PROGRAM SET FOR ANNUAL DONLEY TEACHER-TRUSTEE BANQUET

EASTER SERVICES AT ALL CHURCHES

HEAVY ATTENDANCE ANTICIPATED SUNDAY BY ALL CONGREGATIONS OF CITY.

At this season of the year when Nature is putting on new life, man's mind turns not only to the resurrection of plant life but to the resurrection of the Christ.

Easter flowers in gorgeous array will decorate the churches of Clarendon. Special Easter music, together with timely sermons, will beckon Clarendon citizens to church portals for morning and vesper services.

The First Presbyterian Church will conclude a series of pre-Easter services Friday evening. Reverend Robt. S. McKee, pastor, conducted the first of this series of sermons on Tuesday evening, with Reverend E. D. Landreth conducting the services Wednesday evening, Reverend W. E. Ferrell conducting the services to-night, and Reverend J. Perry King conducting the Friday evening service.

At the Easter morning service, this church will commemorate the Lord's supper and receive new members into the church fellowship. An appropriate sermon for Passion week will be preached by the pastor and the evening service which will be at 7 o'clock in order that members may attend the cantata at the Methodist Church, will be in keeping with the morning service.

A cantata, "The Living Christ," by Wildermere will be presented on Easter evening at 8:00 o'clock at the First Methodist Church. This portrayal in song of Easter

ART CLUBS WILL BEAUTIFY CITY

CITY PARK WILL BE RE-PLANTED AND BEAUTIFIED BY CLUBS.

The Les Beaux Arts Club, together with the Junior Les Beaux Arts Club, has launched a beautification program within the city in keeping with the state-wide beautification program for the Centennial.

With Mrs. J. D. Stocking, Mrs. J. D. Swift, Mrs. T. H. Peebles, Mrs. Frank Bourland, and Mrs. Homer Glascoe as members of the Beautification committee, the Les Beaux Arts Club will start its program by beautifying the city park, located northeast of the South Ward school.

Relief workers will assist in the planting and the park, which is already terraced and has a gateway of native stones, and will be one of the most attractive parks of the smaller Panhandle towns.

Shrubbery and hardy varieties of flowers which will bloom all summer will be planted in the park, together with other improvements which have not definitely been decided upon.

The Junior Les Beaux Arts Club has well under way a beautification program which will start in the homes with small flower gardens. The members have each planted a garden consisting of asters, zinnias, and nasturtiums. Members of the Les Beaux Arts Club will judge the beds at the blooming season, and cultivation, arrangement, and location will be the deciding factors for awarding prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Hardy and family of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hardy of McCauley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith and family of Plainview were guests over the week-end of Reverend G. S. Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Allensworth.

Drennan Attends State College Meet

R. E. Drennan, Dean of the Clarendon Junior College, returned Friday evening from Dallas where he attended the annual meeting of the Association of Texas Colleges which convened there on April 11th, 12th and 13th.

Representatives from all Texas colleges were present and trends in modern education were discussed at length throughout the three-day session. Dean Drennan reports that Clarendon, with the exception of the enrollment, has a Junior College on a par with others in the State.

A special committee at the meeting drew up a resolution asking that thirty percent of the enrollment be allowed on the FERA instead of the present twelve percent.

Dean Drennan in further statement reported he felt greatly benefited by having attended the meeting and by talking with the heads of other colleges in the State.

PATRICK HEADS HISTORICAL GROUP

LOCAL PIONEER ELECTED PRESIDENT OF SOCIETY AT BANQUET FRIDAY.

At the fourteenth annual banquet of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society on Friday evening, W. H. Patrick of this city was elected president of the society. Mr. Patrick will replace Judge H. E. Hoover, retiring president from Canadian.

Mr. Patrick, pioneer banker and resident of the Panhandle since 1888, was awarded the honor of being elected president after being a member of the society for ten years. For the past several years, Mr. Patrick has been a member of the board of directors for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, and is a life member of the society.

Since Mr. Patrick came to the Panhandle where he has been regarded as a citizen of esteem, he has been interested in preserving the history of this section.

As the Museum was established only three years ago, Mr. Patrick worked with the society prior to that date in preserving manuscripts and history of the Panhandle and its citizens, and has contributed small personal donations of historical interest to the museum since its establishment.

In behalf of the society, Mr. Patrick stated "Few people in this or any other part of the Panhandle realize the value of the museum to the Panhandle of Texas. Everyone should feel sufficient pride and interest to want to belong to the society. Annual dues are only three dollars and the magazine, which is given free to every member, is alone worth that amount."

The museum, the most beautiful building in the Panhandle, was built three years ago when the society raised $25,000,000 and the state matched the sum making a total of $50,000.00. It is located on the campus of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon and consists of manuscripts, rare articles formerly belonging to Panhandle residents, specimens of Panhandle pre-historic animals, Indian relics and artifacts to the approximate value of $200,000.00.

Susan J. Allen, although she has never been a resident of the Panhandle but lives in Haverford, Pennsylvania, recently donated to the museum Indian relics valued at $10,000.00 or more.

Out-of-Town relatives attending the funeral of L. W. Chase Wednesday were a niece of Mrs. Chase, Mrs. R. J. Corson of Houston, and her son, Gerald Corson of Fort Worth.

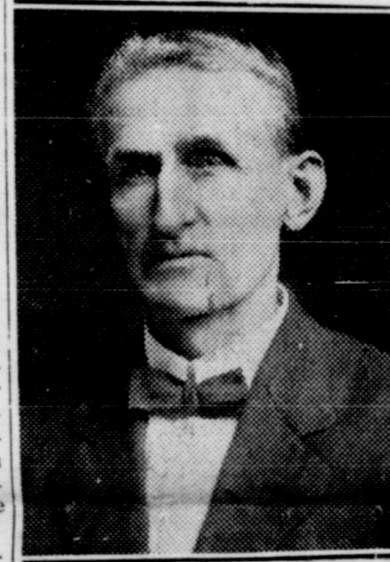

Mrs. Ben Williams of LeFors visited over the week-end her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cole.

The deceased, 87, was born on December 23, 1847, in Canaan, Maine. In 1868, he was married to Miss Effie Stanwood Goodwin.

In his early manhood, he was a contractor on the old Shebogan Railway line in Wisconsin. Later, he was employed in a chair factory of Shebogan, Wisconsin and the Chase family home is now furnished with many lovely pieces of solid oak and birch furniture made 67 years ago while he was employed in the factory.

Mr. Chase carried an old New York Life policy which he took out in 1872 and when he left the East, he was forced to get a special permit to live in Waco, Texas, which is attached to the policy. The old policy bore a Civil war revenue stamp.

He moved to Texas in 1876 where they have since resided. Upon coming to Texas, the deceased resided at Waco and Coyote in Bosque county until 1892 when he moved with his family to Cleburne.

In 1892, he built the water works system in Cleburne and resided there until 1908. In 1903 until 1914, he was associated with a syndicate owning public utilities companies in Clarendon, Amarillo and Taylor.

In 1916, he moved to Shafter

GOOD PROGRESS IN CONTROL PROJECT

WORK COMPLETED WOULD PROBABLY PREVENT RE-COURAGE HIGH WATER.

The flood control project in the Clarendon watershed is well under way with six retention dams near completion. Labor is being furnished by the Transient Bureau located here and by the local Relief office, with sixty working from the Transient Bureau and several working from the Relief office.

One crew this week completed the culvert on a large dam located on the John Sims place, while another is working on the largest dam yet to be constructed and located on the Ozier farm.

The dam on the Ozier farm will be built between two hills. The retarding dam will be 1,000 feet long and will vary from three to 12 feet in height when completed. As in all dams which have been built, it will have a concrete culvert in the center to allow a slow drainage.

Besides the two under construction, local engineer J. M. Hill reports that work has been completed on four other dams, one on the John Sims place and two small ones on the Ozier farm, and a large one just outside the city limits in the Southwest part of town.

In further statement concerning flood control, Mr. Hill stated that the work was by no means near completion and that work on dams would continue as long as the labor was supplied by the Relief office and Transient Bureau.

In addition to the retention dams, it is planned by those in charge of the project to eventually terrace all the land on the water shed with broad high terraces and build a series of dams in each draw.

The Fort Worth & Denver railway has been asked by the city to co-operate in this program by building a large underpass to allow the water to pass under the railroad rather than retard it on the business district of town.

ASHTOLA TO HAVE UNIQUE PROGRAM ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Local Doctors Attend Medical Society Meet

At the annual spring session of the Medical Society held in Amarillo at the Herring Hotel on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dr. B. L. Jenkins was present at the Tuesday session and Dr. O. L. Jenkins attended the session Tuesday evening and Wednesday, Dr. C. G. Stricklin attended Wednesday's program.

Dr. B. L. Jenkins, chairman of the section on general medicine, presided over the meeting Tuesday morning. Dr. Roy L. Vineyard of Amarillo, president of the society, and Dr. E. W. Jones of Wellington, incoming president, had charge of the programs.

Outstanding medical men from Dallas, Tucson, Rochester, Minn., and various Panhandle towns were speakers on the program which was purely a scientific one.

A banquet was given Tuesday evening at the Herring Hotel for the visiting doctors and their wives.

ELEVEN TO BE ENROLLED FROM DONLEY IN CC CAMPS

According to Clifford Davis, relief administrator, applications will be accepted by him for entry into CC Camps, as the quota for Donley county is eleven.

This is the largest quota given to Donley, and is to take approximately 5,000 Texas families off the relief rolls by June 1, at which time first checks will be received by beneficiaries on enrolles.

The applicants will be sent from here to Amarillo April 23, where they will be given examinations at the Army Recruiting Station. Those accepted will be sent to Arizona, Davis said.

EASTER—AN OPPORTUNITY TO DO REVERENCE

Time rolls relentlessly and another Easter is upon us. Facts ought to bear in on the human mind with the same relentless tempo as the march of time, and there should be no person in the wide-world whose soul does not respond to the sacrificial message of the Easter season.

At the momentous First Easter, the Christ, recognized by only a few, laid aside His Divine prerogatives and gave the epochal demonstration of unselfishness and love of all the ages, when He suffered death upon the Cross and died, even as the humblest human wretch.

Now, after two thousand years, millions of humanity in all quarters of the globe recognize His Sovereignty, His Divine nature, His supreme Sacrifice, and depend upon that sacrifice for their own personal salvation.

Easter, then, brings sharply to our attention, the loving sacrifice of "Him who died that we might live." It calls us from shallow living, noisy busying with trifling details, selfish narrowness and careless idling, to the finer, better, emotions of life. It calls us to a new evaluation of Divine claims on our time and efforts. It calls us to personal submission to a Triumphant Christ.

Easter is here, and with it comes a new opportunity to do reverence to the Glorious, Risen, Conquering Christ. Let us fail not in this opportunity.

AN EFFICIENT SERVANT HONORED

All Texas is joining in doing honor to Judge W. R. Ely of Abilene who has been replaced on the state highway commission, after continuous service for eight and a quarter years, during which time Texas has made the greatest strides in highway development ever recorded in the nation.

In certain places Judge Ely has been honored with banquets, heard verbal praises of his public service, and received mementoes of esteem in which he is held in every section of the state.

Judge Ely endorses the appointment of his successor, Mr. Hines of Wichita Falls, and bespeaks for him the co-operation he has enjoyed during his long tenure, and the success all good citizens wish for the new chairman.

Not often does a state have a public servant who has served so long and so well. Judge Ely has administered millions of public money without a breath of suspicion and with an integrity recognized by all. To the mind of The News he has set a mark of public service so inspiring and challenging to all public servants that he has made a supreme contribution to the public records of his state.

Texas everywhere owe Judge Ely a debt of undying gratitude, and The News hopes he may get all the flowers while he lives to enjoy them.

TRAFFIC LAWS MUST BE ENFORCED

Automobile accidents continue to rise—both in number and severity. The motorist has no alibi. He can't blame the car or the road for mishaps, save in an infinitesimal percentage of instances. The human element—and the human element alone—is at fault in ninety-odd accidents out of a hundred.

Most drivers are competent. Most are careful. Most realize that an automobile is a potential killer. But that minority of motorists which is either careless, incompetent, or plain reckless, menaces us all. Perhaps ten percent of drivers fall into one of those categories—and the lives, health and property of the other ninety percent is placed in peril because of them.

Last year saw 36,000 people killed—unnecessarily—in auto accidents. It is the duty of every Texas citizen and every unit of government to see that a different record is made this year. Traffic laws must be modernized and enforced with the utmost strictness. The dangerous driver has been given every chance. He has been urged to change his ways, and has refused. Now he must be forced to drive safely—or be deprived of the right to drive on public streets and highways.

A WORTHY APPOINTMENT

The long awaited appointment of the chairman of the State Highway Commission by Governor Allred broke with sudden surprise the latter part of last week, when he named Harry Hines, oil operator and civic worker of Wichita Falls to that post.

The surprise was in the fact that Mr. Hines had never been mentioned for the place and came almost as much a surprise to him as it did to the public, and provides another sidelight on the character of Texas' Governor, who has a keen mind and will all his own.

Many have known for months that since no important post had gone to a Wichita Falls man, the home of the Governor, one was due, and since there was no more important place within the appointive power of the executive, some one there might reasonably be expected to get the plum.

Mr. Hines' appointment is a good one for he is unusually well equipped for the large task of administering the state's top department in the handling of public money and its heaviest payroll. He is a leader of proven ability and his appointment will meet general approval over Texas, even from those who were intensely interested in the appointment of some other candidate.

Mr. Hines has specifically committed himself to the closing of gaps in important highways for the Texas Centennial, so the Panhandle section has nothing to fear from him, nor has any other section of the state.

Success to Mr. Hines.

CHURCH PEOPLE DEMAND INFORMATION

At a meeting of leaders of various denominations of Texas in Dallas last week to consider the religious celebration of the Centennial, Dr. Graham Frank, pastor of one of the leading Christian Churches in Dallas, demanded to know what sort of celebration the Texas Centennial leaders intend to stage, and declared that if it was to be a pagan, bacchanalian revelry in open defiance to the laws of decency and morals, than for one he would have no part in the Centennial, worthy as it might otherwise be.

This statement brought cheers from the assembled churchmen, and the joint committee in charge of the unified effort for evangelization in all Texas churches will act upon the general principals laid down in Dr. Frank's declaration. Why any genuine Christian would be expected to lay aside his convictions for a year, so Texas could financially profit—if it could be called a profit—from a wide-open state in the Centennial year, is beyond straight thinking.

Drinking, gambling, horse-racing, and accompanying sex looseness, have no place in modern life, and less than ever in the true celebration of one hundred years' progress in a state like Texas where the majority of citizens hold church membership and claim to be Christians.

Centennial leaders cannot ignore the demands and standards of the Christian people of Texas.

"For a nation so devoted to fact-finding bodies of one sort or another, it is surprising how few facts are uncovered and how many words are employed to conceal these few."—Barron's.

Ashtola School News

The Junior and Senior classes of Ashtola High School composed of Mildred Barker, Ruby King, Buster Warrick, Robert Graham, Vera Barker, Charles Pifer, Alma Gregg, Marie Adams, Frank Hardie, Willa Poovey, Eileen Rhodes, Gladys Carper, Christine Knox, Inetha Collier and Mr. and Mrs. Dillard as sponsors and chaperones made a week-end trip to Palo Duro Canyon.

This trip had a three-fold purpose: First as a field trip in general science; second, to celebrate Junior-Senior Day; and thirdly, Mr. Dillard's yearly entertainment for his pupils.

After some ten days of preparation in which all intricate details were arranged, we left Ashtola on board the bus at seven o'clock Saturday morning and arrived at Amarillo about nine-thirty. We started the day by visiting the Pinkney Packing Company for the purpose of learning the different processes by which meat is carried from the time it is killed until it reaches its finished form. Upon following a guide who did the explaining we found many interesting specimens of cattle and hogs.

The next hour was spent in Borden's Creamery following the processes by which butter is made and the buttermilk being dried and made into fertilizer and chicken and hog feed. About twenty minutes of the hour was spent in the ice cream department which was very interesting, and we enjoyed the ice cream tremendously also the weiners presented to us by Mr. Pinkney.

At the News-Globe our attention was attracted very much by the modern newspaper press. Our time was well spent the remaining period of time before noon interviewing with a guide who gave us an interesting idea of how a newspaper is composed.

Directly after the noon hour our journey toward our destination was finished. After a short time of exploring we found a very beautiful place at the first crossing. Being well supplied with water and trees. We made camp, prepared and ate a most enjoyable meal, and settled down for a rather slumberous night.

The first and far into the later part of the night was spent playing games and singing amid much laughter and merry-making. From three o'clock until seven was taken up in deep slumber.

After the brief period of beauty sleep and a delicious breakfast, which restored much energy, we visited the different cliffs and canyons that all go to make the beautiful scenery. A few pictures were taken.

Immediately after lunch a period of repacking and much preparation took place for a retreat that would leave Palo Duro and all its glory far behind.

By one-thirty o'clock Sunday evening we had retreated as far as the lodge where we spent a few minutes going through. Then we traveled to Canyon where we spent an hour going through a most interesting Museum. This being the last stop we arrived home between six and seven o'clock.

We sincerely appreciate the presence of Richard Hatley and Willard Cook who furnished music such as would keep us awake. Also Tendam Gregg the bus driver who drove as careful as possible.

Although the weather was somewhat disagreeable part of the time, the trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all and each are looking forward to the field trips that are to come next year in which we expect to visit the smelter, Santa Fe shops, Amarillo Baking Co., Great West mills, Coca-Cola bottling works and Southwestern Public Service.

LIBRARY NOTES

(By Mrs. C. A. Burton)

Walter B. Pitkin presents his views of the economic situation in a recent book, "Capitalism Carries On: The American Way." While Walter B. Pitkin has done quite a little writing along various lines, his fame rests on his "Life Begins at Forty" which continues to be a best seller after about two years. We have this and his other inspirational book, "More Power to You" on our shelves.

Harry Frank, author of "A Vababond Journey Around the World" which has been quite popular with our readers, is in Mexico collecting material for a book on that country which he will publish this fall.

Stanley Vestal of Oklahoma University who has made himself a name as a writer in the field of pioneer and Indian research has temporarily deserted his chosen field to write a mystery novel, "The Wine Room Murder," which has recently been published.

The Tardy Publishing Company of Dallas is presenting a volume of selected poems by Hilton Ross Greer under the title of "Ten and Twenty Aprils." Mr. Greer, whose home is in Dallas, and who once lived in Amarillo, is well known in the entire Southwest as a creative writer, newspaper editor, author, and president of the Poetry Society of Texas since its organization in 1921. This collection of his poems is the first to be published since 1912. It contains selections of his poems from earlier volumes and poems published in magazines but now presented for the first time in book form.

Eugene O'Neill whose "Strange Interlude" won for him the Pulitzer Prize for the third time when it was published in 1928, and whose "Mourning Becomes Electra" added to his fame in 1932, has begun work on a new play at his home in Sea Island, Ga. It is said that he has the outlines of more than thirty plays ready to be developed. We have only two of his—"Beyond the Horizon," his first Pulitzer Prize winner in 1920, and "Strange Interlude."

Doubleday, Doran in conjunction with the English publishers, Hamis Hamilton, Ltd., have announced an international contest for the best book with aviation as its theme. It may be fiction, personal experience, biography, history—anything so long as it is flying. The prize is $2,500. The contest closes—the last day of this year and the winning book will be published in 1936.

Another contest of much interest opens on the 30th of this month, and carries with it prizes totaling $20,000. This is an all-nations prize novel competition. The leading publishers of the United States, Great Britain, France, Spain, Hungary, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Germany are joining in offering this prize. The American publishers who are sponsors are Farron and Rinehart, The Literary Guild, and some others. The American judges are Carl Van Doren, William Soskin, and Joseph Wood Knutch. Members of the international board of judges are Hugh Walpole, Carl Van Doren, Sigrid Undset, Rudolph G. Binding, and a French representative still to be chosen. The contest will last a year, and the winning book will be published in all twelve countries on the same day.

Gertrude Stein who recently delivered a series of lectures including one in Dallas, is at present visiting Gertrude Atherton in San Francisco. She will return to France in the spring.

SISTER OF HENRY WILLIAMS DIES IN EL PASO SUNDAY

Henry Williams received a wire Sunday morning to the effect that his sister, Mrs. W. Y. Howze of El Paso, had passed away earlier that morning.

Mr. Williams, being ill himself, was unable to attend funeral services which were conducted in El Paso.

The deceased, the first member of the Williams family to die in 47 years, was 75 years old when she died. Besides her husband are surviving four brothers, one of whom is Mr. Williams of this city; two sisters, and one daughter, Mrs. R. L. Pickle of El Paso.

Highway To Have Two Roadside Parks

Under the direction of Bob Rankin, Highway foreman and John Gaston, head of the landscape department of the state highway, parks and road side improvements are being made on the new Highway 5 from Clarendon to Memphis which is soon to be hard surfaced.

The most beautiful park and one which will be an asset to Donley county is being made East of Giles on the Theatrical place. The department has purchased approximately ten acres of this land and will improve a plot of approximately 1000 feet long and 500 feet wide from the location Highway 5 North to the Fort Worth & Denver railroad.

The plot of land is situated in the canyons and has many beautiful willows, cottonwoods, cedars and grapevines full grown. The department is clearing out the plot, making paths into it, and building a winding road down through the heart of the park. Two dams, one by which automobiles may drive over the creek and another that will retard the water so a child's wading pool may be built, are being constructed. Tables, benches, and fireplaces will be built and will offer an ideal picnic ground.

Another park of unusual beauty is being built by the State department two miles West of Memphis on the Crow Homestead. The plot of land, ten acres, was donated to the Highway department by Mrs. Richardson, daughter of the former owner of the plot.

The grounds are lowlands which were formerly orchard lands and walnut, apple, and pear trees are being left to beautify the park. Sixty-five or seventy trees of many varieties have been planted at this location and three sets of benches, tables, and fireplace will make it a suitable picnic ground. Bermuda grass has been set out and the department is contemplating the drilling of a shallow well for the convenience of picnickers.

Roadside improvements include the beautification of two plots near Lelia Lake. By the purchasing of additional right-of-way from 100 to 400 feet long East of Lelia between Lelia Lake proper and Highway 5, one hundred trees of many varieties have been planted.

In the sixty to seventy feet of right-of-way between the Johnson Lake and the highway, willows, cottonwoods, and tamarix have been planted and the plot of land cleared to the edge of the lake.

It is always instructive to think of the resurrection of Christ. It is instructive to think of the resurrection as a commission to service. It is instructive to think on this subject as an answer to doubt. The resurrection of Jesus is the crowning proof that He is the Son of God. If He could not conquer death and come back from the grave, he could not prove that he first came from heaven. The resurrection of Christ, is the final proof of immortal life, of a life beyond the grave. It is proof that death does not end all, but that the soul lives after the body dies.

It proves that we have a living Saviour sitting at the right hand of God, pleading our cause and

Two Communities Buy School Busses

Farms Are Terraced By Agriculture Class

J. M. Hill, Agriculture teacher in the local high school, reports that the agriculture class is making a study of wind and water erosion and are in turn assisting Donley farmers to a great extent.

For the past several weeks, fifteen boys from the class have been working on the farms of E. M. Ozier, Walter Lowe, Dr. J. W. Evans, Stephens, R. P. Wilson, D. H. Hott, H. L. Riley, J. H. Duckett, and W. D. Van Eaton and have terraced two thousand acres for these farmers.

On practically all of the farms listed, the farm owners have hired county road machinery and the boys have performed the necessary labor.

High terraces have been built on the land and Mr. Hill states that this will prevent not only wind erosion but water erosion in the future in case of another heavy rainfall as was experienced last September.

Mrs. W. J. Lewis and daughter, Joan, of Dallas will visit her husband, Will Lewis, of this city over the Easter holidays. Mrs. Lewis will be house guest of Mrs. Fred Chambeblain while in Clarendon.

Mrs. Thelma Bairfield, Mrs. Alta Lane, Mrs. Mary Allensworth, and Mrs. Thelma Bennett, took roles in the play and each proved to be worthy of commendation for the splendid dramatization of her part.

The ever popular trio, Misses Hulda Joe Cauthen, Louise Smith, and Wilma Dee Smith, entertained as the concluding number by singing a collection of cowboy songs.

JUNIOR REPORT

The president of the Junior class, LaVerne McMurtry, made an appeal to the class last week, urging everyone to bring his dollar so that the rings may be ordered. Several have decided to wait until next year to get their rings.

Here is a plea for a picnic. There are only a few more weeks of school to endure, the weather is staying decent, and the Juniors certainly haven't been active. So if this group of fun-loving students get their way, it won't be long until there is a picnic in the wild woods somewhere.

A group of the more political minded Juniors have nominated a president and made up a platform for the coming year. It is believed that most of the initials we hear about are harmless, but one, the NRA, means to us, "no running around" and it should be entirely abolished. The gang recommends that the government give each student an allowance of two dollars or more each week to spend at the local cafeteria.

Clarendon Hi Band Entertains Students

The Clarendon Band, under the leadership of Mr. Eskridge entertained the student body last Thursday with a concert in the College Auditorium. An interesting group of marches was played, among which were "Zouaves," "Showboy," "Honor Band March," and "Kiefer's Special." An unusual arrangement of "Indian Love Call" was particularly enjoyed. The special arrangement was by M. B. McClure, conductor of the famous Cowboy Band of Abilene, which appeared here this week. The novelty number "Man on the Flying Trapeze," was next enjoyed. One of the most beautiful overtures in music, the "Miniature Overture," was played by the band, and the concluding number was "Rifle Rangers."

The band seldom appears in assembly, and it was a genuine treat for the students to attend a concert from this fine local organization.

Peek-A-Boo

By PEEK

Peek was told by Dame Rumor that a certain well known couple will be married as soon as school is out.

Homer and Red Estlack have a nice new tan car that is an asset to college hill five days a week.

As Miss Parten is absent from school this week on account of illness, Delphia Bones is substituting as librarian. This sort of work is Delphia's second calling, music being the first.

Personal nomination for the most attractive Junior: Nell Cook. She dresses to accentuate her beautiful red hair and clear complexion.

A college girl's chevie has been created into an unusual streamline model by a vertical dent in the radiator. The cause is attributed to a crackup with a highway roaming cow.

An interesting characteristic is present in every personality, and we find quite a number of students who are distinguished by a tendency to do things backward—in other words, being left-handed. Among those blessed with this natural trait are Dorothy Jo Ryan, Robert McKee, M. L. Baker, Pauline Oneal, Boyd Wood, Jimmie Lee Cole, Nelson Merritt, Joe Montgomery, Greer Cottingham, and Rosa Lee Grady.

Frances Fowler made a striking impression in the lower hall Thursday morning by prouting around in a navy blue dress, white shoes, and red anklets. I'm positive Fowler wasn't carrying her English grammar to absorb something, but the incidental book was the exact color of her socks, creating a nice effect.

Girls around here are finding out that the soft soap they are being fed is mostly lye.

In criticizing Edgar A. Guest's poem, "Golden Chance," the other day, Hollis Leathers broke loose with this expression, "It expresses the futility of our endeavor."

Home Ec Students Have Style Show

As a part of their work in home-making, each class in home economics must contribute one public affair each year; the second year girls presented a style show Thursday as their project. Some of the first year girls were used in the modelling of the dresses and in a skit. The program committee, consisting of Dorothy Powell, Sarah McGowen, and Virginia Cluck worked up the interesting program, which included a musical number by Mary Lois Hayter, a talk entitled, "Why Buy at Sales," by Jimmie Lee Cole, and a pantomime, "A Bachelor's Dilemma" presented by a group of girls.

The setting for the modelling of the dresses, which was a beautiful flower garden made up of tulips, bridal wreath, lilacs, and pot flowers, was contributed by Anna Moores Swift, Emma Lee Johnson, and Vivian Reavis. After the display of some of the dresses and renovated problems of the two classes, the sport dresses just finished by the second year girls were judged by Mrs. Eva Atteberry, Mrs. Ben Buck, and Mrs. Keith Steagall. Girls entering dresses in the contest were Virginia Cluck, Ila Deal, Leota Rampey, Dorothy Powell, Dorothy Phelps, Sarah McGowen, Georgia Lutz, Onnie Oakley, Vivian Taylor, Anna Moores Swift, Vivian Reavis, Curtis Thomas, Emma Lee Johnson, and Ruby Fronabarger.

A red linen trimmed with plaid sports material made by Dorothy Powell won first place; a blue linen stitched with white, set off with large white buttons, made by Dorothy Phelps took second place; and a red and white rough crepe tunic frock made by Emma Lee Johnson was the third winner. Ribbons awarded in this contest were furnished by the Educational Service of the McCall Fashion Company, which was also very generous in supplying the department with the needed fashion plates for their sewing projects.

A delicious salad course and fruit punch were prepared and served by Vivian Taylor, Dorothy Phelps, and Ruby Fronabarger.

Delta Psi Society Has Kangaroo Court

Members of the Alpha Delta Psi invited the faculty and public to attend a special program at their regular meeting last Monday evening. A large group arrived to find Mr. Jerome Kerby sitting austere before the audience in the capacity of judge. An unbiased jury of one teacher and five students were ready to deliberate on the testimony to be presented by Hams and Estlack, attorneys for the plaintiff, Melba Johnson, and Barrow and Nichols, counsels for the defense, Jack Hayes.

Before the trial in kangaroo court had progressed far, the judge had to delay the proceedings to calm some unruly persons in the audience. Several were fined ten cents or less for contempt of court and severely reprimanded.

A number of witnesses were called by both parties, and the most difficult witness proved to be Hams and Accord, who asked questions instead of answering the lawyers' queries. All the technicalities of a legal court trial were gone through, and after the case had been thoroughly examined and presented to the jury, the six jurors filed out for two minutes' deliberation. The foreman announced that Jack Hayes was acquitted from the charge of breach of promise to said Melba Johnson, and that much irrelevant material had been brought into the case, swaying the spectators, witnesses, jurors, and judge.

JUNIOR HIGH AND SOUTH WARD REPORT

Everybody in the South Ward is preparing for Easter and making rabbits, chickens, and so forth. The first grades are planning for an Easter egg hunt Friday afternoon. We all wish them good luck and may the Easter Bunny lay them heaps of eggs. The lower grades are to present the next P.-T. A. program. At present they are being coached by Miss Hogan. Miss Stevens' room has a very novel interpretation of a trip through Holland. It is a tissue paper replica of a winding blue river with Dutch girls and boys, ducks and trees. It is all free hand and quite interesting and remarkable. The third grades are studying

College Makes Plans For Annual Outing

The college student body convened for a brief business meeting Tuesday morning. About thirty-five persons were present to discuss the forthcoming College Day picnic. Wanda Mayfield, chairman of the foods committee, gave a report of the committee, and Homer Estlack spoke on tentative plans made by the transportation committee to get a truck.

Dean Drennan proposed a plan mentioned to him by the senior class leaders. The seniors want to call their annual holiday on May 3rd, too, and would like to have their picnic with the college students. The motto, "the more the merrier" was mentioned to Mr. Drennan, and the group voted to accompany the seniors if it is agreeable to both sides.

Pampa Team Debates With Clarendon Boys

Misses Goldie Blodgett and Betty Jo Townsend from Pampa, representatives of this district in debate, engaged in a practice debate Tuesday afternoon with Sam Barrow and Jimmy Bourland, Clarendon debaters who also represent this district. Both teams will compete in the bi-district meet this week-end at Canyon. Mr. Osborne, debate coach, and one of the boy debaters from Pampa were present for the debate.

Judges rendered the decision in favor of the negative side, which was taken by the boys. Judges were Messrs. James L. Standridge, Sam M. Braswell and Jerome Stocking.

ing Texas and its foods (and sandstorms). The fourth and fifth grades are having just the regular round. In the Junior High we are doing nothing special except that the eighth grade pupils have been having their pictures taken preparatory to graduation. The Junior High was favored by an excellent band concert Wednesday conducted by Mr. Eskridge.

Bonnie Hardin, Marjorie Harlan, and Wanda Mayfield spent the week-end with friends in Amarillo.

Judge W. T. Link Addresses Class

Judge W. T. Link, popular Clarendon attorney, visited school Tuesday morning for the purpose of speaking to the American Government class of the junior college. An enlightening comparison of state and federal courts in the United States was given, being a timely subject as these students are preparing for a course on the present legal programs of Texas government and have concluded a survey of higher courts. Mr. Link conducted a capital case from indictment and conviction to appeal and final sentence.

Mr. Burton is the instructor in this Government course and expressed appreciation to the speaker from the class for the interesting and valuable information.

Very Personal

The questionnaires which the Seniors were asked to fill out in order to find class statistics disclosed many unique and thrilling facts.

When a certain person remarked to Eloise about how Billy Weatherly had put her name down on the questionnaire for every thing that was nice, Eloise answered, "Huh, he must have thought I was mad at him."

Of all the dumb people, Jimmie Lee Cole who just loves to pass notes has had several of her notes lost while they were being passed. Just as a safety measure now, she adds the postscript, "If you don't get this, let me know, and I'll write you another one."

Anna Moores entertained a few of her friends at a bridge party Saturday night. The refreshments were lovely ice cream lilies and cake. Just try to imagine the guests' embarrassment when on departing they found that their cake had been stolen. After an exhaustive and hysterical search, the missing was located three or four blocks away where some kids had hid it. My, my.

Talk about eating in classes, Frances Sanford usually carries a pocket full of ginger snaps to class with her and divides with her friends. Edna Thomas eats cake during study halls. Avis Lee and Hulda Jo brought a cake over from the Home Ec. department and divided with Mr. Drennan and Miss Howren. Several students wondered if school would be dismissed next day because of their illness.

THE CAR that has WON AMERICA

The Ford V-8 for 1935 has been an outstanding success, not because of anything we have said about it but because of what owners have said. At Country Clubs... In Pullman Cars... In Airplanes... In Living Rooms... At filling stations and on the streets. And all these comments tend to fall under four heads: one, "The new V-8 rides like a dream"; two, "It's smartly designed"; three, "It costs less to run" and four, "It performs like 'nobody's business!'"

AUTHORIZER FORD DEALERS OF THE SOUTHWEST

● AT A FILLING STATION

"We don't see you so often, Mr. Bradley."

"Well—I don't have to come around for gas quite so often with this new Ford V-8. It's by all odds the most economical car I've ever driven—and that goes for oil consumption, too."

● 4,000 FT. OVER THE ALLEGHANIES

"Pretty smooth flying today."

"Yes, the folks back home wouldn't believe it if I told them this airplane ride was rough compared to a trip in our Ford V-8."

"You got one too!—Say! that 'Comfort Zone Ride' in this year's job has got to be tried to be appreciated, hasn't it?"

● AT A BRIDGE TABLE

"I didn't realize until I saw your Ford how really smart a car it is."

"Inside or out?"

"Both... And the roominess!... Why there's all that space for bags and still George said there was more room for his legs than in a limousine."

Mysterious Mike Moseys Around

We Willie seems to have gone the way of all flesh since he has succumbed to the bad case of hay fever that he got from a "Posey." It is rumored that a certain two guys had a whale of a time at Pampa this past weekend watching some volley ball games.

college.—The official Alpha Delta Psi picnic is said to be in the offing (whatever that is). Now that is quite an array of picnics for the last six weeks of school but the other classes and societies will probably contribute several more.—The hookey playing on April Fool netted many students trouble in large and ample quantities but from the impressions gathered there won't be any more hookey playing by a large group until next April Fool.—Ping Pong seems to be the favorite sport for the Societies this year. Perhaps it is so easy on the brain and so hard on the body that the tougher ones get a kick out of it.—Does anyone know who was killed in the College Murder the other day. Why? How many shots were fired? Who cares and etc.—When will the sandstorms end? When will the Sophs become Seniors? Why isn't it in season to fish? Why isn't it warm enough to go swimming? Why does Ye Editor have the spring fever so bad?

WASHINGTON SNAP-SHOTS

A picture of Washington today would defy any camera—or even words—to portray. Momentous legislation awaits in Congress, measures that are more important than those of 1933, for they are designed for permanency rather than temporary relief.

In the steadily expanding Government departments and bureaus—with their increased personnel and payrolls—things move at top speed reminiscent of war days. Although in the past ten years many large and beautiful government buildings have been erected, the Government bureaus have overflowed into all available office space in the city.

David Lawrence, eminent newspaper correspondent, describes the situation in this manner: "The real problem of the moment is for those persons who come to Washington to see their representatives in Congress on business. Many a company is faced with ruin by pending legislation. Many a company will have its operations materially curtailed or restrained if some of the bills go through. Should all the Administration measures be passed, for instance, there will be a revolutionary change in the management of businesses related to foods, drugs, cosmetics, agricultural products that are processed, public utilities, banks and trust companies, certain aspects of advertising, and manufacturing establishments that employ large numbers of employees, especially as labor relations may produce more strikes and more labor controversies."

Illustrative of these dangerous bills in the Social Security legislation which would embark America upon a huge program of welfare work. Discussing this problem the Washington Post points out that "if this initial effort to establish a system of Federal old age pensions and provide other forms of social relief were less ambitious and if an attempt had been made to keep costs within reasonable limits, the program would have a much better chance of succeeding. As it is, the heavy burdens which the Doughton bill proposes to place upon industry and upon the Federal government would doubtless increase the economic insecurity of the workers whom the bill is designed to safeguard against the major hazards and vicissitudes of life."

Latest reports from the Commerce Department showed better business conditions in February over the preceding month and February of last year, with employment, payrolls, farm income and distribution improved. Reports from the steel industry showed an aggregate loss of $24,500,000 in 1934. This made a total loss over the past four years of $255,000,000.

From the Southern viewpoint, one of the most devastating arguments against the Wagner Labor Disputes bill to give the government power over all local industrial disputes was advanced by a representative of the chemical industry with plants in the South. Under the Wagner bill elections would be held in every plant and a majority of the workers, even though it was a bare majority, would bargain for all. The minority would have virtually no rights. This would inject difficulties of race problems in the South, the chemical representative told the Senate committee. "For example," he said, "many of our Southern plants employ a large number of negro workers. In some cases such workers are in the majority. It is not difficult to foresee the possible consequences of any attempt to apply and enforce the majority rule provisions of any attempt to apply and enforce the majority rule provisions of the Wagner bill at plants where such conditions prevail."

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO ISSUE FUNDING BONDS

WHEREAS, heretofore, notice was given that on the 13th day of April, 1935, the Commissioners' Court of Donley County, Texas, would pass an order authorizing the issuance of Road and Bridge Funding Bonds of said county in the maximum amount of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars, for the purpose of funding and in lieu of a like amount of present existing indebtedness against the Road and Bridge Fund consisting of valid and legally issued time and script warrants against said Road and Bridge Fund, said time and script warrants having been issued for the purchase of right-of-way and other Road and Bridge purposes since May 21, 1931.

And WHEREAS the definite amount of said warrants to be funded has been established and the complete list of the same is on file in the County Clerk's office;

THEREFORE the Commissioners' Court of Donley County, Texas, hereby gives notice that the amount of said funding bonds so issued shall not exceed $39,921.87, instead of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars as heretofore specified; that said funding bonds shall bear a maximum interest rate of Five and One-Half (5 1-2) percent, and shall mature serially over a maximum period of not exceeding thirty (30) years; and that said Commissioners' Court of Donley County, Texas, will pass an order authorizing the issuance of said Road and Bridge Funding Bonds of said County on the 13th day of May, 1935; instead of the 13th day of April, 1935, as heretofore specified.

This notice is given as required by law. S. W. Lowe, County Judge, Donley County, Texas.

Canyon—From a garden 90 by 100 feet, Mrs. Gordon Cummins, farm food supply demonstrator for the West Side Home Demonstration Club in Randall county, produced more than enough vegetables and fruits to fill a food budget for her family of two in 1934, according to Miss Sadie Kate Bass, home demonstration agent. In a new concrete lined cellar costing $15 and containing 125 feet of shelves, a gas light and a water faucet, she has stored 886 containers valued at $184.65. In addition to 150 quarts of canned meats, she has 200 pounds of cured meats. The cost of the pantry included the money spent on the cellar, was $30.

A flock of 200 white leghorn hens has kept the credit of Mr. Boss Clark of the Raleigh community in Navarro county in A-1 condition all through these lean years according to his report to the county agricultural agent.

This poultry demonstrator grows all the feed for his flock and keeps up his foundation stock by hatching and raising baby chicks each year. Some months when egg prices are low it is nip and tuck with the red ink he says. But there are enough good months to show a profit for the whole year every time.

MOVE TO SPEED 30-HOUR BILL MEETS RESISTANCE

Washington, April 15, (IPS).—The Black 30-hour-week bill received hard blows from two directions as an effort was made to bring the bill up for action in the Senate. First, the Senate, by a 56 to 21 vote, supported the Roosevelt administration and laid the bill "on the shelf" until the fate on the National Industrial Recovery Act is determined. Second, the bill drew new fire from the farm press, with the Prairie Farmer, Chicago, leading the attack.

The 30-hour bill would limit earning capacity by not permitting more than 30 hours of work a week, and would increase living costs.

In expressing the growing opposition of farmers to the Black bill, the Prairie Farmer said: "The farmer cannot understand all this talk about a 30-hour week. He can understand why city workers should want to earn all the money they can, but he cannot understand how they can expect to get good wages without producing in proportion. He knows that if he were to try to operate his farm on a 30-hour week basis, food would have to bring prices that most city folks could not pay. He fears that similar short hours in the city will raise prices of manufactured goods to a level he cannot pay."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hermes-meyer are the proud parents of a baby girl born April 6th. Jo Ann was the name chosen for the infant.

Funds secured will be used to furnish fuel for tractors and feed for teams in terracing the wind swept area.

Applications must be made at the relief office and will be passed before a committee to be appointed in the near future by the county agent.

TEXAS HISTORY IN THE MAKING

No. 6—Old Mission San Jose de Aguayo

Mission San Jose de San Miguel Aguayo was founded in 1720 and is conceded by authorities to be the most pretentious and beautiful of all the old Spanish Missions in America. It was one of five charming missions erected along the banks of the San Antonio river from 1718 to 1791, and its ruins are still to be seen near San Antonio. It was named in honor of St. Joseph and the Spanish Governor, Aguayo. Its pre-eminence among the missions is due to the beauty of its decorations executed by the celebrated sculptor, Jaun Hucia. A window on its south side is preserved as one of the art treasures of the world. The sacristy of the old mission has been restored and this spot is again the home of the Order of Franciscans, who founded it more than two centuries ago. (Texas News Photos.)

Lieut. Dunkle was attending A. & M. He was slightly wounded September 14, 1918, in the St. Mihiel Sector, of the front lines.

The biggest celebration banquet ever held in the city of Clarendon is to be held next Monday evening in the new Ford building beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The Banquet-Jubilee is being held to celebrate the raising of the last dollar of indebtedness held against Clarendon College. It is also being held to commemorate the raising of Clarendon College to a Senior A Grade giving school. This meeting means that the citizens of the city have rallied to the standards as they have done in many cases before and have not failed in their latest and possibly greatest industry.

CHOIR PREPS ON ANNUAL CANTATA

HARD GRIND OF EXTRA REHEARSALS FACES CHOIR BEFORE EASTER SUNDAY.

The hard grind that always faces an organization in getting a finish on a heavy musical program is now being experienced by the Clarendon Methodist Choir as it goes into the last few days before Easter, when at the evening hour it will present its annual Easter Cantata. Two or three extra practices will be held this week, with special rehearsals for solo and duet numbers besides, in mastering Wildermere's "The Living Christ," the beautiful work selected for the 1935 portrayal in song of the resignation, suffering and triumph of Easter.

Soli will be sung by Mrs. Wilkerson, contralto; Miss Moores and Mrs. Kerbow, soprano; Mr. Cooper, Tenor; Mr. Hudson, baritone. Duets will be sung by Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Landreth, Miss Louise Smith and Dr. A. W. Hicks; and Mrs. Landreth will sing the obligato in the finale.

Miss Delphia Bones is the efficient organist who will play the brilliant accompaniment for the work, as well as a selected professional of high merit. Mr. Sam M. Braswell is the director.

As usual, preparations are being made for a very large attendance, as music lovers in Clarendon and over the country are early comers for good seats at this yearly presentation.

The pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth, will read the Easter scripture for the program.

Ed Dishman returned recently from Dallas where he attended the National Gimmers Convention.

RELIEF ADMINISTRATORS ORDERED TO REDUCE LOAD

Only five Texas counties could boast of a record of less than five percent of their residents on relief rolls as of March 1st, statistics compiled by the Texas Relief Commission reveal.

"These high case loads have got to come down at once," said Adam R. Johnson, State Relief Director, as preparations were being made to send out funds for April.

"Federal authorities have cut our applications drastically and this means we must reduce our case load or the individual budget of the clients. We want to issue adequate relief to those in dire need and administrators have been instructed to examine their relief rolls closely and close out all cases where the need for aid is not clearly established."

A further reduction in the number of cases is hoped for in May as the peak will be reached for seasonal farm employment.

COMMERCIAL FAILURES ON DECLINE DURING FEBRUARY

Austin, Texas.—The number and liabilities of Texas commercial failures declined sharply during February, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. There were only nineteen failures during the month, a decline of 21 percent from the previous month and 41 percent from February last year. Liabilities of the bankrupt firms totaled only $184,000, a drop of 52 percent from the month before and 61 percent from a year ago. Average liabilities per failure was $9,684, down 39 percent from the month previous and 34 percent from the corresponding month last year.

Is Your Car over 70 horsepower?

If it is, you must have motor oil of extra high film strength to get SAFE LUBRICATION

YOUR car today has twice the horsepower and speed of the car you drove ten years ago! The average of 22 leading cars in 1934 was 108 horsepower.

Bearing pressures and temperature have increased correspondingly—so greatly that motor parts are now made of new alloy metals of extra strength and durability to stand the load!

To protect such a motor you need an oil with enough extra oiliness and film strength to withstand the extreme pressures and temperature!

Yet motor oils generally have no more oiliness and film strength now than they had ten years ago. New refining methods have recently come into use to make oils free from carbon and sludge. But these refining processes have lowered instead of increased oiliness and film strength—the very qualities on which depends an oil's lubricating value!

There is one exception—Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. It, too, is free from carbon and sludge troubles. But, more important, the new Germ Process—adding concentrated oily essence to highly refined oil—puts into this oil 2 to 4 times the film strength of any straight mineral oil, as tests on Timken and other machines have proved! That extra film strength gives safe lubrication under the most extreme pressures!

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. Its penetrative film, the "Hidden Quart," stays up in your motor and cuts down starting wear.

Germ Processed Oil gives longer mileage with greater motor protection, as the Indianapolis Destruction Test proved.

Say "O. K.—Drain"—fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and drive with the assurance that your oil meets your motor's needs!

COWBOY BAND IN CONCERT WED

ABILENE BAND APPEARED UNDER AUSPICES OF LOCAL SCHOOL BAND.

The story of the rise to prominence of the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band which appeared in concert in Clarendon on Wednesday, April 17, 11 a. m., College Auditorium under the auspices of Clarendon High School Band is phenomenal and almost unbelievable. Its first concert effort a flop because only thirty-five people attended, five years later it was playing before crowded concert halls in Europe.

From an unknown college band to a world-famed attraction—from noisy ballyhoo to artistic ensemble—from obscurity to fame—all in the brief period of five years.

Organized in 1923 the band was invited to tour Texas that year, and it became famous almost overnight throughout the state. Chosen in quick succession as the official band of the Texas Cattlemen's Association, the Texas Inaugural parade, and the United Confederate Veterans, its name soon became known over the South.

Named as the official Texas band to the presidential inauguration in 1929, invited to play in New York City, its fame became nation-wide.

Four years ago the group toured Europe and established itself as the world's most famous university band.

According to Mrs. Frank Whitlock who recently received a letter from Mrs. M. C. Reid, who left Clarendon due to ill health and moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma, where she resides with her daughter, Mrs. Reid is improving rapidly.

Wichita Falls Oil Operator And Civic Leader Appointed Head of Highway Commission

Harry Hines, prominent civic leader and oil operator of Wichita Falls, was appointed chairman of the state highway commission by Gov. James V. Allred Friday.

The appointment came as a surprise as Mr. Hines has not been mentioned in the consideration of this appointment. It brings to a close a much discussed speculation by a happy solution that will doubtless gain the immediate approval of the entire state by reason of his capability and standing.

Mr. Hines is well known throughout Texas as an oil operator and drilling contractor and has been an active supporter of conservative oil legislation and proration enforcement, taking an active part in railroad commission public hearings. He is better known in those parts of the state less interested in oil by reason of his state and national leadership in church affairs.

The appointment filled the last important vacancy in the governor's official family. Mr. Hines succeeds Judge W. R. Ely of Abilene who has been a member of the commission for more than eight years. Mr. Hines will take office on confirmation of the appointment. Commissioners John Wood of Austin and D. K. Martin of San Antonio have scheduled a session for April 19 to open bids on highway work estimated to cost $1,680,000.

Mr. Hines was born in Rich Hill, Mo., Sept. 10, 1886. He resided for many years in Kansas City, Mo., before moving to Wichita Falls in 1922, when he formed the partnership of Knight & Hines, oil operators.

In discussing the appointment, Governor Allred stated that he has studied the matter for some time in an effort to obtain the services of a man possessing many needed qualifications and whose honor, integrity and known ability were unquestioned. Mr. Hines possesses unusual executive and administrative ability and has a thorough knowledge of construction work, field operations, the handling of employees and road building materials.

Mr. Hines' leadership in the oil industry is further reflected by the fact that he is a director of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, director of the North Texas Oil and Gas association and a member of the board of counsellors of the American Petroleum institute. He has had an active career civically over a period of years as general chairman of the community chest, general chairman of the citizens' committee that brought the Chicago Civic opera to Wichita Falls, is a former vice president of the chamber of commerce, a former vice president of the Rotary Club and is now a director of the North Texas Children's Aid society.

He is a director of the North Texas Civic Music association and an active member of the Christian Church and a member of the church board. Mr. Hines has the distinction of being named president of the Christian Church state convention and being re-elected to succeed himself, breaking a precedent of 41 years. He is a member of the national board of control, a director of Jarvis college and a member of the United States committee for the world convention to be held in England. He is a Mason, Shriner—a former officer of Maskat temple—and has an honorary membership in the Hella Shrine temple of Dallas.

Mr. Hines has been active for many years as a confidant and leader of young people, being on the executive board of the Boy Scouts, De Molays and Hi-Y. He is a leader of one of the largest Sunday School classes of young people in the state, which formerly was taught by Governor Allred.

Mr. Hines has been a highway enthusiast and interested in road building—for many years.

"I appreciate very much the confidence the governor has placed in me as expressed by this call," Mr. Hines said. "I realize it is a call to service. I realize the importance of the work that is to be done. Likewise I recognize therein an opportunity and I shall be glad in this manner to pay my debt of service to the state."

"Texas has a wonderful, in fact, a nationally noted road system with many miles of wonderful pavement and substantial bridges. It will be a pleasure to have a part in the closing of highway gaps one by one over the paved roads and to replace the worn-out pavement and otherwise create and maintain all of the better roads for our people to enjoy that is possible commensurate with the resources provided for that purpose, giving thoughtful consideration to the needs of the state as a whole."

The federal government plans to turn over nearly $500,000,000 to the several state highway departments and something like $30,000,000 will be allotted to Texas.

Mr. Hines will play an important part in disbursing the large sum in efforts to alleviate the suffering caused by unemployment by organizing great highway projects. Appreciation to the people of Texas for their cooperation in highway construction, and to the personnel of the state highway department, was voiced Friday by W. R. Ely of Abilene, retiring commissioner.

He said: "I understand Mr. Hines, the newly appointed commissioner, is a successful business man of Wichita Falls, a man of high character and proven ability. I congratulate him on his opportunity to be of substantial service to the state in this time of stress. As a member of the commission he will have the opportunity of participating in the expenditure of approximately 70 millions of dollars during the next year, and much can be accomplished toward completion of a connected system of highways and at the same time afford substantial relief to thousands of people needing employment."

BUILDING PROGRAM RENEWED IN CITY

HOME OWNERS REMODELING: BUILDING AND REPAIRS IN BUSINESS DISTRICT.

Lumbermen of this city stated this week that improvements and building within the city show a noticeable improvement during the past two months. Improvements and building estimated at $15,000 have been made or are now under way within the city limits.

The greater part of the repair and rebuilding work is being done in the residential section, while one new building is being constructed and two stores re-modeled within the business section.

The new Sinclair station being constructed by James and Chas. Trent the most outstanding addition being made to the business district. This modern two drive-way station is well under way and will be completed in the near future in its location on the West highway.

The Parker Variety store is having its interior remodeled and painted and will be completed some time this week, together with the O. K. Cafe which is being remodeled and painted with an addition of equipment.

The most noticeable improvements being made in the residential section are those being made by Lon Rundell and Durwood Skelton. Both parties have torn away the old buildings that occupied their lots and in their stead are building modern homes. The Lon Rundell home is near completion.

The home owned by Mrs. Walter Dyer on East First street is being remodeled, painted, and re-en in their present positions. For their unflinching devotion to me, they have my profound and grateful thanks.

"I am grateful also to the people of Texas for their cooperation and to thousands of friends who have been helpful in the common purpose of giving to the state a superior highway system." When Ely took office the state had 4,047 miles of hard surface pavement. During his administration completed construction reached 2,732 miles of grades and small bridges; 1,659 miles of gravel and caliche highways; and 12,825 miles of hard surface pavement. In his eight and one-fourth years on the commission he has had a hand in the spending of about 300 millions of dollars of state and federal funds.—Wichita Falls Daily Times.
