by the state at large. This gave undue preponderance to the dominant political party of the state, however small its majority, since it might not have a majority in some districts.

To correct other abuses and provide uniformity, Congress in 1872 provided that such elections be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November. It also provided that presidential elections be held on the same day. Since the 17th Amendment providing for popular selection of Senators, they also are elected on the same day. Many states, under state law, also elect

THANKS FOR THE KIND WORDS, ED

Sometimes friendships of long duration are strained, maybe wrecked when the two parties enter into close business relationships.

Just now this writer and E. A. Carlock, owner of the Paducah Post, are concluding a business arrangement begun in December, 1935, and which would have lasted quite a while, had not circumstances come about to alter the plans. For many years we have been close friends with Ed Carlock, and now after thirteen months' intimate association, we hold him in even higher esteem, if such be possible, and shall always look back with pleasure upon the most pleasant association we have ever had with any man—an association based on mutual regard and friendly understanding.

With this in mind and heart, we cannot but be happy over the sentiments expressed in last week's issue of the Paducah Post, when Editor Carlock had the following to say, in his leading editorial, wherein his return to the active management of that newspaper was announced:

"After having made these 'timely and timid' remarks we want to say that you got a wonderful county publication during the year under the directorship of Mr. Braswell. It will be hard for us to keep up the high standard in the way of a county newspaper that he maintained. He is one of the outstanding publishers of the state, and he gave you a paper that was worth much more than you paid for it. We want to thank Mr. Braswell for the high standard he maintained for The Post during this period. Due to a series of circumstances he had to return to his old home at Clarendon and take over a paper he sold two years ago. Had it not been for this fact there is no doubt but what he would have remained publisher of this paper for another year at least. When we leased to him we made the statement that there were not over a half a dozen men in Texas who would have turned The Post over to on a lease proposition. We still repeat this statement. His honesty, integrity, and straightforwardness (coupled together with his ability as a publisher) made it safe and a pleasure to have had him at the head of The Post during the year."

"There does exist an American spirit. It is a spirit of indomitable hope, based upon confident belief in the future of America. It is a spirit of tolerance amid conflicting opinions and proposals. It is a spirit of human kindness and friendship. So long as these qualities can be identified as characteristically American, we shall manage to keep house and get on"—The New York Times.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The growing strength of organized labor as a political factor in Texas, particularly during the past four years of Roosevelt government, when labor has had its greatest "break" in history, is a development to which politicians are giving close attention these days. Texas in the past has been an overwhelmingly agricultural state, with little industrial development, and that confined largely to a few larger cities where the labor vote was given consideration by campaign planners. But growth of industry in the state, particularly production and processing of petroleum, has jumped the strength of labor from 15,000 to 150,000 or more members within recent years and there are now more than 400 active labor unions affiliated with the Texas federation.

in the type of labor leadership in Texas within the past few years. Many of the "old guard" who spoke for labor during the past two decades have passed from power both in the large cities labor organizations and in the state organization. The accession of Wallace C. Reilly, of Dallas, a union printer, to the post of executive secretary and legislative representative of the state federation, made possible by the "new" element in Texas organized labor, built largely around the oil field and refinery workers' unions, brought a new type of labor leadership to Austin.

Reilly did a splendid job of representing the working man, and in recognition both of his own ability of the labor vote, he was made labor representative on the unemployment compensation commission which also has a representative of employers, and a spokesman for the general public.

To Check on Solons.
John J. Conley also a printer, of Fort Worth, who was elected to succeed Reilly as executive secretary of the state federation, promises to continue the same type of effective and aggressive leadership. In his initial letter to organized labor bodies of the state, he pledged himself to seek enactment of progressive legislation, both social and economic, in behalf of workers, and urges keep close check upon the actions all union members in the state to their representatives in the legislature, and to write and make known their wishes to the legislators. With Reilly and Conley vigilant in these two key posts, the working man's interests will be kept in the forefront during the next two years, in Austin.

Reclamation.
Few Texans whose interests are not directly affected, even know that the state has such an officer as a reclamation engineer. He is R. J. McMahon of Limestone county, and his department has just completed a $15,000 plan and survey, designed to protect 250 square miles of the most valuable land in Texas—the citrus fruit area in Cameron, Wilacy and Hidalgo counties—from ruin by "water logging." Land owners of the affected area will seek federal funds totaling about $2,000,000 to carry out the comprehensive drainage program which McMahon has mapped out to protect this rich area permanently from damage by rainfall and irrigation water.

Enginger McMahon also recently completed a survey of the Ramsey prison farm, near Angleton, and recovered 450 "lost" acres belonging to the farm. It is worth $50 an acre and was promptly leased for oil by the state, at $30 an acre. The reclamation engineer also does all the field work in surveying excess acreage tracts, which the land office recovers for the benefit of the public schools and the university. The engineer is now working on a complete statewide map of Texas, which will be accurate in every detail—the first absolutely accurate map of the entire area of Texas ever made.

Texas Groves Yield Fruit For Orangeade

A practical application of the truth that "what Texas makes—makes Texas," is contained in a recent announcement made by the Knight's Dairy.

"As distributors of Bireley's Orangeade," says Mr. C. L. Knight, manager, "we are pleased to advise our customers that beginning in the near future this popular bottled fruit beverage will contain the juice from Texas-grown oranges. The superlative flavor of our States citrus fruit has led the makers of Bireley's to establish facilities for extracting juice from oranges in the Rio Grande Valley. Bireley's Orangeade hitherto has been produced exclusively in Hollywood, California. It is marketed nationally thru the exclusive channel of dairy-distributors, who bottle and deliver it daily to homes, schools, restaurants, grocery stores, fountains and drink stands. Nearly 3,000 dairies in all the forty-eight states of the Union have included Bireley's Orangeade among their products. And the beverage is enjoying wide popularity in Canada, Hawaii and Europe. Texas, however, has the honor of being the first state to distribute Bireley's thru dairies."

Not only is the fruit carefully examined for quality and condition, but every orange is subjected to an antiseptic bath after which it is scrubbed and dried before going into the reaming machine, or Citromat. This ingenious machine captures all the juice and eliminates entirely pulp, seeds, peel, and all, which might tend to contaminate the delicate juice flavor. The Citromat extracts the juice from a ton of oranges in twelve minutes. One of these machines, developed and patented by Bireley engineers, is now being installed in the Texas Bireley Orangeade plant.

Dairies handle Bireleys Orangeade under the same exacting sanitary conditions required for milk. The housewife gets her Orangeade bottled, chilled and ready to drink, with her morning's milk, cream and other products. It contains no artificial preservatives or flavoring extracts—just pure orange juice, lemon fruit-acid, cane sugar and water.

"We chose Bireley's Orangeade for our customers," says Mr. C. L. Knight, of the Knight's Dairy, not only because it is the largest-selling fruit beverage in the world, but because it is a wholesome, refreshing beverage that we can endorse wholeheartedly for children and adults alike. It gives us added satisfaction now to know that Texas oranges will contribute to the delicious flavor of Bireley's Orangeade.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

I haven't had any phone calls yet in response to my letter of last week—but I'm still hoping! I suspect you have been too busy as yet.

The library has had an unusual opportunity to be of real service to the community lately. Many calls for material for programs have come from several communities, calls for books of games, etc. We have been so glad to be able to meet these needs. The every object of the library is service.

A plan for enlarged and improved free library service for Texas will be presented to the incoming legislature. The plan is the result of a study of the needs and possibilities by State Library Association and has been endorsed by several state organizations, among them the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, the State Teachers' Association, the Texas League of Women Voters, the West Texas County Judges' and Commissioners' Association, the League of Texas Library Trustees. Not counting the libraries of educational institutions, there are about fifty-eight public libraries in Texas supported by taxation. Needless to say the 6,000,000 inhabitants over this over this great state cannot be adequately served by that number. It is estimated that these libraries contain 1,250,000 volumes which would be less than one obsolete, cast off book. The estimate is that 85 per cent of these books are in the libraries of ten or twelve large cities. This estimate shows that 62 per cent of the people of Texas are out of reach of free library service. A significant statement made by the State Library Association after this study is that in spite of depression funds no library has closed its doors. From this it can be seen that a library when once established, becomes an indispensable part of the community life. This is not only true library service to children, but in many instances it is the only method of enlarging the mental equipment of adults, of giving their eager minds an opportunity to keep abreast of a world so full of interest.

"Who's Who 1937" is the 89th issue of this work. It contains 40,000 biographical sketches of living men and women who are

NEW SAFETY FOR BABIES

Mother, most hospitals now protect their babies against germs and skin-infection by rubbing Mennen Antiseptic Oil all over the baby's body—every day.
This keeps the baby's skin smoother, softer, lovelier and SAFER.
So, mother, do as hospitals do, as doctors recommend.
Give your baby a safety-rub with Mennen Antiseptic Oil daily through his diaper-days.
See your druggist.
