PAT CEARLEY NOW OPERATING BAKERY HERE

Pat Cearley, former Clarendon resident, has moved back to Clarendon and has leased the Home Bakery and will operate it under the new name of the Clarendon Bakery.

Mr. Cearley received his discharge from the service in October and has re-entered the business that he followed before entering the service and while in the service. He has ten years experience in the baking business and also has the odd experience of trying to keep one eye on his doughnut baking while keeping the other eye on the sneaking Japs in the South Pacific.

Mr. Cearley invites his friends and other residents of this section with a fine taste to try his baking and states that he will do his best to offer the best in bread and pastries.

Swedish Bride of J. F. Jones Arrives In Clarendon Last Saturday

Mrs. Svea W. Jones, wife of J. F. Jones and native of Sweden, arrived here Saturday to join her husband whom she married in Vasteras, Sweden May 26, 1945. Mrs. Jones sailed from Sweden Nov. 17 on the first passenger boat leaving that country since before the war started.

Mr. Jones was interned in Sweden May 8, 1944 after his plane was shot down. He returned to the states August 11 and received his discharge on the same day that his wife sailed from Sweden.

The couple met through a mutual friend who was a Swedish flyer. J. F. enjoyed liberty over there the same as in the states and his job, repairing and returning American planes to a central depot, afforded him the opportunity to travel by train or air over most of Sweden.

Upon arriving in the states, Mrs. Jones stated that she liked

AAA Elections Saturday, Dec. 8

Some changes have been made in the ACA election procedure in order to make it as convenient as possible for farmers to vote for their community committee members according to Mr. Simmons, Chairman Donley County Committee. Some of the important changes in the election procedure over previous elections are:

1. A nominating committee, who are not members or alternate members of the community committee, nominated two members of the association for each community office to be filled. Producers will select either of these members, or write in the name of some other member of the association. The person receiving the highest number of votes for each office will be declared elected.

2. The polls will open at 8 a. m. and will close at 5 p. m. A ballot form will be available which will permit producers to come any time during the day and vote in the same manner as in all other regular elections.

On Saturday, December 8th, community elections will be held in Donley County at the following places:

- Community "A" - AAA Office, Clarendon.
- Community "B" - Ashtola School House.
- Community "C" - AAA Office, Clarendon.
- Community "D" - Midway School House.
- Community "E" - Cook's Store, Lelia Lake.
- Community "F" - McKnight Gin.
- Community "G" - City Hall, Hedley.
- Community "H" - Skillet School House.

What's ahead in farming, now that the war's over? Well, it's pretty much up to us farmers, Simmons stated. We can cinch up our belts and crawl in a hole or -- we can spit on our hands and pitch in for good times. There may be a lot of adjustments to make. That's why it's so important that we have on our Triple-A committee the men farmers want. These fellows are going to have a lot of important things to do this year.

In 1946, these committees will decide which soil-building practices will earn conservation assistance. They will make important decisions on commodity loans, crop insurance, and other matters which affect production and prices on our farms.

If the men now serving on our community and county committees are the ones we want to keep, we should give them a vote of confidence. If we think some new blood would help, it's up to you and me to choose some new committeemen. The kind of committees we have is up to us. So let's get out and vote in our Committee elections. Whatdya say, neighbor?

H. M. (Flip) BREEDLOVE TO BE BACK SOON AS COUNTY AGENT

H. M. (Flip) Breedlove arrived back in Clarendon Tuesday morning for a short visit after receiving his discharge from the Army the past week. Flip has been in the Army for the past two years, and states that it is really great to be back and see his old friends again.

It is understood that Breedlove will take over his former position as county agent within the near future and that Chas. O. Reed, the present county agent, who has done a mighty fine job in that capacity, will go to Claude as the county agent for Armstrong county. It will be nice to have Flip back again and also to have Charles for a next door neighbor.

Flip is due to move his family up from Austin as soon as living quarters, etc. can be arranged. They have been making their home there since he has been in the service.

"E" Bond Quota Still In Red

The Series "E" Bond quota for Donley County is still in the red according to information revealed by J. R. Porter, bond chairman, this week.

At the present time, we have raised a little over 42 percent of our quota, he stated, and we are really going to have to do the buying this week end or fall for the first time to raise our E quota, he added.

The overall quota has been raised with over $300,000 to the county's credit, but the overall quota is not what counts. The Government is interested in the $80,000 E bond quota. This is the individuals part in the Victory Loan drive. They can be turned in for cash in case of necessity and bear the highest rate of interest. A fellow buying an E Bond now can't be hurt -- and he can be helping a lot toward bringing our men home from foreign soil and many other things that will make our peace more complete.

The last day of the drive is December 8, one day after the anniversary of Pearl Harbor. Don't let it slip up on you without that bond. Go down tomorrow and buy as much as you can.

NEW MULKEY THEATRE TO OPEN SOON AFTER FIRST OF YEAR

Lee Bell, manager of the Pastime & Mulkey Theatres, stated this week that he had received a definite promise (barring strikes) that he would receive the seats for the new theatre and that they would be installed around the first of the year thus allowing the opening of the new building soon thereafter as the seating problem is all that has been holding it up for some time.

Mr. Bell is happy to reveal this information as a large number of people have been wanting to learn when the new show would be ready for their enjoyment.

W. J. GREENE JR. RECEIVES DISCHARGE FROM ARMY

W. J. Greene Jr. is back home again after spending thirty-two months overseas in the European Theatre of War. He received his discharge November 23rd at Ft. Sam Houston and is now on terminal leave. He was with the 358 Engineers most of the four years that he was in the service. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greene of this city.

Clarendon Lions Club

By Edith McCrary

The members of the Clarendon Lions Club met in the First Christian Church, Dec. 4, 1945. Several songs, "The Eyes of Texas," "Don't You Hear Those Lions Roar," and "The Star-Spangled Banner," were sung at the beginning of the hour.

Attendance percent was shown to be seventy-five with forty-seven members answering roll call. Minutes of last week's meeting were read by the club secretary and approved by the members. H. M. Breedlove was present as a guest.

The Board of Directors meeting was designated as being held Thursday evening, 6:30 at Lee's Cafe. Concerning the bond drive, Lion J. R. Porter remarked that although Donley County had reached forty-two and two-tenths percent of its quota, and the state percentage rating has reached forty-two percent, this county is still lagging behind in purchasing "E" bonds. He emphasized the benefits of this type bond and urged purchase of them.

For the next meeting of the Lions, Grady Wilson of Amarillo will speak with reference to community center projects. Lion Stanley stated that this speaker might show some ways by which work on our local project could be started now. A week from next Tuesday, Dec. 18, the band will present a program for the Lions.

After a discussion of whether or not to have two nights for the Carnival, it was decided that one opening, on Saturday, would suffice. The carnival will begin at five o'clock Saturday afternoon; volunteer workers were secured.

Mary Nell Hanks presented two numbers by Debussy "Clair de Lune" and "Little Shepherd." These piano numbers were followed by a clarinet solo, "Meditation," played by Jimmy Dean Howze, accompanied by Edith McCrary.

After conclusion of the program the members sang one verse of "America" as they faced the flag, and the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Lewis, who have resided at Lelia Lake for some 30 years, after selling their interests there, are now living in Clarendon, having purchased the Stallings home near the College.

LIONS CLUB CARNIVAL TO BE IN HIGH GEAR HERE SATURDAY

MRS. NETTIE ABRAMS BURIED TUESDAY AT WICHITA FALLS

Funeral services were held at Wichita Falls Tuesday for Mrs. Nettie Abrams who passed away here Dec. 2nd at the home of her niece, Mrs. A. L. Thornberry.

Mrs. Abrams was born at Burtonsville, N. Y., Nov. 18, 1863, and during her life time lived in New York, Connecticut, California and moved to Wichita Falls in the early thirties. Her husband preceded her in death in 1935. For the past few years she has been making her home here with her niece, Mrs. A. L. Thornberry.

Her body was taken overland by Blackburn-Shaw-Buntin Funeral Home to Wichita Falls for the services and for burial by the side of her husband.

OSCAR C. WATSON JR. RECEIVES DISCHARGE

Oscar C. Watson Jr., C.S.F. son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Watson of Clarendon, has received his honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy at the Navy Separation Center at Norman, Okla.

Seaman Watson served 12 months overseas in the Pacific theater of war.

NOTICE: Don't forget to pay your 1946 dues!

The American Legion, Post No. 126, met in its regular session Tuesday night with Vice-Commander Clifford Davis presiding in the absence of Commander Andrew Jay. No important business matters were discussed.

The important meeting will be the next one, that of December 18. Every Legionnaire is urged to attend and bring in a bunch of their inactive comrades. Veterans are cordially invited to come or to see Adj. Glenn Allen for membership and attend as members. Remember, dues are still only $3.50 a year.

Several important matters concerning community projects will be discussed at that meeting, and it promises to be an interesting one.

In reference to the district meeting at Pampa last weekend, twenty-two of the thirty-one posts in this 18th district were represented. Lewis P. Fields of Amarillo was elected District Commander; Jimmy Moore was elected Vice-Commander; and Roy Beard was reelected adjutant and service officer. The district meeting in the spring will be held at Childress. The date will be announced later.

M/SGT. EUGENE PUTMAN BACK IN STATES

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Putman received a wire Tuesday from their son, M/Sgt. Eugene Putman stating that he had landed at Camp Patrick Henry, Virginia, and would be home soon. He will be sent to San Antonio for his discharge from the service. Sgt. Putman served in the European Theatre of operation twenty-two months with the Air Corps.

Mrs. Willard Hudson and son Buddie from San Diego, Calif. are at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dusty Taylor. Mr. Hudson has recently left for Pearl Harbor.

The Lions Community center Carnival is scheduled to start off in high gear here Saturday afternoon at 5 p. m. It was first planned to hold the carnival on both Friday and Saturday, but due to the lack of help, the committee decided to hold it just the one day.

The Carnival last weekend did very well but a much larger crowd is expected this week. There are all kinds of games to play and plenty of chances to win some very lovely gifts, and not least to mention, the prizes, etc., are of a larger variety this time and much better in quality.

Make your plans to take in the Carnival Saturday afternoon and night and support your community center as well as having a bunch of fun.

The community center fund is growing steadily and the plans at the present time call for some part of the construction to start within the near future.

McCrary Sells Grocery Store

Forrest McCrary, owner of the McCrary Grocery, stated this week that he had sold his grocery interests to Mr. M. F. Stone and Mrs. E. W. Outlaw, both of White Deer, Texas.

Mr. Stone and Mrs. Outlaw took over the management of the store the first of December. Mr. Stone is well acquainted with the business, having had experience along this line for many years. He was in charge of the meat market in a store at White Deer before coming to Clarendon.

Earl Givens, also from White Deer and formerly of Clarendon, will be in charge of the meat market.

Under the new management, the store will operate under the new name of O & S Grocery and will remain in the same location. Mr. McCrary will remain with the store until the first of the year, after which time he states his vocation is uncertain at this time.

The new management invites everyone to come by and get acquainted and state that they are sure they will like Clarendon just fine.

Bill Taylor has been discharged and he and Mrs. Taylor have left for Mississippi where he will get his old job back with a field division crew of an oil company.

LIBRARY NOTES

By Mrs. C. A. Burton
"Book love, my friends, is your pass to the greatest, the purest, and the most perfect pleasure that God has prepared for his creatures. It lasts when all other pleasures fade. It will support you when all other recreations are gone. It will last you until your death. It will make your hours pleasant to you as long as you live"—Anthony Trollope.

This writer of the long ago was correct, but one of ten realizes this could not be said of all books. Many factors enter into making a book a best seller—but when a book has sold 765,000 copies there must be something to it. That is the present record of "A Lion Is In The Streets" by Adria Locke Langley. Therefore we felt we must put it on our shelves. Mrs.

Langley was presented oftener at the Book Fair than any other one person, I believe.
Her story is of the Magnolia State, but she has known intimately a great many parts of the U. S.—born in Nebraska, but often visiting in the South with her southern-born grandfather. She is described as having "a passion for America," and her story is said to incorporate her great faith in America—to be a book of warning to America, but also a book of faith in America.

Another author who was much in evidence was James Street, author of "The Gauntlet"—which is a story of a young Baptist minister. You will remember that "One Foot In Heaven" is a story of a Methodist parsonage home. Mr. Street transfers us to a Baptist parsonage. It seems that in each case the author had had personal experiences. The author of "One Foot In Heaven" is the son of a Methodist preacher, and Mr. Street has at one time been a Baptist preacher—then turned author. He has several other books to his credit.

Susan Glaspell has a new book—the first in a long time—"Judd Rark'n's Daughter"—said to be very good.

Kerk Rogers, author of "Beach Patrol," is strictly a New Englander. His stories have always been sea stories—stories not of big ships but of boats—like the boats at Dunkirk. He is a Harvard man where he had the satisfying experience of studying literature under two great teachers, Bliss Perry and Robert Hillyer. Then he moved to a small seaport town—and from that time all his interest has been in boats. In private life he is Edward R. Knowlton, and his home is in Rockport, Mass. This is one of our splendid books for boys.

Early Incidents In Texas History

By Mrs. Marcelle Hamer
(Texas University Librarian)

Pioneers of Texas did their own fighting, their own legislating, and they had a strength and honesty of purpose necessary to build a commonwealth.

As to their ability to do their own fighting, Captain George Erath, one of San Jacinto's heroes, condensed the Texans' whole code of military tactics into one word when, asked what military training he had, he replied, "None." He said he knew but one word of command, and that was "Charge, boys, charge!"

One of the salty characters, Henry Smith, Provisional Governor of Texas 1835, flatly refused to surrender his chair when the Executive Council tried to depose him. The political opposition described him as being too illiterate, poorly informed, and not of big enough calibre for the office. But stay he did.

Illustrative of the character of men and events in Texas at that time is the story about Thomas Jefferson Rusk, Secretary of War, who was energetic in thought and action for Texas during the dark days of the Revolution. On the night of the organization of the Government ad interim, President Burnet had called a council, asking each member in turn for an opinion. As is usual in Texas politics no two opinions concurred. Secretary Rusk, wearily from working night and day with no rest for three days while helping to frame the Constitution of the new Republic, had dropped his head in his hands and, leaning his elbows on his knees as if meditating, was actually sound asleep. When his name was called and no answer, he was punched in the ribs by the man who sat next to him. Rusk sat upright out of a fog sleep and said, "Gentlemen, my opinion is that we are in a hell of a fix. We're all worked down. Let's go to the saloon; get drunk; then get on our horses and go fight like the devil to get out of this mess." Needless to say, they went.

Sam Houston's name and Texas history are inseparable. No story of Texas politics is complete without him. As a public figure he appealed to the popular imagination. Representative of erring humanity every facet of his nature had the spark that makes the whole world kin. His sympathy for men gave him power over them. His friends were loyal; his enemies were bitter; but, nobody neglected to talk about him.

The disorganization and discontent of the Texan army is a well established fact in Texas history. A man with less sympathy than Houston might have failed in command of such an army. But when that army was retreating in haste before Santa Anna's rapid advance toward what was to be the battle ground of San Jacinto and the artillery and baggage wagons mired down continually, no man was more willing to put his shoulder to the wheel than Sam Houston himself. And his "Come on, boys, let's help the poor critters," became a byword among the men.

Once when the soldiers over whom his authority was not disputed objected because they had not received a cent of pay for months, had no shoes, and no soap to wash their clothes, Sam Houston gave them each $5.00 of his own money and refused to take a voucher for the amount.

No man ever loved the American Union more than Sam Houston. In the Civil War era, when feeling and vituperation were most intense against him for his opposition to the secession of Texas, he was invited to assist in the military review of a regiment of over one thousand young Texans being drilled at Galveston for service in the Confederate army. The regiment was drawn up for dress parade. Thousands of citizens were assembled. Sam Houston's own son was in the regiment. In the minds of a majority of the Texans present, whether of the military or civil population, were memories of the bitter political fight General Houston had just gone through. Two of his distinguished opponents, Judge Campbell and W. S. Oldham, had been following him up and down and across the state tongue-lashing him on every occasion during the canvass on secession. Now, the old "hero of San Jacinto," dressed in his uniform of 1836, at his side a sword, and on his head a weather-beaten, light-colored, broad-brimmed planter's hat with the left side buttoned up the crown, stood out in front of the regiment, supported by the Colonel in full view of the great gathering of people. All eyes were upon him—some eyes dim with tears of memory; more eyes dark with the premonition of the war to come. Then came his order: "Shoulder arms. Right about face."

The regiment, now facing the rear, General Houston cried out in stentorian tones of sarcasm, "Do you see anything of Judge Campbell or W. S. Oldham there?"

"No!" roared the troops in reply.

"Well," said the General, "they can not be found at the front, or even at the rear."

"Right about, front face. Eyes right. Do you see anything of Judge Campbell's son here?"

"No; he has gone to Paris to school," responded the regiment.

"Eyes left. Do you see anything of young Sam Houston here?"

"Yes!" roared the regiment in response.

"Eyes front. Do you see anything of old Sam Houston here?"

"That was the climax of excitement. Regiment and citizens together cried a thunderous "Yes!" with united cheers for their old hero. Houston then turned to the Colonel, and while handing him his sword, said, "There Colonel, that is all; I leave you to manage the rest," and with applause ringing in his ears he retired from dress parade.

Rev. and Mrs. John Ellis and son Bill have moved to Dallas where he will be pastor of the Trinity Height Presbyterian Church.

NFLA Loans Show Increase In Texas

Mr. Rayburn L. Smith, Secretary-Treasurer of the Donley County National Farm Loan Association said, upon his return from a meeting of association representatives held in this area at Amarillo, that Land Bank loans made in Texas this fiscal year are 56.8 percent greater in volume than for the same period last year. Mr. Smith said that Mr. Sterling C. Evans, President of The Federal Land Bank of Houston, discussed with the group the progress that had been made by the bank and associations during the past several years. He called attention to the fact that the interest rate on all Land Bank loans has been reduced to 4 percent for the life of the loan. He also stated that since organization, 28 years ago, the bank had paid the national farm loan associations cash dividends totalling 150 percent. Forty percent of this amount has been paid in the last 2 years.

Mr. Evans pointed out that the national farm loan associations in Texas are all solvent and have strong reserve accounts. The statewide average is about 60 percent of their capital.

HANG ON!

So, plan your savings now—buy Victory Bonds, add to your bank account regularly—for that big purchase you will want to make in the future, a home of your own, perhaps. Later, in a more abundant time, this institution can supply you with the credit needed to buy what you most want—if you save the down-payment now.

Don't let go now—when the battle against rising prices is almost won. Now is the time to hang on to your War Bonds, to keep buying new Bonds, to plan your spending and plan your saving.

Here is why. Prices are high today. Goods are scarce. Competitive buying of scarce commodities bids prices up, makes our dollars buy less.

"Me... I'm staying in the Army!"

THERE ARE PLENTY OF REASONS... AND HERE THEY ARE!"

- 1 "First, I keep my present grade. That means a lot.
- 2 "By reenlisting for 3 years I can pick my own branch of service in the Air, Ground or Service Forces, and can go to any overseas theater I wish.
- 3 "I get my mustering-out pay, even though I'm reenlisting. Also, I get $50 a year reenlistment bonus for each year I've been in the Army. My dependents receive family allowances for the full term of my enlistment. And I'll be eligible for GI Bill of Rights benefits when I get out of the Army.
- 4 "My food, clothes, quarters, medical and dental care are all supplied to me. And I can learn any of 200 skills or trades in the Army schools.
- 5 "All of us who are reenlisting are going to have from 30 to 90 days' furlough at home with full pay and our travel paid both ways. And we'll have 30 days' furlough every year with pay.

- 6 "Any time after 20 years I can retire at half pay increasing year by year to three-quarters retirement pay after 30 years of service. And the time I've already served in active military or naval service counts toward my retirement time. Added up—reenlistment seems pretty sound to me!"
